Chapter 951 – Store System, What Should I Buy?

Luo Tian was just lost in thought in a negative mood when it came to Yi Yunmeng.

But this made Dongfang Shuo extremely worried.

After hearing him shout, Luo Tian was startled awake and immediately said, “I’m fine. I’m really fine. You can save the Imperial Dragon Pill for your own use.”

Dongfang Shuo felt that Luo Tian was being overly polite, as if he couldn’t accept such a favor or that he feared there would be certain conditions behind it. He immediately said, “Don’t worry, little brother Luo. I will not request you to enter the Dongfang family or ask you to do something on my behalf. I just wanted to thank you. The Imperial Dragon Pill is able to cure all poisons. Even though it cannot fully resist the backlash from the Heavenly Abstruse Pill, it can still offer some relief from the pain.”

Luo Tian could see the truth in Dongfang Shuo’s eyes.

He was hiddenly moved by this.

In this man-eat-man world, having a brother who is genuinely good to you is a very precious thing that Luo Tian would cherish.

If it weren’t for Dongfang Shuo’s words at the very beginning of the competition, Wu Feng and Wang Huan would renege on the bet.

The outcome may not have ended like it has right now.

Luo Tian was already very grateful to Dongfang Shuo then.

Dongfang Shuo was afraid that someone would harm Luo Tian on the stage, so he disregarded the family rules and openly interfered in the affairs of Martial Mountain City. He then defended Luo Tian in front of the whole city. Luo Tian was grateful for all those things done for him.

Even though he wasn't afraid of anything, he would still acknowledge and remember the person who was willing to stand up for him.

Now that Dongfang Shuo was treating him like a brother, Luo Tian felt that he shouldn't hide anything from him. "Listen to me, big brother. The backlash from the Heavenly Abstruse Pill is not a threat to me, and it has already passed. Look at me, and you can see there's nothing wrong with me. The Imperial Dragon Pill is something your father left for you, so you need to save it for yourself."

"There's nothing wrong with your body?"

Dongfang Shuo was briefly stunned, "How can there be nothing wrong? Even with my current cultivation, I would still be seriously injured from taking a Heavenly Abstruse Pill. You're saying you're fine? Are you lying to me? If you are, you are not treating me like a big brother. I'm going to look down on you for that."

Luo Tian replied, "I'm really okay. If there was really something wrong, I would definitely not reject your offer."

"Is it really true?"

"It's the absolute truth!"

"You aren't lying to me, right?"

"I'm really not lying!"

Dongfang Shuo felt this was rather strange but chose to believe in Luo Tian. He then laughed, "I've already said that you aren't a simple person, and this shows I'm correct! Little brother Luo, your performance today was simply too fantastic, hahaha..."

Dongfang Shuo was a man of passion.

Once his heart knot was unraveled, his whole personality underwent a change.

Luo Tian scratched his head, "What's so fantastic about it? It was them that forced me into a corner. I didn't want it to turn out that way... heh heh..."

The two of them started laughing together.

At this time, the old steward came into the room with an exquisite looking box.

Dongfang Shuo said, "You are too stingy. Isn't it just an Imperial Dragon Pill? It's not even yours. Telling you to bring it to me is as if I want your life or something. You can put it back now. Little brother Luo has already resolved the backlash from the Heavenly Abstruse Pill by himself. But you need to keep this secret and not tell anyone about it. Otherwise..."

The elderly man was surprised and immediately said, "This old servant understands."

"En~, you can withdraw."

There were many things about the Ancient World that Luo Tian didn't know about, and now was a good time to ask. The most important question was how to get a Power of Blood Spirit. He wanted to unlock his Four Divine Beasts bloodline seal so that he could give Yi Yunmeng some essence blood before she left the city.

Luo Tian immediately asked, "Big brother Dongfang, do you know how much a high ranking blood spirit costs?"

Dongfang Shuo was stunned, "A Power of Blood Spirit? And it has to be a high ranking one? Do you need a blood spirit to cultivate? I'm afraid it will be very difficult for you to absorb a blood spirit with your current cultivation."

Luo Tian nodded, "I do have use for it."

Dongfang Shuo said, "Only a rank 7 demonic beast or higher would have a blood spirit, and a single one would need two to three million xuan coins. There's no way Martial Mountain City would have blood spirits for sale. Even Towering Cloud City might only have one or two since not many can afford it. Even if someone gets their hands on a blood spirit, they would not put it up for sale that easily. A Power of Blood Spirit is a very sacred material for cultivation, so pretty much no one would be willing to sell it."

For a world where martial strength reigned supreme, cultivation resources were the key to success.

The Power of Blood Spirit possesses the densest yuan energy from a demonic beast. It can provide a high ranking martial artist with several years of cultivation. So, who in their right mind would take it out to sell?

"Damn it..."

"Sure enough, it needs a few million xuan coins." Luo Tian's mind turned heavy. He originally thought he was rich with seventy thousand xuan coins. Now, he realized he was just a poor lousy bum. Seventy thousand and three million was too big a gap.

Luo Tian then said to himself, "It looks like buying a blood spirit is too unrealistic. And even if I can afford one, Dongfang Shuo said it isn't certain if anyone was willing to sell it. Buying one is definitely too difficult a route to take."

If he uses the Hulk Transformation card to kill rank 7 demonic beasts, Luo Tian wasn't sure if he could kill one within five minutes.

Even if he manages to kill one, he won't be able to use it again for another ten days. So, how was he supposed to escape the dangerous area of the mountain range?

This path won't work at all.

Most importantly, can a rank 7 demonic beast's blood spirit even unseal his bloodline? The system wouldn't give him any hints, so he wasn't entirely sure. Luo Tian then grumbled, "F*cking hell, is it really that hard for me to unseal my bloodline?"

Dongfang Shuo noticed Luo Tian in thought, so he asked, "Is a blood spirit that important to you? If you really need it..."

Luo Tian interrupted Dongfang Shuo and said, "Big brother Dongfang, I want to get it with my own abilities. There's no need to bother you with it."

This wasn't a hundred thousand or two. This was three million xuan coins we're talking about!

And this was just a rank 7 blood spirit. What if it was a rank 8, or a rank 9? The price would definitely be sky high. This amount of money to a family was probably something that wasn't easily taken out. Since Dongfang Shuo was residing in a place like Martial Mountain City, one can easily see that he wasn't that popular in the Dongfang family.

Dongfang Shuo might be able to help him, but the price he needs to pay will definitely be huge.

That was something Luo Tian didn't want to see.

A brother was someone to cherish.

Luo Tian continued, saying, "I'm not in a rush, so I will think of ways to get it myself."

Dongfang Shuo was rebuking himself internally before saying to Luo Tian, "Little brother Luo, I will do my best to find out news on the blood spirits. Even if I can't help you that much, I can still borrow the Dongfang family's name to get it for you at a lower price."

Luo Tian smiled, "Thank you, big brother Dongfang."

“You should be tired now. I’m not going to bother you any longer, so go ahead and rest in this room.” Dongfang Shuo left after saying this.

He then went in search of the old steward.

“Do you know how much xuan coins it costs in the market for a rank 7 blood spirit?”

“At least 2.8 million.”

“How much savings do I currently have?”

“Young master, why are you asking this?”

“Enough of the nonsense, and just tell me.”

“Your monthly allowance over the years and the inheritance the old master left you... The total is 1.5 million xuan coins.”

“I understand. During this period, gather news about blood spirits. I want to see if there’s anyone selling it. Don’t ask why; just do as I say.”

“This old servant obeys.”

Inside the room, Luo Tian was tossing and turning in bed, unable to sleep. He looked at the sack of money and smiled bitterly until thinking about the store his new system had. His eyes lit up as he said, “Since I have more than seventy thousand xuan coins, let’s see what I can buy!”

Chapter 952: Unable To Remain Calm

Luo Tian didn't really care about what the system's store had for sale when he was penniless.

Now, he still didn't have that much money.

But compared to when the system first upgraded, Luo Tian was now considered a sugar daddy or a mini tycoon.

Seventy thousand plus xuan coins was enough to cover the expenses of a small clan for a year.

Luo Tian then opened up the system's store.

"Divine Artifact: Sky Splitting Axe, 88 million xuan coins."

"Screw your grandpa!"

"Divine Artifact: Heaven Overturning Seal, 100 million xuan coins."

"Brother, can you lower the price a bit?"

"Divine Artifact: Eight-winged Angel Outfit, 230 million xuan coins."

"Your sister!"

They were all good stuff, but were so expensive that even your own mother wouldn't recognize you!

Luo Tian's face turned uglier the more he looked. "This daddy thought that seventy thousand xuan coins made me a mini tycoon. Motherf*cker, the more I look at the system's store list, the more I want to go kill myself."

"Big sister system, how about you make it even more unreasonable while you're at it?"

Inside the system store, the cheapest divine artifact was the Sky Splitting Axe. It wasn't that expensive; you can get one for the low price of 88 million xuan coins!

Luo Tian felt like his head was about to explode.

Seventy thousand xuan coins. Eighty-eight million xuan coins. The difference is a bit too f*cking wide, right?

“Next page!”

