Chapter 94: .Commander's Battle

Cecilia's tactics are still slightly immature, after all, more often, she considers how to fully release her own combat power as a starting point. Although the overall situation is not bad, if her tactic is changed to an army with a real commander, it will not work anymore.

Fortunately, the Black Cavalry Guard now does not have any commander.

Looking at the battle on the field, his own advantage is getting bigger and bigger, but Old Peter's heart is definitely not as calm as his face shows.

After the Battle of the Starfall Forest, he thought he had overestimated Sean and Cecilia enough, but he didn't expect Cecilia to be so secretive. It seemed that at this moment her talents and The talent has finally been fully revealed. Although the current tactics seem to be very immature, Cecilia is still very young. If you continue to develop in this area, it is not impossible to become an outstanding commander in the future.

Cecilia has been casting a lot of magic continuously. At this time, the magic power in her body is almost exhausted. Her delicate little face has become very pale, and even because of excessive use of her brain, her forehead has begun to sweat, and her blonde hair is almost sticking to it. Covered her face.

But her contribution is not without gain, the number of Black Cavalry Guards is dropping sharply. From more than 80 people in the beginning, to more than 70 people in the confrontation, and now more than 50 people, the destruction of the Black Cavalry Guards is only a matter of time. On the other hand, the garrison in Timbersberg, there are still nearly a hundred remaining at this time, and the number gap between the two sides has once again returned to the level of two to one.

And as Cecilia no longer casts her magic, she can devote more energy and attention to the battlefield, and the casualty rate of the Black Cavalry Guards has even begun to increase. Even if the Black Cavalry Guard knew that they couldn't escape and began to fight back desperately, they still couldn't prevent them from all being killed in battle.

at this time!

A black shadow suddenly rushed out of the castle.

When she heard a whistling sound behind her, Cecilia immediately realized that the situation had changed, and she rushed to the side without thinking about it. This set of actions is naturally learned from Sean. Under Sean's profound guidance, how can Cecilia retain the image of a nobleman. For her, she can only consider her image after saving her life. this problem.

And Old Peter's actions are completely opposite to Cecilia.

He subconsciously believed that the opponent was going to attack Cecilia, so at this time, he also turned around and counterattacked decisively, trying to give Cecilia enough time to escape. But he didn't expect that when he turned around, he saw that the other party rushed towards him, holding the halberd in both hands, and smashed down fiercely with a kind of pioneering courage.

Because of a misjudgment, Old Peter couldn't defend too effectively in a hurry. He just raised the gun with both hands, trying to block the opponent's attack with the handle of the long spear.

"Clang!"

There was a metal blow, and Old Peter's pupils suddenly shrank. The military gun in his hand could not withstand the opponent's blow at all, and was cut off by the opponent on the spot. But Old Peter is still a man who has been on the battlefield. The more dangerous he is, the more calm he is. He immediately flies up and kicks the opponent's chest and abdomen fiercely, kicking his opponent out. It was supposed to have come here with a halberd that smashed his head. Naturally, it was a little bit off, and only a bone scar was opened on Old Peter's chest.

In an instant, blood spurted from the chest and abdomen of Old Peter like a blowout, dyeing the black armor of the opponent body red.

"boom!"

The halberd fell to the ground and a small hole was smashed into the ground.

Martin looked at Old Peter coldly, and was about to raise his hand again to give the opponent one more time and completely kill the opponent's commander. Cecilia has summoned a flame arrow and shot it down at Martin's head. If he insists on killing old Peter, then he must also explain it here. This is equivalent to a life for a life. .

With Martin's identity and strength, it is naturally impossible to do this kind of loss-making business. He turned and ran without looking back, and immediately ran towards the battlefield. The set of heavy armor on his body seemed to have no weight on his body, and even added a bit of majestic aura to him in turn. The breath and coercion that radiated from him made a few more courageous. The small recruits simply didn't have the guts to try to stop Martin from entering the battlefield.

On the contrary, because of this momentary distraction, the Black Cavalry Guard had only a chance to kill these people directly!

The Black Cavalry Guards saw their commander Martin return, and immediately became vigorous, and their attacks seemed to have become more fierce as a result. However, the recruits were demoralized due to Martin's return and Peter's injury. In comparison, the recruits were killed by the Black Cavalry Guards at this instant, and the battle formation finally formed also changed. It has to be messed up.

"Procedure!" Cecilia scanned old Peter's injuries and found that she was indeed seriously injured, but she knew that at this time, we must stabilize the military spirit and the military formation, otherwise, I am afraid that the new recruits will be reversed by the opponent. Killed one by one, because she had already seen that, taking advantage of Martin's sneak attack just now, the Earl Malayo was also running towards his Black Cavalry Guard, and dozens of Black Cavalry Guards desperately came out to help, and finally Mario The earl took it back into the formation.

"The spike formation becomes an assault formation, and it immediately breaks out toward the right side!...The outer encirclement circle retreats, and the right side is ready to meet the comrades who break out at any time!"

