

Leveling Up 971

Chapter 971: Martial Mountain Ancient Cave

“Agggghhh~!”

“Puff~!”

The guard fell into a hole, and sprays of blood squirted out all over. He no longer made any sound after that.

How can a trap used against a Spotted Giant Tiger be simple?

It was a dead end if a Spotted Giant Tiger fell in, let alone a regular martial artist.

The scene had suddenly changed.

Ouyang Ye was briefly stunned before cautiously stepping forward. When he saw how miserable his subordinate had died in the hole, a sheen of sweat appeared on his back. If he had made a move personally, then he would be the one dead inside there.

Rage instantly surged out from Ouyang Ye.

“Kid, you are courting death!”

Luo Tian sneered with confidence, “I am precisely courting death! Come at me if you have the guts! Come, quickly come! Motherfucker! You’re the damn dog thing! Come at me right now if you have the guts! If you don’t dare to, then scam away for this daddy!”

It was a round of cursing and scolding.

Luo Tian had no intention of giving Ouyang Ye any face.

Ouyang Ye's face was turning green as anger rushed all the way up to his head. He wanted to tear Luo Tian into shreds right this moment, but he didn't dare to take a step forward. He was worried that there would be another trap in front of him somewhere. Upon seeing Luo Tian's fearless expression, he let out a cold sneer and said, "Are you trying to provoke me so that I will fall into your trap? Humph~! Do you think I am an idiot that will fall for that?"

The surrounding area looked like it was filled with traps.

There were thick piles of dead leaves and overgrown weeds all over. Traps could definitely be laid out at every turn in this environment.

Luo Tian smiled, "Damn it, why are you so smart? How did you become so smart? Does your mom know you're this smart?"

Luo Tian couldn't help sneering when he saw how cautious Ouyang Ye looked.

The Spotted Giant Tiger had already run away, and there was no way it would leave its territory now. The only way to get past its territory is to kill it. It was going to be a tough battle as there was no other solution now.

Luo Tian glanced over at Bai Lingling before looking back at Ouyang Ye. He then said with disdain, "Weren't you going to kill me? Come, come, come! Come at me if you have the guts!"

"Quit dreaming!"

"This daddy ain't going to fall for it!" Ouyang Ye said in contempt.

Luo Tian harrumphed, "You're not going to come attack me?"

Ouyang Ye replied, "Not going!"

“If you’re not coming, then I’m going to leave. You gutless garbage, the thing between your legs is probably pitifully tiny. You don’t even have any guts, yet you want to put on a good performance in front of a pretty girl. It’s a complete joke that you fantasize about a hero saving a beauty all the time.” Luo Tian said with disdain.

“I’m leaving if you aren’t coming at me.”

Luo Tian turned around to leave. He was too lazy to waste his time with these people.

He had to think of another way to kill the Spotted Giant Tiger, pass its territory, and then go deeper to find the Lunar Crescent Valley.

But the moment Luo Tian turned around, Bai Lingling shouted, “Hero, please wait!”

Luo Tian turned back to look at Bai Lingling. He didn’t have any positive feelings toward this girl. If it wasn’t for her back then at the entrance, he wouldn’t have provoked any trouble. Even though he had already killed that disciple guarding the entrance, he still felt some anger whenever he thought back how he was bullied there.

Of course, Bai Lingling didn’t recognize it was him.

Bai Lingling politely smiled and said, “You killed someone of ours.”

Luo Tian replied, “What about it? Come at me if you have the guts, or else stop spouting nonsense to me. This daddy doesn’t have time to waste on you guys.”

He wasn’t giving her any face, either.

So what if you looked pretty?

Do you really think everyone was obsessed with good looking girls?

Are you treating me, Luo Tian, as a person who has never seen a pretty girl in his life?

Bai Lingling tried to explain, "You have misunderstood me. I have no intention of asking you for an explanation for killing someone of ours. My only intention is that our team is missing a person for what we need to do, so I was hoping you would join us."

"Please be rest assured that as long as you can help us get the item we need, the compensation will be very good."

"Even if we don't succeed in the end, I will still give you adequate remuneration."

Bai Lingling looked at the rotting meat on the side before saying, "It's very dangerous to kill a rank 4 demonic beast, and your success rate isn't high. But if you join my team and do things according to my instructions, I guarantee the profit you would make will be much higher."

From the current scene, Bai Lingling determined that Luo Tian wasn't a bounty hunter and was a martial artist who hunted demonic beasts as a way of survival.

In short, it was all for money!

Otherwise, who would make a trap and hide here for so long?

Bai Lingling thought that she had seen through Luo Tian completely. What she didn't expect was that Luo Tian didn't even think about it and said, "Not interested."

Luo Tian turned to leave after saying that.

Bai Lingling frowned, "It doesn't matter if we succeed or fail; I will give you 100 xuan coins!"

One hundred xuan coins wasn't a small amount.

This was a number that even a bounty hunter wouldn't be able to refuse.

But Luo Tian was too lazy to even snort at it, as 100 xuan coins were too little for him. And the issue wasn't even related to money. Luo Tian didn't want to follow around some young master and rich missy doing some childish task.

He had absolutely no interest in accompanying them.

Bai Lingling's eyes narrowed, "Five hundred xuan coins!"

Luo Tian kept walking away.

Ouyang Ye was quite annoyed at the side and said, "Little Sister Ling, a piece of trash like him only knows how to make some traps. Even if we buy his life, it wouldn't be worth 500 xuan coins. Aren't we just missing a person? I will go out and summon all the elite disciples of my Ouyang family. I'm going to flatten this Martial Mountain Ancient Cave!"

"Shut your mouth!"

Bai Lingling glared at him and denounced, "If it weren't for you being a busybody, he wouldn't be treating us like that, and our team wouldn't be missing a person. Now that we are short one person, our combat system will not work. How are we supposed to kill so many zombies in the ancient cave now?"

"Go back to your Ouyang family?"

"Ouyang Ye, we ran out here on our own. If we cannot find that item, do you think we will have the face to go back? Think about those people! They are waiting to watch our failure and then ridicule us in front of everyone!"

Bai Lingling was on a rampage.

She directly scolded Ouyang Ye and didn't give him any face.

She had been suppressing the rage inside her for a while now.

Originally, she was already annoyed after being chased by bloodthirsty zombies inside the ancient cave. It wasn't easy for them to escape out of the ancient cave. They were about to find a place to recuperate and then go back in to try once more. Now that they have lost a person, their special combat formation will not be able to display its strength to the utmost anymore. Wanting to enter the depths of the ancient cave was no longer possible!

Bai Xiong, who was off to the side, added, "We are short one person... Even though his position isn't that important, we are still one person less for our combat formation. Sigh~ it looks like we can only go home in failure now."

When Luo Tian heard their conversation, he suddenly turned around and walked back with a smile. "I want a thousand xuan coins! If you agree to that, I will stay. If you don't agree to it, I will immediately leave!"

Chapter 972 – Another Divine Artifact

"Deal!"

Bai Lingling agreed to it without hesitation.

One thousand xuan coins wasn't a small amount. A bronze level sect's income would only be about 10,000 xuan coins a year, but she agreed to it without any hesitation. This meant that she didn't put this amount of money in her eyes!

Ouyang Ye's eyes darkened as he said, "Kid, you..."

Before he could finish speaking, Bai Lingling yelled, "Ouyang Ye, shut your mouth! If you say another word, you can scam out of our group! I will make you suffer dearly if you dare to piss off this young miss! Freaking hell! I don't understand how you can keep causing so much trouble for us! If I weren't giving Uncle Hong some face, I would have already kicked you out a long time ago!"

It was fine if she wasn't mad. But once she was mad, no one would be able to stop her.

Bai Lingling belonged to the fiery, explosive type of girls.

She looked like those quiet and gentle types that would like to cause some mischief now and then. But once she was angry, no one could stop her on her warpath. Ouyang Ye also was feeling rage inside his heart. He was extremely unhappy but didn't dare to say a peep. He just narrowed his eyes and looked at Luo Tian, "Kid, you just wait for this daddy..."

Luo Tian was stunned by what he saw, as he never expected Bai Lingling's character to be this fiery.

His impression of her had changed.

The reason why Luo Tian agreed to accompany them wasn't because of money. Even though money was very important, Luo Tian felt that leveling up some more was even more important. If he wanted to enter further into the depths of the Martial Mountain, there was no way he could protect himself without enhancing his abilities. He couldn't even get past the Spotted Giant Tiger these past few days, and there are definitely much stronger demonic beasts waiting for him further in.

The only solution he had was to level up!

Once his levels go up, he won't be afraid of entering deeper locations.

Luo Tian's desire was piqued when he heard Bai Lingling talk about zombies inside an ancient cave. When he heard those keywords, his heart shook, and he said to himself, "Could this be the ideal place for me to grind experience?"

Luo Tian's heart was immediately moved by it!

He took large strides over to the group and didn't fall into any deep holes.

