

Lord of War Vol 4-191

Chapter 191: .

Selena's body, that imperial aura is simply shining.

It's impossible for someone at the level of Sean and Burred to feel it-of course, besides their own strength, there is another reason that Serena has just succeeded to the Luxemba clan. It didn't take long to be the head of the house, so he still couldn't control his own aura well.

After all, it was only forty minutes and less than fifty minutes.

Brad stared at Serena in amazement, the expression on her face looked unusually tangled: "How... maybe."

"Nothing is impossible." Serena said in a deep voice, the Patriarch's aura at a glance, "Then, as the Patriarch, I will order you to withdraw!"

Burled stared at Serena for a few seconds, then looked at Sean again, and then at the point of the fist blade that had been spotted on Sean's throat. Finally, he sighed slightly and chose to stop and retreat. He also disarmed the Sen Luo Wanxiang on his body, and reverted to a black cloak, draped behind him.

It wasn't until then that everyone could see clearly that Burled was almost as if he had been fished out of the water. His whole body was wet, and his clothes had been completely soaked with sweat. And after the disarming of Senluo Vientiane, Burred also appeared a little weak. It is obvious that this last fight with Sean is already relying on willpower to persist, if the battle between the two sides is delayed for a while. , I'm afraid it's really hard to say who will be the winner.

Of course, a more intuitive manifestation is that there is a clear mist on Burlade's head, which is a phenomenon caused by excessive heating of the brain.

High physical energy consumption and high mental energy consumption, this is the core focus of the battle between Sean and Burlade.

Selina looked at Sean with a slightly more unclear look.

When she was on the surface, she had the same fierce and cunning war with Sean. At that time, the competition between the two sides was also a double consumption of physical and mental power. It's just that at that time, the strength of her and Sean are only the realm of the upper sanctuary, and the methods that both sides can use are not particularly large. They basically rely on deceiving each other to fight each other, so they can't fully appreciate Sean's. Terrible.

But in the past two years in the underground world, Serena has personally seen Sean's strength ascending speed.

The reason why the underground world is generally stronger than the people in the surface world is that the underground world is a very typical power pyramid structure. People must desperately squeeze their own potential and strive to become a superior.

is like Serena, no matter how strong her previous strength is, her future is limitless, but once she loses power and becomes weak, her destiny will no longer be controlled by her.

So, this is also an important reason why Serena will frantically improve her strength.

But no matter how hard she worked, no matter how she was hailed as a genius, at the same time, she was only a legend from the high-ranking sanctuary of the eleventh order to the twelfth order. But Xiao En, from the high-ranking sanctuary of Tier 11, to the legendary powerhouse of Tier 13, is one step higher than her, and can even compete with the legendary Boley De Luxembra was inextricably beaten and forced Burlade to such a field.

All kinds of thoughts circled in Serena's mind.

But the next second, she was shocked again.

Sean, it's no longer the thirteenth order, but a powerful one of the fourteenth order!

Same level as Burlade!

Break through the battle! ?

"Oh... how long are you going to be in a daze." Sean will not change her attitude to Serena just because she has become the current head of the Luxemba clan. For him, Serena is just an ally. He is an ally on an equal footing with himself. As long as the ally doesn't stab him in the back, he doesn't bother to care about it. "If you don't let Burrad give me an antidote, I might really die."

"The antidote?" Serena, who had just been awakened by Sean's voice, was taken aback after hearing this, and then realized that Sean's left half of the body was not optimistic at this time.

This discovery made Serena's heart a little tangled for a moment.

For Sean, Serena feels quite complicated to be honest.

What I have to say is probably the emotion of hate and love.

If it weren't for Sean, she wouldn't bear the taint, nor would she be seriously injured as a result, and then be regarded as a victim of profit by the Luxemba clan. This is Serena's hatred of Sean, because Sean changed Serena's life. Trajectory; but it is precisely because Sean changed Serena's life trajectory that Serena is now able to become the head of the Luxemba clan, achieving greater status and feats than she had previously imagined, and this is Serena's "love" for Sean.

So, if given the opportunity, Serena really doesn't mind stabbing Sean again in order to repay the humiliation and taint that Sean caused her. But with this knife, Serena may not be stabbed too deeply, after all, the relationship between the two parties has now become a bit delicate.

This kind of camp position that is both an enemy and a friend really makes Serena very entangled.

"Brad!" But in the end, Serena turned her head to look at him, and said in a deep voice, "Cure him!"

Sean has real eyes, so he can naturally see Serena's little entanglement in another more intuitive way: Sean watched Serena's halo for a while and then turned yellow. Green, but the only thing that didn't turn red. But in the end, the color of Serena's halo stayed on the green color, which made Sean feel a little relieved, because if Serena's attitude towards him really turns yellow or red, in the current situation of Sean, there is really no good way to solve it.

Hearing Serena's instructions, even though Burlade was still a little unhappy, he reached out and took out a small porcelain bottle from his body, and threw it to Sean from a distance.

Sean caught it very hard, then uncorked the bottle and drank it with his head up.

In an instant, a coolness followed Xiao En's throat and began to spread in Xiao En's body. The part of the body that was originally infested by the poison quickly gradually recovered under the spread of this coolness. With Sean's understanding of his body, he would probably rest for about three or four days. Healed.

After all, the golden body is not an ordinary physique.

If there are also levels of physical fitness, then the bronze body corresponds to the legend, the silver body corresponds to the epic, and the golden body naturally corresponds to the level of the myth.

However, Burlade's toxin was able to destroy Sean's golden body, and this toxin is also not a general toxin.

"You are not afraid that I will move my hands or feet to this medicine." Burlade couldn't help but stabbed when Sean looked up and drank it.

"I believe in your personality." Xiao En said with a calm face and a calm tone. "Although I was indeed defeated by your toxin, the artifact in your hand was once the weapon of the * of lies, so it is understandable. ... After all, in the case of confronting me for so long, what you think is still to beat me upright, instead of using other means."

Sean's words of praise and derogation naturally caused Burlade to be taken aback, but at the same time, it also made Serena's face redden.

When she was on the surface, even when the well-versed Lin Serena was looking for Sean's troubles, she had never thought about the words "being upright". However, this fighting style is also related to Serena's own character-just like Sean, if it weren't for Burlade's strength to be so powerful that any intrigues and tricks were useless, Sean would not be so stupid to engage him in front of him. Fight for so long.

As for Sean's daring to drink Burlade's antidote without hesitation, of course it was also because of the effect of the real eye: when he threw the drug to Sean, the halo that was emitted from Burlade's body had changed from red to light. Yellow, this at least shows that Burlade has no hostility towards Sean.

After Sean answered Burlade's words, Burlade's halo turned dark green at this time: this is obviously a confidant and friend of Sean.

The strength is the same, the personality is the same, and the fighting experience is the same. The most important thing is that Sean is still very young. opponent.

Of course, if Serena is told that Burlade thinks Sean is a righteous person, she will probably swear directly.

The fighting atmosphere here has completely disappeared, and the hostile forces in the castle have been completely eliminated. Serena has achieved a full victory, so she naturally invited Sean into the castle to discuss the next step.

Only taking into account the physical and mental consumption of the two people after the deadly battle between Burlade and Sean, so this discussion meeting was not held on the same day, but only two days later. After all, strong people like Sean and Burred, after such a fierce battle, the recovery time required will not be too low—physical recovery can be very fast, but mental exhaustion, It's not easy.

However, during these two days, Burlade will come to Sean's room to rest whenever he has time, and discuss some fighting skills with Sean.

Because Shaun takes the agile route as the mainstay, and the blood races are basically this type of person, the joint discussion between Burlade and Shaun naturally has a deep help and influence on the fighting skills of both sides. Therefore, it is not only Burlade that has gained from it, but Sean has also gained a lot of enlightenment and high-speed movement combat experience and skills from Burlade. For Sean, the gains he has gained are far greater. More than Burred.

Of course, Kane and Serena also came to see Sean in these two days.

Neither Serena nor Kane could tell about the ancestral room. It seemed that it was affected by the power of law. Only those who saw it with their own eyes could know all the affairs in it, and they could not be without seeing them with their own eyes. I can see any trace of it.

And the house of ancestors, only members of the blood family can enter. And if other outsiders enter, either they will be sucked up by the law force arranged by the ancestor's house, and all blood becomes the nourishment of the blood pool; or they will break through the law and cause the entire ancestor's house to lose its power, thus causing the entire clan to move towards Decline and disillusionment.

In the war of the underground world, if you want to destroy a blood clan, besides slaughtering all the blood of the whole clan, another way is to break the house of its ancestors. In the same way, the annexation of the weaker clans by the powerful blood clan also aimed at annexing the ancestor's house, thereby absorbing the entire clan-Kane's original clan, because after all escaped, the ancestor's house was absorbed by other clans. So it was completely annexed.

Yes, the ancestor's house is not completely fixed. If a clan intends to migrate, it can take the ancestor's house apart and carry it out. It's just that this behavior, just like the elves ordering the tree of life to uproot and migrate, will cause a certain degree of damage and impact on its essence, and it will take a long time to rest for repair.

Kane and Serena enter the ancestor's house together, which will naturally be of great help for Kane to seize the inheritance rights of the Giovanni clan in the future.

However, at Kane's current level, he is not qualified to enter the ancestor's room.

Being able to enter the house of the ancestors must be at the level of the Grand Duke or above, which means that at least they must have the qualifications to pass the creation of a new clan. In addition, you must have a strong enough blood. After all, entering the house of the ancestors is to fight for the inheritance of the clan. If you don't have a strong blood to prove that you are the strongest person, how can you be able to ensure that you can lead the entire clan? Keep going?

Kane is not the Grand Duke, so he is not qualified to enter, but with the protection of Prince Serena, he can still enter the ancestor's house to visit.

To some extent, both Kane and Sean owe Serena a favor.

If Sean can say thank you to herself, Serena's heart is naturally dark and cool, but on the surface she is still unusually reserved, showing an unprecedented calm look: "In fact, nothing, after all, we are allies. I also don't want Kane to fail when he robs the Giovanni clan as the head of the house, so this can only be regarded as an investment in our partnership."

In this regard, Sean is noncommittal.

"However, to enter the house of the ancestors, at least the strength of the Grand Duke, Kane is only the strength of the Marquis, and there is still one and a half ranks from the Grand Duke, what are you going to do?" Serena asked curiously .

Originally, Sean intended to allow Kane to break through the realm of strength by absorbing the blood of the blood elves' ancestors, and then from the duke to the archduke's half-tier strength, Sean was prepared to consume the souls of the strong men he had reserved to help. But now, all the souls of the strong have been used by Sean himself, so he can only use the second plan.

"Don't worry, I have my own way." Sean chuckled, "After Imoku comes back, the plan is almost ready to be implemented."

"Are you thinking about hitting the blood pool?" When she heard Sean's words, Serena reacted, but she shook her head soon, "It's impossible. The blood pool can't make Kane improve so much. , And this kind of promotion also has a lot of sequelae, it is impossible for Ancestor's House to admit it."

"So, we have to solve more than Don Giovanni." Sean said lightly, but his tone was full of extremely strong murderousness, "but all the candidates who are eligible to inherit the Giovanni clan

Chapter 192: .Screening target

How many candidates are eligible to inherit the Giovanni clan?

Before today, no one knew.

As everyone knows, the next Patriarch of the Giovanni clan will inevitably be the "tyrant" Don Giovanni.

Under his bright light, all the other members of the Giovanni clan are simply not qualified to inherit the position of the Patriarch of the Giovanni clan. It can be said that before Dorne appeared, the Giovanni clan could only be ranked in the upper middle level among the blood clan thirteen clans, which was probably the seventh or eighth rank. But in the nearly four hundred years since Dorn became famous, the Giovanni clan has surpassed the other blood clan in one fell swoop, and its name now even surpasses the Lesenba clan, which has occupied the name of the first clan of the blood clan for a long time.

Therefore, even after becoming the Grand Duke, Don Giovanni was not asked by the Patriarch to establish a new clan, but kept it in the Giovanni clan.

At this point, even Serena can't match it.

After all, after Serena became the Grand Duke, she was not asked to stay in the Luxemba clan, but was ready to leave the Luxemba clan to form a new clan by herself.

Of course, there are many internal secrets of Resenba involved. Just like the noble inheritance rights in the surface world, it is full of various conspiracy traps and intrigues. The internal inheritance rights of the blood clan are also indispensable.

Selena, she just failed in an internal struggle-of course, this is why Sean feels that Serena is indeed inferior to Donne. After all, Serena's contribution to the Luxemba clan was not as large as Don Giovanni's, so large that no one could compete with it.

But only in terms of inheritance rights, Serena is undoubtedly the first choice.

Because, Serena has always been privately called "the second tyrant" in the Mob.

This does not refer to the "second" in terms of personality, but to the influence that Serena has caused in the Demon Party, just as Dorne became the leader of the entire Blood Demon Party after becoming famous four hundred years ago. Same. This is one of the reasons why Donne will look at Serena.

After hearing about Sean's huge plan, Serena is busy.

She must collect the list of all the candidates who are eligible to inherit the Giovanni clan, and then clear them one by one: Sean and Kane are responsible for the clearing work, although Serena wants to intervene, but Sean disagreed. After all, if these people can be subdued, it will be a great help for Kane, and if all is left to Serena to solve, Sean uses his toes to think and know that this Scarlet Queen will definitely not Kill them all mercilessly.

After all, the current head of the Luxemba clan is Serena. From the perspective of this woman's personality, she would definitely not be happy that there is a second clan that can surpass her Lesenba clan, even if it is tied together.

But Sean, who is relatively familiar with politics, knows that if you want to have equal rights to dialogue with a strong ally, then you must also have a strong enough position and influence. Otherwise, it is not an equal relationship of allies, but merely a vassal relationship between superiors and superiors.

