Chapter 521 – Motherf*cker, Now I'm Really Angry

What is considered a huge God?

A Titan!

When Luo Tian gained the Titan race's bestowment, he gained the Titan God's Body, Titan God's Might, and Titan God's Soul. These were all powers belonging to the Titan race. Especially Titan God's Body that possessed a defensive property thicker than the heavens. After traveling for half a month, Luo Tian was more proficient in developing the defensive abilities of the Titan race.

He could activate Titan's Defensive Form!

What is this so-called Titan's Defensive Form?

It's like the possession by a Titan!

Luo Tian roared out and his body instantly turned incredibly large in front of everyone's eyes. His whole body looked like it had turned into a metallic material while his body exuded an energy depicting the definition of defense.

The three attacks landed!

"Gong~, gong~, gong~ ..."

It was similar to the sound of something pounding against a thick slab of metal.

Their arms turned numb and the force of the counter-shock almost broke their arms! This was an extremely unpleasant feeling!

They were instantly smashed flying back from the counter-shock.

Whereas Luo Tian's body kept charging forward and his Skysoul Palm accurately struck his target, Lin Hong.

"Bang~!"

"Boom~!"

Under the power of the palm strike, Lin Hong was smashed flying and continuously broke four large trees apart before dropping down from the air.

His body twitched a few times before there was no more sound coming from him.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Lin Hong. You have gained 180,000 experience points, 18,000 immortal force..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining..."

Several alert tones sounded off.

Luo Tian turned around with killing intent in his gaze. The moment he turned, the sound of water crashing down was heard. A huge phantom image of a Titan turned around imitating Luo Tian's actions. Its eyes were like torches as it glared at the three of them.

Luo Tian smiled in disdain before saying: "Come! Come again! Do you think this daddy would be afraid of you four working together?! Why don't you take a look at your cultivation realms first?! And you wish to show off and act arrogant in front of this daddy?!"

Qi Ming's expression drastically changed. When he looked at Luo Tian's huge body, he could feel an especially fierce oppression strike his heart. His hands were red and his arms were still trembling a bit. He struggled to spit out two words: "A Titan?"

He wasn't sure.

But Luo Tian's actual body didn't really transform, yet in their eyes, he was similar to a large towering building. Only those of the Titan race would have this kind of power!

Ji Tian's expression hiddenly changed. He glanced over at Qi Ming and Luo Feng and asked: "Brother Qi, brother Luo, what is this Titan race? It looks like we'll have a difficult time trying to break this kid's defense."

Qi Ming's brows were locked together and replied: "The Titan race was once the rulers of this continent. But something unknown happened and the Titan race's population started declining. They completely disappeared from this continent ten thousand years ago. Who would've imagined that this kid would gain the divine strength of the Titan race? Brother Ji, the situation has turned rather thorny now. How about we..."

The previous defensive powers gave him a trace of fear.

The three of them were clear that even though they didn't use all their strength, they used at least 70%. Three different attacks landed on Luo Tian's body yet he looked like nothing was done to him. Even if they did use 100% of their powers, it looks like it would still be useless.

How can they kill him if they can't break through his defense?

Ji Tian's brows furrowed and was thinking for a brief moment. He then said: "Fine!"

Suddenly...

Ji Tian ordered with a shout: "Assassins of Heaven Opening Manor, listen to my command! Suicide attacks!"

Ji Yuan was startled and said: “Big brother, they are all the elites of our Heaven Opening Manor.”

“Second Noble, our four great immortal sects will definitely compensate your family. Before we came out, Elder Yang already said that if our losses are too great, the four great immortal sects will compensate your Heaven Opening Manor with enough inner cores.”

“I also know that it wasn’t easy for Heaven Opening Manor to cultivate these assassins. But if we don’t utilize such a move, there’s no way we can kill him. We might even perish here if that’s the case.” Qi Ming immediately added.

They were very clear...

These Heaven Opening Manor assassins had trained in a very unique martial skill.

Self-detonation!

Self-destructing their soul!

Focusing all the power one had to the highest level, then charge toward their enemy and initiate a self-detonation.

The self-detonation force of a Profound Venerate ranker can seriously injure a Profound Saint expert! This was the strongest trump card these Heaven Opening Manor assassins had!

There were over a hundred assassins in the surrounding. If they all initiated a self-detonation, not to mention a Titan’s body, even if a real member of the Titan race would be blown up into powder.

All of this was within the calculations of Yang Jin!

Ji Tian was out of options.

He had no other choices to take.

If he doesn't use the self-detonation move, he really didn't know if he could kill Luo Tian. Whenever he thought of his third brother Ji Ao's death, the hatred he had for Luo Tian went off the charts! He had to kill him!

Little Xie immediately moved with all his might.

He instantly jumped up and landed next to Luo Tian. "They're going to use a suicidal attack. No matter how strong one's defenses are, this style of attack is extremely difficult to resist. Moreover, there are over a hundred assassins here. If they all exploded together, maybe even the entire Dark Forest would be destroyed. You have to run!"

"Run?!"

"Kid, it's too late now."

"After killing Third Noble and not even leaving an intact corpse, you then seriously injured Second Noble. And you want to run at this point? I'm going to tell you now that you don't even have a path to hell anymore. Your soul will disintegrate into nothing." Qi Ming said this in a serious manner and especially emphasized the words "killing Third Noble."

Ji Yuan then roared out: "Kill!"

The Heaven Opening Manor assassins didn't hesitate and charged towards the three.

Their bodies turned crimson red.

The power inside them started expanding. Their souls, their sea of consciousness, internal organs, and every part of their body was filled to the brim with power. This kind of power was similar 10,000 ton explosive force heading straight for Luo Tian!

Luo Tian's expression hiddenly changed. He grabbed out and pulled Little Xie towards him. He then turned around and planned to use his back to block the impact of the self explosion force. His brains were running overtime to think of a solution to all of this.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

The three nearest assassins detonated their souls! They showed no hesitation at all!

Ever since they became an assassin for Heaven Opening Manor, they were instilled with a single thought – their lives weren't theirs anymore and it belonged to Heaven Opening Manor. They wouldn't frown no matter what they were told to do. They were death warriors (death sworn)!

"Ommm~... ommm~..."

Luo Tian's body slid forward and his Titan's Defensive Form was shaking violently. He then said to himself: "Damn! The force of this self explosion is terrifying! If three people are already this powerful, then there's no way I can block it if eight to ten of them come at me together!"

"No way!"

"If this continues, I'll be exhausted to death even if I don't die from it."

Luo Tian's nerves tightened.

When Qi Ming noticed Luo Tian was shaken to this degree, he started laughing excitedly. "Hahaha... Trash from Mount Hua Immortal Sect, why don't you keep acting arrogant? I really want to see how arrogant you can get! Brother Ji, he's scared now. You should have ten people go up now. We can definitely blow him up until he blooms flowers, hahaha..."

Even though Ji Tian was unhappy about this, he was out of options. He then chuckled internally: "Giving this daddy commands, huh? Once this daddy destroys the kid, the next ones will be you guys."

Immediately after...

Ji Tian's gaze changed as he shouted: "Ten people attack!"

At this instant...

Chapter 522 – Sharingan, Illusions

The detonation of one's soul was similar to missiles exploding on your body.

Luo Tian could barely resist this destructive impact force.

However...

This wasn't the reason he was angry.

These people were all at the Profound Venerate realm! They were worth experience points, immortal force, and most importantly undefeated points! For them to commit suicide by self-detonation, isn't this considered wasting natural resources?

His heart was aching!

Luo Tian turned around and his gaze turned gloomy. He pulled back his senses and this in turn pulled back the Titan's Defensive Form around him.

He cracked his neck a bit.

“Crack~, crack~”

He then cracked the joints in his hands and another series of cracks were heard.

He did some lunges and relaxed his whole body.

Under the circulation of Luo Tian’s powers, his relaxed body instantly snapped back to tautness like a bow. His body had become a bow that was fully drawn into a crescent moon, where a slight movement would allow him to release a powerful force.

“Hahaha...”

“This trash seems to have pulled back his defenses.”

“With the self-detonation of the soul, he will be blown sky-high at this point.”

“He gave up resisting.”

Qi Ming had a smug expression before ridiculing: “Trash of Mount Hua Immortal Sect, now you understand how powerful the self-detonation of one’s soul is, huh? It’s too late for regret now. You’re about to be blown into powder and not even a single piece of intact bone will be left behind.”

Luo Feng also chuckled smugly and said loudly: “One look at his physiognomy and you can tell his life will be short. There’s only one outcome for those that oppose us, and that’s death. A trashy immortal sect like Mount Hua Immortal Sect will naturally groom trashy disciples.”

Ji Tian’s brows furrowed before he said through clenched teeth: “Kid, give me back my third brother’s life!”

Right after that...

Ji Tian waved his hand and shouted: "Blow him up for me!"

Off at a distance.

Qin Changtian loudly cheered: "Big brother Luo Tian! Go, go, go!"

Little Xie was protecting him while the icy evil intent covered his entire body. He continuously watched his surroundings with caution and couldn't be negligent after Luo Tian handed Qin Changtian to him. He had no wariness towards Luo Tian anymore.

