

LLPD Chapter 1261

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1261 Who is that woman

It is good to make a big move, to make an example of the monkey, to warn some other families, so they had better be quiet.

This time so many families jumped out to make trouble, it is clear that he was too benevolent in the past few years, so they think his character has changed, so they dare to make small moves.

Maybe there are other families, too, who are foolish enough to take advantage of the opportunity to do something.

It is just as well that he will do something this time, to cut off their poking out claws, and to snuff out the ambitions that have sprung up again.

He wanted them to know that he, Jared, was always the same Jared and had never changed.

Even if his methods are not so tough these years, but it does not mean that, he is really and kind.

He's just, lurking.

"Yes, Mr. Farrell, I'm on my way." On the other end of the phone, Ben hurriedly responded.

He knew which the White family Mr. Farrell was referring to.

Some time ago, when Mr. Farrell accompanied Miss Reed to Lu's house, what Mrs. Lu said to Miss Reed, Miss Reed told Mr. Farrell.

After Mr. Farrell, he gave him a general description of the White family and asked him to look up the situation.

So it also knows the ambition of the White family.

In his opinion, the White family is simply whimsical.

First of all, not to mention the White family, the small family of the uninvolved actually dare to think of climbing Mr. Farrell, climbing other gentry are dreaming, but actually want to climb directly to the Farrell Family of the largest gentry.

It is simply ridiculous.

As he was thinking about it, Ben heard Jared suddenly ask again, "By the way, has the Jones family arrived yet?"

"I was just about to tell you." Ben gathered his disdain for the White family, then hurriedly replied, "You guessed it, the Jones family did come, the old Mr. Jones and Norah, but just as they reached the door, I stopped them."

Jared wasn't surprised by the result.

I knew the Jones family would come.

This is just the fulfillment of it.

"But" Ben's tone was suddenly difficult at this moment.

Jared frowned, "But what."

"Mr. Farrell, the old Mr. Jones and Norah refused to leave, I asked the security guards to take them to the car by force, but they broke free, and the old Mr. Jones age is there, either I or the security guards, do not dare to force hard, in case something happens, it will be a problem, so I can only So I could only invite them to a box in the hotel, temporarily arranged them inside, guarded by bodyguards, promised them that after the banquet, you will go to see them, they only rested, otherwise they would not stay quietly in the box." Ben scratched his hair, very big head.

A touch of mockery surfaced on Jared's face, "How come I didn't know before that an old man like THE OLD Mr. Jones could actually play the scoundrel."

Ben skimmed, "of course, in front of you to maintain their own as a teacher that high moral image, ah, otherwise you will only now completely understand the old Mr. Jones original everything is pretend, the real face is so bad?"

Jared's thin lips pursed into a straight line and didn't answer.

What else could he say after Ben had finished.

Indeed, he used to know that the Jones family did not want to be what they appeared to him, not knowing that they were even worse than he thought.

Only because they are too well disguised in the end, plus he also has no interest in thoroughly understanding what kind of people they really are, otherwise maybe, his relationship with the Jones family would have been broken long ago and would not have been maintained at all until now.

So much so that now he regrets why he didn't get to know the Jones family properly at the beginning and let the Jones family stick to him and suck so much blood not to mention bully his people.

"All right, tell them I'll see them after the party and tell them to settle down." Jared pinched the bridge of his nose and commanded in a deep voice.

Ben nodded his head in response.

The call ended and Jared hung up the phone, put it down, picked up the wine in front of him and took a sip, and continued to wait for Amber to return.

From his position, he could not see Amber, so he did not know where Amber was now, how she was talking to that lady, and whether she had been introduced to her husband by that lady.

However, Jared is not worried about this.

She had grown too much, and he was sure she was fine.

Jared sat on the sofa, folded legs, shaking the wine in his hand, his body half hidden, half visible, so that people can not really see, and full of mysterious atmosphere, seductive and charming.

The ladies at the banquet who were secretly looking at her from time to time had their hearts racing, and they were jealous of Amber.

Such a good man, how come he saw Amber, the down-and-out millennial?

They said they couldn't figure it out.

Well, they admit that Amber is a little better looking and a little more established than they are.

After all, they are still just no job, no company, only a little bit of poor shares, receive a little bit of dividends, by the family as a pig to raise, just waiting for the family needs to marry out at any time in the form of marriage for the family in exchange for the benefits of the canary.

Amber, on the other hand, is already the chairman of a company, a free agent without parental control at the top and without the need for marriage for the family's benefit.

This is something that they really can't compete with.

Shit, when they think about it, they seem to envy Amber even more?

The women gritted their teeth in anger, and then they saw a woman in a wheelchair, suddenly drive into the restricted area and advance toward Jared.

Yes, the penalty box.

The area where Jared is located is off-limits to them, and no one dares to come forward to disturb them.

However, at this time, there is a person, suddenly stepped into the forbidden area where they not only come forward.

And the man, or directly towards Jared, indicating that the man is not borrowing the road, but the purpose is Jared.

How can these young ladies and young masters not be shocked by a woman?

A sound of inhalation is almost unbroken.

"Who is that woman, really brave."

"I don't know, I haven't seen it in the circle, it's a raw face, it shouldn't be from our Olkmore, is it from other circles?"

"Not from our circle."

"Also not from our South Riverside, never seen this one, and I have not heard of any family in the national circle whose daughter is in a wheelchair, so I reckon that it should not be someone from the circle, if it is, it is impossible not to know that Mr. Farrell has a girlfriend, and even more impossible not to know that Mr. Farrell hates Women pestering her."

"Yes, yes, there are so many women who like Mr. Farrell, but none of them have rushed to appear in front of him, so I also think this woman, should not be any family's daughter, I guess, is estimated to be a star or netizen it, or is who made a girlfriend, see Mr. Farrell was fascinated, so they went straight up to Mr. Farrell. Only these kinds of possibilities can explain why this woman dares to go forward, because she does not know that Mr. Farrell hates women pestering ah, say, is not one of your women?"

The young lady asked, pointing to the young masters around her.

The other millennials also looked at them suspiciously.

They shook their heads like a rattle and denied it in a hurry.

"You guys don't joke, this party, none of us brought a woman over, the family have repeatedly instructed that Mr. Farrell will come to the party, we are not allowed to bring a woman, in order to eliminate our women look at Mr. Farrell, to pester Mr. Farrell situation, so where we still do not do so. "

"Exactly."

The young ladies could see that they were not lying and were even more puzzled.

"Since you didn't bring it in, and it's not from the circle, how in the world did this woman get in?"

"It should be mixed in, this kind of thing is not unprecedented, two months ago there was a small party, there is an attempt to marry into the luxury of the civilian girl secretly changed into the waiter's clothes mixed in, this is probably a similar situation."

"Most likely."

The crowd nodded their heads, thinking it made sense.

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1262 It's actually Alice Stockert

Then, they then look at the woman in the wheelchair, the eyes became subtle, contempt, all contempt disdain, etc. These are full of negative eyes.

After all, in their eyes, the woman in the wheelchair is a gold-digging woman with a heart higher than the sky, trying to marry into a rich family.

Such women, they naturally despise.

The most ridiculous thing is that it is still a disabled woman who can not stand up on both legs, only in a wheelchair, of course, they are not unable to see the disabled.

Rather, they look down on such disabled people who have no self-awareness.

Both legs are crippled, can not stand up, but still want to marry into the rich family, and do not see themselves worthy of it.

In their opinion, this woman, is not as good as Amber.

At least Amber is an able-bodied person.

And what does this woman have?

With nothing and a crippled leg, he is in no position to be interested in Mr. Farrell.

They would rather see Mr. Farrell with that Amber than have this woman pestering Mr. Farrell.

Thinking about it, one of the millennials suddenly asked, "Which one of you has Amber's phone number, hurry up and give her a call and tell her that a shameless woman has gone to Mr. Farrell to hit on her."

"How can we have her contact information, we don't know her well."

"Yeah, might as well just ask the waiter to shout. "

"Then call the waiter."

