

Leveling Up And Becoming Undefeatable

Chapter 46 – Like Mad, Like A Demon

Chapter 46 – Like Mad, Like A Demon

Deep into the night, there was a slight chill in the air.

Standing in front of the towering Ghostly Mountain Range, Luo Tian felt extremely tiny when compared to it.

He was completely pissed off at what happened tonight.

He never expected that Luo Jianshan would be so shameless that he would detain Li Xue'er and Feng Lei as hostages. What he hated the most in his life were people messing with those close to him.

In his own words: You can mess with me but don't touch my friends or family.

If you dare mess with my friends and family, I will disregard everything and f*ck your eighteen generations!

Humans needed flames of passion!

This flame of passion had kindled when Luo Tian transmigrated to this world. Now the flame had spread through all his five viscera's and six organs, and before long it will arrive at his mind and sea of consciousness.

By that time, heh heh...

Luo Tian calmed his thoughts by performing three deep breaths. He then looked towards the Jade Mountain City and said in a low tone: "Just wait for me!"

Those four words were filled with different meanings!

After that, Luo Tian stepped onto the Ghostly Mountain Range. His presence awakened birds and insect alike, causing the outer periphery to become restless.

The feast of the hunt had begun!

His original intention on training in the Ghostly Mountain Range was in order to go against the 4th rank demonic beast in 8 days time. But now it was different...

Apart from challenging the 4th rank demonic beast, the most important point was to kill the last boss.

He didn't want to let things drag on anymore.

This last boss had to be removed or else next time, it wouldn't be as simple as detaining his people.

Luo Tian wasn't someone that will let harm come to those close to him. If he finds out, he will definitely eliminate them!

The night was as dark as ink where one could not see the slightest light while within the forest.

Someone at the Profound Pupil 9th rank wouldn't be able to see more than several meters ahead of them. Wanting to find demonic beasts under these conditions was quite difficult.

Half an hour later...

Luo Tian was only able to kill a few 1st rank demonic beasts in his travels. His eyebrows unconsciously turned to a frown, "This won't do; if I can't find any demonic beasts, am I supposed to start killing air?"

After thinking for a while...

Luo Tian's eyebrows sank as he roared out. His body released an aura in an unbridled manner causing overbearing, domineering and extreme arrogance to blast out into the surrounding forest.

As his aura billowed out, more than ten pairs of cold green eyes were staring at him in less than half a minute.

Demonic beasts were just like humans, they didn't like to be provoked.

Luo Tian's aura made them fly into a rage. They swarmed in towards him and once they realized it was a human, their eyes all changed like they had been starving for a long time.

Drool started plopping on the floor as one of them pawed the ground. Its throat gave off a low terrifying growl as if to warn the others to back off and that Luo Tian was its prey.

In an instant...

That 2nd rank Scarlet Flamed Wolf began to howl.

Luo Tian's lips curved into a sneer and roared out: "Perfect timing!"

Luo Tian faintly smiled as he brought out a space plaque, "It's time for me to test out those iron monsters."

"Bumblebee, you're up!"

"Creak, pssshh..."

A sound of metals rubbing against each other was heard. A super terrifying looking iron beast 4 meters tall and fully in black appeared. Luo Tian made a thought and Bumblebee's eyes glowed before blocking in front of him. Bumblebee watched as the Scarlet Flamed Wolf had already launched itself into the air. It looked at the wolf with a hint of disdain as if it was looking at a tiny ant in front of it.

The right arm rose up and heavily slapped down.

"Pak!"

The Scarlet Flamed Wolf was smashed down in mid air; its body deeply entrenched into the ground. Its four limbs flailed out while its head and tail was in a straight alignment as if it was a printing cast.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Scarlet Flamed Wolf. You have gained 350 experience points, and 35 profound energy..."

"Oh shit, instakill!"

Luo Tian was internally shocked. Looking up at Bumblebee, waves of emotion was felt in his heart. He already knew that a level 3 puppet soldier would be powerful, but he didn't expect its power to be that great. A 2nd rank demonic beast died from a slap, and it looked even easier than slapping a fly to death. This...

"Awesome!"

That was the only word to describe what Luo Tian was feeling.

"Powerful, simply way too powerful!" Luo Tian almost jumped into the air in joy. The strength of a level 3 puppet soldier had exceeded his expectations.

This training period for him...

Luo Tian started to get excited.

“Luo Jianshan you damn old fogey, you just wait for this daddy!”

“I will definitely make you burst with loot!”

Luo Tian showed a ghastly smile.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian went to pull up the Scarlet Flamed Wolf embedded inside the ground and cut its throat, letting the blood gush all over his own body. The amount of demonic beasts in the Ghostly Mountain Range was like stars in the sky, and this bloody scent was ideal to attract other demonic beasts. It was definitely more attractive than the scent that Luo Tian had on his own body.

A pungent bloody scent drifted into the surrounding air, and heart piercing roars from near and far started reverberating in the mountain forest.

All life forms in the surrounding area started becoming restless.

Those starving demonic beasts nearby couldn't endure anymore and rushed out as if they were trying to snatch whatever they could!

Luo Tian had a savage smile on his face as a dozen or so demonic beasts descended onto him. In order to save time, he pulled out another space plaque and shouted: “Optimus Prime, head out!”

“Boom!”

A huge iron monster seemed to have descended from the heavens and directly stomped a demonic beast into meat paste. It then dove into the pack of demonic beasts as if it was a metallic grim reaper.

At the same time...

