Chapter 611 – Huge Crisis

A single pole strike from Eggy made Daoist Tian Xu see stars already, so what would happen to him if he suffered another pole strike?

Descendant of the Dragon God!

A descendant from an Eight-clawed Golden Dragon! His dragon's might was too terrifying. Even if Daoist Tian Xu was at the peak of the Profound Emperor realm, he still couldn't resist that kind of power. The only outcome for him was being tortured to death!

Without being in the Profound God realm, there's no way he would be Eggy's opponent.

Even the Ancient World's Soul Sovereign's will was shattered by a single pole strike from Eggy, so there's no way Daoist Tian Xu was his opponent.

But...

No matter what, Daoist Tian Xu was someone that had lived for over six thousand years and had experienced a lot of things. Even though he was suppressed, his expression remained calm without a trace of being flustered. This was something Venerable Yun Ji wasn't capable of.

The eyes of Daoist Tian Xu shook as he clenched his teeth.

Watching Eggy charge towards him in rage, a very strange energy started surging out from his body.

Luo Tian's mind sank as he immediately shouted: "Eggy, watch out!"

It was too late.

Moreover...

Eggy had been stored inside Luo Tian's body since the beginning. Once Daoist Tian Xu appeared, he had been suppressing Luo Tian the entire time and treated Luo Tian as just a tool to refine inner cores. Eggy had remembered everything that had happened. He had promised himself that he would show Daoist Tian Xu a thing or two one day.

Now was his chance.

Even though Eggy detected a dangerous aura approaching him, he still continued charging forward without a thought. Eggy then shouted: "Little kid Tian Xu, this daddy has been tolerating you for a long time already! Those that have bullied my boss will only have one outcome – death!"

As the word death was said, the Dragon God's Pillar started manifesting thousands of pole shadows.

Eggy released all his powers and merged his dragon's might with the pole. The pole then smashed down with the strongest power possible!

A power that was capable of destroying the world!

The sky lost its color and the earth started shaking.

The entire Tianxuan Continent darkened as if Eggy's pole strike had blocked all existing sources of light!

Too powerful!

Powerful to the point that words couldn't describe!

Those below the Profound God realm were suppressed to the point of being unable to breathe normally. It was extremely uncomfortable even though they were over ten thousand kilometers away. They were feeling this indescribable suppression because they were watching through the void and their sights were focused on Eggy.

Extreme discomfort!

“Humph~! I really don’t understand what those damn outer sect envoys were doing when recruiting new disciples! They didn’t even recruit such a genius... did they all grow up eating shit? Are their eyes blind? I think those people need to all be replaced! If a person like him becomes a disciple of my immortal sect, how can we not become the leader of the ten great immortal sects?”

“Luo Tian... it doesn’t matter if he can live beyond today or not because his name will enter the annals of history and be forever remembered in the Tianxuan Continent!”

“So what if he’s strong?”

“Daoist Tian Xu managed to cultivate the God Skill from their old ancestor. Heaven’s Seal – not to mention the little dragon, even a mature dragon would be instantly sealed up by this heaven-defying martial skill. One would be hard-pressed to live on when your powers have been all sealed up.”

God Skill!

Tianxuan Continent’s strongest grade of martial skill.

A martial skill created by a Profound God Sovereign and contained the essence of the Profound God Sovereign’s powers.

Back then...

The devil sects looked down on this world and many old devils ran rampant doing whatever they wanted.

The immortal sects were completely suppressed by them.

Mount Hua's old ancestor used his essence blood as the catalyst in order to comprehend Heaven's Seal. One person against thousands of devils – he managed to seal up over a hundred old devil experts who were at the peak of this world's cultivation and imprisoned them in the Soul Refining Array.

Even until now, the seal on those old devils couldn't be broken.

Heaven's Seal was extremely powerful!

After the ascension of Mount Hua's old ancestor, everyone thought that God Skill had disappeared with him. No one imagined Daoist Tian Xu managed to cultivate it!

This made all the immortal sect experts shocked!

With the appearance of this God Skill, none of the other immortal sects will dare to provoke Mount Hua Immortal Sect. The display of power from a God Skill was too terrifying!

Daoist Tian Xu revealed a cold sneer as the strange power from his body continuously grew stronger. His hands started forming seals while he recited a mantra. Dots of lights appeared around him and started getting brighter until they formed a Six-pointed Starlight Array.

"A God Skill!"

"A true God Skill!"

"The God Skill left behind by Mount Hua's old ancestor! Daoist Tian Xu really managed to successfully cultivate it!"

"It looks like the dragon is going to die and that kid Luo Tian won't be living beyond today."

Those experts were all chatting away within the void.

A God Skill was really strong!

Luo Tian became anxious. He charged over like crazy as his mind sank and a sense of hopelessness rose up in his heart. He suddenly felt that he was such a useless guy! "Power, abilities, cultivation! F*ck! When can this daddy truly be able to protect the people around me?!" He screamed internally.

At the same time...

Luo Tian screamed out once more: "Eggy, it's very dangerous! Don't go there!"

He could clearly sense the Six-pointed Star power coming from Daoist Tian Xu's God Skill. This kind of power was something he had never seen or felt before. Even Tai Long, who was in the Profound God realm, the power he exploded forth with couldn't be compared to what Daoist Tian Xu was now exuding!

Eggy had no thoughts of retreating as the images of Luo Tian being bullied was playing in his mind. He became even angrier as he smashed down the pole, "Go to hell for me!"

At this moment...

Daoist Tian Xu's figure started floating above the ground. His hands suddenly formed a strange hand seal before his mouth sprayed out some essence blood. His face turned a shade paler but his expression became even more ferocious.

His hands formed a palm stance while he pushed them towards the sky. His eyes were locked onto Eggy before shouting: "Heaven's Seal, seal him up!"

"Ommm~!"

"Ommm~!"

"Ommm~!"

A humming sound resounded out through the nine heavens!

Within the void...

Including the surrounding airspace and even from beyond the nine heavens, a powerful energy started rushing towards them.

The power was like an incoming tide as it flowed into the Six-pointed Starlight Array

Immediately after...

The six-pointed star burst out in brightness, and then became a beam of light that shot towards Eggy who was only a few meters away from Daoist Tian Xu. The light started wrapping around Eggy!

Afterward...

A series of humming sounds reverberated throughout the area.

“Roar~!”

“Roar~!”

“Roar~!”

Eggy was roaring out in pain while his body kept thrashing about. The six-pointed star had charged into his body and sealed up his powers at incredibly fast speeds!

From his head to his tail, the seal had immobilized him!

“Bang~!”

The Dragon God’s Pillar dropped down.

A bright light exploded and the dragon might around Eggy’s body disappeared. His huge long body then started plummeting to the ground from high in the air.

He had been sealed!

He couldn’t use his powers anymore!

Daoist Tian Xu was gasping for air but still managed to laugh like crazy: “Hahaha... damn beast, go to hell for me!”

Chapter 612 – Luo Tian About To Lose His Mind

Way too fierce!

The only God Skill left behind by Mount Hua’s old ancestor. It was the only martial skill that was able to defeat Tianxuan Continent’s devil sect. Its powers were already beyond words to describe.

Eggy was only at level 4!

He could only be called a cub dragon yet the powers he exploded forth with were already quite fierce. But he still couldn’t escape from the sealing powers of Heaven’s Seal. He also didn’t try to dodge it since he was too enraged. The only thing he was thinking of was to take revenge for his boss!

Because of this...

He was instantly sealed up by the six-pointed starlight.

The powers inside him were all sealed up.

He couldn't even fly through the clouds anymore so his huge dragon body started plummeting.

The worst thing of all...

Daoist Tian Xu instantly made a move and charged towards Eggy with a strong killing intent. His eyes were filled with greed as he grinned, "Damn beast, go to hell for me!"

His voice shook the sky!

Eggy's eyes didn't have any traces of fear but still showed his anger. He then said in a fiery manner: "Old bandit, undo my seal if you have the guts! I will definitely be able to beat the shit right out of your ass!"

"Hahaha..."

"Damn beast, just obediently lie there for me."

"Enjoy the last few seconds of your wonderful life." Daoist Tian Xu was excited about the outcome. He then continued speaking to Eggy: "The essence blood of a Dragon God... now that's definitely some good stuff. Since a piece of trash like Luo Tian can fuse with three types of bloodlines, I refuse to believe I can't do the same thing. Once I fuse with the Dragon God's essence blood, who will be capable of stopping me in the Tianxuan Continent? The old ancestor of the Imperial God Immortal Sect? The supreme expert of the Starsea Immortal Sect? Everyone can scram aside for me! Hahaha..."

He was feeling ecstatic inside his heart!

The essence blood from a Dragon God was a step higher than the essence blood from a True Dragon!

Once he merges with it...

He would then become an existence capable of destroying the world!

Eggy was still a young dragon yet he was already this strong. His dragon's might was capable of suppressing all experts below the Profound God realm. If the powers hidden inside his essence blood were all stimulated at once, what kind of terrifying power would that display?

