

Leveling Up 281

Chapter 281 – This Big Brother Has Arrived!

Luo Tian felt like his body was sinking.

The energy of the dragon's might was coursing through his meridians, blood, bones, and his skin. It seemed like every inch of his body was undergoing a change. This energy was extremely strange as it made the pain from his fleshly body rapidly disappear.

Luo Tian felt so comfortable that he almost moaned out loud!

And the voice that sounded off in his mind made him unconsciously shiver.

“Daughter?”

“Dragon's might?”

“This...”

“The monarch of the Great Tang – Tang Zhanlong?” Luo Tian was frightened at the thought of this as he never expected his well-being to be something the Great Tang Dynasty's Emperor would care about. And the Emperor didn't care about depleting his true energy by using his dragon might on him! This made Luo Tian extremely grateful.

“Thank you!”

“There's no need for thanks. My cute, innocent, and usually happy girl has been made very unhappy by you. If you don't wake up soon and make her happy, I will not spare you.”

“Huh?”

Luo Tian was startled but said: “I will make her happy her entire life!”

“Now wake up for me.”

As his voice faded, another round of dragon might’s energy coursed through Luo Tian’s body. All the pain in Luo Tian’s fleshly body seemed like it was flushed out and disappeared. He opened his eyes and shouted: “Motherf*cker, this daddy is finally awake!”

Everyone inside the room was staring at him with eyes wide and mouths agape.

They were excited to a complete mess!

At this moment...

It was already late in the afternoon and almost turning dark.

If...

Luo Tian doesn’t show up soon, Tang Jiu won’t be able to hold the situation back anymore. Nangong Hao would win by default and that evening, he would once again speak to Tang Zhanlong about the engagement. Tang Tang would have no more excuses to refuse since this condition was something she proposed.

-----

“Cough~, cough~, cough~...”

Inside Harmony Palace.

Tang Zhanlong lightly coughed a few times while his face was clearly pale. He then said: "What did this kid experience? How did he endure that kind of pain for so long? Could it be that he's related to the phenomenon in the sky a few days back?"

"Or could it be that Bloodfiend's primordial spirit that has been sealed inside the Spectral Forbidden Grounds for ten thousand years was taken care of by..."

"What a good kid!"

"Cough~, cough~..."

Tang Zhanlong started coughing while speaking.

He was an expert at the Profound Venerate realm.

How unbearable was the pain if even he was shocked about it?

Tang Zhanlong didn't hesitate to consume his sparse true energy to release his dragon's might, but he didn't expect that the first dragon's might wasn't able to completely remove the pain in Luo Tian's fleshly body. He also planned on using his dragon's might to transform Luo Tian's body structure as well, yet another unexpected outcome of it being completely useless happened again.

After all, Nangong Hao was an expert at the Profound King 7th rank.

It was too far apart when comparing to Luo Tian's current strength.

Based on strength alone, Luo Tian wasn't his opponent at all. Tang Zhanlong wanted to help him out a bit with his dragon's might energy but he never expected the pain in Luo Tian's fleshly body to be this powerful. He couldn't help think about what might have happened inside the Spectral Forbidden Grounds.

If Luo Tian was really the one that destroyed Bloodfiend's primordial spirit, then he was much more powerful than Hong Wanfu.

Back then...

Human Emperor was only capable of sealing Bloodfiend's primordial spirit.

But this kid was able to kill Bloodfiend, so how crazy was this?

This made Tang Zhanlong become extremely optimistic about Luo Tian's future. He didn't hesitate to release a second dragon's might to completely wash away the pain inside Luo Tian's fleshly body. His heart was feeling a bit excited as he said internally: "Kid, you need to try your best to stir up more stuff so that the world will tremble before you!"

The old eunuch behind Tang Zhanlong had been shocked stiff.

This has never happened before!

The Great Tang's Emperor had injected two streams of dragon's might into a person he had never even met yet. What kind of good luck did this kid have?

"Your majesty, you've hurt your vitality like this just for him..."

"Hahaha..."

"I didn't do it for him but for the future of our Great Tang. This kid is not simple at all. His potential might be much stronger than the son of a true dragon Murong Wanjian! Shattered Sky City has been suppressing our Great Tang for several decades so it's now time for us to pay them back" said Tang Zhanlong with a faint smile.

In fact...

Inside his heart, Luo Tian wasn't comparable to Murong Wanjian just yet but his potential did exceed Murong Wanjian by a lot.

Tang Zhanlong even felt that Luo Tian was capable of becoming a Profound God Sovereign and pierce through the void.

If Luo Tian became a person of the Great Tang Dynasty, then his dynasty would not collapse for a billion years in the Tianxuan Continent.

Two streams of dragon's might will be considered an investment.

If his investment succeeds, then his return will be huge!

-----

Sunset, at a peak of the imperial city.

Nangong Hao had basked in the sun for a whole day, and now his face was a bit darker with a faintly embarrassed expression. He couldn't endure anymore and asked: "Ninth Highness, it's time to make the announcement now, right? That grandson bumpkin is definitely not going to show up."

Nangong Hao was extremely angry. If he weren't facing so many people still in the area, he would've gone berserk already.

"A bumpkin from the countryside made this daddy wait a full day!"

"Tang Jiu deserves to die too!"

"You cheap slut also deserves to die as well! Once you marry me and I gain the imperial qi, I will let you experience my, Nangong Hao's methods! You damn cheap slut, I will make you pay for everything that has happened these past few days!" Nangong Hao was fiercely scolding in his mind.

Tang Jiu was also suppressing a belly full of fire. The sun had almost finished setting in the west as he said with a smile: "Brother Nangong, we've waited practically a whole day so there's no harm in waiting a little bit more. The sun hasn't fully set yet, right?"

Tang Jiu's heart almost died from anxiety as he said to himself: "Idol, can you quickly show up?!"

Tang Tang stood up with no signs of anxiety. She looked rather calm; a calm expression that has never before seen. Looking at the sun setting, a faint smile appeared on her face. It was a smile that was capable of moving many hearts.

Looking at her expression, Tang Jiu's heart became even more anxious.

Nangong Hao's gaze sharpened as cracking sounds could be heard from his teeth clenching. "Fine, we'll wait a bit more!"

"That's good then."

"Brother Nangong, you are Sea Cloud Sect's junior sect leader. Be a bit more magnanimous and don't let others look down on our Sea Cloud Sect" said Tang Jiu.

Nangong Hao sneered coldly while he said to himself: "Now you know you're a person of our Sea Cloud Sect? My Sea Cloud Sect doesn't have a person like you that's equivalent to a pile of dog shit! Wait until I become the Sect Leader; I will definitely kick you out of the sect by then! Humph!"

The spectators in the large square had been slowly decreasing as time went by.

They were the same as Nangong Hao – feeling extremely annoyed with the waiting.

They thought they had come for a huge battle.

They never expected to bask in the sun like an idiot for an entire day. They were afraid of missing the battle so they didn't even leave for a meal.

After waiting for so long, the hatred they had for Luo Tian was possibly stronger than Nangong Hao's. They had a feeling like they were completely played with.

"Don't let me see that kid on the streets or else I will definitely beat him to death!"

"Motherf*cker, he made us wait for a full day! This daddy has almost died from hunger! That bumpkin deserves to die for playing us for a whole day!"

"So motherf*cking unlucky!"

"The Ninth Prince is really... We all know this isn't a suspenseful fight so why drag it out until now? He should've announced Nangong Hao's win early on. Aren't the results the same even after dragging it out for so long? I really can't understand him, especially when he's going to offend the Sea Cloud Sect by doing this."

-----

There was still a bit of the red glowing sun that hadn't fully set yet.

At this moment...

Nangong Hao started laughing crazily and shouted: "Ninth Prince, you can make the announcement now, right?"

"Announcement?"

"What announcement?"

"Can't you see this daddy has arrived already?"

Chapter 282 – Smashed By A Single Punch

As his voice faded...

Over ten thousand pairs of eyes looked up into the air.

Tang Tang's gaze instantly changed as she started feeling joy. She couldn't hold it in anymore as tears started flowing down her cheeks.

Tang Jiu watched with wide eyes. Seeing the familiar figure in the air, he almost started crying from excitement. "He finally made it."

Luo Tian's voice was like thunder.

It exploded over the air of the imperial city making everyone incomparably shocked.

Nangong Hao's expression hiddenly changed. He turned around and saw the despicable looking Luo Tian and thick killing intent started rising from his heart.

Luo Tian didn't bother with Nangong Hao.

He instantly moved and landed next to Tang Tang. He gently wiped away the tears on Tang Tang's face and said softly: "I'm sorry for coming late."

Tang Tang pouted as she forced herself to stop crying. She shook her head; she ignored her identity as a Princess and the people around here and directly dove into Luo Tian's embrace.

She then couldn't hold back anymore and started crying loudly again: "Wuuu~... wuuu~..."

She was crying her eyes out.

She was crying so hard that she couldn't even speak.

She thought that she would never see Luo Tian again.

This entire day, her thoughts were all about Luo Tian. Him taming the Fire Cloud Unicorn; stripping her clothes off; establishing the Flame Dragon Gang; destroying the Evil Wolf Gang; destroying the Green Leaf Sect, and killing Du Yuansong...

Each scene was vividly stored in her mind.

She remembered every word Luo Tian had said to her.

She felt fortunate and happy when she recalled these moments. This timeframe of less than a full month was the happiest days she had ever experienced in her life. She was desperately cherishing those moments and also admonishing herself: "I am already satisfied with my life."

In her time of despair...

Luo Tian appeared.