He realized Luo Tian and the people from the four great immortal sects were truly not the same.

Right beneath a large tree, Qin San was secretly feeling abashed and was apologetic towards Luo Tian. While looking at Luo Tian's back, he mumbled: "I'm sorry..."

He then looked over at Ji Tian, Qi Ming, Luo Feng, and then Ji Yuan. Luo Tian then said playfully: "I will take care of each one of you and you can forget about running away. You want to act arrogant in front of me? You will know my capabilities very soon!"

Before his voice faded...

The ten assassins already charged out.

Qi Ming coldly chuckled and said: "If this can't bomb you to death, this daddy will take your surname!"

Ji Tian's face showed his cold arrogance, "Third brother, your older brother has avenged you."

Luo Feng showed a fierce smile and said: "Damn trash from Mount Hua Immortal Sect."

The moment the ten assassins moved, Luo Tian's gaze turned gloomy. His taut body was similar to a bullet as it shot out towards them. His hands turned to a claw form and grasped out into the void. Blades formed by energy appeared on the tips of his fingers. His gaze tightened as he shouted into the air: "Die for me!"

Ten fingers containing ten streams of energy!

A pure energy attack!

They instantly shot out!

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

Every stream of energy precisely struck down an assassin, similar to shooting down birds from the air!

Up in the sky...

One after another, bodies started falling down. In less than a second, ten assassins were all instantly killed by Luo Tian. When they fell from the air, they were crumpled on the ground without the sign of life.

Ten system alert tones sounded off inside Luo Tian's mind.

There weren't that many experience points.

But no matter how small mosquitoes were, they still had a bit of meat on them.

The ten people added together gave him about 100,000 experience points.

The surrounding people were dumbstruck by this!

Qi Ming's eyes almost bulged out of his head. He turned to Ji Tian in a stiff manner and asked: "How, how, how did it turn out like this? Isn't the self-detonation of one's soul an invincible move by Heaven Opening Manor's assassins? How... how did it turn out like this?"

Luo Tian started laughing arrogantly, "With just this amount of power? Completely not enough! Let some more come at me or else it won't be enough to fill the gaps of this daddy's teeth!"

Arrogance!

Overbearing and wild arrogance!

They couldn't understand.

They had no clue what just happened.

A few seconds ago, their expressions were extremely smug and arrogant. Looking at Luo Tian was just like staring at an already dead person, but their expressions now were so ugly that it looked like they had just swallowed a hundred flies.

Ji Tian was clenching his teeth so hard that cracking sounds could be heard, and his eyes looked like flames could spray out of them. The weakness of self-detonating one's soul is that the cultivation realm of his assassins was too low and their speed couldn't catch up. Inflating all of their energy to the brim required a bit of time.

It was exactly this little bit of time that became their weakness!

Who would've imagined...

Luo Tian could find this out so quickly!

But...

Ji Tian wouldn't admit his loss just because of that. He then shouted: "Fifty people charge at him together!"

"That's right!"

"Have a few more go up. No matter how fast he is, there's no way he can kill fifty people all at once. The previous ten people should already be his limit, so I refuse to believe his speed can exceed that." Qi Ming said this in anger.

Luo Tian smiled smugly and said: "Come, come, come! Fifty people are too little. You guys come as well. Four great immortal sects; Heaven Opening Manor; aren't you all the overlords of this area?"

"Aren't you guys supposed to join hands to attack me?"

"Come at me! Or are you guys afraid or something?"

"How shameless can you guys get to let these death warriors lose their lives so easily? And you guys call yourselves experts at the Profound Saint realm. From the way I see it, you guys are experts at dog shit. A bunch of old middle-aged men with faces thicker than the city walls, you guys are truly too f*cking shameless!"

Scolding and cursing.

No matter what...

Luo Tian looked down on people like them.

The so-called Profound Saint experts were way too shameless.

Luo Tian completely looked down on people like them!

Qi Ming's expression turned unsightly. His eyes were glaring at Luo Tian like he wanted to swallow him whole.

Luo Tian didn't even look at him and just ignored him!

Four great immortal sects?

They were all a bunch of sinister and despicable fellows!

They wanted to act despicably?

Luo Tian could be even more despicable, more sinister, and more shameless than them. When facing the fifty assassins charging over, Luo Tian flicked his sleeves and said coldly: "I will let you guys experience the power behind a self-detonating soul as well."

"Kill him for me!" Ji Tian roared out in anger.

Those fifty assassins didn't hesitate and inflated all the energy inside themselves. Their bodies turned crimson red as they charged towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian's eyes trembled and his pupils instantly changed, displaying the level 2 comma-shaped appearance. He then said with a cold smile: "Sharingan, Illusions!"

"Ommm~!"

The world around those fifty assassins turned blood red.

Dark, cold, and filled with killing intent.

They all fell under Luo Tian's illusion.

This was the second evolution of Sharingan – Illusions!

Chapter 523 – All The Bosses Moving Ou

The illusion was cast.

The scene inside the eyes of the fifty assassins had changed.

Luo Tian became their owner.

Ji Tian became Luo Tian.

Suddenly...

Fifty people quickly changed directions and rushed towards Ji Tian and the others!

As for losing experience points...

Luo Tian wasn't concerned anymore because he was using his illusion, and these people will die from attacks because of it. He wasn't going to be missing a single experience point, immortal force, or undefeated points.

"What's going on?"

“Brother Ji, what the hell are you doing?!”

“Quickly make them run away, quick!”

Qi Ming’s expression drastically changed.

Ji Tian had an unsightly look on his face as he shouted: “What are you guys doing?! Luo Tian is over that way! I am your owner! Do all you damn dog things wish to die or something?!”

A loud scolding!

But those assassins didn’t hear a thing. After falling prey to Sharingan’s illusion, there’s no way they can break out of it with their current cultivation realm.

In an instant...

The scene looked like chickens and dogs fleeing for their lives. The four great immortal sect disciples and the guards around Ji Tian ran like they had just seen a ghost. Their actions were embarrassing to the extreme!

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

“This is so much fun! So much fun!” Qin Changtian was the first to clap his hands and laugh out loud. “Big brother Luo Tian, you’re too great! Look how they’ve been scared to the point of running all over the place. Hahaha... this is too much fun!”

Little Xie’s gaze tightened. When he looked over at Luo Tian’s back, he really couldn’t see through this person. “Who is he really? Is he really a disciple from Mount Hua Immortal Sect? Didn’t rumors say that Mount Hua Immortal Sect is in a state of decline and can’t even find any disciples to participate in the immortal sect competition? How could they have such a powerful person amongst their ranks? And what kind of martial skill did he just use? How come even I can't see through this? His eyes are very unique... even an expert from the devil sect wouldn't have this kind of capability, right?"

His heart was in a mess.

He couldn't figure out what kind of martial skill Luo Tian had just used.

He had knowledge of every martial skill in this world but he was unfamiliar with the skills Luo Tian displayed. He had never seen the Titan's Defensive Form nor had he seen Revolving Slash. Luo Tian didn't do anything previously yet the behaviors of these assassins suddenly changed. He was sure this was some type of supreme martial skill he hadn't seen before either.

He has collected and looked through tens of thousands of martial skills in this world, but he has never seen anything Luo Tian cultivated.

He became even more curious about Luo Tian.

Little Xie didn't know why Luo Tian wanted to enter the Sky Palace Divine race location and what he would cause there. Because of this unknown, his guard was raised as a precaution since this was a very natural reaction.

Moreover...

The current Sky Palace Divine race was no longer of the past Sky Palace Divine race.

Inside was a state of extreme danger.

If an outsider entered during this time, it's highly possible that...

In a short few seconds, many thoughts went through Little Xie's mind.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Sounds of violent explosions were heard.

Little Xie’s thoughts were broken. He stared at Luo Tian and unconsciously clenched his fists. He then said to himself: “It doesn’t matter who you are or how strong you are. As long as you dare to do something detrimental towards the Sky Palace Divine race, I will disregard all consequences and...”

Below his chest...

A thin layer of frost was faintly flashing, and pieces of dragon scale gave off a cold intent.

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha... the four great immortal sects are truly great! Imperial God Immortal Sect, Starsea Immortal Sect, Myriad Sword Immortal Sect, Shocking Cloud Immortal Sect; aren’t you all very awesome? You all look down on my Mount Hua Immortal Sect, right? Isn’t your Heaven Opening Manor the overlord in the radius of a million kilometers? Why don’t you guys all keep acting arrogant now?” Luo Tian started laughing like crazy. He was acting extremely smug when he saw them running all over the place like dogs.

Acting arrogant when it’s time to act arrogant.

Acting smug when it’s time to act smug.

He was just ridiculed by others so it was now his turn to ridicule them back.

Luo Tian had always been like this.

He will never deliberately hide his character.

You only had one life to live, so f*ck them up if they piss you off!

Laugh if you want to laugh. You give me a punch, this daddy will give you back an artillery shell. You give me ten assassins with self-detonating souls? This daddy will give you fifty back!

Arrogant?

