Chapter 551 – Dragon Egg Acting Abnormal

The quest difficulty was gradually increasing.

Luo Tian didn't have any detailed plans to follow. He was also clueless about the internal matters of the Sky Palace and the Dragon race.

Is the Sky Dragon's Bead supposed to explode out from a boss? Or is it located somewhere with one of the dragon clans?"

Will the Dragon God's Soul only be rewarded after quest completion? Or is there another way to get it?

Luo Tian wasn't clear on any of it.

Luo Tian sighed internally and said to himself: "I will take it one step at a time. First, release the news about the Sky Dragon's Bead, and then try to complete the SSS-rank quest. After that, try to hatch the dragon egg as quickly as possible so that I won't have to worry even if I end up meeting an even stronger opponent."

The SSS-rank quest was split up into three parts.

Luo Tian already completed the first part. Now, he was on the second part to help the Dragon race resolve their crisis.

The quest completion criteria...

Was to kill the Nether King and the Black Dragon King. They were the two strongest subordinates of the Eight-winged Golden Dragon!

Very simple!

They are both super powerful bosses! A six-winged angel and one that was once the Dragon race's strongest warrior – both at the peak of supreme existences! Wishing to kill them wasn't your normal definition of difficult. Even the Dragon Emperor didn't have certainty in killing the two.

But...

The harder the quest was, the more excited it made Luo Tian. He couldn't wait because killing those two bosses would definitely result in a magnificent loot explosion. Moreover, he had a feeling that his next target after that, the Eight-winged Golden Dragon may trigger a system reward!

"We're back at the stronghold!"

"Everyone follow up."

"Idol, please go ahead first."

"Watch out for the rocks on the ground. Idol, those two slaps of yours were simply too handsome! I have never seen such a handsome human before. I have a little sister called Ai Xi, do you want me to introduce her to you?"

"Ai Xi? The Frost Archer Ashe?"

"Frost Archer? Uhhh... she does enjoy shooting archery when she has nothing to do. Idol, do you want me to introduce you to her?"

"What did you say?" Luo Tian then softly whispered: "Do it, I will follow you later."

"I also have a little sister. Idol, you should accept my little sister as well."

"My neighbor's uncle also has a daughter. Idol... idol... can you accept her as well?"

For a brief moment, all the Frost Dragon Warriors wanted to get acquainted with Luo Tian and tried to get their little sisters betrothed to him. Luo Tian started to have a headache but when he heard the name Ai Xi, his eyes revealed his shock and he started drooling internally.

If he could...

“Gulp~!”

Luo Tian swallowed his saliva and started becoming excited. “Goddess... a girl with the name Ai Xi will definitely be a Goddess existence. And since she’s part of the Frost Dragon clan, she really might be the Frost Archer from League of Legends.”

So awesome!

Luo Tian instantly turned excited to the extreme.

When Lun Sa watched Luo Tian and the others, his face revealed his annoyance. His expression was fierce and his tongue was moving about in his mouth before he spat out some saliva mixed with blood. He then said coldly internally: “Damn dog thing, you just wait for this daddy! Just wait for me to take your dog’s life! Humph~!”

Immediately after...

Lun Sa then whispered: “Take a shortcut and quickly head back to the stronghold and notify Earth Dragon King that the Dragon Emperor’s son is back.”

“I obey!”

One of the Earth Dragon Warriors quickly split from the group.

Lun Sa once more spat out a glob of saliva mixed with blood. He then muttered: “What the hell is Tai Long doing? He can’t even take care of a little bastard!”

Blood Sea Hall.

Blood Ghost with a hand cut off returned in an embarrassing manner.

Inside the main hall.

Tai Long started smiling with interest and said: "Interesting... very interesting. A mere lowly human can instantly kill eleven Blood Ghosts, and he could even tell their positions accurately. This kind of strong sea of consciousness already exceeds the peak of the Profound Saint realm. What's the most interesting is that he can transform into the devil sect's strongest battle god – Xingtian. He wears the Blood God's Armor, holds the Blood God Sword, and cultivates Blood Shadow, a secret skill from the devil sect. This human is truly not simple."

"Lord!"

"I can immediately send someone to kill him."

"Since he's just someone from a lowly race, killing him is too easy." Black Dragon King stood forward and said this.

Tai Long faintly smiled and replied: "No need to rush. Since this human has come to Sky Palace, he will definitely end up dying. It's just a matter of time. You two should just focus your efforts on surrounding Dragon Mountain. When the time is ripe, we will wipe out the Dragon race in one fell swoop."

"As for the human kid, heh heh..."

Tai Long smiled evilly and said softly: "Hasn't Earth Dragon King always wanted our support for him to rise up? If he wants us to help him, one naturally needs to pay a price. We will have him take care of that kid."

"Heh heh..."

“Perhaps, we can wipe out the Dragon race without needing a single soldier.”

“Oh Earth Dragon King, I hope your performance doesn’t disappoint me. Hahaha...”

Tai Long started laughing crazily.

The depths of Dragon Mountain, the stronghold of the Dragon race.

Instead of calling it a stronghold, one might describe it as looking like a backwater indigenous tribe.

Everything looked poor and crude.

Whether it be their defenses or their houses, they all looked very crude. One might even say it couldn’t even compare with an indigenous tribal village.

Luo Tian felt like his mind was being distorted. In his previous life, movies depicted the Dragon race as beings that enjoyed being clean and hoarding anything flashy and gleaming with luxury. Luo Tian thought coming to the dragon’s stronghold would be like going to the gnome race’s stronghold. He could sweep up a bunch of precious goods for himself! He was secretly glad that he had changed to a newer and larger spatial ring so he could store everything like crazy. What he never imagined was the scene before him looked like a very large pig’s pen.

What happened to all the golden sparkly things?

Not a single one!

“Big brother Luo Tian, this place is a bit crude... The place we used to live in was very luxurious. But now... sigh~...” Qin Changtian could only sigh to himself.

People in front of the stronghold noticed Kai Lun's return.

Apart from those of the Frost Dragon clan, everyone else revealed looks of disdain.

Kai Lun pretended he didn't see a thing.

"His Highness is back!"

"His Highness is back!"

Suddenly...

The entire stronghold was boiling up. People started coming over like an ocean tide and their passionate eyes all focused on him. Qin Changtian was the hope for all these dragons to continue living. He was the sole motivating factor for these dragons to persist for so many years.

He has returned, and the Dragon race can be saved.

Qin Changtian secretly clenched his fists beneath his sleeves. When he saw their passionate gazes towards him, he felt like he really hated himself. "Why? Why can't I comprehend the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart? Why?"

His heart felt like it was crying tears of blood.

Luo Tian gently patted Qin Changtian's shoulder and said with a smile: "Don't be afraid, there's still me here to take care of everything."

Qin Changtian looked up at Luo Tian and his gaze became steadier.

The dragon egg inside Luo Tian suddenly burst into joy.

It looked like it was really happy.

Luo Tian smiled and said through his senses: “Does it feel good to return home?”

The dragon egg suddenly stopped moving.

Luo Tian couldn't understand this, “No? Then what are you excited about? Could it be that your parents are here?”

The dragon egg didn't move.

Luo Tian was too lazy to keep guessing. Since the thing couldn't talk, who knows why it's rolling about like that?

Chapter 552 – Earth Dragon King

“You're moving all over the place but cannot speak, so how am I supposed to know what you want?”

The dragon egg kept moving about agitatedly.

There was a lot of movement inside and the shell was glowing red. Everything made it look like it was about to break out of the shell.

Luo Tian started getting excited watching this and asked: “Are you about to hatch?”

“Damn it!”

“Eggy, if you’re going to hatch soon, then hurry up and hatch! Don’t wait any longer! This big brother’s hair is about to turn white from waiting for you to hatch. Just hurry up and do it if you’re going to hatch out!”

It would be awesome to the extreme if the egg was going to hatch!

Everything would become much simpler then.

But when Luo Tian was done speaking, the dragon egg stopped moving about like it had no further intention of doing anything.

It was very clear that it wasn’t going to hatch.

Luo Tian rolled his eyes and said: “If you aren’t going to hatch, why the hell are you causing such a ruckus?! Just keep quiet for me! If you dare act crazy again, watch if I dare to slap you flying or not!”

The dragon egg faintly shook like it was afraid of Luo Tian.

Just when it wanted to move about once more, Luo Tian widened his eyes and the dragon egg stopped moving.

Luo Tian didn’t bother with it anymore.

It would inevitably be excited since it came back to Sky Palace and to its Dragon race. If Luo Tian returned to Earth, he too would be extremely excited. This was a natural reaction and very normal. Luo Tian no longer thought about it since he felt that everything would be useless unless it hatched.

“Your Highness!”

“Your Highness...”

An elderly person with bluish-green scales rushed over. The old man's white eyebrows and beard were so long that it almost reached his waist. He was extremely agitated the moment he laid eyes on Qin Changtian.

Qin Changtian was also agitated when he saw the elderly man. He ran over and shouted: "Grandpa Mei Lin!"

"It's good that you're back. It's good that you're back."

Mei Lin's eyes were glittering with tears as he gently rubbed Qin Changtian's head. He then said kindly: "It's good that you're back. Don't leave this place anymore, your imperial father is waiting for you. Quickly come with me."

