Chapter 101

Chapter 101 | Won't Pay for Today's Transportation Fee! Blanca watched as Robin leisurely rode the shared bicycle, her eyes gleaming with mockery. "Master, please slow down a bit and keep the same speed as the one in front."

The ride-hailing driver shook his head and said, "I'm sorry, miss, we don't provide that service. If I did as you said, how would I make any money?"

"You! You are just a driver, I paid the money, and you have to provide me with service! I, I will complain about you!" Blanca exclaimed angrily.

"Alright, you can go now!" The driver immediately pulled over the car by the roadside. "Complain however you want, it's up to you."

"What's with your attitude?" Blanca angrily pointed at the ride-hailing driver. "You're just a taxi driver, what's so great about that? You're just a low-life struggling to make a living..."

"Sorry, Master," Madeline apologized hastily, then stopped Blanca from saying something reckless, "Blanca, don't be like this, the driver also has to work."

"Get out!" the online car driver scolded angrily.

Blanca, looking at the fierce appearance of the online car driver, dared not speak anymore and had to obediently get out of the car.

At this moment, we were not far from the front door of the company.apter 101

Madeline paid the fare and got out of the car, sighing, "Blanca, what are you doing? The driver is also having a hard time, hoping to get more orders in the morning. Don't complain about them."

"No way I'm going to complain! These uncivilized low-class people!" Blanca took out her phone and was about to click on the complaint. button.

Madeline pleaded, "Blanca, please, can you not be like this? It's not easy for everyone to earn some money, why are you so angry?"

Blanca snorted, "Ah, Madeline, how should I even talk to you! Fine, I'll do as you say! But, I won't pay for today's transportation fee!"

Madeline watched Blanca's figure, shook her head, and followed after her.

Before the start of the working hours in the morning, there were already many people waiting in front of the office building. of Eastern District Development Corporation.

This morning was the final process of signing the outsourcing project for the Eastern Business District. Sign the commitment on investment project types and submit it for the signature and approval of the Group President.

Yesterday, there were nearly forty companies that met the requirements in the qualification review process for contracting the project.

However, the Huber Group outsourced only twenty projects.

That means, today half of the units had to be eliminated.

Robin rode a shared bicycle to the shared bicycle parking area next to the building and parked it properly. 14.12%

Hearing a mocking greeting from behind. "Isn't this Robin?"

Robin saw Lauric and Corey walking towards him from behind, deliberately flaunting BMW keys in their hands.

"Robin, I heard you worked as a security guard at Eastern District Development Corporation?" Corey stepped forward with a smile and a slowly mocking gaze.

Robin refused to pay attention to these idiots and walked straight into the corporate building, ignoring them. Reginald happened to witness this scene just as he walked by.

Haha, these two people didn't get along with Robin?

“Did you also come to sign the Huber Group's EBD Outsourcing Project?”

Laurie and Corey never expected that Reginald, the Vice President of Sales at Eastern District Development Corporation and the overall project manager for outsourcing, would approach them and initiate a conversation.

“Hello, Mr. Aguilar. I am Corey from Pacific Realty. My father is out of town on a business trip and asked me to come and see if we could successfully collaborate with the Huber Group.”

Reginald pointed at Robin's back and asked, “Do you know Robin?”

Laurie noticed the displeasure in Reginald's eyes and quickly said, “We are just acquaintances, how could we know such a vulgar person like him...”

A hint of amusement flashed in Reginald's eyes as he said, “Oh, I see. What is the name of your company again?”

Laurie pushed Corey

Corey immediately said, “Mr. Aguilar, we are Pacific Realty.”

“Well, I got it. You guys prepare well and sign the contract later,” Reginald said, turning around and walking towards the hall. “Huh?” Corey took a moment to register what was happening.

Laurie kicked him, “Silly, Mr. Aguilar meant that Pacific Realty could sign the Huber Group's EBD outsourcing project! Hahaha...” “Great!” Corey exclaimed as he lifted Laurie in excitement. “Pacific Realty is about to take off”

Laurie looked at Robin's back in the hall and sneered, “Luckily we said we don't have much of a relationship with Robin, otherwise today's contract would have been troublesome.”

“Originally, Mr. Aguilar, who was in charge of project qualification review, had a lot of opinions about Robin.” Corey nodded, “That's right. I wonder what Robin is doing here?”

“This idiot has no eyes and offended Mr. Aguilar. Haha, that day at Summer Bar, we didn’t have any further interaction with him, which was a good decision! Hahaha...”

Walking into the hall, I saw Miranda, Crystal, and others coming towards me.

Laurie and Corey stepped forward and said, “Crystal, you’re here too. Earlier, I saw your dad seemed to have also come here. Does your Thompson family also want to sign with the Huber Group?”

Crystal pouted, “I never meddle in the company’s affairs. I just collect dividends every year. I’m not sure if they signed the EBD project or “Ah, let me tell you, just now we ran into Mr Aguilar from Eastern District Development Corporation outside. He indicated that our company could sign a contract.

Crystal smiled and said, “Then congratulations in advance to you all.”

“Crystal, don’t you even bother to ask why?” Laurie glared at her, “It seems like you don’t care about me as a friend at all.” “Ah, let me tell you, it was because of Robin!”

Crystal was taken aback. “Because of Robin? You know what Robin means here....

Laurie didn’t wait for Crystal to finish speaking and exclaimed. excitedly. “It’s because Mr. Aguilar knew that our relationship with Robin wasn’t great, that he told us we could sign the contract.”

“What does this indicate? It indicates that Robin lacks foresight and has offended the vice president of the company, Reginald!” At this moment, Miranda, who was discussing today’s signing matters with Jacob, also heard this sentence.

He approached and asked. “Are you saying that Mr. Aguilar promised. to sign with you because you dislike Robin?”—

“Yes, Ms. Brown, just now when we mentioned how much we dislike Robin, he immediately said that we could sign the contract. successfully.”

A hint of amusement flickered in Miranda's eyes as she said, "Robin, this brute, manages to offend people wherever he goes." "He didn't even think about who Mr. Aguilar was. He is the third person in the Huber Group, and Ms. Huber's classmate at Millbush Business School."

After saying that, he turned around and whispered to Jacob, "Mr. Walsh | didn't see Mr. Aguilar yesterday. Go and talk to him later, and emphasize that our relationship with Robin is very bad!"

"Okay, once they finish the morning meeting, | will go over," Jacob said proudly

Crystal hesitated for a moment and whispered to Miranda, "Miranda, you'd better not look for Mr. Aguilar. Ms. Huber values Robin so much, and if you do that, it will backfire..."

"Alright, Crystal, | know you've been getting close to Robin lately," Miranda's eyes flickered with disdain. "But, after all, Robin is just a bodyguard and a hired hand. How could he possibly be involved in signing project contracts?"

"Mr. Aguilar was the overall person in charge of reviewing this project, and his opinion was the most important."

Crystal sighed, "Miranda, Mr. Aguilar is indeed the overall person in charge of the project outsourcing qualification review, but we still need the president's signature..."

Miranda laughed and said, "Since Karina entrusted this matter to Mr. Aguilar, it shows that she had enough trust in her old classmate."

"What Mr. Aguilar agreed to, she should have just agreed to directly." "But, Robin is..." Crystal wanted to tell her that Robin is the CEO of the company.

Miranda didn't let her finish speaking and said directly, "I won't talk to you anymore. You haven't done anything and don't understand anything at all."

"You heard just now, your classmate also got Mr. Aguilar's promise because of this situation." Crystal looked at them confidently and stopped speaking.

She secretly laughed to herself.

It seems that everyone felt fortunate because they didn't get too close to Robin.

But do you know who the president is?

Did you think that by distancing yourselves from Robin, you could secure the outsourcing project of the Eastern Business District?

Haha, when you see the final result, you will know how blind you were!

Chapter 102

Chapter 102 He Has the Style of a Bandit!

Jacob waited anxiously in the corridor outside the conference hall until Reginald finally arrived.

Stepping forward briskly, Jacob respectfully said, "Hello, Mr. Aguilar. I am Jacob. My father once.

Reginald looked at Jacob and Miranda, his face darkened, and he asked. "What's wrong? Is there something going on?" Jacob was slightly taken aback, as Mr. Aguilar didn't seem very friendly towards them.

Miranda hurriedly tapped him from behind.

Jacob immediately understood and hurriedly explained, "Oh, Mr. Aguilar. we just wanted to talk to you about Robin. This guy was a fraud..."

"Oh? ... Hehe... Robin is a fraud?" Reginald chuckled, glancing at Jacob and Miranda. "Come with me to the office, let's talk." Jacob was instantly delighted and exchanged a glance with Miranda before following Reginald into the vice president's office. It seems that Laurie and Corey were not lying at all.

Reginald indeed had a strong aversion towards Robin.

When it comes to this topic, a strange glimmer flashed in his eyes.

I arrived at the vice president's office..

Reginald glanced at Jacob and Miranda, "You two can sit down. If

Chapter 102 He Has the Style of a Blandiji

there's anything, please speak up quickly. Later, I have to attend the second round of the qualification review meeting for the Eastern Business District outsourcing project cooperation contract."

"Um, weil, Mr. Aguilar, the qualifications for the outsourcing collaboration project with the Walsh family and the Brown family have already been met..." Jacob's words were cut short as Reginald's face turned gloomy.

Miranda hurriedly pulled him aside and said, "Mr. Aguilar, what we meant to tell you is that Robin was a fraud. You and Ms. Huber were classmates at Millbush Business School, so you should warn her."

Reginald's originally indifferent expression softened instantly. "Oh, I would like to know more about this matter. Please, go ahead and tell

1.me. Saying that, he opened the recording function on his phone and placed it on the table.

Jacob hesitated for a moment and said, "Mr. Aguilar, Robin is a rootless troublemaker. A few days ago, he even showed up at the Brown family's house with a twenty-year-old engagement letter, insisting that Miranda should marry him."

"This marriage proposal, whether it was real or fake, was later rejected on the spot by the Brown family and Miranda." "Later, somehow, he managed to deceive Ms. Huber and infiltrated your corporation."

"Therefore, we were afraid that Ms. Huber and your group had been deceived by this guy, so we wanted to explain Robin's situation to you."

"From what we know, this guy used to brag and boast everywhere, and he actually told our friend Crystal that Mauveglow Villa 1 was his.

Haha, it's really hilarious. " "And, he deceived Nathen from World Real Estate, but was discovered by Mr. Reynell."

"It is said that he is now secretly approaching Ms. Decker from Purpeak International Group, and it is even possible that he has already gained the trust of Ms. Decker's maid, Livia."

"This bastard arrived in Hallcester not long ago, causing trouble everywhere and deceiving the trust of many high-class individuals in Halleester. His intentions were extremely wicked!"

"Mr. Aguilar, we were concerned that the Huber Group would also be compromised and damaged by this jerk's infiltration, so we came here specifically to remind you."

Reginald chuckled, "Very well! The information you provided is crucial for us."

"Mr. Walsh, Ms. Brown, in appreciation of your reminder, regarding the collaboration project with Eastern District Development Corporation. I will consider signing the contract with you. Please wait at the signing location for good news."

After Jacob and Miranda came out of Reginald's office, the two of them happily high—fived to celebrate.

I was fortunate to have made the right bet this time!

Stepping onto the collaboration platform of the Eastern Business District project by the Huber Group, they quickly positioned themselves at the forefront of the Hallcester business community.

At 9 o'clock in the morning, the signing ceremony for the outsourcing project of the Eastern Business District by the Huber Group took place.

Reginald handed over a list of twenty approved outsourcing partners to the on-site project assistant for final confirmation. Laurie, Miranda, and others learned that their family's business was included in the official signing list and excitedly screamed.

Reginald passed by them and said meaningfully, "After you take over the project in the east of the city, make sure to do a good job. I have faith in you!"

Miranda, Jacob, Laurie, and Corey exclaimed excitedly, "Thank you, Mr. Aguilar! We will definitely not let you down!" Crystal's father, Conrad Thompson, was greatly disappointed after looking at the signed contract.

The Thompson family's strength, although much stronger than the Brown family and Pacific Realty.

However, they were not among the project collaborators at the Eastern Business District.

He understood the reasons behind it, of course.

Conrad felt unwilling and wanted to make one last effort.

He walked up to Crystal and whispered, "Crystal, your good friend. Miranda, the Brown family, signed a contract with the Huber Group for an outsourcing project, indicating that they have a good relationship with Mr. Aguilar."

"By the way, could you please tell her and help us get in touch with Mr. Aguilar? We need some outsourcing project quotas for the Thompson family."

Crystal said indifferently, "I'm not going! You and your little wife have made it clear that I shouldn't get involved in the company's affairs, so of course I won't go."

Conrad's companion, Adrienne Baldwin, snorted coldly. "The money the Thompson family earns, don't you also receive dividends every year? What difference does it make if you do something for the Thompson family?"

Crystal's face immediately changed: "The Thompson family's money? You ask your husband, whose money was it back then, the Thompson family's?"

"Without my mother investing five million as the initial capital and her diligent management, I'm afraid that certain someone would still be running around the market selling goods!"

Conrad trembled with anger and pointed at Adrienne, saying sternly, "You, can't you just keep quiet for a few moments?" Adrienne gritted her teeth and said, "Fine, I won't ask anymore! Do as you please."

Conrad watched as Adrienne angrily walked away, and sighed, "Crystal, it's precisely because this is the business your mother started from scratch that we should strive to make it bigger and better..."

Crystal gave a cold smile and said, "Don't talk such disgusting things. Over the years, how you've been messing around with that Adrienne, don't you know it yourself? She practically drained the Thompson family's money!"

"You promised my mother annual dividends, but I haven't received them for three years!" "Anyway, I wouldn't get involved in this matter!"

Conrad shook his head helplessly, "Alright, I know you have a lot of opinions about me, and I don't blame you. If you don't want to help with the EBD project, I won't force you." "Do you know why the Thompson family did not become partners of the Huber Group?"

"I told you, I heard that Mr. Aguilar dislikes this person named Robin because you have been getting close to him recently in their company."

Crystal gave a bitter smile and said, "I don't know where you heard these rumors from, it's really ridiculous!" At this moment, Reginald announced that the on-site signing procedures had been completed.

Ten minutes later, the final results will be announced, and a live meeting will be held with twenty collaborating partners for the project outsourcing.

Some units that were not selected learned that they did not win the bid and left with disappointment. Only a few second-rate families who came to try their luck were still on the scene watching. They wanted to see if they could pick up some leftovers and eventually gain a few second-level subcontracting projects.

Conrad's business has not been doing well recently, and he was eager to secure the outsourcing project from the Huber Group. He also waited at the site.

Office of the President of Eastern District Development Corporation.

Karsyn presented the final list of twenty cooperating partners, along with the contract, to Robin.

fragilan 102 He Has the Style of

At that moment, Robin was playing a game when he glanced at the thick contract. "Ms. Croft, could you take a look at this for me? Just looking at these things gives me a headache."

Karsyn nodded and said. "The outsourcing contract was drafted by Ms. Huber and the legal department's legal advisor. There is no need to review it again. The main issue is the qualification review of the twenty collaborating units, which requires your final approval, Mr. Bruce."

"Then, read it to me." Robin put down his phone, closed his eyes, and lay on the boss's chair.

"Okay, I will report to you the names of twenty units, their respective leaders, and the funding preparation status for their proposed collaborative projects.

Karsyn read out the signing status of each unit according to the report from the Sales Department.

After hearing the complete situation of the twenty units, Robin opened his eyes and said. "Remove the Walsh Group, the Brown Group, and Pacific Realty, these three."

Karsyn was taken aback by the words and said, "Okay, I will inform the Sales Department immediately." Five minutes later, Reginald received feedback from Karsyn. Twenty signing units reported by him were deleted by three, and only seventeen units signed the contract with Robin.

Reginald saw the three units that had been deleted, all of which he had personally promised, and angrily slammed the contract on the table.

"How is this possible! Ms. Croft, let me ask you, all three qualifications were sufficient, why were they deleted?" Karsyn replied, "Mr. Aguilar, Mr. Bruce said there was no reason."

Reginald instantly became furious, pounding the table and shouting. "What? What is this attitude of his! Signing such a big project contract and just deleting it without any reason! Is this a joke?"

Karsyn shrugged, "This is your iden as the boss, how would I know? Mr. Bruce said whoever has any objections can keep it to themselves!"

“What? He... he’s behaving like a bandit!” Reginald was almost going mad with anger.

If he couldn’t solve this problem, Reginald would not only lose face. within the upper echelons of the Huber Group. Soon, the entire Halleester would know about this matter!

How can he establish himself in the Huber Group if that’s the case?

How can one still survive in the Halleester business world?

How can I still win over my goddess Karina in my heart?!

No!

This matter had to be turned around!

He picked up the final comments on the contract approved by Robin and shouted at Karsyn, “I have to discuss this with Karina! A clueless fool...”

“Mr. Aguilar, please be mindful of your words and actions. After all, Mr. Bruce is still the president of our group,” Karsyn reminded. Reginald pointed at Karsyn and angrily exclaimed, “Who do you think. you are? Are you telling me what to do? Get lost!”

After saying that, he walked towards Karina’s office, holding his phone and the contract text

He wanted to show Karina all the photos about Robin that Maurice had given him.

And, the recordings of Miranda and Jacob should also be played for Karina to listen to.

Reginald was determined to drive Robin out of the Huber Group today!

Chapter 103

Chapter 103 How Dare You Investigate Robin?

Karina was talking to her father in the office at that time.

After Robin removed the Venomous Worm from his body, Camdyn's health recovered well.

Currently, he was able to get out of bed and walk alone, and also do some physical exercises to improve his physical fitness.

The father and daughter discussed the recent progress of the Eastern Business District project and the investment status of the Huber Group.

Camdyn also mentioned sympathetically about the relationship between Robin and Karina. This embarrassed Karina.

How many times did I want to express my desire to date Robin, but

Robin always seemed to deflect.

Now she couldn't figure out what Robin meant.

Camadyn told her that Ethen and Devin were preparing to host a thank- you banquet for Donovan's physical recovery over the weekend.

Grandfather Harold decided to take her along to congratulate the Finley family, making Karina ponder about buying some gifts. At that moment, Reginald stormed into Karina's office, filled with anger.

"Karina!" Reginald didn't knock on the door, he pushed it open without warning.

Karina was discussing with her father about the gift arrangements for Donovan when Reginald suddenly burst in, which made her quite displeased.

"Mr Aguilar, didn't you know to knock before entering?"

Reginald hesitated for a moment, suppressed the anger in his chest, and tried his best to say calmly, "I'm sorry, Karina..." "Didn't I say it before? Call me Ms. Huber from now on!" A coldness. flickered across Karina's face.

"Alright, Ms. Huber," Reginald took a deep breath.

“Ms. Huber, I have something important to discuss with you. It’s about the outsourcing contractor for the Eastern Business District project.”

