Chapter 711: Sire, This One Is Prepared

The second day was the same as the first.

Blade River King was already guarding the place where Luo Tian would appear.

It was even more fierce this time!

Before Luo Tian could even stand properly, a shocking blade qi already chopped over.

“Shadow Clone, Flashback!”

“Whoosh~...”

Luo Tian dodged the attack and immediately cast Magic Charm, “Heavenly Temptation!”

“Bzzzt~, bzzzt~...”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for your successful summon!”

“Hahaha...”

“So it’s really like that!” Luo Tian almost laughed himself to death. It was exactly how he guessed it where Blade River King was unable to block Magic Charm. It was a 100% success rate each time! This was simply too awesome!

“Little dude...”

“You think this big brother can’t kill you?”

Immediately after, Luo Tian was bombarding Blade River King with a frenzy of attacks. He had raised his powers to the limit and kept striking in succession. The combo attacks kept stacking on top of each other over and over again.

Crazy!

Blade River King was feeling depressed.

He was extremely depressed but he couldn’t reveal it. He still had a cute silly look on his face. Luo Tian was beating him up and it was very painful, but he couldn’t resist it nor had the ability to.

The most damning thing was that Luo Tian would leave after attacking him for an hour. Then, he would become a miserable slave for Luo Tian for three hours and search all over the Floodplain World for demonic beasts to kill. Currently, Luo Tian was only missing a tiny bit of experience points to reach the Profound God 6th rank.

This was like someone eating hot pot and singing songs, and would suddenly level up out of the blue.

This was too relaxing!

Even in his dreams, Luo Tian never imagined such a good thing would fall on his head. This was basically too awesome!

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

“Humph~!”

“The time is up for the day so this big brother will let you off for now. After this big brother leaves, you need to obediently kill a bunch of demonic beasts, or else you will suffer tomorrow. Hahaha...”

Once the time is up, Luo Tian would immediately choose to leave.

He managed to deplete a little more than a hundred million health points once more.

The current Blade River King had about 1.7 billion health, so another ten plus days will take care of the job.

There were only sixteen days until the immortal sect disciple competition. If there were no accidents during the period, Luo Tian should be able to kill it by then.

“Omm~!”

Luo Tian returned to his secret chamber.

The third day.

“Hey, this big brother is here again!” Luo Tian revealed a mocking smile.

Blade River King was instantly enraged. Back then, he would release a single blade qi but now, the surrounding tens of thousands of kilometers were filled with his blade qis. Luo Tian used his Flashback like usual and then cast Heavenly Temptation.

One must mention that Luo Tian’s series of movements had reached an indescribable level.

If he didn't have such speeds, Luo Tian most likely wouldn't be able to avoid the attacks.

Blade River King became charmed once more.

"F*cking hell, you trying to kill this daddy?!"

"Lie down for me!" Luo Tian made a thought and ordered Blade River King to lie down. Although Blade River King was reluctant and he was going crazy internally, he still couldn't stop the power of Heavenly Temptation from controlling it.

He obediently lay down on the ground.

Blade River King couldn't speak or else Luo Tian would make it kneel down and sing the Conquered song.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"..."

Another round of wild blasting and smashing.

Luo Tian didn't hold back. He understood that if he didn't kill Blade River King, the guy will murder him at any given chance. He was a super boss, and there was no way Luo Tian would be able to live up to his own conscience if he didn't kill it.

The fourth day, another round of smashing.

The fifth day, another round of explosions.

The tenth day, still another round of wild blasting and smashing.

Luo Tian wasn't worried about his profound energy.

The reason was that once he left the Floodplain World, Blade River King would bitterly go around looking for demonic beasts to kill. Three hours was enough to replenish all the profound energy he had used up. One can say that Blade River King was Luo Tian's walking killing tool.

No one would have imagined that an incomparably fierce boss like this had been reduced to such a state.

The more Luo Tian abused it, the angrier it got. Blade River King had no thoughts of running away and would guard the location that Luo Tian would appear. He wanted revenge. Even in his dreams, he wanted revenge. But each time Luo Tian cast Magic Charm, he would become Luo Tian's summoned pet. This was too miserable!

The thirteenth day.

Mount Hua Immortal Sect.

There were only three days left until the immortal sect disciple competition.

Mount Hua's main hall.

Han Hua had a worried look on her face. These days, the fortune of Mount Hua Immortal Sect has basically fallen to its lowest point. There was only a tiny bit left. The current Mount Hua Immortal Sect didn't have enough immortal force for their disciples to cultivate.

Disciples can only cultivate with the use of inner cores, but this wasn't a long-term solution.

After experiencing the past events, the hearts of the Mount Hua disciples became more stable. No one spoke about wanting to leave and they had actually become more united and cohesive. This was definitely related to what Luo Tian had done for them.

Inside the main hall.

Han Hua looked at Luo Tian and said: "Sect Leader, there are only three days left and we are still missing two disciples to make up the ten great disciples. I selected a few from the Martial Hall whose bloodlines and talents aren't too bad."

Luo Tian replied: "Senior sister, I've already made plans for selecting the needed disciples so you don't have to worry about it."

"Are there any movements from the ten great immortal sects?"

This was what Luo Tian wanted to know the most.

Han Hua replied: "On the surface, the ten great immortal sects seem to be very calm. In reality, they've already prepared everything at the South Heavenly Gate and they are just waiting for us to enter. They are all targeting you in this year's immortal sect disciple competition. I think it's too dangerous, so why don't we..."

"We're still going!"

"We have to go. The more they want to target me, the more I want to go."

Luo Tian knew what Han Hua wanted to say.

Han Hua was very clear on the reason why the karmic fortune was at its lowest point. The only reason there was still a bit of immortal force around is because their time wasn't fully up yet. The day of the immortal sect disciple competition could very well be the day Mount Hua Immortal Sect is destroyed.

Luo Tian understood that too.

There was still a tiny bit of fortune around because it was waiting for him to create a miracle.

Luo Tian believed that things could still be turned around!

Han Hua frowned but didn't say anything.

Luo Tian looked at another area and said: "The time has come for you guys to take the stage. The time has come for you guys to amaze the world with a single feat. The time has come for the Tianxuan Continent to know that Mount Hua Immortal Sect is back. Are you guys prepared for that?"

Eggy was the first to respond: "Boss, don't worry about it. This one was ready a long time ago."

Jingang grinned foolishly, "This one can kill an expert at the Profound God 5th rank."

Murong Bai revealed a smile that he thought was perfect, "You don't have to worry with this big brother here."

Yun Ling and Yun Yi said in unison: "We are also ready, hee hee..."

Leng Hanshuang added: "Me too!"

The last one was Blade Widow. She gently shook her breasts and caused them to bounce up and down. Her eyes then gave off an intense charm as she said: "Sire, this one has been ready for you a long time ago. You can come to my room any time."

I'm going to throw up blood!

That voice is going to take this old life of mine!

Luo Tian didn't dare to look at her anymore. He gave a slight cough trying to cover his impulsive temptations before saying: "Looks like we're all prepared now. Today, I will finish off that guy!"

Chapter 712: The Berserk Blade River King

Everyone was prepared.

The only one left was him.

Luo Tian felt like he was dragging his feet a bit.

The only thing he could blame was that Blade River King's health was too high.

But Luo Tian still managed to deplete most of it.

After ten plus days of wearing it down, Blade River King only had a little more than ten million health points. Luo Tian planned on bringing that number down to a few hundred points but found out that plan wasn't feasible. The reason was that Blade River King would regenerate about ten million health per day.

"Your granny, I will definitely kill you today!" Luo Tian made up his mind.

There were only three days left. If he couldn't kill Blade River King today, his plans will be severely disrupted.

He will get rid of Blade River King today.

Then, he'd go back to the Tianxuan Continent and forge the weapons that Yun Ling and the others needed.

He would then go to Dark North City and go to the Soul Refining Dungeon to look for those old devils. He would randomly pick two of them and bring them to South Heavenly Gate to participate in the competition. Luo Tian had calculated everything precisely.

“Ding!”

“Do you wish to enter the Floodplain World?”

“Yes!” Luo Tian made a thought and entered the Floodplain World once more.

Everything before his eyes turned dark before there was a flash.

Luo Tian landed on a cliff and immediately yelled: “Blade River King! Scram out here for this daddy!”

At this time, Luo Tian sent out his senses and became careful.

Blade River King was getting craftier each time.

After being played around by Luo Tian for so many times, Blade River King no longer showed his anger. He became much more devious and started hiding to launch dirty attacks, but he kept losing out when facing Luo Tian.

No matter how high the intelligence of a demonic beast, there’s no way it would be Luo Tian’s opponent.

