

Longevity 911

Chapter 911 Three Secret Demons of All Heavens—Gambling and Poison Cannot Coexist

Imagining himself, Tao Qian, whether it's his true form or his demon body, he is definitely a Great Divine Power, and the frivolous Secret Demon Origin Qi should be summoned easily.

Unfortunately, now entering the world as a "mortal body", he has to start over.

"If one only recites scriptures and dances, one can actually only summon the lowest and mixed Secret Demon Origin Qi, and that bit of Origin Qi might not even reach the Energy-Introducing Realm."

"Thankfully, this time there's a sacrifice."

"As long as luck is somewhat favorable, I should be able to summon stronger secret demons to enjoy, and in turn, gift me high-quality Origin Qi."

With this thought, Tao Qian's smiling gaze fell upon the villagers of Jusheng Village, including Huang Yangsheng and Bone Lady.

Seeing the Divine Envoy looking over, the villagers returned with eager and grateful expressions.

These cannibal clans couldn't possibly know?

The Divine Envoy pretending to be mysterious in front of them is actually a mortal who can't even tie a chicken.

Of course, after tonight, he probably won't be.

To regain some power earlier, Tao Qian's chanting of the Demon Scripture grew faster, and the Heavenly Demon Soul Capture Dance became more and more exuberant, barely leaving shadows.

The Demon Sound and Demon Shadow mixed together, gradually causing all villagers to become dizzy, almost fainting.

They thought it was a test, desperately holding on.

Completely unaware that beneath them, a twisted array was forming, filled with hypnotic, toxic black smoke, penetrating through their noses and mouths, causing everyone to act strangely, starting to scratch their own skin until it was rotten, revealing fresh, bloody flesh underneath.

In the array, a few like Bone Lady, Huang Yangsheng, and Da Sha seemed to resist briefly, given their special constitution.

They briefly regained clarity, looking at the scenes with terrified expressions.

Watching all the villagers engage in "self-cooking," peeling off their skin, presenting the freshest blood food.

A few had enlightenment, wanting to flee in terror.

Unfortunately, both the Demon Sound and Heavenly Demon Dance had reached the most twisted climax, with their strongest power.

In the last breath before their downfall, visions of Tao Qian's smiling face appeared in a few minds, as they heard him say:

"Those who eat human flesh shall also be devoured."

"I'm about to entertain some esteemed Outer Realm God Demon guests, with no preparation, I can only borrow your body and soul, fearing to soil my own hands, hence I ask you to peel your skins well, presenting yourselves."

With that said, a few were also entranced.

Acting upon his words, they peeled their own skins, disassembled their flesh, transforming into a fresh blood meal.

Hundreds of the freshest "blood food" were completed in an instant, suddenly seeing the altar center, where the Demon Light surged, several unbearable-to-look-at figures impatiently descended.

Tao Qian immediately stopped the Heavenly Demon Dance, looking up curiously to see what kind of Secret Demon he could summon this first time seriously cultivating the Secret Demon Scripture?

The answer quickly appeared.

In total, three bizarre, twisted shadows forcibly emerged.

What is Secret Demon?

Initially and most of the time later, it referred to those obscure god demons across All Heavens.

Naturally, they vary from strong to weak.

Tao Qian hoped to summon some strong ones, but upon first glance, he couldn't help but show disappointment.

The first Secret Demon!

Surprisingly, it's a quirky heavenly ghost-like god demon, sitting atop a purple-red demon cloud, wearing red clothes and a red hat, with a face covered by a veil embroidered with a design resembling the "Red Middle" from mahjong tiles, holding various gambling instruments in both hands and feet, with a red mist rising behind, carrying a lot of gold, silver, and gambling chips.

Tao Qian was thoroughly familiar with the Ten Thousand Demon List, which besides including Outer Realm Heaven Demons, also recorded names of some Secret Demons across All Heavens.

This one before him, he happened to know.

"One of the Secret Demons of All Heavens, the [Gambling Elder]."

"Avid gambler, claiming nothing in the world cannot be gambled, residing in a hidden realm deep within the Source Sea, this god demon's true form is weak, lacking combat power, yet it manages a 'Gambling Qi Spring,' the Qi within the spring can corrupt one's body and soul wisdom, unwary even innate gods and demons may fall victim."

"The Gambling Elder loves inviting others to gamble, spreading through all worlds texts like 'Nine Heavens Divine Dice Scripture,' 'Secret Card Heaven Book,' 'Red Middle Secret Talisman,' 'Life Playing Demon Chapter' and other Great Lifebook Scriptures."

...

Recalling these memories, Tao Qian's expression naturally turned unpleasant.

Despite the truth being that the [Gambling Elder] is not weak in the Great Abyss.

After all, it polluted so many living beings using Qi.

Even innate gods and demons find it difficult to eradicate.

However, the "Qi" it manages is not what Tao Qian desires.

Fortunately, there are still two choices.

Tao Qian, intending to move to the next one, upon seeing its face, his expression froze again.

Once more, a demon cloud emerged, lazily perched atop a ghost, sallow, emaciated, covered in poisonous sores, decayed teeth, high shoulders, with a large head almost sunk into its abdomen.

In its hands, it held a lidless jar covered in Secret Demon patterns.

Wisp by wisp, multi-colored "smoke" floated from the jar.

The smoke triggered fear in Tao Qian.

The Gambling Elder beside shifted its foot involuntarily, even casting a barrier.

Tao Qian recognized this god demon too.

"The second of the All Heavens Secret Demon, [Chi Du]."

"Similar in origin to the Gambling Elder, it is skilled in collecting intoxicating poisons from all realms. Its original demon body is even weaker than that of the Gambling Elder, yet it possesses a treasure known as the [Great All Heavens Poison Demon Jar], which contains all the intoxicating poisons it has collected. After refining, it has condensed into a type of Chi Du Origin Qi."

"The power, the distortion of this Qi, far surpasses that of the Gambling Origin Qi."

"Once infected, even innate gods and demons will inevitably fall, becoming servants under Chi Du's command, to be manipulated and slaughtered at will."

"Because of this, Chi Du is notorious in the Great Abyss. Whether innate or acquired gods and demons, or Evil Gods and the like, upon perceiving its appearance, they mostly attack to kill it."

"Chi Du is poor at spreading the doctrines, only scattering Chi Du source objects across various realms, harming all living beings and proliferating poison slaves."

...

"Gambling and poison?"

"In that case, it is no longer necessary to mention who the third is."

Tao Qian now wore a look of absurdity on his face, obviously reluctant to admit that his first serious cultivation of the Secret Demon Scripture would result in such treatment.

He lifted his eyes to the third, his prediction immediately confirmed:

As usual, a cloud filled with demonic Qi floated out, seated on it was a deceitful object like a "meat pillar", but upon closer inspection, one would realize it was its singular leg, with an elder's decrepit face at the top, complete with features full of lechery, while the bottom writhed with black, dancing tendrils and sharp fanged mouths constantly biting and drooling.

Behind it was a pink sea of mist, carrying three treasures.

A book, a jade pillow, and a leather cover.

The endless enchanting bodies in the sea twitched and intertwined.

Anyone who gazed at "it" would instantly feel parched, feverish, and filled with countless lustful thoughts in their heart and soul, unable to control themselves.

"Ah, indeed."

"The third of the All Heavens Secret Demon [Evil Lustful Lecher]."

"This god demon, though jointly regarded with the first two as the three elders, is actually the oldest and most formidable, an authentic innate god demon. It is said that the Evil Lustful Lecher was born at the merging moment of the innate Yin and Yang Qi, right from the start he was the master of the [Great All Heavens Desires Evil Yin Origin Qi]."

"After attaining enlightenment, he is nearly immortal, with a lifespan as long as the heavens."

"Yet due to not cultivating properly and straying from the Great Dao, his original demon body is constantly being eroded by origin Qi backlash, leading to a wretched state."

"However, unlike the other two, the Evil Lustful Lecher possesses three innate treasures for protection."

"First is the [Ten Thousand Desires Evil Scripture], which contains secret Yin Yang techniques from all heavens and worlds, whether Daoist bedroom techniques, Demon Dao replenishing skills, or Buddhist joyful techniques... it has them all compiled, making it impossible for any sentient being to look away once glanced upon."

"Second is the [Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow], which holds the wonders of Yin and Yang Qi, being both indestructible and able to soften all things. Any living being rested upon it cannot resist, inevitably falling into a dream, ensnared within."

"Third is the [Ten Thousand Desires Locking Yang Set], which has no leaks and can contain all things, expanding and contracting at will, locking Yang to replenish essence, granting longevity."

...

"What sin have I committed?"

"The first time refining demons, not some mighty gods and demons, but why these three?"

"Dare I use the origin Qi these three bestowed?"

Tao Qian expressed his discontent and resentment openly.

If it were any ordinary little demon first cultivating the Secret Demon Scripture, summoning these three beings unknown to the outside but renowned within the Secret Demon Sect, they would be overjoyed.

Even if displeased, they wouldn't show such a look.

After all, these are gods and demons little demons could never hope to rival in a lifetime, and should be treated with respect regardless.

Tao Qian was different, being of demon body, with a lawless nature.

If his true form were present, it would be different still; he might spray them mercilessly with a "True Fire of Suppressing Evil" to first burn the gods and demons before him.

The Three Secret Demons!

Having been summoned, they came to enjoy the blood food and grant origin Qi to the little demons.

But unexpectedly, though there were hundreds of delectable blood offerings before them, the demon child in front seemed rather displeased with them?

This was truly rare!

The Three Secret Demons all became interested, for without the permission of this demon child, their descending avatars couldn't partake in the tributes.

Thus all three demons looked toward Tao Qian, intending to reprimand him.

Yet at this time, seemingly resigned to his fate, Tao Qian spoke first.

The tone was very disrespectful, almost openly, bluntly pricing out:

"Tao Qian of the Ancestor Land Demon Son, greets the three elders."

"I, Tao, am here participating in the Secret Demon Sect Master selection due to some accidents and need to retrain the [All Heavens Secret Demon Scripture]."

"Thus I set up this All Heavens Secret Demon Qi Summoning Divine Array, merely asking for a source Qi introduction, to restore my past cultivation power."

"However, I am unwilling to be distracted by dual cultivation, only one path is needed."

"I wonder which elder is willing to lend me a helping hand?"

These words from Tao Qian revealed his identity and purpose outright.

Yet within lies profound mystery, granting these three Secret Demons a chance to place their bets.

Though they have some background and means, their Dao path has gone awry, already fixed, with a bleak future. There are countless stronger beings among the All Heavens Secret Demons. If there's any chance to rise to higher status, they probably would not let it slip by.

Sure enough, as soon as he finished speaking.

All three Secret Demons suppressed their displeasure at Tao Qian's tone, their eyes gleaming with demon light.

Chapter 912 - Three Secret Demons Compete in Bidding, Evil Lust Bestows the Yin-Yang Treasure Pillow

Even in the Great Abyss, the Secret Demon Sect's three words are considered a golden signboard.

Not to mention the mysterious Daoist lineage, just the Secret Demon Sect's various powerful figures across realms, either Daoist Transformed or Tribulation Immortals, when combined, ordinary gods and demons can't compare.

