Chapter 271 – Finally Escaping

Outside the Spectral Forbidden Grounds.

“Boss, I’ve arrived!”

“Boss, I’ve arrived!”

“Smelly scoundrel, nothing can happen to you!”

“Bastard, if something happens to you, who’s going to battle 3000 rounds with me?!”

“Big sister Yue’er, you’re going to fight with that smelly scoundrel?”

“En, a big fight. That bastard promised to have a big battle of 3000 rounds.”

“That isn’t too good, right? What if someone gets hurt? You shouldn’t plan on fighting anymore because you’re not the smelly scoundrel’s opponent. He’s already at the Profound King realm so he can probably defeat you in one move.”

“Heehee... that’s not definite. Who wins or loses is still difficult to say. What’s so great about a Profound King ranker? I’m not afraid of any experts at the Profound King realm. Little sister, I will secretly tell you: The big battle of 3000 rounds I’m talking about is done on the bed.”

“Huh?!”

Inside Tang Tang’s mind, the image of two people tumbling around on the bed appeared. Her face immediately turned red and she didn’t dare to ask anything further.

Qin Yue’er then giggled delicately and said: “Little sister, do you want to join us?”

“Big sister Yue’er, you’re so bad!”

“This one is not joining.” Tang Tang’s face turned even redder like juice could be squeezed out of it. Even her ears were starting to turn red. A strange feeling gushed out of her heart as various scenes of rolling around under the bed sheets appeared in her mind.

Qin Yue’er giggled a bit more and didn’t continue to tease Tang Tang. Her expression then turned to worry as she said: “I wonder how that bastard is doing now?”

Four people...

Almost arrived at the same time in front of the array towards the Spectral Forbidden Grounds.

Terrifying sounds of ghosts wailing continuously came out from the forbidden grounds.

Feng Lei took the lead didn’t bother to think too much. He rushed inside as a red light enveloped his whole body. Except for his head, blood red scales had appeared on his whole body now! After ingesting the blood essence of ten thousand demonic beasts, fatty’s transformation had evolved even further!

“Young master, I have arrived!”

Following right behind was Xuan Yuanyi.

His Great Fault Sword started moving and a powerful sword intent exploded out from his body. With another swing of his sword, he then rushed inside as well.

Tang Tang and Qin Yue’er showed no fear as those two rushed inside the Spectral Forbidden Grounds as well.

The four of them were now standing inside the gloomy forbidden grounds and could sense the roars and the soul shaking powers of the specters. The entire forbidden grounds then started shaking and a powerful dark aura surged towards them.

It was like facing a mounted army of tens of thousands!

The expression of those four turned grim.

Feng Lei clenched his fists, making the atmosphere feel like a ferocious beast was about to burst out from behind the blood red scales. Feng Lei's bloody gaze turned serious as his body leaned forward. He then shouted: "Whoever dares to mess with my boss, I will kill their entire family!"

His voice shook the sky!

And it contained an endless amount of domineering aura!

Xuan Yuanyi glanced over. Seeing the red bloody glow from Feng Lei's body and the blood red scales, he suddenly recalled the red tattoo at the back of Feng Lei's head. "Ancestor of the demon race!"

"Could he be a descendant of one of the first ancestral demons?"

"Or is he a reincarnation of an ancestral demon?"

"If this matter gets spread back to the demon race territories, most likely..."

Xuan Yuanyi's gaze showed a trace of excitement before turning serious. His Great Fault Divine Sword slashed the air, and a super powerful sword intent pulverized the surrounding dark gloomy aura into nothing. He too shouted: "There's also me!"

"And me!"

“And me!”

The two girls shouted at the same time.

Also at this time...

Wang Jinke was holding onto Luo Tian running for his life when he appeared in their sight.

Seeing there were people here, Wang Jinke immediately shouted: “Run! Quickly run! Run out!”

Behind him was a huge group of out of control spectrals chasing behind Wang Jinke like they had gone berserk. Wang Jinke was currently hating his mother for not birthing him with 18 extra legs. It was such an embarrassing situation where he was being chased to the point of pissing his own pants!

He has never been in such an embarrassing situation in his entire life.

Rage was also growing inside Wang Jinke’s heart as he shouted ferociously: “You bunch of damn specters better not let this daddy live or else I’ll wipe all of you out next time! Your granny, this daddy is getting pissed!”

At this time...

Luo Tian’s spiritual intent was still awake and could sense the anger inside Wang Jinke. He then said to himself: “I should bring him along next time I kill these specters. The speed of two people killing will definitely be faster than one. Uh... since I’m bringing an extra person...

“Screw it, this daddy will form a group to come and clean up this Spectral Forbidden Grounds. This would be like introducing the human race to the dangers of a forbidden grounds!”

Luo Tian had made a final decision.

He will definitely bring a group over here to kill them.

He still needed about 500,000 devil race deceased soul points. If Luo Tian had to kill them by himself, most likely one month of time was not enough for him. If there was a group of people who could beat up the specters to a half dead state and let him do the finishing blow, then it shouldn't be a problem.

"Uncle Wang!"

"He's Uncle Wang!"

Tang Tang became happy upon making out Wang Jinke's face. When she saw Luo Tian unconscious and draped over Wang Jinke's shoulder, she couldn't help start to feel worried in her heart. "Smelly scoundrel, nothing can happen to you. I'm still waiting for you to beat Nangong Hao, and then... and then... and then I'll have my father betroth me to you!"

"Everyone get out!"

"Quickly!"

"Uncle Wang is an expert at the Profound Ancestor realm. He will definitely be able to bring the boss out so we should wait outside!" shouted Feng Lei before quickly rushing out. With them hanging around this place, it would only bring Wang Jinke unnecessary trouble when dealing with these Profound King specters.

The decision was promptly made.

The four of them quickly rushed out.

Wang Jinke's brows scrunched up. He glanced back at the nearest specter that was only a few meters away from his ass and cursed out: "Come bite me you motherf*ckers! Come at me, come! Next time, this daddy will definitely send you bunch of damn ghost crap straight to hell so that you cannot even reincarnate if you wanted to!"

Luo Tian's heart was super anxious as he wanted to say out loud: "Big brother... grandpa... wait, I will call you my Lord! Can you run a bit faster?! If this specter reaches me, not to mention killing them the next time, most likely I'll become a deceased soul myself!"

Unfortunately...

Luo Tian's body was unconscious so they couldn't hear him.

Wang Jinke had overused his profound energy and was practically clenching his teeth while trying to run out of the forbidden grounds.

After finally exiting the forbidden grounds, his butt directly plopped onto the ground while trying to catch his breath. "Your granny! I'm going to die from exhaustion! Who would've thought that I, Wang Jinke would have such an embarrassing day? Kiddo, you better not die or else I've exhausted myself for nothing!"

Feng Lei took over to hold onto Luo Tian. Upon seeing his pale white face, Feng Lei clenched his teeth and tried to hold back the tears coming down his face. "Boss, nothing can happen to you!"

"Boss!"

"Smelly scoundrel, quickly wake up!"

"Bastard, are you still going to battle with me for 3000 rounds?"

Wang Jinke was still gasping for air as he said: "He should be fine. Bloodfiend had taken over his body back then but Bloodfiend's aura suddenly disappeared. My guess is that he has already left Luo Tian's body which has made it extremely exhausted. There's no way a human's fleshly body can withstand the power of Bloodfiend's primordial spirit. He should wake up after resting for a few days."

"Rest for a few days?"

“Then, then, then what should we do about the battle date with Nangong Hao the day after tomorrow?”

“If Luo Tian doesn’t show up for the battle, then I’m going to have to marry that bastard, Nangong Hao!”

Chapter 272 – Chaos In Heavenly Sword City

“An ancient devil has appeared in the northern city! Black Dragon Legion will head out for support!”

“An ancient devil has appeared in the northern city! The Palace Guards will head out for support!”

“An ancient devil has appeared in the northern city! All disciples of the Sea Cloud Sect will head out for support!”

“All Upper Heaven Sect disciples listen up! Everyone head to the northern city for support!”

“Heaven’s Secret Sect listen up! Everyone head to the northern city for support!”

Chaos!

Complete chaos!

Northern city was like a porridge with a bunch of random ingredients dumped into it!

An ancient huge devil had actually appeared there.

It wasn’t a creature from the Tianxuan Continent. It was extremely huge and no one knew the name of this devilish creature. No one has actually seen it yet except the entire northern city was covered in an ancient energy. It was without a doubt that it was a huge devil that had escaped from the ancient world!

Northern city...

Was in dire straits.

Over several tens of thousands meters tall, its entire body was like black iron and it had a pair of huge fleshly wings. It gave out a roar that sounded like thunder from the nine heavens!

Ferocious!

Ferocious to the extreme!

Beneath its foot was a corpse.

A corpse that was clothed in black.

A corpse belonging to an expert at the Profound Ancestor realm.

This caused Qi Fu to have an extremely ugly look on his face because the expert at the Profound Ancestor realm was sent out by him to capture the demon fox clan girl. Who would've imagined that...

An ancient beast was stepping on that corpse. It was continuously stomping down over and over again. It was as if that expert had murdered the ancient beast's father, so the ancient beast kept stomping like it was afraid the expert would get back up.

Strangely enough, there was a broken erhu stuck to the ancient beast's body.

It was extremely out of place.

"Ancient huge devil. Ancient huge devil..."

“My heavens! How could an ancient huge devil appear in the Heavenly Sword City?”