Not to mention that most people wouldn’t be Luo Tian’s opponent when it came to dirty tricks.

When it came to playing dirty, Luo Tian could play circles around Blade River King.

But it was different today.

Luo Tian checked around his surroundings and found everything normal. He couldn't detect Blade River King's aura at all. "Everything looking normal means there's something abnormal going on. That guy must be hiding somewhere trying to scheme against this daddy. That's definitely it."

The more it was like this, the more careful Luo Tian became.

He deliberately showed a relaxed expression on the cliff and even started singing loudly. "You are my little little butt... uhh... little apple. My love for you is not enough..."

He sang several verses and didn't get any reactions.

"This daddy will open a concert today."

"I'm going to play him to death!"

A full twenty minutes went by. Luo Tian sang all the songs he could think of and was almost about to sing Conquered.

At this time, Luo Tian found that things didn't seem right. His mind sank as he said to himself: "Damn it, that guy wouldn't have run away, right? F*ck..."

Upon thinking up to this point, Luo Tian's expression drastically changed. He then started cursing: "Blade River King! You are too despicable! Too sinister! You're playing the missing game with this daddy at a time like this?! Do you still consider yourself a f*cking demonic beast?! You're only slightly more intelligent than a damn monkey!"

Luo Tian was acting like he had been conned.

Blade River King should only have a little more than ten million health points left.

A few Heavenly Flames should be able to take care of it. Its intelligence seems to be rather high for it to play missing at such a time.

Luo Tian started getting anxious.

He can recover ten million health in a day. If he couldn't find him with the remaining time, he will have twenty million health points tomorrow. The most important point will be that Luo Tian's plans will be disrupted.

Luo Tian made so many calculations but there was still a slip up on his plans.

He never expected Blade River King to become especially intelligent at a critical juncture and hid himself.

The Floodplain World was endless to the eye.

Luo Tian didn't know how big this world was. A super boss like Blade River King would fly tens to hundreds of kilometers in a single day. How was Luo Tian supposed to find him if he hides far away?

Too difficult!

"I..."

Luo Tian felt like he was being played with. He was naturally unhappy and scolded: "You want to play with intelligence with this daddy? This daddy will play you to death!"

Immediately after, Luo Tian cast Teleport.

He was restricted by the spatial laws of the Floodplain World. So, Luo Tian decided to use Teleport knowing he wouldn't be teleported out of the world, making him randomly appear within the world.

"Whoosh~!"

Luo Tian disappeared and reappeared in a thick forest.

“Grim Reaper’s path of slaughter!”

“Come out for this daddy! I very rarely use you for battles but now it’s your turn. You better find that Blade River King for me or else you can forget about coming out forever.” Luo Tian said with a belly full of anger.

“Ommm~!”

The Grim Reaper’s phantom image climbed ten thousand meters into the sky before standing in mid-air.

In an instant, countless black shadows flew out from its body. They were like ghosts from hell that flew about frantically searching.

Half a minute passed by and nothing was found in a radius of a million kilometers.

Luo Tian clenched his teeth and used another Teleport. He arrived at a new place and used his Grim Reaper’s phantom image to search once more. Blade River King was heavily injured so its aura shouldn’t be as strong as when they first met.

That guy should be very upset.

No matter if it was momentum or strength, it should have been greatly reduced.

It was impossible for it to completely hide its aura when it was injured. Luo Tian was using his Grim Reaper’s path of slaughter to search so as long as it was within range, its hiding place would be found.

“Still nothing!”

“Teleport!”

“Nothing again...”

“One more time!”

He continuously used Teleport. As time passed by, Luo Tian still couldn't find the whereabouts of Blade River King. He became very annoyed as he saw that his time in this world was about to run out. Even if he found Blade River King right now, there wouldn't be enough time to kill it.

“Damn it!”

Luo Tian was pissed to the extreme. “Don't let me find you or else I will beat you until your shit comes out! Goddamn, I'm so annoyed!”

“I only have five minutes left!”

Luo Tian's brows furrowed as he prayed: “I can only use my trump card now.”

“Teacher Sola Aoi, please bless me!”

“Teleport!”

“Boom~!”

Luo Tian's position changed as he arrived at a place he hadn't explored before. The surrounding was like a stone forest filled with stones of all different shapes and sizes. There weren't any places a demonic beast could hide at but to prevent any mishaps, Luo Tian planned on releasing his grim reaper's path of slaughter.

“Ommm~...”

Before Luo Tian could release his path of slaughter, he felt a faint movement coming from under his feet. An extremely vigorous power was coming from below him. Luo Tian lowered his head to look and his expression suddenly changed.

“Blade... Blade River King...”

Blade River King popped out of the ground and Luo Tian ended up standing on top of its head. Blade River King’s eyes were glaring at Luo Tian with a vicious look.

At this time, shocking amounts of blade qi covered the surrounding million kilometers.

The world looked like it was about to break apart!

The sky turned gloomy and Luo Tian felt a powerful force crush against his mind.

At this time, Blade River King entered a berserk state when he only had about ten million health left. His power had doubled and killing Luo Tian could be done in an instant.

“Damn it!”

“Teacher Sola Aoi, do you really need to be that precise?” Luo Tian’s face paled as he only had two paths to take.

Chapter 713: Blade River King, Explode For Me!

There were only two paths to take in front of Luo Tian.

He could use Mount Hua progenitor’s life-saving talisman to block Blade River King’s attack. He would then cast a Heavenly Flame and then use Shadow Shift to avoid the next attack. Then use another Heavenly Flame to kill him.

Blade River King will die beyond a doubt.

The second path was to immediately activate the system to teleport back to Mount Hua.

He could only kill Blade River King the next time.

There were only two choices.

This was a very difficult choice. Once he leaves, coming back to kill Blade River King in time will be a big problem. If he stays, the old ancestor's life-saving talisman will be gone. Luo Tian didn't know what kind of super experts he would encounter in the immortal sect disciple competition.

What should he do if a supreme expert at the Profound God Sovereign realm appears?

Luo Tian was experiencing a complicated emotion.

But he was a very decisive person so he activated the system without further hesitation, "Go back!"

As long as Blade River King is still inside the Floodplain World, Luo Tian will still have a chance to kill it. There was only one use of the old ancestor's life-saving talisman and it will be gone once he uses it. Since he was given such a life-saving talisman, there will be a time in his life when he needs it. Luo Tian decided he could only use it at the most critical time and maximize its usage.

"You just wait for me!"

"This daddy will be back!"

Luo Tian's figure started disappearing...

“Ding!”

“Target locked!”

When Luo Tian’s vision turned dark, he didn’t care anymore and shouted: “Purifying Lotus Demon Flame! Smash for me!”

No matter what, Luo Tian wanted to give that guy a last second canon blast. He was too lazy to care whether the attack was a hit or miss.

“Ommm~!”

Luo Tian returned to his secret chamber. There was some cold sweat on his forehead and he was in a rather wretched state. His eyes were looking off into the distance while his brows were furrowed. A short moment later, the corners of his mouth curved into a smile. “Looks like my attack landed. The damage of the Purifying Lotus Demon Flame is five million points. Even if Blade River King can slowly regain his health, it shouldn’t be too much and I can still blast him to death tomorrow.”

The only reason such an incident happened was that Luo Tian wasn’t prepared.

He had used Teleport dozens of times and couldn’t find that guy. Who would’ve imagined that using Teacher Sola Aoi once and he would get there? And it was right on top of his head. Wasn’t this basically courting death?

Moreover, Blade River King was in a berserk mode so his powers were much stronger.

One day later, the berserk state should have disappeared. Luo Tian will only need a few seconds to prepare and he could undoubtedly kill that guy.

“Fuuu~ ...”

“What a tough time. I’ve played dozens of online games in my previous life and have never encountered such a difficult boss.” Luo Tian grumbled to himself. This was probably the most embarrassing situation he has encountered after a month inside the Floodplain World. He didn’t even get a single experience point.

And he almost lost his life.

Luo Tian became angry once more from thinking about it.

Inside the secret chamber, Luo Tian wasn’t in a rush to leave. He sat down cross-legged and closed his eyes. This was the same position that cultivators of this world would do when they trained. But he wasn’t cultivating because he couldn’t cultivate the normal way due to his shattered dantian. He was actually thinking about everything that happened today.

Blade River King had become a sneaky individual.

Would he hide again the next time Luo Tian enters the world?

Luo Tian was in deep thought.

Today’s events were absolutely not allowed to happen again. He can fail once but absolutely cannot fail a second time.

“You want to play schemes and plots with this daddy? This daddy will play you to death with it!” Luo Tian faintly shouted.

“Except, my time is kind of tight.”

His plans had been disrupted.

