

Longevity 851

Chapter 851: Corpse of the Ice Mountain Goddess, Blood Infant Summons the Yinfeng

As Yellow Bat True Immortal's voice fell, Tao Qian immediately realized where that eerie sense of familiarity had come from.

New Moon Province Zulong Society... Ying Qingdi... Outland Yellow Robe, a disaster that nearly claimed Tao Qian's life.

In hindsight, it was one of the most powerful Gods and Demons Tao Qian had ever encountered indirectly.

Afterwards, Tao Qian sought answers, consulting Yuan Gong and secretly learning from Aunt Pan Si, roughly understanding the status of the 'Outland Yellow Robe'.

Innate God and Demon!

Moreover, it was a particularly powerful one among them. Various Great Abyss secrets indicate: The Yellow Robe lineage, if a war truly breaks out, may not necessarily be a match for the Spirit Treasure Sect, but it certainly wouldn't be afraid.

Back then, Tao Qian used all kinds of means, even going as far as to smash his own skull to seek help from the Toad God. Only by this did he barely survive that deadly calamity, and in turn, eliminate the Outland Yellow Robe's offspring Ying Qingdi, who was born in the Longevity Realm to a Human Clan woman.

Originally, he thought that any further interaction with this God and Demon would be when he sought the Dao in the Outland someday.

Unexpectedly, the encounter came sooner than anticipated.

"So-called Yellow Bat True Immortal, it's just an Outland bat demon that gained essence and achieved Dao."

"The so-called Heavenly Kui Bat Clan, I reckon is the clan of the 'Great Abyss Yellow Robe'."

"This True Immortal seems to be at the Perfect Ultimate Happiness level, possibly even half-step Daoist Transformation, and is evidently favored by the Yellow Robe. The yellow gourd hanging at his waist, who knows where it came from, can remain unscathed from the burning of the Outer Heaven Flame Essence."

"Being a True Immortal in the Yellow Robed Clan, he must have cultivated several powerful divine skills, and in combat, he might not be any weaker than me."

With this thought, Tao Qian suddenly felt it daunting.

Coincidentally, at that moment, the "Records of Strange Compilations" ceased turning and settled on a page with illustrations and characters, revealing the background secrets of the Heavenly Kui Bat and this True Immortal:

"The Heavenly Kui Bat Clan, this clan is a species from the Origin Sea, fond of consuming flesh and blood, extremely skilled in escape techniques, able to freely leap across various dangerous terrains in the Origin Sea."

"This clan possesses high spiritual wisdom, often extremely ferocious, but if one can please them, they may even allow Human Clan cultivators to ride them and roam the Origin Sea."

"This clan, along with the Hidden Dragon Clan, Yellow Llama Clan, Wind Witch Clan, and others, are all clans of the innate God and Demon 'Great Abyss Yellow Robe'."

"Among the Yellow Robed God's numerous clans, this clan is not particularly prominent, ranking towards the end. However, it is rumored that in recent years, a talented bloodline emerged in this clan, self-claimed as 'Yellow Bat True Immortal'. After enduring for five hundred years, successfully cultivated the 'Yellow Heaven Secret Scroll', causing his bloodline to transform, corresponding to the Ultimate Happiness Realm among Human Clan cultivators."

"Judging by age, this Immortal is likely to transform again and may grow to become a 'Subordinate God' under the Yellow Robe."

"Due to this, the Yellow Robe was overjoyed, and successively bestowed three great treasures: 'Divine Wood Gourd', 'Blood-sucking Divine Needle', 'Heavenly Kui Slaughter Immortal Banner'... After receiving numerous rewards, this person deliberately led a group of Heavenly Kui Bats to wander the Origin Sea, making a show, thus known to all."

...

"Turns out to be a big bat immortal fond of showing off."

After reading the annotation, Tao Qian immediately remarked.

Without paying more attention to the dry and skinny old bat, he looked towards another group of demonic creatures.

Five figures that greatly unnerved Tao Qian, two being God Demon Species from the Evil God's Clan, while the other three all exhibited traits of divinity, exuding extreme arrogance, undoubtedly belonging to the category of 'Evil God's Offspring'.

At the moment, Tao Qian was observing the second clan.

When the Heavenly Kui Bat Clan was agitated, they could obscure more than half of the sky, a truly majestic sight.

However, the Evil God's Clan from another direction, was equally formidable.

In that region, it was filled with thousands of snow-white ice worms of various sizes, some as large as mountains, others as large as cities. As they squirmed and writhed, a surge of cold and chilly Yin Attribute Source Qi continuously erupted from their bodies, resembling a frost and snow world slowly moving.

Even more astonishing, these ice worms seemed to have different bloodline divine powers. Some could summon blizzards, others released Primordial Magnetic Divine Light, and one or two could unleash the Life-breaking Divine Light that once left a profound impression on Tao Qian.

In those days during the Absolute Immortal Assembly, he witnessed with his own eyes the 'Golden Silkworm Master' with this divine skill venturing into the Outland for an ultimate struggle.

The head of this clan, that foremost ice worm, was even larger than the Master of those years.

And more terrifying, the place where its eyes should be were only dark eye sockets, with scarlet pus flowing continuously, freezing halfway to become sharp ice spikes, plummeting like torrential rain.

When Tao Qian looked over, the clan leader's body erupted with radiant light, instantly transforming into human form.

Unexpectedly, it was a female fairy with an entire head of white hair, blind in both eyes, with a bulky figure covered in rot marks, or perhaps a female demon?

Given that Tao Qian preemptively had the notion, this time the "Records of Strange Compilations" also sought the answer first.

But as soon as the book page settled, Tao Qian glanced over, and his mouth immediately tugged, revealing a look of bemused frustration.

"Ice Maggot Clan!"

"This is a Great Abyss Species, residing year-round in a secret realm called 'Green Girl Mountain' in the Origin Sea."

"This secret realm was born due to an Acquired God Demon 'Green Girl', who perished due to an accidental calamity, her corpse happened to fall into an Innate Yin Qi Spring in the Origin Sea. After ten thousand years, it gave rise to a towering ice mountain, called Green Girl Mountain due to the presence of the Green Girl's corpse within the mountain."

"The Goddess's corpse is wrapped in Innate Yin Qi, thus it is preserved from decay. Yet, as the world nurtures life, within the corpse, a group of maggots gradually emerged."

"These maggots, each possessing divine power, consider themselves as the Goddess's Clan..."

Originally thought to be ice worms, it turned out to be a misunderstanding. This clan was indeed ice maggots.

Regardless, Tao Qian did not forget his purpose of 'buying time', feigning interest as he addressed the ice maggot female fairy:

"The Yellow Bat True Immortal, due to my offense against their God Demon and the plotting against the God offspring, comes specifically to seek retribution from me."

"But I'm unaware of the reason you lead your kin here to cause difficulties?"

Tao Qian just asked and the next moment felt pain all over his body, as if he were suddenly thrown into a place of extreme cold, about to be frozen into a human stick.

It was the female fairy staring at Tao Qian with hollow eye sockets.

The invisible and intangible icy Divine Light seemed to want to destroy Tao Qian on the spot.

At this time, a bizarre sound like the trickling of an icy spring mixed with the tearing of an iceberg rang out, and the female fairy spoke:

"My name is 'Qingyao,' part of the Ice Worm Clan."

"I am not here for you, True Master, but for your daughter."

"She is the reincarnation body of my lord, hence we have come to guide my lord back."

This female demon called Qingyao casually uttered such incredible words.

Initially, Tao Qian was just shocked.

Then came the confusion: How could my daughter be connected to a deceased Acquired Demon God, and how dare anyone claim that the god demon named 'Green Girl,' who clearly controls the divinity of frost and snow, is the reincarnation body without any relation to Tao Qian or Yunrong?

This confusion did not last long, and he glanced at the "Records of Strange Compilations" again.

Sure enough, there was still a long annotation:

"The Ice Worm Clan has guarded the corpse of the goddess for years, and one day suddenly went mad, claiming to search for the goddess's reincarnation body to return."

"Since there was no clue, this clan believed that any female with a high talent and related to 'Innate Yin Qi' could be the goddess's reincarnation body."

"Since that day, they wandered the Great Abyss Origin Sea and all heavens, wantonly capturing any female life that met the requirements."