“It’s coming from the courtyard of the Flame Dragon Gang! They had just killed Du Yuansong and now made some type of ancient huge devil appear. What the hell are those people up to?!”

“Quickly run for your life! If you don’t run and keep hanging around here, you’re definitely going to die!”

The northern city was in complete chaos. Everyone was trying to escape like crazy while a bunch of people was rushing towards the ancient huge devil.

Black Dragon Legion.

Palace Guards.

Disciples from many famous sects.

There were also many squads of adventurers.

There were also many hidden experts carefully advancing while looking for opportunities.

Every part of the ancient huge devil’s body was considered precious treasures.

Its meridians can be merged with one’s self.

After consuming the meat on its body, it can make one’s fleshly body become stronger.

Its blood essence can make one’s cultivation increase.

Its bones can be refined to become weapons and armors.

Everything was considered rare treasures and many people were eyeing them. Especially those powerful adventurer squads since some people have already offered them high prices to harvest the ancient huge devil.

However...

The ancient huge devil was standing tall in the northern city and didn't step out from the Flame Dragon Gang's courtyard. It just kept stomping on the corpse. The corpse had already turned into a meat paste texture yet the devil didn't stop its actions.

It didn't go out...

So some people began to rush in. Those were the desperadoes who were willing to do anything for money.

The moment they attacked, a formless aura from the ancient huge devil struck downwards and instantly flattened the attackers. Half the courtyard was dyed red and showed a huge spider web like pattern.

"Scram!"

"Everyone scam!"

"Otherwise, you will all die, die, die..."

Roared the ancient huge devil. Unfortunately, no one understood him so there was a trace of helplessness and pity in his eyes. There was also a naturally fierce aura that a typical ancient creature possessed.

In a certain corner somewhere...

An Chunchun was crying her eyes out. "Uncle Blindman, don't do this! Don't do this!"

Tang Jiu's face turned grimmer by the second. He then said: "Uncle Chen, take care of this little girl for me. No matter what, she cannot fall into the hands of others. I'm going to go stop the Black Dragon Legion and the Palace Guards."

Chen Donglai naturally knew who the ancient huge devil was and immediately replied: "Your Highness, you need to be extra careful. He's already transformed to an ancient huge devil and won't recognize you. You mustn't get too close to him."

Tang Jiu nodded and said: "I know..."

Immediately after...

Tang Jiu raised his speed to the maximum and quickly rushed off towards the direction of the Black Dragon Legion.

"Black Dragon Slaughter Formation!"

"Eighteen people in each team – one hundred and eighty people to form a small group. We will combine together to make a huge Black Dragon Slaughter Formation. No matter what the price we need to pay, we have to kill him! We cannot let him threaten the safety of our Heavenly Sword City!"

"Oorah!"

The Black Dragon Legion quickly set up their formation.

Tang Jiu landed near them and shouted: “Where is the Black Dragon’s General?”

“Hei Long is here!”

“Your Highness, why are you here? It’s too dangerous here so you need to go back.”

“Someone come! Escort the Ninth Prince away from this place!”

One of the eighteen Generals of the Black Dragon Legion – Hei Long!

His face was dark like ink with big eyes and bushy eyebrows. His figure was giving off an endless aura of arrogance while commanding the Black Dragon Legion.

Tang Jiu quickly said: “General Hei Long, please don’t attack. He... he... he’s my friend so there’s no need to attack. He will not endanger the safety of the imperial city so please believe in me.”

Hei Long was startled and quickly responded: “Ninth Prince, are you joking with me? This ancient huge devil has already killed many people and you say he’s not going to endanger the safety of the imperial city? The entire northern city is about to be destroyed by him.”

Each time the ancient huge devil stomped down, several buildings in the northern city would collapse.

His powers were too strong.

A single stomp from him was equal to a powerful quake.

Hei Long continued saying: “Your Highness, you say he’s your friend? How could that be possible? No matter what, this ancient huge devil needs to be killed or else he will endanger the safety of our imperial city. And I will never allow anyone or creature to threaten the safety of the imperial city.”

Immediately after...

Hei Long shouted: “Black Dragon Legion listen to my command: Advance at full speed!”

Tang Jiu had an extremely anxious expression on his face. Blindman Liu did all this just for him and An Chunchun. He allowed an inner devil that he too was afraid of, to come out. Tang Jiu couldn’t just watch as Blindman Liu got hurt because of that.

Tang Jiu directly kneeled down and said: “General Hei Long, consider me begging you! Please have the Black Dragon Legion withdraw from here!”

Hei Long’s expression changed. Before Tang Jiu’s knees hit the ground, a powerful energy supported Tang Jiu and made him stand back up. “Ninth Prince, the mission of the Black Dragon Legion is to protect the safety of the imperial city. I am really sorry but I cannot have then withdrawn from here.”

“Someone come! Bring the Prince away from here!”

Tang Jiu felt completely helpless. Watching how wave after wave of people rushing towards Blindman Liu, his heart felt like it was bleeding. He then suddenly rushed over towards the direction of the Palace Guards.

Just like the Black Dragon Legion...

No one in the Palace Guards listened to him.

Everyone was advancing forward at full speeds!

Harmony Palace.

A middle-aged man was looking at the direction of the northern city with a frown.

Behind him was a eunuch standing with a slight bow who didn't dare to breathe loudly.

Suddenly...

The middle-aged man softly said: "Send out my orders: Have the Black Dragon Legion and the Palace Guards come under the command of the Ninth Prince. All large and small sect disciples must immediately leave the northern city. There's no need to bother with the other people."

The old eunuch's brows scrunched up as he replied: "Yes!"

"But sire, this will allow the ancient huge devil to ravage the northern city. If something goes wrong..."

The middle-aged man smiled calmly and said: "We'll consider it as the kid owing me a favor this time."

Also at this moment...

Luo Tian and company were quickly rushing back to Heavenly Sword City!

Chapter 273 – Ancient Huge Devil Goes Berserk

"Stop attacking!"

"Black Dragon Legion and Imperial Palace Guards shall cease attacking!"

“Disciples of the Sea Cloud Sect listen up! Immediately withdraw from the north district!”

“Withdraw from the north district...?”

The rescue troops that had flooded the north district as a tide had now retreated like a tide as well.

Many people were confused.

Could this be the start of abandoning the northern city?

If this continued, the ancient huge devil would make the northern city into the northern ruins. How could they allow this devil to continue its destructive actions? What would the Great Tang’s prestige become?

The common citizens of the northern city started wailing in grief because they thought the government had given up on them.

The ancient huge devil was still stomping on the corpse in the Dragon Flame Gang’s courtyard. The corpse was turning from meat paste into a meat pancake now.

There were still many adventure squads rushing forth to attack, but they would be instantly killed the moment they got near.

“One hundred million!”

“I will offer one hundred million! As long as anyone brings me the body of the ancient huge devil, I will immediately pay up!”

“I offer two hundred million! I only want the ancient huge devil’s blood essence. Whoever brings it to me, I will immediately pay up! You can choose from demon cores or xuan stones as an alternative; whatever you want!”

“...”

In a tall building right outside the northern city were a bunch of wealthy merchants who continued offering high prices.

The original two million had now become two hundred million.

The more ferocious the ancient huge devil was, the more excited these merchants became. Every one of them wished to obtain the ancient huge devil's blood essence, bones, and its fleshly body. If these things were to undergo further refinement and modifications by them and then put into an auction, most likely the prices would be shockingly high!

Many adventure squads re-entered the northern city upon learning of the potentially huge profits.

Those experts that were hiding in the shadows or peeking through the void were now in deep thought. There was a Profound Ancestor expert who had entered the periphery but now, no more Profound Ancestor rankers got close to the ancient huge devil. They were all thinking...

How powerful was this ancient huge devil?

It was clear the devil was under some type of suppression or else based on its temper, the northern city should have been destroyed already.

What they felt really strange was why did the government stop attacking? What was the reason behind this?

An ancient huge devil had appeared in the imperial city. Not to mention the old ancestor, the Great Tang's Emperor didn't even send out their personal experts. Now they even made their city guards withdraw to the side. Was there some type of inside story behind the scenes?

When Tang Jiu saw those common citizens wailing, he immediately ordered: "General Hei Long, have your people bring those citizens away."

“Palace Guards: You guys surround the entire northern city to prevent the ancient huge devil from leaving this district. Don’t let anyone else enter the northern city. If they don’t listen, make sure they know they are entering at their own risk.”

“We obey!”

Everyone quickly went off.

Hei Long was perplexed as he asked: “Your Highness, are we just going to stand here and watch? What if the ancient huge devil...”

Without waiting for him to finish, Tang Jiu immediately interrupted and said: “He won’t; he’s my friend. He only became like this because of me. And have you noticed that during the entire time, he’s still inside the courtyard and hasn’t taken a step out? And don’t you think his gaze still retains the look of a human?”

Hei Long looked over and carefully observed. He then nodded his head and said: “It’s truly exactly what you’ve said, but no matter what, he’s still an ancient huge devil that has threatened the safety of the imperial city. Your Highness, you must think things through carefully because this could affect your future.”

If this matter wasn’t handled well, then Tang Jiu would no longer have that so called future.

The other Imperial Princes were watching him coldly. If there were any mistakes in dealing with this matter, Tang Jiu will definitely fall out of favor and might even be sent away to some distance place. Most likely then, he would never be able to step back into Heavenly Sword City his entire life.