But no matter what, Luo Tian had to explode Blade River King, or else he wouldn’t be able to sleep at night! Even though he rarely sleeps nowadays...

The next day.

When the time was ready, Luo Tian wasn't in a rush as he steadily stood up. He exhaled a breath of air and a faint smile formed on his mouth. "If I don't manage to kill you today, this daddy will follow your surname!"

Luo Tian touched the Xumi Ring.

"Ding!"

"Do you wish to enter the Floodplain World?"

"Yes!"

"Countdown timer will begin now..."

Everything turned dark with Luo Tian's vision and he suddenly yelled out internally: "Level 9 Berserk!"

"Azure Dragon, Vermillion Bird, and Black Tortoise bloodlines come out for me!"

"Nine Dragons and Elephants, come out..."

Luo Tian released all his powers at once.

A blinding light appeared.

The moment Luo Tian appeared in the Floodplain World, he already yelled out without hesitation: "Shadow Clone, Flashback!"

He used the Flashback skill before his feet even touched the ground.

Was this move too hasty?

The moment Luo Tian's figure appeared in the Floodplain World, a shockingly powerful blade qi chopped down. It didn't give Luo Tian any time to react! The speed was so fast that normal people wouldn't be able to react in time!

Blade River King!

That boss had made his own calculations!

It had a smug and arrogant expression on its face. It was like he was saying: "Kid, let's see if you're going to die or not this time!"

Blade River King's intelligence was unusually high.

When he hid away yesterday, Luo Tian took half a day before he could find him.

Now, he suddenly guarded the place where Luo Tian was going to descend. He planned on instantly killing Luo Tian before Luo Tian could even touch the ground. This was a super treacherous move where normal people would be played to death by Blade River King. Just when Blade River King was acting smug...

He realized Luo Tian's figure had disappeared.

"Boom~!"

The blade qi's descent created a huge crater on the ground. The damage extended for tens of thousands of kilometers out and looked like a piece of the world had been carved out.

But Luo Tian's figure had disappeared from his position already.

"Motherf*cker!"

"You want to play intelligence with this daddy? This daddy can play you to death!" Luo Tian viciously grinned. He already knew Blade River King would make such a move. Luo Tian knew that Blade River King's desire to kill him was probably ten thousand times stronger than him wanting to explode Blade River King.

Most likely it had the desire to rip Luo Tian's body into thousands of little tiny pieces!

It hid itself yesterday in order to pull off today's treacherous move!

Maybe it deliberately hid in a location that Luo Tian would be able to find him only at a certain time.

One must mention that this was a rather insidious move by Blade River King.

However, Luo Tian was even more sinister. He already assumed there would be a sneak attack so he was fully prepared before entering the Floodplain World. Blade River King became dumbstruck by this.

Its eyes were wide with a frozen expression on its face.

"Ding!"

"Target locked!"

"Heavenly Flame, Green Lotus Core Flame! Go and smash all 18 generations of his ancestors for me!" Luo Tian didn't hesitate to attack with his heavenly flame once he dodged Blade River King's attack. He wasn't going to give Blade River King any chance to catch his breath.

"Boom~!"

“Heavenly Flame, Purifying Lotus Demon Flame!”

“Bomb your motherf*cking ass to death!”

The second Heavenly Flame was released right after. A flame beyond the heavens smashed into Blade River King and his health bar bottomed out.

But he still wasn't dead yet!

Luo Tian had calculated his health points accurately.

Two Heavenly Flames had smashed Blade River King backward. Luo Tian sneered before shouting:
“Shadewind Steps, Breaking Moon!”

The Seven Moon Divine Sword was summoned out as well.

Luo Tian leaped up and his three meter plus long giant sword directly chopped down onto Blade River King's head. “All my power, come out for me! Give me a big explosion!”

“Boom~!”

Blade River King's body was split into two halves

At this time, the system gave off an alert.

“Ding!”

Chapter 714: Shocking Heaven Slash

Right after the sword chopped down, Luo Tian heard the system give off an alert tone.

He finally relaxed and said to himself: "I've finally exploded it!"

At this time, Luo Tian looked like an obedient elementary school kid listening in class. His eyes were calmly looking off into a certain direction while he waited for the most beautiful sound in this world.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Blade River King. You have gained 5,000,000,000 experience points, 50,000,000 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a large number of bones from Blade River King."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Blade River King's bloodline. Do you wish to fuse with it?"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the god skill Shocking Heaven Slash. Do you wish to cultivate it?"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a Blade River King Armor."

"..."

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. You are currently at the Profound God 7th rank!"

A big explosion!

An absolutely huge loot explosion!

When he heard the first alert tone, Luo Tian counted the string of numbers three times before becoming dumbstruck. "Five billion experience points! This... is too f*cking crazy!"

His skeletal bones exploded out.

His bloodline exploded out.

Even a god skill exploded out!

Luo Tian instantly became ecstatic as he opened up the system interface to look.

Item: Shocking Heaven Slash

Grade: God skill

Cool down: One hour

Consumption: 100 million profound energy

Description: This skill is especially domineering so the user must use extra caution when using. With a single slash, ghosts and spirits will panic, penetrate through the underworld, and break the nine heavens!

"Ding!"

"Do you wish to cultivate it?"

The system gave another alert tone.

When Luo Tian saw the description, he immediately said in shock: “Cultivate it! Immediately cultivate it!”

Was there even any need to think about such a skill?

Of course, he was going to learn it.

What Luo Tian loved the most were these domineering things. A single blade chopping down and not to mention exploding your shit, it could even cause the 18 generations of your ancestors in the underworld to panic. Now, this was the definition of domineering!

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for learning Shocking Heaven Slash!”

A new skill immediately appeared in Luo Tian’s skill tab.

Luo Tian revealed a grin as he used his sword as a saber, “Shocking Heaven Slash!”

“Ommm~!”

Before the skill fully came out, the sky darkened and the light in the world looked like it had been drained. It looked like some power was devouring it or something.

“Boom~!” The sound of thunder was heard in the sky.

Luo Tian’s arm was shaking like crazy as it couldn’t withstand the power. He had no choice but to use both hands to stabilize the sword. He clenched both hands and his whole body started shaking as a burst of power exploded out from inside him.

At this moment, ten million profound energy was consumed.

Power like thunder, the sea, and a mountain. It was incomparably heavy and vigorous!

Luo Tian's entire body was shaking.

He was shaking from excitement.

All this happened in just a tenth of a second. His hands were tightly gripping onto the Seven Moon Divine Sword as the sword almost couldn't withstand the power of the Shocking Heaven Slash. The sword started giving off a ringing sound like it was crying out in pain. "Holy shit, the Seven Moon Divine Sword is an ancient grade divine weapon! In the Tianxuan continent, it's definitely considered a super divine weapon. But even it can't handle the power of the blade qi? This is a bit too exaggerated, right?"

"Ommm~, ommm~, ommm~..."

Blade qi!

It surged into the sky and shattered the clouds away. It was forming something like a vortex that reached past each layer of the sky. It was unusually powerful like it was really breaking through all nine heavens!

"Awesome!"

"Too awesome! Awesome to the point that it can't get any more awesome!"

Luo Tian shouted while his blood boiled, "What's called domineering? This is called domineering! This is formidable to a complete mess!"

"Crack~, boom~!"

Lightning arced through the sky.

Luo Tian lifted his hands up before chopping down with the Seven Moon Divine Sword.

“Crack~, crack~, crack~...”

“Boom~!”

The sword slashed down.

The blade aura covering the sky collapsed into each other. Following Luo Tian’s thought, it came down as he made a chopping motion. Luo Tian instantly had a feeling of tremendous power inside his heart like his blade qi was capable of chopping a Profound God Sovereign apart!

He had that feeling because the attack power of this move gave him a sense of overwhelming strength!

Strength so powerful that it couldn’t be described with words.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

The ground collapsed and the sky sounded like it was groaning. All the creatures in the surroundings felt like Luo Tian’s slash was aiming for them. They instantly felt like they were transported to the nine levels of hell, extremely gloomy and terrifying to the extreme.

A single slash!

Ghosts and spirits will panic!

Penetrate through the underworld!

Breaks the nine heavens!

This single slash was fully described by those words.

The ground cracked apart into a 10,000-meter deep fissure. The fissure was bottomless and kept emitting black smoke. It was as if black flames of power were emerging from the depths of hell.

Luo Tian was dumbstruck!

He has seen powerful martial skills before but never this strong and this heaven-defying.

This was too crazy!

As expected from Blade River King, a super boss with two billion health points.

“Gulp~!”

Luo Tian swallowed down his saliva. His face had a horrified look when he witnessed the destruction in front of him. The gums around his teeth and the web of his hands were bleeding. His arms were numb and his mind felt like it had been flipped upside down.