Apart from controlling the two puppet soldiers with his mind, he personally pulled out the Azure Cloud Sword that exploded out from Zhou Hengran's corpse previously and began killing as well.

Time was very precious to him at the moment.

Luo Tian didn't want to waste a single moment. He was thinking of Luo Jianshan's sinister words; he was thinking of Luo Xiaoshan's unbridled verbal abuse; he was thinking of Luo Changshan's unscrupulous clinging to a faction; he was thinking of Li Xue'er being detained because of him; he was thinking of all the bullying Feng Lei had suffered; and he was thinking of how all the people in the Jade Mountain City were waiting to see him as a joke. The emotional flames in his heart started burning even more vigorously.

“Kill!!!”

A sword struck out at full power without any reserves for defense. This strike was like he didn't care about his own life!

A single sword strike pierced through the skull of a demonic beast.

The System sounded off a sweet alert tone he loved hearing.

Luo Tian pulled out the sword; his body became illusory before once again stabbing out with all his strength.

“Puchi!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

A series of system alerts were heard making Luo Tian's eardrums hurt, but he was still extremely excited about it.

A single person with two puppet soldiers was killing like mad and like a demon.

With the domineering aura of – If God blocks him, kill God. If Buddha blocks him, kill Buddha; the peace here was completely destroyed by Luo Tian.

As he moved forward, there would be roars, death, and blood spraying everywhere. The only part of Luo Tian's body that wasn't covered in blood was his eyes. The rest were caked in blood that had started to darken. More blood would then spray over him and start clotting, and the process would repeat itself. Eventually, Luo Tian looked like he was wearing an armor made up of blood that was quite terrifying to behold. It was like a demon had just crawled up from the depths of hell.

This continued to the morning, then to noon, then to evening. And then to the next morning...

Luo Tian was extremely tired by now.

If it weren't for the sheer willpower supporting him, he could fall asleep just by lying on the ground.

As if afraid of wasting a single second or missing a single experience point, Luo Tian was trying to kill demonic beasts and level up with his life on the line. He had become completely insane!

Finally...

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. Your current level is Profound Master 1st rank!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. You have gained a martial skill from the System – Shadewind Steps!”

“Eh?”

“Isn’t this the Desolate Era’s main character Ji Ning’s martial skill he learned in the early chapters? Hahaha...” Luo Tian’s heart was in ecstasy as he immediately opened the System interface to learn the skill. The new skill then appeared in his skill column area.

At that moment...

A hint of chilling aura shot out – it was killing intent!

This was a strong murderous killing intent!

Luo Tian’s lips arched into a cold sneer, “You damn dog thing, you finally can’t endure anymore huh?!”

Chapter 47 – Megatron, Kill Him For Me

Chapter 47 – Megatron, Kill Him For Me

Luo Xiaoshan had been following all along.

There was only one thought inside his mind – Luo Tian had to die!

After entering the Ghostly Mountain Range, he found out about Optimus Prime and Bumblebee. But he couldn’t figure out what these two magical iron monsters were.

Luo Xiaoshan couldn’t understand the situation.

He said he was training but why would he just kill demonic beasts like mad?

Was he training his martial skills?

But from beginning to end, Luo Tian never really used any martial skills. Each of his attacks was purely fueled by raw power and he didn't see any profound energy being use. There weren't any profound energy fluctuations either so which Sect's training method was he utilizing?

Luo Tian looked just liked a madman.

Luo Tian was killing demonic beasts without a care for his own life. He had numerous wounds that were still dripping blood and he hadn't even frowned as if he didn't care at all. Within the Ghostly Mountain Range, he just kept releasing his killing intent to attract group after group of demonic beasts. If these weren't actions of a madman, what is?

Who would do stuff like him?

The longer he followed, the more that Luo Xiaoshan couldn't understand why Luo Tian was doing this.

In order to see what Luo Tian was up to, he could only continue following along.

Until just now!

Luo Tian broke through!

The Profound Master's aura that rippled out completely shocked Luo Xiaoshan and made his mind numb. Luo Tian never cultivated so how did he break through?

Could he have broken through from killing demonic beasts?

Then how can this be allowed to go on!

This was why he finally decided to make a sneak attack. A 16 year old Profound Master 1st rank, this was like the birth of an evil omen.

Luo Xiaoshan clearly understood that if he didn't strike now, there won't be any chances in the future!

A chilling sword briefly flashed within the dark forest, and a cold sword light filled with killing intent pierced through. Luo Xiaoshan was brimming with profound energy as his Profound Master 3rd rank oppressive aura surged out. He then roared: "Meteorite Sword!"

"You damn dog thing, go to hell for me!"

Meteorite Sword was the Luo family's only grade 2 sword skill.

Once the sword strikes out, the power is similar to a meteorite crashing down from the sky. Its power is beyond measurable.

The sharpness of this single sword strike was unfathomable.

This sword strike was Luo Xiaoshan's most powerful attack he could muster.

This sword strike would kill no matter what.

The pressure was like a mountain as it crushed down on Luo Tian's mind and sea of consciousness. But fortunately, it wasn't as uncomfortable as in the past since he now had the strength of someone at the Profound Master stage!

This was the benefit of having a higher cultivation realm.

The sword aura pressed down while the formless pressure interfered with Luo Tian's mind.

It was a bit hard to endure when his mind and sea of consciousness were shaking from the pressure. Luo Tian then started coldly laughing as he turned around with a frown. He glared at Luo Xiaoshan who was flying directly at him and smiled, "You damn dog thing, you've finally shown yourself."