Ouyang Ye's eyes darkened as he said softly to himself, "So there's no more traps around."

Luo Tian heard it and sneered, "Of course there isn't. That's why I was calling you out as gutless. You are basically a scaredy cat!"

Ouyang Ye's expression turned to rage as he shouted, "You... Kid, it looks like you are tired of living! Since there are no traps around here, I want to see..."

Bai Lingling widened her eyes with killing intent as she looked at Ouyang Ye. "What do you want to see?! Ouyang Ye, you want to keep acting insolent?! If he dies, you can forget about taking a single step into the Bai family for the rest of your life!"

"Huh?"

"Little Sister Ling, I, I, I..." Ouyang Ye started panicking.

Luo Tian's heart skipped a beat before saying to himself, "Bai family? Could it be the same Bai family from the Towering Cloud City?"

He didn't bother to think too much about it and looked at Bai Lingling's angry expression. He then chuckled, "Have you become interested in me that quickly? Is it because I'm too cool looking? You must have been charmed by my handsome looks, right?"

Bai Lingling's line of sight switched over to Luo Tian. She looked at him from head to toe, then back up to his face before saying coldly, "I don't see anything handsome about you. If a savage barbarian is considered handsome, then these demonic beasts in the mountains are also considered cute!"

Bai Xiong patted Luo Tian's shoulder, "Brother, if we didn't meet you in the day and instead met you during the night, we would think we had encountered a ghost."

Luo Tian's entire body was covered in leaves and dirt.

This was the costume that Luo Tian personally designed for himself. Even his face was covered in black colored mud. Not to mention being handsome, just his aura and smell belonged to a special class of stinkiness.

Luo Tian laughed awkwardly, "I am someone who likes to get the money first. If you guys don't give it to me afterward, wouldn't I be losing out big time?"

"But the most important thing of all is that I don't like this guy. If he does anything underhanded behind my back, I will immediately leave the group. I will not be giving you guys any money back, either. I really don't want to die in there with you all."

He wasn't afraid of Ouyang Ye, but he had no idea about anything inside this ancient cave.

What if Ouyang Ye stabs him in the back while they are fighting?

It is much better to talk about this subject first so that Ouyang Ye would be more apprehensive to act.

Bai Xiong shook his head like a rattledrum before giving Ouyang Ye a good look.

Ouyang Ye hated Luo Tian's guts and wanted to kill him right there. So, even if he had the money on him, there was no way he was going to take it out at a time like this. He immediately said, "I don't have any money on me."

Bai Lingling said embarrassedly, "I don't have that much money on me either. Take this 100 xuan coins first, and I will give you the rest after we leave the mountain. Is that okay?"

"No way!" Luo Tian immediately refused.

He wasn't going to leave the mountain unless he found the Lunar Crescent Valley. Leaving to go collect some money was not worth it.

One thousand xuan coins were not that much, but meat on a mosquito's leg was still meat.

Moreover, the items in the store system were all purchased with xuan coins, so xuan coins were still rather important to him.

Bai Lingling revealed a troubled look before reluctantly bringing out a delicate-looking bracelet. She handed it over and said, "This bracelet can be placed in your care for now. It is worth at least ten thousand xuan coins, so you're okay with this kind of arrangement, right?"

"This is something mother left you before she died! You cannot give it to him!" Bai Xiong instantly shouted.

Ouyang Ye's face changed as he immediately regretted his actions. If he had known this would happen, he would've taken out a thousand xuan coins so that Bai Lingling would be grateful to him. Now, she was forced to take out a memento from her deceased mother. This...

Ouyang Ye cannot mention he had money at such a time like this, or else Bai Lingling would despise him even more.

Bai Lingling said with a faint smile, "Big brother, it's fine. I'm just giving it to him as collateral and not gifting it to him."

She then turned to Luo Tian and said, "You better listen up – this is the most precious item I have on me. If you break it, I will definitely not spare you!"

Bai Lingling placed the bracelet in Luo Tian's hand after saying that.

Luo Tian secretly jumped in shock when he used his system to observe it. "Damn! This is something good!"

He was different from others.

He could use the system to analyze items so he could easily tell if something was good or not. The bracelet in his hand was glowing in his eyes. A spiritual artifact that can glow? That meant this thing was definitely not ordinary!

Luo Tian couldn't hold back and looked up its characteristics.

Item: Phoenix Bloodshed Bracelet

Grade: Divine (sealed)

Description: This item is made from the blood of a Phoenix, containing the power of the Phoenix Nirvana Nine Heavenly Flames. It requires the essence blood of a Phoenix to unlock the seal.

Description 2: This item has a one-in-ten-thousand chance of triggering the power of the Phoenix Nirvana Nine Heavenly Flames.

"Damn!"

"It's a divine artifact again! My luck is a bit too good, isn't it?" Luo Tian felt excited as he didn't expect to randomly get his hands on another divine artifact. This was something even more awesome than the Heavenly Plume Shield from the Heaven's Destiny Set.

One thousand xuan coins? The price of this Phoenix Bloodshed Bracelet was probably worth over ten million xuan coins!

Luo Tian didn't reveal what he was feeling. From the way Bai Lingling looked, Luo Tian could tell they didn't know how powerful this Phoenix Bloodshed Bracelet was. They were only treating it as a memento.

"Okay!"

"We shall rest here for half an hour before entering the ancient cave."

Chapter 973: Dark Yin Crystals

Half an hour later, Luo Tian followed Bai Lingling and her group to a hidden cave entrance.

Near the entrance of the cave was a large field of neglected graves.

There were tufts of wilted grass growing about mounds of various sizes. An occasional desolate caw of a crow could be heard in the bleak-looking surroundings. A dark, shadowy atmosphere seemed to have permanently cast itself over this area, causing anyone's heart to beat a bit faster in anxiety.

There was not a single demonic beast in this area, not even a bird flying by.

There were only a few large crows standing on the branches of a dead tree that cawed out now and then.

The entrance of the cave looked like a deserted tomb that someone smashed open.

The gravestone was broken in two halves, and the marks on it looked fresh. One can easily guess that it had been broken in the last few days.

Luo Tian observed his surroundings before muttering to himself, "How could there be such a large expanse of neglected graves in the depths of Martial Mountain?"

Ouyang Ye heard it and said with disdain, "How would a muggle like you, who had just entered the Ancient World, know about this? There were once many glorious sects in the Martial Mountain and even a king level force in it. Where there were once living people would naturally have dead people. When there are dead people, there naturally would be graves for them to be buried in. So, what's so surprising about such a large expanse of neglected graves here?"

"Such a naive and inexperienced newcomer!"

Ouyang Ye was pissed at Luo Tian, so he would target Luo Tian whenever he could.

He was yelled at by Bai Lingling several times because of Luo Tian.

Luo Tian treated him like a fart and ignored him. His thoughts were mostly focused on the ancient cave. If there really was a large number of zombies inside, then he would have struck it rich! A large amount of experience was waiting for him!

Bai Lingling said softly, "This should be the place where some sect buries their own members."

Luo Tian asked, "Since it's a place to bury people, what are you guys doing here for? Even if these dead people had good things while they were alive, most likely, they would have been taken away when they were buried, right?"

"Cheh~!"

"I already knew that you were an ignorant person! Haven't you noticed that the temperature a few kilometers around here is lower than in other places? This is a place of extreme yin; otherwise, those who had died wouldn't have been able to turn into zombies. And in this place of extreme yin, there will be an abundance of Dark Yin Crystals." Ouyang Ye revealed a look of being very knowledgeable as he explained in disdain to Luo Tian. This information was something he learned from a book he once read, or else he would have no clue either.

Bai Lingling added, "He's right. This time, we have to get some Dark Yin Crystals, or else we won't have the face to go back."

When she thought of those hateful looking faces at home, Bai Lingling felt a fire surge inside her heart. "I'll definitely get some Dark Yin Crystals! I'll definitely save my dad! You all just wait and see!"

A place of extreme yin?

Luo Tian knew it from the moment they arrived here, but he just didn't expect that the place of extreme Yin would have something called Dark Yin Crystals. It was rumored that this kind of crystal could absorb away yin energy or yin poison from a person's body, thus adding to one's lifespan.

This kind of crystal was worth over ten thousand xuan coins.

Bai Lingling looked at Luo Tian's expression, which looked like he was in deep thought. She mistook it as Luo Tian being afraid. After all, his cultivation realm was still a bit lacking if he were to enter the ancient cave and fight against the zombies here. But she had to succeed this time. No matter what, she had to try one more time and fight it out with all she had!

She tried to reassure Luo Tian by saying, "You just have to do what I tell you to, and nothing will happen to you. I will definitely protect you."

Luo Tian smiled, "Then I shall thank you in advance."

Protect?

There was no need.

Luo Tian was only scared of someone stabbing him in the back.

After stopping there to prepare for a few minutes, Bai Lingling said, "Let's enter the cave."

She then took the lead into the muddy and desolate-looking tomb that was completely dark below.

