

Lord of War Vol 3-451

Chapter 451: .The so-called movement

There are two study rooms in the Black Swan Castle-originally there was only one study room at the beginning. It was not large in scale and the collection of books is naturally not rich. It is not so much a study room, it is better to say that it can provide a relaxing reading environment. Recreational environment.

The area of the new study is very large, occupying almost one-third of the space on the second floor, which was designed and arranged by Cecilia herself. And this room has a very wide view, the huge French windows in the room can see the entire front courtyard of the Black Swan Castle and most of the mountain road. But what is really valuable to Cecilia is the rich scent of calligraphy exuding from this study.

In terms of the amount of books, it can be said to be a micro library.

At this time, in this large study room, there are seven people, including Sean, Cecilia, Diana, Andrew, Beth, Encos, and Kozile.

"So, did you finally find out about Lyce's intelligence?" Sean asked.

"En." Cecilia nodded, "It's the news from Hela.... But according to Hela, it seems that I don't want William to know about it."

Sean nodded slightly.

He knows Hela's concerns and thoughts. After all, the matter about Reyes can be said to be a thorn in William's heart.

Ryce was a contemporaneous student who had studied with William at the Imperial Military Academy of the Millennium Covenant. It is said that the college grades at that time have always been better than William, and I don't know how the two became friends. However, about fifteen years ago, the Thousand-Year Covenant Empire used the Battle of Poquilia as the fuse to break out a coup. At that time, William was abandoned as an abandoned son. Later, he was desperate to use this classmate. The help of friends was able to leave the territory of the Millennium Covenant Empire.

Only ten years ago, this William's friend was arrested and sent to prison.

And after William learned of the news, Sean also wanted to go to the Millennium Covenant Empire to save people, but because he had not been able to find out the location of the prison where Reyes was being held, he had to give up. Later, when the Void Realm had sufficient intelligence investigation capabilities. William sent a large number of intelligence personnel into the Millennium Covenant Empire to investigate the whereabouts of Reyce. More than three years have passed before he finally got the news today.

At this time, it has been ten years since Reyes was arrested.

No one can be sure what Reyce will become now.

So telling William about this at this important moment will inevitably cause him to be distracted and worried-Sean has already heard about the Void Empire Project from Cecilia, and he cannot deny this plan. Because he didn't think about such long-term things. But this is a plan made by Cecilia and William, Hela, Neal and others. Sean can't pour cold water. So no matter how he thought about it before, it's not important anymore. He must take this matter seriously. Do the most important thing to deal with.

However, William was the first member to follow Sean after all. It can be said that Sean can have the power of today's scale and it is completely inseparable from William's dedication.

And Cecilia also knows Sean's temperament very well-if it is Sean who receives this information. His choice will be the same as Cecilia. That's why Cecilia asked Spector to forward that piece of information to William, who would decide on his own.

What I didn't expect was that at this time, Hasas would actually come to the door for assistance. It's almost like dozing off and someone puts a pillow on, so while seeking the best benefit for himself, Cecilia also Decided to use this as an opportunity to send personnel into the territory of the Millennium Covenant Empire to implement the plan to rescue Reyce.

But this is a special rescue team, so the combatants must have strong mobility and personal strength.

The most suitable candidate. It is undoubtedly a team composed purely of the strong.

But unfortunately, this approach is not realistic in the Void Principality.

Because this rescue mission is hidden under the deal with Hasas. Therefore, in addition to William personally directing the battle, at least one strong man must be in charge to prevent the looting of the target army. There is also a strong man in charge. Therefore, Rena's army is an inevitable choice. As for Xuefanio, she must sit in the city of the void, because now the city of the void is a mixture of dragons and snakes. Many nobles from other countries come to visit the Black Swan Castle, and there are also many sanctuary powers in it. However, without Xuefanio's suppression, a team that only relied on the Void Shadows would not be able to hold the ground.

So the only ones who can really act are Harding and Cecilia.

But Harding's combat ability also has limitations. He can only exert his maximum combat effectiveness at night and in a dark environment. Therefore, Cecilia also intends to transfer personnel from other legions to form a special mobile unit with a size of about ten to fifteen. She will be personally commanded by her, and will form a bright and dark, one-by-one relationship with William. Odd shadow force. After all, they had no information on the team that secretly escorted and transferred Reyce.

Especially this is going to rescue the prisoners of the Millennium Covenant Empire, Cecilia has no way to negotiate with Hasas to obtain intelligence.

After listening to Cecilia's description of her thoughts, Sean nodded noncommittal. In fact, even if it is for him to handle this matter, in the absence of sufficient intelligence and strength, the approach is the same as Cecilia, and there is no difference. If you really want to say something different, then it is probably that Sean will choose a more adventurous gambling method and borrowing means-he will definitely drag the various tribes of the wild land into the water, after all, the wild land is geographically Belongs to the "near water tower" type.

But now...

"I'm afraid I can't participate in this action." Xiao En said with a wry smile.

"Huh?" Both Cecilia and Diana were taken aback, some of them didn't react.

But Diana is okay, after all, she has a deep fear of Sean, so she just showed a slight surprise, and didn't make a sound. However, Cecilia showed a deep incomprehension, and even subconsciously uttered doubts because of surprise. After all, she knew Andrew and Bess, and she was very impressed by the strength of these two people, so Cecilia even wanted to ask Sean to help intercede, to see if he could ask Andrew and Beth for help.

If possible, then the difficulty of this action will instantly change from high-risk to a day trip.

"We are going to the Floating Library. This time I deliberately wanted to take you with me before returning. Otherwise, I will already be in the Floating Library." Xiao En said. "So in the case of William, neither I nor Andrew can help.... But if you just need the strong to take control, then this is a good solution. I can let Noro come back now. This little guy can also help."

"This kid?" Cecilia looked at Kozilek, who was well-behaved sitting next to Sean with a look of surprise.

When I first met this child. Cecilia thought it was Sean's illegitimate child. This time I went out for so long to bring him back by the way, just like Alfred took Hina away, except that I will see Kozilek and Sean later. The behavior pattern only realized that I might think too much. After all, with Sean's character, it is not impossible to pick an orphan with a little talent and potential from the road. This is how Sean brought the rupees back.

later entered the study. Cecilia deliberately ordered the kitchen to send more sweets that the children liked. Let Koziledo taste some.

At this time, hearing Sean say this, Cecilia was naturally a little curious and surprised. She stretched out her hand and squeezed Kozilek's face, and then she was shocked, because she found that Kozilek's skin was as smooth as a baby, which made her a little bit fond of her: "This kid is so young, how can he help? You can ask Noro to come back and help, but the floating library...I won't go, William is too short of staff."

Sean watched as Cecilia reached out and pinched her face. He was so good-tempered that he didn't get angry, and he was a little surprised. Is it because Cecilia just fed him a lot of sweets? He had heard that sweets are good for supplementing nutrition, but he did not expect that completely unknown creatures like Kozilek would also like sweets so much. This is really shocking, but if this is the case, Sean knows. How to send Kozilek in the future.

"The strength of this child, I am afraid that even if the powers of the entire Void Principality join hands, he can beat us down with one hand." Xiao En coughed slightly, "This guy... is a super strong."

Cecilia's hand stiffened instantly.

At this moment, Cecilia's heart is like a thousand horses rushing past.

She actually pinched the face of a super strong man!

What a rude thing this is!

In the Continent of Miracles where the strong are respected, the legendary strong can generally be called His Royal Highness, which is a kind of respect for the strong. Even some imperial members of the imperial family have to call the legendary powerhouse His Royal Highness. As for the super powers who are stronger than the legendary powerhouses, even the legendary powerhouses have to lower their arrogant heads. Basically, there is no law in this world that can restrain these super powerhouses.

Because of being able to deal with super powers, only super powers of the same level of strength can be found.

"Yes... I'm sorry." Cecilia said weakly, and at the same time stretched out her hand back with embarrassment and restraint, and suddenly there was a kind of embarrassment that she didn't know what to do.

"Kozilek won't be angry about such trifles." Sean said with a chuckle.

And Kozilek squinted at Sean, and then said: "Sweet."

Cecilia looked at Sean with a confused look.

"He said he would like to have some more sweets." Sean worked as a translator very dutifully. "This guy likes sweets very much.... If you want him to help, then give him more sweets. He should be very happy." In the last sentence, Sean leaned over Cecilia's side and whispered, but even if Sean kept paying attention to his own volume, he still underestimated the others in the room-except Diana is an ordinary person, Sean and Cecilia are outside the lower sanctuary, and the others are of the super power level. What they want to hear, Sean can't hide unless it is a spiritual communication.

But maybe Kozilek really likes sweets, so there is not much reaction to it.

Of course, it is more that he does not resist fighting.

Because fighting means killing for him, and what the killing can get is endless fire of life, these are his favorite things.

For Sean to understand the content of Kozilek's words, Cecilia was also deeply impressed-in fact, not only Cecilia, but even Andrew, who initially tried to communicate with Kozilek, finally gave up this kind of thing. I'm afraid all over the world. No one but Andrew could know what Kozilek was talking about. So Cecilia suddenly fell into entanglement.

The entangled thing is that it is naturally a great thing to have the assistance of a super strong like Kozilek, at least the fault tolerance rate has been greatly improved. But the distressing thing is that she can't communicate with Kozilek at all. At that time, in the ever-changing battlefield environment. If something unexpected happens, how can she make Kozilek understand her intentions?

Of course, apart from this matter, Cecilia is still struggling with another matter.

Instinctively, she certainly hopes to go to the floating library with Sean. After all, for magicians, the three greatest holy places in this world are the spire, Fort Solomon, and the floating library. But it is relative. William is indeed understaffed now. So Cecilia also wanted to help William to thank William for helping Sean over the years.

Cecilia is very smart, smart enough to see the wry smile that Sean just showed, she knows what it means.

Sean also wanted to personally help William save Reyes back, but he couldn't do that. Cecilia didn't know what the reason was, but she knew that the reason must come from Andrew, and since Sean didn't intend to say something, then Cecilia naturally didn't want to ask. She was just a little sorry. As soon as I met with Sean, I was going to be separated again. This makes her a little lonely.

What is Sean's reason, probably no one knows except himself.

He asked Andrew and others to accompany him back to the Void Principality. This request itself was quite headstrong, but Andrew obviously didn't mind, after all, he also needed time to gather the members scattered around the Marvel Continent to return to the team. And Sean, after returning to the Void Principality, finally truly felt the feeling of "home", which gave him a personal experience of Andrew: They have been wandering in this plane world for so many years, they must be I miss my hometown so much.

Therefore, Sean did not ask Andrew and others to help solve Reyce's matter.

Now he is the grand duke of a principality, and the principality has even begun to secretly prepare to become an empire. The forces under his command can be said to be strong to a certain extent, so things like rescuing Reyes must be solved by him. After all, there are countless people in the entire void principality relying on him, if he This king has to rely on others, so what qualifications does he have to guarantee a bright future for his followers?

Shaun originally wanted to take Cecilia to the floating library, but now it seems that this is obviously impossible. But when Noro was called back and Kozilek was left behind, Sean felt that this was enough to ensure the safety of Cecilia and others, so he did not make arbitrary instructions for Cecilia's plan decisions. Instead, he joined the discussion as a staff member and just gave some of his own suggestions and opinions.

He will stay in the Void Principality for a few more days. After Rena and others have returned and arranged the two angels from the Saint-Joles Empire, he and Andrew and the others set off to return to the North Continent. But this time I return, there will be no more time wasting, but Andrew will directly coordinate and open the ultra-long-distance portal-this ultra-long-distance portal cannot be opened at will, and it must be done accurately. The coordinates of the fixed point will work.

This is also the reason why Andrew and others did not directly open the ultra-long-distance portal when they returned to the Void Duchy this time.

With the appearance of Sean, the news of the return of the most legendary Grand Duke of the Void Principality quickly spread throughout the Void Principality, and then radiated to the surrounding territories at an extremely fast speed. Especially when the whereabouts of Rena, William, Harding, Hela, Xuefanio, etc. were successively exposed, as well as the large-scale mobilization of legions such as the Thunder Lion and Iron Wings, the surrounding lords sent envoys into the Void Duchy. .

After all, the Void Principality is the image of a mad dog, which has been deeply rooted in the heart of the nobility in Lane.

Even the Marquis of Flores sent a letter of condolences from King Ryan.

Chapter 452: .gift

Void Principality, since the blood-flag revenge more than a year ago, for many nobles in the Kingdom of Lane, it has a very terrible shadow. Especially those lords who live next to the Void Principality are even more frightened. As soon as they see signs of another major move in the Void Principality, they have not hurriedly sent envoys to communicate, and I am afraid that they will be accidentally caught by the Void Principality. The army was swept away.

This is the sorrow of the weak.

In fact, the common people are eager to become nobles and continue to work hard. But after becoming a nobleman, you will find that the so-called noble world is actually not as beautiful as they thought. It is still a game of big fish eating small fish, but compared to naked civilians, there will be at least more noble worlds. It's just a fig leaf. Of course, the game of big fish eating small fish among the nobles is more cruel than the bullying among the common people.

But the Void Duchy is different.

Sean's code of conduct had never considered the so-called "figure cover", and he would not even care about the so-called "rules of the game among the nobles" at all. For the grand prince, what he did was all based on his mood-like revenge on the blood flag. Originally, this kind of thing could only be related to relatives or blood, but Sean was just because he had no blood relationship, and still The Northland barbarians who came from slaves did this, and many nobles were slandering Sean just because he wanted to take advantage of the fire.

But so what?

Shaun ignored those, he just wanted revenge for Anno, so he led everyone to revenge.

After this battle, the Void Principality was completely famous.

However, it basically made many forces feel full about the strength of the Void Principality-in addition to the secretly hidden Conviction Wings and the Silver Temple Legion obtained from the Wild Lands, the existing forces of the Void Principality , Legion designation, famous generals, famous powerhouses, etc., are all equivalent to being completely disclosed to the public.

This kind of thing has advantages and disadvantages.

The advantage is that many nobles clearly understand the gap with the Void Principality before they reach this strength and foundation. Don't go to the Void Principality over your own resources, it is simply not an opponent they can contend with. And this is the reason why many nobles, after knowing that Sean is not in the Void Principality through their different intelligence channels, still did not provoke the Void Principality directly.

Just four words: not an opponent.

Of course, it's not that no one wants to provoke those followers while Sean is away. Attempt to cause a civil unrest or usurp power. What can make all the nobles extremely helpless is. Those secret lobbyists sent out to provoke, but few can come back alive-Sean's followers simply don't bother to care about what these lobbyists want to say, or who sent them.

The better temper is to let them go.

And those with a bad temper, for example, Alfred and Abaza directly killed people.

Of course, he also responded with a smile, and then went back and uprooted the spies that these people had spent a lot of effort and cost to plant in the Void Principality. Typical representatives of this category are the three giants of the void, William, Neal and Hela.

But under this kind of thing. There are not no people who are not mindful. But they are basically small people at the bottom, who can't get through any storms. And the only person who can turn up the storm is Clover, but the object of his pledge of allegiance forever is Cecilia, who is the least likely to betray Sean, so it doesn't matter at all whether or not to rebel against Clover, because Sean's subordinates All the followers-even Clover himself knew very well that as long as he dared to defect or push the palace against Cecilia, Cecilia would dare to kill.

Faced with this kind of solid loyalty, no matter how powerful lobbyists are, they can paint the most perfect blueprint for the future. It is useless at all.

As for the disadvantages caused by the battle of Blood Banner's Vengeance, many big forces finally have more detailed updates on the information and materials of the Void Principality. This allows them to realize the gap at the same time. If you want to take action against the Void Principality in the future, there will naturally be more detailed and perfect combat plans and targeted actions. It can be said that this time the Void Principality has actively exposed its weaknesses.

However, this weakness has not been amplified by it.

Because in terms of intelligence investigation and counter-reconnaissance, the Void Duchy with the Void Realm is already at an imperial level.

So in addition to the information that has been exposed by the Void Principality, it is very difficult to obtain information about the Void Principality from other sources. Especially after experiencing the betrayal of Thain Hastings and the attack of William before, the Void Principality has strengthened its intelligence work at the grassroots level. Therefore, if you want to infiltrate the Void Principality to obtain information, you will not even think about it after more than ten years. gain something.