During the days when Sean was recuperating at the Fort Resenba, he had carefully observed Serena's handling methods, even if there was no expression on his face, he still had to praise Serena's performance in his heart. .

Now in Serena's hands, there is only one prince, two dukes, four marquises, and six earls.

These people are Serena's current powers.

Originally accompanied Serena to attack Lesenba Castle, except for Kane, it should be five marquises and eight earls. Only one marquis and two earls fell in the battle in the castle at that time. As for other people's injuries that are more or less different, after all, as the base camp of the Luxemba clan, it is naturally impossible without some defensive means. But for the blood race, as long as the blood core is not destroyed, the injury is no problem, and after Serena becomes the Patriarch, she can also start to use some power to let her followers quickly recover from their injuries.

But anyway, there is a serious shortage of people available under her. This is still a shortcoming of Serena.

If it is replaced by Sean, I am afraid he is already stretched out and busy now.

But Serena is still able to arrange everything in an orderly manner, without any panic. What's more rare is that everyone is responsible for what they are best at: or detection, or invasion, Either raising or defending, basically everyone arranged by Serena can perform their work perfectly, and results can be seen in just a few days.

Kane, in these days, has also received a lot of exercise-this exercise is not an improvement in his own strength, but an exercise in internal management. After all, Kane is going to take over a clan in the future, if he doesn't understand this, then even a clan like Giovanni might gradually decline.

This is not in line with Sean's expectations.

So Sean did not object to Serena's expropriation of Kane and a lot of work for him.

And Sean, during this period, he was responsible for providing some suggestions to Serena. As for the specific implementation plan, Serena arranged by herself, and Sean did not intervene. In a way, the relationship between Sean and Serena is a bit like Hella and William: the cooperation between these two people in the void empire is mostly made by Hella's strategic layout, and William executes accurately. Tactical combat.

As usual, Sean came to Serena's office after getting up.

Last night, new intelligence was passed on. The first large-scale battle since the conflict broke out between the blood tribe army and the Nerubian and Werewolf coalition forces. The three parties in the confrontation opened up ten battlefields and left millions in total. The dead body is the single most deadly war since the beginning of the civil war. And the final result was the tragic victory of the blood race, but no matter who it is, everyone knows that with the habits of the two sides of the spider monster and the werewolf, I am afraid that the scale of the next war will definitely be larger than the first one now, and The outbreak of the war will definitely not exceed three days.

Sean came to see Serena today, just to discuss the matter.

"The investigation is out." However, when she saw Sean, Serena was the first to speak, "Except for Don, there are only four candidates who have the right to inherit the Giovanni clan.... However, I This is probably the only one that feels really threatening."

Selena handed the four letters to Sean, and then focused on the first one.

"Flamings Giovanni?" Sean opened the letter, then glanced roughly, and found out what Serena said, "It's really a bit threatening.... This guy, I'm afraid it's still It really can only be killed."

"Before Dorn became famous four hundred years ago, he was the spokesperson of the Giovanni clan and the leader of the entire Mob." Serena nodded, and then said, "And Dorn's The battle of fame is to step on the upper position of Flamens, and for the next four hundred years, he has been holding the head of Flames. If Donne is dead, then he is the most qualified and hopeful to inherit the Giovanni clan. The man must be him... This guy will never compromise."

"It's a pity." Sean curled his lips. "Then where is he now?"

"Don't worry about him, so he would have thrown him to the front line long ago....If he hadn't died in the war last night, he must be still on the front line now." Serena shrugged and looked at Sean. When I started to look through the other three letters, I said again, "But if I want to accept it, I am the person who made the breakthrough in the third letter."

Hearing the words, Sean picked up the letter, and then checked it: "Riley?"

"This woman is now the dependent clan of the Giovanni clan and the head of the Riley clan." Serena explained, "Her sister, who was married to Donne, was soon killed by Donne. Since then, she has had many conflicts with Dorn. Dorn had planned to marry her forcibly, but it was not successful because of some accidents. If you want to see Dorn become the new head of the Giovanni clan. She must be the one who is the person."

The blood clan members who are entrusted from the clan to create a new clan, as long as they are the second-order clan heads, they are eligible to compete for the position of the heads of the clan clan.

Like Serena, if she leaves the Luxemba clan and founded the Serena clan, she will be the second-order clan head of the Luxemba clan. And if at this time the Patriarch of the Luxemba clan dies or abdicates for other reasons, then Serena is also eligible to run for the Patriarch of the Luxemba clan.

In the process, if Serena succeeds in the competition and becomes the new patriarch of the Luxemba clan, then the Serena clan she created before will also be merged into the Luxemba clan and become the family of the Luxemba clan. fresh blood.

This method of merging into the clan of this clan is also a new blood absorption method for the thirteen clans of the blood clan.

Of course, if it is a new clan created independently from the Serena clan, it belongs to the third-order clan. The Patriarch of this clan must first run for the Patriarch of the Serena Clan before participating in the next Patriarch of the Resenba Clan.

This kind of progressive method is also unique to the underground world.

After all, you have to give the next person a hope in order to keep the whole race motivated.

"Do you know what the accident was?" Sean asked.

"Make enemies." Serena smiled, "If Donn really marries her forcibly, it will definitely make the other clans attached to the Giovanni clan panic, and maybe force these clans to leave Joe. The Vanni clan, take refuge in the other thirteen clans.... I guess this should be prevented by the current Giovanni clan Patriarch. However, if Dorn is really allowed to become the Giovanni Patriarch, then he says he wants to marry Riley, This is not a problem. On the contrary, the blood races of the Riley clan will still very much agree."

New blood absorption.

Sean made a scream of wonder: "Your erosive lifestyle."

"Don't confuse me with people like Donne." Serena gave Sean a dissatisfied look. "Anyway, you really want to help Kane get someone who can use it. This Riley is definitely your breakthrough. As long as you can Successful, I believe she will be able to help Kane pull up a large group of supporters."

"It sounds like this Donne is really not very popular." Sean chuckled, "What about the remaining two? What do you think?"

I can hear Serena comment like this. Obviously Serena is very serious about her work, so Sean doesn't bother to analyze it herself.

"Paul Giovanni...I don't understand it." Serena frowned slightly, "But Dominic Giovanni, there should still be hope of conquering."

Dominic Giovanni, is the information in the third letter, and Sean has just scanned it roughly.

The relationship between this person and Donn has always been relatively plain. Although many of his information in the intelligence materials appear to be unremarkable, people like Sean and Serena can see through it at a glance. Dominic Giovanni has been hiding, obviously worrying. what.

From the information displayed, Sean inferred that the person Dominic Giovanni was worried about should be Don Giovanni.

After all, the tyrant Don Giovanni has a well-known problem: jealousy.

If it weren't for Flammings. Giovanni was once a recognized genius from the Giovanni clan, I'm afraid Donne would have already figured out a solution to him. Rather than being able to coexist with him like he is now-Flammings has not established his own clan so far. Obviously he is not reconciled to give up the position of Patriarch of the Giovanni clan, even now that he is completely indifferent. In the case of hope.

And Dominic, like Riley, has established his own clan.

"Paul Giovanni..." Sean said softly, then read the fourth letter again.

"This person is very strange." Serena said, "He is a bit like Dominic who is deliberately hiding, but sometimes... but he seems to be impatient to express himself, trying to get himself into the field of vision of some people. This is a very contradictory phenomenon, that's why I said I don't understand it well."

"So that's it." Sean nodded slightly, and then the corners of his mouth lightly raised, "He is not a contradiction, he is just...stupid."

"What do you mean?" Serena said curiously, "Did you see it?"

"En." Sean nodded, "This person...not very good. However, I am interested in the person hiding behind him and pointing him. If this person is willing to assist Kane, I believe Kane His ability must be better than this Paul."

Chapter 193: .Everything is ready

"I believe it, not only I can see..." Sean smiled and put the four letters in his hand aside, and then sat down. "If I'm not mistaken, Donne should be this Paul Joe. Fannie has arranged it by his side."

Serena froze for a moment, and then she woke up: "It's true. I thought it was Donn who was guarding Paul, just like he was guarding Flames. Now listening to you, it seems that Don's goal is The man behind Paul is."

"It's just that Don's goal is different from ours." Sean said lightly, "My goal is to find a helper for Kane. Don... probably wanted to force the opponent out and kill him. The other party. With Don's strength and scheming, he doesn't need such an aide at all. On the contrary, if such a person is there, he will be seen through more secrets and things, so he will not stay alive."

"Now what?"

Yes?

what to do?

Sean is also a bit distressed.

By Paul's side, there is obviously a resourceful staff who is reasonably good, otherwise Serena would not be attracted to Paul's trash and listed as one of the four candidate heirs of the Giovanni clan.

But the crux of the problem happens to be here: If Sean chooses to find this staff member, he will have a conflict with Don Giovanni in advance, and the situation may not be easy to control by then. And as long as something happens to Dorne, the clumsy Dominic and another Riley who has a grudge with Dorne will probably change their attitudes immediately and participate in the competition game for the Patriarch of the Giovanni clan.

But if you go to subdue Dominic and Riley first, then once the staff member next to Paul is found, the fate can be imagined.

Do you want strength or wisdom?

this is a problem.

"Oh, let's go find Riley first." Sean sighed lightly, and a decision was made in his heart, "As for the staff, it's only his own luck."

Not everyone can have as good luck as Sean.

In fact, to this day, Sean finally understands why he has such good luck.

He grew up from scratch, let alone the matter of wooing Alfred, after all, he took the initiative to look for it. However, William and Rena obviously have a strong element of luck, and there is also the fact that when they first entered the wilderness for the first time, they were almost forced to die by the people of Gerson Nugus. , This is obviously a strong interference of luck.

And all of this is actually because of his identity at the time: the candidate for the son of the plane. ,

Before the will of the world gave up on him, he had a strong aura protection, and he was generally unlikely to fall, unless it was his own death. But will Sean do it himself? Obviously not, so he developed quite smoothly along the way-of course, the one who helped him the most in the middle was Andrew and his group of foreign visitors.

However, after fully realizing the identity of the son of his own plane, Sean was somewhat skeptical. Maybe Andrew and others were not expelled from this plane world by Jibril and the will of the world. I am afraid it was also his own luck. Part of it?

Sometimes, things like fate are really mysterious.

Unfortunately, there is no God of Destiny in this world. According to some mythology books that Sean read in the Earth Federation, the fate of everyone in the entire world is woven by the God of Destiny. But obviously, the world of Miracle Continent did not comply with this rule. The fate of everyone was not woven, but formed by their own luck and various decisions on the path of growth.

It is precisely because of this that Sean will make the decision to subdue Riley for Kane.

Because, given Kane's current situation where there is no team and influence, having an assistant is not very useful-if there is enough time, then an assistant is definitely more valuable than Riley and Dominic. But now, Sean does not have such a long time, so the value of this staff is far less valuable than the two forces that already have ready-made teams, Riley and Dominic.

"I understand." Serena glanced at Sean. Although there was only one sentence, the tone revealed in the words indicated that she knew that Sean was helpless in this choice.

If it is changed before Serena inherits the position of the head of the Luxemba clan, she believes that Sean will definitely choose to save the staff.

But now, after inheriting the position of Patriarch of the Luxemba clan, Serena noticed some obvious changes in the situation.

Selina was able to order Burlade to stop at the beginning, not because she was stronger than Burleigh, or that her aura was stronger than Burleigh. In fact, in terms of Burred's strength, there are really few people in the entire Luxemba clan that can keep up with him, so no one can stop Burred. But Burlade still had to obey Serena's orders and stop, purely because Burlade was a member of the Luxemba clan, and the blood power of the Luxemba clan was flowing in him.

The power of this bloodline made him obey the orders of the Patriarch of the Luxemba clan, otherwise he would fall into a torture similar to a state of boiling blood. Unless he is willing to surrender his strength and betray the Resenba clan, then he can refuse to obey Serena's orders, otherwise he will always be affected by Serena's pressure.

This is the coercive influence of the upper blood family on the lower blood family.

And the Patriarch of the Thirteen Clans is the most advanced high-ranking blood clan. Only the elder-level blood clan sleeping at the bottom of the blood pool, or the legendary ancestor-level blood clan, can have a coercive influence on the Patriarch of the Thirteen Clans.

Selina has already mentioned these changes to Sean.

And after fully understanding the information that has never been revealed, Xiao En will be more anxious to solve Dorn. Because according to Serena's investigation, this time the blood elves and dark elves will be annihilated by the blood elves, and Don will officially take over as the head of the Giovanni clan and become the new leader of the Giovanni clan.

But now, even though Sean had broken Don's plan, the werewolves and the Nerubians joined forces to counter-press the blood coalition.

But there are still too many variables.

Maybe the Giovanni clan is cruel, and halfway through the decision to let Donne inherit the position of the Patriarch of the Giovanni clan, then all the layout and efforts of Sean's previous arrangements and efforts will be completely wasted.

Killing a candidate for a clan leader is much harder than killing a clan leader.

Especially, Kane's surname is Kappa. This completely declining clan cannot trace back to who his ancestors were. Naturally, there is no way to tell which clan Kane belongs to among the thirteen clans. But the only thing that is certain is that Kane's blood will definitely not be the blood of the Giovanni clan, because the Capa clan is a secret party faction, and the Giovanni clan is from the Presbyterian Church even before it officially joins the Magic Party. Faction.

Therefore, in order for Kane to be in charge of the Giovanni clan, in addition to raising his strength to at least the ecumenical rank, he must also be implanted with blood belonging to the Giovanni clan.

The purer the higher the bloodline power, the better the effect that can be formed after the fusion, so Sean took aim at Don's blood from the beginning.