Tang Jiu didn’t think that far because he was only focused on one thing: If it weren’t for Blindman Liu releasing the ancient huge devil within him, most likely he would be dead already. Even Chen Donglai was shuddering in fear at what could’ve happened.

Chen Donglai never noticed the aura of the person in black.

This clearly showed the person in black was much stronger than him.

The number one assassin in Dao Shang Alliance Great Tang's headquarters was naturally very strong.

Except...

In the face of the ancient huge devil, not to mention making a move, he didn't even have the chance to escape. He was directly smashed to the ground by the ancient huge devil's claw! His internal organs were all shattered, and then repeatedly smashed to his death!

There was a faint frown on Tang Jiu's brows as he said: "Thank you for your advice General, but I know what I'm doing."

For a good friend...

Tang Jiu would pay whatever price necessary!

In addition to Blindman Liu helping him out, he was Luo Tian's brother. Just based on that alone, Tang Jiu couldn't give up on him.

"Blindman Liu, you need to hold on."

Tang Jiu then said to himself: "I wonder how Luo Tian and Uncle Wang are doing... they can't be still inside the Spectral Forbidden Grounds, right?"

Anxious!

Battered and bruised from anxiety!

Tang Jiu felt like an ant on a hot pan and didn't know what to do. He could tell the ancient huge devil was being suppressed by Blindman Liu which was why it didn't leave the courtyard. But what if he couldn't suppress it anymore?

Northern city... the entire imperial city...

Tang Jiu's expression hiddenly changed as he shouted internally: "Luo Tian! Hurry up and come back!"

"ROAR~!"

Suddenly...

The ancient huge devil howled into the air.

The sound created a ripple of energy that the naked eye could see. It was similar to a sonic shock wave shooting out and covering the entire Heavenly Sword City! Its eyes started turning bloodshot and the original human like gaze was slowly disappearing.

The ancient huge devil was about to go berserk!

"ROAR~!"

"ROAR~!"

"ROAR~!"

Another three howls rang out! The ancient huge devil had now stopped stomping on the meat pancake while its wings unfurled and created hurricane like winds. The wind kicked up countless stones and debris while causing it to scatter throughout the northern city.

At this time...

Those adventure squads who hadn't even gotten near the ancient huge devil yet were instantly pulverized by its tyrannical energy! They were unable to resist the ancient suppressive might that contained an unparalleled violent aura!

"Your Highness, the ancient huge devil has become berserk."

"If we don't make a move now, I'm afraid not only will the northern city be destroyed, even the entire imperial capital will be threatened."

"Your Highness, give the command. It'll be over if you don't give the command now."

"Give the command!"

"Even if he's your friend, he would probably want you to kill him under these conditions. I don't think he wants to kill any innocent people. Your Highness, quickly give the command!"

Several Generals beside Tang Jiu said this while filled with anxiety.

Since he still hasn't fully become a devil yet, they still stood a chance. If they waited for all the ancient power inside the devil to explode forth, most likely ten times the amount of Black Dragon Legions would still be not enough to block the ancient huge devil's movement.

Inside Harmony Palace.

The middle-aged man had a slight frown. His gaze wasn't on the ancient huge devil but on the figure of Tang Jiu. He was waiting for Tang Jiu to make a choice.

"Ming Er, what decisions will you make?"

The eunuch behind him bowed and said: "Ninth Highness will definitely have the Black Dragon Legion attack. If they don't attack soon, the northern city will be completely finished. Ninth Highness will definitely have these kinds of judgment in mind."

The middle-aged man faintly smiled but didn't say anything.

However...

Tang Jiu was currently waiting while clenching his fists a few times.

Also at this time...

An Imperial Palace Guard came forward to report: "Your Highness, Princess Lasting Peace has brought a group of people with her and wants to enter the north district. Should we stop them?"

Tang Jiu's eyes widened and felt like a 10,000 jin rock had been lifted from his heart. "Quickly let them come through!"

Chapter 274 – A Bunch Of Perverted Existences

Finally back!

They were finally back!

Tang Jiu almost couldn't hold on any longer.

Not only were these Generals watching him, his father, and his brothers who couldn't wait for him to mess up were all watching as well. Maybe everyone in the imperial city was watching his every move so the pressure he felt was extremely heavy.

If Luo Tian didn't show up soon, Tang Jiu really didn't know what choice to make.

But...

Since Luo Tian was back, there was no longer any need for him to personally make a choice.

In Tang Jiu's heart, Luo Tian was a figure capable of everything.

No matter what difficulties one encounters; nothing would go wrong and everything would be solved as long as Luo Tian was present.

However...

What Tang Jiu never imagined was that Wang Jinke returned with an unconscious Luo Tian!

He was dumbstruck.

If Luo Tian was unconscious, how was he going to settle this matter of Blindman Liu transforming into an ancient huge devil? How was this situation going to solve itself?

At this time...

Chen Donglai came over while holding onto An Chunchun.

Feng Lei looked at the ancient huge devil not too far away and asked: "Your Highness, what's going on? How did this place encounter trouble as well? That's a pretty fierce guy over there and it doesn't look like a demonic beast from our Tianxuan Continent. Could it be that it shattered space and come through from a spatial tunnel? Or was this some sort of chain reaction due to Bloodfiend appearing in the Spectral Forbidden Grounds, making a demonic beast come from a spatial tunnel in search of him?"

Wang Jinke had a serious expression on his face as he asked: "Old Chen, what's going on?"

An Chunchun was the first to respond while crying: “He’s, he’s, he’s Uncle Blindman! Uncle Blindman was trying to save us so he let an evil devil come out of his body. You guys cannot kill him! No matter what, he’s still Uncle Blindman!”

“Blindman Liu?”

“Prophet Liu?”

“He...”

The expression of Feng Lei and others turned grim.

Even though they had known him for less than a month, they knew this Blindman to be a greedy fellow who was extremely afraid of death. Although his face was wretched looking and his mouth filled with yellow stained teeth, he has never retreated in the face of danger. He didn’t run away even when dealing with Luo Kun who was an expert at the Profound King realm.

Immediately after...

Tang Tang recalled what happened the other day and her expression changed. She then muttered: “No wonder he told me to quickly run away and not to look back. So it was because... because...”

Tang Jiu’s expression sank and he exhaled a long breath out. He then said: “This only happened because he wanted to save us... a Profound Ancestor 5th rank expert suddenly arrived targeting An Chunchun. In order to protect us, Blindman Liu rushed out to the courtyard and released the ancient huge devil hidden within him. If it weren’t for him, I’m afraid we would be all dead and An Chunchun would be captured by now.”

“What to do?”

“What should we do now?”

Xuan Yuanyi waved his sword and shouted: “No matter what, we cannot have anyone hurt Blindman Liu. We also cannot let him go berserk and start killing the innocent. When our demon race encounters a demonic beast going berserk, there’s only one method to make them submit...”

“What method?”

“Xuan Yuanyi, can you quickly say it?”

Everyone present was looking at him.

Wang Jinke and Chen Donglai’s expression hiddenly changed as they didn’t expect this youth with a sword to be someone of the demon race.

Wang Jinke then started mumbling to himself: “Damn! The people around this kid aren’t ordinary people either! Blood Baldy with some type of mysterious power; Xuan Yuanyi with an identity as a demon race member; and Blindman Liu is even more awesome with his ancient huge devil. This...”

“Even his highness practically worships him.”

“Fine, even I almost can’t hold back and want to worship him as well.”

“What kind of mysterious energy does this kid have to attract these talents? Anyone of them is extraordinary by themselves yet they are all willing to follow him?”

Wang Jinke couldn’t understand the reason.

He couldn’t figure it out at all, while Chen Donglai was even more confused.

Xuan Yuanyi’s brows furrowed to show his seriousness and said: “We should use an even more powerful energy to suppress him. Demonic beasts are different to humans where they only submit to power. This ancient huge devil is most likely very similar, where only demonstrating power stronger than his would he yield.”

“Blindman Liu definitely knows there’s an ancient huge devil inside him.”

“Which means this transformation has happened in the past. This also means he can still revert back to his human appearance. The only problem is the amount of time he will be in this devil state – it could be one hour, one day, or one year. It’s too hard to tell right now.”

As a member of the demon race, Xuan Yuanyi obviously understood the nature of a demonic beast.

The ancient huge devil was also a type of demonic beast, except it came from a world of antiquity possessing unparalleled ancient powers. As long as there was a power to suppress it, it should be able to calm it down. And once the time limit for the transformation is up, Blindman Liu will naturally revert back to his original appearance!

“Good!”

“We’ll act accordingly to that!”

Feng Lei clenched his fists and didn’t bother waiting. His right leg stomp down and his figure shot into the air towards the ancient huge devil. While he was still in the air, he roared out: “Beast Transformation!”

“Roar~!”

As his voice was heard, his body underwent a drastic change.

Feng Lei’s skin turned blood red before pieces of ferocious looking scales that gave off a scarlet glow appeared. His body also doubled in size and gave off a metallic bloody scent while containing a powerful aura.

Ancestral demon!

Xuan Yuanyi had a shocked expression on his face. Sensing the powerful aura coming from Feng Lei's body, he was now certain it was the power of an ancestral demon. The ferocious beast on the back of Feng Lei's head had the form of a demonic beast, and its whole body was blood red. Even though the current beast transformation wasn't fully complete yet, what was seen to the eye clearly showed it was related to the demon race.

