

LLPD Chapter 1071

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1071 Beginning of Backlash

Once this netizen's question came out, the netizens who stayed on Amber's personal platform also stopped their keyboards in their hands and stared at the question.

I'm afraid that once I move the keyboard, this question will be swiped to the bottom to turn over and they won't see Amber's reply.

Amber smiled, then looked up at Jared.

Jared noticed the woman's gaze and put down his phone to look over, "Respond as you should."

Apparently, this comment, Jared also saw and knew why Amber was looking at him.

Amber took a breath, "So I'll really reply truthfully?"

"Hmm." Jared nodded, "It's your right, after all, you're the victim, so you don't have to ask me over, you can do whatever you want."

Amber smiled, "Okay, I won't ask you then."

The words fell, she returned her gaze to the phone, replied to this netizen: "and Squirrel Channel no hatred, as for why Squirrel Channel dare so bold to rectify me, that is of course, money can make the ghost push the mill, the benefits to the place, the king of hell naturally also dare to break through a."

The netizens are in an uproar.

"I can't believe this is the case, so it's someone else who is really after Miss Reed? This person gave Squirrel Channel a favor, so Squirrel Channel dared to take such a big risk to make a rumor about you."

Amber nodded after this comment, "Yes, the person behind this matter is a woman, a woman who loves Mr. Farrell, no way, who let my Mr. Farrell charm is too great, so the woman came up with this method, thought to create a misunderstanding between me and Mr. Farrell, so that Mr. Farrell break up with me. The woman thought she could create a misunderstanding between me and Mr. Farrell, so that Mr. Farrell would break up with me, so that she would have a chance. Unfortunately, my family Mr. Farrell from the beginning did not suspect that I have sorry him, here I want to thank Mr. Farrell's trust @Jared {love}."

Jared, who was mentioned, naturally immediately saw Amber's reply to this netizen.

Especially when you see the phrase 'my Mr. Farrell', Jared's chest is a hot, looking at Amber's eyes, are hot as if to spit out fire, breathing are obviously some heavy.

Amber blushed at his look and thought to herself that if it weren't for the fact that there was a Cole here.

The clothes on their own body, it is estimated to be this bad man's gaze to see through, and perhaps also pickpocketed it.

Don't look!

Amber glared at the man with round eyes and a red face.

The man's thin lips hooked up, then held the phone up and pointed to the screen, "This, I like this statement, but it would be better if it was changed."

Amber watched him point at the five words and blinked, "Change what?"

Jared's thin lips parted lightly and he slowly spat out two words, "Honey."

Amber's face is even redder and is about to drip with blood.

The opposite Cole suppressed the sourness in his heart sneered, "shameless, not yet married, want Amber to call you so, why so big face?"

Jared turned his head and gave him a cool glance, "Sooner or later, jealous?"

Cole grunted and stopped talking.

Jealous?

Of course he was jealous!

After all, it is the woman they love, can not be jealous!

When Cole didn't say anything, Jared contemptuously withdrew his gaze, now gloating over the fact that he disliked and won Cole.

Amber cried and laughed when she saw this.

Then lazy to pay attention to these two childish men, lowered his head, continue to look at the phone to go.

The reply just below her own, there have been many more replies, and she has to see what they have replied!

"What? The truth is actually like this, it's actually the third party trying to get on top, that woman really uses ah, in order to get on top, dare to create scandals directly to the original spouse, really arrogant ah."

"Mr. Farrell has nothing to do with that woman, who is at best a crazy suitor, but you are right about her arrogance. Our boss's appearance and wealth, there are many women like this is very normal, but why our boss has never had any scandal before? That's because our boss has greeted with all the families in the circle with a young lady, not allowed to have any ideas about our boss, and even more so, not allowed to come to the door to ask for a marriage or something, or don't blame him for not being polite, so for many years, we have not seen any young lady come to our boss, now suddenly appeared a young lady dare to do these things, I don't know whether it is not clear that our boss has greeted, or want to fight, but no matter what kind, we have to say a word. But no matter what kind, we have to say that this sister is really brave."

"Good guys, I wondered why Mr. Farrell never lace news, to know that other companies a little younger executives, more or less have so some lace news, there are women around, no reason Mr. Farrell this status of the man did not, so it is ah, indeed, the richer the man more reserved, but not Mr. Farrell is really a good man ah, and is envious of Miss Reed's day."

Amber saw this netizen's comment and snorted out a laugh.

Jared looked up at her, "What are you laughing at?"

Amber covered her lips and looked at the man with a smile in her eyes, "Some netizens complimented you on being a good man."

"Is he wrong to boast?" Jared asked rhetorically, lifting his chin slightly with a proud face.

Amber cried and laughed, "Yes, you're a good man all right."

Really, I did not see that this man still has the attribute of narcissism.

But it's pretty cute.

"By the way, did you notice that when Miss Reed clarified, she mentioned two Official Twitter accounts, one is Squirrel Channel and the other is Jones Group, Squirrel Channel is the media that published this false gossip, so Squirrel Channel is the media outlet that published the false rumor, so is this Jones Group the one behind it?"

"It should not be the Jones Group, but the Miss Jones Group, I just found this out, so I immediately went to ask my friend who works at the Jones Group, according to my friend, the technical department has received a call from Miss Jones today, asking them to control the public opinion on the Internet. Don't let the heat of the matter down, and more than once, so everyone should get it, right?"

"The real culprit finally revealed, it turns out to be the Jones Group's daughter ah, this really big filial daughter ah, for their own selfishness, their own family and company harm, this is now afraid to be Mr. Farrell and Miss Reed's crazy revenge it."

Netizens you say I said, and guessed who was behind it.

There are even netizens who are asking Amber how she is going to get back at the Jones family and want Amber to reveal some of it.

Amber didn't answer; after all, she hadn't thought of it herself yet.

The netizens didn't get an answer from Amber, and they weren't in a hurry, they ran to the official website of Jones Group and started to curse.

Although Squirrel Channel has brainwashed them and used them to charge the siege of Amber, they know that Squirrel Channel is just a conspiracy, the real mastermind, or the Jones family's daughter.

So this time, the netizens, naturally, all the anger, are focused on the Jones family of companies, and that Miss Jones.

But that Miss Jones did not open a personal social platform, so the Jones family's company, suffered a double attack.

Squirrel Channel is certainly not forgotten by the netizens and is suffering a backlash from them at the moment.

Squirrel Channel's Mr. Brown has long been Ben had people thrown into the police station, and not in Squirrel Channel, a time, Squirrel Channel no one to preside over the big picture, in addition to the backlash online, a time each anxious, heart to Mr. Brown hate.

Chapter 1072 Jared's Statement

After all, they didn't know the details of Mr. Brown's bribery to intentionally screw Amber.

They only thought that it was the editor-in-chief who did not want to miss the news, which had thought that it was actually the editor-in-chief who received orders from others to do so.

The nature of this is much worse than releasing a scandal because you don't want to miss the heat.

Mr. Farrell would be surprised if they didn't double down on Squirrel Channel.

They've even heard by now that someone big is ready to buy their Squirrel Channel and make a mass layoff for a new one, and there's already clear word internally that someone big has arranged to reach out to their Squirrel Channel.

So it's true that they bought Squirrel Channel and laid off new staff.

Now their biggest fear is that they will be among the list of layoffs.

Especially those who listened to Mr. Brown to report the scandal, as well as edit the text of the scandal and photoshopped photos, each of them was more afraid, and their hearts were more hateful to that Mr. Brown.

Even if this Mr. Brown has now been taken away by Mr. Farrell's people and thrown into the police station, it is difficult to offset their heartfelt hatred.

They know they can't do anything, and now their only hope is that this Mr. Brown gets a jail sentence and doesn't get laid off himself.

Amber doesn't know how much civil unrest is going on at Squirrel Channel at the moment, and she's still following the trends online.

Amber's red lips curled up slightly as she watched the netizens mob Jones Group and Squirrel Channel.

She doesn't feel that she's wrong to gloat now, after all, she's the one who was the first to be subjected to cyber violence in the whole affair.