If Don can be killed before Don inherits the status of the Patriarch of the Giovanni clan, and his blood can be injected into Kane's body, then Kane will have the qualification to enter the house of the ancestors. But if Dorn was killed after he inherited the status of the Patriarch of the Giovanni clan, then Dorn's blood would not be suitable for injecting into Kane's body, because the Ancestral House would not admit it.

Even though Sean is not quite clear about the relationship between the rules, he has no intention of deciphering it now.

All means, naturally, the faster, convenient, and simpler, the better.

"My troubles have been prioritized for the time being, but it is yours..." Sean glanced at Serena, and then asked, "How do you plan to solve it?"

"It should have been these few days." Selena thought for a while, and then said, "After I successfully seized the position of the clan's Patriarch, Abule's power should have begun to fade. But he is a very special person. People who are good at scheming, so it is not a problem to suppress the concealment for a period of time. I have already asked people to spread the news, and there should be results in a few days."

"Are you not afraid of the chaos of the blood coalition?" Xiao En smiled.

"Isn't this just what you want?" Serena smiled back. "The strength of the Resenba clan will withdraw from the coalition forces. This will increase the pressure on the coalition forces by several points. It is impossible for the werewolves and the Nerubian coalition forces to give up such an opportunity. ...The more pressure Donne needs to endure, the easier it will be for your plan to succeed."

"Indeed." Xiao En nodded, but there was a look of doubt on his face, "but your pressure is not light? And what is the name... Abu's blood should not let you go so easily, right? ?"

"Abule, my former Patriarch of the Luxemba clan."

Prince Abel, the legendary peak powerhouse of the fifteenth order, is one of the only two princes of the fifteenth order in the entire Lesenba clan today. But in terms of actual combat power, he is not necessarily much stronger than Burleigh. He was able to become the head of the Luxemba clan at the beginning. It was purely because Burleigh gave up the election that he was able to take the position. It's just that after he took office, as he promised, he did lead the Resenba clan to a stronger path, until the appearance of Dorn Giovanni.

Serena shrugged indifferently, and said: "If I guessed right, he should be returning with his confidant now....Because I have seized the position of his Patriarch, if he still wants to continue to be Huile The Patriarch of the Semba Clan, then he must kill me, and then prove his power to the Ancestral House, so that he can regain control of the Resemba Clan."

"Are you sure?" Sean frowned, "The strength gap between your two..."

"I don't have Prince Burlade." Serena smiled.

Afterwards, Xiao En found out that Burlade had walked out of the corner of the room, and then saluted Xiao En.

At this time, Sean's heart was shocked: he had never noticed the existence of Burlade! If Burlade is really hostile to him, I am afraid that he will have to wait until Burlade attacks him before he can find out-of course, with the current relationship between him and Burlade, he Ryder couldn't do a sneak attack on Sean either.

As if he had guessed Sean's thoughts, Burlade laughed: "Your Excellency Sean, don't worry, this astringent method is just one of our routine behaviors, but in fact we can't move.... Otherwise, it's as if I was discovered by you just now."

"So that's it." Following Burlade's demonstration, Sean quickly understood the meaning of the words.

Brad can keep himself from being discovered. This is true, but this is also because he reduced his sense of existence and Sean did not observe the room carefully. If Sean enters the room and observes the entire room, then he will definitely be able to find the existence of Burlade, and similarly, if Burlade moves slightly, even if it is just raising a hand or other subtle things. Actions will destroy him, reduce his sense of existence, and be discovered by others.

"Prince Burlade is here, so don't worry about my safety for the time being." Serena smiled, "Because I am now the Patriarch of the Luxemba clan, it is impossible for the Thirteen Generals to take action against me, that is to say. A prince of the fifteenth rank can't do anything.... So there shouldn't be many people available to Able's men. Even if there are, other people who follow me are not decorations."

"That's all right." Sean nodded, "Then... I will set off when the blood coalition is in chaos, and I will come back immediately after I conquer Riley and Dominic."

Sean knew that this opportunity was specially provided to him by Serena, so he would not say anything to stay to help Serena.

After all, with Serena's pride, she certainly didn't want Sean to say these things.

"Okay." Sure enough, Serena nodded in agreement without hesitation.

But at this moment, Burred's face suddenly changed, and the whole person's aura suddenly burst out, and the room instantly turned into an eye of a storm. Sen Luo Wanxiang turned into a spear in an instant, and was held tightly in his hand by Burlade, and the whole person's fighting spirit and momentum instantly rose to the highest level: "So strong!"

"The enemy?" Serena's face changed suddenly, "Able?"

can make Burlade's aura so terrifying, which proves that the strength of the people sensed by Burlade is definitely not low. But if it were Prince Abule, it would never have been possible for Burrad to explode with such a high fighting spirit and guard. After all, he is a member of the same clan, Serena can still feel the aura that Burrad is erupting at this moment. , With a bit of a lack of self-confidence, which fully shows that the enemy's strength absolutely surpasses Burrad.

Chapter 194: .East Wind Qi Zhi

Looking at Burlade's appearance like an enemy, even Sean and Serena became nervous.

Among the three people present, they already represent the strongest combat power in Resenba Castle.

Especially Sean and Burred, both of them are the fourteenth-order legendary powerhouses with extremely rich actual combat experience. Even if they face a legendary pinnacle like Prince Abel, they have the power to fight-perhaps it is difficult to kill. , But if it is defeated, the outcome is probably between four and six. And if it was Sean and Burred who joined forces, as long as Abule did not break through to the level of a Tier 16 superpower, it would not be defeated. It can be said that Abule can definitely be killed.

So, let alone Sean is present, even if only Burlade is alone, he will never be afraid of Prince Abel.

But now, Burlade's performance is not like this.

The sensitivity of the blood clan is several times that of normal humans. It is not that Sean's attributes are not as good as Burred. In fact, this is the unique racial ability of the blood clan. Just as the unique racial talent of werewolves is wild intuition, they can avoid being critically hit and dodge a variety of vital attacks and avoid danger.

But unlike Sean, the reason why Serena did not feel as threatened as Burlade is because her various attributes are completely inferior to Burlade.

But the next moment, Sean and Serena frowned at the same time.

Because of an extremely powerful aura, it is attacking strongly with a rude and rude attitude.

The other party's intention to act is almost unconcealed, just so naked and straight forward, basically as long as the individual can definitely feel the other party's existence, the difference is only in order.

But unlike Burred's dignity and Serena's pale face, Sean's brows were slightly frowned.

Because he noticed a slight difference.

The moment when Sean felt this breath, it could be said that it was a moment of effort. This tyrannical aura has already rushed to the outside of Resenba Castle, and there is no tendency to stop at all. A more domineering and arrogant posture directly broke through the defensive barrier of Lesenba Castle, and forcibly blasted into the wall of the room where Sean, Serena, Burred and others were located.

A huge roar and explosion sounded, and the entire stone wall was forcibly shattered by the opponent's arrival.

Splashing rubble and smoke and dust, which obscured everyone's vision.

However, for the legendary powerhouses, most of the naked eye observations have actually lost their meaning. After they are promoted to Sanctuary, they have become more accustomed to using perception to construct the status quo of the entire world. Therefore, this simple way of obscuring the vision by smoke could not have any effect on Sean and the others. Unless it was a way of obscuring the vision constructed by magic or equivalent power, it would be able to blind the perception of the legendary powerhouse.

So, even if the dust caused by the explosion was filled, Burred did not hesitate to shoot straight at this moment!

Suddenly, a strong killing intent instantly covered everything in the entire room.

Almost everyone's spiritual will, under the attack of this killing intent, had a momentary lag, as if the entire time and space were completely stagnated.

"Stop it!" Sean let out a heavy drink.

Brad's heart beats slightly, but the movements on his hands are not slow at all, because he has no choice in his shots. This blow is infused with the extraordinary performance that all the spirits have displayed.

Because only a sudden attack at this moment can hurt the intruder.

However, it is only possible.

The next moment.

A gust of wind suddenly rolled up in this office room, sweeping away all the dust-this is a scene formed by the airflow caused by the extreme attack force. For the legendary powerhouses present, this This kind of phenomenon change is not unfamiliar, and basically their shots can easily cause such changes.

but!

can cause such a degree of change in the phenomenon, but it did not cause any damage to the entire room. It only wiped out all the diffused smoke and dust and restored the vision in the entire room. This control power is not something ordinary people can do.

Of course, it is not without any damage.

Brad.

How he broke in, he was drawn out, and he flew out at a faster speed than when he attacked, and then smashed all the obstacles blocking his inverted flight path, and finally he was heavy. Falling to the wall, the whole person was almost embedded in it.

A mouthful of blood spurted from Burlade's mouth, and the whole person looked like she fell apart.

Although it looks like a serious injury, it actually didn't really hurt the internal organs and blood core. For the legendary strong, this kind of injury probably means that one or two days of recuperation can be completely healed. Compared to the situation where Sean was invaded by toxins during the battle between Sean and Burleigh, Burleigh was not even injured at all.

Able to fly Burled, a strong man who is close to the pinnacle of the legend, directly, but it only gives him some small pains of flesh and blood without hurting his roots. This is still an extremely powerful control technique.

Selena, understood all this in an instant.

But it was precisely because she understood all this that her face became extremely pale, because she understood one thing: the enemy's strength is completely above Burlade, and the gap between the two sides has been completely crushed. Degree. It's like a child facing an adult strong man. The two sides are no longer comparable. Apart from being unilaterally ravaged, there is no second result.

The panic began to spread in Serena's heart.

It's just that as soon as this sentiment spread, it was broken by a sentence from Sean.

"Why are you here too?" Shaun's voice revealed a hint of surprise, apparently knowing the attacker in front of him.

It wasn't until then that Serena finally realized that the person who knocked Burred away just now was a young woman.

What makes her most eye-catching is not the light armor that is extremely exposed and full of charm, nor the spear that you can tell that it is not a common product at a glance, but the long black hair that hangs straight down the waist, and the bright and charming. But it also gives people a brave facial features. Especially her eyes, the war spirit burning deep in her eyes, can be said to be as strong as a monstrous flame.

The other person standing next to this young woman is someone Selena also knows.

Imoku.

The next moment, Serena will know who this woman is.

Being able to appear with Imoku, and the two of them have not yet fought, and stand a little bit ahead of Imoku. All this shows that the woman in front of him is the well-deserved number one strong under Sean's command: 弑 Kill Wu Ji Alexis.

Then the phrase "Stop" just now...

Serena shuddered slightly: it was not to Burlade, but to Alexis. If Sean hadn't yelled this sentence, then with the strong killing intent that suddenly broke out just now enough to freeze time and space, I am afraid that Burleigh will really be dead.

"I heard from this guy Imoku that the underground world is very interesting, so I came." Alexis smiled, and then reached out and patted Imoku on the shoulder, but with Alexis Si patted his shoulders word by word, and every time he patted, Imoku's body would tremble involuntarily, obviously the same strength was not light.

Looking at Imoku's eyes, Sean suddenly knew.

Obviously, the reason why Imoku was late for this period of time was nothing more than trying to get rid of Alexis and return on his own. After all, Alexis did not know the situation of the underground world, so naturally there would be no underground world. The coordinates are up. Therefore, she wants to tear the barrier over by herself. This is completely impossible. Naturally, she must follow Imoku. However, because Imoku does not want to bring Alexis over, she must be these days. It must have suffered a lot.

"I'm not asking you this..." Of course, Sean knew Alexis' temperament. Even his true master could not suppress Alexis. The three Eldrazi brothers had been bullied by Alexis. Judging from the past, it must be even more unlikely to be put in her eyes, "I am asking...Um..."

"Don't worry, your empire is developing very well now." Alexis said with a smile, "We just won a war."

"My empire?" Sean was taken aback for a moment, and some didn't react.

But this is no wonder, after all, when Sean left the surface world, he was only the Grand Duke of the Void Duchy, and there was still a long time before the establishment of the empire. Therefore, he naturally did not know that after his disappearance, the crisis that broke out in the Void Principality, and the subsequent events that were accelerated and directly upgraded to an empire.

Because I know that Sean is not very clear about these things, and Alexis is not very willing to say these things, so I can only leave it to Imoku to repeat.

Soon, Sean also knew what changes had taken place in the surface world in the past two years since he left the surface world. Naturally, it is known that Cecilia is now fully conquering the energy problem of the magic power machine, preparing to forcibly reverse the path of the abyss under the Gorge fortress, and continuously transporting troops. Similarly, I also know that Cecilia has completed her revenge and successfully mobilized nearly 80% of the citizens of the entire Duchy of Lembel to join the Nether Empire.

Even, another ten generals were persuaded to surrender.

In today's Void Empire, there are four superpowers including Alexis, Imoku, Kozilek, and Ulamog in terms of top combat power. In terms of legendary powerhouses, there are Irina, Vanni, Xuefanio, Thirty people headed by Levi, Noro, Cecilia, etc., covering legendary powerhouses ranging from Tier 12 to Tier 14, including Rina, Xuefanio, and Cecilia Also known as the first representative under the super power, it happens to represent the iron triangle representative of war, law, and animal husbandry.

As for the military power system, there are three ten generals, William, Hella, and Apollo. Even the world's largest giant, the Zenus Empire, now dare not provoke arbitrarily-the military  Jason alone Facing any one of William, Hella or Apollo, there is an absolute advantage. But if Hela and William join forces, even if the military gods come to the front line to command the battle, the outcome will be only seven or three, but after Apollo joins, the situation is completely different, and the victory and defeat rate of the two sides has been completely reached. It's a 50-50 degree.

As for internal politics, a series of talents cultivated by Neil are enough to put the giant Void Empire on track. What's more, there is Diana, a diplomat who holds several positions. Diana is now not only in charge of diplomatic work, but also in charge of caravan coordinating affairs and foreign trade exchanges of the entire void empire. Said that the combination of these two people also fundamentally solved the big problem of the foundational instability of the Void Empire.