Luo Tian was no longer in the mood to look at the divine artifact section. Even though his drool had emptied out from staring at the divine artifacts, most likely, he wouldn't be able to have that much money even if he worked for ten lifetimes.

He could only give up for now.

But Luo Tian was telling himself, “Your granny! Once this daddy has money, I will buy up all those divine artifacts! Even if I have no use for them, I will just leave them at home or something!”

“Let's look at the sky artifacts.”

The grade of treasures was the same in the Ancient World as it was for the Tianxuan Continent.

They went from grade one to grade nine. Then, above grade nine was the spirit, then earth, then sky, then divine.

The difference was that a supreme divine artifact from a lower realm was still not as strong as a grade one artifact from the Ancient World. Even if a grade one piece of trash artifact from the Ancient World was brought to a lower realm, it could still suppress the lower realm's super divine artifact!

This was the impact due to the gap in a realm's difference.

“Sky Artifact: Unfettered Fan, 18 million xuan coins.”

“What a devastating blow!”

“Next page, earth artifacts!”

“Earth Artifact: Netherworld Cloak, 9.8 million xuan coins.”

Luo Tian’s eyes rolled back into his head as he almost fainted.

The stuff inside the system’s store was so good that it could take one’s life away. Luo Tian’s heart was all itchy from looking at them, but he couldn’t even afford to buy one thing. He even had the impulse to rob the store right now. “I don’t know if I can rob the store or not, but motherf*cker, I would loot and burn it to the ground afterward!”

What a hateful place!

Luo Tian clenched his teeth and skipped the spirit artifacts. He most likely wouldn’t be able to afford them either, so he might as well jump to the grade one items. Maybe his confidence will come back a bit.

“Grade One: Long Sword, 3000 xuan coins.”

“Scammer!”

“Grade One: Doran’s Sword, 4400 xuan coins.”

“Motherf*cker, there’s an item from League of Legends? Are you trying to scam me? The game charges 440 coins, and you are f*cking charging 4400? Are there any assholes worse than you?!”

“This is too screwed up!”

Luo Tian almost blew up in anger. If he could, he would drag out the designer of the store and then give them a vicious beating. Even though he can afford to buy these grade one treasures, would they be of any use here?

He might as well unseal his Forging skill and then make them himself.

“Removing my seal?”

“Shit!”

“I almost forgot about it!” Luo Tian quickly looked for spiritual medicine.

The system’s store had a lot of items.

It had everything, including items you have never thought of.

Luo Tian took a brief glance at the other artifacts and wasn’t in the mood to even look at their prices. He immediately opened up the area for spiritual medicine, and a large cauldron image appeared in his mind. Then, shelves of spiritual pills appeared.

It started from tier one to tier nine.

It then went to spirit pills, earth pills, sky pills, and then divine pills.

“Divine Pill: Resurrection Pill. The user can be resurrected if they have died within three days, and their cultivation will not regress, 1 billion...”

“1...”

Luo Tian was speechless upon seeing the long line of zeros. But upon thinking deeper, anything was possible as long as you kept your life. One billion xuan coins to buy a life... Luo Tian could only say, "Bro, can you make it cheaper?"

Suppose he had a Resurrection Pill, which meant having two lives. Wasn't this a bit too awesome?

Luo Tian kept looking and was suddenly dumbstruck. "Experience Pill?!"

"Wow!"

"I can even buy Experience Pills?" Luo Tian's eyes glazed over from the unexpected discovery. He needed experience points to level up... If he kept eating Experience Pills, he wouldn't need to go to that treacherous mountain to hunt demonic beasts anymore. He could directly eat Experience Pills to level up in the comfort of home!

"Ten million Experience Pill... 10 million xuan coins!"

"Thirty Million Experience Pill... 30 million xuan coins."

"One Hundred Million Experience Pill... 100 million xuan coins."

"F*ck you, asshole!"

"What a scam!"

Luo Tian wanted to cry because this was too discouraging.

Not only were there Experience Pills but there was also a Double Experience Pill, a Double Attack Pill, a Double Gale Pill... The most breathtaking thing for Luo Tian was that there was even a Double Endurance Pill. "Your sister! You're even selling medicine for guys to last longer in bed?!"

Upon looking at all the spiritual medicine, he couldn't find a pill that could unseal his skills.

Luo Tian didn't give up and kept scrolling.

Page after page, he still couldn't find it.

On the last page...

"Special Items?"

"This is the last page. If I still can't find it, then there's nothing I can do." Luo Tian was already feeling powerless. He realized that if he had a few tens of billions of xuan coins on him, then he didn't need to do anything and just directly level up to become an Honorable Emperor. This will make him the strongest monarch of the Ancient World!

As Luo Tian kept looking, he realized the special item page really had some special items for sale.

Moreover, blood was rushing into Luo Tian's brain as he kept looking. "A nurse outfit costs 1000 xuan coins. If Qin Yue'er wore this uniform..."

"Gulp~!"

Luo Tian almost couldn't endure the moment he thought of those scenes.

"Policewoman uniform... cold beauty Officer Leng Hanshuang... would be awesome! This daddy can't hold it in much longer!" Luo Tian exclaimed internally. These attires were unique to planet Earth, and they were considered very special items!

There were maid uniforms, professional female office worker uniforms, and uniforms for whatever fetishes people had.

There's even an inflatable doll of Teacher Sola Aoi!

Motherf*cker!

If these items were brought to this world, the music before people go crazy would definitely be played!

Leng Hanshuang and Black Widow will each get a set of those enticing attires. Then, at night, he might really exhaust himself to death. Luo Tian's evil flames rose up just from thinking about it.

Most importantly, all those attires were very cheap!

"Calm... you need to calm down..."

"Calm down, dammit!"

Luo Tian then shouted, "I'm going to work hard to level up! I'm going to work hard to make money! I want to have all these enticing clothes! I'm going to bring all my wives to the Ancient World and give them each one a set!"

Chapter 953: Power Of Spiritual Medicine

It was unknown when, but Luo Tian had a nosebleed.

Those scenes unsuitable for children were too awesome!

Luo Tian really was unable to endure any longer.

There was black lace, white lace, durex...

It had everything!

There were bikinis and erotic lingerie with fancy designs and styles. Luo Tian was about to go crazy with the special items page! If he could go back to the Tianxuan Continent, he would instantly go back right now!

Who in their right mind could endure this?

“Fuuu~...”

“Fuuu~...”

Luo Tian tried very hard to calm himself down. If he kept thinking about those things, he would really have to buy an inflatable doll and blast a few rounds into it. “I’m here to find something to unseal my bloodline, so I can’t let my thoughts get carried away.”

Luo Tian continued scrolling down, even though a portion of his mind was still thinking of what the best attire for Black Widow was. And what should the twin sisters Yun Ling and Yun Yi wear? How about Li Xue’er? But his eyes kept looking for what he needed.

“I’ve found it!”

Luo Tian’s spirit trembled as he finally found the power to unlock the seal in the last column.

“The Power of Flames... can unseal the Forging Skill, priced at 98,000 xuan coins.”

“Damn! The thing I need is so expensive!”

“The Power of Array Eye... can unseal the Engraving Array Skill, priced at 89,000 xuan coins.”

“I cannot afford that either!”

As he continued looking, Luo Tian realized the special items area had the corresponding items to unseal his supportive skills. And all his attack martial skills needed the same power to unseal. Except, this very versatile power was priced at 160,000 xuan coins and up!

Luo Tian sighed once more, "It is really sad to be poor. It's so hard to just buy a few things that I need."

But out of all the supportive skills he had, there was a power that Luo Tian could afford.

"The Power of Spiritual Medicine can unseal the Pill Alchemy Skill, priced at 73,000 xuan coins."

This was the only unsealing power that Luo Tian could afford right now.

"And there I was, thinking I could buy a few of them to unseal my skills. Isn't this a bit too messed up?" Luo Tian grumbled to himself.

He was not in a rush to buy it, though, and continued scrolling down. "Since there's powers to unseal my martial skills, then there should be something to unseal by Four Divine Beasts bloodline. I wonder how much that will cost?"

Upon scrolling to the last page and the last item, Luo Tian finally found the Power of Blood Spirits.

However, Luo Tian closed his eyes as tears almost spilled out. "You damn scamming system! You let this daddy see some hope and then plunged this daddy into despair! I'm only trying to unseal my Four Divine Beasts bloodline, so why are you making things difficult for me?! I have never exploded your sphincter before, okay?!"

Item: Power of Blood Spirits

Price: 12 million xuan coins

Description: It is a power that can unseal any bloodlines

A rank 7 blood spirit was around 3 million xuan coins. The higher the rank, the higher the price. It was very clear that the blood spirit inside the system's store was the essence energy of a rank 9 demonic beast. Or it could even be the essence energy from a great perfection demonic beast. If either of those blood spirits were auctioned off, the amount would be greater than the 12 million xuan coins.

The most important thing is that Luo Tian didn't have the money for it.

He only had a little more than 70,000 xuan coins, so 12 million xuan coins was a figure too far away for him.

"Fuuu~..."

Luo Tian's eyes were wide open, and his face looked like he was smacked beyond recognition. He was lying on the bed and staring at the ceiling, thinking, "Silly queen, I really want to help you, but... I have no way of doing so."

