

Leveling Up 671

Chapter 671: Fierce Guy

“Ommm~!”

They disappeared from their spot and their aura was untraceable.

Soul Hall’s Grand Elder instantly sent out his senses out over a million kilometers. He furrowed his brow and said: “I can’t sense their auras... this is impossible!”

Suddenly, a dark red glow appeared on his body. His spiritual senses surged into the sky and spread out over a million kilometers once more, but he still wasn’t able to detect Luo Tian and Murong Bai’s aura. It was like those two had disappeared from the face of this world.

No matter how fast they were, it was impossible for them to fly over a million kilometers in a blink of an eye. Even a Profound God Sovereign wasn’t capable of it.

So naturally, it was impossible for Luo Tian.

The experts of the ten great immortal sects sent out their senses as well. Just like the Soul Hall’s Grand Elder, they found absolutely nothing. They all revealed an incredulous look while their brows were locked into a frown. “It’s impossible for that kid to be that fast. They must have used some sort of concealment martial skill to hide their auras. Those two shouldn’t have gone far, let’s chase after them!”

“Chase?”

“In what direction?”

“Even if it’s a divine grade Stealth Pill, they can forget about hiding from our spiritual senses. Since we can’t detect the auras of those two within a million kilometers, that can only mean one thing – they are already in a place exceeding a million kilometers. The Tianxuan Continent has such a large surface area so where are we going to go to chase?”

“We’ve missed the chance to kill them.”

“What’s there to be afraid of? He’s only at the Profound God 1st rank. A monk can run but his temple cannot. Don’t forget, there’s a little more than a month before the immortal sect disciple competition. If Luo Tian wants to protect Mount Hua Immortal Sect, he has to make an appearance. He can run today but I want to see how he’ll run next time!”

“That makes sense. The day of the immortal sect competition will come soon so we’ll let him live for a few more days. Then we’ll see where he can run off to.”

The Soul Hall’s Grand Elder hadn’t said a word.

There was nothing else he could do.

The sudden change caught him off guard. His voice shook as he roared in anger: “Murong Bai! Luo Tian! Let’s see where you two can run off to! No matter how far you run, the Soul Hall will still be able to track you down! You two just wait for your deaths!”

The voice was similar to thunder that echoed over a million kilometers out.

But Luo Tian and Murong Bai didn’t hear it.

At this moment, “Ptui~, ptui~, ptui~!”

“You’re the one that’s gay! Your whole family are homosexuals!” Luo Tian was squatting beside a small creek while using a stone to scrub his hand. His heart was filled with a shuddering chill because Murong Bai’s weird look kept playing inside his mind. Just thinking about it made him sick to the stomach.

Murong Bai’s expression changed, “I’m not the one that’s homosexual because I have no inclinations towards men. You were the one that came up to me and said you liked me. Luo Tian, who would’ve thought a normal looking guy like you would have such hobbies? It looks like my eyesight has gone askew.”

“Gone askew your ass!”

Luo Tian was near speechless, “This big brother held your hand because he was trying to save you! You were the one holding my hand tightly the moment their attacks were about to land. You had a face that looked like you wanted to die together with me. Just thinking about it makes me all creeped out!”

This was too messed up!

His wee wee shriveled up once more. Luo Tian was really afraid that his little brother won't be able to rise up anymore after this incident. This traumatic experience was too strong!

Murong Bai froze for a bit before looking around. “What kind of place are we at? Luo Tian, I didn't expect you to have such a powerful martial skill. I can't detect the auras of the ten great immortal sect experts and the Soul Hall's Grand Elder within a million kilometers. Could it be that we've escaped from the range of their senses?”

Luo Tian rolled his eyes and said: “Can you take a look at who I am? You think that just based on those people and they can catch up to me?”

Immediately after, Luo Tian was feeling his heartache and said to himself: “Goddamnit, there goes eleven bosses just like that! My heart hurts so much that it feels like it's about to shatter! They are all bosses in the Profound God realm and a divine artifact will definitely explode from each of them. My divine artifacts, agggggghhhhhhh!”

“But...”

Luo Tian's mouth revealed an evil grin, “This daddy has remembered all of you. If I see you guys next time, I will definitely not spare you. This daddy might not be able to defeat eleven of you together, but you guys can wait for your death once you're all alone by yourselves!”

The ten great immortal sects won't let him off?

Luo Tian will definitely not spare any of them either.

He got up and his expression turned serious. "I heard the Soul Hall will also be participating in the immortal sect disciple competition. Do you want to take revenge?"

Murong Bai didn't hide his anger and replied: "I will join Mount Hua Immortal Sect. I will give them all a good show in the immortal sect competition. I have made so many contributions to the Soul Hall yet I have been suddenly tossed aside like some worthless garbage. Skeleton King, this daddy is not finished with you!"

Skeleton King was the title of the Soul Hall's Grand Elder.

Luo Tian then said: "Good! From today onwards, you are my little brother. Don't worry, I will not let anyone touch you. What is the Soul Hall considered? The Soul Hall will eventually be stepped on below my feet as well. So what if I become enemies with all the greatest forces of the Tianxuan Continent?"

"This daddy will stomp them all to death!"

Murong Bai started laughing.

He was a battle maniac so after hearing Luo Tian's speech, he had a feeling of regret for not having met Luo Tian earlier. His heart started boiling as his desire to battle rose up.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Suddenly, the earth started shaking and all the beasts and birds started fleeing for their lives. Those super demonic beasts were running like they had just seen a ghost. Some of the lower ranked demonic beasts directly prostrated on the spot and started peeing themselves in fear.

“Is it an earthquake?”

Murong Bai’s brows shot up in surprise. His eyes were focused on a nearby distant peak and replied: “It can’t be, the other places aren’t shaking.”

Luo Tian’s brows furrowed in shock as well and asked: “Do you feel like we’re somehow getting closer to the sky?”

Murong Bai looked up and muttered: “It really looks like it... how could that be?”

At this moment, the mountain peak they were on kept rising higher like it was being lifted by some kind of force.

Sounds of rumbling kept coming from the mountain.

Rocks kept sliding down like there was an avalanche.

Luo Tian swept his gaze around and found that some of the surrounding mountain peaks were a bit strange. The tip of the mountain was inverted and stabbed downwards like an ice cream cone. This was simply too strange to behold.

“I can feel a powerful energy!”

Murong Bai sent out his senses and said: “I can feel it too. This kind of energy isn’t from an expert of the Soul Hall or the ten great immortal sects. Isn’t this energy a bit too fierce? It managed to shake such a huge mountain!”

“Even someone born with divine strength shouldn’t be able to do it.”

Suddenly, the entire mountain peak heaved and started turning upside down.

Luo Tian shouted: "Be careful!"

Murong Bai said with a playful smile: "You should be the one to be careful, my lord Sect Leader."

Two beams of light shot out and landed on another peak. Their eyes were full of shock as they watched a young man as strong as an ox rip up the mountain peak they were previously on. Luo Tian smacked his lips and muttered: "Damn, this kind of strength is a bit too awesome."

The mountain peak in his hands was like a toy to him.

Perverted!

Way too perverted!

The young man flipped the mountain peak upside down and all the demonic beasts fell out. When he saw all those demonic beasts fall out, he was extremely happy and said: "Ah Niu has some meat to eat now!"

Chapter 672: The Awesome Niu Jingang

What a shocking scene!

Even Luo Tian, who was at the Profound God realm, was so shocked that he couldn't speak.

He had seen the raw strength of the Titan race.

He thought that the Titan race was the strongest race when it came to possessing raw strength, but that doesn't seem to be the case anymore. The strength that this young teen exploded forth with had reached an unshakable realm. Even Luo Tian felt inferior when compared to this teen.

It was the same with Murong Bai as he said: "What a perverted strength. I think not even a Profound God 5th ranker would have this kind of strength."

After that, he continued saying: "Luo Tian, aren't you looking for disciples? This kid doesn't seem too bad."

Before he could finish speaking, Luo Tian was already nowhere in sight.

Luo Tian already had such thoughts before Murong Bai spoke.

How could he let such an awesome youth pass him by without recruiting him?

He was a piece of uncut jade. An uncut jade that no one has discovered yet. Even without cutting and polishing, the shiny light coming from him was still so incomparably bright.

Luo Tian's heart was already moved the moment he laid eyes on the youth.

Luo Tian instantly moved and landed on top of a demonic beast not too far from the young teen.

The young teen furrowed his brows as he raised his awareness. His two innocent-looking eyes stared at Luo Tian as he asked: "Are you trying to snatch my meat?"

Luo Tian shook his head, "Nope."

The young teen immediately smiled and relaxed from his tense state. "These and those are all my prey. They are all the meat that belongs to me, Ah Niu."

He was saying this happily like an innocent child.

The young teen looked at Luo Tian and thought he looked a bit exhausted. He licked his lips and then said: "Today, I have hunted a lot of prey so I will give a portion to you. It looks like you're hungry too. Their meat is really tasty."