Ancestral demon – an early demonic beast that was the ancestor to the demon race!

“Damn!”

“Another perverted existence!”

“This fatty... what, what, what kind of backgrounds does he have?!”

Also at this time...

Xuan Yuanyi's brows formed a frown as his breathing started synchronizing with his Great Fault Sword. Man and sword as one! Boundless sword intent started surging out from his body before his figure shot off as well.

“Damn! Another one!”

“Man and sword as one... this kid's comprehension of the sword dao has already reached the highest level of man and sword as one! He too is merely a child in his teens! These guys, these guys, these guys are too strong!”

“Old Wang, are we getting too old for this?”

Everyone was dumbfounded.

The Generals beside Tang Jiu were also dumbfounded.

These guys didn't have an ounce of fear and rushed out just like that? This was an ancient huge devil man! Even experts at the Profound Ancestor realm cannot handle the ancient huge devil so where does your confidence come from?

Or can we say these guys don't have the word fear in their vocabulary?!

Wang Jinke faintly smiled and said: "Old Chen, this one on my shoulder is even more fierce. You haven't seen what I've witnessed or else you would immediately feel you've wasted your life away these years. These bunch of kids are too extraordinary!"

"We are really getting old; we can't even follow in the footsteps of these children anymore."

Tang Jiu showed a grin and said: "That's of course! How can my, Tang Jiu's idol be ordinary?"

At this time...

An Chunchun looked at Luo Tian and asked: "Grandpa Wang, how is big brother Luo Tian doing?"

Without giving Wang Jinke a chance to respond...

Suddenly...

A loud bang was heard in the sky and Feng Lei was directly smashed flying. His figure crashed into a house completely demolishing it. Another explosive sound was heard as Feng Lei's figure shot out from the rubble with a shout: "Your granny! This daddy refuses to believe that I can't handle you!"

Also at this time...

Wang Jinke heard Luo Tian's voice inside his mind: "Uncle Wang, bring me over!"

Chapter 275 – King

Luo Tian wanted to wake up!

He desperately tried to wake up but his body just wouldn't listen.

The suppression from Bloodfiend almost destroyed his fleshly body. Only when Bloodfiend's primordial spirit died did his body feel like it had become free again. But during the whole process, his body felt like a piece of rock sinking from a height of thousands of meters high and was extremely uncomfortable.

His consciousness was awake...

But his fleshly body couldn't handle it. No matter how hard Luo Tian tried, he just couldn't wake his body up.

Therefore...

He could only send out his thoughts into Wang Jinke's mind so that he would bring him to the ancient huge devil.

Luo Tian clearly heard everything when the group was talking and he was in agreement – no matter what, Blindman Liu cannot die. He became like this in order to save An Chunchun, and because he was Luo Tian's fellow brother.

They were brothers. There is no need for further explanations.

A mountain of blades, a sea of fire, a pot of oil or even hell; they had to rush right in no matter what.

Moreover...

Even experts at the Profound Ancestor realm were not the opponent of the ancient huge devil, so the half beast transformed Feng Lei and Xuan Yuanyi were obviously not its opponent either. They were definitely going to be in deep trouble.

Also another important point...

Was Blindman Liu's appearance really a coincidence?

He called himself a Prophet that was capable of divining out everything in this world. How could he not calculate his own fate?

It was difficult for Luo Tian not to wonder about these things.

Perhaps...

Everything was linked to him!

Luo Tian wasn't completely sure but there was a small chance it was related to him. This was an intuition that's very hard to describe, which was what we would call the sixth sense. "Uncle Wang, bring me over!"

Wang Jinke was a bit startled as he became serious. "Kid, it looks like you're okay now. Your consciousness is fine yet why haven't you woken up yet?"

Luo Tian didn't bother explaining and said: "Uncle Wang, now's not the time to explain this. Bring me over or else it might be too late. I'm afraid fatty and Xuan Yuanyi will be in danger. The ancient huge devil has already gone berserk so it looks like Blindman Liu cannot suppress it any longer. If we are too late, most likely the entire imperial city would also be in danger as well."

Ancient huge devil...

Possessed an incomparable power from the times of antiquity.

How strong was this ancient power? Most likely even Profound Venerates would be suppressed instantly. If it became fully berserk and breaks away from Blindman Liu's control, then there wouldn't be anyone around capable of resisting him.

Wang Jinke didn't continue asking. There was a frown on his face as he said in his mind: "Hey kid, have you thought things through? There's no way you can activate any attacks in your current condition. If you go over there right now, the only outcome would be your death. And there's no way Princess Lasting Peace and his Ninth Highness will agree with my actions."

How could a person unconscious deal with an ancient huge devil?

So what if his mind was awake? He couldn't exert an ounce of strength and was no different than a piece of trash.

Luo Tian had already thought of these issues.

He didn't have time to bother with this. Luo Tian only knew that Blindman Liu was his brother and that he cannot die. He also believed in his intuition. Although his intuition had never been right, he was still very confident in it this time.

Luo Tian then said: "Don't tell them. Uncle Wang, just bring me over. If you encounter any danger, don't worry about me and just throw me down."

Wang Jinke shouted: "What kind of dog's fart are you talking about?! Am I, Wang Jinke that kind of person?!"

Immediately after...

Wang Jinke released his Profound Ancestor realm powers and said with a smile: "Kid, I will accompany you in acting crazy this one time!"

Immediately after...

Wang Jinke leaped into the air and disappeared as he shot towards the ancient huge devil.

“Uncle Wang! What are you doing?!”

“Old Wang! Did you lose your mind?!”

“Where are you taking the smelly scoundrel?!”

“Don’t think you’re from the senior generation and I won’t dare to scold you! You damn old fogey, you better bring this old lady’s bastard back here! You are sending him to his death! He’s already injured so for you to bring him over to such a dangerous area... You’re, you’re, you’re freaking nuts!”

Everyone was dumbstruck.

Wang Jinke’s sudden rush towards the ancient huge devil was completely unexpected. What the hell was happening?! Everyone was just staring at each other with a clueless expression.

At this time...

An Chunchun suddenly said: “Uncle Chen, can you bring me over as well?”

Her expression was very serious.

She had never been this serious before and had no thoughts of playing around.

Chen Donglai asked in shock: “What did you just say? You want to go over as well?”

An Chunchun firmly replied: “En, I want to go there to help big brother Luo Tian. I’m, I’m, I’m afraid with my strength, it will take me forever to reach there. That’s why can you bring me over? Just leave me there and don’t worry about me.”

“Chunchun, what nonsense are you speaking about?”

“Uncle Chen, you can’t bring her over there.”

“That place is very dangerous and even more so if you go there. You are someone Luo Tian is most fond of so nothing can happen to you. If something happens to you, none of us can shoulder that responsibility.”

Everyone unanimously denied her.

An Chunchun was grateful but still said: “Big sisters, big brothers, Uncle Chen, I... I...”

An Chunchun glanced at the Generals beside Tang Jiu before saying with hesitation: “I can understand what the ancient huge devil is saying.”

“Huh?”

“What?”

“You can understand what the ancient huge devil is saying?”

“How is that possible?”

An Chunchun mustered her courage and said with a nod: “I can understand the words of every living creature in this world. This includes trees, flowers, grass, and species people haven’t even discovered yet. Basically... basically, the creatures on this continent aren’t the only living things I can understand.”

Shock!

Incomparable shock!

An Chunchun's hidden ability finally exploded out.

This made everyone present incomparably shocked.

However...

This ability was only a fraction of the abilities she possessed.

The Vice President of the Dao Shang Alliance wasted a lot of money in search of her. In the Ghostly Mountain Range, she was almost in the grasp of his hands but An Chunchun managed to escape. He knew the demon fox clan had a girl with special abilities, and it was capable of making anyone go crazy for!

"Another one!"

Chen Donglai was the first to wake up from the shock. He then said internally: "Every person around this kid is extraordinary!"

Tang Jiu only knew An Chunchun was a member of the demon fox clan and didn't expect her to possess such an ability of this magnitude. His heart was filled with shock as he said internally: "No wonder they sent out an expert at the Profound Ancestor 5th rank. It looks like An Chunchun is extremely unordinary."

Immediately after...

Tang Jiu laughed out loud and said: "Good! Today we shall go crazy just this one time! Everyone will go!"

"Your Highness!"

"Your Highness, please don't be so reckless!"

“Your Highness must think twice about this.”

Those Generals all kneeled down.

Tang Jiu smiled lightly and said: “General Hei Long: You guys don’t need to go and just need to stand guard here. If we happen to die, you guys should all withdraw from this place and have my father invite the old ancestor out of seclusion. If we don’t die, you need to guarantee that the Black Dragon Legion and the Palace Guards don’t attack.”

“Your Highness!”

“...”

Tang Jiu shouted: “This is my command!”

Tang Tang and Qin Yue’er looked at each other before flying up. “We will go ahead first.”

Also at this time...

Chen Donglai held onto An Chunchun and started laughing wildly. “These old bones of mine have lived long enough already, so today I will accompany you in acting crazy!”

Tang Jiu followed right behind.

“Bang~, bang~!”

Two loud sounds were heard as both Xuan Yuanyi and Feng Lei were smashed flying.

At this time...

Wang Jinke finally arrived while carrying Luo Tian. His mind felt like it was sinking as the oppressive pressure of the ancient powers was too strong. He almost couldn't handle it.

The ancient huge devil's eyeballs started moving and then focused right at Luo Tian on the shoulders of Wang Jinke.

