

LLPD Chapter 1281

Chapter 1281 Disobey your father

Jared still didn't turn around when he asked this.

But Norah just knew that this she, referring to herself.

Her legs subconsciously froze and she didn't dare to continue backing up.

Then the next second, she saw Jared take Amber's hand and turn around.

"Jared" Norah saw Jared turned around, and was going to try to raise a smile to greet him, but when she saw his expressionless face to himself, and the cold eyes without a trace of temperature when he stared at her, the words behind her, could no longer be said, blocked in her throat.

Jared, actually looking at her with the same eyes as a dead thing!

This is more than ignoring her, but also called her heart sad and afraid.

At least by ignoring her, it means Jared doesn't completely dislike her yet.

And looking at her like a dead thing shows that even if she were dead, Jared would not feel any emotion, or even, wish her dead.

"You choked Little Leaf!" asked Jared, speaking up again.

It's better to say it's a question than an affirmative statement.

Norah's mouth opened, subconsciously trying to lie, sophomoric not himself.

But Jared's sharp eyes fell on her as if they could see through people's hearts, making her feel like she had almost nowhere to hide and couldn't lie at all, so she could only stammer back, "I I didn't mean to do it, I just Just"

"What did you just do again?" Jared didn't care about her explanation, nor did he want to hear it.

He just needs to know that she did it and that's enough, is it intentional and what's important?

So he quickly, at once, interrupted her to ask another question.

Amber knew that Jared was ready to settle accounts with Norah for what had just happened, and her red lips ticked up as she quietly leaned into his arms and watched it all in silence.

Anyway, the man is going to stand up for her, so she'll just be a little woman in peace.

And not to mention, it feels really great to have someone stand up for you.

Especially when the other party is still the admirer of his man, it feels even better.

Amber glanced across at Norah and smiled pleasantly.

This smile, naturally, irritated Norah again, and in Norah's opinion, it was Amber's provocation of her.

If Jared wasn't here right now, she would want to go straight over and tear this woman's face off.

"Let me ask you, what did you just want to do?" Seeing that Norah was hesitant to speak, Jared repeated the question he had just asked, and in a much more aggressive tone.

Norah subconsciously shivered and looked timidly towards Jared, "I I"

She looked at the man in front of her.

The man is as handsome as ever, no different from when she left the country seven years ago.

The only difference is that seven years ago the man's face was always pale and haggard, with a sickly air, giving a sense of frail beauty in illness.

And now Jared, his face is not always pale and haggard to give a look of bad health, his complexion is still white, but obviously through the color of health, completely without the weak look of seven years ago.

Now Jared, not only is his health much better than seven years ago, even his personality is completely different.

Seven years ago, he had a gentle personality and a spring-like smile at all times, giving people a sense of a neighboring white schoolboy brother.

And now his character has completely changed, not in the gentle, spring-like smile on his face also disappeared, became expressionless, cold and indifferent, look at people's eyes, but also through the overwhelming aura, almost let people breathe.

It can be said that seven years ago Jared is gentle under with noble Maine, now Jared is completely domineering full cheetah, let people feel very dangerous.

How did Jared become like this?

Norah was a bit overwhelmed by the fact that Jared had changed so much.

Although she had long heard her grandfather say that the current Jared was different from the old Jared, she never took it for granted, thinking that even if a person would change, he would not change too much, and Jared would always be the same Jared she remembered.

But now after seven years, finally saw Jared again, although the other party is still as handsome as she remembers, but the feeling brought to her, but very strange, no familiar feeling, which makes her heart can not help but start to panic.

If Jared is strange, can she still get along with him in the same way as before?

Most importantly, what did she know about Jared's preferences in the past, and was it still useful?

Norah's heart was in turmoil, her teeth were about to break her lower lip, and all the grievances in her heart came up, so she couldn't stop the tears from flowing down.

"You're not Jared," Norah looked at Jared with tears streaming down her face, heartbroken, as if Jared was some kind of negative person who had failed her, her voice choked with sobs, "Jared wouldn't do this to me, wouldn't be so cold to me, wouldn't want to interrogate me like a prisoner. So you're definitely not my Jared, no."

This change of events stunned Amber, and the corners of her mouth could not help but twitch one after another.

What is the situation?

This woman suddenly cried, as if Jared was a negative person, acting Korean drama?

Not to mention Amber's heart is speechless to the extreme, Jared also felt baffled.

This woman is sick in the head, right?

Jared tightened his eyebrows and looked at Norah with disgust, "I asked you a question, what are you doing talking to me about this, Norah, did you just try to push someone?"

Norah see Jared face their own crying sad sad look, not only not the slightest touch of tension, nor the slightest desire to come to comfort coax their own meaning, face expression instantly cracked.

How did this happen?

How could Jared do this?

For a while, Norah was devastated.

Amber couldn't hold it in any longer and snorted out a laugh, "I'm so sorry Miss Jones, your Jared, doesn't seem to eat your bitch routine."

"You" Norah looked over menacingly.

Jared's eyes narrowed and he gathered Amber directly into his arms, finally covering Amber's eyes, "Don't look at the dirty things."

Such an ugly face will give you nightmares when you look at it.

Amber heard the deeper meaning of the man's words, her smile got even brighter and she nodded her head good-naturedly, "Okay, listen to you, I won't look."

Jared stroked her head, and then looked at Norah again with a gentle expression that still returned to indifference.

Norah also snapped out of her nostalgia.

Just now Jared to Amber that smile of tenderness, so she thought Jared changed back to the gentle Jared seven years ago it.

But the next second, Jared put away that indifference, only to make her realize that Jared hadn't changed back at all.

Or the current one, Jared, who is indifferent to her.

"Jared" Norah looked at Jared slyly.

Jared was indifferent, instead his eyes became more disgusted, "Norah, if I remember correctly, I am your grandfather's student, the same generation as your father, that is to say, I am your elder, you should call me uncle, what, you don't call me uncle, you are not convinced of your father, so you want to be your father's sister?"

"Pfft, hahahaha!" Amber broke once again, leaning into his arms and laughing extra cheerfully and loudly.

Being your father's sister?

Geez, how funny is that statement.

Chapter 1282 - What do you need a man for if you have a company

She always knew that underneath Jared's cold exterior, he had actually been hiding a poisonous heart.

But facing her, he was never the gentle, attentive and extraordinarily thoughtful good man, so she hardly ever heard of his poisonous side.

Now it's probably because this Norah is really too much for him to dislike, so he ignores her in and just starts to dislike people with poisonous words.

But do not say, see the man so dislike Norah, she really feel happy it.

Especially when she saw Norah's stiff-to-believe look, she just wanted to laugh.

Jared saw the woman in his arms laughing and trembling, a helpless and doting look emerged in his eyes.

His words, so funny?

But since she is laughing so happily, let her be.

Jared gently stroked Amber's head.

And across the room, Norah's entire being almost died of shame and anger.

Jared actually said that about her!

Says she wants to be her father's sister!

How could he use such humiliating words on her?

Norah looked at Jared sadly, her voice trembling, "Jared, how could you, say that about me?"

"Why not?" Jared resumed his expressionless look, "Didn't you ask for this? I was already in the same generation as your father, yet you call me brother, don't you just disobey your father and don't want to be your father's daughter, but your father's sister?"

Amber nodded her head repeatedly in agreement with this statement.

That said, she too was initially confused by the way Norah referred to Jared.

After all, Jared is the old Mr. Jones' disciple and Norah is the old Mr. Jones' granddaughter.

These two people, obviously uncle and nephew, but Norah but a brother, sound really call people feel incongruous.

But she only thought at the time that each called for the other, so she didn't think much of it.

But now that Jared's words were out, she realized that it wasn't a case of each calling their own, but rather Norah's wishful thinking and unilateral calling so.

Jared did not agree.

As for why Norah is called that, she probably knows that, although not a real uncle and nephew, Jared is also Norah's nominal uncle.

If Norah really opened her mouth and called her uncle, then the outside world would definitely point fingers when Norah and Jared were together in the future.

