

Leveling Up 901

Chapter 901: Beauty, Why Did You Suddenly Faint?

No matter which direction you looked at her, this woman had the image of a queen.

Cold and graceful.

And her body exuded an aura like she was above everyone.

But when Luo Tian saw the woman's face area, he couldn't help blurting, "What the f*ck?!"

The woman was wearing a black hood that covered her entire face.

"Your sister! Do you really need to do that?" Luo Tian grumbled internally while his expression showed he was disappointed. Not being able to see her face was considered to be one of life's greatest regrets. He then said to himself, "It would be great if I had X-ray vision."

"Not only can I see her face, but I would also be able to see her chest, her butt, and her most private forest location..."

"I need to level up!"

"I want that power of X-ray vision!"

Luo Tian became more determined to level up. He wished he could have the power of X-ray vision right now so he could see through this woman in front of him.

"Not only will your tongue be cut off, but your eyes will also be gouged out as well if you keep looking." The woman's voice was still ice cold, and it was somewhat lower than usual, which made it even more charming.

The voice was similar to a movie star in his previous life called Zhou Xun1.

Luo Tian pulled back his expression and said, "Thank you for saving me, beauty."

He no longer dared to be too presumptuous.

The cold beauty in front of him was ice cold and didn't change her expression after killing someone. That meant this woman must have killed plenty of people in her life. Luo Tian no longer spoke any cocky words, or else his ending will be the same as Liu Wang's. Upon thinking of Liu Wang, Luo Tian felt his heartache like no tomorrow. "Sigh~, my experience points... my yuan energy..."

Under the hood, the woman was staring at Luo Tian and said, "There's no need for thanks. I didn't really want to save you in the first place, but I just don't like seeing so many people bullying a single person. But... you are indeed a little interesting. You were able to kill the White Wolf King and two martial artists right after. Your actions are different from normal people, and your dantian is also different from others."

She only used the words "different" instead of "shattered dantian." Most importantly, she didn't use the saying "a piece of trash with a shattered dantian."

Just based on this, Luo Tian was smiling internally and said, "I am definitely making friends with this woman!"

Luo Tian then said, "Beauty, your eyesight is definitely unique. It looks like a little star surrounded by darkness like me has finally found a bosom friend. I am indeed different from the others. Apart from my style of actions and my different dantian, I still have many things different from others. For example, my endurance..."

After saying that, Luo Tian unconsciously looked at his lower body.

He wasn't insinuating anything but just wanted to tease her a bit.

At this moment, the woman's sword sliced over and pointed at Luo Tian's throat. "If you dare to randomly say stuff, I will take your life."

Overwhelming coldness.

Luo Tian didn't react, but he could tell this woman didn't have any killing intent. If she did, she wouldn't have spoken so much and already made her move.

Moreover, there seemed to be a trace of weakness apart from her cold and noble aura.

It was as if she was injured.

Luo Tian didn't want to guess, "Spare my life, beauty! I won't dare to randomly say stuff next time! But... I wasn't talking about the endurance you are thinking of. The endurance I'm talking about is how a Spirit Martial 3rd ranker like me was able to endure the entire night of fighting. Don't you think that's pretty cool already?"

"Beauty, you were definitely overthinking things."

"I'm a good, pure, orthodox youth that's similar to a little white flower. How would I have such vile thoughts?"

The woman wanted to rage, but she suddenly trembled, and her vision blurred. She then eyed Luo Tian coldly and said, "If you dare to take off my hood, I will kill you."

After saying that, her sword fell out of her hand, and her body went limp as she fainted.

Luo Tian furrowed his brows and instantly stepped forward. He caught the woman in his embrace and felt her soft boneless body. Her body's fragrance rushed into his nostrils and smelled quite awesome!

"Beauty!"

"Beauty?"

“Beauty, are you awake?”

After crying out three times and determining she had really fainted, Luo Tian immediately pulled back her hood without hesitation. “You don’t want me to look at your face? Am I still a man if I listen to such words?”

“If I don’t take a good look at you under such conditions, then I’m definitely not a man.”

Under these awesome conditions with a beautiful woman in hand, you’re not going to take off her hood just because she said not to? For those that are not going to take off her hood, Luo Tian wanted to say to those people, “You are a f*cking idiot! An utter and complete idiot!”

Who in their right mind wouldn’t take it off?

The moment the hood was lifted off, Luo Tian instantly felt drunk!

So beautiful!

The kind of beauty that would make people suffocate! Her eyes were closed, and her face somewhat sickly pale, but that still couldn’t hide her beauty. Her facial features were exquisite to the point of perfection. Even though she had fainted, there was still a cold noble aura that was pushing people to get away from her.

If it were someone else, they would be ashamed of themselves and not dare to get close.

But Luo Tian was different. He was never a good person in the first place, and his bones had an aura of a scoundrel. Especially when he sees a beautiful girl, that aura will instantly surge out.

He had no feelings of being ashamed of his own looks nor the feeling of wanting to move away. What he wanted to do right now was to molest her all over and then do all the awesome exercises he could think of!

But even though he was a scoundrel, he hadn't reached the evil beast proportions yet. "You saved back then even though I didn't need saving. But since you made a move, it is now my turn to try to save you."

After saying that, Luo Tian grabbed her chest, and his fingers started moving. Evil fire burst out from his heart as he rubbed and pinched her mound. These bamboo shoot breasts were simply too bouncy! They were soft but perky, and the hand feel was too awesome! Luo Tian's evil desires flared up like crazy, but he blocked them in the end. He looked at the woman's cold, expressionless face and said, "Sorry, I didn't do that on purpose."

After saying that, Luo Tian's hand reached for the other mound with a "gulp" sound coming from his throat.

He couldn't help but swallow down his saliva.

"So awesome..."

"This is taking my life!"

Luo Tian almost couldn't hold it in. Around this time, his left hand felt something sticky, and his expression changed.

"Blood?!"

He looked down the back side, and sure enough, there was a lot of blood.

All of Luo Tian's evil thoughts instantly disappeared as saving her was more important.

Luo Tian lifted her up and quickly ran back to his old cave.

A hundred kilometers away.

Several people in black robes stood on top of a large tree with grim expressions. One of them squatted down and examined a drop of blood on a leaf. That person touched it and put it in their mouth before smiling evilly, "It's her blood."

Chapter 902: My Queen, Do You Really Need To Be Like This?

Inside the cave, Luo Tian found some large leaves to lay her down on before turning her over.

He had no qualms about just ripping open the clothing on her back.

Luo Tian wasn't the type of person to pretend to be a gentleman. There was no need to talk about men, and women shouldn't be touching each other indecently when it came to saving lives. Moreover, the woman was unconscious, so who would care? He could do whatever he wanted. As for whether he would be killed by this woman when she woke up, Luo Tian hadn't bothered thinking about it.

A large patch of flawless skin similar to warm jade was revealed, instantly making anyone excited.

Luo Tian swallowed his saliva once more. He grabbed some clean cloth and gently wiped her wound.

"Mmmm~..."

"Mmmm~..."

The woman gave soft moaning sounds when her wound was touched. Even though this was a painful moan, it was still taking Luo Tian's life from hearing it. His hand was shaking, and he almost couldn't hold it in anymore.

At this time, Luo Tian was worried she would suddenly wake up right now. "Beauty, I'm only doing this in order to save you. Please don't blame me for it."

A small wound took Luo Tian almost half an hour to clean.

The tent in his crotch area almost broke the seams of his pants!

Killing intent surging!

This past half hour was one of the most difficult times for Luo Tian ever. He would rather go out and fight ten White Wolf Kings by himself than sit through this once more. All that “mmm” and “ahh” sounds kept reverberating in his mind. It was ten times more mesmerizing than all those Teacher Sola Aoi, big sister Maria Ozawa, or little sister Rola Misaki combined.

If this was his previous life, most likely, Luo Tian would have orgasmed just hearing her voice!

Even though he was no longer a virgin, the heart palpitation he was experiencing was even stronger than back when he was a virgin. How can a normal guy endure it when encountering a cold and noble queen figure?

He was basically biting his tongue during the entire treatment.

Moreover, it's unknown if he accidentally or deliberately ripped the back of her clothes a little too much that it reached all the way down to her buttocks area.

Her underwear was revealed.

The craziest thing was the underwear was black lace that was semi-transparent.