His mouth started moving and gave off a series of incoherent noises.

An Chunchun climbed out of Chen Donglai's embrace and looked up at the ancient huge devil. She then said in confusion: "You're calling him King?"

Chapter 276 – Ancient Inheritance

Extreme shock!

A shock that was 10,000 times stronger than the extremes!

An Chunchun's sentence shocked every hidden expert around her, in the imperial city, and inside Harmony Palace.

Everyone!

They heard that sentence: "You're calling him King?"

Everyone was shocked.

Shocked to a complete mess! No one understood what was going on. A huge ancient devil was calling a human, King? What kind of existence was the Ancient World? And what kind of status did this kid possess?

They couldn't understand this!

Apart from being shocked, they were filled with confusion.

“What is she talking about?”

“The ancient huge devil called a human, King?”

“Is she playing a joke on us?”

“Who is this girl anyway? Why can she understand the words coming from the ancient huge devil? She’s definitely randomly spouting nonsense. That’s right! The ancient huge devil is a wild and unyielding creature. Not to mention having it yield, most likely there aren’t many people in the Tianxuan Continent that is capable of being its opponent. He possesses an ancient power capable of destroying everything, so why would he call someone of the human race, King?”

Everyone had turned crazy from hearing those words from An Chunchun.

Wang Jinke was dumbfounded.

Chen Donglai was dumbfounded.

Tang Jiu, Tang Tang, and Qin Yue’er were all dumbfounded.

They were all staring at the towering ancient huge devil. The shock they were experiencing right now was something those on the outside wouldn’t understand. Under the oppressive pressure of the ancient powers, they felt an impulse of wanting to kneel down in worship.

Yet this ancient huge devil was calling Luo Tian – King!

What the hell is going on?

An Chunchun had a serious look on her face. She then turned to the rest of the group and said: "En, it should be right. He is calling big brother Luo Tian, King!"

After receiving An Chunchun's confirmation, everyone became shocked again.

Their outlook on life, values, and the world were completely flipped upside down.

Their brains had become distorted as well!

What in the world is going on? How could it be like this?

What kind of tyrannical existence was the ancient huge devil? It could instantly kill experts at the Profound Ancestor realm! How could it call an unconscious person of the human race as King?

Crazy!

This whole world has become crazy!

Or is it that they can't follow the pace of these perverted existences?

At this time...

Wang Jinke shook his head with a bitter smile. He then helplessly said: "I'm getting too old for this. Old Chen, should we find a place to seclude ourselves and become hermits? This world is no longer ours. This group of kids is too crazy; crazy to the point that my heart almost cannot handle it anymore. I feel like I have lived my life in vain these few hundred years."

Chen Donglai also had this feeling and smiled bitterly. "Old Wang, we should really quit."

Strangely...

Before they had arrived in front of the ancient huge devil...

Wang Jinke was in front of the pact, and Luo Tian's spiritual intent was mysteriously sucked into the ancient huge devil. He couldn't understand how and why this happened. And within this instant, many images of the ancient world started playing in his mind.

Supreme experts capable of destroying the heavens and earth.

Incomparably huge legendary demonic beasts.

Everything he saw revealed the powerful nature of the ancient world.

However...

The last image was fixed onto a cave named Pangu's Cave.

Within this instant, Luo Tian's mind turned grim as he said internally: "Could this be a place related to the supreme being Pangu that created the universe?"

Just when he was filled with uncertainty...

A very soft voice came from Pangu's Cave: "Save me..."

Just two words.

Save me!

Save who? Luo Tian had no clue who to save or how to save. He was completely clueless on how to even reach the ancient world. Strangely, when the voice came out of the cave, he suddenly felt impulsive like all the blood in his body was boiling. Luo Tian had the urge to immediately kill his way to the ancient world to save this person!

In addition to the voice transmission...

The voice was strangely soft and gentle like it was from a woman.

“Could Pangu be a woman?”

“Damn!”

“Could it be Nuwa?”

“I’m over thinking this too much.”

Luo Tian shook his head to stop all the nonsensical thoughts. He then helplessly said: “How am I supposed to save you? I don’t even know where you are and where the ancient world is. How am I supposed to accomplish this?”

Luo Tian was actually complaining in his heart.

At this time...

The voice from the cave then said: “A Profound God Sovereign pierces the void; all things return to oneness.”

“A Profound God Sovereign pierces the void?”

“All things return to oneness?”

“You want me to break through to become a Profound God Sovereign? This... fine. Even though it’s very difficult, I will still think of ways to break into it. So a Profound God Sovereign can pierce the void and enter the ancient world?” Luo Tian unconsciously asked.

“They can! They also cannot!”

Luo Tian rolled his eyes and directly asked: “Shit, can you be a little bit more clear? Can they do it or not?”

“A Profound God Sovereign pierces the void and enters the Paramount World.”

Luo Tian then asked: “What comes after entering the Paramount World?”

“In the Paramount World, there is the Paramount Forbidden Grounds with a gate that leads towards the Ancient World. One can enter the Ancient World upon opening the entrance. But... there’s no way you can open the entrance with your strength. You might not even be able to get near the Paramount Forbidden Grounds.”

Luo Tian then asked: “I will have the cultivation level of a Profound God Sovereign yet I still cannot enter the Paramount Forbidden Grounds?”

“Profound God Sovereign is the weakest cultivation level of the Three Thousand Worlds.”

“F*ck!”

“Weakest of the Three Thousand Worlds, f*ck @$%...” Luo Tian almost exploded out with a string of expletives. If a Profound God Sovereign was the weakest in the Three Thousand Worlds, then his current Profound King cultivation was less than an ant in the Paramount World?

But...

Luo Tian started smiling like a bandit and said: "Oh Great God, you want me to save you but I don't possess the strength. You should know that very clearly... heh heh..."

Who wouldn't act ruthlessly at this point?

The voice directly said: "I will give you a trace of ancient divine intent that is capable of helping you open the ancient gateway. Everything else will be up to your fate and luck."

"Ancient divine intent?"

"It can only be used to open the ancient gateway?"

"F*ck!"

"Then this will be as useful as a strand of hair to this daddy in the Tianxuan Continent!" Luo Tian directly said in a tone of rejection: "Up to my fate? More like up to your fate. You're the one that's waiting for me to save you so if you aren't going to help me with some powers, how the hell am I going to save you?"

"..."

There was a period of silence.

The voice inside Pangu's Cave didn't respond.

It was as if the voice never existed.

Luo Tian was complaining inside as a sense of regret started flooding his heart. He then said to himself: "The ancient divine intent should be quite awesome but now it looks like that's a goner, sigh..."

Luo Tian then asked: "Great God, are you still here?"

“Great God?”

“Damn it, I...”

Ancient divine intent...

He couldn't let it go to waste, right? Even though she said it was to open the ancient gateway, the divine intent was inside his body so he should be able to use it whichever way he wanted to, right?

Thinking up to this point, Luo Tian's guts turned green in regret and wanted to agree to her request.

Just when Luo Tian was about to voice out his acceptance...

The voice once again came from Pangu's Cave: “I will leave a strand of my primordial spirit with you. From today onwards, you will be a disciple of the Ancient Kings. What do you think?”

“Ancient Kings?”

“Gulp~!”

“Wow, this is too awesome!” Luo Tian didn't even pause to think as he head nodded like a chicken pecking rice. “I'm willing! I'm willing! Master, I am completely willing!”

In an instant...

The voice disappeared.

Luo Tian's spiritual intent started moving on its own and directly went inside Pangu's Cave.

Before he was able to examine the environment of Pangu's Cave, his spiritual intent was already out. An energy so powerful beyond his imagination had come back with him as well. The word powerful was actually rather lacking when used to describe this energy.

Also at this time...

The ancient huge devil's mouth trembled. Its huge body then directly kneeled in front of Luo Tian's physical body and used the human language: "King!"

Chapter 277 – Scoundrel

This time they didn't need An Chunchun to be the interpreter!

This time the ancient huge devil directly spoke out in human words.

This made everyone even more shocked than when An Chunchun interpreted the words.

Interpretation.

Many people didn't believe in it.

Many people doubted the interpretation. They refused to believe an ancient huge devil would call an unconscious human as King.

But now...

They couldn't refute it anymore.

This type of shock was harder to endure than the thought of imminent death. Countless experts couldn't accept this and were asking themselves: "What's going on? What the hell is going on? This is completely illogical!"

This was truly illogical.

Luo Tian himself didn't know why he was chosen.

He didn't know why he would gain the ancient inheritance.

He never imagined he would become a disciple of the Ancient Kings from Pangu's Cave. Sometimes things do happen in an illogical manner. Luo Tian was lost in thought before saying internally: "Could it be that there's something wrong with that woman's head? Or did the Luo family ancestors once have a powerful character appear in the past? Or maybe she's the progenitor of the Luo family and wanted him to save her?"

Were any of these correct?

Luo Tian wasn't sure. He had thought up of all these possible reasons but then threw them out and chuckled: "It must be this brother's character and handsome looks. It should be like this, hahaha..."

Laughing.

Laughing in a happy and cheap manner.

Laughing himself to a complete mess.

Gaining an ancient inheritance and a strand of primordial spirit – what kind of awesome existence was that? Making an ancient huge devil kneel down and call him King – how cool was that? The current Luo Tian really hated himself for being unconscious or else he would definitely show off in a high profile manner. He would probably cry out to the entire imperial city: "Do you see me now? This daddy is super awesome!"