And the mastermind, it is these two.

Now, she is just exposing the two families and returning the favor with a tooth.

Since these two dare to harm her so much, not even worry about whether she will not be able to bear the Internet violence and suicide, that is enough to show, these two companies, how unconscionable.

Yes, a company with a conscience would create all kinds of fake news like this to achieve its goal?

In short, these two companies are now subjected to cyber violence, and it is their own retribution.

What's more, they like to use this tactic to deal with others, then be prepared for the day they will also be the psychological preparation of cyber violence.

As she was thinking, Amber saw a surprise comment in her comment section: "Everyone, turn to Mr. Farrell's personal platform, Mr. Farrell has also issued a clarification statement."

"Really, I'm on my way."

"I'll go too, I'll go too."

Soon, Amber's originally lively comment section, which was refreshed with hundreds of new comments, became even quieter all of a sudden, and there were only a few dozen new comments once refreshed.

The vast majority, predictably, slipped away and ran to Jared's side.

Before has run away some, ran to Cole's platform squatting, stay, she thought it was her true love fan.

I did not expect Jared's statement, these netizens almost ran out, leaving only a small number of people, so you can imagine that only a small portion of her so-called true fans are actually her true fans, the vast majority, are Jared's.

No, once Jared was out, they all ran over, which made Amber cry a little and couldn't help but look towards Jared.

Jared looked at her helpless and amused look and blinked, "What's wrong?"

"Nothing, just envious of Mr. Farrell's many fans." Amber propped up her chin and looked at the man and said.

Also, this man looks handsome without Tao, body height is also a top male model configuration, plus a wealthy family, as well as a noble temperament, if not more fans, that is strange.

However the man heard Amber's words, but was puzzled, "fans? What fans?"

Amber was slightly surprised, "You didn't know?"

They both have a large number of Couple Fans online, as well as their own fans.

In short, it is clear that they are not stars, but they have almost the same configuration of fans as the stars.

This matter is known even to her, a person who does not follow entertainment.

Men actually don't know.

Jared shook his head, "I don't know."

Amber was silent.

He could see that what he said was true.

He really didn't know they had fans online yet.

Forget it, since you don't know, forget it.

Anyway, he is less concerned about this than she is, and it is of little use to know.

It can't be that he can still interact with fans every day like a star, right?

Anyway, she couldn't imagine Jared like that.

"Forget it if you don't know, it doesn't matter." Amber waved her hand, "But you just issued a statement, many netizens have run to your personal platform it."

Jared shook his phone, "I know, I saw it."

"Then I'll look too." Amber said.

Jared was about to hand her his cell phone.

Amber pushed it back, "No, I'll look at my own, you can look at your own."

She gestures to her phone.

Jared's voice was a little muffled as he saw her reluctance to use her own phone.

Obviously, he was disappointed with Amber's excuses.

Amber saw this and shook her head in amusement, but didn't bother to coax the man in any way.

She knew in her heart that the man was pretending on purpose, attempting to soften her heart with this pathetic lost look.

As for why she knows so well and is very sure about it.

That's because it's not the first time this has happened.

After she has been fooled several times, she has naturally learned to be smart ah.

Amber pretended she didn't notice the man's caution, and her eyes were fixed on her phone without moving.

Jared saw that the woman did not even look at herself, only looking at the phone, the heart knew that their own small mind was seen through, the purpose has also failed, the eyes for a time sultry.

Amber naturally sensed that the red lips to hold back a smile pursed, still still ignore the man.

The man saw that this would not work either, and sighed in his heart, he could only lower his head and put his attention back on the phone.

But the breath around the body, how low to come.

The Cole who looked aside rolled his eyes and cursed the heart man, deserved to fail.

Jared's statement was simple, just like Amber's, only a few sentences later, and no evidence was produced, but no one would doubt his word as soon as he appeared as a person.

And don't dare to doubt it.

Looking at the statement Jared released, Amber first stared, then the corners of her mouth twitched in amusement.

Just see the man's statement is this: I am Jared, about online rumors I have known, pure nonsense ridiculous, I believe that people with brains will not believe, in addition, my woman is not blind, not so sorry that I look at a man who is less than me everywhere, so for the rumor-mongers, I will not let go, will all be held legally responsible, hope to know.

A very serious statement, enough for anyone to see Jared's determination to pursue his responsibility.

But for the gourmets, it doesn't matter, what matters is that they were shaken and crisped by this statement from Jared.

"Oh my God, a good sentence 'my woman is not blind, not so sorry for me and look at a man who is inferior to me in every way' If it were someone else, I would only mock him for not knowing himself, hurry to find a mirror, but these words are Mr. Farrell said, but I do not feel at all is I don't think it's conceited, I think it's confidence, confidence in myself, awesome."

"I also, I also, ordinary men say this kind of words, is super disgusting, but from the mouth of Mr. Farrell, how can it sound so good ah, ah ah ah, really is the dominant president, the same words, the feeling is different ah, so dominant, so strong, so like, and is envious of Miss Reed's day. "

Chapter 1073 Punch you in the face

"I'm envious too ooooooooooooo"

"Who says it's not, in this world, how can such a perfect man!"

"Yes, Mr. Farrell's words, not to mention Miss Reed, we all feel safe and secure, okay?"

"Hee hee, not only security, you find, Mr. Farrell cold appearance, but also a little bit of narcissism oh."

"I, I found that Mr. Farrell said that 'not so sorry to me to see a man who is inferior to me in every way', this sentence is obviously praising himself, but I do not feel wrong at all, compared to Mr. Farrell, Mr. Lyon is indeed a little bit worse than everything. I believe that normal people will choose Mr. Farrell instead of Mr. Lyon, and Mr. Farrell is right.

"I" A netizen weakly vocalized, "I'm sorry everyone, I'm the brainless one, the first time I saw the gossip, I believed it."

"And me, I'm brainless too."

"Me too"

Soon, a number of users admitted below that they were among the brainless ones, and Amber laughed at the sight.

Although she was angry with these netizens who called her out online.

But it's still comforting to see them admit their mistakes.

In short, she is willing to leave the matter alone for a netizen who has the courage to admit her mistake and the circumstances are not serious.

After all, there are too many people to pursue and can't come.

Just grab some typical.

Meanwhile, underneath Jared's personal platform, in addition to comments from internet users who admitted their mistakes, there were also some comments asking how Jared wanted to get back at Squirrel Channel and the Jones family network's millennial.

Apparently, they didn't get an answer from Amber, so they came to Jared to ask.

Jared naturally saw the questions from the netizens, he had no interest in replying to them and looked up straight at the woman across the table, "What do you want to do?"

Amber knew what he was asking and shook her head slightly, "I don't know yet, I haven't thought about it, Squirrel Channel side, I don't care, the only thing I care about, is the Jones family, after all the old Mr. Jones is your teacher, although I want to revenge back hard, but he After all, he is your teacher, I also have to think about you."

Jared's heart was warm and flowing, his big hand was placed on the back of her hand, gently squeezed, his voice was low and nice, "No, just follow your idea."

"So my idea is to put THE Jones family out of business, and you're willing to do that?" Amber looked at the man.

The man was silent for a few seconds, seemingly hesitating, but eventually nodded, "Yes, as long as you're happy."

When that came out, not to mention Amber, Cole also froze.

"Good man, you're a good disciple." Cole gave a thumbs up to Jared with a look of admiration.

It is really admired and admired in the heart.

This guy, to be able to directly bankrupt his teacher's family for Amber, this is not an ordinary person can do ah.

Because, all can not be ruthless.

After all, that is the teacher who taught you.

General people dare to do so, it is to be accused by a thousand people, even their conscience can not afford.

Anyway, if it were him, he probably couldn't think of Jared like this, and only hesitated a few seconds before saying yes.

In short, on the part of compromising for his beloved, he realized so clearly for the first time that he was no match for Jared.

Amber falls in love with Jared all over again, and it seems to make sense that she is no better than Jared.

Cole sighed, a trace of self-deprecation flashed in his eyes at the same time, the heart also relieved a few points.

The release of letting go of yourself.