The emotions she was suppressing in her heart instantly exploded out. She didn't care about her image anymore and just cried like crazy. She was no different than your average young girl crying her eyes out, making Luo Tian's heartache in torment.

"Woaaa..."

Luo Tian's appearance only made the crowd somewhat surprised.

Tang Tang's action, on the other hand, made them beyond shocked!

"The Princess directly jumped into his embrace and started crying?"

“Am I seeing things?”

“What’s going on?”

“What the hell is going on? Isn’t the Princess a pair with Nangong Hao?”

The crowd couldn’t understand it.

They were completely puzzled by this and didn’t know why it was happening.

An actual Princess of the Great Tang Dynasty liked a bumpkin? Why? They really couldn’t understand what was going on.

At this time...

Nangong Hao was so angry that he started shaking and his face turned pale.

Waiting for a whole day had already made his rage reach the skies.

But when Luo Tian completely ignored him after appearing and Tang Tang jumping into his embrace in front of so many people, this pushed Nangong Hao over the edge. The entire Heavenly Sword City knew he was getting engaged with Tang Tang yet she jumped into the embrace of another man and started crying!

This...

Rage!

Rage that pierced through the skies flared up inside Nangong Hao!

Nangong Hao's expression turned ashen as he shouted: "Luo Tian! You're still not heading to hell by your own accord?! I shall kill you and send you along then!"

His voice contained endless killing intent.

The Yellow Dragon Sword by his side echoed the rage within him and released a powerful sword intent. The sword intent managed to enshroud the whole Heavenly Sword City as its aura surged outwards. The sword-point was now aimed directly at Luo Tian's head.

Tang Jiu finally exploded with a shout: "Nangong Hao, don't blame me for being impolite if you don't pull back the Yellow Dragon Sword's intent! You dare to be so presumptuous in front of my Great Tang's palace?! Are you pretending there's no one left in our Great Tang Dynasty?!"

His voice shook the sky!

It also contained an endless amount of rage.

Tang Jiu had also been suppressing a full day of anger.

Nangong Hao's expression turned gloomy. He then widened his eyes with a glare before shouting: "Scram to the side! This daddy doesn't have time for...!"

Without waiting for Nangong Hao to finish his words....

Chen Donglai's figure disappeared from his position...

A wave of Profound Ancestor power surged out. "Insulting his highness – the punishment is immediate execution!"

Another figure shot out from the spectating crowd.

“Boom~!”

Two different streams of energy collided before rebounding apart.

Elder Sun smiled apologetically and said with cupped hands: “Ninth Highness, our junior sect leader is still young so please don’t bother with him. He’s just angered by that country bumpkin Luo Tian. Moreover, Princess Lasting Peace and his marriage were acknowledged by the Great Tang’s Emperor. Even though they haven’t gone through the engagement ceremony yet, how can Princess Lasting Peace be in the embrace of a low commoner out in the eye of the public? What position is this placing our junior sect leader in? What kind of treatment is this giving our Sea Cloud Sect?”

His voice wasn’t loud...

But everyone present heard it clearly.

Indeed...

Princess Lasting Peace’s actions were improper when it came to her delicate status.

Moreover, her engagement to Nangong Hao was something the entire city already knew about. It was only Princess Lasting Peace herself that did not agree with it. But inside Nangong Hao’s heart, the engagement was already a done deal. So for her to jump into the embrace of another man, this was clearly not right on her side.

Tang Jiu’s expression turned grim. Just as he was about to say something...

Luo Tian gently pushed Tang Tang away from his embrace and wiped her tears away. He then said: “Wait a bit because I will be back very soon.”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian said to Tang Jiu: “There’s no need for you to waste your breath on people like that. There’s only one way to shut their mouths, and that’s to stomp them to death.”

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian leaped into the air and said with a cold smile: “You should be thanking Tang Tang and his Ninth highness because my feet would have been stepping on your head ten days ago. Do you really think that little cultivation level you possess can qualify you as my opponent?”

“I can kill you in seconds if I wished to!”

Arrogance!

Incomparably wild arrogance!

Luo Tian wasn’t giving Nangong Hao or the Sea Cloud Sect any face!

Many Sea Cloud Sect disciples in the crowd had an ugly look on their faces.

“This kid is practically courting death!”

“Junior sect leader, just kill him!”

“Use the cruelest method to kill him!”

“Acting so arrogant in front of Nangong Hao? Is this kid nuts or something?”

Nangong Hao’s expression turned gloomy. He glared at Luo Tian before smiling ferociously and saying with disdain: “You need to be clear on your own identity – you are nothing more than a bumpkin from the countryside. Just participating in a battle with me is the greatest honor of your life. Remember that this honor is my Nangong Hao’s charity to you, so bring it with you and go to hell with it!”

“I want everyone to know the consequences of competing with me, Nangong Hao over a woman.”

“The consequence is death!”

Immediately after...

Nangong Hao’s expression changed into one of excited delirium. He then started laughing in a low voice: “Don’t worry; I will take good care of Tang Tang. I will have her moaning in joy below my groins. She will forever be my, Nangong Hao’s plaything! Hahaha...”

The flames of rage started flaring inside Luo Tian’s heart as killing intent instantly appeared. He then shouted in a dark tone: “Die!”

Nangong Hao’s expression turned fierce as his Yellow Dragon Sword started moving. He then scolded: “You’ll be the one dying you damn country bumpkin!”

“Your whole family are bumpkins!”

“Level 4 Berserk!”

“Nine Dragons and Elephants!”

“Lie down for me!”

In an instant, Luo Tian’s strength exploded out. Also in an instant, he leaped into the air with his fist surging with power. Just like a hammer, he directly smashed his fist towards Nangong Hao’s head.

His strength was powerful to a complete mess!

A single punch smashed Nangong Hao into the ground! Nangong Hao was lying there similar to a dead dog and no longer had his arrogant expression anymore!

“Motherf*cker!”

“Show me your arrogance again!” Luo Tian shouted in a cocky manner.

It was silent all around.

It was so quiet that it was rather eerie...

Chapter 283 – The Power Of The Profound Burst Pill

Silence.

It was so silent that it was kinda scary.

This huge square of the imperial city filled with tens of thousands of spectators and no one was making a sound. Sounds of breathing and even the beating of their hearts seem to have stopped in time. They all looked like wooden chickens staring at Luo Tian who was filled with an aura of dominance.

They were all frozen like idiots!

How could this be?

Nangong Hao – Sea Cloud Sect’s junior sect leader, Profound King 7th rank. How could he be so weak and get smashed down by a single punch? What the hell is going on?

They could not accept this inside their hearts.

They couldn’t comprehend it at all.

They had waited a whole day in anticipation. They all wanted to see Nangong Hao instantly smash Luo Tian to his death. They all wanted to see Nangong Hao and Princess Lasting Peace's precursory scene to their engagement ceremony. But... but how could it turn out like this?

"Motherf*cker!"

"I'm asking you to be f*cking arrogant! Get up and act arrogant again!"

Luo Tian was domineering to the extreme.

He didn't give Nangong Hao any chance to make a move. With the activation of the Nine Dragons and Elephants skill, the strength of a dragon and an elephant was added to his body. And with the activation of Berserk as well, how powerful was the Nine Dragons and Elephant skill under the 16 times enhancement?

His fists were heavy like a hammer and his attack as sharp as an axe came chopping down.

Nangong Hao didn't have time to react and was directly smashed down.

Luo Tian was truly enraged.

What he hated the most was someone insulting women.

And this woman happened to be Tang Tang!

In other words...

Luo Tian already had a belly full of fire after being unconscious for these past few days. He finally appeared yet gets a string of scolding by Nangong Hao. There was no need to bother with anything since I'll just smash you down before we start talking! Who told you to be so motherf*cking smug in front of this daddy?!

Wild!

Unrestrained wild arrogance!

He was nonetheless the junior sect leader of Sea Cloud Sect yet Luo Tian didn't give him a single ounce of face.

"Yeaahh...!"

"Victory!"

"Smelly scoundrel won!" Tang Tang jumped into the air. Her anxiety was swept away and was replaced with joy, and her worry towards Luo Tian had vanished. She originally thought Luo Tian may not be Nangong Hao's opponent and never imagined Nangong Hao would be instantly beaten down right at the start. This was simply way too enjoyable!

Tang Jiu had a shocked expression as he mumbled: "So strong! So cool! My idol is truly an idol existence; he's handsome to a complete mess!"

Off at a distance...

Feng Lei and the others were still rushing to the square. Upon seeing Nangong Hao lying on the ground without moving, Feng Lei immediately started shouting: "Boss is mighty! Boss is awesome! Boss is the most domineering! Yeah!"

Xuan Yuanyi was also very excited but just didn't express it like the way Feng Lei was doing.

Qin Yue'er had a moved expression on her face as she muttered: "We finally made it."

Blindman Liu's fingers started getting ready while he revealed his yellow stained teeth with a smile. He then said: "This is a good opportunity. Let me play a song so that everyone can celebrate."

“Scram!”

An Chunchun was giggling as she said: “Uncle Blindman, the songs you play on that erhu sound really bad. Next time I will buy you a better erhu so you can play for three days and three nights straight.”

Blindman Liu faintly sighed and said: “It’s still Chunchun who treats me the best. Good Chunchun, let uncle give you a kiss.”

Everyone’s eyes turned grim as they glared at Blindman Liu.

An Chunchun instantly hid behind Qin Yue’er and stuck out her tongue. She then said naughtily: “No way! I only let big brother Luo Tian kiss me.”

Suddenly...

There was a slight frown shown on An Chunchun’s brows. She suddenly showed a shocked countenance as she yelled: “Watch out big brother Luo Tian!”

At this moment...