One wouldn't dare to imagine that.

Daoist Tian Xu walked over one step at a time. The smile on his face intensified each step he took as if he could already see himself suppressing the ten great immortal sects. This kind of scene was something he dreamed of day in and day out.

"Old bandit!"

"Little kid Tian Xu, undo this daddy's seal if you have the guts! If you have the ability, come fight me fair and square!"

Eggy was struggling on the ground and didn't even have the strength to stand up. He had been completely sealed up and the feeling was extremely uncomfortable. He kept trying to circulate his powers to charge at an invisible barrier but it felt like he was bound up and being delivered to death row. No matter how much he attacked the seal, he couldn't break past it and this completely pissed him off.

Daoist Tian Xu started laughing smugly before saying: "Little beast, do you think I would do something like that?"

He now stood in front of Eggy.

Seeing Eggy's entire body glowing gold, Daoist Tian Xu swallowed down his saliva and said: "The Heavens are treating me quite well. I couldn't break into the Profound God realm and didn't expect you to send me a descendant of a Dragon God. As long as I ingest your essence blood, I can use the power within your blood to break through into the Profound God realm even if I don't gain the Dragon God's bloodline. Hahaha..."

The Dragon race had been hiding themselves in the Sky Palace.

The main reason being that their essence blood having an extremely strong power. Even if a human cannot fuse it with themselves, it can still help them make great strides with their cultivation. Your average Dragon race was already quite useful, not to mention an Eight-claw Golden Dragon like Eggy. The essence blood inside him will definitely contain a stronger power than the normal ones.

It wasn't just Daoist Tian Xu.

Within the void...

Those experts from all the other immortal sects had greed in their eyes. The unfortunate part was that they were over ten thousand kilometers away or else they would definitely fight for the prize.

There were also experts from the devil sect.

Everyone was staring at Daoist Tian Xu.

And at this time...

Everyone was ignoring Luo Tian, including Daoist Tian Xu.

Daoist Tian Xu was staring at Eggy struggling on the ground and revealed an evil grin. He reached out with his right hand and condensed an energy vortex at the center of his palm. He then said ferociously: "Suck out the blood essence for me!"

Eggy's body started convulsing and turning crimson red.

His body was immobilized and being sucked up by a power from Daoist Tian Xu's palm. Eggy's expression turned angrier as he shouted: "Old bandit, I won't let you off! I won't let you off even if I have to die! You just wait for me!"

At this moment...

The air behind Daoist Tian Xu started distorting.

A human figure charged out from the void! His body was crimson red from releasing all his strongest powers. His fists were like meteors as he shouted: "Those who mess with my brothers – death!"

Those fists punched out like a cannon!

They smashed out with extreme violence!

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

The air around them instantly changed as if it was being drained.

Daoist Tian Xu's brows merely furrowed slightly but he didn't panic. He then sneered with disdain, "I almost forgot about this dog thing. Based on your Profound Emperor 1st rank, you... Huh? You made a breakthrough?"

Now his expression turned to one of slight shock.

But...

Daoist Tian Xu still didn't put Luo Tian in his eyes and still continued to say in disdain: "A mere Profound Emperor 2nd ranker dares to act presumptuously in front of me? This daddy broke through to the Profound Emperor 2nd rank three thousand years ago, so you can just scam away from me."

"Bang~!"

Daoist Tian Xu flicked his sleeves and his peak Profound Emperor 9th rank battle aura surged out. A single hand formed a palm stance under his sleeves as he met Luo Tian's fist.

"Boom~!"

The two different powers collided and caused a chain of explosions.

Luo Tian was directly smashed flying!

The blood inside Daoist Tian Xu's chest was roiling but he held it in so that it wouldn't come out. But even though this was the case, he was still forced to step back a dozen steps or so before he could stop himself. He then said internally: "A Profound Emperor 2nd ranker could actually explode forth with the strength of a Profound Emperor 4th ranker! No wonder Yun Ji was killed by him. The talent of this kid is most likely above the younger version of Mount Hua's old ancestor. I cannot let him live beyond today or else he will definitely become a walking catastrophe in the future!"

The power Luo Tian demonstrated made him incomparably shocked.

Because of this...

Daoist Tian Xu wanted to kill Luo Tian even more!

He switched his target!

Daoist Tian Xu coldly harrumphed and said: "You guys keep your eyes on this little beast while I take care of the trash Luo Tian. Remember – whoever dares to touch the Eight-clawed Golden Dragon, I will make it so that they don't even have the chance to become a ghost."

His voice was especially icy cold.

Daoist Tian Xu then leaped into the air and flew towards Luo Tian.

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian landed heavily and the ground gave away and created a deep pit. His face instantly turned pale like paper.

The powers of someone at the peak of the Profound Emperor realm were too strong!

Luo Tian wasn't his opponent even though he had already activated all his powers. He wanted to level up Berserk but because he had just recently leveled up, he didn't have enough experience points to use. He wanted to escape by using Teleportation at the great perfection stage but if he did that, what was going to happen to Eggy?”

He was feeling enraged!

Just when he was climbing out of the deep pit, he noticed four people standing next to it.

It was Han Hua, Yun Ling, Yun Yi, and Zhao Chen.

Luo Tian's expression turned to shock as he yelled out: “You guys have lost your minds! Quickly run! Run!”

The four of them turned their heads together and revealed a faint smile.

Daoist Tian Xu was already killing his way over!

Luo Tian was about to lose his mind!

Chapter 613 The Twin Sisters Are Very Sad

Luo Tian was about to go insane!

Running out at a time like this was tantamount to courting death, right?

Indeed...

Han Hua and the other three were blocking in front of Luo Tian because they were planning to die.

Using the words from Luo Tian's previous life...

A true brother of yours is capable of blocking a bullet and dying for you.

Luo Tian was moved by them, but their cultivation realm hadn't even reached the Profound Saint realm yet. They couldn't even be cannon fodder by standing out and will only become four extra corpses. Why bother?

"Humph~!"

"Here comes four more pieces of trash." Daoist Tian Xu coldly harrumphed as he swept his gaze past Han Hua and the others in contempt. He didn't put them in his eyes at all.

They couldn't even be compared to ants in his eyes.

He could kill people like them with just a finger.

Han Hua's eyes were like torches as he watched Daoist Tian Xu walk towards them one step at a time. She then said: "Prime Elder, you can see what kind of cultivation Luo Tian has. There has never been anyone in the Tianxuan Continent who has managed to fuse two bloodlines together. He managed to accomplish fusing three bloodlines together and they happen to be divine grade bloodlines comparable to Murong Wanjian's true dragon bloodline. If you give a super genius like him a bit of time, he will definitely be able to step on top of all ten great immortal sects. Mount Hua Immortal Sect will definitely be restored to its peak like its past."

While saying this...

Han Hua looked at Yun Ling at the corner of her eyes.

Yun Ling faintly nodded like she had received the message. She sent out a sound transmission to Luo Tian: "Team Leader, Elder Xu Shan has died. Before he died, he told us to tell you the location of forbidden grounds once you came back. It's the entrance to the ancient battlefield. It's precisely at the foot of the back mountains of Solitary Peak where you were living."

The main purpose of them coming here was to tell this information to Luo Tian.

Xu Shan didn't tell them too much and only said that if he happens to die, this information must be told to Luo Tian as soon as he returns to Mount Hua Immortal Sect.

Yun Ling and the others didn't know what kind of assistance Mount Hua's forbidden grounds had towards Luo Tian.

But they had to accomplish the task when entrusted by others.

Moreover...

The moment they stood out, they didn't expect to live that much longer. Their lives were saved by Luo Tian. Now that he was in danger, they would stand out without hesitation and didn't bother with who they were up against!

Luo Tian allowed them to see hope.

Allowed them to see a future.

He rekindled a flame inside their heart that started to burn brightly!

Hearing Yun Ling's words, Luo Tian's eyes shook from shock. He clenched his fists before saying to himself: "The ancient battlefield! I need to enter the ancient battlefield! I need to level up! I need to step into the Profound God realm and stomp Daoist Tian Xu to death!"

His heart started beating faster.

Luo Tian stood up and said: "All of you scram aside! I don't need you to save me! You bunch of hypocritical fraudsters can forget about getting any benefits from me! You want the secrets to how I refine inner cores? There's no way I'm going to tell anyone!"

"You are all in the same boat!"

"Don't think that I can't tell. You're blocking that old bandit Tian Xu just so you can trick me in telling you the secrets of refining inner ores, huh? Hahaha... you guys are over thinking things. I, Luo Tian, will definitely not tell anyone about it."

Suddenly...

Luo Tian looked like he had a sudden personality change as he started laughing out loud. He coldly stared at Daoist Tian Xu and said: "Old bandit Tian Xu, your acting is quite good but do you really think I will fall for it?"

"You arranged for the four of them to be by my side, right?"

"You want to learn the secrets of refining inner cores from me? You can forget about it!"

"Humph~!"