Luo Tian almost had an instantaneous nosebleed! “This world has lace clothing too? And in the shape of a bikini? Heavens, you are making me commit a crime! I almost can't endure anymore!”

His crotch area was like sturdy steel!

A hot and majestic power wanted to erupt from him!

Luo Tian was having a difficult time.

The swelling was too uncomfortable!

“Endure!”

“You need to endure! Fuuu~, fuuu~, fuuu~...”

After treating the wound, Luo Tian ran out of the cave and started breathing deeply. “Endure it! Endure it! You can’t be like this even though you like what you see. She is unconscious, and doing something bad makes you no different than a beast!”

“Damn it!”

Luo Tian wanted to calm down, but he wasn’t able to due to the black lace underwear that kept appearing in his thoughts.

“This can’t go on!”

“If this continues, I will definitely end up doing some bestial act!”

Luo Tian glanced at the cave before running away.

He ran back to the stream and jumped in head first.

“Splash~!”

The cold water quickly quenched the evil flames inside him. Luo Tian was finally able to calm down, “Amitabha, I almost couldn’t hold it in!”

“That wound... should be caused by a sword that was poisoned.”

“It should be some type of strong poison.”

“Otherwise, she should have been able to take care of it with her cultivation realm.” Luo Tian calmed down and started analyzing the situation. At the same time, he started recalling the movies in his previous life where the male lead would help the female lead suck out the poison. His heart started beating faster, “Do I have to do the same thing?”

“That doesn’t sound good, right?”

“Shit...”

“Saving a person is better than building a seven story pagoda for the Gods! There’s nothing wrong with that! I am doing a good deed!”

“That’s right!”

“I am a good person doing a good deed!”

Luo Tian’s evil angel very quickly defeated the good angel.

He grabbed two fat fish in the stream before walking back to the cave. He then kept muttering, “I’m a good person. I’m a good person. I’m a super duper good person. I am saving a person. Everything that I’m about to do is to save a person.”

He walked back, convincing himself the whole way.

The moment he stepped into the cave, there was a chill on his neck and a shout, “You are courting death!” A cold and angry woman’s voice filled with killing intent was heard.

Any woman being seen naked by a random male stranger will definitely have the urge to kill, except this woman’s intent seemed a bit more intense.

Luo Tian didn't fret and said calmly, "If it weren't for me, you would be dead already."

The woman replied, "I told you not to take off my hood."

Luo Tian said, "I didn't take it off; I only helped you clean your wound."

He really didn't take it off and only lifted it up to take a few looks.

Taking off is taking off, while lifting is lifting. Those were two completely different concepts!

The woman said, "You don't need to interfere with my matters. Since you have seen my body, I will not let you continue living."

Luo Tian replied, "I had my eyes closed! I swear to the heavens, my only intent was to save you!"

Murderous intent!

Under such conditions, it is very easy for women to have killing intent.

If she wanted to kill Luo Tian, a single sword slash would suffice. Her current cultivation realm was at a place that Luo Tian could not reach for the time being.

"Huh?"

"Save me? You men are all the same. You dare to tell me that after seeing me, you have no thoughts of possessing me?" The woman sneered. The sneer contained a sense of rage that didn't seem to be directed at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian seemed to understand something but still replied without fear, "I did!"

“Hahaha...”

“I already knew men were all the same.” The woman’s sneer grew louder.

Luo Tian immediately added, “I’m not done speaking. I had thoughts of possessing you, especially when you were unconscious before me. But I didn’t do anything, and that shows I am different from other men. I don’t know what difficulties you have been through, but I do know you shouldn’t be using your yuan energy. If you do, the wound on your back will immediately burst apart, and the poison will enter your heart. At that time, even an Immortal will not be able to save you.”

The woman was stunned into silence.

Luo Tian looked at the dark cave and at the sword resting on his neck. “You have saved me, so I only wanted to save you so that I don’t owe you anything. If you don’t believe my words, there is nothing else I can do.”

“Beauty?”

“Can you take the sword away from my neck first?”

“Hey, can you say something?”

“Beauty?”

Luo Tian called a few times but didn’t get a response. He slowly turned around and noticed the woman had already lost consciousness once more and was leaning against the wall of the cave. Her face seemed to be even paler than before.

“Beauty?”

Luo Tian grabbed her and looked at her injury, "Damn it, do I really need to suck out the poison? Is that even doable?"

While he was speaking to himself, his evil claws unconsciously grabbed onto one of the woman's mounds. He squeezed and pinched around a bit, "I received quite a fright, so I will take some interest first."

Luo Tian revealed a cheap and despicable smile while squeezing.

Chapter 903: Ah, I Think I'm Going To Faint Again

Luo Tian rubbed his hands together and wiped away the drool from his mouth. He started thinking of many images not suitable for children and many high-difficulty positions. Then...

Then...

When he saw the painful expression on the woman's face, it was like a bucket of cold water had been poured over him. He no longer had any evil thoughts now.

"You are lucky..."

"If you ended up with any other person, your body would have already..."

Luo Tian flipped the woman over and crudely tore apart her clothes. Seeing how the wound had turned black now, Luo Tian frowned, "Who knows if the movies I watched in my previous life will actually work here? If I end up not being able to save her and poisoning myself as well, then that will really be screwed up."

"Sigh~..."

"There's no use thinking too much now."

After saying that, Luo Tian put his mouth onto the wound and sucked.

The woman's body shivered before she started moaning softly.

"Mmmm~..."

The moan sounded like someone had just penetrated her! Luo Tian clenched his fists and tried his best not to think about unnecessary thoughts. He continued sucking, "Fuup~."

He sucked up a large mouthful of black blood.

He then spat it on the ground to the side.

Luo Tian then went to suck on the wound once more.

Each time he sucked in a mouthful of black blood, the woman would give off a pleasurable moan. Luo Tian really thought his endurance was abnormally good. Of course, his crotch area had already bulged out to the point of being capable of stabbing through the sky's atmosphere.

Less than half an hour.

The blackness around the wound had lessened, and the woman's face had turned more rosy instead of the pale, sickly white like before.

But Luo Tian felt dizzy, and his lips had turned black. He cursed to himself, "Shit, I didn't get poisoned, right?!"

Luo Tian gradually lost consciousness.

Apart from being slightly poisoned, Luo Tian was truly too tired.

He had slaughtered the entire night and didn't get a chance to rest. Then, there was a full day of his pillar supporting the heavens and him using his mental energy to resist. When the woman's wounds looked slightly better, he felt a sense of relief, and this caused him to pass out.

We can say he fainted, but it was more realistic to say he fell asleep.

The reason being Luo Tian started snoring in less than half a minute.

When Luo Tian lost consciousness, the woman woke up a dozen minutes later.

"Fuuu~ ..."

After inhaling deeply, the woman opened her eyes and stared at Luo Tian's face close to hers.

She frowned and instantly felt raging flames inside her. She released her yuan energy but suddenly realized, "The Scarlet Heart Poison has been weakened by eight levels?"

"It cannot seal the yuan energy inside me anymore."

"How did this happen?"

The woman noticed Luo Tian's lips were black, and there was a puddle of black blood to the side. "Was it him?"

"He helped me suck out the poison from my body?"

"Body..."

The woman's body trembled as she suddenly stood up. Because Luo Tian had ripped her clothes apart twice, her black lace undergarment slid off to the ground.

Pure and clear skin.

Her proud and upright twin peaks faintly shook from the movement of her body. The shaking frequency wasn't high but still rippled to show their bounciness. The ravine between her peaks was tight and seamless. A cell phone or even a stick could be trapped there without dropping.

No blemishes could be seen.

There wasn't the slightest bit of fat on her slim waist, similar to a perfect work of art.

Perfection!

The woman didn't have time to stop her clothing from falling to the ground. Her cheeks turned red. Even though she was like a high and noble queen, her cheeks can still turn red when she becomes naked in front of a male stranger.

The woman quickly pulled her clothes back up while glaring at Luo Tian.

If Luo Tian had any reaction during this period, she would definitely kill him.

If Luo Tian knew such an awesome thing would happen, he would definitely glance a few times, even if he had to die for it. Unfortunately, he was asleep.

The woman tried her best to fix her clothes. Because they were ripped apart, she could only hide a portion of her body and reveal her stomach area and her belly button.