Next to her, Amber was equally surprised that the man agreed so readily to her desire for the Jones family to go bankrupt.

It seems that in the man's heart, he does have to be higher than his master's status.

"That's what I said, and you really agreed to do it, you do, making me look like a wicked demon princess." Amber looked at Jared with amusement.

A dark light flashed in Jared's eyes, and the strength of his squeeze on her, all tightened up a bit, "You are my demon concubine, for you, I can do anything."

"You say so, I am embarrassed, well, about how to revenge the Jones family thousand gold this matter, I still have to think about it in the long run, although I do want the Jones family thousand gold to pay a painful price, but I prefer not to hear someone say you ungrateful and disrespectful words, although you don't care, but I do." Amber looked at Jared and spoke very seriously.

Jared also looked at Amber and did not answer, but what he wanted to say, he had already said to her through his eyes.

The two people just gazed at each other, and the atmosphere around them was so peaceful and beautiful.

Cole looked at the two men and could clearly feel that he was not in the same world as them and could not fit in.

He then shook his head, rolled his eyes, then lowered his head, pretended he didn't see anything in general, and began typing under his personal platform.

Amber and Jared have both issued statements.

Now he, the 'adulterer' with the surveillance evidence, can't delay any longer.

In the end, Jared platform below the net, and did not wait for a reply.

But they still weren't disappointed at all.

Because they hadn't expected Jared to pay attention to them, and they would have been surprised if he did.

The netizens didn't stay under Jared's personal platform for long, and after learning that Cole, the scandalous male lead, had released a statement and Amber's said monitoring, they all immediately moved on to Cole's said personal platform.

After all, Jared such a big brother, they themselves do not dare to jump under his personal platform all the time, although did not say anything bad, but Jared's identity is there, and fierce reputation, so they are still more or less afraid of the heart.

Now Cole released the news of the evidence, but not immediately gone clean.

Soon, the netizens who followed the sound, saw the clarification statement issued by Cole.

Compared to Amber and Jared's serious words of clarification, Cole's clarification statement is much more lively and out of the box.

Cole: Yes, as you can see, I am the adulterer this time, and thanks to Miss Norah Jones of @JonesGroup, I was given this identity, so I had a taste of being an adulterer, not to mention, quite new, but I do not like to be pressed into this title for no reason, if you tell me, let me play an adulterer, maybe I would be interested in agreeing to it! The first thing you can do is to tell me that you have never experienced it before, and you are more or less curious, but you don't say anything to me, and you don't say hello to me, so I don't agree, so don't blame me for tearing you down, who let you not do anything.

The netizens immediately laughed at this statement.

"omg, Mr. Lyon is actually this style of painting, than Miss Reed and Mr. Farrell's serious and serious, I really still prefer Mr. Lyon's character."

"Me too, especially when I saw him say in all seriousness that he was the 'adulterer' this time, I had to laugh out loud."

"Although Mr. Lyon seems to be a not too reliable not too smart, but also very dominant ah, that 'do not blame me to hit you in the face', simply cool have?"

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1074 Cole's Combat Power

"Why do you all just care about whether people speak handsomely or not? Didn't we come here to see the evidence? Where is the evidence?"

A part of the netizens are guilty of philandering, and a part of the netizens have been focusing on the point.

This is not, there is a reminder to see the evidence.

Once this was said, the rest of the network reacted.

"Yeah, we came to see the evidence, how did we get carried away?"

"Can't help it, who made Mr. Lyon a comedian and drew our attention away {shrug}."

"@Cole, Mr. Lyon, Miss Reed said that the evidence was released by the hero of the affair, and now that you've admitted to being the hero of this scandal, where's the evidence? Why hasn't it been released?"

"That's right."

Cole naturally saw the comments of mention's own netizens and clicked to reply, "Don't worry, the evidence will not be less, just now due to too angry only sent the text, forgot to send the evidence, I'll send it here, you guys refresh it."

Once Cole's reply came out, the corners of all the netizens' mouths twitched and they fell over absolutely.

Come on, you can forget such things!

But the netizens could also see that he was indeed angry.

Netizens cried and laughed as they refreshed Cole's homepage.

Sure enough, with this refresh, a new dynamic is available.

This time the content is very simple, just one sentence, plus a video.

The content of that sentence was also very straightforward and direct: the evidence you want.

Then followed by a link to a video.

Netizens do not even hesitate to click inside the link to view the so-called evidence.

After clicking in, the netizens learned that the original video is monitoring ah.

Just see the surveillance, Amber and Cole got out of the car, walked straight into the hotel, and then a waiter above led the two, all the way to bring the two into a private room inside.

The screen shifted and the monitoring of the corridor became the monitoring of the inside of the box.

After all, the hallway surveillance, can not monitor the inside of the box.

The majority of the netizens did not recognize the man after they saw Amber and Cole enter the box, but a small number of them were knowledgeable enough to recognize the man as Ferry Alfersen, who had previously come forward to prove that the scandal was false.

Next, Amber and Cole sit down across from this line manager, after which the surveillance speeds up and the video also shows the time flow in the upper left corner.

Five minutes after the time in the upper left corner, the network saw Amber and Cole get up, shake hands with Mr. Alfersen separately, and then excused themselves from the box.

Of course, netizens are no fools and know that Amber and Cole can't really stay in the box for just five minutes and then leave.

This monitoring is accelerated, just the time Amber and Cole spent in the box, reduced to just five minutes in the video, in order to facilitate their viewing, otherwise they really need to watch on a few hours ah!

Of course, even with the accelerated reduction, they knew that Amber and Cole hadn't left the box between the time they went in and the time they left, so naturally, they couldn't have done anything.

Then, the surveillance multiplier became normal again and changed back to the hallway surveillance, then the netizens saw Amber and Cole enter the elevator in the hallway, followed by the surveillance changing again to the hotel lobby surveillance.

Netizens saw Amber and Cole together in addition to the elevator, heading straight for the hotel's front door, and then stopping outside the hotel's main entrance, apparently waiting for a car.

During the period, the netizens saw Amber shivered and rubbed her arms, Cole took off his jacket and gave it to Amber to put on, but soon after he put it on, he started to shiver himself, and Amber gave the jacket back to him.

And phi jacket this scene, but is not the photo that the netizens saw before.

The video continues as the car arrives shortly after Amber has given Cole his jacket back.

Cole went up first, opened the car door for Amber, let Amber get in, and when she went up, he also got in afterwards, after which the car was far away and the surveillance ended.

And Cole opened the car door for Amber in this scene, which is also on the photo.

"Well, I was wondering why Squirrel Channel only sent photos and not videos to prove that Miss Reed and Mr. Lyon had an affair before, after all, videos are more convincing than photos, aren't they? I don't believe that they don't have a video of Miss Reed and Mr. Lyon interacting, but they only sent a photo, and now I know that it's because they don't dare to send a video, the two people in the video are getting along innocently, but there is no ambiguity, it's completely between friends, Squirrel Channel obviously knows that, so they don't dare to send a video, send it? Not directly tell us they are rumors, so deliberately found some ambiguous angle shot video, to deceive us, really disgusting!"

"That is, in and out of the hotel to talk about a job, are to be malicious rumors, then is not the future to talk about work, are to avoid the hotel?"

"No, since when has hotel become a derogatory term? As long as someone goes in and out of the hotel, they must think that they are doing something wrong inside, with this kind of thinking, I really want to throw up, okay? I admit that many people do go to the hotel is to do that, but there are people who are talking about work and normal rest, okay? But one thing I wonder, Miss Reed and Mr. Lyon went to the hotel to talk about work, that Miss Jones and Squirrel Channel still dare to make rumors, they are not afraid of Miss Reed and Mr. Lyon early morning out of surveillance to hit their face?"

This comment was quickly replied by Cole: "That's because they broke the surveillance in the first place, by the time we knew the scandal broke, it was too late to go to the surveillance, otherwise we wouldn't have delayed until now to produce the evidence, it's because we've been fixing the surveillance, now I guess that Norah Jones face is very ugly, she should not expect that We will succeed in repairing the surveillance hahaha"

A few hahahaha, anyone can feel Cole's smugness.