"Sigh~..."

"It's a waste of my 70,000 xuan coins to buy a normal weapon."

"It isn't practical for me to buy something else, yet I don't have enough money for the better stuff."

"It looks like the only thing I can do is to buy the Power of Spiritual Medicine."

There was no other way.

Luo Tian wanted to save money, but looking at the prices of the system's store, he still wouldn't be able to afford the items even if he sold his ass. His 70,000 xuan coins were too insignificant, so he might as well buy something that would be of some help. The Pill Alchemy Skill would play an important role in his growth.

Health and yuan energy can both be replenished by medicinal pills.

Alchemy was quite important for Luo Tian. Not to mention, the alchemy he trained in was the same alchemy Xiao Yan, the protagonist of Battle Through The Heavens, was proficient in. It also gave Luo Tian a bonus effect on the pills he created. Otherwise, Luo Tian would have directly practiced the alchemy of the Ancient World instead.

With a thought, Luo Tian went back to the special items page and quickly skimmed through all the enticing attire sections. He was really afraid that he wouldn't be able to suppress his impulse and end up buying a set of clothing.

Luo Tian selected the Power of Spiritual Medicine.

"Ding!"

"Are you sure you want to buy the Power of Spiritual Medicine?"

"Yes!"

There was a brief flash, and the Power of Spiritual Medicine disappeared from the list. It reappeared inside Luo Tian's spatial ring, and the xuan coins inside the sack next to him disappeared, and only a little bit remained.

He instantly became a penniless pauper.

Luo Tian sighed, "Sigh~, I'm broke again. Spending money here is too crazy."

He tried to think on the brighter side. He had no money, so he could be more relaxed. He no longer had to worry about what to get because he couldn't afford anything.

Luo Tian made a thought, "Unlock the seal on my Pill Alchemy Skill!"

"Ding!"

The system gave off an alert tone, and the Melting Heaven Divine Cauldron appeared. The Pill Alchemy Skill flew into the cauldron first before the Power of Spiritual Medicine went in after.

Three seconds later.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for learning Pill Alchemy Skill... Ancient edition!”

“Do you wish to cultivate it?”

“Yes!” Luo Tian responded.

He then opened up his system interface to look at his new Pill Alchemy Skill.

Martial Skill: Pill Alchemy, Ancient edition

Grade: Ancient

Proficiency: 0/300

Description: The great perfection alchemy technique has evolved. Refining and concocting medicine time has been reduced by 20%. The success rate has increased by 5%. The chance of superb quality has increased by 5%. The chance of skipping tiers in refining has increased by 5%...

Luo Tian could sigh in relief upon reading the description. “I guess spending 70,000 xuan coins was worth it. This new Pill Alchemy Skill is much stronger than the one back in the Tianxuan Continent. Just the two new abilities of making superb pills and skipping tiers are very useful.”

This was considered a decent payoff.

If it was another chicken rib evolution, then Luo Tian might really have to start cursing someone's mother!

Unknowingly, Luo Tian fell asleep. He wasn't in a rush to train his alchemy skills because he lacked a cauldron. The ones he used in the Tianxuan Continent wouldn't work here because they wouldn't be able to withstand the energy of the spiritual herbs of the Ancient World.

He had a good sleep where no one disturbed him. He also dreamed of Li Xue'er and the other girls wearing a variety of special uniforms. He was only missing the part where he would ravage them one by one.

The evening of the same day.

"Knock~, knock~..."

"Little brother Luo, are you awake?" Dongfang Shuo's voice came from outside the door.

He didn't want to disturb Luo Tian's rest, but there was someone outside the Gambling Pavilion who wanted to see Luo Tian.

"Big brother Dongfang, I'm awake. You can come in." Luo Tian got out of bed.

Dongfang Shuo came into the room and said, "There's someone looking for you."

Luo Tian was stunned, and his mind tightened, "Could the silly queen be looking for me?"

Chapter 954: Heavenly Plume Sect's Invitation

Could it be the silly queen?

Luo Tian knew Yi Yunmeng was in Martial Mountain City.

The only one he was truly familiar with in Martial Mountain City was Yi Yunmeng.

Luo Tian was feeling a bit excited.

He never expected a queen who sat on a throne of ice would come looking for him on her own accord.

But this excitement disappeared the moment Luo Tian stepped out of the Gambling Pavilion.

The person who came wasn't Yi Yunmeng. How could the cold and arrogant queen come looking for Luo Tian? This was out of character for a queen. Moreover, her naked body had been entirely seen by Luo Tian, so why would she dare to show herself in front of him?

The person who came was Heavenly Plume Sect's Yao Hai.

Luo Tian was obviously disappointed, but he still revealed a welcoming smile. "Uncle Yao Hai, how come you're here?"

If Luo Tian had to thank someone, Yao Hai would be the first person he should be thanking.

If it weren't for Yao Hai's interference during the time when everyone was leaving the martial training ground, there would be no way Luo Tian could escape from Martial Mountain City. He also received a Stealth Pill from Yao Hai. Even though the pill was useless against anyone two small realms higher than the user, Luo Tian was still very grateful for Yao Hai's actions.

It was also Yao Hai that gave Luo Tian a second chance at testing his talent.

It was also he who helped Luo Tian leave.

If it weren't for Yao Hai, most likely Luo Tian would have died in Ah Si's hands back then.

Therefore, Luo Tian was filled with gratitude toward him.

Dongfang Shuo had known about those incidents, so that's why he knocked on the door to disturb Luo Tian's rest. If it were anyone else, Dongfang Shuo would not bother doing such a thing.

Many people had come looking for Luo Tian the entire afternoon. Most had been kicked out by the guards of the Gambling Pavilion, except for Yao Hai.

Upon seeing Luo Tian, Yao Hai's mind was a bit worked up. The genuine smile on Luo Tian's face demonstrated that Luo Tian had not become haughty or arrogant after breaking through to the Four Elements 2nd rank or becoming a prominent figure in Martial Mountain City. Luo Tian looked just the same as before.

Yao Hai was relieved about that.

Yao Hai looked at Luo Tian and said with a smile, "I had a hunch the backlash of the Heavenly Abstruse Pill wouldn't do much to you, or else why would you eat it? Hahaha... My hunch was correct!"

He was worried, but he understood Luo Tian's character from the brief period they met.

Luo Tian was someone who wouldn't recklessly do stuff he wasn't confident in.

The backlash of the Heavenly Abstruse Pill was especially fierce, yet Luo Tian looked like he wasn't injured at all.

Luo Tian nodded with a smile, "I was just lucky."

Dongfang Shuo added with a smile, "No matter how strong the backlash of the Heavenly Abstruse Pill is, I will not let anything happen to him."

Yao Hai responded, "With Brother Dongfang's words, even a person meeting King Yama in hell would be pulled back, hahaha..."

"Hahaha..." The two of them laughed together.

Luo Tian then became serious and asked, "Uncle Yao Hai, did you come to see me for something important?"

Yao Hai's expression went back to normal and replied, "No, no, nothing important. I just wanted to see how you were doing. I am relieved after seeing that you're okay."

Luo Tian then said, "Just go ahead and tell me if there's something. You don't need to regard me as an outsider."

Yao Hai faintly sighed as he didn't want to hide the truth. "I'm under orders from the sect leader to recruit you into the Heavenly Plume Sect. I blame it on myself for being a blabbermouth and saying nothing will happen to you. Sigh~... Honestly, the Heavenly Plume Sect is no longer the Heavenly Plume Sect of the past."

Yao Hai then continued, "Luo Tian, I actually don't want you to enter the Heavenly Plume sect. There's really no point in going there since they are already in a hopeless situation. Even I have thoughts of leaving the sect."

He didn't want Luo Tian to enter the Heavenly Plume Sect because it would harm him.

But he was under constant nagging by the sect leader, so he didn't have a choice. Even his family was threatened under veil words, so he could only thicken his face and give it a try.

After this matter, Yao Hai's heart toward the Heavenly Plume Sect had hit rock bottom.

Luo Tian looked at Yao Hai.

Before Luo Tian could say anything, Dongfang Shuo said, "The Heavenly Plume Sect's leader, Wei Kunlun, is not a good thing. He's a person that cravingly clings to life instead of braving death. Ever since the Heavenly Plume Sect was taken over by him, they have been getting fewer and fewer resources each year. Now, it has become a second-rate sect. Even the nearly risen Purgatory Sect is stronger than them. Next year, the Bai family will definitely remove their qualifications as one of the thirteen sects. Now, he wants to pull little brother Luo over to make a last-ditch struggle to stay alive?"

"Little brother Luo, do not say yes to him."

Yao Hai's expression didn't undergo too big of a change because everything Dongfang Shuo said was the truth.

If it weren't for Wei Kunlun's poor management these past years and the fact that he's also a despicable coward, the Heavenly Plume Sect wouldn't be in such a bad situation.

Luo Tian didn't reject the invitation and asked Yao Hai, "Uncle Yao Hai, I would most likely be beaten to death by Ah Si already if it weren't for your assistance in the martial training ground. I will never forget the kindness you have shown me."

"As long as you nod your head, I will follow you and join the Heavenly Plume Sect."

