

Lord of War 46

Chapter 46: .Spirit Reinforcement Scroll

The sword light shines.

The sky full of smoke, dust, fire, and all kinds of colors, under the light of Xiao En's sword, all are like shattered curtains.

The Kobold guard officer hid again and again. Although it was one rank higher than Sean, compared with Sean's obvious ability, it seemed completely unstoppable. However, in a short time, Sean has been driven back by a dozen steps, and he has completely fallen into the disadvantage from the beginning, let alone counterattack, and even the ability to parry is almost gone-the halberd is a long weapon. , If it is impossible to maintain a proper distance and be pulled close by the opponent, this weapon will not be effective at all.

And Sean, who is familiar with the advantages and disadvantages of the Kobold Guard Officer, is why he attacked so closely.

Once Shaun completely grasps the initiative and advantages, it will not be easy to regain it.

The sharp sword is like the wind, and the slashes that are mixed with it from time to time make the Kobold guards have to work hard to stop them. And once the kobold guard wanted to use the speed to get away from the distance, Sean's sprint always worked just right.

The kobold mage beside raised his wand several times, but in this case, he didn't know how to intervene at all. He had never faced such a tricky and cunning enemy. If there are other people around it, then it will definitely use magic to solve Shaun and the kobold guard officer together without hesitation, but it can't do it now, because it has no useable men by its side, and the opponent But there is also an apprentice magician staring at him.

Sorcerer apprentice, under normal circumstances, it can be dismissed as a profession, but now it has become the main factor holding it back.

Escape?

It wasn't unimaginable, but just wanted to put it into action, the magician that made it hate would immediately intervene, she didn't need too complicated magic at all, she simply threw the secondary fireball technique to throw away. It just made a shock wave to make it unable to maintain its shape. Although there is no substantial lethality, this kind of native method is also the most helpless for the kobold mage, because it is not known for physical strength, and Cecilia's secondary fireball is too powerful. Surprisingly, it is just like a lone boat in a storm, it can only do its best to maintain its shape.

If this continues, the final situation will be no one can do nothing, and in the end it will be different from Sean's tactical policy.

But if Sean dared to do this, did he not consider the situation of the battle?

"铿——"

The sharp sound of metal hoars, and Sean also feels a tingling scalp.

He originally thought that the halberd in the hands of the Kobold guard officer was nothing more than an ordinary weapon, but he did not expect that the Medusa Chamber of Commerce was so willing to pay for it and directly gave a high-quality weapon. Sean hasn't been able to find out yet. In terms of materials alone, high-quality weapons certainly cannot be compared with magic weapons, but they are not as easily cut off as other weapons.

Sean also spent a lot of effort, focusing on attacking one point of the kobold guard officer's halberd before finally destroying the weapon.

And a kobold guard officer who has lost his weapon, what else can he do?

The cold light flashed.

The long sword cleaved from bottom to top, directly severing the life of the kobold guard officer.

The kobold mage saw the current situation and knew that the next one was definitely his turn. Although he had made many attempts before, trying hard to cause trouble for Sean, and at the same time, he didn't forget to use buffing magic for his own people, but The situation has not changed at all. According to its understanding, how could a mere apprentice magician bring it so much restraint and interference?

But it didn't know. If Cecilia was really just a general apprentice of magic, would Sean take her by his side no matter what she did?

The battle ended without any suspense.

lasted one minute and twenty-three seconds, breaking the limit record set by Sean in the game.

But he knew that this result was purely because the Black Cat Chamber of Commerce had done too much damage to this camp. Otherwise, even if he was given an elite team with reasonable matching and tacit cooperation, he would not be able to solve the kobold mage so easily, because under normal circumstances, there will be eight kobold guards around him.

"So simple?" The battle was so smooth that Cecilia was a little bit unbelievable.

Except for the resistance encountered at the beginning that was slightly fierce, the next battle was not at all difficult. And from beginning to end, Cecilia did exactly what Shawn had instructed, except that the flame arrow and the secondary fireball interference in the middle were due to her considerations, and the dog's head was dealt with later. The restraint of the human mage was the tactic that Sean had agreed with Cecilia from the beginning.

And such a simple and smooth battle is something Cecilia has never experienced.

No, maybe I have already experienced it once.

Cecilia couldn't help but think that a month ago, when dealing with the black warrior, she also followed Sean's arrangement-if there was no such mouse.

"It went so well that even I was a little surprised." Sean is also a little unreal. He is used to using the experience in the game to solve some things, but the current battle is surprisingly smooth, but it still makes him feel puzzled, or Said a little bit of confusion, "Let's go, let's meet with other people first."

Cecilia nodded.

"Since I'm here, do you still want to run?" There was a slight sharp voice, and it rang suddenly.