Norah probably didn't want to let kind of thing happen, that's why she didn't want to call Jared uncle, but called him brother instead.

At least in the secular aspect, brother and sister feelings, than uncle and nephew feelings to make people a little more acceptable.

Norah saw Jared vetoing his move to call him his brother together, and was not only sad, but also a little angry.

Jared did this, no doubt completely cut off the possibility of her calling him brother, so that she could only call him uncle.

And she didn't want to call him uncle.

Once she called herself that, what would the outside world think of her in the future?

In the future, when they are together, will the outside world say that she is shameless, even her own uncle to provoke?

Norah's face is red and white, very ugly, like a palette.

Jared didn't have time to dwell too much on her here, he was in a hurry to get back to medicating the nail marks on Amber's arm.

So next, Jared spoke in a more impatient tone, "Norah, I don't care what you just did, but I remember that just now, I will be counted in the things you did, together with the settlement, will never be so forgettable, now you immediately go back to the box, what is the matter, I will go over later to talk with your grandfather and grandson completely open If you don't want to, then don't blame me for not being polite and have someone throw you back."

Hearing Jared so ungracious accusation, Norah heart aggravated to the extreme, "Jared"

She was going to continue to call Jared that, but to Jared's emotionless eyes, her throat felt like a big invisible hand choked like, instantly swallowed the last word brother back, the voice hoarse change, "Uncle Farrell, how can you say so much to me, how can you to her! "

She pointed her finger at Amber, her eyes full of jealousy, "I admit, I just tried to do it to her, but I did it for you too, how can you turn towards her to deal with me? You're simply being incestuous."

Jared laughed, "You try to murder my lover and you say it's for my own good?" Norah, are you out of your mind?"

And you say he's not close?

He is clearly divided.

Is it hard to say that he has to help her and pretend not to see him strike against his lover, which is called affinity?

No, that's called a wolf's heart and a dog's lungs!

On pro, Little Leaf is the closest to him.

And sparse, she Norah are not worthy.

The two words "love", stimulated Norah, as if like a thorn, deep into the heart of Norah, eyes looking across the two men and women embracing each other, eyes written with disbelief.

Lovers?

Jared actually said himself that Amber was his lover?

Is it possible that Jared is really in love with Amber?

No, she doesn't believe it!

Norah bit down on her lower lip for a while before releasing it, but on her lips, she left several deep teeth marks that looked painful.

But neither Jared nor Amber cared enough about her to care about her.

Who cares about the haters.

"Six years ago, she threatened you to marry her, and now, six years later, she's threatening you to get back together with her, and threatening you to do that shameful thing with her at someone else's party, completely ignoring your wishes and thoughts, that's why I'm here, in order to help Jared get your handle back and get out of this woman's control. I've said all the good and bad things, but she won't listen, so I have no choice but to take the hard way, but Jared Uncle you not only do not help me, but also to stop me, but also blame me, do not understand me, but is bent on her, Uncle Farrell, I think the brain is broken person is you, we are a team, she is the enemy ah!"

Norah pointed at Amber to Jared a series of accusations, and finally anxiously kept stamping his foot, a look of hate.

Amber looked up, snickering at the man holding his own, "how to do Jared, it sounds like I'm so bad look oh, this Miss Norah good sense of justice look oh, and you are also pathetic look oh, actually be so threatened by me, feel like I am a villain, and you are the hostage imprisoned by the villain, that Miss Norah, is The Norah lady, is not afraid of the danger, is determined to save you decent, even if you misunderstood, by you hate also do not hesitate, determined to save you out, I listened to all moved, Jared you feel moved?"

Jared rubbed her hair with amusement, "Stop it."

Afterwards, he looked across at Norah, who looked like she had been severely hurt by him, and holding back the diaphragm in his heart, wrinkled his eyebrows and asked in a deep voice, "You said that Little Leaf and I got married, including the current reunion, because Little Leaf used my handle to threaten me?"

Norah nodded, "Yes, how else could you have married her?"

Amber also nodded along, "I testify, before you came, she also said the same thing to me, that I caught your handle and threatened you, if I had this ability, why threaten you to stay with me, directly threaten you to give me the Farrell Group, with the Farrell Group, I am the new female boss, why do I need a man? What do I need a man for?"

She says men are nothing compared to the Farrell Group.

Chapter 1283 Never Loved Her

This is by no means unreasonable, after all, men will betray, but the cause will not.

So anyone who is sober enough to know which is more important.

Jared also knows, but the heart is still upset, lifting Amber's chin eyes incomparable sultry look at her, "Want to be the female boss?"

Amber blinked.

Jared added, "Don't want me as a man?"

She blinked again, not daring to open her mouth to say a word.

I'm afraid that in case I accidentally subconsciously returned a yes, the dog man absolutely had to pack her.

However, this time Amber made a wrong move, even if she played dumb.

Jared eyes gloomy cold hum, "do not want me as a man, I tell you, do not even think about it, since you want it in the beginning, this life you will not want to get rid of me, just now I also remember the words, the night in the punishment you."

When he finished, he let go of her chin.

Amber rubbed his chin and was helpless in his heart.

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of your mouth.

Now the dog man has caught the excuse again.

But because the two were whispering, Norah across the street could not hear what they were saying, but seeing them intimately next to each other, her eyes, the jealousy was almost spewing out.

Especially the eyes that looked at Amber, as if they were going to shoot several sharp swords and pierce her viciously.

Jared just happened to see her looking at Amber again like this, and at that moment, he wanted to just break her neck.

"Jared No, Uncle Farrell, you" Norah felt the killing intent coming from Jared and shivered, meeting Jared's gaze with a cold sweat subconsciously.

Jared pushed Amber behind him, so that she was completely hidden behind him, using his own body to isolate Norah's unkind eyes, and then looked at Norah, his voice cold: "Norah, I'm here to make it clear to you, I have no leverage in Little Leaf's hands, and I'm not threatened by her. I married her because I love her, and I got back together with her because I love her, nothing else, so put away your ridiculous assumptions."

The phrase 'I love her' completely shattered the faltering insistence of Norah's heart.

She actually had this suspicion in her heart, but has not dared to believe it and could not accept it, so she could only keep using the reason that he was threatened by Amber to hypnotize herself and tell herself that her suspicion was false and not true.

Only then will her heart feel a little better.

But now, Jared has come right out and said that he and Amber are together, not under threat as she thought, but out of his heart, that he loves Amber and so is willing to marry her and get back together with her.

"I don't believe it!" Norah suddenly broke down and yelled, "It's not true, how could you possibly love her?"

She looked at Jared with teary eyes and a broken heart, reaching out and pointing her finger behind him, at the woman he was protecting.

"Jared, tell me, what you just said was all a lie, right? You don't love her, you married her and got back together with her because you were threatened by her, tell me, tell me!"

At this moment, she could not care less, directly changed back to the previous name, but also to go forward to grab Jared's hand to force the question, forcing all this is not true.

But Jared wouldn't give her that chance, wrinkling his brow in disgust and shielding Amber as she stepped back for fear of being tainted by Norah.

Norah was even more upset to see him shunning himself as if he were a piece of trash.

"It's true, I love her." Jared took Amber's hand, lowered his head and dropped a kiss on her fingertips, his voice gentle, "If I didn't love her, why would I marry her and get back together with her? On the basis of what you said about being threatened? Heh, ridiculous to the extreme!"

Jared put down Amber's hand and looked at Norah again when he turned back to that cold look, and the polarization of attitude was obvious.

"What kind of person am I, who can catch me in the act? Who can threaten me? Being in this position, it is true that many people have threatened me, but without exception, those people either fell into the dust or left far away never to return, none of them can successfully threaten me unless I voluntarily, so why do you think I Jared is a person who can yield to a small threat?"

"Because Because" Norah's mouth opened and closed, half unable to speak.

Jared narrowed his eyes, "Because you're just trying to find a reason for me to be with Little Leaf, just a reason for you to think that I don't love Little Leaf and that me being with Little Leaf isn't 10,000 feelings."