Luo Tian didn't want Han Hua and the others to die with him.

This was the only thing he could do.

And his acting was quite good when his face was full of anger.

Yun Ling and Yun Yi started crying and quickly shook their heads. They cried out: "It's not like that! It's not like that, Team Leader! We aren't the type of people you're thinking of! It's not..."

They started crying their eyes out which made any beholder's heart ache.

Luo Tian's heart was aching when he saw their tears streaming down but his expression was full of disdain as he scoffed: "Did I uncover the truth? Do you think just by crying that I will believe in you two? Hahaha... What kind of women have I, Luo Tian not seen? Do you really think by making me like you two, you can uncover the secrets of refining inner cores from me? Then, you will tell everything to the old bandit Tian Xu and get rewarded from it? You two are truly vicious! I have never met such vicious women in my entire life!"

Yun Ling and Yun Yi couldn't tell.

Therefore...

They started crying more miserably, the kind where there's no way one could fake.

Han Hua's brows were locked together as she was in thought for a few seconds. She knew Luo Tian's personality and understood him quite well, therefore she knew what Luo Tian was trying to do – Luo Tian was trying to save them. When she saw Luo Tian's eyes, she suddenly came up with an idea and said with a sigh, "I didn't expect that you could see through us. Prime Elder, I was trying to see if I could get the secrets off Luo Tian on how he combined three bloodlines together but didn't expect him to see through the ploy already."

"Senior sister, what are you talking about?"

"Team Leader isn't that kind of person. Aren't we here to rescue him?"

"Senior sister..."

“Team Leader, it’s not what you think. It’s really not what you think.”

Those two pure and innocent girls continued crying.

Luo Tian’s heart was aching very badly.

It was hurting so much that he was having difficulty breathing. Luo Tian could only clench his fists on and off continuously. His fingernails stabbed into his palms and fresh blood started dripping down. “Old bandit Tian Xu, you just wait for me. I will return everything that has happened today a thousand fold.”

Han Hua coldly chuckled before saying: “Yun Ling, Yun Yi, my junior sisters... I wanted to use your innocence to trick Luo Tian but I didn’t expect for him to discover the ploy, sigh~...”

Immediately after...

Han Hua cupped her hands respectfully to Daoist Tian Xu, “Prime Elder, Luo Tian is now at his wits end so there’s no need for you to personally make a move. Just hand him over to us. We will definitely be able to capture him if we all work together. The Law Enforcement Hall has 1800 ways of punishment so I’m not afraid of him not divulging how he managed to merge three different bloodlines together. At that time, you can fuse with the Dragon God’s bloodline and then look down on this world from high above. Even the achievements of the old ancestor cannot be compared to yours by then.”

Daoist Tian Xu smiled.

He originally had some doubt.

But...

He no longer doubted. He never thought of getting the secret of fusing three bloodlines together but his heart was moved now after hearing Han Hua’s words.

No one has managed to fuse with a second bloodline after thousands of years of history yet Luo Tian merged three of them together and fused with it. There has to be a huge secret involved, right?

He wanted to fuse with Eggy's Dragon God bloodline.

He wanted it really badly!

And what Han Hua said was correct – Luo Tian was about to die after suffering from his attack. Even if he doesn't personally make a move, the disciples from Mount Hua Immortal Sect can still capture Luo Tian with some effort. The most important part was that he was injured and rather serious at that. Apart from Eggy's pole strike that made him unable to tell which direction was north, casting Heaven's Seal consumed a lot of his energy. His injuries weren't light and Han Hua's flattering words were rather effective. Daoist Tian Xu started laughing, "Good, very good! If you hadn't said it out loud, I would've forgotten this matter."

"My order is for you to command everyone to capture this kid. If you manage to capture him alive, I will directly promote you to an Elder's position. Hahaha..."

Han Hua cupped her hands and said: "Thank you, Prime Elder."

Immediately after...

Han Hua raised her hand and said: "You've all heard it! Everyone go capture Luo Tian! It is time to show everyone what we're made of! Everyone move out together!"

At this moment...

Zhao Chen took advantage of the chaos and arrived next to Eggy.

Chapter 614 – You Must Live On

But beyond his expectation, Han Hua's acting skill was even better than his! Her acting ability was way more convincing than Luo Tian's!

The coordination of those two had reached an impeccable realm!

If this was Luo Tian's previous life, they would definitely win all those movie awards out there.

No matter how much of an old schemer Daoist Tian Xu was, he would never imagine he could misjudge the situation at such a critical time. He did think that Han Hua was trying to trick him but he had always had a conceited, proud, and aloof personality. Even though Han Hua was a disciple not even comparable to an ant, he could instantly kill her if he detected any deception. Everyone else was put into the same category as her and that included Luo Tian.

Therefore...

He wasn't in a hurry to make a move and allowed the disciples of Mount Hua Immortal Sect to do the dirty work.

The scene became chaotic.

Everyone wanted to make a good impression in front of Daoist Tian Xu.

Now that both the Grand Elder Venerable Hun Yuan and the Sect Leader Venerable Yun Ji had died, these two positions had suddenly become vacant. As long as Daoist Tian Xu gave the word, that person will immediately become the future Sect Leader of Mount Hua. Naturally, all those inner sect Elders had thoughts of vying for the Sect Leader position.

They all commanded the disciples under them to charge toward Luo Tian.

"Kill!"

"Kill him! We have to avenge the deaths of our Sect Leader and our Grand Elder!"

"Get rid of Mount Hua Immortal Sect's number one scourge!"

For a brief moment...

All the Mount Hua disciples were charging towards Luo Tian.

Only Yun Ling and Yun Yi were left standing there crying and wanting to help Luo Tian. They couldn't even find him amongst the mad rush of people and could only scream out: "Team Leader, quickly run! Run!"

They were really a bit too pure and naive.

Luo Tian's mind tightened as he feared Daoist Tian Xu might make a move against Yun Ling and Yun Yi, but he didn't have any way to solve it right now.

He had to enter the ancient battlefield! The only way he can fight with Daoist Tian Xu is if he leveled up, otherwise, he would only end up dying by staying around here.

At this moment, Han Hua sent a sound transmission: "Team Leader, don't worry about the twins. I will take care of them. Go take care of whatever plans you have during this chaos. Junior brother Zhao has already gone over to that Golden Dragon."

Luo Tian's brows furrowed before he replied: "Senior sister, then I'll count on you to take care of everything."

"Everyone has to stay alive!"

After saying that...

Luo Tian glanced at Daoist Tian Xu. His flames of rage were surging out as he said internally: "You just wait!"

Luo Tian leaped into the air at high speeds and shouted: "I will fight out with you all! I'm going to wipe out everyone here!"

"Boom~!"

His figure suddenly disappeared.

"Shadow Clone, Shadow Shift!"

There was only a phantom figure at his position while his real body had landed next to Eggy.

Eggy's eyes flashed with terror as he anxiously cried out: "Boss, quickly run! Don't bother about me!"

Eggy was currently struggling.

When he saw Luo Tian, the rage inside him surged out even higher. But his power was sealed up and no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't break free from it. If Luo Tian brought him along at a time like this, none of them would be able to get away.

Eggy understood that he would only end up harming Luo Tian.

Luo Tian didn't bother with him. He made a thought intending to put Eggy away but realized it didn't work.

It looks like the seal on Eggy was prohibiting it.

It was similar to when you were in a battle inside video games, you couldn't quit or log off.

Luo Tian's mind tightened. He couldn't bother with anything else and just lifted up Eggy and flew off.

The moment Luo Tian's real body landed, Daoist Tian Xu coldly scoffed and shouted: "Damn dog thing! You wish to bring that beast with you to escape? Aren't you a bit too naive? Just stay here for me!"

Daoist Tian Xu wasn't flustered.

Chasing after Luo Tian was a very easy thing for him.

Everyone turned around and started charging in Luo Tian's direction.

At this time, Zhao Chen suddenly stood out and blocked behind Luo Tian. He gave a faint smile and said: "Boss, thank you for giving us hope! You are the hope for the rebirth of Mount Hua Immortal Sect, so quickly run!"

After saying that...

Zhao Chen charged out without waiting for Luo Tian's response. Both of his hands were forming seals to create an array before he shouted: "Defensive Array, Universal Array, activate for me!"

"Ommm~..."

Two different arrays appeared to the left and right of him.

"Agghhh~...!" Luo Tian screamed out helplessly.

He was moved by Zhao Chen's actions but he didn't turn back. He had never been an indecisive person and especially at a time when he was out of choices.

He could only scream out in helplessness and continue flying towards Solitary Peak while holding onto Eggy.

"Bang~!"

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

Luo Tian heard a series of explosions behind him.

He didn't dare to turn back to look.

He didn't dare to see whether Zhao Chen was dead or alive.

His eyes became damp.

Very uncomfortable. This feeling was even more unpleasant than when someone was slicing the meat off his body!

Eggy said lifelessly: “Boss, he...”