At this moment, the young teen looked like a simple young child while his eyes looked completely innocent.

Luo Tian glanced at the surrounding demonic beasts and said to himself: "There are way too many demonic beasts here. Can we even finish eating them all?"

Luo Tian didn't say anything else and chose a demonic beast of smaller stature. He pulled out a dagger, disemboweled the demonic beast, cleaned the skin, and removed the tendons in a practiced motion.

He then gathered some nearby dry firewood, circulated some energy into his palms, and ignited the wood. A large piece of meat was sliced off and then placed on a rack above the flames.

A few minutes later, an overwhelming aroma of barbecued meat was spreading outward.

Luo Tian always carried some seasoning packets on him. He sprinkled some salt, then some cumin, and the aroma was simply unparalleled.

"Gulp~!"

"Gulp~!"

The young teen was already squatting next to the campfire at an unknown time. His eyes were slanted into a smile while he kept swallowing his saliva. Even when he was doing this, saliva still managed to drip out from the corner of his mouth. He would then make a deep sucking motion and slurp his saliva back in before giving Luo Tian a silly grin.

Luo Tian was never worried about someone that likes to eat.

It was very clear that this young teen was a foodie.

He definitely had to have this awesome young teen. Luo Tian was a villager in his previous life so based on the young teen's eyes, he could see his simple and unpretentious personality. The method he used in dealing with Murong Bai would be useless to this youth. Luo Tian had to use his heart to become friends with him.

Of course, Luo Tian also used his heart in treating Murong Bai.

Luo Tian gave the young teen a piece of grilled meat that was still giving off sizzling sounds and asked: "What is your name?"

The young teen was somewhat embarrassed and muttered: "My mother said I cannot randomly eat other people's food."

He really wanted to eat it and almost couldn't hold back his extending hands, but he finally resisted. He then swallowed back his saliva several times while his eyes were glued to the rack of grilled meat. It was simply too mesmerizing.

Luo Tian said with a smile: "This demonic beast was killed by you, so it's not considered the property of others but your own property."

The young teen tilted his head in thought before asking: "Really?"

Luo Tian nodded.

The young teen then received the grilled meat in joy. He took a large bite and started hissing and blowing out. Then, another big bite and more blowing. He then managed to speak through a stuffed mouth: "This one has the surname of Niu, and the given name of Jingang. You can call this one Ah Niu or Jingang. I also have a nickname given to me by my mother, called Brisket.

"Brisket..."

Luo Tian was momentarily stunned before saying: "I will just call you Jingang."

"En."

"Since you've made such delicious meat for me to eat, you can call this one whatever you want hehehe..." Niu Jingang giggled while eating like crazy. His innocent smile had infected Luo Tian, so he quickly put another piece of marinated meat onto the rack over the fire.

Luo Tian said with a smile: "Eat slowly, there's more coming."

At this time, Luo Tian yelled in the direction of Murong Bai: "Little Bai, quickly get me some more dry wood!"

Murong Bai's eyes gleamed before he muttered: "Who the hell is Little Bai?"

His brain almost short-circuited.

He then thought of his own name and instantly jumped up in rage. He ran over and cursed: "Who the hell is your Little Bai?! You damn bastard, don't make up random names for people! You can call me Murong Bai or Young Master Bai!"

Luo Tian ignored him and said: "Little Bai, can you hurry it up?"

Niu Jingang looked at Murong Bai while his head was tilted to the side before saying: "It's fine to tell me to do those kinds of things."

He swallowed a large piece of grilled meat before leaping away.

In less than a minute, Niu Jingang was holding onto a huge tree in front of Luo Tian. He giggled: "Is this enough?"

A tree that was a dozen or so meters thick was directly uprooted by Niu Jingang. This kind of strength...

Luo Tian's eyes shook. He was so shocked that he had become speechless momentarily. He then said: "Little Bai, move over. Jingang, you come here. I have some things to say to you."

Niu Jingang tossed the huge tree into the air.

"Whoosh~..."

That huge tree was directly tossed into the clouds and then disappeared.

Murong Bai and Luo Tian were dumbstruck by this Niu Jingang. His strength was powerful to a complete mess!

Niu Jingang ran over to Luo Tian's side and squatted down to stare at the grilled meat. His saliva started dripping down with "plop plop" sounds. The grilled meat he had just eaten was the best meat he had tasted in his entire life, so what he was feeling right now was never ending admiration towards Luo Tian.

In his world, anyone capable of making such tasty grilled meat must definitely be an extremely awesome existence.

Luo Tian asked: "Jingang, are you willing to go to Mount Hua Immortal Sect with me?"

Niu Jingang asked: "Are there such tasty grilled meat for me to eat every day?"

Luo Tian was feeling ecstatic as he replied: "There is!"

Niu Jingang's eyes gleamed while he looked at Luo Tian. Then, another flash appeared in his eyes as he said embarrassedly: "I was just kidding..."

Luo Tian was startled by the reaction, "Uhhh..."

Niu Jingang then said in seriousness: "Once a month. I only need to eat this type of grilled meat once a month and I'll be content."

Luo Tian was dumbfounded. When he looked at the innocent-looking Niu Jingang, he said: "No problem. From today onwards, you will be the second disciple of my ten great disciples. This Little Bai is your eldest senior brother."

Niu Jingang immediately got up and said respectfully to Murong Bai: "Eldest Senior Brother!"

Soul Hall's Left Emissary!

And Jingang, who was fierce to a complete mess within the deep mountains!

This was way too awesome!

He had struck it rich!

Immortal sect disciple competition, huh?

Bullying this daddy's Mount Hua that we don't have any talented disciples, huh?

You guys just wait! Wait for this daddy to f*ck up all ten great immortal sects thoroughly!

Chapter 673: Desert Of Death

A piece of grilled meat took care of a fierce person!

This kind of business was very profitable.

Niu Jingang had been living in the mountains since his birth. When he was around five years of age, his mother had suddenly disappeared one day.

Disappeared without a trace!

He didn't go looking for her because he didn't know where to start.

Luo Tian and Murong Bai's appearance was basically the first time he had seen another human being.

The very first time!

Apart from his mother, he had suddenly treated Luo Tian as the closest human in his life. The reason was very simple – because Luo Tian was able to grill such delicious meat. This allowed him to see that this world existed such a delicious delicacy.

Murong Bai was looking down on Luo Tian the entire time.

He felt that Luo Tian was cheating Niu Jingang.

And the means was the most despicable of the despicable – he only used a piece of grilled meat!

When those words were spoken out, Niu Jingang became unhappy and said with some anger: “Eldest senior brother, you cannot say such things about the boss. I will become unhappy when you criticize the boss like that. I'm the one that profited from this. With such delicious tasting meat, even ten of me wouldn't be able to exchange for it.”

Murong Bai almost threw up blood.

Luo Tian started laughing loudly before saying to Murong Bai: “Little Bai, don't tell me you don't want the people of this world to witness Jingang's strength? I would love it if the competition started tomorrow. Jingang's name will definitely startle the world with his debut. I'm getting excited just thinking about it!”

Seeing how Luo Tian was laughing boisterously, Niu Jingang also started giggling foolishly. Even though he didn't know what Luo Tian was laughing about, he knew Luo Tian was happy so he felt happy too.

Those three spent several days deep inside the mountains.

The injuries on Murong Bai were mostly recovered.

Luo Tian had been using Regeneration to help him heal these past few days. One must mention that the Starsea Immortal Sect's secret skill couldn't really quite catch up with his footsteps. When it came to the wounds on a Profound God ranker, Luo Tian felt the healing speed was kind of slow. But in the eyes of other people, the healing speed was already very fast.

Murong Bai was rather shocked as he said: "I never imagined that you managed to learn Starsea Immortal Sect's secret skill. You have hidden your abilities quite deeply. What kind of secrets do you have left? Quickly tell me all of them."

Luo Tian gave a mysterious smile and replied: "The secrets I have are beyond your imagination. Just follow me and I will guarantee your life will be very colorful. It will definitely be better than what you've been experiencing."

Murong Bai smirked, "I'm looking forward to seeing it."

"What?!"

"They escaped?"

"They suddenly disappeared and there weren't any traces of their auras within a million kilometers? Could this kid Luo Tian have cultivated another powerful martial skill?" Sect Leader Lie Yang of the Imperial God Immortal Sect questioned in a bad mood. He thought that Luo Tian would definitely die this time.

But he still managed to escape.

Lie Yang furrowed his brow and said softly: "Master will definitely not be happy when he hears this."

"Sect Leader, there's only a little more than a month until the immortal sect disciple competition. Mount Hua Immortal Sect didn't participate last year so they have to participate this year. Since our ten great immortal sects sent out a battle invitation, we will have a legitimate reason to surround them if they don't participate. That kid Luo Tian will definitely participate since he wishes to support Mount Hua Immortal sect. Otherwise, he could have just dropped everything and not bothered with any matters. But he didn't do that, which means Luo Tian will absolutely participate in this year's immortal sect disciple competition. At that time... heh heh... he will die for sure!" said Daoist Tian Yang.