A yellow illusory image shot into the sky. The illusory image looked like a powerful sword rushing into the sky before smashing down with a terrifying amount of force.

Luo Tian frowned and steeled his mind. He didn’t bother thinking anymore and just shouted: “Golden Shield!”

“Ommm~!”

“BOOM~!”

The yellow illusory image slashed Luo Tian's Golden Shield apart. At the same time, a heavy punch smashed out before a right leg stomped down, slamming Luo Tian down from the air.

"Bang~!"

A deep hole appeared in the ground and Luo Tian was in the center of it unmoving.

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"Competing with me? You're still too fresh for that! Hahaha..."

While in midair...

Nangong had bloodshot eyes, a red glow to his face, and a ferocious expression. He looked similar to a demonic ghost right now! An extremely strong aura of profound energy surrounded him as it seemed to crush down on everything nearby.

Elder Sun's expression secretly changed as he said with a smile: "It looks like junior sect leader has already consumed the Profound Burst Pill, so his cultivation has already reached the peak of the Profound King 9th rank. There are now four small cultivation realm differences between the two of them. No matter how strong that kid is, it's impossible for him to be junior sect leader's opponent anymore."

The moment Nangong Hao was smashed down, his heart was feeling great discomfort. The energy around Luo Tian had completely suppressed him, making him extremely annoyed. When he was lying down, he didn't hesitate to ingest the Profound Burst Pill in his possession.

Profound Burst Pill!

A spirit grade medicinal pill with properties of stimulation.

It can stimulate one's fleshly body for a short time frame allowing one's cultivation level to rise by two small realms. This type of medicinal pill can only be used by those under the Profound Venerate realm and would be useless for those higher.

But...

These types of pills have side effects.

After consumption, one's fleshly body would suffer great trauma. The worst case scenario, one's cultivation will forever stop and never to advance again. On the minor side, one's body would suffer a huge amount of pain once the medicinal effects pass.

In order to kill Luo Tian, Nangong Hao didn't even bother with the consequences.

How could he accept being beaten down by a hillbilly in front of the entire city? There's no way he could accept that!

At this time...

The disciples of the Sea Cloud Sect were the first to start cheering.

"Junior sect leader is mighty!"

"Junior sect leader is mighty!"

"..."

"Hahaha, now that's more like it. How could the junior sect leader of the Sea Cloud Sect not beat a country bumpkin? When that punch was thrown out, I can already tell Nangong Hao is going to win this fight."

“That’s right! Apart from Murong Wanjian and Li Xue’er, who of the younger generation can be Nangong Hao’s opponent?”

Everyone was clamoring with praises. In their hearts, Luo Tian being smashed down like that was reasonable and a matter of fact.

“Profound Burst Pill!”

Chen Donglai’s expression faintly changed as he said: “This is bad; he consumed a Profound Burst Pill and his cultivation will rise by two small realms for a short time.”

Tang Jiu stood up and looked at Luo Tian not moving in the deep hole. He couldn’t bother with anything right now and shouted: “Uncle Chen! No matter what, Luo Tian cannot die!”

Tang Tang felt like her heart had risen to her throat. “I’m sorry! I’m so sorry!”

Her heart felt extremely heavy because Luo Tian ended up like this because of her.

“Challenging me?”

“Competing with me over a woman?”

“What qualifications does a vagrant bumpkin like you from the countryside have?”

“What kind of damn thing do you think you are?!”

Nangong Hao shouted with arrogance. Looking at Luo Tian in the deep hole, his right hand started moving in a particular motion with the Yellow Dragon Sword in hand. His pupils widened before he ferociously shouted: “Yellow Dragon Sword Art, Raging dragon overturns the sea, Sword slashes the world!”

“Bumpkin, go to hell for me!”

“Hahaha...”

The Yellow Dragon Sword created endless amounts of illusory images like it had the power to overturn the sea.

At this moment...

Chen Donglai instantly flew out.

Elder Sun coldly smiled before shouting: “You want to save him? You wish!”

He directly blocked Chen Donglai.

At this instant between life and death, Luo Tian stood up.

Chapter 284 – Eggs Being Shattered

Straddling the lines between life and death!

The Yellow Dragon Sword crushed down with its power that was capable of overturning the seas! Even the sky seemed to darken from the force it was exerting! At this moment, everyone felt that Luo Tian inside the deep hole would be dying soon.

Yellow Dragon Sword Art.

An earth grade sword skill with incomparable powers!

In addition to Nangong Hao's comprehension of sword intent and the strength stimulated by the Profound Burst Pill, this sword move of his was at least ten times stronger than usual. In this scenario, even experts at the same Profound King 9th rank may not be able to handle it!

Therefore, Luo Tian was certainly going to die!

Chen Donglai wanted to save Luo Tian.

But the Sea Cloud Sect's Elder Sun already figured this out. He shot into the air and directly blocked Chen Donglai's path.

Wang Jinke followed right behind.

Another Profound Ancestor elder appeared from the Sea Cloud Sect's side and also blocked Wang Jinke's path.

"Old Chen, the battle isn't over yet."

"Bang~, bang~!"

The two of them were blocked outside of the deep hole while Nangong Hao's Yellow Dragon Sword was already stabbing down!

"Boss!"

"Big brother Luo Tian..."

"Smelly scoundrel..."

In almost an instant, the hearts of Feng Lei and others froze with shock.

Tang Jiu raised his finger and was about to bite down...

With his blood essence as a seal, he was able to awaken the old ancestor within the depths of the imperial palace. As long as the old ancestor comes out, a single strand of his will would be enough!

No matter what...

Luo Tian cannot die!

At this moment, Tang Jiu couldn't afford to think any longer. Just as he was about to bite his finger, Luo Tian stood up!

He stood up just like that!

Luo Tian's lips were curved into a smile. He then slowly patted the dust off his clothes before saying with a smile: "Sudden power explosion? It looks like you consumed some type of medicinal pill that gave you a burst of strength. Not bad; a bit awesome actually."

After saying that...

Luo Tian raised his head and looked at the Yellow Dragon Sword about to descend. The sword's aura caused raging winds that blew all the surrounding rocks outwards. With sand and rocks blowing, the sky turned dimmer and the crowd of spectators was all being suppressed by the powerful sword intent. The crowd could barely open their eyes and only experts at the Profound Ancestor realm still looked rather calm and casual.

Wang Jinke and Chen Donglai's gaze tightened.

The hearts of those two sank as they thought along the lines of: "It's over. He's finished this time."

Blindman Liu's gaze turned a bit strange. Below the surface of his skin, the fierce ancient huge devil had become restless and the powerful ancient powers were faintly being released. However, the ancient huge devil suddenly became quiet again.

"Huh?"

Blindman Liu's expression changed as he cried out: "Baldy, meathead, Chunchun; none of you move! Dragon head should be fine!"

Below the sword aura...

Was endless suppressive energy.

The powerful Yellow Dragon Sword containing powers capable of overturning the seas stabbed down. Luo Tian merely looked up with a glance; a glance that was filled with disdain. His right hand slowly rose up and a light converged onto his palm. This light was made from pure energy.

A strange energy!

A very very strange energy!

Those experts at the Profound Ancestor realm were all shocked. They were asking themselves: "What kind of energy is that?"

Suddenly...

The first to react was Wang Jinke. He had seen the Ancient Dragon Execution Array at work before and had also been very close to the ancient huge devil. He was very clear that the energy in the palm of Luo Tian's hand must be something from the Ancient World!

"Hahaha..."

“Oh crap, this kid is out of this world!”

“I’m going to start worshipping him too.”

“From today onwards, I, Wang Jinke will start worshipping you.”

The second person to react was Chen Donglai. His expression showed more shock than Wang Jinke and even started laughing like crazy.

“What is he laughing about?”

“Did he go insane?”

“Or is he laughing in regret for Luo Tian stuck in the deep hole?”

“Who knows? I bet you both of them have lost their mind.”

No one knew why both of them had started laughing.

Elder Sun and Zhao had no clue.

Those disciples from Sea Cloud Sect didn’t know. Even those experts secretly hiding and monitoring the battle didn’t know what was going on.

Everyone thought Luo Tian was going to die.

He won’t be able to block this sword strike.

Luo Tian had strangely raised his hand out with his palm pointing towards the sky.

Could it be that he wanted to use a single hand to block Nangong Hao's attack?

Did he lose his mind? He knows he's going to die soon so he deliberately struck a self-conceited cool pose?

The pose was indeed not bad.

An accurate pose of Dong Cunrui sacrificing his life to blow up a bunker. 1

If...

He was really able to block Nangong Hao's attack with a single hand, how domineering would Luo Tian be? How arrogant could he act? How... this was absolutely impossible because even experts at the Profound Ancestor felt they wouldn't be able to block this sword strike with a single hand!

Nangong Hao noticed Luo Tian's pose and started laughing crazily. "A bumpkin is truly a bumpkin. Look at you right now! Trying to compete with me over a woman? You don't even have the qualifications to carry my shoes! Go die for me!"

As his voice faded...

The Yellow Dragon Sword had descended by now.

At this moment...

The dust inside the deep hole was blowing out like crazy so people couldn't really see what was going on.

They could only hear a low muffled sound.

Similar to a held back fart being released.

“Boop~”

It was very faint but was clearly heard by everyone.

The instant the sound was heard, the surrounding area turned quiet. As the dust settled, the surrounding crowd could finally see what was going on.

In the middle of the deep hole...

Luo Tian’s right hand was directly grasping the Yellow Dragon Sword. Above the Yellow Dragon Sword, Nangong Hao’s expression was ash pale. His eyes contained incomparable fear like he had just witnessed the most terrifying thing in this world.