There's only one outcome for acting arrogant in front of Luo Tian, and that was death!

"Despicable!"

"How could our immortal sects have such a sinister and despicable person like you?! Luo Tian, Starsea Immortal Sect will not let you off! Imperial God Immortal Sect will not let you off! Your tiny Mount Hua Immortal Sect can just wait to be destroyed!" Qi Ming roared out in anger.

Luo Tian laughed like crazy and said: "I'm despicable? Just then, you guys used assassins to self-detonate their souls to attack this daddy but why didn't you call yourselves despicable? Now it's your turn to experience it and you're calling this daddy despicable?"

"This daddy is despicable, huh?"

"Fine, let's say this daddy is sinister and despicable. What are you going to do about it? Are you going to bite me, you damn trash?"

Suddenly...

Luo Tian furrowed his brows and influenced the illusion. He sent out a message into the minds of the assassins: "Blow him up for me!"

He sent out his spiritual sense.

All the assassins charged straight for Qi Ming.

Qi Ming pissed himself from fear and his face turned pale white. There was nowhere to run after being surrounded by over a dozen assassins! He quickly shouted: "Senior brother Luo Tian! Grandpa Luo Tian! Please spare my life! I don't dare to mess with you anymore!"

"Spare your sister!"

"Blow him up!"

"F*ck! If I spare you now, where will this daddy's experience points come from? Where will this daddy's immortal force come from?" Luo Tian cursed inside his heart as he had no intention of letting anyone off.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

A dozen or so assassins self-destructed.

Qi Ming released all his Profound Saint realm powers just to defend himself. But even after doing this, he was only able to block the explosion of three self-detonating souls. The other ten self-detonating souls had blown his body into pieces where not even an intact bone was left behind!

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Qi Ming. You have gained 230,000 experience points, 22,000 immortal force...”

“Congratulations to player...”

Luo Tian didn't bother listening to it. These people didn't even have the glow of elite mobs so what good stuff would explode from them? He had no mood to continue listening because these guys were scared to the point of looking like grandsons! This kind of feeling was simply too great!

“Hahaha...”

“So great!”

Luo Tian laughed excitedly. His gaze then focused on Ji Tian before saying ferociously: “It should be your turn now.”

Ji Tian's expression hiddenly changed. He then spat out through clenched teeth: “Luo Tian, this daddy will fight it out with you! All Heaven Opening Manor assassins – attack with all you've got!”

“Hahaha...”

“Come! The more, the merrier! Only then will this feel more awesome!” Luo Tian shouted in a frenzy.

Heaven Opening City, Heaven Opening Manor.

“What happened inside the Dark Forest?”

“Why are there so many explosions?”

“The noise sounds like the assassins self-detonating their souls. Could something bad have happened?”
Yang Jin unconsciously asked out loud why staring off into the distance.

Ji Tongtian’s gaze tightened, while an ominous premonition appeared in his heart.

Also at the same time...

Ji Tongtian’s figure moved and instantly charged out.

Yang Jin’s expression changed. He glanced at the other three Elders and said: “We should go over there too!”

Chapter 524 – Dragon Child

But...

Accurately speaking, they were played to death by Luo Tian alone.

The assassins from Heaven Opening Manor had all become Luo Tian’s grenades and were completely under his control.

Illusions struck out!

Even if those assassins weren’t prepared to self-destruct, they still did it!

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Parts of the Dark Forest were being blown apart.

“Don’t kill me! Don’t kill me! I am a disciple of the Starsea Immortal Sect! If you kill me, my Starsea Immortal Sect will not let you off!”

“This daddy is precisely going to kill you.”

“You still dare to act arrogantly in front of me? What a f*cking dog thing you are!” Luo Tian showed no mercy. He was going f*ck all ten great immortal sects eventually so whether he started now or later didn’t matter. And he especially couldn’t let off people that acted arrogantly in front of him!

“I’m a disciple from the Imperial God Immortal Sect...”

“Die!”

“Grandpa Luo, please spare me! I will definitely not let anyone know what happened here today! Spare my dog’s life! The outside world will definitely not be able to figure out what happened here!”

“From the sound of your words, it looks like you’re still trying to threaten me. You can go die then!”

“Luo Tian, you damn mongrel! If you kill me, my father will not let you off! My father is in the Profound Emperor realm! Killing you is no different from pinching an ant to death! If you dare touch a single hair on me, he will...”

“Ji Yuan is it? Go to hell!”

One person after another was played to death by Luo Tian.

Not too long ago, they were acting all high and mighty yet now, they were scared to the point of pissing their pants. Especially those immortal sect disciples – they were all crying their eyes out. One needn’t mention how embarrassing they looked right now since they no longer had the looks of an orthodox immortal sect disciple anymore.

Ten great immortal sects?

Dog shit!

Luo Tian spat out before saying with disdain: "You can all go die for me."

He made a thought...

All the surrounding assassins had fallen for Luo Tian's illusion. Once he sent out his thoughts, they all rushed towards the living like they didn't care for their lives.

Over a dozen assassins self-destructed.

The force of the explosions surged into the sky!

A mushroom cloud and the light of flames rose into the sky. The land in a thousand-kilometer radius was shaking, and the powerful force rippled outwards and toppled dozens of large trees. The area turned into a complete mess with a deep crater at the center of the explosion.

They had all died!

Indeed...

This was similar to modern weaponry.

Once an artillery cannon makes its move, it can crush an entire area.

Whether it's used to kill people or monsters, it gave the user a rather happy feeling.

Luo Tian almost became addicted to this game style.

“Sharingan's Illusion skill is too awesome, and this is just level 2 for now. If it were to rise to level 3... Kaleidoscope, Amaterasu... then wouldn't I rise to the heavens in ecstasy?” Luo Tian was excited as this skill seemed to be effective in any situation.

Except...

While he was feeling this high, his eyes returned to its normal state.

Sharingan's sequelae exploded forth!

At this instant, Luo Tian felt like his soul was about to jump out of his body in pain! His body toppled over and the blood vessels on his body started exploding!

“Bang~!”

“Bang~, bang~, bang~...”

A while later...

Luo Tian looked like a person that had just climbed out of a pool of blood. His face was pale white, his eyes unfocused, and his body was wracked with unbearable pain. This kind of feeling was just like he was about to die at any moment.

Using Sharingan three times...

That meant 30% of his life was consumed.

This consumption ignored Luo Tian's defense, and any type of skill to ease it was useless as it was unblockable.

"Thump~!"

Luo Tian's hand was supporting his body on the ground while he threw up a large mouthful of black-colored blood. He then started cursing inside his mind: "Motherf*cker! System, how the f*ck did you come up with such a backlash to the skill?! It's that fun to abuse me, huh? The Naruto anime never had such a thing!"

Unbearable!

Thirty percent of his life was instantly taken.

The pain he was experiencing was ten thousand times worse than the sequelae for the Void Piercing Dragon technique.

"Fuuu~... fuuu~..."

Luo Tian was gasping for air. He had cast dozens of Healing Art on himself and the injuries on the surface seemed to have recovered, but he had no way to deal with his internal injuries. The Regeneration skill could heal 10% of his life consumption but the cooldown for it was too long. He had previously used it on Qin Changtian not long ago so the timer wasn't up yet. He could only use Healing Art to take care of his external injuries for now.

"Wuuu~..."

"Wuuu~... Grandpa San, how are you feeling? Please wake up!"

Suddenly...

The sound of Qin Changtian crying was heard.

Luo Tian struggled to stand up before limping his way over.

When he arrived there, he realized Qin San was almost done for. Even if he were to make a move by using Regeneration on him, the outcome would still be the same since his injuries were too serious and beyond help.

“Grandpa San, big brother Luo Tian has killed all the bad people. Quickly wake up and take a look.” Qin Changtian was pushing Qin San’s shoulder while crying hysterically.

Little Xie was standing off to the side with his brows locked together.

When Luo Tian arrived close to them, Qin San’s eyes opened up. He coughed a few times and his mouth tried to move a bit. When he saw Luo Tian, he grabbed Qin Changtian’s little hand and passed it to Luo Tian. He then struggled to say: “Brother Luo, I’m sorry for wrongly blaming you. Can you promise me one thing?”

Luo Tian quickly held onto Qin Changtian’s little hand and said: “Quickly say it. As long as I can accomplish it, I will promise you.”

Qin San’s lips turned whiter as he tried to smile. “Help me, help me bring him to the Sky, Sky Palace Divine race...”

“Huh?”

Luo Tian was stunned by this.

He thought that Qin San wanted him to take care of Qin Changtian and never imagined Qin San wanted him to send Qin Changtian to the Sky Palace Divine race. He couldn’t help blurting out: “I don’t know the entrance location.”

Qin San's voice was getting softer and softer.

Luo Tian furrowed his brows and lowered his body to listen carefully.

Qin San said weakly: "Tian Tian, he, he knows the location to the entrance. Also, also, you have to protect Tian Tian well because he's, he's, a dragon child!"

After saying that...

There was no more life force coming from Qin San.

Luo Tian was dumbstruck.

His throat went dry and he had to swallow down some saliva. He thought he heard wrong and didn't hear everything properly – Qin Changtian was a dragon child?!