Even though Luo Tian didn't want to join any forces in the Ancient World, Yao Hai helped him preserve his life.

As long as Yao Hai nods his head, he will join the Heavenly Plume Sect. He will also help the Heavenly Plume Sect rise up once more because this was the favor he owed Yao Hai.

Luo Tian was exactly this kind of person.

Whoever treated him well, he would return their kindness ten to a hundred times back.

Whoever wants to harm him he would also return it ten to a hundred times back!

Yao Hai was dumbstruck.

Dongfang Shuo was dumbstruck.

They never imagined Luo Tian would say something like that.

Dongfang Shuo's expression darkened, "Little brother Luo, you need to think it over carefully. You cannot treat this as a joke. If you are joining the Heavenly Plume Sect, you might as well join my Dongfang family. I feel that the Dongfang family is not worthy of your potential, so that's why I have never mentioned it."

Luo Tian smiled, "I've thought it through. Uncle Yao Hai, nod your head, and I will follow you back. I will use all my strength to make the Heavenly Plume Sect rise up once more."

If Luo Tian joined the Heavenly Plume Sect, it would quickly rise up once more, no matter how poor Wei Kunlun's management ability is due to Luo Tian's current influence in Martial Mountain City. They might easily become the new overlord of Martial Mountain City, too.

There were tears in Yao Hai's eyes as he never imagined Luo Tian would agree to it so easily. He was blaming himself internally and immediately said, "I was just joking. How can a small sect like the Heavenly Plume Sect, who aren't even at the bronze level anymore, be worthy of your potential?"

"You mustn't join them!"

Luo Tian said, "Uncle Yao Hai, don't worry too much. There's no such thing as being worthy or not. I am only a normal person without anything special."

Yao Hai wiped the tears from his old eyes and said, "There's no need to say anything more then. I'm only here to ask for a drink. I know you have won quite a lot of money from Brother Dongfang, so I was hoping you would treat me to a drink. Hahaha..."

Dongfang Shuo immediately said, "Let's go drink at Martial Mountain City's best restaurant! My treat!"

Luo Tian felt grateful toward Yao Hai because they both knew he wouldn't want to waste his time joining the Heavenly Plume Sect. He could only say a sincere "thank you" inside his heart.

At the same time, Yao Hai was also saying internally, "Thank you, Luo Tian."

Chapter 955: Being Held By The Queen

Beyond Heaven Tower, the best restaurant in Martial Mountain City.

A six-story building with luxurious decorations similar to a five-star hotel.

A private room on the sixth floor.

"Drink, drink, drink! Today, you can't go home unless you're drunk!" Yao Hai's face was red, and he was exceptionally happy. He would down the whole glass every time he picked up the cup. He felt that becoming friends with Luo Tian was one of the most enjoyable things that had happened in his life.

What Heavenly Plume Sect?

What sect leader orders?

He had thrown them all to the back of his mind. Currently, there was only drinking, Luo Tian and Dongfang Shuo.

Dongfang Shuo was also exceptionally happy.

Today, it was Luo Tian that helped him escape from a sense of darkness for ten plus years. It was Luo Tian that taught him not to yield to anyone. Even if your opponent is extremely strong, you still cannot give in. Fight if you're unresigned! The worst case scenario is dying!

What the hell are you afraid of?!

Dongfang Shuo found what he had lost from seeing Luo Tian. From today onward, he was going to become a different person. A person who can be unrestrained and reckless in reaching his goals. He had basically become a young Dongfang Shuo once more!

He was grateful to Luo Tian!

Luo Tian was also very happy.

Today, he was able to slap Wu Feng's face, slap Wang Li's face, and the faces of all the newcomers who entered the Ancient World with him. He was also able to slap the faces of the thirteen sects, and even Bai Xuan wasn't spared!

He was happy about those things, but what made him even happier was that Yi Yunmeng was concerned about him.

The moment Bai Xuan made his sneak attack, he could clearly hear Yi Yunmeng's voice. How could he forget the voice of Her Majesty the Queen? That's why he was very happy!

In addition, he was able to make two new friends who had essentially become brothers to him in Martial Mountain City.

It was great to be with people that you didn't have to be formal with and just act without constraints. You drink when you want to and as large of a gulp as you want. Pick up a cup of alcohol and just slam it down your throat!

Then, eat a large mouthful of meat! This kind of feeling was similar to the 108 brothers in a movie from his previous life called Water Margin. It felt really great! But it would be even better if his brothers and his women from the Tianxuan Continent were all here as well. That will be even better!

"Cheers!"

"Down the whole cup!"

“Little brother Luo Tian, I really want to thank you today. I want to thank you for allowing me to be reborn as my younger self. Here’s a toast to you!” Dongfang Shuo picked up his wine cup and just downed it without clinking cups with Luo Tian.

After that, Yao Hao lifted up his cup and said, “I want to toast you too. No other reason than for you to recognize me, Yao Hai. I am very impressed with what you have done today, so here’s a toast to you!”

He, too, downed the cup after speaking.

Luo Tian looked at them before continuously drinking a few big cups of wine. This kind of burning alcohol was like a knife being swallowed into his belly before it turned into a tumbling mass of magma. It wasn’t a good feeling at first, but after that, a crazy heat circulated throughout his body, giving him a very refreshing feeling.

The three of them kept drinking through the night.

Their private room was filled with empty jars, but they kept drinking.

Luo Tian had never drunk this much alcohol in his life.

The three of them became disoriented from drinking so much.

During that time, Luo Tian had thrown up several times. If he didn’t have the cultivation of a Four Elements 2nd ranker, he would have died of alcohol poisoning long ago!

When Luo Tian and company were drinking, the private room next to theirs...

“What kind of dishes are these? They are so disgusting! And they call this the best restaurant in Martial Mountain City? I think they should be called the worst restaurant in the city instead!” That handsome youth from the Misty Cloud Academy exclaimed in disdain. He then looked at the ice-cold queen next to him and said apologetically, “Senior academy sister, when we get back to Misty Cloud City, I will treat you to a makeup meal.”

Yi Yunmeng's face remained cold as she didn't answer him. She didn't even give him a glance. She just slowly ate the food like an iceberg, exuding coldness. While she was eating the delicacies before her, she was actually thinking of the grilled meat that Luo Tian made.

She really missed the taste.

"I wonder when will I be able to eat the meat he grills again?"

At this time, there were loud shouts from the private room next door.

It was a voice that she recognized! She knew it was Luo Tian without needing to think about it. She glanced over and said to herself, "Sure enough, he is completely fine. I have underestimated him once more. He is truly someone that I cannot see through. It is similar to his grilled meat where it would taste different each time he grills it."

"So noisy!"

The handsome youth had an angry look on his face as he shouted, "You guys dare to disturb senior academy sister's meal?! You guys are courting death!"

There was already a fire in his belly.

He wasn't regarded at all by Yi Yunmeng.

She didn't even look at him or answer him. This made him feel extremely irritated.

Just when his head was filled with anger, the private room next door was filled with loud shouting. Why would he tolerate this? The handsome youth immediately exploded in aggression!

But before he could walk out of the room, Yi Yunmeng said coldly, "Don't cause any trouble. We're only staying for one night and will be leaving tomorrow. There are several groups of devil disciples in Martial Mountain City right now, so we shouldn't be inviting unnecessary trouble."

The handsome youth's face instantly changed as he stopped. He then turned around with a smile, "I understand, senior academy sister."

He wasn't dumb.

What several groups of devil sect disciples?

All those devil sect disciples wouldn't bother with them because they had all gone hunting down that green muscle head in the Martial Mountain Range already. Even if they knew the number three on the devil sect bounty list, Yi Yunmeng was sitting here in the Beyond Heaven Tower eating, and they still wouldn't dare to come.

Killing Yi Yunmeng was too difficult.

It was without a doubt that Yi Yunmeng was trying to deceive him.

Not long after, Yi Yunmeng got up to walk out of the room.

The handsome youth immediately stood up to go after her.

Yi Yunmeng coldly said, "Why are you following me? You want to follow me to the toilet or something?"

The handsome youth instantly stepped back, "I wouldn't dare to!"

After saying that, Yi Yunmeng left the room.

Around this time, it was as if fate had played its hand.

Luo Tian was stepping out of his room and turned to look at his side. He blinked a few times, “Eh? You... you... you... aren’t you the super silly queen?”

He was drunk, so his words weren’t so coherent.

Yi Yunmeng’s face turned slightly red. It was fortunate that she was still wearing her cloak, or else her face would become even redder. She recalled how Luo Tian saw her naked body and instantly wanted to find a hole to drill into.

She didn’t reply.

She made a move and quickly flew out from a window in the hallway.

Luo Tian was stunned by those sudden actions. He quickly chased after her and stepped onto the edge of the window. Only then did he realize he was on the sixth floor, but he couldn’t pull back his actions. His heart sank as he screamed, “Aggghhh~! Aggghhh~!”

His body instantly plummeted down.

A Four Elements ranker cannot fly yet.

Moreover, he was drunk and couldn’t stabilize his body.

“Shit!”