Right after that, Tian Yang continued saying: "I've already spoken with the Sect Leaders of the ten great immortal sects to create an inescapable net. Luo Tian will not be able to escape and the old master will definitely be satisfied."

Lie Yang's brows had lowered as he softly said: "We can only do it this way. We will let him live for a few more days and the immortal sect disciple competition will be the date of his death. We have to kill him then or else we won't have time to deal with him after the competition."

"Wanjian's wedding date will be here soon. When the time comes, our Imperial God Immortal Sect must use all resources to prepare for it. The Starsea Immortal Sect and the Soul Hall will be doing the same. We cannot allow a little mouse shit like Luo Tian to ruin the pot of soup."

Tian Yang immediately replied: "I understand. He is just a little mouse that is unable to flip the sky upside down."

It was the same situation with the Starsea Immortal Sect and the Soul Hall.

They had given up chasing after Luo Tian and focused on preparing for the immortal sect disciple competition.

Since the Imperial God Immortal Sect and the Starsea Immortal Sect weren't chasing after Luo Tian, the other eight great immortal sects naturally wouldn't bother hunting him down either. The date of the immortal sect disciple competition would be here soon, and that's the top priority for these people.

Their immortal sect will see an increase of fortune if they get good results, and the intensity of immortal force will increase accordingly.

The greater their fortune, the greater the influence their immortal sect will have. And their strength will naturally rise as a result of this.

Devil Sect.

"Lord Sect Leader, this time's immortal sect competition is a great opportunity for us."

"The forces behind Luo Tian are quite small but his value as a chess piece is quite high. How about we join hands with him? We'll cause some chaos amongst the ten great immortal sects and give them some damage. At that time, our devil sect will launch a sudden attack and restore our former glory!"

"The assassins sent out by the ten great immortal sects weren't able to kill Luo Tian, which means that kid isn't simple. He can transform into the figure of Devil Sovereign Xingtian, so we can really think about forming an alliance with him. As long as we defeat the ten great immortal sects, we can kick Luo Tian away and the Tianxuan Continent will become ours."

The brows of the devil sect's leader were furrowed while he was in thought. Eventually, he said: "This time's immortal sect disciple competition is definitely an opportunity. Since it will have such a lively atmosphere, we shall attend as well!"

"Heh heh..."

For a brief time, the entire Tianxuan Continent seemed to have become tranquil.

The strongest forces in the continent were all secretly preparing for the immortal sect competition.

This was the calm before the storm!

Luo Tian, Murong Bai, and Niu Jingang used up three days before leaving the mountain ranges. Luo Tian wanted to try using his great perfection stage Teleport to see if he could bring the three of them out of this place. But when he thought of holding hands with Murong Bai again, he felt extremely uncomfortable and no longer thought of trying.

Beyond the mountain range was a vast and endless desert.

Yellow sand that seemed to stretch everywhere.

One couldn't see where the blazing hot boundary ended.

When Murong Bai saw the sand, he couldn't help saying: "It looks like we're going to reach the territories of the Wild Lands soon. This desert before us should be known as the Desert of Death. We have to be careful here because it's an extremely dangerous area. Even Profound God experts cannot be careless."

Luo Tian was startled by this information and said: "The Desert of Death that's ranked number two in the ten forbidden grounds of the Tianxuan Continent?"

Murong Bai nodded and replied: "This is the place."

Niu Jingang scratched his head since he had no clue what the ten forbidden grounds meant. He stepped onto the sand and said: "Boss, we should hurry up. The sky is about to get dark."

Luo Tian smiled and said: "Let's go!"

Right when they were about to move out, Luo Tian suddenly thought of something. He had been so busy lately and almost forgot about it. He then asked Murong Bai: "Is the Heavenly Plume City's jade seal with you?"

Murong Bai pulled out a stone that was similar to the Great Tang's founding jade seal from his spatial ring and replied: "Are you talking about this?"

Luo Tian smiled in excitement! The Geocentric Tower quest is about to be completed!

Chapter 674: This Is A Big Problem

The two quest items were in hand.

The two pieces of stones had grooves on the edges that matched up, which meant the two stones could be merged together to trigger something.

Luo Tian wasn't in a rush to trigger it.

The higher the quest rewards, the more dangerous the quest would be.

Risks and rewards have always been proportional to each other. And since Mount Hua's progenitor allowed him to enter and exit the Floodplain World freely, this was the prerequisite for Luo Tian to level up if it was based on the gaming logic from his previous life. Only when he levels up some more can he enter the Geocentric Tower.

Luo Tian hadn't entered the Floodplain World yet and he wasn't given much information on it.

He was planning on finding a few more disciples before heading back to Mount Hua Immortal Sect for seclusion training. Then he would finalize the preparation for the immortal sect disciple competition.

Luo Tian took the Heavenly Plume City's jade seal and said: "Your Soul King tricked you. The Geocentric Tower isn't a gateway to travel to other worlds, and it doesn't have higher spiritual essence from other worlds to help you cultivate faster. Inside is an expert from a higher realm that is devouring the spiritual essence of the Tianxuan Continent. Honestly, I don't know if the Soul King really doesn't know or if he deliberately tricked you."

Luo Tian didn't want to jump to any conclusions.

He didn't know what kind of person the Soul King was so he didn't want to randomly make judgments.

After all, Murong Bai had been someone from the Soul Hall.

Murong Bai felt a faint shiver internally. He looked at Luo Tian before giving a self-mocking smile: "I'm no longer someone from the Soul Hall. It was you that pulled me into Mount Hua Immortal Sect so from today onwards, I am a person of Mount Hua."

He was feeling a bit of emotional pain.

When he thought back to the time when the Soul King was telling him this matter, the Soul King's eyes looked rather genuine. From the looks of things now, it's possible that the Soul King might be tricking him.

He had been loyal to the Soul Hall for all these years, yet now he realized he couldn't trust anyone there. "Murong Bai, oh Murong Bai... you were nothing but a tool, a dancing clown in front of their eyes. What a hilarious joke!"

Luo Tian looked at Murong Bai and didn't say anything. He only patted his shoulder a few times before taking large strides to catch up to Niu Jingang. He then shouted: "Jingang, wait for me!"

No one amongst them was a complete idiot.

There were some things that Luo Tian didn't have to say out loud, and also didn't have a reason to.

Murong Bai wasn't a kid so he could distinguish this easily.

Luo Tian had saved him, healed him, and treated him like a brother. But inside Murong Bai, he was still attached to the Soul Hall because that's the place where he grew up. The Soul King could be considered half-a-master to him, but now he found out that this half-a-master was someone that couldn't be trusted.

This was a very big blow to him, even more unbearable than being slapped by the Grand Elder.

After thinking over things for a bit, Murong Bai looked up and noticed Luo Tian's back. Under the sunlight, the shadow of Luo Tian's figure stretched out like a huge giant. Murong Bai faintly smiled, "From today onwards, I, Murong Bai, will be someone on your side."

He grinned to himself before quickly catching up.

The three of them were chatting and laughing in an unrestrained manner.

They were just like three brothers.

Unknowingly, three days had passed by.

They were now deep into the desert. It was still an endless desert where one couldn't see where it began or ended. The heat was unbearable here and it easily made people agitated.

Luo Tian couldn't help asking: "Little Bai, didn't you say that the Desert of Death was the number two forbidden grounds? How come there's nothing here? Could it be the reason it was labeled as a forbidden ground because there isn't any food or water here?"

For someone with Luo Tian's cultivation realm, not eating and drinking for a few months wasn't an issue.

Not to mention that they had brought plenty of food and water with them.

The moment Jingang stepped onto the desert, his mouth had not stopped moving since Luo Tian had prepared a lot of grilled meat for him.

One must mention that this guy could really eat, comparable to Qin Changtian from the Sky Palace. He had no concept of being full and just kept eating. His stomach was only this big so how could it fit so much food?

Murong Bai muttered: "I've only heard about it and have never been here. Rumor has it that the Desert of Death is filled with desert demonic beasts that are much stronger than the demonic beasts residing in the mountain ranges."

Niu Jingang ripped a piece of grilled meat and asked: "Boss, why are we walking through the desert?"

"Huh?"

"Huh?"

Luo Tian and Murong Bai looked at each other with a dumbstruck expression.

"That's right!"

"Why are we walking through the desert? We are experts at the Profound God realm, so why are we so stupid to walk with our feet? Even the soles of my shoes have been worn through! Why are we so dumb?" Murong Bai complained while staring at the sky.

They only realized this problem after walking for three days.

Luo Tian was first stunned before smiling bitterly. Just when he was about to fly into the air and check the surroundings, his brows furrowed as he said: "Something's happening!"