After saying that...

Mei Lin pulled Qin Changtian as they walked towards the largest structure of this place.

Qin Changtian also missed his father dearly. When he found out that his father was injured by Tai Long, he felt more urgent to see his father. His attention was solely on this so he overlooked Luo Tian. He had already rushed away and didn't give any orders relating to Luo Tian.

Little Xie also missed his own father.

Little Xie also rushed off.

The only people left were Luo Tian, Kai Lun, and several Frost Dragon Warriors.

The bodies of the Dragon race were rather tall, so Luo Tian standing amongst them looked kind of small.

"A human?"

“The most despicable and sinister race out of everyone?”

“Kai Lun, have you lost your mind after getting beat up by Fu Leide? You actually dared to bring a human back to the stronghold.”

“We’re currently in difficult times so why did you bring a human here for? It’s highly possible this human is a spy sent by Tai Long. Kid, you better scam out from Dragon Mountain now, or else don’t blame me for being impolite.”

The dragon race was very hostile towards the human race.

Back then...

It was the Dragon race that triggered the innate bloodlines which allowed the humans to become so strong.

Instead of thanking them, the humans started slaughtering the Dragon race hoping to fuse with their dragon blood!

It was fortunate that the Dragon Emperor had foresight of what was going to happen. He used the strength of the entire Dragon race to create a separate dimensional space above Tianxuan Continent – the Sky Palace!

In the hearts of many Dragon race members...

They all had to hide here because of the humans; those despicable and sinister humans!

Therefore, the majority of the Dragon race was hostile towards the human race. It was the same with Kai Lun, except he found Luo Tian was different from the other humans after being around him for a period of time. Especially when he found out Luo Tian was extremely powerful.

The Dragon race had powerful physiques and abilities.

Because of that, they happened to be the race that worshipped the strong the most.

Now, apart from Kai Lun and his team, everyone was staring at Luo Tian with hostility.

Luo Tian didn't say anything.

Kai Lun then said: "He is His Highness's friend, his savior, and also our savior. During the journey back here, we encountered twelve members of the Blood Ghost Assassin Group. If it weren't for him, we would've died on our way back here."

"Big brother Luo Tian killed eleven Blood Ghosts by himself, and they were killed instantly! He is extremely strong!"

"Big brother Luo Tian was the one that killed Karter who was guarding at the entrance to our Sky Palace. He also killed two orthodox immortal sect high stage Profound Saint experts. He is currently my, Fei Lun's idol. You guys don't understand how strong my idol is."

The Frost Dragon Warriors were all speaking up in excitement.

But...

Before they could finish speaking, the people around them started laughing loudly.

"Hahaha..."

"Just him alone can kill a Blood Ghost? And you say he killed eleven of them? Kai Lun, are you sure you didn't see wrongly? He actually killed eleven blood-sucking mosquitoes of the Blood Ghost Assassin Group?"

"Yeah, how can it be possible for a human at the Profound Venerate 4th rank to kill a single person from the Blood Ghost Assassin Group?"

“Do you think we’re idiots? Killing Karter and Profound Saint experts from the immortal sects? Aren’t you afraid of biting your tongue from bluffing that exaggeratedly? Humans have always been known to blow their own trumpets out of proportions. I think I’m going to laugh myself to death this time!”

No one believed it.

One of the Frost Dragon Warriors insisted, “What we’ve said is the truth! Big brother Luo Tian is really strong! Even Commander Lun Sa of the Earth Dragon Warriors isn’t his opponent!”

“It’s fine if you guys don’t believe it, but don’t slander my idol.”

“...”

They were all trying to defend Luo Tian.

Luo Tian then said with a faint smile: “When a person doesn’t believe you, you can always try explaining to them. When a whole group of people doesn’t believe you, there’s no need for you to explain because no matter how much you explain, no one will believe in you. The best method is to use your strength to prove everything.”

“Good!”

“What a good use your strength to prove everything”

“Humph~!”

Suddenly...

A group of people was coming over, and they all had extremely powerful physiques!

In the lead was a sturdy-looking male around 40 something years old. The male had a strong aura coming from his body and with every step he took, an earthen yellow energy wave would ripple outwards. This kind of energy was quite domineering!

Beside him, Lun Sa's cheeks were still swollen red while he glared at Luo Tian coldly.

The crowd quickly split apart.

A large portion of them bowed respectfully, "Paying respects to General Earth Dragon King."

Earth Dragon King walked forward and coldly glanced at Luo Tian before asking in disdain: "Are you the one that beat up my subordinate?"

Looking down from a higher advantage point...

While his expression was extremely cold and arrogant.

Luo Tian slightly looked up and also said with disdain: "Is he your subordinate? I thought he was just a random filthy dog."

"Damn dog thing, who are you calling a dog?!" Lun Sa immediately yelled in anger.

Luo Tian grinned without any fear. He then pointed at Lun Sa's face and said arrogantly: "This daddy is calling you a dog. I'm already praising you by calling you a dog because you're technically not even comparable to one."

You're not giving me any face?

Why do I need to give you face?

Luo Tian had always been like that!

“Presumptuous!”

Chapter 553 – This Daddy Will Slap You To Death

Suppressive powers surged out like the waves of the sea and crashed into Luo Tian’s sea of consciousness.

Luo Tian’s gaze turned solemn.

The power of the Titan God’s Might was raised to the peak as it was ready to clash with it head-on.

Within an instant...

Another suppressive pressure that felt like a ten thousand year old iceberg intercepted Earth Dragon King’s pressure, but this new power seemed to be unable to block for long.

“Earth Dragon King!”

“He is His Highness’s savior! Treating the benefactor of the Dragon race like this isn’t too good, right?!”

Another area of the crowd.

A male covered in icy intent and crystal-like scales came forward. Following behind him was Little Xie.

There’s no need to say...

This person was obviously Little Xie’s father, Frost Dragon King – Bing Shuang.

People would just call him Frost Dragon King.

He was in control of the Dragon race's Frost Dragon Warriors. Frost Dragons were once the strongest and the most populous clan of the Dragon race. Except for a few months ago, the large Frost Dragon army was ambushed and over ten thousand of them were either seriously injured or died in a single night!

Frost Dragon King was seriously injured and by the time he returned to the stronghold, he was already on his last leg.

Even now, his face clearly showed he was sickly and weak.

The large Frost Dragon Army failed and their status in the Dragon race instantly plummeted.

The second strongest, the Earth Dragon clan, took this opportunity to rise up and became the strongest out of the Dragon race. A few days after the Frost Dragon Army failed, Earth Dragon King made a breakthrough one night and became the strongest warrior of the Dragon race.

The Dragon Emperor was injured and his life was hanging by a thread.

Frost Dragon King was seriously injured and wouldn't recover for a while. The Dragon race became rocky with waves and internal factions forming. Amidst all of this, Earth Dragon King became an important catalyst because his status had already reached a terrifying level.

If the Dragon Emperor dies, he would become the new Dragon Emperor.

Earth Dragon King coldly harrumphed before mocking: "Frost Dragon King, why are you running over here instead of resting at home? If I were you, I wouldn't have jumped out interfering with a matter that you shouldn't have interfered with."

Rage surged up inside Frost Dragon King's heart.

When has anyone dared to say such words to him before?

Back then when Earth Dragon King saw him, he would walk by with his head lowered. Now, he wasn't even placing him in his eyes.

"Humph~!"

Earth Dragon King heavily harrumphed and said to himself: "Damn dog thing, using the Dragon Emperor to suppress this daddy? Just you wait. When that old thing dies in a few more days, you will be the first one to meet my blade. You just wait and see."

Immediately after...

Earth Dragon King said: "I don't care who he is and who he saved. The only thing I know is that he beat up my subordinate. Warriors of the Dragon race have never feared anyone. If someone attacks them, we will attack them back."

"Lun Sa!" yelled Earth Dragon King.

Lun Sa immediately stepped forward and shouted: "Your subordinate is here!"

Earth Dragon King coldly glanced at Luo Tian before saying: "Attack him in whatever method he used to attack you. I will directly cripple whoever dares to interfere with this matter!"

"I obey!"

Lun Sa started smiling evilly. He pulled up his sleeves and stared at Luo Tian, "Damn dog thing, you dare to hit this daddy? It looks like you're tired of living."

Frost Dragon King shouted: "Earth Dragon King, this is the Dragon race stronghold! You dare to instigate your subordinate to attack here? Don't forget, private fights are not allowed here, and whoever violates it will be punished severely!"

Earth Dragon King didn't even give Frost Dragon King a glance. He only shouted: "Frost Dragon King, I have not forgotten the laws of our Dragon race. But you shouldn't forget that the law is only for our fellow Dragon race brethren while he is only a lowly inferior human."

"This isn't included in our laws, right?"

After saying that...

Earth Dragon King once again shouted: "Lun Sa, make your move!"

"Yes!"

Frost Dragon King shouted once more: "You dare?!"

Earth Dragon King's brows furrowed as he shouted coldly: "Frost Dragon King, are you really going to interfere when I'm teaching a lesson to a reckless human?! You need to consider the consequences. If I'm not happy, none of you will end up happy either!"

Frost Dragon King's expression turned solemn.