All this is the reason for what Alexis calls "good development".

"Thank you." Sean nodded sincerely.

"No thanks." Alexis curled his lips, with a look of disdain, "After all, it's your empire, and I can't just watch him fall, otherwise you will return to the surface and not trouble me. That's strange."

Imoku smiled and said nothing.

And Serena, the gaze looking at Sean also became completely different.

She knew that Sean had a lot of hole cards and the power on the surface was extremely large, but she did not expect that Sean's background power would be so huge. After all, when she fought with Sean, Sean was just a great prince, and Serena, who has a good understanding of the history of the development of the surface world, also knows that a principality wants to develop into an empire. Easy thing.

Similarly, the identity of an emperor and the identity of an emperor are not the same.

If Serena hadn't paid much attention to Sean before, just as a partner, then at this moment, Serena really regarded Sean as a real ally. Because according to the plan that Shaun said before, in the future, the underground world and the surface world will definitely establish a stable channel, and the two sides can communicate with each other. Therefore, a leader who has a strong position in the surface world is very awkward to the underground world. As far as Linna is concerned, it is definitely worth the price she paid.

At this moment, Serena's heart is rejoicing: Fortunately, her performance has been pretty good during this period of time, she has not despised Sean, nor has she forgotten her previous promise.

These are the basis for her to build a good relationship with Sean in the future.

"Your Excellency Shaun..." Until then, Burlade, who had been fainted by Alexis, woke up and turned around.

"Almost forgot..." Sean smiled embarrassedly.

and then refer both parties to each other.

Of course, this time, of course, Burred was deeply shocked.

"Originally, there were many plans, but it was very troublesome for me to implement them, but now that you two have arrived, then we should not waste time."

"Fight?" Alexis's eyes beamed.

"Some are for you to call." Seeing Alexis' excitement, Sean knew what she was thinking, "I'm afraid you will be exhausted by then."

"How is it possible!" Alexis protested immediately with dissatisfaction, "Let's talk, what scale?"

"A battlefield with tens of millions of troops, let you go in and out, kill whoever you want to kill, do whatever you want, destroy whatever you want, no limit!"

Alexis's eyes were so bright at this moment that it was almost terrifying.

Chapter 195: .Alexis has entered the arena

The blood race, has always been called the number one race in the underground world, this is not without reason.

Before the underground world ushered in the ashes remnants, they were the overlords of this underground world. Even the werewolf tribes that had betrayed the blood clan at that time, they could not compete with the blood clan at all. At most, they were the disgusting blood clan fighting guerrilla warfare. After the Ashes left the world and completely changed the pattern of the entire underground world, the blood race still occupied the place of the strong-you know, at that time, in order to resist the overlord, the spider monsters, werewolves, dark elves, blood elves, and demons. The five sides of the descendants were in a state of teaming, and as a result, with one enemy and five, the blood race still survived tenaciously, showing its intrepidity.

Furthermore, even after completely changing the pattern of the entire underground world, the blood race still firmly occupies the first position.

Therefore, the blood race has always looked down on the other five holy blood races.

They think that the werewolves are a group of ungrateful despicables, the spider monsters are a group of barbarians without wisdom, the blood elves are a group of desperate visionaries, the dark elves are a group of uninspired vassals, and the demons are a group of cowardly cowards.

Therefore, when the blood race faces other races, they all have a sense of superiority.

Based on these historical and emotional factors, after the blood clan received the news that the blood elves were fighting with the dark elves, he did not share it with the Nerubian allies. Because from the perspective of the blood clan, these spider monsters are just their hired servants, and they are not qualified to share these secrets with them. The only thing the spider monster army needs to do is to follow their orders and instructions to bite each other with the werewolves.

As a mercenary, it is indeed not qualified to understand the employer's thinking.

But the underground world is different.

Nebula has always been active in the underground world as a mercenary, but at the same time, they are also one of the six holy blood races, and they also have their own interests. Therefore, the cooperation with the kinsmen is not like the mercenaries in the surface world, and the relationship between the two parties is essentially more like an ally.

If you change to a dark elf or werewolf tribe, you will definitely not treat the Nerubian army as a mercenary, but treat it as an ally.

It can only be said that the arrogance of the blood clan eventually led to the betrayal of the Nerubian.

So, when the blood elves that were about to sneak attack on the dark elves and blood elves had to face the coalition of the werewolf tribe and the Nerubian army, a great melee broke out. However, what made the blood race even worse was that the "cowards" of the demon descendants actually participated in it. The endless assassination methods made the blood coalition tired to deal with it, and almost a small amount of carelessness would lead to a large number of attritions.

With the strength of the demon descendant, when dealing with the blood races above the Marquis, it may be insufficient.

But when facing the blood family below the earl, it can definitely be said to be caught in hand.

Even with the extremely large scale of the kinship, not to mention the barons and viscounts, even the large reduction in the number of knights and lords will cause the strength of the kinship coalition to be greatly reduced. After all, the situation of the blood race is different from the general race. The blood slaves below the knights can only be regarded as cannon fodder. The real decisive role in the battlefield is the regular soldiers above the knight rank. If the regular soldiers are downsizing too much, cannon fodder alone cannot help. fight.

But now, the blood family has to face a more crisis situation.

Just yesterday, after the blood clan launched a feint attack, it dispatched an elite force composed of more than a dozen clans, and targeted the command battalion of the Werewolf Central Army. As far as the attack effect is concerned, it has indeed played an unparalleled effect: the command system of the whole werewolf army was disordered on the spot, and the blood race took advantage of this opportunity to completely turn the feint attack into a frontal attack, and annihilated most of the werewolf army in one fell swoop.

At the same time, the elite unit that attacked the Werewolf Central Army's headquarters also started chasing at the same time, trying to expand the results.

But no one thought that this war of expanding the results would die because of the appearance of a woman.

If in the game, suppose this battlefield is a copy of the game war.

Then all system announcements will definitely appear at this time.

【Slaying Wu Ji. Alexis has entered the battlefield. 】

This kind of entry declaration like the final BOSS has always been a highlight in the game, and it will inevitably arouse the strong desire of the players to fight. After all, killing BOSS has always been one of the most enthusiastic pursuits of players.

But, is Alexis so easy to be killed?

five minutes.

Five minutes after Alexis broke into the command camp of the werewolves—maybe even less than five minutes, the elite force composed of more than a dozen blood clans declared all of them dead, leaving almost no one behind. survivor.

In the face of Alexis's desperate fighting power, no matter if it is a desperate resistance, a surrender, or any other reaction or action, none of them can stop the butcher knife that Alexis wields. .

After all the blood soldiers of this elite blood group were beheaded by Alexis, Alexis continued to move forward without stopping, completely ignoring the werewolves shivering because of panic. In the face of such a powerful strength, even the legendary strong will feel a sense of despair, not to mention these werewolf soldiers who may not even reach the realm of the sanctuary. They are under the powerful aura of Alexis. , Can't even make an escape.

Alexis didn't even need to look at it to know that these werewolves were already scared, and I'm afraid they would never be able to go to the battlefield again.

For this, Alexis didn't feel ashamed.

Because the instructions she received were: let her be happy.

This also means that as long as Alexis likes it, she can do whatever she wants on this battlefield. After all, the powerful strength of the nineteenth rank is here, and it is impossible for anyone to pose any threat to her—maybe the old antiques sleeping at the bottom of the blood pool of the thirteen clans, but it is only possible. Before the field, no one can know the result.

Of course, as far as Alexis's character is concerned, she probably hoped that the blood would invite these old antiques out.

This way she can play more happily.

After all, although Sean said to please her, she actually had several orders: she was not allowed to kill Don Giovanni, nor was Don Giovanni allowed to run back to Giovanni Castle. , And even forbid the blood forces of the Giovanni clan to leave the field early, and these blood coalition forces must be held back as much as possible.

In this way, Alexis needs to balance the power of the three races on this battlefield.

However, Sean also reminded Alexis not to kill the tribe of Dongdu Martar as much as possible, but Alexis could not tell which tribe of Dongdu wolf was, so she could only To solve this problem in another way.

In the horrified sight of a group of werewolves, Alexis moved on to the melee point of the Chinese army between the blood and the werewolves.

Then soon, the blood coalition forces fully felt what "must be happy and sad".

Originally broke the werewolf tribe's middle army, this was an excellent turning point for the blood race: the werewolf tribe divided the coalition into four parts, namely the left, center, right, and rear four armies. In addition to the main army at the rear, there are three parts: vanguard, front, and main force on the left, center, and right. This time, the Werewolf Army that was directly attacked by the blood clan is the Werewolf's center army frontline.

Pioneer almost lost everything in the previous first war.

It can be said that breaking through the front line of the werewolf tribe is equivalent to consuming nearly 8% of the forces of the whole werewolf tribe—of course, this refers to the result of eating the entire front line. In fact, because the headquarters was breached, it was basically impossible for the vanguard wounded soldiers of the Werewolves to survive. The complete annihilation of the frontline army was only a matter of time. The command headquarters was in a state of chaos because of the breach.

This action is equivalent to saying that the blood coalition directly consumed about 13% of the werewolf tribe's troops, and the remaining 12% of the troops were unable to participate in the battle in a short period of time—so in fact, this operation's The result of the battle was that the werewolf tribe lost 25% of its troops.

The blood coalition will be carnival and excited because of this, not without reason.

Small wins big, this is the real strategic purpose of the blood coalition to launch this attack. Judging from the results, the kinship alliance undoubtedly did it.

If there is no Alexis coming in.

Thirty-five minutes after the headquarters of the blood coalition received that the strategic goal was achieved and the plan was fully implemented successfully, they received the second message: the blood family army carrying out the feint, siege and annihilation combat plan, and the assault on the Werewolf Central Army headquarters. The elite troops of China were wiped out.

The command headquarters of the entire blood coalition forces fell into silence in an instant.

The air that was so dignified that it was almost suffocating, completely permeated the entire command post.

Dorn almost roared with red eyes: "What the * is going on!...All the surrounding enemy forces have been restrained, and the headquarters of the Werewolf Army has also been breached. The chaos cannot be a disguise at all. Of! Why!"

Faced with the tyrant Donne, who was in a state of violent anger at this time, the lower kin who came to submit the information did not dare to speak.

Because he really can't say that the enemy has only one person.

Of course, strictly speaking, the werewolf's front-line troops in the Chinese army are also not much better-Alexis's attack on this battlefield is completely indiscriminate, because there is no such thing as "enemy or me." concept. Whether it is a werewolf or a blood clan, for Alexis, all belong to one kind of person: the enemy, so her shots are naturally merciless.

Only because of Sean's previous explanations, there were many more survivors in the frontline of the werewolf's Chinese army, while the blood coalition was wiped out.

This attack plan initiated by the blood clan, although it was indeed based on the blood clan's budget, paralyzing 25% of the werewolf tribe's forces, but for the blood clan, they were not the victors of this war.

There is only one real winner.

That is Sean.

The man who hides behind the scenes and manipulates everything.

It's just that no one has noticed this right now.

Whether it's the demon descendant, or the spider monster, the werewolf, or even the blood race, after receiving such news on the battlefield that the werewolf army is responsible for, the two sides of the several battlefields that have been opened up around have chosen to retreat silently. This time They maintained an almost unbelievable tacit understanding between each other. Obviously, before clarifying the identity of Alexis, whether it is the werewolf tribe, the blood coalition or the Nerubian army, it is obvious that they are not willing to make any rash moves.

This result is undoubtedly beneficial to Sean.

Only, but it makes Alexis even more dissatisfied.

She came to the underground world because she had heard what Imoku said about the underground world. Now that the surface world is completely in a strange and peaceful state, Alexis, who has not had any fights, will only feel bored and Irritable. This is also one of the reasons why she must follow Imoku to the underground world for fun. Of course, another reason she will never tell is that she is worried about Sean.

But now, it's just a battle—for Alexis, even a warm-up activity is not even considered, and the three parties suddenly dormant.

If Alexis can be satisfied, that's the real hell.

So almost without even thinking about it, Alexis moved towards the position of the Nerubian army.

And when he received the news that Alexis was moving towards the place of the Nerubian Army, the blood coalition and werewolf tribe, for some reason, suddenly all breathed a sigh of relief. But soon, the blood coalition began to cheat again, but the face of the werewolf tribe changed drastically: you know, now the arachnid army is their allies!

As for the Spider Demon army, his face is already a piece of ashes.

Because of the reports of the werewolf's Chinese army battlefield, it has appeared before the highest command of the three parties.

Based on the analysis of the content recorded in the battle report, from the perspective of these war fanatics in the underground world, even if they do not need to be filtered by the brain, they all know the fact: this alone destroyed the entire werewolf battlefield. The woman from both sides of the army is definitely a super strong!

Moreover, he is also a super-powerful combatant with extremely rich combat experience.

If you want to deal with the super strong, only the super strong.

This theory, which is well-known to everyone in the surface world, was actually put forward by people in the underground world.

Therefore, in the absence of superpowers at this moment, the Nerubian army can't compete with Alexis at all.

And Sean, after hearing Alexis's actions, he also instantly understood Alexis' plan, and he could only helplessly smile, and began to wonder if he was too indulgent in Ellie. Xis?

But this question was just filtered through Sean's mind before he left it behind.

Because at this moment, he doesn't have the mind to think so much.

At this time, he was on the way to Riley's clan territory.

alone.

Imoku and Kane were sent back by Sean to assist Rorty Kabas in taking down the blood elf castle. Because in the plan, Kane must first go through the blood baptism of the ancestors of the blood elves, completely change the bloodline power, and then be promoted to the duke, before going back to the blood pool of Resenba Castle for the next step of tempering baptism.

In the current high-paced environment that is racing against time, Sean doesn't have so much time to waste, so he has to divide his troops to implement the plan.