Murong Bai instantly guarded one side of Luo Tian.

Niu Jingang's reaction wasn't slow. He slurped up the grilled meat in his mouth and guarded Luo Tian's other side.

Left and Right Guardians!

Two warrior protectors!

Luo Tian was moved in his heart before sending out his spiritual senses that encompassed over a hundred thousand kilometers.

In an instant, the sand in the area started moving. The frequency of the shaking started getting more intense and harsh sounds came from below.

"Under the ground!"

Luo Tian's expression changed.

Before he could speak further, a big Sand Scorpion with huge pincers charged out. The pincer swept out and clamped towards Luo Tian while breaking the sound barrier.

Jingang became unhappy when he looked at his grilled meat covered in sand. His fists were clenched as he walked over one step at a time. Each step was filled with berserk powers while energy rippled out from the impact of his feet on the ground.

Facing a huge pincer that was getting closer, Niu Jingang just smashed out his fist.

"Bang~!"

The giant black pincer was smashed away and the Sand Scorpion's body jerked back violently.

The most dangerous thing about these poisonous scorpions weren't their pincers but the stinger on its tail.

Niu Jingang grew up in the forest of a mountain and didn't know how sinister the human heart could be. He also didn't know that some demonic beasts were like that as well. The moment his punch smashed the pincer away, the scorpion's tail came out from deep inside the sand. The curvature of the tail was like a waning moon as it pierced behind Niu Jingang at lightning speed.

Luo Tian's eyes turned gloomy as he shouted internally: "Level 9 Berserk!"

"Shadewind Steps!"

"Rising Moon!"

"Whoosh~..."

His figure became a blur and instantly arrived to hold onto the scorpion's poisonous tail. His other hand formed a fist and the power of five hundred plus times his attributes heavily punched out.

"Bang~!"

A single punch smashed the tail into smithereens.

Niu Jingang looked back and scratched his head foolishly, "Thanks, boss."

The Sand Scorpion had failed two consecutive attacks.

It started wailing in pain and quickly retreated. Its body drilled into the sand, leaving two pitch-black eyes glaring at Luo Tian with intense hatred.

"Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~..."

In just a few moves, the Sand Scorpion had now disappeared without a trace.

“Boss, this one will chase after it.” Niu Jingang said straightforwardly.

Luo Tian shook his head, “No need.”

At this time, Murong Bai flew into the air and started chuckling, “This is going to be a big problem now.”

Luo Tian looked up and asked: “What’s going on?”

Murong Bai replied: “A sandstorm is coming! Wait, no... it should be a Sand Scorpion storm is coming! They are all coming, over ten thousand of them! This is going to be a lot of fun!”

Luo Tian’s expression was full of joy, “This is so awesome! They’re sending me the warmth of love!”

Chapter 675: Evil Woman, Black Widow

“This is gifting me experience points!”

Luo Tian revealed a smile and said: “Jingang, Little Bai, don’t completely kill these scorpions. Leave them on their last breath so that I can make the killing blow.”

Murong Bai’s sword started moving.

His white clothes and his chilling sword fluttered through the air.

Luo Tian was hiddenly staring at him in disdain as he said to himself: “It’s good that there aren’t any girls around or else he would steal all the limelight.”

Jingang nodded and said: “Order received, boss!”

Murong Bai faintly smiled and said: "Whatever, I just want to kill to my heart's content."

Luo Tian was worried he would say something like that.

But the experience points from these Sand Scorpions shouldn't be too high. Even if there's over ten thousand of them here, it wouldn't put much of a dent into Luo Tian's super long experience bar. Nevertheless, the little bit of meat on a mosquito was still meat. Luo Tian repeated himself: "Just make them half dead."

After saying that, Luo Tian shouted: "Prepare for battle!"

"Hooh~!"

Suddenly, Luo Tian's figure sprung into action as he stood in the air with a serious look in his eyes. When he saw the sand being kicked up all over, it really did look like a sandstorm was barreling towards them. This kind of scene was extremely shocking to behold!

Niu Jingang stood on a tall mound of sand. His expression was serious while a piece of half-eaten grilled meat was still hanging out of his mouth.

The three were prepared.

They only had to wait for this group of Scorpion Kings to come, and then they can kill to their heart's content.

But when the group of Scorpion Kings got closer, Luo Tian realized they weren't charging towards them. They were actually running for their lives like crazy!

"What's going on?"

Murong Bai noticed this and said: "Something seems to be chasing after them."

Luo Tian was feeling heartache. Seeing all those Scorpion King's falling to their demise, he couldn't endure anymore and exclaimed: "My experience points! My experience points! No, they can't just die like that. I need to at least grab some experience points for myself."

Suddenly, Luo Tian turned into a beam of light and charged forth.

He arrived in front of them in a blink of an eye.

Murong Bai followed right behind.

Niu Jingang glanced at them and said with a foolish grin: "This one can't allow the boss and eldest senior brother to get injured. This one will go too!"

His legs shifted and started moving like a horse galloping. His speed wasn't a bit slower than Luo Tian or Murong Bai!

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

The sounds shook the sky and reverberated throughout the Desert of Death.

In the lead was a Scorpion King.

Its body gave off a faint golden glow, designating it as a small boss.

It saw Luo Tian and the other two come towards it and its rage immediately surged into the sky. Both pincers were raised into the air and it revealed an extremely arrogant expression like it was saying: "You guys better scram away from this daddy. Do you believe this daddy can play you guys to death anytime I want?"

Behind the Scorpion King was a large group of scorpions.

Their group was approaching in a cone shape

At this time, it wasn't just the Scorpion King but several larger scorpions behind had all released their furious beastly nature.

They were originally running for their lives yet some humans were now blocking their path. How can they not be angry?

"Ahhh..."

Before Luo Tian could make a move, Jingang already shot forth.

His dark tanned skin was shining under the hot sun and his muscles looked like they were cast by the flow of water as it burst forth with endless power.

Jingang leaped over and directly grabbed onto the Scorpion King's giant pincer. His body then sank downward and his feet touched the ground. The muscles on his arms flexed, and the Scorpion King was raised into the air before being slammed down on its back.

"Boom~!"

Sand covered the sky as the Scorpion King made an imprint of itself on the sand.

The Scorpion King was scared witless.

Did he forget to read the almanac before heading out today?

He was originally bringing his little brothers out to hunt for food and never expected to encounter the desert's death hunter Black Widow.

This was the Black Widow whose poison was more poisonous than a scorpion's.

They were not her opponents. Even if they were fifty thousand strong, they were still not her opponent. They were escaping and had been running for tens of thousands of kilometers. Black Widow kept chasing after them and the road was paved with the bodies of scorpions.

The Scorpion King originally had a belly full of fire. When he saw three humans block his path, his rage had practically reached the sky. He was planning on pinching the three humans to death but didn't expect that before he could make his move, his body was raised into the air by a tiny human. He was then heavily slammed into the ground!

He had thoughts of committing suicide!

Before the Scorpion King could react, Jingang slammed it onto the ground once more like he was afraid the Scorpion King would suddenly sting him with its tail. Jingang didn't give the Scorpion King any chances and kept slamming it down, especially where a large number of scorpions were congregated.

It was already chaotic, and now it was even more chaotic.

A messy chaos of scorpions.

Murong Bai's white clothing fluttered as the sword in his hand turned illusory. Over a thousand flowery sword lights were condensed into sword qi. Then, the scene looked like thousands of arrows were being shot down from the sky.

"Scree~!"

“Scree~!”

“Scree~!”

The swarm of scorpions cried out.

They crashed into each other continuously trying to escape.

At this time, Luo Tian leaped into the air as well. He checked the health bar above the scorpions before shouting internally: “Myriad Thunder Roar, smash them for me!”

Storm clouds started gathering on a clear sky, and then the violent sounds of thunder raged through them.

Under Luo Tian’s command, over ten thousand lightning bolts descended.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Within the lightning field, many scorpions were being instantly killed.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Sand Scorpion. You have gained 10,000 experience points, 1000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Sand Scorpion. You have gained 10,000 experience points, 1000 profound energy...”

Alert tones sounded off like crazy.

Luo Tian was blasting wildly about and a few thousand Sand Scorpions turned to powder. As the sand and dust settled, a bunch of scorpions was seen running while a woman followed behind.

A woman who was holding onto a whip.

An incomparably voluptuous woman that was exuding incredible charm from every part of her body.

There were only three parts of her body that were covered while the rest was completely visible. Her skin was smooth and white against the contrast of the desert. And every pore on her body was exuding this evil charm. This was simply way too awesome!

Luo Tian was thinking of League of Legends' Evelynn!

The evil charm coming from her was the same as the game character, and the charm was like a black energy that enshrouded her entire body. Except, the woman in front of their eyes was somehow even prettier than Evelynn.

Luo Tian was staring at her.

She stared back at Luo Tian.

The whip in her hand was like a spiritual snake that was slithering around the desert in a lively manner.