Netizens even if they already know he is such a picture, this moment is still a little speechless.

Of course, the netizens did not remain speechless for long and resumed what they had just done.

"So it was the destruction of the surveillance ah, no wonder they dare to rest assured rumors, must be like what Mr. Lyon just said, thought the surveillance can not be restored."

"Hey, it looks like that Miss Jones and Squirrel Channel guy are not smart enough to know that surveillance can be restored."

The netizens heckled and joked.

However, in a peaceful comment, there are also more or less a few stinky comments.

For example.

"Am I the only one who wants to know why Mr. Lyon and Miss Reed didn't go somewhere else to talk about work, but had to go to a hotel? There are so many places to talk about work, but you choose a hotel, it's subtle, isn't it {smile}?"

The implication is that by not going to other places to talk about work and choosing only the hotel, it is clear that there is an idea of what is meant.

The netizens in their right mind were furious and about to mob the man.

The next second, I saw Cole has sent a long series of counter-attack words: "subtle what, their own dirty heart so see everything feel dirty, I tell you why we do not choose other places but choose the hotel, it is because this hotel is our only seven-star hotel here, we have a request to Mr. Alforsen, invite Mr. Alforsen out to meet, so that we can achieve our purpose. Alforsen to come out to meet, naturally we must choose a better environment, so as to show our sincerity, so that our purpose can be achieved!"

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1075 Shameless Family

It's not over yet. Due to the platform, the word count for each reply to a comment is limited.

Cole couldn't say a lot of things at once, so he could only say them several times.

This is not, after the first reply, soon after the second reply was also sent out: "Even if we did not ask Mr. Alforsen's place to see equal customers, we will also choose this hotel, or that, the hotel star is there, we talk about work there, privacy confidentiality can also be more down heart, not just me, our whole business circle, the Almost all will do so, oh yes, I forgot you are just a bottom person, can not touch our level, also can not talk about our talk about the work, so you do not know these also normal, but I told you now, you have to remember well, so as not to jump out later to disgrace {smile}."

Cole this pass fire output, watching the netizens is jaw-dropping, it took a while to react to ah.

"Great, big brother is big brother, the level of dislike, the average person can not reach ah, originally I still want to help scold, now it seems that there is no need for us to play, Mr. Lyon's own output, we can not reach ah, I estimate that the commentary of the person should be angry at this time can not say it hahaha."

"According to reason, I should be angry with Mr. Lyon's remark about the bottom class, after all, I am also a member of the bottom class in his mouth, but I don't know why, not only am I not angry, but I also feel so cool {cheeks}?"

"Upstairs, I'm with you, but I probably know why, because Mr. Lyon is disliking the guy, and we watch the battle and bring ourselves into Mr. Lyon, not the guy or ourselves, so that's why we feel good."

"So that's it."

The people who commented before, looking at Cole dislike their own words, and look at the netizens mockery of their own, the whole angry face full of red, but dare not speak.

He would have liked to contradict Cole, and even to yell at Cole.

But Cole is right, he is a bottom feeder, while Cole is the big man.

He could not afford to offend, so he simply did not dare to scold.

Finally, this person can only be ashamed to delete comments offline.

The netizens have been following him, and when they saw that his comments were gone, they knew that the man had gone groundless, and for a while the netizens were scrambling to celebrate.

Originally it is well, the surveillance video are clearly said, Amber and Cole nothing, really just simply to talk business.

This man, who had to show off that ridiculous IQ, what happened?

You've been hit in the face, right?

Serves you right!

However, there can't be just one bedbug on the Internet.

However, after seeing this one viciously attacked by Cole, other bedbugs are temporarily afraid to jump out.

"Mr. Lyon, how are you going to get back at the Jones family and Squirrel Channel?" was the question that once again appeared below Cole's comment section.

Apparently they didn't get answers from Amber and Jared, so they attempted to get them here at Cole.

They even thought that Cole was not as serious as Amber and Jared and would have told them, right?

As it turned out, Cole told them, but not what they wanted to hear.

Cole: "Hey, about this, I do not know, after all, compared to me, Amber is the biggest victim, so this matter depends on her meaning, how she wants to retaliate, I support."

"Ahhhhh, that's not what we want to hear."

Netizens broke down to the core.

These three people are devils, right?

One is more difficult than the other!

Amber looked amused, "Cole, you're really"

Cole cut her off with a wag of his finger, "I know what you're trying to say, you want to say I'm bad and tease the netizens on purpose, but I'm not teasing them on purpose because I mean it, I'll do whatever you want to do to them, so you haven't even given them an answer, so how can I?"

Amber shook her head, cried and laughed, and was about to say something when she was interrupted by a cell phone ringing.

Amber and Cole turned their heads to see that it was Jared's cell phone ringing.

Jared took out his cell phone under the watchful eyes of the two, his face suddenly gloomy down, and his eyebrows knitted tightly, then directly a scratch, hanging up the phone.

Amber saw his movement and guessed who the caller was and spoke in a confirming tone, "the old Mr. Jones?"

Jared shook his head, "No, it's his son and Norah's father, the current head of the Jones family and chairman of Jones Group Enterprises."

Amber nodded, indicating that she knew, and asked no more questions, with little interest.

But Cole looked at Jared and said, "This guy, he's here to talk to you, right? I guess he saw your statement and knew you were going after all the masterminds of this thing, so he contacted you, but it's pretty hypocritical."

Cole sneered, "This Mr. Jones should have known what his daughter did a long time ago, her daughter let Jones Group manipulate the online buzz this matter, I do not believe that he a chairman does not know, you know, manipulate the Internet buzz, without the chairman or president of the authority of the secret key, the following departments simply can not do, so Norah then let them Jones Group to do so, must have long ago with this Mr. Jones hello, and got Mr. Jones's consent."

"Are you saying that this Mr. Jones approves of his daughter slandering and disinforming me online, and therefore supports his daughter's actions to keep the internet hot because he also wants me to break up with Jared?" Amber looked over at Jared.

Jared's face is embarrassed to the extreme, the low air pressure around him, so that people can not kick the air.

He, angry.

"Exactly, that's what it means." Cole snapped his fingers, "That's why I call this guy hypocritical, you see, after we announced that the mastermind of this matter was his daughter, he didn't even call Jared to plead, but only after seeing Jared's statement, so you can imagine that this guy always thought that Jared would not do anything to them the Jones family What, until after seeing the statement began to be less sure, so specifically called to plead, but rather than plead, more appropriate to say that it is a test."

"He's right." Jared nodded, supporting Cole's guess.

Amber was silent, and after a moment, suddenly laughed, "Interesting, the daughter has taken a fancy to you and wants us to break up, while the father sees this kind of behavior of his daughter not only does not stop it, but will try to help secretly, father and daughter like this, so I have to think more, is it that your teacher also wants us to break up very much?"

At these words, Jared's pupils contracted slightly, unable to speak.

Amber's heart sank when she saw this, but her smile got even bigger, "Looks like I guessed right, your teacher doesn't seem to like me."

"Shit, this the Jones family grandchildren all want you to break up with Amber, this is just too weird." Cole seems to have heard a big joke, the whole person is stunned.

Jared ignored him, only looking at Amber thin lips opened, "Sorry, I also did not think of the teacher he"

"I don't blame you." Amber shook her head, "I'm not cash, of course I can't be liked by everyone, so for your teachers to like me or not, I don't care at all, what I care about is whether you will be influenced by them and feel that they don't like me and advise you to break up with me, you have the idea to break up with me."

Jared laughed at her words and reached out to flick her forehead, "What nonsense, how could I do that, if I would think that way, wouldn't I be a puppet with no ideas of my own and only at the mercy of others? In fact, I didn't tell you, my meeting with the teacher today was not a pleasant one."

Chapter 1076 the old Mr. Jones's mind

"How so?" Amber subconsciously sat up straight.

Did you have a bad meeting with the old Mr. Jones?

This shouldn't be.

It is said that he was the old Mr. Jones' most pleased pupil, and he always respected the old Mr. Jones as a teacher.