Chapter 196: .Battlefield Churning Stick

In a room in an old castle, a grim-faced young man was making an angry roar.

If it weren't for this young man's face that looked particularly hideous, he could definitely be called a "beautiful man" in terms of his looks. However, looking at this young man's violent violent, completely non-human appearance, it still destroys his image somewhat, at least not many women are willing to approach such a man.

Of course, in fact, even if the young man didn't get so violent and showed this terrifying appearance in front of him, there would still not be many ladies willing to get along with him.

Because of this young man, his name is Don.

Dorn Giovanni.

The next default patriarch of the Giovanni clan, a well-known tyrant in the entire underground world.

possesses extremely strong personal force, and at the same time, whether it is scheming, city or strategy, it is the first among the many heirs of the blood thirteen clans. In the foreseeable future, no one can stop the rise of the Giovanni clan, and judging from the long life of the blood clan, this is not a matter of hundreds of years, but a matter of thousands of years.

Because of this, not many people in the thirteen blood clan are willing to confront Donn head-on.

"That woman! Who the * is it!" Dorne snarled angrily, almost shaking the dust in the entire room, "Why did she suddenly appear here!"

Faced with Don's roar, the remaining eleven people in the room did not know how to answer.

The twelve people in the room represent the top twelve clans of the blood coalition today—it should have been thirteen clans, but the Resenba clan had an accident, and Prince Abule had led his return. Although he didn't say it clearly, among all the people present, except for Dorn, the other eleven could clearly feel that the patriarch aura of Abule had completely disappeared. It was obvious that someone took advantage of his absence. Take away the position of the head of the Resenba clan.

Want to seize the position of Patriarch, it sounds easy, but in fact it is not an easy task.

At least, you have to prove to the Ancestral House that you have a stronger ability or potential than the current Patriarch. This alone is enough to discourage countless people, not to mention there are many other conditions attached—if not so, as long as the clan Patriarch leaves the clan base camp, anyone can seize the Patriarch's position.

and can take the position of the head of the Luxemba clan who was able to take the Prince of Abel, the people present knew who it was when they thought about it with their toes.

Selena Resenba, the scarlet queen once known as the future of the Resenba clan.

However, at this time, the woman Donne was roaring and cursing was obviously not referring to Serena Resenba.

Although, because of Serena's actions at this time, Able had to leave the field early, which made the other clans under the Resenba clan not obey the orders, and Dorn was greatly upset. But compared to the imminent troubles now, Serena's problem is not a problem at all for Dorn.

The woman who can make Donne go crazy is naturally killing Wu Ji Alexis.

However, at this time, Alexis, the terrifying existence that made countless people terrifying in the Southern Continent, has become the most annoying existence in the underground world at this moment-whether it is a werewolf tribe, a blood coalition, or an army of spider monsters, Everyone calls Alexis the "battlefield cock".

The blood coalition, the arachnid army, and the werewolf tribe, on the huge battlefield with tens of millions of troops invested by each of these three parties, the area of each battlefield is measured in 100,000 square kilometers. This area is naturally very vast for these soldiers. It takes several days to run to complete a lap, but for a super strong like Alexis, it is not a problem at all, and it is at most half an hour. Thing.

So, Alexis can move freely on the battlefield, and no one can resist her attack.

Basically, as long as she appears on the battlefield, the strategic goals set by either side cannot be achieved-the situation of the werewolf tribe is better, at least some soldiers can survive. The blood race and the spider monsters are miserable. Any battlefield where Alexis appears will inevitably end in annihilation. Don't even think that even one survivor will survive.

As a result, the Nerubian army naturally felt terrified.

Their fertility method is similar to that of werewolf tribes and demons tribes, and their growth cycle is not long, at least it must be much faster than dark elves and blood elves. But even so, they can't withstand this endless loss-even if they die with the blood coalition, it is impossible for the entire army to be annihilated, at least when the battlefield situation is clear, whether it is a spider The demon army or the blood coalition will inevitably order a retreat, and the death rate is actually still within a tolerable range.

However, Alexis would not pay attention to these. The battlefield where she appeared was bound to be a  storm.

There is no survivor's bloodbath.

This kind of loss is simply unbearable for the Nerubian. After all, every soldier is a hope for the future of the Spider Demon army. So many hopes for the future have been ruined on this battlefield, and no one can bear it.

Therefore, withdrawal has become an inevitable choice.

The werewolf tribe and the Nerubian army can't provoke Alexis, can't they still not be able to hide it?

In fact, they really can't afford to hide.

If an army of such a large scale wants to retreat, it naturally needs to follow certain instructions to withdraw its troops. It is impossible to evacuate directly in a chaotic manner. This will inevitably cause a wider range of collapse and chaos. Therefore, after the retreat order was issued, the evacuation of the Nerubian army and the werewolf tribe began to be carried out in an orderly manner, and the destruction of Alexis had already come.

At the outermost part of the evacuation circle, the arachnid army and werewolf tribe, all members were injured by Alexis unsurprisingly—compared to the death on the battlefield, being seriously injured and unable to move is obviously more lethal. People are scared and flustered. Although Alexis didn't kill him, at least these injured people would need to lie down for more than ten days in order to regain their mobility.

As a result, the werewolf tribe and the Nerubian army had to face a choice: whether to abandon their companions and continue to retreat, or to stay?

For the united werewolf tribe, there is nothing to hesitate at all. The werewolf tribe did not hesitate to stop the evacuation—they would rather die on the battlefield than be humiliated as they are now. And the most important point is that the battlefield of the werewolf tribe is not like the Nerubian army and the blood coalition. It is completely annihilated, and at least the survival rate is as high as 50%.

However, for the arachnid army who pays more attention to the weak and the strong, they naturally leave their injured companions mercilessly.

But can I really get rid of Alexis in this way?

The answer is obvious.

The second batch of evacuated arachnid army is no longer as simple as serious injuries—even though they were severely wounded, they actually didn't hurt their roots at all. As long as they were resting for ten days, they would still be able to regain their mobility. And if you want to return to the battlefield, it's no problem to rest for about twenty days.

But the second batch of the Nerubian army that abandoned their companions and evacuated themselves, all of them were broken by Alexis.

Seeing this scene, as long as people with normal minds know that it is impossible for Alexis to let them leave this battlefield. Therefore, in desperation, the werewolf tribe and the spider monster army can only return to the battlefield, but this time, they have the idea of not working hard, and they will further subdivide the battlefield, which is basically a small scale. Conflict warfare, and resolutely no longer engage in large-scale battles involving more than 10,000 people.

For this, Alexis is naturally helpless.

It was only with great difficulty that the werewolf tribe and the Nerubian army were settled, but the blood coalition began to lose cooperation again.

The retreat of the Nerubian army and the werewolf tribe is naturally the best result for the blood coalition, because they simply cannot face the joint attack of these two races at the same time. What's more, there is also a demonic race in the dark that is also gazing at it-dead in the hands of the demonic assassin, the damage is not less than the damage and impact caused by Alexis.

So, when seeing the werewolf tribe and the Nerubian army being driven back to the battlefield by Alexis, the first thought of the blood coalition was to retreat.

And compared to the methods used by the werewolf tribe and the Nerubian army to be forced back by Alexis, the blood coalition did not care at all. Because to them, the blood slaves are just a group of cannon fodder, as long as the blood race wants, they can transform into a large group at any time. The ones who are really slightly valuable are only regular blood clan members above the knight rank. But because the way the blood clan makes new blood is completely different from that of other races, even if these regular blood clan members suffer a lot of loss, they don't care very much.

It seems that nothing can stop the retreat of the blood coalition army.

Even in the three days of the retreat of the kinship forces, more than sixty clans were directly slaughtered by Alexis, but the kinship forces still didn't care at all.

After discovering this, Alexis also quickly changed her strategy: she no longer picked those middle and low-level clans to start with, but directly went to the thirteen clans, the highest authority symbol of the blood clan.

In this way, the effect is naturally outstanding.

After dying so many members of the thirteen clans with the ranks of marquis and duke, Dorn finally gave the order to stop the retreat, because he also faced the same embarrassing situation as the Nerubian army and the werewolf tribe: I can't afford to die. .

Reluctantly was forced to stop, and turned back like being chased by a dog to continue fighting with the arachnid army and the werewolf tribe. How could it be possible not to explode with Don's temper?

"Please elder." After Dorne roared for more than half an hour and cursed everything frantically, he finally said angrily, "Only the super strong can deal with the super strong... There is such a madness. Women are here, it is impossible to resist with our strength."

"Then, how many elders would you like to invite?" A clan head asked.

For a moment, the whole room fell into silence.

Because this is a very difficult multiple choice question.

Thirteen blood clans, each has an elder sleeping in the deepest part of the blood pool.

In terms of strength alone, these elder blood races are all of the super power level, but no one knows what level they are. But Sean can be sure that these elder-level vampires will never be lower than the seventeenth level. As for the combat effectiveness, no one knows. After all, since the second underground world expedition, no one has seen the underground world again. The super strong shot.

But.

The current problem is that the blood elders are a group of lifespans that have come to an end, and they must rely on deep sleep to avoid the corrosion of time. Therefore, every time you leave the blood pond to make a move, it will cause a great loss of its life. It can be said that the blood elders are basically equivalent to consumables, and they belong to the props that are used once and once less.

So, which clan sends the bleeding clans elder, this is a question.

In addition, there is another more important issue.

How many blood elders will be sent?

With the strength shown by Alexis right now, all the clan patriarchs present are very clear, I am afraid that a blood clan elder can't suppress this shit-crushing stick. So how to accurately determine the sufficient combat power to kill this shit-scrambler without wasting the blood elders' combat power, this is another problem.

There are more factions, and although it can kill Alexis, it is obviously too large for the consumption of the blood family, and some of the gains are not worth the loss. After all, the reason why the blood race can continue to maintain the hegemony of the underground world depends on the thirteen elders sleeping in the deepest part of the blood pool. If the loss is too large, I am afraid that it will not be able to suppress other races-this This kind of strategic level nuclear weapons is naturally the less used, the better.

But if they send less, then once they can't suppress Alexis, they will be hit hard by Alexis. For the blood race, the loss will be even greater than the former.

"I will invite the elders of our Giovanni clan." In the face of such silent people, Dorn broke the silence. "Unfortunately, the Luxemba clan currently has internal problems. Otherwise, as long as I and the Luxemba clan join forces, then it should be enough to invite another elder."

The Resenba clan, after all, was the first clan of the blood clan in the past.

If there is still an ancestor of the blood clan in the underground world today, it must be the non-Resenba clan.

But now...

Don's resentment towards Serena suddenly increased: "Our elders of the Giovanni clan will be in charge of frontal operations. You choose two more...no, three elders will work together. Regarding interests I will make a certain amount of compensation for the allocation of aspects."

Chapter 197: Lilly Clan

At the moment when the whole blood race battlefield was in a mess, Sean had secretly arrived within the network of the Giovanni clan.

In the subterranean world, each clan of the blood clan has its own clan territory. Regardless of whether the clan is strong or weak, as long as the clan is not annexed and destroyed, this clan territory will always exist. And all the resources in the clan's territory belong to the clan's overall planning, distribution, and use. Any outsider entering must abide by the laws set by the local clan.

This is just like every country on the surface of the world: it has complete, perfect, and intact sovereignty.

As long as your clan can afford to pay, you can even form a large and invincible blood force.

But even if a powerful kin force is formed, according to the command of the kinship commandment that "the lower must obey the upper person", the social structure of the whole kin is completely different from the image of a sovereign state on the surface, and it looks more like an empire. The relationship between the royal family and the lord.

Because no matter which clan formed an army larger and more powerful than the thirteen clans, they still had to obey unconditionally when facing the orders of the thirteen clans to which their respective bloodlines belonged. It can be said to be the real reason for the unprecedented blood coalition. Because as long as the opinions of the thirteen clans reached a consensus, once they joined forces, the whole blood clan would be moved.

So, even though the entire blood clan has countless large and small, densely packed clan territories, it can actually be divided into thirteen criss-crossed power networks. It's just that these thirteen power networks have different classifications according to their influence and distance from the clan. Higher.

Like Sean's current location: the territory of the Riley clan, which is the closest to the Giovanni clan of this sect, and the borders with the Dominic clan, Paul's clan, etc., so they jointly form this Giovanni's influence network is naturally also the highest level one.

As the blood coalition convened by this sect, even if Riley and Dorn have the incommunicable hatred, she still cannot refuse the order from the Patriarch, so she can only dispatch all her clan members out, and only keep the minimum. Guardian power.

However, since the entire underground world is now completely in war, the six holy blood races and various other underground world creatures are also involved in this war, so in fact, no clan leader will be too lively. . Even those cowards and vagrants who have no intention of participating in the war at all will linger in the various clans-of course, some bandits and bandits who take advantage of the fire are indispensable.

So, the minimum protection power is still needed.

Like the Riley clan, only four marquis and twelve earls were left as emergency response. In addition, there were about thirty viscounts and barons, as well as a guardian force composed of hundreds of knights and lords. As for the other blood clan members, they were taken away by the three dukes cultivated by the Riley clan.

Originally, the power of the Riley clan was more than that, but after Riley's sister died tragically in Don's hands, Riley had a conflict with Don, and that conflict caused Riley's power to be destroyed by more than half. If it weren't for the fact that Riley is a prince, and the fighting power is really not weak, and the surrounding Paul clan and Dominic clan are both intentional to hide, the Riley clan that has been so fatally hit has long been defeated by other equally powerful prince clans. Annexed.

However, according to the information that Serena had heard, it was Riley who was attracted by Donne when he was fighting against Donne, so he ordered that no one should be allowed to annex the Riley clan, so no one dared to do anything against the Riley clan. .

After all, not everyone is qualified to provoke Donn's tyrant as a forbidden existence.