Luo Tian was briefly stunned as he said to himself, "She didn't even frown after entering such a dirty and terrifying looking place. Looks like she's a little different from other girls."

The impression he had of her went up a bit.

The five of them went inside the ancient cave.

There was a putrid stench and a bone-chilling wind blowing from the depths of the cave. It could easily make anyone feel a sense of panic in their hearts.

“Light the fire.” Bai Lingling ordered.

She then said, “Keep your distance and don’t act rashly. A few more steps ahead, and there will be some of those Bloodthirsty Zombies. Don’t be injured by their sharp nails, or else you will get poisoned by it. The injury will paralyze you, and you might even faint for a short period of time. Once you have been poisoned, quickly take a healing pill at once. The poison is very mild, so any tier healing pill can detoxify it.”

She was saying all of this for Luo Tian.

The people in her group already knew this information.

Ouyang Ye had an impatient look on his face as he sneered, “Do you even know what a healing pill is?”

Bai Lingling was briefly stunned before she walked to Luo Tian’s side and said, “Your position is to fend off the zombies, so you’ll definitely suffer some minor injuries in that position. I have some extra healing pills here, so take it and use it first.”

“No need.”

Luo Tian rejected it and said, “I will take care of it myself. Just remember to give me the full amount of money once you finish your mission.”

Bai Lingling didn’t insist that he take her pills.

She hadn’t brought that many healing pills with her this time. Not to mention, their group had already entered the ancient cave once already, so over half of her supplies had been consumed. She didn’t know how deep this ancient cave went on for, and she didn’t know if they were going to find any Dark Yin Crystals or not. It wasn’t a bad idea to preserve a few more healing pills as a precaution.

When Ouyang Ye saw that Bai Lingling was showing care to Luo Tian, he felt annoyed once more. In the darkness of the cave, a cold glint briefly flashed in his eyes.

“Let’s start advancing,” said Bai Lingling.

Luo Tian and Ouyang Ye’s sidekick, Zhao Hai, took to the front to take the brunt of the attacks.

Playing the role of tanks!

Bai Lingling and Ouyang Ye were the ranged attackers.

Bai Xiong was the backup tank, who was also responsible for protecting Bai Lingling and Ouyang Ye.

This was a very common team makeup!

But Luo Tian felt that it would be better if he was a damage dealer in this formation instead of being a tank. The advancement speed of the group would be a bit faster. But since he was getting paid to do the job, he naturally wouldn’t say anything about it and just acted like a tank like he was told to.

Since he was the closest to the zombies, he could take the final strike when they only had a bit of health left.

The majority of the experience points would belong to him then!

Luo Tian was quite familiar with playing the role of a tanker. It was actually a very important position and not as useless as these people were saying about it. Tankers were basically the first line of defense. If a tank did a good job, the damage dealers in the back would be protected, and the entire fight would go smoother.

The five of them slowly advanced.

Due to the cave being too dark, no one could see that far ahead.

Luo Tian was also very careful as he didn't know what rank of demonic beasts these zombies were categorized as.

The person in the group with the most serious look on their face was Bai Lingling.

"Slow down!" Bai Lingling suddenly shouted.

"There's a Bloodthirsty Zombie lying down ahead. Zhao Hai, go and lure it over."

Zhao Hai didn't respond.

Ouyang Ye said, "Why does it have to be Zhao Hai? Have the kid go. He had taken so much money, yet he isn't doing anything? Who does he think he is?"

Bai Lingling looked at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian smiled and said, "I'll do it."

Bai Lingling advised, "Be careful and don't get tangled up with it, or else you will be in big trouble. Most importantly, don't get bitten by it!"

Bai Xiong said with a smile, "Brother, be extra careful, and you should be fine."

Luo Tian started running over in large strides.

Isn't it just luring monsters? Do you guys really have to be this uptight?

In the video games of his previous life, Luo Tian was capable of playing any role that was needed. Luring monsters was a job too easy for him!

Chapter 974: Piston Exercise With A Zombie

“Hey, grandson!”

“Come and bite me if you have the guts!”

Luo Tian activated his monster taunting mode.

But the zombie on the ground had no reaction. Its maggot-like eyes only stared at Luo Tian like it was staring at an alien.

At this time, Ouyang Ye was holding back his laughter. If it weren't for Bai Lingling glaring at him, he would've started rolling on the ground in laughter. “This kid... this muggle... is really idiotic! He actually called it his grandson? These zombies have died for over tens of thousands of years, so does he really think they can hear him?”

“This is too funny!”

Bai Lingling almost laughed as well, but she managed to hold it in. She then said, “You have to attack it before you can lure it back to us!”

Taunting monsters doesn't work?!

This doesn't make sense!

Any living creature would get angry when taunted. This was naturally more so for humans.

This zombie should have some intelligence, right?

How come I can't attract its hate?

Luo Tian looked back at Bai Lingling and the others and found that they looked very nervous after laughing. It was as if this Bloodthirsty Zombie lying on the ground and moving around was very powerful or something. Luo Tian looked around the area once more and only found this guy.

He took several large strides forward.

He aimed for the zombie's neck and stomped down.

"Crunch~!"

The head snapped off and separated from the body.

"What are you doing?!"

"Are you crazy?!"

"This kid is a complete idiot! We're going to die because of him!"

"You were told to lure the zombie over, but what did you end up doing?!"

Bai Lingling and the rest looked like they were going berserk.

Luo Tian's actions gave them so much shock that they had thoughts of committing suicide.

The subordinate called Zhao Hai, broke out in cold sweat from fear.

Luo Tian looked at each one of them with a dumbfounded expression. "What the hell?! Isn't it just a zombie? Why are you guys acting like that?"

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Bloodthirsty Zombie. You have gained 190 experience points, 10 yuan energy...”

“The experience isn’t too bad!”

“It would be great if they were all that easy to kill.” Luo Tian said to himself in joy. He could already see that this Bloodthirsty Zombie had a low health bar. One move from him was sufficient to kill it. He wanted to burst out laughing, seeing how each of them had such a nervous expression on their faces.

Luo Tian glanced at them and said, “Come over. I’ve already killed it.”

“What?”

Ouyang Ye said in surprise, “Kid, are you joking with us? You’ve killed it? Who do you think you are?!”

“One move to kill it?”

“His cultivation is only at the Four Elements 3rd rank. When did such a realm become that strong?”

No one believed his words.

But Bai Lingling still went forward to look.

Ouyang Ye held her back and said, “Don’t listen to him! There’s no way he can kill that zombie with his cultivation realm. He’s obviously trying to trick you!”

Bai Lingling shrugged off Ouyang Ye’s hand and slowly walked forward.

Luo Tian felt this scene was quite hilarious, so he glanced at Ouyang Ye and said, "You are such a coward. I think the sperms inside your ball sack are probably all dead."

"Kid, who are you talking to?!"

Ouyang Ye was unconvinced, "If you are capable of killing that zombie by yourself, I will eat it raw!"

At this time, Bai Lingling arrived at the zombie on the ground and looked at Bai Xiong, "It is indeed dead. You guys all come over; we can continue moving forward from this point."

Luo Tian immediately said, "Hold on!"

"What did he just say? If I was capable of killing the zombie, he was going to eat it raw? Ouyang something something, come over here and eat this thing raw. If you dare not to eat, then you are the grandson!"

Ouyang Ye's face turned green and unsightly.

He had fought with these zombies before and knew they were very hard to kill; that's why he said such words to Luo Tian. He thought Luo Tian was scared and didn't attack the zombie. But how could he have known that Luo Tian really killed that zombie with a single move?

Zhao Hai glanced at Ouyang Ye and quickly ran off to the side. He was really afraid Ouyang Ye would command him to eat the zombie raw together.

Ouyang Ye's expression turned cold, and said with disdain, "This zombie was killed by you? It was clearly already dead, and you only stomped on a corpse and turned it into two parts. So you call this killing it? What a joke! Most likely, you would piss your pants in fear if you saw a live one."

Luo Tian was about to say something and stopped himself. He then started smiling and pulled Bai Lingling back a bit. "You will soon see who is the one that's going to piss their pants in fear."

At an unknown time, a hideous-looking zombie climbed out from the muddy ground and stood just behind Ouyang Ye. Its two rotting hands reached forth and rested on his shoulders, and a burst of cold corpse breath was blowing gently against his ears.

Its hair was in a mess, and its face was missing a good portion. Worms were wriggling and falling off half of its face and its nostril.

An extremely eerie and terrifying scene!

Bai Lingling's eyes widened as her mind tensed up.

When Zhao Hai noticed it, he exclaimed in fright, "Young Master Ye, be, be, behind you..."

Ouyang Ye still maintained a confident look and a smug smile on his face. "What has this daddy not seen before? Not to mention zombies, I won't be scared even if we encounter a Zombie King! Zhao Hai, what's behind me? Are you standing on the side of the outsiders and trying to mess with me? Do you believe that I will teach you a good lesson?"

"No, no, no..."