If Murong Wanjian was present...

Luo Tian would point his finger at his nose and say: “You’re already despicable enough yet still want to call yourself myriad of despicableness? 1 You dare to compete with me over a girl? Do you believe this daddy can play you to death anytime I want?”

Moreover...

Luo Tian would definitely show a cool expression and then say to all the women of Heavenly Sword City: “Looking for a husband? You definitely need to find a man as cool as me.”

If this were the case...

Most likely all the women in Heavenly Sword City would be seduced by him.

How awesome would this be?

Unfortunately...

Your sister! How come this daddy can’t wake up?!

Luo Tian was extremely annoyed and felt hurt by this. How could he be unconscious during such an exciting moment? Just the idea of seeing everyone’s shocked expression made him excited.

When it was time to show off, you had to do it to the extreme!

Luo Tian was never closed minded when it came to this. One’s life will pass by in a breeze, so one should enjoy it while they can; be high-profile when the time is right. He also wanted his enemies to see that if you wish to touch this daddy, you need to calculate wisely of the cost!

The ancient huge devil kneeled down. He then used a poorly pronounced yet rather respectfully clear voice: "King!"

After those words...

Luo Tian sent his intent over and commanded: "Revert back to your human body."

"Yes!"

The ancient huge devil's body curled up and slowly became smaller in less than half a minute. The body looked pale and was covered in a transparent mucous substance. Seeing how everyone was staring at him, Blindman Liu smiled revealing his yellow stained teeth and said: "A topless Blindman Liu appears with a blank expression and a broken erhu hanging around his neck!"

As his voice faded, he immediately fainted right after.

Xuan Yuanyi rushed up to support him.

Blindman Liu was actually laughing like crazy inside. His excitement was even higher than Luo Tian as he said: "It really is him! Master didn't lie to me, hahaha! I, Blindman Liu will be reborn and will no longer need to suppress it!"

He had been desperately suppressing the evil devil inside of him all these years.

Every night, he would see the same evil devil in his dream smashing the Master of the Dharma Temple to his death. This was the devil he had lived with his whole life but now it was gone. He started smiling. Even when he fainted, his lips curved into a smile that showed the joy he was experiencing. There was even some tear seeping out at the corner of his eyes.

Today...

Was his, Blindman Liu's day of rebirth!

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

In front of the Harmony Palace, a middle-aged man was laughing out in joy. He hadn't laughed in such a joyous manner in many years. He then said: “Hong Wanfu, I'm afraid you weren't as fierce as this guy back then, hahaha...”

He continued laughing as he left the palace.

Behind him was an old eunuch who shivered but then smiled lightly and said: “Our Great Tang finally has a person comparable to Murong Wanjian. The heavens are blessing my Great Tang!”

Dao Shang Alliance.

Qi Fu was unhappy. Extremely unhappy because his ace expert had died.

He was unhappy because there were so many experts around An Chunchun.

He was also unhappy because the ancient huge devil had kneeled before that person.

All in all...

Almost everything today made him very unhappy. But there was one thing that made him happy, and that was Vice President Wang Rulai will be coming to Heavenly Sword City.

In plain words...

The Dao Shang Alliance's annual auction at Heavenly Sword City was about to begin.

The little demon fox clan girl has definitely come here because of her mother. Therefore, he will definitely find a way to capture her as well. Thinking to this point, the originally unhappy Qi Fu started smiling in happiness again. Except his smile was rather ferocious and evil looking!

Sea Cloud Sect.

"Young master, the ten day agreement the day after... in my opinion..."

"There's no need for your opinion, I will definitely defeat him." Nangong Hao was irritated because today's matter allowed Luo Tian stand in the limelight. This had completely overshadowed him, Sea Cloud Sect's once in a century genius of the sword. A few days ago, he was ridiculing Luo Tian as a village bumpkin but now his status had become completely different. When Luo Tian was compared to him now, it had been turned around where he had become the village bumpkin instead. This made Nangong Hao extremely irritated.

"Just you wait..."

"The day after tomorrow, I will stomp you to death in front of everyone in the city. It will be as simple as stomping an ant to death."

After saying that...

Nangong Hao pulled out a dark green medicinal pill and placed it in front of Elder Sun. He then said with a cold smile: "Are you still worried about me now?"

“Profound Burst Bill?!”

“A spirit grade medicinal pill?”

“After consuming this, one’s strength would be raised by two small realms. This medicinal pill...”

Nangong Hao lightly chuckled and said: “My master gave me this yesterday so you guys will have a good show tomorrow. I will make that dog thing Luo Tian kneel down before me. I will humiliate him so badly in front of that slut Tang Tang that he will forever have a psychological shadow in his heart, hahaha...”

The ninth day.

Luo Tian was still the same in his unconscious state.

His fleshly body still hadn’t recovered yet.

Blindman Liu was as lively as a dragon. It was from unbeknownst where but he managed to get his hands on another shabby looking erhu. With his yellow stained teeth revealed by a smile, he would then play some harsh sounding tunes with an intoxicated look on his face. He was completely ignoring the feelings of the people around him.

Night time.

Inside a room.

There was Tang Tang, Qin Yue’er, and Luo Tian who was lying on the bed unconscious.

“Smelly scoundrel, if you don’t wake up soon, I’ll be getting engaged to that Nangong Hao tomorrow.”

“Hey bastard, if you don’t wake up soon, little sister Tang Tang will become someone else’s wife.”

“You don’t want to watch me getting engaged to Nangong Hao right?”

Tears started coming down Tang Tang’s cheeks.

Qin Yue’er closed the door. She then directly took off her clothes and was only left with her body wrap and her underwear. Her body was snow white without a blemish in sight. She then started taking off Tang Tang’s clothes as well.

Eventually, she then started caressing her large breasts before slowly untying the strings on her body wrap. She then said in a seductive tone: “Are you waking up yet? We’re about to strip completely naked...”

Chapter 278 – Sexual Happiness For The Night?

“Ahhh...!”

Tang Tang shrieked when her clothes were suddenly stripped off by Qin Yue’er.

Her body was also snow white and possessed a distinctive fragrant smell. Her body was flawless, especially her two trembling rabbits beneath her body wrap. Two pink dots faintly poked out from her chest, showing that they were hard and upright.

“Wow!”

“Little sister Tang Tang, I couldn’t tell at all! Your chest is actually bigger than I thought!” Qin Yue’er’s gaze trembled a bit as her expression was similar to Luo Tian’s back then. She gently placed her hand on the back of Tang Tang’s shoulder while touching the butterfly knot string of the body wrap. She gently pulled the string and said: “Do you want the scoundrel to quickly wake up?”

Tang Tang started blushing before faintly nodding: “En.”

How could she not?

Tomorrow was the agreed on 10 day battle date. If Luo Tian doesn't wake up, what was she going to do?

In addition...

This matter had blown up to the point of the entire city knowing about it.

If Luo Tian doesn't wake up, Nangong Hao would be incomparably smug and arrogant about it. She would also have to be engaged to him so no matter what, she wanted Luo Tian to wake up.

But...

Luo Tian was still unconscious like he hadn't slept for over ten thousand years. His deep slumber had made her incomparably anxious.

Qin Yue'er started smiling charmingly. She looked at the silent sleeping Luo Tian and noticed his crotch area had a reaction. "Bastard, if you don't wake up now, she will become mine to play with. Her clothes are almost all gone so aren't you going to open your eyes to take a look?"

Open!

Luo Tian was desperately trying to open his eyes.

But...

It felt like there was a 10,000 jin weight on his eyelids so no matter how much he struggled, he couldn't open his eyes. "Damn it! Oh heavens, you can't screw me over like this! This is the perfect time for me to get rid of my virgin status! It's even a threesome!"

“This is the legendary threesome...!”

“F*ck! Can you not understand it’s a threesome?! Can you not try to pity the bitterness of being a virgin for two lifetimes?!”

Bitterness.

This type of bitterness is something others cannot understand.

Two beautiful girls were about to be completely naked before his eyes, yet he was still unconscious and unable to wake up. What kind of scenario was this?!

It’s okay not to wake up but...

Luo Tian’s conscious and brains were functioning so his physiological response was naturally working fine. When those two stripped off their clothes leaving only a small body wrap and small underwear, his groin area reacted fiercely! A fiery rage was burning inside him and that feeling was killing him!

Qin Yue’er grinned and pulled Tang Tang along as they sat on the side of the bed. Her hand was gently placed by Luo Tian’s groin area and her cheeks became rosy. She still maintained her charming demeanor and said: “Bastard, your reaction is quite strong.”

After saying that...

Her hand clenched together and directly grabbed Luo Tian’s little brother in her hand.

“Bang~!”

Luo Tian’s body was burning hot like a stream of fire was about to erupt. The current him was like a volcano about to spew out magma! The magma was churning about so much that he could barely stand the feeling!

Tang Tang turned even redder when she saw how daring Qin Yue'er was. Even her neck had turned bright red now. Looking at Luo Tian, she slowly undid the butterfly knot on her body wrap and it slowly fell off...

Her little rabbits became big rabbits.

It was standing straight, tall and large. Her skin was like white jade and her veins could be seen in certain areas.

Even though Luo Tian couldn't see it, he could still sense them.

A person possessing the strength of a Profound King ranker could naturally sense everything around them.

Blood was gushing into his brains.

In less than half a second, a hot metallic liquid gushed out of his nose and mouth.