Eggy didn't continue speaking. He was feeling really bad and then said: “Boss, you need to let me down. You won't be able to run far while holding me. Don't worry, that guy won't do anything crazy towards me.”

Luo Tian didn't respond and just kept flying like crazy.

If he left Eggy behind, he would definitely end up dying!

If he could save, he would choose to save all of them. But his cultivation, his strength, his forces, none of them could be compared to Daoist Tian Xu. Luo Tian's heart felt like it was bleeding right now. Leaving behind his brothers in order to run away felt like steel needles were continuously piercing through his heart. It was extremely uncomfortable!

Daoist Tian Xu revealed a stunned expression before his face turned cold. His eyes widened, "Humph~, I want to see where you're going to run off to. All of you have to die."

Suddenly...

Daoist Tian Xu made his move.

At this moment...

Han Hua suddenly charged out in front of Daoist Tian Xu and said respectfully: "Prime Elder..."

"Pak~!"

Before she could finish speaking, Daoist Tian Xu threw out a slap and sent Han Hua flying. His face turned ferocious as he coldly shouted: "Scram to the side for me!"

"Bang~!"

Han Hua's body landed on the ground while she sprayed out a mouthful of blood. She didn't faint and instead, exploded forth with all her strength to charge back and grab onto Daoist Tian Xu's leg. She then shouted: "Luo Tian, you must live on!"

At this time...

Han Hua was out of options.

She could only use her life to give Luo Tian more time. She was very clear that Daoist Tian Xu could catch up to Luo Tian very quickly.

There was quite a distance from the inner sect area to Solitary Peak. But for a peak Profound Emperor ranker like Daoist Tian Xu, the distance was merely a blink of an eye and he would be there.

Daoist Tian Xu was burning with rage as he threw a palm strike at Han Hua's back. "Die!"

"Boom~!"

Han Hua sprayed out another mouthful of blood. Her body was shaking and her face was ashen gray but she still held onto Daoist Tian Xu's leg with all her strength.

"Bang~!"

Another kick landed.

Not letting go!

Another stomp!

Han Hua didn't let go while her face revealed a happy smile while mumbling: "Brother Hai, I'm coming to see you soon."

Chapter 615 – Eggs About To Be Shattered

Han Hua was trying her best to buy time for Luo Tian.

Eggy couldn't speak when he watched Han Hua being tortured by Daoist Tian Xu while holding onto his leg. Tears kept coming out of his eyes and streaming down his cheeks.

Luo Tian increased his speed to the max when he heard Han Hua's voice.

In just a few seconds, he felt like he had experienced ten thousand years of life. These few seconds were extremely suffocating for him.

He was suppressed to the point of extreme discomfort.

Finally...

Luo Tian arrived at the foot of Solitary Peak where Xu Shan had mentioned.

The land was pitch black around here and below his feet was a large black rock that looked like it was used for an ancient array.

At this time...

Daoist Tian Xu landed with a smile filled with contempt. He then said: "Damn mongrel, why don't you keep running? Do you think you can escape from the palm of my hands? Hahaha... Luo Tian, I will give you a chance at living. Tell me the secret of fusing with multiple bloodlines and I will spare your life."

Luo Tian stood in the middle of the array and just quietly stared at Daoist Tian Xu. The rage inside his heart was similar to a volcano that was continuously erupting but it was being suppressed by the old guy in front of him. Luo Tian then asked: "Daoist Tian Xu, can you please tell me what place this is?"

Daoist Tian Xu glanced around and said with a cold smile: "Mount Hua's forbidden grounds. Why? Did you think that I cannot capture you if you run to this place? Or are you trying to say that you wish to escape and enter the ancient battlefield? Ancient battlefield... wait, Luo Tian, what do you plan on doing?"

Suddenly...

Daoist Tian Xu's expression turned serious while his gaze showed killing intent and his body faintly shook. He looked around and determined they were indeed at the main entrance to the ancient battlefield. A sense of foreboding rose up in his heart.

Behind him were the Mount Hua disciples and Elders who didn't know what connotations the ancient battlefield had. Most of them had a look of confusion while only a few Elders understood how powerful the ancient battlefield was. One of the Elders spoke out: "Prime Elder, so what if this is the main entrance to the ancient battlefield? Opening the entrance to the ancient battlefield requires the four regions' blood and the Sky Dragon's Bead. Even if this kid possesses heaven-like abilities, it's still impossible for him to gather all the materials needed. Prime Elder, you don't need to worry about anything."

The four regions' blood was extremely difficult to find.

There was once someone from Mount Hua Immortal Sect who attempted it, but just the Titan race's blood was impossible, not to mention the Sky Dragon's Bead.

"You wish to open the ancient battlefield? Humph~!"

"A thing that overestimates his own abilities!"

They stared at Luo Tian with contemptuous smiles and a playful face filled with disdain.

The Mount Hua disciples behind the Elders had the same look.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and replied: "Old bandit Tian Xu, I will pay you back a thousand times with what has happened today. Just remember everything clearly. Wait until you see me the next time, I will definitely explode your corpse!"

While saying that...

Luo Tian's right hand started moving and four vials of blood appeared.

Once the blood appeared...

Someone exclaimed: "Four regions' blood!"

Daoist Tian Xu's expression drastically changed. "Rebel, you dare?!"

If the ancient battlefield is opened up, Mount Hua Immortal Sect might be instantly destroyed if some ancient demon escapes from there.

It will definitely be a catastrophe.

Everyone had different expressions on their faces. Some of the Elders revealed looks of fear but still tried to smile while saying: "Luo Tian, we can always discuss things out so why open the ancient battlefield? Do you know what's inside the ancient battlefield? Once opened, the entire Mount Hua Immortal Sect could be destroyed. Just tell us what conditions you have, I'm sure the Prime Elder will agree to them."

Daoist Tian Xu harrumphed, "Luo Tian, you better not do anything reckless, or else I will kill all the people you're close with. Heavenly Sword City's Great Tang Dynasty, your hometown's Luo family, I'll even find a chance to kill your little sister Xue'er."

Threats!

He was using Luo Tian's family and brothers to threaten him.

Rage was billowing inside Luo Tian's heart.

But...

He had no thoughts of compromising and knew what he was doing. He cannot protect them right now and will still be unable to protect them after handing over the four regions' blood. His mouth curved into a cold smile before saying: "Little kid Tian Xu, are you afraid now?"

While saying this...

Luo Tian's left hand moved and a bead appeared in the palm of his hand.

“Sky Dragon’s Bead!”

Everyone started panicking and some even started trembling. Their faces turned pale as if they were about to meet their greatest enemy.

Daoist Tian Xu had an ugly look on his face while he stared at Luo Tian with malice. He then said through clenched teeth, “Luo Tian, I can kill you the moment you open the ancient battlefield. If you want to keep your life, hand over all those things.”

He was scared!

Everyone in Mount Hua Immortal Sect was scared!

They didn’t know what was inside the ancient battlefield but they were very clear there was a rule left by Mount Hua’s old ancestor – Do not open the ancient battlefield no matter what! The day the battlefield is open is the day Mount Hua will be destroyed!

The ancient demons were too strong.

Once the seal is broken, they will all have to die.

Luo Tian started smiling seeing their fearful faces.

At this time...

Daoist Tian Xu anxiously asked: “Luo Tian, what exactly do you want? I will agree to whatever conditions you have as long as you don’t do anything reckless. You still won’t be able to stay alive even after opening the ancient battlefield, so why do it?”

“That’s right! Brother Luo Tian, don’t do anything crazy.”

“The demons inside the ancient battlefield all come from the Ancient World, so don’t do anything reckless. Just tell the Prime Elder whatever conditions you have.”

“Luo Tian, don’t do anything stupid.”

All the Elders tried to persuade him.

Luo Tian revealed a fierce expression and asked: “You will agree to whatever I want?”

Daoist Tian Xu replied: “As long as you hand over the things you’re holding, I will agree to whatever you want.”

Luo Tian smiled and replied: “The things I want aren’t much. Little kid Tian Xu, kneel down and give this daddy a kowtow. Then call me grandpa three times. If you make me happy, I might just agree to your demands.”

“Luo Tian, you are courting death!”

Daoist Tian Xu’s eyes widened as his Profound Emperor’s battle aura rose up to the peak.

At this moment...

Luo Tian roared out with anger: “If you can’t do it, then scam to the side for this daddy!”

Immediately after...

The four regions’ blood dripped down and the Sky Dragon’s Bead was placed in the eye of the array. Luo Tian’s eyes turned fierce as he shouted: “Ancient battlefield, open up for me!”

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

Luo Tian started laughing like mad.

The four regions’ blood was instantly absorbed.

The Sky Dragon’s Bead was also absorbed by the eye of the array.

However...

Nothing happened after! Not even a single sound! The array remained the same and nothing happened to the surrounding.

A few seconds went by and still, nothing happened.

Daoist Tian Xu started laughing like crazy in a smug manner. “Luo Tian, prepare to die.”

Luo Tian’s heart sank.