"I'm n, n, not, Young Master Ye. Behind you, behind you is a zombie!" Zhao Hai could barely speak with his trembling voice.

Bai Xiong directly said, "It looks like we need to change our formation a bit. Brother Ouyang, I will have to trouble you to act as our meat shield and block that zombie. We will help you out very soon."

It is unknown if Ouyang Ye was too good looking or if that female zombie was in heat.

The moment Ouyang Ye turned around, still with a disbelieving attitude, the female zombie leaned forward and gave him a kiss.

“Holy shit!”

“Your taste in women is a bit too exotic! You’re not even sparing a zombie? You’re an animal! Maybe even worse than an animal!” Luo Tian burst out laughing.

You could say such a strange scene was so rare that it might only happen once in a thousand years. This guy was simply too... Luo Tian just kept laughing.

Ouyang Ye’s eyes popped out of its socket.

“Agggghhhh~! Mmmmm~! Mmmmm~!”

His mouth had been sealed up.

Ouyang Ye wanted to scream, but it was blocked. He could feel maggots squirming into his mouth and immediately wanted to throw up. But he couldn’t, so his face instantly turned pale white. A wet patch appeared in the crotch area of his pants, and then a mixture of urine and feces started sliding out from the bottom of his pant legs.

He shit his pants from fear!

The stench of shit started wafting out.

“H,h, help, help me... Help me...” Ouyang Ye tried to call for help.

He was being hugged tighter and tighter by the female zombie, and their bodies almost fused together as one. You are in me, and I am in you. We are about to XOXO and start that type of wondrous exercise.

Luo Tian was dumbstruck by what he was seeing. “Marvelous! Brilliant! This is the first time I’ve seen a man doing stuff that’s inappropriate for children to watch to a zombie! Too marvelous! What I really want to know is how you can stomach it?”

Bai Lingling had an anxious expression as she exclaimed, "Quickly save him!"

Even though she didn't like Ouyang Ye, she needed him alive because their team couldn't risk losing a person!

Chapter 975: Cutting Off One's Ability To Have Descendants

"Save him! Quickly go save him!"

"We'll definitely save him. If we don't save him, he's going to be raped to death by that female zombie, hahaha..." laughed Luo Tian. Being fucked by a zombie was truly a rare sight to behold.

Laughing and making fun of the situation was fine, but Luo Tian still made his move.

Even though Ouyang Ye was a hateful person, he was still indispensable to the team, as Bai Lingling had said. If he were to die here, this would most likely spell the end of this ancient cave adventure for the group, which was something Luo Tian didn't want.

"Zhao Hai, pull it away."

"Bai Xiong, attack it from the left."

Bai Lingling fired off several quick commands. Her figure moved and instantly appeared next to Ouyang Ye. "Don't move around randomly!"

The zombie was holding onto Ouyang Ye without any intention of letting go. It had now become a living target that was very easy for them to attack.

But Ouyang Ye had already been scared out of his wits, so having him stay still was impossible.

The worst thing was that he was continuously backing up, and his center of gravity was unsteady, which made him fall directly to the ground. The female zombie fell down on top of him, and they started rolling around together on the ground.

“Holy crap!”

“Your taste in women is really too heavy for me! Do you want to roll around in bed instead? Should I prepare a big bed for you right now?” Luo Tian almost started laughing out loud once more. But if he didn’t save Ouyang Ye soon, the guy would most likely end up crippled, if not dead.

This guy was completely powerless.

Luo Tian rushed over and exclaimed, “Stop moving! Stop moving...”

“Damn it!”

“You like moving around, right?”

“I’m all out of options then... Please understand that what I’m about to do is to save you.”

As his voice faded, Luo Tian gave a strong stomp.

“Bang~!”

His foot landed on Ouyang Ye’s back and made his body involuntarily convulse. Ouyang Ye was in so much pain that he couldn’t even scream.

“Why did you do that?!” Zhao Hai shouted.

Luo Tian shrugged, “I told him not to move. It was him that was randomly moving about, so you can’t blame me!”

Right after the explanation, Luo Tian gave another kick, which struck the zombie this time. The zombie's body only shook a bit, but its two pupils turned to stare at Luo Tian like it wanted to swallow him alive.

He started gasping for air before shouting, "Kill it! Kill it! Why are you guys stunned in place?!"

Luo Tian then said in a serious manner, "Killing it is naturally not a problem. The issue is that you two are hugging each other too tightly. If I make a move and accidentally hurt you, you might start blaming me for it. Maybe it's best that I don't do anything."

"I won't blame you!"

"Why would I blame you?!"

"Quickly get this ugly thing away from me! Quickly!" Ouyang Ye's heart shook as he was afraid the female zombie would try to kiss him again.

There was a brief glint that flashed in Luo Tian's eyes. He then looked at Bai Lingling and the others and said, "What are we waiting for? Everyone should attack together! Do you guys really plan on saving him? Don't you guys have a sense of propriety?!"

After saying that, Luo Tian gave a vicious stomp.

But he accidentally stomped on Ouyang Ye's genitals.

"Ugghhh~!" Ouyang Ye wailed miserably.

Luo Tian didn't feel apologetic at all, "I told you not to move about! If I step on it once more, you really can't blame me for it!"

He then stomped a few more times after speaking.

The zombie started wailing in pain. When everyone saw how Luo Tian's method was working, they no longer cared anymore and rushed over to help. The four of them stomped left and right, making this scene look similar to the movie A Chinese Odyssey, where Stephen Chow's crotch was on fire, and a lot of people were stomping on it to put out the fire.

The female zombie must have been really horny because she held onto Ouyang Ye without letting go.

On the other hand, Ouyang Ye was scared to death and was screaming, "Quickly! Quickly! Don't worry about me, and quickly kill it! Kill it!"

Luo Tian said with all seriousness, "I feel like you guys aren't using your full strength. You guys aren't trying to save him and are planning on harming him! You guys are too cruel!"

After saying that, Luo Tian accidentally stomped on Ouyang Ye's crotch again.

Ouyang Ye's body scrunched up as he screamed in pain for his ancestors. He then said fiercely, "Zhao Hai, are you trying to get me killed?! Put some strength into it! Damn it, if I were to die here, you won't be able to live either!"

"Little Sister Ling!"

"Bai Xiong! Use more strength!"

Luo Tian added, "He's right! You guys need to put in more strength!"

Luo Tian carelessly stepped on Ouyang Ye's crotch once more and was laughing internally. "Cutting you off from having descendants stomp! You dare to mock this daddy? You want to play with me? This daddy can play you to death! If it wasn't for the fact that you're still a bit useful, your little wiener and your eggs would've exploded a long time ago!"

Bai Lingling glanced at Luo Tian, and her gaze changed ever so slightly. But there was no other option at this time. The female zombie kept entangling itself on Ouyang Ye, and Ouyang Ye kept struggling to get away. Even if one was able to kick fast and carefully, they would still sometimes end up kicking Ouyang Ye.

At this time, they could only randomly kick.

Ten minutes went by.

Ouyang Ye was now covered in bruises. The most obvious was his crotch area, that had a large bump. It is unknown if it was his eggs that were bruised on his wiener that were bruised.

Luo Tian suddenly yelled out, "Everyone stop! Let me do it!"

Everyone was briefly stunned as they looked at Luo Tian.

They saw Luo Tian leap into the air and accurately stomp down onto the back of the female zombie's head.

"Squelch~!"

The female zombie's head had been squashed!

The direction of her head was pressed toward Ouyang Ye's mouth, so they ended up kissing once again. Ouyang Ye could no longer hold back as his stomach started roiling. All the food he had eaten in the last few days suddenly sprayed out. His eyes rolled back behind his head, and he almost fainted.

What a gruesome scene!

At this time, there was an alert tone.

Luo Tian was smiling internally, "Awesome!"

The zombie was finally pushed away. Ouyang Ye covered his crotch with both hands, his body scrunched together, while repeatedly screaming in pain, "Aggh~, Aggh~, Aggh~!"

Zhao Hai went over to support him and asked with concern, "Young Master Ye, are you okay?"

"Pak~!"

Ouyang Ye viciously slapped him and scolded, "Don't you have any eyes?! Do I look like I'm okay?! Were you trying to harm me just then, you damn dog thing?!"

Extreme rage.

Ouyang Ye then stared at Luo Tian with icy cold eyes before saying with a strange smile, "Brother, thank you for saving me. If it weren't for you, I would definitely be harmed by this kid."

Luo Tian waved his hand and replied, "No need to thank me. We are all brothers on the same team, so there's no need to be so polite. If you really want to thank me, you can give me eight to ten thousand xuan coins. That would be the most realistic reward."

"Huh?"

Ouyang Ye was briefly stunned as he didn't know how to react. He then said, "Okay! Once we head back to the city, I will thank you for your saving grace!"

His eyes were filled with an intense killing intent.

But with his current conditions and the words he spoke, there was no way he could kill Luo Tian right now. Bai Lingling would not let him make a move.