With that said, the waiter was called over.

Then the ladies added fuel to the fire and told the waiter to go to Amber and tell her off.

The waiter nodded, glanced towards Jared and went to do as he was told.

Amber, of course, did not know that during her own befriending of the party host couple, a woman was going to rip off her man not to mention a group of millennials who were jealous of her getting Jared, suddenly became a cluster of supporters of her and Jared together and were bent on fighting for her.

Not to say she didn't know, Jared didn't know either.

Jared had been closing his eyes, sipping his wine alone, enjoying a rare moment of peace on the banquet floor, when he suddenly heard the sound of a wheelchair rolling.

He paused in his shaking of the glass, obviously disturbed by the sound of the wheelchair.

But he still didn't open his eyes, thinking it was probably just passing in front of him.

After all, it's not like this is his turf, and although the people at the party automatically turn it into his turf and don't come to him, it doesn't mean that there's really no one who can't come here.

As long as they do not bother him, those who casually pass by him are regardless.

So he thought that the owner of this wheelchair, presumably, would just pass by him and would not stay, then naturally he did not have the need to open his eyes and look.

Soon, however, Jared realized he was wrong.

This person is not passing by, but is just coming for him.

This wheelchair voice is not only not getting farther and farther, but getting closer and closer, he can even smell the scent of the person coming.

It's a woman!

Jared's face sank.

Obviously the arrival of this woman put him in a bad mood all of a sudden.

Perhaps, this is again which family's golden girl, delusion to climb him, so despite his past put down words, brave to come.

It's not that he, Jared, is self-absorbed and thinks all women want to climb on him.

At least, as long as his status remains the same, then he will have enough confidence in the proof that these women want to be his woman.

Of course, they do not necessarily love him as a person, but his status can make them as crazy.

For example, this time the White family, is not the idea of taking a risk, want to daughter to climb him, as long as the success, then the White family will be able to fly to the sky.

All many families, preferring to pretend they don't know the words he has put out in the past, want to take a chance.

After all, success is the road to wealth and prosperity ah.

So the woman who is here now is from the White family?

Only, I have not heard that the White family's daughter is in a wheelchair.

Jared opened his eyes and was ready to see who was coming, but what he didn't expect to see was a face that looked somewhat familiar.

"Mr. Farrell, what a coincidence." The woman in the wheelchair, who also did not expect Jared to suddenly open his eyes, first froze and then revealed a warm and generous smile.

Only the woman is plastic surgery face, even if the plastic surgery is very natural, can not see that it is plastic surgery, but the surgery face is the surgery face, and then is natural, but also always can not compare to the natural face.

So the woman's smile, even if it is very nice, falls in Jared's eyes, but also looks very fake, very stiff, a kind of puppet feeling.

Jared's eyebrows tightened, and there was even a flash of disgust in his eyes, even in his voice, with undisguised disgust, "It's you!"

"It's me." The woman ruffled the curls around her ears and smiled even brighter.

The visitor was none other than Alice.

Jared stared at her with narrowed eyes, "There's no coincidence, everyone knows I'm coming to the party tonight, but the invitation list at the party, there's no one from the Capital, so it's not a coincidence in itself that you would show up here, it's a special appearance, so Connor asked you to come?"

Connor, although the power of all in the Capital, but for the party host couple, but also can not afford to offend the big man.

Then even if this banquet, only the powerful people of Olkmore were invited, and no other cities were invited, as long as the powerful people of these cities wanted to come, just say hello to the banquet host.

That's probably the case with Alice.

As expected, Alice nodded her head as soon as Jared's words fell, "Dad asked me to come, she said that now that I'm back in the Stockert family, it's time for me to integrate into the circle, as the thousand-year-old girl of the Stockert family, it's impossible to stay out of the front of people, so she specially asked I came to tonight's party to meet people in the circle, originally Dad wanted to accompany me, but unfortunately Dad's injuries are not yet, can not be discharged from the hospital, so tonight I can only come alone."

With that, she sighed with a regretful face.

Jared coldly looked at her performance, "You said wrong, the Stockert family is the Capital's family, the circle you should integrate is the Capital circle, not Olkmore's circle, so you come to tonight's banquet has no meaning, tonight's banquet, also not you to the Stockert The party tonight is not a platform or springboard for you to debut as the Stockert family's daughter, not to mention, are you the Stockert family's daughter?"

Once these words came out, the smile on Alice's face instantly froze, and a great sense of panic, all at once, came towards her, making her fall into the ice cellar, and her back was cold.

Not far away, the group of millennials who had been watching this side, seeing Jared talking to the wheelchair woman, were all jealous and biting their handkerchiefs.

"Shit, that woman actually knows Mr. Farrell."

That's what surprised and overwhelmed them the most.

If only women know Mr. Farrell, they think nothing, after all, Mr. Farrell's fame is there, it is normal to know Mr. Farrell.

But Mr. Farrell knew the woman, so one has to be surprised.

Besides Amber and Makenna, when did Mr. Farrell become so familiar with a third woman?

So who the hell is this woman?

How can you know Mr. Farrell and talk to him?

"Shit, did that waiter find Amber or not?"

"That's right, Mr. Farrell has been talking to that woman and she hasn't shown up and doesn't know where she's gone."

"No, if it were me, I could not leave Mr. Farrell for a second, leave a second I am afraid that there are other women paste up, she is good, disappeared a dry, let us worry about her one after another, angry me."

Chapter 1263 - Don't believe a word of it

These millennials muttered under their breath.

If Amber heard that, she would probably find it funny and maybe even thank them for fighting for her.

Of course, all this is unknown to either Amber or Jared.

Across from Jared, Alice sat in her wheelchair, her mind buzzing.

Jared's words 'are you the Stockert family's daughter' really scared her, so much so that now, her back is breaking out in a cold sweat, her dress is wet and stuck to her back, even in the heated banquet hall, she feels cold, her heart is more panicked and confused. The great.

How!

How could he say such a thing?

Could it be that he knew that she was not the Stockert family's daughter?

And that he wasn't just, just testing?

Alice did not know what the situation was, not only to take it lightly, can only tightly grip the armrests on both sides of the wheelchair, take a deep breath, forced calm said: "Mr. Farrell, what do you mean by that, what do you mean I am the Stockert family's daughter? I'm sorry, I don't quite understand, can you elaborate?"

She stared intently at Jared, attempting to see something in Jared's face.

But unfortunately, Jared's face remained expressionless, and Alice couldn't see anything on his face that she wanted to know.

This made her heart angry and annoyed.

This damn man is still so impenetrable.

"There is no need for you to test me, you know very well what I mean don't you, although you and Connor both say you are father and daughter, but are you father and daughter or not, do you think I won't investigate? As it turns out, the results of my investigation show that you are not father and daughter, either you are lying to Connor, Connor does not know that you are not his daughter, but this situation is almost impossible, Connor such a person, you can not fool, so there are only two remaining situations, one is that you are Connor specifically found to impersonate his daughter, but you do not know, thinking that his daughter. Thinking that it is really his daughter, the other is that you are still Connor looking to be his daughter, but you yourself are aware that you are not his daughter, but for some reason you accepted the condition of pretending to be father and daughter with him, obviously, your weak-minded performance at this moment proves that you are this last case."

Jared's words made Alice completely strained her face and looked flustered, "You"

Damn, he actually knows that she and Connor are not father and daughter.

Then he should not, already know her

No, it can't be.

If he had known, she would not have still appeared so smoothly to him, but would have been caught by him long ago.

So, she still has a way back.

Can not panic, absolutely can not panic.

The more panic, only the more attention she will attract, in case he finds something, it is really the end.

Alice kept reassuring herself in her mind to be calm while hurriedly adjusting the expression on her face before revealing more.

"Well, Mr. Farrell has said so much, I am lying is also meaningless, I admit, I am indeed not Connor's daughter, he specially found to impersonate, as for the reason, very simple, Connor and Mr. Farrell you have a grudge, what grudge I personally do not know very well, I only know, is the previous generation of Connor asked me to act as his daughter, and also sent me to Olkmore, in order to get close to you, the best to take Mr. Farrell, become your woman, only in this way, I have the opportunity to be the inside man, always with Connor to pass on your news."

