Chapter 321 – This Daddy Will Become A Devil

The pinnacle of strength!

The strongest showdown!

A Profound King 5th ranker was fighting against a peak Profound Venerate ranker.

How big was the difference in strength?!

But...

The peak Profound Venerate ranker Long Tian had no other choice but to use all his strength – his most powerful martial skill Nine Dragons Divine Palms!

A sky grade martial skill!

This palm skill was capable of instantly killing anyone below the Profound Saint realm. This was a martial skill that Long Tian was most proud of, and it was because of this skill that he could become a Protector in the Dao Shang Alliance and enjoy over ten thousand top grade xuan stones as compensation.

He never imagined that he would be using this skill to deal with a mere kid at the Profound King 5th rank.

Never in his dreams!

However, he had no choice but to do that today.

Luo Tian!

The strength of Nine Dragons and Elephants, level 5 Berserk with 32 times amplification of attributes, and the addition of the Profound Burst Pill. These three types of powers were stacked together and then injected into the Wild Blade, allowing the world's most domineering blade to completely display its true powers.

If these combined powers were flowing inside a normal martial cultivator, most likely their fleshly body would've exploded by now.

Luo Tian!

Was feeling extremely uncomfortable.

It was like every inch of his flesh was being torn, every inch of his bones being shattered, and every inch of his internal organs was being crushed. The pain could no longer be described with words. But for An Chunchun and the promise he made, Luo Tian could only clench his teeth and desperately hold on for as long as he could!

His hands were holding onto the 1800 jin Blood Devouring Wild Blade while pouring all his powers into it.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The blade spirit inside was moaning in ecstasy as the power made it incomparably excited. A blood light bathed the sky as it slashed down.

The domineering energy was like Armageddon crushing down towards Long Tian.

Long Tian's hair was blown all over the place and his clothes fluttered like mad. The flesh on his face was forced to sink down by the crushing power. As the nine palm prints fused into one and the divine dragon's power appeared, his palm strike shot upwards while shouting: “Kid, go die for me!”

The two different powers collided together.

Heaven and earth lost its colors.

A fiery burst shot into the sky.

With Luo Tian and Long Tian as the center, the surrounding ten meters around them exploded outwards like crazy. The auction venue started collapsing and the structures instantly becoming powder. The powerful shockwave then rippled out and spread through the entire Heavenly Sword City!

It was similar to a magnitude 10 earthquake!

Terrifying!

Too terrifying!

Ke Lei's face was pale, his hair fluttering all over and his war hammer embedded into the ground in front of him. The shockwave from the collision felt like blades slicing past his face. He too was an expert at the peak of the Profound Venerate realm but this powerful collision gave rise to a sense of dread in his heart.

Too strong.

The elven woman was covered by a rainbow colored holy screen of light. The light barrier only trembled faintly but her face had turned slightly pale. She was completely shocked by the powers displayed here today.

Was he really at the Profound King realm?

He's a young kid that's not even 20 years old yet, right?

This was too inconceivable!

At this moment, everyone had a sense of admiration towards Luo Tian. Whether he lives or dies today, his name will definitely cause a huge sensation in the entire continent!

“Bang~!”

Long Tian’s body sank down as he retreated several steps back. Blood was roiling in his chest before a mouthful of blood spurted out. His face was a bit pale but his lips were still curled up to show a cold sneer.

“Boom~!”

“Clang~!”

A person and a blade dropped down from a high altitude.

The Blood Devouring Wild Blade’s usual sheen of blood light had become much fainter. Its usual domineering aura had also lessened quite a bit as if it had suffered a heavy injury.

Luo Tian had fallen into a pile of rubble.

There wasn’t a trace of blood in his face and his breathing was extremely weak. His fists were still desperately clenched as he shouted in his heart: “It didn’t work?! I can’t go on anymore?! Luo Tian, are you really going to admit your loss just like that?!”

Facing a peak Profound Venerate expert and being able to fight to this point of time, he was most likely the first in all of history!

“Big brother Luo Tian...”

“Boss, boss...”

An Chunchun was crying her eyes out as she wailed Luo Tian’s name.

When they saw Luo Tian not moving on the ground, Xuan Yuanyi, Feng Lei, and Blindman Liu struggled over like they didn’t care about their lives anymore. Each one of them was riddled with heavy injuries but they completely disregarded it while rushing over.

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

Qi Fu started laughing in an incomparably savage and arrogant manner. He was pointing at Luo Tian who was lying in the rubble and started scolding: “Damn dog thing! You wanted to fight with me?! You should look at what kind of identity you have first! What kind of thing do you think you are?! What qualifications do you have to fight with me?! Hahaha...”

He was laughing with madness.

He was releasing all the pent up fear he had previously felt.

He walked one step at a time towards Luo Tian with a cold smile on his face.

Feng Lei tried to block in front of him.

“Pak~!”

A slap was thrown out.

“Thump~!”

Feng Lei fell to the ground.

But he crawled back up and used his body to block in front of Luo Tian once again.

Qi Fu then threw another slap.

Feng Lei fell over again but got back up and blocked in front.

Another slap!

Another...

Feng Lei’s head was covered in blood as it dripped down from all over. One could no longer tell what kind of facial features he had. His eyes, mouth, nose, and even his hair was covered in blood. His body was still blocking in front of Luo Tian as he grunted out: “Those who touch my boss, dies!”

“Get down for me!”

Qi Fu threw another slap.

“Bang~!”

Feng Lei’s head happened to slam into a large piece of rubble as he fell. Blood gushed out and this time, he no longer stood back up.

The moment Qi Fu was about to take another step forward, Xuan Yuanyi blocked in front. He was grinning with happiness. He had never smiled this happily in his entire life as he fiercely said: "Those who touch my boss, dies!"

Qi Fu started laughing deeply before ridiculing: "Hahaha... There are still people in this world that aren't afraid of death, hahaha..."

Once the sound of his laughter stopped...

Qi Fu threw a slap out.

Xuan Yuanyi didn't fall over because his hands were being supported by his sword.

Qi Fu's gaze turned fierce and threw another slap.

Xuan Yuanyi held on.

He didn't move and only looked ahead with a simple gaze while holding on. He was very clear that the injuries he had were nothing compared to what Luo Tian suffered. The injuries caused by someone at the peak of the Profound Venerate realm was certainly unimaginably terrifying!

Qi Fu's hand was starting to hurt from slapping so much. He was getting tired and started to gasp for air.

At this moment...

Xuan Yuanyi was also covered in blood. The only thing he had left was his energetic looking eyes and the firm sword intent he had cultivated all these years. He continued staring off into the distance.

Qi Fu turned around while breathing heavily as he picked up a broken blade. He then turned to Long Tian and said: "Protector Long, I will be troubling you to bring the little girl to the Vice President. You can hand these pieces of trash to me."

Immediately after...

Long Tian picked An Chunchun up like he was holding onto a drowning chicken.

An Chunchun almost ran out of tears as she wailed: “Big brother Luo Tian, save me! Mother, save me! Mother...”

Suddenly...

The unconscious Luo Tian at the edge of death suddenly opened his eyes. His fists clenched tightly as he roared into the air: “This daddy will become a devil!”

Chapter 322 – Devil Sovereign Xingtian

“Big brother Luo Tian, save me!”

An Chunchun’s voice had woken up Luo Tian!

He had woken up from the dark abyss. He had seen the word “Hell” in the depths of the dark abyss.

He had seen a grim reaper smiling at him.

At that moment, Luo Tian thought he was really going to die.

But when he heard An Chunchun screaming his name, he immediately woke up and said to himself: “I still haven’t completed my quest. I still haven’t fulfilled my promise. I cannot die. I absolutely cannot die!”

At this moment...

Luo Tian’s heart started beating quickly...

The moment he opened his eyes, Luo Tian no longer hesitated as he chose to activate Becoming A Devil, the quest reward that required him to turn in one million souls of the deceased devil race.

He had no other choice.

If he did have other choices, even something remotely useful, he wouldn't choose to become a devil.

Because...

When he completed the quest "Becoming A Devil" and was about to give the occupation a try, the system gave him a caution. "Becoming a devil will plant a devil seed in the user's heart. A devil's heart will make you lose your sanity and may possibly cause you to kill your loved ones around you!"

Devil's heart!

Luo Tian didn't really know what it was.

But he knew what cultivation deviation was and how it felt like. When that Bloodfiend almost took control of his body, Luo Tian had felt how powerful the devil's desire was. That desire for violence and killing was truly terrifying and beyond one's imagination.

It was thousands of times more terrifying than the millions of corpses inside the World of Slaughter.

Therefore...

Luo Tian had been hesitating.

When he managed to complete the quest, he chose not to change his occupation to become a devil. When facing against the Skynet assassin who was at the Profound Venerate realm, he didn't choose to become a devil either. But now he had no other choices left.

It was unknown if Feng Lei was dead or alive.

Xuan Yuanyi, his one man and one sword was standing there without moving so his status was unknown as well.

The devil wings on the back of Blindman Liu were getting larger and larger. If the process wasn't stopped soon, most likely he would become an ancient huge devil again. Luo Tian understood how painful the process was because Blindman Liu's injury last time from transforming into the ancient huge devil still hadn't fully recovered yet. If the ancient huge devil was once again stimulated to the point of awakening, most likely Blindman Liu would die this time.