"This daddy has been waiting in pain for you for so long!"

His lips were curved into a smile, his body unmoving and his facial expression seemingly very excited.

Luo Tian was aware someone was following him since the beginning. He didn't know who it was but only knew it was someone at the Profound Master realm. That's why he was killing like a madman until he couldn't tell if it was night or day. He kept on killing not daring to rest for even a single second.

He was so tired that he could fall asleep if he just laid on the ground. But of course he didn't dare to fall asleep.

His heart was constantly reminding himself to not fall asleep. He had to use every second to kill monsters and level up. Only when he entered the Profound Master realm will he have the ability to safeguard his own life.

The moment he broke through, he deliberately made it look like he was unfocused to give Luo Xiaoshan the chance to take advantage of it and to attack. He never thought that Luo Xiaoshan would actually fall for it.

Luo Tian started smiling excitedly upon seeing Luo Xiaoshan coming over. "A red named elite monster should explode with some good loots right?"

Luo Xiaoshan's eyes changed as his sword also transformed within the darkness. His sword aura suddenly became as strong as a blazing firework as he cried out: "Die!"

"Die?"

Luo Tian smiled as a sudden breeze blew by. Like a lightning flash, he roared out: "Shadewind Steps!"

A grade 4 martial skill – Shadewind Steps!

Like a shadow, like the wind.

An insubstantial shadow fluttering away like the elusive drifting wind.

As he feet moved, Luo Tian's entire body seemed to have melded into a breeze. His body became illusory where one could not tell where he really was.

"Swish!"

A sword pierced thin air as Luo Xiaoshan's heart sank. His right foot stomped out causing him to quickly leap into the air and land off to the side in a safer area.

"Hahaha..."

"It is indeed Desolate Era's Ji Ning's martial skill, proving its extraordinary ability." Luo Tian excitedly said. He then turned to Luo Xiaoshan who had just landed and said in a playful manner: "Old fogey, continue to come at me."

He did not place Luo Xiaoshan in his eyes at all.

Luo Xiaoshan was completely enraged, cracking noises were heard from him clenching his teeth too hard. Upon glaring at Luo Tian, his right hand holding a sword kept still while his left hand started to make patterns in the air. "Let's see how you're going to dodge this, die for me!"

"Boom!"

A loud sound came from the air before a huge hand appeared floating there.

Also at this moment, Luo Xiaoshan once again pierced his sword towards Luo Tian. This time, the speed of the sword was even faster and fiercer than before.

Two attacks from different directions. Even if one of the attacks doesn't land, the second one will hit its mark. Escaping from one strike may be possible, but it will be impossible to dodge the second strike.

Luo Xiaoshan was forty something years old now. Although one can't say he was a seasoned veteran, at least he was considered to have quite a bit of battle experience.

Luo Tian's eyebrows sank as he heavily exhaled. Just like Luo Xiaoshan, his right hand made a grasping motion and a violent sound was heard.

Immediately after...

He activated the Shadewind Steps as his body melded into the wind. The image of him appeared all over the place before he shot towards Luo Xiaoshan.

"You dare to come at me head on with your Profound Master 1st rank strength? Courting death!"

Luo Xiaoshan coldly humphed before the huge hand in the hand descended grabbing at Luo Tian.

This was an attack made purely of profound energy!

Luo Tian made the same move. The huge hand he manifested with his right hand shot forth intercepting Luo Xiaoshan's. One palm was filled with lightning while the other gave out a tiger's roar before they collided together.

"BOOM~!"

This was without the addition of Berserk...

Luo Xiaoshan was at the Profound Master 3rd rank. To Luo Tian, this was a good opportunity for him to understand the difference between the levels of the Profound Master realm. This will also allow him to understand the difference between him and of the 3rd rank.

This will allow him to fully prepare for the fight against the last boss Luo Jianshan!

"BOOOOM!"

Another sound of collision between the two palms was heard as profound energy raged on pushing at each other.

A few seconds later, Luo Tian's manifested right hand began to disperse while Luo Xiaoshan's manifested right hand depleted a lot of its strength, but still managed to keep its shape.

Luo Tian's pair of fist punched out to take on Luo Xiaoshan's sword strike.

His body shook as he retreated several meters back while Luo Xiaoshan only needed to take 2 steps back to stabilize himself.

There was an obvious strength difference between a Profound Master 1st rank and a 3rd rank. Luo Tian then said to himself: "Sure enough, just a small 2 level gap and the power cannot be measured by common sense."

Luo Xiaoshan coldly smiled with pride, "You dare to fight me with your Profound Master 1st rank strength? Simply overestimating your own abilities!"

Luo Tian reveled in his own strength and continued coldly smiling: "Okay, I don't feel like playing with you anymore. It's time for you to die."

Right after the word "die," Luo Tian internally roared out: "Berserk!"

"Boom..."

His attributes doubled and the energy rippling out of his body was visible to the naked eye. Luo Tian's aura was completely different than before and the oppressive force by Luo Xiaoshan was now useless against him.

This was the power behind Berserk!

In an instant...

Luo Tian smiled ferociously and his body already shot out at shocking speeds. Luo Xiaoshan almost couldn't react in time and was only able to shift his sword in front of his chest with an astonished face.

"Bang!"

The heavy punch was like a cannonball crashing down.

Pain shot into Luo Xiaoshan's chest, and his internal organs felt like it went through an earthquake. His face paled as he retreated before abruptly turning around to escape.