So think, how two people meet should not appear unpleasant this phenomenon.

But Amber associated with just herself and Cole's words, the heart also has a general answer.

"Is it because of me that it's unpleasant?" Amber looked at Jared, her red lips moving, and said slowly.

Jared was silent.

"Sure enough." The corners of Amber's mouth pulled out a curve of indescribable meaning, unable to tell whether she was unhappy or happy.

The response was still pretty tame.

After all, to Amber, the old Mr. Jones was Jared's teacher, but not her teacher, much less her elder.

So she really didn't care if the old Mr. Jones liked her or not.

"What did you guys say?" Although she didn't care how the old Mr. Jones felt about herself, Amber wanted to know what she had done to upset the master and disciple.

Jared's brow furrowed slightly and he seemed a little reluctant to talk about it.

Cole rolled his eyes, "I say Jared, what's so bad about this kind of thing, you say it, after all, it has to do with Amber, you have to let Amber know, she in the end where to make your teacher displeased, right? If not, how innocent would Amber be if your teacher didn't treat her well for no reason?"

Amber is non-committal.

Jared saw that Amber was really curious to know, and finally opened his mouth to tell the morning conversation with the old Mr. Jones.

He did not say a very comprehensive, only a general, especially some words, he also slightly changed, changed the euphemism of some, for fear of making her uncomfortable to hear.

After all, some of the words the teacher used when referring to her were really bad.

Although Jared's initial intentions were good, he suddenly changed some phrases and words so that what he described seemed a bit stiff.

So Amber knew at once that he must be hiding a lot of things.

As for what was hidden, I could guess from what he said and the apologetic look on his face that it was just the old Mr. Jones badmouthing her even more.

Amber's mouth pulled out a touch of mockery, "It's really hard for the old Mr. Jones such a big man, actually will also pay attention to me such a small person, pay attention to more than, but also specially put me to understand a bit, know I no matter what, are not worthy of you, also really hard his old man."

Hearing the woman's self-deprecating words, Jared was not happy, reaching out to hold her face directly, making her look at herself, "Don't be ridiculous, between you and me, there has never been anything worthy or unworthy to say, in my heart, you and I are equal, this meaning, I also clearly said to the teacher, so you don't have to care about this teacher's words, because I will never take it seriously. "

"Heh, who knows if you're telling the truth." Cole said, skimming his lips.

Jared looked toward him, his eyes cold to the extreme, a sense of you in a word, I will kill you.

Cole also really read from Jared's eyes to the killing intent, also know their words angered him, suddenly shrunken neck, do not speak.

Only then did Jared withdraw his gaze and let Cole go.

For the sake of Amber and the Lyon Family couple, he can tolerate Amber and Cole's repeated provocations against him.

But cannot tolerate Cole's provocation of his relationship with Amber.

So Cole should feel grateful that he said it himself in a joking tone and not in a serious way, really trying to provoke him and Amber.

Otherwise, he would not have let Cole off so easily.

Amber naturally saw how Jared had just killed Cole.

It is also clear why Jared behaves the way he does.

She sighed helplessly and shook her head at Cole, secretly admonishing him to stop being a mouthful in the future.

She could understand why Jared was so angry.

No one can accept having someone next to them singing against them all the time.

Especially when it is still in their own heart with the object of the table.

So it's a wonder Jared isn't angry and wants to kill Cole.

If it were her, she would be angry too.

Cole naturally picked up Amber's warning and silently made a zipping motion around his mouth, indicating that he would not speak for the rest of the day.

Seeing this, Amber then withdrew her eyes and put them back on Jared, "Don't be mad, Cole is like that, you know."

Jared pursed his lips and said in a light voice, "I don't care about outsiders, I want to know right now, do you also think that I have not shown this to my teacher?"

"Of course not." Amber looked at the man seriously, "You're not good enough to lie to me about such things, so I don't disbelieve you, that was just Cole's own words."

Jared's tightly furrowed brow loosened, "It's good that it didn't, I really told the teacher so, and the teacher was asked to leave the Farrell Group directly behind, in short, you can rest assured that no one can keep us apart."

That's a very firm statement from Jared.

There was even some kind of scarlet glint in his eyes as he spoke.

Amber knew that what Norah had done this time, and what the old Mr. Jones had said to him, was really pissing him off.

That's why he assured this while shedding an icy hatred.

Also, no one can afford to be surrounded by people who keep making plans to break up with them, or keep telling themselves that the person they choose is not good enough for them and must also break up.

Anyway, she couldn't take it.

"Jared." At this point, Cole, who had just closed his mouth, suddenly spoke up again this time.

Jared looked at him with a cold gaze, "What else do you want to say? If you're going to say something else inexplicable, you don't have to."

Cole spread his hands, "Who said I was going to say that, I just wanted to say that your teacher has been urging you to break up with Amber, and for that reason has put Amber down from beginning to end, saying something about Amber not being good enough for you, haven't you ever thought about who your teacher thinks is the woman who is good enough for you?"

At those words, Amber raised an eyebrow.

Instead, Jared's brow furrowed anew.

"No." He lightly opened his thin lips and truthfully returned these two words.

He hadn't really thought about it.

At that time, it was just a matter of debating with the teacher.

There is no time to think about this.

What's more, he wasn't interested in thinking about it.

"It's Miss Jones, right?" Amber suddenly said.

Jared looked at her.

Amber locked eyes with him and added with a smile, "Your teacher wants to introduce his granddaughter to you so you can be with his granddaughter."

"Exactly." Cole snapped his fingers again, "Amber said, as I thought, the old Mr. Jones put Amber down, said Amber is not worthy of you, let you break up with Amber, so after the breakup, who does he want to be with you? The answer is only one, is his granddaughter, after all, his granddaughter likes you, I do not believe that he as a grandfather does not know, after all, his son knows, there is no reason he does not know, so the old Mr. Jones of his granddaughter's love and protection, will certainly support everything his granddaughter wants, or can not look at his granddaughter sad, and then introduce another woman to you? I think it is definitely impossible, not to mention, after you and his granddaughter together, not only can coax his granddaughter happy, but also be able to make the Jones family a higher level, enduring, the best of both worlds, I do not believe the old Mr. Jones will not care."

Jared did not say anything, slightly lowered his eyes and fell into deep thought.

Chapter 1077 Providing clues

He didn't refute Cole's words, so it's obvious that he believed Cole's words in his heart as well.

Cole's words directly woke him up where he hadn't bothered to care or think much about.

Now when you think about it in the context of Cole's words, it seems that this could really be the case.

Jared closed his eyes and pushed down the anger in his heart, and when he opened them again, his eyes were dark and heavy.

But everyone knows that he is not trying to minimize this treatment, just put all the emotions, behind this dark and heavy.

"I get it, this is something that I will handle as well." Jared let go of Amber's face and spoke to Cole in an indifferent voice.

Cole shrugged his shoulders, "Then you don't want to disappoint us."

Jared ignored him and looked at Amber as she was about to say something when her phone rang again.

His cell phone had been on Amber's desk since he had just hung up the phone.

So when it rings, everyone can see it.

The call was from Ben, and this time Jared didn't hang up, but grabbed the phone and put it to his ear and answered, "What's up?"

"Mr. Farrell," Ben's voice came over the phone, "Mr. Farrell, I just got a call from Mr. Jones saying he couldn't reach you and asking me where you are and if you're busy."

At Ben's words, Jared's face did not change.

Apparently, he had guessed that if the Jones family couldn't contact him, they would contact his secretary or assistant.

"And then what? How did you answer?" Jared asked in a cold voice, narrowing his eyes.

Ben heard the displeasure in his tone against the Jones family people and hastily returned, "I told him I didn't know where you had gone, Mr. Farrell, and it's not for me, a special assistant, to know your whereabouts all the time."

Jared hummed, "Go ahead."

Ben nodded, "Mr. Jones naturally will not believe my words, but also know continue to ask also can not ask what, so also did not keep asking your next over, but he did ask me side-by-side, your reaction to the Internet matter and views."

"Don't bother." Jared's face was expressionless.