That's not a lie; that's indeed what she came to Olkmore for.

But only one.

Another purpose well

Alice's eyes flashed, then lowered her head, completely covered the look in her eyes, and then smiled: "Like tonight, Connor took the trouble to get me in, also want me to come close to you, after all, my mission is to become your woman, if I do not even have the opportunity to see you, and how to become your woman, this is not he can only give me The party is undoubtedly the best opportunity, he naturally do not want to miss, and I am just a small person he pinched, I can do, can only come to the party to approach Mr. Farrell."

She pretended to sigh helplessly and spread her hands again, "Actually Mr. Farrell, our first meeting was also arranged by Connor, Connor knew from somewhere that you would pass that way that night, so he specially asked me to wait there and then appear in front of your car, he asked me to do so at the risk of my life, in order to make me The first time I targeted Miss Reed in your hospital room, it wasn't my intention, it was Connor's arrangement, and I was innocent."

In short, just put it all on Connor.

Jared's face remained unchanged and he looked at Alice with a slightly mocking look instead, "Do you think I believe that?"

Alice hastily raised her head to look at him, "Mr. Farrell, what I said is true, I am really innocent ah, everything is Connor's orders, I am just a small person, simply dare not disobey her, so I do everything, are forced to do, including several times against Miss Reed, are listening to Connor Mr. Farrell, if you hadn't blown my cover tonight, I wouldn't have dared to tell you, and you would have thought it was all my own idea, but it really wasn't. Mr. Farrell you believe me."

She looked like she was aggrieved and pitiful.

If it were an ordinary man, he might really believe her, and would feel sorry for her, actually being so coerced into doing something he didn't want to do.

But what kind of person is Jared?

What kind of people has he not met?

Naturally, you can see at a glance how fake the woman in front of you is, and how ridiculous the words that come out are.

What does not come from one's own will and what is coerced.

Perhaps Connor did treat this woman this way, but the woman herself is not a good one, Connor let her do things, she may not also not reluctant.

Talking to him about this now is nothing more than trying to take yourself off the hook.

This kind of people, he has seen a lot.

"I don't believe a word you say." Jared lightly opened his thin lips and his voice was cold and bland.

Alice originally thought she acted pathetic enough, even if this man will not fully believe, but the heart more or less suspect, but who would have thought that this man is so hard-hearted, actually do not believe at all.

Dare I say that she just said so much, but it was all a fart?

Alice peeked over at Jared and saw the mocking expression on Jared's face. The aggression on her face froze in her face and her heart burst into flames.

Can you not be angry?

She said to do so, how poor she pretended to be, is to want to win this man a trace of sympathy, lest this man suspect her and Connor two half-weight, and thus suspect her another layer of identity, so it is deliberately said so, to say how poor they have to be, anyway, is that they are definitely not a bad person, bad are because they were forced by Connor, not their own bad.

Only then would Jared not think much of the fact that she and Connor were in cahoots from start to finish, and that they were not trying to target them themselves.

Only then can one get off the list of men's suspicions.

But now the situation, obviously different from what she thought, this man, and not according to the set, which makes her a little embarrassed.

Chapter 1264 What exactly is the identity

This man, from the beginning to the end, did not believe her half a word.

It was always believed that she and Connor came together and that she helped Connor and was not just bullying by Connor.

Rather, she herself, would have liked to do the same.

Sure enough, this man has always been suspicious and not easy to fool.

But even if it's not good enough to fool around, she must continue to fool around.

After all, it has come this far, and halfway through, the situation is obviously worse.

Taking a deep breath, Alice squeezed the armrest of her wheelchair and squeezed out a forced smile on her face, "Mr. Farrell, I I know what I did to Miss Reed before, so you do not believe my words at all, but this is indeed the truth, I also feel very sorry for Miss Reed, but I can only help Connor do so ah, if you did not reveal my identity now, know that I am not Connor's daughter, these I do not dare to tell you, now I will tell you these facts Mr. Farrell, I am now in a very dangerous situation, can you"

"All right." She wanted to say something else.

Jared stood up, hands in his pants pockets, eyes slightly downcast, looking down at her with indifference, "It's useless for you to tell me any more, I don't believe a word of it, so you better put away your intentions that you shouldn't have, or I'll make you pay before Connor can make you pay."

Alice's pupils shrank, her face went white, her mouth moved, and she couldn't speak.

Obviously, it was intimidated by the man's eyes and words.

And it's true.

He said so much, this man was not moved at all.

It really pissed her off.

Alice lowered her head and secretly gritted her teeth.

Jared did not bother to look at her again, withdrew his gaze and said coldly: "I don't care what your intentions are when you suddenly say these things when I have revealed your identity, but I can tell you clearly that whatever your intentions are, you will not succeed, but I am now interested in you for a few moments."

Alice immediately looked up.

Interested?

What does it mean?

Just when Alice said she didn't understand what Jared meant by that, Jared narrowed his good-looking eyes and leaned down slightly to gaze at her, "I'd like to know what your true identity is."

A hint of horror suddenly surfaced on Alice's face.

I never expected that Jared would be interested in this!

And this preference is

For a while, Alice's heart beat like thunder, not daring to face Jared's dark as if black hole-like eyes.

It's as if once you're right, you'll be sucked in and then be seen through completely.

So Alice subconsciously control the wheelchair back a little, don't open, the voice is a little stiff back, "I can have what identity, Mr. Farrell joking, I am just an orphanage out, happen to have some ambition, and then only by Connor selected to work for him just, so ordinary, how can Mr. Farrell produce I'm not interested."

"If you are really an orphan born person, you simply do not have that courage to come to this kind of place, and even more so, you do not have that courage to come to talk to me, and even in your body, there is no hint of the inferiority complex of an orphan born, instead, you reveal a good temperament and upbringing everywhere, and even when you see the opulence of the banquet, you do not have any confusion and disorientation, you seem to have taken it for granted. Tell me, these things that should not have appeared in you as an orphan, have appeared in you, so I am very curious about your identity." Jared looked at Alice with eyes that grew cooler and cooler.

It's not that he looks down on ordinary people and orphans.

The world is like this, with money and no money, really are two completely different worlds.

Rich people's standard of living, temperament and cultivation, talk about talent, insight and ability, is the ordinary people can not fully imagine.

So ordinary people come to the world of the rich, words and actions, definitely not like Alice so light-hearted.

Many of the waiters present are from ordinary families, even after years of working in these places, seeing the lives of these rich people, are not yet able to be completely calm and accustomed to.

What's more, it's Alice, who was born an orphan worse than any ordinary person.

Doesn't that make it questionable?

After Alice heard Jared's words, her mind was in turmoil and her heart was in a panic.

She didn't expect at all that her calm performance at the party would be a great identity hole with Jared.

All of a sudden, Alice had not only panicked, but also began to feel fear in her heart.

Especially Jared's eyes, which seemed to be able to see through everything, made her feel a great fear and pressure.

Pressed her, almost kicked out of breath.

No, can't stay here.

Go, hurry up!

If she doesn't leave, she's afraid she'll be exposed even more.

Maybe in the end, after not being able to withstand the pressure exerted by this man, just admit that everything is over.

So now one must go as soon as possible.

Thinking about this, Alice clenched her palms, tight nails are about to poke the palms, but the sharp pain, but also let her a little more calm.

She maintained a stiff expression on her face and returned with a slight tremor in her voice, "I'm quite happy to hear Mr. Farrell say that, which means that Connor's training of me was successful."

"Training? " Jared narrowed his eyes.

Alice ruffled her hair, "Yes, Connor let me approach you, naturally will train me a bit, if let me so ordinary to approach you, let alone let you impress me, I myself also do not have that courage, so now Mr. Farrell you say my every move, not at all like an orphan born, have not seen the world I am really happy that my efforts have not been in vain."