Murong Bai's expression hiddenly changed. He instantly appeared next to Luo Tian and advised him in a whisper: "No matter what, don't look at her eyes. This woman has some type of evil energy on her so you cannot meet her eyes. The most dangerous thing in the Desert of Death isn't the demonic beasts, but this woman."

Murong Bai looked at Luo Tian who was staring at this woman. His mind sank and his sword immediately shook. His Profound God 3rd rank powers exploded to its peak as he shouted: "Let him go! Come at me if you have the guts!"

Chapter 676 Hello, Sire!

"Come at me if you have the guts!"

After saying that, Murong Bai blocked in front of Luo Tian. His eyes were even larger than a cow's as he swept his eyes all over Black Widow's body. He cleared his throat in an attempt to hide the fact that he was swallowing his saliva, but he had completely failed.

Luo Tian kicked Murong Bai's butt and shouted: "Who the hell are you trying to fool?!"

He was completely fine.

Well, not completely fine.

The moment Luo Tian met Black Widow's gaze, he was indeed mesmerized and felt like he had entered an illusion.

But Luo Tian's immunity was stronger than Black Widow's expectation.

It only took him a few seconds before he recovered. No matter how much charm Black Widow was trying to cast with her evil eyes and her poses, Luo Tian was indifferent to all of it.

Li Xue'er's all-around beauty.

Leng Hanshuang's cold beauty.

Tang Tang's cute and playful beauty.

Qin Yue'er's mature beauty.

Yun Ling and Yun Yi's twin beauty. Xin Er's pure innocent beauty. Luo Tian had seen them all, so his immunity towards beautiful girls had been enhanced quite a bit. His body was able to produce antibodies to deal with this Black Widow. But one must mention that Black Widow's evil charm made people's hearts beat quicker unconsciously.

Therefore, Murong Bai had been completely captivated. His eyes were staring at the bottomless cleavage of Black Widow while drool kept flowing out. He looked exactly like those stereotypical lustful men right now.

Luo Tian stomped over and kicked him onto the ground.

Murong Bai still maintained a pose he thought was really handsome on the ground and smiled at Black Widow.

Niu Jingang ran over while pulling a Scorpion King at the edge of death. He then said with a foolish grin, "Eldest senior brother, what are you doing? She didn't look at you at all. The sand on the ground is really hot so you should quickly get up. It wouldn't be good if you end up burning your body."

"Puff~..."

Black Widow couldn't hold back and burst out giggling. This caused the evil charm from her body to become even more charming, and the aura coming from her was near irresistible now.

When Murong Bai saw Black Widow giggling, his heart started beating faster. He didn't hear a thing of what Jingang had said.

Luo Tian looked at Jingang and said: "Jingang, use the Scorpion King's poisonous stinger and stab him with it. Let's see if he can keep pretending or not."

Niu Jingang froze for a bit, "Uh..."

Luo Tian then said: "Look at his face. Wouldn't it be extremely shameful to everyone if he keeps acting like that?"

Niu Jingang nodded to show his agreement. "What the boss says is right."

While conversing, Jingang grabbed a Scorpion King's tail and squeezed out the black poisonous stinger before plunging the thing into Murong Bai's butt.

"Ahhhhh...~!"

"My butt!"

"Luo Tian, this won't be the end of it!"

Murong Bai grabbed his butt and jumped into the air. His face turned pale and his lips turned black. He glared at Luo Tian and said: "You are too vicious! Isn't it just because a beautiful girl likes me and doesn't like you? How can you treat me like that?!"

Ah Niu scratched his head and said: "Eldest senior brother, that woman hasn't even looked at you. She has been staring at boss the entire time, so how can she be interested in you?"

Murong Bai knocked Niu Jingang's head and said in a bad mood: "You big lug head, why are you speaking so much? She definitely likes me and just hasn't revealed it. That's called being subtle and reserved. Do you understand any of that?"

Luo Tian brought out an Antidote Pill and threw it over to Murong Bai. "Stop acting cocky. Your lips are turning black so quickly eat the Antidote Pill. If you look at yourself, you will see that your face is turning black as well. If you don't detoxify the poison soon, you won't be able to pull off that handsome pose of yours. Your face might even become damaged beyond repair."

When he heard that his face might become damaged, Murong Bai quickly ate the medicinal pill.

At this time, Black Widow walked over while twisting her butt. Because she was wearing so little, it could be described as wearing a bikini or lingerie so her butt was completely exposed. The swaying motion of a near-naked butt was able to evoke the primitive lust of any male primate.

And while she was walking, her chest was faintly shaking.

A wobble here, a wobble there, those twin peaks looked like shaking mountain tops that were capable of shattering one's heart.

There was a stinging sensation in Murong Bai's nose before a long stream of blood came out. When he saw Black Widow walking towards them, he struck the most handsome pose he could come up with. He then said with a faint smile: "How are you doing, beautiful girl? This one is Murong Bai, a Profound God 3rd ranker."

Two long streams of nosebleeds.

In addition to his lecherous grin, his expression was lewd to the maximum.

Ah Niu softly said: "Eldest senior brother, there's blood coming out of your nose."

Murong Bai licked his lips. He still looked very calm with a faint lecherous smile on his face.

Ah Niu then said: "Eldest senior brother, she walked past you and didn't even give you a glance."

Black Widow sashayed over to Luo Tian's location and revealed a reserved smile, "Hello, sire!"

"Clang~!"

"Crack~, crack~ ..."

Sounds of his heart shattering come from Murong Bai. His eyes turned lifeless like he had died inside.

Upon hearing Black Widow's gentle voice that could melt someone's bones towards Luo Tian, Murong Bai's heart turned into ashes. He just plopped onto the ground while staring up at the sky, "Oh heavens, oh great earth, do you really need to give me such a blow?"

Luo Tian looked very calm.

He was only pretending to be calm though.

A young straight male that wasn't even twenty years old yet, staring at a gorgeous girl with very little clothing on while she kept giving you flirtatious looks, and an evil charming aura that kept radiating from her body capable of driving anyone crazy. There was no way Luo Tian could hold on.

He was a man!

A man with a normal sexual orientation!

He could barely resist it when he saw Black Widow.

But he resisted with all his might internally while looking very calm on the surface. "Your evil charm is useless against me. You are very beautiful but you aren't any better when compared to my wives. So, please pull back your evil charm because you're basically wasting your energy."

Black Widow was faintly stunned before smiling in embarrassment, "You are the first man to be able to resist me. You are very special."

While speaking, the evil charming aura coming from her body was pulled back.

"Fuuu~..." Luo Tian exhaled a breath of air. Cold sweat plastered his back and there were traces of blood on his palms. Just then, he was forcing himself to endure like his life depended on it. His nails were stabbed into his fleshly palms just so he could resist that Black Widow's charm, or else he really wouldn't be able to hold himself back.

Murong Bai was unwilling to be defeated and said: "Beautiful girl, I am very special as well. Can you take a look at me? As long as you look at me, I'm sure you will be smitten by my looks."

Black Widow was treating Murong Bai like air.

Murong Bai's shattered heart felt like someone was trampling all over it. It was shattered to the point of being unable to shatter anymore. His whole person was like a wilted piece of lettuce that couldn't raise his spirit anymore.

Ah Niu supported Murong Bai up and said: "Eldest senior brother, don't be discouraged. She doesn't like you but there will definitely be other girls that like you."

Murong Bai was moved by this and said: "Jingang treats me the best and still knows how to comfort me. Not like some people here..."

Before he could finish, Niu Jingang then said: "I think many village girls would like someone like you..."

"Puff~..."

Murong Bai directly threw up blood.

Chapter 677 This One Doesn't Want It

A knife was stabbed into Murong Bai's chest and blood splattered everywhere.

A long sigh while staring up at the sky.

He couldn't make half a sound anymore.

Luo Tian waved his hand, instantly killing the scorpion next to Jingang.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Scorpion King. You have gained 100,000 experience points, 10,000 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a Scorpion Tail.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a Soul Pearl.”

“Huh?”

“Only a little pearl exploded out?” Luo Tian was stunned by this. Shortly after, he walked over to Black Widow and asked: “Are you interested in following me?”

Black Widow smiled seductively and said: “That’ll be great, sire. I will do whatever you tell me to. I will do anything.”

That gaze, and that flirtatious expression.

It was like a tickling itch that ignited one’s evil flames.

Moreover, this woman will definitely take your life on the bed. Not to mention 108 styles, she could probably come up with 18,000 styles for you. There will be no repeating styles and she will not stop unless you’re completely dry.

Cannot afford to provoke!

Luo Tian didn't wish to invite a disaster.

But Luo Tian wanted to pull her into their group. Her abilities were definitely not ordinary since she didn't put Murong Bai, a Profound God 3rd ranker in her eyes.

This was the first feeling Luo Tian had towards Black Widow.