So in a sense, the Void Principality has always been in an invincible place.

Because of this, if there is any trouble in the Void Duchy, which is powerful, profound, mysterious, and powerful, the surrounding lords will learn the news for the first time, and make this matter the highest priority. They don't want the territories that their ancestors struggled to gain so hard to lose in their own hands. Even though the Void Duchy now fights against the surrounding lords, the Void Duchy cannot invade the territory of the Kingdom of Line, but there is none. The nobles are willing to go through a war for no reason.

However, the work of external negotiations is not in the charge of Sean.

Diana's role lies in this—Cecilia, the true head of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs nowadays, had already given up all the work to Diana long after Sean returned. Therefore, the task of receiving those envoys should naturally be taken care of and arranged by Diana, but the Marquis of Flores, who was a trusted member of the king, naturally, Diana could not be compared with others, but had to be treated extra.

This is also the first time that Diana has truly been solely responsible for receiving big figures like the Marquis of Floris.

However, as more and more senior figures of the Void Principality arrived at the Black Swan Castle, an extremely heavy aura began to permeate the sky of the Void Principality.

It's just about this meeting of the plan to rescue Reyes and aid Kazas, Sean did not attend. Because he felt that he really didn't need to show this face, Cecilia and William were responsible for the affairs. Diana should have only attended this meeting, but it was caused by Sean's return. There was movement, so Diana was going to deal with the envoys' problems.

This also means that Diana can finally remove the word "agent" from "the agent of the foreign minister". It won't be long. The fourth tycoon of the Void Principality will soon become a person who must pay close attention to the forces of the Void Principality, just like William, Neil, Hela and others.

As for the battle plan, in fact, as early as the night William arrived at the Black Swan Castle, he had already negotiated a general framework with Cecilia.

In the meeting, William needs to do. But it was based on the information provided separately by Hasas. And fill in other details in this frame. Regarding these things, William's experience is definitely more abundant than anyone in the entire void duchy, so there is no reason for Sean to show up to point out.

Perhaps because Hasas attaches great importance to this operation, the negotiation of the plan went very smoothly, and all the details were finalized in almost one day. Of course, William will certainly not reveal the rescue of Reyes to Hasas, but because Shaun promised that Noro will definitely rendezvous with William and Kozilek's shot. Therefore, in the deployment of the strong. Naturally, William didn't bother with Hasas.

The Hasas side will send two sanctuary powerhouses to join the battle, but as he said, he is not good at military strategy, so apart from temporarily recruiting a corps that is almost equivalent to the level of the third-level army, there are no other extras. Replenishment of troops.

William also dispatched the Cecilia Guards led by Clover and Alfred's Thunder Lion. In addition, he also let the Scarlet Knights follow in secret to be able to support at any time-this support. Not only against the Thunder Lion and the Cecilia Guards, but also against the covert operations team that rescued Reyce. And with the strong side of the army. There are also two sanctuary powerhouses fighting, namely Harding and Noro.

As for the secret operation team that rescued Reyce, it was led by Cecilia, with Rina and Kozile as the team members. It was originally intended to transfer personnel from the Wings of Conviction and the Scarlet Knights, but after a series of discussions and discussions, Cecilia finally gave up this method. The mobility and combat effectiveness of the team composed of strong men will be improved. Higher, especially the Wings of Conviction and the Scarlet Knights, they are good at military formations. If the number of them is not a certain level, they will obviously not be able to play a real role.

All actions were quickly finalized.

In the whole process, Xiao En did not show up, because he was constantly adjusting his sanctuary ability while also making some other preparations.

The floating library is a world located at an altitude of several thousand meters. Although it is protected by a magical shield, the fertility of the floating library is actually relatively low due to the pressure of the atmosphere at high altitude and many other factors. But in contrast, the residents living in the floating library have strong endurance, and the adaptability is much higher than that of any creature in the earth.

The training that Sean is carrying out is a set of adaptation training specially designed by Andrew for his physique to ensure that Sean can perform normally after going to the floating library.

So these days, Sean basically spends most of his time with Andrew, and Cecilia will come to accompany Sean for a while only when he is free.

"If it's no surprise, I'll leave tonight, won't you accompany the little girl?" Andrew asked Sean at the table while dealing with the food in front of him.

It was lunch time, but Cecilia and William had other things to deal with, so they didn't come to eat. Cecilia wanted to come to dinner, but William did not let anyone go. Considering the importance of Reyce to William, although Cecilia was a little reluctant, she still did not leave the meeting room after all, and the participants still There are Alfred, Dwight, Clofrina and others, so their lunch is naturally sent to the meeting room.

"When everything is done, there will be time to accompany you, so I don't want to be in a hurry." Xiao En smiled, but looked openly, "...I'm sorry, it's a drag on your time."

"Don't care about these little things." Andrew chuckled and shook his head. "Take it as a gift from me."

"Okay." Sean smiled, and did not continue to say anything about this topic.

He and Andrew are both people from the same world, so in this lonely different world, there are some things that don't need to be said clearly and understood. Just like what Andrew said about the gift at this time, although he did not clearly say what the gift was, Sean knew that it was Andrew's upcoming gift—probably Andrew also wanted to get in touch with fellow villagers, because during this time, Sean discovered that what Andrew asked was about the Earth Age long ago.

Inferring from this point, Sean guessed that when Andrew left the earth, it was probably a certain day in 2016, but it was a pity that Sean could not infer the specific date. The time that Sean traveled was 2082, which means that Andrew left the earth sixty-six years earlier than him.

After that, the two chatted about other things very casually.

However, in general, they are basically around the earth, and only the two of them know about things-of course, for Sean, many of them are actually history or antiques. But fortunately, he has a wide range of interests, and he is also very interested in ancient history and modern history of the earth, so he can communicate with Andrew. Otherwise, the dialogue between the two will not know how many times it will be cold.

In this slightly lively atmosphere, Beth suddenly knocked on the door and entered.

"Come?" Andrew turned his head and glanced at Beth, only to see the latter nod slightly.

Sean's eyes showed some doubts. He didn't quite understand what Andrew meant by coming.

"Let's go." Andrew got up and smiled at Sean, "Let's go out and have a look."

"Look?" The doubt on Sean's face was even more obvious, but he did not reject Andrew's kindness. Instead, he got up and followed Andrew out of the Black Swan Castle. Of course, he was still a little curious and asked, "What are you looking at?"

"Gift." Andrew smiled, "Basically, each of us has prepared a gift.... You have already received the gift from Enkos. And when I accompany you back, I will give it to you. Gift...Beth's gift will probably take a while, and now this gift is given to you by Hercules."

"Hercules!?" Sean was taken aback for a moment, and then reacted.

His egg is still in Hercules' hands!

Chapter 453: . Awakened Guru

Guru, it was Sean who got a pet during the lottery.

But at that time, Sean didn't take this guy too seriously. Even though Sean was not a strong sanctuary at that time, Gollum could also be used as a special killer, and his combat effectiveness was still very secure. Only later when he was fighting against Edward, Gollum fell into a deep sleep. At that time, Sean had not figured out the situation until after meeting with Beth and Enkos in the Mermaid Vault, he followed his advice and went to Hagrid. Si, finally learned the truth.

However, at that time Hercules said that it would take one or two years to cure Guru.

Now I carefully calculate the time, even less than a year, so Sean didn't think so much after returning to the Void Principality, but planned to ask Hercules about the situation after going to the floating library. After all, according to Andrew's statement, he had sent all the Dark Phoenix Mercenary Group members to the God of War Church to gather, so the meeting between Sean and Hercules was only a matter of time.

But what Sean didn't expect was that Hercules would have someone send Gollum over.

So, Sean soon left the Black Swan Castle with Andrew and came to the forecourt square of the castle. Because it was Beth who went out to greet him, and the people in the castle knew that Beth was an important guest invited by Sean, so it was not a problem for him to bring people in, so naturally no one would bother.

It's just that when Sean saw someone coming, he was still a little surprised.

The person who sent Gollum back was the four female mercenaries that Sean had seen in Hercules' courtyard before and were receiving Hercules' instructions.

I haven't seen each other for a year, these four women have obviously grown in strength, and the aura that exudes from them is very condensed and vigorous. People like Sean who are more sensitive have found that there is a very obvious and strong * aura in the aura of these four women. This aura makes these four women much more dangerous than they seem.

And the shadow guard of the void, it happens to be the elite of the elite that has been honed in countless blood battles. Therefore, they can naturally feel the breath of these four women, but since they were brought in by Beth, they are not easy to investigate, but they did not relax because of this, but showed a faint encirclement. Ensure that in case of conflict. The four women can be attacked at the first time.

However, compared to the surprise that Xiao En showed when he saw the four people, the four women also showed shock in their eyes at the first moment they saw Xiao En.

A year ago, they met each other for the first time in the courtyard of Hercules.

At that time, the four of them were also seeking a breakthrough to become a sanctuary powerhouse before they accepted Hercules' guidance. In a sense, they used to stand on the same starting line. There is no such thing as who runs first and who jogs. If you really want to be held accountable, they are the ones who have been instructed by Hercules for several days.

But now, one year has passed, but Sean has become a strong man in the sanctuary, and no matter how he looks at it, he doesn't look like the kind of person who has just entered the sanctuary, but he seems to have settled in the realm of the lower sanctuary. For a long time, the veterans who are seeking to break through to the middle sanctuary realm-even though they have long heard of the breakthrough in the sanctuary realm, what they see is an epiphany. The best time to test genius. But they are still wandering in the boundary between the upper golden peak and the lower sanctuary. Although half-footed into the lower sanctuary, after all, he could not be regarded as a true lower sanctuary powerhouse.

Now, the four of them finally knew why Hercules had to say those things to them when he was leaving.

"Hercules asked you to come?" Andrew glanced at the four of them, and then said, "Where are the others?"

"Hercules has already left first, saying that there is something important to deal with." A petite woman among the four women said. She has long pale blonde hair and looks sweet and cute, if it weren't for her. The breath is extremely bloody. In Xiao En's eyes, this woman is simply a child. People believe that she is only sixteen or seven years old. "So I asked us to send this thing."

The woman spoke as she put down the backpack behind her, then took out a large wooden box similar to a food box, and handed it to Andrew.

Andrew didn't even look at it, so he passed the wooden box to Sean.

The wooden box is black with golden texture painted on it. The first impression of the whole wooden box is luxury. However, on the wooden box there are several seals that look similar to magical charms. The oriental fantasy color is so strong that Sean has a sense of disobedience—the Zenus Empire did use it. The special class of magic talisman warfare is called the talisman swordsman, but the talisman they use is not the one that Xiao En sees right now.

When Sean took over the wooden box, he felt much lighter than he thought, and it could even be said that there was no weight. Sean also didn't know whether his power actually increased, or whether the wooden box was actually much lighter than it looked.

He eagerly tore the talisman seal on it.

In an instant, the originally calm wooden box instantly produced a strong wave, and then a golden light burst out of the box and flew towards the sky. The entire wooden box, at the same time that this golden light was shot out, was also exploded into countless sawdust and shot around, like a rain of arrows.

But at this moment, an invisible air current oscillated suddenly in the air.

Immediately afterwards, these sawdust, whose lasing speed had reached the lethal level, stopped in the air, as if in a state of weightlessness—in fact, these sawdust did not stop in the air because of this, but its speed became extremely fast at this moment. Slow, so that it feels like hovering in the air. With a slight move, Xiao En pulled the sawdust away, and other people around him also poked the sawdust away in a similar manner to ensure that he was not in the flight path of the sawdust.

This is Sean's domain ability—time.

He named his realm "Wandering", which means that all the time in his realm is wasted. In fact, the formation of Sean's field was completed after Sean's consideration for a long time, and was completely perfected in the process of this return journey. It mainly used four abilities, two to strengthen one's own ability and two to weaken the enemy's ability. . These four abilities account for 25% each.

This ability, which is similar to a volley pause, is to weaken the "movement speed and attack speed of all hostile targets" in the enemy's effect. It just so happens that the lasing of the sawdust is the movement speed and the attack speed. Under the double superimposed effect, the sawdust is truly equivalent to a volley pause.

Shaun glanced at the surroundings. Make sure that these sawdust will not injure anyone. He nodded slightly and then disarmed his domain ability.

The next moment the sawdust resumed its original speed and shot towards the surroundings. In an instant, the surrounding land seemed to have been ravaged by a storm, and there were fine and sharp sawdust fragments everywhere. However, except for the corners of the eyes of a few people to observe the sawdust on the ground around them, most people cast their eyes on the golden light that shot into the air.

Shaun gave a whistle.

At the moment this golden light broke through the air, Xiao En felt the fluctuating aura from Guru in his soul. It's just that there is extremely strong dissatisfaction in this breath. It broke out more just to vent this kind of dissatisfaction—think about it and it's relieved. After all, he was locked up for so long.

If at this moment, Xiao En still doesn't know what the signs on this wooden box are for, then he is really a fool.

It seemed that after hearing Sean's whistle, the golden light that shot directly into the sky suddenly turned around, and then fell rapidly towards Sean like a meteorite. Because its speed is so fast that there are wisps of fiery red flames around the golden brilliance, Xiao En's face will change in an instant, if Gulu hits it like this. Even if he had a body of silver, he couldn't hold it.

"Stop me, you dude. Flying so fast and want to kill me!" Sean shouted to Guru in his heart.

Hearing Sean's roar, the gurr who was falling quickly had a sudden stop, probably because he was afraid that Sean would really be killed. However, even though the speed of the landing slowed down, to many people, the speed of Guru's landing still seemed very fast, especially the inexplicable terrible pressure in this golden light, which made many people feel a little surprised. Of course, the most surprised were the four women who had transported Gulu back. Fortunately, they did not open the wooden box midway, otherwise they would not know what casualties would happen.

Even, in the eyes of these four women, perhaps transporting Gulu back from the beginning was already a test.

Soon, Gollum finally descended in front of Sean and started to circle around Sean. The speed was so fast that it produced a golden halo around Sean's side. However, Sean also unexpectedly discovered that Guru's speed seems to be faster than before, and the sense of pressure emanating from his body is obviously much stronger. If it must be compared, Guru is at least equivalent to the middle sanctuary. The destructive power of it.

Destructive power does not mean strength.

If Sean threw Gollum out before, it also played the role of a fragmentation grenade, then throwing Gollum out now is the bombing effect of a mortar. However, it is a pity that this only represents destructive power, which is equivalent to the full blow of the middle-ranked sanctuary powerhouse. It cannot really fight against the middle-ranked sanctuary powerhouse. It is just that if it is used for unexpected attacks, It can reap great miraculous effects.

"It's done, well." Xiao En laughed, reaching out and grabbing Guru.

There is also only Sean, who can hold Gulu without any scruples, unless other people are strong above the sanctuary realm, otherwise they can't touch Gulu at all. Of course, even if you are a strong man in the sanctuary, if you want to contact Guru, you have to confront and contend with Guru's own force field. If you can't suppress Guru's force field, you can also use Guru. It's just that not many people can discover this when they first come into contact with Gollum, which is one of the reasons why Sean always thinks that Gollum can be used as a miraculous effect.

"It looks like the guy from Hercules has made a little heavyweight." Andrew glanced at the Guru that Shaun was holding, and then said with a smile, "This guy has officially passed his childhood and has entered the growth stage. ... Originally, this process may take more than ten years of effort, but now that it has been advanced, it can be regarded as pros and cons."

"Pros and cons?" Sean asked, "What do you mean."

"The advantage is that when this thing is in the growth stage, its strength increases very quickly. As long as you can maintain the same growth rate with it, then the tacit understanding between it and you will be higher, and each other can rely on each other. The more powerful will be." Andrew thought for a while, and replied in an easy-to-understand way that Sean could understand, "but the downside is that Hercules's approach is a little bit fragile, and the foundation of this stuff is not yet thorough. After finishing it, when it enters the forming stage...you will probably have a harder time. It is probably just to deal with it after the shortened more than ten years, of course, the time may be delayed to 20 years or more."

"Okay." Sean shrugged, he didn't particularly care about these, anyway, as long as Guru is still alive.

As for the future, let's talk about it later, after all, it is too long to tell Sean about twenty or thirty years now. Moreover, he doesn't even know how many years it will take for Guru to grow up. If judging from the growth and urinary properties of the early childhood, I'm afraid this is another decades of growth, so Sean decided not to think about it at all. problem.

