Chapter 251 – This Daddy Has Returned

Luo Kun had died.

Du Yuansong was pissed because he was one of the most competent helpers he had.

It was Luo Kun that controlled all the chess pieces in the northern city.

This past half a month, Du Yuansong wanted to eradicate all the trashes from the Flame Dragon Gang but An Chunchun's appearance made him focus all his efforts on her.

Looking through all the records of the continent's myriad races, his attention was finally caught on the words "Demon Fox Clan."

Du Yuansong smiled.

His smile was rather ugly looking. The wrinkles on his face all folded like a hundred year old man, capable of making any little kid cry right away.

An Chunchun's big eyes trembled a bit and the doll in her hands was clenched a bit tighter. Her body faintly retreated a step while moisture gathered in her eyes. She then mumbled: "Big brother Luo Tian, where are you? Chunchun is really scared."

Her little mouth formed a slight pout.

He face was slightly pale. Especially noticeable were her large eyes sparkling with tears that would make any beholder experience heartache.

Du Yuansong lowered his body with a ferocious smile before saying: "Little girl, your big brother Luo Tian will not come back. Even if he does come, I'm going to kill him so you need to understand no one in the northern city can help you."

“From today onwards, I am your master. You must do whatever I tell you to do, but if you dare not listen... heh heh...”

When he said that...

Du Yuansong's eyes turned grim and his voice become much lower.

Demon fox clan!

And it was a little demon fox that was not even 10 years old yet!

Her price would most likely be...

Du Yuansong only imagined the low end and he felt his blood starting to boil. It would be an amount that he would never be able to gain his entire life. The Dao Shang Alliance will auction off a mature demon fox and her low estimates would be 50 million.

All those noble aristocrats and rich people would definitely increase the price like crazy.

It might even exceed 100 million before the transaction ends!

But...

A mature demon fox could not be compared to a little demon fox because they were on completely different levels.

It was very difficult to control a mature demon fox woman because they could commit suicide if they weren't watched carefully. It was simply too hard to tame them. But a little demon fox was different... as long as one spent some time to make them docile, then...”

Du Yuansong smiled excitedly once again.

“Train her?”

“Or should I just directly sell her?”

Du Yuansong was hesitating before he shouted: “Someone come!”

“Here!”

Someone ran in from outside and waited silently for his orders.

Du Yuansong then said: “Head over to the Dao Shang Alliance and meet with a manager level staff. Ask them what price a 7 year old demon fox girl can sell for. If they offer less than 200 million, don’t negotiate with them and just leave.”

The lowest reserve price was 200 million!

“Understood!”

That person then withdrew from the area.

“200 million!”

“As long as I have 200 million, I can leave this disgusting northern city.” Du Yuansong had a smile as he imagined his new future. His wonderful future was all placed on the little girl before his eyes.

Suddenly...

An Chunchun’s expression suddenly changed as a smile broke out on her face. “Big brother Luo Tian has come!”

At this moment...

“Bang~!”

The Du Manor’s main entrance was kicked open!

“Du Yuansong! You old bastard better scam out here for me!”

He had a vicious looking expression on his face.

The aura on his body was like a living flame as his Profound King realm energy exploded forth. His expression was viciously gloomy as he shouted into the air again: “Du Yuansong! You old bastard better scam out here for me!”

His voice shook the sky!

The entire north district shook because of it!

Liu Tingyu was woken up by this. He kicked the woman out of his bed before quickly putting on some clothes. He was about to exit his bedroom before he suddenly remembered that jade plate. His expression turned cold before mumbling: “Du Yuansong, take good care of yourself.”

Immediately after...

He smiled perversely and helped the woman up before bringing her back to the bed.

The woman mounted below him then started moaning louder and louder...

“The boss’s voice!”

“Hahaha... the dragon head is finally back.”

“Let’s go!”

“To the Du Manor!”

In another area.

Wang Jinke’s face sank as he muttered: “That kid, that kid... how did that kid come back alive? He must’ve not entered the Spectral Forbidden Grounds. That’s definitely it! A Profound Spirit 9th ranker going there is basically courting his own death, so it’s impossible for him to come back alive.”

He refused to believe it.

But Tang Jiu next to him smiled faintly and said: “Uncle Wang, I bet he has already broken through to the Profound King realm.”

“Impossible!”

Wang Jinke immediately refuted and said: “Breaking through to the Profound King realm in half a month? You think he’s the Shattered Sky City’s Murong Wanjian? He doesn’t have a true dragon’s bloodline; I can tell he just has a common body and doesn’t have any special bloodlines. No matter how great a talent he possesses, it’s impossible for him to break into the Profound King realm in such a short time. You’re portraying the Profound King realm as cabbage being sold on the streets – anyone can break through whenever they want huh?”

Tang Jiu started chuckling before saying: "Uncle Wang, he really isn't ordinary."

"No matter how extraordinary he is, he's still a human and not a God!" Wang Jinke then said with disdain: "Chen Dong and I are considered not bad talents on the martial path yet we still used 10 years of time to breakthrough from the Profound Spirit 9th rank to the Profound King realm. Now that we are 500 something years old, our cultivation has already reached the Profound Ancestor early stages and wanting to increase to the next level is extremely difficult. A greenhorn like him at a dozen plus years wants to break into the Profound King realm?"

"The Profound King realm is the true watershed for those on the martial path. Just this level has stopped tens of millions of cultivators in their tracks. Even if their talent is really good, it's possible that they would never be able to break through their entire lives."

Wang Jinke refused to believe this!

He refused to believe that Luo Tian could break through into the Profound King realm in just half a month.

Immediately after...

Wang Jinke started chuckling and said: "Your royal highness, the wager we previously had about him coming back alive from the Spectral Forbidden Grounds seems to be won by you. But if he didn't even enter the Spectral Forbidden Grounds, then..."

Tang Jiu faintly said: "If he has broken through to the Profound King realm, then that means he has entered the Spectral Forbidden Grounds. If he hasn't broken through, then that will equate to me losing. Uncle Wang, what do you think about this?"

"Good!"

"We will consider it that way then!"

Wang Jinke started swallowing his saliva as if the ten jugs of Dragon Jade Wine was before him.

Northern city, the most luxurious private room in a restaurant.

A handsome person in all white with a gentleman's flair heard the angry shout at the Du Manor. His lips turned to a cold sneer as he said: "Damn dog thing, you've finally returned!"

"Snatching a woman from me? Even if the heavenly Gods come today, they still won't be able to save you!"

In an instant...

A white blur flashed off and the man inside the private room disappeared from the spot. There were several flashes of a white blurs in the sky, similar to a crane disappearing from one's field of vision.

"Bastard!"

"You've finally decided to come back."

"This sister almost couldn't handle the suffering from missing you so much." Qin Yue'er put on some thinly transparent clothing. She then used a cloth to bind her chest which somehow still looked like her mounds were going to break out anytime soon. She then said with a sultry smile: "Let's see where you can escape to this time, heehee..."

Chapter 252 – Killing People Like Cutting Vegetables

Entrance to the Du Manor.

Luo Tian's right foot was stepping on the door he kicked down while his left foot was standing on a plaque that said Du Manor on it. He then shouted in anger: "Du Yuansong! You better scram out here for this daddy!"

His voice was fierce to the extreme.

Echoes of his voice was heard above the Du Manor.

The entire northern city was shaking because of it!

"Who is so bold to dare be this arrogant in the Du Manor?"

"That person is definitely a lunatic, and will be beaten into a meat paste in less than half a minute."

"Damn, I've been in the northern city for many years and never seen anyone dare to act unbridled and arrogant in the Du Manor. Forefather Du will definitely rip that person into a thousand pieces! There's going to be a good show soon so we can't miss out!"

For a short while...

Large streets and small alleyways; tea houses and restaurants; all had crowds after crowds of people rushing out and heading towards the direction of the Du Manor.

They all wanted to know who was so arrogant and gutsy to do this.

The most important thing...

They all wanted to see how this person was going to die.

When they finally reached the main entrance of the Du Manor, their faces showed signs of shock.

“Isn’t that the bumpkin that killed Tiger Wu back then?”

“This kid still hasn’t died yet?”

“I heard that Lei Jiu and Qian Hong were both killed by him.”

“That’s like no big deal; I heard Forefather Du’s top subordinate Luo Kun at the Profound King realm was chopped in half by this kid.”

“Is this kid really unafraid of death? He’s not even running away after killing Luo Kun yet comes charging over to the Du Manor filled with killing intent. Isn’t this basically courting his own death?”

These people were discussing with each other in whispers outside the main entrance.

Also at this time...

“Where did this rabid dog come from? Daring to act unbridled in front of the Du Manor? Today, this daddy will show you the powers of our Du Manor!”

A vigorous voice was heard.

A figure almost reaching 3 meters in height with a muscular body rushed out with a powerful aura. His was holding a pair of steel hammers and one could only see a blur of phantom images trailing behind him. Explosive sounds was heard around him as his body disturbed the natural flow of air.

“Here he comes!”

“Dual Hammer Wang Zhong!”

“One of Du Manor’s ace warriors!”

“At the Profound King realm, his strength is even a bit stronger than Luo Kun’s. His storm hammers can give off lightning effects and each move of his is extremely vicious. This kid will definitely be smashed to meat paste by his hammer.”