After entering the territory of the Riley clan, Sean didn't have much effort to find a gathering place in the clan. He only inquired slightly and knew where Riley's castle was built. Of course, his inquiries appeared to be a bit naked and there was almost nothing to hide, so naturally he was quickly followed by some interested people.

However, Sean didn't care about this, because he hadn't planned to hide his whereabouts anyway.

Because in today's turbulent underground world, the appearance of any stranger will arouse many people's vigilance. Sean didn't want Riley to be too guarded against him, so he straightened out his purpose directly, maybe it could play some more active and effective role.

Soon, just as Sean expected, he was stopped by a marquis blood on his way to leave this gathering place towards the castle where Riley lived.

This Marquis did not come alone. Behind him were four earl-level blood clan members. This was almost half the high-end combat power of the entire Riley clan today.

From this, Sean can tell that Riley is a rather cautious woman.

Of course, it may also be the result of the previous battle with Donne that caused this woman's character to be completely changed. But Sean doesn't hate women with this personality. After all, if everything goes well, she will be the core of the force team formed by Kane. With such a cautious woman, Kane will be able to save a lot. Trouble, because no one wants reckless people in their core leadership.

"A fresh face." The marquis who blocked the road blew a whistle.

Sean smiled at the vampire in front of him, and then said, "I'm here to see Riley. I want to talk to her about something."

Then after thinking about it, Sean asked again: "How to call it?"

Hearing Xiao En's words, the marquis who was blocking the road put away the hippy smile and dangling expression on his face, and his scorn quickly turned into a mature and stable aristocratic youth temperament. Seeing the change in the temperament of this blood marquis, Sean couldn't help but think of a sentence: every blood family, as long as they have a traditional rank above baron, will inevitably become an elegant and noble master of etiquette, and this elegant temperament will As their strength ranks increase, it becomes more and more obvious.

"Sutier," the marquis said, but he suddenly found that his voice was a bit dry, as if the water in his body had been evaporated.

He will come out to intercept him personally because he received a report from a viscount under his command.

In the report, although the viscount did not have much subjective consciousness himself, he just mentioned it casually: It seemed that he was an ordinary person, and he didn't feel much power.

But this seemingly random sentence aroused his vigilance. He didn't think that the person who dared to walk alone on the territory of the blood clan at this time would be a person with no powerful strength, so he concluded that the strength of this person must be a marquis rank. As for why it wouldn't be at the rank of Duke or above, he thought that the powerhouse of this rank must have been fighting on the battlefield. No one would run around, and even so blatantly inquiring about Riley's position.

It is for this consideration that he will bring four powerful Earl ranks together to intercept them and inquire about the true purpose of the other party.

Of course, in order to confuse the opponent, he deliberately pretended to be a foolish ruffian, trying to weaken the opponent's psychological defense.

It can be said that the Marquis, who calls himself Sutier, has used all the methods that can be used.

But when he really met and talked with Sean, he realized that his evaluation was still too low. Just an eye contact, he felt an extremely powerful pressure, even if he didn't say it clearly, but Sutil's instinct still told him that in front of the black-haired and black-eyed man, all his disguise was Exposed.

Therefore, the blood marquis put away all the disguise and turned to be more serious.

"Well, a very good name." Sean said politely, "Okay, so now, can you take me to see Riley?"

"I'm afraid not." Sutil took a deep breath. In front of the strong, he already showed his humility, but in terms of loyalty, he also showed his determination, "At least, I can't confirm your Before your intention, I cannot put my Patriarch under threat."

Hearing the words of the marquis, the faces of the four earls behind him all showed horror.

Listening to Sutil, it was their Patriarch, Prince Riley, even in front of this seemingly incompetent man, he was actually on the threatened side!

How can they not be shocked by this incident?

"Oh?" Xiao En raised his eyebrows, his face began to show interest, "Your natural ability...So, is it keen? Or the sixth sense? This is a rare field of law. "

Sutil's face instantly became extremely pale, and soon, even the skin of other parts of the body began to become pale, as if all the blood had been drained at this moment. A strong sense of dizziness hits his head directly, he even stood completely unsteady, and fell back under a shaking. If it were not for the four blood counts behind him, he would definitely fall directly to the ground. , And then have to end up being slaughtered.

"Perception is also one of many laws. It can be regarded as an intermediate-level derivative mutation law." Xiao En said calmly, "This ability can indeed make you have a stronger combat effectiveness in battle, and be able to perceive it sharply. It's dangerous, so you can avoid it in advance and increase your survivability.... It's not without reason that Riley will keep you here, but although you are smart, you still can't understand Riley's true intentions."

Every time Sean said more, Sutil's face became paler, because he had realized that he had made an extremely fatal mistake.

That is, he shouldn't have come in person.

"Hmm, but these are minor problems. You are still young." Xiao En smiled, "There is still a lot of time to learn from these experiences."

Let a human being in his thirties say that a kinsman who has lived for hundreds of years is young, no matter how you look at it, it will be very funny, but when this is said by Sean, I am afraid that this world can Few people laughed.

"But you know, what is your biggest problem today?" Sean continued.

"It's...what..." Sutier spoke with some difficulty. The blood in his body was almost drained, and his whole body was so weak that he could faint at any time.

"That means you have sensed my danger, but you still have to use the power of the law to probe me."

Sean smiled. Others may not be able to see clearly, even Sutier, who has already used the power of the law, does not quite understand, but in Sean's eyes, all this is very clear: from Suti The ropes condensed by the power of law that stretched out of Er are all entwined with Sean's body, but the power of law and his own strength on Sean are obviously stronger than Sutier by countless grades, so If these law ropes want to entangle Sean, Sutil has to pay the price with his own essence and blood consumption. This is the same as Sean's ability to continuously use time and space to accelerate when facing the legendary spider monster. of.

Only in the past, Sutil's control of this ability was to send and receive freely. But today, he is facing Sean who has reached the fourteenth rank, so when he tried to probe Sean's basic strength and wind these law ropes around Sean's body, these law ropes immediately lost control.

Right now, whoever wants to break the ropes of these laws is not up to Sutil, but to Sean.

"This time, I should teach you a little lesson." Xiao En chuckled. "In the future, learn to be smart. If you clearly perceive the strength and danger of your opponent, don't use this method to probe anymore, because of your control. Power cannot surpass your opponent... Oh, maybe when you enter the ranks of the legend, that is, the prince, you can probably give it a try."

While saying this, Xiao En's body shook slightly, and all the law ropes were broken.

But Sutier spewed a mouthful of blood and then fainted.

The four blood counts who were supporting Sutier were even more dazed at this moment, and the subtle trembling appearance of their bodies completely exposed their inner fears. They only knew that the Marquis of Sutil, who had always been regarded as a strong man by them, was shocked by the ability to only say a few words when they only met each other. With their strength, it was naturally impossible to see just now. The invisible confrontation between Sutier and Sean is not even clear to Sutier himself.

In the underground world, any weak person has no right to speak.

Even Sutil was already shocked, and Sean could naturally guess the trembling thoughts of these four blood count earls.

"Take me to see Riley, I won't embarrass you."

"No need." A cold female voice rang as soon as Sean's words fell, "I'm here by myself."

Chapter 198: Riley Giovanni

The owner of the cold voice is a young woman with a frosty face.

She has a pair of willow-leaf eyebrows, long and narrow eyes like a fox, a tall nose bridge and * lips with a slightly curled upper lip-this is a woman who is absolutely beautiful no matter where it is placed, in any aesthetic point of view.

But at this moment, this young woman who was supposed to be as enchanting as a fox, has a more distinctive temperament because of her frosty face and tight lips: it is like a flower of a mountain, and it is like a winter plum in the twelfth lunar month As cold and arrogant.

Sean has some understanding, why Donne would want to marry Riley forcibly.

"Please allow me to introduce myself first..."

"No need." Before Sean finished speaking, Riley interrupted Sean's speech mercilessly. "I am not interested in who you are or what you are doing. But I can tell you clearly. You are not welcome in my territory."

Shaun glanced at the woman with a weird look: "Don't you really plan to listen to my proposal?"

"It's not necessary at all." Riley's attitude is obviously very strong. "This time it is my dependents who are looking for hardship, so I don't care about you, but if you continue to stay here, I can't guarantee the next Will there be any accidents?"

Sean looked at Riley, he couldn't help but start to wonder if Riley was a little short-sighted.

The equal-order gap between the two sides has been very obvious.

Just like the legendary powerhouse, it's just a general term. It actually refers to the powerhouse class from the twelfth to the fourteenth. Even in the strict sense, the fifteenth-tier can be called the legendary powerhouse only because of this rank. The powerhouse is only half a step away from the super powerhouse, so it is only divided into "Legend Peak". The prince ranks of the underground world correspond to the legendary ranks on the surface. Therefore, even the inhabitants of the underground world, who are also called princes, still have the twelfth rank of Serena, the fourteenth rank of Burleigh, and Abu Le's fifteenth-order difference between strength and weakness.

Riley is just a prince of the twelfth tier. Compared to the already fourteenth-tier Sean, let alone defeated, I am afraid that if the two sides fight each other, what Riley has to think about is how to save his life.

And the more crucial point is that if Sutil, the Marquis of the Blood Race, could not detect Sean's strength, but it was excusable for him to seriously injure himself as a result of rash attempts, then Riley, who had already stepped into the ranks of the prince, would definitely be excuseable. It is impossible not to notice the looming legendary power of Shaun.

unless.....

"Go ahead, where is Riley." Sean said in a deep voice.

"I don't know what you are talking about, sir." Riley's brows were slightly frowned, and the coldness on her face became more obvious. "If you are deliberately teasing me, then I think you should be prepared to bear my anger. Bar."

Sean ignored the person in front of him who was obviously a fake Riley, but turned his gaze back to Surtiel and his party.

Because of being disturbed by the appearance of this Riley, Sutier has quickly retreated from here with the support of four other blood count earls. However, although these people are fast, they are still within Sean's line of sight, but when they see these people, Sean's heart is slightly surprised: these four blood family counts are almost Get out of Sean's sense and sight.

Thinking of this, Shaun even remembered more details that he had neglected before: Sutier and others appeared without warning, and they were not in Shaun's perception at all. Of course, Sutier used his abilities in the field of law, but it also shows that the blood of the Riley clan already has a very complete set of special methods that can easily evade the enemy's perception.

"You are in a hurry." Sean shook his head slightly. Seeing that Sutier and the others' sense of existence became extremely thin, Sean finally gave up tracking the target, and instead completely locked the Qi machine on the fake Riley next to him.

Qi machine lock, this is a very mysterious and unspeakable special perception.

For others, it may not feel much, but for the two parties whose Qi machine is locked, it can be easily noticed.

This kind of air machine locking technique is actually not difficult to learn. As long as you have the heart, the strong in the golden realm can also master it, and of course it is easy to get rid of it. In addition, this technique of air machine locking was originally used to assist some special martial arts or magic attacks, but with the in-depth development of this technique, most of them now use this technique to lock down those shadow assassins.

Of course, people in the underground world are also accustomed to using this trick to deal with those demonic killers who fail to solve the target character in the first time.

It is worth mentioning that the Wizards Guild has developed the magic with its own tracking ability by relying on this technique of air locking.

But now, when Sean uses this trick to lock down the family members of the Riley clan who has special means to reduce his sense of existence, and thus disappears on the battlefield unconsciously, it can be regarded as an outstanding effect.

At least, the fake Riley who stood in front of Sean changed his face immediately.

"Actually, I can't blame you." Sean shook his head slightly, and then said, "If Sutil did not faint, then you can at least get an information about me from him.... But unfortunately, he fainted. , So you can't get this information, plus you saw him fainting, and you wanted to excuse him, wanting to leave here as soon as possible, so you behaved so strong and attracted my attention.... But you yourself Unexpectedly, this is your biggest flaw, right?"

The fake Riley standing in front of Sean quickly shook his figure, just like when an illusion circle was broken, a burst of stars floated out of her body. Not long after, a woman of the same young appearance stood in front of Sean, but compared to the previous image of Riley, the woman in front of her was somewhat similar to Riley, but she did not have the arrogance of Riley. The temperament, on the contrary, is a bit more lively and aura that is unique to young people.

Sean bet that the woman in front of him, even in the world of blood, belongs to the very young ranks.

"It turns out to be a family member of the bloodline. No wonder you pretend to be so similar." Sean nodded, satisfying a curiosity in his heart, "However, I heard that Riley is single, so your mother... should be Riley's. Sister?"

The unique talent abilities of the blood race are not only fast speed and strong recovery ability. Charm and illusion are also their areas of expertise. It's just that because of the fervent desire to fight in the underground world, these two abilities are not so valued by the blood race, and most of these two abilities will only appear in the secret party. Because of this, the Devil Party likes to call the secret party a coward, because the people of the Devil Party generally think that the fascination and illusion ability are the shame of their blood.

The young woman, or the blood clan who can also be called a girl among the blood clan, did not answer Sean's question, but said, "You said I have one of the biggest flaws, what is it?"

"You are not the prince."

"What do you mean?" The girl couldn't understand.

Of course she knew that she was not a prince, because her strength was the same as that of Sutil, but she was just a marquise. This is also thanks to her father, Dorn Giovanni, who is known as the genius of the previous generation. She has a higher talent than the average blood, so she can achieve great achievements that ordinary people cannot achieve at such a young age. .

However, Sean did not answer the girl's question. Instead, he raised his head and looked at the sky, with the corners of his mouth slightly raised: "Riley loves her sister very much, otherwise she wouldn't openly challenge Dorn, after all. But the next Patriarch of the Giovanni clan."

"You are not allowed to mention that bastard!" The girl yelled angrily.

It's just that Sean didn't pay attention, but said to himself: "As the only orphan of Sister Riley, do you think Riley will take special care of you?"