"Everyone, thank you very much for sending Guru back." Sean squeezed Guru lightly, then let go of it to move freely, and then said to the four women, "If you have nothing to do, you might as well stay in the Void Duchy. Let's play for a few days... I will arrange for someone to entertain you."

After the four women looked at each other, the petite blonde woman said: "Master Shaun, in fact, this time we have another thing besides sending this...Guru back."

"Oh?" Sean was a little puzzled. He glanced at Andrew, but he didn't seem to know what Andrew looked like, so he continued to ask, "I don't know what's the matter?"

"That's it." The blonde woman said, "We have been under the guidance of Mr. Hercules for a year, and we are quite satisfied with the speed of our own strength improvement. Of course, it is not as good as the love oh sir. Your strength and promotion speed, but we are confident that we can break through to the sanctuary realm in a short period of time. It's just that Mr. Hercules has something to leave temporarily, so let us come and find Lord Shaun, saying that you can continue to get a lot of money from your side. Good exercise opportunity, so..."

"So, are you planning to work under me for a while?" Sean asked.

"Yes." Another woman next to her suddenly took a step forward, and then said in a deep voice, "The four of us belong to the same mercenary group. We want you to get the next stage of training opportunities. This is also what Mr. Hercules pointed out. In return, we can help you complete the tasks and actions assigned by you without any compensation, but we hope you can provide us with three meals a day and accommodation."

Shaun glanced at the woman.

This is a woman with black medium-long hair. Her hair falls to her shoulders and the ends of her hair curl up slightly. Her face looked a little delicate, her skin was fair, and the leather armor she wore also revealed her hot figure without reservation. However, only from the appearance of these attire, this woman seems to be an assassin or a profession related to it, but the subtle thing is that Sean did not feel any assassin's unique shadow aura in her body.

But, by the way, this woman showed her aura, but she was the strongest among the four.

"What's your name?" Sean asked.

"Rilista Yale." The delicate-looking black-haired woman said in a deep voice.

"Yale?" Sean was taken aback for a moment, and then he carefully observed the black-haired woman, "Do you...know William Yale?"

Chapter 454: . Mercenary groups with different styles

The surname of Yale is not a common surname, nor is it an ancient surname, so it can be excluded that it is a survivor of a large family branched from ancient times.

So, Sean asked Rilitha if he knew William.

Only the millennium covenant empire has the surname "Yale"-this is a family that has not been passed down for a long time, and only has a history of hundreds of years. For the millennium covenant empire that was established during the transition period of the age of ashes and the age of chaos, This family can only be regarded as an emerging family. Before the new emperor came to power, the highest rank of the Yale family was a life-long marquis, and was later converted to a hereditary earl due to military service. The squad of the "righteous extermination of relatives" was correctly promoted to the hereditary marquis.

Afterwards, in the past ten years of development, a large number of outstanding talents have emerged from the Yale family. According to the information returned by the spying of the Void Realm in the Millennium Covenant Empire, the patriarch of the Yale family is now one of the ten most influential marquis of the Millennium Covenant Empire, so the status of the Yale family is relatively relative in the Millennium Covenant Empire. The water is high and the boat rises. It is said that in this civil strife, the Yale family has been able to preserve a lot of strength because of correct tactics, and is expected to become the youngest powerful nobleman in the empire.

At present, although the civil strife of the Millennium Covenant Empire has not officially ended, but in fact it is already carrying out the finishing touches.

So the Yale family has issued a family call-up order, all members of the Yale family must rush back to the family, otherwise they will be deemed to have given up their status as children of the Yale family.

Obviously, the Yale family intends to take this opportunity to strengthen the cohesion and centripetal force of the entire family, and at the same time show the strong side of the family, and strive for the name of this powerful marquis. It is even possible that the ambition does not stop there, but to fight for the title of the duke. Judging from the intelligence collected by William about the Millennium Covenant Empire, the Yale family has born some extraordinary things in recent years. What about genius.

but. Since the Yale family abandoned William more than ten years ago, and they have neither shown any action to find William's whereabouts nor have any ideas in these years, even William has maintained the Yale surname. But in fact, he no longer regarded himself as a member of the Yale family.

so. Since Rilitha has the surname "Yale", she should still be in contact with the Yale family. At this time, she should receive a call-up order issued by the Yale family and be ordered to return to the family immediately. But why did they form such a mercenary group with three other women, and also ran to the Void Principality?

When Sean heard Rilitha say his name, he thought of everything in an instant, and that's why he asked.

"That's my brother." Rilitha frowned slightly. "Speaking of which... Sir Sean, the William Yale under your command. Is that indeed the traitor of our Yale family?"

"Traitor?" Sean raised his brows and took a serious look at Rilitha. "That's what your family claims?"

Rilitha's face showed some hesitation, and then he nodded heavily, and said, "Yes....In fact, the family has denied his existence, or that... he didn't regard him as Yale at all. A member of the family.... In the family tree, he has been regarded as a dead person."

"Expiration?" Sean sneered. "It's really like the methods of your nobles."

The sarcasm on Sean's face is very obvious, obviously not giving face at all.

Looking at the appearance of Sean. Rilitha clenched her fists, a sullen expression on her face. But her self-control ability is obviously very good, and the anger on her face quickly disappeared. This is also the basic quality necessary for a strong person. If she does not even have this self-control ability, it is impossible to become a sanctuary strong. ——Of course, it is not to say that there is no hot-headed impulsive type among the strong in the sanctuary, but basically they still have the ability to control their own emotions.

So Shaun didn't take a high look at Rilitha because of this-he was not a player, and he was so proud of his self-control ability.

"What does it matter? Anyway, I will be removed soon anyway." Rilitha's voice seemed a little calm.

Sean looked at Rilitha, saw her look like "I'm a woman with a story", and gave a light tweet. But he didn't say anything, and waved people to the conference room to call out William. Now William happened to be in the Black Swan Castle anyway. It is impossible for Sean to let these women join his team for no reason, even if the strength of these people is indeed good, and they are recommended by Hercules, but from a selfish point of view, Sean must support William. Yes, if there is a grudge between Rilitha and William, he certainly won't let these people join the team.

In Sean's mind, even if these four women are legendary powerhouses, they are not as good as William.

What's more, they haven't even stepped into the gate of the sanctuary at present.

Soon, William walked out of the gate of the castle.

When he saw Rilitha standing in front of Sean, his face was also astonished. A few quick steps came to Rilitha and asked: "Rili, why are you here? You... ..What's the matter with your hair? And, how do you dress like this! You..."

William's hair is blond.

However, Rilitha's hair color is black.

If it weren't for Relitha's profile and William's similarity, and Relitha also said that his surname was Yale, it would be impossible to judge that Relitha and William were actually related by blood. It's just that the noble family has always developed in a sprawling fashion, with both the original clan and branches, and even the direct line may be the heirs of different houses, not to mention that the Miracle Continent still allows polygamy.

"It's nothing, it's just being a mercenary." Relitha's expression seemed quite calm, and there was no other thoughts or emotions at all. "Please don't make a fuss too much about Mr. William. I have already left. The Yale family has been around for eight years and is now a very qualified mercenary."

"Mr. William...?" William gave a wry smile, and heard the indifference in Rilitha's words. He sighed helplessly, "Do you even call me that?"

A trace of entanglement flashed in Rilitha's eyes, but she soon recovered her calm, but her eyes didn't fall on William anymore. Sean was only slightly surprised this time. Because he could see that Rilitha still has family affection for William, but she deliberately pretended to be indifferent. If it was under normal circumstances, William would definitely be able to tell. But youdao is "caring for chaos." He also said that "the authorities are fanatic", so William did not find Rilitha's look strange at this time.

"Master Shaun, if it is because of me that we are not allowed to stay here and exercise, then I can leave, but anyway..." Relitha said in a deep voice, "In any case, please let me The team leader and two other team members can stay."

"Head?" Sean raised his eyebrows.

He always thought. Rilitha is the leader of this small four-member mercenary group. After all, her strength should be the strongest among the four, and if there is no accident, she will be the fastest to break through to the realm of the sanctuary. However, she did not expect that she was not the head of this mercenary group. And listening to her, it seems that their four-person team does not have any distinctions such as deputy heads, only one head and three members.

"It's me." The petite woman with pale blonde hair and long hair said, "Please allow me to introduce myself. I am Eliza Omera, the head of this mercenary group.... Just like me before. Having said that, we really hope that we can get a chance to exercise under the command of Lord Sean. And Mr. Hercules also highly recommends training with you. However, if we must sacrifice Relitha to allow us to stay. . Then I'm sorry, I would rather not have this opportunity."

Looking at Alisha's firm face, Sean glanced at William again, but saw that this guy also showed a somewhat helpless appearance, Sean could only sigh slightly.

"I really didn't think I wanted to let any of you leave?" Sean said in a deep voice, "I'm just trying to figure out the relationship between Relitha and William. Of course, it is your Yale family who is sorry for William. But this does not mean that I will anger all the members of the Yale family. What's more, you just said that you are about to leave the Yale family. Although I don't know the reason, I don't want to know. So I have no reason to refuse you."

When William heard that Relitha was about to leave the Yale family, his face was shocked. He wanted to ask why. But after he stopped talking a few times, he just closed his mouth and stood silently. It was obvious that Rilitha's "Mr. William" just now really hurt William, so that William shouldn't say anything at this time. . However, what is slightly subtle is that Rilitha has been observing William from the corner of her eye. At this time, seeing William's appearance, her face also looked a little ugly. Seeing her lips slightly moved, it seemed that she was planning to What to say, but after all, he still didn't say anything.

Xiao En curled his lips: a proud and awkward, a spiritual sister.

"Thank you very much, Sir Sean..." Alisha hurriedly saluted Sean, and then said.

Judging from her behavior, this name Alisha is obviously not like a person of civilian origin, she is obviously a very good higher education. And one thing is very peculiar is that she wears a lightweight hunting suit leather armor, which is the same as Relitha, but the degree of protection is higher than that of Relitha—of course, the more closed and tightly stitched The leather armor has greater restrictions on mobility, so if it is in combat, Alyssa may not be as flexible as Rilitha.

It's just that, from the perspective of the style of the leather armor, Alyssa is more atmospheric and elegant. Unlike Rilitha, she has a slightly frivolous and feminine style.

This discovery made Sean pay more attention to the other two in the four-person team.

I never thought, I really found a third woman with the same style in this four-member small mercenary group.

This woman has long green hair, and she is wearing a loose round-neck sweater—wearing a sweater on such a hot day, Sean almost doubts her mental condition. The trousers are a pair of multi-pocket leather trousers, roughly at least more than ten pockets, and there seems to be a lot of stuff inside, which looks a little bulging. I also wore an ankle-length white windbreaker over the sweater—it looked a lot like a doctor's coat, but there were a little more pockets, probably seven or eight pockets, which also contained some things.

No matter how you look at it, Sean feels that this woman's mental state is obviously not right—but her eyes are very sharp and cold.

seems to have noticed Sean's gaze, the woman said: "We first met, Lord Sean, this is Lucinda Courtwell."

There is only one name, no relevant career introduction, and no description of the areas and combat abilities that he is good at or not good at.

Shaun's gaze swept across Lucinda, Rilitha, and Alisa one by one.

All three of them have very obvious common characteristics: unable to accurately identify their professional and combat abilities and their usual weapons, obviously have an elite higher education, although they seem to be polite and easy-going, but they are maintained to people outside their small group. Firm distance, there is a kind of pride from the depths of the soul. The difference is that Lucinda looks like a mentally ill patient, Rilitha is a twisted arrogant jealous, and Alyssa is sane and unreasonable.

Compared with these three guys with different styles, the other person in the four-person team is much more normal.

This is a light swordsman.

Sean saw through her profession at a glance: she had a small round shield wrapped in iron on her hand, a long sword with a narrow blade tied around her waist, and a set of ordinary tanned leather armor. There is no fancy disguise and coloring in Huli. A short, fine hair that was obviously trimmed by oneself for the convenience of movement-this hairstyle usually only appears on male mercenaries, and female mercenaries pay attention to their appearance no matter how sloppy they are.

The oldest famous saying on the Continent of Miracles, "The head can be broken, and the hairdo can't be messy", is from the first female mercenary to board the mercenary king: Alice.

This light swordsman has a cute appearance, but because of the hairstyle, it is abruptly making her look a little ugly.

But she doesn't seem to care at all.

"You... just follow Cecilia for now, and then I have a task to delegate to you." Sean retracted his gaze, looked at Cecilia, and said, "You can arrange their accommodation first. ...I think these guys should be able to help. When you carry out rescue operations, please bring them with you."

Chapter 455: .Variety

"What's going on?" After the four people left with Cecilia, Sean turned his head and looked at William, "Is that woman really your sister?"

"My sister." William sighed, his expression extremely tired.

In order to be able to rescue Reyes smoothly, in recent days, William had to take into account the cover-up of the whereabouts of Cecilia and others when discussing the battle plan with Hasas. After all, this is a secret rescue operation, something that must not be known to Hasas, but the problem is that it is easy to conceal it when starting with a large force, but if you want to respond smoothly, this is not an easy task.

William has been distressed in recent days about how to successfully pick up the people who secretly went to rescue Reyce, and complete the strategic policy of smoothly retreating from the territory of the Millennium Covenant Empire to the wilderness.

Therefore, it can be said that William has indeed been in a very tired state in the past few days.

Now because of the appearance of Rilitha, William's mental state is obviously more exhausted and distressed.

But what Shaun was even more shocked was what William said at this time as a "pro-sister".

"The sister you mean is..." Sean blinked.

William knew what Shaun was talking about, so he nodded helplessly: "Sister of the same father and mother.... She is ten years younger than me. We had a very good relationship when we were young. After all, they are the same. Parents. Probably... it was my departure from the Yale family that caused her to be like this. Maybe she thinks I betrayed her or something... Alas."

Sean has always known that William's emotional intelligence is really bad.

This point has already had very obvious characteristics in the gaming era. But I didn't expect that this guy's EQ could be so low as to be no different from that of a blind man.

Reilista was obviously talking angry.

Although William left the millennium covenant empire without saying goodbye to Relitha fifteen years ago, based on the relationship between the two in the family and the performance of combining Relitha, it is obvious that this woman still cares a little bit. William's. It's just that something happened in the middle. That's why Rilitha's current character looks a little awkward, and he is reluctant to pay attention to William.

It's just this kind of housework, and Sean really doesn't know how to deal with it.

"Do you have only such a sister?" Sean asked.

"Is the blood of the same father and mother? It is true that there are only two of me and Ruili." William said softly, "But as a big family, in my father's generation. Which one does not have several wives. Even my father. I also married three wives, so there are probably three or four half-brothers and sisters... At least fifteen years ago, I had two older brothers, one older sister, and a younger sister and two younger sisters besides Ruili. A younger brother."

"Fifteen years ago... and now there should be no changes, right?" Sean was ashamed, "Aristocratic world. I don't understand."

"You really can't understand. Because you don't look like a person in the aristocratic world at all." William said lightly. More recently, there are many rumors about you from the outside world....Of course, since the opening of the Black Swan Castle, it is not only men who come here for sightseeing, but because you are not in the Void Principality, there are not many women who come here. "

These words about William. Sean is also a little heard.

In the last few days, since the news of his return to the Principality came out. The number of women coming to the Black Swan Castle has obviously increased. This is another reason why Sean is reluctant to show up. Seeing those women with extremely naked, naked, desire and hopeful eyes, it is really difficult for Sean to communicate with them, especially those who are more slutty. Yes, the various body language movements are especially rich, which makes Sean more tired to deal with.

Of course, it is not true that there are no elegant women.

These women are very knowledgeable about point-to-point communication etiquette, which does give Sean some good impressions, but they are just a good impression. Because most of these women are just vases trained by major families as tools for marriage, few women have their own real talents and talents-beauty and wisdom are both women, compared to the huge miracle continent. not much.

Moreover, most nobles are more willing to marry a beautiful vase home furnishings, rather than a wife with superior strength or talent.

"You should have a good talk with your sister first." Sean sighed, then reached out and patted William on the shoulder. "This time, I believe you know the importance of this action, even though they did. I was acting with Cecilia at the time, but I think you don't want any surprises, right?"