“Creak~, creak~... creak~...”

“Hong~ dang~ clang~!”

The sounds of metal being shattered was heard.

Cracks started appearing on the body of the Yellow Dragon Sword. The cracks grew bigger and eventually, the blade shattered. After losing his support, Nangong Hao fell down. Luo Tian made a thought before shouting: “Kneel down for me!”

“Bang~!”

Nangong Hao directly kneeled down in front of Luo Tian.

At this moment...

Luo Tian's domineering aura was a complete mess!

The aura coming from him was completely wild and unrestrained to the max! He was too awesome, too powerful, and too tyrannical!

Silence.

There was absolute silence once again.

It seemed like nothing alive was present in the huge square.

The expressions of the crowd looked ugly to the point like they had just eaten shit. How could it be like this?

What the hell happened?

Illusion... it has to be an illusion!

Let's not mention the fact that Luo Tian used a single hand to stop Nangong Hao's attack, but he managed to directly shatter the Yellow Dragon Sword. What kind of power was this? What kind of power was capable of performing this feat? Except for a small number of people, the majority of them couldn't understand this at all.

"Hahaha..."

"Boss is so mighty!"

This time, Xuan Yuanyi couldn't hold it back anymore as he shouted: "Boss is so mighty!"

An Chunchun giggled very brilliantly and innocently. She then said in a very cute way: “Big brother Luo Tian is so mighty.”

“Bastard, this one’s heart is about to be stolen by you.”

-----

Luo Tian stood above the pale Nangong Hao and chuckled coldly. “Let me hear the word bumpkin from you again.”

Nangong Hao didn’t move!

Luo Tian’s right hand started moving as a slap landed. He then shouted: “Motherf*cker! I’m telling you to say the word bumpkin for me again!”

At this moment...

“Presumptuous!”

A heavy voice rang out.

“Presumptuous your mother!” Luo Tian retorted with a frown. His leg then kicked towards Nangong Hao’s groin area and the sound of eggs shattering was heard...

Chapter 285 – Old Ancestor, Save Us...

The voice contained a powerful energy!

It absolutely came from someone above the Profound Ancestor realm. Luo Tian didn’t dare to take this lightly but also didn’t want to let Nangong Hao off just like that. That’s why he fiercely kicked towards his groin area.

Nangong Hao's originally ashen pale face suddenly turned red. His eyeballs bulged out of his sockets and his mouth widened in pain. No sound came out of his mouth as he could only grab his groin area with both his hands while his body flew out.

No matter how high your cultivation was...

How strong you were...

As long as you were a male, your groins will always be the weakest part of your body.

This kick was rather vicious from Luo Tian.

Sounds of eggs shattering was heard after his kick. Luo Tian's sphincter involuntarily tightened as he revealed a trace of coldness. "That kick must've been painful."

After kicking out...

Luo Tian's figure turned illusory as he directly shot away from his spot.

At this instant...

An old man in yellow robes descended from the air while glaring at Luo Tian. He then said in a chilling voice: "Kid, you do seem to have some abilities... but you are overly arrogant with just a bit of ability. You dare to injure my disciple, and dare to destroy the Yellow Dragon Sword? No matter how strong you are, you will have to die today!"

His voice possessed a majestic aura that one couldn't defy.

Arrogance.

Incomparably wild arrogance.

The killing intent coming from his gaze made everyone feel their hearts chill, their courage tremble, and a sense of fear taking over their mind and sea of consciousness.

“Daoist Huang Yun!”

“A Grand Elder of the Sea Cloud Sect?”

“Nangong Hao’s master!”

All the Sea Cloud Sect disciples kneeled down and said in unison: “Greetings to the Grand Elder.”

A series of shock and startlement arose in the crowd.

A Grand Elder that hadn’t shown himself in public for a century has appeared. This...

He was an expert that had exceeded the Profound Ancestor realm and had reached the Profound Venerate realm. He was actually present in Heavenly Sword City! It appears that after Sea Cloud Sect’s leader Nangong Jue left Heavenly Sword City, he had arrived. Most likely it was for the engagement issue.

But...

It looks like this marriage won’t happen anymore.

Cold sweat appeared on Luo Tian’s back as the oppressive force that Daoist Huang Yun was giving off was extremely powerful. If it weren’t for some traces of ancient energy inside him, most likely his sea of consciousness would have exploded from the pressure by now.

Daoist Huang Yun didn’t even look at the crowd. His figure flickered and instantly arrived next to Nangong Hao who had fainted from the pain. After examining him for a bit, his brows formed a frown while strong killing intent started surging out of him.

“You destroyed his source of life!”

“You...”

“The Nangong family only had this single seedling yet you destroyed his source of life. You, you, you...”
Daoist Huang Yun was so angry that he couldn’t even speak any further. He then shouted in rage: “Kid, hand your life over!”

As his voice faded...

A majestic aura covering the sky swept down.

Luo Tian’s body sank down and his figure had been forced into a bent position.

Feng Lei’s gaze tightened as he shouted: “Bullying my family’s young master? This daddy will fight it out with you!”

“Transformation!”

Not giving Feng Lei time to rush out, Luo Tian quickly shouted: “Don’t come over!”

He couldn’t let fatty come over or else he will definitely die.

Daoist Huang Yun’s powers were too terrifying and weren’t something Feng Lei could resist. The current powers of Daoist Huang Yun were so high that he didn’t even have the hopes to reach yet. Very strong; extremely strong! So strong that the pressure was crushing him to the point where he couldn’t move even a tiny bit.

Tang Jiu’s face was pale as he shouted: “Grand Elder! It seems inappropriate for you to bully a junior like this!”

“An insignificant brat should just scam to the side for me.”

“It’s not your place to speak about what I do.”

“Even if your father was here, I will still rip this kid into pieces today. Since he dares to destroy the Nangong family’s lineage, it’s still not enough if he dies 10,000 deaths!” shouted Daoist Huang Yun as he didn’t even place Tang Jiu in his eyes.

When one reaches the cultivation realm of his, one truly needs not put a Prince of a country in their eyes.

Chen Donglai and Wang Jinke leaped into the air and were planning to block in front of Luo Tian.

But the moment they moved, Daoist Huang Yun flicked his sleeve and a majestic force shot out. He then shouted: “Scram aside for me!”

“Bang~, bang~!”

The two of them was smashed flying away for several hundred meters. They crashed into the city walls before spraying a mouthful of blood. Those two were gasping for air while an ugly look was plastered on the faces.

Experts at the Profound Ancestor realm were similar to ants in front of Daoist Huang Yun.

They were not his opponent at all!

Suppression!

Absolute suppression!

Loud sounds were heard inside Luo Tian's body as his bones were bending in unnatural ways. His spine was about to be shattered at this point! He was feeling extremely uncomfortable but continued to endure while clenching his teeth. His mouth still showed a cold smile as he said: "Old fogey, if you aren't able to kill me today, this daddy will one day f*ck your Sea Cloud Sect over! If I can't scrape that old wrinkly skin off your body, this daddy will take your surname!"

Arrogant!

Luo Tian was still incomparably arrogant like usual!

He was still not afraid after reaching this point. If it weren't for him being unable to move his body, he would've rushed up to fight Daoist Huang Yun to the death already!

Luo Tian was a vindictive person.

He will remember and store this hatred inside his heart. As long as he has the chance, he will make the Sea Cloud Sect pay the price for today.

But...

Whether he can survive today or not was still up in the air!

Daoist Huang Yun revealed a disdainful smile and said: "Damn dog thing, you still dare to act arrogant in front of me at a time like this? I would like to see how many layers of suppression you can handle. You're currently experiencing just a single layer so I'll let you try fifteen layers!"

As he said this...

Daoist Huang Yun's brows tightened and a formless energy suddenly surged out from him. The energy was like a huge dragon that rushed straight into Luo Tian's sea of consciousness.

"Boom~!"

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian felt an uncomfortable sinking feeling in his sea of consciousness as it suddenly froze from the suppression. At the same time, Daoist Huang Yun’s oppression was crushing down on Luo Tian like crazy. Luo Tian revealed a painful expression as his body was continuously being forced downwards.

His body was shaking.

His legs were wobbling while his body was shaking non-stop. It seemed like Luo Tian had no choice but to lower his head as he felt like there were 10,000 mountains sitting on top of him. But he didn’t lower his head and his body only leaned forward. Luo Tian’s eyes glared at Daoist Huang Yun as he arrogantly smiled: “If you have the guts, kill this daddy right now!”

“Ninth brother...”

“Ninth brother, quickly think of a solution!”

“Think of a way to save him!”

Tang Tang was crying her eyes out. She wanted to rush out but was pulled back by two guards.

As for Feng Lei and the rest who wanted to rush out as well, they were blocked by the Palace Guards because this was what Tang Jiu ordered.

Tang Jiu was very clear on Daoist Huang Yun’s cultivation realm. Whoever rushes out right now will directly explode from his oppressive pressure!

Daoist Huang Yun walked forward one step at a time and the power kept increasing.

Luo Tian's body had almost completely lowered to the ground. Several pieces of his rib bones were broken while his internal organs were all squished together. Suffering from this power was extremely uncomfortable and might be even worse than death.

Tang Jiu's eyes turned grim as he was out of options.

He bit his finger and forced out a drop of blood essence. With his blood essence as the catalyst, a stream of imperial qi shot out from his body. Tang Jiu then shouted: "Old ancestor, come save us!"

Chapter 286 – Tang Zhanlong's Domineering Attitude

Every Imperial Prince had a single chance to use their blood to cry out for assistance from their old ancestor.

No matter how far away...

The old ancestor would arrive at his fastest speeds.