“I’m screwed this time!” Luo Tian was in a freefall as this sobered him up real quickly. Although falling from a six-story window wouldn’t kill him, some injuries would definitely be inevitable. He started preparing himself for them.

Just when he was about to smash into the ground, a thin, delicate arm wrapped around his waist, and his descent was instantly slowed down.

A right foot tapped on a flower growing on the side of the road, and they both rose up into the air. They had traveled over a hundred meters in a blink of an eye. Luo Tian felt that he was dreaming as he stared at the peerless face under the black cloak. He unconsciously shouted out, "My queen!"

Chapter 956: A Lost And Lonely Man

On the fifteenth of the month, the moon was like silver as it made Martial Mountain City appear white.

It was a beautiful scene.

A breeze blew by, and the willows on the banks of the moat gently swayed from it.

The slight friction between the branches made faint rustling sounds.

The entire scene was very beautiful.

Above the city gate, two human figures stood there about three to four meters apart.

One person was wearing a black cloak that covered her face. But this black cloak cover couldn't cover the cold noble temperament exuding from her body, and it also couldn't cover her sexy figure.

The body and face were equally beautiful!

Next to her was a male who was staring at her partially covered, stunning face. His heart was fluttering as he said, "My queen..."

Luo Tian already knew it was her from the beginning.

They flew all the way here while he was being held in her arms. Although it was a short flight, Luo Tian had never had such an experience before, so it felt that it was really awesome. Having two soft and superb mounds pressing against you was simply too great!

The woman was naturally Yi Yunmeng.

Yi Yunmeng wasn't looking at Luo Tian as she coldly said, "The backlash from the Heavenly Abstruse Pill has indeed been resolved."

Even though she already knew about this, she still couldn't help but ask, "Does this have anything to do with how you kill demonic beasts and people to make breakthroughs?"

Luo Tian scratched his head, "I guess you can say they are related."

Yi Yunmeng was in thought momentarily before saying, "You really have a lot of secrets on you."

Luo Tian smiled, "I'm like a man that's an embodiment of a maze. What do you think? Do you feel that I'm very cool? Very handsome? Have you been mesmerized by how cool and handsome I am? Hehe... There's no one around here, so you can just tell me you like me."

"Pffft~..." Yi Yunmeng burst out laughing.

She was once again amused by Luo Tian's antics. Looking at his oily appearance and his scoundrel expression, she was surprisingly not revolted by it one bit. This was completely different from how she was before.

Even though she wasn't repulsed by him, her face didn't show too much emotion. After that brief laugh, her face immediately turned cold as she said, "You better be careful of my sword stabbing into your throat. I would like to see how you're going to look cool and handsome at that time."

"Uhhh..."

Luo Tian shuddered, "You won't do that. You like me too much. That time when Bai Xuan sneak attacked me, I could tell from your voice how worried you were for me. So, how could you bear to kill me?"
Hahaha..."

Yi Yunmeng was stunned by his words before saying, "Don't overthink too much. The reason why I care about you is because I see you as a little brother. My little brother also has a shattered dantian and is unable to cultivate. The reason why I stepped in to save you back then is also because of this point."

Back then, in the Martial Mountain Range, Luo Tian was surrounded by several martial artists.

She stepped in because she noticed Luo Tian had a shattered dantian.

Upon hearing her words, Luo Tian felt like his heart had shattered. His body trembled as he muttered to himself, "Treating me like her little brother? She's only treating me like her brother?"

Yi Yunmeng said, "What else could it be?"

Luo Tian's heart broke into pieces.

It was very painful.

He covered his chest with one hand and looked at Yi Yunmeng, "You were truly treating me like your little brother?"

Yi Yunmeng had a playful smile under the cloak, but Luo Tian didn't see it. She didn't hesitate to say, like someone a bit angry, "Of course! Did you really think I would like someone like you?"

"I..."

"Sigh~..."

Luo Tian felt like an arrow had stabbed into his heart and then pierced right through it. He thought Yi Yunmeng was interested in him, but in reality, she was just treating him like a little brother. Wasn't this just a rejection in disguise?

Moreover, this was the best rejection excuse people often used on Earth!

I'm only treating you like a little brother. I'm only treating you like a big brother. Those were all bullshit words when you wanted to reject the other person! Because of such words, who knew how many youths had lost their drive?

Luo Tian had lived in a foreign world for a good few years, and his thoughts hadn't undergone too big of a change. He was still thinking like how a typical Earthling would.

He hadn't changed his thoughts to how the inhabitants here thought.

A foreign world was different from Earth.

The women here had different thoughts, and the way they spoke was different as well.

Seeing how Luo Tian had a lost expression on his face, Yi Yunmeng felt a trace of reluctance in her heart. But she didn't explain anything because she was very clear that it was impossible for her and Luo Tian to develop any romantic relationship.

They were people from two very different worlds.

They can never be together.

She wasn't very good at expressing her feelings, but she did know that it was impossible for them to be together. It was best to make him give up now so that she, too, would not have to dwell on it.

A few minutes went by.

During these few minutes, the two of them didn't say anything.

Luo Tian looked up at the moon in the sky before smiling bitterly. "Thank you, big sister queen, for taking care of me. I don't have anything to give you, so here's the White Wolf King cub as a present. This represents my heartfelt gratitude to you."

After saying that, Luo Tian brought out the little white wolf that was still asleep.

He had always wanted to give the cub to Yi Yunmeng but never found a good time. Since Yi Yunmeng was about to leave his world, who knows when the next time they would meet would be? If he didn't give it to her now, he would probably no longer get the chance to.

Luo Tian carried the little white wolf and walked up close to Yi Yunmeng.

Yi Yunmeng looked at Luo Tian and felt an inexplicable pain in her heart. She was still exuding her cold aura and didn't reject the gift. She received the little white wolf and said without glancing at it, "I will take good care of it."

When Yi Yunmeng held it, the little white wolf gently opened its eyes. It stared at Luo Tian for a while like it was looking at its mother. It seemed to be reluctant to leave Luo Tian's side after staying with him for about a month.

But the cub only looked for a short while before falling asleep again.

Luo Tian didn't notice this at all.

Yi Yunmeng wasn't in the mood to look at the little white wolf and put it away into her spatial ring.

Luo Tian smiled, "Okay, big sister queen. Maybe in the future, we will see each other again."

After saying that, Luo Tian turned around and jumped off the gate of the city that was over a dozen meters high.

A Four Elements 2nd ranker couldn't use their energy to fly yet.

Yi Yunmeng's expression faintly changed as she wanted to make a move to help Luo Tian.

Luo Tian shouted, "No need! I can do it myself!"

"Bang~!"

It was a beautiful and gorgeously ugly fall, just like someone slipping on a pile of dog shit. Luo Tian cursed inside his heart, "F*ck! I just wanted to show off a handsome pose, and I didn't expect to make a fool out of myself!"

"Sigh~..."

He crawled up from the ground and patted the dust off him. He pretended nothing had happened and shouted, "I'm fine! I'm good!"

After saying that, Luo Tian left the area alone.

He walked on the street like someone who had lost their soul. This was the first time he had failed in chasing a girl after coming to a foreign world. This was kind of a big blow to him. Most importantly, Yi Yunmeng used an old-fashioned excuse that people in his previous life often used! This made him even sadder!

What Luo Tian didn't know was that Yi Yunmeng was crying while watching his back walk away!

Chapter 957: Super Talent Hai Yulong

After drinking half the night, Luo Tian was currently completely sober. He could only say bitterly to himself, "I wonder if Big Brother Dongfang is still at the Beyond Heaven Tower? I really want to get drunk right now."

He was rejected!

He was heartbroken!

Luo Tian really wanted to know how it felt to be drunk.

After making up his mind, Luo Tian started walking back in the direction of the Beyond Heaven Tower.

When Yi Yunmeng left, the handsome youth, Hai Yulong, asked, "Did you see who that person was?"

"It was the kid that was on the stage today. I think he's called Luo Tian."

"Are you sure?"

"Sure!"

"Let's go."

Hai Yulong's expression changed as he clenched his fists. He muttered to himself, "I knew there was something going on, or else she wouldn't randomly want to stay here for the night. It looks like they met at the Martial Mountain Range."

"Yi Yunmeng, oh, Yi Yunmeng. Don't think just because you're good looking and my big brother likes you, you can do whatever you want."

The moment Yi Yunmeng left, he also left to look for Luo Tian.

Coincidentally, Luo Tian was on the main street when Hai Yulong descended from the air. He stood in front of Luo Tian and asked in disdain, "You are Luo Tian?"

Luo Tian looked over and didn't recognize Hai Yulong. He asked, "Are you looking for me?"

Hai Yulong sneered, "It's nothing much. I just wanted to remind you that if you dare to see Yi Yunmeng again or even get close to her, I will make you regret ever having come to this world."

His voice contained a thick killing intent.

Luo Tian merely smiled and didn't bother with Hai Yulong. He just walked around him.

Who was Hai Yulong?

He was the second young master of the Hai family! A genius with a super talent!

The Hai family was an overlord existence in the Ancient World.

How noble was his status? Luo Tian dared to ignore him? Hai Yulong's eyes turned fierce, like he had been greatly insulted. His figure moved and instantly landed in front of Luo Tian. "Damn dog thing! I was speaking to you! Did you not hear my words?!"

