

Little Girl 44

Chapter 44: Seal, Let's See How You'll Be Arrogant Now

Evil Qi reached the spot and the headless Ah Piao's wounds quickly healed.

"My head..."

The headless Ah Piao excitedly felt his own head.

His severed head had actually returned as well.

The soul of the headless Ah Piao gradually became clearer, transforming into a chubby little boy around seven or eight years old, with rosy lips and white teeth, with his hair parted into two buns.

"Ah Piao, you're actually just a little brat."

Seeing the true appearance of the headless Ah Piao, Xin Lin let out a sigh of relief, feeling a bit emotional at the same time.

The headless Ah Piao mentally complained, Is it really okay for you to talk about someone like that? You only look slightly older than me, at most.

Ah Piao died when he was a child.

But because he was born into a family of Spirit Masters and died in the Luoyin Ghost Cave, he cultivated into a Wild Soul using the Ghost Energy here. His Ghost soul did not disperse; he always wanted to tidy up his family's skeletons to help them reincarnate and transcend sooner.

"Fu Tian Pill."

The man's face was somber as he spit out three words.

If that Little Budian tries any tricks again this time, he would swallow her and that Wild Soul whole.

Ah Piao got so scared he shuddered and gave Xin Lin a look asking, Where's the pill?

Xin Lin wasn't panicked at all, silently chanting in her mind.

"Heaven-defying Book, come out quickly."

She initially didn't want to reveal that she possessed the Heaven-defying Book, but she wasn't worried that Rascal Corpse would spill the secret.

Dead people, after all, never reveal secrets.

Xin Lin laughed coldly to herself.

Suddenly, a streak of golden light burst from within Xin Lin, and the Golden Ancient Books appeared before everyone.

The ancient book hovered in mid-air, emitting a tranquil and serene light, looking like the warm sun of winter days.

The man's eyes paused; this book... the book indeed had the aura of the Fu Tian Pill, vast and boundless.

This book was extraordinary.

The man had never seen such Spiritual Objects in heaven and earth.

No wonder he hadn't found the Fu Tian Pill on Little Budian earlier.

The man stretched out a ghost claw, and the Heaven-defying Book whooshed into his palm.

On the book cover, the four characters for "Heaven-defying Book" were particularly eye-catching.

"The Fu Tian Pill you want is inside the book."

Xin Lin curled her lip.

Just a book, the man was not afraid that the little ghost would play any more tricks.

He casually flipped through it and found that the book was just three pages, with the inside pages completely blank.

Not a trace of the Fu Tian Pill, not even a ghost shadow.

The Heaven-defying Book, once recognized as its life master, can only be read by the life master.

This was also the reason why Xin Lin felt safe handing over the Life Book to Rascal Corpse.

"Damn it!"

The man erupted in anger, and he snapped the Heaven-defying Book shut.

A tidal wave of fury surged in his eyes.

She dared to mock him over and over again!

He raised his gaze, intending to settle the score with Xin Lin.

But the little fellow in front of him had suddenly vanished without a trace.

"Success lies with Heaven, defying Heaven is up to man,

Defy Heaven's three clauses, man shall triumph over Heaven."

Xin Lin popped out from behind the man, clutching the crumpled and discarded immortal treasure—
Sealing Spirit Talisman.

The headless Ah Piao let out a tragic cry; this time he was truly doomed.

But just then, the runes on the Sealing Spirit Talisman, previously dim and without light, suddenly lit up.

The Spirit Talisman moved on its own without wind, landing on the man's brow.

The man's blue eyes narrowed, and his figure vanished in an instant.

The Jiao Long dragons disappeared too.

In the air, only a Spirit Talisman was left, lightly floating down to the ground.

Rascal Corpse had been sealed!