Luo Tian had run out of choices!

He could only mournfully scream into the air: "This daddy will become a devil!"

"Ding!"

"Caution: Is player Luo Tian really choosing to become a devil?"

"Yes!"

"Ding!"

"Another Caution: Is player Luo Tian sure that you want to become a devil? Are you aware of the negative effects of becoming a devil?"

"Yes, yes, yes... this daddy is becoming a devil! Stop talking all this crap with this daddy!" Luo Tian started reprimanding with annoyance.

In about half a second...

“Ding!”

“Player Luo Tian has chosen to become a devil.”

“Ding!”

“System initiating... random selection of a devil occupation has started!”

Luo Tian closed his eyes as he waited for the results of the random selection. These kinds of random chances annoyed him because if he ended up becoming some little devil soldier, how was he going to fight it out with Long Tian?

His heart started feeling some anxiety.

His fists were subconsciously clenching on and off while there was an imaginary frown in his mind. Luo Tian's heart slowly became quiet as he calmly waited for the results. This process felt like ten thousand years was passing by. It took so long that he almost fainted from his pain once again.

The moment Luo Tian chose to become a devil...

An Chunchun who was being held by Long Tian had gradually closed her eyes.

Suddenly...

A holy looking bright light illuminated her body before shooting into the sky. It then fell back down and then sprinkled like rain onto Luo Tian's body.

Luo Tian's body was absorbing every drop of the light.

The demon fox clan woman inside the glass box had a dazed expression.

Long Tian stopped moving as shock registered in his eyes.

Ke Lei was stunned by this.

The elven woman was also stunned by this.

Qi Fu was stunned by this too but he quickly reacted afterward. He was ecstatic internally, "This is the ability that the Vice President wanted! It is indeed extraordinary, hahaha..."

Standing on the viewing platform of private room number one was a man. A man that looked very average. There was a brief flash in his eyes as he tightened his grip on the rails. There was an indescribable excitement in his heart as he muttered softly: "The legends were true. The demon fox clan really possesses this divine power, hahaha... This time I will definitely be able to make a breakthrough. I will definitely succeed! Hahaha..."

During this time...

Luo Tian's eyes were closed so he didn't notice anything.

He could feel that the system seem to undergo a strange change. Originally, the random selection was flickering on different positions of the devil race but it suddenly settled on a single one.

At this moment...

A system alert tone sounded off in his mind.

Luo Tian's mind tightened as the determination of his fate had arrived.

"Ding!"

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for successfully becoming a devil!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for becoming Devil Sovereign Xingtian!” 1

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for comprehending Xingtian’s divine martial skill – Decapitation Strike!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for comprehending Xingtian’s divine martial skill – Pangu’s Divine Slash!”

Excitement!

Luo Tian couldn’t believe what he was hearing!

He opened up the system interface and read the information one word at a time. When he saw the words Devil Xingtian, his blood started boiling with excitement!

Xingtian, one of the ten ancient devil gods.

Possessing unrivaled powers!

How could it be him?

Was this some ultimate explosion due to my awesome character? This was basically a heaven defying Devil Sovereign!

Xingtian's strength wasn't just terrifyingly strong, it was to the point that Luo Tian didn't have any words to describe it! The current him was like someone who had been injected with a stimulant – every cell inside his body was incomparably excited!

“Xingtian!”

“God of War Xingtian!”

“One of the ten ancient Devil Sovereigns whose strength was only second to Chiyou! 2 This daddy's character must be heaven defying to be able to randomly get Xingtian. System, me love you long long time!” Luo Tian was incomparably excited.

Except, he had no idea that the random selection had landed on Devil Sovereign Xingtian only because of An Chunchun!

The mysterious power from her had changed the system's random low leveled choice!

This was the power that An Chunchun possessed!

An unrivaled divine power!

In an instant...

The system gave off another alert tone.

“Ding!”

“Are you choosing to become a devil?”

Luo Tian grinned viciously and made a thought: “Yes!”

“BOOM~!”

The sound of an explosion was heard from inside Luo Tian as he suddenly stood up. He was smiling in a gloomy manner while glaring at Qi Fu, “You shall die now.”

Immediately after...

His gaze turned towards Long Tian as he said: “You will also die.”

Luo Tian’s gaze and words made him look like a grim reaper.

That feeling made Long Tian’s heart unconsciously shiver while Qi Fu directly fell to the ground in fear. When Qi Fu focused on Luo Tian’s figure, he realized there was something truly different about him but couldn’t be pinpoint why. Qi Fu then scolded: “You damn dog thing! Even if you die ten thousand times, this daddy will still be living happily!”

Long Tian scrunched up his brows and coldly smiled, “One that doesn’t know the immensity of heaven and earth. Do you really think you can kill me with your measly amount of powers? Why don’t you take a look at your own cultivation level? In front of me, you shall always be nothing but a little tiny ant.”

“You will forever be an ant that cannot turn things around!”

An Chunchun was very weak.

Extremely weak right now.

Seeing how Luo Tian was able to stand up, she lightly smiled one and said to Long Tian: “You are truly going to die.”

In a blink of an eye...

Luo Tian clenched his fists and his entire body exploded forth with a crazy change! The unrivaled powers of a Devil Sovereign had exploded out from his body!

Devil Sovereign Xingtian was coming!

Chapter 323 – Decapitation Strike

Devil Sovereign Xingtian!

An intense amount of the devil race’s aura!

Cruel, merciless, and a bloody scent that contained an endless amount of slaughtering intent.

Luo Tian’s entire body was transforming.

His height neared 3 meters and the muscles on his body all bulged out turning dark blood red. His hair turned to the color of blood and his eyes had a faint red glow. The muscles on his upper bare torso were like they had been chiseled from water as it contained an endless amount of power.

Every inch of his skin and every pore was exuding power.

Feeling this powerful energy coursing through him, Luo Tian became excited and started laughing madly. “Hahaha...!”

His laughter shook the venue.

Explosive banging noises were heard in the area around Luo Tian. The ground started rumbling as if an underground geyser was about to erupt. His powers were terrifying to a complete mess!

Also at this moment...

Luo Tian's right hand started moving and the Blood God's Heaven Region Sword appeared.

A purple like red glow; the symbol for a divine grade item!

A piece of divine equipment that exploded out for a bloodline, containing powerful energy specific to that bloodline. It also had the powers of an immortal stone from the heaven's region. Luo Tian gave a gentle squeeze and the power within his body quickly fused with the powers of the Heaven Region's Sword that created a resonance. The sword's blade gave off an ear-piercing ringing sound just like a howling sword hymn. The glow on the sword's blade exploded forth with a red light which made the contrasting purple light even more brilliant.

"Divine item?!"

"A divine item from the devil race?!"

"Is that the Blood God's Heaven Region Sword that has disappeared ten thousand years ago? How come it's under his possession?"

"This kid is indeed not an ordinary person. He's actually one of the ten great ancient devil sovereigns, ranked number two – God of War Xingtian. This is too overbearing!"

There were several people inside the auction venue with incomparably shocked expressions.

Just as these people were discussing the Blood God's Heaven Region Sword, Luo Tian began to equip the Blood God's Armor and the Blood God's Ring. The scarlet bloody glow on his body was even more enchanting where a mere glance could almost make a person be invaded by the devil and losing their original bearings.

“Hahaha...”

Luo Tian started laughing madly into the air. His sword was then viciously pointed at Qi Fu who had been scared to the point of almost losing his mind. He then coldly harrumphed: “I already said that you will die!”

Luo Tian’s laughter was very powerful...

That came with a heavy pressure. His words contained a domineering tone that made normal people feel like they couldn’t defy. This was a domineering aura that only a Devil Sovereign could give off!

Qi Fu’s face was pale white. He looked over in the direction of private room number one and tried shouting with a stutter: “Vice, Vice, Vice President! S, S, Save me! Quickly come s, s, save me...”

Luo Tian followed Qi Fu’s eyesight and saw a man standing at the viewing platform of private room number one. It was a man that looked no different than any average man on the streets. Luo Tian then smiled arrogantly: “So he’s the dog that you’ve raised, right?”

“It was you that wanted to obtain An Chunchun, right?”

Luo Tian frowned as he turned around. His eyes glared at Qi Fu while his right leg faintly shifted from the turn. He then shouted: “Die for me!”

“Puff~!”

“Bang~!”

An energy wave had instantly shot through Qi Fu’s body.

His body then turned into powder.

Just a mere thought was capable of killing him! There was no resistance and no time to resist! When that stream of spiritual sense entered Qi Fu's body, his eyes turned to lead and his body instantly exploded. Not even a trace of blood exploded from his body.

Everything was transformed into powder.

Terrifying!

Way too terrifying! Even Long Tian wasn't capable of performing such a move.

Ke Lei started becoming excited.

Staring at the devilized Luo Tian, he started laughing and said: "Kid, you are quite fierce. I like it, hahaha..."

The elven woman had a faint frown on her face but didn't say anything. She was just staring at Luo Tian cautiously.

There was a huge enmity between the elf race and the devil race.

Seeing how Luo Tian became a devil, her heart turned gloomy. But her mind was still feeling a bit excited for Luo Tian because this youngster was truly extraordinary.

Whether he was of the devil race or not, Luo Tian was indeed an outstanding individual.