Seeing how she didn't give up and kept trying to use different evil moves, Luo Tian smiled and said: "You should give up when it comes to me. I don't have that much interest towards you and I'm not your type either."

"No fun!"

Black Widow instantly lost her spirit and sat down on the corpse of a scorpion. Her long nail gently scratched against the shell of the scorpion and caused a metallic noise. She then asked: "Are you really a man?"

There was some frustration in her tone.

There has never been anyone that was capable of resisting her evil charm.

Even experts at the peak of the Profound God realm fell to her moves, not to mention Luo Tian who was only at the Profound God 1st rank.

Murong Bai felt like this was his chance. He got up from the ground and used his sleeve to wipe away the blood from his nose. He then said in an ingratiating manner: "Beautiful girl, he isn't a man and he doesn't like women. I am a man, a true blue man..."

Before he could finish speaking, Black Widow glanced coldly at him and said: "I have no sexual interest in you."

It was sexual interest and not just plain interest!

Murong Bai shivered before sitting down in defeat once more.

Luo Tian said with a smile: "I am naturally a man, and your charm is irresistible to men. I am no exception but I cannot allow it because the wives at home won't agree to it."

This was just one of the reasons.

Another reason was that Luo Tian couldn't accept the personality of Black Widow.

He leaned to the conservative side when it came to things like this.

Black Widow was too liberal.

Black Widow's brows faintly furrowed and asked: "Your wives won't agree? I really wish to see what your wives look like. I want to see what qualifications they have to compete with me. You are the man that I have my eyes on, so you will become mine."

While saying that, Black Widow's eyes faintly narrowed and her mouth curved up into a smile. "You won't be able to escape from my hands."

Murong Bai looked at Luo Tian. He was carefully observing him and didn't let a single pore off. Eventually, he came to a conclusion – no matter if it came to looks or cultivation, this thing couldn't be compared to himself. So, how did he lose out to Luo Tian?

Luo Tian became happy as he said: "Based on your words, you're planning to follow me?"

Black Widow smiled flirtatiously and replied: "Of course. I've been living in this Desert of Death for so long that I've grown tired of it since a long time ago. I have been waiting for the day that a capable man can bring me away from this desert. The day has arrived."

As she was speaking, Black Widow leaned against Luo Tian's chest and gently rubbed herself against him.

Her firm and upright buttocks were touching against Luo Tian's crotch area.

"She's killing me!" Luo Tian cried out internally. He desperately tried to endure the best he could but no matter how hard he tried, his little brother wouldn't listen to his commands. In just an instant, killing intent exploded from down there.

A tent popped up!

Looking like it was trying to support the sky!

There was actually a momentum behind it that seemed like it was trying to penetrate through the sky!

Black Widow giggled coquettishly and said: "Sire, your thing is touching me. You're so bad. This one almost can't resist anymore."

"I..."

Luo Tian had been enduring for so long yet his little brother didn't listen to him at a key moment. Luo Tian's face turned a shade red, wanting to cut off that little disobedient thing of his.

Black Widow was happy.

Extremely happy.

She felt like she had taken down another fortress.

Luo Tian heavily exhaled before saying: "If you keep acting like this, aren't you afraid I'd do something to you?"

Black Widow pretended to look scared. She was like a child clinging to Luo Tian's body while gently rubbing her peaks against his. Luo Tian could clearly feel two pointy dots through his clothing rubbing him.

The evil flames in his groin became unstoppable.

Black Widow then said: "Come. Sire, come and ravage me. Ravage me as fiercely as you can."

"Gulp~!"

If this continues, Luo Tian will definitely go berserk.

His figure retreated back as he pulled out the Soul Pearl that exploded out from the Scorpion King. "Is this the reason you were chasing the Scorpion King?"

During this time, Murong Bai's heart had shattered countless times. He was squatting off to the side and drawing circles in the sand while muttering some curses.

Ah Niu tried to comfort him but realized Murong Bai's expression was getting uglier. Eventually, he sat down next to Murong Bai while continuing to eat his meat and saying: "Eldest senior brother, you will definitely find a village girl who will love you so don't worry. Do you want me to give you a share of grilled meat?"

Black Widow's body softened and leaned against Luo Tian. "This one is actually looking for you. Sire, please accept this one."

Even though she said such words, her eyes were actually staring at the Soul Pearl in Luo Tian's hand.

Luo Tian smiled and said: "If that's the case, I'm going to throw it away."

When he said he was going to throw the Soul Pearl away, Black Widow was startled by it and quickly grabbed onto Luo Tian's hand. "Sire, you are such a bad person. It will be a great pity to throw away such a good thing. Please save it for this one."

Luo Tian then said: "I'm fine with giving it to you, but can you act a little more normal?"

Black Widow was delighted by those words and said with a delicate smile: "Sire, has this one made you that uncomfortable?"

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her and replied: "Any straight man, even those playboys will be played by you to the point that they can't resist. I will give you this pearl but we need to maintain a one meter distance from each other." Luo Tian felt this woman could practically steal one's life away.

No straight man could resist her!

After receiving the pearl, Black Widow quickly swallowed it and the evil charm coming from her became denser. She nestled deeper into Luo Tian's body like she was trying to fuse together with him. "This one doesn't want to."

This kind of voice... Luo Tian's bones were about to melt.

"I..."

Luo Tian couldn't handle it.

Murong Bai gave Luo Tian a resentful look before throwing up another mouthful of blood.

Chapter 678 The Power of a Dragon God's Essence Blood

Mount Hua Immortal Sect.

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

Two consecutive sounds of impact were heard.

Yun Ling and Yun Yi both opened their eyes at the same time with a joyful look on their faces. “We broke through! We broke through to the Profound Emperor realm!”

Profound Emperor realm!

Those twin sisters who hadn’t broken through to the Profound Venerate realm half a month ago had now stepped into the Profound Emperor realm in such a short time. This kind of speed was simply the same as sitting on a rocket.

There was one other person besides those two.

Leng Hanshuang.

At this time, her brows were furrowed and her expression had a trace of coldness as if she was an iceberg.

The aura around her body was sometimes moving fast and sometimes moving slow. Faint ripples of power could be seen rising out from her body. Immortal force was constantly converging into her body and charging through her meridians like crazy.

A brief moment later, Leng Hanshuang’s icy cold eyes opened while she shouted: “Open!”

“Boom~!” Sounds of impact also exploded from within her body.

In an instant, the immortal force within the whole valley was sucked into her body. Her expression was unusually cheerful and her face red. Her frosty expression had turned into a smiling flower as she said: "I've also broken through to the Profound Emperor 4th rank!"

Her breakthrough speed wasn't slow either.

Half a month ago, she was only at the peak of the Profound Saint realm. In this short period, she had broken through four small realms, practically unheard of.

Not very far from them, a dragon was coiled there with an excited look. "Of course your cultivation speed is fast. Why don't you girls have a look at whose blood you devoured? I am the world's most handsome Dragon God descendant. You absorbed a Dragon God's essence blood so cultivating one day is like traversing a thousand miles." Eggy said with all smugness.

He looked at his three sisters-in-law and thought to himself: "I am so powerful! I made three sisters-in-law breakthrough into the Profound Emperor realm! When the boss comes back, he will definitely reward me with many divine artifacts! That would be so awesome..."

Eggy's mouth was dripping saliva when he thought of divine artifacts.

After swallowing his saliva, he looked up at the sky and said: "Boss, where are you? There's going to be some major chaos if you don't come back to Mount Hua Immortal Sect soon. I am almost at my limit suppressing them by myself."

After Luo Tian left, there wasn't a single peaceful day in Mount Hua Immortal Sect.

Some older Elders were in conflict with the newer Elders. There were also traces of people supported by the ten great immortal sects causing trouble. They were the ones most adept at stirring up the flames.

Disciples were constantly getting into conflict with each other. The different Halls were fighting over territories. The entire Mount Hua Immortal Sect was similar to a gunpowder factory that could blow up at any given time. If it weren't for Eggy, a Profound God expert suppressing them all, most likely Mount Hua Immortal Sect would have fallen into complete chaos already.

At this time, Han Hua entered the valley with a tired look on her face. Her brows were furrowed when she saw that Eggy was guarding the valley entrance. “Eggy, what were the sounds of impact just now?”

Yun Ling and Yun Yi ran over in joy and said: “Senior sister, we broke through! Our cultivation is in the Profound Emperor realm now, hee hee...”

Leng Hanshuang walked over and noticed the tired-looking Han Hua. “Senior sister Han, are those Elders jumping out and causing trouble again?”

Rage of flames instantly erupted from Eggy.

He leaped into the air and shouted: “Who is it?! I’ll go kill them right now! Their granny’s cha-cha, this daddy wasn’t able to endure for a long time already. If it weren’t for you stopping me, I would’ve already twisted off their heads one by one. Boss treated them so well! It’s fine if they don’t appreciate it but now they’re jumping out to create trouble. In my eyes, they actually don’t want Mount Hua Immortal Sect to rise up once more and hope it gets destroyed!”

