

Leveling Up 571

Chapter 571 – The Enraged Black Dragon King

And it was done within an hour.

This kind of speed...

Was definitely the definition of perverted!

The craziest thing was that Luo Tian had already leveled up to the Profound Venerate 9th rank.

And his experience bar was already 90% full. He was about to step onto one of the strongest realms of this world – the Profound Saint realm!

Way too awesome!

Luo Tian almost scared himself to death. “My little obedient child, do you need to be this fierce?”

Eggy giggled and said: “Boss, as long as you don’t keep calling me Eggy, I can be even more fierce.”

“Fine, Eggy.”

Eggy: “...”

Suddenly...

Eggy sent a sound transmission: “Boss...”

Before Eggy could finish speaking, Luo Tian smiled and replied: “I know, a big boss is coming!”

“A powerful dark aura covered the sky where even a blind person could easily sense it. The originally dark red sky had turned pitch black. It was like an extremely powerful black cloud suppressing all before it. Luo Tian’s heart faintly sank and he muttered: “What a powerful aura! This kind of aura is definitely stronger than Earth Dragon King’s. This Black Dragon King is truly quite strong.”

“Eggy...”

“Do you think you can handle it?”

Eggy hesitated slightly before replying: “Boss, we’re currently kind of far from the dragon stronghold so the Dragon God’s Pillar cannot release its full powers. If we were at the stronghold, I should definitely be able to kill him. But since we’re here, I cannot guarantee that anymore.”

The dragon stone pillar was considered a guardian pillar for the Dragon race.

Its existence was very similar to a guardian totem so leaving its place of protection will weaken its powers. Luo Tian never thought about this point and Eggy never mentioned it either.

“If I could hatch out, I would be able to completely control the Dragon God’s Pillar. At that time, I can release all its powers and wouldn’t be restricted by the location I’m at. There wouldn’t be any problem dealing with anyone, but...” Eggy’s expression became slightly depressed.

Luo Tian said with a smile: “No problem, there’s still me!”

Eggy then said: “Boss, that guy’s cultivation is stronger than Earth Dragon King by quite a lot. Your current cultivation is only at the Profound Venerate 9th rank, so how about we retreat? We can lure him back to the dragon stronghold and then I can release all the powers of the Dragon God’s Pillar to kill him.”

After all, the current Eggy was still just an unhatched egg.

The only thing he could use right now was his spiritual sense.

If they managed to lure Black Dragon King back to the stronghold, the outcome of everything will be completely different.

Luo Tian said with a smile: "It's too late, here's already here."

"Boom~!"

The black cloud in the sky crushed down.

Both heaven and earth became distorted!

The sky was in turmoil, and the dark aura coming from Black Dragon King smashed into Luo Tian's mind. Luo Tian's body faintly sank down due to this. He looked up and exploded forth with all the powers of Devil Sovereign Xingtian. Only then did it withstand the powerful pressure.

"Luo Tian!"

"Go die for me!"

The raging flames of Black Dragon King rose up thirty feet high! If he could, he would've hung Luo Tian up already and started flogging him!

As his voice faded...

The huge body of Black Dragon King descended.

His whole body was pitch black and the muscles on him looked like hard steel. There was a faint glow coming from his black body, exuding an incomparably powerful aura. What a terrifying sight!

Behind him was a large mass of Black Dragon Warriors charging over like an ocean tide. They instantly surrounded Luo Tian!

The eyes of Black Dragon King were bloodshot. When he saw the bloody mess from his dead dragon warriors and what was left of his military camps, his rage increased even further.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Three thunderous roars came from inside Black Dragon King’s body.

Luo Tian’s expression faintly changed as he said to himself: “Damn, he went berserk before we even started fighting. This Black Dragon King’s health bar is around 1.5 million. His defense, strength, and speed is definitely a full level higher than Earth Dragon King.”

“Eggy...”

“Don’t make a move yet because I’m going to test his powers.”

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian made his move before Black Dragon King could. “Level 7 Berserk!”

“Boom~!”

One hundred and twenty-eight times the base attributes exploded forth!

“Myriad Devil!”

“Boom~!”

Ten thousand stacked layers of power was released!

“Blow him up for me!”

“Boom~, boom~, boom~...” A series of explosions also happened inside Luo Tian’s body. His blood-red body turned crimson red like he was being roasted alive. Steam could be seen rising from his body due to his powers distorting the air.

In an instant...

Luo Tian moved, “Shadow Clone, Shadow Shift!”

“Whoosh~!”

Movement at the speed of light!

“Boom~!”

An illusory shadow landed and a physical body charged out and instantly appeared next to Black Dragon King. His hands were firmly grasping the Sky Splitting Divine Axe while leaping into the air. He then heavily chopped downwards, “Battle axe form, Decapitation Strike!”

The Sky Splitting Axe that weighed ten thousand jins ripped into the void.

The black cloud in the sky was shredded in half. Luo Tian was pouring all his powers into the head of the axe!

“Boom~!”

“Bang~!”

The divine axe ripped through the void and chopped down with unparalleled power!

Black Dragon King looked up and revealed a disdainful smile. “Insignificant skills yet you still dare to act presumptuously in front of me?!”

“Ommm~!”

Black Dragon King transformed back to his human body. His right hand started moving and turned into black smoke before reaching into the void.

“Bang~!”

A huge hand instantly appeared and grabbed toward Luo Tian’s throat!

Decapitation Strike still hadn’t descended yet!

“Boom~!”

The skills Luo Tian released disappeared.

Interrupting one’s skill?!

This only happened inside video games! Even in his dreams, Luo Tian never imagined Black Dragon King was capable of interrupting a skill he was using. This was something beyond his imagination!

“Oh shit.”

Black Dragon King's hand firmly clamped onto Luo Tian's throat. Before he could react, Black Dragon King pulled back and directly pulled Luo Tian into the void. In a blink of an eye, Luo Tian had come back to the real world except he was only a dozen centimeters away from Black Dragon King.

Black Dragon King's left hand formed a palm before placing it on Luo Tian's chest. He then smiled ferociously and shouted: "Black Dragon's Blow!"

"Boom~!"

A powerful penetrative power surged out from the center of his palms.

"Crack~, crack~, crack~..."

Luo Tian's chest caved in while his back bulged out. The clothes on his back had all been shattered into shreds.

It was a mixture of blood and muscles on his chest.

Black colored blood kept gushing out of his mouth.

The power behind this move was too violent!

However...

This wasn't over yet. Black Dragon King smiled smugly, "And here I was, wondering how powerful you are when you were actually just a piece of trash. Just based on a piece of trash like you and you wish to block my path? Your brains must be severely messed up!"

While saying this...

Black Dragon King's left hand didn't leave Luo Tian's chest. He shouted once more: "Black Dragon's Blow, ten continuous strikes!"

Damn!

A combo?!

Luo Tian's eyes turned serious as he kept trying to think of a way to break up Black Dragon King's suppression. He kept trying to turn his body back into a shadow but couldn't do it. He was firmly suppressed by Black Dragon King!

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

After ten continuous strikes of Black Dragon's Blow, Luo Tian's chest was almost penetrated through.

The last strike sent Luo Tian flying out before heavily slamming into a nearby mountain. The mountain was almost smashed into pieces!

Unbearable!

His internal organs felt like they were mush while he kept throwing up blood.

Luo Tian was not Black Dragon King's opponent at all.

He was completely crushed by the difference in strength.

Luo Tian's injuries were too serious and even using Regeneration was useless. The only method left was...

Luo Tian's gaze turned fierce. Seeing the large mass of Black Dragon Warriors behind Black Dragon King, he shouted: "Eggy, smash them for me!"

Chapter 572 – Dragon Slayer

The damage Luo Tian suffered was high to the point of being incalculable!

His fleshly body obviously couldn't handle it.

He didn't even have the chance to cast any of his skills and it would also be useless if he tried to use them. His whole body felt like it was turned to mush and a large chunk of his health bar instantly plummeted. Healing Art was absolutely useless at a time like this.

The only way out of this was to level up!

Only when one levels up will their status return to their full optimal level!

All the pain and injury on one's body will disappear!

And the only thing he could count on right now was Eggy's Dragon God's Pillar.

"Eggy, smash him for me!"

His life was hanging by a thread.

All his hope was placed on Eggy's attack.

Eggy displayed his mighty powers and didn't disappoint Luo Tian. Dragon God's Pillar descended from the sky and crushed down with the divine might of an ancestral dragon. Luo Tian told Eggy that the target wasn't Black Dragon King but the Black Dragon Warriors behind him!

Black Dragon King's brows were locked together as he shouted: "Watch out!"

At the same time...

He directly flew off. The might of the Dragon God's Pillar made him cautious but he wasn't afraid. Before he left, Tai Long told him that if he ever encountered something strange and unfamiliar, he shouldn't take it head-on.

Black Dragon King naturally didn't know Eggy's target wasn't him.

He was able to escape from the area.