Hearing Xiao En's words, the girl's expression changed drastically, and she followed Xiao En's gaze into the sky with a look of horror.

There, a black shadow is coming through the air at a very fast speed.

The momentum of the shadow is extremely fierce. It can be seen that this shadow is obviously in a very emotional moment.

Not long after, this shadow had already hit Xiao En's sky, but the identity of the shadow's owner was still completely exposed, and a black beam of light like a long spear had broken through the air and struck towards Xiao En frontally.

I saw Sean with a calm smile looking at the black spear that broke through the air, and when the spear came to him, he waved his hand abruptly.

It's just that Sean's speed is so fast that almost no one can see his specific movements. The only thing that can be recognized is that Sean seems to wave his hand at the spear, and then the entire black spear condensed with pure energy. So it shattered into countless black stars in front of Sean. But when his gaze fell on Xiao En's right hand again, he realized that he did not know when he had a black long sword in his right hand.

"Seni, come here!" Riley, who had already landed, shouted at the silly girl of the blood race who was standing not far from Sean, her expression extremely urgent.

"She dare not act rashly." Sean chuckled at the real Riley in front of him.

At this time, the blood girl named Sene was about ten meters away to the left of Xiao En, while the real Riley was almost fifty meters away from Xiao En. Although in terms of the speed of the blood race, it only takes an explosive acceleration to easily cross the fifty-meter distance, but Riley's perception strongly warns her that she must not shorten the distance between the black-haired man in front of her and herself. Within 50 meters, otherwise she will definitely be hit hard if she fights against each other!

This is the suppression of momentum!

The more powerful a person is, the easier it is to perceive the vigorous aura of Sean, and thus the more clearly the safe distance between each other is.

can be close to Sean fifty meters away, this distance is already relatively strong.

Like Serena, if there is a hostile collision with Sean today, she may not even feel safe even if she keeps a distance of 100 meters.

"Look, this is the meaning of the sentence I just said." Sean turned his head, looked at Senny, and then chuckled lightly, "Go, go back to your aunt's side." Then there was a slight pause. After a while, I looked at Riley and smiled: "Look, I don't have any malice against you Riley clan. And to show my sincerity, I have never taken the initiative to take the initiative."

Riley looked at Sean with a vigilant face, and did not reply, but looked at Senny with a particularly anxious look.

If at this time, Senny still doesn't know what the phrase "you are not the prince" just mentioned by Sean just now means, then she will not be able to have the achievements she has now. Therefore, at this moment, she was looking at Sean dumbfounded, forgetting the dangerous environment she was in, and even forgot to run back to Riley.

"You...you...you..." Sene pointed at Sean with a look of horror, but she couldn't even say a complete sentence.

"Now you know what mistakes I made?" Sean's attitude is still friendly as before. "Look, even your aunt looks like an enemy in front of me, and you walked to me carelessly. My side still shows such a strong attitude towards me... So I have to doubt that if you are short-sighted, or you are not the real Riley.... According to my understanding, Riley is not a short-sighted person, then I had no choice but to think it was the second case."

Before, because she didn't know who Shaun was and didn't notice Shaun's aura, Senny dared to approach Shaun with "Yi Gao daring". But now with the contrast of Riley, Sene immediately realized the strength of the other party-the superpower of the weak and the strong in the subterranean world, locked by the aura of a superior power, how could Sene dare to act rashly. Woolen cloth.

Sean, it seems that she also knew the reason why Sene did not dare to act rashly, so she quickly lifted the air lock between each other. He used this little trick before, just to prevent Senny from escaping, and then he couldn't find Riley. Now that Riley had appeared on her own initiative, there was naturally no need to target the juniors.

After all, for the current Sean, even a rank 12 legendary powerhouse like Serena, to him is already at the level of "children".

What's more, other people who are not even legendary?

"Who are you?" When Sene got out of Sean's energy lock and returned to her side, the heart that Riley had been hanging on was finally let go.

"Someone who can satisfy your wishes." Xiao En said with a smile.

"Satisfy my wish?" Riley was taken aback for a moment, and immediately laughed, as if she had heard the funniest joke in the world, "Although your strength... is indeed stronger than me, but..."

"I can kill Don." Sean interrupted her without waiting for Riley's sarcasm.

This time, Riley and Senny were completely stunned.

"What did you just say?" Soon, Riley, who had recovered her face, couldn't help but ask again in a deep voice.

"Dorn, has been appointed as the next Patriarch of the Giovanni clan, I believe you should know what this means." Sean smiled, his face looked very relaxed and casual, "Unless you betray Joe Fanni clan, take refuge in other clans, otherwise Dorn will definitely marry you back after he succeeds the Patriarch.... Well, with Dorn's character, maybe he will be a little bit merciful at first because he is interested in you. But after a while, you should also know what your fate will be. After all...you are the one who has fought Donn openly."

Lily closed her lips tightly and did not respond, because what Shaun said were all facts.

"But betray the Giovanni clan... even if you have thought about it, you can't do it, and you know the reason." Sean looked at Riley with his lips tightly pressed, and continued to speak, "The power of the Giovanni clan now It's getting stronger and stronger. Obviously, the other twelve clans cannot have  with the Giovanni clan led by Donne because of you. Similarly, even if you have  with the Giovanni clan led by Donne, you will not be able to escape because of you. 'S clan territory is too close to the Giovanni clan's territory."

"I want to know why?"

"Because I have an ally, he must be king of the Giovanni clan." Sean shrugged, "There can be no second person besides him."

Chapter 199: . An orderly plan in chaos

Riley's pupils shrank suddenly.

Sean's words seem to be very common, but it reveals an amazing news.

Except for Sean's allies, there can be no second person to become the king of the Giovanni clan.

Then this also means that all those who try to fight for the throne of the Giovanni clan after Donne's death will become Sean's enemies and the target to be eradicated. If someone else said this sentence, Riley would only sneer, but I don't know why, when Sean said this sentence indifferently, Riley had only one thought in her heart: Donne would definitely die.

"Are you the person next to Paul?" Riley frowned, which made her lonely temperament more obvious.

"Oh? It seems that there is an assistant around Paul. It doesn't seem to be a secret?" Sean's answer was ambiguous, neither denying nor admitting.

But Riley still quickly discovered the contradiction in the words before and after Sean: "Who are you?"

"I wanted to introduce myself before, but your niece doesn't care." Sean smiled and glanced at Senny, who looked a little embarrassed, "Then I will introduce myself, maybe This will help reach some consensus on our cooperation."

Riley looked at Sean noncommittantly.

Sean smiled and looked at Sene and Riley. With regard to the character images of these two people, Shaun has gradually understood, which also has some very important auxiliary factors for his subsequent negotiations. Sean is very clear that he may not be able to understand any person's thoughts and inner emotions in depth and detail, but with the help of the real eye, he can still clearly understand whether everyone is hostile to him. With the basic information acquired by his personality, Sean's negotiation skills are not actually much weaker than Diana, but he rarely needs to act in person when he reaches his status.

But now in the underground world, the environment and situation are different, so I can only do it myself.

"I'm Sean, Sean Connery, from...the surface world." After thinking about it, Sean decided to tell his true identity, because there is nothing to hide, "As you can see, I am here on behalf of my ally, and he will replace Donne as the king of the Giovanni clan."

"The surface..." Riley pondered for a moment, and immediately showed a stunned expression, "You are the one who fought with the Scarlet Queen of the Resenba clan before? Does the ally in your mouth refer to the Scarlet Queen?"

Riley's eyes showed a look of expectation.

The battle between Serena and Sean is no secret in the whole blood society, but no one knows what Sean looks like.

At this time, Riley's face will show such a look of expectation, Sean can understand.

In the social structure of kinship, although there is no obvious difference between men and women, in fact, most famous people are men, and women may not even have one in Chengdu. And in the past few years, except for a female blood king in a history that is so long that it has been completely inexhaustible, no female blood power has been able to reproduce this glory.

Until, Serena became the young leader of this generation of blood demon party-even in the three factions of the blood, Serena was the first person to be deserved. Therefore, in the eyes of many female blood races, Serena's appeal is not so big, which is ignored by Sean.

Of course, Riley would think that Sean's ally is Serena. Another reason is probably because of the marriage contract between the Giovanni clan and the Luxemba clan: Dorn Giovanni has announced to the whole blood society that he will marry Serena Resenba as his wife. But now, Serena has escaped. This is a humiliation for Dorne. With Dorne's temperament, it is absolutely impossible to let Serena off.

So, if the person who wants Dorne to die the most, then there is no doubt that it must be Serena.

Because of Serena and Dorn, there are already two multiple-choice questions that can only live one.

"Although Serena is one of my allies, she is not the one who is going to seize the position of the Patriarch of the Giovanni clan this time." Sean quickly recovered, and then said again, "According to your blood family. According to the rules set by the ancestors, no blood clan can inherit the two clans. When the blood of the blood clan annexes other clans, there is only one way to annex.... Serena is now the head of the Resenba clan, so it is impossible to become Joe. Patriarch of the Vanni clan."

"The Scarlet Queen is already..." Astonishment flashed across Riley's face, "It's no wonder that the Luxemba clan suddenly withdrew from the coalition forces this time. It turned out to be..." Riley quickly understood something, and immediately An even greater surprise appeared on his face: "The woman who suddenly appeared on the battlefield now..."

The appearance of Alexis can actually be said to be an unexpected surprise.

But obviously, many people don't know the specific truth, and Sean certainly doesn't need to explain.

He knows what Riley thinks, because usually smart people think more than others, so this type of person is actually easy to be misled-seven points of truth and three points of fiction. Only truly wise people can see through all conspiracies and tricks, and then conduct targeted cracking and counterattack. Just like Hela, William and Neal, even if they seem to have stepped into the trap of the enemy, they are actually just It's just a scene that will be calculated.

Lily is a very smart and brave clan head, but that's all.

She is not wise enough.

If it were the staff member beside Paul, perhaps he should be able to see through Sean's intentions. At least, Sean believes that the other party's attention will definitely not be attracted by Alexis, but will instead focus on the surrounding environment.

But Don, the biggest enemy of Sean at the moment, Sean also believes that he must have discovered something. It's just that it's useless if he finds anything, because he can't make other people's choices. He must defeat Alexis head-on and win more prestige for himself. Otherwise, once this coalition operation becomes one When it was a total joke, even if he became the head of the Giovanni clan, it would be difficult for him to gain the trust of the other twelve clans in the future.

Although, now this so-called coalition joke is indeed a complete joke.

"So, you don't suffer from working with me, do you?" Sean said with a smile, "As long as Donne is still alive, you will never escape his claws, and you will always live in his shadow until The day his devil's claws officially fell on you.... But I think you should know that even if the devil's claws fall on you, it is not liberation, but the beginning of greater suffering."

"Indeed." Riley simply admitted to the harsh environment.

This is slightly beyond Sean's expectations.

Because in Sean's expectation, Riley should negotiate to fight for greater legal rights for herself. It is undoubtedly to her disadvantage to directly admit her own weakness like this, because it is tantamount to giving up all the right to speak.

But when Sean was slightly surprised by the choice Riley had made, her next sentence was to turn her passive environment into an active environment.

Just listen to Riley speaking frankly: "So, in order to solve Don, what price do I have to pay?"

There is a price to pay.

This seems to be a simple sentence, but when Sean speaks it out, it has a completely different effect from that of Riley.

If it is the former, then the initiative will still be in the hands of Sean, and the matter of killing Don will also become Riley's request. But if it is the latter, then the initiative is in the hands of Riley, and the meaning of the whole thing has also become the cooperation plan proposed by Sean, and Riley is only a collaborator of this plan.

Smart people may not be as insightful as the wise, but at least they won't suffer.

Fortunately, Sean did not intend to squeeze the Riley clan: "There is only one requirement, allegiance to the new king of your Giovanni clan.... You are the first person to join his camp, or that he constitutes a new The most core basic team of the power, so his reliance on you will not be low, so you can rest assured that he will treat you as the possibility of consumables."

"A newcomer with nothing?" Riley's expression changed a little, and it was obviously a struggle in her heart.

Although her expression has changed very slightly, it is particularly obvious to Sean, who is good at observation and assisted by the real eye. But overall, the halo that emerged from Riley's body was still in a friendly green color, so Sean was not so worried.

Of course, the most important thing is that these things are impossible to hide.

Kane is indeed alone. If he wants to become the king of the Giovanni clan, it is not a simple sentence. In addition to his own strength to reach a sufficient minimum, and to kill Donne to transplant the blood, he also needs to have enough supporters, and his supporters must not be too weak in strength or influence, otherwise it will be Kane. Being able to sit on the throne of the Patriarch of the Giovanni clan, but commanding a fragmented clan is meaningless.

Maybe, it will be overthrown again.

"What's your plan?" After struggling for a long time, Riley finally sighed, and then said in a deep voice, her expression calmed down a lot.

Hearing these words, even if she did not look at Riley's halo that had turned into a dark green representing her own person, Sean knew that Riley had made a choice. As the saying goes, communicating with smart people is the easiest thing, so Sean will not be surprised if Riley asks the core questions after making a decision. On the contrary, if Riley does not ask this sentence, then Sean had to consider whether it was the right thing to choose Riley as the first clan of Kane's team.

"The clan members who can get you on the front line are back." Sean did not directly answer his plan, but first gave an order, "Dorn can no longer threaten you, so you don't need to continue to let your People are on the front line.... Alexis doesn't know how to discern the enemy from and carefully on the battlefield, so every time your clan members stay on the front line for one more day, their chances of death will increase by one day."

Although she was a little uncomfortable with Sean's command tone, Riley still chose to accept it. After all, the people on the front line now have all the power of her entire clan. If it is really ruined in this complete disaster, then It was also a big blow for her. At least, she would feel that she has no use value anymore. After all, Sean had already hinted very clearly before, he was after her power scale.