"If that goddess indeed had a reincarnation body, there would be corresponding Secret Techniques to regain the divine nature left from the previous life."

"But the Ice Worm Clan disregarded these; once they captured anyone, they immediately sent them back to the mountain, forcibly inserting them into the goddess's corpse... Know that it is an Acquired Demon God who rules frost and snow. A cultivator in the Daoist Transformation Realm forced inside will be polluted and mutated into a Frost Corpse within a few days, much less any life below the Daoist Transformation Realm."

"Because of this, the Ice Worm Clan has committed countless murders over the years."

"Yet, despite this, the clan remains unrepentant, continuing their hunt."

After reading this, a killing intent erupted once more in Tao Qian's heart.

A group of maggots born from rotten icy flesh, who luckily gained spiritual wisdom and divine blessings, had gone mad like this?

Forcibly seizing high-talent female lives only to stuff them into the goddess's corpse, what sort of guiding method is this?

Tao Qian tried to understand but could not comprehend it no matter how.

Just thinking that if his own daughter was captured by this group of 'maggots' and forcibly stuffed into a corpse to freeze to death, the killing intent in Tao Qian's heart grew even more violent, far surpassing his feelings toward the Yellow Bat True Immortal.

Determined, when the fight breaks out, he must act decisively and wipe out these maggots at the first opportunity.

With this thought, to buy time, Tao Qian forcibly suppressed his disgust and killing intent.

Then, he prepared to deal with the remaining three parties.

But it was at this moment that Tao Qian suddenly heard, from behind, a sharp kitten's cry within the Ascending Immortal Star Acupoint.

Pale rainbow light, a vast demonic aura, and an almost imperceptible divine aura... all were sensed by Tao Qian, causing his expression to change dramatically.

"The Palace Acupoint is open!"

"Now is the most critical moment; there can be no mistakes. These five ghastly things are dirty and foul-smelling. If they were to invade the Star Acupoint and contaminate the Yin Qi, the consequences would be endless."

Upon hearing Grandma Taizhen's words.

In front of Tao Qian, three terrifying shadows, with a mass of filthy smaller shadows behind them, relentlessly rushed in.

Clearly, the remaining three 'Evil God's Offspring' had long since seen through Tao Qian's attempt to buy time and, upon noticing the commotion within the Secret Acupoint, attacked without any intention of speaking to Tao Qian.

In the process, they all revealed their true forms.

Tao Qian only glanced for a moment and immediately felt his scalp tingle.

No, it wasn't just him.

Elsewhere, all the Spirit Treasure Ten Thousand Immortals focusing on this scene were equally shocked.

First, they saw a storm coming from the depths of the tide. In that storm, there were no raindrops, hail, or snowflakes; there were chunks of thick blood, shattered bones, dense yellow brain matter, and numerous white teeth... The source was a tree, a forest filled with scarlet.

Each tree within was made of Human Clan bones.

The sharpened ribs were inserted throughout, serving as thorns.

Countless small flesh masses were hung on them, wrapped in rusty iron wires, dripping with blood.

But listen carefully, all the flesh masses were crying and howling.

Look closely, they weren't flesh masses; they were clearly individual formed or unformed female infants.

Their piercing wails were the source of the storm.

Tao Qian, despite his level of cultivation, couldn't help but shiver, the cold seeping into his bones at the touch of the blood wind.

Chapter 852 - Emperor Wa's Pregnancy, Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors

Tao Qian had been cultivating for so many years, yet never encountered such a scenario.

The storm, filled with pus, shattered bones, brains, and teeth, brimmed with endless resentment.

Disregarding all defenses, it directly polluted the soul.

No matter how extraordinary Tao Qian's Spirit Treasure Sublime Body was, at this moment, he couldn't avoid being haunted; he only felt something was off. As he looked down at himself, he saw his abdomen suddenly swell. Pulling his clothes aside, he observed his skin turning transparent, and inside, a "female infant" began to gestate at an astonishing speed, seemingly ready to be born in just a few breaths.

This astonishing scene immediately reminded Tao Qian of the Daughter Spring in Daughter Country within Fumin Province.

The effect was similar, but this was much faster.

At the same moment, this time without using the "Records of Strange Compilations," the records bursting forth in Tao Qian's mind first revealed the origins of the vast forest adorned with female infant corpses and blood bones.

[Name: Childbirth Tree.]

[Record Type: God Demon Descendants.]

[Record: In the Source Sea, there exists an innate God Demon called "Emperor Wa," revered highly with boundless divinity, being the bloodline origin for countless living species, devil demons, and evil gods, thus often honored as "Yin Mother," "Primordial Mother God," etc. The progeny so abundant that even Emperor Wa can't keep track, the Childbirth Tree being one, born from the demon spawn of dreams induced by witnessing mortal tragedies.]

[Note one: This devil demon exists across all the heavens, being both a living individual and an evil entity species, never dying as long as the source remains, not even Buddha or Daoist Ancestor could completely kill it.]

[Note two: Wherever this devil demon goes, it spreads a source Qi called "Yin Mother Blood Origin," mutated from innate Yin Qi, and once unable to resist its erosion, one would immediately conceive and give birth to a daughter, who has no spiritual wisdom, just a dazed infant corpse.]

[Note three: This devil demon has a hobby, or perhaps a nature, roaming the Great Abyss catching female infants with great talent, due to its worship of Emperor Wa, offering captures through secret rituals.]

[Note four: Any infant girl sacrificed has a chance to be selected by Emperor Wa as a disciple, practicing the "Emperor Wa Scripture," one of the Source Sea's supreme Secret Books, needing to withstand the horrendous sacrifice ritual, with few succeeding.]

[Note five: Can exempt from the erosion of Yin Mother Blood Origin Qi.]

...

Tao Qian had just finished reading the fifth note when his body was suddenly enveloped by the Spirit Treasure Divine Light, as his Spirit Treasure Sublime Body expelled that dreadful source Qi.

The infant corpse also dissipated like smoke.

"Emperor Wa... Childbirth Tree... Sacrifice Ritual..."

Tao Qian had heard of Emperor Wa's name, knowing she was a highly esteemed, transcendental innate God Demon, unfettered by distinctions of good and evil, even acting as a mother figure to many powerful beings across various worlds.

Yet even after reading the record, he immediately shook his head in refusal.

Although being sacrificed to Emperor Wa carries a certain chance of attaining the "Emperor Wa Scripture," the risk is enormous and not worthwhile.

But at this time, the countless "Childbirth Trees" wouldn't heed his words at all.

Just as the blood storm arose!

Not only did the Childbirth Trees surge forward, the kin clans of Heavenly Kui Bat and Ice Worm also came to encircle.

Though only these three forces, they surpassed the previous relentless demon tide.

Tao Qian's usual True Fire of Suppressing Evil now proved useless.

Yellow Bat True Immortal could use the Divine Wood Gourd bestowed by "Outer Realm Yellow Robe" for defense, the Ice Worm clan's Qingyao Demoness also held an artifact called [Green Girl Mirror] to withstand the burn of Outer Heaven Flame Essence.

The countless Childbirth Trees unleashed the Yin Mother Blood Source Wind which could forcibly disperse the True Fire.

One against three!

If the opponents were Ultimate Happiness Realm cultivators inside the Longevity Realm, Tao Qian was confident of victory.

Unfortunately, these three forces' bloodline origins were incomparable to Kongchan Arhat, Xiu Zhonglin, Lingwa, and other cultivators.

Squaring off one-on-one, Tao Qian doubted he could easily subdue the adversary, let alone being besieged now.

In an instant, he was engulfed, unable to scrutinize the remaining figures.

In a life-and-death moment, he couldn't afford distraction.

He knew procrastination was futile, and although the formidable enemies had spiritual intelligence, not one would communicate or compromise.

"A bunch of bats to take my life, maggot evil spirits to snatch my daughter... Hmph!"

With a cold snort, Tao Qian summoned the Nine Toad Bead once more.

The Nine-headed Golden Toad manifested, immediately forming a small world to fend off the Heavenly Kui Bat, Ice Worm, and Childbirth Tree attacks.

The might of Mountains and Seas reversed, as Tao Qian wielded a sword in one hand and held the Toad God Tile in the other.