The shade was lifted and Norah just felt the back of her head shiver.

But soon, she got up again, "Yes, I do want to find a reason, but also can not deny that I am wrong for this reason, Jared you say you love Amber, that's why you married Amber, only to get back together with Amber, compound I will not say, after all, you have known for six years, maybe a little affection, but what about marriage? Married is there feelings? Six years ago, you do not know it, suddenly married is not because she forced it, can not be you love her at first sight, right? At that time, you were in love with Makenna!"

Norah stomped his foot.

Amber heard the name Makenna, first rolled her eyes, then went straight up and twisted the soft flesh of the man's waist.

The man grunted lightly, knowing that the little woman behind him was angry, and hurriedly grabbed her hand and squeezed it gently to show his appeasement.

At the same time, he looked at Norah's eyes, which were even more disgusted.

I blame this woman, which pot is not to mention which pot.

He doesn't love Makenna at all and has never loved Makenna.

He loved, all along, Little Leaf, only because of hypnosis, so that he thought Makenna was Little Leaf, while still unable to recognize the real Little Leaf, so that outsiders think that he only loved Makenna, instead of knowing who he really loved.

Today, although the truth has long been revealed, but for these things back then, they are silent, can not mention it will never mention.

Because they both know that these things, let them miss each other for six years, but also let Little Leaf in these six years suffered a lot of aggression and bullying.

Bringing it up will only remind Little Leaf of the unpleasantness of the past and the outrageous things he has done in the past six years after being hypnotized.

So they hardly ever mention that.

But now that Norah has mentioned it, doesn't it just hit them on the bottom line?

"I never loved Makenna," Jared said, holding Amber's hand and looking at Norah in a stern tone, "It was always Amber that I loved."

At this moment, he did not call Amber by her nickname, but directly by her first name.

On important occasions, important confessions, the first name comes more squarely than the second name, and can also be more indicative of the seriousness of the confessor.

Amber stood behind him and heard his words, and although she glared at him haughtily on the surface, her heart was indeed happy and sweet.

And Norah across the table was unhappy, not sweet in the slightest, only annoyed and disbelieving.

"What? Never loved Makenna?" Norah's eyes widened, "How is that possible! How can you not love Makenna? How can you not have loved Makenna when you and Makenna clearly seemed so good together a few years ago?"

Norah expressed complete disbelief.

Chapter 1284 - Liquidating together

After all, this is what she saw with her own eyes.

Seven years ago, she was the only female around him besides the Farrell Family grandmother and Shonna.

The first two are elders, only she has no relationship with him, but she can appear beside him, which is such a proud thing for her, those women in the circle who like Jared are envious of her, and she gets a great vanity because of it.

He has even boasted that he is the future wife of the Farrell Family and Jared's wife.

And the circle of ladies also acquiesced, so her status has been the highest among these ladies in the circle.

Until one day, a Makenna popped up next to him, shattering all her perceptions.

Jared personally brought Makenna to her and told her that this was the love of his life.

At that time, she only felt that the sky was falling, thinking how could it be possible?

She almost grew up with Jared, can not know if there is another woman around him?

Not to mention the absence of other women, not even a female mosquito, how this suddenly appeared a lover?

It's not like she didn't know Makenna, and she hadn't heard that Makenna knew Jared, either.

With the Gardner family's status, not to mention the opportunity to meet Jared, not even the opportunity to make friends with Jared, how suddenly became Jared's lover.

She thought there must be something wrong with it, it must not be true, yet the way Jared looked at Makenna at that time was so tender and affectionate, it was not an act that could be performed.

So she understood that Jared really liked Makenna, although the two never knew each other before, but maybe it was love at first sight?

Although she could not accept that kind of fact, but who let her can not fight Makenna that terrible woman, so she was not willing to accept, but also can only accept.

But now, Jared tells her that he never loved Makenna and that it was always Amber he loved.

What is going on in this?

Norah just felt like her brain was all over the place, all messed up.

But Jared did not want to explain for her to solve the confusion of the meaning, the voice without emotion said: "I and Makenna that is just an oops, never take it seriously, I love someone, from the beginning to the end is only Amber one."

While saying, while fondly stroking Amber's face, "As for the reason, this is our business, why should I tell you, you only need to know that I love only Amber on the line, so the so-called handle threat in your mouth is all nonsense, you boast that all the harm you do to Amber is for my good, in fact, in my case, you are simply hurting me The people, not for my good, but to meet your own personal desires, so Norah, do you think I will let you go?"

Norah's face was as white as a sheet of paper, without a trace of blood, and her legs could not help but stagger back a step with weakness, and her eyes were dazed as she read, "How could this happen How could this happen"

Jared really loves Amber and wants justice for her.

To do justice to Amber is to take her on.

She was the one who incited the internet to create a false rumor about Amber and smear Amber's reputation to get them to break up.

Jared loves Amber, naturally does not want to break up with Amber, so his own move, no doubt, is stepping on Jared's thunderbolt.

And now, his own preparation to push Amber was caught by Jared, angering Jared even more and making Jared even more annoyed with himself.

So Jared won't let her off the hook anymore.

The more you think about it, the more scared you are, Norah forehead cold sweat can not help but straight up, "Jared"

"Don't call me that, it disgusts me." Jared said in disgust.

Not only does it sound not make people feel cute, it only makes people feel bad.

Norah saw Jared's face full of disgust for himself and her heart was cold.

She didn't understand how this could happen.

She knows Jared doesn't love her, but she doesn't hate her either.

How come now, Jared has crossed right over to dislike and turned disgusted with her?

Jared is disgusted with himself, so can he really still get Jared's heart?

At this moment, Norah could not help but begin to doubt, heart also to take Jared, some less confident.

Soon, however, this doubt and lack of confidence was suppressed by her.

No, she can. She will get Jared's heart. She believes in herself, and she will succeed if she persists.

With this in mind, Norah quickly regained her composure and was about to say something after squeezing her palms when she heard the sudden sound of several footsteps behind her.

She subconsciously turned her head to look back and saw Ben coming with two bodyguards.

Seeing the two bodyguards, Norah realized what was going on, her face changed and she turned her head back in disbelief, "Jared, you actually had someone come to arrest me?"

"You ran out of the box and tried to hurt my lover, and you think I'm going to keep letting you out there?" Jared glanced at her coldly.

He did not directly break her neck, is already his great mercy.

God knows, he waited late in the rest area until Amber would come, a pang of worry in his heart, and then sought it out.

As it turns out, his fears were right, and he came over just in time to see Norah putting her sinful hands on Amber.

What would have happened to Amber if he hadn't stopped it in time and let Norah succeed in pushing her?

Disfigurement?

There is even the possibility of death on the spot.

But whatever the outcome, it was not what he wanted to see, and it was not acceptable to him.

It can be said that Norah's actions, which completely touched his bottom line, were also intentional murder, and he was even less likely to let Norah off the hook for her attempted murder.

"You should be glad that this is someone else's party, I don't want to make too much of a mess and disturb someone else's party, so I didn't do anything to you for now, otherwise I would have made you pay the price on the spot, take it down, bring it back to the box and keep it under strict supervision, and when the party is over, dispose of it together with those two families." Jared instructed Ben in a deep voice.

Ben nodded his head and greeted the two bodyguards as they came forward.

Norah could not care less about the bodyguards coming to arrest her at this moment, her mind was buzzing this time, she just felt a blank, it took her a while to find her voice, "Those two people Who are they?"

Is it hard to say that it's those two losers?

Looking at Norah's constantly flickering eyes, Amber's red lips hooked, "That's right, it's Miss Jones you're thinking of those two."

Norah's pupils contracted.

Really those two losers?

Those two losers got caught by Jared?

No wonder she had been sending messages to the two losers after she arrived at the hotel earlier, asking how they were doing with the damage, and the two losers hadn't been returning messages.