He had a nose bleed.

Also at this moment, the tent shape in Luo Tian's groin almost looked like it wanted to reach the skies! That momentum and overbearing aura seemed like it wanted to pierce through the skies! It was becoming thicker and larger causing Qin Yue'er who was still holding onto it to have rippling emotions go through her!

Her emotions were more complicated than Luo Tian's.

She was also more nervous.

Even though she kept teasing and flirting with Luo Tian, she had only shown such attitude to him alone. She had no experience whatsoever and was only doing things according to her own imaginations. Feeling the huge changes to Luo Tian's groin, Qin Yue'er momentarily didn't know what her next step should be. Her cheeks turned redder and were just like Tang Tang, the redness becoming a complete mess.

“Smelly scoundrel, I’ve already done this much and you’re still not waking up?”

“What else do you want me to do?”

Tang Tang pretended to be angry. She pouted and then said: “As long as you wake up, I’ll, I’ll, I’ll give my body to you.”

The moment she said those words...

Tang Tang’s words turned softer and softer and her head bent so low that it almost reached her knees. Her face was so red that juice could come out of them at any time.

Also at this time...

Qin Yue’er’s right hand started moving as she undid her own body wrap. The red body wrap slipped down and a pair of super big rabbits exploded out. They were super big, super firm, super to the point that it couldn’t super anymore! Her pair of big rabbits were capable of doing anything!

Awesome!

Awesome to the point of beyond awesome!

Tang Tang was dumbstruck as she muttered: “Big sister Yue’er, yours are really big! How did you make them become so big?”

Qin Yue’er giggled charmingly and said: “Yours will also be this big in the future, hee hee...”

“Really?”

“Of course it’s for real.”

“Is there something you normally eat to make them grow so big?”

“Normally... I have been squeezed by this asshole to the point of them being this big.”

“Ahhh...?”

“Hahaha, I’m just kidding with you. But this asshole has really squeezed them quite a few times and they really seem to have become bigger.”

Those two were having a conversation centered on being “big” for almost two hours.

Eventually...

Qin Yue’er suddenly remembered them two were here to stimulate Luo Tian. She grabbed Luo Tian’s groin again and said seductively: “Bastard, could it be that you don’t wish to foster that kind of relationship with us right now?”

“There are two beauties accompanying you right now.”

“If you don’t wake up soon, you will lose this opportunity and will regret it for the rest of your life.”

Luo Tian was actually crying his heart out as he said to himself: “I wish to ask this world if there’s anyone more bitter than me, Luo Tian. I... Bloodfiend, you motherf*cker! If it weren’t for you, this daddy would have f*cked them both already!”

There was so much hatred inside his heart.

Yet he still couldn't wake up.

The night was becoming later.

Tang Tang was getting more depressed as she muttered: "It looks like tomorrow I will really be getting engaged with Nangong Hao."

"It won't happen!"

"This bastard will definitely wake up." Qin Yue'er tried comforting her. She didn't know what Luo Tian had experienced but she understood he must be extremely exhausted from the endeavor. Otherwise, he would've woken up no matter what by now.

"I can only hope..."

Late into the night.

Those two unknowingly fell asleep. Each one of them was lying on one of Luo Tian's shoulder as they slept deeply.

Luo Tian's spiritual senses didn't sleep the whole night.

He was waiting... waiting for the moment he would wake up and immediately overturn the heavens with his threesome.

But he still didn't wake up the next morning.

There was a round of knocking on the door so those two girls quickly got dressed. Tang Tang looked at Luo Tian in a depressed mood and said: "Smelly scoundrel, see you later. Thank you for giving me such happiness these past days. Thank you. I will always remember you."

Chapter 279 – Prepared To Die

At a certain peak of the imperial city...

Nangong Hao stood in the air with a hint of cold arrogance on his face. The white robe he was wearing was fluttering in the wind while the Yellow Dragon Sword beside him gave off a powerful sword intent in an overbearing manner.

Today...

Was a big day for him!

It was time to stomp Luo Tian to death, who had been in the limelight stealing all the attention.

He wanted to prove to the world that Luo Tian was just a bumpkin with a bit of luck. In front of him, Nangong Hao, Luo Tian was just a piece of trash and nothing more. Luo Tian was someone doomed for failure and will never be able to get back up in his life.

Early in the morning.

Nangong Hao had arrived already.

According to his designs, news of his battle with Luo Tian had been spread throughout the city.

He wanted to step on Luo Tian in front of everyone in the city.

He had to humiliate Luo Tian to the point of no redemption.

He had to release all the resentment inside him that had accumulated these past few days. He had to send a warning to the world that those who try to snatch his, Nangong Hao's women will only have one outcome – death!

Morning.

The sky was blue and the sun was slowly rising.

There was a large square in the imperial city that was filled with people. These spectators had already arrived here last night in order to get a good seat in anticipation for this big battle.

They didn't know who Luo Tian was.

They kind of knew what happened in the northern city but they didn't know who destroyed the King of Northern City Du Yuansong. They didn't know who had assaulted the Spectral Forbidden Grounds single-handedly; they didn't know who killed one of the top ten Devil Sovereigns Bloodfiend, and they didn't know who made the ancient huge devil kneel before them and call them King.

The spectators didn't know any of these things.

They obviously didn't recognize who Luo Tian was but they all know who Nangong Hao was.

Sea Cloud Sect's future Sect Leader.

He was currently the junior sect leader; Nangong Jue's only son who broke through to the Profound King realm in his twenties. When he was born, he woke up the Yellow Dragon Sword who had been slumbering for over ten thousand years. What terrified everyone the most was his sword intent had been cultivated to the highest realm – man and sword as one.

There were also rumors that through the Yellow Dragon Divine Sword, he comprehended some type of super sword skill.

Practically everyone in Heavenly Sword City knew about this.

Very strong!

In the younger generation, Nangong Hao was ranked in the top ten!

Apart from the Shattered Sky City's Murong Wanjian and the Purple Soul Temple's Violet Organization young phoenix Li Xue'er, there weren't that many people in the younger generation that could be compared to him.

All of this...

Was the capital that allowed Nangong Hao to walk around proudly.

And originally, nothing was going to change. Nangong Hao would only progress in an ideal direction – marry Princess Lasting Peace and gain the imperial qi that only the Great Tang imperial family possessed. When that was fused with his cultivation, he will quickly propel himself forward and break into the Profound Ancestor realm.

He will then be Sea Cloud Sect's youngest and most powerful Sect Leader.

He will also become third place in Tianxuan Continent's Gold Ranking List.

This was something Nangong Hao planned himself and everything would turn out perfect. But somehow, a Luo Tian appeared.

Luo Tian's appearance made his perfect plans all go awry and distorted.

He hated Luo Tian.

A bumpkin from the countryside wanted to compete with him?

Was Luo Tian even qualified to snatch a woman from him?

And he was trying to snatch a Princess of the Great Tang. This made Nangong Hao very annoyed. Luo Tian had been in the limelight these few days with the upper ranks of the city and had completely suppressed Nangong Hao's reputation, which made him even more annoyed.

However...

The annoyance he had been feeling had disappeared today.

Because...

Today, he was going to use the most humiliating method to smash Luo Tian down with a single sword strike. He was going to make Luo Tian kneel before him! Thinking to this point, Nangong Hao started unconsciously laughing like crazy: "Hahaha! Luo Tian, a damn dog thing like you will definitely die today! Hahaha..."

Suddenly...

There was a commotion in the crowds.

"Princess Lasting Peace has arrived!"

With their mighty auras, the Palace Guards were opening up a path.

Tang Tang had changed back to her Princess attire and looked extremely graceful. Her expression showed a majestic look that only the imperial family would possess, and her appearance immediately caused a commotion with the spectators.

"Princess Lasting Peace is so beautiful."

“No wonder Nangong Hao would lower his status to battle an unknown village bumpkin for her.”

“This isn’t right! Who is Nangong Hao and what status does he have? He is Sea Cloud Sect’s junior sect leader! His status is not lower than the status of our Great Tang’s Prince. Fighting with an unknown bumpkin in a battle is truly harming his identity. But since he’s fighting for his beloved woman, hurting his prestige is still an act that others would admire.”

“It would be great if I could marry a man like Nangong Hao. Look at him standing in the air with his Yellow Dragon Sword moving to his will; he basically looks like an immortal! He’s so handsome that it’s a complete mess!”

When Tang Tang appeared, her expression was cold with a trace of sadness in her frown. One could also tell there was a look of worry on her face.

Tang Jiu went forth to meet them and asked with a frown: “Luo Tian still hasn’t woken up?”

Tang Tang shook her head and didn’t say anything.

Tang Jiu’s expression turned grim and asked: “Uncle Wang, what happened in the Spectral Forbidden Grounds? It’s almost three days now and he still hasn’t woken up.”

Wang Jinke exhaled heavily and said: “I don’t really know what happened but I do know the pain he has experienced is beyond our imagination. If it was me in his shoes, I’m afraid I wouldn’t be able to hold on at all.”

Wang Jinke wasn’t exaggerating.

He really didn’t know what happened inside Luo Tian’s body.

The only thing he knew was that that pain Luo Tian had suffered was beyond what words could describe. This type of pain was something Wang Jinke would never in his life encounter nor tolerate.

A tear slowly slid down Tang Tang's face as she said: "Elder brother, I really don't want to marry Nangong Hao. I really don't want to marry him."

After saying that...

Tears started flowing down.

