

Leveling Up 291

Chapter 291 – Training Like Crazy

What Sea Cloud Sect?

What ten forbidden grounds and their ten greatest treasures?

What treasures from the Heavenly Palace of the divine race?

Those were all weak to the max!

Everything in front of Luo Tian was awesome to the extreme. They were all types of good things here and they were piled up like a mountain! Rows and columns of goods that one couldn't see where they ended. Just how big was the national treasury of the Great Tang?!

Shocked!

Luo Tian was completely shocked by what was in front of his eyes.

Not only were there spiritual herbs, there were also xuan metals and martial skills from many different races. As for equipment, there were many high-grade xuan equipments all over the place!

Demon cores...

Xuan stones...

Luo Tian was considered someone that has seen quite a bit in his life. The demon core mountain from the gnome race was already fierce to a complete mess, but it wasn't considered much when compared to the one here. It's possible that the combined value here wasn't as high as the demon core mountain, but this place still had a lot of different varieties and was all good stuff.

"Spirit grade herbs?"

“Ten thousand year old xuan metals?”

“Martial skills from the orc race?”

“...”

“Holy mother of God! Tang Zhanlong, you are simply too wealthy!” Luo Tian finally understood that no matter how rich one was, they couldn’t compare themselves to a nation. A nation will always be the f*cking richest of them all. Since the Great Tang Dynasty had been standing for ten thousand years, one could imagine how much treasures they have collected over that time period.

“I’m rich!”

“I’m rich!”

“This daddy can take as much as I want so there’s no longer any fear of not having enough money, hahaha...” Luo Tian started laughing excitedly. With so many good stuff, he could randomly pick a piece to sell outside and make a bunch. Was there a need to worry about not having enough money for the auction of An Chunchun’s mother?

Who the hell needs to concoct medicinal pills now?

Forging profound equipment my ass!

There was absolutely no need.

Luo Tian was stepping on cloud nine! Just as he was about to harvest these goods, a person suddenly appeared in front of him.

An elderly looking guy with white eyebrows.

Appearing out of thin air and not a bit of aura was sensed. No matter what, Luo Tian was a Profound King 4th ranker so he could still sense a Profound Ancestor expert when they got close. But he didn't detect even a hint of aura from this elderly person so did that mean he was an expert at the Profound Venerate realm?

Luo Tian didn't dare to be rash and quickly said respectfully: "Old grandpa..."

Without waiting for him to finish...

The white-browed elder said: "I know already. Apart from the xuan metals and spiritual herbs, you cannot touch anything else. Otherwise, you can just scam out of here right now."

After saying that, the elderly person just glanced at Luo Tian before instantly disappearing again. A questioning voice then echoed through the large national treasury: "I really don't understand what's so special about this kid. Actually allowing him to enter the national treasury... humph!"

The tone of voice contained a trace of disdain.

Luo Tian was stunned by this as his heart felt like it had shattered. He didn't care how the elderly person appeared and could only feel pain from his words. "Xuan metals and spiritual herbs... I cannot touch anything else. This... isn't this similar to me sleeping on a bunch of money but cannot take any of it away?"

"F*cking hell!"

Luo Tian cursed out in irritation but didn't dare to make any rash moves. Entering the national treasury was already a heaven defying matter, and allowing him to use any xuan metals and spiritual herbs was already quite accommodating already.

Luo Tian didn't dare to take a mile when given an inch.

He first examined all the spiritual herbs stacked on the shelves.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian looked up the Pill Alchemy Skill in the system interface and mumbled: "My skill proficiency is almost at level 5. I should raise that first and then see what medicinal pills I can concoct after that."

Upon making up his mind...

Luo Tian didn't waste any time.

He grabbed a bunch of low-grade spiritual herbs and sat down to start grinding.

He calmed down his mind.

Luo Tian activated his Pill Alchemy Skill and his profound energy started circulating. The profound energy inside the spiritual herb was slowly refined and the process repeated for each item.

In less than half a minute...

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for your successful refinement."

"Proficiency +1."

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for your successful refinement."

“Proficiency +1.”

The system continuously gave off alert tones.

Luo Tian’s Pill Alchemy Skill was very similar to the alchemy skill of this world. The only exception was his pill alchemy followed the training of Xiao Yan of Battle Through The Heavens and contained enhancements with attributes, time, speed, and purity.

The main difference was his way of refining and concocting pills.

A few hours passed by.

Beside Luo Tian was a pile of rabbit poop like items. These were technically finished medicinal pills but because they were made from a single spiritual herb, their grade and looks weren’t too pleasing to the eye. But the profound energy contained inside the medicinal pill was quite rich.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for your successful refinement.”

“Proficiency +1.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling your Pill Alchemy Skill. Your current level is 5!”

Luo Tian was a bit happy because of that. When he looked at the large pile of refined spiritual herbs next to him, he blurted out: “Spiritual herbs at the 5th grade are sold outside for 10,000+ gold each and they are like cabbages here. Even my heart is somewhat aching from all this expenditure.”

“But...”

“Even though my heart aches, it doesn’t really have anything to do with me.”

“Now that I’ve reached level 5 in my Pill Alchemy, I should be able to handle grade 8 spiritual herbs right? I’ll try refining some for now. If it doesn’t work, I will continue grinding my Pill Alchemy Skill to raise the level since this place has so many spiritual herbs anyway.”

There was no need to fear failure here.

It wasn’t his money anyway and leaving them around here was such a waste.

If Tang Zhanlong knew Luo Tian’s thoughts, he would definitely die of heartache.

They were in a period of peace right now and these spiritual herbs weren’t of much use to the empire. If there was a sudden major war, then these spiritual herbs would become a stockpile of strategic materials that would be concocted into medicinal pills and distributed to the soldiers.

Luo Tian was completely treating them as cabbage.

Luo Tian got up and went towards the shelves with high-grade spiritual herbs and started to pick some out.

The moment he left...

The white-browed elder appeared at the spot Luo Tian was originally sitting at.

He was frowning with an unhappy expression. “Wasteful; what a complete waste. He’s really treating the treasures of my Great Tang as cabbage on the streets huh? What is that kid Zhanlong doing? He’s actually letting these kinds of people in here.”

The elderly person was really annoyed.

Looking at a large pile of rabbit poop, the rage in his heart started blazing.

He coldly gave the pile a glance and wanted to leave, but his curiosity got him so he picked up one of them. After a brief examination, he said: "Is this even considered a medicinal pill?"

Saying the pill looked poorly made was an understatement.

Just when he was about to throw it away, his brows quivered. He sent out his spiritual senses and his expression turned to shock. "He stimulated all the profound energy inside the Five-colored Flower and then infused it with his own energy. Two different profound energy had perfectly fused together to display the Five-colored Flower's utmost efficacy. And the potency of the medicine has been increased by at least two times. This medicinal pill's grade is at least grade 5... no, maybe grade 6 or even reaching grade 7. But the medicinal property is only from a single herb..."

"This kid..."

The white-browed elder's countenance became serious. "In order to refine a single spiritual herb to this level, most likely that person has reached rank 8 in his Pill Alchemy Skill. What kind of background does this kid have? Could it be that Zhanlong threw this kid into the national treasury just so I would meet him?"

For a brief moment...

The expression on the white-browed elder turned complicated.

At this moment...

Luo Tian was carrying a large bundle of spiritual herbs while skipping back.

Seeing the white-browed elder again, Luo Tian hid his expression before respectfully saying: "Hello, my name is Luo Tian. What should I call you?"

The white-browed elder faintly smiled and said: "Interesting; rather interesting."

Immediately after...

The white-browed elder said: "My name is Tang Qingtian!"

Luo Tian was startled as he felt like he heard that name from somewhere before...

Chapter 292 – Profound Burst Pill, Succeed For...

Tang Qingtian?!

He felt like he had heard that name from somewhere.

It sounded really familiar but Luo Tian couldn't recall why. He only felt that he heard that name before.

Of course...

He was never a person to struggle over issues like this. Since he couldn't remember it, then he wouldn't continue thinking about it. Luo Tian immediately smiled and asked: "Old Senior Tang, may I take a cauldron to concoct my medicinal pills?"

Luo Tian had been refining pills so far with something equivalent to a broken clay pot.

These kinds of pill concocting wares littered the main street stalls.

And if one wasn't careful in controlling their refinement, using such wares to concoct pills can easily cause the profound energy to escape from the spiritual herb. The energy would have a hard time fusing together, and the success rate of completion would be lowered greatly.

This place was the national treasury and had a mysterious elderly grandpa guarding it. Luo Tian understood that his every move was probably being monitored. Taking something that he wasn't supposed to would definitely be found out, that's why he directly asked the elderly person.

Tang Qingtian's brows tightened...

Seeing that expression, Luo Tian immediately smiled and said: "It's no big deal if I can't."

Right after...

Luo Tian sat down and took out the clay cauldron he had used for over fifty times already. There were cracks on the cauldron and it looked like it could break and any given moment.

When Tang Qingtian saw the clay cauldron with Luo Tian, his mind turned serious as he asked: "You used that thing to refine these medicinal pills?"

"Uh..."

"En, I've never gotten the chance to change this for a better cauldron. Since I'm only increasing my proficiency, I figured I'd use this for the time being." Luo Tian said this in an indifferent manner as he started arranging the spiritual herbs he had grabbed previously.

Concocting a medicinal pill with such rich profound energy, with this clay medicinal cauldron?

If Tang Qingtian hadn't seen this personally, there would be no way he would believe this was possible. His heart was slightly moved upon seeing a child that was not even twenty years old before him. It has been close to a thousand years since his heart has been moved and now he felt a bit excited.