“Sigh...”

Wang Zhong, northern city’s ace fighter.

He became famous from underground fights and was eventually recruited to the Du Manor by Du Yuansong.

His pair of storm hammers was beyond vicious and many people have perished before them.

Luo Tian’s eyes changed as he coldly harrumphed. “A piece of trash like you dares to come out to disgrace himself?”

“Go die for me!”

Luo Tian’s right hand started forming a fist in the air before smashing outwards.

His body didn’t move while only his right fist struck outwards, directly smashing towards the arriving Wang Zhong!

“Boom~!”

“Bang~!”

After a loud sound, the two copper hammers were seen flying through the air before another loud sound caused a cloud of dust to cover the surrounding.

The dust had blocked the sight of the crowd so no one could see what had happened.

“Hong~ dong~!”

The two copper hammers finally landed and created a deep pit in the ground. This was also when the dust settled and people could see clearly again. They only saw Wang Zhong’s body buried in the ground while his legs were still twitching in the air.

A few seconds later, there was no longer any movement from him!

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Wang Zhong. You have gained 2000 experience points, 1000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player...”

The system gave off several alerts but Luo Tian didn’t bother paying attention to them. He once again shouted: “Du Yuansong, scam out here!”

The spectators outside had pale expressions on their faces.

The long street was crowded with over a thousand people with distorted expressions on their faces. They were pale and their eyes filled with fear as they were all shocked by Luo Tian.

For a moment...

A pin drop could be heard on the street and some even forgot to breathe.

“Impossible!”

“This is impossible!”

“A Profound King like Wang Zhong was instantly killed? Is this kid even human? Illusion... this is absolutely an illusion since it’s impossible for it to happen. Instantly killing a Profound King expert? This... how could this be possible?”

“Oh heavens...”

“What’s going on? What the hell is going on? What did I just see? Wang Zhong... Wang Zhong... northern city’s underground ace fighter was instakilled just like that. This...”

They had scrunched up expressions on the faces as they couldn’t accept this. Everyone looked like they had just swallowed over a hundred flies and seemed like they were in pain.

A Profound King realm expert was instantly killed just like that.

This was something the crowd couldn’t accept since it was an impossible outcome.

These people didn’t know but the bosses of the gangs were very clear – Luo Tian was only at the Profound Spirit 9th rank half a month ago. But now he was capable of instantly killing a Profound King expert and they couldn’t see through what cultivation level Luo Tian was at anymore. This could only mean that they were no longer at the same level.

Fear!

Incomparable fear.

Wang Dachiu's heart was faintly trembling while his legs were shaking. In his heart, he was praying for Forefather Du to quickly come out to crush Luo Tian. Otherwise, his Steel Hammer Gang will be just like the Fierce Tiger Gang, forever to disappear from the northern city.

“Wang Zhong...!”

“Such audacity!”

“Killing someone in our Du Manor? It looks like you're tired of living!”

Suddenly...

Two people bringing over a dozen servants with them started rushing out. They all had vicious expressions as they glared at Luo Tian.

The two in lead were the direct subordinates of Du Yuansong.

They were both experts at the Profound King realm.

Luo Tian sneered before coldly shouting: “This daddy's mood isn't bad today. Tell that old eunuch Du Yuansong to roll out here, and then you guys scam out of the Du Manor. Maybe then this daddy will spare your lives, otherwise...”

“Everyone can go die for me!”

His voice contained a thick amount of hostility.

This was hostility that had been suppressed for half a month.

Ghost Dragon's death; An Chunchun being kidnapped; Xuan Yuanyi being injured; all of this had been accumulating inside Luo Tian's heart for half a month. Within this half a month, Luo Tian was constantly thinking of killing Du Yuansong but he didn't have the strength back then.

Now...

He had returned, so it was time for Du Yuansong to die!

"The one dying is you."

"You dare to storm the Du Manor? You're basically begging for death!"

"Attack for me!"

While saying that...

The dozen plus Du Manor servants rushed forward and surrounded Luo Tian. At the same time, they began their attacks!

They were all martial cultivators at the Profound Spirit realm!

Luo Tian completely ignored them and stood there motionless while those people all stabbed out with their swords. When it landed on his body, it was like they all stabbed a block of steel and couldn't penetrate through. They could only glance at each other afterwards.

Also at this time...

Luo Tian smiled ferociously and lowered his fists. A Profound King realm force exploded out from him, turning into an energy ripple that was visible to the naked eye. This force directly shattered the swords of those servants into powder!

Immediately after...

Luo Tian was neither slow nor in a hurry as he pulled his sleeves up. He then glanced at them at the corner of his eyes before muttering: "There are 23 of you here huh? Then I'll just do a 23 hit combo!"

His left and right fist started moving...

And his fists turned into a torrential storm sweeping through them all!

"Bang~, bang~, bang~, bang~..."

Each punch would result in a person flying into the air before smashing onto the ground.

For the time being...

The roof of the Du Manor, their rock garden, and their trees were filled with corpses.

After 23 punches smashed out, Luo Tian had an intoxicated look on his face like he was in ecstasy. It was similar to a person becoming silent while waiting to relish themselves in a special song. He was waiting for the alert tones of the system!

Chapter 253 – Two Girls Fighting Over A Man

There were 23 punches and each were instakills!

He showed no mercy at all.

He already gave them a chance but they blew it, so there was no longer any need to show mercy.

Luo Tian had always been like this.

I've given you face but you didn't want it, then don't blame this daddy for slapping your face to the ground. Then, I'll step on your face until you have no face left!

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

A series of system alerts sounded off.

Luo Tian grinned and patted the dust from his hands. He then said: "I easily received 23 undefeated points."

His expression was very cocky.

Cocky to a complete mess.

If killing Wang Zhong previously was an illusion for the crowd, then this time was definitely not an illusion. There were 23 punches in a single second, and 23 Du Manor servants were smashed flying. None of them survived! What kind of power was this?!

This was the Du Manor!

He was cocky to such a level at the Du Manor?

The crowd of spectators was once again shocked by Luo Tian.

But...

They were only shocked momentarily. In their hearts, they knew this place was the Du Manor and no matter how strong Luo Tian was, he will still end up a lifeless corpse. The reason was that Forefather Du was the King of northern city; he was the absolute overlord of this place.

“After killing so many people of the Du Manor, it still wouldn’t be enough if the kid had an extra a hundred lives to spare.”

“He was able to instantly kill a Profound King expert at such a young age. If he was allowed to live a few more years, most likely he will also become a youth whose name can shake the world. Unfortunately... unfortunately he will have to die here.”

“Forefather Du has been in the northern city for over a decade, and his position is something no one can shake.”

“You guys are spouting farts!”

“My boss will beat the shit out of that old eunuch Du Yuansong!”

“That’s right! That smelly scoundrel will definitely kill Du Yuansong! The time for our Flame Dragon Gang to dominate northern city has arrived! Heeheehee...”

“Let me make a divination for the dragon head...”

“Blindman Liu, shut your damn trap! If you dare to calculate anymore stupid divinations, we’re not going to spare you anymore!” The group shouted in unison.

Feng Lei, Xuan Yuanyi, Blindman Liu, and Tang Tang had all arrived. They were standing near the Du Manor’s main entrance and staring at Luo Tian’s back.

Feng Lei smiled foolishly before saying: "Boss is so mighty."

"Boss is so mighty!"

"Smelly scoundrel is mighty! And, and, and I've missed you."

Tang Tang had reverted back to her girl's appearance and was wearing a light blue dress. She had a pair of large intelligent eyes and had faint blush on her cheeks. She was looking very pretty right now.

At the end of the street, a fiery hot fairy was rushing over but had now turned into a charming lady with a beautiful smile.

Upon arriving at the Du Manor's main entrance, she said in coquettish voice: "Bastard, I've finally found you. This big sister has almost gone crazy from missing you so much."

"Woa..."

"This woman's looks are too deadly."

"Look at her figure, her chest, her butt, and that voice that can steal one's life away. She's practically hot to a complete mess! If this woman was given to me, I, I, I'm willing to lose 10 years of longevity just to have a night with her!"

"That woman is indeed hot, but that pure looking girl makes one continue to swallow down their saliva. This type of girl is the true high grade one."

"What's the background of this kid? He makes an appearance and suddenly two peerless beauties follow as well, and it looks like they are quite affectionate towards him."

Qin Yue'er was the first to turn her head, and her glare was completely filled with endless cold killing intent.

The fiery hot fairy instantly turned to an iceberg.

Those people that made the comments felt their minds become uncomfortable from her glare. Their bodies unconsciously shivered as they didn't dare to say anymore words.

Immediately after...

Tang Tang also turned around and said unhappily: "If you dare discuss this Miss again, I will definitely have all your tongues chopped off!"

Eventually...

Those two ladies said at the same time: "He is my man!"

After saying that, those two looked at each other.

Tang Tang then said internally: "It's so big! Is she the smelly scoundrel's wife?"

Qin Yue'er had her own internal monologue: "What a pure looking girl! She's like a pure untainted little adulteress. No wonder that bastard was charmed by her, even I'm a bit attracted as well!"