He was also a dragon just like Little Xie!

Little Xie should be a Frost Dragon.

What kind of dragon was Qin Changtian then?

But...

Looking at the importance of the situation, he should be a species even stronger than Little Xie.

Luo Tian looked over at Qin Changtian and tried to sense his aura. He realized it was exactly like a human and couldn't tell any difference. Only at this moment, the dragon egg inside Luo Tian faintly trembled and made him become a bit serious.

“Grandpa San, Grandpa San...”

Luo Tian held onto Qin Changtian and tried to console him, “Your Grandpa San has gone to another world. Tian Tian, you cannot cry and need to stay strong.”

Right after that...

Luo Tian stood up.

Little Xie looked at Luo Tian and asked: “Where are we going now?”

Luo Tian didn’t hesitate to reply: “The location of the Sky Palace Divine race!”

A few hours later.

Ji Tongtian was enraged. He released his Profound Emperor’s battle aura and roared into the air: “Luo Tian, I will make you pay dearly for this!”

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The entire Dark Forest looked like it was collapsing!

Chapter 525 – The Last Day

At the foot of the Sky Mountains, Luo Tian was staring at the direction of the Dark Forest. He was watching the Dark Forest rapidly collapse! The Profound Emperor’s energy covered a radius of a thousand kilometers. All types of demonic beasts were whimpering as the force crushed down on their minds. Luo Tian's mind also felt like it was sinking and he couldn't help sticking out his tongue and exclaiming: "A Profound Emperor ranker is indeed extraordinary!"

"It's fortunate..."

"Fortunate that I changed my route!"

Luo Tian said this to himself.

Their original route was to escape through the Dark Forest and to leave Heaven Opening Manor's area of influence in the shortest amount of time.

Except, Luo Tian changed the route at the last minute.

They cut across the Dark Forest in a different direction to enter the Sky Mountains.

Soon after...

The three of them went through a simple disguise. Luo Tian became an elderly person nearing a hundred years old while Little Xie was a bit special and changed into a young girl. His new look was actually a bit attractive to the beholder, especially when he gave off an icy aura. Little Xie looked just like those ice-cold beauties.

Qin Changtian also underwent a slight disguise and became a little girl.

Even though Little Xie protested his unwillingness, he understood they were out of options. Their road was filled with danger so if he didn't have such a drastic change in appearance, people would easily spot them out in a crowd. There's no way they can reach the entrance location to the Sky Palace Divine race if Ji Tongtian catches up with them.

Little Xie was standing at the rear while his gaze tightened. He then softly said: "After killing his three sons, his rage would certainly be boundless. There's no way Ji Tongtian will let us off at all. What plans do you have now?"

"Go to the location of the Sky Palace Divine race."

Luo Tian then continued saying: "Change our route and enter the Sky Mountain's ranges. It should be difficult for them to find us by then and we will be safe for a short period of time. As long as we enter the place of the Sky Palace Divine race, there's no way they will be able to chase after us."

The entrance to the Sky Palace Divine race was extremely hidden, and most likely no one else in this world except for Qin Changtian knows of the location.

They will naturally be safe once they enter inside.

Except...

Little Xie's gaze turned gloomy as he said: "The Sky Palace Divine race location isn't as safe as you think. It's possible that it's even more dangerous than out here, and there might be even stronger opponents waiting for us inside."

Speaking about this...

Luo Tian didn't hold back anymore and directly asked: "Are you from the Dragon race?"

"It looks like my guess is right. In the beginning, I thought you didn't realize anything but it looks like you are more intelligent than my expectations."

"I am of the Dragon race."

"I am a descendant of the Frost Dragons!"

While saying this...

Little Xie furrowed his brows and dragon scales started appearing on his arms. Each was crystal clear that gave off a dense amount of icy intent. The aura from his body instantly changed to something much stronger and heavy, similar to a monarch arriving.

In merely an instant...

The power coming from his body was filled with a violent aura.

A cold breeze whipped up in the surrounding area and the ground below his feet started freezing over and giving off cracking sounds. Even the water particles in the air around them were starting to freeze over. The tips of Luo Tian's brows and the hair on his head started turning to ice as well.

The blood flowing through Luo Tian's vessels had slowed down and looked like they could freeze at any given moment.

"Sure enough..."

Luo Tian was just speculating about this originally since this world was filled with wondrous things. Just like how Feng Lei could make scales appear when he transformed. He was emotionally prepared for the answer but upon hearing it come out of Little Xie's mouth, he still couldn't help feeling shocked.

"Ommm~!"

Little Xie pulled back his powers and the icy intent in the area quickly disappeared.

After this...

His expression turned a sickly white like he had over-exhausted his powers. His lips were extremely white while he started coughing.

Little Xie bitterly chuckled before saying: "I've embarrassed myself. I wanted to transform into a dragon but realized my body could no longer support a dragon's body. Dragon race... cough~... so what if I'm of the Dragon race? We were labeled as the strongest creatures in all of history, but in fact... our Dragon race isn't as powerful as what you humans have imagined. We were once very strong, but now..."

Luo Tian didn't really understand what was going on.

He didn't ask any further when he saw the helpless expression on Little Xie's face.

He only said to himself: "It looks like something major must have happened to the Sky Palace Divine race. Who knows if this would affect my quest? Whether my dragon egg can hatch or not will all be dependent on this trip. If I somehow cannot find a dragon soul, then there's no way it can hatch. If this were to happen..."

Luo Tian's mind turned solemn when he thought up to this point.

Luo Tian then asked: "Do you know the entrance location to the Sky Palace Divine race?"

Little Xie looked at Luo Tian seriously before replying: "The Sky Palace Divine race location is a hundred times more terrifying than Heaven Opening Manor. Are you sure you still want to go?"

"Go!"

"I have to go!"

Luo Tian continued firmly: "Before Qin San died, he made me promise him to bring Tian Tian to the Sky Palace Divine race. Apart from this matter that must be completed, I have another matter that I must take care of at the Sky Palace Divine race location. This is something I really have to complete."

Little Xie was in thought for a few minutes before saying: "Fine, I will take you to the location of the Sky Palace Divine race!"

Sky Mountain ranges.

It looked incomparably majestic and the area was much larger than Jade Mountain City's Ghostly Mountain Range.

In the dark night sky, every mountain peak looked like a wild beast with its mouth opening to devour the darkness. This kind of scene created a sense of chill in one's heart.

The ninth day.

Luo Tian, Little Xie, and Qin Changtian arrived at a small town located in one of the ranges of Sky Mountain.

This was a small supply town.

They provided supplies to those martial artists braving the dangers of the mountains. They were also the last town before one entered the uncharted lands of Sky Mountain.

In the past...

The foot traffic of this town wasn't much, mostly small teams and lone rangers looking for adventure.

This was a place to rest before they started their trial.

But now...

This little place was filled with people all over the town. Their cultivations weren't low, and most of them seem to be small teams of adventurers. There weren't many lone rangers noticeable.

“Did you hear yet? The Rainbow Lotus will mature in the next day or two.”

“It only matures once every three thousand years. This time, my Kun Mountain Sect will definitely get it.”

“It’s a spiritual treasure born from heaven and earth. Only those fated will get it. Not to mention your Kun Mountain Sect, even Heaven Opening Manor will have to depend on their luck to get it.”

“That’s right.”

There are about three hundred adventure teams here and there’s no lack of experts. No matter how capable your Kun Mountain Sect is, can they compare with three hundred adventuring teams?”

There were discussions everywhere in the small town.

The topic of their conversations was centered around the Rainbow Lotus.

Who wouldn’t want a spiritual treasure that only came about once every three thousand years?

Apart from this topic, there was also one other topic.

“The three noble sons of Heaven Opening Manor have all died. In addition to them, over half the assassins from Heaven Opening Manor have died as well. Even the disciples from the four great immortal sects have died. I heard it was the reinforcements invited over by the remnant Sunset City’s Qin family, disciples from one of the immortal sects.”

“City Lord Ji had those sons only when he was old, yet he suddenly lost all three at once. This is practically taking his old life. It looks like the heavens will be flipped over this time.”

“The kill order is already out, and anyone that can provide clues to their whereabouts will receive 100,000 xuan stones as a reward. If someone was to capture them alive, their reward would be a million xuan stones!”

“Damn it! If I were to capture them, this daddy would be rich!”

At this time...

Chapter 526 – Big Beauty Little Xue

Luo Tian’s group of three sat down.

They requested a pot of tea and were planning to rest for a bit before entering the depths of Sky Mountain.

But...

Before their butts were even warm, a large unappealing man came over.

One leg was stepping onto the bench Luo Tian was sitting on while his eyes showed a perverted look. He swallowed a few times while looking at Little Xie and said: “Yoh, who would’ve thought such barren mountains would have such a pretty lady here. Little beauty, you’re here for an adventure in Sky Mountain as well?”

“Hang out with this big brother and I’ll guarantee you’ll live the easy life.”

“Puff~!”

Luo Tian couldn’t hold it in and laughed out loud.