And this frail little lad, who looks like a mortal, claims to be participating in the selection of the Secret Demon Sect Master?

If it's false, he'll be devoured in one gulp.

But if it's true, it's a great opportunity.

The three Secret Demons all had these thoughts in their minds.

Tao Qian also knew this, so after speaking, he immediately let the "Divination Worm" project scenes of his earlier fierce endeavors in the Secret Demon Main Path, including Princess Tuluo, tens of thousands of gods and demons plus the notorious Five Defilements Demon Son... Iron-clad proof, which not only proved his identity but also demonstrated Tao Qian's potential and value.

The three old demons with varied appearances saw this, dispelling their doubts, their eyes burning eagerly, wishing they could rub their hands together.

Even the blood food was ignored, as they stared at Tao Qian, exclaiming in succession:

"So it's the Demon Child Tao, no wonder, coming from the Secret Demon Ancestral Land, truly extraordinary skills, I too have left my lineage in the Longevity Realm [Divine Dice Sect], counting some karma. How about this, after I taste your offered blood food, I'll grant you ten Gambler's Source Qi, aiding you to easily enter the Energy-Introducing Realm, and three days into Qi Refinement, subsequent cultivation can be quickly regained."

"Ancestor Land Demon Child, hmm? Indeed a good child, seems I have affinity with you, I'll give you nine Chi Du Source Qi, plus a jar of Blessing Paste, with this treasure, it can assist you a bit."

"Hahaha... Interesting indeed, Princess Tuluo is also quite savage, yet you subdued her easily, calling her sister-in-law, truly a lustful companion like me, excellent, excellent, I'll grant you three Ten Thousand Desires Evil Yin Origin Qi, don't disdain it for being few, this Qi is precious and hard to refine, three can equate to thirty of Gambler's and Chi Du's brothers."

...

Upon hearing the excited tones from the Evil Lustful Lecher as if finding a kindred spirit, Tao Qian inwardly spat.

Nonsense, who's like you, a lustful and lecherous brat?

He, Great Demon Tao, is only romantic, not vulgar.

Despite feeling quite disdainful, Tao Qian saw that the one giving the best conditions first was indeed the Evil Lustful Lecher.

But if you think Tao Qian would be satisfied with this, then you'd be greatly mistaken.

He must be from the main body division as the Great Demon Child, how could he not understand the ways of extortion?

Just see this fellow, first clicking his tongue twice, rubbing his chin in contemplation, then revealing a face of difficulty:

"The three seniors are indeed as reputed, quite protective of the younger generation."

"However, I, as a disciple, cannot accept all the goodwill from you, just need one type, and can only endure one Source Qi."

"The quantity is not the key, as long as it can allow me to enter the Energy-Introducing Realm."

"What's truly troubling me is the danger here, leaving this barren village, all along the way are vicious demons and frightening anomalies, I am now a tiger fallen into a plain, my life-protecting treasures are stored in a treasure bag yet to recover, if I could temporarily borrow some good treasures, that would be secure."

"To speak honestly, my fellow one notable flaw is 'remembering favors', well-known in the Longevity Realm, I, Tao Qian, repay favors generously."

Having finished, Tao Qian looked expectantly at the three Secret Demons.

The three old demons, all speechless.

The same thought appeared in their hearts: Such a shameless brat!

The four in the scene could say they were all sharp-minded, no need for more acting from Tao Qian, in a blink, understanding his thoughts.

In short!

This fellow, is demanding benefits, besides Source Qi still asking for treasures.

Listening to his tone, recalling the Secret Demon Main Path scenes just now, it's evident that ordinary treasures don't meet his standards.

If a Demon Lord or two-generation ancestor Secret Demon Cultivators were calling them for an "equivalent exchange", that'd make sense.

But a broken-down Demon Child turned mortal, casually setting an array, offering some unappetizing blood food, performing a hand-foot Heavenly Demon Dance... just dares to demand benefits from the three gods and demons?

In other scenarios, this wouldn't be much, a transaction.

But now, it's quite different.

Secret Demon Child setting arrays, offering sacrifices, summoning Secret Demons, seeking Source Qi...
This whole ritual follows rules.

The summoned Secret Demons will grant Source Qi based on the "quality and quantity of the blood food", it can be less, but not more.

If more must be given!

The cost, borne by the summoned Secret Demons.

They, clearly there to eat the sacrifices, then reward a few trifles, now have to bleed big? Who can tolerate this?

What's tolerable, what's intolerable.

Among the three Secret Demons, the Gambling Elder was the first to hold his patience, directly spoke with a laugh: "You, merely an Ancestor Land Demon..."

This old demon thought the other two old brothers would follow.

Who knew the next moment, a betrayal occurred.

That Chi Du Elder was the first to interrupt, smiling at Tao Qian saying:

"Good, a fine child."

"So, I'll give you twenty Chi Du Source Qi, and pass you a book of 'All Heavens All Beings Foolish Poison Scripture', plus a jar of Blessing Paste, a bottle of Enchanting Smoke, how about that?"

After finishing, the Gambling Elder immediately discontentedly glared over.

Pity this one who just was backstabbed by second brother, and promptly first brother Evil Lustful Lecher also spoke:

"You and I are of the same path, an instant familiarity, how could I not show anything?"

"I'll grant you a full ten Ten Thousand Desires Origin Qi, as long as your mortal body can endure, tomorrow you'll enter the Qi Refinement Realm."

"I'll also pass you the Great Book of 'Ten Thousand Desires Evil Scripture', you should know, for those of us indulgent and lustful, this scripture is the supreme treasure."

"As for life-protecting treasures?"

"I have many fine items, but most are for amusement and pleasure, not suitable for Protecting Dao and fighting."

"What if, I have a clan under my command called the 'Yin Yang Demons', I can gift you one. Their strength is not inferior to the Great Strength Demons, their Dharma Body is nearly undying, and their divine power techniques are all-encompassing. More importantly, each one is hermaphroditic, able to protect your life and serve your amusement."

The Evil Lustful Lecher proposed this condition, and the Gambling Elder immediately became anxious.

Only then did he realize he was still too thin-skinned. Clearly, there's an opportunity ahead, offering something that barely counts as rare benefits to them would allow him to curry favor with a potentially future Secret Demon Sect Master.

This deal is truly too advantageous to refuse.

As for the price? Previously, he was blinded, no price can compare to the benefits gained after betting on the right treasure.

If this child truly becomes the Secret Demon Revival Master, that would be a great fortune.

Upon realizing this, the Gambling Elder immediately swallowed the rebuke at his lips and, with a smiling face, began to speak:

"Don't be anxious, Demon Child, listen to my words."

"I can gift you a hundred paths of Source Qi and further teach you the 'Heavenly Game Secret Scroll', practicing this, one can calculate precisely, gambling on fate and the heavens."

"As for the life-protection treasure, it's also well-spoken of. In my early years, when I cast and refined the supreme treasure 'Nine Heavens Divine Dice', I had refined a spare one, although its equivalent power is somewhat lacking, it's sufficient to protect your life."

"After obtaining the treasure, if there is any danger, this treasure will proactively alert you."

"If you encounter a thorny enemy, throw this treasure out, as long as it's not the worst side among ninety-nine, you can escape safely."

...

In the blink of an eye, under Tao Qian's inducement, the Three Secret Demons all presented conditions.

In a certain sense, this was already a bidding competition.

If a cultivator who just entered the Secret Demon path saw this scene, they would surely be astounded.

An Undying Demon Child not yet at the Energy-Introducing Realm, receiving such treatment?

Of course, they wouldn't know, even though Tao Qian has already transformed into a mortal, he can still fool the god and demon species, stuffing a big pancake into the mouths of the Three Demons, they must eat.

Who made them all take the wrong path, Tao Qian's "big pancake" as long as there is the slightest chance of becoming real, the Three Elders are willing to try it.

Certainly, the benefits offered are not much for them.

A normal Demon Child would be satisfied by now.

But Tao Qian's appetite wouldn't be so easily satisfied.

Purposely showing a hesitant look, inadvertently he tossed out a bait:

"Three seniors, to be honest, although I entered the Search God Realm, I'm merely passing through, my elders had pre-arranged the path for me long ago, the sect master position is actually... destined."

"However, this realm is dangerous, I need to make a shocking achievement quickly to complete the trial goals, otherwise, there may be variables, and ordinary life-protection items are unlikely to assist me in achieving my desires."

While speaking.

Tao Qian again communicated with the Divination Worm, projecting some scenes that happened earlier in the inferior demon world.

At key points, naturally, Master Xu Yu Zi's blatant favoritism towards him and the indifferent attitude of other masters.

For effect, Tao Qian also deliberately instructed the Divination Worm to cut off the "explanation" after Xu Yu Zi.

The Three Secret Demons, unaware of the inside story, seeing those scenes, immediately felt they have witnessed insider information, all showing a look of sudden realization.

Simultaneously, they understood the subtext of Tao Qian:

The benefits are not enough!

Give more!

This time, those caught in a dilemma were Gambling, Chi Du, and Evil Lustful Lecher, the three elders.

The previous benefits already far exceeded limits, all the costs were paid by them, although not painful, it was uncomfortable.

Now they are asked to raise their stakes again, all three demons hesitated.

Upon seeing this, Tao Qian promptly added: "No worries, three seniors, I only need one to assist me, the kindness of the other two, I will surely remember."

With these words, the Three Secret Demons felt urgency.

Especially the Gambling Elder, he couldn't resist gambling, and this was clearly a gamble, a bet.

After hearing this, his head heated up, he hurriedly wanted to place another bet.

But at this moment, Evil Lustful Lecher interrupted again, taking the lead to say:

"Listen closely, boy!"

"In addition to the original conditions, I will grant you the 'Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow'."

Upon hearing this, all in the field, the two demons and Tao Qian were shocked, turning to look at him.

Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow!

This item is the first companion magical treasure of Evil Lustful Lecher.

Born with him from that Innate Yin Yang Qi, it is indestructible and exquisitely useful.

Such a treasure is not given to others, generally, no one can touch it or sleep on it.

"Big brother, are you mad?"

"Big brother, what nonsense are you talking about? Can that treasure be given away?"

Not only Gambling and Chi Du, the two god demons felt it was absurd and unbelievable.

Tao Qian was also surprised, despite Gambling Elder previously promising a 'Nine Heavens Divine Dice', but he was full of lies, claiming it to be a backup treasure, was clearly a defective piece, taken to fool Tao Qian.

The Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow is completely different.

The power of this treasure probably already equals the Toad God Tile of his main body, even surpassing it in some marvelous uses.

Chapter 913 - Demon Child Freeloader, Dual Yin-Yang Devils

Jusheng Village, Great Demon Tao played his hand skillfully, and the Three Secret Demons bid openly.

The first two rounds went smoothly, but when the Evil Lustful Lecher brought out his own accompanying Exotic Treasure, the "Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow," it immediately subdued the other two lechers completely.

Not only did they refrain from further bidding, but they turned their heads in shock, advising the Evil Lustful Lecher not to proceed.