The hearts of the two girls started turning a bit sour.

Meaning they were feeling jealous.

At this time, Feng Lei scratched his head while muttering: "Boss is too mighty. In such a short time, two more peerless beauty sister-in-laws have appeared. If sister-in-law Li and sister-in-law Leng was here, then it would be the perfect amount of people for mahjong! Hahaha..."

His voice wasn't very loud...

But a woman's hearing was selectively sensitive.

The moment Feng Lei finished saying those words, Qin Yue'er and Tang Tang's expression immediately changed. One stood to the left and one stood to the right of Feng Lei before they said with a trace of killing intent: "Fatty, you better explain what this sister-in-law Li and sister-in-law Leng is all about!"

Feng Lei's body shrank. He swiveled his head over to Xuan Yuanyi and Blindman Liu and realized those two had already escaped quite far away with a bandit like smile towards him.

Feng Lei smiled foolishly and said: "These two sister-in-laws, I, I, I really don't know anything."

"You're not talking huh?"

"Do you wish to experience some of this big sister's moves?" Qin Yue'er narrowed her eyes before opening them with a glare. Both of her hands were clenched into fists and powerful cracking sounds could be heard coming from them. She looked just like those female bosses of the underworld gangs.

If he dares to not talk, he would be smashed to death immediately!

Feng Lei then said in a lowered voice: "Sister-in-law Li is boss's first girl; her name is Li Xue'er."

"Li Xue'er?"

"The young phoenix prodigy of the Purple Soul Temple's Violet organization?"

"A beauty of earth shaking proportions; a girl being pursued by millions of guys?"

"A woman possessing the bloodline of a Phoenix!"

“Oh my god!”

Qin Yue'er was shocked.

Tang Tang was also shocked.

At this moment, neither of them had any sense of jealousy and had a feeling that both were fellow sufferers. It was like that started sympathizing with their own kind. Looking at Luo Tian's back, it suddenly felt like they were very far from him.

Immediately after...

Qin Yue'er recovered in startlement and asked: “Doesn't Li Xue'er have an engagement with Shattered Sky City's Murong Wanjian? How did she become that bastard's woman?”

Feng Lei scoffed and said: “Boss is planning on stealing the bride in two years time. Then he'll beat that cheap knockoff Murong Wanjian into a crawling dog.”

Feng Lei was quite excited as he was saying that.

His eyes were filled with confidence.

And his blood was boiling!

At this time...

Those two girls were deeply shocked as they both stared at Luo Tian. At the same time, their blurry eyes were filled with infatuation. They then said at the same time: “So handsome! He's so handsome to a complete mess!”

Tang Tang then excitedly said: “The wedding two years later at Shattered Sky City will definitely be a lot of fun. This Princess will definitely attend to join in the fun. If anyone dares to disrespect that smelly scoundrel, I will have 100,000 man Black Dragon Legion trample their ancestral graves!”

Qin Yue’er then giggled charmingly and said: “Little sister, our priority right now is to give him a bunch of children before that wedding so we can be considered the eldest. So what if Li Xue’er is some phoenix prodigy? She’ll still have to call us eldest sister at that time.”

“It’s true that the older the ginger, the spicier it is. What big sister said is indeed correct, heehee!”

Utterly without shame, the two girls were discussing with each other about having children with Luo Tian.

At this time...

Luo Tian sneered when he suddenly felt a powerful aura coming towards him. He then shouted coldly: “You damn dog thing, you’ve finally come out!”

Chapter 254 – Debut Of The Boss

The atmosphere drastically changed.

The expression of the two Profound King experts in the Du Manor’s courtyard also changed.

“Kid, you’re dead this time.”

“Forefather has come.”

“Let’s see how long you can maintain your arrogance for.”

A powerful aura diffused to the airspace above the Du Manor, creating an endless amount of oppression along with it. It was similar to the world's gravity had suddenly increased by a 100,000 times. Luo Tian's body almost instantly sank down as beads of cold sweat appeared on his forehead. But he still had an excited smile as he said: "You old bastard, you've finally come out."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian turned around and said to Feng Lei: "Fatty, have everyone back out."

Fatty and Xuan Yuanyi were still okay.

In the short half a month's time, their cultivation had also increased by leaps and bounds.

Especially fatty.

The power inside him was like 10,000 beasts surging about as he became unprecedentedly stronger.

As for Xuan Yuanyi, even though his cultivation didn't increase as quickly as fatty, he was already at the doorsteps of the Profound King realm. He was only missing a tiny opportunity before he could make a breakthrough.

Those two could kind of resist the powerful aura but when it came to Tang Tang, Qin Yue'er and Blindman Liu, those three almost collapsed to the ground. Their bodies were bent over; their faces extremely pale and they could barely maintain their breathing.

Feng Lei nodded seriously and quickly supported Tang Tang and Blindman Liu.

Xuan Yuanyi went over to support Qin Yue'er.

The five of them were about to leave the Du Manor...

But...

At this moment, an extremely cold voice descended before them.

“You want to leave?”

“Do you think the Du Manor is a place where you can come and go as you please?”

His voice wasn't very loud...

But for over a thousand people present, it gave the sensation of their heart exploding. It also felt like someone had suddenly dug their heat out of their chest. Most of the people could feel cold sweat on their backs while some just directly fainted.

As his voice faded...

The oppressive pressure on Feng Lei and Xuan Yuanyi suddenly increased multiple times. Their knees were bent and they almost kneeled down onto the ground.

The corner of Luo Tian's eyes twitched. Anger flared in his heart as he instantly clenched his fists and shouted: “Level 3 Berserk!”

“Boom~!”

A powerful force inside his body exploded out.

Right after that, the grim reaper's path of slaughter inside Luo Tian's sea of conscious manifested itself and shot out a killing intent. It became a monstrous aura like a powerful dragon charging into the sky.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Ear deafening explosions were heard in the sky.

Two different auras had collided together and continuously ravaged each other. The powerful collisions were similar to continuous bomb explosions that created shock waves one after another.

“Very powerful!”

Luo Tian’s expression faintly changed as he said to himself: “The power of the aura shows that he should be around the Profound King 6th rank. It looks like this Du Yuansong is definitely not an ordinary individual.”

The two auras in the sky then exploded.

Du Yuansong’s special exertion of pressure to Feng Lei and Xuan Yuanyi decreased. The five of them didn’t dare to stay any longer and quickly ran out.

After bringing Tang Tang, Qin Yue’er, and Blindman Liu to the end of the street, Feng Lei and Xuan Yuanyi glanced at each other. They both showed a smile before they ran back towards the Du Manor.

Feng Lei smiled foolishly and said: “Boss, it’s very lonely for you to be here by yourself so this one has come to keep you company.”

Xuan Yuanyi’s Great Fault sword was issuing a low ringing sound as he said: “I’m here to accompany you as well.”

After saying that...

Those two rushed to Luo Tian's side. One to the left and one to the right, just like they had become warrior attendants again.

Luo Tian smiled with joy. With brothers like them that neither feared life or death, honor or disgrace, this was considered great fortune to him. He then grinned madly and said: "Good! But you need to remember one thing..."

Without waiting for Luo Tian to finish, those two said in unison: "Understood! Same old rules!"

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"Haha..."

The three of them started laughing in unison.

They were laughing in an extremely arrogant, overbearing and cocky manner!

This made Du Yuansong who had come out of the rear courtyard rather annoyed. The clothing on his body was moving without any wind as his skinny body arrived at the stairs. A gust of wind blew by and his body moved along with it like he was about to be blown over.

"Those that invade my Du Manor shall die!"

"Those that kill my Du Manor's people shall die!"

"Those that destroyed my Du Manor's main door shall die!"

“Those that dare clash against my aura shall die!”

“The three of you here, plus the three that had just left – all six of you must die. I will use the cruelest methods possible to end your lives here today” said Du Yuansong in a dry voice.

His expression was gloomy and the wrinkles on his forehead looked like the bark of a tree.

The moment Du Yuansong appeared, Luo Tian’s eyes widened and his mouth formed curved into an excited smile. He then said to himself: “Boss! He is indeed the northern city’s boss!”

Golden glow!

A golden glow that brightened up the sky!

There was a bright golden glow surrounding Du Yuansong’s entire body which meant he was the northern city’s big boss without a doubt!

Hearing his effeminate dry voice and looking at his throat, Luo Tian started laughing out loudly. “Rumors say that you were a eunuch which I didn’t believe, but who knew you really were one! You’re missing a little winky down there so I’m curious – how do you take a piss? Can you still stand up or do you do it like a woman and sit down? Hahaha...”

“Eunuch, hahaha...”

“Damn eunuch, hahaha...”

The three of them started laughing with each other in an unrestrained manner.

“They’ve lost their minds!”

“All three of them are lunatics!”

“They actually dared to call Du Yuansong a eunuch out right! They’re goners now; they’re going to die right away. This is Du Yuansong’s reverse scale; these guys actually dare to make fun of him to his face... they must be tired of living!”

In the eyes of the spectators, Luo Tian and company were going to die immediately!

The conclusion will be exactly as Du Yuansong had said – they would die a miserable death. Daring to touch the reverse scale of the northern city’s king while in the northern city, was basically seeking one’s own death!