Her twin peaks were wrapped up by black lace.

This caused even more temptation from the beholder. A temptation that a man might die for!

The woman looked at Luo Tian and harrumphed, "Consider yourself lucky!"

After saying that, the woman walked out of the cave.

A few minutes later, she returned to the cave. Seeing how Luo Tian was still lying there unmoving, she frowned, "You saved me, but if I leave just like that... Forget it. I will save you as well."

"This cave is considered hidden, so I can recover my yuan energy here. Even if the assassins from the Sky Devil Sect find me, I won't be afraid of them."

The woman then walked up to Luo Tian and pushed a spiritual pill into his mouth. She then placed her palm onto Luo Tian's chest and used her yuan energy to catalyze the pill.

The pill rapidly spread through his body.

Luo Tian moaned unconsciously.

The feeling was simply too awesome!

It was similar to dipping in a hot spring during the winter months. The comfort was indescribable! Luo Tian's yuan energy instantly increased by a thousand points, and his stamina was restored. The tier of this spiritual pill was too high!

A few seconds later, Luo Tian's mental energy had recovered. He looked through the slits of his eyes at the queen that fed him a spiritual pill. He was greeted by a sexy arrangement of clothes that would make any straight man's heart beat faster. Seeing how the wrapped up twin peaks were only a few centimeters away from him, Luo Tian wanted to pounce forth to give them a bite!

She had very little clothing left on her, to begin with. With the addition of her peaks being wrapped up tightly, the bottomless ravine between those peaks became the focus of Luo Tian's line of sight.

Open wider!

Get up!

Open wider and then get up!

Luo Tian's eyes almost popped out of its socket as he slowly sat himself up. He wanted to see how far the ravine went on for, but no matter how wide he opened his eyes, he couldn't see the extent of it.

Moreover, the little ravine was getting farther and farther away from him.

Luo Tian's body suddenly trembled as he clearly felt a cold killing intent.

The killing intent was like an iceberg that had been submerged for thousands of years.

Luo Tian felt like he had been thrown into an ice cellar. He looked up and pretended nothing had happened. He smiled and weakly said, "Lady, you're all better now?"

The woman had already stood up from crouching down.

It was as if she was a cold queen standing high above the masses and coldly staring down at Luo Tian, full of killing intent.

The sword beside her was already ringing.

Just when the woman wanted to use her sword, Luo Tian's body went limp as he screamed in pain, "Ahhh~, I think I'm going to faint again!"

Chapter 904: How Many Babies Are You Going To Give Me?

As his voice faded, Luo Tian stumbled backward onto the ground and slowly closed his eyes.

Performance arts!

His acting was a bit over-exaggerated, but Luo Tian was sure his expression was better than some of the award-winning best actors!

He could faint whenever he wanted to!

“Pfttt~!”

The queen burst out into a giggle, and her cold expression instantly turned into a warm spring wind.

This giggle was definitely one that was capable of toppling countries and stealing lives.

The queen moved her sword and pointed it right at Luo Tian’s crotch. Her cold expression came back as she said, “If you continue pretending to have fainted, I’m going to chop that thing of yours off.”

“I’m fine now!”

“Ah? I somehow feel much better now!”

“Faint?”

“Did I just faint? How come I didn’t know?” Luo Tian quickly sat up and pretended he didn’t know what was going on. He had a serious expression on his face before asking this queen in confusion, “How are you now? Your face looks rosy, so that means the poison has cleared up. Now I feel relieved.”

The queen’s expression changed, “How did you suck out the poison from me?”

After asking that, her eyes were filled with killing intent.

Luo Tian stood up and kept pretending he didn't know anything. "Suck? I didn't suck anything. I used my hands to squeeze it out. I know that men shouldn't be touching women indiscriminately. If I were really to help you suck out the poison, there's no way you would be able to get married. But that's fine too since I..."

Before Luo Tian could finish, the woman revealed a cold smile. "If I kill you, no one would know about it, right?"

"Huh?"

Luo Tian was stunned by those words. His cultivation couldn't beat this queen, and the cold noble aura coming from her had completely suppressed him. He just happened to see two fishes nearby and immediately changed the subject. "You should be hungry. I will go grill some fish for you."

Luo Tian immediately started gathering the leftover dry wood to set up a campfire.

He didn't even glance at the queen.

The queen stared at Luo Tian the entire time until the delicious smell of grilled fish wafted throughout the cave. Her stomach couldn't help but start making gurgling sounds while she kept swallowing back her saliva.

Luo Tian sprinkled some of his seasonings on the grilled fish, and the smell turned into an existence capable of stirring one's hunger from the depths of their body.

The queen looked off to the side.

Her body continued to release her cold noble aura as she didn't look at the grilled fish. She was actually using all her strength to control her stomach, but it kept making gurgling sounds. She had been hunted by the Sky Devil Sect for a full sixteen days and hadn't eaten anything the entire time. Even though her current cultivation allowed her not to eat for a full month, the smell of the grilled fish made her unable to endure an inexplicable hunger.

Luo Tian handed over a grilled fish to the queen, "Go ahead and eat it."

The queen didn't move.

Luo Tian then said, "Forget it if you don't want to eat. I will eat it myself."

After saying that, Luo Tian started eating with relish. He tore off a layer of charred aromatic skin and waved it in front of the queen. "Wow, this grilled fish is too delicious! The smell is truly irresistible!"

Luo Tian asked the queen once more, "Are you really not going to eat?"

The queen faintly moved and was just about to reach out, but Luo Tian pretended not to see her move and swallowed the skin. "I'll eat if you don't want to."

"Munch~, munch~, munch~..."

"So good! It tastes so good!"

"You..."

The queen instantly became pissed as she glared at Luo Tian. She then ripped the grilled fish out of Luo Tian's hand and said, "Did I say I wasn't going to eat?! Humph~!"

Her tone was like she was commanding Luo Tian.

This was undoubtedly the aura of a queen!

The queen didn't act like a lady eating small bites. She directly bit off large chunks of meat and ate without caring how hot the fish was.

Luo Tian was stunned before exclaiming, "Wait! Don't eat it! Don't eat..."

The queen glared at Luo Tian, "You want me to stop eating? Then I will continue eating in your face, humph~!"

Luo Tian sighed, "What should I do then?"

The queen asked, "What's going on?"

Luo Tian replied, "You are eating my saliva..."

"Aggghh~!"

"You...!"

"You bastard!" The queen instantly scolded in anger. She wanted to spit out the fish in her mouth, but the grilled fish was too delicious. Even if she wanted to spit it out, her stomach was protesting and wanted her to swallow it. She could only glare at Luo Tian with thoughts of killing him.

However, it didn't end there.

Luo Tian scratched his head and pretended to be an idiot. "My mother said that if a woman eats a man's saliva, they will get pregnant. You just ate my saliva, so you will have my baby. Don't worry; I will take responsibility for it. Even if you don't want me, I hope you can still give birth to the child while I will raise the child alone..."

"Aggghhh~!"

The queen was about to go insane.

She really wanted to kill Luo Tian!

She really, really wanted to!

She had never felt such strong emotions to kill someone before.

She stared at Luo Tian while her teeth were making cracking noises from being clenched so tightly. She chewed a few times and swallowed the fish meat, and naturally went for another bite.

Luo Tian said foolishly, "You just ate my saliva again. Are you hoping to give me twins?"

"I..."

"You..."

"Do you really want to die that badly?!"

The queen's cold sword moved and was pointed at the center of Luo Tian's forehead.

Luo Tian was laughing his head off internally, "It's rather interesting watching this queen get angry, hahaha... hahaha..."

After being pointed at by the sword, Luo Tian revealed a pitiful expression and said, "It's fine if I die, but what about the child in your stomach? As the baby's mother, you're going to raise it with love and care, right?"

"I'm going to kill you!" The queen screamed like she had gone berserk.

Just when she really was going to go berserk, Luo Tian reverted back to his normal expression and said, "I'm going to go get you some water. There are black smudges around your mouth from the food, making you look like a little kitten."

Luo Tian immediately ran out of the cave after saying that. It was as if the previous conversation never happened.

The queen was dumbstruck and had frozen in place. Her brain couldn't process what had just happened. When she saw Luo Tian running off out of the cave, she looked at the fish in her hand and gulped back some saliva.