He finally understood Tang Zhanlong's intention for allowing Luo Tian to enter the national treasury.

He was secretly laughing inside as he said: "It looks like my Great Tang will also have an extraordinary person appear. There's no one around comparable to him just based on his ability in concocting medicinal pills, hahaha..."

Indeed...

Within the Tianxuan Continent, there weren't that many Alchemists.

Martial cultivators cannot do without the support of medicinal pills since good ones can help them overcome a wall that they cannot breakthrough normally.

It is also a required item when one decided to travel.

Tang Qingtian's figure disappeared. And in less than a breath of time, a bronze cauldron was dropped down.

It dropped perfectly into Luo Tian's hands.

Tang Qingtian then said: "You can use this Green Dragon Cauldron."

"Huh?"

Luo Tian looked it over and found the cauldron was filled with a rich scent of profound energy. He sent out his spiritual senses and became extremely shocked internally. "A spirit grade cauldron?! Damn! With this thing, not only will there not be any loss in profound energy from the spiritual herbs, the energy inside them might even increase! Good stuff! This is practically the dream item for the Pill Alchemy Skill!"

How can a national treasury be simple?

A random item would be at the spirit grade.

Of course...

Tang Qingtian deliberately brought out one of the best cauldrons out.

“Thank you!”

Luo Tian said with a serious look while celebrating internally.

Tang Qingtian waved his hand and said: “Kid, quickly go back to refining your medicinal pills. I’m not bothering you if I stand here right?”

Luo Tian immediately replied: “Not bothering at all! Old Senior Tang can stand here all you want.”

“You do your thing then.” Tang Qingtian stood to the side in silence without releasing any auras.

Luo Tian didn’t waste any more time. He began to send out his senses for the spiritual herbs he selected and said to himself: “These should be the right herbs.”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian pushed out all distracting thoughts. His mind and sea of consciousness then started to calm down like the surface of still lake. His breathing rhythm became lighter and steadier. His right hand gently moved and profound energy was released from it.

Right after...

Stalks of spiritual herbs were being placed inside the cauldron.

His profound energy slowly increased and blue flames appeared at the center of his palm.

Profound energy started surging.

The Green Dragon Cauldron began to show its divine powers as it perfectly cooperated with Luo Tian in stimulating the profound energy inside the spiritual herb.

At this moment...

Luo Tian had completely entered in a state of selflessness.

Tang Qingtian's eyes widened as his heart started beating faster. He then said to himself: "The highest realm of heaven and man as one! It looks like this kid was born to learn alchemy skills since he's able to comprehend heaven and man as one at such a young age. He should be at the grandmaster level. Even those Alchemy Grandmasters that have been famous for a thousand years may not be able to reach the heaven and man as one realm."

While watching Luo Tian continue to refine the medicine...

Tang Qingtian's expression became even more shocked. Looking at the spiritual herbs Luo Tian had picked, he said to himself: "Does this kid want to concoct the Profound Burst Pill?"

Indeed...

Luo Tian wanted to concoct the Profound Burst Pill.

But the Profound Burst Pill he was making was going to be different than what Nangong Hao took. The Profound Burst Pill he envisioned would not be limited to one's cultivation level and it would not have any side effects to one's fleshly body. Those conditions he wanted will require a big change.

Extract the negative medicinal properties that affected the fleshly body.

Extract the properties that limited one's cultivation level.

Not long after...

Green smoke started coming out of the cauldron.

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian frowned and said to himself: “I failed? Could something have gone wrong with my thought process? Or was there a problem with the spiritual herbs I selected?”

Failure.

When Luo Tian was operating the cauldron, Tang Qingtian had focused his attention on the medicinal changes. The moment it was about to successfully condense, the medicinal pill broke apart. Tang Qingtian’s heart was shocked to a complete mess now. Not because of the failure but because of Luo Tian’s vision.

He actually wanted to improve the Profound Burst Pill by removing the side effects!

If he wanted to concoct the original Profound Burst Pill, Luo Tian would easily succeed. But since he wanted to improve the medicinal pill by taking out the damage to the fleshly body... This kid is not simple! He is too incredible! Alchemy Grandmaster’s aren’t even qualified to carry his shoes at this point!

Luo Tian was dejected about this and was lost in thought for a good half hour. He then tried again.

Ever since Nangong Hao had used the Profound Burst Pill, Luo Tian had wanted to concoct this rather useful medicinal pill.

Moreover...

If Luo Tian was able to successfully develop this improved Profound Burst Pill, it would definitely be able to be auctioned off at a high price. This was a medicinal pill that anyone would want!

Soon after...

Luo Tian entered the heaven and man as one state and started his refinement.

“Ding!”

“Refinement failed!”

“It still doesn’t work? Where did it go wrong?”

Luo Tian summarized his thoughts after another failure.

A few minutes later, he began the process again.

“Ding!”

“Refinement failed!”

“Ding!”

“Refinement failed!”

A series of failure alerts sounded out.

Tang Qingtian faintly smiled and said internally: “It’s impossible for the Profound Burst Pill to not have any side effects. And how can a pill like that be not restricted to cultivation realms? Wouldn’t the world get thrown into chaos if that’s the case? This kid’s alchemy skills are quite awesome, except his brains are a bit dull. It’s very obvious that he cannot improve the pill yet he keeps trying non-stop. Isn’t that basically going against yourself? It’ll be better to just concoct a few original Profound Burst Pills instead.”

The Profound Burst Pill had already existed for ten thousand years now.

If it could be improved upon, someone would've done it already. Why would they wait for Luo Tian to do it now?

At this moment...

Luo Tian's brows quivered and the profound energy inside Green Dragon Cauldron started surging. After the sudden surge, it then started to fuse together like crazy. The flames made by profound energy in the center of Luo Tian's palm suddenly became colorless!

Suddenly...

Luo Tian shouted: "Succeed for me!"

Chapter 293 – This Old Guy Has A Mental Illness

The value of a Profound Burst Pill was huge!

A spirit grade medicinal pill that was capable of raising one's cultivation by two small realms. This medicinal pill was practically heaven-defying.

According to logic, this medicinal pill should be higher than spirit grade; it might even be considered an earth grade. It was actually due to its harmful effects that lowered its grading scale. There were many talented people in alchemy that wanted to improve on the Profound Burst Pill since its inception, but no one had succeeded.

At this time...

Right after Luo Tian's shout...

Tang Qingtian's expression faintly changed as he coldly chuckled internally: "Kid, no matter how many times you try to concoct it, it will never succeed. It's impossible for it to succeed. Even if you are super talented, it's still an impossible matter."

After ten thousand years, wouldn't there be many appearances of Alchemy Masters much stronger and talented than Luo Tian?

Since they couldn't improve on it, would a kid not even twenty years old be able to do it?

Tang Qingtian...

A Profound Saint expert sitting at the top. What kind of medicinal pills has he not seen? What kind of scenes has he not experienced?

The knowledge he knew surpassed Luo Tian's knowledge by far!

He was completely sure that Luo Tian would not be able to succeed in improving the Profound Burst Pill!

"Boom~!"

Another cloud of green smoke exploded from the Green Dragon Cauldron.

Tang Qingtian said with a faint smile: "Kid, there's no way you can succeed. The Profound Burst Pill isn't something you can improve on. If it can be improved on, someone else would've done it already and it wouldn't even be your turn."

Luo Tian smiled and wasn't bothered with Tang Qingtian's words. He then said: "It succeeded!"

Success!

It really succeeded!

A black medicinal pill sat in the Green Dragon Cauldron silently. It was giving off a rich scent of profound energy amongst its black luster.

Tang Qingtian frowned as he hid his shock. He walked up and directly took out the Profound Burst Pill inside the Green Dragon Cauldron. He sent out his senses and waves of shock instantly appeared in his mind! He then said with astonishment: "Impossible! Absolutely impossible! How can it be?!"

After living for over a thousand years, what things has he not seen before?

This matter was absolutely impossible!

Even Tang Qingtian was unable to accept this!

Luo Tian chuckled bitterly and said: "The only problem I had was that I was unable to raise the cultivation restriction to become limitless. Otherwise, it would have been even better. But I did manage to remove the damage to the fleshly body so there won't be any more side effects on that end."

The Profound Burst Pill was restricted to certain cultivation levels.

It would only work on those below the Profound Venerate realms.

It would be useless to those at and above the Profound Venerate realm.

However...

Luo Tian wasn't able to improve it to the point of unrestricted cultivation realms and was only able to raise it by one level. In other words, the Profound Burst Pill he concocted can be used by experts at the Profound Venerate realm without any drawbacks!

Hearing Luo Tian's words, Tang Qingtian became even more shocked. He just stared at Luo Tian without moving like he was trying to see through his soul.

He still wasn't satisfied with such an awesome improvement?

Is this kid nuts?

One needs to know that 10,000 years has gradually flowed by and no one was able to do it. But Luo Tian was able to accomplish it! Do you understand how awesome this is?

Of course...

The Pill Alchemy Skill Luo Tian trained in was directly related to his success. If he had used the alchemic skills of this world, most likely it would be near impossible for it to succeed. Moreover, this was also related to Luo Tian's effort and his personality because who would use so much precious spiritual herbs to concoct a pill that was said to be impossible to improve on?

A while later...

Tang Qingtian started laughing with a rather kind expression.

Luo Tian shivered and inched away as he said: "Old Senior Tang, can you not look at me like that? I, I, I am not into men. Even if you give me lots of money, I still won't do it so you can forget about it."

Tang Qingtian had a face full of smiles.