Earth Dragon King was currently in power and half the military powers were under his control. Moreover, one-third of the Dragon race Elders supported him. If he starts causing trouble, the Dragon race will definitely be in chaos. At that time, they would not be able to resist Tai Long's Dark Army as a whole.

The moment he was hesitating...

Earth Dragon King smiled smugly and shouted: "Make your move!"

"Stay your hand!"

Suddenly...

Mei Lin walked out while supporting a sickly old man. The old man was giving off a faint golden glow but Luo Tian could tell it wasn't the glow of a boss. It was the glow coming from the old man's scales. This was the special characteristic of a Golden Dragon, so he must be the Dragon race's Dragon Emperor!

Earth Dragon King's brows faintly leaped up.

Everyone bowed and said: "Paying respects to the Dragon Emperor!"

The Dragon Emperor was unstable on his feet and his face was pale white. He looked at Luo Tian and smiled politely before saying: "Brother Luo, thank you for taking care of my child throughout the journey. You are a distinguished guest of my Dragon race so no one will dare to do anything to you."

Luo Tian also smiled back politely and replied: "Thank you."

Earth Dragon King's expression showed he was clearly unhappy as he said: "Dragon Emperor, he is only a lowly human. Even if he has saved His Highness, he insulted my subordinate in public by slapping him twice. This kind of insult is a huge shame to us higher tier races. We have to avenge such hatred, otherwise, how can we convince the mass? How would our race see me in their eyes? If they happen to use this opportunity to cause trouble, who's going to take responsibility for this?"

His tone was neither soft nor hard.

But the undertone was very aggressive.

His meaning was very obvious.

If you don't let me mess with this kid today, this daddy will fall out with you right now!

The Dragon Emperor's expression turned solemn.

Frost Dragon King immediately shouted: "Earth Dragon King, are you threatening our Dragon Emperor?!"

Earth Dragon King smiled coldly and replied: "I don't dare to, I am only voicing out the facts. As one of the leaders of the Dragon race, I have to take into consideration our well-being. Otherwise, how am I supposed to lead them to resist the Dark Army?"

"You...!" Frost Dragon King was so angry that he couldn't even speak.

At this time...

Luo Tian felt he understood the Dragon race's main issue. He walked forward with a smile and said: "You want revenge, right? It's possible for me to go along but you need the necessary strength to back it up."

"You want to slap me back, right?"

"Come, come, come. I'm going to stand here and not move, so come if you have the ability!"

Luo Tian stood directly in front of Lun Sa.

Earth Dragon King coldly harrumphed. He wasn't afraid of the Dragon Emperor or Frost Dragon King. He directly commanded: "Make your move! Viciously slap him to death!"

Lun Sa grinned fiercely and said: "You damn trash, go die for me!"

He raised his palm and released his dragon's might. This slap of his was going to be a fatal strike. Anyone getting slapped by it will definitely have their neck broken!

Except...

The moment he raised his palm for a slap...

A powerful energy surged out of Luo Tian's body – the power of the Azure Dragon's bloodline! The Azure Dragon roared and the entire stronghold started shaking violently. The oppressive pressure of an Azure Dragon surged out overbearingly!

Luo Tian condensed all his powers while he raised his palm. "This daddy will slap you to death instead!"

"Pak~!"

Lun Sa's head fell off and rolled around...

Chapter 554 – Supreme Divine Weapon

The power behind the slap was extremely heavy and fierce to the extreme, directly ripping Lun Sa's head right off!

Fresh blood sprayed out.

His body was still standing upright. Blood came out like a fountain and splattered all over the place.

Lun Sa's head was still rolling and only stopped when it bumped against Earth Dragon King's foot. Lun Sa's eyes were still wide open while it stared at Earth Dragon King.

He died!

Instantly killed by a slap!

This...

The surrounding area turned quiet. It felt like the whole stronghold had become so quiet that a pin drop could be heard.

Everyone's eyes were wide and their mouths opened as they stared at Luo Tian.

"He, he, he, he..."

"Lun Sa, Lun Sa, Lun Sa is dead?"

"A single slap knocked his head right off."

"Was that just a dragon's roar? How come I've never heard of such a roar before? It's kind of similar to our Dragon God. Could this kid...?"

There was shock in their voices and they stuttered their words. All of their thoughts had been distorted and incomprehensible.

At this time...

Luo Tian slightly looked up and coldly stared at Earth Dragon King. He then harrumphed: "Calling him a dog is practically insulting all the dogs. Are you unhappy about this? If you aren't happy about it, just come at me!"

Directly provoking him!

There was no intention of cowering back.

Since he had to solve the Dragon race's crisis, he had to first settle the internal conflicts.

Earth Dragon King's faction was the strongest, and Luo Tian could see the ambition oozing in his eyes. Vicious and sinister. As long as he was given a tiny opportunity, he will definitely use the chance to take over the Dragon race. With him in control of the Dragon race, Luo Tian will have an extremely difficult time if he wants to complete his quest and find the Sky Dragon's Bead.

Moreover...

If Earth Dragon King controls the Dragon race, his SSS-rank quest will fail!

Earth Dragon King's gaze turned vicious as a powerful dragon aura exploded out from his body. An earthen yellow glow surrounded him and the dirt around his feet started floating above the surface. His whole persona made him look like he had entered into a state of berserk.

Powerful!

So powerful that using words would be hard to describe it!

"General Earth Dragon King is enraged."

"What a terrifying dragon's aura! His cultivation realm has already reached a horrifying level. For this human to directly kill his subordinate in front of him, that's basically not giving him any face at all. That human is definitely not going to live much longer."

"General, kill him! Avenge Commander Lun Sa! Kill him..."

For a brief moment...

The Earth Dragon clan and their warriors all scolded Luo Tian.

Frost Dragon King's brows were furrowed.

Kai Lun took a step forward and stood next to Luo Tian.

His Frost Dragon Warrior subordinates also stood forward and stood to either side of Luo Tian. Their eyes were calm but their fists were clenched. As long as Earth Dragon King dares to make a move, they wouldn't care about anything and block any fatal attacks aimed at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian had saved them.

The Frost Dragon clan were dragons that paid their debt of gratitude. Whether it be ten times or a hundred times, they were a clan that would pay back that debt without hesitation.

Moreover...

They were completely convinced by Luo Tian's strength, his arrogance, and his domineering attitude. They practically worshipped him! For Luo Tian, they didn't mind falling out with the Earth Dragon clan at all!

The atmosphere instantly became tense.

Over a hundred Earth Dragon Warriors in the area were eyeing them with hostility. Their eyes were filled with cold killing intent.

Luo Tian had no fear while he just stared at Earth Dragon King without blinking.

Earth Dragon King was staring back at him.

Luo Tian's momentum wasn't any weaker than the Earth Dragon King.

The sickly Dragon Emperor suddenly stomped down.

"Boom~!"

A powerful energy surged out from his foot. His body flashed golden yellow before his Golden Dragon's might enshrouded the entire area. He then shouted: "Lun Sa made the first move, so he deserved to be killed! Earth Dragon King, are you really going to stand up for him?!"

His eyes opened wide.

His majestic power was directly pressing into Earth Dragon King.

At this moment...

The Dragon Emperor was showing his unparalleled powers! His powers were so strong that it instilled fear in everyone! Was this still a seriously injured Dragon Emperor?

There were no signs of injury on him.

Earth Dragon King's brows were furrowed. He said to himself: "Wasn't he supposed to be seriously injured? Why can he still release such powerful Golden Dragon's Might? Did Tai Long lie to me? Or did he already recover and has been pretending to be sick?"

"You damn old fox, who would've expected you to be this sinister?"

"Humph~!"

"Just wait and see, this daddy will kill you one day."

Earth Dragon King's heart tightened before he revealed a hypocritical smile. He then said: "Since our Dragon Emperor wants to protect him, I have nothing else to say. But Dragon Emperor, you must be clear that he is only a human. Humans are the greatest enemies of our Dragon race. The reason our Dragon race has to huddle up inside Sky Palace is all because of those humans. For you to disappoint our Earth Dragon clan over a human, do you really think it's worth it?"

His tone was calm.

But it still contained a strong threat behind it.

Frost Dragon King's eyes turned fierce before shouting: "Earth Dragon King, what do you mean by that?! You can just directly say whatever you want to say!"

The Dragon Emperor's face had a red glow as his voice lowered: "Are you threatening me?"

The aura around him drastically changed.

The oppressive pressure of his Golden Dragon's Might directly surged out. It smashed into Earth Dragon King and made him unable to breathe properly! The Dragon Emperor frowned and shouted: "What I've just said was very clear – Lun Sa's death was his own fault. He dared to jump out even though his abilities were not up to par, humph~!"

Earth Dragon King was crushed to the point of extreme discomfort. He felt surer that the Dragon Emperor was only pretending to be sick. Even during his peak, his Golden Dragon powers didn't have such a powerful pressure. Earth Dragon King's heart sank before saying out loud: "I don't dare to."

Immediately after...

Earth Dragon King turned around and said: "Let's go!"

He then gave Luo Tian a cold side glance and said: "Kid, you just wait and see!"

Earth Dragon King brought his Earth Dragon Warriors away.

Frost Dragon King's expression turned to joy. He rushed over and asked: "Big brother, have your injuries recovered?"