Luo Tian was already feeling horrible. And now, Hai Yulong was provoking him!

The rage inside him surged up as he shouted, "F*ck your ancestors! Who the f*ck are you?! You're telling this daddy not to see her, and I don't see her?! You're telling this daddy not to get close to her, and I can't get close to her?! F*cking hell!" Luo Tian kept cursing.

He didn't care who this guy was.

If he dared to make a move, Luo Tian had no fear of who he was and what background he had!

Hai Yulong was stunned by this. No one has ever dared to curse at him. Even at the Misty Cloud Academy, no one has dared to disrespect him. Now, at a tiny place like this, he was being cursed at by a piece of trash with a shattered dantian.

How insulting was this?!

A vicious killing intent inside Hai Yulong instantly surged out. His eyes turned fierce as he said, "Damn dog thing! You are courting death!"

As his voice faded, the sword on his waist struck out at the speed of lightning.

An incoming sword strike!

Luo Tian's eyes darkened as his mind held onto the Hulk Transformation Card. He then shouted, "This daddy wants to see who is the one courting death! Hul..."

Just when he wanted to say Hulk transformation, a black shadow shot by.

An icy sword slashed by and knocked Hai Yulong's sword to the side.

Yi Yunmeng, dressed in all black, was in between the two. She said coldly, "Hai Yulong, I've already told you not to cause any trouble. Are you afraid that the devil sect disciples don't know where we are?"

Hai Yulong's mouth curved into a sneer, as he didn't fall for it. "Senior sister, don't forget your status. If my big brother found out about this... heh heh... Not to mention him, the entire Martial Mountain City might be slaughtered as well."

Yi Yunmeng's expression faintly changed as her sword started humming.

The cold killing intent from within her body billowed out like crazy!

Hai Yulong frowned as a trace of fear appeared in his eyes. But it reverted back to normal even though he was a bit shocked. He then said to himself, "Ice cold sword intent? Who would have imagined she would comprehend the esoterics of the ice cold sword intent after not seeing her for two months."

Yi Yunmeng coldly spat out a single word, "Scram!"

Hai Yulong sneered as he walked away. A few steps later, he turned around and said to Luo Tian, "Kid, it's best that you remember my words. She isn't someone you are qualified to get close to. If I find out that you're seeing her again, I will kill you."

"Humph~!"

Luo Tian's eyes briefly became fierce before relaxing. He said with a smile, "You are also a student of the Misty Cloud Academy?"

Hai Yulong replied, "What about it?"

Luo Tian's smile turned cold as the grim reaper's killing intent appeared. "I have no specific intentions. I just wanted to make sure."

"Because..."

"The next time we meet, I will f*ck you up!"

Anger!

Seeing Hai Yulong's arrogant expression and his eyes full of disdain, this completely pissed Luo Tian off.

He was a man.

A man that wasn't that old.

Being suppressed in front of a woman he liked made him really unhappy. This made Luo Tian's determination to become stronger intensify once more.

Hai Yulong laughed!

He was laughing out loud, “Hahaha... hahaha... Surnamed Luo, why don’t you take a piss on the ground and take a look at your reflection? You want to f*ck me up based on you? Do you think, based on your talent of breaking through to the Four Elements realm in a month, is very powerful?”

“In the Misty Cloud Academy, any random student is stronger than you!”

“As for me, I only used half a month to step into the Condensation Element realm! You want to f*ck me up? That’s practically the greatest joke in the world!”

A genius with a super talent were all cultivation perverts.

It wasn’t because of having a strong family backing that Hai Yulong dared to be arrogant and act presumptuously in front of Yi Yunmeng. The reason was his own strength had reached a terrifying realm!

Luo Tian’s eyes were fierce as he showed no fear. He wasn’t even shocked at Hai Yulong’s super talent strength. He coldly sneered, “You just have to wash your butt clean and wait for me.”

Yi Yunmeng whispered, “Luo Tian, stop talking.”

Hai Yulong wanted to say something but was stopped by Yi Yunmeng’s glare. She shouted once more, “Scram!”

Hai Yulong ignored her and revealed a playful smile on his face as he stared at Luo Tian. “Kid, come to the Misty Cloud Academy if you have the guts. I will beat you until you will have to crawl all over the ground to pick up your teeth.”

After saying that, he turned around and left in anger.

If it weren't for Yi Yunmeng's interference, he believed that Luo Tian would be kneeling down and calling him daddy right now.

Of course, what Hai Yulong didn't know was that if it weren't for Yi Yunmeng, he would actually be a corpse right now!

After watching Hai Yulong leave, Yi Yunmeng's expression reverted back to normal. She looked at Luo Tian and said, "Whatever happens in the future, it's best that you don't come to the Misty Cloud City. You especially shouldn't enter the Misty Cloud Academy."

"Luo Tian, it's for your own good that you remember my words."

"He is someone you can't handle, and the family behind him is an existence that you will never be able to touch!"

Chapter 958: Family Exterminated

If those words were said by others, Luo Tian would just smile and not take it too seriously.

But when those words came out of Yi Yunmeng's mouth, the emotions he felt were completely different. He sarcastically said, "Thank you for your advice!"

He understood Yi Yunmeng was afraid he would do something stupid.

She thought Luo Tian would go after Hai Yulong to settle the score without any plans.

Except, it was fine if she hadn't said those words. But now that she did say it, who cares if he burns down the house and dies in the fire? If he doesn't f*ck Hai Yulong over, he would really have wasted living life!

You don't want me to go to Misty Cloud City?

You don't want me to go to Misty Cloud Academy?

Then this daddy insists on going to take a look!

This no longer had to do with being together with Yi Yunmeng. Luo Tian simply wanted to f*ck up Hai Yulong! Since Yi Yunmeng was only treating him like a little brother, then he no longer needed to have any more romantic thoughts about her. Moreover, Luo Tian understood from Hai Yulong's words that there should be some super talented supreme genius chasing after Yi Yunmeng. And this person was so strong that no one could afford to offend him!

Yi Yunmeng looked at Luo Tian's cold sneer and said, "I am serious. Do not go to Misty Cloud City and try to gain face back. Those are the actions of a child. Do you understand what I'm trying to say?"

"I understand!"

"I am not a child, so why would I not understand?"

"Big sister queen, you should go back and rest first."

"I need to go find my friends."

Luo Tian was feeling annoyed.

The words coming out of Yi Yunmeng's mouth annoyed him.

Yi Yunmeng looked at Luo Tian's expression and knew this guy wasn't putting her words to heart. But there was nothing else she could do, so she said, "You have to remember my words."

"Okay, okay!"

"Quickly go back and rest!"

Luo Tian waved his hand and left first ahead of Yi Yunmeng.

His heart ached whenever he looked at Yi Yunmeng.

Hearing her tone, which sounded like an older sister lecturing a little brother, made his heart ache even more.

He might as well leave as soon as he could.

As for going to the Misty Cloud Academy?

Of course, he was going!

And the next time he meets Hai Yulong, he will definitely beat him up and explode his anus! Or else this daddy will write the surname Luo backward!

Apart from Hai Yulong, Luo Tian had to go to the Misty Cloud Academy because of the item left behind by Mount Hua's progenitor. This item was something the old ancestor had used himself, so it should be something quite awesome. That was pretty much the main reason he had to go to the Misty Cloud Academy.

Yi Yunmeng's heart started aching once more while she watched Luo Tian's disappearing back view.

She stared at a dark area and said coldly, "If you dare to make a move against him, I will make all three of you disappear from this world!"

Several dark shadows shivered.

They turned around and disappeared.

Under Hai Yulong's command, those two were originally going to kill Luo Tian.

But they overlooked Yi Yunmeng and her cultivation realm. Since she was ranked number three on the devil sect bounty list, her cultivation was much more terrifying than the rumors people had heard. Her talent was actually above Hai Yulong's!

Hai Yulong was very angry.

"Yi Yunmeng, you really think you're already a member of the Hai family?"

"You actually dare to lecture me?"

"If it weren't for big brother being in love with you, I wouldn't protect you even if the Dean asks me to! You merely have some good looks about you, an item for people to f*ck! You f*cking b*tch, if you dare to provoke me once more, I will show you what I'm made of!"

In his own room, Hai Yulong's face was scrunched up in anger.

There were two attendants by his side, and one of them asked, "Second young master, should we still make a move against that kid?"

Hai Yulong widened his eyes and scolded, "Do you have a pig's brain?! Do you want to disappear forever?! Do you think that f*cking b*tch Yi Yunmeng is speaking for fun?! When she goes crazy, she's capable of doing anything!"

Compared to others, he had a better understanding of Yi Yunmeng.

She was a complete lunatic.

Moreover, her hands were covered in the blood of an unimaginable amount of victims!

That attendant's face darkened and quickly retreated to the side.

The other attendant said, "It's useless no matter how hard that piece of trash kid works. There's no way for him to enter the Misty Cloud Academy with his cultivation realm. As for entering Misty Cloud City, it will be very easy for us to kill him then."