His gaze at Luo Tian looked like a gay man who had just found out this new friend of his was gay as well.

Tang Qingtian, of course, didn't know what was being gay. He was just extremely excited as he chuckled: "Kid, do you want to be the Nation's Teacher of my Great Tang? I can satisfy you with whatever you want. You can have anything inside the national treasury! Even the imperial qi from our Great Tang's dragon vein can be given to you!"

"Huh?"

“Nation’s Teacher?”

“Anything inside the national treasury?” Luo Tian suddenly had a bad feeling so he chuckled and said: “I think I’m fine with just concocting medicinal pills. Old Senior Tang, I need to concoct some more pills so if possible, please don’t disturb me any further. Thank you...”

He directly rejected it.

There was no hesitation.

One needs to understand that the status of Nation’s Teacher of the Great Tang grants similar treatment as those experts at the pinnacle of the empire. They are able to cultivate imperial qi which can propel their levels to unprecedented heights. However, all of this to Luo Tian wasn’t as good as killing a demonic beast because at least demonic beasts will give him experience points.

“Huh?”

“Those conditions are good enough?”

“Then how about Nation’s Grand-Teacher, which has a similar status as an Imperial Uncle? How about that kid? The authority you hold would be strong enough that the current emperor wouldn’t dare to ill-treat you.” Tang Qingtian was unwilling to give up. His expression still looked kindly but to Luo Tian, it seemed like a sinister smile.

It looked like he wanted to coax Luo Tian into a trap.

Luo Tian smiled awkwardly and said: “I still need to find some more spiritual herbs...”

“Then how about Nation’s Grand-Grand-Teacher?”

“...”

“That’s not good enough either?”

“How about I have all of Tang Zhanlong’s daughters marry you? What do you think? His daughters are all radiant and beautiful. This should finally work, right kid?”

“Still no good?”

“Shit, what do you want? It can’t be that you want me to gift you the Heavenly Sword that our ancestors left for us, right?”

Tang Qingtian had continued speaking without stopping.

Luo Tian had no interest whatsoever.

And when he looked at Tang Qingtian’s expression, Luo Tian really felt that his sexual orientation was definitely off.

Eventually...

Tang Qingtian was out of options and muttered: “You damn kid; I refuse to believe my Great Tang doesn’t have something that can move you.”

He was starting to get angry.

Luo Tian wasn’t giving him any face.

No matter what, he was a pinnacle expert at the Profound Saint realm yet this little junior wasn’t giving him any face. He was almost at the point of kneeling down before Luo Tian.

Tang Qingtian blew on his long beard in anger as he said internally: “This is pissing me off.”

At this moment...

A voice was transmitted into Tang Qingtian's mind.

Tang Qingtian started laughing like a bandit. "Hahaha... so you've already become a son-in-law of my Great Tang. Good, good, good! That kid Zhanlong did quite well. This kid is really not bad, hahaha..."

After laughing a few times...

Tang Qingtian suddenly disappeared and the national treasury echoed with his laughter a few more times.

Luo Tian mumbled to himself: "That old guy must have a mental illness. One look and you can tell it's rather serious, and he's probably gay as well."

Luo Tian looked around his surroundings.

Immediately after...

He continued concocting more medicinal pills.

There were continuous successes of the new improved Profound Burst Pills!

After two days, Luo Tian had finished using up the spiritual herbs to concoct the Profound Burst Pill.

It wasn't interested in the other spiritual herbs.

But...

Luo Tian selected several spiritual herbs with strong yang properties to concoct pills to strengthen a man's yang energy. These types of pills will definitely be hot products where those male nobles and aristocrats will fight over for.

In the end...

Luo Tian went over to a mountain-tall stack of ten thousand year old xuan metals. He then smiled: "With these ten thousand year old xuan metals, it wouldn't be bad to forge some xuan weapons."

The fifth day.

The large mountain of ten thousand year old xuan metals had been refined to the point of only a small lonely pile remained. Behind Luo Tian was a large pile of xuan weapons, and his Weapon Refining Skill had risen to level 6. Luo Tian then took out the bones of the Jiao Dragon he killed in the Ghostly Mountain Range with the gnomes...

Chapter 294 – Preparing A Bunch Of Presents

The sixth day.

Luo Tian walked out of the national treasury with a satisfied and excited expression.

These six days was something very important to him.

After glancing back at the entrance of the national treasury and bidding the two guards farewell, he then left the area.

Inside the national treasury.

The spiritual herbs were practically emptied.

The ten thousand year old xuan metals had turned into a little pile no larger than a piece of cow turd. As for the one thousand year old xuan metals, it wasn't even touched since those things were pretty much useless to Luo Tian.

"Perverted!"

"Bandit! Pirate!"

"But I like it, hahaha..." Tang Qingtian's figure suddenly appeared. Looking at the empty spiritual herbs and xuan metals consumed by Luo Tian, he wasn't angry and started laughing instead. Recalling last night when Luo Tian was refining those long skeletal bones, his heart was once again shocked.

Alchemy skills at the Grandmaster level.

Weapon refining skills at the Grandmaster level.

People with those two occupations were already considered rare, and for a single person to be proficient in both was even rarer. And for someone to reach such a terrifying level of expertise, most likely Luo Tian was the first in the last ten thousand years!

Seeing the disappearing back of Luo Tian, Tang Qingtian smiled until his eyes only showed a thin line. He then said: "Zhanlong was correct; this kid is even more fierce than Human Emperor Hong Wanfu. Just those two occupations are already something that coward Hong Wanfu cannot compare with."

"The only thing I'm not sure of is whether his strength is as high as what Zhanlong has said."

"It will be a terrifying cultivation strength if he has already reached the Profound King 4th rank when he's not even twenty years old yet."

"Kiddo, go have fun causing waves."

Tang Qingtian's heart was filled with expectations.

"Boss!"

"Boss is back."

"I missed you, big brother Luo Tian."

"Dragon head, this one misses you too. Do you want me to play a returning song for you?"

"Blindman Liu, can you go take a break somewhere?"

Luo Tian went into a rather secluded courtyard in the imperial palace. Feng Lei rushed up to welcome him while everyone showed their joy.

Luo Tian's group didn't go back to the Flame Dragon Gang's headquarters in the northern city.

As for Luo Tian himself...

There wasn't really any need for him to go back there either. After killing Du Yuansong, he had already become the King of northern city and there wasn't anyone capable of challenging his position. As for the spots to attend the Heaven and Earth rankings, no one would dare challenge his group for the six positions.

There was no one qualified inside the northern city.

Of course...

Luo Tian didn't know about this.

He also didn't have the time to think of those things because the auction would be starting in three days. What he needed to do was amass as much money as he can. In the Spectral Forbidden Grounds, he had activated the Ancient Dragon Execution Array twice and thus burned through a large number of attributed demon cores.

The current amount of attributed demon cores he had on hand didn't seem to be enough.

Thinking about how powerful the Dao Shang Alliance were, and how there's no way his current self could touch them; he could only go through the normal means to purchase An Chunchun's mother. He was really hoping the auction will go smoothly.

He was really hoping there wouldn't be any major problems.

"Bastard, you've finally come back."

"Smelly scoundrel, if you didn't come back soon, all of us would've gone crazy. Humph..."

Tang Tang and Qin Yue'er came out of the courtyard with unhappy expressions.

Luo Tian then asked: "What happened?"

Qin Yue'er then said: "We have been forbidden to leave. They said that until you return, none of us are allowed to leave the imperial palace. Passing these days in a gilded cage is killing us, so you returning now is the perfect time for us to go out and have some fun. The Dao Shang Alliance's annual auction will start in three days, so Heavenly Sword City will definitely have a bunch of famous people who have come all over for it. It should be extremely lively, so quickly bring us out to play!"

"I want to go too! I want to go too!" shouted Tang Tang while jumping up and down.

An Chunchun giggled before looking at Luo Tian and fluttering her large eyes. She then said cutely: “Big brother Luo Tian, I want to go too. Bring me along as well, hee hee...”

Luo Tian looked at Feng Lei and the rest and they just stared at him in return.

It looks like these guys really have lost their mind from boredom these past six days.

Luo Tian had no other choice. There were already quite a few people who knew of An Chunchun’s identity and were hatching schemes, so the imperial palace was the safest place for her. Within the Heavenly Sword City, a single word from the imperial family and no one would dare to act rashly.

Luo Tian raised his arm like he was rallying them and said: “Fine! Everyone prepare to head out to the main streets!”

“Okay!”

“Yeah!”

“Long live big brother Luo Tian!”

“Boss, you are treating us so nice. If I continued staying here, even I would start getting sick out of nowhere” said Feng Lei with a bitter smile. He hadn’t left this courtyard all these days and was truly about to go bonkers.

Luo Tian then shouted: “But...!”

“You guys better listen up – do not run all over the place. Feng Lei, Blindman Liu, you two are responsible for An Chunchun’s safety. Xuan Yuanyi, you are responsible for the Princess and Yue’er’s safety. Don’t get flustered if something happens and just come get me. If you happen to meet a strong opponent, don’t tangle with them and tolerate it. Remember what they look like and then come back to call for backup. I refuse to believe that people will dare provoke us while we’re still in the Heavenly Sword City!”

“Add me in as well.”

Tang Jiu came into the courtyard wearing casual and inconspicuous clothes.

He had rushed over the moment he heard that Luo Tian had come out of the national treasury.

Of course...

That piece of news was sent over by Tang Zhanlong. His intentions were very simple since he wanted Tang Jiu to grab a hold onto Luo Tian.