The system gave off an alert tone.

Luo Tian didn't bother with it and once again looked towards private room number one. He coldly smiled and said: "He's also a dog you've raised, right?"

“Bang~!”

Long Tian had a serious expression as he dropped An Chunchun to the ground. He wasn't like Qi Fu who was crying out for the Vice President to save him and instead stepped forth. He had completely released all his peak Profound Venerate realm powers. He still maintained a disdainful smirk as he said: “Transforming into a devil huh? I already knew a kid like you wasn't something good. So you're actually a member of the devil race. Do you really think you can beat me just by transforming into a Devil Sovereign? Your original body's cultivation is still there. Even if you transform into a devil, it is still a devil with the strength of a Profound King ranker!”

Indeed...

Luo Tian had transformed into a devil but his cultivation was still at the Profound King realm.

Even though he had become Devil Sovereign Xingtian, Luo Tian's cultivation level couldn't be changed.

It was still at the Profound King realm.

He was also subject to many restraints.

Luo Tian can only become a devil once per day, and he cannot maintain that form for more than ten minutes. Otherwise, the devil's heart will grow exponentially inside him. The devil's heart will take over his body and he will never be able to change back to his human appearance. He can then forget about ever being himself again and can only become a puppet for the devil's heart.

The cultivation level of the devil's body had matched Luo Tian's original human race's body and didn't increase.

This was something that couldn't be changed.

But Luo Tian was already quite happy with this fact. The reason being was that video games with dual occupations usually made the player level their new occupation up starting from level 1. If this was to happen to Luo Tian, then they might as well take his life while they were at it.

A Devil Sovereign Xingtian at the Profound King realm – how can other Profound King experts compare their strengths to the former?

Moreover...

Being the most important point...

Luo Tian's human body couldn't use any of Xingtian's or the devil race's abilities. But his devil race body could use all the skills that he had learned previously from his human body. This gave Luo Tian a big surprise.

Therefore...

When Long Tian rushed towards him, Luo Tian started smiling.

His smile was so arrogant and smug that it made Long Tian extremely annoyed.

Long Tian stopped about ten steps away from Luo Tian and said with disdain: "Smiling? Keep smiling as much as you can because you won't be smiling here in a bit. You can only smile in hell from then on."

His tone of voice was gloomy sounding.

His peak Profound Venerate realm powers were surging out endlessly.

His robes were fluttering and wind started billowing out from him. Explosive sounds were heard in the immediate atmosphere and the surrounding space started distorting.

The powers of a peak Profound Venerate ranker was truly terrifying!

His palms clapped together and nine palm prints landed on nine different locations of his body. Long Tian's hair started flying about and his gaze was like a God. Waves of energy fluctuated out from his dantian before settling onto those nine palm prints.

"This is the Nine Dragons Divine Palms?"

"But it looks a bit different this time."

"It's at least three times stronger than before."

"Was this old fogey hiding his strength back then? It looks like even if the kid transformed into a devil, he won't be able to handle the next palm strike. Their difference in strength was simply too huge and transforming into a devil cannot change that fact."

"Kid, you have to be careful!" Ke Lei's mind had tightened as he shifted backward dozens of steps before stopping.

He didn't dare to be close!

Because the power Long Tian was releasing was too terrifying.

There was a faint curve to Luo Tian's mouth as he started smiling. This was his grim reaper's smile as he said: "You're still using these outdated martial skills? This daddy will show you what a divine grade martial skill is like!"

"Level 5 Berserk!"

"Nine Dragons and Elephants!"

“Profound Burst Pill!”

“Devil Sovereign Xingtian, Decapitation Strike! Chop it off for me!”

Chapter 324 – Explode, Explode, Explode For Me!

He once again stacked all his powers.

Except this was a bit different than his previous attempt.

Devil Sovereign Xingtian’s fleshly body can easily bear the powers stacked together so there wasn’t the slightest feeling of pain.

Additionally...

The Blood God’s Ring and Armor were releasing some type of demigod powers, so Luo Tian injected it all into the Blood God’s Heaven Region Sword as well.

Strangely enough, Xingtian’s body seems to be not quite suited in using the Heaven Region Sword.

Luo Tian felt like the body preferred to use more brutal weapons like an axe!

With both hands holding the sword’s hilt, Luo Tian stepped off. The devilish flames surrounding his body exploded out like a storming sea! His blood red pupils stared at Long Tian before grinning arrogantly, “Die for me!”

At this moment...

Long Tian’s nine palms fused into one and the might of a Dragon God seemed to appear! An earthen yellow flame surged out from him and shot into the sky. Watching Luo Tian’s sword smashing towards him, his gaze turned serious as he shouted: “The person dying will be you! Nine Dragons Divine Palm, exterminate for me!”

“Decapitation Strike!”

“All must die!”

“Chop it off for me!”

A sword slashed down and a palm strike smashed out.

At this moment...

The earthen yellow power and the devilish flames collided together.

This was like the fictional antimatter bomb exploding. The light from the surrounding area began to dim like it was being sucked into a vortex before it suddenly exploded outwards. The powerful shockwave was like a tsunami rising to unprecedented heights before sweep out.

A series of explosions was then heard ten meters around those two.

It sounded like the earth collapsing and the world was about to be destroyed!

The entire Heavenly Sword City was violently shaking. The tremors seem to reach down into the netherworld and then all the way up to the nine heavens and beyond! This alerted countless experts of the nation and even reached the devil race’s hidden territory where they started cheering!

Previously, it was Bloodfiend’s aura that had dispersed through the world.

Now it was Devil Sovereign Xingtian!

Could the devil race be making a comeback and once again start slaughtering the world?

These were the thoughts of some of the experts.

Luo Tian's transformation into a Devil Sovereign was simply too strong and powerful, that's why they couldn't help start having those thoughts.

"Boom~!"

The power of the Nine Dragons Divine Palm was collapsing.

The power of the Decapitation Strike was scattering.

Luo Tian's body hadn't moved this time, not even a slight tremble was felt by him.

Long Tian's face was pale as he staggered back continuously. Extreme fear appeared in his eyes while the blood in his chest was in turmoil. He couldn't endure anymore and sprayed out a mouthful of black blood. The current him slightly looked up towards private room number one.

"He hasn't died yet?"

"Damn, this guy's powers seem kind of weak now." Luo Tian said with disdain while shrugging his shoulders. Even though he couldn't chop Long Tian to death, his heart was blooming with flowers. Decapitation Strike was Devil Sovereign Xingtian's divine skill and the powers proved to be quite strong.

Luo Tian's personal strength couldn't match up.

His current cultivation was at the Profound King realm so it was unable to fully release the divine might of Decapitation Strike.

If it was the real Devil Sovereign Xingtian...

Not to mention Long Tian at the Profound Venerate realm, most likely even peak Profound God Sovereigns would be smashed into pieces by this strike.

How powerful was divine might?!

Seeing Long Tian's fearful expression, Luo Tian started laughing with arrogance. "Weren't you just very arrogant? Didn't you want to kill me? Come then, come at me! Why are you suddenly scared stiff now?"

Long Tian's expression turned fierce as his anger flared up. He then shouted: "Kid, don't act so smug!"

"Smug?"

"I like being smug. So what?"

"You going to bite me?"

"You motherf*cker! Where did that super arrogance go to?!" Luo Tian was extremely smug as he looked at Long Tian with disdain. He walked forward one step at a time and said coldly: "This daddy likes being smug. Come and bite me, come!"

Completely overbearing.

And not leaving any face for anyone.

This was the kind of person Luo Tian was.

Might as well be wildly overbearing to the extreme!

What's so great about a peak Profound Venerate realm expert?

They still have to kneel before this daddy!

Seeing how every one of his brothers lying in a pool of blood, seeing how An Chunchun was crying her eyes out, and seeing how An Chunchun's mother wailing in grief yet no one could hear her, everything was pressing against his mind to the point that he could barely breathe.

The rage of flames inside him never diminished.

That's why he was in a wildly unrestrained manner so that he could release the pent up rage inside his heart.

As he walked one step at a time, the raging devilish flames around him looked like they were shooting up thousands of feet into the air. The Blood God's Heaven Region Sword, the Blood God's Armor, and the Blood God's Ring were all ringing in unison. Even the devil heart's seed hidden inside Xingtian's body was ringing together.

At this time...

Luo Tian took one heavy step forward while gripping the sword's handle with both hands. He then smiled in a crazy manner and said: "You're still not coming at me?"

"If you aren't coming, then I will come!"

Suddenly...

The energy aura around Luo Tian's body started getting turbulent again.

The devilish flames around him started turning dark red before looking like it was swallowing everything in the vicinity.

He pointed the sword at Long Tian and then said in a gloomy manner: "Die for me!"

“That’s enough!”

“Boom~!”

A loud sound was heard and the devilish flames around Luo Tian were instantly suppressed.

Luo Tian looked up and stared at the average looking man in private room number one while maintaining the overbearing aura that only a Devil Sovereign would possess. He then coldly shouted in a manner like he looked down on everything: “Enough? I happen to feel like this is only the beginning.”

“Kid!”

“Take your people and leave this place and I will pretend nothing has happened today.” The man said this calmly while his eyes looked like he was treating Luo Tian as a charity case.