William nodded, his expression rare and solemn.

Probably, for William, it is much harder to re-establish a good relationship with his sister than to put him in battle.

"I know too." William frowned, but he was a little uneasy.

"Just do what you are good at." Sean patted William on the shoulder and smiled, "You don't need to think about things you are not good at.... Cecilia will help you take care of your sister, So there is no change in what you need to do. Don't let your own mind be upset to avoid unnecessary situations. Some things can only be done by you, but some things are too far away from your battlefield."

The meaning of Sean's words has been very clear. William's only low EQ, but it does not mean that his IQ is low, so he quickly understood what Sean wanted to say.

"Thank you." William looked at Sean, and then said seriously, "I will find her...to have a good talk."

Shaun shrugged and said nothing.

But when William also left, Sean's eyes suddenly swept to the top floor of the castle.

The top floor of the Black Swan Castle is a large open space adjacent to the Black Swan Lake, but only a stone ladder from the third floor to the fourth floor leads to this open space. There are three places leading to the third floor of the Black Swan Castle. stairs. Under Diana's suggestion, only one staircase on the right was opened for visitors. As for the others in the castle, they have been tired of seeing Black Swan Lake these years. Of course, the Black Swan Lake where the black swan descends has not been seen. Tired, just because it's open to visit. Therefore, it can only be seen after the travelers have left.

Weekly weekends are free open days. At this time, there are usually some civilians and children to visit the Black Swan Castle, and this day is the only day when the Black Swan Castle does not provide free meals-although Sean is a bit dissatisfied, he also knows that if it is open to civilians Free meals. Then those nobles who paid to enter the tour before will definitely be dissatisfied. Think that their worth has fallen and become like civilians.

This is the rules of the game in Marvel Land.

Perhaps Sean can break a lot of rules, but that is because he has enough strength to break, but it does not mean that he can modify the rules at will.

However, at this time, Sean will look at this place because he noticed that someone was looking at him.

Following the gaze that made him care, he and the person who was looking at him looked at each other.

This person is not someone else. It was when Sean was going up the mountain that day that he had a relationship with him. The man who greeted each other-Hasas Zoanton. Sean already knows his identity, and of course he also knows that he was tragically rejected after pursuing Cecilia, but this person does have something that Sean appreciates, that is, he did not become angry, and did not make any other inconsistencies. The behavior of his identity, but to maintain a polite attitude and etiquette as always.

The two sides were looking at each other, and they smiled and complimented each other.

Then, Sean, Andrew and others returned to the castle. It is rare that Gulu has regained consciousness. It also returned to normal, and of course Sean wanted to relive the past with Gulu. And it is also necessary to discuss the next itinerary with Andrew, because they are leaving tonight, so he must also explain to Cecilia.

While standing on the old castle, watching the backs of Xiao En and others leaving, Hasas' brows also frowned slightly.

"My lord?" Moro, Hasas' uncle came over and asked in a low voice, "What's the matter?"

"Uncle, I have said that many times, you don't need to call me that." Hasas was a little helpless, especially when he saw Moro just smiling without saying anything, he knew that he couldn't convince Moro. , Can only continue to say: "This time we cooperate with the Void Principality, I am afraid that there will be some other unexpected things. This time William personally led the army out, and the purpose is probably not only to ensure that we can successfully complete ours. Cooperation and entrustment, I am afraid there are other things hidden."

"You mean..." A gleam of light flashed in Moro's eyes.

"Has something happened in the country recently?" Hasas asked in a deep voice.

"I haven't heard." Moro shook his head slightly, a little unsure, "However, it may also be because our authority is too low, so we can't participate in some confidential incidents."

Hearing Moro's words, Hassas was taken aback for a moment, and then sighed slightly, looking a little helpless.

Only you can know your own affairs.

As the third-in-line heir to the Zoanton family, he looks really good in appearance, but in many cases he does not have the priority to share information. In particular, he is not good at military strategy, so on issues related to war, Hasas will not get any relevant information, because he can't come up with ideas and can't help. As for the political field he is good at, his brother and sister are not inferior to him, so it can be said that his only advantage lies in the economic point of view.

"Since it's not a field that we can touch, then we don't need to worry about it." Hasas closed his eyes, took a deep breath, then opened his eyes, the smile on his face remained, "Let's do well. What's happening now....Is it sure that my brother has come to grab the credit?"

"Yes." Moro nodded, and then handed a bag of documents to Hasas.

After the latter took over, he opened it and took a look, only to scan a name, and then put the document back into the bag, with a dignified look on his face: "You can give this information to William this time. He is responsible for coordinating the war, so all these intelligence materials can be handed over to him."

Hesitated slightly, Moro nodded, then turned and left after receiving the information.

Standing on the top floor of the Black Swan Castle, Hasas's expression did not appear so calm and comfortable, but with a deep sorrow that could not be overcome.

Just then, there was a light sound of footsteps.

Hasas turned around, only to see a woman dressed in a pretty elegant dress walking towards Hasas. This woman has a beautiful face. Approximately twenty-two years old, she is much younger than Hasas, she has pretty smooth black straight hair, but at this time, even if the woman is smiling, she has a very cold expression. The chill is permeating. It's just a glance. You will feel a very strong biting chill.

Hasas's face looked a little ugly.

"I heard that Grand Duke Void is back." The woman stepped to the front of Hasas, and said with a calm face, but her tone was full of a commanding tone from above, "I want you to recommend me. ."

"I don't know Grand Duke Void." Facing this woman, Hasas rarely showed a look of helplessness, and he obviously maintained a considerable sense of distance in his attitude.

Obviously, Hasas knew the woman. And it doesn't seem to have anything to do with it at all.

"But you know Cecilia Connery." The woman continued. "I don't have permission to enter other areas in this castle, but you do."

"Miss Angel, it's not that I don't want to help you, but..."

Before Hasas finished speaking, the cold woman named Angel interrupted: "I know you are seeking help and want to be the first heir to the Zoanton family. I also know that yours Both my brother and sister regarded the unit in the Wildlands as a competitive weight, and they have already started operations..."

Hasas's heart was shaken slightly. The information he received was that his elder brother had acted on this, but he did not expect his elder sister to do it too! And the most incredible thing is. He actually didn't have any news in this regard.

Angel easily noticed that Hasas' heart beats faster, but she didn't pay attention to it. She still said to herself: "...I believe in the strength of the Void Principality, especially with Mr. William personally leading the army. Under the circumstances, it's not difficult to win a big victory. But wouldn't it be better to have one more person's assistance?... If you introduce Miss Cecilia for me, then no matter what the result is, I can take the cold of my subordinates. The Frost Legion lends it to you."

Hassas looked at Angel in disbelief. He didn't expect Angel to be such a master.

If everything about William and the Void Duchy was based on rumors and he had no confidence, then after Angel said her recognition of William, he would have stronger confidence in William and Void Duchy. But all of this is not as good as the recognition of the Frost Legion, because this legion is too famous in the aristocratic circle of the Millennium Covenant Empire.

This is an all-female corps, the only female corps in the Millennium Covenant Empire, and the tenth corps composed exclusively of women in the military history of the Southern Continent. Since the formation of this army, it has been upholding the principle of low-key operation. However, not many people were optimistic about this army at the time. It was until seven years ago that Angel, who was only sixteen years old, led the Frost Army for the first time. On the battlefield of 10,000 vs. 50,000, this corps was truly famous after killing more than 10,000 enemies, losing 3,000 to one's own side, and capturing the record of 20,000 to the enemy.

After , for the next seven years, the Frost Legion has always maintained a regular organization of 10,000 people. But its record has become more and more exaggerated, so that the military headquarters of the Millennium Covenant Empire are all marked with Angel's idea. It's just that Angel's backstage is too strong, so until now, the Millennium Covenant Empire's military headquarters have not been able to absorb both the Frost Legion and Angel.

But what is even more legendary is that the Frost Legion is not only not affiliated with the Imperial Army, nor is it affiliated with any noble family behind Angel! Because this army has only one object of allegiance, and that is the woman named Angel.

After pondering for a while, Hasas felt that he had nothing to lose, so he asked: "It's okay to introduce you, but I still want to know, what exactly do you want to do?... Just to satisfy my curiosity. ,how?"

"Yes." Angel nodded, and then said, "I want to marry Sean Connery."

Chapter 456: .Ice and Fire

The meeting room of the Black Swan Castle was interrupted by Sean due to the arrival of Rilitha and others, and reconvened after an interval of thirty minutes.

There is one more person in attendance compared to thirty minutes ago.

Angel, also from the Millennium Covenant Empire.

"To facilitate communication, please allow me to introduce it first."

This meeting room is the regular meeting room of the Black Swan Castle. It is arranged in the middle of the room with a long oval table, surrounded by a total of 16 seats-although this meeting room has never been full since it opened. The decoration in the room is made by Cecilia and Hela. The high-class style of these two people is far more than the sum of all the people in the entire void duchy. Therefore, this meeting room looks luxurious and elegant, but at the same time. Without the slightest tackiness.

Cecilia, William, Rena, Alfred, Clover and other five people are located on the side of the conference room against the inner wall, facing the door of the conference room. And Hasas, Moro, and Angel took their seats with their backs to the side of the gate.

At this time, it was Hasas Zoanton who got up from his seat.

He stretched out his hand to lead to Angel, who was sitting on his left side about two chairs away from him, and then smiled-although there was a bit of helplessness and embarrassment in his eyes, but considering Angel's reputation in the empire, Hasas really There is no way to say anything-saying: "This is Angel."

The expressions of Cecilia and William suddenly changed, and Dang Even turned to look at Angel.

And Angel, at this time, she also retracted her gaze from a portrait in the conference room at this time, turned to Cecilia and William, and nodded slightly to show her compliments.

If an ordinary person makes such a behavior, it will undoubtedly be regarded as extremely impolite behavior.

Especially today's Void Duchy, but it is not like a duchy at all. Even if the envoys of the Kingdom of Lane and the nobles above the marquis see Cecilia or the Void Big Three, they dare not put on such a high-profile appearance. But Angel's movement and demeanor. But it didn't make Cecilia and William feel disgusted or impolite, but was a little surprised at her nod.

In fact, even Hassas was a little surprised when he saw Angel nodding in greeting.

Because in the aristocratic circle of the Millennium Covenant Empire. Everyone knows that Angel is a famous true color. She expresses her likes and dislikes in a straightforward way. Basically, it is a very high standard treatment to make her nod. As for smiling face-some people say that Angel's facial nerves have long been necrotic, so she will not laugh at all, although this seems to be a bit extreme, but it has never been There was no news that she had smiled at anyone.

Cecilia and William knew the name Angel, because after knowing that it was possible to go to war with the Millennium Covenant Empire, she tried her best to collect all the information about the strong, quasi-strong, and outstanding generals of the Millennium Covenant Empire. intelligence. Of course, it also includes the various geniuses of the Millennium Covenant Empire that have become famous today and those future powerhouses who have been crowned with the expectation of 'genius'.

have to say. On the Continent of Miracles, there are indeed some geniuses who are godlike geniuses who can become representatives and symbols of a country.

Compared to the traditional "geniuses", these characters are the ones who truly stand at the top ranks of Miracle Continent. The definition of this standard must at least have the level and potential to impact the super power-because only the super power can stand at the top of the world and be able to ignore the army's siege. It can even achieve a life that is close to the heavens and the earth.

So, commanders such as William and Hela who are rare in the world. After all, it still cannot be included in this definition. Even if their value is for a country. It is far more important than one or two super powers.

Like Cecilia, if it wasn't for the coup in the Duchy of Rumbel that caused her to live in another country, then Cecilia could also become a representative figure of the Duchy of Rumbel. But now, she has also become a representative genius of the Void Principality-just a change of national identity, but Cecilia's criteria for being listed as a god-level genius has not changed because of this.

And Angel, is able to become the representative genius of the Millennium Covenant Empire-although in terms of potential level, Angel and Cecilia are at the same level. Only one is an empire and the other is a principality, so in terms of a certain aspect of symbolism, most people will only think that Angel's level is higher than that of Cecilia.

"These are..." Hasas quickly condensed his mind, then stretched out his hand to guide Cecilia, and said.

"I know them."

However, Angel interrupted Hasas without any kind of politeness. This kind of rude thing seemed extraordinarily normal and natural to Angel. There was no sense of abruptness at all, and it didn't even make people feel that there was anything in it. It wasn't right, so that Hashas could only give a bitter smile, and then sat back on the chair.

"Cecilia Connery, the sister of Grand Duke Void Sean Connery, a genius magister, politician, and diplomat, is the backbone of the Duke of Void after Duke Sean. When Duke Shaun was out , Responsible for acting as the Grand Duke's agent, has a very high influence in the Void Principality." Angel looked at Cecilia, and then introduced like a few treasures, which is obviously much more thorough than ordinary people's understanding of Cecilia. , "...Still a beauty."

When she said the last sentence, Angel stared at Cecilia very carefully, but she seemed to be reluctant to admit it in her tone.

Only in terms of appearance, Cecilia is slightly better than Angel.

But in terms of her body, Angel's eyes fell on Cecilia's chest-I don't know why, Cecilia suddenly felt that this gaze made her a little uncomfortable.

However, Angel has turned her gaze to William: "William Yale, the commander of the void, was abandoned by Yale at the Battle of Poquilia, and then the traitor left the empire. When he appeared again, he was already a follower of Grand Duke Sean. , Assisting Sean in handling the military affairs of the Void Duchy. The current military commander of the Void Duchy is in charge of the military affairs of the Void Duchy. It is also called Void with Void Strategy Officer Hela Garcia and Void Interior Officer Neil Patrick Harris. Big Three."

William's eyes narrowed slightly, which seemed a bit dangerous.

This kind of introduction, like a treasure, made him a little uncomfortable and natural, as if he was standing naked in front of this woman. On Angel's body. William saw the oppressive breath that made him very familiar, and this breath usually only appeared in one type of person.

"Are you a general?" William asked in a deep voice.

"It seems that the intelligence capabilities of the Void Principality are slightly worse than I expected." Angel said unceremoniously.

This sentence makes the faces of William and Cecilia, as well as Rena, Alfred, Clough and others look very ugly. But compared to Rina and the others, although William and Cecilia's faces are not good-looking, they are not too angry. Because they are very clear. The Void Realm is still too young, and the opponent is the Millennium Covenant Empire. It is not impossible to collect Angel's intelligence carefully, but at least it can't be done in a short time-of course, William and Cecilia I never thought that I would meet Angel so early.

"Then, please allow me to introduce myself again." Angel stood up from the chair-she was not really ignorant of etiquette. It just feels unnecessary in many cases. But in front of someone worthy of her respect, she can still show her graceful side, "I am Angel, Angel Hillary."

William's pupils shrank suddenly, this time his reaction was much stronger than when he heard the three words "Angel" before.

Angel glanced at William. After she said her name, she paused for two seconds. Seeing that William did not mean to speak, there was a hint of inexplicable complexity in her eyes—of course it was just one. It's just an instant. Then he said: "I am the founder and first commander of the Frost Legion. Although I am no longer the commander of the Frost Legion, this legion is still under my control."

This time. The irritation on Rina's face also disappeared, replaced by a serious and serious look.

She did not know the name Angel, nor did she know the meaning of Angel's full name, but she never knew the meaning of the words "founder of the Frost Legion"-especially after she became the eighth After the Valkyrie.

The Valkyrie Angel of Frost, among the eight Valkyries today, ranks first in personal strength and third in command ability, and ranks thirteenth on the list, second only to the Valkyrie of Thunder. Asuna G. Evans.

This is how Rina understood the words "founder of the Frost Legion".

It's just that she hadn't understood the meaning of the two words "angel" for a long time, until today, she finally understood.

The so-called angel refers to "Angel".

But looking at Angel's appearance, it was obvious that she didn't care too much about her identity as the Valkyrie. In fact, not many people care about the name of this Valkyrie—at least, Rena and Asuna also don't care about such a false name. But since it can claim to be ranked first in personal strength among the eight Valkyries, and third in command ability, then this Angel is indeed worthy of Rina's serious treatment.

Of course, it deserves to be taken seriously, it does not mean that Rena agrees with this ranking.

In terms of command ability, Rena knew that this was her weakness, and she couldn't say anything.