"You want to run?"

"You damn old fogey, after being abused by you for so many years, you actually want to escape now?" Luo Tian instantly caught up to Luo Xiaoshan and appeared in front of him. With a grim smile on his face, Luo Tian's threw out his fists and directly smashed him back to their original positions.

With Berserk's enhancement, Luo Xiaoshan was not Luo Tian's opponent at all.

Luo Xiaoshan was completely steamrolled by Luo Tian.

After receiving another heavy blow, Luo Tian sprayed out a mouthful of black blood. As if his eyes could spray out flames, “Luo Tian, you dare to attempt to kill me? My big brother knows that I’ve been following you. If you dare to kill me, your woman and your brother won’t survive either!”

“You dare to threaten this daddy?”

“F*ck you!”

“You will be the first, and next will be Luo Jianshan.” Luo Tian roared out as if venting all the anger built up in his heart. His pair of fists was like a thunderstorm as it smashed out.

“Boom!”

Luo Xiaoshan was smashed flying off dozens of meters away before smashing into a big tree. His face paled as his mind trembled. To him, looking at Luo Tian right now was like staring at a grim reaper from hell!

Escape!

Since he was already dozens of meters away, Luo Xiaoshan decided to run away like crazy. He was a sorry looking figure as he scrambled to climb back up onto his feet.

Luo Tian coldly laughed and didn’t bother chasing. He brought out a space plaque tossed it out with a roar: “Megatron, kill him for me!”

“Make him explode for me!”

Chapter 48 – Huge Crisis

Chapter 48 – Huge Crisis

“Roar~!”

Domineering without peer, Megatron descended from the sky. Its large iron hands directly reached out and grabbed onto Luo Xiaoshan’s body and lifted it into the air. Its eyes shifted towards Luo Tian waiting for its next command.

“Luo Tian, you can’t kill me. You can’t kill me!”

“I am the Luo family’s Elder; you won’t live much longer after killing me. Your brother, your woman will all be buried with me. Letting me go is your only path!”

“You damn dog thing, did you hear what this daddy said?”

Luo Xiaoshan was extremely scared as he struggled like mad and roared out insanely.

But...

No matter how hard he struggled, Luo Xiaoshan couldn't break free from Megatron's grasp. Being created from fine iron, it was naturally tougher than other materials. Add the fact that Megatron was similar in power to a 3rd rank demonic beast, there was no way an injured Luo Xiaoshan could get away.

One step at a time, Luo Tian walked towards Luo Xiaoshan with a smile like a grim reaper. "This daddy hates being threatened by others. You damn old fogey who's about to die still has such arrogant words? There's only one path for arrogant people towards this daddy, and that's death!"

"You will die, and that evil despicable dog Luo Jianshan will also have to die."

"Your son needs to die, and his son needs to die..."

"Oh yea, I forgot. His son has already died by my fists and there's also that guy called Luo Ming who was played to death by me. That's right, there's still one other..."

Luo Tian looked like he was in thought before slapping his thighs and exclaiming: "Shit, I finally remember now. There's also a piece of trash called Zhou Hengran who was saying he was some elder at the Zhou family. Haha... he too died under my fists."

He no longer cared!

Luo Xiaoshan's heart was beyond shocked from hearing this. And at the same time, his heart ashen.

He never imagined that Luo Lin and Luo Ming would die by Luo Tian's hands. The most shocking part was somehow, the Zhou family's elder Zhou Hengran died as well. What exactly happened here?

What miraculous encounter did Luo Tian have to be able to kill them?

Luo Xiaoshan didn't have time to ponder these questions since he felt that death was near. His face changed from his imminent death before he started begging: "Nephew Luo Tian, I am still your biological uncle. Spare me this time and I won't dare to give you any more trouble in the future. I... I... I will stand by your side from now on. I know a lot of my big brother's secrets, including that year where he schemed and framed you. Your dantian was crippled and your cultivation was destroyed, and I'm clear on how all that happened. Please spare my dog life; I will definitely assist you in gaining the Luo family's Patriarch position..."

“Hey hey, my biological grand uncle. You should’ve known earlier and only now do you feel fear? Have you been eating shit all this time?” Luo Tian ridiculed.

Luo Xiaoshan was truly scared now.

His voice was trembling and even tears streamed out from fear.

But...

His name was still blood red which meant he was only saying these things to protect his own life. Once he was set free, Luo Xiaoshan will most likely retaliate when given a chance.

Luo Tian wasn’t a dummy, how could he let a piece of meat already in his mouth get away?

Do you think this was still fun and games?

“As expected...”

“Everything was schemed by Luo Jianshan.” Luo Tian sneered. He had made this guess early on but it was still considered speculation. Now that this was confirmed, the hatred in his heart deepened a little more. Luo Tian then faintly smiled as he said to himself: “I should really be thanking Luo Jianshan or else I wouldn’t be able to come to this interesting world.”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian made a thought before speaking out loud in a faint but aggressive tone: “Rip him apart!”

“No, no, no, don’t!”

“I still have a lot of secrets about Luo Jianshan. Don’t kill me, don’t...”

“Agghhh...”

A mournful scream was heard. Luo Xiaoshan’s body had been ripped apart in two by Megatron as his blood showered the entire ground.

It was also at this time...

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Luo Xiaoshan. You have gained 1000 experience points, 100 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Meteorite Sword Skill.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a Devouring Spirit pill.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining...”