Ke Lei frowned and immediately advised: “Brother, you should leave.”

He continuously gave Luo Tian eye signals while saying that.

It was very clear...

That this average looking man was a terrifying existence!

Luo Tian didn’t retreat and said with a smile: “It was you who caused this situation and now you suddenly say it’s enough, and we’re all supposed to stop just because of that? Who the f*ck do you think you are? Kneel down and give me ten thousand kowtows and we’ll forget the whole thing.”

“Presumptuous!” shouted the middle-aged man.

Luo Tian showed no fear and scolded: “Presumptuous your mother!”

The eyes of the middle-aged man narrowed in seriousness and an incomparably powerful oppressive pressure smashed towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian didn't bother with it and glanced over at Long Tian. "Your master is very unhappy while I'm very happy. This daddy is so happy that I want to kill someone, therefore you will have to go to hell for me."

"Level 5 Berserk!"

"Boom~!"

"Nine Dragons and Elephants!"

"Boom~!"

Just like before, Luo Tian took a Profound Burst Pill and shouted: "Explode for me!"

"Boom~, boom~, boom~!"

Luo Tian once again released the strongest powers he could muster.

The devilish flames once again flared up. He looked over at the man up top and gave a ferocious smile before shouting: "Die for me!"

A sword slashed down.

Long Tian didn't have the strength to resist. He was feeling incomparable fear in his heart and eventually screamed: "Elder brother, save me!"

“Kid...!”

“You’re courting your own death!”

The man was enraged. He released a majestic aura that condensed into a ferocious ancient wolf that pounced straight towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian started smiling.

The more angry others became, the more excited and arrogant he would become.

This was the definition of a devil!

Seeing how enraged the middle-aged man was, Luo Tian showed no hesitation as he chopped down with his sword. Long Tian’s body was then directly cut into two halves as Luo Tian roared into the air:
“Explode, explode, explode for me!”

Chapter 325 – On The Verge Of Death

It was unstoppable!

No one could stop Luo Tian’s determination in killing Long Tian!

No one can block his urge!

Because Long Tian was a boss!

He could be the only boss existence in the auction house because the middle-aged man in private room number one didn’t have the golden glow. This meant the middle-aged man wasn’t a boss at the present or a boss in the near future.

One played video games to enjoy the excitement it gave.

They played to enjoy that adrenaline rush!

What reason would one have to not kill a dying boss?

Even if your uncle can resist, your aunty wouldn't be able to! Luo Tian had the urge to jump right at the boss and cover it with hugs and kisses!

Therefore Luo Tian paid no attention to the ancient wolf oppression that the middle-aged man released. He didn't give a crap and just chopped down with his sword and directly cut Long Tian into two halves.

Instant kill!

Also at this moment...

The middle-aged man threw a palm strike out.

The surging devilish flames around Luo Tian was instantly extinguished and the force sent him flying several hunter meters into the air before smashing down into a deep hole.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Several thunderous like sounds was heard.

Ke Lei's expression drastically changed. His body was bent over and his face pale as he couldn't handle the pressure. He was only affected by a tiny bit of this pressure wave yet couldn't handle it. His sea of consciousness felt like everything had been completely drained.

The rainbow colored holy light around the elven woman was snuffed out, causing her body to visibly tremble.

“Dao Shang Alliance’s Vice President – Long Wang!”

“At the pinnacle of this area, the Profound Saint realm!”

“The moment he makes a move is equivalent to the kid dying. No one can block a strike by an expert at the Profound Saint realm!”

“Such a pity. This kid... sigh!”

Very strong!

Those below the Profound Saint realm were nothing more than floating clouds to him. Even if Luo Tian transformed into a devil, there was no way for him to resist the attack. The gap in strength between Luo Tian and Long Wang was simply too large. One was the sky while the other the earth and couldn’t be compared at all.

Long Wang was enraged so his attack contained saintly might!

Looking at his little brother’s corpse on the ground, his expression turned even more enraged.

Buried under the rubble...

Was dead silence.

An Chunchun stood up without a sound and stared at Long Wang. Her voice sounded immature but was filled with anger as she said: “You’ve killed my big brother Luo Tian, so now you must die. No one is allowed to my harm by big brother Luo Tian; no one.”

An Chunchun's body started transforming.

The number of tails behind her started increasing.

The demon fox clan woman inside the glass box started screaming: "Chunchun! Don't! Don't do it Chunchun! Don't let it come out! Don't!"

An Chunchun's body started giving off a faint pink light. Her ears turned pointy and three faint lines appeared on her cheeks. These slight changes had made her look very similar to a fox!

The divine might in her started surging out like crazy.

This was extremely powerful and unrivaled divine might!

Long Wang looked at An Chunchun and started smiling in an excited manner. He then fiercely shouted: "Release it! Release it to your heart's content! Just release all that mysterious and powerful energy from inside you, hahaha..."

An Chunchun's powers were making him very excited.

At this time...

Covered in rubble.

Luo Tian was unmoving while staring up and waiting.

"Ding!"

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Long Tian. You have gained 5,000,000 experience points, 500,000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Nine Dragons Divine Palm. Will you be cultivating this?”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Revelation’s Key.” 1

“...”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. Your current level is Profound King 6th rank!”

Five million experience points and five hundred thousand profound energy!

A boss is truly a boss; just the experience points alone was huge to a complete mess!

After leveling up...

Luo Tian started smiling.

All the wounds on Luo Tian had recovered and he no longer had any injuries. His sea of consciousness, mind, internal organs and the pain racking every inch of his body had disappeared. His profound energy points and his health bar were completely filled up once again!

All because he had leveled up!

“Bang~, clank~, crash~...”

Luo Tian stood up as all the dust and stones fell off him. He then started crawling out of the deep hole.

He had once again stood up with an incomparably arrogant expression!

A face with an excited smile plastered all over!

“He didn’t die?!”

“The kid didn’t die?”

“My heavens, what kind of fleshly body does he have? Even a Profound King Devil Sovereign shouldn’t be able to take on an attack by a Profound Saint. What kind of background does this kid have?”

“Not only did he not die, but his body also doesn’t appear to have any injuries on them. Could it be that Long Wang’s previous attack was useless against him? What the hell is going on?”

Long Wang’s expression sank as he frowned. He then coldly grunted: “You’re still alive?”

Also at this time...

The mysterious divine might on An Chunchun’s body pulled back. She broke into a smile but her tears still streamed down her face as she yelled: “Big brother Luo Tian! You scared Chunchun to death! Chunchun was really worried about you...”

Luo Tian smiled in response and said: “Don’t worry; even if he dies, I will still be alive and kicking!”

Long Wang glared at him and coldly said with a smile: “Arrogance? From the way I see it, you’re just trying to court your own death!”

Luo Tian walked up and responded: “Courting death? There will be one day that I will have you lying beneath my foot. Don’t act all high and mighty just because you’ve cultivated a few years more than me. Give me ten years if you have the guts. I guarantee that in ten years time, you will be kneeling before me!”

Completely reckless.

Without any fear.

No matter who it was before Devil Sovereign Xingtian, he would never show fear.

Even if the heavens were in front of him, he would still be wildly arrogant and look down on everything.

Long Wang started smiling like this was completely ridiculous. "You wish to provoke me with this little trick? Why would I give you ten years time? Who the hell do you think you are? And what qualifications do you have for me to give you ten more years? "

He didn't fall for the provocation.

Luo Tian didn't care and said: "A strike from a Profound Saint couldn't kill me so what face do you have left to stay here? If I was at the Profound Saint realm as well, who knows how many tens of thousands of times you would've died already? And you still have the nerve to hang around here? If it were me, I would've dug a hole and crawled into it already."

Long Wang was getting angry.

He was rather annoyed that a single strike of his wasn't able to instantly kill Luo Tian.

A Profound Saint ranker couldn't kill a Profound King martial cultivator in one strike. This was considered a humiliation to any Profound Saint expert.

Also at this time...

Luo Tian's expression sank as his body felt like it was being distorted. It was an extremely uncomfortable feeling as if the devil's heart was struggling to break free.

Luo Tian's face turned ferocious looking.

In less than ten seconds, Luo Tian's body had returned to his human appearance.

Long Wang started laughing!

He then loudly mocked: "It looks like your transformation into a devil has a time limit! And it looks like the divine items on you cannot be used by your human body, hahaha! An ant... wait, you're even less than an ant, hahaha..."

Ten minutes was up.

The time Luo Tian could become a devil had ended.

The overbearing Devil Sovereign's aura had disappeared. At this moment, Luo Tian's mind had turned grim but the arrogant expression on his face didn't lessen. In fact, it was even stronger!

"Ant!"

"You can now go to hell for me!" Long Wang shouted while pointing out a single finger.

The powers of a Profound Saint surged out.

Luo Tian was on the verge of death, his life just hanging by a mere thread...

Chapter 326 – The Incredibly Powerful Old Ancestor

Long Wang's finger faintly moved...

And a glow of saintly might appeared.

While pointing at Luo Tian, his eyes truly looked like they were staring at an ant in contempt.

In the eyes of Long Wang, Luo Tian was even more insignificant than an ant.

At this moment...

Luo Tian wasn't moving and was just staring at Long Wang. He couldn't react nor had the power to react when going up against saintly might. Whatever actions he decides to take was completely useless.