She initially thought that those two losers were so focused on dealing with men that they forgot to reply to her, but now she realized that it wasn't that they forgot, but that they had been caught, and from what Amber said, they already knew that those two losers were in contact with her.

Maybe, those two losers, have already confessed her?

If that were the case, he would face even worse wrath from Jared.

After all, now that he knows that Jared is with Amber not under duress but because of his feelings, then he will certainly not let her off the hook if he has someone to ruin their good thing.

Chapter 1285 - Asking for a teacher

Then add the other two things, and what would Jared do to her?

Norah's body subconsciously launched a shiver, only to feel the cold all over the body, heart and hate.

I hate those two losers, they are so useless, they were caught in one go.

Caught and even if, but actually she also accounted for, do they do not know bite the dead not to say?

The anger in Norah's eyes was overwhelming.

Just wait, when she recovers, she'll make those two losers pay too.

"Take it down." Jared waved his hand and ordered once more.

Norah was quickly grabbed by two bodyguards and taken away in the other direction.

She didn't open her mouth to plead for Jared to leave her alone.

She knew that it was useless to ask for permission.

She knows Jared very well, Jared is going to do something, no one can stop it, pleading is useless.

Pleading for mercy will only invite his greater impatience and anger.

So she might as well go down with it, since Jared won't dispose of her now anyway, but just have her re-routed back to the box first.

In the box, she could still have a good discussion with her grandfather about what to do next.

And so Norah was dutifully taken away.

Seeing her leave without a word or any resistance, Amber was shocked and couldn't help but ask Jared if this was true.

Although today was only her first meeting with Norah, she had pretty much gotten to know Norah as a person.

This person is a piece of dogskin, the kind that does not relent, not to mention the kind that will frankly compromise and resign to fate.

So Jared had Norah brought down. Norah shouldn't be so quiet.

Seeming to see what Amber was thinking, Jared rubbed her head, "the old Mr. Jones is in the box."

Once these words came out, Amber instantly understood, "I forgot about this, no wonder she didn't struggle, I guess she also wanted to go back to the box early and find the elders to discuss what to do next."

"Don't worry, I won't make it easy for them next." Jared looked in the direction Norah had left, his eyes gloomy and frightening.

Norah really crossed his line this time by attempting to harm Amber's life.

So, he's not Jared until he makes her pay.

"I believe you." Amber hummed.

Jared then pursed his thin lips and looked at her with displeasure.

Amber was looking at his body hairy, some ominous premonition, subconsciously shrunken neck, "What's wrong?"

"I told you before that I'd come to go to the bathroom with you and you didn't want to, and what happened? Bullied, right?" Jared's gaze fell on the nail marks on her arm.

Amber smiled a little sheepishly, "I didn't expect Norah to come looking for me either."

"But you just got hurt." Jared grabbed her arm with undisguised heartache in his eyes, "Not even just hurt, almost murdered by her, if I hadn't gotten there in time."

Amber was speechless at this comment.

Indeed, if the man hadn't arrived in time, she would have been on her way to the hospital instead of standing here properly.

Thinking of this, Amber bit her lower lip, and her heart couldn't help but feel a little scared.

"I didn't expect that she would be so bold as to suddenly try to lay such a hand on me." Amber's good-looking eyebrows wrinkled tightly.

Jared flicked her forehead, and this time he was a little heavy, and he directly flicked her forehead red.

Amber let out a painful ouch, covering her forehead and looking at the man with dissatisfaction, "Jared what are you doing?"

"To teach you a lesson, and to make you grow a memory." Jared pursed his lips and said in a light voice: "Let you know what it means to be defensive, especially if it is someone who has already hurt himself, then it is even more important not to may, and even more important not to expose your back unreservedly in front of the opposite side, otherwise you are asking for death, understand?"

Amber lowered her head knowing that she was at a disadvantage, "Understood."

This time, it was indeed her fault and she was thinking too simply.

She actually knew that Norah had ill intentions towards her, but thought that since this was a hotel, Norah shouldn't be so bold, so she didn't get too defensive.

But now she knows, a person bad up, does not care where this is, she will do it.

This time, she should have a long memory.

Seeing that Amber had taken her words to heart and was willing to take them to heart, Jared was satisfied to let her go and took her hand towards the lounge, "Come on, let's go take care of those nail marks on your arm and put some medicine on them."

Amber hummed and obediently let the man take her hand and walk.

On the other side, Norah was rudely pushed into the box by the security guard and almost fell down.

the old Mr. Jones is drinking tea, see her back, and was treated so, heartbroken, quickly put down the cup of tea to get up, will Norah help, "Norah."

"Grandpa." Norah aggrievedly took the old Mr. Jones' hand, "Grandpa, look how dare they do this to me!"

the old Mr. Jones gaze sorrowful glance at the two bodyguards, as well as the bodyguard beside Ben, "Do not worry, grandfather help you to seek justice."

He pats Norah's shoulder soothingly.

Outside the door, Ben couldn't help but roll his eyes when he heard this.

What about justice?

Who do you think you are?

Just thinking about it, I heard the old Mr. Jones turn the tables on himself and spoke up, "Ben, I'm afraid this is not a good idea, right? I know the Jones family now and Jared's relationship is a little delicate, but I and Jared's teacher-student relationship has not been lifted, no matter how you say, I am your boss's teacher, your husband even if you have a grudge against me in your heart, but also openly have to respect me, your boss have to do so, let alone you, so you now this attitude how? If Norah gets hurt, can you afford to pay for it?"

With the tone of a superior elder, he rebuked Ben.

Ben rolled his eyes again.

The old man used to like to use Mr. Farrell elder tone to make him, as if he was not an assistant, but a servant.

Seeing as Mr. Farrell does have enough respect for the old man, he tolerates it.

But that's all in the past.

Now Mr. Farrell is very clear to cut off all relations with the Jones family, and now Norah and hurt Miss Reed, Mr. Farrell will only be more disgusted with the Jones family, definitely will not be reconciled with the Jones family.

So now the old Mr. Jones head still with the old kind of attitude to order themselves, order themselves, questioning themselves, it seems a few ridiculous.

Do you really think he will still treat him with the same respect as before?

Dream on.

He has long looked at this old thing disagreeable.

Thinking of this, Ben skimmed at the old Mr. Jones, "the old Mr. Jones, what are you angry at me, so to your granddaughter, is our Mr. Farrell to give me the courage, you also know, I am Mr. Farrell's subordinate, our Mr. Farrell to Miss Jones what attitude, so the old Mr. Jones, you say I what use, as for the Miss Jones dropped or how, the old Mr. Jones will not worry about me. The old Mr. Jones, you say I have what use, as for the Miss Jones fell or how, the old Mr. Jones more do not worry, we Mr. Farrell rich, how will not be able to pay. "

Ben's words, the old Mr. Jones angry face red neck, covering the chest straight gasping, "you You"

"Grandpa." Norah saw the old Mr. Jones this way, also jumped, and hurried to hold the old Mr. Jones to help him smooth his breath, heart very afraid the old Mr. Jones really accident.

She didn't like her parents, but was very fond of her grandfather.

She also knows that she is able to be so comfortable because her grandfather is there, and once he dies, she will have nothing left.

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

Chapter 1286 Mr. Farrell's Adversary

Grandpa was the lynchpin of the Jones family, and neither he nor his father had the ability to manage the company.

The Jones family has been holding up until now because Grandpa is still alive, once Grandpa falls, the Jones family will also completely fall.

At that time, the Jones family will not have the identity and money.

How can she fight with Amber without anything?

How else can we get Jared back?

Even in the end, she didn't even have the chance to appear in front of Jared, so no matter what, nothing can happen to Grandpa.

"Grandpa." Norah was so anxious that tears were streaming down her face.

The old Mr. Jones leaned in her arms, two eyes rolled out, and kept gasping for air, a breath can not come up, at any time to go to the look, scared the two bodyguards hurriedly back, said the old Mr. Jones so, and they have nothing to do.

Ben couldn't help but look at them with contempt.