Eggy was enraged.

After finishing his mission, he never took a step out of Mount Hua Immortal Sect after finding out Luo Tian had left.

Since the boss had left, he had to guard the boss’s property and the boss’s wives. Eggy did a very good job in deciding this himself.

In this period of time, many conflicts arose inside Mount Hua Immortal Sect. There were several times he couldn’t endure anymore. If it weren’t for Han Hua stopping him, he would’ve killed those irritating bastards already.

Han Hua knew that killing people wasn’t the solution.

She was very sure that there were forces from the ten great immortal sects that had infiltrated Mount Hua Immortal Sect. They were controlling certain people and made them constantly stir up trouble. This will make Mount Hua's fortune decrease and then the disciples would have thoughts of leaving.

This was quite a vicious move by them.

But Han Hua had no methods of solving the issue. She only knew that killing people will only result in more trouble, and this might be the goal of the ten great immortal sects. They were probably hoping for Eggy to kill as many people as possible and cause even greater chaos inside Mount Hua Immortal Sect. This would reach a boiling point where it would be impossible to stabilize their situation anymore.

Han Hua immediately said: "We can't act recklessly."

Eggy held his temper in and said: "Senior sister, are we just going to allow them to cause trouble and not do anything about it? Did you see how arrogant those guys were acting? They are practically acting no different to street hooligans! I've always seen them as eyesores so I might as well do something about it."

"Humph~!"

Those people were indeed going too far.

Han Hua was suffering from immeasurable pressure.

She was often humiliated by them as well.

They kept bringing up the past with Han Hai to insult her.

She endured everything because she wanted to hold onto this kingdom that Luo Tian took over. She wanted to preserve Mount Hua Immortal Sect because this was her lifelong wish. She was willing to silently endure even if she had to suffer more humiliation.

Leng Hanshuang asked: “Senior sister Han, what happened this time?”

Han Hua replied: “The Taming Hall, Forging Hall, and Array Hall – the three Hall Masters are requesting to leave the jurisdiction of Mount Hua Immortal Sect. In other words, they want to leave and join another immortal sect. What’s even more annoying is that they said they would stay if Luo Tian would abdicate and hand over Mount Hua’s main peak.”

“What the hell?!”

“Let me go destroy them right now!” Eggy couldn’t endure anymore.

The dragon might on his body soared into the sky before he shot off into the air towards Mount Hua’s main hall. He then roared out: “The three trash from the Taming Hall, Forging Hall, and the Array Hall, scam out here for this daddy!”

His voice shook the sky and the entire Mount Hua Immortal Sect heard it.

For a brief moment, Han Hua’s expression drastically changed. “We’re in trouble!”

Leng Hanshuang’s gaze turned fierce while asking: “What is it?”

Han Hua replied: “I just received news that the Imperial God Immortal Sect and the Starsea Immortal Sect each have a Profound God expert nearby Mount Hua Immortal Sect. They must be the masterminds behind the reason why the three hall masters are causing trouble. If Eggy confronts them at a time like this, I’m afraid...”

Leng Hanshuang immediately said: “Let’s head over there quickly!”

Their group of four quickly rushed over to the main hall.

In a remote valley nearby Mount Hua Immortal Sect, two elderly parties looked at each other with a cold grin. One of them smiled evilly and said: "You've finally appeared. And here I was, wondering how long you could endure for."

The other elderly person's eyes narrowed into a smile as he replied: "Dragon God's essence blood... Brother Zhou, looks like you and I are in luck this time. Hahaha..."

In an instant, two beams of light flashed by and landed on one of the peaks within Mount Hua Immortal Sect. Two pairs of eyes then coldly glanced at everything inside the sect.

"Achoo~!"

"Achoo~!"

Luo Tian sneezed several times in a row before saying: "Who's thinking about me? It can't be that something bad has happened to Mount Hua Immortal Sect, right?"

Chapter 679 Luo Tian Transforms Into A Boss

(T/N: Orc race will be changed to the Beastmen race since the author has never given a description of them. To the Chinese culture, orcs, beastmen, halflings are all the same so it's very difficult to figure it out.)

Luo Tian wasn't a God and couldn't predict things.

He had no clue such matters were happening in Mount Hua Immortal Sect.

Even though he had the companion system and Leng Hanshuang, Yun Ling, and Yun Yi had a special brand on them, the brand didn't send out any signals of danger to him. Therefore, Luo Tian had no idea what was happening.

Murong Bai, Niu Jingang, and now a Black Widow.

Any one of those three were awesome existence in their own right. They will definitely shine when the immortal sect competition comes around.

Luo Tian had invested a lot of effort into this year's immortal sect disciple competition.

Since they had to participate, then they had to crush all their opponents. This will make those ten great immortal sects who have been acting all high and mighty to have a good look. Whichever motherf*ckers dares to have ideas on Mount Hua Immortal Sect will be courting their own deaths!

Apart from this, Luo Tian's other goal was Murong Wanjian.

Murong Wanjian was a disciple of the Imperial God Immortal Sect. There was a chance that he might be participating in this competition. If he could kill Murong Wanjian there, then there would be no such thing as a wedding afterward.

He might be able to see Li Xue'er there too.

A girl that he has been dreaming of all this time.

Because of all these matters, Luo Tian gave himself a month's time. It doesn't matter if he can gather the talents he needs or not because in one month's time he will head back to Mount Hua Immortal Sect and prepare to enter the Floodplain World. He might even try out the location of the Geocentric Tower.

On this day, the four of them entered a remote city.

A small city inside the Wild Lands.

The structures inside the small city were very rough and the inhabitants of the city were mostly those of the Beastmen race.

The physiques of this race were strong like an ox and they were at least two meters tall. Most of them carried a large wooden club like the ones you would see in the primitive era. There are plenty of those cartoons depicting a man clubbing a girl they like before dragging them back to their caves.

When Luo Tian and the other three entered the city, many eyes were drawn to them.

It felt like the townspeople were staring at four rare species.

Luo Tian, Niu Jingang, and Black Widow didn't care about the looks they got.

It was only Murong Bai who cared about their gaze. Throughout their journey, he was like a defeated rooster in front of the King Rooster Luo Tian, always in low spirits. He was half-dead from taking so many metaphorical blows that he was hoping to reach a place with people.

A place where people will see how handsome and suave he really was.

Even though this city was small, there were plenty of women around and they happen to be human ones too.

Murong Bai's confidence immediately soared. The moment they entered the town, he hung a faint gentleman's smile on his face. He then whispered to Luo Tian: "You see that girl? She has been staring at me all this time. Yeah, that girl wearing white..."

"Humph~!"

"Luo Tian, now you know my charm is stronger than yours, right?"

Murong Bai had a triumphant look on his face.

His confidence had returned and he started strutting around domineeringly with a trace of idiocy.

Luo Tian joked about, "Yeah, it's stronger than mine."

Murong Bai then waved at a girl to the side and said: "That's of course! I have always been stronger than you. I am the world's most handsome Murong Bai, given the title of..."

Before he could finish, Luo Tian interrupted: "Titled the Little White Face." ¹

"Puff~..."

Black Widow burst out giggling and said in a coy voice: "Sire is truly not ordinary. Even the way you speak is filled with so much humor. This one is going to love you to death for sure. Sire, tonight I will warm your bed."

"Puff~..."

Murong Bai felt like his heart was blocked while his eyes turned lifeless. After sighing internally, he walked over to Niu Jingang and asked: "Ah Niu, tell me straight – are my charms stronger than Luo Tian or not?"

Niu Jingang's mouth had never stopped. Upon hearing Murong Bai's question, he looked up and answered in joy: "Eldest senior brother, this one said there will definitely be someone out there who will like you."

Murong Bai immediately laughed out loud before saying: "That's for sure! Ah Niu, I will bring you to the best restaurant later. You can eat whatever you want and I will pay for it!"

The way Niu Jingang spoke was a little slow and his reaction was a bit slow as well. He continued to finish his thoughts: "This one knows that those village girls will definitely like a man like you. What about it? Eldest senior brother, why are you suddenly treating me to a meal?"

Murong Bai almost fell to the ground. He glared at Niu Jingang and said: "Going to a restaurant? You can go eat a boulder!"

The people on the street were coming and going.

They hadn't even reached the end of the street and they had passed by many people. The moment Luo Tian and company entered the city, there was a slight pause in traffic before everything went back to normal.

From time to time, there would be someone passing by Murong Bai at a close range.

When he heard that Murong Bai wanted to treat Niu Jingang at a restaurant, Luo Tian said with a smile: "You still want to go to a restaurant? Go and take a look at what's been stolen. What do you have left apart from your underwear?"

"Stolen?"

"Who would dare steal my Murong Bai's belongings?"

"Who would have the courage..."

Before he finished speaking, Murong Bai's expression changed. "Damn it! My money pouch! My savings for over ten years were all in there! I was planning on using that money for my wedding! Who the hell has the guts to steal things from me?!"