Like a god of slaughter, he stormed into the three great clans, and in an instant, those devil demons and evil spirits seemed to take a blow to the head, fainting in muffled thuds.

Then, Sword Intent raged.

"Selfless!"

"Immortal Slaying!"

"Evil Extermination!"

"Evil Extinguishing!"

The Secret Demon Sacrifice Body Sword Technique, once in the Longevity Realm, now stronger in the Outer Realm.

The Heavenly Kui Bat, Ice Worm, and Childbirth Tree if brought inside the realm, even common individuals or juveniles could inflict disasters affecting hundreds of thousands.

Yet now, they were mowed down like grass by Tao Qian, one swath after another.

As scenes unfolded, the Spirit Treasure Ten Thousand Immortals found it speechless, unable to resist mumbling how a Spirit Treasure Sect immortal cultivator combined Secret Demon magic with heresy and heterodoxy so smoothly, achieving this after three years of arduous cultivation?

Chapter 853 - Emperor Wa Conceives, Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors_2

Yuan Gong, who was secretly observing the place, felt deeply gratified.

His regret in life was realized by Tao Qian, at this moment he wished he could shout: "Exactly so, kill, kill, kill, the swordsmanship of our Secret Demon Sect is truly unparalleled in the Great Abyss."

Unfortunately, Tao Qian's might did not prevail for long, as Yellow Bat True Immortal, Qingyao Demoness, and the head of the Childbirth Tree did not allow Lord Suppressing Evil to slaughter their clan members wantonly.

First was Yellow Bat True Immortal, who took out a yellow-black demon banner from his bosom.

With a flick, the banner expanded in the wind.

The banner faced Tao Qian, and the yellow light swept towards him.

After Tao Qian fell into it, he instantly felt his body weaken and his mana dry up.

At this time, Yellow Bat True Immortal shouted: "Lowly two-legged sheep, look here."

Tao Qian was not fooled, but it was useless.

The dry, skinny Daoist transformed by Yellow Bat True Immortal just chuckled, suddenly stripping off his yellow Daoist robe, revealing a large bat covered in yellow fur. He chanted sutras, and his yellow fur suddenly turned blood-colored. With a shout of "Swift," those blood-colored hairs shot towards Tao Qian like countless cow hair needles.

The sky was filled, like a torrential downpour.

Tao Qian didn't need to guess to know that these bat hair needles were the Blood-sucking Divine Needle given to him by Outer Realm Yellow Robe. Judging by the treasure's name, once hit, one would be drained of all essence blood in an instant, miserable beyond compare.

And the treasure that made his Dharma Body weak was another item, the Heavenly Kui Slaughter Immortal Banner.

"It's merely a wretched beast, arrogantly claiming to be a true immortal, how could you deal with me?"

After saying this, Tao Qian stomped his foot, his mana surged within, releasing Spirit Treasure Immortal Light to forcibly resist the yellow light emitted by the demon banner.

Then he drew his sword, and the Heavenly Demon Gate opened; accompanied by a cacophony, tens of thousands of alien sky demons surged out. Each was hideous, with lips like vermilion, eyes like mirrors, and a pair of green wings on their backs, stirring up a storm whenever they flapped.

Simultaneously, they all held a green orb-like Yin Thunder Pearl in their arms.

If a demon cultivator skilled in the Summoning Demon Technique were present, they would immediately recognize: these sky demons belong to the same species called Yin Thunder Demon, naturally born with thunder bodies, and all possess the ability to conjure the "Thunder Pearl."

Very useful, with numerous species.

However, extremely difficult to tame; even if summoned, they would self-destruct at any disagreement.

Ordinary demon cultivators pride themselves on taming one or two.

And now, Tao Qian summoned tens of thousands.

They surged out chaotically, shouting all sorts of slogans:

"Master has finally summoned us to work, hurry up, hurry up."

"With us here, no evil demon can approach Master."

"Quick, throw them all out; thunderous roars are the true sublime sounds in the world."

"The elders said, Master is the most generous human clan cultivator, whether we can get rich and advance depends on this time."

...

Amidst this chaotic shouting, all the Yin Thunder Demons consecutively threw the Yin Thunder Pearls held in their arms.

These natal Yin Thunder Pearls from the Outer Realm, their power far exceeds the crude versions made by ordinary cultivators.

In an instant, the thunder fire erupted.

The incoming Blood-sucking Divine Needle, though not much damaged, all had their trajectory changed.

In this round of magical duel, it could be seen that Yellow Bat True Immortal's mana, techniques, and treasures were very powerful, yet still unable to defeat Master Tao.

But Tao Qian did not gain any respite, he had not even caught his breath.

Spirit Treasure Sublime Body suddenly felt a chill.

Looking up, he immediately saw the "Ice Worm Clan" aiming at him from not far, large and small ice worms spitting out ice silks of varying thicknesses in unison.

Strangely, this all-encompassing ice silk completely ignored space and time, sticking directly onto him.

In an instant, it formed a giant ice cocoon, wrapping Tao Qian within.

After the cocoon formed, inside began spraying snow-white acid and wisps of blue-white cold flames.

Immediately, Tao Qian felt his Dharma Body being corroded and burned, even Spirit Treasure Sublime Body was unable to resist.

In his mind, a record emerged: "Currently undergoing [Green God Silk] corrosion... currently undergoing [Green Girl Corrosive Divine Potion] corrosion... currently undergoing [Green Frost Flame] corrosion... can exempt part, if unable to escape timely, will transform into a Frost Corpse in twenty-four hours, if voluntarily transformed, can gain Green Girl inheritance, receive a volume of Secret Book 'Green Girl Scripture'."

"Unwilling, unwilling!"

Tao Qian shouted impatiently.

Lazily refraining from using True Fire of Suppressing Evil, but instead sharpens his gaze, his inner mana surging abruptly.

"Selfless!"

A simple and brutal way, Tao Qian executed the sword technique again.

With a "tear" sound, he forcibly unleashed a torrent-like violent sword intent using his own mana, thus breaking free.

Just as he emerged, the next scene was heart-wrenching for the Spirit Treasure Ten Thousand Immortals, yet also absurd:

Tao Qian broke out of the cocoon, above his head, when did an extra person appear?

Whether that could be called a person was in question.

She was a woman formed by countless "Childbirth Trees" combined; pus, rotten flesh, and broken bones, teeth mixed into a body, rusty wires that entangled stabbed infant corpses transformed into hair extending to the heavens.

She was completely exposed, bloated, and decayed, with a grotesquely swollen belly as if she was about to give birth.

Yet her face lacked any facial features and expression typical of a human woman, her eyes were a vivid red, a bloodthirsty mouth grinning to the back of her head, within her mouth were yellowish tusks....

At this moment, this scene was eerie and terrifying.

Tao Qian's feeling was even stronger; what he subconsciously saw was a gigantic abdomen. Within the thin layer of decayed skin were countless female infant corpses crawling chaotically.

Chapter 854: Emperor Wa Conceives, Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors_3

They screamed and cried, wailing and pleading.

"Daddy!"

"Father!"

"Papa!"

These voices carried an extraordinary evil power.

Tao Qian, upon hearing them, also felt dazed for a moment.

This brief moment left him no time to escape.

Immediately, countless small crimson hands reached toward Tao Qian.

Accompanied by a majestic suction force, Tao Qian's just-liberated Dharma Body was forcibly swallowed.

In that instant, he was submerged by the infant corpses.

In his mind, records of extreme danger erupted one after another:

[Currently being eroded by "Emperor Wa's Fertility Skill..."]

[Emperor Wa has numerous followers and believers across all heavens and many locations in the Source Sea, often called upon to heal congenital defects or deadly filth-afflicted life forms, even Gods and Demons, and during such times, Emperor Wa uses this skill, swallowing them into the Emperor Wa Secret Realm, and when they are expelled, they return to their original truth, continuing their Dao Path.]

[The Childbirth Tree is an evil spawn born from Emperor Wa's perception, thus possessing a trace of divinity and some inheritance, this Fertility Skill being among them, but its effect when cast by them is completely opposite to Emperor Wa's.]

[If unable to escape in time, and invaded by the tainted Emperor Wa Source Qi within, one's entire flesh will reverse-transform into a female infant corpse, with their soul trapped inside, and their mind filled with resentment and hatred.]