He was completely shocked by that power!

“Clang~!”

The Seven Moon Divine Sword fell down because his hands couldn't hold on anymore.

Luo Tian looked at his trembling hands. He wasn't afraid but was actually excited. He was even more excited than seeing a dozen naked beautiful girls! "I actually cannot fully control the power even though I'm already in the Profound God 7th rank."

"So formidable!"

"So awesome!"

Luo Tian's excitement had already reached an indescribable level.

What he wanted to do right now was to go to that South Heavenly Gate and f*ck the crap out of all ten great immortal sects by himself.

The power behind Shocking Heaven Slash gave him an unprecedented thrill!

Of course, this was just the false confidence given to him by Shocking Heaven Slash. How strong were the ten great immortal sects? How many experts did they have? A single person's strength consisting of only Luo Tian wasn't enough. And behind every one of the ten great immortal sects was a supreme expert at the Profound God Sovereign realm.

But Luo Tian still showed no fear knowing this. He laughed crazily before shouting: "South Heavenly Gate, just wait for this big brother!"

Immediately after, Luo Tian chose to leave the Floodplain World.

He had many things he hadn't done yet.

He had to quickly forge weapons for Yun Ling and the others, and then go to Dark North City.

Chapter 715: Its Name Is Annihilate

Inside the secret chamber, the fire from the furnace was soaring into the sky.

The secret chamber felt like one big furnace and all the fire was within Luo Tian's control.

At this time, Luo Tian closed his eyes as he entered a state of unity between man and heaven.

One hand was controlling the flames over the furnace.

The other hand was controlling the bones of Blade River King.

When he felt a movement from the spirit of heaven and earth, Luo Tian threw in the bones of Blade River King without any hesitation. He sent in his spiritual sense and formed an outline of the profound weapon he was forging.

Murong Bai's long sword!

It was a sword that was white like an ivory tusk.

With Murong Bai's narcissistic looks and the white clothes he always wears, he will definitely go crazy if he sees this white sword.

Yun Ling and Yun Yi's twin battle hammers.

The appearance will have to be domineering!

The hammers will have to contain the power of thunder.

The twin sisters Yun Ling and Yun Yi were ten thousand times tougher than those masculine women when they got angry. That's why their battle hammers had to be extremely domineering with a feminine touch.

Black Widow's spiritual whip will be made from the spine of Blade River King. The spine was like a whip formed by nature. As long as you sanded it down, its flexibility will increase greatly. And with the essence blood of Blade River King incorporated inside, the whip will definitely become a super powerful weapon.

Leng Hanshuang also uses the sword.

Her sword should match her appearance, just like the icy cold feeling that Luo Tian felt when he first met her.

Therefore, Luo Tian kept recalling the scene when the two first met when he was forging her weapon. That extremely cold look, the eyes that disregarded and disdained everything, those images were all melded into the forging process.

Luo Tian then used his own body's water elements to fuse with the forging.

Leng Hanshuang was an iceberg.

But in his arms, she will turn into a puddle of water!

The hardest weapon to forge was Jingang's gloves because he was stumped in the manufacturing process.

Luo Tian wasn't familiar with the attributes and the imagery of glove weapons. Because of this, he left the gloves to be forged last. He was thinking for a full hour about the movies and all the main characters he had seen in his previous life.

Jingang was very strong. Luo Tian had to forge a pair of gloves that allowed him to become even stronger with his fists!

After thinking for so long, Luo Tian thought of the fleshy yellow hands of Blitzcrank from the League of Legends.

Those were two super large fists!

Immediately after, Luo Tian started the forging process in a flurry. Those gloves will definitely make people's blood boil when they are revealed. With Jingang's overbearing appearance, he probably wouldn't even have to fight and will make his opponents piss from fright the moment he puts those gloves on.

He had finished forging everything for his companions!

In the end, there was still a large piece of bone remaining from Blade River King.

A piece of bone that was the toughest and the hardest to forge with.

Luo Tian's Forging skill had reached the last great perfection realm, but Blade River King was a demonic beast from another world and its ranking was higher than Tianxuan Continent's categorization. It was also an existence at the super boss level so its skeletal bones were especially difficult to work with.

The strongest part was its skull, making the process even more difficult.

Blade River King's skull was very large.

It wasn't a problem to make a dozen weapons from it but Luo Tian only wanted to forge one.

A blade that belonged to him!

A blade that could perfectly unleash the powers of Shocking Heaven Slash.

Moreover, he wanted to fuse some critical strike gems into it. He currently had three of them on him and had always wanted to forge a blade with the critical strike ability. He hadn't been able to find any materials that suited him but he finally had it now.

"Fuuu~..."

"Fuuu~..."

Luo Tian exhaled twice, his brows relaxed and his eyes became calmer.

Immediately after, the furnace fire surged when Luo Tian used up ten million profound energy. The furnace fire seemed to have exploded as it directly became colorless. Luo Tian extended his left hand and drew in the strongest part of Blade River King's skeleton into the furnace, the skull!

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Sounds of explosion kept coming from the furnace, followed by the wailing of Blade River King's soul. It was as if his soul was still being grilled by the furnace's fire and was struggling to escape, but Luo Tian was holding it back.

"Crack~!"

"Crack~!"

"Crack~!"

Luo Tian's left hand acted like a blade as it reached into the furnace and started chipping apart the skull bone.

Ten minutes passed by.

The outline of a blade was starting to reveal itself.

It was a huge blade!

The shape was brutal and grand, unforgettable at first glance!

People will automatically think of a single word – domineering!

Another half an hour passed.

Luo Tian was frantically quenching the material and using his hand as a hammer. Under the constant smashing, the soul of Blade River King who was struggling to escape had been incorporated back into the material. The moment the blade was about to be formed, Luo Tian made a thought: "Ten million points of profound energy!"

"Release!"

He used up another large amount of profound energy all at once again.

"Boom~!"

The fire from the furnace surged into the sky.

At this moment, Luo Tian threw in three critical strike gems into the furnace. He sent his spiritual sense into the flames and turned the gems into liquid form. Suddenly, a huge projection appeared behind Luo Tian's back.

This was the Grim Reaper's phantom image!

Right after that was the Azure Dragon's phantom image.

Then the Vermillion Bird's phantom image.

Then the Black Tortoise's phantom image.

Four powerful forces were all released by Luo Tian.

The Grim Reaper's path of slaughter had entered inside.

The powers of the Azure Dragon, Vermillion Bird, the Black Tortoise, and three critical strike gems entered the blade. A loud explosion was suddenly heard coming from the secret chamber.

"Boom~!"

The sound shook the sky!

The expression of everyone outside the secret chamber drastically changed.

"Boss!"

"Sect Leader..."

"Sire!"

Their hearts felt like they had risen to their throats.

They were all called here by Han Hua in the beginning, something about Luo Tian needing to pass some words to them. But they didn't see Luo Tian come out and only heard a loud explosion come from inside the secret chamber. Now the entire Mount Hua Immortal Sect was shaking from the explosion.

"Nothing bad happened, right?"

"Boss, please don't scare us."

"Sire..."

Everyone started getting worried.

"Hahaha..."

The door to the secret chamber suddenly opened and Luo Tian's laughter could be heard. "Success! Success! Who would've thought that I would have actually succeeded?! I'm simply a one in a million talent, hahaha..."

Everyone relaxed when they saw that Luo Tian was fine.

When Luo Tian walked out, he directly threw the Seven Moon Divine Sword to Eggy and said: "You can eat this now."

Eggy was stunned and couldn't believe what he was seeing and hearing.

"Little Whitey White, this is your White Feather Sword."

“Yun Ling, Yun Yi, this is your Fairy’s War Hammer.”

“Black Widow, here’s your Spirit Dragon Whip.”

“Jingang, you get a pair of Iron Blood Gloves.”

“Leng Hanshuang, yours is called the Frost Sword.”

“Big Mustache, you don’t use profound weapons so I didn’t forge you any. I only prepared a bunch of materials for you to refine puppets. Here you go.”

Luo Tian divided all the things he had.

Everyone had shocked expressions on their faces.

They were clearly all top of the top grade divine artifacts.

Yun Ling asked: “Big brother Luo Tian, what about you?”

Luo Tian smiled mysteriously as he brought out the blade he had successfully forged. “Its name is Annihilate!”

Chapter 716: Big Brother Luo Tian, You Will End Up Dying!

“Senior sister Han Hua...”

“Please bring Eggy and the others to South Heavenly Gate first. I have some matters that I have to take care of.”

“Remember to be extra careful without me. I will definitely make it in time before the competition starts.”

Luo Tian then left.

No one knew where he was going except for himself.

Han Hua had asked before but Luo Tian only smiled mysteriously and said: “You will know later.”