The Dragon Emperor didn't say anything and just looked at Luo Tian and said: "Come with me!"

Luo Tian didn't think too much and only furrowed his brows.

Others may not know but he was very clear about it. The Dragon Emperor's health bar went from 110,000 to 30,000 points and it was still declining one point at a time. The injuries inside him had broken out!

That previous Golden Dragon's suppression made his health bar drop by over 50,000 points.

If the Earth Dragon King didn't leave and stay for a few more minutes, most likely the Dragon Emperor wouldn't be able to endure anymore.

"No one follows us. I want to speak to him alone." The Dragon Emperor's expression sank and his body faintly trembled. He had been holding on with dear life, afraid that he would reveal his bluff. He could suppress Earth Dragon King for now, but if he agitated his injuries once more, most likely no one here could stop him.

At that time...

There would be no need for Tai Long to make a move anymore because the Dragon race would collapse by itself.

He had to make arrangements for everything.

Right now...

The main thing he wanted to do was to ensure the Dragon race's bloodline and the only one he could rely on was Luo Tian. He was very clear that the current Dragon race's strength cannot resist the Dark Army.

Luo Tian followed in silence.

When they walked to the center of the tribal stronghold, a huge dragon stone pillar made the dragon egg jump around agitatedly.

One couldn't see the top of the dragon stone pillar! There were 108 eight-clawed golden dragons entangled around it. The dragon egg was jumping about in excitement so much that even Luo Tian felt annoyed by it. Luo Tian didn't know what this was about so he opened up his system interface to check the dragon stone pillar's attributes.

"Oh damn!"

Chapter 555 – Too Screwed Up!

"Holy f*cking hell!"

Luo Tian's mouth was in an O shape as he was shocked beyond shock.

He's had divine weapons explode from loots before.

He's had divine artifacts explode out as well. He's killed many powerful bosses, entered Dark Mountain Corpse City, the Gnome territories, immortal sects, Dark North Sea to search for the Titans, and now he had arrived at the most mysterious place of Tianxuan Continent – the Sky Palace.

Luo Tian considered himself as someone that has seen the world.

But...

He was so shocked that he stood frozen like a dumb idiot!

"Powerful!"

"Way too powerful!"

Luo Tian swallowed a large mouthful of saliva while his eyes glowed brightly. He wanted to snatch this dragon stone pillar and run home with it! Except, this stone pillar was too ginormous where he couldn't even see the top of it.

The base showed 108 fierce-looking dragon heads. The carvings were so life-like that they looked like they were alive and moving about. It gave the beholder a sense of deterrence effect.

Their dragon bodies were entrenched into the pillar.

Their dragon scales looked like they were moving. Every single inch of the carving contained a powerful aura like all 108 dragon's might was hidden inside it.

This made Luo Tian think of a very familiar novel of his previous life – Journey To The West. This dragon stone pillar was very similar to the Divine Sea Stabilizing Needle. Or in other words, this was Monkey King Sun Wukong's Golden Hooped Rod!

Thinking up to this point...

Luo Tian once more swallowed a large mouthful of saliva. "It's also within the Dragon race. One was in the East Sea Palace while the other one is in the Sky Palace Dragon race stronghold. Oh my god, this can't really be the Golden Hooped Rod, is it?"

"This is too..."

Luo Tian's brows furrowed as he softly muttered: "My computer never had the novel Journey To The West but I did have a few novels that had main characters based on Sun Wukong. It can't be... damn! Lord System, can you not be so awesome?"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian asked: "Eggy, you were so excited because of this thing, right?"

The dragon egg immediately started rolling about.

Luo Tian froze for a bit before opening up the system interface for a better look.

Item: Dragon God's Pillar

Grade: Supreme? ? ?

Characteristic: ? ? ?

Description: The Dragon race's most powerful divine weapon, forged by the Dragon God.

The description was so simple that it made one's hair stand on its end. He couldn't figure out anything more from it. Luo Tian then asked in his mind: "This divine weapon was forged by your ancestor. Did he become famous while using it?"

The dragon egg kept moving about.

Upon thinking of the Golden Hooped Rod, he then said: "Could it be that it can shrink down to become smaller?"

The dragon egg started jumping about in excitement like it was praising Luo Tian.

"Damn, that can't be for real, right?" Luo Tian held down his agitation and asked: "Do you know how to make it smaller?"

The dragon egg moved about once more.

Luo Tian started laughing internally and revealed an evil grin. "Tonight, you will teach me how to shrink it and we'll steal it! With this supreme divine weapon, wouldn't I end up being invincible in the world? It would be much easier to find the Dragon God's soul and hatch you then!"

The dragon egg stopped moving.

“Eh?”

“Eggy, your face doesn’t seem quite right. It’s a waste for the Dragon race to have such a good divine weapon and not use it. It will display the greatest use while in my hands, and I can help the Dragon race solve their crisis. Isn’t that a win-win situation?” Luo Tian analyzed.

Supreme divine weapon?!

Most likely there wouldn’t be a second one in the entire Tianxuan Continent!

This is a super awesome existence!

With it, I’ll have a higher chance to completely crush Murong Wanjian. I will also have one more thing to show off!

But Eggy wasn’t on board with it!

Seeing how Eggy wasn’t moving, Luo Tian continued: “What’s going on? Eggy, this thing would be great for me to use. Could it be that you don’t want me to have it?”

The dragon egg started moving about once more.

Luo Tian’s expression changed while he said: “You’re saying I’m not suited for it?”

The dragon egg rolled about.

Luo Tian immediately lost all hope in life and felt like the world completely sucked. It wasn't easy for him to encounter a supreme divine weapon and now it was right before his eyes. Then, someone goes ahead to tell him that he wasn't suited for it. This...

A little too screwed up, right?

This was similar to a girl using everything possible to seduce you. She takes off all her clothes, starts posing in a variety of seductive postures, sticks out her juicy tight butt, pushes out her large round twin peaks, reveals all her jade like snow white skin, and exuding the most alluring aura possible.

This completely hooks Luo Tian's little brother.

The tent has been erected, killing intent is rising, and the giant bulge in his pants is like a spear that's about to pierce the sky.

At this moment, the girl tells you she's having her period!

This...

Isn't this practically taking one's life?

Luo Tian instantly started scolding: "Do you have to be like this?! Why the f*ck are you so excited then?! It has nothing to do with me! Since I can't use this thing, why are you guiding me towards it then?!"

Luo Tian was no longer in the mood to even look at the dragon stone pillar.

The dragon egg was like a child that had done something wrong and didn't dare to move anymore.

Luo Tian exhaled a deep breath of air and calmed his mood. He then asked: "Since I cannot use it, does that mean you can use it?"

At this time...

The dragon egg started moving once more.

“Fine, this was something forged by your ancestor so for you to be able to use it is only logical. When you hatch out, you can come get it yourself.” Luo Tian sighed without any spirit but he was a bit happy.

It’s just that he had flown to heaven and was suddenly plunged down to hell, so he didn’t know how to react.

“Come in!”

The Dragon Emperor’s voice was a bit depressed as he urged Luo Tian at the doorway.

Looking at Luo Tian blanking out at the base of the dragon stone pillar, he then said: “This is all we have left. Ten thousand years ago, my Dragon race created the Sky Palace. In reality, we used most of our energy to move this pillar into the Sky Palace. Just because of this, several tens of thousands of our Dragon race warriors died.”

Luo Tian recovered and asked: “Dragon Emperor, do you know how to use it?”

The Dragon Emperor was startled by the question and said: “Use it? That’s just our Dragon race’s stone totem and cannot be used. It was something left behind by our ancestors so that’s why we had to move it into the Sky Palace.”

“Huh?”

Luo Tian hid his surprise and said to himself: “It looks like they don’t know this dragon stone pillar is actually a supreme divine weapon. Since even the Dragon Emperor doesn’t know about it, then most likely no one else in the Dragon race knows either. Yet the dragon egg knows what it is, so could it be that the dragon egg is the son of the Dragon God...?”

“Dragon God!”

“Eggy, oh Eggy, what’s your background?”

“So very mysterious.”

“I’m really looking forward to it!”

Luo Tian felt like he really couldn’t wait to see what would happen. He wanted the dragon egg to hatch as soon as possible so that he would look extremely cool at that time!

“Fuuu~...”

“Dragon God’s Soul, where could it be?”

Luo Tian’s heart sank a bit before he followed the Dragon Emperor into the tent.

“Eh?”

The Dragon Emperor sprayed out a mouthful of black blood. His body weakened and fell towards the ground in a paralyzed state.

If it weren’t for Luo Tian supporting him, he would’ve hit the ground already.

Luo Tian furrowed his brows, and quickly cast Regeneration.

“Ommm~!”

After using Regeneration, he noticed the Dragon Emperor’s health bar didn’t even go up by a single point. Luo Tian’s expression changed as he said to himself: “How could it be like this?”

Chapter 556 – Goddess, Here I Come

Luo Tian came out with a calm look like nothing had happened.

Outside the tent.

There were many Dragon Warriors staring at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian smiled and said: “The Dragon Emperor is going into closed door seclusion in order to make a breakthrough. He’s not coming out for a while.”

In fact...