[Due to strong Daoist power, if transformed, one might become a leader of this evil spawn, forming a bloodline connection with "Emperor Wa", qualifying to enter the Source Sea Secret Realm's Emperor Wa Palace.]

[Some costs can be waived... delay can extend to one hour.]

After seeing the records, Tao Qian felt both shocked and absurd.

Is there really such divine spells in the world?

To swallow him and spit him out as an infant corpse?

The cost of this transformation is even less acceptable than becoming a Frost Corpse before.

Though benefits are hidden within it.

The former could gain the inheritance of the acquired God Demon "Green Girl," and the latter is even more remarkable, forming a direct bloodline connection with Emperor Wa, becoming a descendant of this innate God Demon through this shortcut.

The cost is indeed terrifying, but if it were conveyed back inside the realm, some might be mad enough to accept it.

Of course, Tao Qian would not be among them.

At this point, Tao Qian realized the Secret Demon Sect's techniques were useless, and the place where he was located was truly bizarre.

The Sacrifice Sword Skill was like a Cow disappearing into the sea, and the Outer Realm Heaven Demons summoned were completely devoured by those "infant corpses."

Even more excessively, after consuming them, these infant corpses crawled over, shouting in sharp ghostly voices in his ear: "Tasty, tasty, father, we want more."

Tao Qian had fought many thorny enemies before, but this was the first time for such an encounter.

As he quickly turned his thoughts, contemplating what means to use to respond.

A new unexpected event suddenly occurred.

A gray, flattened pear-shaped cloth bag flew out from Tao Qian's bosom.

In an instant, ten thousand feet of Buddha Light burst forth.

Along with Buddha sounds chanting, Earth Bursting Golden Lotus emerged, and amidst many anomalies, a little girl wearing an unusual Kasaya, with a Golden Hoop on her head, and holding a Golden Cymbal, with yellow hair and yellow eyebrows, stepped out.

Although this little girl had a bit of evil air, her Buddha Nature was even stronger, her face smiling, she looked at the strange Xuanpin portal before her, and the infant corpses crawling chaotically within.

"Children, don't shout!"

"If you call the master 'father', wouldn't you all become small masters of mine, Ling Mei'er? How would I transcend you then?"

"That won't do, that won't do."

Such playful words came from the yellow-browed, yellow-haired girl's mouth.

Immediately, the Artifact Spirit of this "People Species Bag" raised her hand and sounded the Golden Cymbal.

As the Buddha sound exploded, the erupting Golden Light seemed extremely restraining to the tainted Emperor Wa Source Qi, directly scorching a big hole in the belly of the "Corpse Mother" transformed from the Childbirth Tree.

Along with Tao Qian, hundreds of figures flowed out accordingly.

Upon emerging, they were inevitably coated with a large amount of filth, sticky palace fluids, and so on.

Of course, this was not crucial; what truly compelled him to act was the hundreds of screaming infant corpses crawling everywhere.

These female infant corpses were part of the evil spawned by the "Childbirth Tree," the progeny of the Demon God.

Likewise, they inherited a trace of divinity.

Among their Bloodline Power, traversing worlds was unexpectedly included.

Before his eyes, the bodies of the female infant corpses gradually turned transparent, screaming to escape through the Source Qi channel and disperse into all heavens.

Suddenly, a crisp voice was heard:

"Master, do not worry!"

"While Ling Mei'er is here, these children cannot escape."

After speaking, Ling Mei'er, seated on the Golden Lotus, struck the Golden Cymbal again.

The hundreds of infant corpses that were about to flee were indeed all drawn back.

At this moment, Ling Mei'er opened her mouth and exhaled, the sweet infant mother's Supreme Source Qi, imbued with the essence of Buddha's truth, transformed into tiny Spring Eyes, showering upon Tao Qian and the hundreds of infant corpses.

Filth thoroughly cleansed, Buddha Light surging.

The once ferocious and hideous infant corpses suddenly had their origins reversed, transforming into delicate Human Clan infants.

With innocent and bewildered eyes, they gazed upon the world before them.

...

After Tao Qian escaped, the "Childbirth Tree" immediately sewed up its shattered belly with infinitely stretching rusty wire.

It was about to wield the Emperor Wa Divine Skill again to kill Tao Qian.

Yet upon seeing the hundreds of infant corpses restored to normal in the blink of an eye, bathed in sweet rain and Buddha Light, it paused for a moment, as if greatly impacted, or perhaps unwilling to ruin that beautiful scene.

Seeing this, Tao Qian was even more pleased.

He and Master Xiao had worked together to refine the [People Species Bag], entering a realm of Yin Yang Transformation and Inherently Flawless, precisely so that after his Little Demon Star was born, they could use this treasure to dispel those troublesome congenital filth, Evil Poison curses and such.

Chapter 855: Emperor Wa Conceive, Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors_4

But after its refinement, he had not yet tested it.

And now the scene before him was clear proof.

In delight, Tao Qian couldn't help but exclaim, "What a treasure! What a wonderful Ling Mei'er!"

If given the time, Tao Qian wanted to further explore the mysterious uses of the People Species Bag.

Unfortunately, although he had escaped from the belly of the evil being, he was still surrounded by formidable enemies.

In just a breath's time, not only did the Childbirth Tree awaken and resume its terrifying form, but the Heavenly Kui Bat and Ice Worm clansmen also came attacking again.

If that was all, he could have managed by revealing more Divine Power Treasures.

But in the next moment, a new figure suddenly appeared before him.

This figure was humanoid, garbed in colorful clothes, hideous, deformed, with bloated flesh all over, and vaguely visible male and female organs, glowing green all over.

Though headless, this creature was not truly without a head.

Upon closer look, Tao Qian saw that this monster held a head in each of its hands.

The left head was male, the right head was female.

The common point was that both were gruesomely ugly and mottled with decay.

Without a doubt, was this not the fourth "Evil God's Offspring," who had been observing earlier but had not taken action, finally unable to hold back?

What truly surprised Tao Qian, however, was the self-introduction that followed.

The two heads seemed to recognize Tao Qian.

One roared in anger, the other laughed madly with delight.

Then, they both spoke in unison:

"My name is Feng Junniang, of the Evil Sect, titled [Yin Yang Star Lord]."

"Now that I am here, surely you can guess my motive."

"Spirit Treasure Sect Lord Suppressing Evil Tao Qian, my dear grandson 'Lian Yulou' died by your hand, do you acknowledge this debt?"

Hearing these words, Tao Qian promptly nodded in admission.

Evidently, this was also someone here seeking his life.

But the identity was indeed peculiar.

Calling Lian Yulou a dear grandson?

Could these two be that perverse grandfather and grandmother of the Evil Sect?

Though absurd, judging by their aura alone, this "Yin Yang Star Lord" seemed far more terrifying than that Yellow Bat True Immortal.

And indeed, that was true; this enemy hadn't even begun to act when the Records of Strange Compilations flipped with a rustling and promptly found the answer.

The page stopped, depicting the appearance of the Yin Yang Star Lord.

Below, there was a bloody description and annotation written by Uncle Li Mei:

"Yin Yang Star Lord, offspring of the Evil God."

"This demon has multiple identities, including being an Evil Sect Practitioner."

"Though a single entity, years ago it was actually a pair of twins, a dragon and phoenix pair, the male named Feng Junzi, the female named Feng."

"Both siblings were naturally perverse, exhibiting intelligence and notions different from others since childhood, thus committing bizarre atrocities, including personally burning their parents who tried to stop their union, and poisoning an entire village, they should have died, yet were unexpectedly taken in by an Evil Sect cultivator."

"Their master, named the Gorgeous clothed Daoist, was also a demonic figure, and knowing the siblings' hearts were entwined, he deliberately separated them for amusement, imprisoning them separately at the North and South Poles."

"Who would have guessed that their strong resentment would trigger a fortuitous encounter, with their teaming agony spreading to the Outer Realm via the North and South Magnetic Pole Light, catching the attention of two passing Innate Gods and Demons."

"These gods and demons were the [Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors], two entangled beings from birth."

"The Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors each bestowed blessings upon Feng Junzi and Feng, leading to a transformation of their bloodline, turning them from Human Clan to descendants of God Demon, thereafter becoming one body with dual souls, titled Yin Yang Star Lord."

