

Little Girl 38

Chapter 38: The Beginning of Defying Heaven and Changing Fate

The Hundredth Life, Longteng Xin Lin, eighteen years old?

Just a little grumbling can directly alter the age of death—seems like even the capricious heaven has some conscience.

But what does this age mean? Is she dead or not?

"Is this cheating or what?"

Xin Lin stared at the Heaven-defying Book in her hand, speechless.

After this line appeared, the Past Book showed no more changes.

With a thought, Xin Lin flipped the Heaven-defying Book to another page, revealing the second page of the Life Book.

The current page of the Heaven-defying Book, on top of the second page, were eight neat ancient seal characters, which seemed to be written by a woman.

Looking further down, several lines of text gradually became clear.

"Life master: Xin Lin

Identity: Dragon Ascending Orphan

Cultivation: Dark Power, none.

Spiritual Power, Basic-level Spirit Warrior."

Heaven-defying Value: 10

This page, compared to the previous one, made Xin Lin even more baffled.

If the first page was about her past, then the entire current book described her present condition.

Xin Lin shook her head and flipped to the third page.

The Heaven-defying Book's Future Book, below the title, was blank.

Not a single word, no designs, just a plain piece of paper.

Xin Lin was bewildered, only to realize that this seemingly thick Heaven-defying Book had only three pages.

The first page was the Past Book, recording the dreams of her past hundredth life.

The second page was the Current Book, stating the situation of her current life as Longteng Xin Lin.

The third page was the Future Book, which was still blank at the moment.

"What in the world is this? Life master, Heaven-defying Value..."

Xin Lin stared at the golden ancient book, but as she murmured, the golden book suddenly transformed into a flash of golden light and entered her body.

Xin Lin was startled.

In her mind, the golden Heaven-defying Book appeared, and on the Future Book, a line of text emerged.

"Would you like to use 10 Heaven-defying Value to open the Future Book once?"

The flashing golden line of text nearly blinded Xin Lin's eyes.

Almost subconsciously, Xin Lin agreed and at that moment, a line of text appeared on the blank Future Book.

"Received one life master gift package, containing a defunct immortal treasure, one Sealing Spirit Talisman. Each life master can only receive one gift package, cherish and use it well."

The line of text vanished immediately, and Xin Lin found a piece of talisman paper in her hand.

Xin Lin recognized it; it was a Sealing Spirit Talisman, previously used by the White-bearded Elder from Xuantian Sect to release the Yin Sha.

However, the Spirit Talisman she now held was somewhat different from the White-bearded Elder's; its Spiritual Energy was much richer.

After Xin Lin acquired the Sealing Spirit Talisman, the Future Book turned blank again, and the golden letters disappeared.

The Heaven-defying Value reset to zero.

Xin Lin unexpectedly discovered that the 10 Heaven-defying Value on the Current Book had turned into 0.

"Play dead again, and let that wild ghost accompany you to the grave."

A cold and piercing male voice made Xin Lin shiver, bringing her back to reality.

Beneath her was the cold, damp soil of the Ghost Cave, and lying on the ground, Xin Lin, who had already stopped breathing, opened her eyes.

The Rascal Corpse stood in front of her; his icy blue eyes and the body filled with Evil Qi ominously looked at Xin Lin.

The Hundredth Life, Longteng Xin Lin, fourteen years old...eighteen years old.

The line from the Past Book flashed through Xin Lin's mind, and her lips curled up.

Interesting, it seems she pleaded with heaven and gained four more years of life.

The man's handsome face was as dark as a pot's bottom, truly isolated from the world for too long.

Just now, he was nearly deceived by this little rascal.