"You are not allowed to harm my big brother Luo Tian."

An Chunchun stood in front of Luo Tian's body with her arms outstretched like she was going to block Long Wang.

Luo Tian gently pushed An Chunchun aside and said softly: "Chunchun needs to be good a girl and obedient in the future. You need to live a happy life. What big brother Luo Tian likes the most is seeing you smile. You must forever continue smiling here on out."

"Leaving your last words?"

"Hahaha..."

"Don't worry; I will take the powers from her after your death and then send her down to meet you as well. And there's also her mother. I feel that it's just too burdensome for the demon fox clan to continue existing in this world. Dying is a good thing since they can stop becoming playthings for the human race" said Long Wang coldly.

Luo Tian's piercing gaze became more gentle as he said: "Can you spare them two?"

"Beg me."

“Kneel down on the ground and beg me.”

“Who knows that I might just fulfill your wish if you make me happy enough.” Long Wang stared at Luo Tian with a playful expression before starting to laugh out loud.

He felt like this was a lot of fun.

He had never had this much fun before.

Luo Tian’s face looked calm but he was feeling extreme pain inside him. The weak were usually unwilling. Long Wang enjoyed watching this kind of pain and once again smiled arrogantly: “Kneel down on the ground and beg me with kowtows. I might even start feeling merciful and actually let them two go.”

Luo Tian looked at Long Wang and asked: “Will you really let them go if I kneel down and beg you with kowtows?”

Even though he didn’t believe Long Wang, Luo Tian really had no other choice.

Cultivation!

Strength!

The gap between them two was simply too large!

Once his transformation into a devil ended, Luo Tian knew that he no longer had any hope.

But...

He was hoping that An Chunchun could continue living happily, or at least just continue living. For this lolita of the demon fox clan, for her innocent and cute smile, and for the promise that he couldn't fulfill, he had to pay the price for it.

He was going to use his own life to exchange for it.

But...

He realized that in front of Long Wang, his life wasn't even worth a cent.

He was unwilling in his heart.

Flames of rage were blazing within his heart.

There were too many repressed feelings inside him. The son of a true dragon, Murong Wanjian; Purple Soul Temple's Li Xue'er; the Sea Cloud Sect; the Southern Mountain Sect; Heavenly Plume City; all those mentioned had become an invisible pressure for Luo Tian.

He was a transmigrator.

After arriving at this world for the past year, he had created countless miracles. His name was destined to go down in the annals of history. Even though he was going to be soon forgotten, the time he spent here was the happiest times of his two lives.

He had brothers who have gone through thick and thin accompanying him.

He had a soulmate, he had women he liked, and he had women that liked him. All of these things were something his previous life didn't have.

If he could use his life in exchange for the lives of An Chunchun, Feng Lei and the others...

Luo Tian would not hesitate the slightest.

He understood that Long Wang would not let An Chunchun off, but his heart still held a trace of hope. This was hope in the face of despair, hoping that Long Wang would spare their lives.

Long Wang started laughing wildly and said: “Kneel down and beg me. Go ahead and kneel. If you make me happy enough, I will naturally fulfill your wishes. I will use the words that you have used before: Weren’t you very arrogant just then? Now you’ve turned into a dead dog? Hahaha...”

Luo Tian’s expression was calm. He looked over at Long Wang and his knees started bending.

An Chunchun grabbed onto Luo Tian and shouted: “Big brother Luo Tian, don’t do it! Don’t kneel down!”

The demon fox clan woman inside the glass box started smashing herself against the glass and screaming something.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and fixed An Chunchun’s scattered hair. He tucked the hair behind her ear and said: “Even if I have to die for you guys, I will not even show the slightest frown.”

After saying that...

Luo Tian looked at Long Wang and said: “I hope that you will uphold your promise.”

He then began to kneel down...

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

“How come I feel so happy? How come I am so excited? Hahaha...” The moment before Luo Tian had fully kneeled down, Long Wang started laughing madly with incomparable excitement.

“That’s enough, Long Wang!”

Suddenly...

A certain force held up Luo Tian’s bent knees.

A white figure descended and landed directly next to Luo Tian. The voice then said: “Child, it’s been hard on you.”

The white haired elder from the national treasury?

Tang Qingtian!

Right outside the shattered main doors of the auction house, Tang Jiu was wiping away the sweat on his forehead. He then exhaled and said: “I finally made it.”

Behind him and stretching outside of the venue...

Were ten thousand troops from the Imperial Palace Guards.

There were also ten thousand troops from the Black Dragon Legion.

They had formed an incomparably huge slaughtering formation!

Luo Tian turned to the side to look at Tang Qingtian with a faint smile. “Senior...”

Tang Qingtian interrupted Luo Tian and angrily said: “Long Wang, you’re really treating Heavenly Sword City as your backyard huh? You dare to act presumptuously in my territory? Even if your President Wu Tongtian was here, he still has to give me some face.”

Long Wang's gaze sank and his countenance hiddenly changed. He then coldly shouted: "Tang Qingtian! All this for a martial cultivator at the Profound King realm? You best reconsider! Without my Dao Shang Alliance, your ten thousand year old dynasty will erupt into wars within a decade! You need to think things through carefully!"

"I will think about your granny's chest!"

"If you don't leave Heavenly Sword City today, then you can forget about leaving ever again." Tang Qingtian's voice was soft, but it exploded into the sky with a violent aura.

What is arrogance?

This was true arrogance!

Tang Qingtian was acting overbearingly arrogant!

He was not putting Long Wang in his eyes.

Long Wang's expression drastically changed and the muscles on the corner of his eye started twitching. He then said in annoyance: "Tang Qingtian, you're acting way too overbearing here."

"Your granny..."

"This daddy has always been this arrogant! You going to bite me?"

"You going to bite or not?"

"If you aren't biting, then you better scam back to your Outer Heaven Palace. If you dare to come back to Heavenly Sword City, this daddy will break your third leg!" shouted Tang Qingtian in an overbearing manner. He really wasn't putting Long Wang in his eyes and just stared fiercely at Long Wang waiting for a response.

Long Wang clenched his fists and saintly might was surging out like crazy from his body.

Tang Qingtian coldly scoffed, "Oh? You still dare to act presumptuously in front of me? Back then, your father could only bow and scrape before me. A little hairless child like you dares to release saintly might before me? Hasn't your father ever taught you how to be a proper person?"

As his voice faded...

Tang Qingtian's right palm started moving. Incomparably overbearing imperial qi surged out as he threw a slap out.

"Pak~!"

An extremely heavy slap.

Long Wang actually couldn't dodge it. His cheek had turned red and a trace of blood seeped out from the corner of his mouth. His facial expression was even uglier looking now.

He was glaring at Tang Qingtian like his eyes were capable of spouting flames.

"You still dare to glare at me?"

After saying that, Tang Qingtian threw another slap.

"Pak~!"

The right side of Long Wang's face had turned red and swollen as well.

Long Wang didn't have the slightest power to resist. He couldn't even throw a temper tantrum when he was completely crushed!

Tang Qingtian was powerful to a complete mess!

Chapter 327 – The Huge Bet

A series of two slaps!

Heavy and filled with power.

Long Wang was smacked to the point of seeing stars, but he didn't show any temper tantrums.

It looked like he didn't even dare to dodge it.

Of course...

It wasn't that he didn't dare to dodge but he just couldn't dodge it. His heart was filled with shock as he never imagined his Profound Saint 5th rank cultivation didn't allow him to even move in front of Tang Qingtian. What terrifying cultivation level has Tang Qingtian reached?

The continuous two slaps had made his rage surge.

But the flames of anger inside him couldn't explode out because his body was completely suppressed. Even though he was using all his strength, he was unable to break out of the hold and could only glare at Tang Qingtian. His teeth were clenched to the point of making cracking sounds as he was unconvinced.

Tang Qingtian pointed at Long Wang's nose and shouted: "Your granny! You want to keep glaring at me? Do you believe that I will give you another two more slaps?!"

"A Profound Saint ranker bullying a Profound King ranker; you even dare to do something like this?"

“Didn’t your father ever teach you?”

“Oh!”

“I almost forgot that your damn father is already no longer of this world. Then today, I shall represent your father and consider those two slaps a teaching moment.” Tang Qingtian wasn’t giving Long Wang any face and he couldn’t release his temper at all.

Tang Qingtian then turned to Luo Tian and asked: “Kid, do you have anything you want to say?”

Luo Tian’s eyes were filled with shock.

He never imagined Tang Qingtian would be this awesome.

The feeling of watching Long Wang being slapped twice was simply too great!

Unfortunately, he wasn’t able to slap Long Wang himself.

Luo Tian looked at Long Wang. His eyes turned serious and didn’t hide his words as he said: “I want to kill him!”

“Huh?”

Tang Qingtian faintly trembled as he said to himself: “This kid... his granny, he’s quite ferocious, hahaha...”

Long Wang widen his eyes and glared at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian showed no fear and coldly sneered before saying: "I know that my current cultivation is unable to kill you. But don't worry; I will have you kneeling before me within ten years time. At that point, I will wash away the shame you have shown me today and then kill you!"

Complete suppression based on powers.

For An Chunchun, for Feng Lei, for all his brothers, Luo Tian had chosen to kneel down.

Although...