Even if Tang Zhanlong didn't have those intentions, Tang Jiu would've done the same thing. There weren't any unscrupulous intentions and only because Luo Tian treated him as a brother and he treated Luo Tian as one as well. Luo Tian had already occupied a very high position inside his heart.

Luo Tian smiled and greeted: “Ninth brother.”

Tang Tang had an unhappy expression as she harrumphed: “Humph! Ninth brother, I don't think you should come with us. It's because of your command that the guards didn't let us go out these past few days. Now you should be the one that cannot go out, humph!”

Tang Jiu chuckled and said: “Thirteenth sister, it was actually brother Luo who requested me to do that.”

“Huh?”

Luo Tian was instantly betrayed.

He quickly ran out and shouted behind him: “Go! Let's go shopping!”

Tang Tang was still in a state of startlement and just as she was going to show her temper, she realized everyone had already started rushing out of the courtyard. She stomped her feet in anger and could only quickly follow the others.

“Fatty Lei and Blindman Liu are protecting An Chunchun, and Xuan Yuanyi is taking care of us both. Bastard, what about you?” Qin Yue’er asked curiously.

Luo Tian smiled mysteriously and said: “I naturally have my own things to take care of.”

Tang Jiu then asked: “Does brother Luo have any matters that need my assistance?”

Luo Tian smiled and replied: “No need. I’m going to head over to the Dao Shang Alliance and put some items up for auction to get some pocket money. Uhhh... that’s right. I have prepared a small present for each of you and will give it to you guys tonight.”

“Presents?”

“What kind of presents?”

“Big brother Luo Tian, Chunchun also wants a present. Chunchun loves getting presents, hee hee...”

Feng Lei and others all showed faces of anticipation.

They all knew that...

The presents Luo Tian prepared for them will definitely be extraordinary.

Luo Tian had already made preparations for the auction before he entered the national treasury. If everything went smoothly, those presents would not be needed. If things didn’t go smoothly, then there would be a fierce fight. Therefore, Luo Tian had to raise their battle strength even if it was only by a little.

The presents he prepared for them were all very useful, capable of raising their strength by a single level.

Auction house!

Hopefully, everything will go smoothly...

Chapter 295 – Untitled

A group of rowdy people left the imperial palace.

“Wow...”

“The air outside the imperial palace is so fresh!”

“I can smell the scent of freedom!”

“Such a comfortable feeling!”

Luo Tian glared at them and said: “There’s no need to say those exaggerated comments; you guys should be thanking Ninth brother instead. If I didn’t have him restrict your movements, who knows how much trouble you guys would’ve caused for me by now? It’s a good thing to lay low for a while.”

They had offended the Sea Cloud Sect.

If by chance Daoist Huang Yun was hanging around Heavenly Sword City, they would all be slaughtered the moment they left the imperial palace.

Everyone became startled by that.

Qin Yue’er and Tang Tang grabbed An Chunchun and ran off quickly.

“New clothes that just came on the market!”

“Jewelry from the elf race!”

“Wow, so many candied haws!”

Those three girls ran to the main streets like they had just been released from prison. The words Luo Tian had said half an hour prior were already forgotten by them.

Feng Lei was having a hard time following them.

“Eh?”

“This is a century old restaurant! Blindman Liu, hurry up! How about we head in for a drink?”

Blindman Liu put away his erhu and revealed his yellow stained teeth with a smile. “Right up my alley! Hahaha... fatty, today I will definitely get you drunk.”

“Cheh!”

“Just based on you? Don’t you know that I won’t get drunk even after a thousand cups?” Feng Lei stepped into the restaurant and immediately shouted: “Shopkeeper! Quickly bring out ten jugs of your finest wine for me! Quickly! My wine bug is completely hooked by this wonderful scent!”

Luo Tian became dumbfounded...

Because Xuan Yuanyi had disappeared from his spot at an unknown time as well.

He had already reached a shop that sold xuan weapons. Luo Tian couldn't understand why Xuan Yuanyi still had to browse through xuan weapon shops when his own Great Fault Divine Sword was a weapon that was listed in the top rankings of divine weapons within the continent.

Tang Jiu was walking next to Luo Tian and said with a smile: "Just let them enjoy themselves. Don't worry about their safety issue because I've already made preparations. I will take good care of them and you can go run your own errands."

Tang Jiu was quite thorough when he took care of matters.

He had prepared everything early on.

Even if he didn't have people secretly protecting Luo Tian and company, Tang Zhanlong would've made his own arrangements.

After all...

No one knows whether all the people of Sea Cloud Sect have left Heavenly Sword City or not. If by chance a death assassin pops out of nowhere, then the consequences would be unimaginable.

Luo Tian smiled and said: "Thank you, Ninth brother."

Tang Jiu replied: "Why are you being so polite with me? You are my future brother-in-law."

Luo Tian smiled and didn't say anything more. He continued walking down the street towards the tallest and most luxurious looking building.

Dao Shang Alliance!

This was their branch in Heavenly Sword City.

The place was designated to receive any work related to the alliance, as well as taking in auction items and the ticket sales to the event.

A lot of people were queuing up here.

Many people were paying attention to the Dao Shang Alliance's auction this time. Apart from the variety of xuan weapons, xuan armor, and some powerful medicinal pills, people were mostly anticipating the appearance of a demon fox clan woman.

Pertaining to the news of a demon fox clan woman, people had only heard about it but no one had actually seen her yet.

How beautiful was she? Was she really as seductive as mentioned in the legends? Could her charming eyes really cause one to never forget from a single glance? Only after spending a night with her will a man really understand what heaven truly is?

These were all things recorded in history books.

Not many people knew if this was true or not.

Not many people have slept with a demon fox clan woman either. Many times those legends were hyped up or just plainly made up.

Luo Tian stepped through the entrance and saw a large group of people competing to buy tickets.

"Give me ten of them! Ten..."

"I'm sorry, but each person can only purchase one."

"F*ck! This daddy has nothing but money! Isn't it just 10,000 gold per ticket? This daddy will pay 200,000 so give me ten!"

“This customer, the rule was passed down from up top. Each person may only purchase one. I’m really sorry but I cannot satisfy your request.”

“F*ck! Dao Shang Alliance is so awesome huh? So amazing huh? They don’t even care about earning more money huh? You damn dog bastards; today this daddy shall smash your face with money! So 200,000 isn’t enough? How about 300,000? Or how about 400,000?”

A single ticket to the auction was 10,000 gold. This f*cking...

They’re earning way too much money!

The Dao Shang Alliance’s auction house can fit ten thousand people, so how much profit are they making?

Now that’s a wealthy organization.

This world was a playground for the rich. Just ticket sales alone would earn the alliance over 100 million! Luo Tian then started swearing internally as he saw that nouveau rich guy continuously pull out gold banknotes from his spatial ring and slapping the girl’s face with it.

The girl didn’t retaliate and maintained her smile. Now that was an ideal model of professionalism!

Luo Tian couldn’t watch any longer and just when he was about to stop the guy...

Suddenly...

A middle-aged man came out from another room.

Without waiting for the guy to respond, a single leg struck out. It was a fierce kick that directly sent that nouveau rich flying outside.

The middle-aged man didn't even look at the guy and coldly harrumphed: "Causing trouble at the Dao Shang Alliance? You're practically courting death!"

Immediately after...

He turned around and to go back inside, exhibiting his domineering stance to a complete mess.

The cultivation level of the middle-aged man was not below Luo Tian's. Luo Tian then said internally with surprise: "It looks like the Dao Shang Alliance is indeed quite awesome. Just a random bouncer of theirs is at the Profound King realm."

The middle-aged man glanced at Luo Tian and casually said: "Go queue up if you want to buy an entrance ticket."

Luo Tian replied: "I'm not here for tickets. I wish to put some items up for auction so do you know who do I look for?"

The middle-aged man was a bit surprised by that. When he looked at Luo Tian's clothing, Luo Tian didn't seem to be a wealthy individual and kind of looked like a village bumpkin. He was thinking someone like Luo Tian wouldn't have anything good to be auctioned off but he didn't reveal that on his face. He then said: "We don't auction xuan equipment below the spirit grade, we don't auction medicinal pills below the spirit grade, we don't auction spiritual herbs below the ninth grade... and we don't auction any miscellaneous items that aren't stage worthy."

The middle-aged man said a whole bunch of things all at once.

Luo Tian listened to it intently and said: "My items meet the requirement."

"Huh?"

The middle-aged man was faintly surprised. Since this was the case, he couldn't have Luo Tian bring the items out right here so he said: "Follow me then."

The two of them went to the rear courtyard.

The middle-aged man called out respectfully to a room: "Steward Liu, someone has brought an item to be auctioned so it needs your appraisal."

A person came out of the room.

This person was about fifty plus years of age and looked no different than your average elderly person. He first looked at the middle-aged man and said: "I understand. You may go back to your tasks."

Immediately after...

The old man walked up to Luo Tian and revealed a professional smile. "Does this little brother have something he wishes to auction off?"

Luo Tian didn't bother speaking nonsense and directly handed over a Profound Burst Pill.

The old man looked at the medicinal pill and wasn't too surprised since the Profound Burst Pill to him wasn't a precious medicinal pill at all. He then said: "Just this medicinal pill?"

Luo Tian nodded and said: "En!"

The old man faintly smiled and said: "This Profound Burst Pill isn't bad, but every item in our auction this time are supreme treasures. I'm afraid this Profound Burst Pill cannot be qualified to get on stage."

The old man said plainly.

Luo Tian smiled and said: "It isn't a normal Profound Burst Pill. The cultivation realm restriction for it is for experts below the Profound Saint realm, and there are no longer any side effects."