Jared gave a heave-ho, not sure if he believed it or not.

Alice also dare not ask, asked instead of their own weak heart performance, put his hand down from the hair, "Well Mr. Farrell, the time is late, I came here today, mainly to say hello to you, now the greeting is finished, I should also leave, we will see you next time."

When she finished, she nodded politely at Jared and took control of the wheelchair.

And at the moment of turning around, the polite smile on Alice's face, instantly disappeared and was replaced by a face full of distortion and resentment.

She came here tonight to say hello to Jared and Amber and to tell them that she will officially debut as the daughter of the Stockert family from now on, and that they will see each other whenever they want.

Another purpose is to create some trouble for the two of them, to pit them against each other, to make them both misunderstand, to avenge their own shame during this time in detention.

But what was not expected was that these two plans, before she could even begin to implement them, had been killed by Jared.

Jared knew instead that she was not the Stockert family's daughter, so it was the biggest joke when she appeared as the Stockert family's daughter.

That was fine, but what made her feel most numb and nervous was Jared's great interest in her past identity.

In order to prevent Jared from continuing to wonder who she really was in the past, she had to keep lying to cover it up and try to dispel his suspicions.

She didn't know whether the man's suspicions had been dispelled or not after all she had said, but she knew that she couldn't continue to stay here for the two purposes she had come for.

What she has to do now is to hurry back to Connor, tell Connor about it, and see if Connor has a way to completely erase her past identity, otherwise she will be completely finished when Jared finds out.

Chapter 1265 Backhanded

Watching Alice's back as she controlled her wheelchair and hurriedly fled, Jared's eyes grew heavy and dark.

Originally, he was interested in Alice's past identity and wanted to know who this woman really was in the past and if there was anything suspicious about her identity.

But now seeing this woman's performance, he has completely understood that this woman's past identity is not only suspicious, but even shocking.

Jared pursed his lips, took out his phone, sent a message to Ben and ordered: increase the investigation of Alice's identity, within a week must find out the results.

Ben's side replied quickly: Yes.

Jared saw the situation, the eyebrows were only slightly relaxed, put the phone away, and then felt the various eyes around him fell on him.

Jared looked up, and it was all the people at the party.

These people look at him with eyes written with gossip, curiosity and so on.

Apparently, they were curious about what he was just saying to Alice and his relationship with her.

Jared's handsome face was dark.

These people, are they really idle?

Jared glared impatiently.

These people immediately felt his displeasure, knowing that their gaze made him unhappy, rushed to turn their heads back and no longer look.

As expected, Jared's face looked much better when he saw these people take their eyes back, sat down again, and took a drink from his glass.

On the other hand, Amber finished her conversation with the couple who hosted the party, and after receiving the business card handed to her by both of them, she said goodbye to them with satisfaction and planned to go back to Jared to tell him the good news.

By the time she had just walked out of the lounge of the couple hosting the party, an oncoming waiter called out to her, "Miss Reed."

"Hello." Amber stopped in her tracks when she saw him call out to her, and smiled politely at him, "What can I do for you?"

The waiter didn't sell himself short and hurried back, "Yes Miss Reed, I was instructed by Miss Holy and the girls to come to you, they told me to tell you that a lady in a wheelchair is pestering Mr. Farrell and to hurry over."

"What did you say? The lady in the wheelchair?" Hearing the news handed out by the waiter, the expression on Amber's delicate face suddenly changed, and her surrounding aura also instantly became stern.

Took the waiter by surprise and nodded his head, "Yes, Miss Holy that's what they said, and I took a look myself, and indeed I was in a wheelchair."

Amber's red lips tightened up and her small face was filled with seriousness.

If she was right, in a wheelchair, or a lady, I guess it was Alice.

Other than that, she doesn't know anyone else in a wheelchair.

Amber couldn't help but bite her lower lip.

Alice actually came to the party and approached Jared directly.

I just don't know, what to do with Jared!

Amber's eyes flashed.

When the waiter saw that she wasn't leaving, he couldn't resist talking to her, "Miss Reed, aren't you going over there? The lady is talking to Mr. Farrell."

Amber gathered down the thoughts in her mind and raised her smile again, "There's no rush, I believe my boyfriend won't be sorry, but do you know what that lady was looking for my boyfriend for? Or what they said?"

The waiter shook his head repeatedly, "Miss Reed, this is very difficult for me, Mr. Farrell such a person, how dare I approach, let alone listen to his conversation with others."

Amber reacted and felt the same, smiling shyly, "Sorry, I didn't think about it, go ahead and get busy, I'll go find Jared."

"Okay." The waiter bowed and stepped aside, allowing Amber to go first.

Amber is not polite, after all, this is his job, if they do not go, but make him difficult.

She took two steps forward with her delicate crystal clutch, then suddenly thought of something else and stopped to turn back over, "Wait."

The waiter looked up, "Is there anything else Miss Reed would like to order?"

Amber looked at him with a subtle expression, "Did you just say that Miss Holy and the others told you to come to me?"

"Yeah." The waiter nodded blankly.

Amber laughed, "The Miss Holy girls you mentioned, are they the ones sitting in the southeast corner of the banquet hall?"

"Yes." The waiter recalled the directions to the banquet hall and finally nodded his head.

Amber lifted her chin and smiled more playfully, "Okay, I got it, thank you."

When she finished, she turned her head back and continued walking forward with a smile in her eyes.

The waiter said Miss Holy and the girls, she probably knew who it was.

The women had been staring at her sourly as she held Jared in the banquet hall to meet some of the bigwigs.

She knew that they were both her love interests and both liked Jared.

But probably also know that they can not get Jared, so in addition to like, but also really will not take a shot at Jared, but also not to her, the woman who got Jared to produce malice, at most is also a taste of jealousy.

For her, there are many women who like Jared, and as long as there is no malice towards her, they glare at her with jealousy, she doesn't care or get angry, after all, it's human nature.

She would be surprised if they weren't jealous of her.

But regardless of whether they have malicious intent towards her or not, they are considered her love rivals.

Since they are love rivals, someone hit on Jared at the party with the intention of prying her out in public, normally, in such a situation, they should look at her funny.

But on the contrary, they did not do so, and instead had the waiter come to tell her to hurry back to maintain her position as the main court.

I have to say, it's kinda cute.

Amber shook her head and smiled, and was soon back in the banquet hall.

But just as we entered the banquet hall, a woman came up to us.

The woman seems to be a little uncomfortable, walking with her head slightly down and covering her stomach, her pace is also a little fast, and then she doesn't see Amber in front of her, and directly collides with Amber.

Amber's shoulder was hit raw and she cried out in pain and stumbled backwards two steps.

But the good thing is that the wall is behind her, and after she took two steps back, her back hit the wall and her whole body stopped.

Otherwise, ironically, like the woman who hit her, nothing behind her, directly after retreating a few steps, he sat on his butt on the ground.

"Hey, you don't have eyes, how dare you hit me!" Amber rubbed her shoulder, and before she could say anything, the woman on the ground stood up and backtracked, blaming the fault on Amber first.

Amber rubbed her shoulders with a beat, and the whole group burst into laughter.

The person who was obviously hit was her, and she hasn't bothered the other person yet.

The other side then went after her, the victim, first.

It's also really funny.

"Hey, say you, you mute ah, still do not hurry to apologize to me?" The woman who stood up saw that Amber did not speak, and suddenly she was furious, pointing at Amber and scolding her head together.

Amber was angry and felt a little strange in her heart at the same time.

This voice, she seems to have heard it somewhere!

Amber immediately stopped rubbing her shoulders, put her hands down, and looked up at this woman who was backtracking.

The moment she saw the woman, the corners of her mouth twitched twice.

No wonder she thought the voice sounded familiar.

So it's really an acquaintance.

"I didn't expect it to be you, it's been a long time, Mendez," Amber looped her arms and looked at the woman across from her with wide eyes as if she had seen a ghost with a smirk.