It must be understood that the child before them was merely a mortal.

Grant the Exotic Treasure!

The price to be paid was not just treasures, but also other costs, all of which the Evil Lustful Lecher would have to bear, allowing Great Demon Tao to reap the benefits.

Before the two Secret Demons could say much, Tao Qian suddenly stepped forward, and in a swift voice declared:

"Deal!"

Those two words were as heavy as a thousand pounds, reverberating with authority.

Gambling and Chi Du both turned their heads with scornful eyes.

If any ordinary Secret Demon Child were looked at this way by two God Demons, their heart would surely tremble with anxiety.

But Tao Qian was not accustomed to indulging anyone.

He smiled warmly in greeting and waved goodbye to the two Demon Paths:

"Your presence is no longer needed here, seniors. We shall meet again if fate permits."

"It's not that I, Tao, favor the Evil Lustful Path, but rather gambling and poisons are utterly irreconcilable to me."

With that, Tao Qian activated an array to forcibly send the two demons back.

As they were sent away, both Gambling and Chi Du had faces full of disbelief, obviously not expecting that a Secret Demon Child among the All Heavens Secret Demons would be treated in such a manner?

Traveled such a long way, didn't even have a bite of blood food, and were insulted by a shameless Secret Demon Child?

This scene indeed made the Evil Lustful Lecher, who had made a ruthless decision to "bleed," laugh involuntarily, and the clusters of black meat tendrils below him wriggled in response.

"Good!"

"What a shameless Ancestor Land Demon Son, just fitting for cultivating demons."

"Seems like my 'Yin Yang Jade Pillow' has found a good temporary master."

The Evil Lustful Lecher said this, but made no move.

He did not immediately take out the Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow and give it to Tao Qian.

He merely looked at him intently, as if waiting for some assurance from Tao Qian.

Seeing this, Tao Qian instantly understood: Although this old lecher was willing to part with such an asset, he needed some promise or assurance from him, not wanting to give away the treasure for nothing.

The so-called "temporary good master" naturally meant that once the treasure was used, it would have to be returned.

If he were trading with genuine teachers, elders, or receiving a favor, Tao Qian would naturally think first of how to repay.

But the Evil Lustful Lecher before him was a errant and evil demon.

Tao Qian, having read the Ten Thousand Demon Name List, would surely know his background, not swayed by his boasts of Yin Yang Dao, which were actually the way of Evil Lustful Absorb.

The Great Book "Ten Thousand Desires Evil Scripture" claimed to include all Daoist and Yin Yang Secret Techniques, Daoist chamber arts, Buddhist Joyful Dharma, etc., seeming impressive, but mostly contained fringe methods with significant costs, disregarded by True Skills... if not for indulging in these, the Evil Lustful Lecher would not have strayed from the Dao Path.

For such an entity!

Whether its true body or demon body, it would only think of freeloading, so how could it think of repayment?

Thus, at this moment, after some contemplation, Tao Qian said bluntly, "Rest assured senior, this junior knows that cultivation comes at a cost. Having received the senior's gift, I will repay in the future."

This answer was respectful and indeed perfunctory.

Repay in the future, but when is this "future," who can tell?

Unfortunately, the Evil Lustful Lecher was not easy to deceive, hearing this, he closed his mouth, the smile on his face diminished.

Seeing this, Tao Qian spoke again:

"This junior, having acquired the senior's Great Book and Yin Yang Jade Pillow, will in this world spread the senior's lineage, nurturing Daoist seeds abundantly."

"In the Search God Realm, a branch of the 'Ten Thousand Desires Evil Sect' will flourish."

These words and conditions were already quite good, although far from compensating for the Yin Yang Pillow.

So the Evil Lustful Lecher shook his head in disappointment, the smile on his face fading even more.

He not only refrained from offering the pillow or magic skills, but slightly shifted as if to leave, showing no interest in even taking the blood food.

Tao Qian couldn't help but continue, saying:

"I forgot to mention, this gift from the senior is a great aid to me."

"When I ascend to the position of Sect Master, I will spare no effort to appoint the senior as Chief Sacrificial Officer in the Secret Demon Sect, allowing access to the resources accumulated within it."

It must be said, this condition was extremely good and tempting.

Even those in the Daoist Transformation Realm could not help but be moved.

Reforging the Secret Demon Sect would certainly not be a repeat of its former, impoverished state.

Becoming Chief Sacrificial Officer comes with unimaginable benefits.

Upon hearing this, the Evil Lustful Lecher's face showed a hint of being moved.

But he soon couldn't help but shake his head again, ultimately turning around, seemingly on the verge of leaving entirely.

Tao Qian seemed to finally be anxious, speaking somewhat rashly:

"Senior, wait!"

"This junior understands, and shall swear an oath to the Ancestors of All Heavens."

"If Tao Qian achieves the Dao, I will surely come to aid the senior, to resolve the calamities of sin upon the senior, correct the Dao Path, transcend tribulations, forget past grievances, and reach the other shore again."

These few sentences could indeed be called a great oath.

Once spoken, they immediately received the ancestral testimonies as a response, and naturally, the Evil Lustful Lecher also sensed it.

He couldn't help but burst into a smile, his peculiar old face resembling a blooming chrysanthemum.

This time, he feared that Tao Qian would regret it, so he immediately turned back to bestow magic and treasures—a mass of flesh wriggling, Source Qi, the Great Book, Clan... and the most crucial Innate Treasure [Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow].

After summoning these items, the Evil Lustful Lecher faced the villagers of Jusheng Village, who had already turned into sacrificial blood food, and sucked them.

He didn't care about the taste of blood food, the Demon Fog swept through, swallowing them whole.

Soon after, before the array dispersed and he returned to the Source Sea, he threw down a sentence:

"Young one, you will surely attain the Dao and sit on that seat of the Secret Demon Venerable."

"I am, after all, an Innate God Demon, my blessing is reliable."

As the demon voice faded, the Evil Lustful Lecher, like a pillar of meat, fell backward and vanished into the ripples of the void.

Only the deserted, burning Jusheng Village was left.

Tao Qian looked at the heap of benefits before him and couldn't help but sigh in his heart:

"Indeed, cultivating demons is faster than the Daoist and Buddhist paths. If you master the art of trickery, the speed might be even quicker."

"It's just that in the future, I might need to trouble my true body. It's best if I can manifest a [Buddha Soul Body] to venture into the Evil Lustful Secret Realm and enlighten that old lecher... So, it wouldn't count as breaking my vow."

If this thought were known to the Evil Lustful Lecher, he would probably rush back to grind Tao Qian's bones to dust.

Dare say this guy's "assistance and conversion" is such a method?

From the very words to the Dao Path itself, it indeed does not count as Tao Qian breaking his vow.

It can only be said, it's a different understanding.

The Evil Lustful Lecher thought this:

"Since this child is selecting the future Sect Master of the Secret Demon Sect, naturally, he should be a demon so evil that it seeps pus from his soles. Having promised to help him correct his Dao Path, he should ultimately use the Supreme Secret Demon Technique and All Heavens Resources to make him fully embrace the Demon Path, forging a Supreme God Demon Body, not like now, neither here nor there. Though he has a grand origin, he is inherently feeble with little combat power."

"In this way, the Secret Demon Sect could add another powerful God Demon as a backbone, achieving a win-win."

While the Great Demon Tao planned thusly:

"First agree with this chump, coaxing benefits out of him, then later manifest a Buddha Soul Body. Just right to enlighten this chump, which could both add to the Buddha Soul Body's merits and remove a big trouble."

...

The Evil Lustful Lecher's handling was without error, and his reasoning was quite logical.

How could he have known?

This Ancestor Land Demon Son, who hoped to sit on the throne of the Secret Demon Sect Master, was actually a traitor, an exchange student, an operative on a gilded mission.

Moreover, the name Tao Qian does not solely refer to the despicable demon son in front of him.

The primordial body is also called Tao Qian, and any potential Buddha that may be manifested in the future will also be called Tao Qian. No matter who comes, it wouldn't count as breach nor breaking a promise.

Such twisted intricacies involve the Duobao Daoist, Lingbao Tianzun, along with several Secret Demon Ancestors, and the karmic weight is so heavy it easily blinds the grand but powerless wartime Evil Lustful Lecher, the Innate God Demon, from the truth.

After grumbling, Tao Qian rubbed his hands and looked ahead.

"Greetings, master!"

Before examining the treasures and the Great Book, he first saw a deceitful creature bowing toward him.

This monster was human-like, dual-gendered, with two heads and four limbs, seemingly forcibly joined as one.

The Yin Body took the appearance of a lustrous young maiden, with snow-white skin.

The Yang Body was that of a young man, fair and beardless, handsome and sturdy.

This outward appearance was excellently camouflaged, yet couldn't fool Tao Qian's keen eyes, especially since he already knew the origin of this deceitful Clan.

"Yin Yang Demon, Source Sea Demon creature, Clan of the Evil Lustful Lecher."

"Their Dharma bodies are nearly undying, inherently possessing various yin yang divine skills, but regardless of gender they are greedy creatures, fond of absorption. They believe that all spirits in the world cannot escape the yin yang category, naturally willing for them to absorb. Meeting a male Yin Body, meeting a female Yang Body."

"Born with many benefits, there are naturally costs. First, they can't reproduce, secondly, the Yin Body and Yang Body are difficult to balance, often ending in mutual destruction."

"When Evil Lustful Lecher was born, besides three treasures by his side, 99 Yin Yang Demons were born. Over the years, only 36 remain. Evil Lustful Lecher kept his treasures, being hunted by Gods and Demons for years, finally willing to give up one of his last remaining 30 plus guardians to me... truly a blood price."

Tao Qian muttered in his heart while keeping an eye on the back of the Yin Yang Demon.

With a curious expression, smiling, he said:

"I see your two Dharma bodies joined, it must be exceedingly uncomfortable."

"Don't worry, I have a treasure [Evil-slaying Sword], which even Gods and Demons can cleave. Once I retrieve it, I'll first chop you apart, release this discomfort."

Upon first meeting their new master, the Yin Yang Demon secretly wondered how this handsome youth before them, didn't look like a master of demon refinement, could he be all talk and no substance?

But unexpectedly, as soon as the new master spoke, it terrified them.

Such a proper demonic demeanor!

He speaks of taking lives right off the bat.

Both the Yin Body and Yang Body were terribly shocked, shaking their heads repeatedly:

"Please don't, please don't!"

"Master might not know, but our two Dharma bodies were born entwined in yin and yang, without attaining Dao we must remain as such lifelong. If she dies, I perish, the yin and yang mutually collapse, inseparable."

"We are nearly undying in battle, except for one 'Chaos Point' on our backs, which is our death spot, hitting it will kill us."

"If the master finds our appearance displeasing, we can transform, please have mercy and don't cut us."

After speaking, demon light flashed.

The twisted and aberrant Yin Yang Demon split into two becoming a pair of beautifully carved Yin Yang children, standing to each side, and knelt again.

Chapter 914 - Liang Country Aftermath 2, Ten Thousand Desire Peach Blossom

"Can't even understand a joke, how dull."