The old man frowned as he sent out his senses.

His expression drastically changed as shock filled his heart. His voice started shaking as he said: “You, you, you wait here. I need to call the Manager out...”

Chapter 296 – Kid, You’re Definitely Dying Today

The old man was moved!

Waves of shock were felt inside him!

He sent out his senses to examine the medicinal properties and it was indeed what Luo Tian had said.

Those below the Profound Saint realm could use it and there weren’t any side effects. And to a certain extent, it could even strengthen the body and improve one’s health!

This old man was also an alchemist.

He too had experience with the Profound Burst Pill before and it’s really not a bad item, but using it will lead to endless future troubles. He would never use it unless he was forced to a dead end since no one is willing to mess around with their martial path.

He was extremely shocked because he understood this point:

This was a new and improved Profound Burst Pill!

What kind of awesome existence was this?! The old man was so excited that he started shaking. He then said: “Please, please, please wait a moment. I will immediately have my Manager come down. Don’t worry, we will definitely help you auction off this medicinal pill at an unprecedented price.”

“It will definitely shock the world.”

“This is an epic breakthrough! It will definitely shock all those on the martial path! This is too incredible!”

The old man walked away muttering in excitement and almost fell over a few times.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said to himself: “Damn man, is it really that awesome? Isn’t it just a slightly improved Profound Burst Pill? There’s no need to have such an exaggerated response, right?”

If those words were heard by the old man...

The old man would most likely go berserk and fiercely criticize Luo Tian for a good length of time.

Only alchemists would know how difficult it is to improve an existing medicinal pill. Not only was it the strength of the flames, the spiritual herbs, the release of profound energy, the cauldron, one’s own emotional state, but even the surrounding atmosphere would also be factors in affecting the concoction process.

It really wasn’t easy.

Luo Tian naturally didn’t know about all of this. To him, this was merely a medicinal pill that wasn’t too bad.

While standing in the courtyard, Luo Tian had nothing better to do so he started looking around. The courtyard was filled with all kinds of exotic flowers and unusual herbs, and their grades were not ordinary. The shock he felt towards the Dao Shang Alliance had once again increased by a little.

“Noble Liu, please head over there.”

“Please be careful, it rained last night so the grounds might be a bit slippery.” The previous middle-aged man brought in a rather handsome looking male.

The male was a bit too skinny.

It looked like he was skinny because he had overindulged himself on certain things.

He was dressed in all white and in his hands was a jade fan. He had a swaying motion to his walk and a faint smirk on his face.

As the middle-aged man walked into the courtyard, he glanced at Luo Tian and a faint frown showed on his face. He then called out to the room: "Steward Liu, Noble Liu has come. He wants to auction a spirit grade weapon and a spirit grade armor."

Luo Tian spoke up with kind intentions: "The Steward went upstairs."

The middle-aged man's countenance turned serious as he muttered in his heart: "Went upstairs? To look for the Manager? Why is this kid still here? Could it be that the item he brought out couldn't be appraised by Steward Liu?"

The middle-aged man faintly smiled in response.

Li Junfeng closed his fan and coldly scoffed with disdain: "Where did this country bumpkin come from? Li Liu, is this a new cleaner you guys have recently hired?"

Luo Tian faintly frowned.

The middle-aged man was called Li Liu. He respectfully smiled and said: "Noble Liu, he is also here to auction off an item."

Li Junfeng was startled by this. He pointed at Luo Tian's nose with his fan and started laughing in ridicule: "Hahaha... him? A country bumpkin like him has something to auction off here? Is it a piece of trash xuan weapon or is it a trashy fire stick? This is just too funny!"

"Li Liu, oh Li Liu. I'm not trying to lecture you but for people like him, you can just kick them out like stray dogs. Allowing people like him to enter your Dao Shang Alliance pavilion is simply an insult. Trash like him are only useful for cleaning the toilets."

Luo Tian coldly grinned but didn't bother with Liu Junfeng.

Li Liu smiled apologetically at Luo Tian before smiling respectfully at Liu Junfeng.

He was very clear about Liu Junfeng's background. Liu Junfeng was the brother-in-law to Heavenly Sword City's east district Li Wenzong, so his backing was quite powerful.

He cannot offend this guy.

As for Luo Tian, his identity was still unknown so Li Liu couldn't offend him either.

Liu Junfeng smiled coldly at Luo Tian and took a step forward. He was right in front of Luo Tian's face and said with disdain: "Damn dog thing, what are you smiling at? Do you believe this daddy can make you become a dead dog if I wanted?"

Luo Tian became angry.

He started frowning and power started circulating from inside his body.

At this moment...

Two people came down from upstairs and one of them was Steward Liu. The other person was about the same age as Steward Liu and had a rosy glow to his face. He was the one that shouted out: "Who dares to cause a ruckus here?!"

His voice contained a rich amount of power.

Luo Tian retrieved his energy and coldly glanced at Liu Junfeng at the corner of his eyes.

Liu Junfeng's expression immediately changed to one full of smiles as he received that person. His expression basically showed that he was trying to fawn over this new arrival as he said: "Manager Cheng, I am Minister Li's brother-in-law, Liu Junfeng. I came over this time hoping your business can auction off my spirit weapon..."

"Huh?"

Liu Junfeng didn't get to finish his sentence when Steward Liu brought Manager Cheng straight towards Luo Tian. "The medicinal pill was brought over by this little brother."

Ignored!

Liu Junfeng's existence was completely ignored.

There wasn't even a slight glance at him like he did not exist. As for the name dropping, Steward Liu and Manager Cheng didn't even care about it and treated it as nothing more than a fart.

Cheng Danian had an excited expression as he said: "Little brother, do you really wish to auction off this Profound Burst Pill? This is some good stuff; something so good that it can't get any better!"

"Hahaha..."

"Haha..."

"And I was thinking what kind of good things he had yet it's nothing more than a Profound Burst Pill. My Liu Manor has tons of those medicinal pills. I already knew this country bumpkin wouldn't be able to bring out anything good. Just scam out of here; this isn't a place for people like you to come here." Liu Junfeng started laughing in ridicule.

Cheng Danian's eyes turned grim before he yelled at Li Liu: "Who allowed you to let these low-class people in here?!"

Without waiting for Li Liu to respond...

Liu Junfeng once again pointed his fan at Luo Tian and said: "Damn dog thing, he's talking about you! I already told you early on that people with your status aren't qualified to enter the Dao Shang's pavilion. Quickly scam out you damn bumpkin! Looking at you really revolts me!"

Cheng Danian's gaze tightened and a trace of killing intent was seen in them. He then said to Luo Tian: "Little brother, do you wish to have him killed?"

Those words were said in a rather casual manner.

Killing intent then started getting stronger.

Liu Junfeng's identity and backing were completely ignored.

What kind of existence was the Dao Shang Alliance?

Within the Heavenly Sword City, they weren't even afraid of the Great Tang Dynasty so why would they be afraid of a brother-in-law of a Minister?"

Luo Tian was calm and composed with a faint smile. He then looked at Cheng Danian and said: "Thank you."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's gaze turned cold as killing intent surged out from him. He then glared at Liu Junfeng and shouted: "If you dare to point your fan at this daddy again, this daddy will have you lying down like a dead dog!"

Strong killing intent...

Exploded out like crazy!

The aura from Luo Tian's body made Liu Junfeng take several steps back. His face turned faintly pale as he angrily stammered: "You, you, you..."

Just as he was about to use his fan to point at Luo Tian again...

Steward Liu made some eye gestures at Li Liu who immediately grabbed Liu Junfeng and chuckled: "Noble Liu, we will talk more outside."

Liu Junfeng's expression was of rage as he shouted: "Kid, just wait for this daddy because you're definitely going to die today!"

Chapter 297 – Untitled

Liu Junfeng kept scolding as he left the courtyard.

Even when he was far away, they could still hear his loud angry voice.

Cheng Danian had an unpleasant look as he said: "In the future, don't let people of such low class enter here. And don't let him enter the Dao Shang pavilion a single step from here on out. He looks like a human but acts no different than a stray dog."

Steward Liu softly replied: "Understood."

Luo Tian only faintly smiled.

Cheng Danian made a "please" gesture and politely said: "Little brother, we will continue talking inside."

Luo Tian didn't bother speaking nonsense and followed them into the room.

The decor in the room was rather simple but the items inside weren't ordinary. Just randomly taking an item out of here would easily fetch over 10,000 gold on the market.

Cheng Danian put the Profound Burst Pill he was holding into an intricate looking box reserved for medicinal pills. He then said with an excited expression: "Little brother, can I ask you something? Where did your medicinal pill come from? Did it..."

Saying up to this, he hesitated for a bit before continuing: "Did it come from the Immortal Sects?"

If one were to ask where an improved Profound Burst Pill would come from, most likely everyone would say only those Alchemist Grandmasters from those Immortal ranked Sects will be able to concoct it.

Luo Tian directly answered: "I concocted it myself."

"Yourself?"

"Concocted?"

Cheng Danian and Steward Liu almost bit their tongues when they heard that. Those two stared at Luo Tian without moving like they didn't hear or understand what he had just said.

Luo Tian thought they didn't hear it clearly so he said again: "It was me that concocted it. I made some improvements but I failed to completely remove the restriction on cultivation realms. Maybe there's some process that I haven't fully grasped yet."

"Gulp~!"

Cheng Danian swallowed hard. He wasn't an alchemist but he has been in touch with many exquisite medicinal pills and has seen countless alchemists with their holier than thou attitude. He understood that improving a medicinal pill required a lot of time and spiritual herbs, but many have still failed after paying huge prices.