To experts at the Profound Saint realm, distance was no longer an issue. And since the Imperial Prince used his blood as the catalyst, the old ancestor can sense the same bloodline and appear at their precise location.

Tang Jiu was forced to a dead end.

If no one can help right now, then Luo Tian will definitely die.

He had no choice.

Tang Jiu used his blood essence, the most precious life-saving ability that he possessed. It wasn't even utilized during the time when he was at the Dark Mountain Corpse City. "Old ancestor, please save my friend."

In an instant...

Daoist Huang Yun's expression hiddenly changed. "Old ancestor? Tang Qingtian?"

His mind shook...

And he became stunned. If Tang Qingtian appears, he would be instantly killed. At this moment, he had the same thoughts as Luo Tian did back then – to attack as soon as possible. Kill Luo Tian first and then talk later. Even if Tang Qingtian makes an appearance, Luo Tian would be dead already.

Tang Qingtian would also have to consider the relationship between his Great Tang and the Sea Cloud Sect.

Losing Sea Cloud Sect's support will be equivalent to the Great Tang Dynasty losing an arm.

Daoist Huang Yun believed that Tang Qingtian would not do anything that would harm the Great Tang's destiny.

Compared to a nameless kid, the Sea Cloud Sect was naturally a bigger and more useful entity. Anyone would choose the latter when given a choice!

Thinking up to this point...

Daoist Huang Yun increased his speed and his figure turned illusory. He instantly appeared in front of Luo Tian and his fingers formed into claws. He then clawed straight for Luo Tian's head and shouted coldly: "Damn dog thing, go to hell for me!"

His power was unblockable!

Luo Tian had no way to resist!

His mind and sea of consciousness were being suppressed, and his body couldn't move at all. He couldn't even activate any martial skills and was practically a sitting duck waiting for death.

Staring at Daoist Huang Yun's claws about to descend, Luo Tian roared into the sky: "This daddy is unwilling!"

"Boom~!"

A powerful beam of force smashed out!

A middle-aged man filled with imperial qi appeared from the void. He then said in a low and heavy tone: "That's enough Huang Yun!"

"Bang~!"

The two different forces collided together and a series of explosions were heard. Daoist Huang Yun was knocked away and some imperial qi surrounded Luo Tian to block the explosion and oppressive pressure.

Luo Tian's body sank down and almost collapsed to the ground. He then shouted internally: "Healing Art!"

"Healing Art!"

"Healing Art!"

A series of brilliant white lights shrouded Luo Tian and his injuries quickly healed. His damaged internal organs and his broken ribs were all recovering at a high rate of speed! Luo Tian was gasping for air as he glared at Daoist Huang Yun who wasn't that far away. His eyes contained strong cold killing intent as he fiercely said to himself: "As long as this daddy doesn't die, I shall one day peel off that skin of yours!"

"The Emperor!"

"Great Tang's Emperor."

“Tang Zhanlong’s cultivation is at the Profound Venerate realm.”

“He actually made a move on behalf of a nameless kid... isn’t that equal to offending Sea Cloud Sect? He...”

Everyone had kneeled down in a bowing motion.

Luo Tian looked around him so he too started to kneel down. He cupped his hands and said: “Thank you for your saving grace!”

Tang Zhanlong faintly smiled and sent a formless energy to support Luo Tian up before he could kneel down completely. Upon briefly examining Luo Tian’s injuries, his expression revealed shock as he said: “Hey kid, it’s good that I didn’t falsely put my hopes on you. You are someone full of mysteries that no one can see through.”

“Huh?”

Luo Tian was startled before saying to himself with confusion: “He and I are meeting for the first time yet why is he speaking to me like he knows me well?”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian then recalled the two streams of dragon’s might on his body and a grateful feeling appeared in his heart. He then said: “Your Majesty, thank you for healing me. Luo Tian will remember this grace and shall never forget it.”

Tang Zhanlong waved his hand and said: “It’s no big deal.”

“Your children greets imperial father.”

Tang Jiu and Tang Tang walked up and respectfully called out a greeting.

Tang Zhanlong lightly smiled and said: "Ming Er, you're doing a good job. Last time's incident was handled well and you did a good job today as well. Continue working hard."

"Tang Tang, you naughty girl; everything was caused by you. Wait until everything is taken care of and watch how I will settle this with you. You actually dared to run away from a marriage? Your guts seem to be getting bigger and bigger..."

Tang Tang stuck her tongue out and grabbed onto Tang Zhanlong's arm. She then said in a spoiled manner: "Imperial father, this one really doesn't like Nangong Hao so there's no way I'm going to get engaged to him. I've never agreed to his proposal either. And since he lost today's fight, he can never step into Heavenly Sword City ever again per the agreement."

"Humph!"

Suddenly...

Daoist Huang Yun coldly harrumphed before shouting: "Tang Zhanlong! You came at the right time! I don't care what agreement this kid had with my disciple and I don't care what relations this kid has with you or your daughter. Today, I want you to hand him over to me!"

Since it wasn't the old ancestor Tang Qingtian, then there was no need to be afraid.

In other words...

Based on status, Tang Zhanlong had to greet him as Martial Uncle. 1

Back then...

Tang Zhanlong had trained in Sea Cloud Sect for several years and called the previous Sea Cloud Sect's leader as master.

That's why Daoist Huang Yun directly called out the Emperor's real name.

His voice was filled with majestic aura and didn't place Tang Zhanlong in his eyes.

Tang Zhanlong's eyes turned cold and said with a smile: "Martial Uncle Huang Yun, my take is that we consider this affair over. Your disciple wasn't as capable as his opponent so there's nothing more to say. Sea Cloud Sect wouldn't be using their great name to force others, right?"

"Humph!"

"What dog's fart incapable?"

"From the way I see it, you were secretly aiding the kid. If it weren't for your two streams of dragon's might imperial qi, how could that kid be so powerful? Tang Zhanlong, you better hand this kid over or else my Sea Cloud Sect will be impolite to your Great Tang" said Daoist Huang Yun in a tyrannical manner.

He was directly using Sea Cloud Sect's name to suppress Tang Zhanlong.

Suddenly...

Tang Zhanlong coldly chuckled as the flames of rage reached his head. His voice contained a trace of an Emperor's domineering aura as he said: "Huang Yun, I'm going to ask you one thing: Can you speak on behalf of the entire Sea Cloud Sect?"

"If you cannot, please scram out of Heavenly Sword City."

"If you can represent the Sea Cloud Sect, your words will become the words of the entire Sect. Then..."

Saying up to this point, Tang Zhanlong briefly paused.

Daoist Huang Yun immediately shouted: “Then what?!”

Tang Zhanlong’s gaze swept the crowd as he said: “Then everyone in your Sect can forget about taking a step out of Heavenly Sword City. Every one of you shall die here for me!”

His voice was rather calm.

But within this calmness, one could easily detect the wildly overbearing demeanor of his.

In reality, he was the one that didn’t place Daoist Huang Yun in his eyes!

Domineering!

Extremely domineering!

When Luo Tian sensed the domineering aura coming from Tang Zhanlong, his heart was shocked as he said to himself: “What a powerful domineering aura! Now this was the aura of someone that has moved up to the top of the food chain.”

Daoist Huang Yun’s expression instantly changed. His eyes angrily glared at Tang Zhanlong and his voice turned serious as he reprimanded: “You dare?!”

Tang Zhanlong showed no fear. He then said with a cold expression: “Just watch if I dare or not! You dare to act wildly in my Heavenly Sword City? What qualifications do you have to cause a ruckus in front of me? If it weren’t for me giving the old master some face, I would’ve already sent you to hell to meet King Yama!”

“You think I’m afraid of you?!”

Tang Zhanlong was acting in an absolute domineering attitude!

Chapter 287 – I Am Unwilling

“You think I’m afraid of you?!”

As these words were said, Tang Zhanlong’s aura was immediately released.

Imperial qi shot into the sky like it could penetrate through all nine heavens!

It instantly shattered the aura that was coming from Daoist Huang Yun.

At this moment...

Tang Zhanlong was incomparably domineering! The domineering attitude of a Monarch!

Daoist Huang Yun was faintly stunned as his expression secretly changed. “Peak of Profound Venerate 9th rank?!”

“Good!”

“Good!”

“Tang Zhanlong, consider today my bad luck.”

“But... Great Tang and Sea Cloud Sect’s relationship... heh heh...” Daoist Huang Yun refused to give in and threw the Sea Cloud Sect’s name out. This wasn’t the end to the matter and only the beginning since Nangong family’s genius had his lifeline destroyed.

How would the current Sect Leader Nangong Jue drop this matter so simply?

The Nangong family was very strong in the Sea Cloud Sect. Just from the nine available positions of Elders, six of them belonged to the Nangong family. There were also two of them that had the status of Grand Elders. Now that their most precious darling Nangong Hao was crippled down there, how would they drop this matter so simply?

Daoist Huang Yun looked at Tang Zhanlong and started laughing in his heart. “Merely a little Emperor of the Great Tang with a dynasty established for less than ten thousand years. Without my Sea Cloud Sect’s support, your Great Tang would’ve ceased to exist already.”

He thought that Tang Zhanlong would give in.

At least his tone of voice shouldn’t be as forceful like before.

However...

Daoist Huang Yun had calculated wrongly.

Tang Zhanlong became enraged. His Profound Venerate 9th rank powers suddenly exploded forth and the pressure was applied to the sea of consciousness of Sea Cloud Sect disciple present. The faces of those Sea Cloud Sect disciples instantly paled and were forced to a kneeling position from the might. They didn’t dare to make a single sound right now!

Daoist Huang Yun took a faint step back. His whole body was trembling and almost couldn’t handle the pressure.