Karina frowned slightly. “Wasn’t Mr. Bruce in charge of this matter? Go talk to him. I have something else to attend to.” “Ms. Huber, I came to you precisely because Robin messed up in this matter!” Reginald exclaimed angrily.

“After comprehensive consideration, I have selected the top twenty out of the forty qualified merchants who bid for outsourcing yesterday as our chosen long-term outsourcing partners.”

“But, after the list was given to Robin, he actually deleted three merchants! Ms. Huber, do you think what he did was too much?”

“I had already announced it at the project signing meeting, but he made this decision. Isn’t this letting outsiders see the internal management chaos of the Huber Group?”

Karina took the contract text for the outsourcing project at the Eastern Business District, glanced through it, and then placed it on the desk.

“Robin did nothing wrong in this matter.” “According to the entire signing process of the outsourcing cooperation project of the Eastern Business District, as the person who has the final decision-making power for contract approval, he had the authority to make changes and additions to the final list of cooperating merchants reported to him by the Sales Department.”

“Reginald, what do you mean? Are you saying that he shouldn’t have done this? Are you saying that no matter what we report, he has to agree?”

“What significance does Robin, the CEO, have?”

Reginald was speechless immediately.

He remained silent for a moment and said, “Ms. Huber, that’s not what I meant.”

“What I mean is, as the Vice President in charge of sales at Eastern District Development Corporation, I have already announced this list of 20 names at the signing ceremony.”

“But Robin denied my decision.”

“If the Huber Group were to present itself to the outside world, our internal differences of opinion would be apparent.” “This would make outsiders perceive that there was disharmony within. the Huber Group.”

Karina snorted, “If this matter has a negative impact on the outside. world, then the blame should also be on you!” “Reginald, don’t you understand these rules as the vice president of the group?”

“What right do you have to disclose the list of outsourced merchants without the CEO’s signed approval for the contract?”

Reginald sighed and put on a look of grievance as he said, “Ms. Huber. the 20 merchants | proposed were carefully assessed and evaluated by me.

“Robin, he didn’t understand anything and didn’t give any reasons, he just deleted these three companies directly. What does he mean by this?”

Karina glanced at the three names that had been crossed off the list. One was the Brown family, the other was the Walsh family. She smirked and said, “Even if | saw these two families, | would delete. them right away.”

“Like the Brown family and the Walsh family, I, the Huber Group, would never give them a chance!”

“Such ungrateful and treacherous people, if they are not destroyed, it would be their greatest fortune. They even dare to bid for the Huber Group, too audacious!”

Reginald’s heart skipped a beat when he heard the words spoken by Karina.

He was not sure why Karina would dislike the Brown family and the Walsh family so much.

Have they ever offended Karina?

| didn’t quite understand this point.

At this moment, Reginald suddenly felt some regret, realizing that he might have been a little careless. Karina nodded at the list, "And also, this Pacific Realty!"

"Its qualifications were barely enough for a contract collaboration. However, there are still many merchants with better conditions than them. Why did you choose such an insignificant small enterprise like them?"

"Reginald, shouldn't you have given me a reason?"

"You're really something! You even played the victim first, claiming that Robin intentionally made you wear small shoes. You truly have a petty heart!"

Reginald was at a loss for words as Karina angrily reprimanded him.

After a brief silence, Reginald turned on the voice recording on his phone. "Ms. Huber, I mean no harm. Just listen to this recording, and you'll understand why I had to bring up this matter."

Karina heard the voices of Jacob and Miranda on the recording and sneered. "Mr. Aguilar, do you also think that Robin is not worthy of the Brown family's young lady?"

"Yesterday's video, you also saw it, would someone who can be friends with Gerald and Professor Stokes stoop so low as to marry into the Brown family?"

"What is the Brown family? In Hallchester, they can almost be considered an inferior family, lacking any heritage or true core strength." "What capital does she, the Miss of the Brown family, have to look down upon Robin?"

"What Robin said is absolutely right. The cooperation share of the EBD project, there is no need for any reason to remove them. If it is necessary, it is simply ungrateful and heartless of their family, they are not worthy of cooperating with us, the Huber Group!"

Reginald never expected that the Brown family would leave such a bad impression on Karina.

Including the Walsh family and the Brown family in the outsourcing project at the Easter Business District not only failed to bring more benefits to oneself, but also diminished one's position in Karina's heart.

However, he was unwilling to accept defeat against Robin like this.

If Robin had not been driven away from the Huber Group, Karina would not have been able to be with him Reginald. So. Reginald explained, “Ms. Huber, I was not aware of the details. regarding Miranda and Robin before.”

“I admit that I didn’t do it thoughtfully enough. Let’s not discuss this matter anymore.”

“However, there is one thing that I had to tell Ms. Huber.*.

“Ms. Huber, Robin was a scammer. You may not believe it, but after you look at these photos, you will understand that I am not wrong.”

Karina furrowed her brows slightly, “Reginald, are you implying that Robin used some illegal means to deceive me?” “Reginald, stop wasting time on these boring questions!”

“In the end, it was your own inner desires that caused all the trouble! Don’t bring up this matter again in the future. I have other things to attend to and no time to listen to your nonsense.”

Reginald took out the photos from his phone and placed them in front of Karina.

“Kanna, we were classmates and good friends for many years, and I truly had no ulterior motives.” “I didn’t want you to be deceived by a scammer!”

“Thinking back now, yesterday Robin live—streamed a video to us in the conference hall, and I had some doubts if it was really him. Just think about it, how could he possibly be good friends with someone like Gerald?”

Karina wanted to remind him, could it also be fake that the Aguilar Group was on the verge of bankruptcy within a few minutes? However, she was too lazy to argue with Reginald anymore.

Karina glanced at the photos on Reginald’s phone, several of which were taken at Blue Bay Mall.

The women in the photo are Nia and Cheryl, and the other, pictures are of Cecilia's maid Livia, as well as Cecilia herself.

She said coldly, "Reginald, who gave you the authority to secretly film Robin's private life? You must give me an explanation!"

Chapter 104

Chapter 104 The Relationship Between Cecilia and Robin

Reginald did not expect that Karina had no reaction to the photos he provided.

Instead, he questioned why he had investigated Robin.

This surprised him greatly.

Didn't Karina have any alertness towards Robin's chaotic personal life. behavior in the past?

"Ms. Huber, listen to me, you misunderstood me," Reginald hurriedly. explained.

"Ms. Huber, | and you were classmates at Millbush Business School, and we knew each other long before Robin." "Why did | come to the Huber Group, don't you understand the reason?"

"After graduation, | abandoned the generous treatment offered by our family business and joined the Huber Group, with the intention of helping you build the Huber Group together."

"Also, | myself really liked you."

Karina furrowed her brows tightly and said in a cold voice, "Reginald, you're overthinking!"

"You didn't have to sacrifice your own interests to come to the Huber Group."

"In other words, the Huber Group operated just as smoothly as you did. here, and it operated very well."

“If you came to the Huber Group with this purpose, you can leave the Huber Group now. I cannot agree to your request.”

“One more thing. I want to make it clear to you that I had already found someone I like. Don’t waste your time on me, we are impossible.”

Reginald’s face turned red, feeling extremely embarrassed.

Faced with Karina’s cold words, he struggled to control the surging anger within him. In my heart, Karina, you couldn’t escape.

If I couldn’t have you, Reginald, I would destroy you first!

He took a deep breath and still showed a kind and calm expression.

“Karina, no matter how you saw me or how you treated me. I didn’t mind.”

“You should know, I genuinely treated you well. I didn’t want anyone to deceive you for some purpose and cause you even the slightest harm.”

The reason why I collected Robin’s information was because I saw that his purpose for coming to the Huber Group was impure. “Take a look at these photos, it’s not just about Robin’s personal life being chaotic anymore.”

“Such poor character, if present in the Huber Group, could potentially bring about unforeseen negative consequences!”

“I was worried that this man, who plays games in the flower bushes, would deceive you with sweet words.”

“From these behaviors, it can be seen that he resorted to any means to enter the Huber Group, which suggests that he might have ulterior motives towards you personally...”

“That’s enough!” Karina said coldly. “The matter of these photos ends here!”
“Let me tell you, I knew all the people in the photo and I knew what was going on, but I don’t need to explain it to you.”

“You go back. Ten minutes later, I will go to the site of the Eastern Business District outsourcing project signing ceremony with Robin to personally explain to all the bidding merchants. You can also come along.”

Reginald paused for a moment, did he know the woman in the photo?

And, did she also know what was going on?

What does it mean?

Reginald carefully examined Karina's expression again, but couldn't detect any trace of strangeness.

This surprised him greatly.

There was only one reason: Karina had no feelings for Robin, so naturally she was not interested in Robin's personal life. "Ms. Huber, are you suggesting that the three companies deleted by Robin can be added back?"

Karina looked at Reginald indifferently and said, "You don't need to concern yourself with this matter. You go back first, and we'll go to the signing ceremony together later." "However, I warn you, incidents like today's must stop immediately!"

"If I ever catch you using illegal means to secretly film Robin's personal life again, you will be immediately dismissed from the Huber Group!"

"Also, delete these photos immediately, including all negatives. This is for your own good!"

Reginald wanted to explain further, but Karina ignored him and he had no choice but to leave.

In the office, Karina recalled the photos on Reginald's phone earlier and a doubt arose in her mind.

Karina knew what happened to the photos of Cheryl, Nia, and Robin together at Blue Bay Mall.

However, after Robin left the Finley's house, she was clueless about the photo of her being with Livia and Cecilia.

In particular, the photo of Cecilia holding Robin's arm tightly at Purpeak Club made Karina feel very uncomfortable when she saw it.

What was the relationship between Cecilia and Robin?

How many times did she want to ask Robin about this issue?

Just every time the words were on the tip of my tongue, I didn't know how to speak up.

Because, after all, this is Robin's personal matter.

Robin, the jerk, was always careless every day, I didn't know what he was doing!

Karina muttered angrily, "Bastard! Robin, you're such a jerk! I. I will definitely teach you a lesson! Just you wait!"

If other people in the company had seen such a scene, it would have definitely blown their minds.

At this moment, Karina, the legendary and aloof Hallcester's first goddess, no longer resembled her former self.

She was exactly a resentful little woman!

However, this kind of resentment and annoyance would disappear with the wind in a moment.

Thinking back to the first time she met Robin, every experience that followed brought her much comfort.

The man who suddenly appeared in her dull and boring life brought her a lot of happiness, anticipation, and a sense of security, No matter what unpleasant things happened, as long as this man was by my side, everything was so effortless.

It seemed that nothing was a problem in front of Robin.

With these thoughts in mind, a captivating smile appeared in Karina's eyes.

Ten minutes later, Karina, Robin, and Reginald arrived at the signing hall of the Eastern District Development Corporation.

Previously, the twenty merchants who had been officially announced by Reginald to be the partners of the Eastern Business District outsourcing project for the Huber family were eagerly waiting in the lobby.

Every person's face was filled with joy and excitement. For Ed Everyone understood that these twenty outsourcing contractors had successfully signed the contract.

Once the outsourcing cooperation contract was finally established, the signed project was put into operation, and their family would quickly elevate to a higher level.

Successfully boarded the Huber Group aircraft carrier.

In the next ten to twenty years, they are highly likely to become the leading aristocrats of the Hallcester business world.

Jacob and Miranda were extremely happy.

They never thought that they were just coming to take a look and try their luck. Sure enough, they really seized such good luck!

Laurie and Corey were extremely excited.

Based on the strength of their Pacific Realty, it was simply impossible for them to compete with those first-class and second—class families.

However, Pacific Realty unexpectedly made it onto the precious list of twenty collaborating merchants of the Huber Group, all thanks to being in the right queue.

They were glad for making the right choice for themselves. Laurie walked up to Crystal and smirked, saying, "Crystal, your friend Robin was indeed a key figure." "We actually became partners of the Huber Group because of him."

"Do you know, after we expressed our disdain for Robin to Mr. Aguilar, he immediately informed us that we could become partners for the EBD outsourcing project "

“Crystal, while you were getting so close to him, the Thompson family was left behind.”

“Based on Pacific Realty’s current strength, they were significantly inferior to the Thompson family.”

“However, the Thompson family missed out on this collaborative project because of your close association with Robin. Within six months, Pacific Realty will surpass the Thompson family.”

Crystal smiled indifferently and said, “Well, congratulations to you all. However, until these contracts are officially announced, everything could still be subject to change.”

“Hahaha...” Laurie burst into laughter. “Crystal, you were so silly!”

“Reginald, the Vice President responsible for reviewing the qualifications of project partners at the Huber Group, has already announced 20 collaboration lists. Will there be any changes? Aren’t they afraid of being accused of being inconsistent? They have no integrity?”

At this moment, the host of the signing ceremony signaled for the guests in the signing hall to quiet down. Karina, Robin, and Reginald walked to the front.

Karina handed the signed contract list to Karsyn and said, “You announce it, this is the list of contracted merchants for the outsourcing project of the Eastern Business District by the Huber Group.”

Karsyn listed all the cooperating merchants that had been officially approved.

In the end, all the guests present at the scene only realized that the announced list of signed contracts consisted of only 17 merchants.

Instead of the 20 companies that Reginald mentioned before. Everyone noticed that the three families that were deleted were the Brown family, the Walsh family, and Pacific Realty.

“What’s going on?” Miranda rushed to the front and asked anxiously, “Ms. Croft, did you miss reporting a few names?”

Chapter 105

Chapter 105 The Explanation

Jacob, Laurie, and Corey also came to the front.

“Ms. Croft, could you please double-check if our names were omitted from the outsourcing contract list?” Karsyn showed the contract signing form to everyone.

“Ladies and gentlemen, a total of seventeen cooperating merchants have been prepared. Each approved cooperating merchant has a contract ready for signing placed on the signing table to the left.”

Laurie unwillingly said, “Ms. Croft, please take another look and see if Pacific Realty is on the signing list.”

“Previously. Vice President Reginald arfnounced a list of twenty companies, including Pacific Realty, that were entering the formal signing process. Why is it not there now? Isn't this deceiving?”

Karsyn nodded, “That's right, the Pacific Realty, the Brown Group, and the Walsh Group, are indeed on the list announced by Mr. Aguilar.”

“However, these lists were not the final official lists for signing.”

“The list of 20 selected today still needs to undergo our group's final- review and approval before it can officially form a partnership with our company, the Huber Group.”

“After the final approval from the President's office, three companies were deleted.” “These three companies are the Brown Group, the Walsh Group, and Pacific Realty ”

“The qualifications of the three of them did not meet the requirements for our collaboration on the outsourcing project of the Eastern Business District by the Huber Group, so a final list of 17 companies was determined.”

“After the three companies were removed, the vacant outsourcing projects were directly determined by the President's Office for their quotas.”

“Did I explain it clearly to you? If you are from Pacific Realty, you should understand why your qualifications were insufficient.”

Laurie angrily pointed at Karsyn and exclaimed, “You, the Huber Group, are deceivers, contradicting yourselves! Why is our qualification at Pacific Realty not enough? You are just making excuses!” Corey wanted to stop Laurie, but Laurie’s words had already been spoken.

Miranda was also angry and said, “This morning we had already passed the qualification review for your company, the Huber Group, and now suddenly you are telling us that our qualifications are not enough. The Huber Group needs to give me an explanation!”

Standing behind, Reginald glanced at Robin out of the corner of his eye and whispered to Karina, “Ms. Huber, did you see? What kind of negative impact does this kind of operation bring to the Huber Group?”

Karina gave him a cold stare and remained silent..

Reginald saw that Karina was not speaking and he guessed that she must have become worried upon seeing the scene in front of her.

Because all of Hallcester’s media gathered outside the signing hall. 11:491

Once this matter was spread, the Huber Group’s negative information about lack of integrity would quickly be spread in Hallcester.

This would have a highly detrimental impact on the Huber Group.

It could even cause a rapid decline in the stock of the Huber Group.

Miranda and Laurie’s words quickly silenced the scene.

Everyone in the signing hall knew that if the Huber Group could not provide a reasonable explanation.

So, the reputation of the Huber Group would soon suffer a huge loss, thereby affecting the stock market of the Huber Group. Karsyn furrowed her brow slightly and did not answer Miranda and Laurie's questions.

She fell silent for a moment and said, "I think it's best not to discuss these issues on the spot, in case..."

Karsyn had not finished speaking.

Laurie believed that the Huber Group could not explain the decision to remove three partner merchants, including Pacific Realty. She immediately exclaimed angrily, "No, I must hear the reasons why the Huber Group excluded us, otherwise it's not over!"

"If we don't get a reasonable response from you here, then we will go outside the signing hall and let all of Hallcester's media judge this issue!"

Miranda hesitated for a moment and wanted to dissuade Laurie.

Once the situation escalated, there would inevitably be losses in the end.

If it comes to a confrontation with the Huber Group, these three companies are nothing but ants.

However, Laurie at the moment was extremely excited as if she had taken a stimulant

Continuing to point at Karsyn, he questioned, "Do you, the Huber Group, give us a reasonable explanation?"

"Now I can give you two suggestions. First, include all three of our companies back into the official signing list for the EBD project."

"Secondly, if you, the Huber Group, only wanted to dismiss us in this manner, then please let Hallcester's media give us a fair treatment!"

Corey was in a state of panic when he saw Laurie bombarding Karsyn with insane questions. Even if I wanted to stop her now, it was already too late.

Karsyn saw Laurie's excited expression and nodded, "Ms. Cannon, please calm down. There was no deception regarding the contract issue with the Huber Group as a partner merchant in the Eastern Business District,"

"I would never dismiss you in an unreasonable manner, and I hope you will remain rational about this matter!" "If there is anything that you cannot understand, we can have a separate meeting after the signing ceremony." "The Huber Group would never let the merchants who sincerely cooperate with us be wronged."

"If conditions allowed, the Huber Group would provide all merchants who want to cooperate with us, the Huber Group, with more opportunities in other fields."

"No!" Laurie answered decisively

She saw Karsyn speaking to her in such a tone at that moment and guessed that the Huber Group had already felt guilty about this issue

"The Huber Group must give us an explanation. If they want to settle the matter peacefully, then they should provide us with the list of signed cooperation contracts. We will no longer pursue this matter!"

Karsyn sighed deeply and said, "Ms. Cannon, it is best to resolve everything peacefully. If you insist on acting alone and adopting such a threatening attitude, it is very likely that you yourselves will be harmed!"

With that, he looked up at Miranda and said, "Ms. Brown, do you also mean the same thing?"

Miranda didn't expect Karsyn to suddenly ask her a question and was momentarily unsure how to respond. Karsyn turned to Jacob without expression and asked, "So, Mr. Walsh, what is your opinion?"

"Ms. Croft, [...]" Jacob hesitated, of course unwilling to confront the Huber Group head-on.

He understood in his heart that it was reasonable for the Huber Group to refuse to sign a contract with them, even if they had no reason to do

1. SO.

However, once the bottom line of the Huber Group is challenged in a very intense manner, the final outcome can be easily predicted...