Not to mention the Profound Burst Pill, improving the lowest ranked medicinal was extremely difficult.

And what did Luo Tian just say?

Luo Tian said he couldn't completely improve on it and felt like he had failed. His expression was rather serious and didn't seem like he was faking it. And his words seem to say that it was possible to completely improve on the Profound Burst Pill one day and remove the cultivation realm restriction.

This meant...

Profound God Sovereigns could consume the Profound Burst Pill and raise their cultivation by two small realms.

What kind of existence would they become?

Crazy!

Was Luo Tian crazy or did this world become crazy? Or did those two become crazy themselves?

Cheng Danian was shocked to a complete mess! He started rubbing his hands together and asked excitedly: "Little brother, since you were the one that concocted the Profound Burst Pill, how many do you have left? And are you only considering auctioning one of them?"

Luo Tian responded: "How many do you think we should auction off?"

Cheng Danian immediately said: "This kind of medicinal pill will definitely be a hot commodity. Our Dao Shang auction house will sell how many you have on hand, and our price will definitely leave you satisfied. I wonder how much do you plan on selling?"

For such a good item, even Chang Danian wanted a few for himself.

Even if they don't auction it off, it wouldn't be a problem for the Dao Shang pavilion to save it for their own members.

Moreover...

Once the public knows about this item, the world would go crazy for them.

Profound Burst Pill – an item even those below the Profound Saint realm can use. This was practically heaven defying!

Luo Tian brought out a small porcelain vial and said: "There are nineteen inside here. Plus the one you already have will make twenty. We'll just sell this amount for now... what do you guys think?"

"Twe..."

"Twenty of them?"

"My heavens..."

Cheng Danian's eyeballs almost popped out of his sockets and his hand trembled as he received the vial from Luo Tian. His insides were excited to a complete mess as he said: "What demon fox clan woman? What divine weapons? Comparing to these twenty medicinal pills, those things aren't worth mentioning anymore!"

Hearing those words "demon fox clan woman," Luo Tian's gaze faintly trembled.

Cheng Danian put away the Profound Burst Pills and immediately said: "I will give you a receipt for them in a little bit. So what price are you hoping to sell the pills at and what starting price do you want? And can you concoct more of these improved Profound Burst Pills? The spiritual herbs can be supplied by our Dao Shang Pavilion and it doesn't matter how much you need. We wish to monopolize the sales of your pills. Apart from supplying you with spiritual herbs, we only want a small percentage of the sales. What do you think about this?"

Cheng Danian was really excited inside.

He has never given anyone these conditions before, and these conditions technically needed the approval of the President. But he decided to make those decisions himself today which showed how large the market for these improved Profound Burst Pills could be!

Steward Liu at the side was secretly shocked and his countenance showed a slight change.

Luo Tian was also shocked by the conditions of Cheng Danian. He faintly smiled and said: "I don't really know much about starting prices for auctions. Since you guys are the professionals at this, we can just go according to what you say. As for monopolizing the Profound Burst Pills, I will tell you honestly that I don't have much time to concoct pills. This profession is not my focus and I'm only dabbling in alchemy as a hobby. Since I won't be putting too much effort into it, then it's impossible for me to continue concocting this medicinal pill for the long term."

Refining and concocting pills was merely a hobby to Luo Tian.

It was actually more out of necessity than a hobby. And since this was something Xiao Yan trained in, Luo Tian wanted to dabble in it for fun.

He actually needed a lot of medicinal pills for himself.

Raising his alchemy skill wasn't about earning money and this time was only an exception.

But the way Luo Tian said those words made Steward Liu and Manager Cheng shocked to a complete mess. Concocting pills weren't his focus and was merely a hobby. Then what kind of heaven defying grade pills would Luo Tian make if he focused all his efforts on alchemy?

This kid... isn't he a bit too arrogant?

Or is he really that strong?!

Cheng Danian sighed in his heart as he said: "That's fine then. But if little brother sells more Profound Burst Pills in the future, you definitely have to choose our Dao Shang Pavilion."

Luo Tian then responded: "I will."

"Oh right..."

"Do you guys take xuan weapons?" asked Luo Tian.

"Xuan weapons?"

"Is it forged by you as well?"

Cheng Danian asked curiously as he said internally: "Is this kid even human? Alchemy is his hobby yet he can improve the Profound Burst Pill. Now he's asking about xuan weapons... could his focus be on forging xuan weapons?"

Luo Tian nodded and said: "That's right, I forged several xuan weapons. You guys can take a look and see if it's good enough to enter this time's auction."

After saying that...

Luo Tian brought out a pitch black long sword with a dull luster. The sword didn't have a hilt and looked very similar to the Tang Blade of Feng Lei's.

Cheng Danian took it to observe the details. His mind was once again shocked by Luo Tian as he said: "A xuan weapon at the peak spirit grade."

"Huh?"

“This xuan weapon contains a trace of wild and unruly energy... a force from a powerful demonic beast. Could this been made from the bones of a powerful demonic beast?”

Luo Tian nodded and said: “This was refined from the bones of a Jiao Dragon in the Freezing Lakes. If this can be auctioned off, put it with the rest of my stuff.”

“It can be auctioned!”

“It can be auctioned!”

Flowers were blooming inside Cheng Danian’s heart. He was extremely annoyed when he thought of how his limelight was constantly being suppressed by Qi Fu, but now it was his turn to rise up! He quickly collected all the items and took out a gold card before saying: “This will give you access to our auction’s VIP room. Only guests with important statuses like you can enjoy these rooms.”

Luo Tian wasn’t polite. Just the gold card alone would probably sell for a million.

You’re an idiot if you don’t take advantage when you can!

Soon after, Cheng Danian accompanied Luo Tian out. In front of the main entrance of the Dao Shang pavilion stood a row of burly men with uncommon strength, and leading the group was Liu Junfeng. Watching Luo Tian come out, he coldly harrumphed: “Kid, you’ve finally come out...”

Chapter 298 – You’re Going To Die

“Damn dog thing, you’ve finally come out.”

“Someone come and beat him to death for me!”

Liu Junfeng was incomparably arrogant.

There weren’t many people he was afraid of inside Heavenly Sword City.

Who was he?

The current Internal Minister Li Wenzong's brother-in-law!

Who would dare to provoke him?

He was basically a tyrant in Heavenly Sword City and had committed all sorts of evils with Li Wenzong's backing. He was here because he wanted to auction off two xuan weapons that he had forcefully snatched from someone.

There was a faint frown on Luo Tian's face as he never imagined Liu Junfeng would really bring people over to oppress him. He unconsciously smiled coldly and said in a low voice: "Someone with a death wish."

Cheng Danian was unhappy.

He was very unhappy.

Luo Tian was his VIP guest. Oppressing Luo Tian right in front of the Dao Shang Pavilion was practically smacking his face and the face of the Dao Shang Alliance!

Suddenly...

Cheng Danian's gaze turned cold. He looked at Liu Junfeng in a playful manner while saying to Luo Tian: "Little brother, do you need my assistance?"

He was very angry but still had to ask for Luo Tian's opinion. This was his way of showing respect.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "Thank you for your kind intentions Manager Cheng, but I can still handle these mongrels myself."

“Huh?”

There was a slight change to Cheng Danian’s expression. Not mentioning Liu Junfeng’s cultivation level, just these burly guys were all at the Profound King realm and there were six of them. These people in Luo Tian’s eyes were just mongrel dogs? Moreover, Liu Junfeng’s strength was at the Profound King 6th rank. Even though he didn’t like to cultivate, his talent wasn’t too bad so his powers were quite strong.

Can Luo Tian really deal with these people?

Luo Tian was under twenty years of age. He can concoct pills and forge xuan weapons, so was it possible for him to have a strong cultivation as well?

Is this kid still human?

At this moment...

Cheng Danian and Steward Liu were both filled with doubts; they thought Luo Tian was looking down on his opponents.

At this time...

Luo Tian had already stepped out of the Dao Shang Pavilion’s main doors.

Cheng Danian’s countenance turned grim and said to Steward Liu by his side: “You go out and protect him.”

Steward Liu nodded. His figure instantly disappeared and appeared amidst the crowd, blending in with the large group of people.

Because there was someone causing trouble in front of the Dao Shang Pavilion, and the building was located at a busy location, many people instantly gathered around to watch the fun.

Off at a distance...

“Eh? There’s something lively going on over there.”

“Quick, quick, quick! We should go take a look as well! It should be a lot of fun!”

“Big sister Yue’er, can you hurry up? We’ll miss it if we get there late!”

Also at this time...

Inside the xuan weapon store, the store owner was kicking Xuan Yuanyi out as he scolded: “You damn poor wretch, stop touching my wares if you’re not buying anything! You actually dare to say the xuan weapons in my store aren’t in fashion? You’re the one not in fashion! Looking at that dilapidated weapon above your shoulders, I can already tell you’re a beggar from the countryside! Quickly scam out of here!”

Xuan Yuanyi didn’t argue with him. He walked out and down the street and noticed there was a large group of people gathering so he too unconsciously hurried over as well.

Inside a restaurant.

Those two living wine barrels Blindman Liu and Feng Lei had almost emptied the restaurant of their wine. They were surrounded by wine jars and practically all the guests in the store were staring at the two.

The shopkeeper’s face was pale in fright. He then almost shouted: “My little store is out of wine, completely out of wine. My two lords, the restaurant across the street has a lot of good wine. They have lots and lots of good wine so I will treat you both over there.”

Feng Lei licked the wine residue from the corner of his mouth and started chuckling: “This feels great!”