"One might have expected that after turning their fortunes, these two would seek revenge and leave the Evil Sect."

"But they did not, remaining in the Evil Sect, albeit splitting their master in two and abandoning him at the North and South Poles."

"Although the Yin Yang Star Lord encountered such godly and demonic fortune, gaining powerful Divine Powers with ease, it came at the cost of a slowed Dao Path, with no progress over millennia, always lingering between Perfect Ultimate Happiness and Daoist Transformation."

"Though not having attained the Dao, these two remain extremely dangerous; aside from their Divine Skills far surpassing the Ultimate Happiness Realm, it's important to note that they are highly favored by the [Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors]. In the event of mortal peril, if they call upon the Double Ancestors, even those of the Daoist Transformation Realm would swiftly meet their end."

...

The annotation was exceedingly detailed, unusually even covering this sibling pair's life history, yet Tao Qian merely glanced at it, absorbing it without a second's delay.

The Yin Yang Star Lord, seeing him acknowledge, sneered coldly in unison, then divulged another shocking revelation.

"It's good that you acknowledge this karmic debt!"

"Lian Yulou was a likable child, one of the few in the Longevity Realm's Evil Sect who caught my eye."

"I had planned, when the time was right, to meld him with his master Zhuge Qingyi, and bring them to meet the Father God, earning some reward."

"Sadly, you, a Spirit Treasure Daoist, tricked and killed him."

"Zhuge Qingyi, this useless being, is too afraid of your power to seek vengeance, losing the qualification to be my disciple; I've already sent him to the Netherworld to accompany the child."

"Had you remained hidden in the Penglai Sea, I would have been helpless against you."

"Since you have come seeking death, I shall take your life."

This Yin Yang Star Lord, expressing a desire to take Tao Qian's life, clearly had this as its purpose.

But being from the Evil Sect!

It was well-known that no cultivator from this sect was normal.

Despite having the chance to ambush Tao Qian, they chose not to, instead revealing themselves to engage in chatter.

Chapter 856: Emperor Wa Conceives, Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors_5

Motive?

From the transformation of certain organs on the Yin Yang Star Lord's demon body before him, Tao Qian could vaguely guess, but he chose not to speak.

And the still babbling Yin Yang Star Lord, seemingly to intimidate the rest of the four directions, raised the heads of Feng Junzi and Feng Junniang in each hand.

The siblings' green eyes suddenly reflected the scenes of another world.

In that world, traces of various races and civilizations once existing were faintly visible, but now it was desolate and extinguished.

Everything was covered in indescribable layers of foul, filthy substance.

At the world's end were two unspeakable, unseeable shadows of flesh tangled together, crashing into each other, emitting extremely putrid pus flowing out from beneath them, filling the already dead world, even seeping into other worlds.

Evidently, those two mysterious masses of flesh were the Innate Gods and Demons, the [Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors].

The divine intimidation coming from high-ranked, high-status beings was effective most of the time, just like now when the Yellow Bat True Immortal, the Qingyao Demoness, and the Childbirth Tree all gave respect, stopping temporarily.

Yet in the arena, there was still a fifth party.

It was a woman, a once utterly silent woman in a veiled yellow dress.

Yellow dress, it was said!

In reality, the dress color was closer to flesh color and seemed alive, making it somewhat eerie.

Although she concealed her facial features, making it unclear whether she was beautiful or ugly.

Her exposed skin was like congealed fat, adorned with intricate, gorgeous patterns that captivated anyone who looked, making them unconsciously want to touch, want to kiss.

Even though in Tao Qian's "Spiritual Resonance Sensing," this woman's arrival was filled with malice.

Yet, for some reason, she made no move.

Only until the Yin Yang Star Lord performed an intimidating act revealing divine aura did this woman use Instantaneous Movement, slightly missing her target, to appear before the Star Lord Feng Junniang.

Looking at the male and female heads, the woman's embroidered eyebrows slightly furrowed, seemingly troubled.

But very quickly, she took action.

Like reaching out with the world's most beautiful hand, she removed her veil gently.

Tao Qian and the others all thought they would behold the peerless beauty of an Outer Realm female fairy next.

Yet, what entered their eyes was a mouth.

A vortex-like mouth!

That mouth took up most of her face, spiraling downward inside, filled with countless teeth, inducing instant fear in any life that saw it, with faint hissing whispers coming from the "bottomless pit" like vortex mouth.

Converted into human speech, it clearly was:

"I want to eat... I want to eat... I want to eat...."

"Hiss!"

Just as Tao Qian was shocked, an unbearable stench, cold and foggy, suddenly spewed from the vortex.

In the confusion, everyone, including the Yin Yang Star Lord, was poisoned.

Symptoms were the same, body paralysis, mana stagnant, flesh softening.

Tao Qian's mind was instantly filled with alarming records exploding forth:

[Currently being corroded by "Devouring Immortal Confusing God Qi"...]

[This is Bloodline Divine Power, only the Outer Realm's "Barbarian Eating Woman" could use.]

[The Barbarian Eating Woman is one of the purest Evil God's Offspring, her parents being the "Devouring Immortal" and the "Barbarian Mother," both Acquired Demon Gods, both among the Ten Vicious Beasts of the Great Abyss.]

[As the daughter of two Great Demon Gods, the Barbarian Eating Woman inherited many divine extraordinary powers, possessing multiple Bloodline Divine Powers innately, and her paternal and maternal divine traits combined to give her a most terrifying divine Exotic Skill known as "Swallowing God," which allows her to need no further cultivation, wandering the Great Abyss, waiting to devour any being with divinity.]

[Devouring Immortal Confusing God Qi is her frequently used Exotic Skill, capable of paralyzing powerful beings, allowing her to slowly devour...]

[Able to exempt part of the cost, recover after one breath.]

Upon seeing the final record, Tao Qian's heart cried out in distress.

Originally thinking this damn "Yin Yang Star Lord" was the biggest threat, unexpectedly, one even fiercer had arrived.

A breath's time?

For powerful beings, it's enough to consume Tao Qian ten times from the inside out.

As this thought arose, Tao Qian was about to reveal more cards to resist.

But at this moment, he and the other three factions of demons and devils saw a horrifying scene that Tao Qian couldn't help but delight in:

After paralyzing everyone with one puff of Poison Smoke, the Barbarian Eating Woman hissed, her enchanting body twisting sensuously.

Blinding light flashed, her flesh-colored long skirt transformed into a mucous-covered hide, her fairy-like body turning into a slippery "strange fish" akin to a Dragon Python, its head being nothing but a black gaping maw filled with countless sharp teeth, like a bottomless vortex.

With a tearing sound, in the blink of an eye, it split into two.

Instantaneous Movement to the sides, taking each head into that bizarre vortex mouth and sucking directly on Feng Junzi and Feng Junniang's eyes.

Witnessing this!

Tao Qian finally understood what this "Barbarian Eating Woman" wanted, her target was divinity.

Originally, she came aiming for Tao Qian's daughter, but the Yin Yang Star Lord, flaunting the divine aura of the "Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors," immediately attracted her attention.

From both sides came a "slurp" sound, as two eyes exuding divinity were devoured by the Barbarian Eating Woman.

The next moment!

Incredibly shrill screams echoed.

The Yin Yang Star Lord momentarily lost Mind, flames of anger erupting.

He was also a God Demon Descendant with extremely strong roots, despite not having reached the Daoist Transformation Realm, yet relying on the reputation of the "Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors," he could walk through all heavens with few scruples.

In some small worlds, he could even act with impunity, wantonly slaughtering.

Chapter 857: Emperor Wa Conceives, Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors_6

Who could have expected?

To encounter catastrophe here.

To be gouged out four eyeballs by an enigmatic ugly woman.

How can this be tolerated?

Instantaneously, Yin Yang Star Lord uttered bizarre syllables, without deploying other divine skills to resist, directly summoning the Father God instead.

Those words contained terrifying magic power, and whoever heard them would feel the same: as if thousands of piles of vomit-inducing filth forcefully poured into the mouth, flooding the stomach.

"Ugh!"

Including Tao Qian, even the Yellow Bat True Immortal, Qingyao Demoness, and the Childbirth Tree began to vomit together.

Barbarian Eating Woman also got polluted.