Chapter 1266 Sincere Apology

Woman, that is, Chloe Mendez, now standing across the room, the whole person is greatly alarmed, pointing at Amber's hand can not help but tremble, the eyes are written full of Amber's horror and fear, "How How is it you?"

Amber saw her afraid of herself like this, very satisfied with her reaction, red lips hooked up the arc, more and more thick, "How can't it be me? This is your place, I can't come?"

"....." Chloe was blocked from speaking by Amber's words, and her heart regretted a lot.

Had I known that I would meet this woman here today, she would not have come to this party to find any marriage partner.

To her, this woman is simply a devilishly terrifying existence.

Get her into the detention center for half a month not to mention, even Makenna kind of ruthless character, can be completely beaten down, and finally forced Makenna jumped to her death.

Not only that, but Gigi Gao, who was born in the powerful family of South Riverside, has also ended up in a divorce by the Lehman family and expelled by the Garland family.

If she takes on this woman, and then falls into the hands of this woman, it is estimated that the end will be even worse.

So in the past few months, she was afraid that this woman would suddenly remember that she was Makenna's follower and help Makenna bully her several times to retaliate against her, she has been living with her tail between her legs, even the door of her house almost did not dare to step out, for fear that a careless, bumped into this woman in front of, will never go away.

So she hid, hid a few months, and did not see Amber out to retaliate against herself, looking for their own trouble, her heart's apprehension and fear only gradually put down, only finally had the courage to go out of the house, think probably Amber will not find their own trouble.

However, I did not expect that I would go out for the first time in the past few months to attend a banquet to find a marriage partner to help the Mendara family, but instead of finding a marriage partner, I met this living hell.

The most important thing is that one also scolded this living hell.

This king of hell is not going to kill her later, right?

She looked at the expression on the face of this living hell, it seems to have this possibility

The more you think about it, the more scared you are, the Mendara family's face is white by several degrees, looking at Amber are worried that she is not going to be directly sick in the future.

The white is quite frightening.

"You" Amber's red lips twitched and she was about to open her mouth to say something.

Chloe as if stimulated, and quickly bowed to Amber again and again, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Miss Reed really sorry, I just did not mean to hit you, I just stomach pain is too uncomfortable to go to the toilet, so I walked a little faster, and did not care to look at the people in front, which hit you, you do not remember the small man, forgive me Please forgive me this time, please Miss Reed."

Her apology, not to mention how pathetic and sincere it was.

Amber could also see that she did sincerely apologize, and was not putting on a show.

So she will be like this, to also call people really bad to seize not to let go.

Rubbed his temples, Amber eyes flashed a trace of regret, "you just said I did not grow eyes bumped you, let me apologize to you, how now suddenly all of a sudden changed his mouth, said it was your own fault? You are becoming too fast, let me quite afraid ah."

Amber teased her on purpose.

Chloe's face became even paler, and she couldn't bear to slap herself twice.

Call yourself a fast talker!

And without looking at who the other person is first.

If she had seen who the other party was first, she would not have dared to be so arrogant.

So much so that they are now caught in the crossfire.

Chloe raised her head, revealing a face is as if to cry smile, "Miss Reed, I know wrong, I just did not want to, it is too hard, but also with people bumped, my heart is more irritable, so it"

"So it's okay to take a backhanded shot? So it's okay to heckle people and spill your fire on them regardless of everything?" Amber's face froze.

Chloe lowered her head, "I know I'm wrong, I won't do it again, please Miss Reed, leave me alone"

She begged pitifully, completely without the fox-like, arrogant look she had when she first met, when she was still with Makenna.

In short, the current Chloe, and the past that Chloe, simply like two people.

Of course, she was referring to Chloe's attitude when she was confronted with her, not with anyone else.

In the face of others, I guess it's still the same as before.

"You're quite a surprise to me now." Amber's hand on the arm lightly nodded a few times, smiled and said: "Especially now you seem to be very afraid of me, you know in the past, you are not like this, in addition to dare to shout with me, digging a hole for me, but also dare to hire people in the middle of the night with horrible lights to shine my floor windows, although I was finally thrown into detention for half a month, but all of these show that You Chloe is a very annoying me, and also not used to see I want to rectify my bold person, how now on the contrary is so afraid of me? And also repeatedly pleaded with me, do not care about this time hit me, hope I let you go, you this change, really is not ordinary ah."

Chloe knew that Amber was deliberately mocking herself by saying this, and although she was angry, she was more helpless and compromised with reality.

She took a breath, a bitter smile on her face, "Miss Reed jokes, after being beaten by reality, if I do not change, how to die do not know, the Mendara family in Olkmore was originally a general family, is dependent on the Gardner family to be able to stand in Olkmore, so I must go to hold Makenna, with Makenna's friendship, to maintain the relationship between the two families, natural Makenna dislike, hate, I also have to follow the dislike and hate, Miss Reed, I admit that in the past to you did a lot of bad things, here I apologize to you."

With that, Chloe bowed deeply towards Amber again.

But this time, she stood up only after a long time, and then said: "In addition to my own ideas in doing these things, but more, or listen to Makenna's instructions, at that time Makenna and Mr. Farrell are still together, the Gardner family also has the The Gardner family also has the Farrell Family backing, naturally it is the same as I the Mendara family also has the Farrell Family this backer, there is a backer of me, naturally nothing afraid, dare to oppose you, but now is not the same."

Chloe rubbed her face, "Makenna and Mr. Farrell broke off, the Gardner family and the Farrell Family naturally will no longer have a relationship, and Makenna also died, the Gardner family themselves are unable to take care of themselves, where Without the shelter of the Mendara family business is in decline, if not for foreign debts, would have gone bankrupt, but even if this continues, the Mendara family will not last long, so as a no backer no background, how dare I offend you, still dare in front of you In front of you, not to mention, now behind you there is Mr. Farrell"

"According to you, the Mendara family's situation is indeed a bit miserable, so the entire banquet hall, you should not be able to afford to offend ah, then you just so arrogant, not even a clear look at the person, you dare to heckle each other first?" Amber sneered.

the Mendara family mouth opened, unable to speak, face blue and red, embarrassed, humiliated, and even some afterthought.

Amber's words did make her react to the people at this party, except Amber, any of whom she could not afford to offend.

Then her arrogance just now is really an extremely foolish approach, not to mention finding a marriage partner, and will probably bring even more trouble to the family.

Thinking about it, Chloe panicked once again.

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1267 Chloe brings news

With that bad attitude you just had, bumping into others, they don't necessarily let themselves and their family off the hook.

What about the woman who pushed both Makenna and Gigi down?

Chloe's heart was beating so hard it was about to fly out of her throat, panicked and scared, "Miss Reed"

Chloe was about to plead for mercy again, Amber raised her hand to interrupt her, "All right, read the past against me, but only verbally, except for the horror lamp that time, you did not cause me any harm, and the horror lamp that time, I also retaliated back, so I do not bother to clean you up, not to mention that the current you, also nothing worth my clean up, "the pain of beating the dog, except for the kind of extremely vicious and vicious fallen dog, like you, I do not have so much time to waste with you. The pain of beating the dog, except for the kind of extremely vicious and vicious dog, like you, I do not have so much effort to waste time with you."

Although unhappy that Amber referred to herself as a dog, it still made Chloe very happy that Amber was not going to pursue the meaning of the moment.

"Miss Reed, are you really letting me go?" Chloe asked excitedly, clenching her fists.

Amber lifted her chin, "Didn't I say, unless it's a vicious downward dog, you're like that, I'm not big on taking care of it at all, are you a vicious downward dog?"

Chloe shook her head like a rattle, "Miss Reed you also know very well, I followed the Makenna side, except for that time, other than really did not do anything to you, only verbally to find you trouble, Makenna no longer, I also never appeared in front of you, in your eyes, so I am really not a vicious fallen water Falling Dogs"

The last three words, Chloe's eyes closed, to endure the shame of saying it.

Amber adjusted her eyebrows, "Since it's not, why don't you go? Or do you want me to"

"I don't want to!" Chloe hurriedly shook her head, then smiled sarcastically, "I'm leaving, I'm leaving."