The Huber Group, as the No. 1 noble family in Halleester, has always presented itself with a gentle face.

However, few people knew about the terrifying methods employed by the Huber Group when they were provoked.

If they dared to provoke this formidable entity without any hesitation, the Walsh family and the Brown family would not be able to withstand the wrath of the Huber Group.

They were like ants in front of the Huber Group.

Pacific Realty is not worth mentioning either.

Jacob never expected that Laurie would dare to confront the Huber Group in such a fierce manner at this occasion. He glanced at Laurie and truly admired this woman in his heart.

Is it ignorance that breeds fearlessness, or just plain stupidity?

He pulled Miranda from behind and tried to dissuade her, "We should..."

Miranda was also considering how to find a way out of here.

However, when she saw Robin's smirked face standing next to Karina, she felt instantly annoyed.

The thing that happened today must have been Robin's doing behind the scenes!

This jerk used such a despicable trick to gain my attention and show off in front of me. Disgusting!

Alright! Robin, you jerk. Since you want to show off in front of me, let you show off to your heart's content!

I made a big fuss about this matter!

How would Karina see you if the Huber Group couldn't finish the job

on time?

After she listened to your advice, she made a mess of the Huber Group Can you still survive in the Huber Group in the future? At this point, Miranda coldly exclaimed, “Of course, we certainly need. a reasonable explanation!”

Jacob pulled her aside and said, “Miranda, calm down a bit, let’s talk about this...”

Miranda broke up with Jacob and continued, “Today, we did not. receive a satisfactory response from your company, the Huber Group. We will not give up!”

Jacob thought to himself, “Oh no, oh no, Miranda is acting just like Laurie, irrational.” Laurie saw Miranda also joining her ranks, becoming even more excited.

She turned away from Karsyn and shouted at Karina and Reginald backstage, “Mr. Aguilar, you promised us something, how could it turn out like this now? Don’t you want to say a few words about this issue?”

“Ms. Huber, it is said that your company, the Huber Group, conducts business with integrity and fairness. However, if you do not provide us with a reasonable explanation for today’s incident, then how will the Huber Group establish itself in Hallchester in the future?”

Chapter 106

Chapter 106 She’s the Clown Laurie’s sharp questioning made everyone in the signing hall sweat for Karina.

Leaving aside all factors, under this kind of coercion, if one cannot come up with a reasonable explanation, it really doesn’t hold up.

At this moment, the entire signing hall was so quiet that it was suffocating.

Corey pulled Laurie aside and whispered, “Laurie, let’s just forget it. Maybe the Huber Group is really not convenient to sign with us. Let’s choose to negotiate with them privately after the meeting. Can we not be so aggressive?"

Laurie pushed Corey away and said, "Don't try to persuade me. The Huber Group promised us that we could sign the contract for the EBD outsourcing project."

"And, Mr. Aguilar also publicly announced a list of 20 collaborating companies in front of all the participating bidding units." "Now, suddenly they tell us that we are no longer among the signatories."

"There must have been some undisclosed dark secrets among them. Today, I must demand an explanation from the Huber Group!"

The vast signing hall of the Huber Group project was so quiet that one could hear each other's heartbeat. Many people had quietly stepped back, trying to keep as much distance as possible from Laurie and Corey.

Some old aristocratic families in Hallchester knew that no one had ever dared to directly confront Ms. Huber in such a public setting.

They truly admired Laurie's courage. On the territory of the Huber Group, Karina was forced with such a disrespectful tone.

Today, if Harold were present, there would be no need to reason with her. He could make these three families disappear on the spot.

However, Karina did not handle the matter in an extreme way.

And he watched Laurie, Miranda, and others with a constant indifferent expression.

"Is that all the questions? Have you finished speaking?"

Karina took a step forward and glanced indifferently at Laurie and the others. "I can give you a reasonable explanation right now. "It's simple, the size of your three companies doesn't qualify you to collaborate with the Huber Group."

"There were no issues with the bidding, contracting, and final approval process of the outsourcing project for the Eastern Business District."

“The 20 lists previously announced by Mr. Aguilar were selected in the first round of the selection process today.” “However, this does not mean that all twenty merchants can become partners of the Huber Group’s EBD project.” “The final decision of the review is made by me!”

“You three were removed from the list of business partners, and it was my direct request.”

“This was my explanation.”

As the words fell, everyone in the signing hall turned their mocking gazes towards Laurie, Miranda, and the others. Karina had already made it clear.

Did the Huber Group not even consider them? What more explanation is needed?

The outsourcing project of the Eastern Business District was originally owned by the Huber Group.

Willingness to cooperate with you is a matter of personal relationship.

It was only natural that I didn’t want to cooperate with you.

What qualifications do you have to make others explain!

It was really ridiculous!

Moreover, there were no issues in the implementation of the entire process of the signing conference.

Even though Reginald implied that all 20 candidates could be signed before.

However, the final approval and signature by the president is a necessary step for any company.

The signing process of the outsourcing project of the Huber Group was overall unremarkable.

Laurie didn’t know what to say for a moment.

Faced with Karina's powerful aura, I instantly felt uncomfortable all over my body.

Miranda was even more nervous and embarrassed.

This blatant contempt made her shudder.

It seemed that all the eyes on the scene were filled with needle-like pricks, which made her extremely uncomfortable. The clown was actually oneself!

Begging for food in front of someone's door, and unreasonably demanding why they won't give it to you.

Even threatened to demand a reasonable explanation from the other party.

Otherwise, we would resort to using the power of the media to denounce.

This is no different from throwing a tantrum.

What the Huber Group explained to you!

Miranda only just regained consciousness at this moment.

This unreasonable way of causing trouble will only make the situation worse for oneself and the Brown Group. She really wanted to escape from here immediately.

In a daze, she caught a glimpse of Robin standing behind, boredly scrolling through his phone.

In that moment, Robin/unexpectedly glanced at her, and there was a hint of mockery in his eyes.

This scene instantly ignited the anger in her heart.

Reason was completely absent before.

106 She's the Clown

So, she took a step forward and said coldly, "Ms. Huber, by saying these words and adopting such a dominant posture, are you trying to tell everyone that the Huber Group is powerful enough to bully Hallcester, a smaller company than yours?"

Karina looked coldly at Miranda and said, "If you think that's what it means, then that's what it means! The Huber Group has this attitude towards anyone who causes trouble for no reason!"

Miranda was at a loss for words for a moment.

Faced with Karina's lofty and arrogant attitude, her heart was filled with endless anger, but she had no way to vent it. In front of Ms. Huber, all my words seemed so pale and powerless.

Miranda understood in her heart that Karina certainly had her proud capital.

It was completely normal for the Huber Group not to sign with you.

Continuing to be entangled in this matter is truly embarrassing!

Although the contract was not signed successfully, | felt frustrated in my heart, but there was nothing | could do about it. You were weak, and you had to endure the helplessness that you were extremely unwilling to bear. That's the truth! In the face of great strength, no one has the qualification to argue!

The anger that was previously provoked by Robin instantly dissipated.

She sighed quietly and prepared to turn around and leave.

At this moment, Reginald agreed and said, "Ms. Brown, the Huber Group does not accept the collaboration of your three companies. It is not Ms. Huber's decision, but Robin's request to remove you all."

Chapter 106 She's the Clown

As soon as Reginald said this, a wave of confusion swept through the crowd.

It was obvious that trouble was brewing and there was a hidden meaning behind it.

What did the vice president of the Huber Group reveal by speaking controversial words in such a situation?

There were serious disagreements within the Huber Group. Karina looked coldly at Reginald..

Reginald seemed to realize the inappropriateness and hastily explained, "Ms. Huber, I... didn't mean that. This matter wasn't for you. to handle. I meant for them not to blame you."

Laurie heard this sentence and immediately became excited: "Ms. Huber, it turns out that the management of your Huber Group was too chaotic. Just one bodyguard, Robin, could influence the final outcome of this signing event!"

"So, this signing event that your Huber Group vigorously promoted, wouldn't it be just child's play?"

"Ms. Huber, since this matter was caused by Robin, we strongly demand that he step forward and provide us with an explanation!"

As soon as Laurie uttered these words, a low murmur of discussion spread through the signing hall. "Who was Robin?" "It is said that Robin was Ms. Huber's bodyguard, and their relationship was quite extraordinary, hehe..."

"Ms. Huber's bodyguard? It's quite absurd that a small bodyguard can freely demand the removal of any contracted business partner."

Originally, after Karina appeared, the matter had already been settled.

Reginald's rhythmic statement instantly caused chaos in the crowd.

It was obvious to anyone with keen eyes that Reginald deliberately brought trouble upon Robin.

Karina furrowed her brows slightly and gave Reginald a cold, piercing gaze.

"Ms. Huber, I really didn't know this situation would arise, I didn't mean it..." Reginald explained repeatedly. Karina snorted, "Alright, I understand what you mean!"

She understood in her heart that, in this way, no matter how it was explained, this matter would have an extremely negative impact on the image of the Huber Group.

She was about to announce the end of today's signing ceremony directly and cancel the upcoming press conference.

Robin took a step forward, glanced at Miranda and Laurie, and shrugged. "You want me to give you an explanation, right? Well, I promise to meet the demands of each and every one of you!"

"Ms. Huber, how about this? Let's hold the upcoming press conference together."

Karina glanced at Robin's calm and relaxed expression, unsure of how he would handle the matter. Robin was very strong and powerful.

However, dealing with these public relations issues cannot be resolved by relying on fists and kicks. Moreover, Reginald was there on the side, fanning the flames.

In case they were caught in the whirlpool of public criticism, both Robin himself and the Huber Group would suffer significant losses.

Can he handle this kind of thing in the past? However, she did not stop Robin, without a hint of hesitation. She would not refuse any of his requests.

Even if it meant risking the entire Huber family, or even one's own reputation and life.

Chapter 107

Chapter 107 The Smile Exclusive to Robin Karina looked at Robin's tall figure, and all the previous unhappiness dissipated.

At this moment, her eyes were filled with the indifference and elegance of this man, regardless of whether he had or didn't have anything.

It seems that all disasters, sieges, and even destruction are insignificant in front of him.

After that snowy New Year's Eve, his life belonged to him alone.

Along with that long-forgotten daughter's heart, it had already gone with him.

What's this little matter in front of her? She willingly accompanied Robin to mess around. Since this man entered her life, the world in front of her has ceased to be dull and boring, everything has become colorful. Many times, she even looked forward to Robin's unique way of handling things.

Without any concerns or inhibitions, it feels great!

This was an experience she had never had in the past twenty years.

Karina looked at Robin and smiled gently.

The eyes were filled with indulgence and acquiescence.

"It's okay, no matter what you do, I support you. The Huber Group can handle it!"

This smile, tender as water, captivated the nation!

All the guests at the scene were stunned by Karina's smile.

Time seemed to freeze at this moment!

She was indeed the most beautiful woman in Halleester!

What a stunning goddess admired by many men's hearts!

Did you actually laugh at Robin?

The smile was so charming and full of tenderness.

Many men were instantly turned to mush!

Many women, on the other hand, felt ashamed and jealous.

There really is such a stunning smile in this world that can make one's heart and soul tremble! This was the first time Karina displayed her unparalleled smile in public.

And this smile was only for Robin!

Everyone at the signing venue looked at Robin.

Who on earth is this guy?

He was said to be a bodyguard for the Huber family.

How did he win Ms. Huber's heart?

Recalling Karina's words, it was even more infuriating.

Chapter 107 The Smile

He actually spoke out without any hesitation, saying that he would unconditionally support him no matter what he did. Even, he did not hesitate to use the entire Huber Group as his backing!

Based on these alone, it has already proven Robin's position in Ms. Huber's heart.

Everyone at the scene looked at Robin with a mixture of envy, jealousy, and hatred, as well as intense curiosity!

They were very curious about what exactly made Robin so special that it could make the icy and stunning beauty Karina let go of her reserve and aloofness, willingly becoming gentle and affectionate like a little woman in front of him.

Robin also laughed when he heard the words.

He really liked the way Karina handled things.

Strong but not overbearing.

Cold but not rude and arrogant.

Beneath the cold and aloof appearance, there hid a tender and affectionate heart.

"Robin, it is only now that I truly understand that you were the one causing trouble throughout the entire process of the Brown family's contract being rejected!" Miranda exclaimed, a wave of anger erupting from her chest as she witnessed Karina's attitude towards Robin.

How can the man that [, Miranda, looked down upon, receive favor from the Huber Group?

It must have been Robin who used some unsavory means, deceived the Huber Group, and deceived Karina! The finale Eachrive to Boleh Miranda's angry reprimand attracted everyone's attention.

"Robin. I knew that you rejected my marriage proposal and have been holding a grudge against me!"

"I had told you long ago, we are not on the same level, we are impossible!"

"That was reality!"

"I never expected that you would stoop so low as to use manipulative tactics to retaliate against me in this matter, targeting Ms. Huber. You are truly shameless!"

Miranda's words greatly astonished the crowd at the scene!

Robin, the bodyguard with an ambiguous relationship with Karina, surprisingly had a connection with the Miss Brown from the Brown. family in the form of an engagement.

Based on Miranda's statement, the reasons for the refusal of the cooperation contract of the Eastern Business District are already clear.

Miss Brown broke off Robin's engagement! Did Robin use means to remove the Brown family from the signing issue at the Eastern Business District because of this matter? No one had expected that at the signing ceremony today, they would witness such a melodramatic plot!

Crystal hurriedly pulled her and whispered, "Miranda, can you please save face for yourself? What's the occasion? Why are you saying these things?"

"Do you know what you were doing? You were challenging the Huber family's bottom line!"

"Crystal, don't try to persuade me!" Miranda pushed her away and continued. "I can't stand this kind of despicable man! No abilities of his own, a cowardly backstabber! Disgusting!"

Crystal sighed helplessly.

Ah, there was really no way!

Once a person becomes brain-dead, not even a hundred cows can bring them back.

Miranda, oh Miranda, do you know that you were slowly pushing yourself into an irreversible abyss?

You had a good hand of cards originally.

But, it was destroyed by your own hands!

“Robin, do you dare to explain in front of all the media why you refused to sign the contract with the Brown family?”

“Yes! Robin, you must give us a satisfactory answer, otherwise, we will expose the scandals behind you and the Huber Group in front of the media!” Laurie also shouted angrily.

Everyone in the signing hall looked at Robin. Today's farce is becoming more and more exciting.

Reginald, who ignited the war, sneered inwardly at this moment. Ha ha! Robin, today you cannot successfully explain the deletion of the partnership list. It seems that it will not end well!

He secretly glanced at Karina.

The exquisite and glamorous face had no expression on it, as it quietly looked at Miranda in front of the stage, with a hint of disdain in its eyes.

After all. | had followed my grandfather since | was young and had witnessed many wealthy young ladies from prominent families.

The scene before her was nothing to be afraid of.

Robin looked at Miranda coldly and said, “Alright, Ms. Croft, let the media reporters waiting outside in the lobby come in. Karsyn hesitated for a moment and looked at Karina.

“Do as Mr. Bruce instructed!” Karina said indifferently.

At that time, she had also made emergency preparations.

Once Robin was surrounded by these media reporters, she would activate the Huber Group's top-notch PR Department to deal with it.

If they took action, the Brown Group, Pacific Realty, and the Walsh Group would be completely destroyed.

To warn those scheming individuals in Halleester.

They dared to be insolent, and these three families were the perfect examples!

After Karsyn contacted the Security Department, a group of reporters buzzed into the signing hall outside the lobby.

They had already learned the information inside long before they were outside, and today's news was the most eye-catching revelation!

There is a mystery surrounding the relationship between Ms. Huber and bodyguard Robin. It turns out that Karina's bodyguard is a man who was rejected for marriage by the Brown family's young lady. Robin, a man with a bodyguard identity, interferes with the decision-making at the core management level of the Huber Group, and so on. They had already drafted these news contents.

After a group of reporters rushed in through the door, a female journalist from Halleester TV network news center was the first to ask a question.

"Mr. Bruce, may I ask as a bodyguard, what qualifications do you have to intervene in the management decisions of the Huber Group? Is it because, in today's signing list, there is the Brown family who refused to fulfill their engagement with you?"

Robin shrugged, "I was busy and couldn't answer your questions one by one. I will respond after all the questions from the reporters on-site have been asked."

"Mr. Bruce, were you avoiding the question? Or are you afraid to confront the matters I have asked about?" the female journalist directly interrogated.

Robin glanced coldly at the female journalist and said, "Didn't you understand what I just said?"

“If you can’t even understand this, you can leave. I won’t communicate with a woman who doesn’t understand anything.” “Next, who will continue asking questions?”

“What kind of attitude is this?” The female journalist was very displeased at the words.

On weekdays, carrying the Hallcester TV brand, wherever I went, I was always looked up to and worshipped.

This man actually dared to embarrass me in front of all the media reporters of Hallcester. How unreasonable!

Chapter 107 The Serile Exclusive to Robm

“Wait a moment, I was a reporter from Hallcester TV. My question, you must answer!”

Robin pouted and said. “There is no must in front of me, next!”

The female journalist persisted, “Wait a minute! Aren’t you afraid that I will report your way of answering questions?” “You could shut up now!” Robin said impatiently.

The scene was silent.

No one would have expected that Robin would actually embarrass this female journalist in public.

Miranda looked at Robin's reckless behavior with disdain filling her eyes.

“Robin, were you afraid to answer the questions from the reporters? Actually, I guess that most of the questions from all the media reporters on-site were these?”

Laurie also chimed in. "Yes! You better answer why you didn't sign the contract for us, or else, we will expose your dark secrets in front of all the media in Hallchester today!"

Chapter 108

Chapter 108 The Video

Reginald saw the signing hall in chaos and secretly rejoiced in his heart. This was the scene he had long anticipated. He really wanted to offend these uncrowned kings in front of the news. media.

In that case, those journalists would soon ruin and kill him!

In his eyes, Robin was just a vulgar person who had a temporary success.

As for the matter involving Professor Stokes and Gerald, Reginald still doubts it is true until now.

Including the ripple effects experienced by the Aguilar Group.

In his perception, it could all be a prearranged scam by Robin.

He believed that there was no one in the world who had the ability to make a billion-dollar company collapse within a few minutes.

Currently, he is conducting multiple investigations to determine the deceptive methods Robin used to gain Karina's trust. Once the truth behind the scenes was uncovered, he would deliver a fatal blow to Robin.

Looking at the chaotic scene in front of him, Reginald approached Karina and whispered, "Ms. Huber, we can't let Robin continue to mess around like this. I'm worried that if we let it go on like this, it will embarrass the Huber Group. What I mean is..."

Chapter 108 The Video

Karina raised her hand, signaling him to stop talking, and looked expressionlessly at the crowd of journalists on the scene. She had long prepared for this situation.

She couldn't even handle such a small situation, how could she manage the Huber Group, which has a scale of billions? Previously, Karsyn had already contacted the PR Department of the Huber Group, in case of any future needs.