But in terms of personal strength, even though Angel had already possessed the strength of the upper sanctuary at a young age, Rena did not think that her situation in Longhua would be inferior to her opponent. Especially after nearly a year of hard training, Rina has become more and more comfortable with her own dragon transformation control ability, and the improvement of her personality has greatly strengthened her combat ability in many aspects.

Alfred and Clover's expressions are normal, but the gazes looking at Angel have become a little different.

No one knows why the actual controller of the Frost Legion appeared here.

The atmosphere in the conference room has become a little more subtle.

Even Hasas, who was the referrer, remained quite silent at this time, and did not speak casually, so as not to attract unnecessary hatred and trouble to himself.

"What I am more curious about..." When the atmosphere of the meeting room became more and more weird, William finally broke the silence: "I don't know why the Royal Princess of the Millennium Covenant came to the Void Principality this time. ?"

"your Highness!?"

"Princess?"

"She is the royal princess of the Millennium Covenant Empire!?"

William's silence-breaking thunder was almost like a bolt from a blue sky, and it roared loudly in an instant. Everyone, including Cecilia, was stunned in an instant, because they didn't expect it. Angel's background is so exaggerated, she is the royal princess of the Millennium Covenant Empire!

"Hill Ruili, is the name of the queen of the last emperor of the Millennium Covenant Empire." William looked at Angel, and then said in a deep voice, "But Her Royal Highness passed away 21 years ago. So the Millennium Covenant Empire now knows. There are not many people with this name.... The current emperor of the Millennium Covenant Empire. This is the brother of the Princess Angel, the blood brothers and sisters of the same father and mother in front of us."

The Military Affairs Department of the Millennium Covenant Empire was not the idea of the Frost Legion that hadn't beaten Angel, and there were even people who took the idea to Angel's head. But it has been slow to pull Angel into the Imperial Army, and even the command of the Frost Legion could not be obtained, because Angel is the sister of the current Emperor of the Millennium Covenant Empire—they are both born of Queen Hillary. And when the current emperor of the Millennium Covenant Empire killed his brother and murdered his father, Angel was only seven or eight years old.

But at that time, she had already demonstrated extraordinary intelligence and natural ability. And she was also in the  case of the imperial coup of the Millennium Covenant Empire. The only survivor of royal blood-other brothers and sisters who also have royal blood. Almost all have died in that * murder. No one knows why the tyrant didn't have Angel, perhaps because they were both born of the same mother, but since then, Angel's face has no longer smiled, and his behavior has become domineering.

After , Angel formed the Frost Legion when she was twelve years old.

But at the beginning, the formation of this legion required expenses. All were paid by Angel's mentor. After that, this corps spent four years with Angel, and during these four years Angel had learned from more than a dozen teachers. Try to learn everything related to the legion and war as much as possible. Four years later, at the age of sixteen, Angel led the Frost Legion to go north for the first time, using superb marching skills to suppress a rebellion in the northern part of the empire in just one and a half months.

That was Angel's first lead, and her first victory, and it was also an extremely brilliant victory record. It was from this moment that Angel and her Frost Legion began a series of cheating-like wars. In the next seven years, Angel commanded more than two hundred battles, all without exception. Two of the victories can only be regarded as tragic victories.

The only reason for the two disastrous victories is that her opponents are the famous old generals and legions of the empire. This kind of unequal war qualifications and experience, even if Angel loses, no one will say anything, but she has won—it is also at this time that the Imperial Army will focus on this army. But what is helpless is that Angel has an elder brother who is the emperor of the empire, so anyone who dares to hit Angel on his body will end up very bleak.

Even if, at Angel's 18-year-old coming-of-age ceremony, the princess announced that she would change her surname to Hillary, and put on an attitude of breaking away from the imperial emperor, still no one dared to hit Angel's mind. The reason is still that those who dare to hit Angel's body will end up very bleak-it is lucky to be able to escape from officialdom alive, and most people are killed directly.

It is precisely because of this that a very weird side of the empire has been created: it is clear that Angel has put an attitude of leaving the royal family, but she still lives in the palace, and occasionally participates in some noble banquets. The Frost Legion also exists like a shadow legion. The Imperial Legion has no record of this legion. Only the real big figures in the imperial noble circle and the future overtime talents of the family know the existence of such a legion.

"I am me, my elder brother is my elder brother, please don't confuse us." Angel said lightly, "this time I come to the Void Principality, it is my own will and action, which only represents myself." At this point, Angel slightly After a pause, he continued, "I brought you a piece of information that is of great interest to you, about Reyce."

Hearing Angel's words, William's eyes became unusually sharp, and the fierce aura of a battle-master on his body burst out suddenly.

This is the first time that Hasas felt the breath of the seemingly gentle and weak William. At this moment, he actually had the illusion of breathing tension and heart palpitations. And Moruo next to him also showed a little surprise on his face. He also didn't expect this general without personal martial skills. There is such a strong and brutal killing intent, what kind of cruel and * war has to be experienced in order to cultivate such awe-inspiring aura.

The only thing to be indifferent is Angel.

She didn't care at all about William staring at her gaze, let alone the murderous aura. Among the people present. I am afraid that only Rena, who is in her heyday, can change Angel's color. As for other people, even Cecilia might not be able to threaten Angel—at least the power gap is clearly defined. Even if Angel can't beat Cecilia, Cecilia has nothing to do with Angel.

"I believe Miss Angel is not here to do good deeds." It was Cecilia who broke this confrontational atmosphere.

Angel glanced at Cecilia, and then said softly: "My subordinates accidentally picked up this news. I found it very interesting, so I learned a little bit. It turned out that your Void Principality was investigating.... You can. Don't worry. Since I will come here, it proves that I have done a very in-depth investigation and understanding of this information, and the answer will definitely satisfy you.... As for whether to do good deeds, it depends on how you understand it."

"What do you say?" Cecilia asked.

"I can give you information for free, and even I can help you in this matter." Angel continued, "My only request is to meet with Void Grand Duke Sean Connery."

Everyone's brows frowned slightly, some of them couldn't figure out what Angel wanted to do.

Cecilia and William looked at each other. Or William let go of the hostility, and then said: "May I ask. What do you want to see Sean for?"

"Yes." Angel nodded, her expression particularly calm, and then said in a natural tone: "I want to marry Grand Duke Sean Connery."

"click."

A crisp cracking sound resounded abruptly in the meeting room.

The tip of the black swan quill in Cecilia's hand was snapped instantly, and the black ink on the tip was sprinkled directly on the recording paper, staining a small piece of black.

The atmosphere in the meeting room became weird for the second time.

William, Alfred, and Clover looked at Cecilia in unison, while Rena looked unclear about the situation—perhaps for Rena, the one she was loyal to. It's a good thing that the Grand Duke finally has an object!

Angel raised her brows slightly, and her eyes fell on Cecilia.

"Do you think Sean will marry you just by seeing you?" Cecilia sneered and raised her head to stare at Angel coldly.

"Why not?" Angel's tone was still taken for granted, "Abandoning the background and power, just talking about strength, I am now a high-level sanctuary, and it will be a matter of time before I step into the legend. In terms of talent, I also think that I am not inferior to anyone. People. In terms of potential, my bloodline is the Arctic Ice Shark of the holy beast species, and it has now entered the third stage. In terms of background, I have the Frost Legion, with a regular establishment of 10,000 people, and a reserve training camp of 30,000 people. There are 20,000 logistics troops. In terms of talents, the three major systems of military, politics, and economics are my areas of expertise, and there is no obvious shortcoming. In terms of appearance, even if I look at the entire miracle continent, I can definitely be regarded as the top rank. In terms of body shape, I am. Normal development also has no shortcomings. In terms of temperament, insights, and conversation, do you think I need to explain it? ... No matter what, I am a perfect candidate. Apart from me, do you think Is there anyone who can be worthy of Sean?"

"You think it's worth it, do you deserve it?" Cecilia's attitude was much colder than before.

"Then you say who else is more suitable to be Sean's wife than me?" Angel was not annoyed, and still said with a calm face, "The offspring of my union with him is definitely the first genius. Because of the miracle continent. Come on, no one is worthy of Sean except me."

"Haha." Cecilia grinned in anger. She stretched out her hand and swept her hair gently, "You know Sean at all."

"I know very well." Angel said again, "If I don't know, I won't be here.... Sean Connery, the first time I appeared five years ago, Asuna G. Evans' pioneering knights entered the Pandan collar in the name, and successively challenged the family of the Duke of Darbion, including the Boulder, Nucus and other families. After that, he and the Hastings triggered conflicts and evolved wars, and was exceptionally promoted to a baron. Then he served as the commander of the southern battlefield in the war against the Darbion Kingdom. After winning the war, he marched to the southeast battlefield to support Asuna. This accelerated the demise of the Darbion Kingdom. After the war, he became the Duke of the Kingdom of Ryan. However, he was attacked by the Demon God during the Martial Arts Festival, and when he returned to his territory, he was ambushed by a coalition of many nobles. Then, in order to calm the anger, the Kingdom of Lane carried out an exceptional internal reorganization of the kingdom, allowing Shaun to form a duchy, and since then, the Void Duchy was established. . Do I need to talk about the next thing?"

"What you know is only the surface." Cecilia heard that someone actually had investigated and understood all of Sean's deeds. Obviously a little uncomfortable.

"I'm not familiar with Grand Duke Sean. I haven't met so far, so naturally the only things I can understand are this." Angel's face was taken for granted, and the tone and attitude that I was talking about were facts and truths. , It's almost like adding firewood to the fire of Cecilia, "I don't know anything else, but I don't need to know, but Grand Duke Sean Connery appeared in Lane for the first time. So far, in just five years, I have grown from the lower bronze to the lower sanctuary. This growth rate and potential. I haven't seen it in the second person."

"You said you want to marry Sean because of this so-called potential?" Cecilia's voice involuntarily raised a few degrees, and even a bit murderous.

"Yes." Angel is still not afraid of death, adding fire, "If it weren't for this potential, I wouldn't have to travel here to find Sean, would I?"

"It sounds like you can marry Sean if you meet him. What if you really marry? Sean doesn't necessarily like you."

"Married to me, Sean didn't have any loss, didn't he?" Angel looked at Cecilia, and said after a moment, "And even if he doesn't like it, it's only now. After all, I haven't met him yet. It's normal not to like faces.... But if our children are born, I believe that Sean will not be indifferent. Feelings can be cultivated slowly in the future. I don't mind Mr. children."

"Giving...giving...giving a child!?" Cecilia suddenly slapped the table, and then she stood up, her face flushed, "You... how can you... say... Say these shameless words in front of so many people!"

"Didn't you ask me?" Angel still took it for granted, of course, there was some confusion in her eyes, "I was just answering your question."

"I..." At this moment, Cecilia suddenly had a poor word, "William, can I trouble you to leave first?"

William and the others looked at each other, then got up and left the seat. Hasas and Moro moved slightly faster than William and the others. When he heard Cecilia's words, he had already got up and Moro left the meeting room, followed by Alfred and Klow. husband. William was the last to leave, because he found that Rena was still sitting in a chair after he walked to the door, so he hurried back to drag her away.

Soon, Angel and Cecilia were left in the conference room.

At this time, Cecilia looked at Angel's gaze and looked unusually indifferent. The temperature in the room suddenly rose a bit, and a lot of magic power began to fill the room, especially the fire element became extremely active. However, Angel is also not weak in this respect. A cold chill came out of Angel's body, and then spread quickly along the meeting room. There was a faint burning sound in the air, but the sound was more like the sound of flames being extinguished and ice cubes being melted. .

In an instant, a polarized temperature distribution appeared in the conference room.

In the space on the side of Cecilia, the temperature easily broke through forty degrees, and even as it approached fifty degrees, plumes of black smoke appeared on the tables and chairs, as if they were about to be ignited. And where Angel was, the temperature dropped below ten degrees, approaching the sub-zero temperature. Similarly, tables, chairs, and various decorations in the room began to be covered with a layer of white frost.

But there is one place where both the high temperature of Cecilia and the low temperature of Angel are avoided.

This place is a portrait that Angel has been staring at after entering the meeting room.

The character in this portrait is Sean, with him on the edge of the Black Swan Lake in the background, showing a bright smile.

The two in confrontation. It seems that no one can completely suppress the other party, so after a long confrontation, Angel suddenly said: "You like Sean Connery, right?"

"What if it is, so what if it is not." Cecilia confronted each other.

"Do you like your brother's abnormal love?" Angel showed thoughtfulness. Then he spoke. "Although I have heard that many nobles like to do this, this is the first time I have seen a real person.... But, are you sure that Sean will like your sister?"

"Hehe." Cecilia sneered, "Then, please allow me to introduce myself again.... I am Cecilia Rembel, not Cecilia Connery."

"So that's the case." Angel suddenly showed a sudden sense of enlightenment, "My brother has been looking for the subjugated princess Rembel with the Phoenix blood. It's you.... But. Even if you are Cecilia Rembel, what about? The outside world only knows that you are Cecilia Connery and Sean Connery's sister, so you are destined to never stand in front of the stage."

Angel's words seemed to have caused severe damage to Cecilia. At this moment, her momentum was instantly weakened, and the whole person seemed extraordinarily lonely. However, Angel did not take advantage of the victory to pursue, or cause any actual damage to Cecilia. Because according to her intelligence investigation, Sean cares about Cecilia very much. If Cecilia was hurt, it would be totally inconsistent with her purpose of coming to get Sean to marry.

Originally, Angel intended to achieve the goal of attacking Sean by getting Cecilia first. Because Sean cares about Cecilia very much, so if Cecilia can be liked, then it is much easier for Angel to get in touch with Sean. But in the conversation just now, Angel discovered that it was impossible to approach Sean through Cecilia. At first she thought it was a deformed brother-sister relationship, but now it turns out that she thinks too much.

"Sean still doesn't know what you like about him, right?" Angel thought for a while, and once again made a knowing blow.

Cecilia's expression became more sad and lonely.

"It seems that Grand Duke Sean is relatively slow in feelings." Angel frowned, and she suddenly felt that things seemed more difficult than she thought.

"Yes, that's a piece of wood." Cecilia sat down on the chair, the sad look on her small face showed a pitiful look, enough to make any man crazy.

Angel's brow furrowed deeper, because she found that things were not generally tricky, but probably impossible to start.

She has always been very confident about her appearance. As she herself said, even if you look at the entire Marvel Continent, she can enter the ranks of top beauties. However, Cecilia is slightly better than Angel in appearance. Judging from Sean's long-term contact with Cecilia, it is obvious that he has a considerable degree of resistance to beauty, which makes Angel Can't handle Sean with a beauty trick.

"Oh." The two women sighed at the same time.

But the next moment, after looking at each other, they both looked at each other at the same time and it was not pleasing to the eye.

Cecilia was not pleasing to the eyes of Angel, because Angel was the first woman to show a strong interest in Sean, not only that she would marry Sean, but also openly said that she would give Sean a child. From Cecilia's point of view, this is simply unpredictable, and he is the most slutty representative of the aristocracy.

Angel doesn't like Cecilia because Cecilia is more attractive than her, and Sean has been with her for so long, so how could she still feel amazing to other women. So many of Angel's plans are destined to fail to be implemented. In other words, Angel's preliminary work is wasted.

"Huh." The two women snorted at the same time.

"It is absolutely impossible for you to see Sean." Cecilia said coldly.

"Why, I'm afraid that after I meet Sean, Sean will fall in love with me incorrigibly?" Angel is still in that flat appearance, and her tone is naturally the natural tone that upsets Cecilia." But I can also understand. After all, your  are so small that people who don't know think you are a minor, and you really don't have any competitiveness or comparison with me.... By the way, are you twelve years old this year?"

Cecilia's face looked abnormally annoyed, but when he opened his mouth to fight back, his head appeared blank at this moment, as if he had completely lost his language ability.

She stared at Angel's rather large breasts, biting her lower lip, and squeezing her fists tightly. After a while, she shouted: "Do you think your  are big? Elizabeth, Asuna, and even Even Rina, they are all older than you!"

"But they never thought about marrying Sean." Angel said lightly.

"..." Cecilia was speechless.

Chapter 457: .This is enough

In the middle of the night, except for the guards and corresponding servants on duty in the Black Swan Castle, everyone else had already rested.

Hassas and his guards also left the Black Swan Castle after having dinner.