Compared to the two bodyguards are not calm, Ben is calm, even more calm, standing there without the slightest change in expression, so quietly looking at the old Mr. Jones, not a little eager to call a doctor for its meaning.

Simply because this scene, he has seen too many times and has long been accustomed to it.

He was even able to tell at a glance whether the old Mr. Jones was faking or really out of breath.

For example, at this moment, he was able to determine that this old thing is definitely pretending, or not, the situation is not as serious as it could be.

After all, this is all the old thing's specialty.

Many times in the past, this old thing came to Mr. Farrell, hoping to ask for some benefits from Mr. Farrell's hands, and once he sensed that Mr. Farrell was somewhat reluctant, he immediately so.

But as soon as Mr. Farrell agreed, the old thing got better immediately.

I believe that if Mr. Farrell is here at the moment, the reaction is the same as his, absolutely is also very calm.

When Ben was thinking about it, Norah suddenly shouted at him in an urgent tone, "Ben, what are you still doing there, can't you see my grandfather is in trouble? If anything happens to my grandfather, I'll make you suffer, and Jared won't let you off the hook."

Ben calmly pushed his glasses, "Miss Jones this is serious, not to mention that you have the ability to make me eat, just Mr. Farrell, will not have any punishment for my behavior, after all, the Jones family and we Mr. Farrell what relationship? Now who does not know that this time Mr. Farrell to really ah, will break off all relations with you the Jones family, so now we are waiting for it, just waiting for us Mr. Farrell released a statement, and to tell you the truth, the statement of our group public relations department has been prepared, just for the time being has not been sent out, but sent out, is sooner or later That is to say, you have nothing to do with Mr. Farrell, how the old Mr. Jones, also has nothing to do with Mr. Farrell, how do you think Mr. Farrell will punish me for my indifference?"

Norah's entire body was surprised at these words, "What do you mean, Jared has drawn up a statement to break off the relationship?"

Her voice was shrill and harsh because it was so shocking.

Even the old Mr. Jones, this time the body is not so bad, the original gasping for air does not win the breathing, this time also gradually smooth down.

Apparently it was also the result of Ben's words.

Ben's face was full of mockery when he saw the old Mr. Jones like this.

The old Mr. Jones also knew that Ben was mocking him for pretending to be sick, and his face was more or less overwhelmed.

But no more over it than Ben's words made him care.

"Is Jared really going to issue a severance statement?" the old Mr. Jones asked with trembling hands and an unmistakably gloomy voice.

Ben looped his arms, "Is that even true? Do I have to joke with you guys about something like this?"

That's really not the case.

So this thing, it is true!

The old Mr. Jones' mind went boom and just felt like it was going to explode, overwhelming him.

"Jared how dare he!" the old Mr. Jones excited old face are red, the body is trembling can not stop, "I am his teacher ah, is his toast to the benefactor ah, said his father is not too much, how he dares to break off with me, this is ungrateful, he is not afraid of heaven, not afraid of the world laughing poke him backbone? "

The old Mr. Jones said the matter was totally unacceptable.

He was also aware of the rumors circulating that Jared was going to break off the student-teacher relationship with him and cut off all contact with the Jones family.

Although these rumors filled his heart with apprehension, he also felt sure that it could not happen.

Jared is not the desperate type.

So, after Norah's affair has come to a head until now, he has absolutely no idea of actually asking Norah to apologize to that Amber, other than just pretending to ask his son to go to Amber to apologize.

In his opinion, that woman doesn't even deserve it!

His granddaughter's golden branch, where is that woman compared to that woman, that woman said something to let Norah, the party personally come to apologize, is simply a big face to the extreme.

And he doesn't think Jared really loves that woman so much that he's going to clear things up with the Jones family just because they didn't sincerely apologize to the woman.

So, instead of starting with that woman, it is better to go directly to Jared and say to Jared that this matter is just Norah's ignorance and will not be repeated in the future, I believe Jared is just a momentary anger, after hearing them say so, they will soon forgive them.

However, after so many days, Jared did not want to see them, and they could not contact him.

In order to reach Jared and to meet with Jared above, they also prepared to hold a return party for Norah, but the invitations were sent out but were returned.

Jared was clearly saying no to participate, which made them a little angry as well.

They felt that they went around trying to contact him and meet with him and were coaxing him, hoping that he would not be angry, but they did not expect that he would be so angry and would not even give a step.

Of course, angry, but more or less helpless, Jared did not agree to attend the party, they can only cancel the party to come to tonight's party, planning to come to the party to meet with Jared.

But now, they haven't even met Jared, and instead they've heard a teaser that Jared is about to release a statement cutting everything off with them, the Jones family.

The more he thought about it the more emotional the old Mr. Jones became, "Just for a woman, he did this to me as a teacher, he He"

At this moment the old Mr. Jones is really feel the breath began to go up.

Norah, who was supporting him, also looked at Ben with eyes full of anger and sadness.

Jared, who actually wanted to clear everything with them, the Jones family.

Does he know how much it hurts her when he does this?

Does he know what it means when he does that?

Means that the consequences are the same as if Grandpa had died!

She'll have nothing!

Ben didn't know what Norah was thinking, and didn't bother to pay attention to Norah, just looked at the old Mr. Jones with mockery in the end.

"the old Mr. Jones, you ah, don't be astonished, what do you mean for a woman? Is that a random woman? That is our Mr. Farrell's love, is the most important woman in addition to the old lady, Mr. Farrell how much he loves her, we all around us know, in order to get her back what price we also know, for Mr. Farrell, she is his scales, is no one can hurt the existence, but you choose to hurt Miss Reed, offended Mr. Farrell's scales, so it is deserved to end up like this."

Chapter 1287 - A Complete Break

The old Mr. Jones was in a state of shock.

Deserve?

How dare you say they deserved it!

Ben, as if he could not see the old Mr. Jones's anger, as well as want to knife their own eyes, hooked the corner of the mouth and said: "originally, you are not so far down, in fact, whether Mr. Farrell, or Miss Reed, have given you the Jones family a chance, after all, you The old man is Mr. Farrell's teacher, Mr.

Farrell look at this relationship, will not not give you a chance, and Miss Reed will also look at you have taught Mr. Farrell a part, give Mr. Farrell a face, give you a chance, but you do not cherish ah."

Ben helplessly spread his hands, "is the years Mr. Farrell to you the Jones family connivance, nurtured your appetite and ambition, also nurtured your arrogance and domineering, let you eyes on the top of the head, the unbeatable, think that no matter what you do, what trouble, Mr. Farrell will help you So this time when Norah made a mistake, not only did you not teach Miss Norah a lesson, you did not take the initiative to come forward to explain the truth of the matter, let alone take the initiative to apologize to Miss Reed, but instead you sent a loser to make things worse, so looking for death, no one can stop it!

He tsked twice, "originally, according to Mr. Farrell to Miss Reed's feelings and short-sightedness, as early as Mr. Farrell know that things are Miss Norah did the first time, will absolutely immediately dispose of Miss Norah and you the Jones family, for Miss Reed justice, but Mr. Farrell did not do so, is for the sake of teacher-student love, to give you the opportunity to apologize, the courtesy of the courtesy, as long as you handle it properly. But Mr. Farrell did not do so, is to see the teacher-student love, to give you the opportunity, let you should apologize for the apology, the gift of reparation, as long as you handle properly, teach Miss Jones a good lesson, tell Miss Jones not to be delusional, not to Miss Reed's heart, and then apologize to Amber, and strive for Miss Reed's forgiveness, maybe Mr. Farrell won't do anything to you the Jones family, but you don't want such an opportunity, so it's no one's fault."

These are words that Norah doesn't like to hear anymore.

What do you mean, let her not be infatuated with Amber and let her not have her heart set on her.

Is it wrong for her to love Jared and want to fight for the love of her life?

As for the misconceptions about Amber, this is even more nonsense.

She did that just out of competitive means, and she still doesn't feel she's at fault.

Norah lifted her chin high with a defiant look on her face.

Not to mention her, the old Mr. Jones was also very unconvinced.