Just when she took another bite, Luo Tian poked his head into the cave as he chuckled, "You just ate another mouthful of my saliva, so are you planning on giving me triplets? I told you not to eat it, but you keep eating it. It really looks like you want to have my child. Tell me, exactly how many babies do you want to give birth to? Did you really fall for me?"

After saying that, Luo Tian's legs started running like crazy. All you could hear was him laughing in joy, "Hahaha..."

"I dare you to come back here!"

"Humph~!"

The queen was dumbstruck by Luo Tian's antics and just stood there. When Luo Tian disappeared, she finally burst out laughing and nearly fell to the ground.

This was the first time in over ten years that she had laughed this happily.

Chapter 905: Don't Be Like That

Early evening.

This was considered the last day for the bet with Wang Li.

Luo Tian was still alive. If he could live until tomorrow, Wang Li would have lost.

The degree of realism for the Mirror of Divine Void was indeed quite brilliant. Even the decapitated head looked like the real thing. There was a time limit for the clone, but no one will be able to tell until the time ran out.

Once the time runs out, the clone from the Mirror of Divine Void will disappear.

Before the clone disappears, Luo Tian won't be able to use the Mirror of Divine Void to call out another clone.

Martial Mountain City.

A courtyard within the Spirit Gathering Sect.

Hyena's face was pale, and there was blood trickling out from the corner of his mouth. The head that was wrapped in cloth had turned into powder, similar to a pulverized rock. How can a head become like this?

Wang Li had a furious expression on his face. Standing next to him was Wu Feng with a disdainful expression.

Wang Li coldly shouted, "Hyena, I've put so much trust in you, yet this is how you treat me?! Take a look at what this is! You used a fake head to mess with me?! Are you treating me, Wang Li, as a three year old child?! Are you treating the Spirit Gathering Sect like an ornament?!"

Extremely angry.

Yesterday, the head wasn't unwrapped for Wu Feng to see but was tossed to the side.

But no one expected Wu Feng would kick Luo Tian's head flying after cultivating in the martial training ground. He even sneered, "Damn trash, scram as far away from me as possible! Coming to the Ancient World with you is considered a huge insult to my name!"

The kick just happened to cause the cloth to unwrap.

There was no head and only a pile of powder.

This made Wu Feng pissed off!

He hated Luo Tian even more at that moment like Luo Tian had played with him.

This incident quickly entered Wang Li's ears. He was worried he would be blamed for not taking care of this matter properly and trying to conceal it as well. Therefore, he called Wu Feng over so that both of them could interrogate Hyena.

Once Hyena arrived, Wang Li smashed Hyena to the ground with a palm strike. This was considered as giving Wu Feng an explanation.

Attack first and talk later.

Hyena coughed a few times, "Impossible! I cut his head off personally! Even if I had ten thousand guts, I wouldn't dare to mess with Elder Wang! You are my regular customer! How could I, Hyena, dare to offend you? There must be something that went wrong somewhere."

"I don't care what went wrong. I only want that kid's head!"

"I want him to disappear forever and never be able to step into Martial Mountain City! Do you understand my words?!" Wang Li shouted in anger. Upon thinking of Luo Tian's bet, he unconsciously glanced over at Wu Feng. If he really had to slap Wu Feng in front of everyone, the sect leader would definitely blame him for everything. At that time, he might even lose his position as an Elder.

Wu Feng's expression was cold as he said with disdain, "No matter what, you are a martial artist at the Spirit Martial 4th rank. How come you can't even handle a piece of trash with a shattered dantian? Since you're so useless, why are you even still working as a bounty hunter?"

Wu Feng's tone was filled with cold arrogance.

Even though he was only at the Spirit Martial 2nd rank, his potential was unlimited.

Moreover, the entire Martial Mountain City had heard of his name in under three days. Everyone knew he had a middle talent. He was the only person in a hundred years with such a talent to show up in Martial Mountain City. This kind of talent will definitely get him chosen by a silver force!

When that time comes, the Spirit Gathering Sect will also have unlimited prospects.

This was Wu Feng's capital to be arrogant!

He didn't disappoint the Spirit Gathering Sect. He broke through to the Spirit Martial 2nd rank in just a day. This was something the low talent disciples wouldn't be able to accomplish even after several years.

This was sensational news that shook the entire Martial Mountain City!

Hyena was irritated internally but didn't dare to show it on his face. He carefully thought back to what Luo Tian said before he died and thought to himself, "Could that kid have a clone ability? Impossible... No matter how strong an artifact from a lower realm is, they cannot use it in the Ancient World. Does he have some high grade treasure from the Ancient World? This is most likely it! Otherwise, how could he have tricked me like this?"

Immediately after, Hyena said, "Elder Wang, brother Wu, I will immediately re-enter Martial Mountain. Tomorrow before the sun rises, I will definitely bring his head back to you both. I will not disappoint you two a second time!"

"Humph~!"

"If you cannot bring that kid's head back to see me before tomorrow's sunrise, you can forget about ever coming back to see me." Wang Li harrumphed while flicking his sleeves.

Hyena quickly withdrew out of the courtyard. He looked toward Martial Mountain and grunted in anger, "Damn dog thing, you just wait for me!"

Inside the courtyard, Wang Li's expression turned back to normal. "He can't even take care of such a tiny matter. He is really good for nothing. If I had known it would turn out like this, I would've taken care of it personally."

Wu Feng faintly smiled, "Why would a piece of trash need you to personally take action? Even if he manages to survive for three days, as long as he appears in Martial Mountain City, I will not give him any chances and just personally kill him."

He was only a piece of trash with a shattered dantian that could be killed with a single hand.

Luo Tian had been hiding out there for the rest of the afternoon. He had teased the queen quite a bit and pissed her off. Luo Tian really didn't dare to go back until her anger subsided.

But Luo Tian wasn't sitting around doing nothing; he had been continuing to kill Mountain Wolves in the afternoon.

His experience bar went up by over two hundred points, and he was missing two-thirds of the bar before breaking through into the Spirit Martial 4th rank.

He went back to the stream and washed his face.

Luo Tian suddenly recalled something, "That's right! The White Wolf King exploded with a wolf cub. I almost forgot that thing!"

After reminding himself, Luo Tian immediately summoned the pup. A white fluffy creature similar to a newborn puppy flopped to the ground. It was a little chubby and very likable at first sight. It was currently asleep like a little silly thing.

“Heh heh...”

“With this little thing, I believe the queen will not be able to kill me, no matter how ferocious she is.”

After saying that, Luo Tian grabbed a few larger fishes and a leg of a Mountain Wolf.

He then started humming a tune and twisting his butt while walking back to the cave.

Once he was near the cave, Luo Tian slowed down his pace and became more cautious. He went inside the cave and noticed the queen was no longer there. He saw some fish bones on the ground and a fish that was only half cooked and was thrown to the side after a few bites.

“Eh...”

Just when he was about to turn around, he felt the tip of a sword pushed against his back. Luo Tian swallowed some saliva before saying, “My queen, there’s no need to poke me with a sword. Usually, it’s the man that does the poking, so can you not be like this?”

“Humph~!”

“You finally have the guts to come back?!” The queen said coldly.

In reality, she went out not long after Luo Tian left. She checked the surrounding terrain and checked up on Luo Tian to see what he was up to. She was actually worried the Scarlet Heart Poison would flare up in Luo Tian.

She didn’t know why she was worried about a total stranger.

And it happened to be a glib talking scoundrel.

Luo Tian relaxed with a chuckle, "I wanted to make something good for you to eat. Your injuries have just healed, so you need some supplements to assist you. Look, I got you a leg of a Mountain Wolf."

The queen pulled her sword away. It was unknown if she was moved by Luo Tian or if she was very hungry. "I'm hungry now. Hurry up and go make me some food!"

"Order received, my queen!"

Chapter 906: You Are My Experience Baby

"Good!"

"It tastes very good!"

The queen said with satisfaction. Her mouth was covered in oil, and she had completely lost the style a queen should maintain.

No one can resist delicious food.

Especially a queen that was also a foodie.

She was very satisfied as she had never eaten such good grilled meat. She said to herself, "So meat can taste this good! It's really too delicious!"

One Mountain Wolf leg and two fat fish were all eaten by the queen. Luo Tian only ate the scraps.