Tang Zhanlong roared out in a low tone: “Huang Yun, an old fogey like you dares to threaten this daddy? Do you believe me if I say that I can instantly have all the Sea Cloud Sect disciples explode right now? Do you really think I need to rely on your Sea Cloud Sect? If it weren’t for the blessings of my Great Tang, your Sea Cloud Sect would’ve been destroyed already! You wouldn’t be qualified to attain a badge and you wouldn’t be even considered a second-rate Sect. Now you wish to talk relationships with me? You are not yet qualified!”

He completely disregarded their face!

Because Tang Zhanlong was completely enraged!

The Great Tang Dynasty had been established for ten thousand years, not because of the support of others, but because they possessed their own absolute strength.

Tang Zhanlong really couldn't take this.

If it weren't for him personally caring about the relationship between the Great Tang and the Sea Cloud Sect, he would've let the old ancestor appear and directly kill Daoist Huang Yun already. And everyone from the Sea Cloud Sect would most likely die within the imperial city as well.

Apart from the old ancestor who was an expert at the Profound Saint realm, the Great Tang Dynasty had several other old perverted existences over several thousand years old. They were all experts at the Profound Saint realm! No matter if it was strength or foundation, they were much stronger than the Sea Cloud Sect!

Now, this was considered capital!

What qualifications did Daoist Huang Yun have to act arrogant in front of him?

And there Daoist Huang Yun was, strutting around with a face like he was above others.

Tang Zhanlong glared at Daoist Huang Yun. As long as he made another insulting comment, he would instantly kill him!

Daoist Huang Yun naturally felt the rage coming from Tang Zhanlong. Fear rose up in his heart as his face became pale white. He didn't dare to say another word or use Sea Cloud Sect's name to pressure him anymore.

After a short while...

Tang Zhanlong then grunted: "Take your Sea Cloud Sect disciples and scam out of the imperial city. If I find out that you guys dare to make a move against him in the territory of my Great Tang; it won't matter who it is, even if it is the current Sect Leader Nangong Jue, I will still kill him without mercy!"

When Tang Zhanlong was saying this, his eyes glanced over at Luo Tian.

When those words came out, Daoist Huang Yun felt dumbstruck.

It wasn't only him.

Everyone in the imperial city's square including Luo Tian was dumbstruck.

The Great Tang's Emperor was protecting a weak and nameless kid at the Profound King realm. How could this be possible?

Could it be that this kid was the Great Tang Emperor's illegitimate son?

He even dares to say he would kill Nangong Jue without mercy! These words were too wildly arrogant and tyrannical!

But...

No one would say Tang Zhanlong was acting tyrannically because he had a very serious look on his face when he said that. There were no traces of him joking around. This clearly showed that if the Sea Cloud Sect tried to deal with Luo Tian, he would make a move in response. And he would most likely bring all the powers he possessed as an explosive response.

The peak of the Profound Venerate 9th rank – what kind of terrifying existence was that?

Daoist Huang Yun softly replied: "I will bring every single word of yours to our Sect Leader, Elders, and Grand Elders."

Tang Zhanlong smiled and said: "That would be the best. I believe that Nangong Jue will not be as dumb as you!"

Daoist Huang Yun's expression became a bit fierce but didn't say a word. He waved his hand and shouted: "We're leaving now! Bring junior sect leader along as well!"

Elder Sun carried Nangong Hao who was still holding his groin with both hands before quickly leaving.

An anticipated battle had concluded just like this.

Was it astonishing?

It was simply too astonishing!

It was completely beyond the crowd's expectations! A fight between Profound King experts and Luo Tian completely steamrolled over his opponent. Then experts at the Profound Ancestor realm appeared, and then a Profound Venerate super expert made an appearance. Finally, even the Great Tang's Emperor showed up!

This battle had gone beyond the crowd's expectations!

Except...

They were all envying a single person.

Luo Tian!

In their hearts, they were wondering what kind of background this kid who hadn't even reach twenty years of age had. Why would the Great Tang's Emperor be so protective of him?

"Yeah!"

“Yeah!”

“He’s scrambling! That annoying fly is finally scrambling away!” Tang Tang leaped up in a celebratory manner. She then grabbed onto Tang Zhanlong’s arm and giggled: “Thank you imperial father. Long live imperial father, long live imperial father... hee hee...”

Tang Jiu was ecstatic as he never imagined that his father would favor Luo Tian so much. He then said internally: “I’ve already said that he’s different from other people. Imperial father has never misjudged a person. Luo Tian’s future accomplishments will definitely be immeasurable and I’m really looking forward to seeing them!”

“Boss!”

“Boss!”

“Big brother Luo Tian...”

“Dragon head.”

The group of them all rushed up at once.

Luo Tian briefly smiled. Seeing Qin Yue’er in the crowd with her hesitating footsteps, his heart tightened and said: “Your Majesty, I have a friend that’s with the Sea Cloud Sect. Can you allow her to stay here?”

Tang Zhanlong knew who Luo Tian was talking about and said: “You kid... you take care of the matters yourself.”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian waved his arms at Qin Yue’er to have her come over.

Qin Yue'er originally had to leave as well...

But she then chose to stay. Because of her close relationship with Luo Tian, most likely she wouldn't be able to return to the Sea Cloud Sect.

Qin Yue'er had held back tears in her eyes as she walked up and saluted: "Thank you, Your Majesty!"

Tang Zhanlong faintly smiled in response before looking at Tang Tang. "Luo Tian has won the fight, so do you have something to say?"

"Huh?"

Tang Tang was startled before saying: "Smelly scoundrel won the fight so I'm very happy. There's really nothing else to say."

Tang Jiu then whispered softly: "Engagement. Engagement."

Tang Tang was shocked and shy at the same time. But she mustered her courage and said: "Imperial father, I like him. I want him to marry me. Uh... I meant I want to marry him. Imperial father, can you bestow this marriage to us?"

"Of course; it's not a problem."

"Hahaha..."

Tang Zhanlong faintly chuckled. He then became serious as he looked at Luo Tian and asked: "Kid, are you willing to marry my daughter?"

"Huh?!"

Luo Tian didn't know how to react. After several seconds of thought, he then said respectfully: "I am unwilling..."

"Kid!"

"Are you courting death?!" Without waiting for Luo Tian to finish his sentence, Tang Zhanlong immediately became enraged. The rage surging out of him was ten thousand times stronger than when dealing with Daoist Huang Yun!

Chapter 288 – My Big Wife Is Li...

How honorable is it for an Emperor to bestow a marriage?

It also happened to be Princess Lasting Peace, the most beautiful one out of all the Princesses.

She was also the one that Tang Zhanlong loved the most.

How high would one's status become?

Yet he said he was unwilling. Did shit enter Luo Tian's brains? This was something many people sought yet it would never happen even in their dreams.

He actually said the words I am unwilling.

Could it be that he doesn't understand the hidden meaning behind Tang Zhanlong's marriage bestowment?

Sea Cloud Sect was a huge and powerful existence. Wanting Luo Tian to die was a very simple matter for them since he had no background whatsoever. There's no way they would be afraid just because Tang Zhanlong spoke his words of warning. This was a world of martial cultivators where thousands upon thousands of them died for a variety of reasons.

The sudden death of a Luo Tian would be a very common occurrence.

Even if Tang Zhanlong tries to pursue this, Sea Cloud Sect could easily push the fault onto others.

But...

If Luo Tian becomes Tang Zhanlong's son-in-law, then he would become a member of the imperial family. Sea Cloud Sect will have to seriously consider their actions with this kind of relationship involved. Since Luo Tian's status has undergone such a change, they would have to seriously consider the consequences of killing him.

With Tang Zhanlong's well-known character of being protective of his family, he would never let Luo Tian's death go so easily. He would definitely put the entire blame on Sea Cloud Sect and then everything would become a complicated mess.

The strong foundation of the Great Tang Dynasty isn't as simple as others!

Almost everyone understood the hidden intentions yet Luo Tian declined it.

Just like how Tang Zhanlong was saying: "Luo Tian was courting death!"

Instantly...

Tang Zhanlong became enraged.

He had favored Luo Tian so much and even gave his most beloved daughter to him. What kind of honor was this? This kid actually failed to appreciate his kindness and rejected the bestowment in front of so many people. Would a monarch of an empire have any face left after this?

The faces of the surrounding people turned gloomy.

"This kid must be sick in the head. How could he reject such a good thing?"

“Shit, if it were me in his shoes, I would immediately kneel down and call him father!”

“I bet this kid must have been scared witless by Daoist Huang Yun so his brain isn’t functioning properly. How many people have dreamed of such a matter yet he rejected it? He’s practically inviting death over.”

Most of the people in the huge square couldn’t figure out why Luo Tian would reject the offer.

They couldn’t understand this no matter how hard they tried.

This was even beyond the imagination of Luo Tian defeating Nangong Hao.

Tears streamed down Tang Tang’s face.

She felt extremely wronged when she looked over at Luo Tian.

She was a respectable and cultured girl with the identity of a Princess. In front of so many people, she actually professed her fondness to another man and asked her father to bestow a marriage. This was already considered throwing her face away yet she was even rejected outright.

This made her extremely sad and heartbroken.

Tears kept streaming down uncontrollably.

Qin Yue’er then softly said: “Luo Tian, what are you thinking about? Hurry up and agree to it. Tang Tang is crying her eyes out in pain. If you dare to betray her, I will definitely not spare you.”

Luo Tian was neither haughty nor humble as he calmly said: “Your Majesty, please listen to my explanation.”

“Say it!”

“I would really like to see what kind of great and reasonable explanation you can give me!”