The expression of the remaining two in the Du Manor’s courtyard changed as they almost yelled in unison: “You’re courting death!”

Before their voice faded, those two already rushed forth!

Luo Tian faintly frowned.

Feng Lei took initiative and stood out. “Boss, let me play with these two pieces of trash.”

Xuan Yuanyi was holding onto the chain as his Great Fault Sword had already shot out. He then shouted: “Leave one for me!”

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

The four of them immediately clashed.

The powerful collision was not weaker than the clash between the two Profound King experts.

It might be even a bit stronger.

Feng Lei's arms had already undergone a beast transformation. Fierce looking blood scales that were giving off a bloody light had appeared on them. The entire courtyard had the metallic taste of blood in the air, as if his arms had been soaked in a pool of blood for a long time.

Xuan Yuanyi's sword was even more ferocious. Compared to half a month ago, the power within it had at least doubled!

Luo Tian was excited...

Seeing how their strengths have been increased quite a bit in a short half a month.

Luo Tian no longer worried about those two. He looked up and smiled coldly, "It's about time for me to show my true strength. Du Yuansong, you damn old eunuch! You want to play this daddy to death? This daddy shall let you experience how overbearing I can be!"

"Level 4 Berserk!"

"Boom~!"

Chapter 255 – Killing The Boss

"Level 4 Berserk!"

"Boom~!"

The moment Luo Tian roared out, 30,000 points of profound energy was consumed!

Level 4 Berserk!

It required 5 million experience points to level up.

Each time it was activated, 30,000 profound energy would be used up.

One could imagine the power stimulated by 30,000 profound energy! Sixteen times the base attributes!

The moment it was activated, thunderous roars could be heard inside Luo Tian's body as he released his aura in an unrestrained manner. Luo Tian's expression showed that he too was a bit stunned as his whole body felt like it was on fire.

He was extremely red!

At this time...

Luo Tian was just like Luffy in One Piece activating his Gear Second.

The flames in his body were spinning rapidly and enshrouding his entire figure. He was entirely red and every part of his skin was releasing a powerful energy.

Luo Tian slowly raised his head as he was excited like crazy.

Power!

Power released from sixteen times his base attributes! This type of power was like the roaring arrogance of an ocean! At this moment, Luo Tian was excited to the max because this type of power was simply too strong!

The surrounding people were stunned by this.

"His body looks like it's on fire."

“Such terrifying aura! What kind of martial skill did this kid train in?”

Shock.

Everyone was thoroughly shocked by Luo Tian’s level 4 Berserk.

Luo Tian’s gaze faintly rose up as he glared at Du Yuansong whose expression had hiddenly changed. He then said coldly: “You sent people to kill my war pet Ghost Dragon. He is my brother so you need to die. You sent people to kidnap my little sister so you need to die. You sent people who seriously injured another one of my brothers so you need to die!”

“Du Yuansong: There are many things you shouldn’t have done and one of them is provoking me, Luo Tian.”

“There’s only one outcome for those that mess with me – death!”

Every word and sentence was extremely cocky and didn’t put Du Yuansong in his eyes.

He was completely held in disregard!

Du Yuansong was secretly clenching his teeth so hard that cracking sounds could be heard. He then said with an effeminate voice: “Good, good, good! A mongrel like you who’s merely at the Profound King 3rd rank dares to be presumptuous in front of me? You’re really overestimating yourself!”

“Even if the heretical skill you train in is great, you shouldn’t forget your own cultivation level. One’s cultivation level will still shackle your martial skill output and cannot jump levels in a fight. I am a Profound King 6th ranker so killing you is just a mere thought for me.”

Indeed...

A Profound King 6th ranker killing a 3rd ranker will only take a mere moment of his time.

But there is one thing Du Yuansong has stated wrongly.

There are some martial skills that aren't restricted by one's cultivation level, such as Luo Tian's divine skill Berserk. It's not restricted by the user's cultivation level but is restricted by the user's physique. The level 4 Berserk with sixteen times the attributes was too violent. If Luo Tian wasn't in the Profound King realm, his body wouldn't be able to bear the power at all.

If it were level 5 or higher Berserk, most likely the power in Luo Tian's current body would cause him to explode upon activation.

This was the limit of one's fleshly body!

This was the reason Luo Tian didn't quickly level up Berserk.

If this was allowed, Luo Tian wouldn't even bother to level up anymore. He would directly level up Berserk to the last great perfection realm. A thousand plus times his base attributes... who the f*ck could block him then?!

Luo Tian smiled and said: "Oh really?"

"Isn't it?" Du Yuansong counter asked.

Luo Tian didn't want to converse with him or waste any more time on that question. He directly asked: "Where's the little girl?"

Du Yuansong took a step forward and a small sword appeared from within his sleeves. The sword was really small and looked more like a thorn. He then revealed a gloomy smile that only eunuchs were capable of and said: "You mean the little demon fox clan girl?"

“Ommm~!”

Luo Tian’s eyes shifted as he clenched his fists.

A powerful energy rippled out from the clenching of his fists and the air around him made a series of explosions.

His grim reaper’s path of slaughter started surging out!

At this moment, Luo Tian was enraged.

Completely and utterly enraged.

An Chunchun’s identity cannot be known to others, especially in the midst of Heavenly Sword City. Once her identity has been publicly revealed, all those nobles and aristocrats would start hatching schemes to get her. She will then fall into a cycle of either being chased or captured.

The demon fox clan was no more.

Luo Tian didn’t want An Chunchun to be captured and didn’t want her to live an unhappy life.

“Hahaha...”

“Looks like you really care about that little demon fox girl. But that’s only natural since an immature demon fox girl can be taught properly and then personally enjoyed in the future. Enjoying a man’s most happiest thing in this world... and even if you aren’t into such a thing, she can still be sold for a few hundred million and you can become a wealthy tyrant of some place. It’s even possible to buy your own city if you wanted.” Du Yuansong said in a smug manner.

The aura on Luo Tian’s body become even colder and the killing intent became stronger. He then said in a low tone: “I’m going to ask you one more time – where is she?”

“Beg me.”

“Kneel on the ground and beg me.”

Du Yuansong’s expression became even more smug.

“You’re really not telling me?” asked Luo Tian.

Du Yuansong replied with a playful smile: “Kneel down and beg me with kowtows. If I’m happy with your performance, I might just tell you. There are plenty of people in Heavenly Sword City that wish to have girls of the demon fox clan as servants.”

“You’re courting death!”

Angry to the extreme.

Luo Tian’s fist started moving and a powerful force smashed towards Du Yuansong.

Du Yuansong’s expression turned cold. The small sword in his hand started moving and created tens of thousands of sword qi. He coldly shouted: “The one courting death is you! A Profound King 3rd ranker dares to act arrogant here? Die for me!”

“Boom~!”

Two different forces collided together.

Luo Tian’s punch managed to shatter Du Yuansong’s thousands of sword qi, while his chest was clawed by Du Yuansong’s left hand and a piece of meat ripped off.

“Humph!”

“Overestimating yourself!” Du Yuansong said with disdain. The small sword in his hand started moving again as he shouted: “Rainbow sword penetrates through all, Myriad Sword Qi, activate for me!”

The sword stabbed out...

The sword qi was like a rainbow, forming a pressure that smashed towards Luo Tian.

“Accept your death you damn dog thing!”

Luo Tian frowned before shouting: “Wild Blade, come out for me!”

“Bang~!”

The Blood Devouring Wild Blade appeared. Luo Tian gripped his right hand before shouting: “Level 4 Berserk!”

“A stupid rainbow should just die for me!”

“This daddy shall chop it into pieces!”

“Domineering Slash!”

While both hands were grasping the handle of the blade, his grim reaper’s path of slaughter intent was injected inside. Energy of sixteen times the attributes were also injected inside. The full domineering power of the Blood Devouring Wild Blade had been agitated, creating an endless amount of tyrannical power!

This was the domineering power that was capable of suppressing everything!

Luo Tian leapt into the air and faced the tsunami like rainbow sword qi. He then smile ferociously before shouting: “Slash for me!”

The blade chopped down!

The domineering power of suppression from the Blood Devouring Wild Blade surged out like crazy!

The spirit of the Wild Blade’s power had been all released as well.

At this moment...

The originally dark bloody red Wild Blade had turned pure black – the black that represented death! It then struck down heavily!

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The blade slash completely shattered the rainbow sword qi, and the domineering slash’s power had completely rocked the entire Heavenly Sword City.

Du Yuansong raised his head and roared out: “Agggghh...!”

His long hair came unbunched and his robe shredded apart.

The domineering power continued slashing through, directly smashing Du Yuansong into powder. At this instant, the system gave off an alert tone in Luo Tian’s mind!

Chapter 256 – When I Grow Up, I Too Will Marry You

Domineering Slash!

A slash filled with domineering power!

A powerful domineering energy that was capable of slashing everything apart!

At this moment in time, the Blood Devouring Wild Blade was giving off a humming sound of joy!

It was excited.

This blade strike had shocked the entire Heavenly Sword City!

The eyes of those so called experts could only stare with wide eyes. In a short half a month, this kid's strength had suddenly reached such new heights! This kid was out of control!

Countless spiritual senses were peeping at the Du Manor.