She was crying her eyes out.

Filled with pain.

Tang Jiu's heart ached from looking at her and said: "I will go plead with imperial father."

Tang Tang shook her head and said: "It's useless; imperial father won't even see me. You going to plead him will be the same. Since this matter was proposed by me, then the responsibility will be shouldered by me."

It was Tang Tang that proposed the battle in ten days.

It was her that said if Nangong Hao wins, she will be engaged to him.

Everything was said by her.

As a Princess, she had to be responsible for the words she had spoken.

Tang Jiu frowned as he couldn't think of any solutions.

At this time...

Nangong Hao's voice that contained a trace of smugness said: "Your Highness, how come that bumpkin hasn't shown up? Don't tell me he's afraid of me and doesn't dare to come? Or has he hidden himself somewhere like a turtle?"

"Wasn't he really arrogant back then?"

"Why does he not show himself now?"

Nangong Hao's voice was loud and clear.

The surrounding crowd immediately erupted into discussions.

"That village bumpkin kid is definitely afraid to show up."

"Apart from Murong Wanjian and Li Xue'er of the younger generation, who would dare to be Nangong Hao's opponent?"

"That's right! That kid is definitely scared."

Tang Tang's heart turned grim and wanted to curse out, but was held back by Tang Jiu. Tang Jiu then said with a smile: "Brother Nangong, it's still early now so there's no need to be in such a rush."

"Early?"

"It's not early anymore. Didn't Ninth highness arrive here very early already? A village bumpkin like him not appearing is considered a great disrespect to your highness" said Nangong Hao as he pretended to have the moral high ground.

Tang Jiu's expression faintly turned serious.

Tang Tang couldn't endure anymore and directly scolded: "Nangong Hao, don't act so smug you despicable villain! Bumpkin this, bumpkin that, what gives you the right to call him a bumpkin? What kind of crap do you think you are? With your high and mighty look, do you really think you're all that? In reality, you're the real bumpkin here, humph!"

Immediately after...

Tang Tang said softly: "Even if I have to die, I refuse to be engaged to you."

She was already prepared to die!

Chapter 280 – Dragon's Might

On the way back to the imperial palace, she was already thinking about this.

Her thoughts were in a mess as she thought about everything.

She started smiling when she thought of Luo Tian. Her smile was really brilliant completely filled with joy. In the end, she started crying her eyes out.

The moment she entered the imperial palace...

Her thoughts were in order as if she made up her mind. No matter what happens, she would never get engaged to Nangong Hao. Even if Luo Tian doesn't appear and Nangong Hao wins by default, she would not become engaged to him. She would rather choose to die first!

Death!

This was her last choice.

To her, this was practically the only choice she had.

It was better to die than to marry someone she hated.

This determination became firmer and firmer inside Tang Tang's heart. In the end, she clenched her fists and said internally: "Smelly scoundrel, you must remember me in the future!"

Tang Jiu frowned as he shouted: "Thirteenth Sister, what nonsense are you talking about?! What to die or not to die are you spouting about? Luo Tian will definitely rush here, and he will definitely defeat Nangong Hao. Even if he doesn't rush here in time, you still don't need to commit suicide. Every problem has a solution. I know you don't like Nangong Hao and I also dislike him as well, but there's no need for you to use your life as the stakes. I believe imperial father has his plans. He cherishes you the most so he will definitely not let you marry someone that you don't like."

Tang Jiu's heart also started getting anxious.

He was very clear on Tang Tang's personality; once she makes up her mind, it would be really hard to change it.

The choice she made had really worried Tang Jiu now. In order to not put their imperial father in an awkward position, she was really capable of doing anything.

"Luo Tian, how come you still haven't woken up yet?"

"Tang Tang has already made the choice to kill herself. If you don't show up soon, you will never see my little sister in your life again. Did you know that you're her idol? You don't know how much she worships you when I told her about all of your deeds. She admires you more than my admiration to you!"

Flame Dragon Gang.

Luo Tian's room.

"Boss, can you quickly wake up? If you don't wake up soon, sister-in-law Tang Tang will be gone."

"Boss, how can you be unconscious at such a critical time?"

"Bastard, if you don't wake up soon, this old lady is going to flip out on you!"

"Big brother Luo Tian, big sister Tang Tang was crying really hard when she left. You need to quickly wake up! Chunchun is really sad when seeing big sister Tang Tang like that, wuuu~..."

"Dragon Head, do you want me to play you the Melody of Death?"

"Scram!"

The three of them shouted at Blindman Liu at the same time.

Blindman Liu had started to play the something something Melody of Death but the song sounded so horrible that one wanted to seek death themselves.

An Chunchun had a serious look on her face as she said: "Uncle Blindman, you shouldn't play this song. If you continue playing this awful sounding song, I'm afraid big brother Luo Tian will never wake up."

Blindman Liu didn't care about the blows to his confidence. He smiled while revealing his stained yellow teeth and said: "It sounds awful? I feel that it's not that bad. Maybe it's the cultural level of you guys that can't keep up with my rhythm?"

Everyone present wanted to throw up.

Everyone glared at Blindman Liu until he had to hide his face from shame. It was only then did they stop glaring at him.

Luo Tian was lying on the bed.

He was actually the one that was the most anxious.

Tang Tang was a nice and pretty girl. Even if Luo Tian cannot marry her, she cannot marry a scum like Nangong Hao.

At this time...

Luo Tian was desperately trying to wake up, but the impact of Bloodfiend's primordial spirit was simply too huge. Even if he was capable of controlling his own thoughts, he had no way to control his body to wake up.

His fleshly body had been overdrawn to the limit.

Until his body recovers, Luo Tian still won't be able to wake up even if he tries desperately.

In regards to this...

He had started to hate himself. If Tang Tang had to be engaged to Nangong Hao due to his fault, he would hate himself to the max. But he will later kill his way to the Sea Cloud Sect and then bring Tang Tang back.

This was the choice Luo Tian planned to make.

No matter what the conclusion will be, he was not going to let Tang Tang marry Nangong Hao.

If he doesn't wake up today, he will lose by default.

But as long as he can wake up, Nangong Hao will be guaranteed to lie beneath his foot.

Noon, the hot sun was high in the sky.

Nangong Hao was standing at a peak of the imperial city. There were small beads of sweat on his forehead and a very annoyed expression on his face. He then said in a tone full of blame: "Ninth Highness, how much longer until that bumpkin comes?"

"My guess is that he won't be coming today."

"Since he still hasn't appeared by now, it looks like his heart doesn't have Tang Tang or you, Ninth Highness. These types of people who disregard an emperor's prestige should have all nine familial connections exterminated."

Nangong Hao was extremely annoyed.

What kind of status did he have? What kind of status did Luo Tian have?

He had been waiting for half a day and not even Luo Tian's shadow was seen. The worst thing about this was that he had to continue waiting, which was extremely humiliating for him.

Tang Jiu was trying to suppress the anger inside him as he said with a faint smile: "Brother Nangong, don't be anxious. You made a ten day agreement with him but the tenth day isn't over yet. If we knew this was going to happen, we should've made a ten day agreement with a specified time of the morning hours. That way, you would've already won by default."

There was no other way.

Tang Jiu could only use this kind of method to delay the fight.

And to give Luo Tian more time.

Half a day passed by yet Luo Tian still hadn't woken up yet. Tang Jiu's heart turned grim as he said internally: "Idol, how come you still haven't shown up yet? If you still don't show up, I really won't be able to hold on any longer."

Tang Tang was sitting off to the side with a dull and expressionless face.

At this moment...

The crowd of spectators sitting around the square that wanted to see a big battle started complaining.

"Isn't that kid a bit too arrogant?"

"What are we waiting for? Just announce that Nangong Hao has won! That kid won't show up. My guess is that he's currently hiding in a dog's hole shivering in fright!"

"That's right!"

"Just make the announcement! Princess Lasting Peace and young master Nangong are a pair made in heaven. The two of them are practically a perfect match for each other. The Great Tang and Sea Cloud Sect will have a closer relationship with each other, so doesn't that work out well? Why are we still even waiting?"

"..."

The crowd started clamoring and discussing this.

They were all outraged on behalf of Nangong Hao.

A long-awaited big battle ended in such a manner, which made them extremely annoyed.

At the same time...

Inside the hearts of the crowd, they clearly believed that Luo Tian wouldn't show up because he was desperately afraid for his life.

If they were in Luo Tian's shoes, they most likely wouldn't show up either.

The result of showing up here would be death, so why would they make their own lives difficult like that?

Hearing the complaints getting louder as time passed, Tang Jiu's frown became even deeper. He then inquired again: "Uncle Chen, has Uncle Wang returned yet?"

Chen Donglai shook his head and said: "He hasn't. I'm afraid Luo Tian hasn't woken up yet, sigh~..."

Tang Tang smiled bitterly as she muttered: "Ninth brother, you don't understand how much pain Luo Tian has suffered. His body has been overexerted so don't force him; let him rest a while longer. I will solve my matters by myself."

Tang Jiu's heart started aching as he looked at Tang Tang.

Around this time...

While still lying on the bed, Luo Tian's body started twitching.

A stream of unparalleled energy containing dragon's might coursed through his body. After being stimulated by this energy, the pain in his fleshly body felt like it had been alleviated by a lot.

"Hey kid, if you don't wake up soon, my daughter will be marrying someone else."

Dragon's might?!

Great Tang's Emperor – Tang Zhanlong's voice!