A series of system alerts sounded off in Luo Tian’s mind. As he listened carefully, he was a bit disappointed with the loot explosion. Luo Tian then fiercely kicked half of Luo Xiaoshan’s corpse and said in contempt: “Shit, you damn poor bastard! You still consider yourself an elite monster with these types of shitty goods?”

It was too f*cking disappointing!

But...

Even though he was disappointed, it was still good that he got rid of this annoying fly Luo Xiaoshan. At least he will no longer have to hear him going bla bla bla all the time.

Recalling Luo Xiaoshan’s words, Luo Tian’s eyes changed as he cursed out: “Luo Jianshan you bastard of a f*cking dog, you don’t even deserve to be a f*cking dog. You can only be the bastard of one! Just you wait you damn old fogey, watch how this daddy will take care of you when I return!”

After resting for a while...

Luo Tian stood on top of Optimus Prime’s shoulder and waved his arm in a domineering manner: “Autobots, kill for me!”

Three huge iron monsters started rushing into the depths of the dark Ghostly Mountain Range.

Another round of massacring feast had begun!

His experience bar was soaring, his profound energy was soaring, and Luo Tian’s willpower was increasing at an unprecedented rate!

Luo Tian was exhausted from two days and two nights of nonstop killing. But he was also excited when he thought back to Luo Jianshan’s whole body glittering in an eye piercing golden light. He could barely contain himself as this was simply too enticing.

It was about half an hour later after Luo Tian left the area of Luo Xiaoshan’s corpse when a shadow descended.

Standing next to Luo Xiaoshan's corpse, this person gasped as he looked on in shock. "Such power, such strong iron war pets. This Luo Tian is a dangerous individual. It was fortunate I had been concealing my aura all this time or else I might have ended up like this guy."

"I have to quickly report this to the Patriarch so we can make the preparations as soon as possible!"

"Swoosh!"

The shadow sped off and disappeared within the dark forest.

Luo Tian never expected that Luo Jianshan had sent two people to follow him.

This was an unexpected move.

Luo Jianshan was an old timer when it came to schemes. He was clear that Luo Xiaoshan may make a move against Luo Tian so he sent another person to track them both while surveilling Luo Xiaoshan. Luo Jianshan was worried that once Luo Tian died, Luo Xiaoshan might discover the Furious Thunder Bull's demon core and decide to covet it himself.

What he never imagined was that Luo Xiaoshan would die by Luo Tian's hand!

What Luo Jianshan would later realize and not expect was his son had truly died by Luo Tian's hands. Luo Ming and the Zhou family's Zhou Hengran had also died by Luo Tian's hands as well.

All of this would make a trace of fear rise out of Luo Jianshan's heart.

It was also this moment that Luo Jianshan gained a new understanding of Luo Tian's strength. He would then start re-calculating his plans...

Luo family, Luo Jianshan's room.

A candle light was flicking from the breeze blowing through the window. The flickering candle light revealed Luo Jianshan's cold looking facial expression.

Apart from his cold expression, there were also two lines of dried up tears.

He was clenching his fists while his sleeves fluttered without any wind about. His whole body emitted a strong killing intent that contained a hint of brutal rage.

This aura filled every corner of the room, causing the disciple who was that previous shadow to pale in the face. Sweat dripped down him like rain as he struggled to stay upright. Under the pressure of someone at the Profound Master 9th rank, he couldn't speak at all. There was many times where he tried opening his mouth to say something but not a sound came out.

The strength of a Profound Master 9th rank was at the peak – it was peerless in this area!

A while later...

Luo Jianshan reverted back to his calm looking face and the killing intent disappeared without a trace. It looked like he had calmed down but in fact; the rage in his heart was burning even stronger.

“Patriarch, do we need to make a move against Feng Lei and that girl?”

“No need, just pretending none of this has happened. They are still my very important ‘guests’ so take care of them accordingly!” Luo Jianshan then narrowed his eyes and continued: “Go to the Zhou family and notify them that I have news regarding Zhou Hengran.”

“This disciple obeys.”

The disciple in black clothing cupped his hands before quickly leaving the room.

Luo Jianshan stared out the window into the dark night. His face had an extremely hideous look as he grimly said: “Lin Er, I will definitely avenge you. I will bury his girl along with you. I will make his brother a slave for you in the afterlife. I will destroy Luo Tian’s soul so that he can’t enter hell even if he wanted to!”

“Father will swear this blood oath that I will definitely accomplish it!”

Chapter 49 – The Shit Eating Youth Has Come Again

Chapter 49 – The Shit Eating Youth Has Come Again

Within the Ghostly Mountain Range...

Luo Tian had forgotten about everything and just kept killing non-stop. He was killing like mad and like a demon.

In order to continue living...

In order for Luo Jianshan to lose face...

For Feng Lei, for Li Xue’er, for all the Luo family disciples that were on his side, and in order to kill the last boss, Luo Tian desperately strived to become stronger.

One human and three iron monsters were in the outer periphery of the Ghostly Mountain Range, running around like crazy in a raging arrogant and rampant manner.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Thunderous Wind Beast. You have gained 350 experience points, 35 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the blood essence of the Thunderous Wind Beast, Ten Thousand Beast Bloodline value +1.”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player...”

“Ding...”

The System alerts were like a machine that didn't stop sounding off. The constant ringing was irritating to the ears but it made Luo Tian extremely excited.

His experience bar was soaring, his profound energy was increasing, his willpower was continuously being enhanced, and he kept on get more blood essence for the Ten Thousand Beast bloodline.