Shaun's face changed, and he shouted for the first time: "Scroll!"

Cecilia immediately woke up and immediately took out the spiritual reinforcement scroll that he had asked for from the Black Cat Chamber of Commerce, and then penetrated his own spirit to activate the imprint in the scroll, and immediately radiated a burst of softness on the scroll. White light. This light gives people a feeling of warmth, but it is more of a kind of spiritual comfort and fullness.

When the light came out, I saw Cecilia unrolling the scroll fiercely, and then slammed it at Sean's body. The white light in the scroll immediately burst out, shooting at Sean like a light arrow.

Shawn bathed in white light, there was an indescribable holy breath. After the light gradually closed, it finally turned into a white mark, which appeared on the center of Xiao En's eyebrows. And Xiao En, the spirit of the whole person also had a temperamental feeling at this moment, and he obviously became more energetic.

The whole process was completed in an instant. When the person calling the other party woke up, the effect of Cecilia's scroll had been blessed to Sean. After that, the two people turned around in a leisurely manner and looked at the enemy who had just made a sharp voice.

"Spirit Reinforcement Scroll!"

This is a middle-aged man wearing a black robe. His face is a bit thin and pale. If he weren't wearing a robe that symbolizes the identity of a magician, not many people would know the identity of this middle-aged man.

But now, his face is very ugly, which makes his originally pale face even more gray.

"Well, yes, mentally strengthen the scroll." Xiao En smiled, only with the reinforcement of this scroll, he dared to face this enemy head-on.

There is no other reason.

The spirit energy mage who is good at spiritual magic is best at a magic called "spiritual invasion". This is a control magic. Any target with a will less than 30 will be assimilated into his "alliance unit" as long as he is attacked by this magic, and will be his loyal comrade before the end of the magic time limit. -Or a slave.

And "mental reinforcement" is a magic that can temporarily increase the will by 20 points.

Xiao En's original will attribute has 15 points. After receiving this spiritual reinforcement, his will has exceeded 30 points, so the other party has no way to control Xiao En. And Cecilia, under the action of the bloodmark hexagonal ring, also has a will of more than 30 points, and naturally won't be afraid of this magic.

The middle-aged man's heart is a little surprised, he is good at spiritual magic, only the Medusa Chamber of Commerce knows. But if it wasn't someone inside Medusa, how could he use a magic scroll as soon as he heard his voice? And looking at the light radiating from the scroll, it was a high-level magic scroll, and even the most useless high-level magic scroll would cost at least three hundred pan-continental gold coins.

"Who are you guys!?" The middle-aged man seemed to be very familiar with his magic when he saw the other party, and he didn't dare to take it rashly. The main reason was that he couldn't figure out the other party's origin.

"The enemy." Sean smiled, his face was unspeakably relaxed.

"Enemy? Ha." The middle-aged man's face changed slightly, and then he became steady and normal again, and even showed a hint of sarcasm, "A warrior and apprentice magician are also worthy to fight with me? Wouldn't you think you used one? Zhang Spirit strengthened the scroll, and he felt that the winning ticket was in his hands."

"Isn't it?" Sean looked puzzled.

The middle-aged man did not speak. He waved his hand to indicate that a dozen kobold guards around immediately ran up to protect the middle-aged man. However, he himself began to chant magic spells in a low voice, and the fluctuations of magic power radiated from him instantly, but it was different from Cecilia's effect that resonated and agitated with the elements in the air. The middle-aged man There was no elemental fluctuation when chanting the incantation, but the air clearly had an illusion of freezing.

This is the characteristic fluctuation of typical spiritual magic.

"Spiritual invasion!" With a low shout, the middle-aged man glared with anger. Under the surging of magical power, his mental power was like a sharp needle, shooting towards Sean.

The biggest trouble with spiritual magic is that it is invisible and undetectable. There is almost no sign before it is activated. Once the magic is activated, when the opponent notices it, usually the magic has already entered the mind. However, spiritual magic is also the most dangerous type of magic—both for the enemy and the caster, because once a spiritual magic is cast, there are usually only two results: success and failure.

If succeeds, then the caster will naturally end happily.

And if it fails...

As soon as the mental invasion of the middle-aged man was launched, a sharp needle pierced Sean's forehead, but the result was not what the middle-aged man expected, and Sean would be directly affected by his consciousness. Turn around and kill the apprentice female magician. At the moment when the magic was activated, he only felt that the back of his head was suddenly hit with a heavy hammer, and he was dizzy, his face flushed suddenly, and his throat was sweet.

"How is this possible!" The middle-aged man looked surprised.

"Didn't I say it." Sean still kept smiling, "The winning ticket is in hand."

After that, he ignored the reaction of the middle-aged man, and rushed towards the group of kobold guards as soon as he raised his sword.