"Who says we didn't apologize to that Amber, we"

"Is that an apology?" Ben directly interrupted him, "If you come to the door without any gifts, but also very arrogant attitude is also called an apology, then the world will not be so many conflicts, Miss Reed has also long forgiven you."

The old Mr. Jones was blocked from speaking by Ben's words.

Ben sneered and said: "In these few days, Mr. Farrell has not issued a statement with the Jones family to clear everything, which means that you have been given the opportunity, as long as you get Miss Reed's understanding in these few days, Mr. Farrell will cancel the idea of issuing a statement at any time. Miss Reed also knows Mr. Farrell's idea, so it has not forced Jared to release a statement, Miss Reed I just said, Miss Reed for the sake of Mr. Farrell, also has been giving you the opportunity, otherwise Miss Reed why not just let Mr. Farrell to release a statement from the beginning it? Miss Reed is not unable to do it. It's not that she can't do it, with Mr. Farrell's feelings for her, as long as she asked, Mr. Farrell has no reason not to agree, but you the Jones family eyes open the top of the head, look down on Miss Reed, have to be dead. "

He is not without seeing eyes Zhang head of the people, but these people, but most know what it means to protect themselves.

They do often get into trouble, provoke some people should not be provoked, but usually they know, will be the first time low do small, apologize for compensation, the attitude to more sincere have more sincere, in the hope that the other side to let themselves go.

However, the Jones family people like this, knowing that this time a big trouble, angered Mr. Farrell, also know Mr. Farrell ready to cut off all relations with the Jones family, do not want to return to step up remedy, in exchange for Mr. Farrell and Miss Reed's forgiveness, but also continue in Mr. Farrell and Miss Reed tolerance above. Farrell and Miss Reed's tolerance above the bounce.

It was really the first time he had seen such a stupid person.

"Speaking of which, there's something I forgot to mention." Ben looked at the old Mr. Jones who was having trouble breathing, his face smiled, "originally Mr. Farrell also did not intend to release a statement at the end of the party tonight, is that you guys are dead, once again stepped on Mr. Farrell's bottom line, so Mr. Farrell decided that no longer waste time to give you a chance After all, it's hard to persuade the dead to give more chances to those who want to die. You are so stupid to think that Mr. Farrell and Miss Reed are together, not because of feelings, but because Miss Reed caught Mr. Farrell's hand, threatened Mr. Farrell to stay together, and then let two lapdogs to break Mr. Farrell's lounge door. Farrell lounge door. "

Speaking of which, Ben's heart simply went out.

Never have I seen someone so up for death.

After listening to Ben's words, the old Mr. Jones' old face was red and white, very ugly, and his heart felt ugly too.

Of course, it wasn't what they did that he found embarrassing.

From the beginning to the end, he did not feel that what they did was wrong, he only felt that it was Jared who was bad.

Jared is his student and should just tolerate them unconditionally, no matter what they do, he shouldn't count.

What's more, they did this and all for her, didn't they?

They felt he was under duress, so they tried to find a way to save him.

The result is not expected, they are actually true love?

How is this possible!

The flesh on the old Mr. Jones' old face quivered with some reluctance to believe it, "Did you just say that Jared loves that woman?"

Ben rolled his eyes.

Come on, the old man didn't say a word about what they did tonight, only about Mr. Farrell and Miss Reed's relationship.

"That's right, otherwise why would Mr. Farrell be with Miss Reed." Ben said with a grimace.

the old Mr. Jones knew Ben wouldn't lie to himself, especially about this kind of thing, and there was nothing to lie about, for a moment, couldn't accept it, his mind was all buzzing, and his mouth muttered, "How could this happen, how could Jared fall in love with that woman?"

Ben blushed, "How come Mr. Farrell can't fall in love with Miss Reed."

That's a statement that simply gets people fired up.

The old Mr. Jones looked at his granddaughter, and the meaning in his eyes was clear.

He thinks his granddaughter is the best.

How Jared should have fallen in love with his granddaughter instead of that Amber.

That Amber, what's better than her own granddaughter.

Not to mention the old Mr. Jones thought so, Norah is also so honeyed confidence that it should be so.

But the truth is the exact opposite, which is why they are more accepting of not being able to.

This grandfather and grandson's mind is written in the face without any concealment, so that people want not to see it.

Ben heart mocked very much, the surface attitude also more cold, "originally, plus this matter, Mr. Farrell also only intend to announce the statement directly after the party tonight, but who let Miss Norah again trouble it, actually want to push Miss Reed, plotting Miss Reed's life, by Mr. Farrell caught The statement has now been released, everyone knows that Mr. Farrell and the Jones family have broken up, what will you the Jones family face next? Jones family will face, the old Mr. Jones, you should be able to guess it?"

Love Letters, Divorce Papers (Jared and Amber)

chapter 1288 the old Mr. Jones's anger

After dropping this depth charge, Ben gloated and glanced at the two grandparents who had suddenly changed their faces, he closed the door of the box with a smile and went out with the two bodyguards.

"You guys keep this place under guard, don't let anyone else in or out, if they want anything, you just have the rest of the team prepare it, no waiters are allowed to send it in, just have our own people send it in." Ben instructed to the two bodyguards.

The two bodyguards knew that their two seniors had been sent back to Mr. Farrell for a re-training just because they let a waiter in, so they understood how difficult the task was for them and naturally did not dare to be the least bit lax.

Otherwise, it is not only the two seniors who went back to the oven, but also the two of them.

"Don't worry Ben, we know, we definitely won't let you and Mr. Farrell down." The two bodyguards assured one after another.

Ben left with a satisfied hmph, he had to go to Mr. Farrell and report on another matter.

In the box, a moment after Ben left, the grandfather and grandson completely slowed down.

the old Mr. Jones looked at his granddaughter with gloomy eyes, "Norah, did you push that Amber?"

Norah shook her head violently, "No Grandpa, I didn't push her."

"If she wasn't pushed, then why did Ben say that?" the old Mr. Jones obviously did not believe his granddaughter's words.

What kind of person is his own granddaughter, he is still not clear?

Lying and ruthless.

However, he felt that his granddaughter could protect herself in this way, could achieve some purpose, could bring benefits to the Jones family, so he never thought there was anything wrong or wrong with his granddaughter in this way.

But now, he doesn't think so.

When his granddaughter did this, almost forcing the Jones family to the brink, he didn't think it was right for her to do so, and was even angry that her granddaughter, at this time, was lying to herself.

Norah looked at the old Mr. Jones' gloomy old face, and knew the old Mr. Jones was angry, and his heart trembled.

She is not afraid of the sky and the earth, but there are people who are afraid.

That's Jared and Grandpa.

Only grandfather has never been kind to himself, rarely will he look at himself with such a terrible look, so has always been in front of her grandfather, but also relatively free and bold.

But once she saw her grandfather's bad face, especially this bad face is still directed at herself, her heart began to be apprehensive and afraid.

"Grandpa" Norah swallowed hard and called out uneasily to the old Mr. Jones.

the old Mr. Jones said in a deep voice: "After you left the box, didn't you say you were just going to find Jared and finish our plans for tonight? Why did you go to mess with that woman again? We did not say, tonight the target only on Jared on the good, that woman first do not care, ignore, face the extraneous, the results of what you do, Jared there did not get it even if, but actually took the extra step to push that woman, you see how things have turned out?"

They didn't have cell phones, they had been searched by that asshole Ben when they were locked in.

So they can't contact the outside world at all, and even more so, they can't go online and find out what's going on online right now.

However, although his old man usually do not go online, but also not do not understand the network, after all, the Jones family is originally doing this piece of work.

Ben said that the Farrell Group had sent out a statement clearing everything with the Jones family, so by now the internet, it should have created a huge wave.

And they are still locked up here can not do anything, the online storm can not be stopped, he can imagine, the Jones family is now in what kind of storm on the edge of the wave.

In short, they came here to make Jared and their the Jones family relationship deepen the purpose did not hit not to say, but also made the Jones family's situation worse.