Ben pushed his glasses, "I knew what you meant Mr. Farrell, so at that time I just vaguely dismissed him and after that he hung up somewhat reluctantly, so Mr. Farrell, I'm sure he'll call you again after that."

"I got it." Jared responded with a slight nod.

Then, glancing at Amber, who was also looking at herself from across the room, she again instructed, "You don't have to worry about the Jones family, I'll deal with it afterwards, you deal with the media and accounts first, as well as Trenton and the two old guys, Connor."

"Media words, Squirrel Channel side I have sent people to contact, now should be negotiating the acquisition matters, this afternoon will be successful, but the Squirrel Channel staff, in addition to Miss Reed named that secretary, the other"

"Investigate all of them, those who have nothing to do with this matter stay, those who are involved, or those who have had false news under their hands, all of them are fired." Jared just one sentence, decided hundreds of people to stay or go.

Ben nod, "Yes, other media involved in this matter, I also let people go over the rectification, in accordance with your instructions, all support their opponents to the top, now these media internal chaos, it is estimated that tomorrow will be able to see these media online news of a major change in the top, account side, I have collected evidence, prosecuted to the court, after our legal department As for the bought accounts, I wanted to contact the Internet and police departments to let them handle them, but after I contacted them, I found out that someone had already greeted them first, and now all those water army organizations have been disbanded and have become non-climatic. "

Ben had a puzzled look on his face.

Jared narrowed his eyes and his face darkened, "Hayden Cohen, he's the only one with the power."

Amber froze slightly.

Hayden Cohen?

What's with the sudden mention of him?

At the other end of the phone, Ben slapped his forehead, with a face that just remembered, "I actually forgot about Mr. Cohen, Mr. Cohen has been in the countryside for almost two months, but actually still pays attention to the network dynamics in real time, really is the younger generation of officials ah."

Jared blushed even more gloomily, "You praise him so much, should I say hello to him and ask him to ask you over, and you go to be good with his officers?"

Mr. Farrell, I was wrong, I shouldn't have said that, really."

This time it was his fault.

He forgot that Mr. Cohen was also Mr. Farrell's love interest.

Hey, complimented the boss's love rival, no wonder the boss is angry.

Jared grunted, "Okay, now the national investigation team is investigating the Trident Group, although Trenton has cleared a lot of things in advance of evidence, but some things even cleaned up, will also leave some traces to, depending on whether to find, so what I want you to do now, is to reveal to the investigation team five years Before the Trident Group's a stone quarry, private concealment of the mine collapse, and conceal the specific number of deaths this matter, even if it is my counterattack on Trenton this time out."

After saying that, he looked at Amber, "Is that okay?"

She had been trying to pull the Gardner family and the Trident Group down herself, so she wouldn't let him take a shot.

Then this time, he wanted to deal with Trenton, naturally, he also had to ask her opinion.

Looking at the hopefulness in the man's eyes, Amber nodded slightly, "Yes."

This time Trenton is also messing around, so naturally we have to fight back.

While providing this information will not pull the Gardner family and Trenton down completely.

The Gardner family and the Trident Group will at least be greatly wounded, and it will be easier for her to deal with the Gardner family and the Trident Group next.

Seeing Amber agreed to his idea, Jared frowned loosely and continued into the phone: "When providing clues to the investigation team, try not to reveal your identity, it is best for the investigation team to hear by chance from some people.

"Understood." Ben responded.

Jared pursed his lips, "As for Connor, he loves to rob things, so let him have a taste of what it's like to be robbed of your own stuff."

"Yes."

The call is over.

Jared put the phone down and pressed his brow.

Amber saw that his brow was a little tired and poured him a cup of coffee, "By the way, you just mentioned Hayden Cohen, what happened to him?"

Jared picked up his coffee and took a sip, "It's nothing, I mentioned it casually, you don't have to take it to heart."

He raised his eyes and smiled tenderly at her.

The smile, however, does not reach the bottom of the eyes.

He wouldn't tell her that Hayden Cohen was also helping out a little in the dark.

Isn't this adding favor to the love interest?

Jared does not say, Amber will not ask more.

Thinking, I guess it's not a big deal, so I don't ask.

After all, she knows how jealous this man is.

They ask so many questions, not to make men jealous?

Only aside, Cole glanced at Jared, white eyes are about to roll to the sky.

Amber doesn't know that he doesn't know that the man is doing it on purpose?

It must have been Hayden Cohen who did something for Amber, but Jared, the man, wouldn't tell Amber because of his selfishness.

Heh, all men, who does not know who ah?

Although in the heart so spit Jared, but Cole also did not break Jared's intention.

After all, for Cole, Hayden Cohen knows what's on Amber's mind.

He naturally won't help his love interest to brush up on his goodwill with Amber.

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1078 - Hypocritical Apology

"Now that these media accounts, as well as Trenton and Connor, are about to pay the price they deserve for their actions, what's next, what are your thoughts about THE Jones family?" Jared looked at Amber and asked the question once again.

Amber rubbed her temples, "I still haven't thought about it."

Jared stared at her steadily, "Did you not think of that, or are you thinking of something for me?"

Amber rubbed her temples with a slight pause.

The movement was light, but it was still caught by the man.

The man understood at once that he had hit the mark.

It's not that she didn't actually think about how to get back at Norah.

After all, there are so many ways to get back at someone, you can just come up with them.

But she kept saying she hadn't thought of it, not really not thinking of it, but thinking of something for him.

Jared sighed, "It's really not necessary, just do what you want to do."

"I know." Amber smiled at the man, "I know you don't want me to suffer, but the same, I don't want you to carry some reputation, although you don't care, but I can't really just let people scold you, in any case, this thing first not in a hurry, at least now who knows this thing is fake, is the Jones family gold in the back deliberately rectify me. This the Jones family girl now has a bad reputation, so to retaliate against her, there is no need to rush, wait for me to think about it, believe me, okay? I will not let myself suffer."

She put her hand on the man's arm and said to him with a serious look.

She expressed it that way, so what could Jared say, he just let her be.

Anyway, the situation is indeed as she said, clarified that the matter is false, no one is scolding her anymore, all the firepower, are directed to Norah.

She is now clean and safe.

So, there is indeed time for her to take her time and think about how to get back at Norah.

Then he didn't mind giving her a little time.

Cole looked at Jared, who was thinking about Amber, and then looked at Amber, who was thinking about Jared, and laughed bitterly.

These two people, a heart for each other, it can be seen that the feelings are not ordinary deep.

So such two people, how can the next person intervene.

It is also fortunate that the boy Li Chuan is now in the Capital and still dominated by the second personality body.

Otherwise, I'm afraid to go crazy when I see Amber and Jared who have such a good relationship.

"Chairman." Suddenly, Sheila appeared in the wide open doorway, placed one hand on the door and knocked, and called out to Amber behind her desk.

When she called out to Amber, her gaze also went straight through Cole, who was opposite Amber, and landed directly on Amber's face, pretending that she only had Amber in her eyes and no one else.

Only then was she able to 'not see' that person.

Only when you can't see, your heart won't be affected by him.

However, Sheila did not know that at the moment her voice sounded, Cole, who had been lazily spread out in his chair, subconsciously paused in his form and then slowly sat up straight.

Even, he had the intention of turning his chair around.

But in the end, I do not know what came to mind, he did not do so again, but both hands tightly pinched the arms of the chair on both sides, slightly lowered his head, so that people can not see the expression.

Amber immediately went to focus on Cole's reaction the moment Sheila appeared.

Naturally, I saw Cole go from slightly stunned, to sitting up straight, and finally to where he is now.

Looking at Cole's tight grip on the armrest of the chair, Amber knew at once that he had just tried to turn around to look at Sheila.

Just in the end, but resisted the urge.

Jared naturally saw Cole's every move from the time that secretary appeared.

Of course, it's not that he likes to focus on Cole, but he looks at Amber and then Cole with discomfort in his heart.

This look led to Cole's strange reaction.

And he thinks about it a little more than Amber does.

Amber assumed that Cole's strange reaction to Sheila's appearance was simply due to a dislike of Sheila itself.

Jared, on the other hand, is different.