These past few days on the road, Little Xie achieved a hundred percent rate of head turns whenever they encountered people. That exquisite looking face and those ice-cold eyes had attracted the entire male herd.

All the guys were staring at him ever since they entered the teahouse.

This made him extremely uncomfortable.

Qin Changtian couldn't help giggle and deliberately say: "Big sister Little Xie, he asked you to go follow him."

"Little Xue?"

"What a good sounding name! I like it!"

"Young sister Little Xue, our Kun Mountain Sect is rather powerful in the Sky Mountains. If you follow me, I will bring you to experience the Rainbow Lotus. How about it? Currently, only our Kun Mountain Sect knows the whereabouts of the Rainbow Lotus." The large man said with a big smile. He looked at Little Xie's neckline and tried to look down the opening to the chest area. The more he couldn't see, the higher he raised his head. He kept swallowing down his saliva and his looks were wretched as one could get.

Little Xie furrowed his brows and was about to show his anger.

At this time...

Luo Tian's gaze changed and pretended to be an old and decrepit man, "So it's an expert from the Kun Mountain Sect. This is my daughter and she knows a bit about martial arts, except her cultivation isn't too high. Is your Kun Mountain Sect recruiting members?"

Hearing those words, the eyes of the large man shone brilliantly. His attitude towards Luo Tian underwent an obvious change as he said politely: "Others may not, but as long as I, Zhu Dazhuang give the word, she'll be able to join my Kun Mountain Sect even if she's never practiced martial arts before."

"You're her father, right?"

“That’s perfect. I’m very satisfied with your daughter. As long as you agree, I will immediately bring her to the Kun Mountain Sect. There’s no need for an assessment and she can directly become an outer sect disciple. What do you think about that?”

He revealed a “this daddy is a nice person” look.

While saying those words, his throat started moving again.

He swallowed a large mouthful of saliva.

His gaze clearly showed he couldn’t wait to swallow Little Xie whole.

Luo Tian held his laughter in and said: “Little Xue, why haven’t you thanked this master? You will definitely have good days if you follow him.”

“Hahaha...”

“That’s absolutely right.” Zhu Dazhuang started laughing loudly.

Little Xie didn’t know what Luo Tian was trying to do and could only suppress the rage inside him. He could only nod in cooperation and didn’t dare to say a word. He was scared that once he spoke, he would reveal himself since a male’s voice was very easy to tell apart.

“Good!”

Zhu Dazhuang rubbed his hands while his gaze turned even more perverted. He swallowed his saliva and said: “Come with me then.”

Luo Tian then said: “Expert, I want to cultivate and join your Kun Mountain Sect as well. Do you think that’s possible? If I cannot join, I’m afraid that my daughter...”

“You?”

Zhu Dazhuang didn't look too happy. He has never seen an old guy fifty to sixty years of age wishing to join his sect before. He started muttering to himself, but when he looked at Little Xie's beautiful looks, he said with a frown: “Fine, you can all come with me.”

Luo Tian gave an eye signal.

Immediately after...

The three of them got up and followed Zhu Dazhuang out.

Little Xie sent a sound transmission, “What the hell are you doing? I want to play this damn fatty to death right now. I'm feeling sick just from looking at him.”

Luo Tian joked: “Don't! He has his eyes on you and has been completely charmed by your beauty. You don't understand how attractive you are, hahaha...”

Little Xie's gaze tightened while he clenched his fists; an icy intent started rippling out from his body.

Luo Tian then said seriously: “Don't be so impatient, it looks like Kun Mountain Sect has a bit of power here. Previously, I noticed this small town had quite a few assassins from Heaven Opening Manor around. I am afraid there's a high chance that the Heaven Opening City Lord and the four great immortal sects aren't too far behind.”

“With our current strength, there's no way we can deal with them. Moreover, the target on the back of us three is too obvious. It'll be different if we manage to blend ourselves in with the Kun Mountain Sect.”

Luo Tian's goal was very simple.

Muddle their way into the Kun Mountain Sect.

And avoid the assassins from Heaven Opening Manor.

Luo Tian didn't have a sure way to beat an expert at the Profound Emperor realm. Unless he broke through to the Profound Saint realm, it's best to not clash with them too early. Besides, there were also the Elders from the four great immortal sects hanging around Ji Tongtian.

They were orthodox immortal sect disciples and their cultivation realm should be at the higher levels of the Profound Saint realm. This meant their capability shouldn't be that much weaker than Ji Tongtian.

There were five of them in total. No matter how strong he was, there's no way he would be their opponent!

He had to find a chance to level up or quickly finish the hatching dragon egg quest. If he could hatch the dragon egg, he could borrow the little dragon's power and easily crush them all. It was still fresh in his memories with the display of power by the dragon egg while he was in the Spectral Forbidden Grounds.

Little Xie's gaze tightened and didn't speak anymore.

He too was very clear.

Ji Tongtian should be very clear as well. This was the last small town before entering the Sky Mountains, and Luo Tian's group will definitely pass by here.

That night.

Ji Tongtian had been chasing for over 100,000 kilometers and still couldn't find any traces of Luo Tian's group.

Suddenly...

He thought of the possibility that Luo Tian changed his route and wanted to enter the uncharted territories of the Sky Mountains. There has always been a rumor that the entrance to the Sky Palace Divine race was in the depths of Sky Mountain. Thinking up to this, he immediately changed his direction. He also had the remaining assassins from Heaven Opening Manor initiate a blanket search all the way to that small town.

“That is the only place one must pass through to enter the Sky Mountains.”

“Since they’re bringing a child with them, they definitely need to stop there for some brief respite. We definitely cannot allow them to run away this time.” Ji Tongtian’s expression was gloomy as he said this. His three sons have all died so the flames of rage inside him were burning in an unprecedented manner.

Yang Jin’s expression was a bit heavy as he said: “City Lord Ji, if they leave that small town and enter the Sky Mountains, the difficulty in catching up with them will become much harder. The Sky Mountains is so big that finding them will be harder than finding a needle in the ocean.”

Lu Zhen added: “City Lord Ji, we haven’t found any traces of them these past nine days. Could they be long gone already? Maybe they won’t pass through that town at all, so you need to make sure we’re on the right track. The contents pertaining to our alliance... If we can’t find the entrance location to the Sky Palace Divine race, humph~!”

Lu Zhen coldly harrumphed.

And his gaze turned gloomy.

Yang Jin revealed a faintly satisfied grin and said happily: “Elder Lu, for you to say such words... Do you think City Lord Ji has forgotten it?”

Right at this moment...

An assassin from Heaven Opening Manor blurred and appeared next to Ji Tongtian. He then whispered something to him.

Chapter 527 – Everyone Has Come

Zhu Dazhuang had a smug and excited expression as he brought Little Xie with him.

It was like he was bringing out a new girlfriend.

He was walking with his head held up high, scared that people didn't know there was a beautiful girl alongside him.

They arrived at a certain tent.

Zhu Dazhuang said: "You guys wait here first. Little Xue, you follow me inside."

His eyes narrowed.

And revealed an evil-looking smile.

Little Xie hasn't experienced the world that much and incidents like these were even fewer.

He couldn't tell what Zhu Dazhuang was planning on doing but Luo Tian was very clear.

Luo Tian then said: "Little Xue, go with him. Remember to obediently listen and don't let Master Zhu down."

Little Xie was unwilling but still walked into the tent with Zhu Dazhuang.

Luo Tian almost burst out laughing.

Qin Changtian asked: "Big brother, what is he doing with Sister Xue inside?"

Luo Tian replied: "You will know in a bit."

It's better to speak less involving subjects inappropriate to children.

When he imagined the scene where Zhu Dazhuang was going to XXXXX Little Xie, Luo Tian couldn't hold it in anymore and burst out laughing. "Will this be too much trouble? For a guy like Little Xie, what will his reaction be when encountering such a scene?"

Inside the tent.

As soon as Zhu Dazhuang entered the tent, he revealed a big smile. Looking at Little Xie's weak figure and her ice maiden looks, he rubbed his hands and said: "The thing that I, Zhu Dazhuang, loves the most are ice cold maidens. They are like an iceberg at normal times but become an erupting volcano once they're on a bed. No one can compare to the sex appeal they have."

While saying that...

Zhu Dazhuang instantly tried hugging Little Xie's slim waist and said with a smile: "Come, my little beauty."

Except...

The moment he moved, Little Xie had dodged away.

Because Little Xie was nervous, and not because of fear but from this sudden encounter of such a thing, his sudden dodging movement made him slip and lose his balance. He sat directly on the ground and just happened to land on a wool rug.

The bodies of Frost Dragons were originally pale white like ice.

In addition to him being quite thin...

His fall to the ground coincidentally revealed his long white legs. They were really quite long, white like snow, and looked so fragile that a gust of air would shatter it.

Zhu Dazhuang's eyeballs almost bulged out of their sockets. He kept swallowing his saliva and his crotch area had poked into the sky like it was about to break through his pants.

"Little beauty!"

"My little beauty! Here comes this big brother!"

"Smooch~..."

Little Xie's stomach gurgled and he almost threw up.

"Are you still not coming in?"

"I'm going to kill him if you still don't come in."