Yet, she stubbornly persisted, let the filth gush from her mouth, spraying Feng Junzi and Feng with it.

Soon, she had to let go.

A sudden change within the tidal passage, two massive figures wrapped in hazy filth appeared simultaneously.

One Yin and one Yang!

Suddenly capturing the Barbarian Eating Woman between them, grinding her.

If not for that moment when the Barbarian Eating Woman summoned her parent, she might have been ground into raw filth paste.

A blood tongue covering the sky appeared, a gigantic eel monster clashed with the Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors.

The complex Source Qi tide once again interrupted.

However, Grandma Taizhen didn't transmit any sound, clearly understanding this turn of events couldn't be blamed on Tao Qian.

Who could have imagined?

Just a Kitten Demoness giving birth to daughters, a Spirit Treasure Cultivator guarding outside, unexpectedly attracted a collision of four Innate Gods and Demons.

This unfoldment, not even the Spirit Treasure Ten Thousand Immortals foresaw.

...

"Although I didn't participate in any of it, judging by this commotion, accompanied by previous ones, my name as Lord Suppressing Evil Tao Qian of the Spirit Treasure Sect must have been recognized by all heavens."

"This way of gaining fame is rather unique."

Tao Qian, while joking, didn't cover up the smile on his face.

A few moments ago, he feared double bad news.

Now, it turned into a "dog-eat-dog" scenario, expanding his knowledge, guarding safely, witnessing a divine demon battle—how could he not be delighted?

However, his leisurely delight only lasted for a few moments.

Yin Yang Star Lord and Barbarian Eating Woman began to fight.

Yet, Yellow Bat True Immortal, Qingyao Demoness, and Childbirth Tree remained idle.

Without intervention from the offsprings of those two powerful evil gods, the three factions rushed forward again, attempting to kill Tao Qian, breach the Star Aperture Secret Realm.

Seeing them charge, Tao Qian rejoiced even more.

The long-held killing intent against these three evil demons was finally about to be fully unleashed.

"Earlier, I had to beware of sneak attacks from Yin Yang Star Lord and Barbarian Eating Woman, not daring to use all divine power."

"Now is the perfect opportunity; why not take advantage and... slay them all."

With these last three words, Tao Qian made the first move.

Initially, it seemed he was all alone, facing the three armies of devils, each led by descendants of Outer Realm Demons whose cultivation was almost equal to his.

Chance of victory?

Commonly, less than one in ten.

But on the next breath, Tao Qian started his actions.

A book materialized before him, flipping through pages frenetically.

This book was named "Ten Thousand Demon List."

Other Demon Path Cultivators summoning Outer Realm Heaven Demons, typically one or two, or hundreds or thousands at most.

But not for Tao Qian. When the Ten Thousand Demon List appeared, many Heavenly Demon Gates immediately opened behind him.

Each page revealed names like "Power Demon," "Eye Demon," "Scorpion Demon," "Five Directions Demon," flickering briefly, and corresponding portals unleashed thousands, tens of thousands of Heavenly Demons.

In an instant, a legion of hundreds of thousands of Heavenly Demons stood before Tao Qian.

When this scene was seen by Spirit Treasure Ten Thousand Immortals, even figures like Uncle Xuan Yuan and Aunt Wulinn were greatly shocked.

"How did Nephew Tao achieve this? It's impossible; even with superb refining demon pill techniques, he couldn't command such a vast number of Heavenly Demons obediently."

"Is Tao Master truly our Spirit Treasure Sect's Ultimate Happiness Great True Monarch, or is he a Secret Demon Sect Master candidate?"

"This scene, reminiscent of when the Secret Demon Sect gathered a Heavenly Demon army from the Outer Realm Demon Realm responding to Vajra Temple's siege, conducted by a group of elders, how can a single person summon such high-level Heavenly Demons to heed commands?"

...

Unaware of the astonishment of the uncles and aunts, even if Tao Qian knew, it would be difficult to explain.

He couldn't simply confess: I indeed have connections with the Secret Demon Sect, learned the complete Secret Demon Inheritance, naturally compatible, and was listed as a candidate for the Secret Demon Sect Master.

Summoning the Heavenly Demon Legion, enough to counter the encirclement by three demonic factions.

But Tao Qian considered it insufficient.

The Heavenly Demon army could withstand attacks but couldn't annihilate all three factions.

Given the rare opportunity, how could he let it slip?

With a thought arising, suddenly spat out the "Buddha Bird Relic," yet without summoning the Buddha Bird Protector.

Instead, he waved his hand, opening the People Species Bag, letting special relics glowing with yellow light fly out successively.

Rainbow Bone Relics!

One of the grand achievements Tao Qian obtained in New Moon Province, numbering a hundred.

Yuan Gong had remarked: If Tao Qian combined the Buddha Bird Relic with Rainbow Bone Relics, he could instantaneously refine a hundred authentic "Buddha Bird Protectors," establishing a new Buddhist Sect vein [Bai Qin Temple] overnight.

At this moment, Tao Qian intended to do just that.

"Take from Yellow Robe, use against Yellow Robe."

"The principle of causality, enchanting beyond words."

Tao Qian uttered these two lines addressing Yellow Bat True Immortal.

The Outer Realm Yellow Robe clan prodigy initially didn't understand his meaning.

But soon, as he watched Tao Qian cast an art, seeing those relics evidently deriving from "Father God" transform into terrifying Buddha Bird Protectors and charge at the three factions, he suddenly comprehended.

The treacherous Spirit Treasure Daoist intended to use treasures seized from their Father God, reversing to kill him, the Yellow Bat True Immortal, along with his entire Heavenly Kui Bat Clan.

Most critical, when previously encircled, he hadn't shown these methods.

Being Outer Realm talent, shrewd too.

Instantly grasping the crux: this guy suddenly deploying these severe tactics, must have supreme assurance, prior inaction only from restraining those evidently stronger and yet to act Yin Yang Star Lord and Barbarian Eating Woman, was merely handling, teasing them?

Chapter 858: Buddha Demon Armies Slay Evil, Tao Qian Trains for 3 Years

"This is impossible!"

"How could a mere Human Clan cultivator from an insignificant corner possess such power? Such means?"

Yellow Bat True Immortal could neither understand nor believe in the mystical.

Though, when he came seeking revenge and demanding his fate, he had prayed to the 'Yellow Robed God' and heard from the Father God high praise for Tao Qian, this Lord Suppressing Evil.

Yes, although the Outer Realm Yellow Robe marked Tao Qian because he had killed Ying Qingdi, a descendant, the Yellow Robe intended to seek revenge once Tao Qian left the Penglai Sea.

However, the Yellow Robe's evaluation of Tao Qian was indeed very high.

Yellow Bat True Immortal even knew: if Tao Qian were willing to turn to the lineage of the Yellow Robe, not only could grudges be dispelled, but he would also receive tremendous benefits.

Though knowing all this, he presumed that he, who had cultivated the 'Yellow Heaven Secret Scroll' to a profound realm, was surely stronger than Tao Qian, this Human Clan cultivator.

Who would have thought?

That the earlier exchanges were merely Tao Qian's ruse and coping?

At this moment, it is real.

Hundreds of thousands of Heavenly Demons and hundred Buddha Bird Protectors were conjured by Tao Qian out of thin air, and they turned to encircle and slaughter the Heavenly Kui Bats, Ice Worms, and Childbirth Tree.

The Cultivation World always had the Buddha and Demons as irreconcilable, yet under Tao Qian's banner, the Buddha and Demons seemed to have turned the tables.

As the parties collided, they fell into a chaotic battle; hundreds of thousands of Heavenly Demons split into three groups, first entangling the three Devil factions, then speedily trapping the Ice Worm Clan in place, and those little devils would shout collectively to the Hundred Buddha Birds:

"Great Monk, hurry, they're all trapped here, kill them all."

"Quickly, baldies, delay the master's big event, and we won't forgive you."

"Exactly, if this battle goes well, the master's rewards will be bountiful. You monks can be satiated with incense, but we suffer and need Demon Pills to grow our bodies."

"Kill, kill, kill!"

...

Although chaotic, the result was shocking.

Those Hundred Buddha Bird Protectors, each with an extraordinary origin like the Sky-Supporting Ancient Ape, Garuda, Blue Master, Yellow Toothed Elephant, Golden Winged Dapeng... even if merely projections of mana-formed avatars, possessed extraordinary divine skills, let alone having real flesh due to the [Rainbow Bone Relics].