Watching Daoist Tian Xu’s palm strike approaching, he could only laugh at himself: “It looks like I played myself to death.”

Just when Luo Tian was about to charge forward and fight Daoist Tian Xu to the death...

A powerful suction force appeared below his feet.

Chapter 616 – Heaven

Daoist Tian Xu's eyes were like torches as his spiritual senses swept out like a tide to search ten thousand kilometers out. He couldn't detect Luo Tian's aura! "What happened? There's no way he can escape!"

Nothing had changed in the surrounding area.

The trees were the same. The huge black stone below them inscribed with mysterious array runes was still there. Nothing in their physical environment seemed to have changed at all.

The only change they noticed was below the array where some sounds of faint roars could be heard. It sounded like demons from the depths of hell.

Daoist Tian Xu looked down and finally realized the Sky Dragon's Bead was gone. There was a black hole the size of half a fist where one couldn't see the bottom. The roars were coming out from that small black hole. His expression hiddenly changed as he said: "Was he sucked into there?"

Suddenly...

Daoist Tian Xu's expression drastically changed as his body started shaking.

Several Elders walked over and noticed Tian Xu's strange expression. Elder Tian Yuan then said: "Prime Elder, that kid can forget about coming out alive after entering the ancient battlefield. The ancient battlefield is filled with ancient demonic beasts. Even experts at the Profound God or Profound God Sovereign realms can forget about coming out alive. You don't need to worry so much."

"That's right."

"Prime Elder, he can forget about coming out even if he has ten thousand lives to spare."

"It's just a pity about the dragon on his shoulders. If you were able to absorb the Dragon God's blood essence, you would be able to break through into the Profound God realm. At that time, who would dare look down on our Mount Hua Immortal Sect? Would the ten great immortal sects still dare to ask us to compensate them with inner cores?"

Daoist Tian Xu's brows faintly furrowed while he said to himself: "He is really different from the others. He's not even 20 years old yet but managed to cultivate all the way to the Profound Emperor realm. With this kind of talent, most likely even Murong Wanjian cannot be compared to him."

Ever since Luo Tian found out about the things happening inside the Dark Abyss Cave...

Daoist Tian Xu had been secretly observing Luo Tian. Each time Luo Tian comes back to Mount Hua, his cultivation would have increased at a rapid speed. But for some reason, he doesn't make any breakthroughs while he's inside Mount Hua Immortal Sect. What could be the reason for that?

Moreover...

Why didn't Luo Tian run somewhere else yet chose to run to the ancient battlefield? It's very obvious that he wanted to enter that place or else he wouldn't have prepared the four regions' blood and the Sky Dragon's Bead. He must've been planning this since the beginning.

And he had a confident expression while doing so!

After thinking about all these points, Daoist Tian Xu felt a hint of bad premonition. His eyes became serious as he ordered: "Send someone to notify the ten great immortal sects and have them station their people around Mount Hua Immortal Sect. Just use the excuse that the seal over the ancient battlefield has weakened."

This excuse was rather far-fetched.

The experts from the ten great immortal sects were already peering through the void and knew what happened the entire time at Mount Hua Immortal Sect.

There was obviously nothing wrong with the ancient battlefield.

The problem was Luo Tian.

“Once Luo Tian comes out, the ancient demons might follow him out of the ancient battlefield. The consequences of that happening would be disastrous.” Daoist Tian Xu muttered to himself. He also hated himself and regretted why he didn’t quickly kill Luo Tian on the spot.

Now, he provoked some major trouble!

Luo Tian’s cultivation was currently at the Profound Emperor 2nd rank. If he was given enough time, the three divine grade bloodlines will allow him to make breakthroughs at an incredibly quick pace. If he steps into the Profound God realm, then he...

Daoist Tian Xu became angry when he thought up to this point.

At this time...

One of the Elders from the Law Enforcement Hall dragged Yun Ling and Yun Yi over and asked: “Prime Elder, what should we do with these two girls?”

“Do you even need to ask?”

“Luo Tian’s accomplices should be directly killed.”

“That’s right.”

Daoist Tian Xu looked over and saw Yun Ling and Yun Yi’s calm expression before their death. He then said: “Hold on, imprison those two first. If Luo Tian manages to come back alive, he will definitely try to save them. We should keep those two alive and make them one of our trump cards. Even if Luo Tian dies in the ancient battlefield, these two gorgeous girls...”

Daoist Tian Xu sniffed a few times before saying with a smile: “After all, those two are virgins and are considered a nutritious tonic. We could give them to Lie Yang, the Sect Leader of the Imperial God Immortal Sect. He will definitely enjoy them, hahaha...”

“Prime Elder is truly attentive in his thoughts.”

Everyone started complimenting him.

An Elder from the Law Enforcement Hall asked: “Prime Elder, Zhao Chen, and Han Hua haven’t completely died yet. Should we save them?”

“Save!”

“Don’t let them die. It’s too easy for them to pass away just like that.”

“I want Luo Tian to personally witness their deaths, and they can also witness Luo Tian dying. I want to let them see that the person they used their lives to protect is still nothing but trash. What I enjoy seeing the most is the desperate look in their eyes, hahaha...” Daoist Tian Xu started laughing coldly before continuing: “You can all go about with your things. Have some people guard this area. Tian Yuan, you will be the one temporarily managing the affairs of Mount Hua Immortal Sect. Notify me at once when the people from the ten great immortal sects arrive.”

“We obey!”

Daoist Tian Xu leaped into the air and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

He instantly arrived at a secret room where he cultivated.

His face turned pale while he sprayed out several mouthfuls of blood. His expression was especially fierce as he scolded: “Damn dog thing! You better die inside there or else I will make it so that you will never be able to enter the cycle of reincarnation!”

He almost bled from all seven orifices by Eggy’s pole strike. With the addition of fighting head-on with Luo Tian, his blood was going out of control. He had been suppressing his pain all this time.

He didn't want to let those experts peering through the void to know he was injured.

If this were to happen, Mount Hua Immortal Sect would be destroyed before an ancient demon has time to escape from the ancient battlefield.

"Fuuu~..."

Daoist Tian Xu heavily exhaled before his body instantly changed to that of a Heavenly Fire Tiger. His whole body was on fire and it was very similar to a Heavenly Flame.

No one knew that Daoist Tian Xu was actually a demonic beast that cultivated to his present identity.

His true strength hadn't been revealed yet!

The fleshly body of a demonic beast was where their true strength came from!

Switching over to Luo Tian's side.

"Fuuu~, fuuu~, fuuu~..."

Luo Tian was breathing rapidly. Ever since he was sucked in by a powerful force, he was suspended in the air and all he saw was darkness around him. Around ten minutes later, a bright light blinded him before he started freefalling.

Just when he was about to use his powers to stabilize his body, he noticed this place was completely different from the Tianxuan Continent.

The gravity of the Tianxuan Continent was very similar to Earth.

But the gravity of this place was at least a hundred times heavier than the Tianxuan Continent!

It was similar to being in the depths of the sea where pressure was pushing against his entire body. His cultivation wasn't enough to control the speed of his fall and was only able to slow him down a bit.

It was the same feeling for Eggy.

But...

Eggy was feeling a bit better than Luo Tian because of his dragon body. Even though he was only a level 4 Dragon God, his fleshly body was much stronger than Luo Tian's.

Falling wasn't a big issue...

At most, they would have a rather intimate connection with the ground. And the worst case would be penetrating into the earth a bit.

But...

Luo Tian suddenly noticed a huge mouth below, just like a black hole opening up waiting for him to drop in. As long as he falls down, he will drop straight into that mouth. Luo Tian's expression changed, "Damn, how can there be such a large demonic beast?!"

Not just one but a densely packed group of mature demonic beasts that looked like a Tarbosaurus. It was like they had just arrived at Jurassic Park!

In an instant...

Luo Tian became extremely excited! "Heaven! This place is my heaven!"

Eggy was worried and quickly said: “Boss, let’s not talk about whether this place is heaven or not. Quickly think of something or else we’ll be eaten alive!”

Chapter 617 – Way Too Brutal

But...

Luo Tian had never seen over ten thousand plus T-Rex’s grouped together!

Moreover...

Movies weren’t real while he was currently in reality, so this kind of shocking scene was beyond words to describe. And there happens to be an extra-large Tarbosaurus below his butt with its mouth opened wide.

These demonic beasts seem to be malnourished because they were basically skin and bones.

But every bone beneath their skin seemed to be unusually hard like they were ten thousand times harder than steel.

The worst thing of all was the aura coming from all of them were from the Ancient World! Luo Tian wasn’t a stranger to this aura because he felt it when Blindman Liu transformed into a huge ancient devil. He also experienced it from Tai Long’s body. Now, this is the third time he has sensed the ancient aura in the Tianxuan Continent and these ancient demonic beasts seem to give off an even more intense aura. It was extremely brutal and showed they were true ferocious beasts from the Ancient World!

“F*ck!”

“Its health bar is over a few meters long so how many health points does it have?!”

“But...”