Of course, there was also a woman who Cecilia didn't want to see at all.

Angel.

Although Cecilia is reluctant to admit the existence of this woman, her purpose and everything related to her, she does have information about Reyce, and this information happens to be Cecilia. The others cannot grasp, so they can only negotiate with them. However, the result of the negotiations is always to see Sean, and Angel will not agree to all other conditions.

In her words, it is "I don't need anything, I just lack a man who can be worthy of me."

Cecilia wanted to throw a Solomon flame into her face on the spot.

However, considering William and the problems after entering the empire, Cecilia finally chose to "consider the overall situation"-no matter what her mood, she finally did not let her selfishness cloud her reason. Of course, from a certain point of view, Cecilia's approach is indeed not wrong, because she has confidence in Sean and will not be confused by a woman like Angel.

But at dinner, Angel's performance was completely beyond Sean's expectations.

She didn't say that she would marry Sean or give Sean a monkey—well, have a baby, or anything like that. Instead, she acted like an elegant lady. When communicating with Sean, she mostly listened rather than dominated the right to speak. In this scene, Hassas was shocked to see that he could put three eggs in his mouth. Because in the Thousand-Year Covenant Empire, Angel's comments are notoriously selfish and indifferent. As long as it is a topic she is not interested in, let alone listening, she will not be happy even if she sits for three minutes. Not to mention that she would actually give up the dominance.

Because in the cognition of Hasas, Angel is a very powerful woman.

This point, Cecilia also deeply understands after being alone with Angel at noon.

But, now this woman. Actually gave up his strongest place. Instead, they casually conduct table etiquette with Sean and talk about Sean's adventures. Of course, these stories are basically the information that Angel has collected, and at most they can't be accurately known because of some details. , But in the communication with Sean, these details have also been added one by one.

Many stories are presented to Angel in an extremely complete mode.

"Miss Cecilia is defeated." Diana watched and kept listening in front of Sean. From time to time, I asked the key points of some stories sharply. Especially in some wonderful places that are easy to talk about, I finally sighed in a low voice.

"Why? Where did you lose?" Rina asked in a low voice while eating the barbecue, "Did she fight with anyone?"

Diana glanced at Rina, especially focusing on her breasts, then glanced at Angel's breasts, and finally said, "You said...Do you like Grand Duke Sean?"

"Lord Lord?" Rina tilted her head, "Why don't you like it? I have never seen a lord better than Sean.... And this time. Sean came back and gave me a new set of armor. Well, it seems to be a kind of outfit called rice..."

Diana sighed: "Michael. Angel costume. One of the artifacts of the Saint-Joles Empire.... It's a shame that our lord dared to take it back, and it's also a shame that you really dare to take it back. use."

"Why not? I feel good." Rina ate the last bite of the barbecue on the plate with a fork, and then went to get a new barbecue. "But it is a little troublesome to use, and I feel that it consumes a lot of physical energy. It's big, I trained a little this afternoon, and then I became hungry."

"Your character is really subtle, which makes people particularly enviable."

Diana sighed, and then gave up to continue communicating with Rina, because she found that Rina's "like" was obviously different from that of ordinary people. I don't know if it is the personality change brought about by the bloodline awakening-Diana, who has no bloodline potential, does not understand these, so she is just hearsay. But as one of the core members of the Void Principality that has been officially accepted, Diana still knows that Rina's blood is the third person in the Principality, second only to Xuefanio and Cecilia.

Withdrawing her gaze from Rina, Diana took another look at Angel, who was sitting on the left side of Sean. She didn't know what the two were talking about. Sean was obviously very interested, and Angel didn't have any smile, but her eyes Li was also a little softer than when she saw Angel's eyes in the afternoon-as an excellent diplomat, eye observation happened to be one of Diana's strengths, so she also found that she smiled somewhat reluctantly. Cecilia.

As for William, Alfred, Hina, Clover and others, it is clear that they did not intend to get involved in the war between the two women, and they maintained a very consistent silence throughout the entire process. Of course it can be seen that they are still biased towards Cecilia, but at this time, even if they want to help Cecilia fight for the topic or initiative, but they really can't find the topic to penetrate, so they are actually Don't talk too much to avoid causing other problems.

Especially, Angel is not a stupid vase.

Maybe the new topic may have caused Angel to have more entry points on the snake and stick, and it will be even more troublesome for her to completely take the initiative.

In the current communication, at least the initiative is in the hands of Sean.

"But... this Angel is really terrible, she knows how to satisfy a man's vanity." Dianna watched Angel not talk about any marriage or political, economic, or military-related topics at all, she was just a listener, and She has always been showing a high concentration of interest, and every time she raises a point of curiosity, she can scratch the most critical point of the deeds that Sean is talking about. Such a woman is simply terrifying.

So, the dinner came to an end in this extremely subtle atmosphere.

After dinner, Angel was the first to get up and ask to leave, instead of continuing to choose to stay and pester Sean. As a result, Hasas naturally had trouble staying at the Black Swan Castle, and also chose to leave. In the process, a small episode occurred and Hasas proposed to send Angel down the mountain. But it was rejected by Angel. But Angel obviously took an active offensive uncontrollably: in her rejection of Hasas, she hinted that Sean could send her down the mountain, but it was a pity that Sean didn't understand this hint at all, so she Standing so at the gate of the castle, smiling and waving goodbye.

Cecilia held back her resentment all night, and at this moment she finally relaxed. Rarely showed a smile to Angel.

When the latter is about to get on the carriage. Naturally, her face became abnormally cold-although Angel did not smile at dinner, her face was as cold as ever, but Hasas, who knows Angel, and Cecilia, who has communicated with Angel, can clearly feel it. Then, the atmosphere around Angel is completely different from normal. Although her face is still cold, she is indeed showing her tenderness in another way.

"Grand Duke Sean is better than I thought. I find that I really like him a little bit." When he got on the carriage. Angel and Cecilia gave a light hug, just like a pair of friends, but Angel's words made Cecilia's rare smile disappear instantly, "Don't worry, I will definitely play the role of the grand duchess. Cecilia Connery-Miss."

In addressing Cecilia, Angel especially emphasized the three words "Connery".

"Hmph, you have no chance." Cecilia sneered back.

"Hehe. That's not necessarily the case. My performance at dinner is enough to win me a lot of impression points." Angel and Cecilia let go, although she laughed like a smile. But the voice sounded more like a mockery. Of course, only she and Cecilia could hear this laughter, "Then, good night, dear Miss Cecilia."

"Good night, dear Miss Angel." Cecilia smiled and greeted her, and her smile was extraordinarily sweet and sincere. "I forgot to tell you before that Sean likes women who smile. Like you, with facial paralysis, Don't talk about the impression points at night, even I was very embarrassed to see from the side.... However, if you want to make the facial paralysis with necrotic facial nerves smile, I am afraid it is more difficult than finding a dragon? Oh—— By the way, Miss Hitley from the Life Church and I are good friends. Do you need me to introduce you to a new diagnosis and treatment?"

Angel's face was very stiff, she didn't say anything, turned around and got into the carriage.

Then soon, the carriage began to head towards the small town down the mountain.

Followed by the Hasas carriage.

When passing by Cecilia's side, Hasas smiled, but this smile looked a little sad. After Cecilia disappeared from the carriage window, Hasas finally put down the window of the carriage. curtain. This action was like a symbol or suggestion. After a slight sigh, Hasas didn't think much about it.

And Cecilia, the smile she had kept on her face, finally disappeared after the two carriages left her sight.

Her eyes seemed vague, but she didn't know what she was thinking.

Cecilia only felt that she felt unusually tired from the moment she met Angel at noon, and ended with Angel's departure. This was much more exhausting than she was doing business for two or three days without sleeping, but she couldn't tell why she felt so physically and mentally exhausted.

"Cecilia." Sean walked to Cecilia and said softly, "Thank you."

"Huh?" Cecilia was taken aback.

"I heard what William said." Sean said softly, and then reached out and touched Cecilia's head.

This kind of long-lost intimacy made Cecilia feel a moment of physical and mental comfort. She found that she really enjoyed this rare leisure and intimacy, especially when her mood and emotions were obviously in a bad state, being rubbed by Sean so affectionately, Cecilia really Very satisfied.

It's just that, in her impression, William's EQ has always been very low, and she doesn't seem to be right to say these things to Sean.

"It's not hard." Cecilia said with a smile, "I am really happy to be able to help you in this way."

"If you don't want to, just go to the floating library with me, and give yourself a good vacation or something." Sean chuckled lightly, and then took Cecilia to the castle together, "Things It can never be done.... And this time, with the information brought by Miss Angel, there are also four people including William's sister in terms of manpower. I believe there will be no accidents without your command."

"No." Cecilia shook her head slightly, "Everything must have a beginning and an end.... And, I want to prove to you that I will not be inferior to Miss Angel!"

"This kind of thing, you don't need to prove it at all." Sean looked at Cecilia, his laughter was the same, and his voice was softer, "In my eyes, Cecilia, you have always been the best, but No one can compare to you.... So, you don't need to prove anything. Besides, even if you really don't have any ability, I don't mind, so... don't make yourself too tired, Okay?"

"En." Cecilia's face flushed and her voice was a little low.

"Promise me." Xiao En laughed.

"En." Cecilia nodded heavily this time, but her face was even redder, and she felt that her cheeks seemed to be hot, which was incredible to her. At this moment, she was even afraid of being blushed by Sean, so she always walked with her head down, not daring to raise her head at all.

"William said that you don't like Miss Angel. I wanted to call you to go to the floating library with me. It seems that I don't need to worry about it." Xiao En said suddenly.

Cecilia's face stiffened, then she sighed helplessly, and whispered: "I knew that William was unreliable..."

Finally, after returning to the Black Swan Castle, Cecilia bit her lip, and then as if she had made some determination, she said, "Sean!"

"What's wrong?" Sean stopped, then looked back at Cecilia and asked with some confusion.

"Do you like me?" Cecilia asked.

"I like it." Sean was taken aback, and then said with a smile, "Cecilia is so cute, smart and powerful, of course I like it!"

"What if I am not cute, smart and powerful?"

"Then I like it too." Sean said with a smile, "Because you are Cecilia, someone in this world who can't be replaced..."

"Well, I too..." Cecilia said slightly.

"...You are my most important sister." Xiao En smiled and finished what had not yet been said.

Cecilia was stunned for a moment, and then finally sighed helplessly. I don't know how many times I don't know today: "Sure enough... I can't count on you as a piece of wood."

"What wood?" Sean walked to Cecilia and looked down at Cecilia. "Are you okay?"

"It's okay." Cecilia shook her head, "Aren't you leaving tonight? Are you all ready?"

"It's all ready." Sean nodded, "But, what did you plan to tell me just now?"

"It's nothing." Cecilia chuckled, and then stepped forward to hug Sean-this is the first time Cecilia took the initiative to hug Sean in so long, "This way... As long as this is the case, I will be satisfied. ... But you have to bring me a gift from the Floating Library."

"Of course!" Sean chuckled, then reached out and hugged Cecilia.

Chapter 458: .Go to the floating library

After saying goodnight with Cecilia, Sean came to Black Swan Lake.

Here, Andrew, Beth, and Enkos are already waiting on the sidelines. They didn't show up during dinner, and Sean didn't know what they were doing, and of course he didn't mean to ask. After all, if there was no accident this time, it would probably be the last time to travel together.

After seeing Sean coming over, Andrew smiled and nodded, then stretched out his hand and flicked vertically in the air.

In an instant, a weak magical power waved along Andrew's right hand, emerging from up and down, completely isolating the air. There was an invisible streamer flowing in the air, and then it seemed as if a curtain was pulled apart. The space in front of Andrew was so naturally divided, revealing a dark world with purple-red lightning in this area. Shining in the darkness, a heart-palpitating breath of horror escaped from this space.

I don't know if it is Sean's illusion, or it is the fact that the dark world has not stayed for too long, as if an invisible thread is pulling another space. Brilliant colors began to fill the dark space, as if something was gradually being drawn closer, and the scene on the opposite side of the void began to gradually become clearer.

Soon, Sean saw the world behind this space gate.

And he recognized this place at a glance.

A bedroom in the Great Sanctuary of Marz, where Levi and Alyssa rested.

At this time, Alyssa was appearing on the other side of the portal with a face of astonishment. It was not known whether the astonishment on her face was because of seeing the portal or seeing Andrew and Sean behind the portal. But Andrew waved his hand gracefully, then stepped across the portal, and appeared in front of Alyssa and Levi, followed by Beth and Enkos.

Shaun, after looking back at the Black Swan Castle. Just stepped in immediately.

A feeling of dizziness, then rises in Sean's mind, causing his body to shake slightly. Although it was only a moment, the subtle sense of weightlessness and dizziness also gave Sean an extremely unforgettable impression. At this moment, he suddenly had a subtle feeling in his heart. It seemed to naturally understand the structure of the space and the meaning of the portal.

【You have mastered the mystery of space, and obtained the law by yourself: space (core). 】

[Special reminder: The highest superlative law is composed of multiple core laws. Please obtain the second core law to form the highest superlative law.]

As soon as he stepped out of the portal, Sean received two notification sounds from the system, which surprised him a bit.

He knows, in the game. The core law refers to the secondary law. It is second only to the existence of the world's highest superior law. However, in the game, apart from NPC, no player has mastered the core laws at all. The highest laws that players master after entering the ninth level are the third-level laws, and most people even only have incomplete laws and law fragments. It is said that it is difficult to obtain the second-level core law, and even the time law that Shaun himself masters at this moment is only the third-level law.

And the superior rule of time: Time is the real second rule. It is also the core principle.

Sean did not expect that he was just passing through a portal. Actually mastered a second-level rule, this welfare is also great, right?

According to the occupation in the game, the occupational upgrade condition of Tier 11 is to master two or more rules. However, in the game, the understanding of the law is extremely difficult, and it is not easy to obtain the second law. Therefore, even the top group of players, most of them are limited by this and cannot be promoted to At Tier 11, there are very few players who can successfully promote to Tier 11, let alone hit the legendary realm of Tier 12.

Shaun quickly opened his career panel, he was eager to know what level he was in now.

However, the results that he saw obviously disappointed him.

His rank is still the ninth rank representing the lower sanctuary, and he has not been promoted to the upper sanctuary because he has mastered the second law at this time. Moreover, the domain ability has not changed in any way, and everything seems to be the same as when he was promoted to the sanctuary.

When Xiao En was promoted to the lower-ranked sanctuary of the ninth rank, his job name did not change in any way. He was still the original eighth-ranked [Magic Sealer]. It was just that he added a sanctuary ability on his personal panel. , The other abilities have not changed much. Of course, there are still some improvement in attributes, but compared to the full attribute increase of the silver body, this attribute improvement is basically negligible.

Reality, after all, is not a game. After the increase in attributes reaches the sanctuary realm, there is basically no much effect.

Of course, if you can hit the legendary realm of the twelfth level, then everything will be different again.

To put it simply, the most powerful aspect of the sanctuary realm lies in the composition of the domain and the special abilities derived from it, not the changes brought about by personal strength and attributes. Of course, there is still a certain degree of reinforcement. After all, if you want to maintain the scope of the domain, you need your body to be able to support the consumption of this area, but the increase in this area is the effect brought by the bronze body.

In general, some quasi-sanctuary powerhouses who have exercised their bodies to the extreme can still fight against the sanctuary powerhouses when they don't use the domain.

However, it is not bad to be able to protect yourself if the domain ability is used.

With the appearance of Sean, the portal behind him automatically closed soon, just as silently as Andrew opened the portal before.

"It's okay?" Andrew asked when Sean's footsteps were a little shaky, "It was the first time, and I will get used to it later."

"There are few people in this world who can directly open an ultra-long-distance portal that ignores distance." Xiao En laughed bitterly, and then said helplessly, "I'm afraid I can't get used to it in this life."

"That may not be true, I am very optimistic about you." Andrew said with a smile, and then found a place to sit in the room.

Levi, who heard the noise, also came out of the room at this time, but his expression was also very shocked, and the gaze looking at Alisha was also full of doubt. Because he hadn't heard the sound of the door opening at all just now, he naturally knew that Andrew and others didn't come in through the door. So under Alisha's explanation, Levi knew where Andrew and Sean came from.