Blindman Liu's face was flushed red as he said: "I haven't felt so great in many years!"

"This store is already out of wine."

"Let's go to the next store! Today, we shall drain all the restaurants in Heavenly Sword City! Hahaha..."

Feng Lei dropped a banknote and strode off to down the street. Coincidentally, he saw Xuan Yuanyi hurry towards where a large crowd was gathered. Feng Lei's gaze tightened as he recalled the mission Luo Tian had given him. He then said in his mind: "Oh crap, I completely forgot the matters boss told me to do."

"Blindman Liu! You damn alcoholic, can you hurry it up? I think there's trouble up ahead!"

Blindman Liu was startled by those words and burped. "Today is an auspicious day so there shouldn't be any trouble."

But they didn't dare delay so those two quickly ran over.

In a hidden area...

Tang Jiu's expression changed as he commanded a person off to the side: "Bring the Black Dragon Legion over. No matter who it is, anyone that dares to provoke Luo Tian or anyone in his group can be directly killed."

"I obey!"

Tang Jiu also quickly rushed over.

"Move aside! Move aside! Everyone move aside!"

“Hot water! Hot water coming through! Everyone give way please!”

Upon hearing hot water, the surrounding crowd unconsciously opened up a path.

Qin Yue'er and Tang Tang were holding An Chunchun as they managed to reach the front. They immediately saw Luo Tian!

When An Chunchun was about to shout his name...

Liu Junfeng walked forward while waving his fan, putting on a pose he thought was rather suave-looking. He faintly smiled which looked a bit perverted and said: “These two beauties, how are you both doing?”

His eyes were basically ogling at Qin Yue'er's chest.

Liu Junfeng's eyeballs almost popped out as he said internally: “Oh damn! This daddy has been hanging out in Heavenly Sword City for so many years and has never seen such a pretty and hot looking girl combination before! One is hot while the other one looks so pure. If I can bring these two to bed with me, it will definitely feel like heaven!”

“How can Heavenly Sword City still have such pretty girls that I don't know about?”

“These two women are definitely not locals of Heavenly Sword City and are foreigners.”

Thinking up to this point, a sense of superiority grew inside Liu Junfeng as he said: “Is this the first time you two beauties have come to Heavenly Sword City? Do you want me to give you two a tour of the city? I can take you both to wherever you want to go and guarantee you will be satisfied.”

Tang Tang rolled her eyes at him and asked: “We can go to whatever place we want?”

Liu Junfeng smiled and replied: "Of course! Just based on being the brother-in-law of Internal Minister Li Wenzong, I can take you to any place inside Heavenly Sword City."

Tang Tang coldly smiled and said: "Can you bring us into the imperial palace then?"

"Huh?"

Liu Junfeng's expression changed. It looked like he was forced to a dead end as he couldn't find any words to reply.

Tang Tang then said with disdain: "A little brother-in-law of a Minister dares to show off in front of us? Didn't your parents teach you to best act low key within Heavenly Sword City?"

When compared to Tang Tang, Liu Junfeng was less than a fart.

An angry expression appeared on Liu Junfeng's face as he became annoyed.

Qin Yue'er faintly smiled and said: "Is it your people that's surrounding him?"

Liu Junfeng became smug again as he said: "Those are all the hired fighters of my family, each one of them are experts at the Profound King realm. This country bumpkin kid dared to provoke me. Within Heavenly Sword City, those that dare to mess with me have not been born yet!"

After saying that...

Liu Junfeng wanted to show off in front of Qin Yue'er and Tang Tang so he closed his fan and pointed it at Luo Tian. His expression was extremely arrogant as he shouted with vigor: "Damn dog thing! You dared to clash with this young master? Today this young master will teach you the consequences of messing with me!"

"Someone come and attack."

“Break his legs first so that he can kneel before me...”

Qin Yue'er giggled and said: “You're going to die.”

Liu Junfeng had an incomparably smug look on his face as he said: “He is indeed going to die. The outcome of those that dare to provoke me, Liu Junfeng will only be death.”

Qin Yue'er giggled even more and said: “I said YOU are the one that's going to die.”

Chapter 299 – Becoming A Dead Dog In A Second

“What did you just say?”

“You're going to die.”

“Hahaha...”

“Who in Heavenly Sword City would dare to touch this daddy? You two cheap sluts have pissed me off now. Today, you two and that little thing beside you can forget about leaving. This daddy shall teach you girls how powerful I am tonight!” Liu Junfeng became angry and started smiling perversely. His smile was vulgar to the max!

At this time...

Luo Tian's gaze turned gloomy. He then walked forward and said: “I've already told you – if you point that fan at me one more time, you will die a horrible death.”

“F*ck!”

“You damn country bumpkin, who the hell do you think you are?! So what if I point it at you?! This daddy will point as much as he likes! Acting arrogant in front of this daddy? You need to take a good look at where this place is and take a good look at who this daddy is!” said Liu Junfeng with unrestrained arrogance. As he was saying this, he kept his fan pointed at Luo Tian and kept poking it forward. He then started smiling with disdain as he said: "This daddy shall keep pointing it at you and see what you can do about it!"

Arrogance.

Complete and utter arrogance!

Luo Tian felt like he was never this arrogant before.

The surrounding crowd started discussing with each other in whispers.

"A wise man does not fight when the odds are against him. Liu Junfeng is Li Wenzong's brother-in-law and cannot be provoked."

"That's right; he should just escape when he can."

"And what's up with those two girls? They are practically adding oil to the fire right now. Don't they know this matter involves a human life?"

"Little brother, quickly run away!"

Liu Junfeng was the tyrant of this area and can be described as someone that has committed all manners of evil. Everyone was afraid of him and no one dared to provoke him.

Who would dare to mess with Li Wenzong's brother-in-law?

Li Wenzong also had a daughter who was a Consort inside the imperial palace. This made Liu Junfeng practically connected to the imperial family! With this additional layer of relationship, no one dared to provoke him and would normally run away from the sight of him.

Hearing those voices from the crowd...

Liu Junfeng became even more smug. His expression became even more arrogant than before as he said with disdain: "Those in Heavenly Sword City that dares to provoke me hasn't appeared yet, while a bumpkin from the countryside..."

Before he could finish his words...

Luo Tian's figure had already disappeared.

The next second, he appeared in front of Liu Junfeng and punched out while shouting: "F*ck! Your whole family are bumpkins!"

He directly cussed out loud.

Luo Tian was no saint and felt the entire range of human emotions.

When he was unhappy and angry, he would naturally start cursing people out. He was merely an otaku who transmigrated from Earth to here. When he got irritated, he would start cursing out swear words one right after another. Now he was precisely feeling extremely irritated.

"Bang~!"

Liu Junfeng didn't have time to react and was smashed onto the ground by Luo Tian's single punch.

Two teeth fell off and blood kept spraying out from his mouth.

A Profound King ranker couldn't even handle being struck?

At this moment...

Cheng Dalian actually started doubting Liu Junfeng had a Profound King cultivation since there's no way a ranker of that level would be such a pushover. Too weak; weak to the point of being unexplainable. Or is it because Luo Tian is too strong? What background does this kid have?

He couldn't see.

He couldn't see clearly at all.

Cheng Dalian wanted to see through Luo Tian but the longer he was around him, the more he couldn't figure out Luo Tian.

Liu Junfeng had a pale face and was twitching on the ground. He looked like he was going to die any moment yet his eyes still glared at Luo Tian unblinkingly.

There was not a single sound coming from the surrounding crowd.

Their mouths were opened so wide that an egg could fit inside of it. Their eyes stared at Luo Tian dumbstruck while their brains were all thinking: "What the hell just happened?"

"Kill..."

"Kill... kill for me... kill him for me."

Liu Junfeng said with difficulty. He was incomparably angry and still tried maintaining his arrogant expression.

He then struggled to stand back up.

His eyes looked like they were spraying out fire as he said: "You damn dog thing, you dare to hit this daddy? This daddy will kill your entire family. Attack, kill him! Quickly kill him for me!"

Luo Tian shook his head and smiled coldly. "Still acting so recklessly."

Just when he was about to make his move again...

A huge sword shot down and a large burly guy descended from the sky. Blocking in front of Luo Tian, he swept his huge sword out and coldly harrumphed: "Try touching my boss..."

Xuan Yuanyi was standing in front of Luo Tian like a warrior attendant.

"Those that touch my boss shall die!"

A loud angry shout was heard.

A large fat man with devastating momentum rushed out of the crowd and stood on the other side of Luo Tian. He then said fiercely: "Who actually has the guts to dare provoke my boss?! This daddy will play you to death!"

"There's also me."

Blindman Liu was wearing flip flops as he strode on up with a "thwack thwack" noise. He then put his erhu in front of him.

Two fierce Generals had suddenly appeared!

And one... it looks like a funny looking blind guy.

For a short moment...

Liu Junfeng frowned and the muscles on the corner of his eyes started twitching. He then coldly shouted: "You want to compete with me on more people huh? Fine! This daddy will show you what the true meaning of having a lot of people is!"

Also at this time...

Two rows of Black Dragon Legion guards rushed over in formation.

Liu Junfeng's expression turned to joy as he coldly said: "You guys are dead now."

After saying that...

Liu Junfeng revealed a fawning expression as he said: "Guards of the Black Dragon Legion, I know your General Hei Long. I am Minister Li's brother-in-law. These bumpkins from the countryside are disturbing the peace of Heavenly Sword City so you should capture them all."

The Black Dragon Legion were all rushing towards them.

Their momentum shook the skies!