He raised his eyes to look at Sheila in the doorway, and then at Cole, his eyes narrowed slightly, and there was even a flash of something under his eyes, which was fleeting.

It all happened so fast that Amber didn't even notice.

She saw the way Cole kept his head down, not knowing what he was thinking about, and sighed slightly inaccessibly before shifting his gaze to look at the office door, a smile raised on his face, "What is it?"

Sheila swept the back of the chair with her back to herself out of the corner of her eye without a trace.

She couldn't see the person behind the back of the chair, only a little bit of the top of the man's head.

Seeing that the man had no intention of turning around, she was both relieved and a little lost in her heart.

Finally, she took a deep breath and shook her head, took her gaze back, reverted to her usual strict and stereotypical secretary appearance, and said back to Amber, "Chairman, a few media just called, saying that they want to make amends with you, hoping that you will forgive them for their behavior, and for that reason, they sent a lot of gifts over."

"Make amends?" Amber raised her eyebrows, "The media you're talking about, are they the ones that forwarded this gossip?"

"Yes." Sheila nodded.

Amber laughed then, "Looks like Ben was right earlier about these media outlets being in disarray, and they really are."

"Hmph, can they not be chaotic when their positions are going to be replaced by their own rivals?" Cole rolled his eyes and said with a face full of disdain.

Amber looked at Jared, "I have a sudden suspicion."

Jared hooked his lips, "I know what you're thinking."

Amber also smiled back at the man and then looked at Cole, "Cole, ask your side of the company if they have received any apologies from these media outlets."

"Okay, I'll ask." Cole put down his crossed legs, took his cell phone out of his pocket, and made a call out.

Sheila at the door immediately lowered her head the moment Cole made a sound to reduce her presence.

This made Amber sigh as she watched.

Two minutes later, Cole hung up the phone and shrugged his shoulders, "Nothing."

"Sure enough." For Cole's answer, Amber did not have the slightest surprise, only the mockery on her face intensified, "The same as the hero and heroine of this scandal, there is no reason to apologize only to the heroine, but not to the hero, yet these media have done so, so it can be seen how insincere this apology is, and to be more blunt, their intention to find me is not at all Apologize."

She looked straight at Jared, "They're targeting you, and they want to go through my connections to get in touch with you."

Cole suddenly realized, slapped his thigh, "I understand, Amber you are trying to say that these few media, deliberately approached you, saying that they want to apologize to you, is hoping that you in front of Jared, help them to say something, so that Jared let them go?"

Amber was noncommittal, "Yes, that's what it means."

Cole's chest rose and fell violently in anger, "FUCK, this group is really shameless to the extreme, really think that by doing this, they can achieve their goals?"

"Gotta give it a try, don't you?" Amber also had a few cold smiles at the corners of her mouth.

Cole's fist clenched, "Amber, you must not be soft-hearted, don't be impressed by their so-called apologies and reparations."

Amber gave him a blank look, "Do you think I'm that bottomless and so easily moved by people's words? After all, I've said that these media's apology is not heartfelt at all, for this kind of fake apology and real calculation, why should I pay attention to it?"

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1079 - In trouble again?

"That's right." Cole finally reassured smile, then thought of something, and skimmed, "in short, for these people, I am speechless, since they want to rely on the apology to obtain forgiveness to retain their position, then should sincerely apologize, but where they treat all the same, sincerely come to apologize to us, I Cole can also look up to them a few points, but they in order to achieve their own purposes But in order to achieve their own goals, they chose to apologize to you alone, exposing their own minds in full view, this kind of people, is stupid!"

After saying that, he glanced at Jared, "Jared, I'm warning you, you can't just let these people off the hook because they suddenly came to make amends with Amber."

"Idiot." Jared was full of disgust and returned two words with a cold chill.

Cole is furious.

This guy actually called him an idiot?

Just when Cole wanted to roll up his sleeves to compare with Jared, in the end, who is the idiot, Amber hurriedly stretched out two hands empty pressure, "Well, stop it, Cole you can rest assured, I will not even let them go, let alone Jared, so your worry is purely superfluous."

As Cole just said, if the media, is sincere to apologize to the two of them, perhaps she will see that they really know the wrong, soft hearted to let them go once.

But the media is not a human being, smart, think that the apology just to her a humane, Cole side do not care, think that as long as she apologized to her, will certainly obtain her forgiveness, so as to achieve the purpose of letting Jared let them go.

Heh, it's just ridiculous.

I really don't know who the hell gave them this crap idea.

"You go back to them and say the apology is not necessary and return the gift as well." Just as Amber was mentally mocking these media, Jared had given Sheila the order.

Sheila didn't want to stay at the door all the time either.

The longer she stays, the more her gaze, she can't help but look towards Cole.

When the time comes, she will definitely be caught by Mr. Lyon, which will lead to some unnecessary things to come.

So when she heard Jared's order, Sheila was so grateful that she nodded her head and said, "Yes Mr. Farrell, I'll be right there."

With these words, Sheila quickly turned around and left.

Cole listened to the sound of high heels going away, and couldn't tell what he felt.

And at this moment, he suddenly wasn't holding back his inner urge either, but stuck his head out the back of his chair and turned towards the door of Amber's office.

The doorway was deserted at the moment, but Cole kept staring there, unable to see the expression on his face.

Amber and Jared just looked at Cole.

After watching for a while, Amber suddenly said with her eyes to Jared: Do you think Cole is strange?

A dark light flashed in Jared's eyes and he replied with the same look: hasn't he always been strange?

The corners of Amber's mouth twitched.

Don't bother with men anymore.

At that moment, Amber's cell phone rang.

The ringing of the cell phone also pulled Cole's thoughts back.

He turned his head back, his brow furrowed, and a few moments of chagrin surfaced on his face.

It seemed to be annoyed at having spent most of the day staring at the spot where Sheila had been standing.

Jared just looked at him meaningfully.

Cole noticed Jared's gaze and glared up at him, "What are you looking at?"

"So, you haven't noticed yet." Jared's thin lips pulled out an arc of sarcasm.

Cole wrinkled his eyebrows fiercely, "What do you mean? I didn't notice anything?"

Jared ignored Cole, lowered his eyes, and played with Amber's pencil.

Seeing this, Cole was furious.

This guy, deliberately sold to arouse the curiosity of others, only to shut up about it again.

This is just going to drive people crazy.

Cole's eyes were red and he stared at Jared viciously, as if he wanted to put two holes in Jared.

It's really too hateful this person!

Cole and Jared between the small movements, Amber is naturally in the eyes, just shook his head, just do not bother, to answer the phone.

Anyway, whenever these two men get together, they always do this several times.

She has seen it all.

Just don't get into a fight.

"Hello, this is Amber," Amber said as she put the phone to her ear and politely introduced herself to the other end of the line.

The phone number was a local unknown number and she didn't know who it was.

But she picks up several of these places every day, and doesn't feel anything.

"Hello Miss Reed, this is Starlight Media on my side." An eager voice came over the phone, "Yes Miss Reed, we just received a reply from your secretary saying that you returned all the gifts, may I ask Miss Reed, are you not satisfied with the gifts or do you think they are too few? If you are not satisfied, we can prepare it according to your preference, if it is too little, we can also buy a few more, please Miss Reed must give us a chance to apologize"

Listening to this person's words on the phone, Amber simply had to be exasperated.

I dare say the other party doesn't know the real reason why she didn't accept their apology and return their gift.

Since they didn't know, they didn't realize how ridiculous and outrageous their so-called apology was, and instead categorized the reason she didn't accept the apology as her resenting the bad gift resenting the small gift.

It's really an arrogant and cocky media.

Amber small face gloomy cold terrible, the voice also cold down, "Sorry ah sir, I am now outside to inspect the factory, the signal is not good, can not hear what you say, so there is something to say next time, goodbye."

After saying that, she didn't care what the person on the other end of the phone was thinking, and hung up the phone with no expression.

"What's wrong?" Jared asked, frowning at her with concern in his eyes.

Amber shook her head and didn't hide it from him, telling him the content of the call.

Jared's face stinks even after hearing this.