This was sent by sound transmission.

Luo Tian suppressed his smile and immediately went inside. He grabbed onto Zhu Dazhuang and loudly shouted: "What are you trying to do to my daughter?! You can do that to her! She's still a decent untouched girl! Master Zhu, Hero Zhu..."

Zhu Dazhuang's expression changed as his evil desires surged to the sky. He didn't really care anymore and tried ripping Luo Tian's arms away from him. He then shouted: "You damn old bastard, scram away from this daddy! Since you dare to disturb this daddy's good time, do you believe that I can kill you right now?"

He had already reached the point where the arrow was already fully drawn and had to be released.

How could he hold back anymore?

Except, he never imagined he wasn't able to fling Luo Tian away.

Luo Tian was still holding onto him around the waist.

Little Xie frowned as the rage he was suppressing couldn't be held back anymore, exploded out. Before Luo Tian could speak, Little Xie flicked his finger and an ice arrow shot out and penetrated through the center of Zhu Dazhuang's brows.

Zhu Dazhuang's eyes glazed over.

And he died just like that!

"I can't pretend anymore," said Little Xie grumpily.

Luo Tian was dumbstruck, "Damn it, how are we going to play from now on?"

He planned to comfort Zhu Dazhuang somehow and then follow the Kun Mountain Sect into the uncharted territories of Sky Mountain. He would then find a good opportunity to leave the group.

He didn't expect...

Little Xie would actually kill the guy at such a juncture.

His plan was completely disrupted.

Luo Tian helplessly sighed, "I give up. All our previous efforts were wasted and our identities will be exposed soon. Ji Tongtian and his assassins will definitely find their way here. I originally planned on using the Kun Mountain Sect's force to fish in troubled waters and enter Sky Mountain. By that time, Ji Tongtian can forget about finding us in such a large mountainous area."

Little Xie used his hand to wipe away the disguise on his face. He then said unhappily: “How come you didn’t disguise as a woman instead? I really can’t endure it anymore. Just looking at the disgusting pig and I couldn’t help wanting to slap him to death.”

“There’s no need to slap anymore.”

“He’s already dead. If you’re still unhappy, you can go slap him a few more times.” Luo Tian sat his butt on the ground and started thinking of ways to leave this small town.

Ever since they entered the small town...

Luo Tian’s senses were constantly on alert. Not too long ago, he already sensed five extremely powerful auras enter the small town. It’s very clear that they were Ji Tongtian and the four Elders from the immortal sects. He also inferred that their whereabouts had been exposed.

Luo Tian had underestimated the capabilities of the assassins from Heaven Opening Manor.

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

Little Xie was actually kicking the corpse of Zhu Dazhuang. He then said with irritation: “You were the one courting your own death!”

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at Little Xie and didn’t say anything further.

At this time...

Qin Changtian quickly rushed in and said: “Big brother Luo Tian, the Kun Mountain Sect disciples are preparing to leave. I heard two disciples saying the Rainbow Lotus will be maturing a bit earlier. They are entering the Sky Mountains ahead of time and are now packing up their things. There are quite a bit of people who have left already.”

Luo Tian’s gaze tightened and immediately replied: “Good!”

“Little Xue, you can restore your original appearance and we’ll follow them to leave this place.”

“Since there are so many people here...”

“Kun Mountain Sect has recently recruited many mediocre disciples from the small town, so we can sneak ourselves in as well. Everything will work out as long as we enter the uncharted territories of the Sky Mountains.”

As long as Luo Tian can level up...

His chances of hatching the dragon egg would be higher.

Then it will become the doomsday for that group of people!

The days of being chased by people trying to kill them were really irritating.

At least it was irritating to Luo Tian.

If he was alone, he would’ve changed his way of dealing with this matter. But now there were three of them and that damnable system quest. Failing would mean deducting 200 million experience points!

This made him extremely annoyed!

The three of them walked out of the tent.

They were quickly called over by someone.

“You three are newly recruited disciples, right? Quickly come over and pack these things. We’re about to enter the uncharted territories of the Sky Mountains. These are the supplies of our senior brother from the inner sect, so you can’t damage a single one of them,” said one of the Kun Mountain Sect disciples.

Luo Tian was rather happy about this and immediately went over.

At this time...

Endless suppression cascaded down from the sky.

A loud roar was heard, “Nobody move!”

“Luo Tian, scam out here for me!”

A loud roaring voice of anger.

An extremely powerful Profound Emperor’s battle aura exploded out. Ji Tongtian’s figure was seen landing and the impact around his feet created a series of explosions. There were three Kun Mountain Sect disciples nearby that were instantly shattered into powder!

They’ve come!

All the bosses have come!

Chapter 528 – Level 7 Berserk

They’ve all come!

Ji Tongtian and the Elders from the four great immortal sects were all here.

Assembly point.

The Kun Mountain Sect disciples were in a mess.

They were all scurrying around like mice. One of the Elders of Kun Mountain Sect strode out and said in a displeased tone: "City Lord Ji, what do you mean by this?"

Before he could say anything more...

Ji Tongtian flicked his index finger and a sword beam shot out, directly exploding that Elder's head. He then coldly harrumphed and released his Profound Emperor's battle aura without holding back. He then shouted: "Scram aside for me!"

Instant kill!

That Elder's cultivation was at the Profound Saint realm.

Even though he wasn't an orthodox disciple of an immortal sect, he was still considered a powerful existence on this continent. But Ji Tongtian barely lifted his hand and the Elder was instantly killed.

Moreover...

Ji Tongtian didn't even give the guy a full glance.

An Elder was killed.

The members of Kun Mountain Sect became even more chaotic. Under the pressure of a Profound Emperor's battle aura, many disciples kneeled on the ground and started pleading for their lives. Even more disciples were trying to escape this area.

“Presumptuous!”

“Ji Tongtian, do you think my Kun Mountain Sect doesn’t have anyone that can deal with you?”

Suddenly...

After that shout, Kun Mountain Sect’s Leader Zhao Wudi descended from the sky. A powerful aura exploded outwards from his body as he glared at Ji Tongtian in rage.

Ji Tongtian coldly harrumphed. He glared at him with the corner of his eyes and said with disdain: “A Profound Saint 6th ranker dares to act presumptuously in front of me? Go die for me!”

He flipped his palm.

Up in the sky, a palm print similar to a seal crushed down.

Zhao Wudi’s expression drastically changed. He never imagined Ji Tongtian would strike a killing blow after just appearing and not even bother to speak some nonsense first.

Immediately after...

He could only resist with all his strength.

Except the gap between their cultivation realms was too large and couldn’t be comparable at all. This palm seal was extremely powerful, so Zhao Wudi could only release all his powers and receive it with his own pair of palms.

“BOOM~!”

A dull thunderous sound exploded out.

Zhao Wudi was smashed flying away. He kept spraying out mouthfuls of blood and his face turned ashen like he was near death. His eyes glared at Ji Tongtian before struggling to ask: "Why? Why? My Kun Mountain Sect has never provoked your Heaven Opening Manor, so why must you move against us?"

Ji Tongtian didn't bother with him and roared out once more: "Luo Tian, scram out here for me!"

Enraged to the extreme!

Now that he found Luo Tian's whereabouts, the raging flames inside him erupted like an out of control volcano. He couldn't hold it in anymore and wanted to tear Luo Tian into 108,000 pieces. He was going to peel out Luo Tian's soul and then torture him in purgatory for a hundred thousand years!

On Luo Tian's side.

Luo Tian's expression sank, "We can't hide anymore!"

If that's the case...

Luo Tian smiled excitedly and said: "F*ck them up if you're annoyed! This daddy is also quite pissed these ten days trying to hide. Isn't it just a Profound Emperor realm expert? I could use this perfect opportunity to have a good look at the powers of someone at the Profound Emperor realm. I could also use this opportunity to have them clean out Mount Hua Immortal Sect."

His brows furrowed.

Luo Tian's body released an intense amount of killing intent before saying: "Little Xie, bring him and leave this place. No need to bother about me!"

Little Xie's expression sank as he replied: "No way!"

“If we leave, we leave together. If we stay, we stay together.”

“I am the descendant of the Frost Dragons. Our Dragon race will never betray our fellow brothers!”

His battle intent rose up.

Little Xie’s body started releasing an extremely cold icy intent. Ice colored scales of a dragon also started appearing on his arms.

Qin Changtian’s gaze didn’t move as he said: “Big brother Luo Tian, I am, I am able to protect myself. You two go.”

At this time...

Luo Tian had no other choice since there’s no way they’ll be able to escape from here.

Apart from Ji Tongtian, the four great immortal sect Elders were even more terrifying. If they tried to run, he could only hold back Ji Tongtian while the four Elders would definitely go after Little Xie and Qin Changtian. If that’s the case, then he might as well fight it out with all he had!

“Good!”

“Let’s fight it out!” Luo Tian’s gaze became steady and firm.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian laughed out crazily and shouted: “Old man Ji Tongtian, your daddy is right here!”

Once his voice faded...

Luo Tian landed not too far across from Ji Tongtian. He had a crazy smirk on his face as he coldly said: “What? Do you miss your three sons so much that you want me to send you down there to reunite with them?”