Doing it in such an unrestrained manner was a taboo!

Luo Tian could sense them all but he didn't even give them a glance. His heart was trying to suppress the excited feeling as he said internally: "Boss... Boss... please explode with some good loot. You have to give me something gooooooooooooood."

Suddenly...

Luo Tian thought of a very important issue.

Du Yuansong was a eunuch!

Would one of the loots be that Sunflower Bible?! 1

“Shit!”

“I can’t be that unlucky right?” Cold sweat rolled down Luo Tian’s back as he anxiously said internally: “Please don’t give me such a disgusting martial skill. If any loots explode, at least give me something more manly. A martial skill geared towards the masculine side is more appropriate!”

“Fuuu~ ...”

“Goddess Guanyin, Teach Sola Aoi, please look at the eight years I’ve been following you to bless me!”

The system alert sounded off!

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Du Yuansong. You have gained 20,000 experience points, 6000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Neptune Sword.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a high grade xuan stone.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 3 mid grade xuan stones and 5 low grade xuan stones.

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining martial skill Golden Shield. Will you be cultivating it?”

“Huh?”

“Eh?”

“Ahhh... Golden Shield?!”

“Holy crap! Is it Shaolin Temple’s Golden Shield?” Luo Tian was completely dumbstruck. He then said internally: “What kind of f*cked up world is this? System, you’re way too f*cking handsome right now!”

Golden Shield was part of the loot explosion.

Luo Tian couldn’t believe how inconceivable this was.

He couldn’t wait any longer and quickly opened up his system interface to take a look.

Martial Skill: Golden Shield

Grade: Spirit

Proficiency: 0/3000

Consumption: 2000 profound energy

Skill Description: This martial skill is one that’s made up of pure yang so women or eunuchs cannot cultivate. Cultivating this skill will increase one’s yang energy; the higher the level, the purer the yang energy.

Skill Description 2: Once this skill is activated, a giant golden colored bell will appear as a shield. This skill can be sustained at 100 profound energy per second. At the last great perfection realm, a pure yang golden bell covering the body will be impenetrable to all attacks.

“Ding!”

“Will you be cultivating it?”

Luo Tian didn't hesitate and directly replied: “Cultivate! If I don't cultivate such an awesome martial skill, will I be even considered someone that comes from planet Earth? How many youths have dreamed of this while reading wuxia novels? Fantasizing and dreaming that one day they would be able to learn this divine skill from the Shaolin Temples. Who would've imagined that it never happened in my previous life yet I've achieved it in this foreign world. F*cking hell! System, this daddy loves you to death! You're really here to satisfy all my dreams right?!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for successfully cultivating a new skill!”

The moment Luo Tian killed Du Yuansong, Chen Dong rushed out while carrying An Chunchun.

Originally...

It was impossible for Du Yuansong's death to explode out Golden Shield, but the moment An Chunchun appeared in Luo Tian's field of vision, the system's alert tone had a slight change to it. This change was so miniscule that Luo Tian didn't even notice it.

Afterwards...

The loot explosion had been altered!

Just like the words Ghost Dragon had previously spoken: An Chunchun can help you!

They didn't know but there was a powerful and mysterious energy coming from An Chunchun. Ghost Dragon's strength should only be similar to a rank 3 demonic beast yet in a short ten months; his strength had unknowingly risen up to rank 6. How did this occur?

Another important thing...

The spiritual will inside Ghost Dragon was something Luo Tian injected into during refinement. Even if it was able to think for itself, it should be based off of Luo Tian's spirit. Somehow though, Ghost Dragon actually developed his own thinking ability and even learned the human race's speech.

This was practically impossible if he wasn't taught by someone.

That's why this was all due to An Chunchun.

This little demon fox girl was so powerful that she was an unparalleled existence!

"Big brother Luo Tian..."

An Chunchun struggled out of Chen Dong's arms and jumped down, running towards Luo Tian in a super happy manner. She then leapt into Luo Tian's embrace and started pouting her little mouth.

At this moment...

An Chunchun's eyes were glistening wet before tears started gushing out. She had started crying out loud with all her might.

"Big brother Luo Tian, Chunchun was so scared!"

"Big brother Luo Tian, that old fogey Du was so terrifying! He would stare at me every day and tell me you will not rescue Chunchun. He also said you would die by his subordinate's hands! Chunchun didn't believe him at all but Chunchun was very scared!"

"Big brother Luo Tian, Chunchun doesn't want to leave you. She doesn't want to leave you ever again... wuuu~..."

In the past half a month, An Chunchun remained willful and never showed how afraid she was. She maintained her strong front but she was just a little girl a bit over 7 years old. How would anyone not be afraid when they had to face the perverted Du Yuansong every day?

The weight was finally lifted from her heart upon seeing Luo Tian.

It was due to the weight being lifted that she was finally free of the repressed feeling, causing the pent up fear in her heart to explode out all at once. She was crying so hard that she couldn't even stop herself if she wanted to.

Luo Tian's heart almost shattered from her crying.

Seeing the tear stained face on this porcelain doll like girl, Luo Tian's heart felt like it was being squeezed. After clenching his jaws, he then shouted internally: "Luo Tian! If you ever let An Chunchun suffer this much ever again, you are not human anymore!"

Strength!

It all came down to f*cking strength again!

Luo Tian's teeth almost cracked from biting down so hard and his fists were clenched so tightly that they couldn't be tighter anymore.

"Wow!"

"Whose family does this little girl belong too? She is simply too pretty!"

"Look at her seductive eyes and her exquisite facial structure. If she was given a few more years, she would definitely be a figure that can topple kingdoms and countries with her looks. I'm afraid the young phoenix Li Xue'er cannot even compare to her. Whoever looks at her eyes would definitely be hooked by her. If I was a guy, I would definitely fight it out with the smelly scoundrel right now."

Tang Tang and Qin Yue'er had run over.

The two of them wanted to rush into Luo Tian's embrace and talk to him about having some children. But when they saw An Chunchun, their eyes became stunned before directly shoving Luo Tian away and hugging the crying girl.

"Little sister, don't cry. Did this smelly scoundrel bully you? Tell big sister and big sister won't spare him at all!"

"That's right! Us two will help you take care of him."

Luo Tian wet his lips and muttered: "What's with this messed up situation?"

An Chunchun blinked her teary eyes and looked at Luo Tian with a giggle: "Big brother Luo Tian, are these two big sisters the same as big sister Li Xue'er?"

Luo Tian scratched his head as he momentarily couldn't figure out how to respond.

An Chunchun giggled playfully before turning serious. "When Chunchun grows up, I too will marry you!"

Chapter 257 – Nangong Hao Arrives

Everyone was shocked when they heard An Chunchun's words.

Everyone was staring at her.

Were these words something a 7 year old was capable of saying?

Does such a young child even know what marrying someone means?

An Chunchun noticed the crowd's shocked faces so she once again said in a serious manner: "When I, I, I grow up, I will marry big brother Luo Tian so that he will never leave me. Right, it should be like this. This is something my mother told me so it should be correct, right? Big brother Luo Tian?"

Luo Tian responded with a forced smile since he didn't know how to reply.

It was Fatty Lei who was the first to say something as he muttered: "We're screwed this time; one table for mahjong isn't enough anymore!"

Tang Tang and Qin Yue'er's expressions turned cold as they glared at Feng Lei.

Feng Lei shrunk his head down and quickly escaped to the side. He was whistling calmly with an expression like he didn't say a thing and had nothing to do with this.

"Chunchun, he's a smelly scoundrel so you need to keep your distance from him in the future." Tang Tang rolled her eyes at Luo Tian before saying this gently to An Chunchun.

Qin Yue'er directly glared at Luo Tian and said: "What have you been teaching her? It can't be that you're not even letting a 7 year old child off right? You are truly a huge scoundrel! Humph, like hell I'm going to battle 3000 rounds with you anymore. Good Chunchun, you definitely must keep your distance from him. He's a big bad egg!"

"Shit!"

"What the hell did I do? I didn't even say a word and have become a big bad egg and a scoundrel. Can this place be anymore unreasonable?" Luo Tian was complaining in resentment to himself. When he looked at those towering twin peaks on Qin Yue'er, he then quickly complained out loud: "I remember you told me that once I've arrived at Heavenly Sword City, you would be clean and naked waiting for me on the bed. Could it be that you're breaking your promise? A gentleman's words cannot be unsaid!"

Qin Yue'er harrumphed before replying: "I did say that but I'm not a gentleman, I'm just a woman with a slightly larger chest. So what if I'm going to break my promise? You gonna bite me? Bite me if you have the guts!"

Qin Yue'er perked her chests up as she said that, raising them all the way in front of Luo Tian's face. She then had an expression of "go ahead and bite it if you dare."

Luo Tian really wanted to take a bite.

But...

There were too many people here.

Luo Tian gave a long sigh in his heart before saying out loud: "Oh ye great earth and heavens, how can you treat me like this? What did I do wrong? I really didn't do anything..."

"You're not even letting a 7 year old girl off and you ask what you've done wrong?" Tang Tang said with an angry pout.

Qin Yue'er immediately sided with her and said: "That's right! An Chunchun is so innocent, cute, and beautiful, so how could we not figure out what your heart is thinking? It's definitely filthy to the max, humph!"