If Robin really couldn't handle it anymore, she would activate the Huber Group marketing and public relations personnel to deal with the matter at any time.

She didn't care about the current matter in front of her.

Robin looked at Laurie, who was visibly angry, and said, "Since Pacific Realty is so eager to know why the Huber Group refused to sign the contract for your EBD investment project.

"So, let's start by watching a video about the operating conditions of Pacific Realty over the years!"

After saying that, he sent a video to Karsyn, saying, "Ms. Croft, open the video and play this Pacific Realty information for them to see."

Laurie and Corey didn't know what Robin wanted to do, so they looked up at the big screen in front of the signing hall.

This video was just sent to Robin by Death Mongers' Intelligence Center.

The video content was about the insider information on the operational status of Pacific Realty in recent years.

Since its establishment, Pacific Realty has been undertaking business in this city

Using money and beauty to bribe relevant department officials, they obtained the contract for high—return construction projects.

There were residential areas and commercial buildings constructed by Pacific Realty in the west, east, and central parts of Hallchester city.

Over the past decade, Pacific Realty has taken on over 15 residential communities and 4 commercial buildings, among other construction projects.

The construction of these residential areas and commercial buildings in the past was substandard in terms of labor and materials used.

Nearly half of the residential buildings in the community have started to show signs of cracking.. After conducting an investigation and gathering evidence, the professional department concluded.

The reason for the wall fractures was all due to the Pacific Realty's use of substandard materials during the initial construction phase.

In recent years, Pacific Realty has been running wild.

They repeatedly used unethical means, bribing relevant supervisors and regulatory authorities behind the scenes, to cover up their illegal activities.

So much so that in the residential communities and commercial buildings they constructed, extremely substandard construction materials were used and managed to pass inspection.

These potential risks gradually became apparent as time passed. Last year, two residential buildings in the western part of the city collapsed, resulting in the death of 40 people and over 300 people seriously injured.

According to the investigation conducted by the relevant departments, the collapse incident was still caused by the substandard construction of the building.

Despite the victims' demand for severe punishment of Pacific Realty, in the end, they managed to escape justice with their behind-the-scenes operations.

Nowadays, such chain reactions are still continuing to unfold... The video that Robin played detailed all the project data undertaken by Pacific Realty.

The recent relevant law enforcement departments have investigated, collected evidence, and issued penalty decisions and notices for rectification within a specified period of time.

The information surprised everyone in the hall.

In the signing hall, several media reporters who had previously followed the law enforcement department for on-site interviews also responded positively.

“The Huber Group, of course, refused to sign a contract with Pacific Realty for the outsourcing project of the Eastern Business District, given its poor qualifications.”

“If I hadn’t seen this report, I would have really thought that Pacific Realty was qualified to participate in the outsourcing project of the Huber Group.”

“The Huber Group rejected them, and yet they shamelessly demanded that The Huber Group provide reasons for refusing to cooperate with them. They have no shame!”

“Such unscrupulous merchants should be put in jail!”

“We strongly demand the relevant law enforcement departments in the city to firmly banish businesses like Pacific Realty, and impose heavy penalties!”

“They were committing a crime!”

The on-site reporters and a group of participating bidders all expressed strong indignation. All fingers pointed directly at Corey and Laurie, who were present at the scene.

Karina, who had been standing in the front without any expression, had a hint of a smile in her eyes at this moment. What she didn’t expect was that Robin could actually pull out this killer move.

Every time this man appeared, it would brighten her eyes.

It seems that everything that was originally prepared is useless now.

Robin looked up at Laurie and Corey, and asked indifferently, “Are you satisfied with such an explanation?” Corey had not yet realized what had happened when his phone started ringing like crazy.

He immediately opened the answer key.

On the other end of the phone was Corey’s father’s furious roar, “You bastard, where are you now?”

Chapter TOR The video

“What the hell did you do, and who the hell did you offend? You’ve caused a bloody disaster!”

“We Pacific Realty is finished!”

Corey’s head buzzed for a moment, almost causing him to fall to the ground.

At that moment, he suddenly thought of a sentence, having a bad woman by his side is a disaster!

Laurie looked around at everyone’s disdainful and angry gazes, still not understanding what was going on.

She pulled Crystal and asked, “Crystal, what’s wrong? Do they all believe Robin? Those are all fake!”

Crystal gently pulled Laurie’s hand away and sighed, “Actually, these outcomes were all caused by yourself.....

Laurie glared at Crystal and said, “What are you talking about? I don’t understand! Robin is spreading false accusations and all the information he provided is fake. None of you should believe him!”

Then, she angrily pointed at Robin and said, “You bastard, how dare you falsely accuse Pacific Realty? I’m going to sue you!” Corey slapped her in the face: “You despicable woman! You ruined us at Pacific Realty! I’ll kill you!”

Laurie was hit by Corey and her eyes were filled with stars. She shouted angrily, “Corey, you crazy person! Why did you hit me? It’s Robin who caused all this! We should hold him accountable!”

“I strangled you, you ignorant woman who doesn’t know her place!”

“Who do you think you are? What qualifications does Pacific Realty have to go against the Huber Group!”

Laurie covered her burning cheeks and looked at Corey in astonishment...

Looking around, I saw pairs of mocking eyes.

At this moment, she finally realized that she had messed up today’s matter.

After calming down, I realized that Pacific Realty, the Lawson family, they were nothing compared to the Huber Group. I actually went so far as to loudly declare that I would expose the dark secrets of the Huber Group.

Wasn't this fucking asking for trouble?

Laurie deeply regretted.

She ran to Karina, crying, and knelt down in front of her, saying, "Ms. Huber, I was wrong, I shouldn't have..." Karina coldly gestured to the security guard and had Laurie dragged out.

After a brief moment of chaos in the signing hall of the Huber Group, everyone's phones received a latest news report from Hallchester.

Several law enforcement departments in Hallchester jointly mobilized and stationed themselves at the premises of Pacific Realty to enforce the law.

At the same time, the Hallchester government issued an important instruction to thoroughly investigate and severely punish unscrupulous businesses like Pacific Realty.

Chapter 108 The Video

The people of Hallchester quickly gathered in the live broadcast room for the news report about Pacific Realty. All the comments in the live broadcast directly pointed out Pacific Realty's various despicable illegal activities. Everyone knew that Pacific Realty had really collapsed!

Miranda and Jacob were horrified when they witnessed the devastating scene of Pacific Realty collapsing in less than five minutes.

They never expected that Robin would resort to such a ruthless move against Pacific Realty.

Next, Robin had to figure out how to deal with the Walsh family and the Brown family, as he could pretty much anticipate their actions.

If Robin hadn't had a wealth of information in his hands, how could he have been so confident standing in front of the stage? And actively requested all media reporters from Hallcester to enter the signing hall on site.

At this moment, they realized from their impulse.

Getting hold of any incriminating evidence was a piece of cake for the PR Department of the Huber Group.

Neither the Walsh family nor the Brown family dared to claim. themselves as completely innocent.

At this point, Miranda thought of pleading for mercy, so that the Brown Group would not suffer the same fate as Pacific Realty. However, faced with Robin's cold and arrogant gaze, she was unwilling to speak up.

Chapter TOR The Video

This jerk was just pretending to be tough under Karina's protection.

How could | lower my head in front of him?

| was so angry!

Miranda wished she could slap Robin's proud and cold face right now.

A loser with no background or foundation, he was just a thug by Karina's side.

What qualifications do you have to act so superior in front of me?

Even if you uncovered some irregularities in the Brown family's operations, so what!

The Brown family would only have suffered a partial loss of profits in the near future!

Even if | were dead, | would never bow down in front of a man like you!

|, Miranda, ultimately want to become a queen-like woman like Cecilia!

If today, because of this matter, | were to bow my head in front of a loser like you, it would be a stain on my entire life, Miranda!

Just as she was torn by intense conflict in her heart, Robin said coldly, “The issue with Pacific Realty has been explained. Which company should I explain first, yours or theirs?”

Chapter 109

Chapter 109 You're Despicable! As soon as Robin said this, everyone in the signing hall turned their attention to Jacob and Miranda.

They all wanted to see how Miranda, the Miss of the Brown family who used to despise Robin, would face the current awkward situation.

Despite rumors, Robin was nothing more than a trusted bodyguard to Karina. However, based on the current situation at the scene today, Robin still holds a high position in the Huber Group.

Obviously, it was Robin's intention to remove the Brown Group from the list of signed contracts that the Huber Group refused to cooperate with.

At this moment, faced with Robin's cold questioning, Miranda's expression changed constantly.

She glared at Robin fiercely and said, “Robin, you are so despicable!”

“Do you think that by doing this, you can prove your strength in front of me?”

“You were wrong! I told you, no matter how you behaved, I would never be interested in you!”

“Do you have the same ability as Mr. Walsh? No matter how hard you try, you are just a brute thug.”

Jacob pulled Miranda's arm and whispered, “Miranda, stop talking. Let's go.”

I've Despicable!

Miranda shrugged him off, “Why didn't I say?”

“Would this despicable person dare to confront me on this issue, as they only know how to use cunning tactics behind my back?” “He didn't dare, all his intentions were to prove his strength to me!”

Robin looked at Miranda's angry expression, as if it was such a disgraceful thing to be associated with him, Robin. He chuckled, "It doesn't matter, Ms. Brown. Whether you like me or not has nothing to do with the contract signed today." "Moreover, I didn't even take the divorce seriously, but you are still holding a grudge, which is quite boring."

There came a burst of low laughter from the signing hall.

Anyone could see that Ms. Huber liked Robin very much.

Although Miranda could be described as talented and beautiful, she pales in comparison to Karina.

It seems that Miss Brown from the Brown family thought too highly of herself.

Jacob looked around at the strange glances and quickly whispered a word of caution.

He knew that it was not the right time to argue about these things.

If Robin really revealed some of their dark secrets.

The fate of the Walsh family would not be much better than Pacific Realty.

He didn't wait for Miranda to continue speaking and hurriedly said,

"Robin, the Huber Group refused to sign a contract with us, which is understandable. We won't investigate the reasons for the rejection. anymore. Let's just leave it at that and go now."

Miranda, however, persisted stubbornly, "Jacob, don't go! We haven't done anything illegal or disorderly. What difference does it make if he exposes those data? I don't believe he can twist the truth!"

Jacob really wanted to slap Miranda in the face at that moment.

Which company doesn't have any stain now that is doing business?

If it was really all earned through honest means, how could one accumulate so much wealth in such a short period of time? The reality of Pacific Realty's collapse was right before our eyes.

Are they going to follow in the footsteps of Pacific Realty?

Jacob shook his head helplessly and said, "Alright, Miranda, you keep fighting. I have something to attend to immediately. If you want to stay and play, go ahead!"

He turned around and walked away after saying that.

A crowd of media reporters blocked Jacob and asked, "Mr. Walsh, why were you unwilling to continue demanding an explanation from the Huber Group?"

Jacob waved his hand and said, "Whether the Huber Group wants to sign with us or not, that's their business."

"After their review, it was determined that our qualifications were not sufficient. The Walsh Group will continue to strive, and there is nothing to be held accountable for."

Miranda still wanted to continue targeting Robin, but Crystal pulled her aside and said, "Miranda, stop being stubborn. It's really not worth it." Miranda pushed her away, saying, "No, I just want to ask him what he really wants to do."

"Fine." Robin said indifferently. "I will now continue explaining why the Huber Group did not sign a contract with the Brown Group."

The detailed information of the Brown family was instantly displayed on the big screen video.

Currently, the Brown Group's financial chain has severely broken, with bank loans overdue for as long as two years.

The four banks are now preparing to terminate all previous bank loan contracts with the Brown family.

And, they were prepared to ask the Brown family to repay all bank loans at once.

Based on the current data analysis, even if the Brown family sold 80% of their assets, they would still be unable to repay.

If they couldn't quickly supplement funds, the Brown family would face the possibility of bankruptcy.

The current financial and operational situation of the Brown family cannot guarantee normal cooperation with the Huber Group.

Their qualifications were simply not enough to meet the standards for signing the outsourcing cooperation project with the Eastern Business District.

The data previously reported to the Huber Group was false!

Upon seeing this, everyone exclaimed in surprise.

Originally, the Brown Group, despite its massive appearance, was on the verge of bankruptcy due to significant losses. How could such a situation meet the standards for collaborating with the Huber Group?

At that moment, everyone looked at Miranda with ridicule.

“I don’t know where this woman got the confidence from, insisting on the Huber Group giving her an explanation.” “Ignorance of oneself leads only to self-inflicted humiliation, hehe...”

Just as Robin was about to continue announcing the second situation of the Brown family.

Crystal stood up hastily and said, “Robin, let’s put an end to this matter. Just this one point is enough to prove that the Brown Group is not qualified to participate in the project collaboration at the Eastern Business District.”

“Miranda said that they had given up and no longer demanded an explanation from the Huber Group. Robin, please don’t continue, okay?”

In Crystal’s words, there was a strong plea.

Everyone in the signing hall looked at Crystal.

“Isn’t this the Miss of the Thompson family? How could she plead for Miranda?” “It is said that the two of them were best friends.”

“It seemed like there were rumors that Ms. Thompson had a good

Chapter 100 Visum Daspicat relationship with Robin..."

"Would Robin agree to Ms. Thompson's request?"

Robin paused for a moment and said, "Alright."

A crowd of journalists quickly surrounded.

"Ms. Brown, could you please explain what happened with that paper marriage proposal between you and Robin back then? Why did you reject him?"

Miranda gritted her teeth and said, "We were not on the same level! How could I be attracted to a uncultured brute who couldn't even hold a decent conversation!"

"Ms. Brown, it is said that Mr. Bruce was a key member of the management team at the Huber Group, not the low-level brute as you claimed."

"And, how did he meet Ms. Huber? Do you know all these things?"

Miranda was extremely angry and pushed away the crowd of reporters. "Get out of here! I have no obligation to answer your questions!"

Having said that, he fled away.

"Miranda, wait!" Crystal called out as she saw Miranda running towards the hallway, wanting to chase after her. Robin called out to her, "Ms. Thompson, please wait!"

The noisy signing hall suddenly fell silent.

"As far as I know, the Thompson family had all the qualifications to collaborate with the Huber Group, and they were also among the bidders."

Chapter 109 You're Despicable

"If you are willing, the remaining three outsourcing projects will be assigned to the Thompson family." Crystal immediately stopped in her tracks and turned to look at Robin.

She had intended to refuse, but Conrad suddenly stood up.

He never dreamed that he would actually receive such a huge unexpected surprise!

“Mr. Bruce, I am Conrad, the chairman of the Thompson Group. Crystal is my daughter.”

“Did I hear it correctly just now? Are you saying to hand over the three development projects of the Huber Group to the Thompson family to manage?”

Robin looked at Conrad and then looked at Crystal. “That’s right, that’s what I mean,” he said.

“I have reviewed the bidding documents of your company, the Thompson Group, and your qualifications fully meet the requirements.”

“Can we entrust all three projects to you for development and management, Ms. Huber?” Karina nodded. Conrad was so excited that he almost jumped up.

“Thank you, Mr. Bruce. Thank you, Ms. Huber! I will immediately have the group’s finance department provide you with our financial status report.”

“Don’t worry, our funds were very abundant, and the Thompson family could easily afford these three projects, and they were guaranteed to be of high quality!” Robin looked at Crystal and pointed at her, “Ms. Thompson, then you will sign this contract.”

Conrad was stunned.

Robin did not ask him to sign the contract for the EBD project, but instead asked his daughter Crystal to sign it. “Mr. Bruce, Crystal was not involved in the operation of the group.....

Robin frowned slightly, “Well, fine then. I take back what I just said, the Thompson family can do as they please!”

Chapter 110 Is She Jealous?

Con ad felt a sudden chill in his heart.

Did you just give away the baby you just got?

Was it just an illusion?

“Uh. Mr. Bruce, please wait a moment, I didn’t mean it that way,” Conrad hurriedly caught up and stood in front of Robin. “Then, according to Mr. Bruce’s suggestion, let Crystal sign the contract.”

Conrad dared not show the slightest reluctance at this moment, otherwise, the Thompson family would get nothing. Since Robin requested it this way, let’s sign first and then discuss.

No matter who signed, after all, it was the Thompson family who got these three outsourcing projects.

Crystal had long been marginalized outside the core management of the Thompson Group.

Even if she signed the project contract, she still had to hand it over to him and Adrienne in the end.

Robin gave a cold smile and said, “The Thompson Group holds 60% of the shares, with Crystal as the legal representative. Of course, she is the one who signs contracts and manages. What does it matter if unrelated people sign contracts?”

Conrad’s companion. Adrienne. snorted coldly. “So what!”

Chapter 110 is the Jealous

Conrad hurriedly stopped her.

Turning to Crystal, “Crystal, you represented the Thompson family to sign the contract...”

“I couldn’t sign!” Crystal said coldly.

Confused looks were cast towards the scene.

Rumors had it that Ms. Thompson and Conrad's young wife did not get along, and it turned out to be true.

Such a great opportunity, Ms. Thompson unexpectedly refused to sign, it seems that there is still a significant gap between them. Conrad angrily said, "Crystal, sign the contract first and then we can discuss any demands when we get back, okay?" "Hehe, let's talk about it later? I have nothing to say to you!" Crystal turned around and walked away.

Adrienne stood in front of her, "You ignorant fool, just like your dead mother..."

"Smack!" Crystal slapped Adrienne across the face. "If you dare to insult my mother's name again, I will kill you!" Adrienne went crazy and grabbed Crystal.

At that moment, a big hand tightly grabbed her wrist and threw her out.

Adrienne looked up and saw Robin standing in front of Crystal, saying, "Don't act wild here!"

"Ah! What gives you the right to stop me? Ms. Brown was right, you're just a lowly loser.." Adrienne got up from the ground and charged towards Robin in a frenzy.

Robin grabbed Adrienne's wrist and said coldly, "Conrad, if you don't take care of your woman. I will discipline her for you! Conrad didn't expect this situation to happen, and immediately took a step forward, slapping Adrienne in the face. "Sorry, Mr. Bruce."

"What? You hit me? I'll fight you!" Adrienne charged towards Conrad like a mad person.

"That's enough! What do you think I am, the Huber Group?" Karina stepped forward and said coldly.

Adrienne immediately stopped and pointed at Robin, shouting, "Ms. Huber, he... he.

Karina gave Adrienne a cold glance and said, "Go away!"

Conrad immediately said, "I'm sorry, Ms. Huber, I will pull her out right away."

With that, he dragged Adrienne out of the hall.

"Sorry, Ms. Huber..." Crystal stepped forward with an apologetic expression.

Karina looked at Robin, then looked at Crystal. "It's okay, you're Mr. Bruce's friend, I won't mind. We have three projects outsourced to the east of the city, I'll keep them for you, you can come and sign the contract anytime."

"Alright, let's call it a day for today's signing ceremony."

With that, he smiled and gestured to Robin, "Let's go, let's go back."

116

Robin wanted to say a few words to Crystal.