“If you aren’t able to give me a reason that satisfies me, I will put you to death right here, right now! Humph!” Tang Zhanlong was angrily shouting as a father. Seeing how wronged his own daughter was, his heart was feeling irritated beyond words.

Luo Tian continued: “I have a wife already.”

“Huh?”

“What?”

“Have a wife...?”

For a brief moment...

An uproar was heard in the area. His age was rather young yet he already had a wife?”

Qin Yue’er started frowning.

Tang Zhanlong looked at Qin Yue’er and said: “Is it her?”

Qin Yue’er also thought Luo Tian was talking about her but she wasn’t a bit happy about it. She then softly said: “Luo Tian, what are you talking about? Don’t worry about me and deal with the Princess first. Whether I have any status or not isn’t an issue.”

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: “It’s not like that, but you can also say it’s kind of involved.”

“Stop making up riddles in front of this daddy! Explain everything clearly! If you don’t make everything clear today, you can forget about walking out of this imperial city!” The aura on Tang Zhanlong’s body was just as fierce as before.

Luo Tian took a deep breath before looking off into the sky. His eyes contained a trace of longing before his mouth formed a faint smile. He then said: “I already have a wife, and her name is Li Xue’er...”

Without waiting for him to finish...

Tang Zhanlong’s expression became stunned as he interrupted: “Li Xue’er – there are many women in this world with that name. You can’t be speaking of Purple Soul Temple Violet Organization’s young phoenix Li Xue’er, right?”

“Exactly her!”

Luo Tian didn’t try to hide things anymore.

“Presumptuous!”

“Damn kid, you trying to lie to me?!”

“Li Xue’er is already engaged to Shattered Sky City’s Murong Wanjian! Everyone in the world knows about this yet you want to lie to me?” shouted Tang Zhanlong.

This was an impossible matter.

How highly honorable is the identity of “Young Phoenix?”

Not to mention Luo Tian meeting Li Xue’er; even if they do know each other, there’s no way that the supercilious young phoenix would be attracted to Luo Tian. In other words, this was simply impossible. Young Phoenix matched with a True Dragon; now this was the blessing for the human race.

“Big brother Luo Tian didn’t lie to you.”

“My family’s young master and sister-in-law Li Xue’er really are engaged with each other.”

Feng Lei and An Chunchun stepped up to speak.

Luo Tian smiled bitterly and said: “I don’t know whether this is considered an engagement or not. When I was very young back then and we were still kids, she agreed to marry me and I agreed to marry her. After all these years, she has treated this as for real and so have I.”

The entire world knows the young phoenix was matched with a true dragon.

So who would bother with a little country bumpkin?

Tang Zhanlong was silent for a while as he knew Luo Tian wouldn’t dare to lie to him.

A moment later...

Tang Zhanlong’s heart was getting agitated with excitement. After all these years, there wasn’t anything that has made him this excited like right now. “Hahaha... it looks like this is going to be a lot of fun now.”

True Dragon? Young Phoenix?

Now a monkey wrench has been thrown into the mix.

With Luo Tian’s personality – his wild arrogance and his refusal to yield to any opponent; this guy is practically the devil incarnate!

True Dragon, Young Phoenix, and now a Devil Incarnate. This is going to be a lot of fun!

Without waiting for Tang Zhanlong to speak...

Luo Tian then said: "Apart from Li Xue'er, there's also her."

Luo Tian looked over at Qin Yue'er.

Qin Yue'er's heart almost shattered from being so moved by Luo Tian. This guy is practically... "I'm going to give him a bunch of children!"

Luo Tian continued: "Tang Tang is a good girl with a noble identity and extremely beautiful looks. I have grown up wandering all over where life-threatening dangers may descend at any given moment. If she follows me, I'm afraid she will live a life of fear. She is a Princess – she shouldn't be following me to live a wanderer's life and should be choosing a lifestyle more suited for her."

These were the genuine thoughts inside Luo Tian's heart.

Something he had to get off his chest.

Luo Tian didn't consider himself a good person. When he saw a beautiful woman, he would give them a few extra glances and can't help wanting to possess them. But there were things he had to lay out on the table because this was one of his principles he adhered to.

"I am willing!"

"I am willing to be the little one."

"I am willing to follow you in wandering the world, and following your way of life is actually my ideal."
Tang Tang cried her eyes out as she was moved by Luo Tian's words.

Tang Zhanlong smiled bitterly while shaking his head. "It's hard to keep a grown daughter at home."

An Chunchun giggled and leaped into Luo Tian's embrace. She then whispered: "Big brother Luo Tian, I am also willing."

Chapter 289 – Murong Wanjian Is Very Strong

The Great Tang's Emperor bestowed a marriage and the entire empire celebrated.

The engagement ceremony was very simple.

They called a bunch of nobles and aristocrats, a bunch of high-level Sect members, celebrities from all walks of life, and those experts that rarely showed their faces for a huge meal.

"Southern King, this is my son-in-law Luo Tian. You will have to take care of him in the future."

"Progressive King, this is my son-in-law Luo Tian. Doesn't your family have some high-grade equipment? On the day of their marriage, there's no need to bring anything but two carriages of that high-grade equipment."

"Hey you, your family has a lot of medicinal pills right?"

"This is my son-in-law Luo Tian."

"Did you know that my son-in-law has a big wife? She is actually the Young Phoenix."

"Come, come, come! Let's drink this together! You've drunk this wine now so you know what to do for the marriage gift, right? I heard your family has a xuan stone mine, you understand..."

Tang Zhanlong was just like a bandit.

What kind of engagement ceremony was this?! This was practically robbery!

And he was using Luo Tian's name to do it. This...

Luo Tian was suffering from bitterness but didn't dare to say anything. No matter what, Tang Zhanlong was now considered his father-in-law so was it even appropriate for him to say something? Can he even say anything? An expert at the peak of the Profound Venerate realm – do you dare to chastise him?

“Hey kid...”

“These people are all big wigs. Don't look at them acting all meek because their families are actually quite something. They all have some super expert supporting in the background and their families have managed to survive for thousands of years. If you want anything in the future, don't hesitate to directly ask them for it. There's no need to be polite to them; do you understand what I'm getting at?” advised Tang Zhanlong.

Luo Tian could only hide his bitterness.

Thinking of the auction in the near future and how he didn't have anything good to auction off, Luo Tian unconsciously blurted out: “Your Majesty, I heard the national treasury has some thousand year old xuan metals and rare spiritual herbs. I wonder if...”

“Shit!”

“You actually dare to target your own father-in-law?” Tang Zhanlong then angrily continued: “Those are the things I've personally collected over all these years. Why don't you go ask them for things instead of asking me?!”

Shit!

Them?!

Even if they are wealthy and have a lot of good stuff, how can they compare to the national treasury?

Tang Zhanlong was someone with a lot of riches that could ooze oil. Who am I going to target if I don't target you? And it's not immoral to take some stuff from one's own father-in-law, right?

Luo Tian had a cheap and despicable smile as he said: "When they send over the marriage gifts, most of them will belong to you and I won't take much. I only wish to concoct some medicinal pills and forge some equipment, then bring it to the auction house to gain some pocket money. Of course, you can just directly give me spending money if you want to. I'm sure you know that this upcoming auction, there's a mature demon fox clan woman. She's..."

"Go to the national treasury tonight."

"Just let them know I allowed it and they will let you enter. You can take whatever thousand year old xuan metals or ten thousand year old herbs, just do what you like. As for giving you money for a demon fox clan woman, you can quit dreaming about that. Even I want a demon fox clan woman for myself..." said Tang Zhanlong.

The starting bid for a demon fox clan woman was around 50 million gold.

When the auction begins, the conservative estimate she would reach was 200 million.

F*ck!

How much gold was 200 million?!

Tang Zhanlong could only let Luo Tian enter the national treasury to get some of those thousand year old xuan metals that nobody has touched for the last century. As for those hundred to a thousand year old spiritual herbs, the national treasury had mountains of them. If they weren't going to be used soon, it would most likely start to mold.

The Great Tang Dynasty had been established for ten thousand years.

Their foundation was strong to a complete mess. Just the yearly offerings from the cities and provinces would amass a small mountain!

When it came to gold, Tang Zhanlong didn't place too much importance on them.

Of course...

He didn't know about the speed of Luo Tian's pill concoction and forging equipment.

Otherwise, he would definitely choose to give Luo Tian a few hundred million gold to spend. There would be no way he would allow Luo Tian to enter the national treasury even if he was beaten to death.

Luo Tian was secretly rejoicing inside as he said: "Not tonight; tonight I have some things to take care of. Tomorrow I will go to the national treasury and look around for a bit. Father-in-law, is there anything you want?"

"I will sell my items for some pocket money and buy you a few good things."

He had to show some filial piety to his father-in-law now.

But...

Was there really a need to show this guy piety?

Luo Tian was only randomly saying this yet Tang Zhanlong immediately said: "I heard there was a mature demon fox clan woman at the upcoming auction. How about you show your filial piety by buying her for me?"

Luo Tian glared at Tang Zhanlong for a long time without speaking.

In the end...

Tang Zhanlong was feeling a bit of fear from Luo Tian's glaring. "I'm just kidding with you, so there's no need to be that serious. Don't think I don't know the reason why you came to Heavenly Sword City. I know a lot more things than you think. But I really need to remind you of one thing..."

"Dao Shang Alliance is not like the Sea Cloud Sect."

"They are much stronger than the Sea Cloud Sect. There is one such matter I know about their Dao Shang Alliance, and that is their President is related to the Immortal Sects. They are an existence that even I, Tang Zhanlong do not dare to offend."