It was a bloody killing field for Luo Tian who struggled to level up.

One day...

Two days...

Three days...

There was no sense of day or night as he killed. He never rested so his entire body was beyond exhausted. Luo Tian didn't dare to stop and used every single second to level up. Every single experience point was important and every point of profound energy could determine whether he lives or die. Because of this, he kept on killing on a path of insanity...

A 4th rank demonic beast was a peerless existence.

In order to survive, he had to become much stronger.

After the 4th rank demonic beast would be Luo Jianshan!

The last boss, this time he had to f*ck him up!

“Kill!”

Luo Tian’s slightly hoarse voice roared out. The blood that covered his whole body like a suit of armor gave off a chilled light as it reflected off the sun. This light was similar to a light of death that shone out of hell.

Hearing this command from Luo Tian, the three iron monsters – Optimus Prime, Bumblebee, and Megatron all rushed into the tide of demonic beasts like mighty Generals.

“Level up... level up...”

“I have to quickly level up!”

Time flew by and it was already 8 days later. The day after was when Luo Tian was to fight with a 4th rank demonic beast in the battle arena.

As it neared the evening, the setting sun was like a globe of blood. Jade Mountain City looked like it was shrouded in blood from the red sun’s glare, causing some people to feel a tinge of nervousness.

The betting station at the battle arena.

“I bet 100 taels of silver that Luo Tian loses.”

“I bet 30 taels of silver that Luo Tian won’t survive for more than a minute.”

“I bet 70 taels of silver...”

“That kid Luo Tian is definitely going to die and we’re going to make a heap of money. We should really be thanking him, hahaha...”

“His dantian was crippled and his cultivation wasted. Even if his dantian was miraculously restored, his cultivation still wouldn’t be that high. Daring to fight a 4th rank demonic beast? He practically has one foot in the grave already.”

“Haha... did you hear? Eight days ago, that trash Luo Tian went to train in the Ghostly Mountain Range and still hasn’t returned. Could he have been eaten by a demonic beast?”

“Who cares? We will still win the bet if he doesn’t appear. Dying earlier or dying later makes no difference; it’s still the same outcome.”

The gambling stakes was started by Jade Mountain City's battle arena.

There was a huge hype about Luo Tian challenging a 4th rank demonic beast at the battle arena, so it was natural everyone in the Jade Mountain City knew. There were even some people that came from larger cities over a thousand miles away who had come to spectate and wager some bets.

The odds were 1:10.

Luo Tian was the 1 and the 4th rank demonic beast was the 10. These odds were basically one sided and within the past half a month, there was less than 10 taels of silver on Luo Tian winning.

This happened to be the people who had accidentally put their money on him and it couldn't be refunded.

The battle arena was something where pretty much every city would have one. It was designed for human entertainment, gambling, and was a lucrative money making machine. All these battle arenas were controlled by a mysterious organization. The power they possessed was huge, and no one has ever known where their headquarters were or who their boss was.

At this time...

Inside a luxury room within the battle arena.

Several senior management personnel showed cold sweat on their foreheads.

"The bets on the demonic beast are increasing like crazy and will soon break the million mark. If this continues, we'll have to pay out all the income we've gained this year."

"General Manger Li, should we slip the demonic beast a little something? I know of a drug that can continuously lower the strength of a demonic beast. That way, we can..."

"Shut up, our Violet organization never cheats. If you dare to mention this again, immediately get the f*ck out!"

"Yes, yes, yes!"

The several senior management maintained their silence not daring to make a single sound.

Li Gui clasped his hands behind his back and looked out of the room at the blood red sky. His brows formed a slight frown as he softly said to himself: "Third young miss, what on earth are you up to? Do you really think that kid can beat a 4th rank demonic beast? This is absolutely impossible."

“Our Violet organization has never made a losing transaction. This time I’m afraid...”

Li Gui sighed in his heart.

Suddenly...

The sound of rapid knocking was heard in the luxury room. Without waiting for someone from the inside to open it, a man drenched in sweat burst through the door.

The people inside the room all frowned, and just when someone was about to curse out, the man was the first to speak up: “General... General Manager Li, so... someone has placed a bet of ten xuan stones.”

“What?”

“Who is capable of such a lavish move in this little Jade Mountain City?”

“Even if the four major families combined their net worth, they still wouldn’t be able to come up with ten xuan stones. Who on earth could it be?”

“We’re screwed; our losses are going to become even worse.”

The faces on these people darkened further since the profits of the battle arena were directly related to their bonus. They couldn’t understand why this fight was publicized with such fanfare that it even spread beyond a thousand miles from here. Even the royal capital Heavenly Sword City knew about it.

What was this all about?

Nobody here knew, not even Li Gui. He was merely here to execute the orders from up top.

Li Gui frowned even more and asked: “Did you get a clear look at who it was?”

The man shook his head, “No, that person was dressed in an all black cloak so I couldn’t see the face. The only thing that I’m sure of is that the person was a woman.”

“A woman?”

“Hearing her voice, it’s more likely that she was a young girl.”

“A young girl?”

The man then thought of something and continued: “She placed her bets on Luo Tian.”

“Luo Tian? Ten xuan stones? Hahaha...”

“The Gods are looking after us! This time we’re going to gain a huge profit.”

“That girl is practically our savior.”

For the time being, there were sounds of laughter inside the luxury room. Li Gui’s heart also loosened up as a faint smile appeared on his face.

The Luo family.

Within Luo Tian’s simple horse stable courtyard.