Karina pulled him and said, "Let's go, let's handle the things behind us again."

Robin hadn't come to his senses yet, and was almost being dragged by Karina towards the elevator. "Ah, why did you leave so quickly?"

Karsyn followed closely behind, covering her mouth and giggling secretly.

Karina entered the elevator, her face frosty and she remained silent.

Robin looked at Karina's cold expression and asked, "What's wrong with you? Is it because I gave the three outsourcing projects to the Thompson family? They haven't even signed yet, right? I won't give it to them in the future, so stop being so petty!"

Karina angrily glared at him and said. "Ms. Thompson was very beautiful." "Huh?" Robin was taken aback. "What do you mean?"

Karina looked at Robin's confused face and a hint of a smirk flashed in her eyes.

"Recently, you have been getting close to Ms. Thompson. Are you trying to give her these three projects as a favor, in order to win her favor?"

Karsyn was very surprised. Karina, are you jealous?

Robin glanced at Karina and said, “What are you talking about? Should I go and please her? This woman is actually very annoying, always buzzing around me like a mosquito, constantly nagging in my ear. It’s so irritating.”

A hint of amusement flashed in Karina’s eyes.

I arrived at Karina’s office.

Karina made Robin sit across from her and stared at him for a while. Robin felt his heart race as he was being watched.

Before, when he was being stared at by a pack of wolves in the Bronia jungle, he didn’t feel as uncomfortable as he does now being stared at by Karina.

He checked himself everywhere.

“What are you looking at? What’s wrong with me? Why are you staring at me like that?” Karina’s cheeks turned red as she let out a soft hum, “Were you with Cecilia yesterday?” “Yes, she invited me to have a meal at Purpeak Club,” Robin answered directly.

“Hmm?” Robin paused for a moment. “How did you know that Cecilia and I were together?” Karina pouted and didn’t answer Robin’s question, “Why did she invite you for dinner?”

Robin knew that it must have been Reginald who was talking nonsense in front of Karina, holding the photo Maurice had given him.

Robin looked up at Karina, who was holding a glass of water, and said seriously, “She is my maid, is it not normal for her to invite me to dinner?”

“Gulu!” Karina almost choked on her water, looking at Robin’s serious expression, she covered her mouth and burst into laughter.

“You said that Cecilia, who is known as the Purpeak Queen, was your maid, hehehe...”

“Thump!”

“Ah. I went!”

Robin almost slipped off the seat, the woman's laughter was so enchanting that his bones turned to jelly.

"Cecilia was my maid, what's so unusual about that?" Robin looked confused, glancing at Karina who was laughing uncontrollably.

"Fine, she was your maid," Karina's delicate face was flushed with a tinge of crimson. After calming down for a moment, Karina glanced at Robin and casually asked, "Did you stay at Grace Apartments yesterday?" "Yeah, what's up?" Robin said casually.

"Oh..." Karina paused for a moment. "I'll give you two houses and a property in Afterglow Estates. You can stay there when you're not busy. It's not too far away, and the conditions there will be better."

"...sometimes, when I am busy at work, I would stay there until late."

"I used to go there on weekends... If you were to stay there, I... I would buy some groceries and cook for myself..." The blush on Karina's cheeks instantly spread to her neck.

Robin looked down at his phone and nodded directly, "Okay."

Karina was stunned for a while, grumbling in annoyance, and slammed the table, "What's so interesting about the phone!" "Oops!" Robin's phone slipped out of his hand and fell to the ground. Karina covered her mouth and laughed. "Did you hear what I said?"

"I heard. You buy groceries and cook by yourself? Can... can it be caten?" Robin looked at Karina's appearance, which was as delicate as a hibiscus flower, and found it hard to imagine that she could make a meal that was edible.

"I didn't want to cook a pot of chicken shit to eat." Karina was annoyed and said, "You underestimate me too much. This weekend, let's go to work together, and I will cook for you!" "Let's see if I could make a delicious meal!"

Robin hesitated for a moment and, judging by Ms. Huber's posture, realized that he couldn't refuse to eat the meal she had prepared. He reluctantly nodded and said, "Alright."

“Alright, you go ahead and get busy,” Karina said happily.

After Robin left, Karina immediately called for Karsyn.

“Ms. Croft, you immediately help me hire a top chef to teach me how to cook!”

“Ah? Ms. Huber, you want to learn how to cook?” Karsyn asked, puzzled.

“What's wrong? Can't I learn how to cook?” Karina snorted, “Stop talking nonsense and find someone immediately! No matter how much it costs, the condition is that they teach me! There are only a few days left until the weekend!”

herten 110 le The Jealous?

The square opposite the office building of Eastern District Development Corporation.

Sky Café.

Miranda was frantically answering phone calls from relatives and shareholders in her family.

The shareholders questioned her about what had happened to the Brown Group to end up like this.

Several banks in Hallcester initiated the procedure to terminate the loan contract with the Brown Group earlier this morning...

Miranda looked at Jacob sitting across from her and said, “Mr. Walsh, please reach out to Reginald again and see if the Huber Group could take over our South City plot.”

Jacob sighed and said, “We were just like that earlier, how can we go find them again?”

Miranda furrowed her brow and said, “If I don't get rid of the land in the south of the city that I currently hold, the Brown Group will be a real problem.”

“Mr. Walsh, I realized today that Reginald, Robin, and Karina were not together.”

“We approached him for a discussion, perhaps Reginald could buy our southern plot at a lower price?”

“We almost transferred the land to them regardless of cost.”

“I think he should know that acquiring the south city plot at such a price would definitely not result in any losses.” “If the market conditions had changed, perhaps there could have been a big profit...”

Jacob pondered for a while, “Well, we have no choice but to go this way. I’m just worried about what happened at the Huber Group earlier...”

Miranda gritted her teeth and said, “I know, it’s all Robin’s fault for causing trouble behind our backs. Otherwise, we wouldn’t be in such an awkward situation. I absolutely hate him now!”

“However, I also noticed a detail, Mr. Aguilar and Robin seemed to have a bit of a contradiction.” “Perhaps, Mr. Aguilar, considering this issue, could take over the land in the southern part of the city from us.” “Mr. Walsh, shall we go and talk to Mr. Aguilar? There really is not other way.”

Crystal looked at Miranda’s troubled expression and agreed, “Jacob, why don’t you go and have a look? Perhaps they would be willing to take over the South City plot?”

“Alright, I guess I have no choice.” Jacob sighed helplessly.

Chapter 111 Glory Edifice

The most central area of the southern plot of Hallcester City.

There stood a Glory Edifice that had been half-built and abandoned.

From a distance, the grandeur of this over 100-meter tall building had already begun to reveal itself.

Even amidst the chaotic abandoned construction sites and the desolate scenery of long-term neglect, it is difficult to conceal the former prosperity it had when it was first built.

A gust of cold wind blew, and the empty and magnificent building emitted a mournful and desolate moan. It seemed to be lamenting its own half-life of desolate fate.

A burly middle-aged man sat on the ground, gazing up at the sorrowful scene of the building in front of him. He took a deep breath of cigarette smoke, allowing the thick fumes to envelop his face, filled with a sense of unwillingness.

Today should have been the last day for him to be chased by the bank for a loan of billions. If unable to repay the huge loans from two banks.

The builder of Glory Edifice, Freddie Strickland, who has been running Glory Group for nearly twenty years, will collapse with a bang.

From then on, he personally shouldered heavy debts and struggled in the endless abyss of indebtedness with humiliation. Chapter 111 Glory Edifice

Three years ago, the Glory Edifice in the southern part of the city was his most proud masterpiece.

Starting at the age of twenty, I started from scratch and worked hard for more than ten years before finally achieving success. Because the Hallchester city south plot connects the most developed area in the southeast of Londraland, Dimburgh.

A few years ago, there was a widespread rumor that the Hallchester government planned to vigorously develop the southern area of the city.

We were preparing to develop this area into the largest commercial center in Hallchester. Several real estate developers with substantial capital quickly identified this area after receiving the news.

They went everywhere to seek investments and borrow from banks, preparing to make a big move in the southern part of the city. They planned to establish shopping malls and a business center here.

Freddie was one of them.

Three years ago, he gambled his entire fortune of ten billion and borrowed one hundred billion from the bank to build the Glory Edifice.

Freddie at that time was full of passion.

He planned to build this building into a landmark-style shopping mall. with a height of 380 meters, and named it Glory Edifice. The total investment was estimated at 13 billion.

This kind of gamble caused a sensation in Hallcester at that time.

Freddie at that time was full of passion.

He planned to build this building into a landmark-style shopping mall with a height of 380 meters, and named it Glory Edifice. The total investment was estimated at 13 billion.

This kind of gamble caused a sensation in Hallcester at that time.

Chapter 111 Glory Edifice

Many real estate tycoons in Hallcester once admired Freddie's courage.

However, there were also some people who were sweating over his gambler—like investment.

After all, the official development investment document from the municipal government had not been issued yet.

If Freddie had won this bet, he would have instantly transformed from a third-rate estate into the second-tier aristocracy, just below the Huber family and the Reynell family.

However, Freddie never received the official document from the city government in the end. This billion-dollar gamble came to an abrupt end halfway through last year!

When the Glory Edifice reached a height of 100 meters, the Hallcester government delivered a fatal message that the development of the southern city plot would be temporarily halted.

In recent years, the municipal government has focused on investing in City East.

It is the commercial and amusement area project of the Eastern Business District, which was invested by the four major families including the Huber Group.

As soon as this news spread.

Many capital giants in Hallcester, who invested in building towers and commercial streets in the southern part of the city, immediately lost confidence.

They withdrew their investments one after another.

Chapter 111 Glory Edifice

This situation directly led to Freddie's severe financial chain rupture.

Glory Edifice also became the largest abandoned building ever invested in and with the largest scale in the history of Hallchester. Over the next year and a half, Freddie faced severe financial shortages.

Had to borrow money everywhere, even resorting to borrowing at high interest rates to build the Glory Edifice.

Barry from Demon's Lair also invested a majority of the funds and lent them to Freddie in the form of a high-interest loan.

It was simply impossible to construct a nearly 400—meter landmark- style building with the enormous interest and debt.

Freddie, unable to bear it any longer, had no choice but to resort to self-amputation for healing.

The city government applied multiple times to auction off the construction rights of Glory Edifice, but each auction ended in failure with no bids.

again borrowed money

In desperation, Freddie once from various sources, hoping to transform Glory Edifice into a 200—meter tall building with a direct roof.

At least, this way it can be sold at a low price to realize and repay the huge debt owed. However, he couldn't get a single penny of investment even after seeking help from his brothers and sisters. No capital investor was willing to invest funds into Glory Edifice.

Everyone knows that it was difficult for the municipal government to initiate development on the southern plot in a short period of time.

Investing funds here is no different from throwing them down the drain.

Freddie found himself in a state of extreme distress from then on.

He needed a large amount of funds to circulate.

Over the past year, he sold all his profitable assets in order to establish Glory Edifice. Unfortunately, Glory Edifice couldn't be built in just one day.

The industries he sold could only repay a portion of the huge interest. and high loans.

The two banks that had loaned money to his family, after multiple unsuccessful attempts to collect the payment, also initiated the procedure to reclaim the loan in advance.

Today was the final repayment deadline for both banks.

If the loan borrowed from the bank for the construction of Glory Edifice could not be repaid to the bank. So, not only would Glory Edifice be taken over by the bank today.

Moreover, Freddie personally faced the risk of being sued due to his massive debts..

In the past few months, the tragedy of Freddie and Glory Edifice in the Hallcester real estate industry has been widely circulated with great sadness.

Three years ago, he participated in a high-stakes gamble, which also became the biggest joke in the Hallcester real estate industry.

Everyone concluded that Freddie was really finished this time.

Chapter 111 Glory d

With only one day left. how could he possibly retrieve nearly billions of capital and return it to the bank? Under such circumstances, no investor would be willing to guarantee. and invest in him.

Freddie, this strong man, found himself trapped in an unsolvable deadlock.

Unless a miracle happened today.

Looking at the Glory Edifice in front of him, Freddie shed tears of despair.

This building was cherished and loved like its own child, carrying all of its expectations.

However, Freddie, including everyone, did not know.

Wait for three more days, and he and Glory Edifice will be able to turn the corner.

Because the municipal government had already decided to announce an explosive piece of information three days later.

In the next ten years after this year, the municipal government will focus on developing the southern area of the city.

If the bank loan could be postponed for another three to five days, Freddie would be the biggest winner in the Hallcester real estate industry.

However, fate played a huge joke on him!

Just three days before Freddie could turn the tables, he was about to fall tragically...

Chapter 111 Glory Edifice

Except for Robin, no one in Hallcester knew that the southern plot of land would become a capital gathering place in three days. At this moment, Freddie looked at his beloved masterpiece, tears streaming down his face.

It is said that men do not easily shed tears, but it is only because they have not reached the point of sadness. Freddie knew that today his once grand dreams would turn to ashes. and never come again.

He let out a long howl to the sky, shouting out the endless despair in his heart.

Perhaps, this was the price I paid for taking a gamble.

If we had waited for three more days, everything would have been completely different.

However, there are no “ifs” in this world.

Three days is a distance that is impossible to reach, even for a billionaire and a pauper.

Sitting under the Glory Edifice, Freddie finished a whole box of cigarettes.

When he remembered the time when Glory Edifice was being built, even when he was sitting at home, people would come to him for investment.

But now, even if it was only 100 dollars, no one is willing to invest in Glory Edifice.

Did I really come to the end by myself today?

111 Glory Face

Freddie looked around hopelessly and saw nothing but the half-built Glory Edifice and a desolate landscape. Suddenly, he saw a news on his phone.

The Reynell family faced investment obstacles, while the Huber Group successfully made a significant mark in the Eastern Business District.

Upon reading this news, Freddie immediately became excited.

Did the Reynell family from World Real Estate face obstacles in their investment in the east of the city?

If they were willing to invest in continuing the construction of Glory Edifice, perhaps they could still turn the tide. They only needed to invest another 5 billion.

Glory Edifice would become a landmark building in the southern part of the city.

Even though the municipal government will not invest in the southern part of the city in the near future.

However, with the Glory Edifice and the partially constructed commercial street, it was possible to create a prosperous southern business district!

At that time, Glory Edifice would quickly become a hot commodity.

Thinking of this, Freddie tidied up his messy hair and drove towards the office building of World Real Estate. He wanted to make one final move for himself and Glory Edifice.

No matter how the outcome was, one must make an effort once.

Chapter 111 Glory Edifice

If the Reynell family of World Real Estate could be persuaded to invest in the south of the city, there might still be a glimmer of hope.

The Reynell family had a vast amount of wealth, and if they had a long-term vision, Freddie believed that he could convince them.

In that case, Glory Edifice could be resurrected again!

Chapter 112

Chapter 112 A Dead End

Freddie arrived at World Real Estate at the fastest speed.

Entering the lobby of the office building of World Real Estate, | briefly explained the situation to the receptionist. After being informed by the receptionist, Nathen directly agreed to have a talk with Freddie in his office. Freddie didn't expect it to go so smoothly.

He was overjoyed.

From Nathen's perspective, perhaps the Reynell Group could really take on Glory Edifice.

It is said that the eldest son of the Reynell family, Nathen, had extraordinary vision.

The rapid rise of the Reynell family in recent years was all his doing.

Today, it seems that the reputation is indeed well-deserved.

As long as the Reynell family could take over Glory Edifice, Freddie could barely survive!

As for how to cooperate specifically, that is another matter.

Freddie was willing to either directly purchase or invest funds in cooperation with the Reynell family. As long as the Reynell family was honest enough.

No matter which way, he could at least get back 10 billion from the

Chapter 112 A Dead End

Glory Edifice, which cost nearly 20 billion in his hands.

If so, the matter of repaying the bank loan today could be resolved smoothly.

As long as this matter was resolved, Freddie would be able to free himself from this burdensome debt. Even if one has nothing, at least there is still a chance for a comeback.

It would be even more ideal if the Reynell family were willing to entrust Glory Edifice to him for management through investment cooperation.

In this case, several years later, Freddie would be able to turn the tables on the Glory Edifice project.

Freddie thought about the possible scenarios all the way, and with the guidance of the receptionist, he arrived at Nathen's office. Nathen is currently hosting the business of World Real Estate.

Owen was not at the company.

Freddie quickly met Nathen, and Melvin was also here at the time.

They were discussing matters related to the land plot in the southern part of the city.

The Reynell family also held an investment project worth nearly 3 billion in the southern part of the city.

Currently, they are also troubled by this matter.

Based on the current capital size of the Reynell family, outsiders would assume that the Reynell family had abundant funds. Chapter 112 A Dead End

In fact, the business invested by the Reynell family was too large, to the point that the funds were extremely tight.

Nathen could certainly tell.

If the landmark—style building, Glory Edifice, could be constructed and operated successfully.

The southern plot of land, with the addition of a large amount of capital operation, is likely to be revitalized within three to five years.

So, their investment of 3 billion by the Reynell family would also have brought in nearly tens of billions in returns in a short period of time.

The two of them were discussing whether to sell or continue operating the houses in southern part of the city. At this time, Freddie found World Real Estate.

After seeing Freddie, Nathen straightforwardly asked, “Did Mr. Strickland come today to talk to me about Glory Edifice? It’s okay, the Reynell family can accept it.”

Freddie, upon hearing the words, was overwhelmed with excitement and didn’t know what to do. | didn’t expect that, when | was on the verge of despair, | could still find a way out. “Thank you, Mr. Reynell! Thank you!”

Nathen gestured for him to sit down and said indifferently, “Glory Edifice and its surrounding commercial area, | know you have invested nearly 20 billion in the past three years, but given the current situation, whoever is willing to take over this money would be a fool.”

“I took over because | felt sorry for you, considering it as doing you a favor.”

“Two billion! If you are willing to sell Glory Edifice, we have a deal. If not, then you can leave!” Freddie immediately stood up.

He never expected that Nathen would offer a price of two billion.

Two hundred million, not even enough to cover the money he used to buy the land back then. Just the plots around Glory Edifice alone were worth nearly 500 million.

Nathen actually wanted to take away Glory Edifice with just two hundred million, it’s simply a joke.

“Mr. Reynell, your price is way too outrageous. In fact, | invested more than 20 billion in Glory Edifice initially. I'm not asking for more from you, just give me 10 billion and I'll hand over Glory Edifice and the surrounding commercial street to you.”

Nathen laughed heartily “Freddie, what were you thinking?”

“Do you think I'm crazy? | still want to sell the 3 billion square meters of land in the southern part of the city in my hands, and now you're telling me to buy your Glory Edifice for 10 billion.”

“This unfinished building is nothing but a pile of waste in my hands!”

“Alright, two hundred million. If you accept, sign the contract, take the money and leave. If you don't accept, then you can go back.”

“Whoever took over that place, it would rot in their hands. Without ten Chapter 112 A Dead End years of capital occupation, there would be no possibility of improvement at all.”

