

LLPD Chapter 1481

Chapter 1481 - Come Together To Help

Such a statement, Makenna can not accept, but can not be unacceptable.

She was now supposed to live dependent on Connor, and if she dared to do the slightest thing against Connor's wishes, Connor would surely take her life.

Makenna bit her lower lip and looked at Amber with great resentment and indignation, "Good, it's really cheap, this child in your belly has become your umbrella, I can't do anything to you, but you don't get complacent, as long as I'm in a bad mood, I'll slap you twice, and always consume energy to kill you."

After saying that, she turned around and walked out of the warehouse.

Mr. Oller looked at Amber and tsked twice, "Being beaten really bad, Jared should be very heartbroken when he sees it, right?"

He took out his phone, took a picture, and also turned around and walked out.

Amber's mind was dizzy and sore.

She could feel that she probably had some mild concussion.

Because Makenna which slap, indeed very heavy!

Not long after Mr. Oller went out, she couldn't hold on any longer, her head lolled, and she passed out again.

Outside the warehouse, Makenna is being reprimanded by Connor.

Makenna just wanted Amber's life, which completely stepped on Connor's bottom line, he still needs Amber to threaten Jared, if Amber is dead now, what he can threaten?

This is not, just in the warehouse Makenna is how to teach Amber a lesson, now Connor is how to teach Makenna a lesson.

The difference is that Amber has been gritting her teeth without screaming, even if it hurts again.

Makenna, on the other hand, was slapped once, so painful that she began to beg for mercy.

Mr. Oller looked on with a sneer and then sent out the photo he had just taken.

Jared was on his way to the authorities to check the satellite surveillance together.

Suddenly, his phone vibrated, he took it out and saw the photo on it, he was furious and the murderous aura emanating from his body almost made people gasp for breath.

On the photo, Amber was trapped in a chair, her cheeks were red and swollen, blood was seeping from the corners of her mouth, and her hair was in disarray, as if she had been tortured and beaten.

When he saw such Amber, how could Jared not be angry and heartbroken inside?

That is his love, his wife ah!

Because the Farrell Family and the Stockert family hatred was involved, suffered such torture, he also blamed himself.

She should not have suffered this.

And the photo was accompanied by a very arrogant and provocative quote: Jared, angry? Heartbroken? The anger and heartache you are experiencing is what I experienced back then.

This comment is definitely not from Connor.

Connor would not be the first to do such a thing, the second is, Connor has what to be angry and heartbroken?

Then this sentence, most likely Makenna, or Connor's side of other people who have a grudge against him.

"Mr. Farrell, what's wrong?" Ben, who was driving, felt Jared's monstrous killing intent at the moment and asked as he gripped the steering wheel tightly.

Jared clutched his phone tightly and did not answer, but only commanded: "Drive faster!"

He had to see the surveillance as soon as possible to find Amber.

Otherwise it's late and something will happen to her.

"Yes!" Although Ben didn't know what was happening, he could guess that it must be something bad.

Without saying anything, he slammed on the gas pedal and brought the car to the highest speed.

On the other side, on the mountain, Mr. Oller waited for a while without waiting for Jared's reply, still disappointed, thinking that this guy would tell him not to do anything to Amber.

But that guy, actually did not do anything.

Mr. Oller is quite bored to put away the phone, and went to find Connor.

When he passed Makenna, he looked at her like a piece of trash.

The satellite surveillance is worthy of the satellite surveillance, everything can not be hidden from its eyes.

Soon, Jared obtained from the surveillance the route that Amber was taken, and finally locked in a mountain.

The mountain, in fact, from the Farrell family Farrell Mansion is not very far, probably Connor chose there, is thinking that the most dangerous place is the safest place, also known as the black light it.

After determining the people who took Amber into the mountain did not come out, Ben hurriedly asked: "Mr. Farrell, the lady is there, now let's arrange a rescue, the police and the military also began to act, the thermal imager also moved over."

The mountain is very large, satellite surveillance can only see what is on the surface, can not see the inside of the mountain.

If there is a cave or something, you can't see inside, so it's not easy to find people.

This time, the special equipment thermal imager came into play, the human body temperature is not the same as the animal, as long as the thermal imager scan the mountain, you can immediately confirm the location of Connor those people.

"Since the people found, it is natural to start a rescue, go!" Jared took a big step out of the department.

He was going to personally go out to get his wife back.

The old Mrs. Farrell and Mrs. Murphy, who also knew that the person was found, also urged him to rescue Amber.

If it weren't for their age, they would probably have to go too.

Walking out of the department, Jared was about to get into his car, when suddenly a commercial vehicle drove over and stopped in front of him.

The car opened, Cole jumped down from it, followed by Hayden.

Hayden came down and then put his hand inside the car, as if he was holding something.

The next second, Jared saw Trenton being helped out by Hayden.

"You guys ..." Jared's words were not yet finished, Cole then a fist swung towards his face.

Jared dodged it with a slight tilt of his head and grabbed Cole's wrist directly.

Cole is not as tall as Jared, nor as strong as Jared, and naturally not as strong as Jared, and was ruled into submission by Jared.

"Let go, Jared, you let go of me." Cole roared in anger: "You bastard, what did you say at first, that you would protect Amber well and never let her manager any more danger, but now you tell me, is this your guarantee?"

Faced with Cole's questioning, Jared also justified, because indeed he did not do what he promised.

"I will rescue her, and if anything happens to her, I'll stay with her!" Jared's eyes looked deeply at Cole, and his tone was very serious.

Cole could see that he was serious, and his anger dissipated, and he finally grunted, "Let go of me!"

Jared pushed him back and let him go, then looked at Hayden and Trenton.

"What brings you guys here?"

"How could we not come when something so bad happened to Amber, we came to help you save her together." Hayden said.

Trenton nodded, "She is my daughter, as a father, I have not raised her, and even bullied her, this time she is in danger, how can I go to save her, I can not stand by and stay in the ward can not do anything."

It is a father's nature to protect his daughter.

He had never done anything for Amber in the past, and this time, he said he would do anything to save his daughter.

"There's no way your body can hold up for too long, maybe you won't be able to come back after this." Jared looked at Trenton and told him straight out the consequences.

Trenton smiled instead, "I know, sacrificing for my children, is also a blessing, I have long been aware of it."

In response, Jared then said nothing more.

"How did you guys know that something happened to Amber?" Jared asked, looking at Hayden.

Intuition told him that Hayden had known first.

"You mobilized so much energy, made such a big move, and came here again, how could I, as a government have-been worker who is still a member of the younger generation, not know and know what happened as soon as I asked, so I contacted Cole and Mr. Gardner and also wanted to help a little, you wouldn't refuse, right?" Hayden asked with a smile.