After saying that, turn around quickly to leave.

But in the moment of turning around, suddenly thought of something else and turned back.

Amber saw this, her nice almond eyes narrowed, "What? Do you really want to be cleaned up by me?"

"No, no, no." Chloe waved her hands back and forth.

Amber frowned, "So what are you doing here?"

Chloe first looked around, then bit her lower lip again and asked in a lowered voice, "Miss Reed, the Do you still hate Makenna?"

Amber narrowed her eyes, "Oh? What do you want with that question?"

Chloe clenched her fist, "I mean, even though Makenna is dead now, you haven't forgotten what she did to you, have you? Do you still hate her? Or rather, do you still want to get back at her?"

Amber didn't know what she meant by suddenly asking these questions, her eyes flashed and she said in a light voice: "A dead person, how can I hate again? I can't bring her back to life to take revenge, can I?"

Hearing Amber's answer, Chloe had a plan in her heart, took a deep breath and seemed to gather courage as she looked at Amber and said, "Miss Reed, since you still hate her and want to get back at her, it's OK, I'll tell you a secret."

She stepped forward.

Amber's heart sank, and a guess came to mind.

But on the surface, she did not move and asked, "What is the secret?"

Chloe stopped in front of her, slightly half-covering her lips, and whispered, "Miss Reed, I suspect that Makenna is not dead and that the body is a fake."

Amber's pupils flinched.

The heart said really.

Just now Chloe suddenly asked about this, and said she wanted to tell her a secret.

The first thing on her mind was that Chloe wasn't going to tell her the secret that Makenna wasn't dead, was she?

The result was confirmed straight away in the next second.

Of course, it's not the secret that surprises Amber; after all, she knew from the beginning that Makenna wasn't dead.

She was surprised that this was something that very few people knew about, so how could Chloe know about it?

And by the way Chloe looks, she seems not just aware, but certain that Makenna is still alive.

This makes one curious.

Amber has the intention to set up a conversation, so she doesn't intend to let Chloe know that she already knows that Makenna isn't dead right from the start.

Otherwise, Chloe knows something that she probably wouldn't have said.

Thinking about this, Amber's face knocked a shocked expression to the right place.

Although the acting is average, but get to fool Chloe has been enough.

After all, Chloe herself is not a person who can tell whether the acting is good or bad.

She only think Amber's shock is really shocked, so this time see Amber full of surprise, the heart is still a little smug, think they brought the news, shocked the other side, so the face, can not help but show a self-satisfied expression to.

See, thanks to this woman is still with Mr. Farrell, actually do not even know this.

Chloe thought so smugly in her heart.

Probably she showed it too obviously, so much so that what was in her heart was written on her face, looking at Amber couldn't help but roll her eyes.

Of course, Chloe didn't find out that's all, smiling happily at Amber, "Miss Reed, how about that? This secret is surprising, isn't it?"

Amber nodded, "indeed very surprised, but it should be false, Makenna jumped to her death to make the whole country know, and that night, I also personally went to see her body, how can it not be her."

"It really wasn't." Chloe waved her hand, "Miss Reed, the body you saw, I don't suppose you could see the face?"

Amber nodded again, "Yeah."

"That's not it." Chloe a clap, "Although I was not at the scene to see, but I inquired about the details of Makenna jumping, said that Makenna jumped, is back to the outside to fall backwards, since it is back to the, then fall down, should also be the front face up ah, how can the face broken, this is simply not scientific. "

Amber rubbed her chin and followed her words back, "In that case, it's a little out of the ordinary."

"More than ah." Chloe said: "Makenna suicide case, the case is also closed very quickly, even if it is a real suicide, but also not so fast to close the case, it is not a hasty matter? And obviously also give people a kind of this there is a problem, but do not want people to know, so the case is closed as soon as possible, sealing the file to break the trail, do not let people continue to investigate the meaning."

Amber looked at her in surprise, as if to say, I didn't expect you to be so smart at times.

Of course, this point, Chloe still did not pay attention, and said: "And I heard that Makenna suicide, and Gigi Garland can not be unrelated, Gigi went to see Makenna, after Makenna committed suicide, so Gigi also involved in the Makenna suicide case, and Gigi was the one who found the body of the woman who pretended to be Makenna's body."

Amber's eyes flashed, "This matter, how do you know so well?"

As Chloe said, Makenna did not die, Makenna escaped fraudulent death, and it was indeed Gigi who helped behind the scenes.

After they found out that Makenna didn't die and ran away, they naturally caught Gigi.

Gigi also gave a truthful account of everything, except that she didn't know where Makenna had gone.

This became the biggest regret.

"Gigi's the one who told me." Chloe said back.

Amber had a few question marks on her head, "Gigi told you that?"

"Hmm."

"Isn't she in jail?" Amber wrinkled her nose, "What did she tell you."

Although the official read the Garland family in the past to the country's credit, did not open to the public what Gigi was in for, but Gigi in prison, but everyone knows.

It's still in jail.

Chapter 1268 - Poor Woman

Since she is still in jail, it is somewhat suspicious that Chloe knows this.

"You went to see Gigi in prison?" guessed Amber, narrowing her eyes as she gazed at Chloe.

Chloe shook her head repeatedly, "No, I have not gone out these months, did not go to see her in prison, and my relationship with her is not even a friend, she also thinks that my family is low, simply do not care to befriend me, so I do not bother to see her, I was a few days ago when buying a dress, I happened to meet her."

"Wait, you said you ran into her by chance?" Amber's face changed slightly, "She's not in jail?"

Chloe nodded, "She's out of jail."

"How can that be!" Amber obviously had some disbelief in this fact, her eyebrows knitted tightly, "She was sentenced for some years, how could she get out of prison."

"But, what I said is true." Chloe timidly looked at her, "I saw her that day, also very surprised how she was outside, after all, she was in prison, although the outside world does not know, but in our circle, is open and transparent, so that day to see her, I also asked how she was outside, she did not tell me, just asked me if Makenna had looked for me, I was a whole person were I was so confused, Makenna is dead, how can she find me? I thought so I also so back to her, and then she told me that Makenna did not die this shocking news, and she also said that the reason why Makenna did not die, but also because she helped from it."

Speaking of which, Chloe pays attention to Amber's changing expression.

See Amber's face sullen, can not guess what she is thinking at the moment, change and then said: "Gigi told me that Makenna in the psychiatric hospital out of prison when asked to see her, and also used Nathan Lehman as an excuse, Miss Reed you should also know, Gigi is a love brain, do not look at her usually despise anyone, but is Nathan's actual lapdog, Nathan does not like her, determined to divorce her, but the Garland family is not easy to mess with, Gigi has the Garland family backing, as long as she does not ask. But Nathan doesn't like her and is determined to divorce her, but the Garland family is not to be messed with, Gigi has the backing of the Garland family, and as long as she doesn't ask, Nathan has no way to divorce."

Amber nodded noncommittally, "I know."

Gigi and Nathan's marriage is one of the jokes of the circle after tea.

Of course, she and Jared are too.

So, she hasn't heard much gossip about Gigi and Nathan's dogged marital status.

"So all these years, Nathan is separated from Gigi, even if Nathan found a lot of women outside to force Gigi to divorce, Gigi are a heart pounding on him, death refused to agree to leave off, until" Chloe sneakily glanced at Amber, the voice is also a lot smaller, "until a few months ago that time, Gigi meddling in the political affairs of other cities, you caught the handle, and the Cohen family together let the Garland family planted a heel, the Garland family most when the political The Garland family has been investigated, although not completely fallen, but now the Garland family is far less than the Garland family before, so Nathan caught this opportunity to threaten Gigi divorce, but even after the divorce, Gigi still not dead to Nathan, bent on divorce, and then it was Makenna divorced."

"Makenna used Nathan to get Gigi to meet her at the mental hospital." Amber said.