Liu Junfeng was incomparably smug and once again pointed his fan at Luo Tian. He then loudly ridiculed: "You damn bumpkin, you want to compete with me on people? The people this daddy can call out will frighten you to death! Hahaha..."

Before the sound of his laughter ended...

Liu Junfeng suddenly felt like something wasn't quite right.

Because...

The Black Dragon Legion had all surrounded him. Their black steel spears were all pointing right at his head which made him incomparably scared. Liu Junfeng's expression suddenly paled in fear. No matter how arrogant he was, there's no way he would dare provoke the Black Dragon Legion. He then started stuttering: "My dear military officials of the Black Dragon Legion, you guys have made a mistake. It's them; they're the bumpkins."

The Commander of the group saluted Tang Tang before respectfully asking Luo Tian: "Prince Consort, should we kill him?"

"Prince Consort?"

"This kid is a Prince Consort?"

"Could he be the person a few days ago that smashed Nangong Hao down near the imperial palace?"

Instantly...

The surrounding crowd exploded into a clamor.

Their expressions had all changed.

Liu Junfeng's heart was deathly still as he didn't dare to even look at Luo Tian anymore.

For someone to be treated in such deference by the Black Dragon Legion, Luo Tian's identity would definitely not be fake.

Luo Tian smiled politely and said: "I wish to do it myself."

"Understood!"

The Commander then shouted: "Withdraw!"

“Hoo~!”

The Black Dragon Legion started retreating. Liu Junfeng’s legs were shaking as he directly kneeled down and started kowtowing.

“Spare me!”

“Spare this dog’s life of mine! I won’t dare to do this ever again!”

Luo Tian walked forward one step at a time. Once he reached Liu Junfeng, he crouched down and started smiling in a ferocious manner. “I already told you that if you pointed your fan at me again, you will die a horrible death. But that’s not the main reason you are going to die. The main reason you are going to die is because you are Li Wenzong’s brother-in-law. If it weren’t for me trying to give the Emperor some face, the entire Li family would be f*cked over by me already.”

“There’s also another reason!”

“There’s traces of a golden glow around you, which means you must be a minor boss!”

“Heh heh!”

Luo Tian smashed out his fist and shouted: “Explode for me!”

At this moment, a tiny sacred looking light flew from An Chunchun’s body into Luo Tian’s body. It was very tiny so no one could detect it under the bright sunlight.

Chapter 300 – Two Pieces Of Divine Equipment

His fist shadow blotted out the sky as he heavily smashed down!

“Bang~!”

Liu Junfeng was instantly smashed into the ground like a dead dog and no longer gave off any sounds.

Dead!

This was considered an instant kill!

This guy didn't even use any of his Profound King energy to set up a defense. The reason being he was extremely afraid, so he forgot to put up his guard. Under a defenseless state, Luo Tian's powers would naturally instantly kill him. This was very normal due to the circumstances.

At this moment...

Luo Tian wasn't really anticipating any good loot to explode from Liu Junfeng's corpse. He was merely a minor boss, so even there was some loot, it couldn't be anything good.

Therefore...

Luo Tian didn't pay attention to the alerts. He coldly smiled and said with disdain: “How can anything good explode from a piece of trash like you?”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Liu Junfeng. You have gained 10,000 experience points, 2000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Seven Star Sword.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Seven Star Armor.”

When those two alerts sounded off, Luo Tian's gaze became stunned as shock struck him.

Two things exploded out?

And it happens to be a set equipment?

This...

Luo Tian immediately opened the system interface to check out the properties of the two items.

Item: Seven Star Sword

Grade: Spirit (???)

Description: The Seven Star Sword was forged by the energy of the Big Dipper constellation. This was the weapon that Sovereign Seven Stars wielded ten thousand years ago. With the power of seven stars, it's capable of annihilating mountains and parting the seas.

Description 2: The sword has seven grooves in the shape of stars. Filling up two grooves will raise the sword's grade by one level. When all seven grooves are filled up, the weapon can reach the divine grade and exert a trace of Sovereign Seven Star's powers – an invincible divine might!

There was nothing special about the sword's appearance.

It was a very ordinary looking sword except for the seven grooves on its blade. It was very similar to weapons in video games where you can plug in some type of power gem into it. It was very old looking as if it had been left alone for over ten thousand years.

Luo Tian was internally ecstatic, “Motherf*cker! A divine weapon exploded out!”

Once those grooves were filled up with the energy of the Big Dipper, one could release the powers of Sovereign Seven Stars! How awesome was this? Sovereign Seven Stars became famous ten thousand years ago and his powers were beyond terrifying!

Luo Tian was super excited at this time.

He then looked up the Seven Star Armor.

It was the same as the sword. The Seven Star Armor had seven grooves that needed to be filled with the energy of the seven stars before it was raised to the divine grade.

In other words...

These two items were considered divine equipment!

Exploding out with two pieces at the same time? This... Luo Tian didn't dare to believe this because back then when he killed those super big bosses, their corpses never gave him any divine equipment. Even spirit grade items never appeared in the loot explosions. How could he not be excited when two divine equipment exploded out at the same time?

These two items were something Liu Junfeng had confiscated from a family in southern city.

Liu Junfeng had no clue those two items were preliminary divine equipment and only thought they were spirit grade equipment. He didn't have those items appraised and directly went to the Dao Shang Pavilion in hopes of auctioning it off. He never expected he would encounter Luo Tian.

If he didn't encounter Luo Tian...

His two items would definitely shock the entire Heavenly Sword City.

It might even attract the attention of those hidden godly experts to come to snatch it!

A weapon used by Sovereign Seven Stars would possess incredible powers. Those powers could definitely change the course of an evenly matched battle with one's enemy.

But...

Who could've imagined that it has now landed in Luo Tian's hands?

If it wasn't for the system's functions, Luo Tian definitely wouldn't know those two items were preliminary divine equipment. There was no way to tell its uniqueness since the two items looked rather ordinary.

"If both the Seven Star Sword and the Seven Star Armor had their grooves filled up with star power... then that would be incredibly awesome!" Luo Tian started smiling like a villain. But when he thought about filling in the seven grooves with energy from the seven stars, doubt started rising surging up in his mind: "How do I get the energy from the stars of the Big Dipper constellation?"

He then read through the item descriptions again.

The descriptions didn't mention anything on how to get energy from the seven stars to fill in the grooves.

This...

Luo Tian became depressed, "If you don't tell me, how am I supposed to know how to fill it up? Do I need to find something like Big Dipper gems? Ever since I've arrived at this world, I have never heard of any Big Dipper gems."

"Little brother, you are indeed extraordinary."

"Defeating Nangong Hao and not showing any weakness in front of Daoist Huang Yun."

“Showing no fear when facing the Sea Cloud Sect.”

“In the short duration you’ve lived in the north district, you managed to uproot Du Yuansong who has been entrenched there for many years. You even had the ancient huge devil kneel down before you and call you King. You seem to be even more powerful than the Human Emperor Hong Wanfu back in the days. Admiration; this Cheng has nothing but admiration for you.” Chang Danian said sincerely.

The moment one of the guards from the Black Dragon Legion called Luo Tian “Prince Consort,” Cheng Danian’s heart was filled with shock.

All the big happenings in Heavenly Sword City this past month was related to Luo Tian, so it would be difficult for Cheng Danian to not know about them!

And those words he said were truly out of admiration.

Of course...

There was also some courtship involved. If a person like Luo Tian could join the Dao Shang Alliance, and them two could establish a good relationship, then Qi Fu and his people can forget about suppressing him. It would still be useless if the Vice President came into the picture.

Cheng Danian was thinking of these things and said to himself: “This person is someone I definitely can’t offend.”

Luo Tian cupped his fists and said with a smile: “Manager Cheng is over praising me. I am merely a person from a small town, one that hasn’t experienced such a big world. I have caused so much trouble here and managed to make myself the butt of the jokes in Heavenly Sword City.”

“It’s too distant sounding when you keep calling me Manager Cheng.”

“I’m older so if you aren’t opposed it, you can just call me Elder Brother Cheng.” Cheng Danian politely said this with sincerity to become friends.

Luo Tian briefly hesitated. He was thinking about how the Dao Shang Alliance sent people over to capture An Chunchun and was wondering if this Cheng Danian was one of the participants. But since he never even gave An Chunchun a single glance all this time, he might not know about her identity. If this person does know about it, then his acting skills are top notch and his schemes are at a terrifying level.

Luo Tian smiled and greeted: "Elder Brother Cheng."

Cheng Danian smiled happily from his heart.

At this time, many people came forward.

The Commander of the Black Dragon Legion asked: "Prince Consort, what should we do with the hired fighters of the Liu manor?"

Luo Tian glanced over at them and saw their terrified expression. These guys hadn't done anything to him and his identity was no longer like the past. He couldn't give the Great Tang Dynasty a bad name so he said: "They didn't do anything to me so we can just let them go. But from today onwards, they cannot assist tyrants in oppressing the citizens."

"Yes, yes, yes!"

"We will immediately leave Heavenly Sword City and never come back!"

The group of them immediately disappeared into the crowd.

The crowd started praising Luo Tian loudly.

"What a good Prince Consort!"

"Magnanimous and kindhearted!"

“He’s good looking and has a high cultivation. It would be great if I could marry him as well.”

“Killing Liu Junfeng is equal to getting rid of an evil in Heavenly Sword City. What a happy occasion for the people!”

When Luo Tian heard those words, he unconsciously smiled and said to himself: “It’s a rather nice feeling to be a good person.”

Internal Minister Li’s Manor.

Li Wenzong was so pissed off that his face was red with a murderous aura. “It’s that kid again! I will definitely kill you no matter what!”