Bai Xiong glanced at Ouyang Ye before saying to the group, "Are we still going to continue when Brother Ouyang has been injured to such a degree?"

Not waiting for Bai Lingling to speak, Ouyang Ye said, "Of course we'll continue! For the sake of Little Sister Ling, we will continue even if I have to die!"

Chapter 976: Zombie Horde

It would be false to say that Bai Lingling wasn't moved by his words.

She felt a stir of emotion in her heart.

The Dark Yin Crystals were extremely important to her. If Ouyang Ye were to leave the group, she would have to head back empty-handed. At that time, her father couldn't be saved, and those people at home would ridicule her.

Any girl would be moved when Ouyang Ye said those words.

But those words weren't completely for Bai Lingling.

It was for Luo Tian to hear.

Ouyang Ye wasn't an idiot. Even though Luo Tian so-called saved him, the process had completely pissed him off. Luo Tian's actions clearly carried vengeance when he made his moves. Ouyang Ye said to himself, "You just wait for this daddy. Watch how I'm going to play you to death!"

Luo Tian pretended he didn't know anything.

He was also clear about what was going on and said to himself, "You want to play with me? I will soon kick your remaining two eggs until they explode!"

Bai Lingling looked over Ouyang Ye's injuries and asked, "Do you want to rest a bit first?"

Ouyang Ye responded with a smile, "I'm fine! Don't worry about me; we can continue onward!"

Ouyang Ye actually didn't suffer any serious injuries.

Apart from Luo Tian wildly stepping on his crotch several times, which caused unbearable pain, he wasn't physically attacked by the female zombie. He wasn't poisoned either and had only suffered a good scare. He had recovered after taking a pill that recovered one's stamina, and his complexion had pretty much returned to normal.

Bai Lingling didn't say anything unnecessary and said, "Continue advancing with our previous formation."

Luo Tian stepped out and went to the front.

Behind him was Zhao Hai, then Bai Xiong, then Bai Lingling, and Ouyang Ye brought in the rear.

Just when Ouyang Ye's eyes twitched, and his expression turned fierce, wanting to scold Luo Tian along the lines of, "Damn dog thing! You just wait for this daddy," Luo Tian suddenly turned around and said with shock, "Young Master Ye, behind you..."

Ouyang Ye shuddered in fear and immediately ran off to the side, almost pissing his pants.

Luo Tian started laughing, "There's nothing behind you! I was only playing a joke on you, hahaha..."

Even Zhao Hai couldn't hold in his laughter when he saw Ouyang Ye's scared expression.

Not to mention Bai Lingling and Bai Xiong.

This made Ouyang Ye lose all face, so his expression turned extremely ugly.

Bai Lingling coughed a few times before saying seriously, "Let's be more serious and stop scaring people. Otherwise, don't blame me for being impolite to you."

Luo Tian chuckled a few times before turning around and heading forward.

"Whoosh~... woooooo~..."

A cold, eerie sound of the wind was heard.

It stung their face a little, and the further down they went, the more pungent the smell of rotting flesh was.

After walking for around ten minutes, Luo Tian suddenly stopped.

"What is it?" Bai Lingling immediately asked while her expression changed.

Luo Tian whispered, "There's something ahead."

Zhao Hai stepped forward and stared into the darkness. He then sent out his spiritual senses and said, "What is it? How come I can't detect anything?"

Ouyang Ye smiled in disdain, "It can't be that you're so scared that you're making stuff up, right?"

He wanted to find ways to knock Luo Tian down a peg.

Luo Tian was unfazed and said, "I wonder who it was back then that pissed and shit his pants in fear..."

Bai Lingling frowned, "Enough with the nonsense. What's going on up front? How come I can't sense anything either?"

Luo Tian said seriously, "I don't know what the situation is up ahead, but my intuition tells me it's dangerous. It's very likely that there are multiple zombies ahead of us. Can you guys take on several zombies at the same time?"

"What intuition?"

"My intuition tells me that you are about to die. So, are you dead yet?" Ouyang Ye said with disdain.

Intuition was something very vague.

It could be all based on a person's experience.

In front of them was a corner that limited their vision ahead. One could hear an eerie gusty wind, and the pungent smell was slightly stronger. Even though it was very slight, Luo Tian could still clearly identify the elevated levels. This was what made him different from the other people.

Intuition told him that around the corner were some zombies, and it might even be a big group of them.

Bai Lingling was anxious to get the Dark Yin Crystals, and she was also someone who didn't believe a martial artist who hunted demonic beasts for their livelihood had any intuition. To her, intuition was a thing a person made up to justify their own actions. So, she ordered, "Continue moving forward."

"Little Sister Ling, I think he's scared." Ouyang Ye said with a smile.

Luo Tian immediately responded, "I am actually quite scared. Young Master Ye, how about you go ahead and be the one in front?"

Ouyang Ye was momentarily speechless before saying, "My task is to attack. If I'm in charge of luring the monsters back here, can you take my spot in attacking? How much damage can you do when your strength is only at the Four Elements 3rd rank?"

Bai Lingling interrupted them, "Enough arguing and keep advancing."

Luo Tian exhaled before saying, "Don't blame me for not warning you guys. Make your preparations, and don't piss your pants later."

Luo Tian then glanced at Bai Lingling and said, "If a large group of zombies do come out later, make sure you don't panic. Run back to the long corridor behind us on the left. It will be easier for us to defend there and hard for them to attack. It's a very favorable spot for our group formation."

After saying that, Luo Tian moved forward and around the corner into the darkness.

Ouyang Ye had a disdainful look on his face and said: "He's obviously afraid yet still wants to argue about it and talk as if he was so powerful. Little Sister Ling, I think he's just a person who tries to scam people for money. You just wait and see how I will take care of him afterward."

Bai Lingling didn't respond and only furrowed her brow.

"How come he's not back yet?"

"There isn't even a bit of sound. He shouldn't have encountered an accident, right?"

"The lack of sound means he is safe. If he encounters a Bloodthirsty Zombie, he will definitely scream like a girl." Ouyang Ye maintained his face of disdain as he didn't believe Luo Tian's intuition.

Bai Xiong's brow was also furrowed as he commented, "Something is off."

Bai Lingling's concentration turned serious as she shouted, "Prepare for battle!"

She couldn't sense the presence of any zombies nearby, but a sense of fear rose up in her heart.

Ouyang Ye was briefly stunned before saying, "Little Sister Ling, there's definitely no zombies ahead. If there were zombies, that kid would be running back in fear already."

At this moment, Luo Tian sprinted around the corner back to them and shouted, “Run!”

Ouyang Ye smiled in disdain first before saying, “Are you trying to scare us again? Do you think we grew up being scared? With your low cultivation realm, can you even come back alive if you encounter zombies? And now you’re trying to tell us there are zombies chasing after you?”

Luo Tian didn’t look at him and only glanced at Bai Lingling before yelling out once more, “Quickly run! Run to the place I spoke of before! It’s a zombie horde!”

After his voice faded, the sound of intense shaking could be heard.

Footsteps sounding like thunder started heading toward them.

A female zombie with scattered hair was the first to appear around the corner. Ouyang Ye recalled the scene he had just experienced and instantly ran off with a sickened face.

Their formation was instantly broken after losing him!

Chapter 977: Fatal Strike

This guy didn’t care if the group lived or died! He was so scared that he wished he was born with an extra pair of legs to help him run away!

He was even faster than a rabbit running for its life!

Bai Lingling’s face changed slightly as a sense of disgust rose up inside her heart. The trace of positive feelings she had for Ouyang Ye completely disappeared. She then said to Luo Tian, “Go run away! Don’t let it catch up to you!”

Luo Tian wasn’t overly anxious in reality and just said back, “Let’s run! Run to the place I told you about! Don’t run to any other place, or else we are going to all die here!”

“Believe me!”

He was a bit worried that if Bai Lingling and the others were to randomly run about, they might really have to die in this place.

Seeing how Ouyang Ye’s figure had already disappeared without a trace, Luo Tian didn’t feel surprised by it. But if another person from the remaining four were to run off to god knows where then his plans would definitely fail.

Bai Lingling looked at Luo Tian seriously. His cultivation realm wasn’t that high. Out of the five of them, Luo Tian had the lowest cultivation realm, and Ouyang Ye had the highest.

This was followed by Bai Lingling, Bai Xiong, and then Zhao Hai.

Listening to the words of a person who was only at the Four Elements 3rd rank?

Can a person who sells his life for money be trustworthy?

Bai Lingling hesitated briefly. If they were to run now, there was a chance that they could run out of the ancient cave and survive the whole ordeal. If they were to listen to Luo Tian, there was a chance they would all die here. But at this time, she suddenly thought of her clan elders all smirking at her with ridicule.

Bai Xiong looked at her, “Are we running or not?”

Zhao Hai’s legs were already weak with fear.

Bai Lingling furrowed her brow before shouting, “Run to the left corridor, quick!”

She chose to believe in Luo Tian at the last second.