Suddenly...

Luo Tian felt like there was no convincing explanation he could use to defend himself.

He had a sharp tongue and was considered a king in debates, but he couldn't say a single word in retort right now. Luo Tian could only sigh in his heart and wonder what kind of world this was.

An Chunchun blinked her big eyes and said: "Why are you guys calling big brother Luo Tian a big bad egg and a smelly scoundrel yet you two still like him so much?"

“Huh?”

“Huh?”

“We would never like a big bad egg like him.” Qin Yue’er and Tang Tang both said in unison. But their faces had turned red, obviously showing they didn’t mean what they had said.

“Hahaha...”

“Chunchun, your words are too good! Finally someone is speaking on my behalf!” Luo Tian almost felt like crying in happiness.

An Chunchun giggled happily and said: “Big brother Luo Tian, you are the world’s greatest man. Mother said that if I were to marry someone, I need to marry someone like that. Big brother Luo Tian, you’re going to marry me when I grow up right?”

Very direct!

It was so direct that Luo Tian didn’t know how to answer.

Was this a marriage proposal?

Luo Tian swallowed a few times and said with a smile: “When Chunchun gets older and knows more things, you will find the greatest man for yourself.”

“En!”

An Chunchun then became a bit sad and muttered: “Big brother Luo Tian, I miss my mother.”

Luo Tian's heart sank a bit as he patted An Chunchun's head: "Good Chunchun, big brother Luo Tian will definitely help you find your mother."

The time limit for the S-rank quest only had about a month left!

Within this month, he had to think of a way to rescue An Chunchun's mother.

This was no longer merely a quest; it was something Luo Tian had to accomplish. He promised An Chunchun that he would allow her to lead a happy life. If he couldn't rescue An Chunchun's mother, most likely she would be unhappy for the rest of her life.

Dao Shang Alliance!

Luo Tian's heart turned serious as he said internally: "No matter what price I have to pay, I have to save her from that place. Whether it's an auction or outright robbing the place, I have to complete it with all my might. This was the promise I made to An Chunchun."

It was a pinky promise!

At this moment...

Tang Jiu came over.

Behind him was an elderly person who looked rather dejected.

Upon looking at Luo Tian and sending out his senses, he determined Luo Tian was indeed at the Profound King 3rd rank. He couldn't help wonder to himself: "How did he breakthrough to the Profound King 3rd rank already? Did he skip some levels? In less than half a month... even if he has a heaven defying talent, there's still no way he can be this quick!"

He couldn't figure it out.

Wang Jinke really couldn't figure out what kind of existence was Luo Tian.

This was still a small matter because the thing that annoyed him the most the disappearance of 10 jars of Dragon Jade Wine. This was one of the top wines of all wines, and there it disappeared into a puff of smoke.

Luo Tian walked up to welcome him and cupped his hands: "Ninth brother!"

Tang Jiu couldn't hold back his excitement and said: "Idol!"

"Idol?"

Tang Tang's ears perked up when he heard the word 'idol' so she stared at Luo Tian and asked: "You're the idol of my ninth brother?"

Tang Jiu realized this was something he shouldn't have said and helplessly forced a laughter. "Breaking through to the Profound King 3rd rank in half a month... any martial cultivator would see him as an idol right?"

"So that's the case..."

Tang Tang lightly smiled and said: "I mistakenly thought you were ninth brother's idol, humph! I'm going to marry a man like ninth brother's idol while you're not the type I'm going to marry, humph!"

Luo Tian laughed out bitterly and said: "I'm still rather afraid that your ninth brother's idol is going to beat me until my teeth scatter all over the ground."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian was too lazy to continue bothering with Tang Tang. He cupped his fists and said seriously: "Thank you ninth brother for your assistance."

Right after that...

Luo Tian turned towards Chen Donglai and made a 90 degree bow and said: "Thank you senior for secretly protecting An Chunchun. Thank you!"

Tang Jiu was stunned by this and said unhappily: "What are you doing? Back then..."

He wanted to say that Luo Tian had saved him at Dark Mountain Corpse City but upon realizing Tang Tang was still nearby, he managed to stop himself. He then changed his words: "You don't have to be so overly polite to us since it's something we should be doing."

Chen Donglai lightly smiled and said: "It's just a minor matter."

At the same time...

He was looking up and down at Luo Tian and didn't find anything strange about him. He could only continue wondering how Luo Tian could make breakthroughs so quickly.

Wang Jinke walked over as well and started circling around Luo Tian like he was examining him. He then said with a grin: "What did a kid like you eat while growing up? Your speed in making breakthroughs is a bit too fast, causing me to be in such a miserable situation. Sigh..."

As those words were being said...

A figure in white descended like an immortal.

Nangong Hao!

Chapter 258 – This Daddy Shall Fulfill Your Wish

Floating in the air like an immortal.

With his elegant movement and his all white clothing, he really did look like an immortal descending.

The moment he landed, two other elderly people in an inky green clothing silently descended after him.

Tang Jiu's expression hiddenly changed as he walked up and said: "Elder Sun, Elder Zhao."

Qin Yue'er's expression also hiddenly changed as she respectfully stepped out and said: "Elder Sun, Elder Zhao."

The two elders glanced at Tang Jiu and responded with a smile as if this was enough of a response. As for Qin Yue'er, they didn't even bother looking at her.

Nangong Hao politely smiled and said: "Ninth brother."

He directly called him ninth brother instead of using the greeting of the Sea Cloud Sect's identity. In Nangong Hao's eyes, Tang Jiu was basically his elder brother because he was going to marry Tang Jiu's sister – Tang Tang!

Tang Jiu's expression didn't change and only showed a brief smile.

That brief smile of his contained many levels of meanings.

But the thing that only Tang Jiu knows was his smile contained disdain and contempt.

Tang Tang walked out and coldly said: "Why did you come? Who is your ninth brother? Please don't randomly call out names and claim familial relationships. We really can't afford this kind of weight, oh young master of the Sea Cloud Sect."

"Tang Tang, are you still mad at me?" Nangong Hao's brows faintly formed a frown showing a hint of anger. But no one detected this hint of anger because he concealed it very well.

Tang Tang coldly laughed out once before saying: “Mad? What’s there to be mad about? No matter how many women you play with out there, there’s no relation to me at all. Why would I be mad? And I’m not even qualified to be mad, oh young master of the Sea Cloud Sect.”

Nangong Hao’s brows faintly frowned again, wanting to step forward.

Just as he stepped forward, Tang Tang took steps backwards.

He continued stepping forward.

Tang Tang directly ran up to Luo Tian’s side and held onto his arm. She coldly glared at Nangong Hao as if saying “I dare you to keep coming towards me.”

Nangong Hao didn’t continue walking forward and in turn glared at Luo Tian coldly. He then shouted: “Remove your dog arms from her!”

Without waiting for Luo Tian to respond, he then said gently to Tang Tang: “Tang Tang, don’t cause trouble. I will never come in contact with those random women in the future. It was them that threw themselves at me. I really didn’t form any relationships with them. In my heart, there is only you. In my entire life, there will be only you.”

“F*ck!”

Luo Tian directly cursed out while picking his ears. He then muttered: “I really can’t continue listening to this or else my ears are going to fall off from numbness. What kind of f*cking dogfart words are those? My ears are ringing like a mess from them! Even if I use my toes to think, I can tell those crappy words are used to cheat people!”

“Hey brother, you really can’t lie to women like that.”

Nangong Hao’s gaze turned chilly as he glared at Luo Tian before shouting: “Damn dog thing! This isn’t a place for you to speak out! Quickly scam further away for this daddy!”

“Nangong Hao, stop being so presumptuous! This is Heavenly Sword City and not your Sea Cloud Sect, so you should be the one scrambling” said Tang Tang angrily. “Whoever you form relationships with has nothing to do with me. I have never liked you before so you need to stop being so full of yourself!”

From beginning to end, Tang Tang had never liked Nangong Hao.

She only visited Tang Jiu in the Sea Cloud Sect a few times and coincidentally, it was Nangong Hao who received her.

After a few visits, those two were considered familiar with each other.

But unknown why...

Rumors suddenly started floating around that Tang Tang had fallen in love with Nangong Hao, and it was the crazily in love kind.

Because of this, Tang Tang was extremely pissed.

Nangong Hao’s reputation inside Sea Cloud Sect was rather poor, and there were rumors that he had once tried courting Qin Yue’er. And not long ago, a piece of news broke out that Nangong Hao had engaged in a fight in Heavenly Sword City’s Flowering Pavilion because of a courtesan.

The more the rumor spread, the more savage it became.

The Sea Cloud Sect’s leader, Nangong Jue directly brought Nangong Hao to the Heavenly Sword City to propose a marriage.

Many generations of the Sea Cloud Sect members had good relations with the Great Tang Dynasty, and Nangong Hao had good looks along with an excellent martial talent – he was already a Profound King expert at 27 years old. Therefore, the marriage was agreed upon behind closed doors.

The day of the engagement ceremony, Tang Tang directly ran away from the affair.