They needed ten people for the immortal sect disciple competition and they didn’t have enough. They couldn’t find any talented enough disciples within Mount Hua Immortal Sect to fight. Everyone knew this competition would be extremely difficult because not only were they facing up against the Imperial God Immortal Sect and the Starsea Immortal Sect, they were also going against the other eight great immortal sects, the Soul Hall, and the devil sect.

This was definitely going to be one nasty battle.

Behind this tough battle was the vague involvement of Li Xue’er.

She was what Lin Long described as a tool for the immortal sects, and this was what worried Luo Tian the most.

Even if he had to pay with his life as the price, Luo Tian will not let her suffer any harm. Whoever dares to hurt her, he promises to kill that person no matter what it took. He had made such a vicious promise by using his little brother in his crotch as the stakes!

The teleportation array in Mount Hua Immortal Sect had been damaged so Luo Tian could only fly to Dark North City.

Dark North City and the South Heavenly Gate were in completely opposite directions. Luo Tian was very tight on time and he blamed it all on Blade River King. Just thinking about it made Luo Tian feel resentment, "You were going to die anyway but you had to make this daddy be pressed for time. I could've enjoyed a few rounds last night and had them tell me their secret of suddenly becoming so seductive. But now all I get is a pure annoyance and wondering what that secret is."

"Whoosh~... whoosh~..." The rushing sound of air whistled past his ears.

Luo Tian had released all his Profound God 7th rank powers to fly in the direction of Dark North City. He couldn't help but start smiling when he thought of Xin Er, the girl that could see fate. He then muttered to himself: "I wonder how that girl has been doing?"

The distance was simply too far.

Even when Luo Tian used his Profound God 7th rank to desperately fly, he still had to use up an entire day to get there.

The next day was the day of the immortal sect disciple competition, so will he make it on time?

Luo Tian didn't have an answer but no matter what, he had to get there before the start of the competition. He was worried that the ten great immortal sects will make a move against his people ahead of time when they realize he hasn't shown up yet. No matter what, he cannot let his people encounter harm.

"Boom~!"

"An expert is here!"

People in Dark North City started becoming nervous.

The aura of a Profound God ranker instantly enshrouded the entire city.

However, Xin Er was smiling like a blooming flower on the steps of the palace while watching the sky. One month ago, she already saw the scene of Luo Tian coming back to her. She had been waiting the entire month for it to happen. To be more accurate, she has been waiting for Luo Tian to come back ever since he left Dark North City.

“He’s here!”

Xin Er smiled. Ever since Luo Tian had her take off her veil, she has never put another one back on.

This signified that she was already a married woman.

She also saw herself as Luo Tian’s woman.

Even though they hadn’t known each other for that long, Xin Er was an obstinate person who stubbornly refuses to change her mind. Once she has chosen a path, she will walk down it until the very end. What’s more, Luo Tian has shown great kindness to her and Dark North City. Most importantly, Luo Tian’s fate cannot be controlled by the heavens.

“It’s him!”

“City Lord, it’s him.”

“Hahaha, Boss Luo is finally here.”

The two warriors next to Xin Er spoke up in excitement. They were the two that accompanied Luo Tian to the Ghost Merman Sect back then.

Luo Tian gently landed with a smile and said: “I’ve come back. How are you doing?”

A reunion after a long time apart.

Xin Er revealed a faint smile while she was ecstatic inside. She maintained a reserved and calmed look as she said softly: "I'm doing well. It's been hard on you."

Even though Luo Tian's fate wasn't controlled by fate, she could still catch glimpses of the dangers he encounters. In the Sky Palace, in Mount Hua Immortal Sect, in the ancient battlefield, and the Floodplain World just two days ago. She saw them all and her heart was on edge every single time.

Tears would uncontrollably come out when she saw how desperately Luo Tian was struggling.

She had to cherish such a man!

Luo Tian looked at Xin Er's calming smile and felt a warmth blossom inside his heart. He then said: "I've come this time..."

Before he could finish, Xin Er interrupted him: "I know. The uncles inside the Soul Refining Dungeon also know that you will be back. We can directly head there right now."

"Huh?"

Luo Tian was kind of stunned by this. Once he recalled Xin Er's ability, he faintly smiled and said: "Okay, let's go."

After saying that, Luo Tian grabbed onto Xin Er's dainty hand.

Xin Er's body trembled. This was the first time a man has ever held her hands so her face started feeling hot. It started turning hot while her heart was beating chaotically. She was just like a little rabbit that had been caught unaware.

The feeling she felt was one of warmth, blessedness, and sheer happiness.

She didn't resist at all.

The two of them walked on the streets and no one pointed at them with gossip. All the passers-by revealed looks of admiration and approval.

They approached the Soul Refining Dungeon very quickly.

Before entering the dungeon, Xin Er bit her lips and said: "Big brother Luo Tian, can you not go to that place?"

Luo Tian paused and asked: "What is it?"

Xin Er held onto Luo Tian and replied: "Can you promise me not to go to that place?"

Upon being suddenly hugged, the two meat buns pressed directly onto Luo Tian's chest which allowed him to feel how soft and bouncy they were. And he realized that they actually weren't that small! Luo Tian understood what Xin Er meant when she said "that place." It was naturally the South Heavenly Gate. He replied with a smile: "Did you happen to see something again?"

Tears started streaming down Xin Er's face as she nodded frantically. "Can you please not go there? As long as you don't go, I will do anything you want. I can even accompany you to bed..."

She mustered all her courage just to say those words. She then blushed furiously afterward but maintained a serious expression while looking at Luo Tian. The reason was that she saw a vision that made her extremely scared.

She was extremely worried about it.

Luo Tian gently pushed her away and wiped away the tears on her cheek. He then scraped her nose and said: "Silly girl, nothing will happen to me. You've forgotten that I am someone that the God of Fate cannot control."

"My life is up to me and not for the heavens to dictate."

“As long as I don’t want to die, no one will be able to kill me. Don’t worry.”

Luo Tian’s heart sank when he saw Xin Er’s gaze.

Even though he thinks he could transcend the control of fate, he was very clear that this was going to be one messed-up battle.

He will most likely encounter life-threatening dangers or else she wouldn’t be trying to stop him from going.

Luo Tian didn’t want Xin Er to worry so he said: “I was able to change my fate the last time, so I will be able to do it again.”

After saying that, Luo Tian then strode into the Soul Refining Dungeon.

Xin Er was crying silently as tears streamed down her cheeks. Her heart was in extreme pain as she watched Luo Tian’s figure disappear into the Soul Refining Dungeon. She then muttered, “Big brother Luo Tian, you will end up dying... wuuu~...”

Chapter 717: The Time For Revenge Has Come

“One against three!”

“King blast...”

“You damn jerk-off, you’re done for!”

“Hahaha, spring is here! Molten Devil, you’ve lost! Hurry up and give me my money! Two taels of silver, that’s enough for me to get some wine. I’ve been losing all this time so I’ve almost died of thirst. Finally, I can release all this pent-up frustration.”

The Soul Refining Dungeon was reeking of foul air.

When Luo Tian went in, he thought that he came to the wrong place.

This place was just missing a Casino word somewhere and it would look completely like one.

All the old devils were gambling.

In addition to the Fighting the Landlord game that Luo Tian showed them, they actually invented several kinds of card games that Luo Tian had never seen before. This... was the endless creativity of the working class!

Luo Tian was feeling many kinds of emotions.

“Cough~, cough~...”

No one paid any attention to him.

“Cough~, cough~, cough~...” Luo Tian started coughing again.

One of the old devils said viciously: “Who the hell here has tuberculosis?! Cough one more time for this daddy and watch how this daddy kills you!”

Luo Tian became speechless.

These guys had gambled to the point of losing their minds.

“Come, come, come! Buy big, win big! Buy small, win small! Take your hands away once you’ve made your bet!”

“Today, this God of Gamblers shall demonstrate my prowess to you all!”

A table was jam-packed with people.

The table next to that was even more crowded with people.

“Go number eight bull!”

“Go number nine!”

“Hahaha, this daddy Beef Brisket is taking it all! Hahaha...”

Luo Tian was instantly dumbstruck. “Can they not be this strong? They’re even betting on bullfighting? This kind of gambling development speed is a bit too crazy. Even planet Earth didn’t have such a fast development speed.”

Black lines flashed across Luo Tian’s forehead.

He was starting to regret leaving the deck of cards he made here. For it to develop this way, it looks like this world’s gambling industry will still flourish even if he’s no longer in this world.

At this time, Xin Er walked in. Her expression had become normal once more with a faint smile on her face. Looking at Luo Tian standing to the side with no one paying attention to him, she couldn’t help saying: “My fellow devil uncles, take a look and see who has come.”