Chloe hurriedly nodded, "Yes, Gigi herself said, Makenna said she had some evidence of Nathan's violation of the law and discipline in her hands, and asked Gigi to meet her, and said straight away that as long as Gigi helped her to fraudulently die, she would give the evidence to Gigi, and Gigi could use the evidence to threaten Nathan to remarry. "

"Amber's eyes flickered a few times, and her red lips were tightly pursed.

It turns out that in this, there is such a hidden agenda.

When they first discovered that the body was not Makenna's, they found out that Gigi had helped Makenna to fake her death and arrested Gigi immediately.

According to Gigi's own account, it was indeed Makenna who threatened her to do it, but exactly what kind of threat was used is unknown, Gigi kept her mouth shut.

Now I know that it is actually so, and understand why Gigi does not talk about it.

Nathan illegal evidence ah, say it, is not to get your beloved one also into it?

Gigi loves Nathan so much, so naturally she won't do that.

"Gigi believed Makenna's words, agreed on the spot to help Makenna fraudulent death, Makenna let Gigi to pick a woman of her age and figure are similar to her to replace her staged suicide jump, Gigi spent four or five days to find in another mental hospital, and then get out, Makenna The woman was not as beautiful as before, but the Garland family did not completely fall, she still has a little power, naturally can do to mix the other people in the psychiatric hospital and take Makenna away, of course, the most important point is to monitor Makenna. The most important point is that one of the police officers watching Makenna, who is Gigi's admirer, can buy time for Gigi and Makenna, so that they will not be discovered by the police at once."

Amber was not surprised that Chloe said this, she was aware of it.

Gigi fell into the net, the police officers who helped her naturally can not be hidden, was arched out, not only lost such a sacred profession, and also ended up disgracing the family, their own jail sentence.

From a police officer, reduced to a criminal, just for a relationship without any possibility, is it really worth it?

Of course, Amber does not pity the police officer, an adult, to be responsible for all the things they do.

As a police officer, she thought he could not not know what the consequences of doing so, but still did it, which means what?

It means that in his heart, this career, is simply not as important as helping Gigi.

In that case, there is even less need for pity.

What she really pitied was the woman who died for Makenna.

That woman is a psychopath, no normal human cognition, I'm afraid do not even know how they really died, foolishly brought out by Gigi, and then died for Makenna's plan.

Although a psychopath, but also has the right to live, and Makenna and Gigi two people, but because of selfish desire, let an innocent life ended.

These two women are simply vicious to the point of outrage.

The most ridiculous thing is that Gigi is still out of jail and out of prison!

"Miss Reed?" seeing Amber's ugly face, Chloe's heart is also guilty of fear.

What's going on, what's wrong with her?

Amber squeezed the palm of her hand, and took several deep breaths before she could barely suppress the pounding anger in her heart, and asked in a cold voice, "Does the family know about the one Gigi brought out?"

Chloe knew who she was asking about, and a touch of mockery appeared on her face, "How do you not know? Of course I know, otherwise even if Gigi is more powerful and brings people out, her family won't make a scene? I know what Miss Reed you want to ask, I also asked this question, Gigi also very quick to tell me, she said she spent a million to the woman's family, the woman's family at first still have feelings for the woman, after all, is a relative well, but Miss Reed you know there is a saying called long sick bed without filial son, the woman crazy for many years, her family also from the beginning of the sad gradually became disgusted At the beginning of the sad gradually become bored, to the end"

Chapter 1269 Chloe's purpose

"How was it at the end?" Amber asked, frowning.

Chloe shook her head back: "In the end, all hate to get this woman dead, for them, the woman alive means burning money, means they can never live a normal life, to be always for this woman's various medical expenses non-stop in the end toiling around, so again in this case, the feelings naturally also gradually disappeared, they just want to quickly Get rid of this burden, just this time Gigi and Makenna's appearance, it means to help them solve the urgent needs, not only to solve the urgent needs, but also to earn a sum of money for nothing."

Having said that, even though Chloe herself doesn't feel like a good person, what that woman has suffered makes her feel sick inside.

That's why the tone of voice when mentioning the woman's family is disgusted.

"I'm afraid that for the woman's family, the woman has dragged them down for so long that it's only right for the woman to make them a million dollars."

Amber sucked in a breath of cold air and her whole body felt creepy, "How can there be such terrible people, are they still her relatives?"

"There's no such thing as family, the devil is more like it." Chloe returned.

Amber closed her eyes, "Don't they know that by giving their loved ones to Gigi and the girls, they risk dying?"

"know ah, Miss Reed I just said it, the woman for them is no longer a relative, is a hot potato, is a burden, is a burden, is pulling down their lives, is the culprit to keep them in debt, they from the beginning of the willingness to heal the woman, to hate to get rid of the woman, never a short time caused, is a long time years, they long ago wanted the woman dead, just in the end the woman and they have a blood relationship, only dare not do it, but also afraid to carry the legal responsibility, now Gigi they spend a million to buy off the woman's future, they can not be too happy, of course they know Gigi they buy away the woman may want the woman's life, but so what."

Chloe spread her hands, "They already wanted the woman dead, and now they have someone to help them out, and they can't carry the legal responsibility, and they can still make a million dollars, they can't be happy."

"What a bunch of devils." Amber took a long time before she gritted her teeth and made such a comment.

The hardships of life, she admits, can turn people into demons.

But it was the first time she had met all her family members who had turned into demons.

Even Chloe has nothing to say at this point.

It wasn't until Amber was in a better mood and asked her some questions again that she eased up.

"Gigi, why would she tell you this, you basically have nothing to do with her, why would she tell you these things, in such detail?" Amber's gaze tightened on Chloe.

That's what she wants to know most.

To know all this, it can be used as incriminating evidence.

As long as Chloe recorded it to report Gigi, Gigi definitely can not escape.

She couldn't believe Gigi didn't know this.

Gigi definitely knew, but told Chloe anyway, what was the purpose?

"I don't know." Chloe shook her head blankly, "I just met her by chance that day, she asked if I had seen Makenna, and then told me all this, I guess she thought I was very close to Makenna, after Makenna came out, she would definitely come to me, so she asked me this, or maybe she wanted to talk to someone, and then she told me all this I said, I was really shocked to see her that day, I almost couldn't recognize her."

Amber could see that the confusion on Chloe's face was not feigned, she really didn't know what Gigi's purpose was in telling her this, and was a little disappointed.

"Oh? How did that scare you?" Amber asked.

Chloe looked horrified, "Gigi now, with the previous Gigi is completely two people, if she did not take the initiative to call me, I really can not believe that it is actually her, the previous she is not high fashion not wear, walking everywhere is the nostrils look at people, arrogant unbeatable, but let people incomparable envy, after all, not all famous girl can live to her so wanton However, now she wears a brand of clothes, looks a bit old, hair is also a mess, look at people is not as proud and complacent as before not put anyone in the eyes, but the eyes dodge, the whole person cowering, sometimes, also talk to themselves and say two words of nonsense, the whole person is not a normal mental appearance. "

Hearing her say that, Amber's mind instantly conjured up the image of a very downtrodden and mentally unstable woman.

No wonder Chloe was stunned, that is, she, if she saw such Gigi, would also be stunned.

But it seems understandable why Gigi would be like that.

The Garland family has fallen completely because of her help in Makenna's fraudulent death.

Without the aura of family history, and without the Lehman family daughter-in-law status, the golden girl became the most despised ordinary people in the past, this difference, how can not let the proud Gigi collapse.

Chloe did not know what Amber was thinking, sighed and added: "I also asked her why she was looking for Makenna, Gigi said Makenna lied to her, Gigi had no evidence of Nathan breaking the law and discipline in her hands, she said that, just to make Gigi fall for it."

"I have already guessed this." Amber sneered. Amber sneered, "the Lehman family is not as good as the Garland family, but it is also a powerful family, Makenna is just the daughter of a rich family, she can get Nathan's evidence of breaking the law? It's Gigi's own stupidity. She was so focused on Nathan that she didn't see the point and deserved to be fooled."