Hai Yulong coldly said, "Are you implying that I'm afraid of him? A piece of trash with a shattered dantian that has learned some evil martial skill thinks he will be my match? He is 108,000 miles away when compared with me! Even if he is qualified to enter the Misty Cloud Academy, I will still be able to kill him instantly!"

"Kid, you better come if you have the guts!"

"This daddy will wait for you at the Misty Cloud Academy! If you don't come, you will become my grandson!"

At Luo Tian's side, he had returned to the Beyond Heaven Tower. He realized that Dongfang Shuo and Yao Hai were no longer in the private room. Since it was boring to drink alone, he went to find a worker to ask about them. After hearing some words, he quickly left the restaurant.

What was the reason?

The worker had no clue.

Luo Tian stood outside the restaurant and just stared into the darkness. He then muttered, "They can't be searching for me, right?"

Suddenly, several common citizens on the street were shouting, "There's a fire! There's a fire! There's a huge fire in the direction of the Heavenly Plume Sect!"

Luo Tian looked over and was instantly dumbstruck. Without any thought, he started running in the direction of the Heavenly Plume Sect.

Heavenly Plume Sect, a small courtyard in the west.

There were six corpses lying in the courtyard.

There were two children and a beautiful-looking housewife. The woman's clothes were torn, and there were several dark bruises on her body. Black blood had dripped out from her lower body. There was a small life inside her stomach, but it was no longer alive. There were also three corpses dressed in an attire that servants usually wore.

They were all lying in pools of blood.

An intense fire was burning around the courtyard.

A man full of alcohol smell was kneeling outside the courtyard, crying so hard that no sound could be heard. Tears were streaming down his face without stopping. Seeing the fire and seeing the state of his family members, he felt like someone had ripped out his heart. The pain he was feeling was so bad that words couldn't describe it.

"AGGGGHHHH~!" The man stood up and screamed.

His eyes had turned blood red as he suddenly shouted, "Wei Kunlun, I'm going to kill you!"

As his voice faded, he held onto his large steel blade and rushed to the main entrance of the Heavenly Plume Sect, filled with killing intent.

"Elder Yao, you cannot randomly enter without the sect leader's permission!" Two guarding disciples said to Yao Hai with killing intent.

Yao Hai said through clenched teeth, "Move aside for me! Whoever dares to stop me today will die!"

"Elder Yao, please don't make things difficult for us."

“That’s right! The sect leader is in pain from what happened to your family. How about you gather some more disciples to put out the fire first?”

From the look in their eyes, Yao Hai could see a playful expression.

In his heart, he confirmed that his family of seven was killed by Wei Kunlun. The steel blade in his hand gave off a shiny white glow before slashing down. Two heads fell, thumping on the ground before rolling down some steps.

The fresh blood splattered all over Yao Hai’s face. With the killing intent coming out of him this made Yao Hai look even more terrifying.

“Wei Kunlun! Scram out here for this daddy!”

Chapter 959: What If You Add Me In?

Family extermination.

Apart from Yao Hai, his entire family had been slaughtered.

He was also a person who entered the Ancient World from a lower realm.

He had worked hard and fought with his life, but his talent was limited. His cultivation had been stuck in the Four Elements realm, unable to take a step forward.

He was resigned to fate.

He got married and had children in Martial Mountain City. He had put all his hopes and dreams into his two children.

Inside the Heavenly Plume Sect, he worked diligently and did his share of his responsibilities. If it hadn't been for his effort all these years, the Heavenly Plume Sect may have already fallen.

But what did he get in return?

His wife and children were killed. His wife was raped. Even the child in her womb that was in the first trimester was...

Hatred!

Extreme hatred!

This kind of hate can no longer be described with words alone. His world had suddenly collapsed, and he felt like everything he lived for was gone. His heart had emptied out, and the only word in his mind was vengeance!

He naturally knew who it was that killed his family.

When he left the house in the afternoon, he had vaguely sensed the resentment in Wei Kunlun's tone of voice.

Around noon, Wei Kunlun looked for him and asked him to do everything he could to pull Luo Tian into the Heavenly Plume Sect. Yao Hai refused him without even thinking about it.

At that time, Wei Kunlun didn't show anything on his face.

Wei Kunlun knew Luo Tian had eaten the Heavenly Abstruse Pill and figured Luo Tian wouldn't be able to handle the backlash. Even if he could handle it, Luo Tian might end up becoming a cripple. But when he received news that Luo Tian was completely fine, his heart had completely changed, and his tone of voice turned into a command.

No matter what you do, you must pull Luo Tian into the Heavenly Plume Sect. Otherwise, your position as an Elder will be removed!

Yao Hai continued to voice his unwillingness to comply.

He had his own principles to adhere to. Not to mention that in the plaza, he had asked Wei Kunlun several times to recruit Luo Tian, but he had been repeatedly refused. He was even told to stop mentioning the matter. Yet now, Wei Kunlun had turned around and asked him to recruit Luo into the Heavenly Plume Sect at all costs!

There were no idiots here!

What Yao Hai never imagined was that Wei Kunlun would threaten him with his family. Even though he didn't say the words outright, Yao Hai could still feel the meanings behind his words.

For his wife and his children, Yao Hai agreed to give it a try.

But unexpectedly, Luo Tian didn't hesitate to say that as long as he nodded his head, he would head back to the Heavenly Plume Sect with him. This made Yao Hai ashamed. Luo Tian treated him as a friend, but he wanted to... The Heavenly Plume Sect didn't have any future at all, and it would only become a waste of time if Luo Tian joined.

Yao Hai didn't hesitate to reject it and treated it as a joke.

Wei Kunlun somehow got hold of this.

When Yao Hai and the other two left to drink at Beyond Heaven Tower, Wei Kunlun went to Yao Hai's home and raped his wife, and killed his children in a fit of rage.

Revenge!

This type of family extermination had to be avenged! They were irreconcilable!

No matter how weak Yao Hai's cultivation was, he still had to fight with his life! Because he was a man, a father, and a husband!

If he found out about this and didn't do anything about it, he was no longer considered human!

"Bastard! Scram out here for me!"

Yao Hai was currently standing in the Heavenly Plume Sect's martial training ground. He shook his large steel blade dyed in blood, and blood drops splattered all over the ground.

Behind him were several Heavenly Plume Sect disciples lying in their own pools of blood.

"Humph~!"

"You dare to come back to the Heavenly Plume Sect?!"

Across from the martial training ground, a dark shadow shot out from a house at high speed. As the voice faded, a sword was already piercing straight for Yao Hai.

There was only rage inside Yao Hai's eyes. Upon seeing the dark shadow approaching, he didn't hesitate to charge out to meet the attack. His steel blade slashed out without the intent of safeguarding his own life.

"Boom~!"

The blade severed the dark shadow in two halves.

Yao Hai's gaze instantly changed!

A chill went up his back as a thin sword stabbed through his back and protruded out from his chest.

“Hahaha...”

“Yao Hai, you are really too weak.”

“Did you really think I was the shadow? That was only a disciple! You didn’t expect me to sneak attack you, right?” Wei Kunlun was hiding in another house. The moment Yao Hai slashed out with his blade, that’s when he stabbed his sword out.

Despicable to the extreme!

“Agghhhh~!” Yao Hai roared out.

Yao Hai used one hand to grab onto the sword protruding out from his chest, causing blood to drip down from the cracks of his fingers. He suddenly turned around and swept his blade, gleaming with white light, out horizontally.

“Whoosh~!” The sound of air ripping apart was heard.

The blade struck nothing but air as Wei Kunlun rolled back continuously. Cold sweat oozed from his forehead as he barely dodged the blade.

“Agggghhhh~!” Yao Hai roared out in anger as his attack missed.

He locked down his yuan energy and then forced the thin sword out of his back. Blood spurted out from his chest and back. “Why?! Why?! Why did you harm my family?!”

Wei Kunlun didn’t refute it and said, “Why? Yao Hai, you should be asking yourself that!”

“I asked you to recruit Luo Tian, and what did you end up doing?!”

“He said that as long as you nodded your head, he would follow you back to the Heavenly Plume Sect! What was your response?! You rotten son of a b*tch! The Heavenly Plume Sect has fed you for several decades, yet who would’ve expected that you didn’t nod your head? Where do you put the Heavenly Plume Sect in your heart?! Where do you put me?!”

“Do your eyes still have a sect leader like me in them?!”

Wei Kunlun continued shouting in anger, “If I don’t teach you a good lesson, you might think that I, Wei Kunlun, am a vegetarian! I might be afraid of others, but to you, killing you is as easy as pinching an ant to death!”

This was Wei Kunlun’s hatred.

He hated how Yao Hai could merely nod his head to make Luo Tian join the Heavenly Plume Sect but didn’t do so.

After the end of this year, the Heavenly Plume Sect will no longer be qualified to remain as a bronze level sect. How can he not be angry about it?

The more Wei Kunlun thought about it, the angrier he got.

When he arrived at Yao Hai’s house and saw how beautiful Yao Hai’s wife was, he suddenly...

After doing his deed, he killed everyone there and set fire to the place.

He wanted Yao Hai to pay the price.

Yao Hai was glaring at Wei Kunlun the entire time before he started laughing into the air like mad. “How many times have I spoken about Luo Tian to you? In this month, I have spoken his name to you at least a hundred times! What was your reaction? Did you even place any importance on Luo Tian?!”