After eating and washing her face, the queen reverted back to her cold and majestic appearance. She then said to Luo Tian, "Your ability to grill meat is not bad. From today onward, you shall be my personal chef. You do whatever I tell you to. If you dare to not obey... humph~... I will teach you a good lesson."

Luo Tian had a look of not caring, "You aren't afraid of my saliva getting on the food?"

“You...”

“If you dare randomly get your saliva on the food, I will sew your mouth shut!” said the queen. Her expression quickly changed to one of curiosity as she asked, “When you killed the White Wolf King, I could sense that there’s something strange about you. Your dantian is incomplete, yet you can still make breakthroughs. This is really too strange.”

Luo Tian smiled, “Do you want to know the reason why?”

She was rather curious about the matters to do with Luo Tian.

According to the martial artists of this world, a crippled dantian cannot absorb the yuan energy from heaven and earth. One needs to absorb yuan energy into their dantian, then refine the energy with their dantian before circulating it throughout their body. Only then can they break the shackles in order to advance their realm.

A crippled dantian meant that one could not absorb yuan energy. In other words, that person cannot make any breakthroughs in their cultivation.

Luo Tian can actually still make breakthroughs.

When Luo Tian was facing Liu Wang and the other three, he showed no traces of panic on his face. Even when Liu Wang attacked with his Spirit Martial 4th rank powers, Luo Tian still had a calm and steady look on his face without a hint of fear. Even though she did save Luo Tian in the end, she felt that the fight without her interference would still somehow end up with Liu Wang lying on the ground.

The queen nodded, “I really want to know.”

Luo Tian replied, “Can you help me with something then? Of course, I will allow you to see how I make my breakthroughs as payment. It’s also fine if you don’t wish to help me.”

The queen faintly furrowed her brow with a very skeptical look on her face, "What do you need help with?"

Luo Tian replied, "My queen, please don't think of anything dirty, okay? Are you thinking I want you to do something perverted? I really don't know why your brain is filled with that stuff. If you are obsessed with those kinds of things, then I can only resentfully lower myself to cooperate with you."

The queen's expression sank. She actually thought Luo Tian would make some unreasonable demands.

The queen's face instantly turned ice cold, "Hurry up and say it."

Luo Tian asked, "Are you willing to team up with me?"

"Ding!"

The system gave off an alert tone, "A group request has been sent to the other party."

Luo Tian wasn't surprised by this alert. He already had his eye on the queen's cultivation from the very beginning. If she was able to help him kill some demonic beasts, his life would be too relaxing, and his experience bar would be flying up like crazy.

Luo Tian's cultivation was at the Spirit Martial 3rd rank. He can still handle demonic beasts at the 1st rank, but if he had to fight ones in the 2nd rank, he would definitely not be their match.

Since he was determined to head back to Martial Mountain City to slap Wang Li and Wu Feng's faces, he had to have sufficient power in his hands. He was going to let all these people take a good look at his capabilities. So what if he had zero talent? So what if someone has a middle talent?

The queen hesitated for a moment before nodding her head, "Fine, I will agree to it."

She was also muttering to herself, "It's just the right time for me to start looking for spiritual herbs to clear my poison. Even though the Scarlet Heart Poison is no longer a threat to my life, the latent poison hiding in my body is still a threat. And this kid is also poisoned by it. It may be slight, but the poison might erupt on any given day. With his cultivation realm, there's no way he can resist the poison at that time."

The Scarlet Heart Poison was a powerful poison made by the Sky Devil Sect.

It was a poison especially refined by them to deal with high cultivation realm martial artists. The poison is very hard to remove and will always hide in the victim's body, where it can erupt at any time.

Apart from detoxifying the poison, her cultivation had not completely recovered yet, so she still had to recuperate a while longer. The Martial Mountain Range was the perfect place to hide momentarily because the killers from the Sky Devil Sect would probably think she went to Martial Mountain City to hide.

"Ding!"

"Group has successfully formed!"

"Heh heh..." Luo Tian chuckled to himself. He then said, "Let's start right now. Nighttime is when there are the most demonic beasts about. When we go and kill together, you will eventually see how I make my breakthroughs."

"When I reach the Spirit Martial 5th rank, I will get a reward from the system. At that time... X-ray vision reward... I will look at her... hahaha... Nothing will be able to hide from my eyes! Her whole body will be revealed before me, hahaha..." Luo Tian started laughing like crazy from his fantasy.

The queen was staring at Luo Tian before saying to herself, "Let's see what kind of tricks you will be playing now, humph~!"

Half an hour later.

This was the first time Luo Tian acted like some arrogant bastard. He released his powers and shouted, “Is there no one here that can fight?! Weren’t you guys howling with excitement?! Why don’t you all come out here now!”

Luo Tian was no longer worried about the lack of demonic beasts since he had an expert by his side.

Not long after, a Golden Cobra shot out from a large tree.

Luo Tian immediately retreated with frightened eyes. “My queen, please kill it!”

The cold noble aura of the queen surged out. The sword in her hand blurred, and the Golden Cobra was chopped into two halves.

Instant kill!

Luo Tian was frozen in shock, “Wow, her cultivation realm has reached a terrifying level!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Golden Cobra. You have gained 18 experience points, 1 yuan energy...”

“Not bad!”

“It’s higher than what I would get for killing Mountain Wolves now.” Luo Tian had a satisfied look at how many experience points he received. He was in a group and only got a portion of the experience, so 18 points was really not bad.

The queen glanced over at Luo Tian and asked coldly, “How do you make your breakthroughs?”

Luo Tian took a step in the direction of the corpse and replied, "Don't be in such a rush; I will let you see very soon. We have only just begun."

After saying that, Luo Tian sprinkled the Golden Cobra's blood all over his body like he was afraid the demonic beasts wouldn't smell it. The scent of blood diffused out in all directions, and the sound of beasts getting worked up could be heard a few minutes later. The thumping of demonic beasts running could be heard in the dark forest.

He seemed to have attracted over a dozen rank 1 demonic beasts.

When Luo Tian attracted all those demonic beasts, he ran behind the queen and said, "It's all up to you now."

The queen didn't reply. All she wanted to know was how Luo Tian was going to make a breakthrough during this time.

The reason was that her biological little brother also had a crippled dantian!

She wanted to know how Luo Tian accomplished it. She wanted to find out how Luo Tian made his breakthroughs. In the Ancient World, a martial artist with a crippled dantian meant the heavens had given you a death sentence!

Her little brother used to be a supreme genius, so she didn't want him to wallow in despair for the rest of his life anymore.

Chapter 907: Meeting Again

"Kill!"

"Kill quicker!"

"Behind you!"

“To your left! To your right! Above your head! Can you move a little faster?!”

Luo Tian was standing to the side, pointing all over the place.

He was feeling extreme joy to the max!

The queen was a killing machine. She was his experience baby. All the low ranked demonic beasts were instantly killed by her. His experience points were flying, and his experience bar was around 90% full in just a few hours. He was only a few hundred points from leveling up right now.

Meanwhile, the queen had a belly full of fire.

She kept enduring and didn't blow her top.

“I want to see how you're going to make a breakthrough!”

“If you don't break through by the time the sun sets, you won't see tomorrow's sunrise,” said the queen coldly.

Luo Tian didn't care about what she said.

He ran over while dragging the corpse of a demonic beast. He then started shouting, “Ah~ wooo~ me! You bunch of garbage demonic beasts! Everyone, come at me! You bunch of lowly beasts, quickly come and bite me!”

Luo Tian kept attracting and provoking demonic beasts to come.

He was luring in a bunch of them each time and then ran toward the queen's side. After that, he would run to the side and start directing her left and right.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 18 experience points, 1 yuan energy...”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 20 experience points, 1 yuan energy...”

He was only missing a little bit of experience points to level up.

Luo Tian blasted out God Flame, then used Mountain River Fist and Wolf King Claws. The queen was a little confused as she wondered if Luo Tian had suddenly lost his mind.

In half an hour, Luo Tian had used up his yuan energy.

Proficiency in Mountain River Fist had risen to level 2, while the Wolf King Claws went to level 1.

God Flame... There were too many cooldowns, so the proficiency was only at a dozen or so points. It's unfortunate his Skill Necklace couldn't be used in the Ancient World, or else it wouldn't be so troublesome.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 15 experience points, 1 yuan energy...”

