

LLPD Chapter 1483

Chapter 1483 Trenton Dies

Hayden and Cole came back to save her, in fact, she was not very surprised.

Cole was her childhood friend, surely he would not sit idly by.

And Hayden was a government agent, she was his people, he would not have failed to come.

She was surprised that Makenna, too, came for her.

His body, will it hold up?

Amber looked at Trenton, her eyes were mixed, with surprise, surprise, surprise, and worry.

Trenton saw it, his heart is very comforting, his daughter has him in her heart.

"Hahahaha, what a touching scene." Makenna suddenly laughed out loud, interrupting the warm atmosphere.

Makenna took out a gun from nowhere and pressed it against Amber's temple.

This scene made everyone shake.

"What do you want?" Jared spoke in a stern voice.

"Can't you see? I want to kill her, ah, in my life, what I hate most is her, see you guys care about her so much, then I want to kill her even more, make you guys suffer, that kind of situation, it must be very exciting, right?" Makenna said with a big smile.

"Don't you dare!" Jared's fists clenched.

"See if I dare you!" Makenna finished and pushed the muzzle even further against Amber's temple.

Amber's temple was hit with pain, a muffled grunt, to pull the trigger.

At that moment, Makenna smiled more quickly.

"No!" Trenton and others saw, pupils shrink, and quickly shouted to stop.

Makenna looked at them with a strong smile.

The more they didn't want it, the more she was going to do it.

Bang!

Gunshots rang out, and the birds in the woods were startled.

"No!" Trenton hissed and shouted, his whole body collapsing to the ground at once.

For he felt that Makenna had really killed Amber.

Even Amber herself thought the same thing, yet after waiting for half a day with her eyes closed, she didn't feel any pain.

She opened her eyes suspiciously, and Jared and the others were still standing across the room.

What happened?

She didn't die?

As she was thinking, there was a sudden sound of falling to the ground behind her.

Startled, she looked back and saw Makenna on the ground, her eyes wide open, blood pouring out of her chest.

If it were not for her eyelashes still blinking, people who did not know would have thought she was dead.

But with this look, she won't live long now.

What's going on here?

Amber was a little dizzy in the head.

Jared shouted, "Little Leaf, come here quickly, Makenna was shot down by the police team in the sky."

Hearing Jared's words, Amber then realized what was going on.

It turned out that Makenna was going to shoot her, the hostage, so the police activated the first level of alert and shot at Makenna first.

At the same time, the military and police who did not come down completely from the sky, all aimed their guns at Connor and his party, and as long as Connor and his party made a move, they would also shoot without hesitation.

After all, Connor would have been the worst crime, if you can not capture, direct shooting is not impossible.

Connor also knows this, so did not stop Amber to go over, just a very bad face.

Amber knew she was free and rushed to Jared's side.

However, just then, Mr. Oller suddenly grimaced, ignoring the uniformed police in the sky, and opened his barn directly at Amber's back.

He hated Jared, and if he couldn't kill Jared in this life, he would kill the person Jared cared about most and make Jared suffer for the rest of his life.

Bang!

Another burst of gunfire.

Trenton saw it and ran straight over, holding Amber behind him.

There was a poof, the sound of a bullet drilling into flesh.

Trenton was shot in the chest, both eyes opened at once, blood splattered on his chest, and fell down with his back to Amber.

This scene stunned everyone, especially Amber.

Amber subconsciously caught Trenton's body and sat on the ground at once, looking at Trenton who fell in her arms, with blood coming out of his chest and his mouth not quite spitting blood, his mind was blank and his whole body was frozen.

Jared came over and looked at Trenton with a very complicated expression.

In fact, at that time, he made the same move as Trenton, both wanted to block the shot for Amber.

According to the speed of the two people, how should he block it, but in the end, it was Trenton who blocked it.

At that moment, Trenton's speed, clearly exceeded his.

Perhaps this is the heart of saving his daughter, in order to save his daughter, burst out the power that is difficult to understand by ordinary people.

"Amber ..." Trenton lying in Amber's arms, looking at the dumbfounded Amber, would smile, "Fortunately, Daddy saved you, cough ..."

He coughed out a few more mouthfuls of blood, his breathing sounding faster and faster, obviously dying.

Amber came back to her senses and her eyes went red all of a sudden, "Who wants you to save, I didn't ask you to save, I didn't!"

"I know, but daddy wants to save you, you are my daughter, is my most loved person besides your mother, I even love you more than Jared, so how can I watch you get hurt and not save you, the first twenty years, daddy did too many wrong things, daddy knows can't make up for you, but now daddy is dying, you forgive daddy, okay? "

Trenton lifted his hand and wanted to touch Amber's face.

But he really did not have the strength, how can not reach Amber's face.

Amber did not hesitate, directly grabbed his hand and put it on his face, crying, "Don't you die, don't die ..."

At this moment, she really does not want him to die.

Even if she knew that he died in the end, but really saw that he was dying, she realized that she was actually not so open-minded and easy to accept.

"It's too late." Trenton shook his head, "Daddy has done too many wrong things, it's time to go down and make amends with those I'm sorry for, Amber, Daddy is happy to have saved you, from now on, your mother is counting on you, she hasn't done anything bad, so you don't blame her, okay?"

Amber cried.

Trenton looked at Jared again, "Jared ..."

"I know what you're going to say, I will love her, always." Jared squatted down and assured Trenton.

Trenton smiled, "That's good, that's good, Amber, can you call me Daddy? I want to hear you call me Daddy at the end ..."

Amber's mouth opened, but she couldn't make a sound.

Trenton sighed, and the light in his eyes grew dimmer and dimmer.

His hand, too, began to slip from Amber's grasp.

Amber panicked and grabbed his hand very tightly, "No, no, Daddy, no ..."

She shouted, she finally shouted daddy.

Trenton at the end of the life mass, still heard, swallowed that last breath, the corners of the mouth are curved.

He walked away happy because he heard his daughter recognize him and call him daddy.

"Ah!" Amber cried out loudly, tilting her head back in grief.

Jared hugged her and comforted her silently.

Cole and Hayden both sighed, all of them didn't expect that things would happen like this, that Connor, the assistant, would suddenly and recklessly shoot Amber.

In the end Amber didn't die, Trenton did.

The two men looked across the floor towards Mr. Oller, who was beaten to a pulp, with eyes full of disgust.

Amber finally fainted from crying, and Jared picked him up and handed him to Elias, who came from behind.

And Trenton, the body was also carried away and carried to the helicopter.

Jared looked across at Connor, who was being held up by many guns, and his voice was as cold as if he was from a cold hell, "Now, you're alone."

The word is one, but in fact there are a dozen bodyguards behind Connor.

But what's the point, it's just a matter of one shot.

So, Jared intuitively ignored those people and just looked at Connor.