Each one's combat power lay between the Cavernous Mystery and Ultimate Happiness.

In places like the Free Temple, Dharma Cakra Temple, and Da Zhao Temple, they could immediately serve as protectors.

Now here, they truly listened to the commands of the demons, and upon hearing, collectively attacked the Ice Worm Clan.

In just a breaths, those Ice Worms, large and small, suffered heavy losses, crushed into pulp or devoured by some savage Buddha Birds.

Thus victorious, the Buddha and Demon Armies instantaneously returned to their normal battle formations.

Yet, if the demons found an opportunity, there would be another round of brutal slaughter.

If it were other Heavenly Demons or armies of Buddhist Sect Protectors, they might not see such remarkable effects.

The reason was simple, those under Tao Qian's command were, in fact, considered Undying.

Hundred Buddha Birds were easy to say, all were transformed from Buddhist thoughts; as long as the [Buddha Bird Relics] were not extinguished, they would be undying, the Rainbow Bone Relics were merely vessels they dwell in.

The hundreds of thousands of Heavenly Demons were slightly more dangerous; whether the Heavenly Kui Bats, Ice Worm Clan, or Childbirth Tree, all had means to completely devour or kill Heavenly Demons.

Fortunately, Tao Qian as the master, was not heartless.

He allowed the Heavenly Demons, when facing a life-threatening moment, to voluntarily collapse and escape back to the Heavenly Demon Realm.

After the event, they would still receive their rewards.

Being besieged by two Undying and powerful armies, the three Devil factions constantly decreased in numbers.

Upon looking at it, Tao Qian too had to give an evaluation of "seamless cooperation and ruthless execution."

Then, he himself joined in.

Although Tao Qian was not fond of killing, this group of evil demons who came to seize his daughter could not be counted as such.

The opportunity was rare, kill as needed.

With this thought, Tao Qian acted, heralding doom for the three Devil factions.

Ten breaths!

Only this length of time, Tao Qian along with the Hundred Buddha Birds and hundreds of thousands of Heavenly Demons cooperated to kill ninety percent of the three Evil Demon Armies.

Facing such a result, Yellow Bat True Immortal and Qingyao Demoness both were unwilling to believe, the Childbirth Tree, this special evil creature, thus harbored retreating intentions as well.

Although unwilling to believe, during the slaughter, they vaguely sensed the reason and felt greater danger.

"This Human Clan cultivator before us is clearly a Spirit Treasure Daoist, a member of the Daoist Sect."

"Yet through all this slaughter, not once have I seen him use Daoist techniques."

"Meaning just by utilizing the Buddha and Demon Techniques he has learned, he reversed and slaughtered us?"

"If he were to employ Daoist Divine Skills, would we have any chance of survival?"

Yellow Bat True Immortal was the first to realize this.

Upon awakening to it, he suddenly discovered that following him, the Heavenly Kui Bat Clan had only one-tenth remaining, mere dozens, unable to again muster the mighty sky-obscuring momentum.

He glanced over at the Yin Yang Star Lord and Barbarian Eating Woman still in mutual slaughter, and suddenly made a decision: "This person is too treacherous, it will not be accomplished, another day to entangle and seek revenge."

Once the thought settled, he suddenly addressed Tao Qian loudly:

"That Human Clan Daoist, cease your actions!"

"There is an urgent matter in my clan that requires my return, let's halt the battle."

These two sentences were clearly an attempt to preserve dignity after admitting defeat.

Unfortunately, Tao Qian listened but did not heed, focused solely on leading his demons and Buddha Bird Protectors to continue the slaughter, throwing all those many Buddha and Demon Great Divine Powers he had held back until now.

He had long decided to, while the Yin Yang Star Lord and Barbarian Eating Woman were biting each other like dogs, first kill and cripple these three fiendish creatures here to prevent future troubles.

As for mana depletion?

Chapter 859: Buddha Demon Forces Slay Evil Spirits, Tao Qian Trains for 3 Years (Part 2)

Master Tao Da has never worried about such a matter.

...

Seeing Tao Qian determined to kill them all, the Yellow Bat True Immortal's face stiffened, and he immediately grew angry.

The thin Daoist he transformed into, while controlling the Divine Wood Gourd, Blood-sucking Divine Needle, and Heavenly Kui Slaughter Immortal Banner to resist the onslaught and protect the few descendants of his clan, let out a shrill scream:

"Despicable two-legged sheep, we are the Yellow Robed Clan, how dare you try to wipe us out?"

"Wait until this immortal summons the [Yellow Robed Lord] to send down an avatar, see how you..."

Before the Yellow Bat True Immortal spoke, he had already been calling the Yellow Robe's name in his heart, begging for an avatar to save his life.

After all, he was one of the more favored clans, and this method always worked.

Previously, when he led a group of Heavenly Kui Bats wandering in the Source Sea, he occasionally encountered fierce Demon Gods, and each time he used this method to survive.

However, this time, halfway through his call, he found that his call was like a clay ox entering the sea, without any response.

"This is impossible!"

"Who can block the communication between my loyal clan and the Father God...?"

As soon as he exclaimed in surprise, he realized the answer himself.

Lingbao Tianzun!

In front of him, although this territory was considered outside the Longevity Realm.

But upon closer inspection, saying it's at the doorstep of the Spirit Treasure Sect wouldn't be an exaggeration.

Lingbao Tianzun allowed these "Evil Spirits" to invade without issuing heavenly punishment to let Tao Qian and his daughter pass through this calamity without future troubles.

But it didn't mean allowing other Divine entities to send avatars to his doorstep, not even the Outer Realm Yellow Robe.

"But...but isn't it inconsistent, what about the Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors and Devouring Immortal Barbarian Mother?"

When Yellow Bat True Immortal said this.

Tao Qian snorted, seemingly seeing through his thoughts, so "kindly" explained:

"Heavenly Venerate above!"

"Naturally, whatever benefits my good disciple is how it will be done."

"Those Four Demon Gods want to dog-eat-dog, how could the Heavenly Venerate stop them?"

"Resign to fate and go in peace, this is the price you must pay."

In the last sentence, Tao Qian mixed in the divine power of the Daoist sound, seizing the moment when Yellow Bat True Immortal was in a daze, he indeed succeeded.

Upon hearing this, he was stunned for a moment.

Just in that brief moment, a gap appeared in his front defenses.

An unseen Divine Light immediately passed through, halfway manifesting as the "Toad God Tile" exterior, banging onto his head.

Bat blood splattered instantly, even mixed with bits of brain matter.

Yet even so, he didn't faint, instead, his eyes flashed with evil light, turning to reveal a malicious bat grin, deploying a certain blood-sucking secret technique, devouring all the essence blood of the surviving dozens of Heavenly Kui Bats in a blink, compensating for his own losses, healing most of his injuries.

But he did not turn to take revenge, instead he let out a sharp scream revealing his true form, frantically flapping his yellow bat wings.

Amidst the exploding yellow wind, the speed at which he burst forth was terrifying, in a blink reversing up the Source Qi tunnel, returning to the Source Sea.

To cover his escape, he even left a treasure, the Blood-sucking Divine Needle, triggering it to explode, spraying countless blood needles to indeed hinder Tao Qian's pursuit.

"Such a hard skull."

"Such a ruthless heart."

"Also quite decisive, any later, and I'd surely kill you, vile creature."

Uttering these three sentences, Tao Qian casually used the Nine Toad Bead to form a small world of mountains and seas to collect all the blood needles.

Then, turned to kill the Ice Worm Clan.

This clan, perhaps living in the iceberg for too long, was quite slow to react.

When the mortal crisis came, the leading Qingyao Demoness finally reacted, looking at the wounded clan members behind her, dripping cold pus, the demoness stiffly said:

"True Master, spare us, we will no longer pursue."

"We will retreat to the Source Sea."

Hearing this, Tao Qian couldn't be bothered to reply.

He directly moved to guide the demoness aside, deploying all Buddha Demon means, and using the Toad God Tile as well, taking dozens of breaths to slay her.

Before the demoness perished, she didn't struggle or call for help.

It seems because her "Mother Goddess" was originally a corpse, no matter how she called, it wouldn't respond to her.