Li Xue’er came out of her room in a white dress that was particularly beautiful with the blood red sun as the backdrop.

She sat down on a stone bench in the yard while drumming her cheeks. Li Xue’er was staring at the yard’s entrance and would from time to time mutter: “Big brother Luo Tian, how come you still haven’t returned? Xue’er misses you...”

On the stone steps of the courtyard entrance, Feng Lei sat there motionless like a security guard with a bland look.

The deadline is almost up!

Since Luo Tian still hasn’t appeared, the two of them started to worry.

“It can’t go on like this!”

“This one will go out to look for the boss!” Feng Lei immediately stood up with determination and was about to rush out.

Seeing Feng Lei’s sudden change, Li Xue’er ran after him and said: “I’ll go too.”

Before the two were even able to leave the horse stables, they were surrounded by a group of people led by the Second Elder’s son – Luo Chen!

“You two better not think about even taking a step out of this place.”

Luo Chen blocked Feng Lei and Li Xue’er’s path and coldly sneered, “That piece of damn trash Luo Tian probably died in the Ghostly Mountain Range, that’s why he still hasn’t returned. Another reason is that maybe he has already left you two here and escaped on his own, or else he should be back by now.”

“My boss will never die!” Feng Lei angrily retorted.

Li Xue’er also anxiously interjected: “Big brother Luo Tian will never leave us here and escape on his own, humph!”

“If he really hasn’t run away, I’ll eat that pile of shit on the ground.” Luo Chen pointed at a lump of horse manure near his foot.

“What the f*ck?!”

“I’ve seen perverted people before but never to this perverseness. He actually became addicted to eating shit!”

A silhouette started drawing near as a voice was heard in the darkening skies. The person had a sneer on his face and was exuding an endless domineering aura.

Feng Lei scratched his head with a goofy grin on his face.

Li Xue’er also smiled; her dimples appeared making her look extremely cute.

Luo Chen was dumbfounded. The surrounding Luo family elite disciples were also dumbfounded.

Luo Tian appeared before them as he seriously glanced at Feng Lei. Their eyes met but no words were needed between brothers. He then used his index finger to gently pat Li Xue’er’s nose, “Little girl, did you miss me?”

“En! Missed you a lot.” Li Xue’er obediently nodded while tears almost came out of her eyes.

Seeing her adorable look, Luo Tian wanted to pull her in for an embrace. He really really wanted to but in the end, he endured against the desire.

Seeing that those two were safe and sound, his heart was relieved. Luo Tian then turned towards Luo Chen and grinned, “Fatty Lei, what are you waiting for? Deliver the shit!”

Chapter 50 – Extremely Sinister

“Fatty Lei, make him eat that horse shit!”

“Understood!”

Feng Lei grabbed a shovel that was solely used to get rid of horse manure. He then scooped up the horse shit without leaving anything behind and brought it up to Luo Chen’s face with a grin. “Eat it!”

Luo Chen’s face paled as he glared at Luo Tian. He then flicked his sleeves and gloomily said: “We’re leaving!”

“Motherf*cker, you want to leave?”

“If you don’t eat this pile of shit today, this daddy will see if you have the capability of leaving!” Luo Tian coldly smiled and had an expression that if Luo Chen didn’t start eating, he would beat the shit out of him.

The strength of the surrounding six core disciples weren’t low.

With them here, it was natural that Luo Chen wasn’t afraid. He then laughed in disdain, “Luo Tian, don’t think you’re all that. Others might be scared of you but I, Luo Chen am not.”

After saying that, he made an eye movement.

The surrounding six people took a step forward and glared at Luo Tian with a comedic expression.

“Oh? They all seem to be core disciples right?”

“There’s so many of them, I’m really so cared.” Luo Tian faintly grinned.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian’s eyes landed on Feng Lei.

Feng Lei understood the look and whistled into the air. “Fellow brothers, come on out for me!”

“Thump, thump, thump....”

“Thump, thump...”

From the surrounding area, dozens upon dozens of outer sect Luo family disciples poured in like water. They quickly surrounded Luo Chen and the core disciples before giving Luo Tian a firm look. They then all bowed at the same time and said in unison: “Boss!”

Their voices were like thunder and their momentum unstoppable.

That cold and firm cry of “boss” almost scared Luo Tian into jumping out of his skin. He then said to himself: “Shit, this is just like the Chinese triad gangs in the movies!”

He rolled his eyes at Feng Lei and cursed out softly: “Fatty Lei, what the hell did you do?”

Feng Lei then grinned foolishly, “Boss, my training isn’t bad huh? Ho ho ho...”

“Not bad your big ass head, almost gave me a scare.” Luo Tian then pretended to be angry and smiled to the crowd. “Fellow brothers, Luo Chen bullied me by having more people on his side. What do you guys think we should do?”

This crowd of people were all the Luo family disciples that were at the hunting contest grounds.

These past eight days, Feng Lei was training them in secret. Luo Tian never imagined the damn fatty Feng Lei would train them into military like delinquent gang members.

Gang members weren't scary, but gang members that acted like the military would definitely be incredible.

In this regard, Luo Tian's heart was quite satisfied with the outcome.

Everyone's eyes landed on Luo Chen without saying a word. All they did was just glare at him.

Being glared by several dozens of eyes, Luo Chen's hair stood on its end. His voice was fluttering a bit as he said: “Luo Tian, what are you planning on doing? Are you going to rebel against the family?”

“I'm not really doing anything; I just want you to finish this pile of shit.” Luo Tian smiled in reply.