“The greater their health bar, the higher the level of the demonic beast. Experience points will also increase proportionally, so... Hahaha...” Luo Tian started laughing in smugness. He just couldn’t help himself when he saw the large groups of ancient demonic beasts. “Old bandit Tian Xu, you just wait for this daddy. I will take your dog’s life very shortly.”

Eggy then said: “Boss, let’s not bother with the old bandit for now. Can you take care of that demonic beast below our butts first? My heart is beating out of control right now. The aura coming from that guy is way too brutal. Once we fall into its mouth, we will instantly be grounded into meat paste. Quickly think of a solution!”

“That guy really deserves to die!”

“It would be great if my powers weren’t sealed up!”

“Little kid Tian Xu, your granny’s cha-cha, this daddy will give you a good show once I break through your seal!”

Eggy and Luo Tian’s rage was surging thousands of meters high once Daoist Tian Xu was mentioned.

But...

Now wasn’t the time to think of these things because below their butts were a bunch of huge demonic beasts. If they didn’t solve their current crisis, not to mention Daoist Tian Xu, they wouldn’t be able to escape losing their lives this instant.

Luo Tian’s expression darkened as he said: “Eggy, your powers have been sealed but can you give out a dragon’s roar?”

“Dragon’s roar?”

“Isn’t it just shouting?”

Luo Tian immediately said: “Good, just listen for my command.”

Eggy replied: “Okay!”

“Whoooooooooosh~...”

The two of them fell down at crazy speeds.

The ancient battlefield was a spatial dimension, a place no one knew who had sealed a bunch of ancient demonic beasts here. This place might be originally part of the Ancient World and some super expert tore it apart and made it its own spatial dimension.

In this spatial dimension...

Gravity was a hundred times stronger!

There was crazy suppression from all directions. Even though Luo Tian was already in the Profound Emperor realm, his strength and speed were limited under a hundred times gravity. It was extremely uncomfortable because it felt like he was carrying a large mountain with him.

Luo Tian’s eyes flashed as he stared at the large swath of demonic beasts.

But...

He didn’t lose his mind because of them. These ancient demonic beasts were definitely tough to the extreme. If he jumped down into the midst of them just like that, he would definitely be ravaged to his death. He had to find a safe place to land first before testing out the powers of these demonic beasts. Only then can he plan on what to do next.

“Whoosh~...”

Suddenly...

The Tarbosaurus sprayed out some type of intense flame from its mouth.

It was drooling while a brief flash of light appeared in its green eyes. There were clear signs of excitement in its eyes as if it was saying it could finally have a full meal.

Also at this time...

Luo Tian shouted: "Eggy!"

Eggy's eyes turned fierce as he replied: "I'm ready!"

When they were a few meters away from the Tarbosaurus, Luo Tian shouted: "Dragon's roar!"

At the same time...

Eggy roared out: "ROAR~!"

The dragon's roar shook the sky!

Even though his powers were sealed, a Dragon God's blood flowed through Eggy's body. The single roar of his contained the might of a Dragon God and was fierce to the extreme.

Luo Tian was worried that Eggy's roar couldn't suppress these violent demonic beasts. At this time, he also released the powers of all three of his bloodlines. The phantom images of the Azure Dragon, Vermillion Bird, and Black Tortoise superimposed over Luo Tian's body. Together with Eggy's dragon roar, it managed to suppress that Tarbosaurus.

That Tarbosaurus's body shivered.

Its mouth closed.

In an instant, Luo Tian's hands formed into palm strikes as he smashed down.

"Boom~!"

He wasn't planning on killing it.

He was using the Sky Soul Palms powers to bounce himself away.

The huge Tarbosaurus was struck by Luo Tian's palm, and a red numerical value appeared over its head
"-109"

Also at this time, the several meter long health bar over its head revealed the numbers "70,000,000"

"Oh crap!"

"So many zeroes!"

"Are all the demonic beasts in the ancient world this fierce? Just a single one of them has 70 million health points. This amount of health is comparable to a f*cking late stage Profound Emperor expert, right? Then the strength of these demonic beasts... Mama mia!"

Luo Tian's eyes were in a daze. He already expected the ancient demonic beasts to be very strong, but didn't expect them to have so much health.

Having 70 million health meant they were comparable to the health of someone at the Profound Emperor 7th rank.

If this was the case...

The strength of these demonic beasts will definitely be above a Profound Emperor 7th ranker. Their natural defensive abilities and their raw strength will definitely be more fierce than a human.

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian and Eggy landed on the ground.

At this time...

That Tarbosaurus who was struck finally reacted. It became enraged as it roared into the sky. A green light flashed in its throat before shooting out from its mouth.

“Poison?!”

“Damn, a Tarbosaurus that can spray out poison?”

Luo Tian carried Eggy and ran away like crazy.

“At the 3 o’clock direction!”

“Boss, quickly escape!”

“Boss, watch out for your 9 o’clock direction!”

“The left, right, and the surrounding area is full of poison! Boss, what should we do? There’s nowhere to escape to!”

The poison the Tarbosaurus was spraying out was similar to lava spraying out from a volcano.

Luo Tian was in an embarrassing state as he dodged all over the place. Finally, he managed to escape from the Tarbosaurus's attack. He was thinking to himself: "What the hell should I do? These demonic beasts are way too strong, so how am I supposed to kill them?"

Luo Tian felt that killing a single Tarbosaurus was already very difficult.

In front of him was a huge group of T-rexs as well. Not to mention leveling up, he would have a difficult time trying to stay alive at this point.

The ancient battlefield was too fierce!

Luo Tian was trying to think while running like crazy. He opened up his system interface and didn't see any alerts or advice from the system. Just when Luo Tian started getting anxious, he scrolled over to his skills list.

He suddenly remembered one of his skills.

"Magic Charm!"

"Hahaha, this daddy found a solution!"

Chapter 618 – Summon Successful!

This was the martial skill reward Luo Tian got when he leveled up to the Profound Pupil 7th rank.

A skill granted to Wizards from the Legend of Mir. It can charm a monster into becoming your own battle pet and use it to fight on your behalf!

Wizards could charm five pets at the same time.

These summoned babies can all level up but only until level 7. When he was at the Ghostly Mountain Range, Luo Tian charmed a Furious Thunder Bull into one of his summoned pets and killed off all those eyesores from the Luo family. He used the ability a few more times after that but then kind of neglected the skill.

But...

Luo Tian didn't ignore that skill.

He had always been training in it.

Currently, Magic Charm had already reached level 8.

Which meant he could control five charmed battle pets.

It would be rather difficult if Luo Tian wanted to rely on his own strength to kill an ancient demonic beast. Even if he manages to kill one, he would need to waste a lot of time and probably be put in a very dangerous situation. If he could control five Tarbosaurus battle pets, then leveling up would be...

“Heh heh...”

“Why am I so handsome?”

“Why am I so smart?”

Luo Tian fixed his hair and couldn't hold it in anymore and blurted out: “Motherf*ckers, who else can compare with me?!”

Eggy had a confused look as he muttered: “Boss, why are you flattering yourself at a time like this? If we talk about handsomeness, how can you be more handsome than me? Let's not talk about who's the smartest for now because my handsome dragon looks alone can charm over thousands of girls.”

Luo Tian sneered and replied: “Handsome your egg! Wait, you are a handsome egg since your name is Eggy.”

Eggy pouted and said in all seriousness: “Boss, let’s discuss something – can you stop calling me Eggy? How can such a lowly name match a strong and powerful Dragon God’s descendant like me?”

Luo Tian replied: “Fine, Eggy.”

“Then I’ll call you Eggy the Second.”

“Or Eggy the Third, Fourth, or even the Fifth. But Eggy the Fourth or Fifth is a bit inappropriate since men only have two eggs down there. Now three eggs down there would be rather interesting, hahaha...”

Eggy rolled his eyes and almost fainted.

At this time...

Luo Tian was too lazy to trifle with Eggy and said: “Eggy, give me a dragon’s roar once more. I need about one or two seconds to do my thing.”

This Tarbosaurus was too fierce and its speed too fast.

The moment Luo Tian stops will be the moment he gets caught by it. There’s no way he can pause long enough to use his skill and would most likely be trampled to death.

Eggy could tell Luo Tian was serious so he replied: “Okay!”

Immediately after...

Eggy roared out into the sky.

Suppression from a dragon's might!

Although the ancient Tarbosaurus was brutal to the extreme, that demonic beast was considered as nothing when compared to a Dragon God. Eggy's powers were sealed up but his dragon's roar still contained an extremely strong suppressive ability.

The Tarbosaurus's body shuddered.

It was intimidated!

Luo Tian's brows furrowed before giving a low shout: "Magic Charm!"

"Ding!"

"Summon failed!"

"Magic Charm!"

"Ding!"

"Summon failed!"

"Magic Ch..."

In a short one second period, Luo Tian cast his skill six times but he failed each time.

Luo Tian's luck stats were supposed to be maxed out.

Failing six times in a row was truly too messed up!