As for the strength, because of the fourteenth tier of Sean, and the elder-level powerhouse who is on the rampage on the battlefield, Riley naturally ignored her combat strength. And this is also a vague concept that Sean deliberately created.

"What then?" Riley confessed a few words to Senny, asking Senny to go back and give orders. After all, this matter is of great importance, and the sooner it is resolved, the better, "I received the news that Dorn has sent someone back to Joe. The blood pool of Fanni Castle intends to wake up the elders sleeping in the blood pool, and the other three clans are also preparing to do so. They intend to use the four elders to besiege the woman."

"It's okay, this was originally part of the plan." Sean said indifferently.

Of course he knew that the blood family could not allow Alexis to move freely on the battlefield, and would definitely invite those elder-level blood family sleeping deep in the blood pool to take action. But originally in Sean's prediction, in addition to the Luxemba clan, there should be probably five clan elders, but he did not expect that there were only four. It clearly seems that Alexis did not make things happen. Too big.

In response to this counter-attack trap, of course Sean is also prepared: no one knows in the underground world now, and Sean has more than one king, but two-with Imoku's intervention and help. It is only a matter of minutes for Rorty Kabas to solve the blood elves. When the time comes, Imoku will free up to support Alexis, and the existence of the elders of the blood clan will probably be unlucky.

As for the werewolf tribe, Sean has already reached an agreement with Dongdu Marta, and Dongdu will try his best to prevent the werewolf tribe from sending super powers. Perhaps other werewolf tribes haven't found out yet. In fact, the werewolves that Alexis constantly kills are all hostile campers in the Eastern Capital, and Sean is providing the Eastern Capital with the possibility of a superior position on the side. And as long as Dongdu succeeds in taking the position, then the werewolf tribe's choice to start a war with Sean will need to be carefully weighed.

On the side of the Nerub, it will be the dark elves of the demon descendant and Rorty Kabas to solve the problem.

The reason why the demon descendants did not take full action now is because they are preventing the arrogance of the Nerubian army. This is something that Sean and the demons who have taken refuge in him confessed-because the demons suffered such heavy losses in this civil war, if it weren't for Sean's anomaly to destroy Don's plan, I'm afraid it would be underground. After the civil war in the world is over, it is the demonite who will be divided among the other great holy blood races.

Blood elves, it can only be said to be bad luck.

Poor Donne thought at first that he could swallow the three tribes of blood elves, dark elves and demons. As everyone knows, all of this has already been destroyed by Sean.

So in the final analysis, although the current underground world looks extremely chaotic, in fact all the chaos is created by Sean artificially. In fact, it has always maintained a hidden order: the spider demon will be composed of dark elves and The demons join forces to contain them, the werewolves have the East to fully expand their own advantages and influence, the blood family has Giovanni and Resenba teaming up, and Alexis and Imoku are responsible for solving the hostile forces in the blood family.

After dealing with the old foxes for so long in the surface world, and constantly taking advantage of the situation, how could Sean not understand the principle of balance?

So from the beginning, even though there was some bias in it, in fact it was not out of the control of Sean.

"You get ready, and then let's go to the Dominic clan." Sean did not reveal his plans and details, but in order to reassure Riley, he also revealed a little bit more or less, "That will be us The second clan to be wooed... If you are with you, the possibility of him becoming his own will not be high."

Chapter 200: .It should grow up again

Sean has always been very confident in persuading Riley.

The reason is simple, that is, Riley has no retreat.

As Sean said before, Riley is barely struggling now, and she may end up alive when Don's claws are swung down. Unless she is willing to abandon the entire Riley clan, but run away from the life and death of her dependents, then she may still survive.

But in that case, she is basically the same as abolished, because no blood clan would be willing to offend the Giovanni clan for her.

That's why Sean chose Riley as the first breakthrough, only because she could not refuse the conditions she provided.

Of course, Sean is not afraid that Riley will regret it afterwards, because at that time Alexis and Imoku had already freed up their hands, and some of them had time and energy to deal with these perfidy. If it is not for Giovanni to maintain a relatively stable rule, rather than to become completely fragmented, Sean actually has a better way to deal with these troubles-just like his coldness on the surface world back then, as long as he swings more. Just a few butcher knives.

The peaceful state of the underground world has been stable for so long, but in fact it just lacks a breakthrough as a fuse.

And the arrival of Sean happened to open a gap in this peaceful state and completely confused everyone inside. It's just that this kind of conflict of interest requires a minimum guarantee: blood elves can be annexed, but the person who annexes him must be dark elves; secondly, the forces between werewolves and blood races must still be balanced, no matter which side the two sides are. Large, it will form a situation similar to a snowball, and eventually annex the latter, thus becoming the overlord of the entire underground world in the true sense.

So Shaun will help Dongdu weaken others, so that Dongdu has enough influence in the whole werewolf tribe.

Similarly, we will also strive to prevent the Giovanni clan from falling apart, so that it will become a true co-advancement and retreat interest group with the Luxemba clan, and then form a balanced power relationship with the werewolf tribe.

As for the spider monster, it happens to be able to use Alexis's hand to make it comprehensively weak, so that it can fight the dark elves who have just experienced the well-versed forest and suffer heavy casualties due to the tricks of the blood family. The demons form a new balanced relationship. And the balanced relationship formed by these three can just play a new restraint relationship between the blood race and the werewolf, so that the blood race and the werewolf dare not unscrupulously launch a new round of the Millennium Holy War.

It can be said that from the moment Sean decides to take action against the blood elves, he has made all preparations to ensure that the five saint blood races in the underground world will not cause the balance structure to collapse due to the reduction of one blood elves.

Because history has proved that once the internal pressure of these major ethnic groups in the underground world is calmed down, then it will be a disaster for the surface world: the third underground world expeditionary army plan actually happened in the game.

As the son of the plane, Sean, of course, wants to prevent this kind of damage to the origin of the world as much as possible.

Wait for Riley, Sene and Sutier to explain, she directly followed Sean on the road again.

This time, their destination is the territory of the Dominic clan.

The Dominic clan, next to the Riley clan, is also one of the main constituents of the Giovanni clan's first-level influence network. Another major constituent of the first-level influence network is the Paul clan, but even Riley can see that Paul is assisted by masters, so it is natural that Don and Dominic cannot be ignorant.

Not long after, under the leadership of Riley, Sean quickly set foot on the territory of the Donimic clan.

Unlike the atmosphere of the Riley clan that is particularly depressed because of the shadow of Donne, in the territory of the Dominic clan, Sean can clearly perceive the relaxed atmosphere, and it seems that the people living here are very happy. And happy.

And when Sean and Riley appeared in a small town where they gathered together, the people living in the town did not have any hostility or vigilance towards outsiders like Sean. Unlike when Sean appeared in the small town of the Riley clan, everyone maintained a certain degree of hostility and vigilance towards him as an outsider-but the two actually have advantages and disadvantages, like in the Riley clan's land. Above, as long as Sean says that he wants to find Riley Giovanni, relevant information will be sent to Riley or Riley's henchmen immediately, and Sean doesn't have to worry about finding someone.

But in the territory of the Dominic clan, this trick is obviously not very useful.

"I don't understand." In a small room on the second floor that looked like a pub and hotel, Riley looked at Sean and said with some doubts, "Why don't you let me visit Dominica through formal channels, but Want to be like now...?"

Sean shook his head and gave a wry smile: "You don't need to be so alert to me."

"I didn't." Riley said indifferently.

After entering the house, Sean took a look and walked straight to the window, posing a pair that seemed to be observing pedestrians on the road, but in fact he immediately planned to jump out of the window when something went wrong, with a strong look of guard in his eyes. With a helpless, bitter smile on her face, it was obvious that the woman in front of her had misunderstood something.

"I'm not interested in you, so you don't have to worry about what I will do to you." Sean shook his head, the look on his face was more helpless than the elder of the younger generation." Opening a room is naturally to save some unnecessary troubles.... Or, to prepare for the possible troubles. The reason why you are not allowed to visit Dominica by formal means is also because you want to be nearby It's just observation."

Riley looked at Sean noncommittal, but her eyes were obviously not relaxed at all.

Sean decided not to pay attention to Riley's thoughts, he lay straight on the bed, and then began to relax: "What kind of person do you think Dominic... is?"

"A...a coward?" Riley stared at Sean closely, confirming that he just lay down on the bed and did not take any next action, and then relaxed slightly. "In our Giovanni clan, his reputation has always been low. He never personally participated in many battles, and even tried to avoid him. Many people called him a coward, a coward, or the shame of the blood clan, so many people were thinking of fighting his territory."

"I guess, these people have never succeeded." Although Sean said "I guess", he actually used affirmative sentences.

"Yes." Riley nodded, and then she was a little surprised, "You mean...Dominic has a problem?"

Sean glanced at Riley sideways, seeing the latter a little embarrassed: "It seems that this Dominic is really hidden, and you didn't notice it at all."

"Similar?" Riley didn't quite understand.

However, considering that Riley has rarely had any contact with the outside world due to the pressure of Donne, it is normal for Dominic to be unclear. Her intelligence gathering ability was almost completely paralyzed by Dorn, just like the prey that had fallen into the net, she could only struggle in vain.

It is precisely because of this that Sean is unwilling to let Riley visit Dominica through formal channels.

Because this will definitely attract Don's attention, and it may even arouse Dominic's disgust- after all, this is a person who likes to hide, and Riley's visit will inevitably attract Don's attention. Sean is not sure if Don has discovered Dominic's concealment, but as long as Don's attention is drawn, it will definitely cause many twists and turns, and even expose his existence. This is not what Sean thought. need.

"Dominic is smarter than many of you." Sean still decided to tell Riley the fact that although this woman is smart, her intelligence network has been disconnected from the outside world for too long. "He has always been hiding, just wanting Try to avoid direct conflict with Dorn. I suspect that he wants to reap the benefits of the fishermen. Of course, if there is no chance, he will definitely keep hiding like this... Among your blood races, you don't care about the fame of aliens, not many?"

Listening to Sean's words, Riley reacted: "You say so, I understand.... Indeed, many people who play Dominic's ideas will not take any action against Dominic after failure. There is not even a plan of retaliation. And the results of many behaviors heard at the time were very coincidental... But if there are so many coincidences, this is not right in itself, right?"

"It seems that it is correct that we didn't come directly to the door." Sean nodded slightly, "Dorn is not such a stupid person. I suspect that there are many people who play Dominic's ideas here, all of them are encouraged by Dorn. Yes, in order to test his hole cards.... If we visit him through normal channels, I am afraid we will have exposed them now."

Lily did not speak any more, and even the moment Sean got up, she did not react.

But in the next second, a strong wind hit, Riley let out an exclamation, and then began to turn her eyes, and when she recovered, she realized that she had been thrown on the bed by Sean. In an instant, the whole body was tense, and he looked at Xiao En who was standing by the window in a vigilant manner. The positions of the two of them were changed in an instant.

"Don't be suspicious all day. We are allies. I think we should trust each other more." Sean looked at Lily, who was lying on the bed, who wanted to get angry but didn't dare to get angry, and then glanced at her who seemed to be affected. The chest pressed by the roller, and then curled his lips, "I said, I am not interested in you, so you don't have to worry about what unreasonable things I will do to you."

Although Sean's gaze was very calm, his tone was very calm, and he was obviously sincere, but Riley still had a subtle anger rising in her heart. Although she didn't know why she was angry, she just felt a little unhappy. .

So, she hummed her head and ignored Sean.

"Furthermore, with the strength gap between us, if I really want to do something to you, do you think you can escape or beat me?" But Sean did not intend to just let Riley go. Reluctantly added a blow effect, "So, let's trust your partner more. After all, we are on the same boat now, I don't want to cause any...accidents."

Riley made a grunt of inexplicable meaning, which seemed a little childish.

This move made Sean a little surprised. He always felt that after removing the proud disguise of the strong, Riley seemed to be a little... juvenile? After a little thought, Sean felt that it seemed necessary for him to ask a question: "Speaking of which, how old are you now?"

"I have survived for two hundred years since the birth of the memory." Riley curled her lips, she decided not to speak, but after thinking about it, she replied.

Sean's facial muscles, after listening to Riley's words, couldn't help but twitch out of control.

According to the chronological boundary of the blood race, every two hundred years is a new generation, which corresponds exactly to the eighteen-year-old adulthood of human beings. It's a different matter of course if it's a blood race transformed by the first embrace, but for a pure blood race like Riley, this age means that she has just grown up-in some respects, the growth cycle of the blood race and the elves are simply In the same way, the only difference is that the learning ability of the blood race tends to be more fast-paced by humans, and as long as there is enough blood, it can even live an abnormally long life.

Xiao En even wondered whether the ancient  who created the blood race was created according to the standards of elves and humans. Otherwise, it is impossible to explain why the blood races are generally the existence of the appearance value: whether it is the appearance or the figure, they almost match the beauty of the elves, and although they also like the luxury and gorgeous style like the elves, but And unlike the elves, which is simply obsessive-compulsive upper body, I would rather be gorgeous than practical.

In addition, the biggest difference from the elves is that the blood races generally have a very strong desire to learn, and they also have the same learning speed as humans, especially under the pressure of dangerous environments, they can even burst out with more powerful potential.

The only drawback is that the growth rate of strength is generally slow, and the growth method is also somewhat different: it is difficult to improve strength simply through exercise. Every blood clan of the Duke rank is built on countless bones.

However, it is certain that Riley is a young girl who has just grown up.

Besides, because he had been under Donne's oppression before, now knowing that Donne is going to die soon, it is not incomprehensible that Riley's mentality is relaxed, such as the younger behavior in front of her.

Shaun's gaze fell on Riley's chest again: Hmm...should he grow up again?