For a while, the old Mr. Jones just felt disillusioned.

Think he calculated for decades, never smooth, how to old age, near the coffin, but became less than it is up?

He said he couldn't figure it out.

Norah didn't know what was in the old Mr. Jones' mind, but she knew that because of herself, the Jones family was in jeopardy.

She feels that Amber is to blame for her being in this position.

Jared, on the other hand, actually turned toward Amber.

"Grandpa, I didn't mean to do it, I did want to give the drug to Jared after I went out, so that Jared can't get away with it, he can only be responsible for me and stay with me, but I didn't have the chance to do it, Jared was in a party of his own, sitting in a corner and no one was allowed to come near, even the drinks, they were all prepared by him at the beginning, not at all. So I want to drug can not, even close to him can not, I guess I approach him, he will immediately be recognized and caught, so I can only take a step back, and then think of other ways, and then I thought of the woman from Amber to start."

I thought, since I can't get close to Jared, let Amber go, Amber has a handle on Jared, Jared will not refuse her approach, so I just need to find a way to use Amber's hand to give the drug to Jared, so that I can find a way to get rid of Amber and finish the good thing with Jared. Amber, and Jared to complete the good thing, until the end of Jared even if you want to investigate what is going on, will only find out that it is Amber that woman drug, and then more resentment of that woman, may be regardless of the handle directly kill that woman may also be, and I am not only clean, but also become a victim, maybe Jared will also see me suffer from such an implication of the part I'm not the only one who's been guilty."

She looked to the old Mr. Jones, "At that point, Jared will not only make up with us the Jones family, but he will also be with me and make it up to me."

"And yet you had such a good plan, but it still failed." the old Mr. Jones said in a sorrowful voice.

Norah gritted her teeth, "I blame that woman is slippery, so I can not find the opportunity to do it, but also by her severe humiliation, so I was angry, anger overwhelmed my mind, thinking directly to kill her, as long as she is killed, even if Jared and I can not complete the good tonight, but as long as she died, but also a good thing, at least Jared won't be threatened by her anymore, and maybe then Jared will thank me, and I can take advantage of the opportunity to take Jared's heart, but who knows that when I was ready to do it Jared appeared to stop me, and also told me that he was not with Amber as we thought because he was threatened by Amber, but because he was in love with Amber."

"Most importantly Grandpa do you know what else Jared said?" Norah tugged on the old Mr. Jones' sleeve and became emotional, "Jared said that the person he loved was always Amber, even Makenna in the past he never loved, the person he loved from the beginning to the end was Amber alone."

"What? Never loved Makenna?" the old Mr. Jones froze, "So what happened with him and Makenna in the past?"

Norah shook her head, "I don't know, Jared didn't say, but none of that matters, what matters is that now that Jared is with Amber, it's because of feelings, there's nothing to hold on to, that's why Jared is so angry at my behavior, that's why he's targeting us the Jones family even more. "

Chapter 1289 the White family car accident

"In that case, why didn't you control your temper then?" the old Mr. Jones rebuked.

Norah pouted, a little aggravated, "I didn't think Jared was in love with that woman either, really thought they were just"

She stomped her foot fiercely, "If Jared didn't love her, then no matter what I did, Jared wouldn't have done this to me, but it just so happens that none of us expected that Jared would actually have his heart set on that woman, and do you know, Grandpa, how angry that woman really is."

the old Mr. Jones sighed, "Yeah, none of us expected that Jared actually moved his heart to that woman, this is our biggest mistake, now you do these things, completely let Jared to us the Jones family disappointed, tonight we made the most stinky move ah. "

Tonight, they shouldn't have come.

They should have put up with it.

Just like Ben said, Jared did not intend to release the statement today, it was Norah who sent those two followers to piss off Jared first, and Jared only decided to release the statement after the party tonight.

It turned out that Norah herself ended up screwing things up again, causing Jared to change his mind once again and change the statement that was originally released after the party, to now.

So, both of these things tonight, they're going the wrong way.

They should have pressed on and done nothing for a while.

At least that way, they the Jones family still have a chance of reprieve, which is like now, has been forced to a dead end.

"Grandpa, what should we do now?" Norah was really anxious and really panicked at this moment.

She knew what would happen to her family once Jared's statement was released, even if she didn't know anything about the mall.

It may not be long before the Jones family's company goes bankrupt and she loses her status as Miss the Jones family.

By then, she will have nothing left.

She would never want to see something like that happen.

So now she can't help but regret a little, regret being so impulsive at the time.

The old Mr. Jones eyes gloomy glance at Norah, eyes no longer the usual loving, there is only indifference.

He is a very realistic old man.

He was willing to spoil his granddaughter until she caused problems for the Jones family, and he would spoil her to death.

After all, the granddaughter has almost inherited her own intelligence as well as ruthlessness, not at all like that son of hers, who is too stupid to look straight at.

That's why, of all the Jones family's children and grandchildren, he likes only one granddaughter.

But his liking is conditional. As long as his granddaughter is obedient, like himself, and can bring good to the family, he will like it unconditionally and protect the shortcomings unconditionally.

But as soon as his granddaughter fails to bring benefits to the family and instead brings trouble, he immediately puts away his liking.

After all, his liking is not for an accomplished loser.

Norah naturally can also feel the old Mr. Jones to their own attitude has changed, heart thumping, anxiously shouted: "Grandpa"

The old Mr. Jones didn't say anything, but his eyes stared at her sorrowfully for a while before withdrawing his gaze and sitting back in his chair, slightly bowing his head and wondering what he was thinking.

Although he didn't say a word and wasn't accusing himself of criticizing himself.

But Norah is not only relieved, but also more and more frightened.

Because she knew that grandpa chided himself to show that he had not given up on himself, but once nothing was done, it meant that grandpa was ready to give up on himself and start counting his last remaining value in his heart.

Of course, Jared and Amber are unaware of the impending rebellion of the Jones family.

Jared medicated Amber's arm and put the medication away, "In the future, when you meet these people, call me directly or call for help, don't be by yourself or you'll get hurt again."

Seeing the man frowning like a little old man, uneasy with his admonition, Amber was amused, "I know, I know Butler Boy, you've been talking since just now, and you're still talking now, when did you become so naggy?"

"I'm not nagging, I'm really mentioning you so you know what to do next time you encounter something like this." Jared pursed his lips and said with a serious look.

Amber hugged his arm, "Okay, okay, I know and remember, never face it alone in the future, how about that?"

She held up three fingers in a swearing gesture.

Jared rubbed her head vigorously, which gave her pause.

"Mr. Farrell."

At that moment, the open lounge door, Ben suddenly appeared outside and raised his hand and knocked on the door.

Amber immediately let go of Jared's arm and took a seat next to him, no longer pouting.

After all, it's quite embarrassing to do so when people are coming.

Of course, this is only for her, for Jared, there is nothing to be embarrassed about.

He has always been quite thick-skinned and was even a little unhappy that Amber pulled her hand out.

Even less satisfied with Ben running over at this time.

He came over before Little Leaf took his hand away.

Jared pursed his thin lips and looked at Ben with a disgruntled look in his eyes, and his tone turned bad, "What is it?"

Ben, of course, heard the displeasure in Jared's tone toward himself, didn't understand what was happening, and stood in the doorway a little embarrassed.

So what?

I don't think he's upset with Mr. Farrell, is he?

Amber looked at Jared, who had a dark face, and then at Ben, who was full of fog, and covered her lips and laughed lightly, "Okay Ben, come in and talk."

"Okay Miss Reed," couldn't think, so he didn't want to, Ben gave Amber a grateful smile and walked in, coming to a stop about three meters in front of Jared, his expression becoming straight, "Mr. Farrell, you asked me earlier to keep an eye on Mr. Farrell, you asked me to keep an eye on the White family."

Hearing these words, Amber's back subconsciously straightened up, obviously very concerned about this matter.

"The White family is here?" She asked.

Jared narrowed his eyes and stared at Ben.

Ben shook his head, "No, the White family didn't come to the party."