Her voice wasn’t very loud but all the old devil experts stopped. They looked over at Xin Er and then looked over at Luo Tian.

“Miss Xin Er has come?”

“Eh? Is it time for our allowance already?”

“So awesome! We can gamble to our hearts’ content today! Hahaha... Ice Devil, I’m going to say it right now – we’re going to gamble all the way to the morning and no one can back out. Otherwise, don’t blame me, the Molten Devil, for treating you impolitely! Humph~!”

“Eh? Who’s that kid?”

“Dev... Devil... Devil Sovereign Xingtian?!”

The whole dungeon instantly became quiet.

All eyes were on Luo Tian before they were filled with respect and worship. It wasn’t towards Devil Sovereign Xingtian but towards Luo Tian himself. This kind of worship and admiration had already exceeded what they had towards a Devil Sovereign.

Suddenly, one of the old devils walked over and kneeled down in front of Luo Tian.

Luo Tian jumped up in fright and said to himself in bafflement: “I haven’t seen them for only a short time, so why are they going through such a serious ritual?”

That old devil wobbled over while kneeling before grabbing Luo Tian’s thigh. He then started crying, “God of Gamblers, please save me! Teach me some moves! I’ve lost everything including my underwear! Wuuu~...”

“God of Gamblers?!”

Luo Tian didn’t know how to react.

Looking at the heated gaze from the surrounding old devils, he realized that they were worshiping him because of the last time when he played Fight the Landlord with them. He had won 18 times in a row and didn’t lose a single time.

After Luo Tian left, they treated him as the God of Gamblers.

A God of the highest level inside their heart!

All the old devils stepped forward with their eyes trembling in excitement. "God of Gamblers is here!"

"This..."

Luo Tian's brain seemed to have short-circuited from this scene. "Damn, you guys are super expert devils from ten thousand years ago! How can you guys act like this? Can you act a little more befitting your status? Don't you guys know the saying that people will lose nine out of ten times when gambling?"

"You are the one that gave us hope to live."

"You are the one that made us rise to the occasion during these boring days."

"You are the one who fills us up with hope."

"It's you! It's you! God of Gamblers, please accept a bow from us!"

Before Luo Tian could refuse, everyone kneeled down and chanted: "Greetings to the God of Gamblers!"

The scene looked like triad members greeting their big boss!

Luo Tian's eyes were filled with helplessness and he was too lazy to argue with them. "I've come here this time because I have a request from you all."

"God of Gamblers, tell us what you need?"

“Not to mention you are the reincarnation of Devil Sovereign Xingtian, just your status as the God of Gamblers and we wouldn’t hesitate to go through hell or high water for you!”

“However, our cultivations have been sealed up so we won’t be able to help you out with much. It can’t be that you just want us to play Fight the Landlord with you, right? Or did you invent a new way of gambling? God of Gamblers, hurry up and teach us!”

Luo Tian became even more powerless as he glanced over at Xin Er.

Xin Er covered her mouth as she giggled. She then reverted back to a serious look before saying: “Fellow uncles, please be serious. Big brother Luo Tian has something to discuss with you all.”

After Xin Er spoke, all the old devils quieted down and didn’t make any noise.

Luo Tian was crying bitterly inside, “How can the gap between people be so big? Are they treating me as the Devil Sovereign? Are they even treating me as the God of Gamblers? How can the treatment of people be such a big difference?”

Immediately after, Luo Tian said: “Last time I left, I told you guys that I would save you and unlock the seal on your bodies. Today, I’ve come to exactly take care of that matter.”

The last time he left, Luo Tian was determined to help these cute old devils to remove their seals.

It didn’t matter if these old devils followed him or not because the Tianxuan Continent will definitely be much more interesting with them roaming about.

One of the old devils said: “Our seal is called Heaven’s Seal, cast by that damn bastard Mount Hua progenitor. It’s a martial skill that’s extremely powerful and specifically targets us devil sect experts. Your cultivation has become much stronger but...”

Before he could finish speaking, Luo Tian made a thought and shouted: “Heaven’s Seal!”

A five element energy descended and a burst of power exploded out from that person

A thick devil flame surged out and smashed against the Soul Refining Array, causing the entire place to groan and shake. Even Luo Tian, at the Profound God 7th rank, could feel a massive force striking against his sea of consciousness.

Luo Tian was dumbstruck as he said to himself: "What a powerful energy!"

Luo Tian started smiling.

All the old devils started smiling.

Immediately after, one of the old devils asked: "What do you need us to do?"

Luo Tian had an evil smile before saying: "Deal with the ten great immortal sects!"

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"That's what I like the most! Count me in!"

"Count me in!"

"His granny! The time for revenge has come!"

Chapter 718: This One Will Kill Them All

South Heavenly Gate.

The ten great immortal sects arrived one after another.

This place was a holy land of the immortal sects.

Ever since immortal sects were established, this place was designated as the yearly immortal sect disciple competition venue.

There are rumors that Nan Tianxian, a supreme expert at the Profound God Sovereign realm, had broken the void and ascended here. Later on, people gave this place the name of South Heavenly Gate by using his surname. The intention was that a Profound God Sovereign can break the void and soar into the stars.

South Heavenly Gate slowly developed over the years.

Eventually, it became a place with ancient roman-like colosseum structures that was surrounded by ten spectator grandstands. Each grandstand was for an immortal sect or a major power of the continent. These forces were naturally at the top of the Tianxuan Continent.

Below the grandstand was a huge stage that reached dozens of kilometers long and wide. Once the competition begins, a barrier will appear around the stage to prevent the destructive powers from affecting the viewers or destroying the venue.

The immortal sect disciple competition was the greatest once-a-year event.

Many talented disciples will appear to the world.

They will stun and dazzle the public!

There was another reason for the competition here. The higher your ranking, the more you can add fortune for your own immortal sect. The higher the fortune, the denser the immortal force will gather in your immortal sect. This in turn leads to an immortal sect having greater influence over the world.

The reason the Imperial God Immortal Sect became the number one immortal sect was due to Murong Wanjian getting the number one immortal disciple spot for the past three years.

Last year, he alone defeated eighteen of Mount Hua Immortal Sect's most talented disciples. It was due to this that Mount Hua Immortal Sect was knocked down and unable to recover ever since.

This was the first time ever in the competition where a single person fought against eighteen.

That year, Murong Wanjian's name resounded throughout the continent.

He was known by the human race as the number one human in Tianxuan Continent's history and deserved the title of the son of a true dragon.

Starsea Immortal Sect became number two because Li Xue'er had never fought on the sect's behalf. No matter how Lin Wushen begged her, she didn't move nor pay attention to him. She didn't give this Sect Leader any face at all.

Starsea Immortal Sect's grandstand was coincidentally right next to the Imperial God Immortal Sect's.

"Senior brother Liu, I heard that the young phoenix is going to participate in this year's immortal sect disciple competition. Is it true? I've dreamed of seeing her for a long time already. I heard that she is Tianxuan Continent's number one beauty. Her appearance is capable of toppling cities and countries. It's due to this that she is worthy of our senior brother Murong."

"They say she will come but who knows? I also heard that your Imperial God's number one disciple Murong Wanjian will also show up this year. Is that true? I also heard that his love rival, Mount Hua Immortal Sect's Leader Luo Tian will be here and that he was going to beat the shit out of Murong Wanjian."

"Humph~!"

“Just based on that trash? He’s not senior brother Murong’s opponent at all. There is no one in the younger generation that is senior brother Murong’s opponent. Our Prime Elder asserted that no one in the past or future ten thousand years can surpass senior brother Murong. He is someone that can reach the Profound God Sovereign realm, so how can that kid Luo Tian compare?”

“You just wait and see. The people from Mount Hua Immortal Sect can forget about escaping. They will all end up dying in South Heavenly Gate. After the end of today, the Tianxuan Continent will no longer have a Mount Hua Immortal Sect, hahaha...”

Many immortal sect disciples were discussing this inside the venue.

Some people debated while some joked around.

This annual event was very important to the people of the immortal sects.

Suddenly, the gaze of many people tightened.

“People from the Soul Hall have come!”

“So it was true! The people from the Soul Hall really came! This is probably the first time ever in history!”

“The Soul Hall is the most mysterious force in the Tianxuan Continent. Rumor has it that they are a branch of the Soul Hall from the Ancient World. The Soul King is one of the top experts in the Tianxuan Continent and some say he has reached the Profound God Sovereign realm already.”

“Look at the person in the lead, it’s Zi Luolan!”

“She is the Vice Hall Master of the Soul Hall, the mother of the young phoenix. Let me tell you how impressive this woman is: Her husband was killed but she managed to become the Vice Hall Master of the Soul Hall just a few years after his death. She also established the Violet Battle Arena and made it into the best venture for making money!”