He didn't completely kneel down in the end, he fully remembered that feeling. He had captured that moment of Long Wang's smug smile and that arrogant look he held.

Tang Qingtian's heart loosened up as he wiped the imaginary sweat away. If Luo Tian was to really kill Long Wang, then they would thoroughly offend the Dao Shang Alliance while he would be stuck right in the middle. Even though he was siding with Luo Tian, behind him was the Great Tang Dynasty so he couldn't just ignore this ten thousand year old nation.

When he heard Luo Tian's words, his heart loosened up and allowed him to exhale. He then said with a smile: "Kid, you are a crazy enough. Breaking into the Profound Saint realm from Profound King in ten years... this type of incident has never happened in the history of our continent."

"But I'm optimistic for you!"

This has never happened before!

But...

Tang Qingtian believed in Luo Tian.

Because he felt nothing was impossible when it came to Luo Tian.

A Profound King ranker had killed a peak Profound Venerate expert.

A Profound King ranker actually cultivated some type of supreme devil martial skill that allowed him to transform into Devil Sovereign Xingtian's body. If his cultivation had increased to the Profound Saint realm, then... Tang Qingtian's heart tightened as he started getting excited. He really wanted to see that day arrive.

Long Wang started smiling with disdain.

Tang Qingtian was immediately angered by that as he pointed at Long Wang's nose and shouted: "What are you smiling about?! What kind of expression is that? Do you dare to make a bet? Do you dare to accept a ten year agreement?"

Long Wang maintained his disdainful expression before coldly harrumphing: "A piece of trash like him wants to surpass me in ten years? Tang Qingtian, it looks like you're becoming muddle headed as you get older and have lived pointlessly the past several thousand years. You actually dare to propose such a bet? What qualifications does this piece of trash have to challenge me?"

"Ten years time?"

"He wants to step into the Profound Saint realm in ten years time? Is he overestimating himself or is your brain fried?"

"Who on this entire continent is capable of that? Even the son of a true dragon Murong Wanjian cannot accomplish that. He's a kid that doesn't possess a bloodline so he thinks he's all that just because he learned some high grade martial skills? He can quit dreaming of having a ten year agreement with me! This daddy doesn't want to completely lose all face..."

Without waiting for him to finish...

Tang Qingtian threw out a slap.

"Pak~!"

Being unable to dodge it again, Long Wang's eyes were now bloodshot. He then fiercely glared at Tang Qingtian and shouted: "Old bastard! If you don't manage to kill me today, I will one day destroy your Great Tang Dynasty and have all you surnamed Tang's disappear from this continent!"

Tang Qingtian didn't care and shouted back: "Your granny, stop blabbing crap! Do you dare to accept the bet? If you dare to accept it and beat this kid ten years later, you don't need to come yourself because I will directly gift my Great Tang's nation to your Dao Shang Alliance!"

"What?"

Luo Tian's face drastically changed as he said: "Old senior, don't..."

Tang Qingtian didn't bother with Luo Tian and continued shouting: "Do you dare?! Stop blabbing crap if you don't dare and quickly scam out of Heavenly Sword City! If I ever see you around Heavenly Sword City ever again, you better watch it 'because I might just kill you!"

Using the entire Great Tang Dynasty as a gambling stake?!

Wasn't the stakes a bit too big?!

Long Wang started laughing.

"Hahaha..."

He was laughing very loudly with an excited expression. "Tang Qingtian, it looks like you have really gone muddle headed from old age! You actually pulled out the Great Tang Dynasty as a gambling stake for this kid?!"

"Fine!"

"I will accept it!"

“Ten years from today, be prepared to hand over the Great Tang as you promised. I will then completely wipe out every citizen within the nation’s territory! I will burn down every city within the Great Tang; I will not even let a single blade of grass grow! I will make the Great Tang Dynasty that has stood for ten thousand years become history’s biggest joke! I will make the Great Tang a dead nation for tens of thousands of years! Hahaha...”

Tang Qingtian’s expression faintly shook. He then said with a frown: “As long as you win, you can do whatever you want with it! But if you lose...”

“Hahaha!”

“Me, losing to a piece of trash?”

“Tang Qingtian, you will definitely be losing. You just wait and see...” Long Wang’s face was completely full of disdain.

Tang Qingtian had a calm expression as he said: “Within these ten years, if anyone of your Dao Shang Alliance members dares to touch a single hair on this kid, it will mean you, Long Wang, are scared. It will also mean you lose. Don’t worry; I don’t need you to pay up anything if you lose. But all the martial cultivators in this continent will laugh at you because it means a Profound Saint expert is afraid of a Profound King ranker.”

“Humph!”

“You wish to protect him for ten years, so I will naturally give you the full ten years time.”

“Within these ten years of time, my Dao Shang Alliance will not touch a single hair on him or any of his people!” Long Wang was clear that if his people moved against Luo Tian, he would lose all face and would never be able to climb back up on his feet on this continent ever again.

Ten years was merely a brief moment of time.

No matter how strong Luo Tian's innate talent was, there's no way he can step into the Profound Saint realm.

Being unable to step into the Profound Saint realm means he will never be considered an opponent.

Profound Saint rankers possessed saintly might. This force was able to suppress any expert below the Profound Saint realm!

Tang Qingtian then grunted out: "Good, then you can scam out of Heavenly Sword City now."

Powers were pulled back.

Long Wang's body relaxed. He turned to coldly glance at Luo Tian before ridiculing: "Kid, I hope that you will still be alive in ten years."

As his voice faded...

Long Wang turned into a stream of light and instantly flew out of Heavenly Sword City. In a blink of an eye, he had already traveled for over a hundred thousand kilometers away.

At this moment...

Tang Qingtian's body sank and his face paled. It looked like he had suddenly aged several decades!

Luo Tian was clenching his fists tightly.

Chapter 328 – Bring Her In As Well

Tang Qingtian was at the Profound Saint realm.

He was able to suppress Long Wang not because he had a higher cultivation level, but he had actually burned his own life force.

This was a type of secret skill that over drafted one's life.

Tang Qingtian's body had suddenly deflated and layers of wrinkles appeared on his face. It was as if he had suddenly aged a few decades.

An Chunchun walked up to Tang Qingtian and held onto him. She then said comfortingly: "Old grandpa, are you okay?"

Tang Qingtian patted the top of An Chunchun's head and said: "Don't worry; I can still handle this type of ability and won't die yet."

Luo Tian's brows formed a frown.

He was completely speechless.

He didn't know what to say.

A person was willing to put his nation up as a gambling stake in order to give you ten years of peace. Luo Tian felt like he had no way to repay him.

No matter what...

The Great Tang will become a part of his life.

Luo Tian had now put the Great Tang deep inside his heart at a very important place.

Of course...

Tang Qingtian was gambling.

He was betting huge to the point of putting the Great Tang as an ante.

He was helping Luo Tian and helping himself. His selfish motive was to tie Luo Tian together with his Great Tang Dynasty.

He had now accomplished that.

Luo Tian was now without a doubt tied together with the Great Tang.

Not were they just tied together, the Great Tang's future was practically handed over to Luo Tian. For Luo Tian to defeat Long Wang in ten years time was near impossible. Tang Qingtian's move this time was extremely dangerous and even he was a bit scared afterward.

Luo Tian was a special individual.

His strength, his innate talent, and everything about him was very special.

But...

For someone to break through from the Profound King to the Profound Saint realm in ten years time, this was something even ancient history had no records of. No one has been able to accomplish that. The Profound Saint realm was a supreme level where every step towards it was incomparably difficult.

Wanting to peek at the secrets of heaven to gain saintly might was difficult to the extreme!

But Tang Qingtian still decided to make this bet!

He didn't regret the decision he made. He looked at Luo Tian with a faint smile and said: "Kid, don't feel too much pressure. This old man believes in you. You will definitely defeat Long Wang in ten years time."

Luo Tian clenched his teeth and replied in a serious manner: "Thank you!"

Luo Tian rarely said the words "thank you" to people but whenever he did say it, it would be sincere and heartfelt.

He will forever remember this bout of kindness!

Tang Qingtian faintly smiled while his face clearly showed a pale complexion. "This old man will leave first while this place will be handed over to you."

After saying that...

His figure disappeared and instantly arrived back at a secret chamber inside the imperial palace. He then spat out a mouthful of dark colored blood.

Tang Qingtian frowned. A golden colored imperial qi surged out and covered his body, slowly healing the injuries he had sustained.

After burning his life force, it turned a several thousand year old elderly man into a pale and frail looking old man!

Luo Tian grabbed Feng Lei, Xuan Yuanyi, and Blindman Liu and put them together.

Feng Lei had a smile on his face. Blood had solidified on his face and turned into a thick black colored armor. "Boss, boss, did we win?"

Xuan Yuanyi gave a dazzling smile and said: "Brother Fatty, you still have the strength to speak? You should be resting instead."

Blindman Liu also started smiling while the fleshly wings on his back had shrunk back into his body. He then revealed his yellow stained teeth and said: "My fellow brothers, do you want me, Blindman Liu to play a song for you guys?"

"Scram!"

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

The four of them started laughing in unison.

Luo Tian was laughing so hard that tears were coming out. Inside his sleeves, his fists were clenched tightly as he said to himself: "Having brothers is really great!"