"Guard me, would you? I remember back in the day, a single swing of the Demon Cleansing Sword Intent from me could slice through hundreds of thousands of various Gods and Demons. But now, I have to refine this accursed [Ten Thousand Desires Evil Qi] just to enter the Dao."

"Fallen, truly fallen."

As he casually mocked, Tao Qian sat cross-legged on the altar.

His gaze flicked to the ten clumps of "Ten Thousand Desires Origin Qi" floating in the void, which appeared endearingly pink, like ten pink dumplings. Just looking at them, no one would guess that the lewd aura within, if released, could drive at least a hundred thousand people into a frenzy, unleashing their animalistic desires. The strongest aphrodisiac under heaven pales in comparison.

Knowing the details, Tao Qian sincerely sighed from his heart:

"It's unavoidable, as a mere mortal there's nothing I can do to summon anything better. Getting the Gambling Chi Du three elders here was already a stroke of luck. If I were a bit more reckless, I could melt all three Qis into one furnace, making use of everything together without waste."

"But that cost would be enormous, and I couldn't avoid becoming a true Demon complete with gambling addiction, Chi Du, and lust... At that point, whether I could sit on the Sect Master's throne is uncertain, but my original self would surely snuff me out, a classic case of cost exceeding benefits."

"Should I honestly start as a little lusty Demon first?"

With the thought, Tao Qian looked towards the genuine treasure on the other side.

It was a Jade Pillow, in black and white, shaped somewhere between a cylinder and a brick, smooth and cool to the touch, engraved with countless yin-yang positions that are dizzying to observe.

Anyone who sees it would instantly think: What a treasure, a peerless jewel indeed.

Especially its positions, penetrating straight into the soul, making it hard to extricate oneself from.

Tao Qian was also pleased, reaching out to take it. The moment he touched it, he gained detailed knowledge:

[Name: Ten Thousand Desires Yin-Yang Pillow.]

[Type: Innate Exotic Treasure.]

[Description: This is one of the three accompanying Exotic Treasures of the Innate God Demon "Evil Lustful Lecher", created amidst the intertwining of yin and yang, thus imbued with the subtlety of the Great Dao. It was originally called the Yin-Yang Pillow, later tainted by the Ten Thousand Desires Origin Qi refined by the Evil Lustful Lecher, engraved with countless yin-yang positions, transforming from Innate Essence to an Evil Demon Supreme Treasure, a curse rather than a blessing.]

[Note 1: This treasure, owing to its yin-yang subtlety, is unparalleled in defense. Even if a supreme killing treasure strikes it, it is hard to damage. Although it lacks any inherent killing power, it can be used as a weapon, albeit a crude one.]

[Note 2: Every position engraved on this treasure can derive a method of absorbing, a supreme treasure dreamt of by all lustful and licentious people in the world.]

[Note 3: This treasure serves as an aphrodisiac, for healing, body protection, soul nurturing, essence refining, etc., but no matter how it's used, it gradually becomes tainted by the Ten Thousand Desires Origin Qi within, transforming into a creature like the Evil Lustful Lecher.]

[Note 4: This treasure has a hidden use. If fully refined and then placed under someone's head at night, regardless of who it is, they will fall deeply in love with the user... Even Yue Lao, the Red Rope God, and other God Demons may not achieve this point.]

[Note 5: It can exempt almost all costs! But since the Demon Child's soul body lacks the 'Spirit Treasure Sublime Body' protection, and inherently has some small desires for lust, these will inevitably intensify.]

...

"No matter!"

"It's just a small cost, if I'm not lustful, can I still be a Demon Child?"

Having perused the description in detail, Tao Qian's face showed a completely unconcerned expression.

He kept playing with the smooth, cool Jade Pillow in his hand, observing the marvelous positions on it with great eye-opening delight, all the while muttering to himself:

"Predecessor Evil Lustful Lecher, such a waste of treasures."

"A perfectly good piece of [Innate Yin-Yang Jade], if given to the ancestors of my Spirit Treasure Sect, would inevitably produce a Supreme Treasure like the Innate Yin Yang Jade Ruyi."

"And now, it ends up as something purely for bedroom fun, such a waste."

Tao Qian wasn't worried about being overheard by the Evil Lustful Lecher, speaking out as he placed it behind his head.

He lay back lazily, summoning the "Ten Thousand Desires Evil Scripture," allowing it to flip through the pages automatically.

At first, Tao Qian was a bit inattentive.

But gradually, his eyes began to brighten, his interest piqued.

Soon, he sat up, hugging the Jade Pillow, completely engrossed.

As his eyes and Spirit fully immersed in the text, the ten pinkish Origin Qi clusters began to stir, one after another bursting, turning into tendrils of peach blossom-like mist, seeping into Tao Qian's body through a hundred apertures.

The proper refining demons process had begun.

But surely, using a source Qi like "Ten Thousand Desires Evil Qi" to refine the Secret Demon Scripture, the resulting Demon Child would notably deviate from the norm.

...

Normally, this kind of cultivation for a Demon Child would take several months to over half a year to complete.

For Tao Qian, a "big shot reincarnate," things were different.

He even far exceeded the previous expectations of the Gambling, Chi Du, and Evil Lustful Lecher.

15 minutes!

In just this time, Tao Qian, while reading the scripture and cultivating, entered the Energy-Introducing Realm in the blink of an eye, then easily broke through the Body Refining, Blood Fusion, and Fetus Stabilization barriers, using up nine strands of Origin Qi. While refining the tenth, he smoothly broke through another barrier, successfully stepping into the Qi Refining Realm.

The Yin Yang Two Demon Children protecting on either side were astonished by this scene.

However, they had been ordered by the Evil Lustful Lecher, aware of their new master's extraordinary origins, and after their initial surprise, they were not only unsurprised but also came forth to pay their respects, seizing the opportunity to flatter.

At this moment, Tao Qian stretched lazily as he awoke.

After sensing his cultivation, he casually began to practice.

Having just entered Qi Refinement, he hadn't yet learned any Divine Skills. But with a mere thought, he activated the "Ten Thousand Desires Evil Origin Qi" within him, diluting and expanding it. In the blink of an eye, a vast amount of pink mist rose and turned into dancing peach blossom petals, quickly engulfing most of Jusheng Village.

Though this scene was dazzlingly beautiful, it was extremely perilous within.

"This move can be called the 'Ten Thousand Desire Peach Blossom Array'. As long as you inhale a trace of the peach blossom mist, your desires will be stirred, and you will be at my command."

"Hmm? This scene is quite familiar, as if Nongyu Immortal Pan Hongniang had once used it?"

"The karmic ties of the main body have actually impacted me here."

"It would be nice to be granted an immortal; as long as it's not someone as excessively mutated and hopeless as Pan Hongniang, this Great Demon Tao would gladly accept..."

Great Demon Tao muttered to himself, completely unaware that his behavior had quietly changed somewhat.

Having refined someone's Source Qi and rested on their Innate Exotic Treasure, how can one do so without paying a price?

Becoming increasingly lecherous is the slightest of the costs.

The Yin Yang Two Demon Children saw their 'temporary master' becoming more like the old one and prepared to come forward to flatter him.

But before they could act, they suddenly sensed something, furrowed their brows in unison, and turned their heads toward a direction outside Jusheng Village.

Not sure what they saw, they spoke in one voice:

"Master!"

"Some outsiders have intruded on the ridge, two groups, and it seems the ones in front are being chased and are heading this way."

"Master, don't worry. Although both groups have cultivators, the so-called 'God Demon Spirit Cultivation' of this realm, their abilities are not great. The two of us can handle it, ensuring the master remains safe."

The Yin Yang Two Demon Children would not miss a chance to prove themselves.

Having said that, the two tacitly performed the Round Light Technique, directly projecting the scene tens of miles away:

Sure enough, a pursuit and attack were taking place on the main road up the ridge.

All were from the Human Clan, based on their appearance and aura, presumably all military people, not one of them being mortal Human Clan. Regardless of the front or back, they all possessed Extraordinary Power, fighting each other using spells.

The ones fleeing in front were at a severe disadvantage, not only because of lacking skills but also due to having to protect a luxurious carriage pulled by some Exotic Beasts within their ranks.

The decorations on the carriage had been battered, with only a thin layer of Forbidden Technique shielding the people on it from falling to the ground.

A quick glance revealed two mature women in luxurious clothing, protecting a young boy and girl aged seven or eight; these four were truly mortal Human Clan, bearing no extraordinary abilities, just full of terror, likely aware that they were doomed.

The leader of their guards was a large man in armor, whose entire body had almost no good flesh left.

This man, unsure of what kind of Magic Skill he used, was mounted by entwined tortoise and snake beasts, adopting a solemn expression as he addressed the four on the carriage:

"I, Shi, am incompetent, and fear I may no longer be able to escort the royal highnesses to Pei County."

"I only hope to hold off those traitorous minions as much as possible, giving the royal highnesses more time."

"My daughter has cultivated some God Demon Magic, and she will be the last resort to send you."

With that, the man pulled an imposing young woman in armor from his side.

Ignoring the young woman's frightened reluctance, he forcefully instructed:

"Remember, Bei Niang, no matter what, the royal highnesses must not be harmed."

"Deliver them to Pei County and seek the 'Demon Cleansing General'. Liang Country can be revived."

"Go quickly!"

Before he finished speaking, he slapped the flank of the Exotic Beast dragging the nearly lifeless carriage.

The beast trembled, erupting in a mist of blood, and let out a shrill screech.

The next moment, in a flash of lightning, the Exotic Beast dashed forward wildly.

If not for the Forbidden Technique protecting the carriage, it would have shattered from the impact, and the four mortals would have exploded into a mist of blood.

The young female general, Bei Niang, despite her reluctance to part from her father, hesitated only for a moment before transforming into a streak of lightning, chasing after them.

Free from concerns, the tall man turned around with a hearty laugh, addressing the subordinates armed with various weapons:

"Children!"

"It seems that we all must sacrifice for the country, dying here at Earth Evil Ridge."

"If anyone regrets following me, they may turn and flee now. I will not pursue."

Before he could respond, his eardrums were immediately assaulted by resounding roars, with all soldiers turning red in the face, shouting that they had no regrets.

Before he could reply, the sound of gnashing and chomping suddenly resurfaced.

The terrifying scene immediately played before his eyes.

Sweeping expanses of aliens were either flying or running rapidly, swarming up the Earth Evil Ridge.

All had human heads and insect bodies, covered in carapaces, with scythe-like limbs and blades in their mouths... they seemed to be hybrids of locusts and humans, producing strange beings.

The leader was also a general.

Its appearance was like a malicious locust-formed spirit monster.

Dressed in bloodthirsty armor, it was uncertain whether this armor was originally such a Demon Treasure or was stained by human blood.

Nevertheless, it was clear that there were more than a hundred thousand resentful souls wailing behind it.

At this point, Shi Zhongxiao's mind was flooded with memories from not long ago: the entire city filled with kind-hearted citizens who aided their escape, all devoured cleanly by these 'locust people', and the one who consumed the most was this wicked demon, called the 'Blood Locust Demon General', right in front of him.

This demon was also one of the ten demons under the Liang Country's Grandmaster's command.

Chapter 915 - Sisters Weep with No Way Out, Suddenly Enter the Demon Child's Peach Blossom Spring

The Yin Yang Two Demon Children can perform the Round Light Technique, reflecting the scenes several miles away, yet they lack the ability to calculate and predict, unable to allow Tao Qian, their master, to understand the causes and effects.

Merely looking at the images, it was all still a fog of confusion.

Fortunately, at this moment, the "Little Divination Worm" that Tao Qian released earlier had just expanded to the main road of Earth Evil Ridge. The insect silk, unseen by anyone, infiltrated the bodies of each person on both sides of the confrontation in the blink of an eye.

Even those four who were escaping, and that young female general, were completely spied upon.

In an instant, Tao Qian comprehended everything:

"This territory, including the temporary residence registration of my mortal body, belongs to a country called 'Liang Country.'

"The king's surname is Li, he is an emperor skilled in eating, drinking, playing, and composing poetry but not in ruling a country."

"A few days ago, the grandmaster Zhao Cihang of this country rebelled, easily taking over the Imperial Palace, and executed Emperor Li... The current Empress and Imperial Concubine, who were originally sister flowers, fled the Imperial City with their children, under the protection of the head of the Imperial Guards, [Turtle Snake General Shi Zhongxiao], seeking refuge in Pei County in the south of Liang Country."

"It is both to seek protection and hoping that the general of Liang Country, who is currently stationed in Pei County, can assist the Crown Prince in restoring the country."

...

None of the experiences and insights of these people present could be compared to that of the previous Jusheng Village chief, Huang Yangsheng.

Through their memories, Tao Qian naturally instantly understood Liang Country and even a vast amount of information beyond Liang Country.

Roughly, some world background was also known.

"Inside the Search God Realm, there seems to be a vast number of shattered continents... This area underfoot is called [Ten Thousand Gods Continent], where many countries stand, and the turnover is extremely fast, with rebellion and usurpation being commonplace."

"Liang Country's territory is neither too big nor too small, with a medium status, located in the southern part of Ten Thousand Gods Continent."

"Its founder was called Li Feilian, with the Taoist name Heavenly Gang Spirit Officer, rumored to have an extraordinary destiny, having learned a set of God Demon Rites in his youth, capable of summoning the Outer Realm Demon [Spirit Plague Marshal], and later piecing together as many as thirty-six different sets of God Demon Rites, which if fully performed could summon thirty-six god demons to bestow their powers."

"Relying on this Extraordinary Power, Li Feilian expanded territories and established monumental achievements."

"Unfortunately, the descendants of the Li family became weaker with each generation, and being infatuated with riches and honor, the emperors capable of God Demon Spirit Cultivation became increasingly rare."

"Until the last three generations before the fall, there wasn't a single one, ultimately having to bestow the God Demon Rites to loyal subordinates to maintain rule, and Turtle Snake General Shi Zhongxiao was one of the beneficiaries."

"However, his actual strength was still inferior to the [Blood Locust Demon General], one of the ten demons under Zhao Cihang's command, because this demon was recognized by the Outer Realm Demon 'locust god' in his youth and was granted many secret techniques and God Demon treasures."

Tao Qian blinked, comprehending much in a moment.

On the pitch-black mountain road of Earth Evil Ridge, both sides were already in a frenzied fight.

When Shi Zhongxiao saw the Demon General, all kinds of blood debts surfaced in his mind, immediately driving Shi Zhongxiao into madness.

His whole body started emitting blood energy with a hiss, abruptly setting up a formation array, leading a multitude of soldiers to begin forming seals, chanting incantations, and shouting:

"Children, join me in chanting the 'True Martial Demon Cleansing Scripture' to call upon the [Turtle and Snake Gods] to bestow us with Divine Magic Power through Spiritual Response."

"This fiend follows the [locust god], which is nothing but an Acquired God Demon lacking Spiritual Wisdom, knowing only to devour, and its supernatural power is far inferior to that of the Turtle and Snake Gods."

"Kill! Kill! Kill!"

Shi Zhongxiao spoke lightly, yet it was to stir the morale.

From the aura of both sides, one could discern the strength.

The Blood Locust Demon General on the opposite side had not yet made a move, but behind him were a full hundred thousand locust people, covering the sky and devouring everything.

This side, along with Shi Zhongxiao, had called forth merely two turtle and snake phantoms, creating much commotion but couldn't withstand the chewing of the locust mutants.

In an instant, the victory was decided.

The turtle and snake phantoms dissipated, the remnants were devoured utterly, and Shi Zhongxiao couldn't escape this fate, nearly being gnawed into a human stick, his face a pitiful sight, with no eyes left and gauged flesh at the nose.

Even so, this general was extremely steadfast, shouting loudly before his death:

"Blood locusts, you and your master with the wild ambitions should not get complacent."

"The Demon Cleansing General has mastered all thirty-six sets of Heavenly Gang Rites, once he knows what Zhao Cihang has done, he will surely seek retribution."

"You're just like grasshoppers after autumn, you can't hop for much longer, hahaha..."

The Blood Locust Demon General had remained silent, only now did he listen to Shi Zhongxiao's dying shout.

The pursuing body suddenly had its head turn, grinning to reveal a mouthful of red needle-blade teeth, and sneering words pierced through, sharp and harsh:

"A dedicated commander of the Forbidden Army, even thinking of bluffing this general to buy some time before death."

"Unfortunately, it was in vain."

"Even if I let your daughter lead them away for thirty miles first, so what? With a single Flying Locust Divine Escape Technique, this general can catch up easily."

"As for the Demon Cleansing General Li Chongyang, huh, clearly a Liu family member, shamelessly recognizing the old emperor as a wild father to obtain those thirty-six Heavenly Gang Rites... If he could gather the Rites and summon all thirty-six Heavenly Gang God Demons, he could indeed be a threat to the Grandmaster."

"But alas, he happens to lack the set of [Turtle and Snake Gods] that you cultivated."

"Heh heh, you think I don't know you secretly hid the ritual secret book on your daughter? You sent the body to protect the secret book, how could you succeed?"

As soon as the Blood Locust Demon General finished speaking, the expression of utter despair appeared on Shi Zhongxiao's face, all his thoughts having been uncovered.

He wanted to attempt something more, but unfortunately, his body was already drained and exhausted, and the few locust mutants that had been waiting for a long time around him rushed forward with malicious smiles, and with the rustling sound passing by, that territory was already empty, not even a bone or a drop of blood was left.

Chapter 916 - Sisters Weep with No Way to Live, Suddenly Enter the Demon Child's Peach Blossom Spring (Part 2)

Even Shi Zhongxiao's soul, due to the intense resentment before his death, instantly transformed into a "Resentful Ghost", and was absorbed by some Exotic Treasure behind the Blood Locust Demon General.

Clearly, those words were deliberately spoken by the Demon General, just for this scene.

After finishing, the Blood Locust Demon General smiled contentedly, and with a movement of his foot, he instantly transformed into a streak of blood light, chasing the runaway carriage.

...

These scenes occurred very quickly, Tao Qian watched them within ten breaths.

As the Round Light Illusion Mirror dispersed, some considerable commotion already came from the front of Jusheng Village.

Like beast hooves running, carriage hitting rocks, women's screams, lightning flashes... and further away, the strange sound of locusts moving across the sky.

Clearly, both sides are rapidly approaching Jusheng Village.

If it is a coincidence, it is possible that the empress and concubine duo sisters of Liang Country, along with a son and a daughter, will be caught within the territory of Jusheng Village and be cruelly devoured clean.

The Yin Yang Two Demon Children also expected this, and seeing Tao Qian furrow his brows in contemplation, they thought the master indulged in the "Ten Thousand Desires Evil Scripture" did not wish to be disturbed.

The two children simultaneously patted their chests and belly, loudly assuring:

"Master, don't be upset!"

"Go on cultivating, these tactless unlucky Human Clan members will be handled by us, ensuring they can't enter this village."

"What locust god, Turtle and Snake Gods... Just hearing them, they're all such weak gods and demons, merely weak spirits lucky to gain the Dao, insisting on claiming the title of gods and demons, aren't they afraid of making others laugh their teeth off."

Having said this, the two equally lustful and lecherous children strode out gallantly towards the outside of Jusheng Village.

Looking at that posture, it somewhat resembles going out to sweep away leaves and flying insects for the master, to prevent these sundries from disturbing the master's elegance.

Unfortunately, they hadn't walked far when Tao Qian, using the power of the Little Divination Worm, heard the two demon children's whispered transmission:

"Master seems not to have practiced the Yin Yang Technique before, that's why he's so immersed in the Evil Great Book, could he be a novice?"

"Probably so, just right, among those unlucky Human Clan members currently rushing over, there are three who can be considered 'Absolute Beauties', we'll catch them all, strip off their clothes, offer them to the master for a good time, wouldn't that be a great merit?"

"Good! Great idea! The old master misjudged the Great Dao, affecting us with no Dao Path, this temporary new master is said to be very different, expected to ascend to the Secret Demon Sect Master position as the Source Sea genius... If our siblings can attach ourselves to him, in the future, we might even get to mix as prestigious All Heavens Secret Demon Tribute, prospects are great."

"That would be great, but offering beauties to the master leaves us empty-handed."

"Not really, isn't there a 'Locust Monster' chasing behind us? It's also strong, we can absorb it, and temporarily enjoy, hehe."

Each of these sentences, if heard in person, would surely cause one's face to darken sharply and make a move to teach a lesson.

However, currently, here is Great Demon Tao, upon hearing, not only did he not get angry but instead showed a smile.

Then, not knowing what calculation this sly one has thought of, the smile grew even broader, even to the point of being called licentious.

Suddenly, he spoke, halting the two demon children, first revealing the transmission of their hearts, then saying:

"You two are commendable in your filial piety, but acting in such a crude manner does not grace the grand stage."

"Yin Yang matters, the strong people's body is the lowest grade, it is simply not worthy of my attention."

"If I act, I must first have the Heart Soul, then enjoy the wonderful body... Compared to your crude methods, it's much more advanced."

Tao Qian had just finished speaking.

The Yin Yang Two Demon Children, whether sincere or false, each offered compliments:

"Master is brilliant!"

"Worthy is the master, acting with elegance, incomparable to us commoners."

"Enough, don't make any more noise, listen to my instructions..."

...

No one knows what Tao Qian discussed with the Yin Yang Two Demon Children, but when the two left Jusheng Village, they both had a look of "Master, you really know how to play" on their faces, probably having gained some insight.

Meanwhile, the two demon children also witnessed firsthand the territory starting to undergo tremendous changes.

Starting from about ten miles away, without any warning, the original smooth mountain road suddenly became winding and rugged, dark and complex, stretching all the way to Jusheng Village, with mountain cliffs and dark forests being moved here, forcibly concealing Jusheng Village.

Then it stopped, Jusheng Village underwent tremendous changes as well:

With cascading pink peach flower petals, the grim and ominous mountain village suddenly became bright and serene.

A full moon hung high, its calming moonlight slowly falling.

Illuminating the front and back of the village, inside and outside the village, the vibrant peach forests blooming with peach blossoms.

The land appeared vast and flat, with orderly houses, fertile fields, beautiful ponds, mulberry, and bamboo... all complete.

What is the Immortal Realm?

This can indeed be considered an Immortal Realm.

In the village, at the transformed altar, a somewhat divine sound was transmitted:

"Quickly transform, do not delay."

"Remember your identities, you two are the Two Immortal Children of Peach Blossom, guardians of the Peach Blossom God."

"This is Peach Blossom Village, built by the remnants of the former dynasty to avoid war. Generations worship the Peach Blossom God, thus they live in peace and prosperity."

"Later, all the villagers accumulated virtue, officially departed this fractured Search God Realm, and ascended to the Upper Realm to live carefree lives."

"To benefit future generations, they deliberately left the Peach Blossom Divine Statue and a volume of the 'Peach Blossom Immortal Scripture,' awaiting those with destiny."

"They are all those with destiny."

"Yes, master."

The two Demon Children heeded the instructions, remembered the plot, shook their Dharma Bodies, and with a flash of Demon Light, the once ominous Demon Children instantly transformed into two Immortal Children with jade-like skin, exuding fragrant scents.

To perform it more realistically!

The female child transformed her Exotic Treasure [Yin Demon Soul Destruction Nail] into a fresh and vibrant peach branch still glistening with dew, holding it in her hand.

The male child transformed his treasure [Yang Demon Soul-devouring Saber] into a pink Pan Peach, sweet and juicy, holding it in his palm.

Adjusting their attire, they simultaneously proceeded to meet the carriage fleeing for its life.

...

Such happenings, naturally, were illusions created by Tao Qian using the Innate Treasure [Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow].

The reason for doing this was naturally part of a plan, not merely for the reason of lust and lechery.

Tao Qian entered the world with the purpose of plundering its spiritual materials.

The Search God Realm is vast and complex, full of strong people, not to mention the elite Secret Demon Children entering the world alongside him. This soon-to-be fractured world is sure to attract the coveting of All Heaven Dao Veins, not to mention the countless Source Sea Gods and Demons... The competition is extremely fierce, far surpassing that of the Longevity Realm back then.

Currently, Tao Qian has no significant cultivation, no substantial foundation.

By chance, he encountered this play, and thought of making a move, gaining a foothold while cleverly integrating himself into the Search God Realm.

The Two Immortal Children, naturally, were responsible for the reception.

The true trick of Great Demon Tao was within the village.

No one knows when the altar, once sacred and peaceful, turned into the place where Tao Qian disappeared without a trace.

In its place, however, was a somewhat peculiar divine statue.

Its texture seemed neither entirely jade nor wood, only appearing very warm, imbued with supreme Divine Light and extraordinary Immortal charm.

Upon observing its appearance, it immediately became clear that it was transformed from the main body of the Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow.

Looking at the features, who else could it be but Great Demon Tao?

He merged his flesh and blood with the Innate Treasure, transforming into a divine statue as thick as a small arm, placed solemnly upon the altar.

Beside the statue was a peachwood box.

Inside the box was a volume titled "Peach Blossom Immortal Scripture," from the Outer Realm.

If one were to open the scripture, they would first see lines describing what kind of God Demon the Peach Blossom God is, with words so extravagant they can only be described with four characters.

Further inside, rather than cultivation methods, was a complete set of rituals for summoning the Peach Blossom God.

If it were in another world, Tao Qian would surely spend effort fabricating, or simply transfer some cultivation spells over.

In this realm, however, he conformed to local customs.

"The cultivation method of the Search God Realm is essentially a form of alternative summoning."

"But what they summon are All Heavens Gods and Demons."

"Can I, Tao Qian, be a Peach Blossom God in this realm? That's not excessive, is it?"

Chapter 917 - The Demon Child Seeks Destiny, Daoist Sect's Number One Pretty Boy

"To become this [Peach Blossom God], I had to confine myself within the Yin Yang Pillow, my sacrifice has been too great."

Transforming into a strange-shaped, twisted statue, Tao Qian spoke to himself.

At the same moment, outside Peach Blossom Spring, a grand spectacle also began to unfold.

Under the protection of Turtle Snake General Shi Zhongxiao's daughter, Shi Beiniang, the carriage sped wildly down the mountain path, supposedly in good time to descend from the perilous Earth Evil Ridge.

Yet for some reason, the road ahead grew increasingly rugged, even as the Chong Mountain Beast pulling the carriage was urged by Shi Zhongxiao's Secret Technique, as the hour dragged on, it gradually lost strength.

In no time, they found themselves trapped within a ghostly forest.

With a mournful cry, it vomited blood and died.

The Forbidden Technique on the carriage also met its end, shattering into pieces and flinging the Empresses, as well as the Crown Prince and Princess, out of the vehicle, transforming into rolling gourds tangled in a heap.

"Your Highness!"

Shi Beiniang cried out in shock.

From behind, a sudden disturbance echoed, she turned to look, and despair grew within them.

Across the sky and ground, within the mountain path woods, locust mutants filled every visible space, some flying by carrying heads and severed limbs as rations.

What pained Shi Beiniang most was seeing her father's resentful soul, among the ranks behind the [Blood Locust Demon General].

Roaring endlessly, yet unable to move the Demon General.

Should the latter harbor wicked thoughts, Shi Zhongxiao, once a Divine General, now feared he would transform into a Chang Ghost.

Knowing this fact, Shi Beiniang turned with a solemn and ashamed expression to face them and said:

"Your Highnesses, Beiniang is ashamed, I fear I cannot fulfill my father's entrusted duty."

"To spare Your Highnesses from suffering in life and from being taken by this Evil Demon's soul in death, please forgive Beiniang's impudence, I shall send Your Highnesses on your way."

"Fear not, to die by Beiniang's hand, there shall be no pain."

As her words fell, Shi Beiniang had already withdrawn her own Magical Treasure weapons from her bosom.

Though she seemed a lovely maiden, she drew forth an iron hammer and an iron spike.

Both were engraved with Divine Thunder Talismans.

Accompanied by a series of crackling sounds, the hammer raised high, the spike set to fly forth.

Listening to her words, watching her actions, it was clear she intended, before confronting the Blood Locust Demon General, to first kill off the Empresses and Imperial Concubine, as well as the Crown Prince and Princess.

Was the method to use the iron hammer to drive the spike into the head?

Upon realizing this was fate, the Empresses and the pair of children, could hear nothing else of what Shi Beiniang said.

Faces filled with fear, shaking heads madly.

Especially the great Empress, her terror was most intense.

Shi Beiniang's treasures were called the [Divine Thunder Hammer] and [Thunder Sound Cone], her cultivation in the God Demon Rites named "Golden Light Saint Mother's Teachings" was bestowed by the Empress herself, out of affection for Shi Beiniang, who would have guessed she'd end up dying by these two treasures?

Yet in the last moment before her death, she understood the underlying reason.

Realizing Shi Beiniang's actions, truly loyal and justifiable.

Knowing her father's fate was before her eyes.

However, this scene also stunned the Blood Locust Demon General and the arriving Yin Yang Two Demon Children.

"What a ferocious young girl, without hesitation, she plans to kill the noble she's meant to escort."

"But the logic holds, that locust spirit monster clearly carries the task and cost of collecting resentful souls for the [Locust God]; if those people are taken, the fate will be a hundred times more miserable than simply being killed, a thousand times more pitiable."

"Stop her?"

"No rush, don't forget the master's instructions, we Immortal Gods spirits only make a stunning entrance at a critical moment, the locust monster will intervene."

...

"Stop!"

As expected, just as the Yang Body Demon Child spoke, the Blood Locust Demon General shouted.

This Demon General clearly did not anticipate Shi Zhongxiao to have such a fierce daughter, knowing mere shouting was fruitless, to prevent Shi Beiniang.

He was forced to use an Escape Technique, transforming into a blood locust light, overtaking, shielding them with his body.

Witnessing this!

Shi Beiniang showed no surprise but rather revealed a conspiratorially successful expression, as if she had anticipated the Blood Locust Demon General's action.

The previously hesitant Divine Thunder Hammer accelerated instantly.

The seemingly ordinary Thunder Sound Cone exploded with unprecedented Power in that moment, Shi Beiniang presumably poured all her God Demon Power into it.

The small iron spike, as it descended, transformed into a lightning bolt tens of meters long.

Clang!

Hammer descended, spike killed!

Dust and smoke exploded, blood light surged, Shi Beiniang was thrown back, slamming into a large tree, armor tattered, spitting blood.

Despite her injuries, she gazed toward that place with hopeful eyes.

But in the next moment, hope turned into despair.

In its place appeared an enormous, thoroughly crimson, mutated locust; every inch of its body was covered with a multitude of vermin-like creatures similar to "mites," upon closer inspection, every mite's face was undeniably those controlled resentful ghosts.

What truly drove Shi Beiniang to despair, was the bone-spiked back armor.

Upon it, lay a stark, conspicuous white mark.

"With both Divine Weapons, exerting all strength, only leaving such a mark?"

Shi Beiniang's face filled with disbelief, as she crawled towards the dropped hammer and spike with her wounded body.

This time, her struggle, one feared she truly would kill the Empress, Imperial Concubine, Crown Prince, and Princess.

Unfortunately, what use is it?

Chapter 918 - The Demon Child Seeks Destiny, Daoist Sect's Number One Pretty Boy

The Blood Locust Demon General, revealing his mutated true form, turned with a cruel grin, extending his claws to grab two treasures and, after examining them, said:

"What fine treasures!"

"If it were the Founding Emperor Li Feilian of the past, or the current Demon Cleansing General using them, no doubt I would already be a charred pile struck by thunder."

"How unfortunate, you're but a little wench, didn't even have time to perform a proper rite; how much of Mother's Lightning's Divine Power can one summon?"

"However, your cunning trick was commendable, successfully luring me here, willing to take your hit."

"As a reward, I'll devour you first, reuniting you with your father and daughter."

"Afterwards, I'll slowly toy with that pair of sisters and mother... As for this delicate Crown Prince, my master insists on capturing you alive, so I'll let you live a few days longer."

The Blood Locust Demon General, savage by nature, bore the task of gathering resentful souls for his household's divine demon.

Therefore, before acting, he would always torture people first.

Otherwise, no resentful souls would be produced.

But if he knew "villains always die from talking too much," he might choose a different approach.

Just as the Blood Locust Demon General revelled in his chatter, an unforeseen event suddenly occurred:

On a rugged mountain path, through a dim forest.

A burst of brightness exploded, and peach blossoms seemed to dance across the sky from nowhere.

In the flowers, a potent, intoxicating Exotic Fragrance filled the air.

Simultaneously, two clear and pleasant immortal voices were heard:

"Everyone, guests who come."

"As you are destined to visit [Peach Blossom Spring], all may enjoy the immortal treasures."

All turned to look towards the source of the immortal voices.

From the depths of the boundless peach blossoms, two immortal children of ice-jade skin emerged slowly.

The girl on the left held a peach branch.

The boy on the right cradled an immortal peach.