The appearance of the people from the Soul Hall immediately drew the attention of many eyes.

They had sent out eleven people.

The person in front of the group was Zi Luolan, followed by ten people wearing black cloaks. One couldn't see their faces but each of them gave off an extremely strong and imposing aura. The moment they appeared, the whole venue of people felt like something was crushing down on them.

“What is she here for?”

“Could it be that the young phoenix is really going to participate in this year's competition?”

“Young phoenix, true dragon, and the dark horse Luo Tian who suddenly came out from nowhere? Hahaha... that means this year's immortal sect competition is going to be a lot of fun.” In a certain corner, a person with tattoos revealed an evil grin muttered.

There was no aura coming from that person.

It was completely concealed.

It looks like an expert from the devil sect has appeared...

Many immortal sects were coming one after another.

Apart from the ten great immortal sects, there were other second-rate immortal sects participating. There were also many other people of various backgrounds invited to watch.

They were all the strongest experts amongst experts.

There were also those that spent a lot of money to buy a spot here. The Sect Leaders of those ordinary mortal sects wanted to watch the battle for the ages. This was also an opportunity for them to show their faces and meet some people.

“They’re here!” Someone whispered by the main entrance of the South Heavenly Gate.

“Go tell the Sect Leader that the people from Mount Hua Immortal Sect are here.”

The whole venue suddenly became quiet.

Han Hua brought Eggy, Leng Hanshuang, Yun Ling, Yun Yi, Black Widow, Murong Bai, Big Mustache Chen Tianjing, and Niu Jingang into the venue.

“Hahaha...”

“Are these the trash from Mount Hua Immortal Sect?”

“I heard Mount Hua Immortal Sect was taken over by a piece of trash with a crippled dantian. Unexpectedly, a group of trash has come to participate in the competition. In my opinion, any random immortal sect will be able to send them packing home.”

“Did you have a good look at them? There is a worm, a silly-looking fool, and a guy that thinks he’s very handsome when in fact he’s just an ugly douchebag. Oh crap! Mount Hua Immortal Sect is really taking in any type of trash! They even took in a midget! Hahaha... I’m going to laugh myself to death at this rate! But those women... tsk~ tsk~... those four stunning beauties are going to steal my life away. It will be great if I’m lucky enough to have them. I will definitely play them to my heart’s content, hahaha...”

There was a commotion of mocking words from the crowd.

Eggy instantly became angry. He swept his gaze about and was just about to say something when Han Hua stopped him: “Eggy, don’t act recklessly. The Sect Leader isn’t here yet so just wait until he comes.”

“Their granny’s cha-cha!”

“I will endure it!”

Eggy angrily grunted before staring at those people, “I have remembered your faces.”

It wasn’t just Eggy, the rest of the group also had unsightly looks on their faces.

The normally pure and innocent Jingang was pissed too as he muttered: “This one will kill them all. You all just wait for this one! Humph~!”

Chapter 719: Sister-in-law Is Mighty And Domineering!

Mockery, insults, and various statements looking down on them.

Han Hua already guessed this would happen on their way over, so she reminded everyone not to get angry so easily.

They couldn’t be given an excuse to act against them.

They cannot be expelled before the competition even starts. The critical point is that Han Hua had a vague guess that Luo Tian would arrive later than them, which meant they definitely cannot act recklessly. Everything will be up to Luo Tian to decide on later.

Han Hua led Murong Bai and the others to sit down at a more deserted grandstand.

Eggy, Jingang, and several others were pissed!

Leng Hanshuang strongly reminded the others: “Everyone stop being angry. The more these people look down on us, the more we should remain calm. Wait until we get on the stage and we can just beat the shit right out of them.”

Since they’re scolding, insulting, and laughing at you, just keep tabs on them first before making them pay for it.

Don’t give this daddy a chance. Once this daddy gets the chance, it won’t matter who it is because we’re going to smash you to death first before talking!

“That’s strange...”

“Where is that dog thing Luo Tian?” Daoist Lie Yang frowned before his sight was set on the twins Yun Ling and Yun Yi. The corner of his mouth unconsciously curved into a perverted sneer as he muttered: “That Luo Tian really knows how to enjoy himself. He actually managed to get his hands on a pair of stunning twins.”

Yun Ling and Yun Yi were even more beautiful than a month ago. Every random movement of their arms and legs would exude a strong charming effect.

“Could it be that he’s scared?” Lin Wushen casually commented.

Daoist Tian Yang immediately said: “I doubt it. A person like Luo Tian isn’t afraid of death. Even if he knows the immortal sect disciple competition is a trap, he will still show up. Since his women have shown up, it’s impossible for him to not show up.”

“That may not be right.”

“Anyone will have a time when they’re afraid of death.”

“In my opinion, that trash Luo Tian isn’t so tough. He’s probably hiding in some sort of dog’s cave right this instant.” The Vast Heaven Immortal Sect’s Leader said in disdain. His expression was full of contempt as he didn’t have any positive feelings for Luo Tian.

Back during the time at Heaven's Boundary, one of the Vast Heaven Immortal Sect disciples killed was his son!

He hated Luo Tian to the bones!

Daoist Lie Yang's brows relaxed as he chuckled, "Brother Hao Tian, don't you feel like these people are such an eyesore? Mount Hua Immortal Sect's fortune has already fallen to the minimum, supported by strands that can dissipate at any given moment. This means that they will no longer be an immortal sect after the competition."

Hao Tian coldly smiled and replied: "I understand."

Not long after, several immortal sect disciples walked over to Han Hua.

There were disciples from the Vast Heaven Immortal Sect, Flowing Clouds Immortal Sect, and some from other various immortal sects.

"You are in this daddy's seat. Scram the hell out of my way!" One of them said with a playful sneer on his face while his gaze was fixated on Black Widow's chest. His throat could be seen moving as he swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

Han Hua was jolted by this as she already sat down at the most deserted place of South Heavenly Gate. This area wasn't even as good as the places where those rich merchants and those normal mortal sects were at. This was a location no one wanted so she came here just to avoid unnecessary trouble.

But she never expected the more you tried to avoid trouble, the more trouble wanted to seek you out.

Eggy instantly became enraged.

Han Hua stood up and blocked Eggy. She politely smiled and said: "My apologies, we will give this spot back to you guys."

“Senior sister!”

“Senior sister Hua!”

“We clearly sat here first so why are we giving it to them?! Who the hell do they think they are?! Their granny’s cha-cha!” Eggy viciously glared at them as he held down his raging flames.

Leng Hanshuang was unhappy but endured. “We will change to another place.”

They all stood up.

Just when they were about to change seats, they didn’t expect a person with a frivolous smile to appear by Yun Ling and Yun Yi’s side. He revealed a lecherous smile and said: “My four beautiful ladies, my Sect Leader wishes to invite you over for a drink and to watch the competition together.”

“F*ck!”

“This daddy thinks you’re tired of living!” Eggy was enraged further. That guy dared to look at his boss’s women with such a perverted expression? He wasn’t able to endure that!

That person’s eyes turned gloomy as he glared at Eggy. “A lowly animal like you needs to scam to the side for me! Who the hell do you think you are?!”

“Your granny!”

“You wish to die, right?!”

“I dare you to f*cking say that again!”

Murong Bai, Jingang, and Big Mustache instantly became enraged as well and surrounded that person. As long as he dares to say half a word, they would immediately rip him into pieces.

That guy was given quite a fright!

His face turned a bit pale but he maintained his tough attitude. The immortal sect disciples behind him immediately came forward and surrounded Murong Bai and his group.

That person in the lead sneered and said: "Our Sect Leader has taken a liking to you and that's considered your fortune. You four cheap sluts really think you're really that lofty? In my eyes, you women are just rotten goods that have been played by others already..."

"Pak~!"

Before he could finish speaking, Leng Hanshuang already swung her hand towards him.

Her peak Profound Emperor realm aura exploded forth as her slap sent that person sprawling to the ground. He squirmed around on the ground like a dead dog and wailed in pain, "You dare to hit me?! You damn cheap slut dare to hit me?! Do you know who this daddy is?! You dare to hit this daddy..."

Before he could finish speaking, Black Widow's Spirit Dragon Whip flicked out like a live snake. It streaked across the air and the tip of the whip directly struck that person's cheek. All the teeth inside his mouth were knocked out as they scattered all over the ground.

She coldly grinned and said: "Say another word and this old lady will twist your head off."

Pissed-off women were too terrifying!

Eggy, Jingang, and Murong Bai were scared stiff!

They all stared at those two with eyes wide and mouths agape before saying in unison: "Sister-in-law is mighty! Sister-in-law is domineering! Sister-in-law has bounciness..."