“Aaagghhh~!”

Ji Tongtian roared out in pain. His eyes became bloodshot as the pain of losing his sons exploded like a bomb inside his mind.

Instantly after...

His long hair was fluttering sideways and his robe billowed out. His Profound Emperor’s battle aura rose to its peak as he roared out hysterically: “Die for me!”

Yang Jin’s gaze sank as he muttered: “His dantian has indeed been crippled.”

“How did this kid train to increase his cultivation?”

“He’s the one that rejected the Imperial God Immortal Sect at Heavenly Sword City and then killed the Starsea Envoy – Luo Tian?”

“That piece of trash without an innate bloodline that Venerable Wu Nian used the Mount Hua’s Divine Token just to make Venerable Yun Ji accept him?”

“He’s only at the Profound Venerate 4th rank. Looking at his expression, it looks like he wants to seek his own death.”

The four of them were mocking and laughing amongst themselves.

In the eyes of the four, Luo Tian was considered beneath an ant. They merely gave him a glance and then completely ignored him.

No matter how Luo Tian was able to cultivate to the Profound Venerate 4th rank, they still thought of him as nothing but trash.

Someone with a crippled dantian couldn't cultivate immortal force. This was basically an ultimate trash in the eyes of immortal sect disciples.

Someone without an innate bloodline was even more of a trash!

It was impossible for a person like this to be an opponent for Ji Tongtian, who was at the Profound Emperor 3rd rank.

Immediately after...

Yang Jin's gaze turned gloomy and whispered: "I found the little boy. Don't let him run no matter what. He's our only chance to find the entrance to where the Sky Palace Divine race is."

Lu Zhen coldly smiled and replied: "I understand."

The three of them leaped into the void and instantly disappeared.

Also at this moment, Ji Tongtian already made his move. Earthen yellow Profound Emperor's battle aura charged straight into Luo Tian's mind. The power coming off his body was wildly overbearing as the heat started burning everything in his surroundings.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

A sea of flames appeared around him.

Even the dirt on the ground started burning up.

This kind of power was terrifying to the extreme!

Luo Tian's fists started moving as he shouted internally: "Level 6 Berserk!"

"Boom~!"

Sixty-four times his base attributes were released, and this somewhat stabilized his mind. He then shouted once more: "Titan's Defensive Form!"

"Ommm~!"

A huge phantom image of a Titan superimposed over Luo Tian's body.

"Die for me!"

Ji Tongtian smashed out a fist covered in fire.

Luo Tian used the strongest defense he possessed.

"Bang~!"

The Titan's phantom image was directly shattered by the punch, and the strength behind Ji Tongtian's fist only weakened about 30%. Luo Tian exclaimed internally: "Motherf*cker! His powers are a bit too fierce!"

Profound Emperor realm!

How could their powers not be fierce?

Luo Tian was merely at the Profound Venerate 4th rank. If we used the levels of video games, there was a difference of 20 levels between them! How is one supposed to resist that?

This was impossible to resist!

But...

Luo Tian was never one to admit defeat so he just took the strike head-on. He was assaulted with extreme pain as a deep fist imprint appeared on his chest. He was then sent flying backward and landed next to the dying Zhao Wudi.

Luo Tian aimed for Zhao Wudi's head and smashed out with a punch.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player..."

Luo Tian looked at his experience points and said with a cold smile: "There are just enough experience points!"

"Level 7 Berserk!"

Chapter 529 – Golden Dragon

Luo Tian was only missing a bit.

Killing the Profound Saint 6th ranker Zhao Wudi was just enough.

Luo Tian didn't hesitate and increased Berserk to level 7. He was actually only about 100 million experience points away from leveling up his cultivation realm. But even if he does level up to Profound Venerate 5th rank, he still wouldn't be Ji Tongtian's opponent. The only choice he had left was to increase Berserk's level.

“Ssssss~... Ssssss~...”

Steam started coming out of Luo Tian’s body, just like a red hot metal plate getting splashed with water.

Power!

Extremely strong and intense power!

This kind of power almost exceeded Luo Tian’s control.

Level 7 Berserk.

This was releasing the power of 128 times his base attributes. How terrifying was this concept?

Even with Luo Tian’s Profound Venerate 4th rank fleshly body combined with his Titan God’s Body, he was still extremely uncomfortable supporting this level of power. The power of 128 times his attributes was simply too violent!

“Bang~!”

Luo Tian took one step forward. He was just like a giant and directly shattered the flames around him. His whole body was crimson red as he roared into the sky: “Motherf*cker! Come at me again if you have the guts!”

Unrestrained arrogance!

Ji Tongtian was a bit dumbstruck by this.

Luo Tian’s powers suddenly increased by dozens of times! This kind of martial skill was too terrifying!

Yang Jin's expression faintly sank as he said to himself: "This martial skill is a bit too terrifying. This kid with a crippled dantian managed to cultivate such a powerful martial skill. It would be great if I can strip off the martial skill he trains in and make it mine."

He was feeling envious.

Even if he was an Elder from the Imperial God Immortal Sect, the martial skills he trained in weren't as fierce as the ones Luo Tian had.

It started with the phantom of a Titan, and now this level 7 Berserk.

Each one of those skills was an incomparably fierce existence.

This was a world where martial skills reigned supreme, and a good martial skill will cause envy in many people. Yang Jin was envious, and so was Ji Tongtian.

The difference between the two was...

Ji Tongtian had once cultivated an evil martial skill that can strip a person's skill from them and transfer it unto themselves. In other words, they could absorb someone's martial skill and make it become their own!

Therefore...

As his voice faded...

Ji Tongtian's figure instantly disappeared.

In the next second, he appeared in front of Luo Tian.

Do you think 128 times the attributes is just a pretty display?

The moment Ji Tongtian disappeared, Luo Tian's body followed and made his move. His fists were like thunder and directly smashed towards the position Ji Tongtian was supposed to appear at. He then shouted: "Magma Fire, level 7! Divine Flame Fists, explode for me!"

"Boom~!"

Red hot magma exploded outwards.

It splattered over a hundred kilometers out! It was similar to a volcano erupting without a care!

Except...

Ji Tongtian's body didn't move after appearing. His mouth formed a smile before laughing coldly: "Hahaha... Little kid, you wish to injure this old man based on this kind of strength? I forgot to tell you that this old man has the strongest defensive bloodline in the world – the Earthen bloodline!"

"Splatter~..."

"Splatter~..."

While he was speaking...

The spot that Luo Tian attacked caused a large amount of soil to scatter everywhere. The soil was burnt black! The moment it was scattered to the ground, Ji Tongtian's body reformed and he was intact without any injuries. Even his clothes didn't show any traces of being damaged!

The moment the attack landed...

A blood-red BOSS word appeared above Ji Tongtian's head!

It's very clear that...

That previous attack didn't injure Ji Tongtian at all. Luo Tian's heart sank as he was appalled at the outcome. "Level 7 Berserk gives 128 times my base attributes yet I still couldn't do any damage. The defensive powers of the Profound Emperor realm are absurdly strong!"

While he was thinking of this...

Luo Tian's heart shook, "Oh shit!"

In an instant...

Ji Tongtian's palm came smashing over.

"Bang~!"

A palm strike landed on Luo Tian's chest. There was a crack sound and he felt like his chest was shattered apart! The wound was so deep that his bones could be seen. Blood kept spilling out from the wound on his chest and the pain he was feeling was unbearable. A pungent smell of blood stung Luo Tian's nose before a mouthful of it sprayed out.

"Fuuu~, fuuu~, fuuu~..."

He was panting like a cow.

Luo Tian instantly cast Regeneration on himself. His wounds recovered and the pain gradually decreased.

"Secret skill?"

“Starsea Immortal Sect’s secret skill, Regeneration?!”

Yang Jin was extremely shocked by this. He has seen the experts of the Starsea Immortal Sect use Regeneration before, and only the highest-ranking Elders were qualified to cultivate this secret skill. Lu Zhen was an inner sect Elder inside Starsea Immortal Sect yet he still wasn’t qualified to cultivate it. So, how could a Mount Hua Immortal Sect disciple be able to cultivate a secret skill from the Starsea Immortal Sect?

Suddenly...

Yang Jin instantly moved and his figure blurred. He struck Luo Tian in the chest again and smashed him flying once more. He then shouted: “Kid, how come you know the Starsea Immortal Sect’s secret skill?!”

“Bang~!”

Luo Tian flew out for dozens of meters. His expression turned paler and his mouth sprayed out blood once more. He struggled to climb back onto his feet and said with a cold smile: “Is it any of your business?”

In an instant...

Luo Tian clenched his teeth and roared out internally: “Level 7 Berserk!”

“Nine Dragons and Elephants, level 6!”

“Six Dragons and Imperial Elephants, overwhelming power, come out for me!”

“Boom~!”

Two different powers stacked together.

Luo Tian's body turned crimson red and looked like a piece of metal that was heated up. Power was billowing out of his body! He already couldn't fully control level 7 Berserk yet so adding Six Dragons and Imperial Elephants on top of it made it even harder for him to control.