The Dragon Emperor had already died and his corpse was placed inside Luo Tian’s spatial ring.

If the news of his death was announced while the Dragon race was in such a situation, there will definitely be chaos. There will no longer be anyone that can suppress Earth Dragon King. Apart from this issue, Luo Tian also found out Earth Dragon King was colluding with Tai Long.

This meant the news of the Dragon Emperor dying definitely cannot be spread out.

“Closed-door seclusion?!”

“Isn’t the timing a bit off to going into seclusion right now? The Dark Army has already surrounded the Dragon Mountain so who’s going to make the decisions?”

“How come he didn’t tell the Elders this?”

“...”

Many voices were filled with doubt.

There were many people belonging to the Earth Dragon King voicing this in the crowd.

It was indeed a bit too sudden for the Dragon Emperor to go into seclusion.

Luo Tian walked to the side of Qin Changtian and said: "From today onwards, all large and small matters will be managed by His Highness. Frost Dragon King and Earth Dragon King will assist him. When the Dragon Emperor exits his seclusion, he will explain to everyone why he suddenly secluded himself to make a breakthrough."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian took out the Dragon Emperor's token and placed it into Qin Changtian's hand.

The faces of everyone changed.

Everyone instantly kneeled down with serious expressions.

The Dragon Emperor's decree was inviolable.

Qin Changtian looked at Luo Tian and his eyes flickered with a trace of pain.

Luo Tian gently patted his shoulder and sent him a sound transmission: "Stay strong, your imperial father believes you can do it. Do not let him down, you can definitely do it. I also believe in you so fight on!"

Luo Tian didn't know how to comfort him.

Qin Changtian knew his father had died.

His gaze faintly tightened as he released an aura befitting someone stepping into a position of authority. He raised the Dragon Emperor's token into the air and gave a loud dragon roar!

He transformed into a Golden Dragon and his body gave off a Dragon Emperor's might!

At this time...

All the dragon warriors in the tribal stronghold transformed into their dragon form. They all roared into the air and created a resonance with their dragon's roar. Sky Palace was shaking non-stop and even Blood Sea City that was ten thousand kilometers away was shaking.

Tai Long's expression turned solemn.

"That doesn't sound right."

"The old Dragon Emperor shouldn't have died that quickly. He should have at least another year to live... did he abdicate?"

"How can a little brat like him be able to suppress the Dragon race Elders that are holding onto the military powers?"

For a brief moment...

Tai Long just couldn't figure it out.

He thought he understood what the Dragon Emperor was thinking and every step he took was with confidence. But for a new Dragon Emperor to suddenly appear, he really couldn't figure out what the old Dragon Emperor was planning.

Black Dragon King's expression hiddenly changed before saying: "Lord, what do you think the Dragon Emperor is doing? Abdicating at such a time like this seems ill-timed. The Dragon race is still filled with internal strife so who's capable of suppressing those Elders?"

Nether King coldly grinned and said: "Lord, this is an excellent opportunity. Most likely the Dragon race troops are feeling instability which is perfect for us to destroy them in one fell swoop. We will then rule the entire Sky Palace and our next steps will be to charge out of here. We shall contend for hegemony in the Tianxuan Continent and restore our supremacy from ten thousand years ago!"

Tai Long's brows furrowed while he was in thought for a few seconds. "This matter isn't as simple as that. We won't do anything for now and see what kind of news Earth Dragon King will bring us. That old fox Dragon Emperor isn't that simple and definitely has some hidden tricks planned. Unless he really has gone crazy, there's no way he would let his son succeed his position so suddenly."

Because he felt like he understood the ins and outs of the Dragon Emperor...

Tai Long became extremely careful in his actions.

Also because of this...

The Dragon Emperor saw through Tai Long's reaction.

Dragon race stronghold.

The succession ceremony will be held in three days.

Within these three days, Qin Changtian held countless meetings because matters big and small needed his input.

On the surface...

Everything looked calm and peaceful like nothing major had happened. Beneath the surface, currents were brewing and many people, even some Dragon race Elders were searching for the Dragon Emperor's seclusion location. They were all searching in secret.

The Elders didn't let Luo Tian participate in the majority of the meetings.

Luo Tian didn't forcefully participate either.

Qin Changtian had to rely on his own abilities during this time. There was no way he would grow up quick if he was there to help him with everything. If Qin Changtian can handle the enormous pressure right now, then he'll be able to keep walking forward no matter what kind of pressure he encounters in the future.

Luo Tian had been very leisurely these past two days.

He was just walking all over the tribal stronghold to pass the time. Whenever he arrived at the dragon stone pillar though, he would faintly sigh to himself.

"Sigh~..."

"I can't use this supreme divine weapon."

"Eggy, why aren't you giving me any instructions? Where am I supposed to find the Dragon God's Soul? Even if we can't find the Dragon God's Soul, at least give me some hints on where to find the Sky Dragon's Bead." Luo Tian never forgot his purpose in coming here.

He couldn't open the ancient battlefield if he didn't have the Sky Dragon's Bead.

If he couldn't level up as soon as possible, how was he going to challenge Murong Wanjian?

Mount Hua Immortal Sect still had several super-strong bosses that suppressed him to the point of being unable to breathe. If he doesn't take care of them when he goes back, most likely he will be the one to end up being taken care of.

Enormous pressure!

"Hero!"

Just when Luo Tian was in a daze, one of the Frost Dragon Warriors came over.

The warrior was one of Kai Lun's subordinates.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "Ai Lun, are your patrol duties over?"

Ai Lun nodded and replied: "That's right, hero. I told my little sister Ai Xi all about your deeds and she really wants to meet you. She also said that she has already fallen in love with you. I wonder if you have any time right now to go meet her?"

"Frost Archer Ai Xi?"

"A Goddess!"

Luo Tian had forgotten all about this! If Ai Lun hadn't reminded him, he really would've forgotten the whole matter! He immediately replied excitedly: "I do have time! Definitely have time!"

No matter how busy he was, it wasn't as important as meeting his Goddess!

When he thought about League of Legends Frost Archer Ashe's icy cold looks, he couldn't help thinking of her ample chest and that tight curvaceous butt that any straight male creature would be filled with wild thoughts as well. Luo Tian couldn't endure anymore and swallowed down a large mouthful of saliva.

“Ai Lun, lead the way. We can go right away.” Luo Tian said impatiently.

Luo Tian replied in joy: “Really? Hero, my idol, are you really willing to go meet my little sister?”

“Of course!”

“Is there anything wrong?” Luo Tian smiled and couldn’t calm his excitement. “Goddess! I’m about to meet the Frost Archer Goddess! Wohoo! I never imagined I would gain such immense benefits after transmigrating. It’s simply too awesome that I can meet a character from a video game in my previous life!”

Ai Lun was a bit excited and immediately led the way. As he was walking, he said: “Idol, my little sister may not be the prettiest but she’s definitely the most gentle. You will definitely feel happiness by marrying her.”

“Sexual happiness? I will definitely feel sexual happiness.” Luo Tian chuckled and said to himself.

“Not only will I feel sexual happiness, this is the song that plays where you can’t even get out of bed!”

Chapter 557 – Ai Your Sister’s Xi!

Luo Tian couldn’t wait to meet her.

Frost Archer Ashe was one of the many Goddesses inside Luo Tian’s heart.

Ai Lun was walking along with excitement when he thought of his little sister marrying his idol. As they encountered his fellow brothers on the road, he would say: “Idol is going to meet my little sister right now!”

“Idol is going to marry my little sister!”

“Idol is going to...”

He was beyond excited all the way!

On the road...

Many people looked at Luo Tian with weird gazes before giving him a big thumbs up.

Their smiles were rather strange.

Luo Tian scratched his head and didn't bother to think too much. All he was thinking about was the Frost Archer Ashe from League of Legends from his previous life. He was thinking about her twin peaks, her little butt, and her icy cold expression. When his thoughts reached the part of pushing her onto a bed, he felt like this was definitely something every straight male would dream of doing.

Therefore...

He didn't bother with the weird gazes from other people.

Half an hour later.

Ai Lun pointed at a small tent ahead and said with a smile: "Idol, we've arrived. This is the tent that my little sister lives in."

After saying that...

Ai Lun ran over with excitement and yelled: "Ai Xi! Ai Xi! Quickly come out! Look who I've brought with me! Quickly come out!"

Suddenly...

The loud sounds of feet stomping were heard from inside the tent.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The footsteps got closer and closer, and Luo Tian started shaking along with them. He then said to himself: “Who in the tribal stronghold turned into a dragon?”

“Big brother...”

“Big brother, I’m coming.”

A rough voice similar to some large muscular guy was heard.

Right after that...

Ai Lun turned to his little sister Ai Xi and said: “Quick, I brought idol over here. Let me introduce you to him.”

“Her?”

“Ai Xi?”

Luo Tian suddenly felt like committing suicide.

Ai your sister’s Xi!

Her waist was thicker than a water bucket and her face uglier than the ugliest flower you’ve ever seen. Her butt was indeed very big and was similar to a millstone. Her twin peaks... were drooping down and couldn't stand straight. Luo Tian felt like he was instantly struck by lightning that turned his insides mushy and the outside burnt!

His image of Goddess Ashe was instantly destroyed!