At this time, Luo Tian suddenly yelled, “Queen, please watch carefully!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. You are currently at the Spirit Martial 4th rank!”

“Ommm~!”

There was a humming noise coming from Luo Tian’s body. His attributes, including his body, strength, and yuan energy, all recovered to being full. Since he had suddenly become stronger, the queen naturally could see the signs of a breakthrough.

Except, she had become dumbstruck!

“How did you do it?!”

The queen had a serious expression while there was a trace of pleading in her eyes. “Can you tell me?”

Pleading?!

It was Luo Tian’s turn to be stunned.

The queen had always been standing up aloof while looking down on everything, but there was a pleading gaze in her eyes. This was very strange to Luo Tian, so he asked, “Before I tell you, can you tell me why you want to know how I make my breakthroughs?”

Luo Tian really wanted to know.

The queen was hesitant for a bit before replying, “My little brother is the same as you, with an incomplete dantian. He was once a supreme genius that could reach the peak of the Honorable Emperor realm. But... his dantian had shattered, and his cultivation decreased little by little. I want you to help him cultivate once more.”

A crippled dantian?

Luo Tian was surprised to hear this. He naturally understood the harshness of having a crippled dantian. After being called trash for several years, that kind of feeling was really difficult to stomach. But it was impossible for him to tell this queen that he had a leveling up system inside him.

He absolutely cannot tell anyone he has such a game-like system inside him.

This was his greatest secret.

Luo Tian was in thought for a while before saying, "I make my breakthroughs from killing demonic beasts. When you kill a demonic beast, I can absorb special energy from them to help me breakthrough. But this kind of method might not be possible for others."

"So it's like that?"

The queen's brow sank as she smiled bitterly, "Little brother Yun, your sister is useless..."

A painful look appeared on her face.

One can easily imagine how much she wanted to help her little brother.

She came all the way here to Martial Mountain in search of some type of spiritual herb that could heal a shattered dantian, but she found nothing after a month of looking. She then encountered the killers from Sky Devil Sect and ran for another half a month.

Seeing Luo Tian, she thought that she had found another method apart from finding an elixir to heal a shattered dantian. But with Luo Tian's words, her heart instantly fell to the depths of the abyss.

Luo Tian didn't know how to comfort her.

He had a leveling system to help him, so a shattered dantian didn't have too big of an effect on him. But he understood the pain for someone to have a shattered dantian. He still vividly remembered all the insults and the disdain he endured after transmigrating to a new world.

Luo Tian then said, "Your little brother wasn't born with a shattered dantian, so there should be a way somewhere out there. Even if one is born like that, there still should be a way to heal them somewhere in this world."

The queen looked over and gave a faint smile, "I hope so too. It's getting late; we should head back to rest. Tomorrow, I will bring you to the depths of Martial Mountain because I need to find some spiritual herbs to detoxify the Scarlet Heart Poison on me. You also have the Scarlet Heart Poison in you. If we don't get rid of it, you won't be able to handle it once the poison erupts."

The queen turned around to leave after saying that.

Luo Tian was unwilling because he wanted to kill until dawn. His cultivation might hit Spirit Martial 5th rank at that time and get his first system reward.

But when Luo Tian thought about entering the depths of Martial Mountain tomorrow, he instantly became happy. "Killing high ranking demonic beasts will give me much more experience points. Leveling up will no longer be an issue by then, hahaha... my X-ray vision, I'm coming!"

"Wait for me!"

Luo Tian quickly rushed after the queen, whose figure was about to disappear.

A single man and a single woman living in the same cave.

This was what youth was all about!

Youths all had needs, so imagine dry wood meeting a hot fire... What if... something awesome happens?

"Gulp~!"

Luo Tian swallowed down a mouthful of saliva.

Half an hour later, the two of them returned to the cave.

Except, there was a person that had been waiting for them for a long time.

The bounty hunter, Hyena!

He had been hiding and waiting for Luo Tian to return. Luo Tian had fooled him before, which made Wang Li slap him. He was putting all his misery on Luo Tian's head. As long as Luo Tian showed up, he was going to make him pay a painful price for it!

The queen was surprised and whispered, "Someone's here."

Immediately after, her figure became a blur as she disappeared from the spot.

Her speed was so fast that Luo Tian barely had time to react to her words.

She had been waiting for the killers from Sky Devil Sect to show up, so her vigilance was never lowered.

Luo Tian bit the bullet and walked toward the cave to act as a decoy.

At this time, Hyena walked out and glared at Luo Tian with killing intent. "You damn dog thing! You're finally back!"

"Who would've thought that you were really still alive!"

"Today, I want to see how you're going to use your clone again!"

Hyena was furious as the dagger in his hand glimmered with coldness. His power was fierce, and his speed fast, causing him to almost attack instantaneously.

Luo Tian was briefly stunned before revealing a smile on his face. "I told you before that the next time we meet, you are going to die!"

Chapter 908: You Must Have Fallen For Me

Hyena appeared and said the clone couldn't deceive him anymore.

Based on his furious expression, it looks like it was Wang Li who found out.

That meant the inhabitants of Martial Mountain City knew he was still alive.

Today was the third day and also the last night before the bet was up. If Luo Tian doesn't die, Wang Li will have to slap Wu Feng in front of everyone.

For such a matter, not to mention Wang Li, even the entire Spirit Gathering Sect wouldn't allow it to happen.

Everyone already witnessed Wu Feng's middle talent potential bursting forth. In less than three years, most likely, a silver level force will have their eyes on him. At that time, the Spirit Gathering Sect's status will increase, and they might even be given the right to govern the entire Martial Mountain City.

Hyena was considered an outstanding bounty hunter.

His cultivation realm wasn't that high, but his other abilities were very strong.

He had once killed a Spirit Martial 5th rank expert, whose cultivation was a level higher than his. This was basically his claim to fame.

The moment Luo Tian appeared, the dagger in his hand broke through the air. His steps were like a ghost as he released all his Spirit Martial 4th rank power. This move wasn't intended to instantly kill Luo Tian since he was planning on torturing him for a good amount of time first.

He was going to vent all the unhappiness and rage he felt toward Wang Li onto Luo Tian.

Luo Tian didn't move from his spot.

Even the queen, who had disappeared to the side, muttered, "You're not going to dodge?"

The strike was extremely fast. If Luo Tian didn't make an attempt to dodge soon, Hyena's strike would definitely hit him.

Luo Tian didn't dodge and had a sneer on his face. "I was afraid of you when I was at the Spirit Martial 2nd rank. But now... heh heh... do you think I'm still the same person as the other day?"

Just as Hyena's dagger slashed across his chest, Luo Tian suddenly released a God Flame.

A cluster of flames shot out from Luo Tian's palm.

"Boom~!"

Hyena had already calculated this move from Luo Tian.

He scoffed, "You think this move can stop me?"

A shield from an unknown place suddenly appeared in his hand to block.

After experiencing last time's attack, Hyena was prepared for it this time.

This time, he wasn't going to let this weird flame interrupt his momentum.

Luo Tian grinned and said, "Idiot!"

All his heavenly flames had fused to become God Flame. It wasn't very strong right now, but it still had an extra ability of an instant kill chance. This was something his heavenly flames didn't have. Apart from that, God Flame kept all the attributes of his heavenly flames, such as ignoring all defenses!

"Boom~!"

God Flame phased through the shield and landed on Hyena's chest.

Hyena's expression sank, "Why?!"

It wasn't just him. Even the queen, who was hiding somewhere, was dumbstruck. She said to herself, "What kind of martial skill is that? It can go through a shield? That shield isn't any special spiritual treasure, but it's more than enough to deal with that small ball of flame. How did it pass through it? And that shield doesn't seem to be damaged at all. What other things is this kid hiding from me?"

The instant kill chance didn't activate.

But this was within Luo Tian's calculations.

That 5% chance was just too hard to trigger.

The moment God Flame shot out, Luo Tian already started moving as he released his Spirit Martial 4th rank power. When God Flame exploded on Hyena's chest, Luo Tian slammed his left shoulder into him.

"Bang~!"

"Mountain River Fist!"

His fists surged with energy before the sound of air ripping apart was heard.

The heavy strike was too fast, so Hyena couldn't react in time. He suffered several attacks in a row and was forced backward.