Nangong Hao was trying to be nice to Tang Tang but currently, his face showed a rather ugly look. He then coldly glared at Luo Tian and said with disdain: "It was him that kidnapped you? You damn dog thing, you even dare to kidnap my woman? Watch how I'll cripple you today!"

"You dare?!" Tang Tang shouted while glaring at Nangong Hao.

"Elder Sun, this place is Heavenly Sword City and he's also my friend." Tang Jiu's voice had turned serious and his tone had a trace of anger. If it weren't for giving Sea Cloud Sect some face, he would've had his people take action already.

Bullying his idol was equivalent to bullying him.

Within Heavenly Sword City, who would he be afraid of?

Sun Feng softly said: "Your highness, he is a wanted criminal and his arrest warrant has already been issued. Inside any part of the Great Tang Dynasty's territory, he is considered a wanted criminal. Capturing wanted criminals is a responsibility that any good citizen of the Great Tang should do."

Zhao Kongsheng immediately added: "Kidnapping the Princess is a serious crime. Any fugitive caught should be immediately killed on sight to set an example to others. This would prove to the world that whoever dares to kidnap a Princess, the only outcome is death."

"Oh?!"

"When did the Sea Cloud Sect become citizens of the Great Tang? How come I didn't know about it?" Wang Jinke lightly chuckled as he came over next to Luo Tian while his body was continuously releasing a formless energy.

He was protecting Luo Tian.

The strength of those two Sun and Zhao were not simple.

They were Sea Cloud Sect's Elders, and Nangong Hao's confidants. If those two made a move, Luo Tian would be instantly killed.

Chen Donglai also came over and said: "We're not in a rush so why is the Sea Cloud Sect in such a rush? Does Princess Lasting Peace look like she has been kidnapped? Anyone with eyes can clearly see what's going on. And did you think his majesty the Emperor doesn't know his daughter is here? Heavenly Sword City is only so big so do you think they can escape the spiritual senses of an expert at the Profound Saint realm? He didn't send the Palace Guards here because he knows Princess Lasting Peace wasn't kidnapped."

Those two were releasing a formless energy, secretly guarding against any sneak attacks by Elders Sun or Zhao.

Luo Tian naturally understood this as he felt grateful inside.

The expressions of both Elders Sun and Zhao hiddenly changed as they could sense this energy as well.

Inside the palace of the Great Tang was an old ancestor at the Profound Saint realm, so how could he not have noticed what was going on?

Those two indeed had thoughts of sneak attacking Luo Tian. Even if everyone here were eloquent enough with their excuses, in the end, Luo Tian was still a wanted fugitive of the government. But once Wang Jinke and Chen Donglai stepped out, those two had lost their chance.

At this time...

Nangong Hao's face had an ugly expression on it.

A pair of cold eyes glared at Luo Tian and said: "What kind of crap do you think you are? What qualifications do you have to steal my, Nangong Hao, the future leader of the Sea Cloud Sect's woman?"

"Nangong Hao, don't be so presumptuous!" Princess Tang Tang's majestic aura exploded out.

Luo Tian didn't say anything and only coldly smiled in response.

Nangong Hao then said with disdain: "You damn dog thing, what are you smiling at? Are you even qualified to smile at this time?"

Immediately after...

Nangong Hao continued saying with disdain: "You're a good fighter right? If you have the guts, then fight a round with this daddy. Whoever loses shall scam far away and never appear in Heavenly Sword City ever again."

At this time...

Tang Tang didn't say anything more and only looked at Luo Tian seriously.

When Luo Tian looked at her and noticed the heat in her eyes, he faintly smiled in response. He then turned to stare at Nangong Hao and shouted in a domineering tone: "Motherf*cker! If you want to die, then this daddy shall fulfill your wish!"

Chapter 259 – Ten Day Agreement

Tang Tang's current age still defined her as a clueless young girl.

She had always dreamed of a great hero that would fend off the wind and rain for her.

She once thought that ninth brother's idol was the only person that fit that great hero image, because only a man capable of those deeds could fit those shoes.

Now...

Her heart was about to melt.

Because the great hero image of her heart had appeared.

Luo Tian had become angry for a female confidant.

She was that female confidant. Tang Tang's heart was beating like crazy as if it had eaten honey.

Every young girl would yearn for someone to block in front when they encountered trouble, fighting for their sake. Tang Tang had yearned for such a scene many times in the past, but today's scenario was something she hadn't thought of before.

Tang Tang drunkenly stared at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian coldly glared at Nangong Hao and shouted in a domineering manner: "Motherf*cker! You want to die huh? This daddy shall fulfill your wish!"

Extremely arrogant!

Wildly unrestrained arrogance!

It was practically oozing with dominance!

As a matter of fact...

Luo Tian was truly angry.

This kid Nangong Hao had appeared in front of him filled with a look like he was above everyone. His words were filled with mockery, contempt, and deep disdain of others. The worse was he used his identity as the future young leader of the Sea Cloud Sect to suppress Luo Tian.

It was similar to Nangong Hao saying: A damn village bumpkin like you needs to scam far away. What qualifications do you have to compete with me over a woman? What kind of useless crap are you anyway?

Therefore...

Luo Tian was pissed. In order to give face to Tang Jiu, Qin Yue'er, and Tang Tang, he didn't explode previously. But Nangong Hao continued acting arrogant in front of him so he couldn't hold it in anymore. He then roared out: "Do you believe I can play you to death right now?!"

Luo Tian felt that his temper was already quite nice.

At least he was able to suppress it on many occasions and times.

But for someone to repeatedly challenge his bottom line, his violent temper finally erupted like a volcano – no one could stop it now.

This was a sudden shout that came out of nowhere.

Nangong Hao was a bit startled as a trace of cold killing intent could be seen in his eyes. Ever since he was born, no one has ever dared to speak to him in such a manner. A genius of the Sea Cloud Sect that has never been seen in a hundred years, and the backing of the Sect Leader, his status was as honorable as it could get.

One's status would already be elevated if they got a chance to speak with him.

Now he was being scolded?

This was the first time in the history of his life. And it was from a country bumpkin without any position or status. This ignited Nangong Hao's flames of rage as his expression turned colder. He then shouted: "You damn dog thing, we'll see who lives or dies today!"

As his voice faded...

A series of explosive sounds could be heard behind Nangong Hao.

“Boom~, boom~, boom~...”

After every explosive sound, a sword had appeared behind his back. Each sword had a fiery aura exuding from the blade. The fiery aura was moving according to Nangong Hao's breathing pattern, showing that his sword intent had reached a very high level.

This made the brows of Xuan Yuanyi furrow to show his shock. He unconsciously stepped forward to have a better look.

In less than a second, eight extra swords had appeared behind Nangong Hao.

Each sword exuded a terrifying aura that was capable of pressuring everyone present!

The eight swords formed by sword intent had an oppressive pressure that directly surged into Luo Tian's sea of consciousness.

At this instant...

Xuan Yuanyi's figure moved as he blocked in front of Luo Tian. He stabbed his Great Fault Sword down, causing the entire blade to enter the ground and leaving only the hilt. One hand then grasped the chains at the end of the hilt while the other hand clenched into a fist.

“Boom~!”

A powerful sword intent similar to a fierce tiger surged out of the Great Fault Sword.

Xuan Yuanyi's brows formed a frown as his body sank down. At this moment, his body was like a tightly wound sword as the aura on him had completely fused together with the Great Fault Sword. The immediate surrounding around him was now filled with an energy belonging to the dao of sword!

Man and sword as one!

This was the highest realm of when man and sword fused together!

Nangong Hao had the same ability.

Those two had reached the highest realm of man and sword fusing together as one.

The difference was...

Xuan Yuanyi's sword intent was more vigorous and fierce, as if there was an addition of some type of divine energy.

But...

The distance between Xuan Yuanyi and Nangong Hao's cultivation realm was too far apart.

Xuan Yuanyi's sword intent might be a bit stronger than Nangong Hao's, but their cultivation realm difference wasn't just a little, it was a huge gap!

"Damn dog thing!"

"You dare to block my sword intent? Scram for me!" Nangong Hao's brows formed a deep frown as his sea of consciousness activated. A shockingly powerful force then rushed out and smashed against Xuan Yuanyi's chest.

Xuan Yuanyi's chest caved in and he was almost smashed flying.

At this moment...

Luo Tian's feet suddenly sank down as he placed his hand on Xuan Yuanyi's back to stop him from sliding back. He activated his sea of consciousness and a force with the weight of a mountain bore down onto Nangong Hao's oppression, completely crushing it.

"Boom~!"

A dull explosive sound was heard in the surrounding airspace.

Nangong Hao made two moves and it was blocked twice. This made him extremely pissed so the eight swords behind his back started moving.

Tang Jiu's expression hiddenly turned serious. He walked out with a light smile and said: "Junior sect leader, this doesn't seem quite fair right?"

"Fair?"

"There is no such thing as being fair in this world. In the age of martial cultivators, the weak are the prey for the strong so where does your so-called fairness come from?" When Nangong Hao saw Tang Jiu step up, the sword intent from his body pulled back but the eight powerful swords in the air maintained their fierce ringing sounds. Those swords looked like they had grown a pair of eyes as they continued to glare at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian became annoyed after being glared at by eight swords.

Nangong Hao wasn't giving Tang Jiu any face.