“The Reynell family was unwilling to invest this money in the southern city plot. | put 10 billion in the Eastern Business District, and within three to five years, it doubled. Why should | take on your risk?”

“Mr. Strickland, it's not that | want to put you in a difficult position, but | really can't accept it. If you insist on your idea, then you can leave.”

Freddie shook his head bitterly, “Mr. Reynell, this is indeed too little.”

“I received news that the municipal government is likely to announce the development of the southern part of the city in the near future.”

“Don't underestimate Glory Edifice, even though it is currently only built to a height of over one hundred meters, it will definitely bring you abundant profits in the future.”

“And, the Reynell family of World Real Estate is well-funded. | believe that if we invest a portion of our capital into Glory Edifice, now, we will definitely be able to earn greater profits in the future.”

“| now only ask for half the price, 10 billion, from you. It's really not much.”

“Mr. Reynell, you just help me out, even if it means pitying me, by providing this money, you will definitely make a profitable investment in the future.”

Freddie pleaded desperately.

Nathen snorted and said, “If it’s a guaranteed profitable business, why would you sell it to me?” “Freddie, you were so kind-hearted, watching big money slip away?!”

Chapter 112 A Dead End

Freddie took a step forward and pleaded, “Mr. Reynell, if it weren’t for me having to repay the bank loan today, do you think I would be willing to sell?”

“This is my blood and sweat. Glory Edifice is something I have painstakingly built over the course of three years.” “Despite the hardships along the way, I still believe that Glory Edifice would have earned significant profits until today.” “It has been piling up in my hands for over a year now, and I have invested all of my this year’s industries into it as well.”

“I currently owe the bank loan principal and interest of less than one billion dollars. If I am unable to repay, they will seize all of my assets.”

“At that time, not only was my property taken back by them, but also my wife, children, and parents were left homeless.”

“So that’s why I sold it to you at a low price, in order to repay today’s bank loan. Mr. Reynell, even if I beg you, will you agree?” Freddie was also a figure in the real estate industry in Hallchester.

Pushed to this point, he had no choice but to humbly beg Nathen.

Nathen looked at Freddie’s pitiful appearance and knew that he had reached the edge of the cliff.

“Freddie, stop it! I never mix business with emotions.”

“Do you want me to take over your mess with 10 billion? Let me tell you your mess with 10 billion? Let me tell you, I, Nathen, am not that foolish!”

Freddie continued pleading, “Mr. Reynell, you must have some insider information from the city government. Based on the current economic development and forecasts, the southern plot of land is definitely going to be developed."

"Dimburgh was an economic zone, and if Hallcester wanted to develop, it would inevitably develop the southern part of the city." "So, there was definitely a huge business opportunity there."

"If I had enough money, I would be willing to continue building Glory Edifice, even if it took another three to five years."

"Mr. Reynell, please, can you consider taking on the 10 billion?"

Nathen snorted, "Freddie, can your financial capacity compare to the Reynell family?"

"The municipal government was preparing to vigorously develop the southern area of the city, I didn't even know about it, would you know?"

"Don't deceive me anymore. Do you think I would believe that the municipal government is planning to develop the land in the southern part of the city?"

"I see that you are pitiful. I can give you an additional fifty million, making it two hundred and fifty million. If you are willing to sell, take the money and sign the contract. If you don't want to sell, then you can leave!"

Freddie pleaded desperately, but still couldn't get Nathen to buy Glory Edifice for 10 billion dollars. He wasn't even willing to offer 5 billion, and Freddie knew he had reached his limit.

"Nathen, it was rumored that you were refined and had a unique perspective, and you graduated from the MBA program at a world- renowned university's business school."

"But you were so short-sighted. I invested 20 billion, but you only gave me two billion. Being a person, you shouldn't only focus on immediate benefits!"

"Are you trying to teach me a lesson?" Nathen said coldly. "Freddie, get out of here right now!"

“Let me tell you, even if you were cheaper, the Reynell family would never accept that pile of rubbish from Glory Edifice. I’m not that foolish, so just go away!”

Freddie shook his head bitterly and said, “Well, today I truly got to know Mr. Reynell. Only time will tell what lies ahead for us!”

Nathen watched Freddie’s back and sneered, “What a loser! I never cared about your Glory Edifice! The land in the south of the city is just a dead end!”

After leaving the office building of World Real Estate, Freddie let out a long sigh.

Rumors had it that Nathen came from a prestigious school, and moreover, he single-handedly built up and strengthened the Reynell family.

I saw this person today, that’s all! Did I really reach a dead end today, Freddie?

At this moment, he suddenly remembered the rumors of Nathen’s disagreement with the Huber Group at the Eastern Business District.

If I went to the Huber Group, would they take over my land in the southern part of the city?

Eastern District Development Corporation.

Chapter 112 A Dead End

Jacob, Miranda, and Crystal arrived at the lobby of the corporate building.

I met Robin coming out of the Security Department.

Crystal asked Miranda and Jacob to go to Reginald’s place first to discuss the matter of the southern city plot.

She herself then walked over to Robin.

“Robin, I’m sorry, you were too aware of some internal matters in our family, so I couldn’t accept your kindness at that time.”

Robin shrugged, “I didn’t care. There were three vacancies at the Eastern Business District, and I just did a favor at the time. If you didn’t want it, that’s fine. Why are you coming now?”

Crystal sighed, “Jacob and Miranda, their families were currently facing financial difficulties.”

“They each held in their hands a piece of land in the southern part of the city worth ten billion dollars. Now, this piece of land has become a hot potato.”

“They came over to see if the Huber Group could take on these two plots of land.”

“You said they had the southern land in their hands?” Robin exclaimed in surprise.

Crystal looked at the gleam in Robin’s eyes and nodded, “Yes, Miranda currently needs money, so she wants to cash it out.” “The piece of land in the south of the city, which was purchased for ten billion dollars back then.”

“They are now willing to sell at half price to the Huber Group, |

Chapter 112 A Dead End

wonder if Ms. Huber is willing to take over?”

Chapter 113

Chapter 113 Robin Still Likes Miranda “Miranda and Jacob had a plot of land in the southern part of the city. are you sure?” Robin shook his head as he looked at the backs of Miranda and Jacob.

On that day at the Finley’s house, we received some news that the city government would announce the start of investment and development of the southern area in three days.

At that time, the southern area of the city would quickly become a gathering place for hot money from capital. If Miranda and Jacob knew this information.

Now, they would rather die than sell their land at a low price.

Crystal gave Robin a disdainful look and said, "Why would I make up nonsense with you about this matter?"

"Miranda and the others came over now, just wanting to talk to Reginald about this matter and see if they could persuade Ms. Huber to take on the South City plot."

Robin laughed with great interest.

Crystal shook her head, "Of course, I know, this matter is very unlikely. I reckon Reginald wouldn't agree."

"One thing is that the Huber Group simply did not value this investment."

"Furthermore, the southern plot of land was already a money-losing

Chapter 113 Robin Still Likes Meanda mess, and no one was willing to take it over."

Robin shrugged, "Since you knew it would turn out like this, why did you still come?"

"Didn't I tell you last time, Miranda's family situation is very complicated now," Crystal sighed.

"Miranda's grandfather has returned from abroad. The old man's condition is very poor, and it is said that his illness is incurable. The doctor has determined that he can live for at most another six months."

"The relatives and shareholders of the Brown family learned about this and all wanted to compete for the management rights of the Brown Group. They were very dissatisfied with the old man's decision to hand over the Brown family's business to Miranda."

"Yesterday, at City East, her irrationality further plunged the already struggling Brown Group enterprise into a more difficult situation."

"Because of this matter, the relatives and shareholders of the Brown family were causing a commotion."

“They brought up the investment in the southern part of the city again, besides this matter, and pressured Miranda to give them an explanation.”

Robin shrugged, “She brought this upon herself.”

Crystal smiled helplessly and said, “Yes. The South City plot, initially, it was Miranda who, after listening to Jacob’s persuasion, decided to invest 1 billion dollars from the Brown Group into it.”

“Now relatives and shareholders are confronting her together.”

“If Miranda couldn’t resolve the issue with the South City plot now, they would join forces to pressure the old man to kick Miranda out of Chapter 113 Robin Still Lakes Miranda the core management team of the Brown Group and hand over the control of operations.”

“Furthermore, in the past few days, the Brown Group’s loan for the South City plot has expired, and the bank has issued a notice. demanding repayment of the loan.”

“If Miranda fails to come up with 500 million to repay the bank loan in the past few days, the Brown Group is likely to get involved in a debt dispute.”

“Once trapped in such a situation, the Brown Group would trigger a chain reaction, causing all industries to collapse.” “The scene at today’s signing ceremony has already dealt a huge blow to the Brown Group.” “If news of further defaulting on bank loans were to be exposed, the Brown family would likely be finished.”

“In fact, the shareholders of the Brown family were capable of continuing to provide funds and stabilizing the situation of the Brown Group.”

“But they were unwilling to do so, they wanted to regain control of Miranda’s business through the incident at the South City plot.”

“The southern plot has become the most challenging issue for Miranda at present. Without delivering it, she will find it difficult to stay at the Brown Group any longer.”

"You may not have known, but Miranda had a lofty temperament, and her dream was to become a woman like Cecilia. Naturally, she was unwilling to withdraw from the core operations of the Brown Group."

"Therefore, she wanted to sell the land in the southern part of the city at half price to repay the bank loan." Chapter 113 Robin Shill Likes Miranda

"As long as the Brown Group's situation could be stabilized, her relatives and shareholders would not make any excessive moves for the time being."

"After all, the old man doted on Miranda the most, so there wasn't much of a problem, and those relatives and shareholders couldn't touch her." While Robin and Crystal were talking, Freddie hurriedly walked in from outside the hall.

Over the years, the Thompson family had many dealings with Freddie, and Crystal and Freddie were also familiar with each other.

"Ms. Thompson, hello. I have something to do, so I'll leave first," Freddie said as he hurriedly greeted Crystal standing in the lobby and quickly walked towards the front desk.

Crystal looked at the weary Freddie rushing into the elevator and sighed.

"Robin, do you know who he is? He is Freddie, the contractor of the Glory Edifice project in the southern part of the city." "Three years ago, he was a big shot in the Hallcester real estate.

industry, known as the gambler of Hallcester real estate, because of the Glory Edifice in the southern part of the city."

"Over the past three years, he sold all the industries he had painstakingly built over nearly twenty years. In addition to private financing and bank loans, he utilized nearly 20 billion dollars, all of which was invested in Glory Edifice and its affiliated business sectors."

Robin glanced at Freddie's tall and slightly hunched figure, a twitch at the corner of his mouth. Chapter 111 Robin Still Like Mranda. Crystal sighed with regret and said, "Robin, do you know about the Glory Edifice in the southern part of the city?"

“It was not just a building, but the surrounding commercial area, commercial street, and investment mall were all part of an integrated industry. This sector almost occupied half of the commercial area in the southern part of the city.”

“These regions are now in Freddie's hands, which used to be his grand dream of gambling.” “However, his luck was very bad.”

“The rumored document about the municipal government's plan to develop and invest in the southern part of the city has not been released for the past three years.”

“In the end, the municipal government's investment was tilted towards the city east.”

“Recent news has been circulating as rumors, Freddie has reached a point of desperation, and there is no one willing to take over his Glory Edifice business district.”

“Today, he arrived at the Eastern District Development Corporation of the Huber Group, presumably for the Glory Edifice project in the southern part of the city, and wanted to ask Ms. Huber for help.”

“Do you mean Freddie wanted the Huber Group to take over his Glory Edifice business sector?” Robin asked thoughtfully. Crystal nodded, “Yes, I think so. Although he had no business dealings with Ms. Huber.” “But, he had a lot of dealings with Reginald in the past in business, I wonder if Mr. Aguilar would help him with this matter.”

Chapter 113 Robin Still Likes Miranda

“Even if Reginald agreed, Ms. Huber would not have accepted it...” “How much cash can you take out of your hand?” Crystal was saying when Robin abruptly asked. Crystal was taken aback, “What do you mean? Robin, are you asking me to invest the money in the South City plot?”

“If that's the case, then forget it. I don't have that much capital now, even if I have shares of the Cox Group in my hands, I can't liquidate them immediately.”

“Even with the addition of shares from the Thompson Group, I still cannot afford Glory Edifice.”

“Besides, I wasn’t that foolish. I knew very well that the land in the southern part of the city was a dump. Why would I invest my money there? I am not a philanthropist.”

“I sympathized with them, but it didn’t mean I had to help them.” “Moreover, how could I possibly use this money? It was all left to me by my mother back then.”

Robin pouted, “Look at how nervous you are, I never asked you to buy Freddie’s property. Your money is simply not enough, unless the Huber Group can help.”

“What I mean is, if you want to play some capital games and make your cash appreciate quickly, you can buy some land plots in the southern part of the city...”

Crystal looked at Robin in astonishment and said, “What on earth are you saying? Are you playing a prank on me? I would never buy the land in the south of the city.”

Robin shrugged, “Don’t believe it if you don’t want to! I’m telling you, the land in the south of the city would definitely appreciate.”

Chapter 113 Robin 5115 Likes Mugnda

“At least you could take over the plot in Miranda’s hands, and even Jacob’s plot.”

“Robin, what are you joking about? The two families combined have ten billion, and I don’t have that much cash on hand.” Robin took out two cards and handed them to Crystal.

“There is a total of five to six hundred million in these two cards. If you trust me, bring out all the cash you have in your hands.” “I guessed that Reginald wouldn’t accept the southern plot of land from Miranda and Jacob.”

“You used this money to buy all the plots in their hands.”

"Ah? Robin, what do you mean?" Crystal looked at the two bank cards. in astonishment and said, "Are you serious or just kidding?"

"The southern plot of land used to be a wasteland. Are you crazy to spend so much money buying it?" Robin paused for a moment, unable to explain the reasons to her. "Just do as I say, I'm not joking." After saying that, he walked towards the elevator.

Crystal was stunned for a while, watching Robin's figure, thinking to herself, "So, everything Miranda said was true! Robin really still likes Miranda!"

Chapter 114

Chapter 114 Not a Penny Less! Crystal stomped her foot and chased after Robin quickly.

"Robin, I know that deep down, you were still thinking about Miranda, huh? If you still liked her, why didn't you just say it directly? Hypocrite!"

Robin paused for a moment and said, "Are you out of your mind? Why would I think about her when I have nothing to do?"

"Isn't it just about asking you to invest in a piece of land in the southern part of the city? Why do you have to think so much? Let me tell you, I'm not so bored to think about a crazy woman."

After saying that, he stepped into the elevator.

Crystal looked at Robin's indifferent look and probably knew he wasn't lying. A smirk appeared at the corner of her mouth, and she followed him inside.

Madeline and Blanca were also in the elevator. "Hello, Ms. Thompson," Madeline smiled and waved at Crystal. Then she turned to Robin, her cheeks turning red. "Robin, what a coincidence to meet you again."

"What do you mean, we meet again! He clearly followed me on purpose, how boring!" Blanca glanced at Robin disdainfully and said.

Robin ignored her and took out her phone, opening the news about Freddie in the southern part of the city.

Chapter 114 Not a Penny Less!

The headlines of several online media outlets today were almost all about Freddie and the Southern District.

The most concerning information is that Freddie is currently being pursued by multiple creditors and has reached a dead end. Freddie owed a huge debt because of Glory Edifice.

Currently, the bank has initiated the procedure for early repayment of the loan.

Today was the final deadline for Freddie to repay the loan.

There was also one more fatal problem.

Previously, Barry borrowed from loan sharks, and currently the accumulated amount, including both principal and interest, has reached 2 billion.

If this payment cannot be repaid, Freddie will not only face the issue of being sued and having his assets seized.

It was very likely to die under the swords of those desperados in Demons Lair.

Crystal looked at Robin's expression at that moment and almost burst out laughing.

She didn't understand Blanca, why she always thought that Robin was pursuing her.

Blanca saw that Robin ignored her and coldly snorted, "I'm telling you, you move out immediately and don't live across from me!" "Are you a man with strange habits? You chase after me every day, flaunting yourself in front of me. Is it amusing?"

Chapter 114 Not a Penny Less!

"I hated you the most, you sleazy man!"

"Listen carefully, from now on, you are not allowed to track me anymore! If you continue to follow me, I will call the police!"

Robin looked up and glanced at the infuriated Blanca, "Sister, you are really seriously ill!"

“With your looks like that, do you really think I would take a second look at you? Go away, buzzing around like a fly, how annoying!”

“Who...who did you say is the eldest sister?” Blanca angrily pointed at Robin, her face turning red with annoyance..

Crystal was taken aback, covering her mouth as she secretly chuckled, trying to smooth things over by saying, “Alright, alright, Ms. Perry, you may have misunderstood. Robin didn’t mean what you think....

Blanca became even angrier, and her voice increased by a few decibels compared to before.

“What misunderstanding? He approached me just to get my attention!”

“Ascheme was set up from the very beginning when I started helping Madeline.”

“Later, he found out that we were applying at Eastern District Development Corporation, and somehow he ended up coming here too!”

“I don’t know how he found out that we live in Grace Apartments, but he actually moved there too, and moreover, he lives right across from us.”

“Where in the world are there so many coincidences? He deliberately approached me, just to capture my heart!” Chapter 114 Not a Penny Less!

Crystal heard this and was speechless.

“Ms. Perry, who looked more beautiful between the two of us when we were together?”

“Or perhaps, what social class do you belong to? Can you compare yourself to me?”

Blanca immediately shut her mouth and looked up at Crystal.

I wanted to get angry, but the words were on the tip of my tongue and then I held them back.

Crystal was half a head taller than Blanca, and she looked down at her with lowered eyebrows, smiling as she said, “Blanca, between the two of us, guess who Robin likes? Is it someone like me, with a charming and alluring personality, or is it someone like you, who is just ordinary?"

Blanca froze, her face turning red, and she remained silent for a while. without uttering a word.

Crystal chuckled lightly and turned around, linking her arm with Robin who was still looking at the news on his phone. She whispered, "Did you really fall for someone?"

Robin glanced at her, said nothing, and walked out of the elevator directly.

After getting off the elevator, Crystal covered her mouth and started laughing.

"Hahaha... | was laughing so hard!"

"Robin, just now you didn't see the look in Blanca's eyes, it was as if she was looking at you like a pervert." Chapter 114 Not a Penny Less!

"Ah, did you really harass that innocent little girl?"

"Harassing you? That woman is sick, don't you know?"

"Every time she saw me, she would say that | wanted to pursue her Which eye of hers saw that | liked her?" "This kind of woman not becoming a scriptwriter novelist is a big loss."

"Hahaha..." Crystal couldn't stop laughing as she looked at Robin's innocent expression.

At this moment. Jacob and Miranda walked out of Reginald's office with their heads hanging low, and they happened to run into Robin and Crystal.

Crystal stopped laughing and looked at Miranda's gloomy expression. She approached and asked, "Miranda, how did the conversation go? What did Mr. Aguilar say?"