It wasn't because she trusted Luo Tian. She was just unwilling to admit defeat like this and unwilling to leave the ancient cave empty-handed. If they were to retreat this time, they may not come back to this ancient cave for the rest of their lives. Her father and those clan elders..."

Bai Xiong had no intention of going against the idea and just ran to the left corridor with Bai Lingling.

Zhao Hai's face had already turned white with fear as he shouted, "It's a dead end there! If you guys want to seek death, you guys go ahead and do it yourselves! I'm not going to die with any of you!"

After saying that, he immediately ran down the corridor that led to the exit.

Luo Tian's expression turned anxious as he shouted, "Come back! Quickly come back!"

Zhao Hai sneered, "You want me to accompany you guys to burial?! Quit dreaming! You guys wish to seek death, then seek death by yourselves!"

His figure had already disappeared into the darkness after saying those words.

But Luo Tian didn't have time to tell him or Ouyang Ye that this ancient cave was a winding corridor. The zombies were divided into two groups where one wave was rushing toward them in one direction and the other wave from the other corridor. Before they can run out of the cave's exit, they would mostly be swallowed up by the other group of zombies.

"Bang~, bang~..."

Luo Tian increased his speed and quickly ran to the corridor the group was supposed to use.

He observed behind him a zombie horde that was only a few dozen meters away. He then glanced at Bai Lingling and Bai Xiong, who were already pale white in fear.

“We’re dead. We’re dead. This time, we’re really going to die. Father, I’m sorry. I am so useless. Your Ling’er is useless. I’m sorry...” Bai Lingling muttered.

Bai Xiong stood there unmoving, like he had been stunned silly.

They couldn’t even deal with three zombies at once, and now there was a group of fifty to sixty of them. They would probably be ripped into pieces in less than a second before being eaten up.

“Hey!”

Luo Tian suddenly grabbed Bai Lingling’s collar and lifted her up against the wet walls of the cave. Two pairs of eyes stared at each other, and two mouths were only two centimeters away from each other. Luo Tian said in a serious tone, “Do you want to live? Do you want to save your father?”

Bai Lingling woke up to Luo Tian’s actions. A brief glint of light flashed in her eyes as she nodded at Luo Tian, “I do!”

Luo Tian then shouted, “Listen to me if you do!”

“You too, big guy!”

Luo Tian kicked Bai Xiong’s ass and said, “Listen up, you two! I have a way to bring you out alive! I have a way to kill all these zombies, but you have to listen to my instructions!”

They had lost their judgment ability after seeing the zombie horde.

They were basically flowers that had grown up in a greenhouse, so their brains had all short-circuited in the face of such a dangerous situation and didn’t know how to react.

Their emotions were in even more turmoil after Ouyang Ye and Zhao Hai ran away.

If a backbone didn't appear at this time, then they would end up dying even if they suddenly gained the powers of an immortal.

Bai Xiong turned to look at Luo Tian.

Bai Lingling turned to look at Luo Tian.

At this time, they were both shaken as they couldn't see through Luo Tian. Was this guy really someone who hunts demonic beasts for a living?

He seemed to have changed into a different person.

Luo Tian didn't have time to explain anything to them. He immediately said, "Big guy, stand over here, but there's no need to make any moves. You only need to use your body to block here and not bother with anything else!"

As Luo Tian said this, he was pointing at the tightest area of the corridor.

Luo Tian had been observing the terrain from the beginning and found the ancient cave was very suitable for getting monsters stuck behind objects. Both sides of the rock wall were extremely strong, so the zombie horde wouldn't be able to just crash through the walls. As long as Bai Xiong can block properly, not a single zombie can enter unless they can fly!

Bai Xiong walked over to the designated spot.

Luo Tian stood in front of him and turned to look at Bai Lingling, "Your task hasn't changed. Just stand behind the big guy and attack."

Bai Lingling asked, "What about you?"

Luo Tian looked at the approaching zombie horde getting blocked at the corridor entrance, and only three zombies were able to enter at one time. He started grinning and replied, "Me? Of course, I'm going to fuck them all up!"

After saying that, one of the zombies had already pounced over. It had green-colored skin with sticky venom dripping from somewhere. Anyone who was scratched by it would definitely be poisoned.

Luo Tian made his move as a fireball shot out from his palm.

"God Flame!"

"Boom~!"

The God Flame shot out and landed on the zombie, forcing it back by half a step.

The Instant kill ability didn't trigger.

This wasn't surprising to Luo Tian anymore. He made another move and slipped in between the zombie's two raised arms. He slammed into the zombie's chest with his shoulder and forced it to collide back into the other two zombies and the horde behind. A pair of fists similar to hammer strikes started punching out.

"Boom~, boom~!"

With those two punches, a red number appeared above the zombie's head.

Thinking that the impact would crush the other zombies, a bright red number appeared floating above their heads. But the numbers were all -1, which was negligible to their overall health bar.

"Mountain River Fist!"

“Bang~, bang~...”

The heavy strike landed on the zombie’s chest once more, breaking most of its rib bones.

The zombie was forced back, but Luo Tian followed up by forming claws with his hands and pulling it back. He borrowed the force and pulled this zombie away from the horde before giving it a round of fierce beating. It was a ruthless beating all over in order to find the zombie’s weak spot.

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

“Motherfucker! Their defense is the same throughout their body?!” Luo Tian’s expression darkened. Seeing another three zombies charging at him, he didn’t have time to think too much and kicked between the legs of the zombie before him.

“Bang~!”

“-301”

“A fatal strike?!”

“Ding!”

Chapter 978: Flying Zombie

“Oh shit!”

“Attacking their crotch would cause a fatal strike?”

The kick just now was like a critical strike in a game. Luo Tian's previous damage was only about one or two points, but the kick just now directly generated a substantial amount of damage, instantly killing that zombie!

"Hahaha..."

"There's no need to be afraid once we've found their weakness!"

Luo Tian repeatedly backed up until he stood next to Bai Xiong.

At this moment, Bai Xiong and Bai Lingling were completely dumbstruck.

A zombie was killed just like that?

Was this the strength a Four Elements ranker was supposed to have?

How come this guy seems to be stronger than me?

"How is this possible?"

"A series of consecutive strikes and then killing it just like that?" Bai Lingling looked at Luo Tian with a serious look on her face. She was unable to understand the man in front of her. A single question rose up in her mind – was a Four Elements ranker supposed to be that strong?

This was also the same question Bai Xiong had.

He was completely convinced after watching Luo Tian's set of flowing consecutive strikes.

Luo Tian then shouted, "The zombie's crotch area is their weak spot! Attack there whenever you can!"

Luo Tian charged forth after saying that.

Bai Xiong nodded in a dull manner before turning to Bai Lingling, "Little sister, the zombie's crotch area is their weak spot. Just attack their lower body with all you've got. Uhh..." Bai Xiong became stunned mid-sentence.

"How does he know that?"

"No wonder he was attacking the zombie all over! He was searching for its weakness!"

"Strong!"

"Very strong!"

"How come such a strong person hasn't joined a sect yet?" Bai Xiong muttered. Watching Luo Tian rushing towards the front-most zombie, the sense of admiration grew stronger in his heart. In the beginning, he saw Luo Tian as nothing more than a money-hungry martial artist and had no positive feelings toward him.

He also didn't try to stop Luo Tian's mischief against Ouyang Ye.

He knew his little sister didn't like the arrogant and cocky Ouyang Ye, so it wasn't a bad thing to let Luo Tian teach him a lesson. At that time, he just thought Luo Tian was a bit clever with his tongue. Now, Luo Tian's image in his mind had completely reversed.

It wasn't just Bai Xiong who had those thoughts. Bai Lingling was also thinking the same thing.

Luo Tian was like a man of mystery!

Bai Lingling's fangirl emotions started rising up.

The last zombie was easy to deal with, but this one he was facing revealed some difficulties.

Luo Tian kept retreating as he looked for a good opportunity to deal a fatal blow to his opponent's weakness, but the zombie somehow protected itself very well, so he didn't have a chance at all.

Luo Tian noticed he was getting closer to Bai Xiong with his constant retreating.

At this time, Luo Tian shouted, "Hey pretty girl, what's wrong with you?! Attack!"

"Little sister! Quickly help out!"

Bai Xiong's shout finally woke her up.

She pulled out her sword, and her figure blurred. She flew up into the air, and her sword moved like a mirage, creating consecutive sword qis flying out like fierce tigers as they landed on the zombie. The zombie's body staggered before being blown backward in an explosive manner.

Luo Tian's eyes widened in surprise, "What strong damage numbers!"

The others didn't know, but Luo Tian could see the damage values floating above the zombies because of his system. Those attacks from her sword did over four hundred plus damage. This was even higher than the fatal strike he previously did! This was the difference in cultivation realms!

"This is exactly the gap in strength between me and her." Luo Tian sighed emotionally.

At the same time, Luo Tian shouted, "Coordinate with my attacks! You attack whichever zombie I strike! Just attack without worry because no zombies will reach you!"