Several standard bearers did not dare to hesitate at all at this time, and immediately waved the flag. The army formation that had been faintly disintegrated, finally stabilized again, and then began to change and cover according to Cecilia's instructions.

Earl Mario saw that the spike formation in the inner circle turned into an assault formation, and he launched a breakthrough towards the right side, and a strange color flashed in his eyes.

The Black Cavalry Guard also completed the change in just a moment. His purpose was to eat all the recruits in the inner circle, and then concentrate their forces to slaughter these recruits in turn, but because of the rush, and also sacrifice a lot. The cavalry who served as lower-level officers, so now the Black Cavalry Guards are a little bit chaotic, and the speed of the formation has been a little slower, so there is a weak link on the right side.

He didn't expect that the other party could capture this so easily, which proved that the other party has a commander with a very vicious vision. But just now, he clearly saw that Old Peter had been seriously injured by Martin. At this moment, I am afraid that even if he can see the weak link in his formation, he has no power to command the battle. Then the people who are still commanding these recruits are in the end. who is it?

Mario turned his head and looked, just in time to see Cecilia who was arranging for the guard to urgently bandage the wounds of the old Peter, and at the same time constantly issuing new combat instructions.

"That little girl, is Sean's sister, Cecilia?" Martin has now come to Count Mario's side, and the recruits in the inner circle have also successfully broke through, although once again they have lost ten. A corpse, but under the response of other recruits, the team finally did not let this team be eaten by the Earl of Marao's Black Cavalry Guard.

"Sorry, my lord, I missed you." Martin also saw that it was Cecilia who was commanding the battle. He always thought that it was Old Peter who was commanding the battle, but he thought it would be a kid. At this moment, even Martin had to admit that there are such strange creatures as geniuses in this world.

"It's a pity." There was a trace of regret in Count Mario's eyes, "If Sean, Cecilia, and Alfred were all used by me, that would be great."

"Master Earl, please order a breakout!" Martin said in a deep voice, "Our remaining forces are no longer enough to wash Tindesberg. In any case, please break through and leave here. After all the soldiers have been gathered, we will come to attack the city again! "

"It can only be so." With a sigh, Mario did not expect that the Black Cavalry Guard that he had cultivated would be defeated so badly. If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he couldn't believe it.

Soon, the formation of the Black Cavalry Guard began to adjust, and it was directly replaced with a sharp assault formation. And at the point of the knife, Martin is the heavy armored knight. Almost none of the recruits who stand in front of him can sustain his second attack. They are basically beheaded with a halberd, even if they are lucky enough to avoid him. His first blow, but the Black Cavalry Guard next to him is not a vegetarian.

Under the impact of this kind of steel torrent, the heavy infantry that has not formed a scale is impossible to stop, let alone Cecilia's current command, which is a recruit who is physically and mentally exhausted. They have been able to sustain such a fierce battle for such a long time, and they have already performed at a super level.

And after discovering the sharpness of this sharp knife formation, Cecilia immediately realized that if he blocked it, it would only increase his own casualties. After all, the opponent had a heavy armored knight backing him, but there was nothing on his side. . Therefore, after a little thought, Cecilia immediately began to readjust the order, and soon the standard bearers began to pass Cecilia's new round of orders.

I saw these recruits quickly dispersed, and they did not resist the tip of the sharp knife at all. They were scattered on the left and right, and after bypassing Martin, they immediately rushed forward like a pack of hungry wolves, and bit the middle and rear part of the Black Cavalry Guard- they did not attack blindly, but Mainly entanglement, as long as it can force the Black Cavalry Guard to slow down its breakthrough speed.

In this way, if Martin stalemate wants to continue to advance, then the Black Cavalry Guard will be divided into two parts, thus exposing Mario Earl who is protected in the middle. However, if you do not continue to maintain this momentum to break through, then the sharp knife assault formation is meaningless, and in the battlefield where the two armies are confronted, Martin, a powerful heavy-armored knight, will also be able to exert greater strength. discount.

And if the time delays for too long, until the dust of other battles in Timbersburg settles, when Alfred and Sean also join the battle, then their disadvantage will become even greater. After all, Earl Mario has only one powerful Martin, but Sean and Alfred have left a deep enough impression on Earl Mario, and he doesn't think Martin can be one against two.

"Lord Earl, you come to command!" This is the second time Martin has been famous for so long, and the second time he feels powerless in commanding operations, and the first time when he has just become a commander, "I'll go The girl is beheaded, otherwise we will not be able to get out!"

Count Mario glanced at Cecilia again. The distance was a little farther away. He couldn't see what Cecilia's expression was at the moment. He was just a little unwilling to do so. But he would end up in such a situation. So, he nodded heavily, and said in a deep voice: "Move faster, we don't have much time to waste!"

"Yes!"

Martin replied in a deep voice, holding a halberd in his right hand, and after beheading the three Tiindersburg garrisons in the way, he rushed towards Cecilia like a tiger.