Luo Chen's face changed as he angrily said: “Luo Tian you damn dog thing, did you forget who my father is? Last time you were fortunate to escape with your life at the martial training grounds. If you dare to touch a single hair on me today, I will immediately have my father slap you into a cripple.”

“Cripple me?”

“F*ck your mom!”

Luo Tian was immediately filled with rage as he threw out a slap.

“Pak!”

Five red fingerprints appeared on Luo Chen's cheeks as his entire body fell down next to the shovel of shit. The eyes of the surrounding six core disciples sank as they clenched their fists and were about to take action.

Luo Tian swept his right index finger at the core disciples and domineeringly yelled: “Motherf*ckers, which one of you dares to make a single movement?”

As he said this...

The aura of a Profound Master exploded forth – completely arrogant and filled with recklessness!

The expression on the six quickly changed and they didn't dare to make any sudden movements. Even though they wanted to help Luo Chen regain his reputation, they realized their life was more important. Without one's life, everything else was just a dog's fart!

Luo Chen on the ground was being oppressed by Luo Tian's aura to the point that he could barely breathe. His mind froze while he kept muttering to himself: "Impossible, impossible, it's absolutely impossible..."

How was it possible to break through into the Profound Master realm in a short half a month?

Even if it was a super rare, once every ten millennia genius wouldn't be able to do it. So how was it possible for the piece of trash Luo Tian who had his dantian crippled accomplish it?

But the facts were in front of his face; this was indeed the aura of a Profound Master and it cannot be faked. This made Luo Chen's heart sink into the depths of the abyss.

Luo Tian lowered himself down and grabbed Luo Chen's hair. He then said with a fierce grin: "This daddy will ask you one more time: Are you going to eat it or not?"

"I..."

Luo Chen's whole body was shaking as he looked at the pile of horse shit that weighed at least 2 kilograms. His stomach started churning and he was speechless for the time being.

Luo Tian let go of Luo Chen's hair and coldly smiled, "Shove it in for me!"

Luo Tian was never soft when dealing with his enemies!

There was no doubt that Luo Changshan had gone over to Luo Jianshan's side. Not only was he dealing with Luo Jianshan now, he was pretty much going against the entire Luo family.

Since Luo Tian had determined who his enemies were, then he had to beat them all to the ground and not give them a chance to get back up.

Of course...

Right now wasn't the time to break off all relations or else it wouldn't be as simple as making Luo Chen eat some shit.

This time Luo Tian was just giving them a glimpse of his power so that the Luo family will receive the message. This daddy has returned so you guys better wash your butts and be ready for this daddy to explode it!

Not long after, Luo Chen's mouth was filled with horse shit and he had already fainted from it.

Even at this point, no one stopped. They kept shoving the horse shit into Luo Chen's mouth until not a speck was left before they ceased their actions.

Luo Tian waved his hand and smiled, "Good enough! Bring this message back to your master: It was Luo Chen that wanted to eat shit and I was merely fulfilling his little wish."

Immediately after...

The six core disciples with pale faces supported Luo Chen up and darted out of the area.

"Outrageous!"

Luo Changshan's anger had reached the heavens as he slapped down on a mahogany table and shattering it into pieces. His eyes looked like it could spray out flames as he said: "Luo Tian, this old man will never rest until he tears your corpse into thousands of pieces!"

"Father... father, kill him. I want you to kill him..."

"Blurgh..."

Luo Chen once again threw up. The entire room had the smell of horse manure making anyone in it nauseous.

After eating shit twice, Luo Chen had completely lost all face. Not only in the Luo family, but everyone in the Jade Mountain City were laughing at him. Luo Chen even developed an inner mental demon because of Luo Tian, making him half a step into a crippled state.

Luo Changshan was beyond furious as he emitted thick killing intent. He then turned around and walked out of the room in large strides.

Just upon leaving his courtyard, he was blocked by Luo Jianshan who had quickly rushed over.

“Don’t stop me! This time no matter what, I’m going to kill him!” Luo Changshan said in full fury.

“He will die tomorrow!”

“Not even dregs will be left of him, this I guarantee to you!” Luo Jianshan then continued: “Back then he became a beggar in front of the entire city. Tomorrow he will die without a burial in front of the entire city as well.”

“That kid has already broken through to the Profound Master realm so how can you still be so sure?” Luo Changshan asked.

Luo Jianshan lightly smiled before mysteriously saying: “Do you know what demonic beast it will be this time?”

Luo Changshan’s eyes tightened. Before the fight starts, no one would know what sort of demonic beast it would be because the Violet organization’s battle arena had strict security measures in place. He couldn’t help but ask: “What?”

Luo Jianshan replied: “It’s a huge Lava Lizard!”

“Lava Lizard?” Luo Changshan’s body couldn’t help but shiver before thinking back to the catastrophe that happened a hundred years ago in the Jade Mountain City. A huge Lava Lizard destroyed half the city and killed hundreds of thousands of civilians. The four major families suffered countless casualties and almost ceased to exist, yet they still couldn’t kill it in the end.

“The huge lizard planned is a descendant of it.”

“What?!”

Luo Changshan once again revealed a shocked expression as he mumbled: “If that’s the case, then Luo Tian will definitely die.”

“I will tell you one other thing...”

Luo Jianshan lowered his voice and said in a grim manner: “I had some people do something to the huge lizard. Tomorrow in the arena, it will explode forth with the terrifying power of a 5th rank demonic beast...”