Bai Lingling immediately responded, "Okay!"

She started getting more serious.

“The left one!”

Once she heard Luo Tian’s voice, Bai Lingling’s treasured sword started moving, and an extremely powerful sword qi shot out.

The zombie’s body shuddered.

Luo Tian’s body leaned forward before blasting out Mountain River Fist. This was followed by the Wolf King’s Claw, grabbing the zombie and pulling it back violently. After bombarding it with another two punches, he finally kicked out, “Cutting you off from having descendants kick!”

“Bang~!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Zombie. You have gained...”

The system sounded off an alert!

Luo Tian was jumping for joy inside, “That was good teamwork! Keep it up!”

The combined damage of the two of them was just enough to kill a zombie in an easy manner.

As long as there weren’t any accidents, they would still be able to kill even if a second zombie came at them.

Bai Lingling also felt happy as she saw hope in the situation. She became more serious as she stared at Luo Tian’s back. She somehow felt that Luo Tian’s back was very big, big enough to protect her completely.

Bai Xiong had the easiest time as he said, "Brother, do you need me to fight as well? We can speed up things, and I can take a load off your shoulders."

He couldn't resist wanting to join in the fun.

He wanted to fight, too, after seeing Luo Tian and Bai Lingling's perfect cooperation.

Luo Tian immediately said, "Stay there and don't move! You are there to protect her in case a zombie gets past me and rushes her. If that happens, the system we have going on will be disrupted, and that will waste our time instead."

Bai Xiong nodded, "I understand. I will stay right here!"

"Fierce Tiger Sword Qi!"

"Whoosh~!"

"Mountain River Fist!"

"Wolf King's Claw!"

"Ding!"

The cooperation between the two of them became better and better, and any zombie that rushed toward them would be killed off quickly. Luo Tian's experience bar kept rising up so fast that it gave him quite a bit of joy.

If this can continue, he would be able to level up in less than half a day!

Luo Tian felt greater than usual as he kept hearing the system give off alert tones.

“Hahaha...”

“We’ve already killed a large group of zombies! Being able to vent my anger feels really great!” Bai Xiong yelled out. They had entered the ancient cave twice already, and both times, they were driven out by the zombies. Each time, they would run out in a very embarrassing manner. Now, he could finally vent out all the pent-up anger he had.

“Brother, how did you think of such a method? It’s really useful!” asked Bai Xiong.

After sending a zombie flying with a kick, Luo Tian replied, “This method is called creating a chokepoint. You find a favorable terrain that can jam all the monsters outside. If there were more mages in our group, the process would be even easier for us!”

“What is a mage?” Bai Lingling asked in confusion.

“Uhhh...”

Luo Tian forgot he was in a foreign world and not inside a game. He chuckled, “Just maintain your long-distance attacks.”

“Don’t get distracted.”

“Maintain the consumption of yuan energy, and don’t be too hasty in your attacks. It’s important to keep a steady supply of yuan energy and not make any extra moves when you don’t have to.” Luo Tian advised.

Yuan energy was extremely important.

Bai Lingling was different from him. Luo Tian was an existence that could recover his yuan energy by killing monsters. Although it wasn’t a lot, he could basically maintain a constant output as long as he didn't cast God Flame. But if Bai Lingling consumes too much yuan energy and it gets depleted, then all the damage output will have to be shouldered by Luo Tian alone. This will cause a sudden drop in their group's attacking strength, and the speed of killing zombies will become very slow.

Bai Lingling's heart shook once more as she said, "I know!"

Bai Xiong suddenly shouted in shock, "There's a shadow descending from the air!"

Chapter 979: Flames Of Anger Coming Out

Luo Tian could also see it, his expression instantly changing. "A zombie that can fly?"

"Shit!"

"It's really a flying zombie!"

A zombie with a green glow landed in the innermost part of the corridor. The green mist was coming out of its body, and it looked like poison was bubbling outwards.

Moreover, there was a faint silver glow around its feet.

It was very clear this zombie was an elite monster!

Luo Tian was secretly anxious, "Big guy, go help her!"

"Okay!"

Bai Xiong immediately stepped up and stopped in front of Bai Lingling, saying, "This guy is not easy to deal with! How come we didn't see it at the beginning?! And the thing can fly!"

"Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~..."

“Damn humans, you can all die for me.” The Flying Zombie was speaking in a low and rough voice. Its eyes narrowed before it sprayed out a mouthful of thick green mist that quickly spread out through the area.

“Oh shit!”

“It’s actually letting out poison!”

Luo Tian’s face sank as he looked at the mass of green poisonous gas. He didn’t have time to care and shouted, “Get ready to kill it!”

“God Flame!”

“Boom~!”

With a thrust of his palm, a fireball shot out as he locked onto the Flying Zombie.

There wasn’t that much green mist in the corridor yet.

Luo Tian’s God Flame also happened to interrupt the flying zombie’s act of spraying poisonous mist. Under Luo Tian’s order, Bai Lingling and Bai Xiong both attacked. Those two now had complete trust in Luo Tian and showed no signs of hesitating in listening to his order.

“Bang~, bang~, bang~...”

Very fast!

The two of them were now entangled with the Flying Zombie.

On Luo Tian's side.

With the addition of the Flying Zombie, those regular zombies seemed to have become excited. This obviously meant that the Flying Zombie was their boss. But since it wasn't a real boss under Luo Tian's system, that meant this ancient cave had another level!

There might be a Zombie King!

"Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~..."

A zombie with a mouth full of foul-smelling breath pounced at Luo Tian. He tilted his body to the side and activated one hand with flames and the other with frost before chopping at it.

This was followed by a series of punches.

Finally, it was that 'cutting you off from having descendants kick' to end the zombie's life.

But using God Flame with his other skills caused too much yuan energy consumption. If this continues for a while, his yuan energy will deplete within half an hour. Even though there was a White Wolf King's inner core and the Pangolin's inner core inside him to help him recover, this kind of consumption would exceed the recovery rate of both inner cores combined.

"I have to find a way to kill that Flying Zombie first." Luo Tian said to himself. Looking at Bai Lingling and their fight, it was simply impossible to kill the Flying Zombie in a short period of time.

"What can I do then?"

Luo Tian didn't have a solution for now, so he could only keep killing.

The key was to stay calm under such dire situations.

Luo Tian believed there shouldn't be that many zombies left outside the corridor. As long as he could kill them all, he could then go help those two to kill that Flying Zombie.

Luo Tian furrowed his brow and shouted, "Kill!"

He increased his attacking speed!

After pushing out all his Four Elements cultivation realm powers, his strength had increased by a bit.

Luo Tian kept killing like crazy without any focus on defending.

"Rip~..."

Luo Tian's clothes had been shredded, but he didn't care.

His arm had been sliced, and a long gash of blood could be seen. Mixed in the blood was some type of green liquid, causing his arm to start feeling numb. Luo Tian immediately tilted his head and swallowed down a medicinal pill. The paralysis went away, and he continued killing one zombie after another.

He was almost able to clear the corridor to the exit area.

There were only around six zombies left. If he could kill all six of them, he could turn back to help those two kill that Flying Zombie.

At this time, Bai Xiong had a close call and was hit by a palm strike from the Flying Zombie. He slammed into the wall, and his face instantly turned pale.

"Your granny!" Bai Xiong's expression turned to anger before charging at it once more.

Luo Tian shouted, "There's no need to be anxious! I'm almost done killing these regular zombies! You guys just need to hold it back, and I will come help you guys once I'm done here!"

This was the only method he could come up with.

But what Luo Tian didn't expect was the sound of heavy footsteps coming from the darkness.

"Thump~, thump~, thump~..."

He then observed two people running over in an embarrassing manner.

It was Ouyang Ye and Zhao Hai!

When they saw Luo Tian, it was as if they had found a life-saving straw! They both shouted, "Help us! Save us! Hero, quickly come save us!"

"Oh shit!"

"Damn it, those two pieces of garbage!"

Luo Tian's heart sank. If those two were to lure a bunch of zombies over at such a critical time, their entire group would end up in a deadly fight. "We can't let those two come over here!"

Luo Tian immediately shouted, "Lure them away for one more lap, and we can then save you two!"

Luo Tian's words were sincere.

He will really save them if they run another lap with these zombies.

But Ouyang Ye and Zhao Hai acted like they didn't hear a single word and only frantically ran toward Luo Tian. When Ouyang Ye looked at Luo Tian and noticed there was a large pile of zombie corpses next to him, he acted like he was going to grab this life-saving straw with all the milk-drinking strength he had!

"Fuck your ancestors!" Luo Tian cursed out.

Now that he had killed his way to the exit of the corridor, he'd be surrounded by the zombies that Ouyang Ye and Zhao Hai had attracted. There was no way he was going to be able to escape!

He had no other choice but to retreat back into the corridor.

He could only hope that those zombies would not follow Ouyang Ye and Zhao Hai in.

Those that were better off dead weren't dead.

At this very moment, that Flying Zombie suddenly let out a roar up into the air.