When the Tarbosaurus was stunned, six lightning-like crackling sounds flashed around its body. A spiritual sense had entered its sea of consciousness and tried to control it. This pissed it off, so a dark green substance started roiling inside its throat.

“Damn it!”

“Boss, that thing is about to spray out poison again! Quickly run!” Eggy’s voice was shaking.

The poison sprayed out by the Tarbosaurus was too terrifying. A large tree only touched a bit of it and instantly turned to ash. Not even a bit of wood shaving was left behind! This kind of poison was too horrifying!

Luo Tian’s brows wrinkled up before he said unhappily: “This daddy refuses to believe it!”

“Ten million profound energy points!”

“Boom~!”

All ten million points were used up to cast Magic Charm. Luo Tian then roared out: “Magic Charm! Teacher Sola Aoi, please bless me!”

“Crackle~...”

“Crackle~...”

“Crackle~...”

Magic Charm boosted by ten million profound energy was way too crazy!

The crackle of lightning surrounded the Tarbosaurus.

It looked like it was cooking the beast!

The Tarbosaurus kept struggling against it.

Luo Tian widened his eyes while he started praying. "Please let me have some fun! If this doesn't work, this daddy will definitely be played to death right after. Teacher Sola Aoi, little sister Rola Misaki, please grant me the power!"

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for the successful summon!"

"Ommm~!"

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..." Luo Tian started laughing into the air. He was laughing so hard that he couldn't close his mouth and there was an indescribable excitement on his face. "Teach Sola Aoi, little sister Rola Misaki, your powers are infinitely strong! I can feel it even when I'm in another world!"

Every night when the world becomes quiet, Luo Tian would constantly fantasize about the screaming and the exercising he would do to those girls. His blood would be gushing and the behemoth in his crotch would grow bigger. He couldn't forget about them even though he was in another world.

One can easily see how powerful these girls were.

"If I ever get the chance, I will definitely go back to Earth to take a look."

“I will go to that island nation to look for them!”

“Wow... heh heh...” When Luo Tian thought about them, he started thinking about other girls he knew about on Earth. If he was given the chance, he will definitely go back.”

(This is a topic for a later time so we won't talk about it for now!)

At this time...

The Tarbosaurus stood there like an idiot. It didn't look as ferocious as before and just stared at Luo Tian with dull lifeless eyes.

Above its head were the words (Luo Tian).

“Hahaha!”

“It's now my summoned pet!”

Luo Tian was especially excited as he slapped the stunned Eggy. “Eggy, what do you think? This big brother is very handsome, right?”

Eggy was completely stupefied. He pointed at the Tarbosaurus and asked: “Boss, what's going on? Why did it stop? And it somehow looks different from before. What did you do to it?”

Luo Tian made a thought and made the Tarbosaurus kneel down on the ground.

He then made large strides over.

Eggy became super anxious, “Boss, this is dangerous! Very dangerous! Don't be fooled by it!”

Luo Tian smiled and sat on top of the Tarbosaurus. He then made a thought, "Stand up for me!"

The Tarbosaurus quickly stood up and didn't dare to show any disrespect.

Eggy was dumbfounded as his eyes were filled with admiration. "Handsome! Boss is too handsome! Even more handsome than me by a tiny little bit! Can you tell me why you are so damn handsome? Your handsomeness is about to make me cry!"

Eggy had never seen Luo Tian use Magic Charm before so he was completely dumbstruck by it.

Luo Tian charmed an ancient demonic beast into his summoned battle pet.

Too powerful!

Luo Tian then flattered himself by saying: "I think so too. Every morning when I get out of bed, I look in the mirror and wonder how I could be so handsome. How can other guys continue living with me around? Hahaha..."

Suddenly...

A powerful aura rolled over them.

"A T-rex!"

Eggy yelled out in shock before continuing: "We're screwed now!"

Luo Tian grinned and jumped off his Tarbosaurus. He then shouted: "Let me see how strong you are! Kill that T-rex for me!"

Chapter 619 – Super Battle Squad

Right after that...

He grabbed Eggy and ran off to hide behind a large boulder. He then carefully peered out from behind said boulder.

Was the Tarbosaurus stronger or the T-rex stronger?

Luo Tian had no idea.

“Whoever is stronger will be my next summoned pet!”

Luo Tian started watching carefully.

Eggy leaned against Luo Tian and whispered: “Boss, can that guy really fight?”

Luo Tian nodded.

Eggy became excited and said: “This is too awesome! If we can bring a squad of these Tarbosaurus out, we could completely sweep through those dog fart ten great immortal sects! Old bandit Tian Xu will be directly swatted to death!”

“Huh?”

Luo Tian didn’t want to explain nor did he have time to explain.

This kind of “charmed” summoned pet had a time limit. Once the time is up, they will revert back to normal and betray the charmer. Even if he was able to bring this type of pet out of the ancient battlefield, it wouldn’t be of much use to him. But... it should be enough to cause some trouble. It won’t be long until the next immortal sect disciple competition. If he were to take out several rank 7 ancient demonic beasts for some fun, then the result will definitely be awesome to watch.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The T-rex smashed over with its raw strength.

It was rather terrifying to watch energy ripple outwards from their clash.

His Tarbosaurus wasn't afraid and just used its head to smash back in response, and then started spraying out green poison.

“Good!” Luo Tian couldn't help but scream out.

“Looks like my guy knows some battle tactics. Not bad, looks like the intellect of my Tarbosaurus is a bit higher than the enemy T-rex.”

Before he could finish his thought...

The enemy T-rex grabbed a large tree with its mouth and then smashed it into Luo Tian's Tarbosaurus.

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

The T-rex and the Tarbosaurus were smashed backward at the same time. Sand and rocks were blasted outwards and the scene looked like the whole spatial world was about to be destroyed. Luo Tian was shocked by the impact while hidden behind the large boulder. He became even more excited as he watched those two demonic beasts fight it out.

Suddenly...

Luo Tian said: "Eggy, stay here and don't move."

After saying that...

Luo Tian raised his speed to the maximum before darting over.

The T-rex and the Tarbosaurus should be about the same rank.

Using the lingo from games...

His Tarbosaurus was a caster while the enemy T-rex was a berserker. The abilities of those two were tough to a complete mess. When those two were fighting, it gave Luo Tian a really good opportunity.

Luo Tian silently crept up to the side of the enemy T-rex and quickly cast Magic Charm on it.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for the successful summon!"

"Damn!"

"An explosion of my good character?! I succeeded at the first try?!"

Luo Tian started laughing out loud.

At this moment...

The Tarbosaurus and the T-rex stopped fighting and stood there staring at Luo Tian with respect while waiting for their next command.

Luo Tian grinned in excitement, "I'm just missing three more!"

With two awesome battle pets by his side, Luo Tian started feeling confident once more. He then yelled over in Eggy's direction: "Eggy, wait for me there. I'm going to get three more before coming back for you."

Eggy didn't want to delay Luo Tian and replied: "Boss, don't worry about me and just go. I'll be waiting for you here."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian flew up to the T-rex's head and looked around. Luo Tian smiled when he saw a lonely Tarbosaurus by itself. "The next target will be you."

"Ding!"

"Summon failed!"

"Ding!"

"Summon failed!"

Was his good character points all used up?

His shameless luck was shattered?

There were times where no matter how hard you tried, you would still fail.

When Luo Tian played Legend of Mir and kept failing with his summons, he would attack a few times and then try it again. This will somehow increase the success rate.

Half an hour later.

Behind Luo Tian were five super beasts.

There were three Tarbosaurus and two T-rex.

“Hahaha...”

“I never imagined that I, Luo Tian, would get to show off in Jurassic Park.” Luo Tian grinned and then said: “Let’s go back.”

“Boss will be back soon.”

“Boss will be back soon.”

“Boss, you have to come back soon.”

“Mommy...”

Eggy was shivering because behind him at a distance away was a huge Tarbosaurus. It was sniffing about like it smelled Eggy’s scent. But because Eggy was too small, it couldn’t find his exact location.

Eggy’s face paled when the thought of how corrosive that green poison was.

He wasn't afraid of anything...

Except for poison!

There wasn't a second of fear when his powers were sealed up by that old bandit Daoist Tian Xu. But he was really scared now because that dark green slimy substance was too disgusting and the poison was highly toxic.

In reality...

He was afraid that poison would disfigure his face.

Eggy was a dragon that loved to look good.

He always thought of himself as very handsome. He was afraid the Tarbosaurus's poison would disfigure his proportionally perfect body. He was even more afraid of the poison harming his face!

"Boss, please come back quickly!"

Tears were almost squeezing out of Eggy's eyes. Watching how the Tarbosaurus was getting closer one step at a time, he was about to piss himself from fear. "Your granny's cha-cha! If this daddy's powers weren't sealed up, I would've beaten you to death with my pole!" Eggy was grumbling those words softly.

Also at this time...

"Creak~..."

The large tree behind Eggy was suddenly ripped up by the Tarbosaurus and flung away.