“In the morning at the plaza, I advised you once more that Luo Tian was an extraordinary individual. If we had recruited him into the Heavenly Plume Sect, he would greatly contribute to our sect’s development. But what was your response?”

“Did you forget about what you said to me?”

“Now that you know about his potential and that the Heavenly Abstruse Pill backlash didn’t harm his body, you want to recruit him? Do you think he’s an idiot? What qualifications do you have? What qualifications does the Heavenly Plume Sect have to recruit him?”

“Wei Kunlun, the current Heavenly Plume Sect is in such a mess because of your mismanagement all these years. I think the old sect leader must have been blind to pass the position to you. I have worked hard for you all these years. Even though I am unhappy with you, I have never done anything to wrong you. But you...”

“You killed my wife and killed my children...”

“This is a grudge that can never be reconciled!”

“Even if I become a ghost, I will not let you off!”

Yao Hai took a step forward after every sentence.

The killing intent surging out of him was off the chart.

All the yuan energy within his dantian had exploded forth.

Yao Hai didn’t care about the consequences of doing this.

All he wanted to do was to kill Wei Kunlun! He wanted him dead!

Wei Kunlun coldly sneered, "Just based on you? Do you even have the ability?"

At this moment, a figure suddenly landed next to Yao Hai with even stronger killing intent. The figure coldly spat out, "What if you add me in too?!"

Chapter 960: God Flame's Ability

Luo Tian went to investigate the fire and to look for Yao Hai. He found Yao Hai's family and the corpses inside the courtyard.

He instantly knew what happened.

After asking some nearby people, he found out that Yao Hai was killing his way to the Heavenly Plume Sect, so he immediately rushed over.

Within the darkness, Luo Tian walked over step by step with sweat covering his forehead. He had rushed over as fast as he could, so he was still gasping for air. But the killing intent in his eyes was no weaker than Yao Hai's. Luo Tian felt some guilt in his heart because he never expected Yao Hai's family to be harmed because of him.

"Luo Tian?!" Wei Kunlun briefly revealed a shocked expression.

After seeing Luo Tian's figure clearly, his mouth curved into a sneer as he said, "Those guys weren't wrong. The backlash from using the Heavenly Abstruse Pill hasn't injured you at all. You are truly a mysterious individual to not have anything happen to you."

"But..."

"Heh heh..."

After chuckling sinisterly, Wei Kunlun said, "I will give you a chance to live. As long as you enter my Heavenly Plume Sect and swear your allegiance to me, I will consider sparing his dog life. Of course, you will not need to die either."

“If you don’t agree to my conditions, you two shall have to die here!”

“That’s right... Let me tell you two a secret – my cultivation is not at the Four Elements 3rd rank, and I’m not a piece of trash like Bai Xuan. In front of me, you two have no power to fight back. Do you understand me?”

“Hahaha... You better know what’s good for you!”

He was very smug but secretly surprised that Luo Tian would show up.

This turned out even better!

They could discuss conditions face to face now! Since Luo Tian made his appearance here, that meant Yao Hai was someone very important to him. With the threat against Yao Hai’s life, Luo Tian, a sentimental hothead, would definitely agree to the conditions!

However, Wei Kunlun didn’t know his thoughts were too rosy. He didn’t understand Luo Tian’s character at all.

Once Wei Kunlun finished speaking, Luo Tian’s rage exploded as he roared like a lion, “Know what’s good for your eighteen generations of ancestors!”

As his voice faded, Luo Tian’s Four Elements 2nd rank cultivation power exploded forth before he charged at Wei Kunlun.

Right at this moment, Yao Hai grabbed Luo Tian to stop him. “Little brother Luo, you are not his match! His cultivation is at the Four Elements 4th rank. You should quickly leave. This is a personal matter to me, and I will not let him have a good life even if I have to die today!”

He held onto Luo Tian tightly.

Yao Hai lost his entire family and felt that there was no reason to keep living in this world. He might as well die so that he could accompany his family in the afterlife. But the one thing he had to do before dying was to kill Wei Kunlun.

Yao Hai never expected Luo Tian to show up.

He didn't want Luo Tian to be entangled in this mess.

Even though the Heavenly Plume Sect was in dire straits, they were still a bronze level force. The most important thing was that they were protected by the Towering Cloud City's Bai family. If Luo Tian made a move, it was equivalent to offending the Bai family and challenging their authority.

This was very disadvantageous to Luo Tian.

Another thing was that Wei Kunlun's cultivation had reached the Four Element 4th rank. No matter how high Luo Tian's talent was, it was impossible for him to be Wei Kunlun's match. Once they started fighting, the chances that Luo Tian ended up being killed were very high. This was something Yao Hai definitely didn't wish to see.

It was fine for him to die, but he couldn't let Luo Tian accompany him in death. This would make him feel guilty even in the afterlife.

Luo Tian understood what Yao Hai was thinking and said, "Uncle Yao Hai, the tragic incident with your family started off with me. If I were to leave now, then would I still be human? Even if I have to die here today, I will kill that beast!"

After saying that, Luo Tian slipped out of Yao Hai's grasp and charged at Wei Kunlun.

Because it happened so suddenly, Yao Hai couldn't hold onto Luo Tian and only saw him charging out a few meters already. His heart sank, but he quickly followed. He said to himself, "My wife and my children are no longer here. Living in this world no longer has any significance to me. I'm already a dead person, but I can't let little brother Luo follow me to die. I absolutely cannot allow it!"

Yao Hai's speed exploded forth with his determination!

Wei Kunlun sneered in disdain, "Dogs that don't know what's good for them! Since you two wish to die so badly, then I can only help you two out."

"Heavenly Plume Sword Art!"

Wei Kunlun drew out another long sword from his body. The sword was giving off a humming sound while his gaze turned gloomy. He locked onto Luo Tian and let out a cold sneer, "Damn dog thing! A newcomer like you dares to act arrogant in front of me?! Die!"

"Phantom Wind Shadow, Heavenly Plume First Sword!"

"Bang~!"

A fast sword slashed forth.

The sound of wind tearing apart was heard.

At the same time, countless sword shadows had manifested in the darkness of the night. With the addition of the wind sound, one couldn't tell which one was real and which was fake. The sword shadows were too fast, causing Luo Tian to be unable to distinguish them. But he did not hesitate to roar out, "God Flame!"

He pushed out his palm, and a cluster of God Flame that looked like a fireball shot out.

A trace of fear flashed in Wei Kunlun's eyes. Bai Xuan had been blasted to death by this flame, and it didn't even leave a smidge of ash behind. One thing he knew was that he couldn't take this cluster of flame head on! But what he didn't know was that it was too late to avoid it now.

Wei Kunlun did something to his sword, and all the sword shadows condensed together before he stabbed at God Flame.

“No matter how strong the flame is, this sword strike will disperse it!”

“Once I pierce through this flame, you will die the next second!” Wei Kunlun said this with confidence. The moment his sword touched God Flame, the yuan energy in his dantian immediately exploded forth. A vigorous yuan energy entered his sword and concentrated at the tip.

“Boom~!”

Just as Wei Kunlun said, God Flame had dispersed!

A hole appeared in the middle of the fireball before shattering into dozens of small fireballs.

“Hahaha...”

“I knew it! I’ve already seen through your martial skill! You want to use that skill to kill me? Luo Tian, you are overthinking things!” Wei Kunlun laughed smugly. Seeing how God Flame had been dispersed, the feeling of fear inside him had completely disappeared.

His sword continued piercing toward Luo Tian.

But Wei Kunlun noticed Luo Tian had a cold smile on his face that looked out of place. “What is this kid smiling at? How can he continue smiling when I shattered his fireball?”

Luo Tian didn’t retreat and suddenly increased his speed forward. He then shouted, “It isn’t me overthinking things, but you!”

If it was so easy to shatter God Flame, then it wouldn’t have the name of God in it.

Most importantly, it was the evolved version of his heavenly flames!

There was no one who could dodge it, and there was no one who could destroy it. It was useless even if a real God came. And Wei Kunlun, a mere Four Elements ranker, wanted to do that? He was the person who had overthought things. Luo Tian watched his God Flame get shattered into dozens of smaller fireballs and didn't feel the slightest panic. There was some surprise in his eyes, but he wasn't worried one bit.

In the blink of an eye, the dozens of small fireballs converged together.

It quickly shot forth once more and exploded!

“Boom~!”

The moment it exploded on Wei Kunlun, the martial skill he was using was interrupted.

Luo Tian leaned back a bit before shouting with his fists clenched, “Mountain River Fist!”

“Bang~, bang~!”

Wei Kunlun's figure took several explosive steps backward from the force.

“Wolf King's Claws! Come back here!”

“Rip~, rip~!”

“Another Mountain River Fist!”

“Bang~, bang~!”

After being smashed by the two punches, Wei Kunlun's chest was already wracked with pain. But he still started laughing in arrogance, “Luo Tian, your strength is too weak! A Four Elements 2nd ranker cannot kill me, hahaha...”

As his laughter faded, a white blade light that looked like it had slashed through the moonlight struck out.