But the Black Dragon Warriors behind him were much slower.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

The Dragon God's Pillar swept out horizontally and directly killed large groups of Black Dragon Warriors.

While this was going on...

The system inside Luo Tian's mind acted like it was about to short circuit and kept giving off red flashes. It was giving him warning messages: "Your health bar is rapidly dropping. Player Luo Tian's life is in danger. Please replenish! Please replenish..."

Also at the same time...

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

When the Black Dragon Warriors were being killed off, the system gave off a series of alerts.

Luo Tian was staring at his experience bar. While watching the numbers go up consistently, he said to himself: “Quickly! Quickly! I’m only missing a tiny bit more!”

The system alerts continued sounding off.

Ten seconds later...

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. You are currently at the Profound Saint 1st rank!”

“Hahaha...”

“I leveled up!”

Just like being resurrected on the spot!

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a martial skill from a novel. You have gained the skill Dragon Slayer! Will you be cultivating it?”

“Oh f*ck!”

“This is practically sending charcoal during a snowstorm! System, if you were a woman, this daddy will instantly marry you and love you for the rest of my life!”

“What can prove my love more than that?”

“You knew that I had to kill a dragon so you gifted me a skill to kill a dragon. Just hearing the name and you can tell it’s an awesome skill!” Luo Tian said with excitement.

He never imagined the system would give him a martial skill for killing dragons when he encountered this eyesore. This is what’s called true love! As for which novel Dragon Slayer came from and which main character specialized in it, Luo Tian had no time to think about it. The only thing on his mind right now was to kill Black Dragon King!

“Cultivate!”

Luo Tian didn’t hesitate and used his senses to confirm learning the new skill.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for successfully cultivating Dragon Slayer!”

After the system alert, an extra addition appeared in Luo Tian’s martial skill section.

Martial Skill: Dragon Slayer

Grade: Divine

Cooldown: None

Consumption: 1,000,000 profound energy

Description: This martial skill is only useful when dealing with the Dragon race. When used against other creatures, the attack power will become 0. When used against the Dragon race, the attack power will increase by 300%.

Description 2: This martial skill can be stacked. When the attack successfully lands on the target, it can instantly trigger a second attack. Ten successful attacks will trigger a critical strike damage. Critical strike damage can be stacked as well. With ten critical strikes stacked together, the player's next attack can ignore the target's defense.

Attention: Stacks of damage are random and will vary according to the player's own attributes.

"1..."

"This martial skill is XxX!"

Luo Tian didn't bother with the other information because his heart was beating quickly from staring at Description 2. "Two attacks can be stacked, and stacking critical strikes can ignore the target's defense. Isn't this martial skill a bit too f*cking awesome?!"

"Big sister system, this brother loves you to death!"

Luo Tian didn't even bother with the "Attention" line.

He had played many games in his previous life and understood the random stacks of damage was based on the player's luck value. The higher one's luck, the higher chance of stacking damage and less failure rate.

Luck value?!

Luo Tian was maxed out at 100!

Therefore, there was no need for him to fret about damage not stacking.

“Motherf*cker!”

“Black Dragon King is it? Here comes this daddy!”

Luo Tian’s body started moving as he stood up from a pile of rubble. Dust and rock fell off him while he cracked his neck. He then flexed his fingers and his joints gave off cracking sounds. Finally, he exploded forth with his new Profound Saint powers.

The current aura coming from Luo Tian was extremely domineering!

“Hurry up boss, I almost can’t hold on anymore.”

When Luo Tian was looking through his stats...

Black Dragon King ignored Tai Long’s advice when he witnessed his subordinates being smashed to death. He exploded forth with all his powers and grabbed onto the stone pillar and started punching it. Eggy’s spiritual senses almost couldn’t withstand the attacks any longer.

This place wasn’t the dragon stronghold.

Eggy couldn’t fully release the powers of the Dragon God’s Pillar.

Moreover, Eggy was still in his egg form and the spiritual senses he could use was less than one percent of his original.

Under these circumstances, there was no way he could withstand Black Dragon King smashing the pillar about.

Luo Tian grinned and said: "Eggy, can I borrow your divine pillar to play around for a bit?"

"Huh?"

"Boss, what do you plan on doing?"

Luo Tian replied: "Nothing much, it's just that I don't have a suitable weapon for now. Your large stone pillar doesn't seem too bad, so can I borrow it for a bit? I don't need to release its powers and will just use it as a blunt weapon."

Eggy then said: "The Dragon God's Pillar is in his hands right now. If you want to play with it, you'll have to snatch it away from that guy. My spiritual senses almost cannot hold on anymore."

Luo Tian smiled, "Got it!"

Suddenly...

Luo Tian roared into the air: "Black Dragon King, this daddy still hasn't died yet! Quickly scam over here for this daddy!"

His aura was domineering to the extreme!

Black Dragon King's expression sank. His continuous ten strikes actually didn't manage to kill Luo Tian?

He became even more furious.

He lowered the stone pillar and flashed across the sky before landing in front of Luo Tian. His face clearly showed his shock as he blurted out: “You’re actually fine? It looks like you haven’t suffered any injuries at all! How can this be possible?”

Even Tai Long would be injured by his consecutive attacks. And Luo Tian was merely at the Profound Venerate...

“Wait!”

“You were clearly just at the Profound Venerate 9th rank, so why are you suddenly in the Profound Saint realm so fast?”

Shock!

Incomparable shock!

Still making a breakthrough after being injured to such a degree? Is he a human or a ghost?

Luo Tian’s figure turned illusory before instantly landing next to the Dragon God’s Pillar.

Chapter 573 – Stabbing Black Dragon King’s Chrysanthemum

But...

As a man, one couldn’t say they cannot handle it.

Moreover, one definitely cannot say they couldn’t use it when it came to something large, thick, and long. Luo Tian grabbed on with two hands, strengthened his arms, and almost ripped his clothing to shreds with his bulging muscles. The veins on Luo Tian’s neck popped out like steel cable and his face turned red. He then roared into the sky: “Aggghhh~!”

“Bang~, bang~, bang~...”

The Dragon God’s Pillar started moving.

This was pure physical power!

Luo Tian didn’t enhance himself with any martial skills and purely used the physical strength afforded to his Profound Saint realm. He lifted up the Dragon God’s Pillar that was heavy beyond words. He walked in a wobbly manner and couldn’t stabilize himself. He then scolded internally: “Damn it, isn’t this pillar a little too heavy?”

“It’s really just like Monkey Sun’s Golden Hooped Rod, heavy beyond imagination!”

Eggy could tell Luo Tian was struggling so he asked: “Boss, do you need me to control it with my spiritual senses?”

Luo Tian rejected it, “No need, I can still bear this kind of weight.”

“Level 1 Berserk!”

“Boom~!”

The strength in his arms clearly increased by twice. Luo Tian’s movement became stable and his expression recovered. His right hand started moving before placing the Dragon God’s Pillar over his shoulder. He then looked at Black Dragon King who wasn’t too far away with disdain before saying: “Grandson, come. Come and bite your grandpa.”

Black Dragon King’s gaze turned fierce, “You’re courting death!”

“No matter how many capabilities you have, there’s no way you can escape your death today.”

“I don’t care who you are or how strong your background is. Even if you are the Dragon God’s son, you still have to die today.”

Rage!

Extreme rage!

Luo Tian felt the same too.

He was pissed off to the max!

Back then, he was almost killed by Black Dragon King and the flames of rage inside his heart were still burning. He watched as Black Dragon King transformed into a huge Black Dragon. His claws were like hardened steel and his throat was a deep crimson red.

Eggy immediately advised: “Watch out boss. He’s about to spray out Black Dragon Flames.”

“This kind of fire is extremely powerful!”

Luo Tian furrowed his brows and asked: “Anyway to take care of it?”

Egg replied: “Yup, use the Dragon God’s Pillar and stab his sphincter. That way, he won’t be able to spray anything out.”

“That...”

“Stab his sphincter?”

“You... you want me to stab a Black Dragon’s butt hole? If you have the guts, I want to see you go stab him instead.”

Eggy was in thought for a while before saying with certainty: “Boss, I’m serious that the only solution is to stab his sphincter. Don’t you have a skill called Shadow Clone, Shadow Shift? You can release several shadow clones and switch amongst them, so there’s a chance he won’t be able to capture you.”

Luo Tian’s rage started burning when Shadow Clone was mentioned.

Back then, Black Dragon King instantly grabbed his throat and gave him ten continuous strikes. The pain he suffered almost took his life!

And now we’re going to do it one more time?

Of course, Luo Tian wasn’t going to back out and coldly smiled instead. “There’s no way he would expect me to use Shadow Clone again. If you didn’t tell me that, I wouldn’t have thought of it. Which means how would he expect it?”

Suddenly...

Luo Tian revealed a chilling cold smile while the Dragon God’s Pillar was resting on his shoulder. He then shouted: “You pick yourself up at whatever place you fell down at! Shadow Clone, level 3! Triple Illusions!”

“Whoosh~!”

“Whoosh~!”

“Whoosh~!”