Miranda sighed and said, "No chance! Mr. Aguilar said the Huber Group didn't even consider this small investment."

"Moreover, the southern plot of land had already turned into garbage, and even if the Huber Group had no shortage of money, they would not spend one billion to buy the southern plot of land in my and Jacob's hands."

“Ah, Crystal, it seems like | was really in trouble.”

Crystal looked at Robin, paused for a moment, and asked Miranda, “How much are you planning to sell the southern plot for?” Miranda shook her head bitterly, “Back then, when we bought the land in the south of the city, the cost was less than five billion.” Chapter 114 Not a Penny Less!

“Although some investment has been made in the past two years, the current market situation cannot be described by these.” “Now we just wanted to recoup the cost price, that's all.”

“If we cannot sell the land in the southern part of the city today, there will be no way to repay the bank loan. | will really have to borrow money and go into debt to repay the bank loan.”

“This is a problem, and what's important is that the relatives and shareholders at home will use this matter to cause trouble in front of my grandfather.”

Robin looked at Miranda and asked, “Did you bring the information. about the land plot in the southern part of the city?” Miranda was taken aback for a moment, she hadn't expected Robin to ask her about this matter. She hummed lightly and said, “What does it matter to you whether | brought the documents or not?”

Crystal hurriedly explained, “No, Miranda, Robin means that he still has some money and wants to buy the South City plot from you.”

Miranda and Jacob were both stunned. “What did you say?”

Miranda was stunned for a while, first with astonishment, and then her eyes were filled with complete disdain.

“I know, you had several billion in your hands. Did you buy these plots from me just to make me think highly of you?” At this point, Miranda paused for a moment and coldly said, “It can't be that simple, can it? Tell me, what are your conditions?” “However, one thing you remember, since | have already divorced, | have no connection with you, nor with the Bruce family!"

Robin smiled indifferently, "Miranda, I hope you won't keep mentioning the engagement in the future."

"From the moment the Brown family refused to accept the marriage proposal, we became strangers."

"You kept bringing up this matter repeatedly, which was meaningless."

"Regarding the land in the southern part of the city, whether you are willing to sell or not, isn't it just a matter of a piece of land? It doesn't have so much significance!"

Miranda fluttered her eyelids and looked into Robin's eyes, "Do you really have no conditions?"

Robin said indifferently, "Ms. Brown, you are overestimating yourself. With your appearance. With your appearance, I wouldn't go to great lengths to impress you."

"You!" Miranda wanted to curse in anger. Crystal hurriedly tried to dissuade, "Alright, Miranda, Robin is not as complicated as you think."

Crystal pondered for a moment and turned to Robin, "Were you really not joking just now? Are you really going to buy the south plot of land in Miranda?"

"That's right! However, she seems unwilling to sell to us. Should we beg her to sell? If she doesn't want to, then forget it," Robin said, bypassing them and heading towards the office.

Miranda saw Robin really leaving and hurriedly said, "Alright, if you really want to buy it, you must pay in cash. I won't do installment payments or credit. Five billion, not a penny less!"

Chapter 114 Not a Penny Less!

After saying that, he couldn't help but look at Robin contemptuously and asked, "Can you come up with so much money?*

Chapter 115

Chapter 115 His Last Chance

Crystal didn't wait for Robin to speak and waved two bank cards in front of Miranda. "These are Robin's cards, there are five to six billion inside."

"Miranda, if you were truly willing to make the deal, we can now proceed to check and complete the formalities for a direct transfer."

Robin looked at Crystal and said, "Alright, you help me handle this matter. I will just sign my name on the transfer contract when the time comes."

After speaking, he walked straight to the office. "Ah, well... Robin..."

Jacob saw Miranda really sold the land in the southern part of the city and chased after Robin, saying, "Robin, I also have a land in the southern part of the city. Let's see if you can buy it together."

Robin stopped in his tracks and looked at Jacob with interest. He chuckled lightly and said, "Buy it, why not? Don't you guys know? The land in the southern part of the city will double in value soon!"

Miranda sneered in her mind, "Only a fool like you would believe that!"

Jacob also secretly sneered, "Robin, you're just a damn fool! The land in the southern part of the city will double in value soon. You're just deceiving yourself!"

However, on the surface, he still pretended to be extremely agreeable, "Yes, yes, yes, if I wasn't in a hurry to retrieve the funds and repay

Barry's high-interest loan, I would never have sold the southern land in my hands."

"South of the city, land prices are about to rise. Are you selling to me now without regrets?" Robin casually opened his phone's voice recorder, scanning Miranda and Jacob.

Miranda snorted. "Robin, do you think I would be like you, who has never seen money? Since I, Miranda, sold the land in the south of the city, no matter how much money I sold it for, I will not regret it!"

Robin smirked and said, “If a few days later, it suddenly surged to fifteen billion, twenty billion, or even higher in value, wouldn't you regret it?”

Miranda angrily said. “It's just a small amount of money! Look at you, so inexperienced! If I were to back out, I would be no better than an animal. Are you satisfied now?”

Robin shrugged, “Alright, I believe it. What about you, Jacob?”

Jacob eagerly said, “Of course, since something has been sold, no matter the price, I will never regret it. This is the minimum rule, just like Miranda said, if I go back on my word, I am a beast!”

“Alright! The land in the southern part of the city that you have in your hands, is it for sale?” Robin's lips curled up slightly as he spoke.

“Four billion?” Jacob's smile suddenly faded from his face. “Miranda's plot is the same as mine, so why is mine only worth four billion?”

“You don't accept this price, huh? Well, forget it then. I won't buy it!” Robin said, turning around and leaving. Jacob was very unwilling in his heart.

Robin was a complete jerk!

Cut off one billion directly!

However, the southern plot in hand cannot be sold now.

The longer it is delayed, the less valuable it becomes, and even in the end, no one wants it for a penny.

So, gritting his teeth, he said, “Wait a minute, Robin, four billion is four billion. I'll sell!”

“Great! Deal!” Robin turned around and glanced at Crystal. “If you add some more money, buy Mr. Walsh's plot of land. If you're not confident, consider it as lending it to me.”

Crystal hesitated for a moment, then said, “Alright, let's go and handle the transfer procedures.” Left Eastern District Development Corporation with Jacob and Miranda.

Robin turned off the recording on his phone.

He knew that three days later, the price of the land in the southern part of the city would skyrocket, increasing tenfold or even several dozen times. Many hot money capitals would scramble to gather in this area. At that time, Miranda and Jacob would definitely regret seeing their land plots increase so many times in value.

It would be better to keep some tricks up our sleeves for these scoundrels and villains, so as to avoid wasting too much breath when the time comes.

After Crystal and the others left, Robin came face to face with Freddie, who was walking out of Reginald's office.

Seeing his dejected look, | knew he must have also hit a wall with Reginald.

Freddie was filled with despair, stumbling and muttering to himself, "I, Freddie, have truly reached the end of days!"

"Ah! There's no way, it's fate, it's fate! The heavens won't give me a way out, even if | try my best, time will still slip away in vain!" "Meeting me, it's not necessarily!" Robin stood in front of Freddie, giving a faint smile.

Freddie looked up at Robin and asked, "Who... who are you?"

Robin chuckled, "I am Robin, are you Mr. Freddie from Glory Edifice?"

"Robin?" Freddie thought for a while but couldn't remember what this young man in front of him did.

Robin surveyed Freddie's crimson eyes and asked, "I heard you had the Glory Edifice project in your hands, along with many other commercial sectors?"

"Yes, what do you mean?" Freddie's eyes lit up, as if he had grasped a lifeline in the midst of despairing waters.

Then, the glimmer of hope in the eyes dimmed again.

Because the person in front of me was too young.

Even if he was an executive of the Huber Group, he would not have had the authority to operate with 10 billion in funds.

“Come with me to the office, and let’s talk about the Glory Edifice matter,” Robin signaled Freddie to walk towards the innermost Office.

Freddie was confused. He didn’t know Robin and, looking at this young new face, he felt doubtful.

Is Karina the newly hired assistant?

However, the person sitting in that office, guided by Robin to its location, should have had a higher position than Reginald. It seems that this young person was indeed Karina’s assistant.

Freddie followed Robin nervously all the way to the front of the office door, and looked up to see the word “President” written on the office sign.

It was indeed Karina’s office!

The extinguished flame of hope that Freddie had just shattered, ignited once again.

However, as soon as he thought about the price Nathen had given, his heart sank again.

Does Karina want to bargain?

Alas, it has come to this. Let’s see what happens next, anyway, I am already at my wit’s end! Walking into the office, the environment here was much more impressive than Reginald’s office. However, after entering the office, Karina was not seen.

Freddie had never had any dealings with Karina.

I only had a few encounters with Karina’s father, Camdyn, about seven or eight years ago. “Take a seat.” Robin pointed to the sofa, gesturing for the nervous Freddie to sit down and talk.

“How long will it take for Ms. Huber to come back?” Freddie glanced at the time, realizing that he had just over three hours left to repay his bank loan. This negotiation should have been his last chance to possibly revive. "Ms. Huber? Ms. Huber won't be coming back today," Robin said indifferently. "Tell me about the situation at Glory Edifice."

"You? Mr. Bruce, I'm sorry, but I have to ask, can you really handle such a big matter on your own?" Freddie's hope, which had just ignited upon hearing that Karina wouldn't be coming back today, quickly faded away.

"Isn't it just a matter of one or two hundred billion? Do you think as the President of Eastern District Development Corporation, I can't make decisions?" Robin chuckled lightly, "If you don't want to discuss it, then forget it."

"Ah? You... you are the president of Eastern District Development Corporation?" Freddie took a moment to come back to his senses.

The fact that the Huber family was able to entrust their most core industry to this young person in front of them clearly indicated that he was a heavyweight figure in the Huber family.

He quickly stood up and tightly held Robin's hand, saying, "I apologize, Mr. Bruce, I was rude just now, I didn't know..."

Robin gestured for him to sit down. "No worries, I've heard a bit about your situation. Tell me, how do you plan to handle Glory Edifice and the surrounding industries?"

Freddie couldn't be bothered anymore at that moment and revealed the whole truth about the situation.

"Mr. Bruce, to be honest with you, I invested nearly 20 billion in the industrial development of the southern area." "Due to numerous investors withdrawing their funding midway, I am now on the brink of bankruptcy."

"Today was the deadline for me to repay the bank loan, and, moreover, I owed Demon's Lair nearly 2 billion, Barry held my wife and children hostage there."

“If I couldn’t repay them today, not only would the bank seize all of my assets, but Barry and his gang would also kill our entire family!”

“In total, I needed 10 billion now to get through this difficult situation! Mr. Bruce, I beg you...”

Freddie stood up, wanting to kneel down to Robin, but was stopped by a hand. “No worries, I will tell Ms. Huber that the Huber Group has accepted!”

At that moment, Freddie’s phone rang. It was a call from Barry.

He tremblingly opened the answer button, before he could speak, Barry’s voice came through, “Freddie, I can’t pay you back today, you know, what will happen to your wife and daughter!”

The cries of Freddie’s wife and daughter came through the phone.

Robin frowned and pointed at Freddie, “Give me your phone!”

Chapter 116

Chapter 116 His Savior

Freddie looked at Robin, hesitated for a while, thinking that he had misheard. Robin reached out his hand, indicating for him to pass the phone over. Freddie had just confirmed that the words he had heard earlier were true.

Freddie fearfully covered the microphone and whispered, “Mr. Bruce, the person on the other side is Barry, Mr. Lambert’s second-in- command.”

“I know,” Robin nodded, “You wanted me to take over your Glory Edifice, right?”

“How can you continue to build the Glory Edifice without resolving these messy problems?”

Barry’s phone call came in suddenly.

Freddie was momentarily flustered and did not understand what Robin meant by taking over Glory Edifice. At that moment, he snapped back to reality and trembled all over with excitement upon hearing Robin's words. Freddie knew that today he might have really met a savior.

He hurriedly handed the phone to Robin.

Robin said indifferently, "Barry, how much money does Freddie owe you?"

Barry on the other end of the phone was startled by the sudden sound.

How could Freddie be with this old man?

At one point, it was unclear about the relationship between Robin and Freddie.

"Mr. Bruce? Um... Previously, Freddie borrowed 10 billion from me and took nearly half a year. Including interest, he now owes our Demon's Lair 20 billion."

"I knew it," Robin said indifferently.

"Don't pursue this money for now, release his wife and daughter first. | am taking ng over Glory Edifice now, and he will repay you this money in a week."

Barry on the other end of the phone heard Robin's words and felt like dying at that moment.

Could Robin take over Glory Edifice? Can he ask for the money again?

"Release him immediately, do you hear me?"

"Yes! Yes, Mr. Bruce, | will release the person immediately!" Barry didn't dare to say a word of refusal.

"Mr. Bruce, | personally will escort them home, ensuring that no one dares to harm even a single hair on them."

"Freddie borrowed money from us for Demon's Lair, and he only needs to repay the principal, no interest required. He can repay whenever he wants, or even not repay at all. | will explain this matter to Mr. Lambert."

Robin coldly said, "Debts must be repaid, it's only fair! You won't be short of a single penny from the 20 billion!" Chapter 116 His Savior

"Yes, yes, Mr. Bruce, I will follow your arrangements," Barry immediately replied.

He thought to himself, "Sir, whatever you say is what it is, money can never be more important than life!" Robin threw the phone to Freddie.

Freddie seemed to have experienced a dreamlike moment.

I thought I had reached a dead end today.

Not only oneself, but even the wife and children would also be doomed to eternal destruction. Unexpectedly, the young man in front of him miraculously helped him. resolve it!

If it weren't for meeting Robin, even if I had passed the bank's test.

Barry's gang of outlaws would not give up easily either.

His ultimate fate was definitely a complete destruction of his family and himself.

At this moment, Robin appeared before him like a god, and a phone call pulled him up from the abyss. Barry actually let go of his wife and daughter.

"Give a call to your wife and daughter to make sure they are safe, and then we can talk," Robin said, pointing to the phone as he noticed. Freddie's terrified expression.

"Otherwise, if you were worried sick, you wouldn't have the mindset to continue discussing the matter of Glory Edifice." Chapter 116 H

116 His Savior

Freddie nodded and tremblingly dialed his wife's phone number.

After video chatting with his wife and daughter, Barry was completely. certain that he had indeed released them. Moreover, Barry personally drove them home and repeatedly apologized to the mother and daughter.

Freddie was greatly shocked by such a result.

Apart from Conway, there was no one else in Hallcester who could make Barry obey without question.

Who exactly was Robin?

Freddie looked up in awe at Robin.

So young, not only sat in the position of President of Eastern District Development Corporation.

Moreover, it could make Barry, who is also known as Barry, show such respect and obedience towards him!

He carefully scrutinized the young man in front of him.

Freddie knew that he had met Robin today and he was truly saved!

He took a long breath and felt as if half of the enormous pressure weighing on his heart had been lifted.

After a brief moment of joy, he suddenly became alert again.

No one in Hallcester was willing to take over Glory Edifice.

Robin had no hesitation about it.

Does he have any additional conditions, by any chance?

Chapter 116 His Savior.

“Mr. Bruce, this is our first meeting, and you are also aware of the current condition of the South City plot. I don’t know how much you are prepared to offer to purchase Glory Edifice?” Freddie asked tentatively, after calming down slightly.

Robin understood that Freddie currently didn’t believe that he could. really swallow his Glory Edifice.

“Freddie, actually you have always believed that the southern area of the city would be a key focus for Hallcester’s investment and development, and this view was correct.”

“Although the southern part of the city is closest to Dimburgh, the municipal government has never developed it over the years.” “Many people know that the southern area of the city used to be a chaotic cemetery.”

“Over the past three years, after you and some Halicester real estate developers invested in the southern part of the city, the environment there has only slightly improved.”

“However, in the past year or two, as investors gradually withdrew their capital from the southern part of the city, the previous desolation there began to reemerge.”

“However, | believe that the southern part of the city will eventually be invested and developed.” “The Glory Edifice, as a landmark building in the southern part of the city, had an irreplaceable value there.”

“The municipal government will develop this area sooner or later, and they will definitely make great efforts to promote its development and construction.”

“If the Huber Group had acquired Glory Edifice now, it would have been considered a high-return investment.”

Chapter 116 His Savior

Freddie heard what Robin said.

There was an immediate feeling of meeting a kindred spirit in the vast sea of people.

“Mr. Bruce, in the past year and more, | have visited so many people, but none of them could speak such insightful words like you.”

“It was my ignorance! | should have realized earlier that the board of directors of the Huber Group would be able to appoint you as the president of the Eastern District Development Corporation because of your exceptional vision and insight.”

“| underestimated and mistreated Mr. Bruce before, and | apologize to you!”

Speaking of this, Freddie bowed deeply.

Then, he let out a long sigh.

“Although Mr. Bruce was the president of Eastern District Development Corporation, could Ms. Huber and the board of directors agree to you buying Glory Edifice from me?”

“Even if Ms. Huber agreed to your acquisition of Glory Edifice, would the upper management of the Huber Group be willing to invest 10 billion to purchase it?”

Robin laughed and said, “Mr. Strickland, since | said | would buy Glory Edifice, of course | can afford the 10 billion.”

Freddie immediately stood up from the sofa and said, “Mr. Bruce, is what you’re saying true? Are you really willing to buy Glory Edifice for 10 billion?”

Chapter 116 His Savior

“I knew Mr. Bruce had great vision and exceptional business acumen.’

“However, 10 billion is not a small amount after all, and this will require the approval of the board of directors at the upper level of the Huber Group.”

“I don’t know if this payment could be processed today.”

Freddie was very anxious and directly stated his urgent concern, “If the funds are not in place, the bank will directly seize Glory Edifice.”

Robin chuckled, “You don’t have to worry about the funding. Once the transfer contract of Glory Edifice is signed, the funds will be immediately deposited into your account.”

“Even if there was no time to complete the full fund transfer, there would still be another way of collaboration.”

“We helped you resolve all your debt crises first, and then we can discuss the next steps of cooperation. Moreover, we will expedite the restoration of Glory Edifice’s construction.”

Freddie realized that Robin was not joking with him and asked tremblingly, “Mr. Bruce, are you really prepared to buy Glory Edifice for 10 billion?”

Robin looked at Freddie, whose eyes were filled with anticipation.

“For the past three years, you have invested nearly 20 billion in Glory Edifice. How can they only give you 10 billion? That would be a bit too unfair.”

Freddie didn’t know what Robin meant exactly. “Mr. Bruce, are you saying...”

Robin patted his shoulder and said, “Glory Edifice, how much money have you invested in it, you should have a financial account.”

Chapter

“Tomorrow, you bring these accounts over, and the Huber Group will pay you according to this price! We will discuss the specific details tomorrow.”

Freddie thought he had misheard.

“Mr. Bruce, let me clarify, are you saying that you are willing to purchase the entire business district of Glory Edifice for nearly 20 billion?”