Chloe nodded, "I think so too, now that Nathan has a new fiancée, Gigi feels she can't remarry Nathan, it's Makenna that's holding her back, if she doesn't help Makenna she'll have more time to pester Nathan and maybe Nathan will end her again, There is no such thing as a new fiancée, so Gigi hates Makenna and is now hell-bent on finding Makenna to settle scores."

"What about you?" Amber looked at her with a leathery smile, "You suddenly asked me if I knew Makenna was still alive and then told me so much, you can't just be talking for fun, you should have your own agenda too, right?"

The expression on Chloe's face froze, then she met Amber's cold eyes and knew she couldn't hide it anymore, so she had to compromise, "Miss Reed, you're still smart, yes, I have an agenda, but I assure you, I don't mean any harm, I just want to know if you still hate Makenna, if you still do, I If you still hate Makenna, if I tell you this, you will definitely go to Makenna, with your and Mr. Farrell's power, you will definitely find Makenna faster than Gigi, I just hope that you will quickly make Makenna pay a painful price, so that I also feel that I am avenged."

"Revenge?" Amber laughed, "Weren't you Makenna's friend before, what, you still want revenge on Makenna?"

"What friend, but just her lapdog, although with her side is quite scenic, but no one knows, how she treats me in private."

Said Chloe bit her lower lip, and finally seemed to have made up her mind about something, slightly fished the skirt of her big puffy dress upwards, revealing a pair of legs full of ugly scars.

Seeing such a pair of legs, Amber's pupils vibrated, the whole person sucked in a breath of cold air, and her scalp was in trouble.

That is what kind of a pair of legs ah, revealing the place, almost no piece of good flesh, all the scars, some scars even have stitches, a strip, like a centipede coiled on it, look disgusting want to vomit.

Amber then couldn't help but avert her eyes and cover her lips, her face very ugly.

Chapter 1270 Makenna out of the clues

Chloe knew that she was disgusted by her legs and wanted to throw up.

But then again, considering her mood, she resisted the urge to vomit with all her might, hence the reaction.

Chloe didn't think Amber's reaction was anything to get upset about.

Perhaps from the beginning, she really can't accept that when people see these legs of hers, reveal such a reaction, and after revealing them she will still be angry and will make a fuss.

But see more, she will gradually get used to it, and gradually can be treated with a normal mind.

After all, what can we do if we are angry again?

Can we still get these legs back as good as new?

So instead of caring about what other people's reactions will be when they see these legs, it's better to regulate your own mind.

"It's hard to see isn't it Miss Reed?" said Chloe breezily, lowering the hem of her skirt and covering those legs back up.

Amber took a few deep breaths, which gradually calmed the vibrating mind, eyes complex looked at her, slowly nodded, "is somewhat stunned, you this leg"

"Makenna did it." Chloe calmly told Amber, the culprit who put herself in this situation.

Amber hummed, "I guessed, you just said you hated Makenna and then showed me those legs, so naturally I guessed who did it, but what was the reason?"

"What else could it be? Jealousy." Chloe sneered, "This is many years ago, about seven or eight years ago, once I accompanied Makenna to the mall, Makenna fancy D's a classic model of small black dress, the dress belongs to the short hip dress, but also extremely slim, very high requirements for the body, but if the body is a little worse, after wearing is a car accident The site, but Makenna and extremely like the skirt, had to try on, but the guide said her legs are a little short, but also more fleshy, not quite suitable, and then said that the lady next to you, that is, my legs are very good, very suitable for this skirt, because the guide this sentence, Makenna on the spot hated me, although at the time did not do anything, but back, she used a pot of boiling water, directly on my legs. poured it directly on my legs."

Speaking of which, Chloe's eyes are scarlet, and her eyes are full of hatred for Makenna.

Amber can imagine how painful it is to have a pot of boiling water poured over your body alive, so for Chloe, it's quite sympathetic.

But it's limited to sympathy.

"Miss Reed do you know? I was almost scalded alive by her, if not a maid came out in time, Makenna put on the charge of murder, I'm sure she would never have helped me call an ambulance, and wanted me to be scalded alive, because when I was scalded rolling all over the floor, she was standing next to me with a quick smile on her face, not feeling any panic or guilt for her actions, so I knew that she just That day, I was sent directly to the resuscitation room, and then stayed in the ICU for a month before being discharged, and then after being discharged, Makenna came crying in front of me falsely, saying that she didn't mean to do it, but her hand slipped, and asked me to forgive her, hehe, how funny!"

Chloe gritted her teeth, "How could her hand slip on such a big water bottle? If her hand had slipped, she should have called an ambulance for me and tried to ease my pain in the first place, why would she stand by and laugh? However, even if I knew she was deliberately trying to kill me, I couldn't tell anyone, I could only convince myself that she really didn't mean it, because I knew that my family needed the Gardner family's help, and my parents could take advantage of this incident to ask for favors from the Gardner family, because I was destined to sacrifice for the family anyway. Naturally can make the family get more benefits, forgive her is not impossible, but never thought, Makenna still refused to let me go!"

"The scars on your legs, although I only took a look, but also saw out of the scalding scars, there are scars of sharp cuts, those stitching scars are." Amber lightly open red lips faintly said.

Chloe nodded heavily, "Yes, just burns, no need for stitches, so these stitches on my leg scars, naturally, is the second time Makenna left me, I was discharged from the hospital not long after, Makenna's birthday arrived, I as her lapdog, naturally, is also an invited person, although I went to her birthday party, during the banquet, she as The birthday girl is to personally pour the champagne tower, she stood on the stool, at first she also rules to pour the wine, and then pour half, but she suddenly shouted, the body to the champagne tower there, although finally she was pulled in time, did not fall embarrassed, but her hand, but touched the champagne tower, I was on the opposite side of the champagne tower, more than ten layers of the champagne tower directly towards me "

"You can't run." Amber said with certainty.

Chloe bit her lip, "Yes, I was not recovered, but also in a wheelchair, the champagne tower fell down too fast, the legs are good may not be able to escape, let alone a wheelchair it? And then I was buried under the champagne tower, the glasses broke all over the place, these stitches on my legs are the scars caused by the debris, out of the legs, even my body also has several scars, which is why, I never wear naked dresses."

"Speaking of which, kinda thought so." Amber rubbed her chin.

She also did see Chloe several times, and indeed every time she saw Chloe dressed tightly.

But she never gave much thought to the reasons for this, after all, everyone dresses differently.

But now I realize that this is actually the reason.

"Of course, what to wear this is not important, the important thing is that I know that time Makenna also on purpose, she just want to completely destroy my legs, and she did succeed, I can't recover these legs even if I do surgery, so how can I not hate her!"

Chloe gripped the hem of her dress with a death grip, her face was extraordinarily twisted and hideous because of her monstrous hatred, "but because of her past identity, I could do nothing but bury these hatreds in my heart, but now it's different, she has become a dog that everyone shouts at, I can take revenge, only my forces have money, I can't find her, so I can only put my hope on others."

"This other person, that's me?" Amber raised her eyes.

Chloe nodded, "Yes, I'm sorry Miss Reed, I know I'm using you too, but I can't help it, the only people I can think of who can find Makenna are you and Mr. Farrell, so I especially hope you find her and kill her so that I can get my revenge too, and Miss Reed, I can also provide you with clues to some of the places Makenna has appeared in the past few months."

"What did you say?" Amber had been a little angry at the woman's asinine intentions, but hearing her say where Makenna had appeared forced her to take it seriously.

"Where you say Makenna has appeared these past few months?"

"Yes."

"Impossible!" Amber pursed her lips, "Didn't you say that Makenna hadn't even come to you, so how did you know that Makenna had been there?"

She looked skeptically at Chloe in front of her.

Chloe slapped her cheeks, temporarily put away the full of hatred for Makenna, and hurriedly returned: "Gigi said, Gigi is also hate to get Makenna people, during this period she has been looking for Makenna, although Gigi is now down, but the thin camel is bigger than a horse, she can still contact some of the past Some of them are very emotional, because of the previous relationship, to help her look for, and really found some clues."