Although Sean and Andrew had said they would come back when they left. It's just that Levi and Alyssa never thought that the way they came back was so unique. Although the special magic of the portal has been recorded in the text thousands of years ago, in fact, the threshold of this magic is extremely high, and not all magicians can master it, and even the magician who meets the prerequisites has been comprehended. , It may not necessarily be able to master this magic.

【Portal: able to open a portal. The location of the other side of the door could not be determined. The transmission range is limited to less than one hundred kilometers. Learning conditions: Master the law: latitude (the three-level rule); the legendary powerhouse of the magic profession. 】

【Space Portal: A portal that can move accurately after passing through a coordinated location. The teleportation range is limited to less than 100 kilometers. Learning conditions: Master the law: space (core law); a legendary powerhouse in the magic profession. 】

This is the learning limitation of portals in the game.

But because this skill is a magic skill, and the learning conditions are limited to legendary level magic occupations, players can't master it at all—at least before Sean came to this world, there was no player in the game that reached the twelfth level of legend realm. And NPC magicians, not necessarily able to learn the laws of latitude and space, not to mention the legendary powerhouse. And the range of transmission is limited to less than one hundred kilometers.

But the distance between the South Continent and the North Continent. Let alone a hundred kilometers, more than 10,000 kilometers.

And Andrew directly opened such a portal through two precise coordinates. The magic has not been drained. This is simply incredible. So it's no wonder that Levi and Alyssa made such a fuss, but considering that Andrew's strength was extraordinary, and their mental qualities were quite good, they quickly recovered calm after a slight shock.

"How is the injury?" Although Xiao En felt a little dizzy. But it seemed that it was almost better, so he also found a place to sit down. Then asked Levi.

In the previous battle, Levi almost fell.

If it wasn't Andrew who happened to wake up at that time, given the battlefield conditions at the time, regardless of whether he could stop Marz from coming, first of all he would not be able to suppress the deterioration of Levi's injury. Even if Sean and others urgently thought of a way to suppress Levi's bleeding, but limited by the battlefield environment, treatment techniques and other issues, in the end it could only delay Levi's death time.

So, Levi's extreme weakness afterwards is also understandable. After all, judging from the situation at the time, it was too dangerous.

"It's okay." Although Levi's face is still a little pale, his activities are basically not a problem. The injury has basically recovered."

"Should it not affect going to Floating Book?" Sean asked, but this time it was Andrew.

"It doesn't affect." Andrew glanced at Levi, squinted his eyes and scanned, and then said, "Don't worry, you won't die in this process.... It's just that after going back, you may need to rest. It's been a while."

Levy's forehead, dripping sweat can be seen vaguely.

"It's not so...serious?" Sean asked with some confusion, "I remember you said before, just open a portal. Isn't it the same as before?"

"It's essentially the same." Andrew nodded, "But in fact, some operations are different.... After all, the floating library is Jibril's site, and I have never done coordinate fixation before, of course not. It is possible to open a portal so arbitrarily and go up, only to enter in another way. This kind of behavior is similar to tearing apart a space barrier, and it will more or less be impacted by a certain turbulence of time and space."

Sean doesn't quite understand the principles of these portals, so even with Andrew's detailed explanation, Shaun still doesn't understand.

He was just thinking, there will be no problems, right?

However, whether there is any problem or not, this is the only way for everyone to go to the floating library-because of Jibril's obstruction back then, the floating library is completely cut off from the outside world. Although later the people in the floating library all carried Jibril privately to study the means to the boundary, and they also did several experiments, and successfully put several groups of people into the boundary.

But for so many years. Those who go to the boundary can never return to the floating library, and it is even difficult to get in touch with the floating library. In addition, once the people of Fort Solomon find the people from the floating library appear, they will kill them all. . Therefore, after experiencing all this, the personnel of the floating library who went to the boundary basically did not dare to declare their origin. Instead, he chose to blend into the world of the earth. Become their most despised local people.

However, despite the difficulty in contact, occasionally, I can successfully get in touch.

It's just that the fluctuation of this magical power is very special, so when the number of times increases, it will naturally be captured by Jibril, thus discovering the secret matter of the floating library. For this reason, she made a fire and killed a large number of people, and let the entire floating library be honest for a while. It's just that she also knows the truth that blocking is worse than sparse. So under her intervention. The transfer of personnel to the boundary has also become a public matter.

But after more failures, not many people do this kind of labor and money.

Of course, the most important thing is that the resources of the floating library are not unlimited. Agriculture and animal husbandry may be able to continuously recycle, and forestry can also be satisfied through planned planting and felling. However, the mineral resources cannot be regenerated and recycled. Although the floating library is based on magic in terms of energy supply, as today's mineral resources become more and more impoverished, many development and research work cannot be achieved. Do not stop temporarily. It may even be completely terminated.

At this time, the land boundary invented the magic teleportation array. After this news came back to the floating library, it naturally attracted the attention of a large number of interested people.

For this reason, there was a plan for Levi and Alyssa to go to the land to spy on intelligence and establish an advance base.

It's a pity that this plan has not yet been implemented, and Jibril has intervened sideways. After that, the entire floating library fell into confinement-this was naturally Jibril in order to prevent those guys from the floating council from sending new manpower to the boundary again, which attracted the attention of Fort Solomon, thus ruining her plan. Regarding this, even if someone is dissatisfied with the floating library, they can't say anything. After all, the entire floating library was established by Jibril, and so far no one has been able to win the horrible existence of Jibril.

If it weren't for Andrew and others, maybe Jibril would be the strongest person on this plane.

Shawn left a letter to Emily in the room. He didn't have time to go to Emily to explain the situation in detail, and of course he didn't want to disturb Emily. Today, Emily is the only saint of the Church of God of War, and she also serves as the pope. Although the previous turmoil has been put down, many bishops of the churches scattered across the entire territory of the Northern Duchy still expressed disobedience to Ai. Mili's order, so she has been purging her all this time.

Sean knows the level of exhaustion of this kind of work, so he thinks that there is no need to disturb Emily, leaving a letter is enough.

When everyone was ready, Andrew opened a portal again, but the world behind the door was a snowy landscape. Before the portal was passed, everyone had already felt the chill. Without Andrew's greeting, everyone passed through the portal one by one. This time, the feeling of passing through the portal is just as Andrew said before. You will get used to it more often, so Sean didn't feel the vain footsteps as before.

"This is the closest place to the floating library." Andrew looked up at the sky, and in an invisible place, there were forty-eight land-like islands suspended.

The area composed of these islands is called the floating library. An adventure biography once said that the floating island is the closest place to the kingdom of God—this statement naturally caused dissatisfaction among all the churches on the entire continent, and the person who wrote this adventure biography was naturally classified as a heretic. The result of this incident has long been forgotten in memory, but the legend of the floating island has been passed down because of this.

Of course, the legend belongs to the legend. Only the organizational forces with a long heritage will know the truth about the floating island.

And among them, Fort Solomon is the most—the floating library they have is the most complete. However, due to the natural topography of the two sides, although Solomon has always been unhappy with the floating library, unless the floating library sends people to the boundary, they can't do anything at all. The core ideas that have been handed down since the establishment of Fort Solomon have finally become pale words like empty talk after thousands of years and tens of thousands of years have passed.

"Next, I will tear open the space barrier and go directly to the floating library." Andrew slowly retracted his sight, and then said in a deep voice, "Because it is tearing the space barrier, I cannot guarantee the turbulence of time and space. Influence, it's best to stimulate your respective fields when you pass through, so as to reduce the danger you encounter."

After that, Andrew waved his hand, and a roar of thunder sounded in the air.

A dark air current like a whirlpool suddenly appeared out of thin air in front of everyone, sweeping like a black hole in madness and expanding continuously. Immediately afterwards, a peculiar area that was indistinguishable from the two previous portals appeared in front of everyone, but this time, everyone could not see clearly what the world behind the door was. All they saw was only Fuchsia electric current, black air current, and even gorgeous scenery like a starry sky.

But under these scenery, there is a terrible atmosphere of destruction.

This breath reached the depths of everyone's hearts, just like the wrath of the mighty power, and made people feel a sense of awe from the depths of their hearts.

In this darkness, a little white light is constantly expanding.

Soon, this white light burst out with an extremely strong and dazzling light, and everyone's eyes could not be opened. Even if you close your eyes, you can still feel the tingling sensation and strong white light coming from your eyes.

"It's now! Go through!" Just as everyone closed their eyes, and even stretched out their hands to block their own eyes, Andrew's roar suddenly sounded.

Subconsciously, everyone closed their eyes like this and rushed forward, but they still did not forget the expansion of the maintenance domain that Andrew said before.

When Sean felt like he had broken into this portal, a peculiar pressure suddenly surged from all directions. This force is very overbearing, it can even be said to be unreasonable, and after invading his own domain, it began to forcibly tear his own domain apart. The kind of pain that is like being forced by others in the brain almost makes Sean. Almost unable to maintain the expansion of the field.

He can only shrink the unfolding field quickly, and only protect his whole body.

However, as the domain shrinks, although the intense pain from the brain diminishes, the pressure becomes stronger, and Sean almost feels that he is about to suffocate. And the next moment, Sean felt another unique and dangerous aura approaching. He hadn't reacted yet, and suddenly there was a tingling sensation like a knife cut from his body, whether it was his domain or his. The body of silver can't stop this kind of damage at all.

Void turbulence!

In Sean's mind, such a noun flashed inexplicably.

At this moment, he finally knew why Andrew would let them enter after expanding the domain, and also wanted Levi to take good care of his body. After the weakening of the domain and the resistance of the Silver Body to a certain degree, Void Turbulence can still easily injure one's body. If you don't have a certain strength, you can break into such an unsecured portal like this. There is no difference between suicide and suicide.

But Sean believed Andrew.

Since Andrew said, there is not much danger, so if it is just an injury, it is nothing to him.

Sinking down, Shaun no longer paid attention to the physical pain that would suddenly come at any time. He just tried his best to keep the domain open, and then closed his eyes and rushed towards the most dazzling and bright part of the white light.

As long as it reaches the white light, everything is safe-this is the only thought Sean has at this time.

Chapter 459: .Andrew's Negotiations with Jibril

I don't know how long it took before Sean finally woke up.

The head he found was still very dizzy, and there was even some pain. It seemed that the sequelae that occurred while crossing the portal had not subsided. He got up from the ground with some difficulty, and then found that the place he was on was a grassland, but the thinness of the air made him have a breathing difficulty. In addition, there was water vapor wetted by dew on his body, and his body was falling down. It looked soggy and sticky, and it was unusually uncomfortable.

But at least Sean knew that he should have successfully arrived at the floating library.

He stood up, looked around, did not see Andrew, Beth, Enkos and others, but saw Levi and Alisha who were still in a coma not far away. Eliza's condition is okay, she doesn't seem to be in serious trouble. The extra scars on her body are also inevitable. Sean also has her own body, but Levi's condition seems to be more serious.

Sean rushed over, and then carefully checked Levi's situation.

Although Levi looked very unoptimistic, after Sean's closer inspection, he found that the situation was actually okay. As Andrew said before, it was not that serious, at least his life was saved. So Xiao En replaced Levi with some medicines and bandages that he had already prepared, and helped him stop the blood. By the way, he also helped Alisha deal with it a bit.

After , Xiao En finally had time to observe the surrounding environment.

This is a terrain similar to a plain, surrounded by short green grass, and I don't know whether it is due to the terrain or the problem of the floating library. These grasses are not very piercing. Sean knew that this was the lowest layer of the floating island. According to Levi's previous introduction, this should be the smallest piece of land, which was used to raise some livestock. But Sean didn't see any livestock here, and he couldn't see the edge of the land as far as he could see.

Although Sean wanted to walk around, he couldn't leave Levi and Alisa here, so he could only helplessly wait for the two to wake up. It stands to reason. Both Levi and Alyssa are both high-ranking sanctuary. Much stronger than Sean, he should be able to recover faster than Sean, but for some reason, the two of them have not been able to wake up.

Of course, the other reason why Sean didn't walk around was because he was unfamiliar with life in the floating library. If you get lost. Then the fun will be great-even though Levi has repeatedly emphasized that the floating island is not very big, after seeing it with his own eyes now, Sean doesn't believe Levi's words. According to his visual observation, this piece of land was located at the lowest level and was once used as a springboard to the land boundary, and its area was almost equivalent to a baronial land on the land boundary.

If this is the case, then cross the end of the floating island. It would take more than half a month to talk less.

Just when Shaun was in a daze, he was located in the floating library. However, a few very rare guests were welcomed.

Andrew sat on a stone chair, looked up at the turbulent flow of the void that was isolated by the transparent barrier, and sneered at the corner of his mouth: "This plane is doing well."

"You can see it?" Jibril, the real master of the entire floating island, sat opposite to Sean and whispered, "I knew I couldn't hide it from you."

"It's strange to be able to hide it." Andrew's face showed a bit of disdain, then he picked up the cup in front of him and drank the liquid in it. The next moment his face showed shock and satisfaction. The look, "Shenlu!...Ah, I have forgotten how many years I haven't drunk it."

"To entertain distinguished guests, naturally you need to use the best things." Jibril raised her head and looked at Andrew with a smile.

At this time, Andrew, Beth, and Enkos were in Jibril's plane world.

This is a complete plane, not a half plane. The only difference is that this plane world was actually developed from Jibril's own demiplane world, just like the mage plane that Sean once found in the wild. It's just that before that plane was completely formed with its own laws and world will, it couldn't be formed because of the fall of its owner, so the entire plane entered a period of destruction.

On the plane of Jibril, the basic laws have been completed, and the core laws are gradually being born. As long as the core laws are born and stabilized, and then other lower laws are derived, the world of this plane will enter a state of automatic operation.

At that time, as long as Jibril injects a little thought, this thought will turn into the will of the world, and then the sky will no longer be these barriers, but will evolve into a world wall. Inside the world wall is the blue sky and white clouds. Then there will be creatures and species that belong to this world. Oceans, air currents, fires, etc. will also appear one after another, bringing the entire world into the orbit of order.

A whole new world plane will be born as a result.

Jibril will also become the creator of this world plane.

When a strong person is strong enough to a certain level, he usually has only two choices-either he will evolve his demiplane into a brand new world, and he will be the creator of this world, and then wait until the new world. After stability, continue to create the next world. Of course, when the world was first born, it was still immature, and the upper limit of strength will not be too high. It may only be the fourteenth and sixteenth steps, but as the world plane gradually grows, the creatures born in this world You can also gradually improve your strength and constantly break through the limits of realm.

just as Jibril did at this time.

And another type of strong, such as Andrew, Bass, Enkos. Constantly explore new worlds, planes, and fight against stronger enemies, seek new strength, and move forward in a never-ending cycle. They don't like the so-called becoming gods, and of course they won't like such titles, because for them, who are already so powerful, becoming a * is just putting themselves on a layer of shackles.

Because of the different attitudes and ideals, it is doomed that Andrew and Jibril's ideas are impossible to agree.

Andrew didn't want to waste time either, so he simply said, "Let's stop talking nonsense and go around in circles.... Since you let people find us and say you can provide us with a way to leave, let's talk about terms. ."

"It's fair." Jibril nodded. "All the materials you lack for building a portal. I can provide you with it.... As you can see, I have a lot reserved here only in the dawn of dawn. There are things, so I believe I can meet your requirements."

"So, what do you want me to do?" Andrew said lightly, "You are not such a stupid woman. So since you have spoken like this. There must be something you can't solve.... Although I am confident of my own strength , But you also know that the interference of the will of the world makes it impossible for us to exert our full strength, so if your request is too difficult, then we can only think of a solution by ourselves."

"Oh?" Jibril smiled with interest, "What way? I can say it, except for me. It is impossible for you to collect all the materials you need by other means."

"Hey. You know." Andrew smiled, "I don't know if you are too confident or too stupid. When we passed through the portal, you opened the second portal and pulled us. Come to your plane."

"You mean..." Jibril raised an eyebrow, "Do you want to rob me?"

"It's not obvious." Andrew's smile was bright, but his tone was not very friendly. There is a kind of willfulness and publicity, "I am the king of dragons. I am the king above all dragons.... When all the dragons were driven to extinction by you, I guided them to the home of dragons. Yes. In the main world of Miracle Continent, we can't exert our true strength, but with you, there is no problem."

