

Little Girl 76

Chapter 76: Anxious to Save My Sister

Xin Lin's eyes were tightly closed, with a greasy layer of bodily filth emerging on the surface of her skin.

Little Xin Zhuo, seeing this, had a face full of joy.

It looked like Sister's Ultimate Marrow Cleansing Powder was taking effect.

But what happened next left Little Xin Zhuo dumbfounded.

After the Ultimate Marrow Cleansing Powder took effect, Xin Lin did not wake up. On the contrary, her body temperature continued to rise, and her skin grew redder and redder.

In just a moment, Xin Lin's entire body was as red hot as an iron, dripping with large amounts of sweat.

Her body convulsed uncontrollably, and her lips turned from red to a shade of purple-black.

"Sister! Wake up, please, don't scare Ah Zhuo!"

Little Xin Zhuo was terrified.

He wasn't a Pharmacist, but he knew that Body and Marrow Cleansing should not cause Ren Wuduan to have a high fever.

He called out several times, but Sister did not respond at all.

Her body curled up, teeth clenched tight, muscles continuously twitching in what was clearly immense pain.

No matter how Little Xin Zhuo shouted, Xin Lin did not respond at all.

The moment Little Xin Zhuo touched Xin Lin, he felt a terrifying force rushing at him.

The power was too strong for Xin Zhuo to bear.

He couldn't even think about getting closer to Xin Lin.

"Gui Hu brother, I'm begging you, only you can save Sister, please save her. Ah Zhuo is willing to do anything, just to save Sister."

As Xin Lin's pain grew worse, Little Xin Zhuo could only plead for Gui Hu to save her.

But after a long wait, Gui Hu remained unseen within the Sealing Spirit Talisman.

"Sister, wait, I will go and find someone to save you, you must wait for Ah Zhuo to come back."

Little Xin Zhuo, seeing Xin Lin's condition worsening, and then looking outside.

Xin Lin and Little Xin Zhuo had been doing Alchemy all night, and it was already bright daylight outside.

The summer weather was unpredictable; the night sky filled with stars yesterday, but today a sudden downpour.

Realizing it was already bright outside, Little Xin Zhuo knew that something was terribly wrong.

During the day, Gui Hu would not appear.

Little Xin Zhuo looked outside, then back at Xin Lin, who was in agony, and without further hesitation, he grabbed a lotus leaf and rushed out of the dilapidated temple.

Only one thought filled Little Xin Zhuo's mind: he must save Sister no matter what.

He dashed out of the temple, ignoring the wind and rain, and headed toward Ping'an County. If things went on like this, Sister would die; he had to find someone to save her.

Rain poured down as Little Xin Zhuo ran...

"You reckless little ghost."

After Little Xin Zhuo left, Gui Hu coldly watched Xin Lin from within the Sealing Spirit Talisman.

He had been observing the changes in Xin Lin.

He had seen many cultivators undergo Body and Marrow Cleansing, but he had never seen signs like Xin Lin's.

Of course, he had never seen the Ultimate Marrow Cleansing Powder that Xin Lin had taken before.

Marrow Cleansing Powder is originally a Mid-grade Spiritual Medicine.

Xin Lin was lucky; the Marrow Cleansing Powder she got from the Alchemy Hall was Top-grade Marrow Cleansing Powder, the finest of its kind.

Yet the bottle that Xin Lin had refined herself was unrecognizable to Gui Hu's keen eyes; he couldn't determine what grade of Spiritual Medicine it was.

He had not intervened because he wanted to see what would happen after Xin Lin took the medicine.

Gui Hu heard all of Xin Zhuo's pleas for help, but at that moment, he saw something that Xin Zhuo could not, and he had no time to attend to Little Xin Zhuo.

With a flash of blue in his eyes, he looked through Xin Lin's clothes and skin, directly into her internal organs and meridians.

The temperature inside Xin Lin continued to rise, a large amount of impurities were expelled from her internal organs, but the greatest change was not in Xin Lin's organs, but in her Five