Luo Tian didn't stop yet as he got close once more. His fingers turned to claws, and the sound of a wolf's howl was heard. Luo Tian grabbed forth and pulled Hyena back toward him. The three second cold down was over.

"Mountain River Fist!"

A pair of fists smashed forth like a canon.

"Bang~!"

Hyena was smashed flying and crashed onto a large tree. He sprayed out a mouthful of blood, and his face instantly turned pale. His eyes were large and wide with shock as he stared at Luo Tian, "You, you... How can your cultivation... How can it be at the Spirit Martial 4th rank?!"

Luo Tian's series of fluid attacks were like running water and extremely beautiful to watch.

God Flame interrupted Hyena's attack pattern.

Luo Tian then got close and punched out with Mountain River Fist. Just when Hyena was unstable, he used Wolf King Claws to pull him back and then blasted him with another Mountain River Fist after its cooldown.

The timing and the linking of martial skills were considered perfect.

There were no flaws.

Luo Tian rarely played those online fighting games in his previous life, but linking moves and skills together was one of the most basic understandings one needed.

Hyena was heavily injured by this.

The queen was shocked by this and unconsciously blurted out, "Beautiful!"

This was a Spirit Martial 4th ranker that was able to display his martial skill technique to the utmost speed and power. Even those high talent geniuses in the academy might not be able to accomplish this. It was simply too perfect!

How can such high level combat techniques appear on a person in a tiny city here?

How come there aren't any strong forces taking him in yet?

The queen was briefly in thought before her brows sank. "I know now! It's definitely because his dantian has been crippled. How come those guys haven't thought of how he was able to ascend here from a lower realm with a crippled dantian? He definitely has something special about him."

"I've discovered a treasure!"

"If he were to enter the academy, he would definitely make those combat professors drop their eyeglasses! Hahaha..." The queen started getting excited.

Now, Luo Tian did not look as annoying as before.

Luo Tian walked to Hyena's side and said, "Why? There are many unanswered questions in life. You already came to kill me once. Now, you have come to kill me a second time. Why are you doing this? Did Wang Li make you do it?"

"Humph~!"

"Last time, I already told you that you would die if I saw you again. I gave you such a good opportunity, but you didn't cherish it, so you cannot blame me now."

Hyena's chest had fractured, and he couldn't stand up anymore. He looked at Luo Tian and asked, "Please spare me..."

Luo Tian punched forth without waiting for him to finish speaking. Hyena was instantly killed. While staring at his corpse, Luo Tian said, "I will never spare the life of someone that wants to kill me. If I spare you now, what if you come to assassinate me the next time? Do I look like an idiot?"

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Hyena. You have gained 85 experience points, 10 yuan energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining one Yuan Foundation Pill."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 69 xuan coins."

"Sin points +1."

The system gave off several alerts.

At this time, the queen came out from a dark area and stared at Luo Tian without blinking.

Luo Tian touched his face and asked, "Is there a flower on my face? Why are you staring at me like that?"

The queen shook her head.

She suddenly felt that the man in front of her was not ordinary. Not to mention his unique way of making breakthroughs, his fighting abilities were extremely strong. He was a piece of treasure!

Luo Tian suddenly chuckled and said, "You must have fallen for me!"

Chapter 909: Blank

The good feelings she had toward Luo Tian had risen a little bit, but it went back to negative after hearing his words. The queen coldly glared at Luo Tian before heading inside the cave.

“Wow!”

“A single male and a single female, staying together in a cave of the wilderness... Isn't the level of sex in the wild a little too high?”

“I never expected this to happen!”

Luo Tian quickly walked over in excitement. Just when he was about to enter, the queen's cold voice was heard. “If you dare to take half a step into the cave tonight, I will cut off that thing between your legs.”

Her tone sounded very serious without any hint of playing around.

Luo Tian clamped his legs together and tightened his sphincter muscle. He stopped walking and chuckled, “Why would I step into the cave? I was just planning on standing here to stand guard for you. This humid cave will definitely have a lot of rats, cockroaches, and furry caterpillars crawling around.”

“Humph~!”

“Do you think I'm like the other girls afraid of such things?” The queen coldly commented.

Luo Tian scratched his head before saying, “I didn't say you were scared, but I was just advising you. Maybe you should let me inside so that I can help you catch any of those insects at night. I am doing this out of the goodness of my heart and won't do anything reckless. Based on the current weather, it might even start raining tonight. I could catch a cold, and maybe the Scarlet Heart Poison suddenly erupts when I'm sick!”

“Enough of your nonsense!”

“It would be great if you died!” The queen then threw her sword, which stabbed into the ground at the mouth of the cave. “Try me if you have the guts!”

After saying that, the queen leaned against the wall and closed her eyes.

Luo Tian sighed and said to himself, “A queen is truly a queen. She’s not afraid of anything. Who knows if she’s really not afraid of pretending to be not afraid.”

Luo Tian wanted to find some caterpillars or a mouse to give it a try, but he was too tired right now.

He was extremely tired after two days and one night without rest and overdrawing his strength.

He leaned against the outside of the cave and started snoring not long after.

At this time, the queen’s eyes faintly opened. Her mouth curved into a smile, and she, too, fell asleep shortly after.

She hadn’t had a good rest ever since she had been running for half a month.

She started dreaming not long after.

A night without words.

Luo Tian wanted something to happen in the middle of the night, but he slept all the way to the morning from being too tired.

“Ahhh~...”

Luo Tian stretched his waist before walking into the cave and finding the queen wasn't there. A short distance away, the faint sounds of sword ripping air apart could be heard. The sound was crisp and clear, similar to a gentle stream. It was as if she wasn't practicing her sword techniques but performing a sword dance.

Luo Tian walked over.

He observed the queen holding her sword while dressed in black lace clothing. The way she was dressed was similar to those tight t-shirts girls wore in his previous life. They highlighted all the curves of a woman's body and made them look super hot. If she were to wear a pair of short shorts along with it, then that would be even more perfect.

But Luo Tian instantly changed his mind and felt it would be even more perfect if she wore a bikini.

The queen was currently training in a sword technique that Luo Tian couldn't understand.

Her black silhouette would sometimes move slowly and nimble, and sometimes move fast like lightning. While performing these movements, her body maintained the air of being above all others and rejected all mundane commoners away. The more she had this aura, the more it fostered a desire to conquer her.

Luo Tian stood there and said to himself, "I will push you down one day."

"You're awake?" The queen casually asked while pulling back her sword.

Luo Tian nodded, "En~"

The queen's expression quickly changed, and said, "Since you're awake, why aren't you preparing my breakfast?"

"I..."

“When did I become your servant?”

Luo Tian then shouted, “I’m not hungry! If you’re hungry, go do it yourself! I am not your servant!”

The queen replied, “Then, are you still planning on coming with me today to go kill demonic beasts in the depths of the mountain?”

Luo Tian instantly replied, “My queen, what do you wish to eat? I will get the dragon meat from the heavens if you want that for your breakfast.”

Luo Tian was already dreaming of entering the depths of the mountain to kill demonic beasts last night. With the expert queen by his side, this was the exact example of being carried by a high level player. Killing demonic beasts would be super relaxing for him. What he needed right now was to level up as much as possible.

He was just a little away from the Spirit Martial 5th rank, which can trigger the system’s reward.

If he was really rewarded with the X-ray vision... Luo Tian slurped back his saliva before running out to do his work.

The breakfast choices were plentiful. There was fish, meat, and even a salad.

These were all the things he learned during his previous life since he did everything personally. Luo Tian wasn’t willing to keep eating takeout because they weren’t very healthy, so he prepared most of his own meals at home. He was capable of cooking a lot of dishes, and for the dishes he didn’t know, he would go learn them on the internet.

The queen cleaned out most of the food and left a tiny portion for Luo Tian.

“Not bad.”

“You were able to make so many dishes in the wilderness. How many girls have you cheated with such abilities?” The queen asked calmly.

Luo Tian replied, “You are the first one. And I’m not sure if I’ve managed to cheat you into my arms yet.”

“Heh heh...” The queen coldly laughed before saying, “You should save it for someone else.”

“My queen, you should be full from eating, right? Now should be the time for serious business.” Luo Tian was in no mood to chat with her because time was of the essence. He first had to level up to Spirit Martial 5th rank, get his X-ray vision, and then they could chat until the end of time.”

“Hee hee...” Luo Tian chuckled treacherously inside.