They wanted to make a move but they were one step too late.

Yun Ling and Yun Yi puffed their cheeks in anger and said: “Well struck! Humph~!”

The other immortal sect disciples around them stepped forward.

At this time, Eggy, Jingang, Murong Bai, and Big Mustache immediately turned to stop them. Their gaze was gloomy and their Profound God auras exploded forth. One of them harrumphed: “Whoever dares to make another move, this daddy will kill them.”

Leng Hanshuang revealed a female boss’ look as she lowered herself. An icy cold aura surged out of her body as she said: “You should first take a good look at who the target is before you try to cause trouble. Don’t think that we’re easy to mess with. Go and tell your Sect Leader to have some self-respect and don’t stoop so low. Otherwise, this old lady will make him unable to get it up for his entire life!”

“Humph~!”

Murong Bai swallowed his saliva and said: “So domineering!”

Immediately after, Leng Hanshuang kicked that person flying as she harrumphed: “Scram for me!”

“Bang~!”

That disciple was sent flying.

At this time, a black shadow caught him before bursting forth with their Profound God aura. The black shadow then appeared in the airspace above Leng Hanshuang’s head with murderous intent. The person’s eyes were filled with disdain before shouting: “You dare move against the people of my Vast Heaven Immortal Sect? It looks like you guys are seeking death!”

At this time, Luo Tian appeared in a flash and the sky exploded with his voice: “Who dares to touch my people?!”

Chapter 720: Hit Me As Hard As You Can

There are times when it's truly terrifying when women get pissed.

Luo Tian descended from the air.

Behind him were two other people. One had a white face and looked kind of like a scholar that was holding onto a folding fan. The other looked kind of young as well but his face was a bit wretched looking. He had bushy eyebrows and small beady eyes and looked like those stereotypical thugs you see.

The two were standing behind Luo Tian without saying a word.

Their eyes coldly swept past the Elder of the Vast Heaven Immortal Sect like they didn't give a crap about him.

Luo Tian took in the surroundings and instantly knew what was going on. He coldly sneered and asked: “You want to touch my people?”

Luo Tian's sudden appearance made the entire South Heavenly Gate turn quiet.

There were many eyes focused on him.

“Humph~!”

“Damn dog thing, you're finally here!”

“Luo Tian, you actually dare to come here! You just wait! Today, I will avenge the death of my little brother!”

“Here’s here!”

“Heh heh... Sect Leader Luo, you’re finally here. I was scared that you wouldn’t come. If you didn’t come, this event would not be interesting anymore. This immortal sect disciple competition was especially prepared for you.”

The bosses of all the major forces were revealing their cold smiles and killing intent.

It was as if they only became excited when Luo Tian arrived.

“Humph~!”

“Sect Leader Luo, your people were the first to injure others. The competition hasn’t even started yet and they already attacked. If you don’t give my Vast Heaven Immortal Sect a proper explanation, all 171 people of my sect will not let you off!” Shouted the elderly person.

He was the Vast Heaven Immortal Sect’s Grand Elder and that previous disciple was his nephew, Yan Bi.

Yan Bi was still wailing as his mouth was filled with blood. Whenever he tried to speak, he would spray out a mouthful of blood and no one could understand what he was trying to say. He looked rather miserable right now.

Luo Tian turned around and looked at Leng Hanshuang.

Leng Hanshuang stuck her tongue out at Luo Tian.

Black Widow strutted over with her soft and lithe body and leaned onto Luo Tian’s shoulder. She then said gently: “Sire, it was I that struck him. If you need to punish someone, you can punish me. My little butt can be spanked however hard you want.”

After saying that, she bent over slightly and poked out her tempting little butt right in front of Luo Tian. She had a flirtatious and provocative look as if she was saying: "Come and spank me. Hit me. Spank me as hard as you can."

Black Widow was too deadly!

She was someone who didn't care what environment they were in.

When her charming eyes narrowed seductively, Luo Tian's little brother down there started rising up. He then said to himself: "You damn enchantress, one day I will f*ck you until you can't get out of bed!"

Luo Tian tried his hardest to calm his little brother down. He then pretended to be angry and said: "How can you guys beat up people like this?!"

"Humph~!"

Hearing Luo Tian's words, Yan Chen became even angrier and shouted: "Luo Tian, if you don't give me an explanation today, don't blame this old man for being impolite!"

Before the old man could add more words, Luo Tian put on a reprimanding tone: "If you need to beat someone up, at least beat them to death. There's no need to give any face to trash like this. You guys have lost all face for me. When we get back, I'm going to teach you guys a good lesson!"

Immediately after, Luo Tian had a smile on his face as he said to the old man: "My apologies, these women of mine don't know how to be more heavy-handed. Otherwise, they could've helped your sect clean up some garbage. They did teach him a lesson so we'll consider it as giving him a chance to be a better person. There's no need for you to say any thankful words. What kind of close relationship do we have, right? You're from that something Rat Immortal Sect, right? When we meet on the stage, you guys need to show my disciples some mercy. You know that I just became the Sect Leader of Mount Hua Immortal Sect, and my disciples all have poor cultivation realms. I hope that your Rat Immortal Sect can be merciful today!"

"Puff~..."

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

“Boss, your words are too ingenious! Hahaha...”

Behind Luo Tian, Eggy and the others all started laughing. Even Leng Hanshuang couldn't hold it in.

Yan Chen's expression changed.

His face changed to an extremely ugly look as his bloodshot eyes glared at Luo Tian.

Beside him, Yan Bi managed to stand up with his mouth opening and closing but unable to say a word. He didn't hear every single word but unconsciously raised his right hand and pointed at Luo Tian's nose in anger.

In an instant, Luo Tian's figure blurred.

“Crack~!”

“Agghhh~!” Yan Bi wailed like a pig and started rolling around the ground in pain.

Luo Tian coldly looked over and shouted: “Pointing at this daddy?! Who the hell do you think you are?! A little Rat Immortal Sect disciple dares to point at this daddy?! Do you know what status this daddy has?! I am the Sect Leader of Mount Hua Immortal Sect! You damn thing that shows no respect to one's elder!”

No one expected Luo Tian would suddenly make a move.

His speed was too quick!

Yan Bi, a person who hadn't even reached the Profound Emperor realm, naturally couldn't block it.

Even Yan Chen couldn't react in time.

Before Yan Chen could speak, Luo Tian interrupted with a harmless expression and said: "Elder, look at what kind of garbage is inside your Rat Immortal Sect. No matter what, I am still a Sect Leader of an immortal sect yet he dares to point his finger at me? Isn't that considered extreme disrespect to me? What I hate the most is being disrespected by others. Whenever I see an immature brat like this, I can't help but teach them a lesson. You don't need to thank me. What kind of close relationship do we have? Don't worry, I will teach him properly how to be a good person. In the future, he won't be using his finger to point at others ever again!"

"Puff~..."

"Hahaha..."

The people behind Luo Tian couldn't hold it in anymore.

The disciples from the other immortal sects couldn't hold it in either and laughed out loud.

Yan Chen's expression was like a pig's liver with his unsightly looking face. His teeth were making cracking noises from clenching so hard. He was just about to erupt in rage when...

"Whoosh~!"

"Whoosh~!"

Two figures landed next to him.

"Boom~!"

“Boom~!”

Two explosions rocked Luo Tian’s sea of consciousness.

His body started trembling uncontrollably.

Cold sweat dampened his back.

Lin Wushen! Daoist Lie Yang!

They used their oppressive pressure on Luo Tian the moment they appeared. There was no way Luo Tian could block two Profound God 8th rank attacks. And those two had the nerve to maintain a calm outward smile on their faces!

From the point of view of outsiders, those two hadn’t done anything.

Those two were sinister to the extreme!

Luo Tian’s face turned gloomy as he felt extreme discomfort. He then glanced at the white-clothed scholar at the corner of his eyes.

In an instant, that white-clothed scholar looked over and his oppressive pressure struck out.

At the same time, the wretched-looking man beside the scholar furrowed his brow.

A second powerful pressure instantly struck out as well.

“Boom~!”

“Boom~!”

Lin Wushen and Daoist Lie Yang’s expressions changed as they glanced at each other. Just when they were about to increase their power, two majestic pressures smashed into them like a tsunami and forced them backward.

They staggered backward and their faces turned faintly pale.

They had embarrassed expressions on their faces.

Luo Tian coldly sneered, “Eh? What happened to you guys?”

In his heart, he was angrily cursing: “Damn dog things! You want to crush this daddy’s sea of consciousness? Luckily I was prepared for this and brought over two bodyguards with me. Come and try it again! Let’s see if I can kill you guys or not!”