When Tao Qian turned back to look again, the unruly demons under his command had already killed all the remaining Ice Worms, and with a group of Buddha Bird Protectors, went to slaughter that bunch of evil Childbirth Trees.

Even though they combined to become a Ghost Mother, their divine power greatly enhanced.

But they were still entirely slain, enlightened by Tao Qian, who led a group of Buddha and Demon subordinates chasing after them.

In the final moment, these "Childbirth Trees" followed their instincts to chant the "Emperor Wa Scripture," trying to seek help from Emperor Wa.

Unfortunately, it was still useless, whether Lingbao Tianzun to save face for Tao Qian, his precious disciple, offended Emperor Wa, or Emperor Wa was simply unwilling to help such evil like the Childbirth Trees, especially if it meant confronting Lingbao Tianzun, Tao Qian leaned towards the latter.

At this point, the three factions of evil demons that had caused Tao Qian considerable trouble were all resolved.

If only looking at the result, it seemed too contrasting, overly simple.

Only Tao Qian knew, it was actually extremely dangerous yet fortunate.

"In terms of mana cultivation, even adding magical treasures, the Yellow Bat True Immortal, Qingyao Demoness, and Childbirth Tree, each one is not inferior to me."

"If combined, unless I recklessly revealed all my trump cards, they would have the upper hand."

"If including that Yin Yang Star Lord, Barbarian Eating Woman, and the Five Directions besieging me... even if I revealed all my trump cards, summoning the demons and Buddha Bird Protectors, I would still not be their match, and would have to let Spirit Treasure Ten Thousand Immortals come out to deal with it, which would leave many future troubles and costs."

"Fortunately, the strongest Yin Yang Star Lord and Barbarian Eating Woman killed each other, allowing me to take advantage."

"By first killing the slightly weaker ones, I could easily deal with those two irrational and mindless demons."

Chapter 860: The Buddha Demon Armies Slay Evil Spirits, Tao Qian Exhibits Three Years of Cultivation (Part 3)

Tao Qian sensed something as this thought settled.

Leading the Buddha and Demon Armies, he turned to look.

Sure enough, the two demons had finally stopped, seemingly realizing that the other three sides had been slaughtered by Tao Qian, so they had no choice but to join in the ceasefire.

After seeing the current miserable state of the two demons, Tao Qian couldn't help but smile.

Even though the fighting had ceased, the previous battle was extremely fierce, and both the Yin Yang Star Lord and the Barbarian Eating Woman suffered severe injuries.

The Yin Yang Star Lord, whose body was like the "Giant Temple," was holding the headless heads of Feng Junzi and Feng, with the entire lower half of the body merged into the chaotic filthy flesh in between.

Upon closer look, it seemed quite harmonious, even embodying some kind of profound Great Dao truth, resembling a huge and filthy flesh Yin Yang fish.

If the flesh alone is this terrifying without revealing its true form, one can imagine how powerful the true form of the Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors' God and Demon must be.

On the other side, the Barbarian Eating Woman had somehow donned her flesh skirt again, with a veil covering her swirling mouth.

She was riding on a giant eel that seemed capable of devouring the world, surrounded by poisonous secretions and countless flesh buds and tumors.

Above her, the Devouring Immortal Blood Tongue spanned the sky, its divine nature of hunger and thirst for devouring all things and endless flesh was surging, boiling.

Though the God and Demon camps have the distinction of Innate and Acquired.

Most times, the former is far more powerful than the latter.

Like the Daoist Three Gods, Buddha, Emperor Wa, Doumu Yuanjun, etc., all without exception are Innate Gods and Demons.

However, on rare occasions, it isn't necessarily so.

Devouring Immortal!

Barbarian Mother!

Both are Acquired Gods and Demons, yet they do not fear the Ten Thousand Filth Double Ancestors, these Innate Gods and Demons.

After a head-on clash, they fought to a standstill, no wonder they earned a name among the "Ten Vicious Beasts of the Great Abyss."

But Tao Qian, watching this scene, wanted to laugh even more.

These two demons, it's as if after the smaller ones fought and were dissatisfied, they each called their parents over, and so the parents fought again.

Bloodied and severely injured, saving Tao Qian the trouble.

With the other three sides gone, Tao Qian was no longer as intensely wary of the Yin Yang Star Lord and Barbarian Eating Woman.

He only led the Buddha and Demon Armies to block the entrance, then opened his mouth to first advise the Yin Yang Star Lord:

"This Daoist sees that the Star Lord is not in good condition today, having suffered some injuries, it is really not suitable to make any moves."

"Why not retreat for now, the Star Lord also knows that our Human Clan Cultivators must endure the Dao Nightmare, to seek Dao in the Outer Realm Abyss, there will be many opportunities to seek revenge and claim lives in the future."

After speaking, he didn't wait for the Yin Yang Star Lord to respond.

Tao Qian looked toward the Barbarian Eating Woman and also advised:

"Whether you originally came here to eat me, or to eat my daughter, it seems now you won't be able to achieve either."

"There are plenty of creatures with divinity in the Source Sea, go beg for food elsewhere."

...

If it were some more rational evil demons, seeing the current situation, after hearing Tao Qian's advice, they should have each left.

Unfortunately, these two Evil Gods were not normal in their knowledge.

They simultaneously shook their heads to refuse Tao Qian, actually forming a three-way standoff.

Seeing this, Tao Qian's expression became serious, knowing that the final battle was probably unavoidable.

"These two Demon God's offspring are both the kind that are mad and unreasonable."

"Especially that [Barbarian Eating Woman], lacking in wisdom, yet born to feed on divinity, she is probably in a constant state of hunger and thirst, smelling the fragrance on my daughter from across the Source Sea."

"The closer it is to my daughter's birth, the stronger the fragrance, once a certain threshold is crossed, the Barbarian Eating Woman is bound to be unable to resist pouncing over."

"As she comes, the cunning and perverted Yin Yang Star Lord is certain to follow, but this sibling pair's target is not my daughter, it will be me."

Tao Qian's few thoughts were like prophecies.

After several more breaths.

An exceptionally sharp screech from the kitten was heard again from the Star Aperture Secret Realm behind him.

An unprecedentedly pale rainbow light erupted, with a few strands even escaping the [Little All Heavens Stars Capturing God Prohibition].

In Tao Qian's mind, Grandma Taizhen's voice transmission sounded: "Palace Acupoint fully open, Little Demon Star's head has emerged, it will be fully born in 15 minutes."

Hearing this, Tao Qian immediately knew something was amiss.

Looking up, he indeed saw the [Barbarian Eating Woman] making an excited howl.

No longer in a standoff with the Yin Yang Star Lord, riding her mother's eel avatar, with the Devouring Immortal Blood Tongue in tow, she lunged towards the Ascending Immortal Star Aperture.

"Eat... I want to eat... I want to eat!"

Looking at it, it was simply a ferocious and dumb menace.

Behind her, the Yin Yang Star Lord giggled, not taking the opportunity to sneak attack the Barbarian Eating Woman, but leisurely following with his filthy Yin Yang fish, obviously planning to sneak attack Tao Qian while he fought the Barbarian Eating Woman.

This vile creature planned well, yet was completely oblivious that the filthy chaotic flesh forming the "Yin Yang Fish" beneath him was gradually shrinking.

Including the Barbarian Eating Woman, the avatars of the parents she summoned also became increasingly thin.

Though they still existed, they had already fallen to the "Daoist Transformation Realm Combat Power" level, only slightly stronger than the Three Demons.

Seeing this, Tao Qian immediately felt something in his mind and had a spiritual response.

"Heavenly Venerate above!"

"Since you, elder, want me to fight, how could this disciple not obey."

"It's just right, you elder can see the results of three years of this disciple's hard cultivation."

As this thought fell.

Tao Qian swiftly opened his mouth, instructing the Demon and Buddha Bird to guard the entrance.

He himself actually took the initiative to face the two Evil God's offspring.

In the process, he put away the Buddha and Demon means along with the Toad God Tile, Nine Toad Bead and other heterodox divine skills and treasures.

Looking at him again, he was indeed another Spirit Treasure Daoist wearing a Daoist robe.

The next moment, everyone watching from the shadows could hear Tao Qian's loud and clear laughter: