

Lord of War 23

Chapter 23: .Changed plot

The Forest of Starfall has always been a nightmare in the minds of many citizens of the Celian Kingdom and the Kingdom of Portoroa.

High-ranking powerhouses will not enter it at will to take risks, and even if low-ranking people enter groups in groups, there are few examples of being able to come out alive. Ever since, the Forest of Stars and Fall has become more and more mysterious, more and more dangerous, and the inside and outside of the forest have become two completely different worlds.

Under the clear night sky, there are no so-called stars. It seems that the sky is slightly dim tonight, but even this kind of sky is still much more beautiful than the night of the earth.

On the periphery of the Forest of Starfall, dense fog is permeated.

People call this thick fog the boundary of death, which means that one jumps over and one death.

But at this moment, several figures suddenly emerged from the dense fog, and after a short while, they walked through the dense fog and walked out of the Starfall Forest.

A total of eight people.

Most of these people's clothes are already in tatters, and there are even wounded people, and most of the weapons they carry are also somewhat damaged, just to a different degree. The oldest in the crowd is nearly half a hundred years old, and the youngest is only thirteen or four years old. This is a team that looks very strange to anyone, but the killing intent from the team is comparable. An elite army.

This team is Xiao En and others who came to the Kingdom of Portoroa through the Forest of Starfall.

is just the leader of the current team, not Sean, but Du Luen.

After all, this place is already the territory of the noble viscount. Even if this path has caused some admiration and some comrades in the other side, but they are not equal to each other, so once they came out of the forest of the stars, this one Of course, the nobles have to put on some airs that belong to the nobles. Of course, at this moment, Sean is not as black and disdainful as before.

It's just that, Xiao En glanced at Du Luen, and sighed uncomfortably: "This old guy, it seems that getting a Tier 4 career is not a problem."

Then, his gaze turned to Old Peter, but he sighed helplessly: "This old guy, although his personal attributes have been slightly improved, but he can no longer find a job, I am afraid it is dead, unless he is willing. If you abandon your current career and change your job, there may be the possibility of breaking through the fifth rank."

Sean sighed twice, and his mood was slightly different before and after.

"Here is Tindes." Du Luen took out the map to check it, and then confirmed, "If you don't have Sean on this trip, I'm afraid we can't come here alive. Now I and Mr. Harley He and others are planning to go back to Tindesburg, Sean, if you have nowhere to go, you can go back with us."

Tindsburg?

Some information about this territory immediately appeared in Xiao En's mind, and then he remembered that this territory is not very safe. The lord of Tindes, the Marquis Perot, was a very hearty old man. This territory was very prosperous under his management, but it was later that his brother, Earl Mario, conspired to seize the territory and title, Perot. The people of the Marquis line were basically dead.

Of course, the king of the Kingdom of Portoroa also sent someone to investigate the matter, but Earl Mario's methods were so clean that he didn't even have any evidence. If it weren't for many players who joined Earl Mario's camp, and then took the matter to the forum to talk about it, no one really knew.

After remembering these things, Sean looked at the gazes of Du Luen and Harley, a little sorrowful.

According to the development of the plot in the game, the son of Marquis Perrault was robbed and killed by a group of mountain bandits on his way home with a business trip of polar silver. And the Marquis Perrault was hit this time, and he died because of the fire dragon poison attack. Of course, as the player, Sean knew very well that it was actually the Count Mario deliberately detonating the fire dragon poison on the Marquis Perrault. Otherwise, Perot The Marquis can live for at least another four or five years, but Tindes will naturally change the owner after the death of Marquis Perot.

At this moment, Du Luen and Harley are alive and well, which is not the same as the development of the plot.

Sean couldn't help but wonder if his butterfly has started to cause a tornado? But in the game, he hadn't heard of anyone receiving the task of escorting Du Luen back to the country.

All kinds of thoughts flashed through Sean's mind.

Xiao En seemed to have some decision in his heart: "Just ice heart grass can't cure the fire dragon poison."

Du Luen originally invited Sean back to Tindesburg together, but Sean said such a sentence inexplicably, and other people didn't understand it after listening, but the faces of Harley and Du Luen were suddenly big. Change.

"You..." After leaving the forest, Du Luen's face once again showed the unique arrogance of nobles, but at this moment it turned into a look of horror, and he subconsciously pressed his belly. "How do you know?...No, who the * are you!"

This series of mutations made everyone feel a little unresponsive, and they didn't know what was going on. Then everyone remembered that when in the Forest of Starfall, no matter what the situation, Du Luen was only covering his abdomen. At that time, everyone just thought Du Luen, a nobleman, had not suffered such suffering, so there was something in his body. It's just discomfort, and now I understand that it is not the case.

"Bing Xin grass can indeed cure the fire dragon poison, but that is only the initial stage." Shaun did not answer Du Luen's question, and said to himself, "but the fire dragon poison on Marquis Perot has become deeply poisoned, only by Bing Xin. The grass is already useless, and it can only temporarily suppress the fire dragon poison."

Hearing Sean saying these words so calmly, Du Luen's heart was already a little flustered. The Bingxin grass he had spent so many years searching for was actually useless, which made him feel extremely disappointed. Efforts have been negated. It's just that Du Luen is also a steadfast man. Hearing Sean say these things so lightly, a kind of hope has risen in his heart.

Du Luen's attitude changed in an instant, and he said respectfully: "Mr. Sean, please tell me what I should do."

"If you can collect snow liquid, ice congealing potions and Tier 5 water elemental core crystals, then go to the great alchemist Floy in the northern solitary tower and let him refine a bottle of ice crystal dragon's breath potion for you. "Xiao En said casually, "Oh, these three are the main materials of the Ice Crystal Dragon's Breath Potion. The collection of other materials is not a problem. You can even buy them from the northern solitary tower, but the real problem is still It's only Xueye. It is still possible to buy the latter two with your financial resources and Mr. Harley's polar silver business travel status."

Ice Crystal Dragon's Breath Potion is a very advanced alchemy potion, but its effect is not used for healing and protection, but for attacking and destroying. A standard amount of potion can temporarily enchant one hundred weapons, and its enchanting effect is also very powerful. Simply put, it increases 50 points of ice attribute damage, which is the strongest enchanting potion; and if you throw it out directly, even a person of the sixth rank will instantly freeze into an ice sculpture, unable to resist it at all.

"But this potion..." Du Luen had obviously heard of this potion, and the look on his face became a little weird.

"If you feed a bottle directly, then your father must die too much." Sean shrugged and said simply, "A standard amount of a bottle can be divided into one hundred drops. Dilute it into one hundred servings and drink one serving each day before taking three meals a day. It can be less but not more. If it is less, it will only prolong the duration of treatment, but if it is too much, it will kill him. "

"How do you know this?" Du Luen showed a different color.

Sean smiled, and did not intend to answer this question. He can't always say that this is actually a special treatment method for NPC fire dragon poison invented by the player back then? Who knows what an npc is?

Seeing that Sean did not intend to answer these, Du Luen couldn't help but remember when he first saw Sean, the temperament and etiquette that Sean showed at that time were even higher than him, and then in the Forest of Starfall The commanding ability and momentum he showed was beyond his reach, all of which seemed to illustrate the extraordinary aspect of Sean in front of him.

Thinking of these things, coupled with the fact that Cecilia has always been apparently also a noble nobleman, Du Luen consciously seems to have some grasp of Sean's identity: as expected, he is still a young man and his temperament is not stable enough. He didn't even know that many flaws were revealed along the way.

"Since Mr. Sean doesn't want to say it, then I won't ask." Du Luen is more polite to Sean now, "I wonder if Mr. Sean is willing to go back to Tindersburg with us?"

"I won't go to Tindesberg. Cecilia and I still have something to deal with." Sean smiled and refused. "And we won't stay in this kingdom of Puerto Rico for too long, I'm afraid it will be soon. I'm going back soon....Mr. Harley, don't forget the 10,000 pan-continental gold coins when that time comes."

"This is nature, this is nature." Harley saw that Du Luen was so polite to Sean, and coupled with Sean's performance along the way, he would naturally become polite.

"That's right." Sean seemed to have thought of something suddenly, and then he said, "Mr. Du Luen, you remember to be careful of your uncle. And Mr. Harley, don't hold on to your caravan. Looking forward to it."

Hearing this, both of them were shocked, and their faces were unbelievable.

But Xiao En, who would stay and continue to talk to them, since his butterfly has flapped its wings once and changed a little process, then he simply changed the plot completely. However, that's all. If he was asked to intervene in this matter, he would not be happy at all, because it is rare to come to the Kingdom of Portoroa, but he still has a lot to do.

The first and most important thing is to make Cecilia an official magician!