Tang Jiu didn't seem to care about this and said with a smile: "Brother Luo Tian was just in a big battle and used up a lot of his profound energy. He's also injured as well, so isn't challenging him right now be somewhat taking advantage of his vulnerability?"

Without letting Nangong Hao comment...

Tang Tang suddenly stepped out and said: “You wanted to marry me right? Ten days later at the edge of the imperial city’s summit – if you can beat him, then I’ll marry you. But you need to remember that I want a fair battle. If you dare to make any underhanded moves, then don’t blame me, Princess Lasting Peace for breaking off all association and turning against you. Not mentioning you are Sea Cloud Sect’s junior sect leader, even if you are Nangong Jue, I will still be able to have my old ancestor come out of seclusion. You should be very clear of the consequences.”

Majestic aura.

The majestic aura of a Princess was indeed extraordinary.

She can still display her superior momentum when facing those highly ranked talents.

Only after hearing Tang Jiu’s words did Tang Tang realize she was kind of selfish. Luo Tian’s battle against Du Yuansong must have consumed a lot of profound energy. With the addition of some minor injuries, Luo Tian will definitely not be Nangong Hao’s opponent if they fought right now.

This wouldn’t be a fair fight.

But...

Tang Tang was really worried that Nangong Hao would use his junior sect leader status to destroy Luo Tian. If Luo Tian really suffered any injuries because of her, she wouldn’t be able to forgive herself for the rest of her life.

Nangong Hao laughed wildly as eight swords deliberately shot towards Luo Tian. They were flickering about in front of Luo Tian’s face filled with provocation. He then said smugly: “Fine! Ten days later, I will come to take your dog’s life! We shall leave now!”

Chapter 260 – Just Smack My Little Butt

After saying that, the three of them disappeared from their spot.

Luo Tian's eyes blinked a few times from being too stunned. "Damn, what the hell just happened?"

"How did this become an appointment set for ten days later?"

"I never agreed to it..."

Luo Tian was inexplicably drawn into a political marriage, and inexplicably involved in battle ten days later. He didn't even have a chance to say something and Nangong Hao had already flown away. What the f*ck is going on?!

When Tang Tang heard what Luo Tian had said, her expression turned depressed as she said: "You, you, you aren't willing to fight for me?"

"Huh?"

"It's not that I'm unwilling..." muttered Luo Tian.

"Yeaahh!"

"It's good that you're willing to fight for me! See how good I treat you? I knew that you had overused your profound energy so I immediately pushed the battle to ten days later. And I even did it in front of all the people inside the imperial city! Heehee... I'm really so smart." Tang Tang's expression had completely changed to an upbeat one, no longer showing her previous depressed state.

Luo Tian's heart sank, "Shit, I've been tricked!"

Of course...

He knew that Tang Jiu and Tang Tang did this for his own good.

He had no clue what cultivation level Nangong Hao was currently at.

He also didn't know what martial skills Nangong Hao was proficient in.

Luo Tian had revealed his strength after these two battles so Nangong Hao would definitely be clear on it.

Facing such a dilemma, Tang Jiu didn't think too much and immediately stepped out on his behalf. Tang Jiu felt that the current Luo Tian was definitely not an opponent for Nangong Hao. The reason was very simple – Nangong Hao's cultivation had already reached the peak of the Profound King 6th rank.

Although they were both at the Profound King 6th rank as well, Nangong Hao was much stronger than Du Yuansong.

When comparing them two, one was like a wild chicken while the other was like a phoenix!

Du Yuansong was a rogue cultivator who had reached the Profound King 6th rank while Nangong Hao was a true disciple of the Sea Cloud Sect. Every step of his breakthroughs was filled with guidance so his Profound King 6th rank was much more stable and powerful than Du Yuansong's.

Tang Jiu couldn't allow Luo Tian to take such risks.

In his eyes...

Luo Tian cannot beat Nangong Hao yet.

As for Tang Tang...

Her only thoughts was to have Luo Tian defeat Nangong Hao in front of all the inhabitants of Heavenly Sword City because she wanted that annoying fly to new show up in front of her ever again. And she had always dreamed of someone standing up for her and challenging all obstacles on her behalf.

When Luo Tian saw Tang Tang's happy face, he smiled and said: "Why wait for ten days? I could have crippled him right now."

Tang Tang was a bit stunned by his words. She then patted Luo Tian's shoulder and said: "This Princess is already gratified by your words. Don't worry; it'll be fine as long as you can defeat him ten days later. You must train hard these next ten days and make more breakthroughs; this Princess is very optimistic about your performance later."

Tang Jiu glared at Tang Tang and said: "Thirteenth sister, stop messing around."

"Brother Luo, Nangong Hao is someone that's very hard to deal with."

"He is the Sea Cloud Sect's Nangong family's once a century super genius. The day of his birth, Yun Haifeng's Yellow Dragon Sword that had been quiet for 10,000 years suddenly flew out to his side. Previously when he summoned those eight swords, they were only the avatars of the Yellow Dragon Sword. The power they possess is less than one tenth of the original."

"The sword dao he has comprehended has surpassed even his father Nangong Jue, that's why he's so arrogant and has never put anyone in his eyes."

"He has the capital to be proud. Tossing aside his identity; he comprehended sword intent at the age of 10; he merged with the Yellow Dragon Sword's intent at the age of 15 and reached the heavenly realm of man and sword as one. With such comprehension abilities, it is extremely rare even in the entire continent."

"It was due to his appearance that the Sea Cloud Sect has become so powerful these recent years. Some even predict that within a hundred years, the Sea Cloud Sect might even enter the ranks of an immortal sect!"

"Having a high comprehension level in the sword dao is only one thing. He is currently cultivating an earth grade sword art, one where the Yellow Dragon Sword's spirit personally taught him. Rumors say that the sword art is capable of killing experts at the Profound Ancestor realm!"

A world where martial skills reigned supreme – a good martial skill was definitely something that could contain powers that went against the heavens.

In the entire continent, there are probably only a few earth grade martial skills around.

And the sword art that Nangong Hao cultivated was taught by the Yellow Dragon Sword's spirit. Just this alone meant the earth grade sword art would be extremely powerful. When the sword art was complemented by the Yellow Dragon Sword, it would definitely increase the powers of the martial skill.

Luo Tian was merely lightly stunned. Hearing Tang Jiu say all these things, he showed a faint frown but was laughing internally: "Earth grade sword art? Is it very awesome? This daddy has already cultivated several earth grade skills!"

Qin Yue'er had a faint frown as she added: "He is really strong. Amongst all the inner court disciples, no one is his opponent and he has never had to reveal all his powers before. You really need to be careful in the fight ten days later."

She was clear on Nangong Hao's personality.

Since Luo Tian snatched his woman, he was hoping to rip Luo Tian into pieces.

Nangong Hao will definitely let loose all his strength in the battle in ten days time. He will use his most powerful moves to suppress Luo Tian, causing him to kneel before him without any ability to resist.

Nangong Hao has always been sinister and vicious!

Tang Tang could now start to feel this matter was getting serious. She no longer had a happy expression as she said to Luo Tian: "How about I go cancel the fight? Since I'm the Princess, I can do whatever I want."

Hearing the words of Tang Jiu and Qin Yue'er, she had started to worry about Luo Tian.

Luo Tian then asked in a serious manner: "Do you like him?"

Tang Tang immediately replied: "No, I hate him! What I hate the most about him is that he's so full of himself. And I've heard that he has a despicable personality."

Luo Tian then said: "If you don't like him, I will have him forever disappear from this world. If you do like him, then I will directly admit defeat."

The decision was with Tang Tang.

Tang Tang had become someone important to Luo Tian, but Luo Tian will still respect whatever Tang Tang decided.

Tang Tang understood Luo Tian's intention and started feeling moved by it. She then muttered: "Smelly scoundrel, you should just continue to smack my little butt. I don't know how to accept it when you treat me so well, wuuu~..."

Luo Tian faintly smiled before looking at Tang Jiu with a rather serious expression on his face. "Don't worry Ninth brother, believe in me. Ten days later, I will make him topple to the ground and unable to get back up. I will definitely accomplish what I say."

Wang Jinke chuckled and said: "Not bad kid, at least you've got guts. This old guy likes you. Don't worry, even if you lose that day, no one will dare to kill you. If that kid Nangong Hao dares to try to take your life, I'll be the first person that won't let him off."

Chen Donglai also smiled faintly and said: "There's also me as well."

Tang Jiu looked like he had something to say but eventually stopped himself. This time, the opponent was not simple at all. Nangong Hao's strength will definitely exceed everyone's expectations. The reason his emperor father gave a nod to Tang Tang and Nangong Hao's marriage was because his father saw Nangong Hao's potential.

His father's vision was the most ruthless in this world.

Tang Jiu couldn't help start worrying for Luo Tian's safety.

At the same time...

He secretly made up his mind that no matter what price he had to pay, he couldn't let Luo Tian die.

Qin Yue'er's serious expression was about the same as Tang Jiu. Her heart felt like it was being clenched as she worried for Luo Tian.

When Luo Tian saw their expressions, he could only sigh and say to himself: "Why are you all worried about me? If it weren't for you guys blocking me, I would be stepping on top of him right now!"