It seems that one's tactics are still too light to allow these people to still have the strength to jump off.

At this moment, Jared has decided in his heart that he has to give these media some more trouble to be good.

As she was thinking about it, Amber's phone rang again.

Amber small face is again a sinking, also do not look at the phone screen, directly put the phone to the ear, to the phone on the other side of the direct displeasure: "If you still think I dislike your gift, so that is why not to accept your apology, then we have nothing to say"

Before Amber could finish her sentence, she heard the one on the other end of the line speak.

Subsequently, she first froze, then hurriedly brought her phone to her heels and looked at it, and after seeing the caller ID, her little face obviously flushed with embarrassment.

"Sorry." Amber put the phone back to her ear and hurriedly apologized into the phone, "I didn't mean to do that just now, I thought it was some unscrupulous media, sorry, okay, I'll be right over."

Putting down her phone, Amber patted her chest and exhaled slightly.

It was so embarrassing just now.

She thought it was the media calling again, and then spoke in a bad tone to the other side of the line.

As a result, the other side opened her mouth, she realized that she had fiercely misidentified, and even shamed to death.

"Who's calling?" Jared asked with a wrinkled brow as he glanced at the phone Amber had put down.

Cole looked at her too.

Amber short-term glass of water to drink a sip of water, fixed the mood, then returned: "is the police called, let me go to the police station."

"The police department?" Cole cocked his head, "Amber, what have you gotten yourself into again?"

Chapter 1080 Looking for anger

Amber glared at him in disgust, "Can't you expect anything better from me?"

Jared gaze is also very angry, look at the Cole heart a burst of hair, quickly waved his hands to compensate for the smile: "ah Amber, I'm sorry, I'm just kidding, do not be angry."

"Hmph!" Amber looked away, ignoring him.

Jared saw her put down her glass of water and asked with lightly parted thin lips, "Is this about Alice?"

But said to ask, but the tone is not much doubt, but with a certainty.

After all, the only thing that could send her to the police station these days was Alice's business.

Because it was her initiative to call the police.

And the owner of Wisemas and the owner of Squirrel Channel and others, it was his side that called the police, and the police are looking for him, not Amber.

So this time the police department called, naturally it is about Alice's matter.

As expected, Amber nodded, "Yes, the police so many days, because Connor side for Alice to find a lawyer, so about Alice's conviction delayed decision, my side also refused to loose understanding, so the police side is not good to do, so now let me go over to discuss the follow-up treatment plan. "

Jared pursed his thin lips, his brow furrowed.

Across the table, Cole rested his hands on the back of his head and grunted, "If you ask me, with all the evidence of this crime, the rule that allows the person who committed the crime to hire a lawyer to overturn the case for himself should be removed, and although the perpetrator still has to pay for his actions in the end, the time of being sentenced should be delayed back, so that the perpetrator enjoys the extra time for no reason before serving his sentence, it's really enough It's disgusting."

Amber shrugged her shoulders.

But no?

It is clear that the evidence is overwhelming and should be sentenced immediately.

However, the law provides that a suspect has the right to hire a lawyer for himself or herself to obtain a certain degree of sentence reduction.

And during that time of the fight, the suspect just has to be held in a police station or detention center instead of being transferred to prison.

Police stations and detention centers are much more comfortable than prisons.

Think about it, but it is quite disgusting for them, the victims.

"Doesn't matter." Just then, Jared suddenly stood up with his hands in his trouser pockets, the corners of his mouth clear and cold, making people shiver, "What she enjoys this moment, she will make up for later, in prison, in other ways."

The implication is that he will have someone find something for Alice to do in prison.

Amber and Cole both understood what Jared was saying.

Amber raised an eyebrow and didn't say anything.

Cole, however, was clapping his hands, "That's a great idea, Jared, you've finally done something."

Jared narrowed his eyes dangerously, "Do you want to die?"

Cole spread his hands, "Don't want to."

"If you don't want to, shut the hell up." Jared said in a cold, low voice.

He then looked to Amber, "Going to the police station now?"

"Hmm." Amber stretched and stood up as well, "Just promised the police side that I'd be there within an hour."

"Come on then, I'll go with you." Jared lifted his wrist to look at his watch.

Amber smiled and responded, "Hmm."

Looking at the two have decided the next trip, Cole yawned also stood up, "Come on, you all have to go, I stay here is not much meaning, you go to the police station, I will not follow, I should also go back to their own company."

"You should have gone back a long time ago." Jared then looked at Cole with a slight sideways glance of disgust, "Are you really going to follow us all the time? You're a single person following us all the time, how do you like that?"

These words made Cole so angry that he pointed at Jared's hand, which was trembling, "Jared you"

"Come on you two." Amber held her forehead and interrupted Cole with amusement, "You two are really enough, you were enemies in your last life, so you have to fight non-stop when you meet in this life, Cole you are also, he does not provoke you, you have to provoke him to get angry."

"Who messed with him." Cole disagreed with her statement and was about to retort with wide eyes.

Amber just ignored him and turned to the man, "And you too, sometimes Cole doesn't mess with you and you have to mess with him and make him angry, tell me guys, am I wrong?"

Jared looked stunned, and then looked away.

Amber points to Cole.

Cole's mouth twitched and he also turned his face to the side.

Neither man answered.

Amber looped her arms and stared at the two men with squinted eyes, "How about that, neither of you say anything, looks like I was right, right? You guys, there's always one of you that will go and mess with the other and make the other one jumpy with anger."

That's a statement that neither Jared nor Cole, both men, can refute.

At first, none of them realized it.

It wasn't until Amber said it now that they realized that it was still true.

As for the reason, they probably figured it out, after all, it wasn't much more complicated in the first place.

It is each other look at each other is not good, so can not see each other comfortable.

As long as the other side is comfortable, we must open the mouth deliberately provoke each other, until we see the other side is not comfortable, their hearts are comfortable.

Seeing two men with their heads down like children, Amber was so angry and amused, "Okay, okay, let's not talk about that, Cole, you go back first, thank you for today."

Cole lifted his head up and waved his hand unconcernedly, "Thanks for nothing, I didn't do anything today and didn't help much, you suddenly thanked me, instead I feel a little ashamed of it."

Amber laughed lightly, "You took the initiative to come over and help me, to be anxious for me, to help me figure out what to do, and finally to help me release a statement, all of that is helping, so it's only right that I say thank you to you, isn't it Jared?"

Jared gave Cole a cool look and didn't retort.

Apparently, he approves of Amber's words.

"Well, what's the point of wasting so much time with him, let's go." Jared took Amber's hand.

Amber cried and laughed when she saw the man yelling in a hurry, "Cole, we'll go first."

"Go ahead." Cole waved his hand, "I'm going to wait a while for my assistant to come and pick me up. When I came, I drove your car and returned your car, so I didn't drive over myself."

"Okay then, you can wait in my office then, bye." Amber waved goodbye to him.

As a result, the hand has not been waved twice, the wrist will be sad Jared grabbed, pulled down hard, stopping her from waving at Cole's behavior.

Such a careful eye makes Cole roll his eyes inside.

Even Amber is not allowed to say goodbye to herself, this guy, possessive is really not the usual strong.

Amber also felt a headache, but more than that, it was still helpless and funny.

After all, she is aware of the cautiousness of men.

Especially in the face of other men, that careful eye is many times more than usual.

Eventually, Amber was dragged out of the office by Jared and drove towards the police station.

In the car, while driving, Jared suddenly spoke up, "Do you think Cole will go to that secretary of yours if he stays in your office?"

Amber was looking down at her phone when she heard this and stopped moving and looked up, "Cole for Sheila?"

Jared nods his head.

Amber shook her head in disbelief, "I don't think so, Cole hates Sheila so much, why would she want Sheila? Wouldn't that be like asking for abuse?"

After all, hate a person, but also to find that person, is not a brain disease, their own looking for anger suffered it?

"Why are you asking about this all of a sudden?" Amber blinked curiously.

The corners of Jared's lips curved up slightly, and instead of answering, he asked, "You just said that Cole hates that secretary of yours, right?"