"Oh? Jared raised an eyebrow.

Amber was also quite surprised, "Didn't come to the party?"

"Yes."

"How is that possible?" Amber said in disbelief. Amber expressed some disbelief, "the White family is trying to get in touch with you Mr. Farrell, and they want to marry you Mr. Farrell, they have been looking for connections to get the invitation tonight, so they can come to the party to meet with you Mr. Farrell, so they can achieve their goal, so they How could they not come? How can they be willing to give up such a good opportunity?"

Jared looked at her with a sly look in his eyes, "Can you stop talking about the union, I feel like a piece of meat being watched."

Amber covered her lips with a smile, "You are not a piece of meat for these people, as long as you get this piece of meat, what benefits can not be fished?"

Ben nodded rather approvingly.

Jared shook his head helplessly and smiled.

It's just that she's happy.

"Miss Reed, in fact, it's not that the White family gave up this opportunity, nor is it that the White family didn't want to come, according to my investigation, the White family was actually ready to come to this banquet, and even bought off some of the staff at the banquet, but before coming again The White family encountered an incident, so they could not come." Ben returned.

Amber got interested, "Oh? An incident? What happened so coincidentally, right before the party, that they couldn't come?"

Ben shook his head, "Not a coincidence, someone did it on purpose. the White family was on their way here and got into a car accident, their car collided with another car and both cars were scrapped on the spot."

These words shocked everyone.

Jared's brow furrowed.

Amber was even more shocked and stood up from the couch, "What? The car accident?"

Chapter 1290 The reason behind the car accident

"Yes." Ben nodded, looking serious.

Amber's eyebrows tightened deeply, "How could there be a car accident? What are the casualties?"

She expressed curiosity.

Ben sighed back: "the White family is a family of three plus a driver, while the other car, only a driver, two cars collided not far from the White family villa, because the White family people drive a more expensive car, so the collision prevention measures are better, although The car was eventually scrapped, but the lives of the four people in the car, should still be able to save, but the driver and Mr. White two people were the most seriously injured, these two people are sitting in the front, is still in the hospital rescue room, Miss White and Mrs. White is not so serious, two people sitting in the back, the impact is not so big, but still suffered some serious injuries, I heard that Miss White's leg seems to be unable to save, of course, the specific circumstances have to wait until the White family rescue and treatment results come out completely to determine."

After a pause, Ben looked at Jared, which continued down: "And the other car driver is not so lucky, he drove just an ordinary, worth more than 100,000 cars, the quality is far less than the White family drove, so not only the car was scrapped on the spot, even the driver himself died on the spot. "

"Dead?" Amber sucked in a breath of cold air.

Jared's sharp eyes narrowed, "Did you just say that the crash was man-made?"

Ben nodded, "Yes, we have been sent to keep an eye on the White family people in the White family car accident, immediately rushed to the scene, and then according to the scene of the investigation of those officers found that the White family people's car brakes were tampered with, in addition to the steering wheel also was tampered with, turning sensitivity out of control, can only drive straight ahead."

"The brakes are not working, the turn is not working only drive in a straight line, then this is exactly the car that does not want the White family to dodge the car that hit it." Amber exclaimed.

Ben appreciated a glance towards her, "Miss Reed is right, to the White family car hands, is indeed the intention, the White family did not find out at first, it is because the White family live in that piece of villa to the center of the city of that highway, is a straight line, no need to turn the White family long ago found the car was tampered with. The White family did not find out at first, that is because the White family lived in the villa to the center of town, the highway, is a straight line, simply do not have to turn, do not let the White family has long found the car was tampered with."

"In that case, the car that hit them is also problematic." Amber rubbed her chin. Amber rubbed his chin, "the White family is now no longer helpful, villa luxury car or something, or can afford to enjoy, not to mention living with the White family that piece of the villa area of other rich people, these rich people home unlike the White family as a crisis, so they drive the car The rich people have the best face, the family maid's car, they will be ready, just because they want to compare with other rich people, do not want to be compared, if the maids of the other family drive a million, their own maids only drive a hundred thousand. If the opposite family's maids drive millions, and their own family's maids only drive a hundred thousand or so, they will feel very humiliated, so a hundred thousand or so cars, absolutely impossible to appear in that villa area."

"Miss Reed analysis is correct, that piece of the villa area, basically with the White family, belong to the sudden wealthy, climbing is indeed very heavy, not to mention their own family members drive what car, they prepared for their own family maids car, is indeed one or two million luxury cars, even the White family now family, to the family maids to drive, but also one million eight hundred thousand Porsche, so this villa area, are not who have more than a hundred thousand cars, then naturally, the people who drive this car, to the villa area itself is a problem." Ben approved of Amber's speculation.

Jared rubbed his temples, "Just say what the hell that driver is."

See Jared some impatient urging, Ben coughed, also do not continue to sell, said: "the driver is not the villa owners, nor the maid, but the White family marine fishing fleet of a small captain, three months ago, the outer sea occurred a big, say small not small typhoon, according to the law and the local fishing regulations, such a typhoon has not been able to go to sea, but the White family just received a hotel order business, that business needs all the expensive yellowtail. According to the law and local fishing regulations, such a typhoon has not been able to go to sea, but the White family just received a hotel order business, the business needs all the valuable yellowtail, as long as the White family delivery of goods, you can make a lot of money, and delivery time, is within a month, but according to the Bureau of Meteorology speculation at the time, the duration of the typhoon is half a month or so."

"That means if the fleet is going to sail, they'll have to wait half a month for the typhoon to pass before they can do so." Amber sat back down next to Jared.

Ben nodded, "Yes, but the yellow croaker this valuable fish is extremely rare and not easy to catch, if the hotel needs to reach the number of 1,000, time also needs more, if good luck, encounter fish, may be almost a month or so to complete the order, bad luck, three months can not be completed, so to speak, the hotel gave a month delivery time It is very tight, but also in the delay of half a month, then the remaining half a month can be said to be completely meaningless, the order has almost been considered yellow, but the White family wants to earn this money."

"So THE White family let the fleet go out to sea in defiance of local regulations and in spite of the danger of the typhoon?" Amber guessed what was happening behind the scenes and her show eyebrows frowned in anger.

Ben sighed, "Yes, the fishing boat went out to sea and drifted for a month at sea, not only did it not succeed in getting yellowtail, but it also lost several crew members, including this driver's wife."

"So this car accident was revenge?" Jared spoke in a hushed voice.

Ben nodded, "Yes, after the police officers at the scene found out the identity of this driver, they immediately asked the White family rushed to the housekeeper this driver and the White family people whether they know whether there is a relationship, etc., the housekeeper is seen this driver, so at that time explained the incident of this fishing boat out at sea, our people at the scene After listening to tell me."

"Wait a minute." Amber suddenly thought of something and looked at him and asked, "With so many people killed in this maritime disaster, isn't there any compensation? Or is it that the compensation is not in place and that's why this driver chose to retaliate?"

If there is compensation, the driver should not retaliate against the White family if the compensation is in place.

"The White family doesn't have that much money to pay." This time it was not Ben who answered, but Jared.

Amber immediately looked at the man, "How do you know? the White family business, it was only recently that there was a problem, not at that time."

Jared hooked his lips a smile, "the investment in the marine business, generally are in the fishing boats and seafood, if the seafood is not caught back at the time scheduled, then the trip to the sea, not to mention making money, fuel money will be lost, so the marine business, are often completed a single money, has always been little liquidity, or the White family will not be in the At that time, the White family will not risk the fishing boat to go to sea, the fishing boat not only did not bring back the goods, but also killed a number of people, each of them at least the compensation is not less than a million, so many people added up, the White family where can afford to pay, even if they can afford, he is not necessarily willing to pay."

"Mr. Farrell is right, the White family symbolic compensation, the compensation is far from the part of the dead fishermen deserve, this driver has repeatedly approached the White family, hope the White family according to the rules to pay them the rest of the compensation, but Each time failed."

Speaking of which, Ben sighed in his heart.