The queen reverted to her cool expression, “You need to keep up with my speed.”

As her voice faded, her figure dashed out like a gust of wind.

Luo Tian used all his strength as a Spirit Martial 4th ranker to catch up with her.

Martial Mountain City.

A small courtyard in the Spirit Gathering Sect.

Wang Li had an unhappy look on his face because Hyena didn’t show up at dawn. This meant that he had failed to find Luo Tian, or he had chosen to escape!

No matter what, he had lost the bet he had made with Luo Tian.

Losing meant he had to slap Wu Feng in front of everyone.

This morning, everyone in Martial Mountain City was discussing this topic.

This matter also reached the ears of the Spirit Gathering Sect's leader, and he was very angry after hearing it.

Wu Feng was currently the treasure of their Spirit Gathering Sect. Slapping him was equivalent to slapping the entire Spirit Gathering Sect's face. This absolutely cannot happen! This will likely create a psychological shadow in Wu Feng's heart. If this matter affected his cultivation speed...

This cannot be allowed to happen!

"I don't care what methods you use! I don't want that trash called Luo Tian to ever show up in Martial Mountain City!"

Those were the words of the sect leader.

It was very clear the leader was enraged.

If Wang Li cannot take care of this matter properly, then there's no need for him to continue staying here.

Wu Feng's status was even more important than his.

Most important of all, Wu Feng was already at the doorstep of the Spirit Martial 3rd rank and could break through with a little bit more time. Breaking through twice in three days was considered a horrifying speed. A person with a middle talent was simply heaven-defying!

Chapter 910: I Want X-ray Vision

The depths of the Martial Mountain Range.

The queen was flying at a low altitude.

Luo Tian desperately chased after her. He was still at Spirit Martial 4th rank, so he was unable to gather his energy to fly. He could only run with his legs. Through their travels, he was covered in sweat, panting for air, and basically tired to the max.

But the queen had no intention of stopping.

She didn't lower her speed and continued at a quick pace.

She was hiding her shock as she said to herself, "From this morning to now, it's been about two hours, yet he can still keep up with me. His body's endurance seems to be stronger than someone at the Spirit Martial 4th rank. This guy has unlimited potential. If his cultivation speed is as fast as he says, then... he is definitely a diamond in the rough! Just some cuts and polishing, and he will emit blinding light!"

"Most importantly, my little brother will be inspired by him when they meet, and he will no longer be so depressed."

They had encountered many demonic beasts in their travels, but those demonic beasts never dared to get close.

They were completely intimidated by her aura. When Luo Tian ran by a demonic beast, he could feel the fear emanating from deep inside their heart. He was shocked by this and said to himself, "Exactly how high is her cultivation level? How can these demonic beasts seem to be scared to such an extent?"

"This woman is too extraordinary. I think it's going to be very difficult to conquer her."

"But I, Luo Tian, have never been afraid of difficult things. The harder it is, the more fun the challenge."

Seeing that the queen was about to leave his sight, Luo Tian gritted his teeth and desperately chased after her.

Half an hour later.

The queen suddenly stopped and squatted in place. She then carefully dug around for something.

Luo Tian was gasping for air as he walked over. Even his hair was dripping with sweat at this rate. If he didn't take a rest soon, most likely, he would be exhausted to death. Running for nearly five hours and through the primitive forest was just too detrimental.

"What kind of spiritual herb is that?"

The queen didn't reply and dug out a small plant with tiny purple fruits. Only after successfully digging out the spiritual herb giving off a purple glow, did she exhale and say, "Purple Spirit Grass. It's a spiritual herb where Purple Spirit Fruit grows on."

Luo Tian wasn't clear on the spiritual herbs from this world, so he only replied with an "oh" without any surprise.

When the queen saw his expression, she asked, "Aren't you excited?"

Luo Tian was half dead from being too tired. "Excited about what? That this spiritual herb can bear some fruits?"

The queen looked at Luo Tian like she was looking at a monster. "Do you know how hard it is to find this spiritual herb? This can sell for over a thousand xuan coins, yet you act so indifferently about it. This spiritual herb has a price, but there is never any stock!"

Luo Tian still didn't understand what kind of concept that was, so he just gave a faint "oh" as a response.

The queen was speechless. She carefully placed the herb in a small cloth bag before looking around. "We should be close to the heart of the Martial Mountain Range. The demonic beasts in this area are at least rank 3. Just follow behind me, and don't do anything reckless."

Luo Tian nodded, "That's precisely what I was planning on doing."

Acting reckless? There's no way he would do such a thing.

He had no energy to act recklessly, even if he wanted to. Moreover, he knew how strong a rank 3 demonic beast was here, so even if he had the energy to do so, his attacks would be similar to tickling them.

Before they finished talking, a Long-armed Spirit Monkey jumped off a large tree and landed before them.

The queen raised her sword and carefully approached it.

This place wasn't the outer periphery of the mountain range anymore.

All the demonic beasts here were high ranking, so even she had to be careful when dealing with them.

But to her, she could still easily deal with these rank 3 and 4 demonic beasts.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 56 experience points, 2 yuan energy..."

"Hahaha..."

"I'm getting three times the experience than yesterday! Today, I should be able to break through into Spirit Martial 5th rank!" Luo Tian said to himself excitedly. He then thought, "X-ray vision, here I come! Hahaha..."

The hunt progressed quickly.

Luo Tian's experience bar also went up quickly.

By noon, his experience bar had already reached 50%.

He should be able to level up late afternoon.

Apart from killing demonic beasts, the queen would direct Luo Tian to dig up some spiritual herbs.

There weren't many people that were capable of entering the depths of Martial Mountain, so there were still many types of spiritual herbs growing in the area. You could find one every dozen or so steps. Luo Tian didn't care if they were useful or not; he would dig them out as long as they were spiritual herbs.

All these spiritual herbs can be sold for money.

He didn't forget that he had a new store system.

As long as he had enough xuan coins, he could use them to buy all the good stuff inside his store system.

The store shelves even had divine artifacts!

"Roar~!" A vicious looking tiger pounced at the queen.

The queen's sword danced about as she leaped into the air. Her sword technique was similar to the League of Legends Spear of Vengeance move. Her movements were simply too beautiful. Each time she made a move, it would be fast and accurate.

She didn't give these demonic beasts a chance to run away.

Luo Tian almost gasped in fright several times, but she was able to deal with them with ease. At first, Luo Tian guessed that her cultivation was in the Martial Void realm. Now, he felt like it might be even higher than that. In the Ancient World, someone in the Martial Void realm was already considered an expert with a terrifying cultivation.

Above Martial Void was Great Diffusion and Myriad Illusion, realms that belonged to overlords of a certain territory.

The queen was truly a queen.

This was her capital to be called a queen!

“Senior brother, I can already smell her blood.”

“It looks like she has stayed here for a while. Based on the scene, she hasn’t left yet, and there is someone helping her. I’m afraid her Scarlet Heart Poison has mostly been detoxified. If she has recovered her yuan energy, the three of us are no longer her match.”

“What are you afraid of? It’s not that easy to get rid of the Scarlet Heart Poison. Do you think our Sky Devil Sect’s specialty poison is that easy to detoxify?”

“She’s definitely gone out to look for some spiritual herbs as an antidote.”

“Senior brother, do we wait here for her, or do we...”

“Old Three, you stay here to wait. Old Two, you come with me into the mountains,” said a middle-aged man in a black cloak. These past two days, they couldn’t find her aura within Martial Mountain City, so that meant she hadn’t left the mountains yet.

The three of them immediately rushed back after realizing that.

This woman was someone they had to take down.

Whether it was for the Sky Devil Sect or for them personally, there were huge benefits involved.

In order to hunt down this woman, they had already paid a huge price.

Most of their combined lifetime savings had been used up. If they cannot kill her, then they really have suffered a huge loss.

After speaking, the middle-aged man in the black cloak instantly disappeared at high speed.

Another person immediately followed.

The third person silently hid himself.

Around noon at Martial Mountain City.

Wang Li was still waiting for Hyena.

Seeing how Hyena still wasn't back, the rage inside his heart couldn't be suppressed anymore. He shouted, "Someone come!"

"Here!"

"Go bring that kid's head back to me!"

"Order received!"

“Luo Tian, you damn piece of trash, I will definitely kill you!”