If they hadn't helped him by blocking Qi Fu, most likely he wouldn't be of this world anymore.

Living and dying together!

Luo Tian was touched to the extreme!

An Chunchun was smiling while standing to the side, except her tears kept streaming down her face. "Big brother Fatty, big brother Yuanyi, Uncle Blindman, you guys shouldn't be talking so much. The injuries you have sustained are very serious."

"It was all Chunchun's fault."

“It was because of me that you have all become like this.”

“Big brother Luo Tian, you should smack me. Just smack my little butt, wuuu~...”

An Chunchun cried even harder.

She was crying hard just like the little child she was.

Luo Tian’s heart ached from seeing that.

Without waiting for him to say something, Tang Tang and Qin Yue’er recovered and shouted: “Whoever dares to hit Chunchun’s butt, this old lady will end their lives!”

The two of them stood up and looked around. They noticed the destruction, Luo Tian covered in blood, and Feng Lei and the others lying on the ground like they were dead. Tang Tang and Qin Yue’er’s expression immediately changed. They bit their lips and tears started coming out.

“It was our fault for not listening.”

“If we hadn’t come to the auction house, then all of this wouldn’t have happened.”

“It was all because of us!”

The two girls started blaming themselves.

Luo Tian walked up and embraced the two as they quietly sobbed. Luo Tian then patted their backs and said: “It’s fine now, everything has passed. I promise that from today onwards, I will never let something like this happen ever again!”

After comforting them with some more words...

Luo Tian lowered his body and said to fatty and company: "Nobody move; I will now treat the injuries on your bodies."

He made a thought...

And activated the skill Healing Arts.

A holy-like light descended and Feng Lei's body faintly trembled. His wounds started closing but it was a bit of a painful process. Only now was he able to slowly fully open his eyes.

"Endure it!"

Luo Tian's mind sank as he fiercely shouted to himself: "Long Wang! In under ten years, this daddy will definitely go f*ck your Outer Heavenly Palace!"

Healing Arts was continuously being used.

It was being cast at a crazy rate!

Luo Tian was like a madman as they were being cast without pause.

Apart from one's sea of consciousness and one's mind that Healing Arts couldn't heal, the fleshly wounds and internal organs were quickly recovering on their bodies. The face of those three clearly showed their recovery as they slowly turned rosier.

Two hours later...

The three of them were able to sit up.

Luo Tian gasped for air as his profound energy points were completely depleted. He then raised his head and swallowed a hundred top grade xuan stones.

His profound energy quickly rose back up.

At this time...

An Chunchun was leaning against the glass box with her hands. The demon fox clan woman was doing the same gesture. Their eyes were staring at each other with a smile on their faces. The woman's smile was very beautiful; to the point that Tang Tang and Qin Yue'er at the side were dumbstruck by it.

"Very beautiful!"

"I have never seen such a beautiful woman before."

"I have never such a beautiful smile before."

Tang Tang and Qin Yue'er were considered top beauties capable of toppling countries and kingdoms with their looks. But when they were compared to An Chunchun's mother's looks, it was like those two had nothing they could take out to compare at all. Those two were subconsciously attracted to her as well.

The two looked at each and smiled. One of them then casually said: "This big beauty is very attractive looking. Smelly scoundrel, you should bring her into our group as well."

Luo Tian stepped forward and glared at them. "What kind of words are you two spouting? She's An Chunchun's mother."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's gaze trembled as he said: "Chunchun, move over a bit. I'm going to rescue your mother now."

He was gradually getting excited.

The reward for an S-rank quest... what would one hundred thousand points of favorability do?

“Waaaa!”

Chapter 329: Godly Rewards

S-rank quest!

It had finally reached its completion.

Saying he wasn't excited would be false. Luo Tian's heart was currently beating quickly from anxiety!

Looking at the glass box, Luo Tian made a hand gesture to have the demon fox clan woman back up. He then shouted: “Eternal Kingdom!”

“Ommm~!”

A dim and black light extended outwards...

Instantly enshrouding the glass box in its domain.

Tang Tang's brows quivered as she said with a hint of zeal: “Smelly scoundrel is quite awesome; he even knows a spatial martial skill.”

Qin Yue'er faintly smiled and said: “That bastard actually know a lot of stuff. Hasn't senior brother mentioned it to you before?”

“Ninth brother? Mention what?”

“Mention all the things that have happened at Dark Mountain Corpse City. That bastard saved us both there and learned the spatial skill from there.”

“He’s the idol that Ninth brother has been talking about?”

Tang Tang pouted and clenched her hands. She then pretended to be angry and said: “Humph! Ninth brother, you just watch how I’ll take care of you when I get back! No wonder that smelly scoundrel always has that weird mysterious look; so he already saw through all my words. After bullying me, he would always say he’d have Ninth brother’s idol beat him until he had to pick up his teeth from the ground, so he was just treating me like a fool all this time!”

“Huh?”

Qin Yue’er was stunned by this and started giggling.

Inside the domain of Eternal Kingdom...

Luo Tian was in control of everything. His right hand started moving as a heavy punch landed on the glass box.

The glass box shattered...

But the glass shards didn’t fly out all over the place. Within his spatial domain, Luo Tian was the overlord and was able to control everything that went on inside.

After shattering the glass box, Luo Tian then said: “Below is the metal chain that’s wrapping around your neck and legs, so don’t move around.”

The demon fox clan woman cooperated and said: “En, I appreciate your hard work.”

Her voice had an ethereal feeling to it.

It was very easy on the ears and almost made Luo Tian's bones weaken.

The voice was too powerful and almost made Luo Tian unable to hold back. It was fortunate that he had a firm heart or else he would've done something right then and there!

The time it takes for a spark to fly off a flint...

The runed metal chains shattered under two of Luo Tian's strikes. He then picked up the demon fox clan woman to protect her. The moment he held her, she didn't struggle and cooperated perfectly. Her voice was capable of weakening one's bones and her body almost melted Luo Tian's entire body!

This feeling...

Luo Tian couldn't describe it and could only say it was similar to floating to heaven.

The timer for the Eternal Kingdom skill was up.

Glass flew out and the runed metal chains exploded. Luo Tian was using his body to block the shockwave he had created.

"So handsome!"

"He's handsome to a complete mess!"

"That bastard didn't disappoint me, hee hee..."

Within Luo Tian's embrace, the demon fox clan woman had a dazed look in her eyes. She was smelling the faint scent of sweat, blood, and the smell that only mature men had on Luo Tian. His strong and steady chest seemed to be capable of blocking the wind, rain and protecting you your entire life.

At this moment...

She seemed to have lost her senses.

Luo Tian didn't have any feelings except for his lower part almost about to point up straight into the sky. The kind that wanted to pierce through the heavens! "Calm down, calm down. Luo Tian, you beast, we're right in front of An Chunchun! You must calm down!"

"Mother..."

An Chunchun directly jumped over.

Luo Tian used this chance to lower her.

The demon fox clan woman lowered herself and embraced An Chunchun while tears streamed down her face.

The mother and daughter pair were both crying.

Their tears made the hearts of everyone present ache.

After a while...

The demon fox clan woman stood up and bowed before Luo Tian. She then said tenderly: "This one is called Da Ji. Thank you to hero for looking after Chunchun all this time. Thank you to hero for this saving grace. If... if... hero doesn't mind, this one is willing... willing..."

At this moment...

Luo Tian wasn't paying attention to the rest of her words...

Because he was completely focused on the system's alert tones.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for completing the S-rank quest Rescue An Chunchun's Mother. You have gained 1,000,000 experience points, 100,000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a random earth grade martial skill book...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 100,000 favorability points with An Chunchun.”

A sound that was as soft as a sigh.

Luo Tian noticed a holy-like light come out from An Chunchun's body.

The light then sprinkled onto Luo Tian's body.

At this moment...

The system gave off another alert tone.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the blessing from the Goddess of Luck. Your luck value has increased by +100!”

“How much?!”

Luo Tian was in a daze.

He thought he heard it wrong and immediately opened up the system interface to take a look. He then found that his personal attributes had a new status line.

Luck Value: 100

“Oh shit!!!”

“This is motherf*cking heaven defying!” Luo Tian was so excited that his blood felt like it was burning up. He then roared out internally: “I knew it! I knew 100,000 favorability points will have a special usage! How fierce is it to have 100 luck points? The loot explosion from killing a chicken might even give me a piece of divine equipment! This... this... this is too f*cking awesome! Awesome to the point that even I don’t dare to believe it’s real!”

Luck value!

Different games would give different descriptions.

But they all had one thing in common.

And that is its ability to raise a player’s loot explosion rate of items. The higher one’s luck value was, the higher the chance of getting better quality items.

A better way to say this...

All the chickens in the world would amount to over 10 billion, and one of those chickens pecking for food happens to swallow a divine item. For someone with a lot of luck points, they can randomly kill a chicken and a divine item would explode from the chicken’s corpse. This was the power of having a high luck value!

Moreover, apart from the rate of better loots popping out, there would also be one's attack, defense, or even one's charm would be increased by it.

One hundred points of luck was considered the max amount.

This was definitely an attribute considered heaven defying.

Luo Tian almost couldn't handle the excitement anymore. "This reward might even be better than what I could get from a SSS-rank quest! This is too heaven defying! Hahaha... Oh you system, this daddy loves you to death!"