This scene could truly be described as a miraculous divine revelation.

For a moment, both sides were dumbstruck.

Before Shi Beiniang and the others could discern anything, they first saw the pair of immortal children walking straight towards the Blood Locust Demon General.

The girl raised her peach branch, waving it towards the demon general, the sweet rain immortal dew upon it sprinkling forth.

The boy then with a wide smile offered the immortal peach, urging the demon general to swallow it.

At that same moment, they witnessed the peach blossoms suddenly transforming into fluttering, palm-sized "Peach Blossom spirits," actively diving into the mouths of all Locust Mutants, as if offering themselves to entertain the guests.

If earlier, it was divine beauty and splendor, now it was a pathological, bizarre distortion.

Even the young Crown Prince and Princess could sense something amiss.

This was a trap!

Strangely, the originally immensely powerful Blood Locust Demon General and the hundred thousand locust people seemed to be entrapped in an illusion from which they couldn't escape.

Obediently consuming the Peach Blossom spirits, receiving the sweet rain, eating the immortal peach.

In an instant, like dumplings being dropped into soup, the sky-filled locusts rustled to the ground, melting into flower fertilizer in the blink of an eye.

The Blood Locust Demon General, whose original form was massive, had a satisfied smile on his face, opening his mouth to thank the immortal children, when a delicate peach tree burst out from his mouth, breaking his body apart, absorbing his nutrients.

Blinking in disbelief, and upon looking again, all troubles had vanished.

Before them stood only a delicate peach tree and the pair of immortal children gazing at them with kind expressions.

Before Shi Beiniang and the others could ask questions, the pair of immortal children spoke first:

"Destined ones!"

"The disturbing evil creatures have been eliminated, please follow us to meet our master."

"Tonight, this auspicious occasion shall witness the birth of new Divine Envoys and Spirit Officials."

These words fell on their ears.

Shi Beiniang and the Empresses remained vigilant, but the two youthful Crown Prince and Princess could not suppress the glow in their eyes.

Without regard for the danger just relieved, they couldn't help but exclaim in turn:

"Destined ones? Wow, could it be the opportunities spoken of in the divine demon folk tales?"

"It must be, Divine Envoy, Spirit Official indeed."

Such a reaction from the Crown Prince and Princess was not unusual in the Search God Realm.

In this realm, such legends were plentiful.

Originally an ordinary person, unexpectedly encountered the [Outer Realm Demons] before they spread their teachings, and after being favored by them became a Divine Envoy Spirit Official, gaining extraordinary God Demon Power.

Such people have a collective term, called God Demon Spirit Cultivation, which is equivalent to the cultivators of the Longevity Realm.

Most God Demon Spirit Cultivators can only learn one set of God Demon Rites, following and offering tribute to one God Demon.

Their strength or weakness depends on the power of the God Demon they follow and their own cultivation.

A few God Demon Spirit Cultivators can learn more than one set of rites... such people in the Longevity Realm are called Talents.

Their Li Family ancestor, known as the Heavenly Gang Spirit Officer Li Feilian, belonged to the latter.

...

Although the changes in the scenery before them perfectly aligned with the blessings described in the books,

Shi Beiniang and the sister pair of Empresses still held doubts.

Especially in the next moment, after the immortal child spoke, none of them could resist, and they involuntarily stood up and followed the Two Immortal Children deeper inside.

As soon as they left, the magnificent scenery instantly vanished.

Replaced by a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood.

A pile of locust mutant corpses stacked like a mountain, all poisoned to death.

At the peak of the corpse mountain was the Blood Locust Demon General, whose grand head was pierced through by an unknown demon blade, and his belly was miserably torn apart—having swallowed a peach, it was shredded by the Yang Demon Child's demon blade.

Had it been a face-to-face battle, given the favor this demon general received from the [Locust God] among the Acquired God Demon, he should not have died so abruptly and miserably.

At least he should have been able to battle with the Yin Yang Demon Children for several rounds before determining the outcome.

Unfortunately, the Great Demon Tao had no patience.

With a single glance, he saw the great flaw of this realm's cultivation system: the so-called God Demon Spirit Cultivation's strength relied entirely on the God Demon itself; without them, the combat power drastically decreased.

After realizing this, he directly ordered the [Little Divination Worm] to sever the Spiritual Response between the Blood Locust Demon General and the Locust God.

Then the Yin Yang Demon Children launched a surprise attack, swiftly resolving the trouble.

To achieve this!

The conditions were numerous; had the opponent or territory been different, he would have been powerless.

Only the already thoroughly invaded "Earth Evil Ridge" by the insect silk of the Little Divination Worm allowed the Great Demon Tao to easily manipulate the weather, pretending to be a ghost with no hindrance.

Killing the Blood Locust Demon General was no big deal.

His real "tricks" were still ahead.

...

Led by the Two Immortal Children, the Empresses fleeing for refuge, along with the Crown Prince and Princess and Shi Beiniang, entered the Peach Blossom Spring.

The initial mysterious darkness followed by a sudden clearing was truly wondrous.

So when they saw the "Peach Blossom Spring" painstakingly arranged by Tao Qian, they couldn't help but utter sounds of amazement, even Shi Beiniang.

The Search God Realm was on the verge of shattering, and the Human Clan of this realm was certainly in peril.

Even those enjoying luxury and power in the Human World, those "nobles," often witnessed war and countless natural disasters throughout their lives; seeing such a peaceful secret realm unavoidably captivated their spirit and sight.

Walking towards the village, their ears echoed with the themes of Peach Blossom Spring infused by the Two Immortal Children.

Unconsciously, they became immersed.

When they arrived at the altar and saw the statue of the [Peach Blossom God],

The miracle and immortal scenery reappeared:

The statue of the Peach Blossom God suddenly emitted Divine Light, and in a trance, a scene that even the God Demon stories could not depict was projected.

That image contained a Divine Realm Immortal Realm, within which the most striking feature was an endless Immortal Peach Forest, with its owner emerging at this moment.

It was a Divine being!

His appearance and demeanor differed greatly from any person or deity in this realm.

The Divine Light emanating from him was enough to make all the evil demons submit.

Seeing this, there was a wave of awe.

The sister pair of Empresses, the Crown Prince and Princess, involuntarily knelt down.

From their expressions, it was clear that they were entirely convinced this was an Outer Realm Demon who had not genuinely revealed miracles or spread his teachings in the Search God Realm, at least within Liang Country, and evidently was a Good God inclined towards the Human Clan.

Even Shi Beiniang, who was still somewhat doubtful, hesitated and knelt when looking at the "Master Tao's" appearance.

Residing within the statue, the Great Demon Tao saw the scene below and couldn't help but express his defiance and amazement in his heart:

"Hmph!"

"As I expected, my true form is really the first pretty face of the Daoist sect; with this flamboyant style of [Spirit Treasure Suppressing Evil Lord] displayed, who could resist believing?"

Chapter 919 - The Demon Child Refines the Peach Blossom Girls, Calamities at Earth Evil Ridge

Though Tao Buddha's son has refined ten strands of Ten Thousand Desires Evil Qi, stepping from an ordinary mortal into the Qi Refining Realm, he is still considered a weak Demon Child, with no particularly powerful Divine Skills.

Fortunately, he tricked the Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow, an Innate Treasure of infinite uses, from the hands of the Innate Gods and Demons known as [Evil Lustful Lecher]. Coupled with the incredible Extraordinary Power of the Little Divination Worm, it is enough for him to act like a spirit monster within this Earth Evil Ridge, fooling everyone with no one able to see through him.

He himself, however, can also transform into the likeness of a God Demon.

Yet ultimately, he is a Demon Child, lacking a certain natural grace compared to his true self.

If it were Tao Qian himself, naturally, it would be completely different.

"Dispel the great calamity of the Human Dao, and save tens of billions of people in the Longevity Realm, eliminate the alchemists, sweep away the Outer Realm Gods and Demons... with all these supports, the Spirit Treasure Subduing Evil Lord is akin to a God Demon, and now in the Longevity Realm, there are Suppressing Evil True Monarch Temples and Peach Blossom Divine Palaces everywhere. Given that we are one, if I use them, the true self would have nothing to say."

"Right, Daoist Peach Blossom."

Tao Buddha's son, while impersonating his true self to deceive others, also ridicules him in his heart.

Yet the true self, trapped in the Ascending Immortal Star Acupoint, cannot intervene and is helpless.

The few women all knelt down together, initially fearful, but then remembering that above them was a being akin to a God Demon, they pleaded earnestly.

First were the Empresses, the two being a pair of sisters, naturally both unparalleled beauties of the Human World favored by the Emperor.

The elder, named Jiang Caiping, had flushed cheeks like drunkenness, skin white as jade, adorned in luxurious garments, exceptionally beautiful.

The younger, named Jiang Caiyun, was even more beautiful than her sister, innately charming and delightfully coquettish.

The two women spoke one after the other, their request was the same, to preserve the lives of Jiang Caiping's two children.

Then there was the so-called Crown Prince and Princess, one seeking to restore the nation and avenge, the other, with a childish voice, requesting the Peach Blossom God to protect her family.

Unexpectedly, Lady Bei, after some hesitation, also spoke up.

She was much more rational than the others and still suspicious of Tao Qian, but with a sliver of hope, she requested the Peach Blossom God to resurrect her father Shi Zhongxiao, and if he couldn't be resurrected, at least to know whether her father had already been liberated or had been captured by the [locust god]?

Tao Buddha's son, from a high vantage point, naturally saw through Shi Beiniang's complex thoughts.

Encountering a God Demon, everyone had requests.

But this "Peach Blossom God" remained indifferent to others.

His gaze only fell upon the Jiang Sisters, and a Dao sound that brought Peace to the Heart Soul and repelled all evil echoed:

"You two, are destined with me."

"Would you be willing to serve as my Divine Envoy Spirit Officials, to become my Peach Blossom Goddesses, spreading my Dao lineage and divine power within this realm?"

...

This pair of sister flowers, able to reach the positions of Empress and Imperial Concubine, naturally are not just empty-headed beauties, their intelligence isn't low.

Yet at this moment, seeing Tao Qian, hearing the Dao sound, they couldn't help but nod their heads in agreement.

Shi Beiniang tried to stop them, but the word "willing" had already escaped the two women's lips.

The next moment, radiant Divine Light surged, shining upon the two of them.

The Jiang Sisters both felt a mysterious hot stream pouring into their bodies, converging at their brows, forming a peach blossom brand.

Upon opening their eyes again, both felt that their physical body and Heart Soul had gained something beneficial, now different from Mortals.

They also saw the peach wood box beside the divine statue open by itself, with a Secret Book called the "Peach Blossom Immortal Scripture" flying out, splitting into two, suspended in front of the two women.

Without waiting for the two women to react, and before Shi Beiniang could voice her objection.

The beautiful Dao sound echoed again:

"That which you seek, I already know."

"Yet everything has a price, since you offer no Tribute nor sacrifice, you cannot summon my Avatar to fulfill your desires."

"But since you are destined, and have become my Goddesses under my command, you shall be granted a boon."