Luo Tian's body was trembling, "How did it turn out like this? How? How did it become this tragic? Even if she's not Goddess-like, her name is still Ai Xi, okay? Can you please not insult the two words Ai Xi?"

His heart was dripping blood.

Ai Xi was stunned. Her gaze landed on Luo Tian while she picked her nose. She dug out a large black blob of something and put it inside her mouth. She sucked her finger once before smiling. Her two front teeth were missing as she yelled with great vigor: "Idol! Idol!"

After saying that...

She charged towards Luo Tian at her fastest speed.

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

Her footsteps were like thunder and practically shook the world. The sounds coming from a body weighing a few hundred jins were simply horrifying!

Luo Tian became dumbstruck.

A flash of fear appeared in his eyes! This was possibly the greatest fear he has ever experienced in all of history!

His expression drastically changed before he pointed up at the sky and yelled: "Look! It's a UFO!"

Ai Xi and Ai Lun were startled by this and both looked up at the sky.

"Level 7 Berserk!"

"Boom~!"

"Nine Dragons and Elephants!"

"Asura Domain..."

"Shadow Clone, Shadow Shift!"

"Shadewind Steps, level 9, Phantom!"

Luo Tian released all his powers together. He did everything possible to raise his speed to the maximum! He turned around and ran like crazy! He finally understood the feeling when someone was running away and started to hate their parents for not giving them an extra leg.

If he had any magical abilities, he would definitely make himself disappear from the spot.

"Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~..."

A figure flashed side to side and was gone in an instant.

Ai Xi recovered and muttered: "What's a UFO? Eh? Where's my idol? Big brother, have you seen where idol went?"

Ai Lun looked everywhere and didn't see Luo Tian. "Where did he go? Could it be that he was overly shocked by my little sister's beauty?"

A few hundred kilometers away near a cliff.

Luo Tian was supporting himself up by holding onto an old pine tree and throwing up like crazy. "My, blurghh~ my, my Ashe. From today onwards, this daddy will refuse to believe there are any connections between this world and Earth. There will be nothing here related to any video games anymore."

"Goddess?"

"More like goddamn crazy!"

"Her looks were so horrible that one could hardly look at her with a straight face!"

"Blurgh~..."

After saying that, Luo Tian started throwing up again. Practically all the food he had eaten these past few days had been vomited out.

He had an unbearable expression on his face.

"Fuuu~... fuuu~... This daddy will rather fight with ten Profound God experts than look at Ai Xi! My heart is about to shatter!" Luo Tian grumbled as he almost vomited out his stomach acid.

Luo Tian's countenance sort of recovered after ten minutes.

He didn't throw up anymore.

But there was an image of a horrifying evil ghost.

Luo Tian tried to raise his spirit and was just about to leave...

When a faint bloody smell wafted over to the cliff area he was at.

Luo Tian's brows furrowed, "Blood Ghost?"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian pulled back his aura. His figure instantly leaped onto the top of the old pine tree and hid amongst the thick pine needles. He ceased breathing and stared at a certain location.

The bloody scent was getting closer.

The bloody aura stopped before arriving at the cliff and didn't reveal itself. It was hiding in a certain area like Luo Tian, not revealing themselves.

Not long after...

Another powerful aura rushed over.

The newcomer was none other than Earth Dragon King!

Earth Dragon King furrowed his brows and said: "Blood Ghost, come out!"

"Ke ke ke..."

A head covered in blood started coming out from the ground before the rest of the body appeared. One couldn't tell what this person looked like due to all the blood covering it.

“Earth Dragon King,” said Blood Ghost in a ghastly voice.

Earth Dragon King looked at Blood Ghost and asked: “Blood Ghost, what are you in a rush to give me? This place is less than a hundred kilometers from the tribal stronghold. We’ll be done for if someone happens to see us.”

Even though Earth Dragon King was the Chief of his clan and held its military power...

The majority of the Earth Dragon Warriors have sworn to protect the whole Dragon race. If word of him colluding with Tai Long gets around, his position will be instantly shaken.

Blood Ghost continued saying in a ghastly voice: “My Lord wants to know why a new Dragon Emperor has suddenly appeared. Where did the old Dragon Emperor go?”

Earth Dragon King didn’t hide it and replied: “His Highness came back and became the new Dragon Emperor. As for his father, they said that he went into closed door seclusion. I sent people to investigate his seclusion location but haven’t gotten any news yet. That old undying bastard really knows how to hide.”

“Humph~!”

Blood Ghost’s eyes shook as he revealed a cold smile. “It looks like My Lord has guessed correctly – Dragon Emperor has already passed away. Earth Dragon King, your opportunity is here.”

“Dead?”

“Impossible.”

“Back then, he suppressed me with his powers, so how can he be dead? Now, I’m actually second-guessing if your Lord had really injured him in the fight.” Earth Dragon King was faintly stunned and didn’t really believe him.

Blood Ghost coldly said: "If he hadn't used his Dragon Emperor's Might to suppress you, he may not have died so soon. But now, I dare to guarantee that he's definitely dead."

"He's really dead?"

Chapter 558 – Sky Dragon's Bead Appears

The outer periphery of Dragon Mountain.

Luo Tian was on the branches and leaning against an old pine tree with a fierce gaze. He then said with a cold smile: "Come out, Blood Ghost."

There wasn't any sound in the immediate area.

Not even the sound of creatures.

Luo Tian's figure moved before stomping down. He then smiled in disdain, "Do you really think I haven't discovered your location?"

Below his foot...

The soil started moving.

Right after that...

A blood-covered head stretched out from the soil. Its eyes were icy cold while they stared at Luo Tian and said: "Who are you? It seems like I don't recognize you."

Luo Tian's mouth formed a sneer before he said: "It's not important who I am. The only thing you need to know is that I'm someone that has come to kill you."

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian instantly displayed the ordinary martial skill he got after killing the Earth Dragon clan's Lun Sa – Earth Wind Palms!

At this moment...

Luo Tian's hands started moving, and the dust and stones started flying about. The vigorous palm technique contained a trace of his Azure Dragon's power. If one didn't analyze it carefully, they wouldn't be able to tell and would only think this was a power from the Dragon race.

His palms shook while he coldly scoffed, "Die for me!"

The speed of the strike was extremely fast.

Blood Ghost's eyes showed a faint surprise but his face still showed disdain as he shouted: "You wish to kill me just based on you alone? Even if you transformed to your dragon form, you still won't be able to kill..."

Before he could finish speaking...

Luo Tian's speed suddenly changed and his pair of palms struck Blood Ghost's chest.

"Boom~!"

Blood Ghost's eyes bulged out. He had an unsightly look on his face before saying in shock: "You... how did your speed suddenly increase so much? Who the hell are you? Why are you trying to kill me?"

Luo Tian slowly walked towards him. His hands were surrounded by soil and gravel and could be seen moving about to his will. "Our Chief will control the Dragon race tomorrow so there's no need to rely on your Lord anymore."

“Once our Chief becomes the Dragon Emperor, the whole Dragon race will be able to fight against your Lord. At that time, the day of your doom will soon be here. Hahaha...”

“But...”

“Our Chief needs a few days to stabilize his position. He doesn’t want anyone to spread what’s going on within the Dragon race outside, therefore, you should be clear on the reason why I’m here.”

Luo Tian said this slowly.

He didn’t make his words that clear.

Making things too clear would create a reverse effect of what he wanted. Anyone with a bit of a brain would know who this Chief he was talking about.

Luo Tian activated his powers and an even more fierce Earth Wind Palms smashed out.

Blood Ghost’s eyes glimmered and his body turned into a blood mist. “You want to kill me? You still lack the ability.”

“You want to run?”

“Eat another one of my palms!”

Luo Tian used a lot of strength and didn’t show any mercy. The palm smashed down as he shouted: “Die for me!”

A lethal strike.

Except, the target location he locked onto wasn’t Blood Ghost’s fatal spot but his shoulder.

“Boom~!”

The blood mist shook and a whole arm fell down. Fresh blood spurted out and the blood mist became a shade darker. At this moment, the blood mist shrunk and instantly disappeared.

Within the void...

“Earth Dragon King, you better wait for me.”

“Tomorrow will be the anniversary of your death!”

Luo Tian pulled back his powers. He looked in the direction Blood Ghost had disappeared off to and coldly smiled. He then muttered: “There’s definitely going to be a good show tomorrow.”

Right after that...

Luo Tian turned around and quickly flew back to the tribal stronghold.

Tomorrow is the succession ceremony. When the news of the Dragon Emperor passing away is spread, Qin Changtian will definitely fall into a precarious situation. He had to make some preparations beforehand.

After returning to the stronghold...

Luo Tian didn’t look for Qin Changtian and went straight for Frost Dragon King.

In another area.

Earth Dragon King shrank the defensive line around Dragon Mountain and transferred a large portion of his elites back to the stronghold.

“Tomorrow...”

“Will be my big day!”

“The Dragon Emperor position will definitely be mine.” Earth Dragon King started smiling evilly. Playing around in his palm were two different looking beads, and one of them had a dragon’s head engraved on it.

Sky Dragon’s Bead!

“Chief, according to your arrangements, Ma Xiu and the others have all rushed back. They are ready anytime and are just awaiting your commands.”