Eggy's thin body was instantly revealed before it.

The eyes of the Tarbosaurus shook, and its saliva dripped to the ground with “plop plop” sounds. Its face looked like it had never eaten meat in its entire life. Looking at Eggy’s small body, its eyes glistened with hunger. Its long tongue licked its mouth and revealed a row of sharp teeth. It then directly chomped towards Eggy!

“Big brother!”

“Your Lordship! My meat tastes extremely nasty!”

“I am not even enough to fill the gaps of your teeth! Please just spare me!”

“How can you bear to eat such a cute and handsome dragon?” Eggy revealed various cute expressions but they were all useless. He then roared out: “Your granny’s cha-cha! Do you know who this daddy is?! Do you know who my boss is?! If you dare to eat me, my boss will f*ck all eighteen generations of your ancestors! Just try it if you don’t believe me!”

Suddenly...

The Tarbosaurus stopped.

It stopped just shy of half a meter before Eggy’s face, and its deep breathing seemed to contain a trace of poison. The scent made Eggy’s expression change before he yelled out: “Scared, huh?! Scram away from me if you’re scared! Once my boss comes back, he will directly take your life!”

At this moment...

The Tarbosaurus retreated and started shivering.

Eggy thought it was really scared of his words so he became even more arrogant. He then said with smugness: “Apart from me, my boss is the most handsome human on heaven and earth. He can fuse with three different bloodlines and knows many different martial skills. I will let you...”

“Hey, hey, hey! Stop running!”

“I haven’t finished speaking yet!”

“Your granny’s cha-cha, where the hell are you running off to? This daddy hasn’t finished speaking yet! You have no manners at all!” Eggy said angrily.

He then looked back and realized standing behind him were five large demonic beasts. Luo Tian was in high spirits while standing on the head of one of the T-rex. The scene was domineering to a complete mess! Luo Tian then pointed and shouted: “Trample over the ancient battlefield for me!”

Chapter 620 – Sudden Change

“Boss, if you came any later, you wouldn’t be able to see me anymore.”

Eggy started calming down after the shock.

But after noticing the five huge creatures, his expression turned to shock once more. “Boss, these are the strong helpers you’ve captured?”

“Of course!”

Luo Tian sent out his thoughts to the five battle pets and ordered them to go kill. With these five behemoths as his battle pets, he finally had the capital to stand firmly on the ancient battlefield. He then said to himself: “Daoist Tian Xu, you just wait for this daddy. The day this daddy exits this place is the date of your death!”

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

“Bang~, bang~, bang~ ...”

The five battle pets surrounded and attacked that Tarbosaurus, and its 70 million point health couldn't handle the violent beating it received.

This was like five high school students ganging up on an elementary school student.

A round of punches and kicks.

The several meter long health bar of that Tarbosaurus depleted very quickly. It wasn't able to retaliate when facing five other bosses at the same rank as it. Its eyes were filled with confusion – they were the same kind so why were they trying to kill it?

Half an hour later.

“Boom~!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Tarbosaurus. You have gained 5,000,000 experience points, 500,000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the blood essence of an ancient Tarbosaurus.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the skeleton of an ancient Tarbosaurus.”

A very simple loot explosion.

It was just like killing a normal demonic beast except the experience for a single one reached five million points. Was the number a little too high?

Luo Tian immediately exclaimed: “One of them is already five million experience points, then what about ten, a hundred, ten thousand, or a hundred thousand? Profound God... Profound God... I’m breaking into the Profound God realm for sure! Once I step into the Profound God realm, I can kill Daoist Tian Xu anytime I want!”

“Furthermore...”

“I still have some Rainbow Lotus on me and I can concoct Experience Pills or Triple Experience Pills. With all these things added together, I refuse to believe that I can’t break through to the Profound God realm! Your granny’s cha-cha!” Luo Tian started boiling with excitement.

Five million experience points were too rich!

The ancient battlefield was vast to the extreme. If this whole place was filled with ancient demonic beasts, it would absolutely not be a problem for him to level up to the Profound God realm. He might even be very close to stepping into the Profound God Sovereign realm!

A Profound God Sovereign was the Tianxuan Continent’s strongest realm!

Whatever ten great immortal sects and whatever Soul Hall can all be stomped below his feet!

Luo Tian sent out his thoughts and had his five battle pets return to him. He then locked into a certain direction before giving the command: “Charge over there for me.”

Three Tarbosaurus and two T-rex.

He couldn’t contend with too many ancient demonic beasts with just these guys. His priority right now was to raise their levels. If they all became level 7 pets, they would be able to fight one against seven! Using them to level up would then be super awesome!

Except...

Magic Charm's current level would only allow him to keep them under his control for four hours.

They will revert back to their original nature once the time is up.

He had to grasp the limited time well or else he would be losing out big time.

Luo Tian remembered the time when he captured them and didn't dare to be a single second off. He then grabbed Eggy and said: "Let's go!"

Eggy's expression showed some excitement while asking: "Boss, do you have any more good stuff in your possession? My current cultivation isn't capable of allowing me to break that damn seal. I might have a chance if I make a few more breakthroughs though. If you have any more good things on you, just go ahead and let me have some first. Hee hee..."

"I think that Melting Heaven Divine Cauldron..."

"F*ck!"

"Eggy, do you believe that I will beat the crap out of you?"

"That's the only divine artifact I have left! Believe it or not, if you keep having thoughts about it, I'm going to die in front of you!" Luo Tian started panicking since he was afraid Eggy would really swallow his Melting Heaven Divine Cauldron.

This was the only divine artifact he had that can fuse skills and other artifacts with!

If that thing was eaten by Eggy, his plans on fusing all his skills at the last great perfection stage would go up in flames. He wanted to create a super trump card that could instantly kill! Just like that novel Invincible Upgrade where the main character had the Celestial Sword Strike capable of killing whomever he saw. Now that would be awesome!

Eggy giggled, "Boss, I was just making a casual remark."

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at Eggy before saying: "You've already eaten so many of my divine artifacts making my heart nearly shatter. I haven't even tried out that Sky Dragon's Divine Sword and you ate it already. You're definitely trying to eat until I go broke, right?"

When Luo Tian thought of all his good things...

His heart started shuddering in pain. He glanced inside his spatial ring and only saw some leftover pearls and gems. Eggy would definitely have eaten those too if they were valuable in any way.

But...

Since Eggy can level up by eating treasures, Luo Tian suddenly had an idea. "Eggy, do you only need to eat magical artifacts to raise your cultivation, and then you will make a breakthrough after reaching a certain amount?"

Eggy nodded and replied: "Yes, yes!"

If Eggy can break his seal...

He can go berserk in the ancient battlefield and then leveling up would be even faster for Luo Tian.

Luo Tian didn't have any good things on him right now...

But...

He can forge magical artifacts!

He could use the skeletons of those demonic beasts and make them into profound weapons! Their skeletal structures contained a dense amount of profound energy so if he succeeded in forging, the weapon would be at least in the sky grade. Of course, it cannot be compared with divine artifacts but the key is that Luo Tian could forge as long as he had skeletons. Many small increments will come to abundance – Eggy will definitely make a breakthrough with all that power.

Apart from this...

Luo Tian realized there were a variety of spiritual herbs inside the ancient battlefield.

These spiritual herbs were a little different from the outside world where the profound energy contained a trace of the powerful aura of ancient antiquity. They should be classified as ancient spiritual herbs! Luo Tian will be able to concoct many medicinal pills with these herbs, especially the Profound Burst Pill.

Luo Tian had always thought of improving it even more.

But he could never come up with a good method.

Now that he had the ancient spiritual herbs as the foundation, he now had hope in improving the Profound Burst Pill a second a time. If he manages to make one that isn't restricted to one's cultivation level, then... Luo Tian had a smug expression on his face while he swept his eyes around. He then muttered: "The ancient battlefield is practically a treasure trove. It's fortunate that I chose to come to Mount Hua Immortal Sect, hahaha..."

"Tarbosaurus, spray your poison!"

"After spraying the poison, T-rex, you will use your tail and smash it to death!"

"Continue!"

Luo Tian brought his five battle pets and killed his way around. He would kill a monster if he found one, walk further if he didn't find any. Luo Tian would harvest any spiritual herbs during his travels, eagerly awaiting the time to concoct some pills. After half a day, his five battle pets had risen to level 5.

During that time...

Luo Tian had to deal with the first battle pet of his that reverted back to normal.

Two minutes prior, Luo Tian controlled that pet to walk to a remote area. Once that pet reverted back to normal, Luo Tian cast Magic Charm to make it a summoned pet once more. With his maxed out luck, charming the pet once more wasn't too difficult.

Within an hour, the four other battle pets reverted back to normal and were then charmed once more.

The sky was gradually getting dark.

The eyes of his battle pets seemed to become different and more ferocious.

Suddenly...

Seven waning moons started appearing on the horizon!

Seven Lunar Gods?!

Or seven Demon Lords?!

The bosses of the ancient battlefield?!