Luo Tian was dumbstruck! This roar was, beyond a doubt, a call for help!

"Fuck!"

"Everything is turning out for the worse!" Luo Tian's heart sank, and his killing intent rose. As long as Ouyang Ye dared to run into this corridor, he was going to kick him out flying.

Ouyang Ye ran to the entrance of the corridor, and just as he was about to enter, he noticed a Flying Zombie with a green glow surrounding its body. When the Flying Zombie let out a roar, he immediately understood what was going on. He looked at Luo Tian before chuckling evilly, "Hahaha ..... You damn dog thing! Go ahead and die inside! Hahaha..."

After saying that, he didn't run into the corridor and waited in place.

He needed a diversion to lead the large group of zombies into the corridor.

Around this time, Zhao Hai ran over while panting. “Young Master Ye, how come you’re not going in? Quick! The zombies are coming!”

Ouyang Ye coldly sneered, “I was waiting for you.”

Zhao Hai was moved by it and said, “Thank you, Young Master Ye. I, Zhao Hai...”

Before he could finish speaking, Ouyang Ye suddenly made his move with a fierce grin. “If you are really grateful, go to hell and tell King Yama about it! Hahaha...”

A punch instantly shattered Zhao Hai’s thigh bone.

“Crack~!”

How could Zhao Hai expect that Ouyang Ye would suddenly attack him? The bone in his thigh broke, and his body immediately sank down. He was now half lying and half supporting himself from the ground. He looked at Ouyang Ye in surprise and said, “Young Master Ye, you...”

Ouyang Ye laughed in excitement, “Follow them down to hell, hahaha...”

Chapter 980: Divine Artifact’s Display Of Strength

His anger was about to flare out!

This was too fucking infuriating!

Luo Tian began cursing all eighteen generations of Ouyang Ye’s ancestors internally.

At this time, he even attracted a large wave of zombies to them. He then injured Zhao Hai's leg so that he couldn't move and could only become a diversion at the mouth of the corridor. Ouyang Ye would be completely rid of the zombies behind him then.

"Hahaha..."

"Damn dog thing! Fighting with me? Screwing this daddy over? Today, you shall be dying inside there!"

"It's too bad that I can't get my hands on Bai Lingling; otherwise, the result would be even better. But it's fine either way. Once she is dead, no one from the Bai family will be willing to go out and look for the Dark Yin Crystals. The Yang Devouring Poison on Bai Qi's body won't be able to be cured, and sooner or later, Towering Cloud City will belong to my Ouyang family! Hahaha..." Ouyang Ye laughed excitedly with a smug look on his face.

Luo Tian kept retreating, but when he saw Ouyang Ye's smug-looking face, his gaze turned fierce. "The next time I see you, I will definitely kill you!"

"Hahaha..."

"Next time?"

"Kid, you can stop dreaming! There is no next time for you!" Ouyang Ye turned back to glance at the zombie horde approaching. He then chuckled, "I'm not going to play with you anymore. Go ahead and slowly enjoy yourself."

He started running after saying that.

Since those regular zombies were summoned by the Flying Zombie, plus Zhao Hai at the mouth of the corridor, the zombie horde didn't go after Ouyang Ye and naturally chose to surge toward Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai looked at Luo Tian and pleaded for help with all his strength. "Save me! Save me! Save...! Agghhhh~!"

Before he could finish speaking, his head was suddenly ripped off. Blood sprayed out, causing the zombies to go crazy to get a piece of the meal.

Luo Tian coldly scoffed, "I cannot save you. Even if I could, I wouldn't. This was all caused by yourself. If you had listened to me in the first place, you wouldn't have had to die here!"

He didn't have any sympathy for Zhao Hai.

He would never show sympathy for people like him, nor would he save them.

Even if Zhao Hai doesn't die, he is still a liability for their group. This kind of person could betray them at any critical moment. Luo Tian wouldn't save this guy even if his brain isn't functioning properly! After watching him being torn apart by the zombie horde, he said to himself, "We're screwed now."

At this time...

"Wooo~..."

"Wooo~..."

The Flying Zombie started howling into the air once more.

The zombie horde that was devouring Zhao Hai briefly stopped what they were doing before looking toward the depths of the corridor. They suddenly abandoned the remains of Zhao Hai and started charging into the corridor like they had gone crazy.

Bai Lingling and Bai Xiong were extremely focused on dealing with the Flying Zombie, so they didn't pay attention to what happened outside the corridor.

Seeing how there was a large group of zombies charging in, Bai Lingling's expression changed as she asked, "What's going on?! How come there's suddenly so many zombies again?!"

“Who is that?!”

Bai Xiong looked at the fleshy remains of Zhao Hai on the ground and asked, “What just happened?”

Luo Tian didn't answer his question and only shouted, “Don't ask so many questions! The Flying Zombie is the leader of this group of zombies! Since all these zombies rushed in, I can only hold out for a little bit of time! How much longer do you guys need?!”

While he was speaking, Luo Tian glanced over at the Flying Zombie's health bar. His heart sank as he said to himself, “It's not enough! We don't have enough time. The Flying Zombie has a little over half of its life left. We won't be able to take care of it with just the two of them.”

They were currently outnumbered and trapped in the middle!

They will all be exhausted to death at this rate.

Bai Lingling blasted out a heavy sword strike before leaping over to the side. She then said, “Do you really have the strength to hold on? We still need a bit of time before we can kill it. But even if we do, our yuan energy will be depleted afterward, and we won't be able to continue fighting with you.”

Bai Xiong frowned, “Brother, do you have any other methods?”

Other methods?

Bai Xiong was treating Luo Tian like a support pillar, thinking he would definitely have some other way to get them out of this predicament.

Bai Lingling also stared at him.

At that moment, those two didn't have any solutions and could only count on Luo Tian.

“Hulk Transformation Card?”

“Invisibility?”

Luo Tian started thinking at high speed.

Those two special abilities can definitely solve their current predicament. No matter if it is the transformation card or the invisibility skill, he could quickly kill the Flying Zombie. But this was Luo Tian’s trump card that he had to keep hidden.

Luo Tian already knew that his Hulk alter ego had appeared on the devil sect’s bounty list. If his secret was discovered, then he would be subjected to the endless pursuit of the devil sect and the harassment from the orthodox sects.

He really didn’t want others to know his secret!

At least not for the living!

Apart from those two options, Luo Tian suddenly thought of a third one.

Luo Tian looked at Bai Lingling and said, “I do have a solution, but I need you to nod your head to give the okay. Otherwise...”

Bai Xiong was briefly stunned, “Brother, we’ve already reached such a critical juncture, so quickly tell us the method! Why are you still asking about nodding heads?”

Bai Lingling added, “Tell us, and I will agree to it. As long as you have a method, I will agree to it, whatever it may be.”

She suddenly thought she had agreed too quickly. What if he puts out some unreasonable demand? Like making her marry him?

Bai Lingling was flabbergasted, “Bai Lingling! We are in such a dangerous situation, yet what are you thinking about?!”

She was a little annoyed at herself as she wondered why she was even thinking about such things at a time when she might die at any moment.

Luo Tian took out the Phoenix Bloodshed Bracelet and said, “There is a very powerful force sealed inside this bracelet. But I don’t know if the bracelet would disappear or not after releasing this power.”

“Huh?”

“What?”

“How come I don’t know that there’s a powerful force sealed inside the bracelet? Bai Lingling’s expression changed as she felt this was an impossible matter. But after seeing how serious Luo Tian looked, she could only helplessly say, “Okay! I agree with using it!”

Bai Lingling said to herself, “I’m sorry, mother. I have to get some Dark Yin Crystals so that I can save father!”

The Phoenix Bloodshed Bracelet was Bai Lingling’s property. Luo Tian only knew that the power of the Phoenix Nirvana Nine Heavenly Flames was sealed inside, but didn’t know if the bracelet would turn into dust after being unsealed. Since he didn’t know, he had to get Bai Lingling’s consent first!

This was a keepsake from her mother!

After getting Bai Lingling’s consent, Luo Tian instantly felt relieved. If Bai Lingling didn’t agree to it, then he would have to use the Hulk Transformation Card. He had no way to predict what would happen to him after that.

Luo Tian then said, “You need to follow exactly what I say! I want you both to crouch down as low as you can when I give the command!”

After saying that, Luo Tian dripped a drop of essence blood onto the Phoenix Bloodshed Bracelet.

At the same time, the zombie horde had mostly charged into the corridor, forcing Luo Tian to back up against the narrowest part of the wall. “Three, two, one...”

“Crouch down!”

Bai Lingling and Bai Xiong leaped away from the Flying Zombie and then quickly plopped down on the ground.

The Phoenix Bloodshed Bracelet gave off a golden glow.

The power was triggered!

Luo Tian suddenly shouted, “Phoenix Nirvana Nine Heavenly Flames, burn them all!”

A fire phoenix in the bracelet flew up into the air and suddenly turned into a long fire dragon that swept out through the crowd of zombies!