In fact...

This was what Luo Tian benefited from taking care of An Chunchun.

Many things have happened this past year that has accumulated in An Chunchun's heart. There were many times Luo Tian's rage had shot into the sky for her. When dealing with Long Wang, an opponent that Luo Tian couldn't defeat, he was willing to use his life in exchange for An Chunchun's life. This was all being stored inside the depths of her heart.

Even the mysterious powers inside her was moved by those actions.

Therefore...

The moment Luo Tian rescued her mother, the mysterious powers of her seemed to be satisfied to the brink.

The 100,000 favorability points had brought forward the 100 luck points.

This was something Luo Tian naturally didn't know of.

An Chunchun herself didn't know either.

Because the mysterious power inside her wasn't something she could control.

Luo Tian suddenly remembered Ghost Dragon's words before he died: Take good care of An Chunchun because she will be of great assistance to you. She has a powerful force inside her that will allow you to reach the peak of this world.

At this time...

Luo Tian started to understand the meaning behind those words.

"100 luck points!"

"Saint weapons, divine weapons, or even ancient divine weapons wouldn't be a problem. Hahaha..." Luo Tian was ecstatic as his face showed a rosy glow.

At this time...

Qin Yue'er glared at Luo Tian and said: "Bastard, are you going to agree to it or not? Say something!"

Luo Tian didn't even know what she was talking about and just mindlessly nodded: "I agree."

At this moment, Da Ji's face started blushing...

Chapter 330 You Reckless Thing

One month later.

It was the most peaceful month that Luo Tian had ever experienced after arriving in this world.

He would train his skills each day.

Whichever martial skill proficiency could be increased, had been increased.

The one thousand top grade xuan stones had been all used up, and there weren't much demon cores left either.

One must say...

Training in martial skills for Luo Tian had truly consumed a lot of profound energy and only a few thousand proficiency points was gained in return. Of course, only Luo Tian had this option because others wouldn't even get the chance to use so much profound energy for these gains.

Only he was like some type of rich tycoon that could eat xuan stones like candy and ingest demon cores like eating a meal.

Many people in the imperial palace were eyeing him while their hearts trembled thinking: How rich is this guy?!

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian dripped a drop of blood essence onto the dragon's egg.

As the blood essence landed...

The dragon egg faintly trembled and gave off a red glow. It then quieted down and sat there silently once again.

“There's only one month to go!”

“Only one month left and it will hatch. I wonder what this dragon would look like? I hope it looks like those Huaxia dragons, but if it looks like those four-legged lizards, then...” Luo Tian started talking to himself.

In order to protect him in the Spectral Forbidden Grounds, the dragon egg released a powerful force similar to a meat grinder and instantly killed Mo Long. As bits and pieces of bloody flesh was being devoured, just recalling it made Luo Tian feel horrified.

If it wasn't for the dragon egg, Luo Tian most likely would've died in the hands of Mo Long already.

Thinking of Mo Long, Luo Tian couldn't help start narrowing his eyes and spit out the name: “Li Wenzong!”

“Dragon head!”

Blindman Liu rushed up with a hurried look and said: “Just like you guessed, the Skynet assassin at the Dao Shang's auction house was hired by Li Wenzong for 3000 top grade xuan stones.”

“So it's true!”

Luo Tian's expression turned gloomy while he clenched his fists. “Does Ninth brother know about this?”

“He should know by now,” replied Blindman Liu.

Immediately after...

Blindman Liu continued saying: “Dragon head, Li Wenzong kept sending out assassins to deal with us. Do we need to...?”

Blindman Liu made a slitting throat gesture.

Luo Tian was in thought for a bit before his brows shot up, "We'll wait a few more days to see what attitude the Emperor has."

If Tang Qingtian hadn't helped him...

If Tang Zhanlong hadn't helped him as well... If it wasn't for his relationship with Tang Tang and Tang Jiu... Luo Tian would have instantly killed his way into the Minister's Manor and wiped out all the young and old of the Li family.

If it was him of the past, he would've really done this.

But it was different now.

He owed the Great Tang too much. Li Wenzong was an in-law to the Emperor and the head of the civil ministers. Before killing him, Luo Tian had to take into account the feelings of Tang Zhanlong. He was nonetheless the nation's Emperor so if you want to kill his minister, you had to at least let him know first, right?

"Prince Consort!"

"His Majesty wishes to see you at Harmony Palace." A eunuch rushed up and respectfully said to Luo Tian.

Luo Tian's brows quivered before saying politely: "I will go over right now."

It's unknown if the little eunuch was instructed by someone or that he worshipped Luo Tian, but he whispered: "Minister Li is currently filing charges against you so you need to be careful. He has been laying down a lot of your wrongdoings."

"Oh?"

Anger rose up inside Luo Tian as he said to himself: "You damn dog thing! This daddy didn't go looking for trouble with you, yet you come looking for trouble with me?!"

Blindman Liu immediately said: "Dragon head, do we need to call for more people?"

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at him and responded: "What's the use of calling more people? Have a gang fight?"

Blindman Liu grinned while revealing his yellow stained teeth. He then scratched his head and said: "The more people we have, the moral and momentum we can exude. We can just scare him to death, heh heh..."

Luo Tian then said: "I alone am more than enough when dealing with a Li Wenzong. You stay here and don't tell the others where I'm going. It's a perfect time for me to go out for a stroll since there are a lot of things I haven't taken care of yet."

He truly had a lot of things to do.

He had determined the approximate location of the ancient treasure.

It was all thanks to Wild Blade for studying the ancient scroll day in and day out.

Then again...

It was due to Long Tian exploding out with the Revelation Key. Once Wild Blade got his hands on the key, it allowed him to unravel the mystery behind the ancient scroll and determine the location of the ancient treasure.

After the battles inside the Spectral Forbidden Grounds, Wild Blade's soul had suffered a serious injury so he needed to rest for half a month in order to recover.

Luo Tian felt like he owed him and truly wanted to find a chance for Wild Blade to materialize an actual body. From then on, he wouldn't get implicated when Luo Tian gets injured in the future. It was also something Luo Tian should be doing to pay him back.

"Understood!"

"Take care, dragon head." Blindman Liu said with a smile.

Luo Tian walked towards the little eunuch and said: "If you could please lead the way."

The little eunuch was a bit overwhelmed by the politeness and quickly showed the way.

Inside Harmony Palace.

Li Wenzong was kneeling on the ground and revealing an expression of bitterness and hatred. "Your Majesty, if we don't get rid of that villain, there will definitely be a lot more trouble in the future. The old ancestor used our Great Tang as a gambling stake! There's no way that kid can reach the supreme Profound Saint realm in just ten years of time!"

"It was all because of him that our relationship with the Sea Cloud Sect has fallen afoul."

"He then provoked the Southern Mountain Sect at the auction and almost fought with Heavenly Plume City's Noble Tianyu."

"Even if we don't mention those things, he goes along and offends the Dao Shang Alliance! That kid is the scourge of our Great Tang! Even if this old official has to die, I will still have to say something~ Your majesty, please invite out the enshrined experts and send his corpse to the Outer Heavenly Palace. Have his head chopped off and hung on the gates of Heavenly Sword City to make a declaration of our intention to repair our friendship with the Sea Cloud Sect, Southern Mountain Sect, and the Heavenly Plume City."

Tang Zhanlong didn't say a word or have any expressions on his face as he listened to Li Wenzong's words.

Li Wenzong saw that Tang Zhanlong wasn't saying anything so he continued: "This old official understands he is engaged to Princess Lasting Peace, but it's precisely this that he shouldn't continue living. We cannot allow Princess Lasting Peace to live a life where she's constantly being chased down to be killed."

"Your Majesty, if you feel like you cannot make a move, this old official can do it on your behalf."

"Oh?!"

"Are you going to hire a Skynet assassin to try to kill me again?" Luo Tian walked into the audience hall with a faint smile. He gave a slight bow to the Emperor but didn't kneel down.

Tang Zhanlong lightly smiled in response.

Anger was seen in Li Wenzong's eyes as he pointed at Luo Tian's nose and scolded: "You damn bastard! Why aren't you kneeling upon seeing his majesty?! Do you know what crime you've committed? Deceiving the monarch and defying one's superior! All nine familial kinships to you can be exterminated because of that!"

"Huh?"

"Li Wenzong, I'm really scared!"

"You want to exterminate all nine familial kinships of my family, huh?"

"You seem to be acting a bit overly ruthless." Luo Tian continued walking forward with a faint smile.

Tang Zhanlong stood up and yawned before saying: "I'm tired, so if there's nothing else, I'm going to leave first. Mei Lan is still waiting for me to Fight the Landlord. Kid, that Fight the Landlord game you invented is really interesting, hahaha..."

"Your Majesty!"

"Your Majesty!"

"Your Majesty!" Li Wenzong kneeled down and crawled forward. He then hurriedly advised: "You should quickly give the order to have him executed!"

Tang Zhanlong was smiling at Li Wenzong's ignorance. "You have been considering yourself as too much importance lately, and I am very clear on all the things you have done. Luo Tian hasn't wiped out your entire family because he's giving you face, yet you still dare to act recklessly here and file charges against him?"

"Do you know why I have called him here today?"

"It's exactly so that he can kill you!"