“Good!”

Earth Dragon King smiled excitedly and said: “Relay my orders – have them hide themselves around during tomorrow’s succession ceremony in front of the dragon stone pillar. Watch my eyes before acting. As long as I give the signal, immediately charge out. After this is done, each and every one of you will have your titles raised!”

“I obey!”

Blood Sea City, Blood Sea Main Hall.

“Lord, that damn dog Earth Dragon King is too despicable!”

“Tomorrow’s succession ceremony will become his own succession ceremony. He wants to become the Dragon Emperor and get rid of us? Humph~, I think he’s practically dreaming!”

“He dares to fight against our Dark Army with his current strength?”

“Lord, Earth Dragon King will definitely shrink down his defensive line. This is a golden opportunity for us to annihilate the Dragon race.”

Main hall...

Several Elders were discussing this out loud.

Tai Long had two fingers propping up his head while he frowned. He was thinking through every detail Blood Ghost had mentioned. He didn’t quite believe Earth Dragon King would dare send his subordinate to assassinate one of his people. But he also couldn’t say it was in the realm of impossibility, so he was in thought for a long time and didn’t make any decisions. He then asked: “Are you absolutely sure he’s someone under Earth Dragon King?”

“Absolutely sure.”

“Your subordinate is 100% sure. He used the Earth Wind Palms and he had a dragon aura about him. I dare to guarantee that he’s a person from the Earth Dragon clan,” said Blood Ghost through clenched teeth. “Lord, a despicable person like Earth Dragon King cannot be left alive.”

“Only someone from the Earth Dragon clan can cultivate the Earth Wind Palms, so he’s definitely someone from the Earth Dragon clan.”

“Lord, Earth Dragon King cannot be left alive!”

At this time...

Black Dragon King stood forward and said: "I've just received news that the Earth Dragon clan's defensive line has really shrunken back. We can tell from this that there's definitely going to be some movements made in tomorrow's succession ceremony. Lord, the Dragon Emperor is dead and the Dragon race is in chaos. How can we let go of this heaven-sent chance?"

Nether King cupped his hands and said: "What Black Dragon King said is correct. Lord, let me be the one to destroy the Dragon race tomorrow."

"There's also me!"

"Me too!"

"After tomorrow, My Lord will rule the entire Sky Palace."

"Long live the Lord! Long live!"

Tai Long's mouth formed a cold sneer and no longer dwelled in the matter of Blood Ghost being intercepted and the attempt on his life. He stood up and shouted: "Black Dragon King, Nether King, here are your orders!"

"Your subordinate is here!"

"Tomorrow, you two will attack together from the eastern and western directions. I want the Dragon race annihilated without a single survivor!"

"I obey!"

"Heh heh..."

"What Dragon Emperor, Earth Dragon King, or Frost Dragon King? In front of me, Tai Long, they are all nothing but a fart." A strange glimmer appeared in Tai Long's eyes that didn't belong to the Dragon race or the Angel race.

If Luo Tian was present, he would definitely be shocked by it.

Because...

The glimmer in Tai Long's eyes contained the shocking powers of the Ancient Kings from Pangu's Cave!

Ancient World.

Chapter 559 – Internal Strife

Today was a big day for the Dragon race.

A big day where a new Dragon Emperor was taking over.

This was the grandest day out of all special days within the Dragon race.

Everyone was clean and neatly dressed with a faint smile on their faces.

“His Highness is stepping up... even though he is a bit too young, the matters he handled these past three days were done intelligently. In the future, he will definitely bring the Dragon race to new heights.”

“That's right. In the entire history of the Dragon race, who was able to become the Dragon Emperor at such a young age?”

“You guys don't know but His Highness is the only person in the Dragon race that cultivates the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart. Legends say the arcane secrets were capable of killing the strongest expert from the Ancient World. If Tai Long dares to come here, His Highness will definitely beat him into a pathetic state.”

“Let’s start heading to the Dragon Palace. It doesn’t matter what others think but I’m very optimistic about His Highness.”

“Same with me.”

Early morning.

The area of the dragon stone pillar was filled with people.

They were all discussing Qin Changtian.

Everyone had a happy smile on their faces.

These past few days, Qin Changtian had shocked a lot of people with his performance. The way he handled matters didn’t seem to be what an eight-year-old child was capable of.

Those Elders that had deliberately made things difficult for him now had a sense of admiration towards him.

Qin Changtian managed to convince many people in just a short three days. Those Elders who were originally neutral in all of this were now leaning towards him. This was something extremely difficult to accomplish for a child that was only eight years old.

“Dong~!”

The sun was rising.

An ancient bell was hanging from an ancient-looking tree. The sound of the bell rang out and slowly spread out throughout the stronghold.

The whole dragon stronghold became silent.

A few seconds later...

A door of the tallest structure of the stronghold opened. Qin Changtian walked out one step at a time in a dragon robe. Following behind him were Mei Lin and Frost Dragon King.

There weren't any signs of Luo Tian.

"He's coming! He's coming!"

"His Highness is coming!"

"The ceremony is about to start. After the ceremony is the act of stepping into the main hall. After all of that, he will become our Dragon race's new Dragon Emperor. I believe the future of our Dragon race will definitely be glorious under his leadership."

Qin Changtian walked to the front of the dragon stone pillar.

Everyone instantly became quiet.

The eight people were the Dragon race's Elders, who all happen to be the ones in charge of the military.

Earth Dragon King couldn't help smiling when he looked at Qin Changtian.

Mei Lin cleared his throat before saying majestically: "Worshipping the heavens begins now."

"Bang~!"

Qin Changtian was the first to kneel towards the dragon stone pillar. Right after him was the eight Elders, and then the various dragon warriors. Eventually, it came to the common Dragon race citizens.

The ceremony of worshipping the heavens was very simple.

They would kneel down and bow, then silently pray for their God's blessings towards their Dragon race.

Right after that...

They would enter the main hall.

Mei Lin once more said majestically: "The succession ceremony will now begin..."

Before Mei Lin could finish, Earth Dragon King interrupted: "I don't agree!"

Earth Dragon King walked forward and said to Mei Lin with a smile: "My apologies for interrupting you but I really couldn't endure anymore and didn't want you to waste your breath. I don't agree with him being the new Dragon Emperor."

While saying that...

Earth Dragon King pointed at Qin Changtian's nose. He was standing tall with the height advantage and a disdainful expression. "What qualifications does he have to become the Emperor of the Dragon race? Who is he? Is he truly His Highness? Who can prove that?"

"A wild young child running in from the mortal world and he's our Highness?"

"I don't believe it."

"The Dragon race hasn't deteriorated to this degree where a random cat or dog can become the Dragon Emperor, right?"

“Humph~!” After saying that, Earth Dragon King coldly harrumphed.

His eyes were full of contempt.

Frost Dragon King’s face turned ferocious as he shouted: “Earth Dragon King, what are you trying to pull?! Can you bear the blame of sabotaging the succession ceremony?!”

The area started clamoring with noise.

“What the Earth Dragon King said feels kind of right. He had left Sky Palace the day he was born. No one has seen him before so who can prove he’s our Highness? The Dragon Emperor isn’t present so who can stand in as proof?”

“He does have a dragon aura coming from his body.”

“But so what if he has a dragon aura? Anyone hanging around the Dragon race all day would also absorb some dragon’s aura. Feeling his dragon’s aura is very normal.”

Sounds of discussion were all over the place.

Qin Changtian had a calm expression on his face and asked Earth Dragon King: “How do you want me to prove myself?”

Earth Dragon King’s mouth formed a sneer.

Before he could reply, Qin Changtian’s eyes turned serious and he shouted: “Dragon transformation!”

“Boom~!”

A golden beam surged into the sky and a pair of wings spread out. A thick Golden Dragon’s aura rippled out, exactly the same as the previous Dragon Emperor.

Earth Dragon King's expression faintly changed.

The surrounding people were clamoring once more.

"His Highness! That's absolutely His Highness! A member of the Golden Dragon clan; who else could it be if it's not His Highness?"

The expressions of those people trying to sow discord sank.

Qin Changtian transformed back into his human body and said with a smile: "Earth Dragon King, may I please ask if that will prove my identity? Can we continue on with the succession ceremony?"

Mei Lin was about to speak when...

Earth Dragon King interrupted once more and said coldly: "No!"

Frost Dragon King then shouted: "That's enough, Earth Dragon King!"

Earth Dragon King didn't even give him a glance and coldly harrumphed: "Even if you are His Highness, you still cannot become the new Dragon Emperor. Your father was the Dragon Emperor but the position of Dragon Emperor in the Dragon race is not hereditary. Just because he says he's going to pass it to you and it gets passed to you? Based on what?"

"What qualifications do you have?"

"What kind of strength do you have?"

"Since this is the succession ceremony, you should at least let everyone witness your strength, right?"

Earth Dragon King's tone was very aggressive.

And he had a sinister expression on his face while staring at Qin Changtian.

Frost Dragon King's eyes glared at Earth Dragon King in anger before shouting: "Based on him being a Golden Dragon! Based on him being the only person of the Dragon race to cultivate the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart! And based on him in possession of the Dragon Emperor's Token! Earth Dragon King, are all those things enough for you?!"

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

Earth Dragon King laughed out loud into the air before suddenly releasing his Earth Dragon's aura. A vigorous power flowed throughout his body while he shouted: "There are many pieces of trash with a Golden Dragon's body! And the Dragon Emperor's Token was given to him by his father, yet where is his father right now?"

"Do none of you know?"

"The Dragon Emperor, as in his father, is already dead!"

His voice was loud enough where the entire stronghold heard it.

Everyone's expression instantly changed.

Frost Dragon King became enraged as he shouted: "Earth Dragon King, what kind of nonsense are you saying? The Dragon Emperor is in seclusion and hasn't died. Everyone, don't believe in his words!"

Suddenly...

Earth Dragon King made a move and instantly grabbed Qin Changtian's throat. He slightly used some strength before shouting: "A Golden Dragon is connected by their bloodline! If one's son is suffering pain, the father will also have the same feeling! Dragon Emperor, if you don't make your appearance quickly, your son will die right now!"

"Stay your hand!"

"Earth Dragon King, what are you doing?!"

"You've lost your mind!"

"Cough~, cough~..."

Qin Changtian's cultivation was too low, so there was no way he could retaliate when he was in Earth Dragon King's grasp.

His face became pale and his breathing quickened. He couldn't undergo his dragon transformation even if he wanted to.

When he felt like he was nearing death...

Earth Dragon King let go of his hand and smiled coldly. "Everyone has seen it. If our old Dragon Emperor was still alive, it's impossible for him to not appear when his son was about to die. It's very clear that the Dragon Emperor is already dead. This was all just a scheme so that his son can successfully take over the Dragon race."

"I will tell you all another piece of bad news."

"This little kid wasn't able to comprehend the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart. What is he going to use to resist the Dark Army with? What is he going to use to kill Tai Long with?"

As his voice faded, the surrounding area instantly became dead silent. Everyone was staring at the pale Qin Changtian without blinking.

Chapter 560 – Luo Tian Makes His Appearance

An extremely smug look.

Everything was in the control of his palms.

Not only did Blood Ghost tell him the Dragon Emperor was already dead, but he also told him that Qin Changtian wasn't able to comprehend the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart. In other words, Qin Changtian was nothing but trash and didn't have any capabilities.

Why would he be afraid of a piece of trash?

The Dragon Emperor was already dead.

Who can block him in the entire Dragon race?

No one!

Not a single person! Everything was impeccably calculated because he had laid dormant for over a decade, all for this. Right now, he was feeling extremely exhilarated and happy.

The crowd was clamoring.

Every one of them knew Qin Changtian cultivated the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart.

This was a form of hope for them.

Now that they heard he wasn't able to comprehend the arcane secrets for the Sky Dragon's Heart, everyone felt like lightning had struck them on a clear day! They instantly stared with wide eyes and mouths agape. Their eyes had turned dull while they stared at Qin Changtian with disappointment.

"He couldn't comprehend the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart."

"The Dragon Emperor has died."

"He's just a mere Golden Dragon that hasn't comprehended the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart. There's no way he can resist the huge army of Tai Long. Even if he has the Dragon Emperor's Token, he isn't qualified to become the new Dragon Emperor. I also don't agree!"

"A Dragon Emperor should be the strongest expert of the Dragon race. Since he couldn't comprehend the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart, he isn't qualified to become the new Dragon Emperor. I also don't agree."

Suddenly...

Three Elders stood forward.

Another two Elders were frowning for a few seconds before stepping forward as well. "Since that's the case, we don't agree either."

Out of eight Elders, five of them didn't agree.

There was no need for this succession ceremony to continue anymore.

There were two Elders who were loyal followers of the old Dragon Emperor. They furrowed their brows and put up their guard.

At this time...

One of the Elders spoke out: "The Dragon Emperor is naturally the Dragon race's strongest expert. Without comprehending the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart, his strength is lower than a ten-year-old child so he's not qualified to become the new Dragon Emperor. Now that the Dark Army is hanging over our heads and we're in the middle of a succession ceremony, this is the perfect time to elect a new Dragon Emperor."

"I recommend Earth Dragon King!"

"I also recommend Earth Dragon King."

"Same with me."

The other two Elders gave Earth Dragon King a glance and furrowed their brows. "We also recommend Earth Dragon King."

It was very clear...

The general trend for Qin Changtian was gone, so supporting him was tantamount to courting their own death. Not only was Earth Dragon King's personal strength strong, but the whole Earth Dragon clan's strength was also the strongest out of all the other clans. They could only stand on his side in order to keep living.

"I also recommend Earth Dragon King."

"Same with me."

"He is our Dragon race's strongest expert so he should become the new Dragon Emperor. Not like some fraudster who only knows to cheat and play with our emotions. You should've told us early on that you haven't comprehended the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart instead of shattering our hopes."

"I recommend that he be expelled because the Dragon race doesn't need a person like that here."

The crowd started getting loud. Many of them started staring at Qin Changtian with hatred like he had deliberately lied to them.

Their hopes were shattered.

This kind of feeling was really hard to stomach.

But from start to finish, Qin Changtian never told people he had comprehended the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart.

Earth Dragon King started laughing in the air before cupping his hands, "Thank you, thank you for all the Elders' support. Once I become the Dragon Emperor, I will bring the Dragon race to newer heights. As for the wishes of the people, I will definitely do my best since I'm a fair person. Little guy, what do you think about that?"

Earth Dragon King looked at Qin Changtian and smiled smugly.

Qin Changtian didn't say anything.

Frost Dragon King's face was filled with hatred as he said: "Earth Dragon King, you will pay the price for this."

Earth Dragon King's face turned cold as he stared at Frost Dragon King. He coldly harrumphed: "Pay the price? What price? If we let this little brat that likes to cheat people become the Dragon Emperor, our whole Dragon race will be paying the price. Frost Dragon King, could it be that you wish to see our Dragon race walk the path to its own destruction?"

"It looks like you really want that."

"Life seems to be treating you too well. You've lost almost half of your Frost Dragon Warriors and it hasn't put a dent in the Dark Army. If I was the Dragon Emperor, I would've punished you heavily already. You are not qualified to rule over the Frost Dragon clan, humph~!"

Many people were unhappy with the Frost Dragon clan's defeat.

Especially the common people.

There was a wide gap in their military number yet they still lost so miserably. This was practically a big insult to the Dragon race. If they hadn't lost so tragically, they wouldn't have had to hide in the mountains. They couldn't eat enough, their clothes weren't warm enough, and they lead inhuman lives each day.

This was all bestowed by the defeated Frost Dragon King!

When Earth Dragon King spoke about that, it immediately aroused the unhappiness in everyone's heart.

Several people deliberately arranged at strategic locations loudly spoke up: "Frost Dragon King is unfit to rule the Frost Dragon clan! He is basically trash! He has lost all the face of our Dragon race! What qualifications does he have to still remain here? Expel him!"

"Expel him!"

"Expel him!"

After that, a large group of people echoed this sentiment.

Their voices shook the sky!

Frost Dragon King's face turned fierce, and just when he was about to speak...

Qin Changtian stepped forward and said: "Earth Dragon King, you just want to become the new Dragon Emperor, right? Why do you need to stir up so much trouble? You should be clear on why Frost Dragon King lost, right? Do you think talking about it thoroughly would be in the best interest of everyone?"

“Don’t try to act clever when you’ve sold your story to the mass. If we really revealed the things you’ve done, I don’t think it would be as simple as expelling you.”

Neither humble nor overbearing.

His steady tone made him sound like an adult.

Moreover...

Qin Changtian showed no fear and never tried to defend himself from beginning to end. He only stood forward when Earth Dragon King aimed his cannon at Frost Dragon King.

Earth Dragon King narrowed his eyes and said to himself: “Does this kid know something? Or is he just like his sinister old bastard father, waiting like a fox for the best moment to screw with me?”

Suddenly...

Earth Dragon King didn’t dare to speak too much and waved his hand. “Everyone, please be quiet. These matters are all in the past. And since they’re in the past, I will no longer look into them. This Dragon King has always been a magnanimous person.”

“Look how kind Earth Dragon King is.”

“Only someone with this kind of benevolence is qualified to become the new Dragon Emperor.”

“Long live Earth Dragon King!”

“Long live Earth Dragon King!”

For a brief moment...

The people that Earth Dragon King mobilized and arranged around the area started shouting and raising the emotions of the people.

Earth Dragon King had a smug look as he glared coldly at Qin Changtian. Killing intent was roused inside him as he thought: "Little damn bastard, once the succession ceremony is over and I become the Dragon Emperor, that's the time when you all shall die. This daddy will not let a single one of you off."

"There's no way I will tolerate your existence!"

Immediately after...

Earth Dragon King turned to Mei Lin and said: "Mei Lin, you can continue now."

Mei Lin first gave Qin Changtian a glance.

Qin Changtian had a complicated look on his face as he shouted internally: "Big brother Luo Tian, how come you're still not here?! Quickly come!"

Frost Dragon King was extremely anxious inside.

Qin Changtian couldn't drag it along anymore and could only nod towards Mei Lin.

Mei Lin had a bitter look as he helplessly said: "The new Dragon Emperor will be the Earth Dragon King. Is there anyone that objects to it?"
