

Little Girl 105

Chapter 105: A "little hen" oblivious to danger

Only those who have cultivated Fu Xi's Energy would know how difficult it is to cultivate it.

Although those who have successfully cultivated it, from ancient times to the present, number no more than the fingers on both hands.

Yet among these few, each and every one of them knows that increasing Fu Xi's Energy by even a fraction is as difficult as reaching the heavens.

Its cultivation difficulty is a hundred times more challenging than ordinary True Qi.

But it's precisely because of the preciousness of Fu Xi's Energy that those who have some achievements in its cultivation eventually become existences beyond the pinnacle.

Of course, all this is something Gui Hu would not tell Xin Lin.

For Gui Hu, his raised little hen does not need to know too much.

The hen just needs to lay eggs.

Though currently, this little hen doesn't seem to be very obedient.

But there's plenty of time in the future, she will eventually submit to him completely.

Gui Hu mused and gave Xin Lin a few evaluating glances.

This Little Budian has made some progress in just a few days, and not only that but she also "generously" mentioned giving him "a part?"

Does she know that this "offer" is not a good "offer" to make?

Thinking about his own Unrivaled Ghost Vein, it seems that the increase in Fu Xi's Energy has a great relation to it.

She obtained his Ghost Vein without a word of thanks; it's only natural for him to claim some price in return.

Moreover, some of what Xin Lin said does make sense.

Right now, he only possesses the body of a Thousand-year-old Corpse King, which needs sustenance from constantly devouring life energy.

He had previously devoured the Essence Blood of beings like the Wolf King to sustain the Corpse King Body.

However, this is not a long-term solution. When he awakens again, those coveting the Fu Tian Pill will surely take action.

Dark devouring also leaves traces, the appearance of that Monk Jun made Gui Hu aware.

The scrapped Immortal Talisman of Little Budian, for the time being, still serves as a haven, which also explains why Gui Hu has been repeatedly tolerant towards Xin Lin.

Before he retrieves the Fu Tian Pill and remakes his Undying Body, it's not suitable for him to reveal himself.

Unless absolutely necessary, he doesn't intend to devour indiscriminately.

However, if he could trade for it using Fu Xi's Energy, that would be different.

"Tomorrow night, I will come to take the Fu Xi's Energy."

Gui Hu changed his mind, and Xin Lin was secretly delighted.

"Agreed."

He thinks he can just take it?

The Fu Xi's Energy is within her body; as long as she depletes all the Fu Xi's Energy within her, what methods could he possibly have.

Xin Lin had already planned to renege, by then, the second method mentioned by Gui Hu had already slipped her mind.

A temporary truce was reached between the two, which led to the two dry corpses at the burial mound.

After the news from the burial mound came, Xin Lin and Little Xinzhuo let go of a big stone in their hearts.

The two were discussing how to head to Purple Cloud City, who knew that Gui Hu would throw cold water their way again.

Upon hearing his icy voice, inside the Sealing Spirit Talisman, a golden light suddenly appeared.

After several days of absence, Gui Hu appeared again.

The man was still as tall as ever, with ash-colored hair down to his ankles, his eyes stern, with not a trace of a smile on his handsome face, his presence made the already cramped old temple feel even more narrow.

The siblings looked up at the sky, only to realize it had already darkened.

"Sister, I'm going to see if mother has woken up."

Little Xinzhuo, upon seeing Gui Hu, immediately slipped away.

"The inconsiderate guy."

Xin Lin grumbled and put on a smiling face.

"Lord Corpse King, I'm sorry, but I just depleted all the Fu Xi's Energy inside me, you might have to take a wasted trip today, perhaps you could check another day?"