Black Widow said with disdain: "How much savings could you have after ten plus years? Isn't it just money? Why would someone in your cultivation realm still use mortal things like money?"

Murong Bai turned around and said: "Hey big sister, do you know how hard it is to save some money within the Soul Hall? After many years in the Soul Hall, I managed to secretly save over one hundred taels of silver. I don't have anything other than that. Apart from basic cultivation resources, you can forget about divine artifacts, profound weapons, or medicinal pills. Even if you kill someone, the belongings you find on them need to be submitted. If they happen to find that you failed to submit it, your ending would be too tragic to talk about."

Heartache!

Extreme heartache!

One hundred taels of silver was equivalent to his life.

He would kill everyone in the city if he could!

Murong Bai was so angry that cracking sounds were coming from his teeth being clenched so hard. His flames of rage were soaring to the sky and just when he was about to explode, Luo Tian stopped him and said: "This little city is a bit weird. Let's go eat first. We will go look for the money that was stolen from you later."

He had a weird feeling the moment he entered the city.

The Beastmen race and the humans were getting along in harmony here.

This was rarely seen.

There wasn't a single incident of conflict between them, which was near impossible.

The Beastmen race from the Wild Lands were supposed to be very hostile towards humans.

The humans had been treating the Beastmen race as slaves, constantly buying and selling them. But no such conflicts were happening here and everything looked very normal. Everyone was actually looking at his group strangely...

Luo Tian was very familiar with this gaze because it was the same one he has when he sees a boss and wants to explode them.

It was obvious that the people inside this city were treating him like a boss. Previously, the thieves stealing money from Murong Bai was most likely a test. Luo Tian noticed the whole event but pretended he didn't see anything.

He wanted to know what these people were planning on doing.

"Since they are treating me like a boss, then I have to look like a boss." Luo Tian was laughing internally while his expression became arrogant and domineering. It was like he was about to win a game of mahjong by self-picking!

Chapter 680 Sire, Is This One Beautiful?

"Waiter, give me ten portions of your best food and wine!"

"Remember, I want ten portions!" Luo Tian yelled out as he walked into the restaurant. He was acting arrogant and domineering, just like a gangster would. He was just missing a gold chain weighing a few pounds hanging around his neck.

The waiter slightly hesitated as he asked: "Customer, can you finish such a large order?"

Luo Tian acted angry, "This daddy has money! Why do you care if this daddy can finish it or not?!"

After saying that, he pulled out a bunch of xuan stones from his spatial ring.

The waiter's eyes froze before he smiled apologetically, "I will go take care of it! It will be coming right up!"

Murong Bai looked at Luo Tian and said: "You know there's something strange with this city so why are you acting so arrogantly? Taking out so many xuan stones? Don't you know that you can't expose your wealth so casually like that?"

Niu Jingang chuckled and said: "Eldest senior brother, boss naturally has a reason for acting like this. Don't worry so much. Didn't you just lose a hundred or so taels of silver? Boss already said he was going to help you get it back so don't worry."

Black Widow's smile was like a flower, "Sire, you are so mighty!"

This voice...

Damn it!

Luo Tian couldn't help giving Black Widow's attractive body a glance from the corner of his eye. She was simply too hot, an absolute life stealer! From the moment she entered the city, all the men, including those Beastmen who didn't understand the art of flirting, were staring at her like their eyes were about to bulge out of their sockets. They just stared at her while killing intent surged out from their crotch area and drool dripped down. It looked like they wanted to pounce on her right then and there and tear off everything she had on.

It was truly a problem since she was wearing too little clothing.

Luo Tian brought out a xuan stone and said: "Little Bai, go out and buy her some clothes. The style of her current clothing is too high-profile."

Murong Bai took the xuan stone and his eyes froze for a bit. He then ran out like crazy and came back in less than a minute, holding a top-quality silk dress. He had an idiotic smile on his face while waving about a handful of silver.

Luo Tian handed the dress to Black Widow and said: "Change into it."

Black Widow didn't reject it.

In front of everyone, she slipped the black silk dress on and then suddenly tore at it.

“Riiip~!”

“Riiip~!”

She tore off the forearm area, the stomach area, and the thigh area.

Just like that, the dress was ripped up. But... she managed to make it even more seductive. Her twin peaks became even more captivating where you cannot really see but there's enough to make you want to see.

After the dress went through altering, it became a super short black mini-skirt. Just like those mini-skirts in Luo Tian's previous life that revealed a glimpse of a girl's butt. Her long white legs, her flawlessly thin waist, and her butt that was filled with endless evil temptation were all revealed. ¹

“Gulp~!”

“Gulp~!”

Too awesome! Way too awesome!

Awesome to an irresistible level!

Luo Tian didn't dare to look at her directly as his heart started beating faster. When he sat down on the chair, he had to cross his legs. The monster in his crotch wanted to release a killing intent and shoot straight up to support the sky. Luo Tian could barely hold on at this point.

Everyone in the restaurant, including the women, was staring at Black Widow.

All the men outside the door were staring inside at her.

The sound of people swallowing their saliva could be heard. There were even quite a few of them who had two long streams of blood come straight out of their nose and they were clueless about it.

One must mention that Black Widow was tall and extremely pretty. Every part of her body was filled with charm. She was like a stylish fashionista, a piece of clothing in her hand can be transformed into a weapon of seduction. Any type of clothes worn on her would make her even more captivating.

After fixing up her clothes, she directly laid her head on Luo Tian's shoulder and started drawing circles on his chest. She then said tenderly: "Sire, do you think I'm beautiful?"

"She's trying to take my life!"

Luo Tian's legs almost couldn't keep that monster down. His chest was burning hot and the evil flames inside his body felt like gasoline had been poured on. "I need to resist. I need to resist. I need to..."

"Very beautiful!" Luo Tian struggled to say those two words.

Murong Bai's eyes froze as he didn't even bother with looking at the silver in his hand anymore. Even someone obsessed with money could end up like this as well. One can see how strong the seductive powers were oozing from Black Widow. Suddenly, two streams of blood flowed down from Murong Bai's nose.

At this time, a Beastman outside the restaurant with a big rod roared out: "This daddy can't resist anymore! That woman is mine!"

After saying those words, he was like a wild bull charging inside the restaurant.

The big rod in his hands was smashing straight for Luo Tian.

In an instant, Jingang made his move. The moment that Beastmen struck, Jingang's body shifted to the side and a fist punched out.

“Boom~!”

“Bang~, bang~, bang~...”

The Beastmen weighing a few hundred jins was blasted out several streets away. He finally smashed into the city wall and collapsed a portion of it.

Jingang hadn't used his full strength yet.

If he had used his full strength, that beastmen would have flown all the way to the ninth heaven.

Niu Jingang was like a warrior death god standing there. He swept his gaze through the surroundings and said: “Who else dares to touch my boss? This daddy will play him to death instantly!”

Domineering and overbearing!

However, everyone stood up and their gaze had clearly changed as they all revealed killing intent.

Murong Bai was too lazy to wipe away his nosebleed as his countenance turned serious. He looked around and sneered: “It looks like this city is truly not simple. It's almost like we unknowingly entered a bandit's nest.”

“Humph~!”

“You four can forget about escaping.”

“Fellow brothers, attack together!”

“Kill the men, and we will enjoy the woman together afterwards!”

“Hahaha...”

Everyone pulled out their weapons and roared out loudly.

For a brief moment, the normal people had disappeared from the streets and the restaurant was surrounded airtight. There were at least ten thousand people here!

Luo Tian’s mouth formed a sneer and said to himself: “Looks like I can get all four divine beast bloodlines after this.”

Niu Jingang clenched his fists and the aura around him surged out like flames. He had a serious expression on his face while blocking in front of Luo Tian. His domineering aura basically told people that if they dared to attack his boss, he would kill them all without mercy.

Murong Bai brought out his sword and the domineering aura of a Profound God 3rd ranker was released.

Black Widow had a cold smile on her face while she brought out a whip from an unknown place that looked like a living snake. The whip was moving about on its own and was emitting a sound like a rattlesnake, causing a chill in the hearts of the surrounding people.

Swords were drawn inside the restaurant as the two groups confronted each other.

The strangest thing was that after Niu Jingang, Murong Bai, and Black Widow revealed their explosive Profound God auras, no one showed any fear whatsoever. Their faces showed that they didn’t care at all like they had something to rely on.

Why was that?

Luo Tian whispered: “Be careful...”

“Clank~!”

“Clank~!”

“Clank~, clank~, clank~...”

“Boom~!”

A series of strange sounds were heard and the ground started shaking.

In an instant, the people inside the restaurant receded like the tide. The three-story restaurant transformed into a giant robot, and the lobby of the restaurant changed into a cage. The four of them were instantly trapped inside!

Luo Tian was stunned, “What a brilliant puppetry skill!”