But...

He was all out of options!

Ji Tongtian was too strong.

The Profound Emperor realm was a realm he couldn't reach right now, and the strength gap between them was so great that it could make one's hair stand on its end.

It was the same with Yang Jin.

An orthodox disciple of an immortal sect and possessing a Profound Saint 8th rank cultivation. The cultivation gap difference between them was also very large.

Luo Tian was a youth not even twenty years old yet while these guys were considered monsters who have cultivated for over a thousand years. How could he compare with them?

"Huh?"

"Another half-step saint level martial skill? How many martial skills has this kid trained in?" Yang Jin's expression faintly sank as he felt shocked once more.

At this time...

Ji Tongtian took a step out before charging over for another strike. He was laughing excitedly, "Hahaha, all those martial skills will become mine. They will all be mine! Kid, quickly come to me! Hahaha..."

“Absorption skill!”

“Strip it off for me!”

Ji Tongtian was extremely excited.

The stronger the martial skills, the more excited he became. The martial skills Luo Tian trained in made him excited to the max! He looked like he was afraid Yang Jin would kill Luo Tian ahead of him. Now, he could only quickly use his Absorption skill first so that he could strip Luo Tian of his skills ahead of time.

“F*ck!” Luo Tian directly cursed out.

The flame aura around him started surging about in an even crazier manner.

Even if he couldn't really control his powers or his cultivation gap with Ji Tongtian was too large, or he wasn't an opponent at all, Luo Tian had no fear! F*ck them if they annoy you! Even if you can't f*ck them over, you still had to die trying!

Clenching his teeth!

Luo Tian's gaze sank as he roared out: “Azure Dragon's bloodline, come out for me!”

Also at this moment...

Chapter 530 – Dragon Entering The Void

A dragon's roar resounded across the horizon.

A golden light lit up the whole sky before scattering onto the earth.

A huge figure crushing all myriad living things! Tianxuan Continent's strongest creature!

It's worth mentioning that...

The body shape of a golden eastern dragon and the western dragon is similar, except the eastern dragon's body could be over a hundred times bigger. Its body exuded an aura of violence and brutality! On the back of the Golden Dragon was a smaller Frost Dragon that was unconscious.

It was at the edge of death!

Before the Golden Dragon charged downwards...

Lu Zhen ran over covered in blood and yelled: "That Golden Dragon is that little boy!"

Out of the three immortal sect Elders, he was the only one running over.

He will never forget what he had just experienced previously!

Two dragons.

One Frost Dragon and one young Golden Dragon were standing before him. The shocking scene was something he didn't have words to describe!

As his voice faded...

Yang Jin's expression was strangely excited. "Sure enough, they must be the dragons that have run out from the Sky Palace Divine race location. Hahaha... hahaha... we cannot let them escape!"

Excitement!

Extreme excitement! His purpose in coming here was precisely to find a dragon's bloodline.

While watching the Golden Dragon flying all over the air, Yang Jin's blood started boiling crazily in excitement.

Ji Tongtian's expression hiddenly changed as he said to himself: "The legendary Dragon race still exists, and these immortal sect people already knew about it but didn't tell me. There's truly no one good in the immortal sects. You guys just wait and see..."

"You cannot escape the responsibility of my three son's death!"

Ji Tongtian's expression turned gloomy.

But...

This gloominess only briefly flashed by before turning into a smile. "Elder Yang has really concealed himself quite deeply. You can tell me the true purpose for your immortal sects coming here now, right?"

Yang Jin responded with a faint smile: "City Lord Ji, you can see it as well. Our purpose in coming here is the Dragon race located in the area of the Sky Palace Divine race. That kid killed your three sons so after killing him, there's nothing left for you here."

"You should quickly leave this place afterward."

They no longer needed Ji Tongtian.

Even if they cannot find that injured dragon, getting this Golden Dragon's bloodline will still allow them to defy the heavens. They may not be comparable to Murong Wanjian's true dragon's bloodline, but successfully fusing with it would mean their cultivation would soar to higher realms.

Moreover...

This Golden Dragon seems to have a lot of blood.

If that's the case...

Ji Tongtian's expression hiddenly changed as he smiled coldly and said: "You want to dismantle the bridge after crossing the river?"

Yang Jin harrumphed in disdain and said: "What? Does City Lord Ji wish to have a share in the soup as well? Why don't you take a look at your own moral integrity? What qualifications do you have to get a share from us? A Heaven Opening City like yours is a place I could destroy anytime I want. Do you really think your Profound Emperor 3rd rank cultivation is really that awesome?"

"Don't forget, we are orthodox immortal sect disciples. Even if your cultivation breaks through to another small realm, you're still not our opponent."

"Quickly scam for me so you don't keep embarrassing yourself here."

He didn't give Ji Tongtian any face.

Why would an Elder from the Imperial God Immortal Sect need to give face to a little city lord?

Yang Jin never placed a city like that in his eyes.

A dragon's bloodline is a supreme treasure from heaven and earth. How could he be willing to share such a supreme treasure with others? Besides, there was still a Lu Zhen from the Starsea Immortal Sect. How much would he get if he had to split the treasure amongst three people?

Humans...

Their greed can never be satisfied!

Ji Tongtian's expression turned extremely ugly and his gaze turned gloomy. "Elder Yang, you are truly ruthless. Even though you're an orthodox disciple and a Profound Saint expert that has cultivated immortal force for over a hundred years... so what? My cultivation realm may not be able to kill you, but can your cultivation strength kill me?"

Lu Zhen ran over in a rush and said: "You two should stop arguing. The strength of this Golden Dragon is quite powerful..."

When they were arguing...

Luo Tian looked up at the sky in amazement. He said to himself: "Qin Changtian is really a dragon child. It looks like the Sky Palace Divine race must have encountered some serious problems or else they wouldn't have placed a dragon child with the dragon protector clan's Qin family."

He made a thought to pull back.

The Azure Dragon's power that Luo Tian was about to release was pulled back.

At this time...

He didn't really want to reveal himself this early. The Azure Dragon's bloodline was his last trump card and exposing it meant he would have to kill everyone present.

But even if Luo Tian allows his Azure Dragon's bloodline to explode forth, he still isn't an opponent to those here. No matter how strong his bloodline was, it was restricted by his personal level. After all, his level was simply too low when compared to the others.

Luo Tian clenched his fists, "Level... it's all about levels. The only way is to increase it like crazy!"

In an instant...

The dragon charged downward and sent a sound transmission: "Big brother Luo Tian, jump onto my back."

The moment it dove down...

A golden colored flame sprayed out from the dragon's mouth.

Even space itself was being burned to the point of distorting.

The sound of explosions kept resounding throughout the sky!

Yang Jin's expression hiddenly changed. His Profound Saint 8th rank powers exploded forth and his figure blurred away to dodge.

Ji Tongtian also quickly leaped away with shock on his face.

He could tell that even someone like him wasn't able to block this golden-colored flame!

This kind of power was too strong since it could even burn space!

A young Golden Dragon already has such power, so what about the mature dragons of the Sky Palace Divine race? Luo Tian's mood turned gloomy. When he thought of the dragon egg he possessed, what kind of power could it reach if it was a Chinese dragon of legends?

"F*cking awesome!"

"I have to hatch it!"

Luo Tian couldn't wait anymore.

The moment the dragon sprayed out flames, Luo Tian leaped up and landed on the dragon's back. When he saw that Frost Dragon Little Xie was at the edge of death, Luo Tian frowned and started casting several Healing Art on him.

“Big brother Luo Tian, it’s useless.”

“Normal healing spells are useless on the injuries big brother Little Xie has suffered.” The dragon transmitted.

It then flew into the sky and continued speaking: “Big brother Luo Tian, hold on tight. I’m going to enter the void to escape.”

“Huh?”

Luo Tian was startled by this. He originally thought it would be easy to deal with Ji Tongtian and the others. He didn’t expect that they would be trying to escape instead. He then thought back to when Little Xie was half-dead and wanted to transform into a dragon.

“Not good!”

“They’re trying to escape!”

“We can’t let them run!”

The three of them became anxious.

They all flew into the sky and chased after at lightning speeds.

However...

Right at this moment, the Golden Dragon flew into the sky like a fighter jet while a series of dragon language came out of its dragon mouth. A black hole like barrier suddenly appeared in front of it before it flew inside.

Dragon entering the void?!

“Chase after it!” Yang Jin roared out with all his effort.

Except, their speed was much slower than the Golden Dragon.

Luo Tian looked back at the three of them. He then yelled out while standing on the back of the Golden Dragon: “Ji Tongtian, Yang Jin; you two just wait for this daddy! Your daddy will pay today’s enmity back by thousands of times!”

“Boom~!”

The void door closed.

Luo Tian’s vision turned black before his eyes were dazzled by a golden light.

As they shot out of the void, Luo Tian praised in joy: “Tian Tian is so good!”

“Big, big brother Luo Tian. I, I, I almost can’t hold on anymore.”

His voice was extremely weak.

His body started plummeting down like a kite with its string cut

Over 10,000 meters high in the sky!

Two hundred million experience points!