"Well, I admit that you made a lot of sense." Jibril nodded in agreement, "I was really not your opponent back then, but if you didn't do it to me, you wouldn't be caught in the future. The will of the world has been cursed for tens of thousands of years.... If it weren't for the arrival of Sean and others, you would have been assimilated by the world and become a member of this plane."

"So what, back then, you had the protection of the will of the world, just like Sean now, but in this plane, you don't have." Andrew said lightly, "I didn't explode all the strength back then, you are not me. The opponent of, even though you now have the strength of the 25th rank, but in the case of my full burst, how do you think you can support me? ... Moreover, don't forget that I have bass and Enkos, perhaps in the main material world, they can only play the strength of the 20th order, but here, they all have the strength of the 24th order."

"You are right." Jibril nodded, seeming to agree with Andrew.

But the next moment, I saw Jibril suddenly raised his hand, and a powerful pressure instantly enveloped the three of Andrew, Beth and Enkos. Andrew's situation is not bad, but under this powerful pressure, the two of Beth and Enkos were completely unable to stand up. Even if they tried their best to resist, their figures were still involuntary. Kneel down little by little.

Andrew's eyes narrowed slightly, his body burst out, and a pair of five-meter-long dragon wings appeared behind him! The eyes also turned into the golden vertical eyes of the dragon, the backs of both hands were covered with golden dragon scales, and the nails began to become sharp. There was a fierce and terrifying aura exuding all over the body, just like the return of the lost king of the ancient prehistoric, only relying on the aura of the dissemination, the small pavilion of Jibril was swept into powder.

Half dragon!

In the main material realm, Andrew didn't need to be half-dragon at all. He could easily kill Marz with only a human form, but when facing Jibril, Andrew actually developed a half-dragon. Obviously, although Andrew has been scorning Jibril, if he really wants to fight Jibril, he will not care about it at all, and will directly respond with the strongest posture.

"I didn't mean to fight with you." Jibril shrugged, and then said calmly, "I'm just reminding you that this is my plane world.... Maybe you can play the strongest here. The strength of, but this world is controlled by my will, so apart from you, your two subordinates can't play any role in this world....Of course, it's impossible for me to completely suppress you. But at least I can make our two fights at the same level."

Hearing what Jibril said, Andrew's brows naturally wrinkled. Because he found out. I still underestimate Jibril too much, even if he knows that this plane world is no longer a semi-plane, but a plane world dominated by Jibril, and it is likely to become a new plane world in some time. . But in any case, Andrew didn't expect it. Jibril has actually injected a bit of her mind into this world. So even if this world plane hasn't formally formed yet, Jibril, who is the "Creation God", still has certain advantages.

To put it simply, at this time Andrew and others are completely under Jibril's domain suppression.

Andrew, who found that he could not rob him by force, naturally calmed down. He didn't like being led by the nose, but he discovered that Jibril did not lead him by the nose, but when he was really trying to negotiate with him. Andrew naturally has nothing to object.

"Everyone is an adult. It's really meaningless to fight and kill. Let's talk about it." After thinking about it, Andrew also lifted his half-dragon state, and then just sat down like this-look. As Andrew put on a seated appearance, it was of course impossible for Jibril to let Andrew fall to the ground like this, so he could only use the control of his will to shape a new stone chair before Andrew sat down.

"That's what I meant." Jibril chuckled lightly, seeming to have forgotten the thing that Andrew was about to move. "We are all grown-ups, so it's better to drink and drink together. It's better to talk about the transaction.... The age of doing things if you don't agree with each other is no longer suitable for us."

Andrew shrugged and said noncommittal: "Then, let's talk about it, what is the problem you need us to help you solve."

Jibril didn't answer immediately, but instead, he swept away the shackles of the two of Beth and Enkos, and then re-shaped a pavilion in front of everyone, and then made a stone chair for both Beth and Enkos, and After the stone table was filled with various dishes, he said while pouring wine to everyone: "It's very simple. I want you to help me solve Fort Solomon....Because of certain limitations in the world, I can no longer solve it by myself. Fort Solomon, but this place was formed because of me back then, so I have to understand this story with them."

"Oh?" Andrew raised his brows and smiled, "The solution you said is..."

"Destroy." Jibril's expression was very calm, but what she said was full of coldness, "It is not just the base camp of Fort Solomon, but also includes all the members of Fort Solomon in this plane. Basically, all people or families connected with Fort Solomon must be eradicated."

"Where did you leave this plane?" Andrew thought for a while, then spoke.

"As long as Fort Solomon is destroyed, the coordinate stone will be destroyed, and those members of Fort Solomon who have left the plane will not be able to return." Jibril replied, "As long as you solve Fort Solomon, I will take you All the materials you need are given to you. At that time, you can build a plane portal and leave this plane.... And our involvement will be completely terminated by the end of this transaction."

"It seems that you want to disconnect the old line of cause and effect with this world." Andrew's face was calm, and he didn't answer directly, "Then what about this floating island? This place was built because of you. You want If you leave, what do you plan to do with this floating island?"

"I have already thought about it." Jibril replied, "The arrival of my nominal brother gave me an excuse to take action. I will handle all these things cleanly. Moreover, Xiao En no matter what I say, he is also my brother, whether I want to admit it or not, so you can rest assured that I will not hurt Sean."

"That's the best." Andrew said in a deep voice, "There is also a bit of grievance between me and Fort Solomon to end. He actually dared to persuade my people to do things that I don't like very much.... But you'd better remember. What you are saying now, if something happens to Sean, our transaction will be cancelled."

Jibril stared at Andrew and looked at him seriously, until she realized that Andrew's attitude was not joking, she nodded seriously and said: "Okay."

Chapter 460: .My sister is Jibril!

The evening sun, scattered on the grassland, is really like a layer of golden sand.

Sean has always thought that it is probably difficult to see this kind of scenery on the floating island, after all, the floating island is too far away from the ground. But I didn't expect that I could actually see the changes in the sky, and it was more obvious and intuitive than what I saw on land.

It's just that Sean's worry about Levi and Alissa is even more obvious.

He doesn't know how long he has been on the floating island, but he only knows that it should be in the morning or in the morning when he wakes up, because the sky is the clearest at that time. Standing on the lowest level of land and looking at him with poor eyesight, he could still see the upper land in front of him, revealing the bottom of the land at the lower end of the sea of clouds.

Sean remembers Levi's saying that there are twenty-four small pieces of land at the bottom of the floating island, but in fact, these twenty-four pieces of land are not kept on the same horizontal line, but have the same high and low distribution. Unlike the seven large lands in the third sequence and the twelve small lands in the second sequence, they all maintain the same horizontal orbit. It's just that the twenty-four pieces of land have the same function, so they are classified as the lowest sequence layer.

It is said that because these twenty-four pieces of land are all labor-type land, so on floating islands, they are often used as places to punish prisoners.

Because the floating island has a small living space, and so many tens of thousands of years have passed, the resources have become increasingly barren, so all kinds of rectification have become very important things. On Floating Island, the death penalty does exist, but it is not so cruel enough to rely on the death penalty to control the population. After all, Floating Island is not very fertile due to external natural factors such as oxygen, pressure, and cold. The population is only at a level of basic saturation.

But even so, criminal behavior still exists.

The highest penalty is naturally the death penalty. The second is exile to the land boundary, and the third is being sentenced to work on these twenty-four pieces of land.

All of Sean's knowledge of the floating island comes from the introduction of Levi and Alisa. According to his understanding, this land at the lowest level is called the "Green Plains Land". It is land for animal husbandry. In other words, you should be able to see the grazing personnel, but after almost half a day, Xiao En was not seen alone, sitting still in a daze. And Levi and Alyssa also seemed to have suffered much more serious injuries than he had imagined. On the surface, Sean didn't think it was too serious, but the two of them just didn't wake up.

At this moment, a sound of footsteps suddenly sounded from far to near.

Shaun raised his brows.

He can hear such obvious footsteps. It was because of his great strength. So he can hear it naturally. The footsteps weren't very messy, on the contrary, it seemed to be a bit of a soldier's taste, and the number was more than ten, and it might even be accompanied by other creatures-Sean guessed it should be a hunting dog.

Sure enough, when the opponent's footsteps got closer and closer, about a hundred meters away from Xiao En and the others, he heard a bark.

This barking sound is not very similar to the sound of a hunting dog, compared to the sound of a medium-to-large dog such as a hunting dog. The roar of this creature should be low. And from the sound, the threat that can be heard is slightly greater. Obviously some extremely aggressive creatures, maybe even some kind of monsters.

Immediately afterwards, there was a noisy sound.

Then there was a burst of intensive footsteps that were slightly messy, but quickly adjusted the rhythm during the movement.

Shaun got up from the spot, then took out the black king, and waited quietly. Now he can be sure that these people are obviously very professional military training. They are probably the "soldiers" of the floating island. According to Levi, there are no soldiers on the floating island, but they are born in the floating holy. The students of the college have a task of reviewing the law and order of their place of residence, and the punishment and arrest of criminals are also the responsibility of the Saint College.

He thought, these people should be students of Floating Saint Academy.

In the northeast, dozens of figures appeared. By his side, there were four or five creatures resembling hunting dogs.

At this time, these students who took the place of the security team did not hold the creatures like hounds, but let them quickly approach Sean, and they just followed behind these creatures, maintaining an offensive type. Formation. This formation, Sean, has seen in the information in the game. It is a magic attack formation in the twilight era. It can be regarded as a very old military battle formation. Its main purpose is to combine close combat and magic long-range combat. Use military formation.

The most famous "Mage Advance Formation" in the Maggie Empire today evolved from this "Magic Attack Formation".

As the hound-like creatures got closer, Sean finally saw the appearance of these creatures.

This creature is indeed a monster.

It's just that, it's no longer a purebred monster, but a tamed monster.

Nowadays, you can no longer see the traces of such beasts in the earth. It is said that you can only see such wild beasts in the underground world.

The name of Warcraft is "Lion of Killing". It is a creature about the size of a Tibetan mastiff. It looks like a lion. It can also be said to be a mini version of the lion. However, the whole body is red and black, and the temples are dark black like hell's demon flame. The bite force is more than 20 times that of the same volume of monsters. It is said to be able to easily smash the iron steel rock—the unprocessed land currently known The special ore with the former hardness level of B grade is one of the essential core materials of the large magic tower shield after the refined essence, with a hardness value of more than 300 points.

In addition to a strong bite force, this beast has a gregarious nature like a wolf, and its tail also has a strong whipping ability like the tail of a tiger. It can run at full speed up to 30 kilometers per hour. Although the speed is much slower than that of lion monsters, its running and collision power can hit a defensive line composed of ten stacked tower shield heavy infantry—— In other words, it is a shock shield soldier who can shake two stacks.

In addition, their claws are also very sharp and sharp. All shields except for the large heavy shields cannot stop their claws from attacking.

Basically, the lion of killing is full of weapons, and its fighting ability is extremely powerful. This is also the origin of the name of this kind of beast—it can be said that this kind of beast is born purely for killing. According to the official data of some game information. The level of this kind of beast is roughly equivalent to the strength of the quasi-sanctuary, but the only thing to be thankful for is that this kind of beast is a purely physical attack on the beast, and it does not have any magic.

As the four killing lions approached, Sean also showed a little nervousness.

With his strength. If it is to deal with these few slaughter lions alone. Naturally there will be no difficulty. But now he still needs to protect both Levi and Alisa, so naturally he can't concentrate on dealing with these monsters. What's more, there are more than ten students from the other side who should be born in the Floating Saint Academy—according to Sean's own Understand that to be able to control such a powerful monster, the strength of these students should not be weak.

How to say, it also has to be a sanctuary.

Even if it is the lower sanctuary, this is also the strongest in the lower sanctuary.

Just when Sean was still feeling the strength of the floating island. The four slaughter lions have completed their encirclement. The four directions of the main sub-station showed a low roar towards Xiao En. They hunched their backs and made a pounce attack, but they did not launch an attack for the time being. Maybe they were waiting for their owner's order, or maybe they were looking for Sean's flaws, but no matter what, these monsters were definitely not bluffing.

Sean is considering whether to play first to be strong. He evaluated his situation, and thought that it might be before these slaughter lions could react. Solve two first. But then he may fall into the double siege of the opponent's personnel and the Lion of Killing. This situation is still extremely unfavorable for Sean.

But before Shaun could make a decision, the dozen or so people from the other party also surrounded him.

A total of thirteen people.

It's similar to the situation that Levi had said to Sean that the fifteen people were a patrol group, and these people were wearing the same clothes that Sean wore when they first met Levi and Alyssa. That "school uniform". It can be proved that these people are indeed students from the Floating Saint Academy, and not criminals exiled to Qingyuan land to work.

"Rebel, you are already surrounded!" An older young man looked at Sean's clothes, and then asked a little strangely, "Hurry up and put down your weapons and surrender, otherwise I will treat you as a murderer. Killed on the spot!"

"Rebel...?" Xiao En was taken aback for a moment, and some of them didn't figure out the situation.

The other students' reactions to Sean were also a little strange. They looked at each other, but no one said anything. However, their gaze fell on Levi and Alyssa who were next to Sean, and someone suddenly uttered a cry of exclamation, and then instantly attracted everyone's attention. In the next second, the older young man's face suddenly changed, as if he had seen some incredible picture.

"Levy! Alyssa!" the young man with short turquoise hair yelled out, "Damn it! What did you do to them!"

Sean suddenly seemed a little innocent: "Don't you see that I saved them?"

"Save?" The young man sneered, far from being as calm and calm as he looked on the surface, but rather like an irritable person in character, "I really haven't seen how you saved them!... ...Rebel, I advise you to immediately lay down your arms and surrender, otherwise I will make you worse off than death! Attacking students of the Holy Academy is not a crime that can be relieved by a simple death penalty!"

"I said, how come there are you guys with low IQs everywhere." Sean sighed helplessly, "If I really want to attack them, the two of them can still live? ... Let's talk about it. them....."

Halfway through the conversation, Sean's brows suddenly raised, and his expression became calm and solemn: "Wait, since you know their identities, it is impossible not to know the tasks they are going to perform.... But what do you think of them? Will appear here without any surprise, but interrogate me first. Who are you?"

The young man shouted coldly: "What do you mean?"

"I heard Levy say that he also has enemies." Shaun looked around calmly, "How do I know that you are not his enemies?"

"Just kidding, Senior Levi is our swordsmanship instructor, how could we be his enemy!" Suddenly someone from a group of students who had not spoken aloud shouted, and then everyone else immediately agreed, "We are what we want You ask who you are! How come you are with Senior Levi and Senior Sister Alisha! They are obviously sent out to perform a secret mission, why are they here!"

Hearing these people's words, Sean thought for a while, and then inserted the Black King into the ground again to show that he was not malicious.

"Since you are not Levy's enemies, there is no hostile conflict between us." Shaun said in a deep voice, "Levy and Alyssa's mission is to bring me back. Now their mission has been completed, so naturally I'm back, what's so strange... It's just that in the process of returning, the two of them were affected by the impact of the turbulence of the void, and they were injured in the first place, so they fell into a coma. Not awake."

"I can't believe what you said now." The young man frowned, then looked at Levi and Alisa again, and then said, "You can only be treated as a traitor.... So please also Put down your weapons and walk with us. After Levi and Alisa wake up, we will ask about the situation before we do a new treatment. If you are really the target of Levi and Alisa's mission, then you'd better not resist now. So as not to cause some unnecessary misunderstandings."

"Fuck!" Sean was stunned on the spot, "Since you all think I am their mission target, you still want to catch me? Your brains are broken by the door panel, right?"

"Please pay attention to your wording!" The young man's face was dark on the spot, "Except for Levi and Alisa, no one else can prove your identity, but now both of them are unconscious, how can we? Can believe you? It is the best treatment to not kill you on the spot as a traitor. If you are not satisfied anymore, we can only use force!"

"Strategic means?" Xiao En glanced at the people around him. He found that, except for the four slaughter lions, which are the strength of the quasi-sanctuary, and the green-haired young man in front of him is the strength of the lower sanctuary, the other twelve students are all Only the strength of the lower level gold, it is impossible to surrender him by force value, "Do you know who I am?"

Everyone looked at each other, not knowing how to answer.

"My sister is Jibril! You master of the floating library! You actually want to catch me? Are your brains broken!"