"These Two Immortal Children can escort you away from the Earth Evil Ridge safely, but if you wish to summon them again in the future, you must prepare offerings according to the rituals. Previously helping you resolve the evil and escorting this time, counts as the meeting gift for a destiny."

"The matter of restoring your son's kingdom is not difficult for me, yet your son cannot afford the price, but I, with the power of foreknowledge, have determined that this child has the appearance of an emperor, and in the future, will surely have Blessing to aid him."

"As for this follower of [Golden Light Saint Mother], your father transformed into a resentful soul, no one can revive him, and even his Soul should have been captured and devoured by the Evil God. However, that locust spirit monster died at the hands of my Immortal Children, and thus the hundred thousand resentful souls and Chang Ghosts naturally dispersed, all achieving liberation, you need not worry anymore."

After saying these things, Tao Qian took action again.

This time, however, it was to drive people away.

Only to see the half-pillar, half-jade pillow statue of the Peach Blossom God suddenly float up, directly landing into Jiang Caiping's embrace, while above, the phantom of the "Innate Divine Being" waved its sleeve, saying to guests:

"All of you still have worldly attachments unresolved, it is not proper to stay in this Peach Blossom Spring, you must go, go."

With those words, radiant Divine Light surged again.

In a trance, when the Jiang Sisters, their two children, and Lady Bei opened their eyes again, they found themselves standing once more on the wide mountain path.

Were it not for the [Two Immortals of Peach Blossom Spring] still in front of them, they might have thought what just happened was merely a dream.

However, the youngest Crown Prince and Princess were the first to awaken, staring wide-eyed, examining the two Immortal Children.

"Wow! It was really a God Demon Immortal Fate that we encountered, no, that mother and aunt encountered, they became Peach Blossom Goddesses, such beautiful peach blossom marks."

"Big brothers and sisters, were you Immortal Children from heaven?"

"Can we fly to the Immortal Realm to become Immortal Children in the future?"

"Both of your highnesses..."

Named Shi Beiniang, the female general was also quite responsible, and although she mostly believed in this inexplicable Immortal Fate, she still moved her position to try and stand in between.

Chapter 920 - Demon Child Refines the Peach Blossom Girl, Endless Calamities at Earth Evil Ridge (Part 2)

She suddenly believed again because she couldn't imagine what kind of conspiracy could be involved.

She simply muttered to herself:

"It is often heard that some evil gods and malicious gods spread false news about recruiting God Demon Spirit Cultivators, luring many to join, and then reveal their true forms, swallowing them whole."

"This Peach Blossom God, first sent immortal children to kill the Blood Locust Demon General and one hundred thousand locust mutants for us, and also bestowed the Empress and Imperial Concubine with the ritual secret book, seemingly giving other benefits as well."

"A God Demon can easily dispose of us without needing to resort to any conspiracy?"

"Thinking of it, truly, it's the Empress and Imperial Concubine's Blessing that has arrived."

Shi Beiniang's thought process was not flawed.

At least in this Search God Realm, it was very reasonable.

Sadly, how could she imagine that this Peach Blossom God was a counterfeit, an outsider.

The plot was grand!

How could the mere allure of a pair of sisters satisfy the appetite of the Great Demon Tao?

It was also at this time, among the sisters.

The naturally charming Jiang Caiyun was full of amazement, and even felt restless, discreetly caressing different parts of her own body.

Her elder sister Jiang Caiping, having been a queen, acted slightly better, but still could not suppress her delight, saying:

"So this is the feeling of becoming a [God Demon Spirit Cultivator]."

"Bone cleansing and marrow washing, heart soul clarity, I even feel like my lifespan has increased a bit."

"Beiniang, did you get these benefits during your first spiritual cultivation?"

Jiang Caiping assumed that the benefits her sister received were like a welcome gift common to all spiritual cultivators.

But in the next breath, she saw Shi Beiniang shaking her head in reply:

"No!"

"During my first spiritual cultivation with the 'Golden Light Saint Mother's Teachings', I only received a spiritual response, before I could set up the ritual, sensing the Divine Spirit... Back and forth ten times, on the tenth time, I offered thousand-year Thunderstruck Wood, Thunder Marsh Divine Sand, and other items, finally receiving a response from Golden Light Saint Mother, granting me a Thunder and Lightning Golden Pill to cleanse my marrow, only then did I shed my mortal body."

"For a first spiritual cultivation to bestow bone cleansing and marrow washing, and even grant protection by immortal children, Beiniang has never heard of which God Demon Spirit Cultivator received such a gift."

"This Peach Blossom God, so generous."

After Shi Beiniang spoke, the Jiang Sisters became even more delighted.

These two women were beautiful ladies from the deep palace, when have they ever experienced such thrilling and extraordinary events.

If not for the wrong timing and location, the two women might have already undressed, thoroughly inspecting what changes had occurred in their bodies.

In Jiang Caiping's arms, Tao Buddha's son secretly smiled, then immediately murmured "what a sin".

Bone cleansing and marrow washing?

Yes and no.

Tao Qian merely borrowed the power of the [Ten Thousand Desires Yin Yang Pillow], running the ten strands of Ten Thousand Desires Evil Qi he had already refined within his body through the two women's bodies separately, achieving the effect of refining body and cleansing marrow to some extent.

But there was also a cost.

The two women had been "refined" from inside out by Tao Qian, and left with a mark, unknowingly, they already had favorable feelings towards the Peach Blossom God, who was actually Tao Buddha's son.

Just a few more hours of contact, and in the future, they would be devoted, unable to break free.

Such a magic skill with extraordinary power is definitely considered an Evil Demon's technique.

It was just that it was well hidden and disguised by Tao Buddha's son, with an excellent appearance, no different from Immortal Fate Divine Skill.

As for being generous?

Upon hearing this, Tao Qian couldn't help but sneer in his heart:

"What kind of generosity is this? If it weren't for my cultivation power and personal treasure bag being stored in the Secret Nest, the welcome gift should at least be tenfold or a hundredfold thicker."

"Other God Demon Spirit Cultivators are so miserably stingy, it's simple."

"Most gods in the Great Abyss come to the [Search God Realm] for the same purpose, which is to develop followers to gather world spiritual materials."

"As this realm is on the verge of breaking, there's no need to really leave behind a tradition, operate magic veins, so these transactions have become a one-time deal, the gods being stingy, unwilling to give more benefits, wanting the horse to run but not willing to feed the horse... The most shameless of all is that Mysterious Corpse, who simply stopped caring about the followers halfway through playing."

"I, Great Demon Tao, would never be like this."

...

As these thoughts fell, the two immortal children, who had received his instructions in advance, suddenly spoke:

"Two Goddesses!"

"Each of you is enshrouded by sinister energy. I'm afraid it's just a matter of time before the Evil People come to pursue us. Earth Evil Ridge is incredibly perilous; it's best not to linger here for too long."

"We two have received the divine mandate to escort you away from Earth Evil Ridge."

"Once down the mountain, the two Goddesses should follow the 'Peach Blossom Immortal Scripture' for spiritual cultivation. Regardless of the dangers encountered or difficulties faced, they can be resolved swiftly."

These words echoed, and the group seemed to awaken from a dream.

All recalled their original purpose, remembering the identity of the Queen of the Fallen Country and the Crown Prince.

"Go! Hurry down the mountain."

"Head to Pei County, seek out [Demon Cleansing General] to support the king and eradicate the traitors, restoring our Liang Country."

"We must seize the time. Father hid his set of ritual secret book within me; we must deliver it to Pei County before those bandits attack the General, helping him to complete the Heavenly Gang Thirty-Six Divine Generals."

"The infamous Earth Evil Ridge—we've long heard tales of it. This time, we trouble the Two Immortal Children."

Jiang Caiping, this beautiful Empress, became a God Demon Spirit Cultivator, seemingly restoring the dignity of a nation's mother.

She was the first to step forward, thanking the two immortal children.

Soon, the group proceeded under the protection of the two children towards the outer realms of Earth Evil Ridge.

Though no pursuit followed, the group, including Lady Bei, soon fell into terror again.

Within Liang Country, there are ten places of great danger.

Among them is Earth Evil Ridge.

They had only heard of it in the past but had never seen it.

Now, they've truly seen it and even experienced it.

It was not that sinister creatures, demons attacked, or God Demon evil spirits wanted to devour them as blood food, but natural disasters.

Various bizarre, rare, terrifying calamities of different scales randomly occur without any pattern or cause in every corner of Earth Evil Ridge's territory.

Just like now!

The group was trekking along a mountain path when an odd sound suddenly came from behind. Turning towards it by moonlight, they instantly saw a sudden appearance of a black wind filled with countless small golden light points blowing over a nearby peak they had passed, with a "boom" sound, the jagged peak was abruptly sliced in half, cleaved in midsection.

This scene left the group speechless in shock.

Lady Bei, who had broader knowledge, was understandably fearful, saying:

"That seems to be [Golden Evil Annihilation Wind], though appearing to form in the sky, in fact, it randomly emerges from the earth from the Golden Evil Qi, possessing boundless power, easily demolishing cities and mountains. Even mighty God Demon Spirit Cultivators would perish if hit."

"Lucky we moved quickly, or we would've lost our lives."

The female general had just finished her lament.

Suddenly, a loud noise emanated from ahead, followed by a scene of heaven collapsing and earth caving in.

A hidden valley along their path suddenly sank into a cavern.

From within, flames first erupted, then True Fire over a hundred meters high spewed from the depths of the earth.

In an instant, the dark Earth Evil Ridge was painted a glowing red.

The cold night wind dried up in a moment.

All living beings around the Hidden Valley, regardless of type, suffering a catastrophe couldn't even cry out in struggle before being scorched into charcoal.

The group nearly stepped into that scorched region, staring dumbfounded.

"Earth Orifice True Fire!"

"It's another of the deadliest calamities within Liang Country and other nations."

"Legend has it the deepest Earth Orifices harbor enough treacherous True Fire to incinerate the world, originally resting peacefully underground. But for nearly a thousand years, these True Fires keep erupting randomly without any sign. A mountain, a city, sometimes even an entire small nation suddenly caves in, True Fire surging, incinerating all."

"Even if my father or the Blood Locust Demon General, those God Demon Spirit Cultivators—if they fall into a pit of fire, they'll still be trapped with no escape."

"The only upside might be that the death isn't so painful."

Listening to Lady Bei's words, the family clutched together trembling in fear like quails.

The Jiang Sisters even hugged the [Peach Blossom Divine Statue] tightly to their soft bosoms, seemingly finding safety only this way.

In fact, it was indeed so.

Had it not been for Great Demon Tao's overwhelming contribution, the group would have succumbed to these chaotic sudden natural disasters.

He enjoyed the touch of the two ladies' bosoms while inwardly sighing:

"It's indeed a world on the brink of destruction, with any territory full of such perils."

"Golden Evil Annihilation Wind, Earth Orifice True Fire, Five Evil Poison Mists, Yin Fire Poisonous Sludge... These things would be rare cultivation materials requiring specific search in the Longevity Realm. Here they become ordinary like the mountain breeze and streams. If this continues, the Human Clan of this realm, along with other beings, might all perish without a single one remaining."