Three phantom images and a real body appeared.

Those phantom images were controlled by Luo Tian’s spiritual senses. They disappeared from the spot and instantly arrived at the left, rear, and right of Black Dragon King.

Black Dragon King scoffed in contempt. “That low-grade martial skill again. In front of me, this kind of martial skill belongs in the category of trash. Luo Tian, just go to hell for me! Black Dragon’s Fire – Endless Flames! Exterminate for me!”

“It doesn’t matter which one is your real body because they all have to die.”

“There is no one capable of resisting my, Black Dragon King’s Endless Flames!”

His throat started roiling.

The thick flames inside his throat were bubbling like the magma inside a volcano. The only difference was that Black Dragon King’s Endless Flames was at least ten thousand times stronger.

“Boss, hurry up!”

“You’ll be screwed if you’re too slow!”

“His Endless Flames are too strong so there’s no way you can resist it. You’ll be instantly reduced to ashes!” Eggy frantically urged Luo Tian as he was feeling incomparable anxiety.

Luo Tian’s brows were locked together.

He was waiting.

Waiting for the most appropriate time when Black Dragon King relaxes his guard.

The grade of the Shadow Clone skill was a bit weak and Black Dragon King easily saw through it. The skill will also be seen through this time as well. If Luo Tian was slow by even half a second, Black Dragon King will easily stop what he was planning to do.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Endless Flames was rumbling with explosive sounds inside Black Dragon King’s throat. When Black Dragon King saw how Luo Tian stood there unmoving like an idiot, he started laughing like crazy. “Lowly human, you are nothing but trash in front of this King. You are practically this world’s most inferior creature, hahaha!”

The instant he said those words...

Luo Tian disappeared.

Milliseconds after he disappeared, he activated and stacked level 7 Berserk with Myriad Devil.

In an instant...

He appeared at the rear of Black Dragon King.

Black Dragon King’s reaction speed was just a bit slower but he still detected Luo Tian’s movement trajectory. He started laughing like mad, “Trash, it’s useless. I’ve already said that such trashy martial skills are absolutely useless before me.”

Although Black Dragon King was able to detect Luo Tian’s movement trajectory...

His reaction speed wasn’t able to follow Luo Tian.

It wasn’t because he was slow, but it was because Luo Tian was too fast.

Luo Tian’s cultivation had reached the Profound Saint realm.

He also had the assistance of the System.

He wasn't like the martial artists of this world where after entering a brand new realm, they had to train and get accustomed to their newfound powers. Luo Tian only had to level up and he would gain the full usage of the new cultivation realm's powers. So in a mere instant, he had full control of the Profound Saint powers.

This was precisely the opportunity Luo Tian was talking about!

He was gambling.

He was gambling that Black Dragon King's speed wouldn't have increased while he slightly increased his own speed after leveling up.

Just this little bit was enough for Luo Tian.

"Heh heh..."

"This daddy shall stab your chrysanthemum!"

Luo Tian's arms started moving. Before Black Dragon King could react, Luo Tian used the huge, thick, and long Dragon God's Pillar and viciously stabbed into Black Dragon King's large chrysanthemum-looking sphincter.

"Schoompf~..."

It's unknown whether Black Dragon King's anus had been stabbed by another dragon or some powerful creature before, or maybe his sphincter was just naturally big, or maybe Luo Tian had used too much strength, but the Dragon God's Pillar was stabbed in with little to no resistance.

"Agggghh~..."

“Aggghhh~...”

Black Dragon King wailed in misery.

Endless Flames exploded out from his throat.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian felt a shiver in his scrotum. Seeing the blood coming from Black Dragon King’s anus, he unconsciously tightened his own sphincter muscle as well before laughing: “Awesome, hahaha...”

Chapter 574 – Smashing Each Other

This kind of pain was worse than the pain one’s heart can experience.

Black Dragon King’s sphincter sprayed out blood. It was so painful that he jumped up into the air while blood kept coming out.

The worst thing of all...

He suffered his own Endless Flames attack.

“Boss, that was beautifully done!”

“Way too beautiful, hahaha... Look at Black Dragon King, he’s in so much pain that he’s about to scream for his mother. This is so much fun! I didn’t expect him to look like this after stabbing his sphincter. This is a lot of fun!” Eggy said in a cheerful manner.

Luo Tian's brows sank as he said: "Damn! So you didn't know if it would work or not and just randomly pulled that out of thin air? Eggy, are you itchy for a beating? Do you know how much risk I took? If I wasn't able to break his Endless Flames, the one ending up dying would be me."

Eggy realized his actions were a bit inappropriate and turned into a child that got into trouble. "Boss, in theory, this should have worked. It's just that I've never put it into practice yet. I theorized that doing so would stop his Endless Flames from spraying out."

"In theory?"

"Theories are f*cking useless!"

"I almost died from fright!"

"Even my sphincter feels a bit painful, hahaha..." Luo Tian suddenly started laughing out loud before saying: "That was actually quite awesome!"

Eggy could feel Luo Tian was just bluffing him so he started giggling. "Yeah, I feel like it was quite awesome too. Heh heh..."

They watched as Black Dragon King was squirming and screaming in pain up in the air.

Luo Tian and Eggy were like two idiots laughing in joy.

But...

Laughing was one thing, Luo Tian never forgot...

His mouth curved into a cold smile before saying: "When you're ill, go for the kill. Black Dragon King, you had gifted me ten continuous strikes and almost sent this daddy to hell. Now, it should be my turn."

“Level 7 Berserk!”

“Boom~!”

Devil Sovereign Xingtian’s fleshly body instantly exploded forth with a powerful force. With the Dragon God’s Pillar on his shoulder, Luo Tian shouted: “Shadewind Steps, Lunar Steps!”

“Whoosh~!”

He moved instantaneously.

And appeared in midair.

Encountering Black Dragon King who had transformed back to his human body while holding his butt, Luo Tian coldly chuckled: “Little Black, how do you feel? Having your sphincter stabbed feels great, huh? Look at this large stone pillar, it still has some blood on it. Do you want to enjoy another round of it?”

Black Dragon King’s eyes looked like they were spraying out flames. He glared at Luo Tian like he would eat him alive and shouted: “Damn dog thing! I’m going to rip you into eighteen thousand pieces!”

Suddenly...

Up in the sky...

Black clouds started rolling inbound like a tsunami. In just a brief moment, the whole sky was covered in dark clouds. Thunder started rumbling and the sky started exuding powerful dark energy. Heaven and earth seemed to have suddenly transformed to hell.

Eggy advised: “Boss, you need to be careful. Black Dragon King is extremely strong and seems to have surpassed my expectation.”

Luo Tian didn't say anything.

He just charged upwards while holding the Dragon God's Pillar.

Strong?

The stronger they are, the happier he would be.

Seeing the bright golden glow covering Black Dragon King, drool almost gushed out from Luo Tian's mouth. No matter how strong they were, he had to find a way to kill the boss. Even if they don't die, they have to die!

This boss belonged to the second part of an SSS-rank quest!

He had to die!

Shortly after...

Luo Tian raised the Dragon God's Pillar above his head as he charged into the black clouds. Lightning started dancing around the stone pillar like crazy. Luo Tian sent out his spiritual senses to probe the surrounding dark energy. His arms started moving as he charged in a certain direction, "I will let you experience my new martial skill!"

"Dragon Slayer!"

The skill was activated.

A fierce dragon roar was heard inside Luo Tian's body.

This dragon roar was more like a miserable wail where its tendons, bones, and muscles were being ripped out from its body.

Eggy was shocked, “A type of power that is specifically fatal towards dragons?”

“Boss, when did you cultivate this martial skill that specifically deals with the Dragon race?”

Luo Tian smiled and replied: “Just now!”

The power exploded forth from the depths of his heart before traveling down his arms and then into the Dragon God’s Pillar.

“Boom~!”

The one hundred and eight dragons carved into the Dragon God’s Pillar all trembled before giving off a series of roars.

At this time...

Black Dragon King’s expression turned to shock, “This martial skill...”

“How many heaven-defying martial skills has this kid cultivated? Since he has cultivated a skill that is specifically targeted at the Dragon race, that means he came here prepared just to deal with us.”

“Humph~!”

“Damn dog thing, that just means there’s no way in hell you can be left alive!”

Black Dragon King’s arms bulged out as his ten fingers turned into claws. His claws then made a grasping motion!

“Ommm~!”

A humming sound came from heaven and earth.

The dark energy up in the air and in the surrounding hundreds of thousands of kilometers were being controlled by his hands. Dark energy started condensing at his palms and turning into a vortex. This scene looked rather familiar to Luo Tian, similar to a movie in his previous life called Storm Riders. In the movie, Xiong Ba was using the skill Three Points Origin Energy.¹

One was drawing out the moisture from the air.

While Black Dragon King was drawing all the dark energy towards him. Comparing the two moves, Black Dragon King's skill was many times stronger.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

The moment before the Dragon God's Pillar struck down...

The dark energy under the control of Black Dragon King turned into two globes of shock waves before shooting out.

"Watch out, boss!" Eggy yelled in shock.

Luo Tian didn't bother dodging.

It wasn't because he didn't have time.

If he was to dodge, his second attack wouldn't connect and the stacking effect of Dragon Slayer would disappear. Killing Black Dragon King would become much harder at that point.

“Titan’s Defensive Form!”

“Golden Bell Shield!”

Two types of defensive measures superimposed over Luo Tian’s body. Blood God’s Armor also gave off a brief red glow.

“Boom~!”

“20,899!”

Over twenty thousand points in damage?!

Luo Tian was dumbstruck, “Dragon Slayer is indeed quite strong!”

The moment he struck Black Dragon King, Luo Tian’s body was sent backward a bit. The dark energy shock waves had landed on his chest, wracking his entire body with pain. But he didn’t relax a single bit or have any thoughts of using Healing Art to heal himself.

“Just take it head-on!”

“Dragon Slayer, second blow!”

Luo Tian smashed out once more.

“Boom~!”

“21,000!”

Black Dragon King was also enraged. Once again, he released two shock waves made up of dark energy.

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian’s chest bones shattered and blood seeped out, dyeing his clothing red. His face turned a shade paler but he didn’t give up or let up. In an instant, he had already struck out with Dragon Slayer’s third blow.

Black Dragon King’s eyes turned ferocious as he shouted: “You wish to fight it out with me?! This daddy wants to see how capable you are!”

Extremely arrogant!

Within the Dragon race, his fleshly body was incredibly strong and was the closest to the old Dragon Emperor’s.

A health bar at several tens of thousands versus his several tens of millions was nothing more than a sprinkle of rain to him.

“Boom~!”

“Bang~!”

“Boom~!”

“Bang~!”

You strike once, I strike once. Those two were smashing each other with their lives on the line.

“The tenth critical strike!”

“Boom~!”

“BOOM~!”

“Puff~” Luo Tian sprayed out a mouthful of blood. His expression turned even more ferocious as he smiled coldly. “Ten critical strikes stacked together have finished. Now it’s an attack that ignores the target’s defense!”

Chapter 575 – Target Locked

Each attack that landed kept increasing in damage.

When the tenth critical strike had stacked on, Luo Tian finally felt his mind relax. His mouth was covered in blood so the expression on his face was especially ferocious. He smiled coldly and said: “Now’s the time to burst forth.”

If he didn’t burst forth with a strong attack soon...

His life would be over.

The pain from Black Dragon King’s attacks made Luo Tian feel like he was dying. When those two were smashing at each other, Luo Tian was naturally at a disadvantage. He was obviously not Black Dragon King’s opponent because of the large difference in cultivation levels.

Luo Tian was covered in blood.

He was almost beaten to a cripple.

Eggy suddenly shouted: “Boss, stop fighting! If you keep fighting him like that, you’re going to die!”

Indeed...

He might really end up dying.

Luo Tian was a bit afraid of death. Who wasn't afraid of death?

But the only thing he wanted right now was to explode Black Dragon King!

Twenty attacks.

He suffered twenty attacks and his sea of consciousness received wave after wave of turmoil. The system kept flashing red warning alerts saying his health was dropping rapidly, his life was in danger, and that he had to replenish his health.

He had no time to cast Healing Art or Regeneration. Luo Tian didn't want to flush everything he had done down the toilet. Dragon Slayer's stacking process didn't allow any other martial skills to be used. Once he uses Healing Art, the stacking effect of Dragon Slayer will disappear and he would have to start the process all over again.

He had already stacked his attack to the twentieth layer now.

Mejai's Soulstealer¹ at twenty stacks was already fierce to the max, so what about Dragon Slayer?

Luo Tian roared with his might as his arms bulged out. The Dragon God's Pillar was once more thrust into the air as he locked his eyes onto Black Dragon King. He then shouted: "Come! Come at me again! Let's see who will fall first!"

"Boom~!"

"Dragon Slayer!"

Black Dragon King's expression turned serious but he still had the look of arrogance. Seeing how Luo Tian was covered in wounds, he coldly harrumphed: "A piece of trash that overestimates his own ability – you still want to use that same move? I already told you that it won't work on me. Your attacks are nothing more than tickles to me. It will still be the same outcome if you hit me a hundred times more."

Luo Tian was a madman.

At least that's what Black Dragon King thought of him.

Luo Tian was using the same exact skill twenty times in a row now. Even though the power behind it had increased a bit each time, that amount of pittance was completely irrelevant to him.

"Dark energy!"

"Bang~!"

"Boom~!"

Two black balls of power containing dark energy shot towards Luo Tian again.

Luo Tian didn't put up his defense.

He never thought of defending. His arms started moving as he viciously smashed down with the Dragon God's Pillar.

"Boom~!"

"Bang~!"

Black Dragon King was the same as Luo Tian and didn't dodge.

Because...

He was Black Dragon King, someone with the strongest fleshly body out of all Dragon races within Sky Palace. How can he be afraid of an attack by a human?

Except...

He never imagined that this pole strike made him a bit dizzy!

Blood came out from his head and his body sank down. His eyes showed startlement, "The strength seems to be different from before... how could it be like this? He's already injured to this state yet how was he able to explode forth with such strength? This is impossible..."

"Heh heh..."

Luo Tian's body was curved outwards as blood sprayed out from his mouth. He had an evil smile on his face before he mocked: "Grandson, how was it? That power was quite violent, huh? Did it feel good? Hahaha..."

The previous smash by the Dragon God's Pillar showed a damage of 203,333!

A critical strike plus ignoring defense!

That damage value was practically explosive beyond measure!

In an instant...

Luo Tian lifted up his arms and thrust the Dragon God's Pillar into the clouds. He didn't give Black Dragon King any time to react as he shouted: "Dragon Slayer, smash him to death!"

"This King refuses to believe it!"

Black Dragon King stared at the incoming Dragon God's Pillar from the sky. He clenched his teeth and howled out, transforming back into his Black Dragon form. His body turned ink black and his defensive properties increased to a perverted level. He unfurled his wings and black colored wind blades appeared in front of his claws. He then shouted: "Kid, go to hell for me!"

The wind blade started turning blurry.

The air pressure in the area became restricted.

"Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~..."

Violent to an incomparable level!

Luo Tian clenched his teeth while saying to himself: "Am I going to be able to hold on?"

His health bar was about to bottom out.

This wind blade made of dark energy was way too powerful. Luo Tian didn't dare to guarantee if he could take it on or not. But he was already at the point of being an arrow on a bowstring so there was no turning back!

"Boss!"

"Let me take this strike on your behalf!"

Eggy's voice was suddenly heard through a sound transmission. Before Luo Tian could reject it, a red flash of light appeared from the dragon egg and started wrapping around his body. At the same time, Eggy said in a pressing manner: "Boss, go smash him as much as you like!"

"You have to smash him to the point of not leaving any residual waste behind!"

Eggy was angry as well.

When he watched Luo Tian keep receiving the attacks from Black Dragon King, he felt an incomparable heartache.

He was very clear that Luo Tian already received the Sky Dragon's Bead. He could leave Sky Palace at any time and go back to Mount Hua Immortal Sect to open up the ancient battlefield. But Luo Tian didn't do that and wanted to help him hatch.

One needs to understand the opponents Luo Tian was facing were Black Dragon King, Nether King, and the super-strong Tai Long.

Everything was all for him.

Eggy's heart felt like it was being squeezed to the point of extreme pain. Seeing how Luo Tian was covered in injuries and he kept on throwing up blood, his heart felt extremely uncomfortable. What else can one wish for when they have such a master?

At this time...

Eggy was determined to use everything he had to protect Luo Tian!

At this moment...

Luo Tian had no time to think and immediately replied: "Fine, let me smash him to death!"

"Ommm~!"

The red light flashed around Luo Tian's body before he was wrapped up in an inexplicable force. This energy made Luo Tian feel like he was swimming in a sea of power! He felt extremely comfortable! Immediately after, Luo Tian started smiling ferociously before shouting: "Black Dragon King, hurry up and explode for me!"

“Dragon Slayer!”

“Dragon Slayer!”

“Dragon Slayer!”

Black Dragon King refused to believe it and kept releasing dark wind blades in response. But no matter how many wind blades he blasted out and no matter how powerful they were, they would all become similar to clay oxens entering the sea – disappearing as they neared Luo Tian’s body without doing a thing.

“Fuuu~, fuuu~, fuuu~...”

Black Dragon King was panting while his whole body was full of injuries. When he saw Luo Tian’s arrogant expression, his eyes turned fierce before shouting: “You just wait and see! This daddy will not let you off!”

“You want to escape?”

Luo Tian tossed the Dragon God’s Pillar away. He leaped into the air with a cold smile, “Health bar under a million points?”

“Then let’s take care of this once and for all!”

“Heavenly Flame!”

“Green Lotus Core Flame, smash for me!”

“Target locked!”

Chapter 576 – The Dragon Egg About To Die

A damage value that reached a million points!

Luo Tian already knew Black Dragon King would try to run if he came out on the losing end. Luo Tian already calculated everything so the moment he ran, the Heavenly Flame was summoned out.

Green Lotus Core Flame!

“Boom~!”

A fiery blaze was shot forth.

Black Dragon King’s humongous figure was smashed into powder!

“Beautiful!”

“Heavenly Flames are truly Heavenly Flames, possessing the ability to instantly kill. If I could gather all the other Heavenly Flames, wouldn’t the damage value blow past the limit? Who would be able to stop me if I smash them all over the place?” Luo Tian started fantasizing.

At this time...

When he thought of the instant kill attribute of a Heavenly Flame... what would happen if he merged it with other martial skills? Would they really have the ability to kill instantly? Just like the Celestial Sword Strike from the novel Invincible Level Up?

Insta-killing whoever he wanted?

This...

“Gulp~!”

Luo Tian swallowed his saliva fiercely, “I think I need to give it a try!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Black Dragon King. You have gained 5,000,000 experience points, 500,000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Black Dragon’s Heart.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Black Dragon King’s bloodline. Will you be fusing with it?”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Spirit of the Five Elements – the Fire Element. Will you be fusing with it?”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Black Dragon’s Armor.”

A series of loud alerts exploded forth.

Luo Tian cried out in excitement: “Awesome!”

Black Dragon’s Heart and Frost Dragon’s Heart were very similar, where their attributes only showed ??? and looked like a pendant. This kind of thing was ideal as a gift for a girl. Luo Tian smiled with excitement before looking up the Black Dragon’s bloodline.

Four-legged Lizard Dragon?

He had no interest in such a bloodline.

He will save it for Fatty.

Black Dragon King's skeleton?

It was the huge skeletal structure of a dragon and looked like a large saber. Luo Tian was in joy as he said to himself: "Dragon Slayer precisely needs a blade, so I might as well use you to forge one. I don't have any handy weapons on me and sabers are considered the tyrants of weapons. I prefer being domineering!"

Suddenly...

Luo Tian kind of missed Blood Devouring Wild Blade.

Item: Black Dragon's Armor

Grade: Divine

Description: Can defend against 60% of physical attacks and 80% of dark energy attacks.

"After Black Dragon King's death, my SSS-rank quest is considered half completed. There's still the other half where I have to kill that Nether King. After killing Nether King, a large part of the Dragon race's crisis will be taken care of. Once that part of the quest is completed, I will only have the third part left to do."

Just when Luo Tian was thinking about these things...

Eggy's weak voice was heard in Luo Tian's mind. "Boss, I can't hold on anymore."

“Ommm~!”

Previously, it was Eggy that was enduring against Black Dragon King’s attacks.

Luo Tian didn’t suffer any injuries. And while he was enveloped by the red light, he felt extremely comfortable and even the injuries he suffered before seemed to have all disappeared.

Eggy’s voice woke up Luo Tian from his thoughts.

The red light pulled back.

Luo Tian instantly returned to his seriously injured state. His countenance instantly sank as his eyes glanced around the area where was floating up in the sky. He then shouted inside his heart: “Oh shit!”

“Boom~!”

The current him, who had relaxed and was seriously injured, couldn’t support himself. He directly plummeted down in a freefall.

“Regeneration!”

“Healing Art, Healing Art, Healing Art...”

Casting like crazy!

Luo Tian was desperately using Healing Art while he was free falling. In this short moment, his body managed to recover a little bit. He was able to use his strength to control his body right before he was about to hit the ground.

“Bang~!”

Luo Tian fell to the ground and pain assaulted his back. Fortunately, this wasn't able to take his life. But his face turned pale, his aura weakened, and his internal pain felt like a fire was slowly burning every part of his body. Luo Tian had no time to bother about himself because he was extremely worried about Eggy.

Now that he thought about it, Eggy had taken a huge risk.

Moreover...

The damage he received from Black Dragon King wasn't defended against nor did it just disappear, it was Eggy just enduring it head-on. Such a powerful dark energy wind blade... When Luo Tian thought about it, his heart started aching. "Eggy, why are you so stupid?"

"How are you feeling now?"

Luo Tian became extremely anxious.

The dragon egg inside him didn't move like it had died already.

Luo Tian became even more anxious and quickly opened up the system interface to look at Eggy's attributes. He couldn't figure out anything from it and hurriedly asked: "Eggy! Eggy! Don't scare me! Eggy, move a bit! Can you move just a little bit?!"

"What do you need me to do?"

No matter how much Luo Tian asked, the dragon egg showed no reaction.

Luo Tian's whole body was wracked in pain.

He was also worried about the dragon egg. He was really scared Eggy had died without being even hatched yet. Luo Tian wouldn't forgive himself if that were to happen. He didn't know when but he had already treated Eggy as his brother, just like how he treated Feng Lei and the others.

If his brother died because of him, there's no way Luo Tian would forgive himself.

Pain shuddered through his heart.

The pain in his body had been completely ignored by him.

Luo Tian was such a person.

He would rather suffer himself than watch those around him suffer. Even if he couldn't handle something, he would still do it. He hoped that his brothers and his women were safe and sound and not to suffer any injuries.

"Eggy, you cannot die!"

Luo Tian clenched his teeth and roared inside his heart: "Strength! Strength! Strength! Why am I so weak?! Why can't I protect my brothers?! Why?! Why?! If I can't even protect my own brothers, how am I supposed to deal with Murong Wanjian when I go to Shattered Sky City to save Li Xue'er? What am I going to use to stomp him to death with?"

His heart felt extreme pain.

Black Dragon King's cultivation already reached the Profound Emperor realm.

Such a high cultivation realm yet he was still killed off by Luo Tian, who was only at the Profound Saint 1st rank. Most likely no one in this world was capable of such a feat.

Luo Tian was already very strong.

But he wasn't satisfied!

He really used his life on the line to train because he knew his cultivation level wasn't able to disturb the status quo. He wasn't able to stand on the peak of the Tianxuan Continent yet. Back then, he was only focused on Shattered Sky City, Murong Wanjian, and the Violet Organization's Soul Hall. Now, it was different.

There was Imperial God Immortal Sect, Starsea Immortal Sect, the ten great immortal sects, and Mount Hua Immortal Sect. They were like large mountains resting on Luo Tian's shoulders that made him unable to breathe properly. It was extremely uncomfortable but he clenched his teeth and held on.

The mental suffering he experienced was something ordinary people wouldn't be able to bear.

In order to strive for his goal, he had walked one step at a time with his life on the line. He believed that eventually one day, he would be able to f*ck these people and their forces over!

But when he saw that Eggy was injured because of him, he felt like ten thousand steel needles had stabbed through his heart. It was an extremely uncomfortable feeling!

At this time...

The dragon egg faintly moved before Eggy's weak voice was heard. "Boss, I can't hold on anymore. I'm s, sorry, I can't accompany you further. Boss, thank you. Thank you for giving me such an interesting journey. Thank..."

The voice was getting weaker and weaker.

Luo Tian's heart turned dead silent as his spirit and body collapsed.

At this moment, the system gave off an alert tone!

Chapter 577 – Awful Three Days

Even in his dreams, Luo Tian never imagined Eggy would use his life to endure Black Dragon King's attacks.

If he knew he was going to do this, there was no way he would allow Eggy to do it. He would rather die himself than watch a brother of his die.

Just when Luo Tian was in despair...

The system gave off an alert tone.

In an instant...

Luo Tian's mind became nervous and sincere. He had never been so sincere in his life to request something: "I'm begging you, oh mighty heavens. You have to let Eggy continue living. I am willing to use my life as exchange."

Luo Tian was at the edge of collapsing.

Eggy's voice was gradually getting softer. It was similar to an elderly person's voice getting weaker as they approached their time of death. Luo Tian's heart was in agonizing pain!

"Ding!"

"The hatching of the dragon egg has been brought ahead of time!"

"Three-day time limit to hatch!"

"Required hatching item: Dragon God's Soul."

"Once the time is up, the hatching will be considered a failure, and the dragon egg will be destroyed."

“If the hatching is successful, affinity is increased to 100 points and it will never leave you!”

These were the system alert messages.

Luo Tian was listening with all seriousness and even repeated the words after the system. “Three days... I have three days as a time limit. I still have a chance. Eggy, you have to hold on. I will complete the quest and get the Dragon God’s Soul. I will definitely have you hatch out successfully.”

Luo Tian’s heart was trembling.

Three days!

It was simply too short! He had to kill Nether King and the super boss Tai Long. All of this required time for preparations.

It wasn’t enough time!

But Luo Tian had no choice. If he couldn’t complete it in three days, the dragon egg was going to disappear and there would be no more Eggy. Luo Tian’s mind turned heavy and his body was filled with pain. But on the surface, he looked like the pain was non-existent while he locked his gaze onto Crescent Canyon’s direction. His eyes turned serious, “Eggy, I will have you hatch out no matter what price I have to pay. Even if I have to die, I will have you hatch out of your shell. Just wait for me!”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian absorbed ten inner cores filled with immortal force. He released all his powers and focused it on his speed, blasting off towards Crescent Canyon like a rocket.

The only thing left from the second part of the SSS-rank quest was to kill Nether King!

At this time...

Luo Tian had become a slaughtering machine, a true madman!

Blood Sea City, main hall.

“A mere human was able to kill everyone in the Black Dragon Army...”

“After entering the Sky Palace, you started off at the Profound Venerate 5th rank and went all the way to the Profound Saint 1st rank. The speed of your breakthroughs is like someone flying up to the sky. Since you are able to make such quick breakthroughs at high cultivation realms, I must admit that you, Luo Tian, are truly not simple.”

“But...”

“No matter how not simple you are or how much of a genius you are, blocking my path will only result in being stepped on below my foot.”

Suddenly...

The muscles in the corner of Tai Long’s eyes twitched. Killing intent surged out as he shouted: “Send out my command – Nether King is to withdraw his troops back to Blood Sea City. He is to immediately return without delay!”

“Lord, most likely General Nether King is currently fighting the Dragon race. If we have him withdraw the troops at this time, I’m afraid we will hurt the morale of our soldiers. This move is a bit inappropriate, right?”

“Bang~!”

Tai Long's eyes shot out a green light and the head of the Elder that said those words exploded. Brain matter splattered all over the place. Tai Long then shouted: "Who else wants to question me?! Go relay my commands now! I will take the life of whoever dares to speak useless crap to me again!"

He was already extremely angry.

He only sent out his spiritual senses and was able to cause a Profound Saint expert's sea of consciousness to explode.

Everyone lowered their heads and was as quiet as a cicada at night. Some didn't even dare to breathe loudly.

Immediately after...

Tai Long coldly said: "Tell Nether King to do his best in defending Blood Sea City. I'm going to the Blood Sea Domain for seclusion."

"Luo Tian!"

"You may be able to control the dragon stone pillar and use its powers, and you even have some type of red light divine artifact to protect your body that's beyond my imagination. But no matter how strong you are, there's no way you can be stronger than my soon to be Profound God realm."

"The moment I exit my seclusion is the time of your death!"

Tai Long!

The utmost peak of the Profound Emperor realm!

He was only a tiny little bit from breaking through to the Profound God realm. It's possible to only take a second or it could take up to a year. But there's no way Tai Long would need the whole year because the mysterious space he cultivates in, the Blood Sea Domain, allows him to progress at extraordinary speeds!

It doesn't matter whether Tai Long can break into the Profound God realm or not.

This matter wasn't good news for Luo Tian.

He only had three days of time left.

If he can't kill Tai Long in three days, he won't be able to get the Dragon God's Soul and have Eggy hatch out. That means the dragon egg will die!

Three days!

The time frame was extremely short.

Crescent Canyon.

Luo Tian rushed over with all his strength.

The place was a complete mess with countless wounded and dead. There were Dark Angels and Dragon race bodies strewn about.

Seeing Luo Tian's appearance, Frost Dragon King immediately greeted him with a smile. "Brother Luo, why are you here? The Nether King's army has already been repelled back six times by us. We can defend this area no problem."

Kai Lun, Ai Xi, Ai Lun, and Little Xie all came over.

For the Frost Dragon clan, they had proven themselves to everyone with their strength today.

Qin Changtian also rushed over and said: "Big brother Luo Tian, you're injured! And quite seriously! Quick, call Grandpa Mei Lin over!"

"No need!"

Luo Tian then asked: "Where's the Nether King's army?"

Frost Dragon King replied: "His army had suddenly withdrawn over ten kilometers. We didn't chase after them afraid there would be an ambush. Brother Luo, how's it going on your side?"

"They withdrew?"

"It looks like Tai Long already knows Black Dragon King is dead. This Tai Long guy is even stronger than my expectations." Luo Tian thought to himself.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian looked at Qin Changtian and said: "Changtian, I need your help. I need you to accompany me and kill our way to Blood Sea City. I don't have much time left. Based on my current cultivation, there's no way I am Tai Long's opponent so I will need your help."

The only hope to kill Tai Long was the arcane secrets of the Sky Dragon's Heart.

Luo Tian couldn't cultivate that skill.

He could only count on Qin Changtian.

Qin Changtian looked at Luo Tian's anxious expression and didn't ask further. He immediately nodded and said: "Big brother Luo Tian, my life was given by you. Not to mention help, I wouldn't even frown if you wanted me to die right here."

"Good!"

"Thank you!" Luo Tian didn't know what else to say. His heart was in chaos when knowing Eggy only had three days left. Dealing with both Nether King and Tai Long for the current he was truly beyond difficult.

Luo Tian immediately said: "Let's head out!"

"Okay!"

Frost Dragon King was confused. Things were happening too fast so he couldn't understand the reasoning.

The surrounding people also couldn't understand what was going on.

What was Luo Tian doing? Why was he in such a rush?

At this time...

A Dragon race member rushed over and reported: "General, Black Dragon King's army was completely wiped out by Luo Tian. No one survived, including Black Dragon King himself."

Everyone instantly became dumbstruck!

Chapter 578 – Fusing With The Second Bloodline

"Madman! He's a complete lunatic!"

“Don’t run! Hold your formation! He’s only one person while we have several tens of thousands of people! What are you guys afraid of?! Don’t run!”

Nether King’s Army.

After withdrawing from Crescent Canyon, they started rushing back to Blood Sea City.

Nether King couldn’t understand it.

He couldn’t understand why Tai Long would give such a strange command.

Even though he couldn’t break through the Dragon race’s defensive line, he believes just a few more charges and he would be able to accomplish it and completely destroy the enemy. But at this critical moment, Tai Long had his army retreat back to Blood Sea City and it was even at an urgent pace. This made him absolutely puzzled.

When they were all withdrawing in a rush...

Two beams of light from the sky smashed down.

One of them stood off to the side and didn’t move.

The other person looked like a madman covered in blood and injuries. But when he started killing the Dark Angels, he turned into a slaughtering machine. He was reaping lives everywhere just like a battle god that had crawled out from the depths of hell.

Too terrifying!

The originally sixty thousand-plus army was smashed into pieces. They regrouped into formation but were smashed apart once more.

There were sixty thousand Dark Angels.

And they were afraid of a single person?!

Nether King never imagined that when he was about to head out to fight, another piece of news came from Blood Sea City.

“What?”

“He’s called Luo Tian and is the human that entered Sky Palace?”

“He was capable of killing Black Dragon King? What kind of background does this human have?” Nether King was frowning as a trace of fear arose inside his heart. The only reason was that Luo Tian was able to kill Black Dragon King.

He was only a Four-winged Angel, and when comparing strength, he wasn’t Black Dragon King’s opponent.

Since Luo Tian was able to kill Black Dragon King, that meant he was not Luo Tian’s opponent. So, how could he not feel a trace of fear?

“The Lord commands that General Nether King quickly withdraw back to Blood Sea City.”

“Withdraw?”

“How am I supposed to withdraw? That madman is killing everyone like crazy. My sixty thousand strong army of Dark Angels cannot even block a human, so how am I supposed to withdraw? Should I just leave them all behind? If that’s the case, what use is there for me to go back anymore?”

Nether King’s brows furrowed as he forced the fear out of his mind.

The strong will always be different from the weak.

Nether King understood what kind of situation he was in. A General without an army withdrawing was completely useless.

Since this was the case, he might as well fight a bloody battle!

“Pass on my commands – establish the Angel Formation!”

Suddenly...

The Dark Angel Army that had become a mess from Luo Tian’s attack, managed to stabilize themselves for a moment. The Dark Angels in the rear immediately arranged themselves into a huge Angel killing formation.

“Big brother Luo Tian, you need to be extra careful. They’ve arranged themselves into an Angel Punisher Formation. You cannot get trapped inside there no matter what.” Qin Changtian advised from the side.

But...

Before he was able to continue speaking...

Luo Tian already charged into the center of the Angel Punisher Formation. Just like a real grim reaper, his eyes faintly darkened and the grim reaper’s killing intent coming out from him became much stronger. He then shouted: “Angel Punisher Formation?”

“Today, this daddy will break your dog shit formation!”

“Azure Dragon’s bloodline, come out for me!”

“Boom~!”

A ferocious phantom image of an Azure Dragon curled around Luo Tian's body.

"Roar~!"

The dragon roar echoed into the sky and shattered the dark energy within a ten-kilometer radius. Luo Tian's eyes turned fierce as he shouted: "Sharingan, Illusion!"

"Come out for me!"

"Ommm~..."

Three black comma shapes appeared in his red pupils.

His Sharingan had leveled up!

The illusion being cast by a level 3 Sharingan was completely different from before. The grade of his illusions had exceeded the single increase in level.

At this moment...

Veins appeared on Luo Tian's forehead as he smiled ferociously. "Everyone should kill each other, hahaha..."

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

A large group of Dark Angels that had fallen under the illusion started slaughtering each other. Before the Angel Punisher Formation was able to show its might, it was broken through by a single move from Luo Tian. This kind of formation focused on using the people as the eyes, and the simplest way to break out from it was to completely kill all the people off!

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

System alerts sounded off like crazy inside Luo Tian’s mind.

His experience bar started soaring like crazy!

Luo Tian was already at the Profound Saint realm so the experience he got from each kill was greatly reduced. But he was very satisfied upon seeing his experience bar still rising up at such fast speeds.

In just a short while...

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. You are currently at the Profound Saint 2nd rank.”

“Fuuu~ ...”

He had been charging over through clenched teeth.

Luo Tian had been practically enduring his injuries with his life on the line. If he hadn’t leveled up, he really didn’t know if he could continue holding on for this long. It was simply way too painful!

After leveling up...

All his stats had recovered.

This included the backlash from using Sharingan.

“Too strong.”

“Big brother Luo Tian is just too strong.”

“How can he be strong to such a level? He instantly broke the Angel Punisher Formation and then made a breakthrough in cultivation. In just a short half a month, he rose from the Profound Venerate 5th rank all the way to the Profound Saint 2nd rank. This kind of speed is simply too fast, to the point where it’s become unimaginable.” Qin Changtian was filled with excitement.

“General, it’s not going well.”

“The Angel Punisher Formation was instantly broken by him.”

“Moreover...”

Nether King was enraged.

He angrily yelled: “Moreover what?!”

“Moreover, that human made a breakthrough in his cultivation.”

“What?!”

The four wings behind Nether King suddenly unfurled and the pressure blasted dozens of people out. He then roared in anger: "A bunch of trash! What's the use in raising you guys if you can't even block a lowly human?!"

His voice exploded into the sky.

Right after...

Nether King instantly appeared in front of Luo Tian with an icy gaze. He pointed at Luo Tian's nose and shouted: "Damn dog thing, go die for me!"

"Angel's Restraint!"

"Myriad Divine Laws..."

"Cage of Imprisonment, descend for me!"

There was no hesitation.

The moment Nether King appeared, he released the Angel race's forbidden skill – Angel's Restraint.

This was also labeled as a secret skill.

It can temporarily restrain a person and the time frame is up to the caster's cultivation realm. Of course, the higher the user's cultivation is, the longer they can restrain their target. Once under the restraint, one's powers, defense, and even their artifacts would cease to work.

This was basically waiting for death!

Qin Changtian had been following Luo Tian all this time. Seeing how Nether King was casting a forbidden skill, he cried out: "Big brother Luo Tian, watch out!"

“Boom~!”

A loud sound was heard in the sky.

A black-light beam directly landed on top of Luo Tian’s head.

The light beam directly confined Luo Tian.

He wasn’t able to move at all.

Everything happened too quickly so Luo Tian didn’t have time to react.

Seeing how Luo Tian was restrained, Nether King started laughing loudly. “Hahaha, you’ve been imprisoned, you damn trash! Now you can just wait for your death!”

Luo Tian’s gaze turned serious.

All his powers, defense, and the Black Dragon’s Armor had been restricted.

But the system wasn’t related to any of these so it naturally wasn’t restricted.

At this moment, Luo Tian roared internally: “Fuse with the Vermillion Bird bloodline!”

Chapter 579 – Vermillion Bird Rises Into The Sky, Explode!

It was so short that one didn’t have enough time to do anything.

Luo Tian didn’t want to waste time.

He didn't want to waste even a second because the latter battle will be the time Luo Tian will be fully tested on his capabilities.

He couldn't let Eggy die just like that.

Absolutely couldn't!

He originally thought of fusing his second bloodline much later in the future. But he couldn't endure anymore nor wait for such a long time. He made a prompt decision and fused with the second bloodline from the four divine beasts, the Vermillion Bird bloodline.

"Ding!"

"Are you sure?"

"Yes!"

"Fusion will begin now."

"Fusion requires fifteen seconds. Countdown will start now! 15, 14, 13..."

A short fifteen seconds.

It looks and sounds very short but was in fact very long for a supreme expert like Nether King. In fifteen seconds, he had over ten thousand ways to kill Luo Tian.

Luo Tian's brows were locked together.

He couldn't release any of his powers after being restrained by the black beam. He was basically a living target with the fate of being shot to death by anyone.

“Take it head-on!”

“Luo Tian, you have to suck it up!”

“You were able to endure a miserable and boring previous life! Ever since you’ve transmigrated here, what situation wasn’t like treading on the blade of a knife? When was your life not threatened at the edge of death? You were able to get through those, so you have to hold on here as well!”

“Xue’er is still waiting for you to save her. Yue’er, Tang Tang, Xue’er are all waiting to roll around with you on a large bed. Murong Wanjian is waiting for you to be stepped on. Imperial God Immortal Sect and Starsea Immortal Sect are still waiting to be exploded by you. You cannot die here!”

“You have to hold on for fifteen seconds!”

Luo Tian clenched his fists tightly since the only thing he could do right now was wait.

Nether King’s cultivation was only a tiny bit lower than Black Dragon King, so his strength had reached a terrifying realm already. There was no way Luo Tian can break through a forbidden skill used by an expert like him that easily. If Black Dragon King didn’t start off exchanging blows with him, there’s no way Luo Tian could’ve killed him.

At this time...

The only thing Luo Tian could do was take it head-on!

“Hahaha...

“Lowly human, I was wondering how strong you would be yet you were restrained just like that. Hahaha... so you’re actually just a piece of trash.” Nether King laughed like mad. He was feeling rather smug right now and no longer felt any fear.

It was difficult to use the Dark Angel race's forbidden skill. But once they manage to restrain their target, all that person can do is wait for their death.

Nether King's army started boiling in excitement.

"Kill him! Kill that lunatic!"

"Hack him with a thousand cuts! We can't allow such a lunatic to continue living!"

"General, just go ahead and kill him!"

Their voices shook the sky.

Nether King wasn't afraid of Luo Tian, but the troops from the Dark Angel race were scared to death. Looking at Luo Tian was similar to looking at the God of Death. One could die just like that, so the fear stemmed from the depths of their hearts. They were still afraid even though Luo Tian had been restrained already.

They were hoping Luo Tian would die sooner than later.

Nether King coldly scoffed before saying: "Damn trash, you dare to kill my clan members? And you somehow killed Black Dragon King as well? Good! Today, I will offer up your blood as a sacrifice to their deceased souls."

"Dark energy!"

"Come out for me!"

"Ommm~..."

A ringing sound exploded from Nether King's body and his four black wings started fluttering. A powerful dark aura surged out from him before enshrouding his entire body. Nether King then roared out, causing the dark aura to fluctuate and condense into a ball. His mouth had a cold sneer on it before he pushed out with both hands. "Go to hell for me!"

At this time...

Qin Changtian transformed into a Golden Dragon!

A golden light shot out.

The huge body of his was directly blocking in front of Luo Tian!

Luo Tian's eyes shook before he screamed: "Changtian, hurry up and move away!"

Because of him, Eggy was about to die.

He felt like he owed Eggy too much!

Now, Qin Changtian was blocking in front of him. If anything happened to him, Luo Tian really would absolutely not be able to forgive himself. Moreover, Qin Changtian was of great importance to the next part of his quest. Whether he can kill the ultimate boss or not depends on Qin Changtian. No mishap can happen to him!

Qin Changtian turned around with a smile. "Big brother Luo Tian, I can take it!"

"You cannot take it!"

"Quickly move away!" Luo Tian roared out.

The grim reaper's killing intent inside his sea of consciousness was going crazy. A strong aura of hostility then came out from Luo Tian's body.

Heart demon!

This was the same feeling when the remnant of Bloodfiend's soul tried to invade Luo Tian's body.

At this time...

Luo Tian was extremely angry and felt like he was filled with violent tendencies.

It was because of his anger that a heart demon had appeared.

But...

The presence of the heart demon started growing inside Luo Tian. His eyes shook before his spiritual sense turned into something similar to divine might as he roared out: "You better f*cking act well-behaved in front of this daddy!"

"Boom~!"

With the movement of his senses, it scared the heart demon back to wherever it came from!

Luo Tian's anger had already reached its peak.

Not to mention a heart demon, even if Bloodfiend appeared in front of him right now, he would still fiercely slap him to death.

"Hahaha..."

“You’re that little Golden Dragon?”

“Just based on a little piece of trash like you and you wish to block my attack?”

“Go to hell for me!”

“He will die right after you. You both have to die no matter what! Hahaha...” Nether King started laughing with arrogance. Dark energy had already condensed into a ball of power before shooting out. Nether King started laughing once more after seeing the flashy-looking black light attack of his.

He was laughing with an extremely smug look on his face.

“Get away!”

“Changtian, quickly get away!”

“...”

Luo Tian was screaming his words out but it was all useless.

Qin Changtian stood firmly in front of Luo Tian while his golden body glowed brighter. “Dragon Emperor’s Shield, come out for me!”

“Ommm~!”

A light shield shot out from the Dragon Emperor’s Token and wrapped around Qin Changtian.

“Dragon Emperor’s Token?”

“Humph~! So what if it’s the Dragon Emperor’s Token? If it was the old Dragon Emperor, maybe he would be able to resist it. But there’s no way a little brat like you can block my dark powers.” Nether King said with disdain.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The powerful attack struck and exploded!

The shield around Qin Changtian lasted for a few seconds before shattering.

His body was like a kite with its strings cut, flying off into the distance.

“Bang~!”

He was smashed flying into the mountainside a few hundred meters away and parts of the mountain started collapsing. Qin Changtian was buried underneath chunks of rocks and his life or death unknown!

“Nether King!”

“I’m going to f*ck up all your ancestors!” Luo Tian roared out in rage.

In an instant...

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for successfully fusing with the Vermillion Bird bloodline.”

Luo Tian then yelled out: “Vermillion Bird bloodline, come out for me!”

“Shreek~...”

A Vermillion Bird’s screech came out from Luo Tian’s body. Right after that, the Azure Dragon’s roar exploded out in the sky. When the two powerful bloodlines fused together, the colors of the world seemed to have become distorted!

Incomparable powers surged into the sky!

Everyone was dumbstruck by this.

Bloodline?

Two types of bloodlines fused together?

How is that possible?

In an instant...

Luo Tian clenched his teeth and roared into the sky: “Vermillion Bird rises into the sky, break for me!”

“Boom~!”

A phantom image of the Vermillion Bird appeared around Luo Tian before flying into the sky like a fiery phoenix. Nether King’s Angel’s Restraint was instantly smashed into oblivion!

“Die for me!”

Chapter 580 – Great Flame Commandmen

Angry to the extreme!

Flames were coming out of Luo Tian's body making him similar to the Heavenly Flame.

He then roared out: "Level 7 Berserk!"

"Boom~!"

"Azure Dragon's bloodline! Vermillion Bird's bloodline! All powers combine together!"

"Come out for me!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Two powerful bloodline powers were released and Luo Tian practically became a ball of flames. He was like a meteor as he charged towards Nether King. He then lowered his fists before yelling: "Magma Fire, level 8!"

"Great Flame Commandment!"

This was the move Luo Tian created for himself.

This was the same move where Ace fought Black Beard inside the novel One Piece!

The flames around Luo Tian exploded out and condensed into a huge ball of flames. It became a barrier of flames and enshrouded everything within its reach. The Azure Dragon's bloodline and the Vermillion Bird bloodlines made the power of Magma Fire even more fierce by many times!

"How is this possible?"

“This kind of power has surpassed the Profound Saint realm and maybe even the Profound Emperor realm! How is it possible for a human to do this?”

“This is impossible!”

“Absolutely impossible! How can two types of bloodline powers become this strong? And no matter how strong his fleshly body is, there’s absolutely no way it can handle the powers of two overwhelmingly powerful bloodlines. This is completely impossible!” Nether King’s brows were locked together as he muttered this to himself.

Seeing how he was enshrouded by the flames...

Seeing how his 50,000 plus Dark Angel army was enshrouded by flames...

Nether King’s eyes turned fierce as he shouted: “Kid, I refuse to believe this is real! A mere elementary stage Profound Saint trash can fuse all the bloodlines he wants but he’s still a Profound Saint in the end. And you want to flip the world upside down with just that?!”

“Suppress for me!”

“Forbidden skill... Angel’s Restraint, control him for me!”

“Boom~!”

The power on Nether King’s body rushed out like a raging ocean tide and was much stronger than previous. A black beam of light fell from the sky and struck the top of Luo Tian’s head.

“Humph~!”

“Your cultivation realm is only at this extent so who cares if you can get a little stronger? There’s absolutely no way you can escape my forbidden skill! Hahaha... Control him for me!” Nether King roared out while his body faintly trembled. Using a forbidden skill required consuming a large amount of energy from him.

He had already overdrawn his powers from using it twice in a row.

It was the same even though he was considered rather strong because the usage of forbidden skills consumed too much of a user's energy.

He had thrown everything out on the line in order to restrain Luo Tian!

"Nether King..."

"So this is all the capabilities you have. It looks like your master never taught you anything new except for some useless dark powers." Luo Tian said with disdain. His current fleshly body wasn't like before and had transformed into pure fire.

The fire from Great Flame Commandment.

Level 8 of Magma Fire allowed his body to directly turn into fire!

Nether King's forbidden skill was indeed very strong.

His ability allowed him to penetrate through anything and the black beam of light was extremely powerful. It wanted to restrain the Great Flame Commandment that had enshrouded almost ten kilometers of space. Except at this moment, the Vermillion Bird screeched out once more before flying upwards and smashing through the powers of the forbidden skill.

"Great Flame Commandment!"

"Explode for me!"

“Boom~!”

A blasting noise was heard in the sky!

The entire Sky Palace seemed to have lost its color, similar to the darkness of night where one couldn't see their own fingers in front of them.

One second later...

Flames soared into the sky like the detonation of an antimatter bomb!

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The sky seemed to be groaning in pain and the earth was shaking violently. Dragon Mountain, which was a million kilometers away was fracturing and breaking apart. Even the barrier around Sky Palace looked like it couldn't hold on for much longer. Space distorted and black holes were seen like the environment was on the verge of collapse.

“Agghhh~...”

“Agghhh~...”

“No! I don't want to die!”

“Lord Nether King! Please save me!”

“Lord...”

Crazy amounts of explosion took place!

The flames engulfed everything! The fifty thousand plus Dark Angel army was destroyed almost instantly and didn't even leave a bit of ash behind.

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

There were more than fifty thousand system alerts.

This series of sounds was already beyond words to describe. Luo Tian was so shocked that he felt like he had just revived from dying.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. Your current realm is Profound Saint 3rd rank."

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. Your current realm is Profound Saint 4th rank."

Leveling up twice!

"Awesome!" Luo Tian screamed out.

The fifty thousand plus Dark Angels allowed him to level up twice. It doesn't sound like much but for the current Luo Tian, it was already a very awesome number. He needed over a hundred million experience points to level up and the experience points from these Dark Angels weren't that much, to begin with.

He was quite happy to have leveled up twice.

Even playing video games in his previous life wasn't this fast.

"Bang~!"

A dark afterimage was seen flying out.

The powers of the Great Flame Commandment gradually disappeared.

The surrounding area was a complete mess.

Focusing on the dark afterimage, Luo Tian's gaze turned fierce before yelling: "Nether King! You f*cker still haven't died yet?"

"Since you haven't died yet..."

"You can go to hell for me now."

Suddenly...

Luo Tian charged forward like crazy and instantly landed next to Nether King. He stepped on one of Nether King's wings, afraid that he would try to fly away. His fists turned into magma before he started punching Nether King continuously.

"Are you dead yet?"

“Bang~, bang~, bang~...”

“Let this daddy see if you’re dead yet!”

“Bang~, bang~, bang~...”

Rage!

Venting out like crazy!

Eggy only had three days left.

Qin Changtian’s life or death was unknown. Murong Wanjian, the Imperial God Immortal Sect, Starsea Immortal Sect, Mount Hua Immortal Sect, Venerable Hun Yuan, and the Prime Elder was pressuring Luo Tian to the point that he could barely breathe. It was an extremely uncomfortable feeling!

He had been holding in the raging flames inside him.

Luo Tian looked normal on the surface but the rage he had been holding inside him had been smoldering to a boiling point that even he didn’t notice.

Everything suddenly exploded out now.

His fists had smashed Nether King’s body into a bloody meat pulp. He continued punching and even Nether King’s bones were turning into powder. Luo Tian didn’t stop and roared out: “Come! Come! Still not dead? This daddy wants to see if you’re going to die or not!”

Completely lost his mind!

Just like a real lunatic!

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Nether King. You have gained 4,000,000 experience points, 400,000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Angel’s Restraint. Would you like to cultivate it?”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Wings of Darkness. Would you like to fuse with it?”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for completing the second part of the quest.”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for triggering the third part of the quest – Kill Tai Long!”

Several system alerts sounded off in succession.

Luo Tian’s mind slowly regained its clarity. Upon seeing Nether King’s body that was smashed to a pulp, his expression turned a bit heavy. “Sure enough, the third part is to kill Tai Long.”

His eyes were locked in the direction of where Blood Sea City was.

Luo Tian then yelled with all his might: “Tai Long, you damn mongrel dog! You just wait for this daddy!”

His voice shook the sky!

All the inhabitants of Sky Palace were able to hear it!

Frost Dragon King's expression changed while the entire Dragon race became silent.

It was the same with the people inside Blood Sea City.

In a special training area called Blood Sea Purgatory, Tai Long was no longer the original Tai Long from before. He had turned into an extremely ugly demon. He was currently refining the blood from the Blood Sea and his eyes looked just like a wild beast. "Kid, you're courting your own death!"