"You need to be extra careful. I've already investigated that black clothed person in the northern city and he is indeed a person of the Dao Shang Alliance. That little girl's mother was indeed captured by them. In fact, their goal the entire time was targeted at the little girl but she managed to escape their net. Since the demon fox clan resisted to the very end, it resulted in the annihilation of their whole clan."

There were many matters...

That Tang Zhanlong had paid attention to.

He didn't personally investigate them one by one of course because the Great Tang had their own organization that compiled this intelligence.

So it was natural that he knew about many of these secret happenings that normal people didn't.

As for how the Dao Shang Alliance quickly rose up to become one of the biggest three commercial powerhouses in less than a thousand years? It was because their President's abilities reached the heavens and was already a disciple from one of the Immortal Sects.

Because they had the support of an Immortal Sect, the Dao Shang Alliance shot up like an unstoppable rocket.

The Dao Shang Alliance was similar to a super gigantic existence that couldn't be shaken. Even Tang Zhanlong wouldn't dare to easily offend them.

His words of advice for Luo Tian were very clear to not be rash because he couldn't afford to provoke the Dao Shang Alliance!

Luo Tian was shocked but nodded his head and said: "I know what to do."

While internally, he was saying in a cold tone: "It was you guys that wanted to capture An Chunchun, right? Motherf*ckers, just wait for this daddy!"

He will never allow a threat to continue existing.

The best method was to kill it!

"It's good that you know." Tang Zhanlong thought Luo Tian had listened to his advice. He then faintly chuckled before saying: "But don't worry; you will definitely surpass the Dao Shang Alliance when given a hundred years of time. You are the most special and awesome kid that I've seen in a long time. You are a martial cultivator with boundless prospects and will pleasantly surprise people each time. Maybe you might even become a disciple of those Immortal Sects within a hundred years."

"A hundred years?"

Luo Tian chuckled inside his heart.

A hundred years later, this daddy will pierce the void as a Profound God Sovereign!

No!

A hundred years was too long!

Luo Tian mumbled internally a bit before saying out loud: “Thank you for your high praises, Your Majesty.”

Tang Zhanlong smiled and said: “There’s no need to be so polite with me. You kiddo are truly quite strong.”

After saying that...

Tang Zhanlong was about to leave and said with a smile: “There’s still a long night ahead so I won’t keep bothering you.”

After walking a few steps...

Tang Zhanlong stopped and said in a voice not too loud: “Murong Wanjian is also a disciple of an Immortal Sect!”

Chapter 290 – He’s Already A Disciple Of The Immortal Sects

“Murong Wanjian!”

“Is already a disciple of those Immortal Sects?!”

In an instant...

Luo Tian suddenly clenched his fists and his gaze turned steady. He was looking at the dark night sky and didn’t have any words to say.

What kind of existences were Immortal Sects?

They were true gigantic existences – a place where all the true super experts of the Tianxuan Continent came from.

When compared to the Immortal Sects, the people here were nothing more than mere mortals.

They were the behemoths that could truly despise everyone as ants!

“It’s the same with Li Xue’er...”

Those were the last words from Tang Zhanlong as he slowly disappeared into the night. A faint sigh could be then heard from the darkness in his direction.

What’s there to sigh about?

Luo Tian’s heart felt like it was sinking all the way into an abyss. This kind of feeling wasn’t fun and was kind of annoying. He wanted to throw a temper tantrum but realized he couldn’t. It was similar to you putting a certain person as your target yet you didn’t even exist in that person’s eyes. They were completely ignoring you and never even had thoughts of dealing with you.

This was the gap!

Luo Tian thought his cultivation was improving by leaps and bounds and it wouldn’t take long to catch up to Murong Wanjian. He had complete faith that in two years time, he would be stepping on top of Murong Wanjian’s head. Just when he thought he was improving quite fast, Murong Wanjian had already become a disciple of those Immortal Sects.

This...

A surge of helplessness came from Luo Tian’s heart.

But...

Right after this, his eyes glowed in resoluteness. He then muttered: “Very good – a disciple of an Immortal Sect huh? I will definitely still stomp you to death in two years time!”

This was a belief he had!

It was also a form of confidence!

This mountain called Murong Wanjian had become larger as it crushed down on his mind. This made Luo Tian even more motivated.

“Isn’t it just an Immortal Sect disciple?”

“You just wait obediently for this daddy!”

Luo Tian clenched his teeth as his eyes turned serious. He then shouted internally: “So what if he’s a disciple of an Immortal Sect?! The higher you stand, the greater the fall when you are below my feet! Just watch how I screw your Shattered Sky City in two years time!”

-----

Luo Tian was standing in the dark for a long time.

He was thinking about many things...

Until two people came up from behind him.

Two beautiful women who were capable of toppling kingdoms with their looks.

Qin Yue’er and Tang Tang were both dressed up with some light makeup, making them even more beautiful than normal. Qin Yue’er’s hotness and Tang Tang’s pure looks combined together was simply... awesome to the point that it couldn’t get any more awesome!

“Smelly scoundrel, what are you thinking about that has made you so absorbed into it?” asked Tang Tang as she looked towards the stars where Luo Tian was staring at.

Qin Yue'er giggled delicately before saying: "It should be about your big wife, right?"

"Li Xue'er?"

Tang Tang wasn't jealous and was actually happy for Luo Tian.

It's THE young phoenix.

How cool was this situation?

Who else in this world could compete with the young phoenix?

Since the young phoenix liked this man as well, then it was clear that she didn't make a wrong choice in liking him too. This was why those two weren't jealous and was looking forward to the day when they would meet their "big sister."

Luo Tian faintly smiled in response. He was indeed thinking of Li Xue'er but he wasn't an idiot. Even if they didn't care, talking about another girl in front of two beautiful women was simply courting one's own death.

"I wasn't."

"I was actually thinking about you two."

Tang Tang was startled by that and said: "Thinking of us? What for? We're both already by your side so there's nothing to think about. Smelly scoundrel, you can just tell us honestly that you're thinking of big sister since we aren't the type to get jealous, hee hee..."

Qin Yue'er also added: "That's right. Just think of her if you have to, there's no need to overly care about our feelings."

These two women were really open-minded.

This could only happen in a foreign world. If it was Luo Tian's previous world, his ears would've been twisted off and he would be hung up and beaten already.

Luo Tian turned around and said with a smile: "I was thinking about what you two looked like last night when you stripped off your clothes. I was desperately trying hard to open my eyes to have a look but I couldn't. How about tonight we..."

"Huh?"

"You stinking smelly scoundrel!"

The faces of the two girls immediately blushed red.

Recalling how they were lying next to Luo Tian last night without a shred of clothing on, they couldn't help start blushing like crazy. Even their necks turned red as if juice could be squeezed out from it.

"I heard the beds in the imperial palace are rather large."

"Tonight, you two shall accompany me in rolling around on the large bed!" Luo Tian unconsciously swallowed a few times. He started complaining internally as he thought of what happened last night. "Motherf*cker, why was my body unconscious? Such perfect timing for a threesome yet I couldn't control my body!"

"You wish!"

"Humph, you can quit dreaming."

"Like hell we'd roll around on a bed with you, you perverted smelly scoundrel with a stomach full of evil ideas" said Tang Tang shyly.

Qin Yue'er also directly said: "Bastard, there's nothing we can do now. Such a good opportunity in front of you last night but you didn't wake up. If you had woken up, not to mention 3000 rounds, we would've cooperated even if it were 30,000 rounds. Now it's all over, hee hee..."

After saying that...

Those two held hands and ran away.

Luo Tian stood there like an idiot and muttered: "Damn, what kind of situation is this? Could it be that I'm going to be stuck here to cool off for the whole night?"

"This is still the day of our engagement!"

"Shouldn't we take care of some things in advance?"

"Hello? Hello? Don't run away you two! The night is still young so how am I supposed to go to sleep like this?"

The figures of those two girls were already out of sight.

"Fuuu~... fuuu~..."

"Smelly scoundrel didn't chase after us right?"

"You want him to chase us? Could it be that you want to roll around with him on a large bed?" Today is your engagement day so I guess playing on the bed is considered reasonable." Qin Yue'er said in a teasing tone.

Tang Tang pouted her mouth and said: "Big sister Yue'er, why are you bullying me? There's no way I would roll around on a big bed with that smelly scoundrel. Didn't big sister Yue'er always say that you're going to battle 3000 rounds with him? Today is a perfect opportunity for you to do just that."

Qin Yue'er froze for a bit before giggling: "I will put that on hold for now. One day, I will battle him so hard that he won't be able to get out of the bed."

"Heehee..."

"Big sister Yue'er is too powerful."

"Then I will accompany big sister Yue'er. We will fight that smelly scoundrel to the point that he can't get out of bed for three days."

"We haven't met big sister yet so I'm afraid doing that isn't too good."

"Then shall we wait for big sister and do it together?"

"Eh? Your idea isn't too bad. With us three together, would we make him unable to get out of the bed for a full seven days?"

"Will that be too vicious?"

"Will it?"

"It feels just a tad."

"Hahaha..."

Those two girls were laughing together filled with happiness.

If Luo Tian heard the conversation of theirs, he would definitely cry bitterly and then look up into the sky with a long sigh. His words would go similar to this: "Is it really that hard to get rid of my f*cking virgin status?"

A night without any words.

Luo Tian couldn't sleep the whole night so he ran off to the national treasure bright and early. He had to prepare himself for the auction because the S-rank quest time limit was about to end.

The national treasury had two guards at the peak of the Profound King realm. When they saw Luo Tian arrive, they didn't bother asking him anything and merely smiled respectfully before opening the large doors.

As Luo Tian stepped in, he instantly became dumbfounded.