Robin nodded, “That’s right, you didn’t hear it wrong, that’s exactly what I meant.”

“If the municipal government reinvests in the southern part of the city in the future, the land price will quickly rise. At that time, won’t you regret it?”

Freddie shook his head and said, “Mr. Bruce, I was completely broke now.”

“Even if the price of Glory Edifice increases by 10 or 20 times. tomorrow, at that time, I still wouldn’t be able to earn any more money.”

“If I hadn’t met Mr. Bruce, I would have been ruined and fallen into an abyss today.”

“Mr. Bruce, it was a great favor for you to help me get through this obstacle.”

“And, you are willing to take over the entire business empire of Glory Edifice for a price of 20 billion, this is like giving me a chance to be reborn, Freddie!”

“Mr. Bruce, you gave our whole family life!”

“How could I possibly have regretted it after the land prices in the south of the city went up?"

Chapter 116 His Savior

"In that case, I would be nothing more than a despicable creature, Freddie."

"However, it would take another ten to twenty years for the city government to invest in the southern plot of land."

Robin chuckled lightly and said, "Alright then, I'll let Ms. Huber know and we'll deal with the matter between you and the bank first before discussing Glory Edifice."

Freddie felt like he had just had a dream.

He went through countless hardships and ridicule, thinking that he had lost all hope, all for the Glory Edifice. I didn't expect to meet Robin in the last few hours.

With a thud, he knelt in front of Robin, "Mr. Bruce, thank you!"

Five minutes later, the board of directors of the Huber Group, several major shareholders, and a few executives represented by Reginald, arrived at the headquarters of the Huber Group.

Everyone unanimously opposed Robin's acquisition of Glory Edifice!

Chapter 117

Chapter 117 The Board Meeting of the Huber Group

Three o'clock in the afternoon.

The conference hall of the thirty-story headquarters of the Huber Group.

All members of the Huber Group's board of directors and its twenty-one shareholders were present.

Reginald, as a senior executive of the Huber Group, also attended the board meeting of the Huber Group. Although he was not a member of the Huber Group's board of directors, nor a shareholder of the Huber Group. However, due to strong opposition, Robin decided to take over Freddie's Glory Edifice and attended the meeting. The Huber Group's shareholders' meeting had a total of 21 shareholders.

The Huber family, spanning three generations, held a 45% stake in the Huber Group and gifted Robin a 20% stake. Other dozen or so shareholders held 35% of the shares in the Huber Group.

Several major shareholders, excluding Justin and the Huber family.

Upon learning that Reginald had reported them, Robin privately promised Freddie the information to purchase the Glory Edifice business district, which greatly angered him.

* Chapter 117 The Board Meeting of the Huber Group They quickly invited the Huber Group and requested an urgent. convening of the board of directors and shareholders' meeting. The joint request demanded that Harold must never agree to Robin taking over the proposal of Glory Edifice. One of the elderly shareholders was named Shawn Sherman. He was the oldest among all the shareholders of the Huber Group.

He was also one of the largest shareholders of the Huber Group, apart from Karina. Camdyn, and Robin (although Robin did not accept, the Huber family had already transferred the shares to him).

Shawn held a 10% stake in the Huber Group. He pointed at Karina with his finger and said, "Karina, you were young, and you did many things too hastily."

"A few days ago, I didn't attend the board meeting and I didn't know that you gave the position of President of Eastern District Development Corporation to this young man, Robin!"

"It is said that Robin was just in his early twenties, a young lad with an unknown background and no qualifications!"

"I don't know why you entrusted such an important position as the President of Eastern District Development Corporation to someone like him."

“Now I see it, this Robin is actually going to take over Glory Edifice with 20 billion, it's simply outrageous!” “The southern plot of land, everyone in Hallchester knew it was a wasteland!”

“A few years ago, the southern part of the city was still a chaotic

Chapter 117 The Board Meeting of the Huber Group

cemetery, a deserted land where no one dared to go!”

“Even if the municipal government wanted to develop, no one would be willing to go to that area.

“Three years ago, it was based on this point that the municipal. government suspended the development of the southern part of the city.”

“Over the past two years, it was only Freddie, a speculative gambler type of person, who would have developed the Glory Edifice business circle there with a hot-headed mind.”

“I didn't know what they were thinking, haha. How could a place where nothing happens make money?”

“Now, the Huber Group has shifted its investment focus to the east side of the city, and we should allocate a large amount of funds here.”

“The southern plot of land was worthless, and yet that Robin. unexpectedly decided to purchase Glory Edifice without authorization. Isn't this just squandering the money of our shareholders at the Huber Group? It's truly unreasonable!”

“What I mean is, the board immediately terminated the employment contract with Robin. The Huber Group cannot let this person ruin. everything!”

After Shawn finished speaking, a middle-aged man in his fifties named Ernest Roberson nodded beside him. Ernest's qualifications and shareholdings in the Huber Group were second only to Shawn's.

He held an 8% stake in the Huber Group in his hands.

After Shawn finished speaking, he immediately agreed, “Mr. Harold,

Chapter 117 The Board Meeting of the Huber Group

the Huber Group is the empire we built from scratch with you. We must not let Robin, an inexperienced kid, ruin it!"

"The Glory Edifice in the southern part of the city had long been worthless, and yet Robin was actually willing to take over with a staggering 20 billion. It's really hard to tell if he's confused or if there are some shady deals behind the scenes!"

"Even if we have nothing, if we really take over Glory Edifice, besides the 20 billion dollars investment we have already put in, it would be difficult to make the southern part of the city a profitable commercial center even if we invest another 100 billion dollars."

"After all, we were just a private group organization without the support of the municipal government, so official capital would never invest in the southern part of the city."

"Those private capitals were all pursuing short-term return rates and would not invest in the barren land in the southern part of the city."

"I strongly demanded the immediate dismissal of Robin and the revocation of the Glory Edifice transfer agreement signed with Freddie."

Shawn and Ernest, these two shareholders, were both major shareholders who had followed Harold in establishing the Huber Group in the early years.

They said so, and more than ten shareholders quickly followed suit to denounce Robin.

They unanimously demanded Harold and Karina to immediately dismiss Robin from the position of President of Eastern District Development Corporation and to cancel the contract signed with Freddie.

In the face of dissatisfaction from all shareholders, Harold remained silent.

He sat in front without any expression, looking indifferently at the furious expressions of each shareholder.

After a few minutes of noise in the conference hall, Harold looked at Camdyn and Karina, "Camdyn, Karina, what do you think about this matter?"

Karina hesitated for a moment and said, "Grandfather, from the current situation, it is indeed not profitable to develop the land in the southern part of the city. However, Robin's decision... | agree! As for the specific reasons, | have no reason to explain!"

Harold nodded, a relieved smile spreading across his face. "Camdyn, what do you mean?"

Without hesitation, Camdyn said, "Father, | have received your teachings since | was young, and | know the importance of gratitude."

"Robin saved my life, and | had no reason to refuse his proposal. | supported any decision he made, even if it meant risking my entire stake and power in the Huber Group, | would never regret it."

Harold nodded in satisfaction, "Very well! You haven't disappointed me! Since you all agree, | have no objections either." After Harold finished speaking, the conference hall instantly fell silent.

Justin immediately stood up and objected, "Dad, | disagree!"

Harold nodded, "Alright, | got it. You sit down first, | have something to say."

Justin wanted to speak, but Harold motioned for him to sit down, so he had no choice but to close his mouth.

Chapter 117 The Board Meeting of the Huber Group

"Ladies and gentlemen present here, although I, Harold, had long withdrawn from the core management of the Huber Group, | have never forgotten the original purpose | had when | founded the Huber Group."

"Most of you started with me from nothing and today we have established the Huber Group."

"Over the years, you have followed me, Harold, and experienced hardships and challenges, weathered storms, and never left my side. | am very grateful to all of you."

“The Huber Group has achieved its current status and glory, and you have made indelible contributions.” “Robin decided to take over Glory Edifice with a budget of 20 billion, you were very worried, and I understand.”

“Since the day we started our business, you have been following me, Harold, with the desire to live a good life, make big money, have status, and dignity. There is no fault in this.”

“Now I still think so.” “I had a responsibility to be accountable for the wealth and status that the Huber Group and you have already acquired.”

“However, as the appointed President of the Eastern District Development Corporation, Robin has made decisions that I fully agree with!”

“I will not stop him, no matter what purpose he has for signing the contract to take over the Glory Edifice business district with Freddie.”

As soon as Harold finished speaking, the conference hall instantly fell silent, with every shareholder and top executive looking at him in astonishment.

Chapter 117 The Board Meeting of the Huber Group

The conference hall fell silent for a while, and Shawn finally spoke, “Long, the investment in Glory Edifice business district is not a small amount.”

“Robin’s decision was too hasty! If the investment fails, the Huber Group will be severely damaged, and decades of hard work will go down the drain! How could you agree to this plan?”

“Long Ge, if we simply took over Glory Edifice for a mere 20 billion, it wouldn’t be a big deal.”

“However, subsequent investments would require a large amount of funds!” It can be said that the southern plot is a bottomless pit, it will drag the Huber Group into an abyss!

Emest also stood up excitedly and said, “Sir, please consider this matter carefully. It was not easy for us to follow you in establishing the Huber Group.”

“At that time, we had nothing and started from scratch with you, and today we have the Huber Group in Hallchester.”

“He, Robin, a reckless young lad, with his impulsive decisions, really could have...”

“Alright, all of you, stop talking!” Harold said sternly as he looked at them.

“I knew what you were worried about.”

“Don’t worry, | and Camdyn, Karina, and Justin, together, signed a guarantee with Robin for the shares of Glory Edifice.” “If, as you say, the Huber family would never let you suffer any losses...”

Chapter 117 The Board Meeting of the Huber Group

At this point, Justin stood up and said, “Dad, | don’t have too many shares in hand, | won’t guarantee for Robin!”

Harold hesitated for a moment, a hint of anger flashed in his eyes. “Shut up! | can agree to your request!”

“Camdyn, Karina, and |, the three of us together hold nearly 40% of the shares. If Justin is not willing, | will go along with him!” “We are willing to use 40% of the shares as a risk guarantee for Robin’s takeover of Glory Edifice.”

“If that’s the case and shareholders are still unwilling, then you can choose to withdraw from the Huber Group’s shareholders’ meeting.”

“|, Harold, will definitely liquidate the equity in your hands. immediately!”

“Alright, I’ll give you one night to consider. Tomorrow afternoon, you make a decision.”

“If you are not willing to support Robin’s decision, then you can withdraw from the shareholders’ meeting of the Huber Group!” “The Huber Group would immediately liquidate your shares at the highest price!”

“Karina, prepare the share transfer agreement! If any shareholder wants to withdraw their shares, immediately provide them with cash!”

As soon as Harold finished speaking, everyone in the room fell silent.

Shawn simply shook his head and let out a long sigh, saying, “Long, since you’ve made up your mind like this, | have nothing to say. Everything | have is given by you. | won’t quit the Huber Group.”

Ernest also nodded, "Very well, old man. I was once a poor beggar, but in this lifetime, I have gone through ups and downs with you until today. It has been worth it." "Since you have already decided to agree to Robin's proposal, I will follow you."

"Even though I lost everything due to this investment in Glory Edifice, it doesn't matter!" However, a few shareholders were whispering and hesitating at that moment, wondering whether to withdraw from the Huber Group.

Chapter 118

Chapter 118 Golden Sun Bank

Reginald sat in the attendance position of the meeting and did not dare to speak.

What he didn't expect was that Harold would actually agree to Robin's absurd decision.

What's more, Karina and her recovered father, Camdyn, also stood by Robin's side.

He knew that it was simply impossible to bring down Robin through this matter.

Taking advantage of the chaos in the conference hall, he quietly slipped out.

Arriving at the fire escape, Reginald looked around and saw no one.

He took out his phone and dialed the number of Roberto, the president of the Hallchester Branch of Golden Sun Bank. Golden Sun Bank was a privately owned joint-stock bank.

Londraland, a commercial bank, was established five years ago in Hashville State by several major private enterprises in the south.

Golden Sun Bank and another bank, Central Hallcester Bank, both loaned money to Freddie's Glory Edifice three years ago.

Previously, Freddie mortgaged all of his assets and Glory Edifice itself, borrowing 3 billion from Golden Sun Bank and 4 billion from Central Hallcester Bank.

The term of their loan contract was ten years.

For the past three years, Freddie has never defaulted on the interest payments to both banks, regardless of how tight his finances were.

In the most difficult times, not even a penny was owed to two banks, even if it meant borrowing at high interest rates.

Because Freddie knew that the reason he was doing this was to be able to build a prosperous business district in the southern part of the city, he was forced to borrow money.

People who do great things always prioritize integrity.

However, at the beginning of this year, these two banks suddenly identified a significant risk associated with Glory Edifice and demanded that Freddie immediately repay the principal and interest owed.

This immediately put Freddie, who was already in a state of extreme financial strain, in a predicament.

Today is the final repayment deadline for these two banks.

The two banks required Freddie to repay their loans before midnight.

Central Hallcester Bank had a principal and interest of 5 billion, while Golden Sun Bank had a principal and interest of 3.8 billion. Although the deadline for repayment was before midnight tonight.

However, Freddie understood that after 5:30 PM, banks would close their large transfer systems.

If the funds cannot be deposited into the bank account before half past five.

Chapter 118 Golden Sun Bank

The next day, the ownership of Glory Edifice belonged to the bank.

It was already half past three in the afternoon.

Reginald thought that if the bank could end the repayment deadline ahead of time, Robin's Glory Edifice plan would be ruined. After the successful completion of the matter, I will boast about myself in front of the major shareholders of the company. Shawn and others would definitely appreciate him for this.

the

It is very likely that, therefore, he replaced Robin and took up position of President of the Eastern District Development Corporation.

Maybe I could have won Karina's favor. He believed that it was because of Robin's appearance that Karina ignored him. In any case, as long as Robin is driven away from the Huber Group, regardless of the outcome!

After much deliberation, Reginald believed that the best course of action at the moment was to let the bank take over Glory Edifice directly.

I had a close relationship with Roberto, the president of Golden Sun Bank.

The two of them used to often meet up privately.

Reginald, in order to pave his own way, took advantage of his position at the Huber Group and repeatedly bribed Roberto. And, often asked him to accompany me to nightclubs for some special services.

Chapter 118 Golden Sun Bank

It can be said that over the past few years, Roberto has been fed by Reginald.

It shouldn't be a problem to ask him for help in this matter now.

Reginald saw Harold, Karina, and Camdyn and did not reject Robin's proposal to sign the contract to take over Glory Edifice. Moreover, major shareholders like Shawn and Ernest also sided with Robin.

Although they were all reluctant, they were the senior figures who had founded the Huber Group together with Harold back in the day.

Harold supported Robin, and they both had no choice but to agree. Just a few small shareholders were hesitating. Although these people were reluctant to agree with Robin's approach, none of them dared to say it in front of Harold.

Reginald noticed the doubts in these people's minds, and he planned to disrupt Robin's plan to take over Glory Edifice in two steps.

Firstly, let Roberto from Golden Sun Bank initiate the early termination of Freddie's repayment program. Transfer the Glory Edifice to the court and seize its ownership.

Secondly, he was prepared to contact some shareholders after the shareholders' meeting ended.

They pressured Harold, Karina, and Camdyn by withdrawing funding from the Huber Group.

In this way, perhaps it could force Harold to make concessions.

Chapter 118 Golden Sun Bank

After receiving a call from Reginald, the president of Golden Sun Bank, Roberto hesitated for a long time upon understanding his meaning.

“Mr. Aguilar and Karina had already called me before this.”

“Regarding Glory Edifice, her intention was that the Huber Group would take over next.”

“Ms. Huber said that the Huber Group would arrange the fund transfer tomorrow morning for the money Freddie owed.”

“Today, the Huber Group's finance department was unable to process such a large transfer due to the late hour.”

“If we initiate the court's foreclosure procedure on Glory Edifice at our bank now, I will have difficulty explaining it to Ms. Huber.”

“You know, Mr. Harold is not an ordinary person. He has a great affection for Ms. Huber. If I offend him in this matter, I'm afraid it will be difficult for me!”

Roberto was very worried about Reginald's request. In Hallcester, there were not many people who dared to oppose Mr. Harold. He was a boss of the highest level. Reginald learned about Roberto's concerns and smiled, saying, "Mr. Francis, it's not as serious as you imagine."

"I am revealing to you some information that the board meeting of the Huber Group was underway, and almost all shareholders were against Robin's proposal for the Huber Group to take over Glory Edifice, this mess."

"However, considering that Robin is now the president of the Eastern District Development Corporation, and moreover, he was appointed by Chapter 118 Golden Sun Bank Karina." "The Huber family may have refrained from directly denying at the board meeting, possibly due to saving face."

"However, several major shareholders were disgruntled, and in fact, several shareholders wanted to withdraw their investments from the Huber Group."

"What I mean is, if you could initiate the procedure to seal off Glory Edifice at this critical moment, it would be giving the Huber family some face."

"It was quite decent of the Huber Group to decline taking over Glory Edifice. This way, the decision made by Robin had no meaning at all."

Roberto hesitated upon hearing this, "Zhou, my friend, please don't deceive me. I don't want to offend the Huber family." Although I was the president of Golden Sun Bank, my power was also limited.

"The Huber family had already greeted before this, and promised to repay tomorrow. If I do this again, I, a small bank manager, cannot afford to bear Mr. Harold's anger."

Reginald laughed and said, "Mr. Francis, don't worry. In fact, the Huber family was just looking for a way out."

"Hallcester people who didn't know that the southern plot of land was a wasteland, also didn't know what illicit dealings Robin and Freddie, those bastards, had behind closed doors."

“Otherwise, how could he have bought Glory Edifice for a price of 20 billion? Is he fucking crazy?”

“What you did was equivalent to preventing Robin from joking around with the Huber Group’s money, Mr. Harold is grateful to you before. you even know it.”

Chapter 112 Golden Sun Bank

Roberto hesitated for a moment and thought about it.

The southern plot of land was indeed a wasteland.

At the beginning of this year, he submitted a proposal to terminate the loan project of Glory Edifice in advance to the headquarters of Golden Sun Bank for review.

The head office immediately issued instructions and agreed to his suggestion.

The head office of Golden Sun Bank replied so quickly because, based on the evaluation, they believed that the southern city plot had no investment value anymore.

If Glory Edifice is not withdrawn at this moment, it is estimated that even a penny will not be recovered later. However, the main idea of the bank is that if someone takes over, Golden Sun Bank would rather postpone the extension. In this way, Golden Sun Bank might have incurred less loss.

He pondered for a while and continued, “Mr. Aguilar, I will now initiate the immediate sealing procedure for Glory Edifice. Although it is also reasonable, it is not yet midnight, and I’m afraid it will become a topic of gossip...”

Reginald laughed and said, “Mr. Francis, one hour later, it would be impossible to make a large transfer unless Freddie pays in cash.”

“Think about it, what kind of person had the ability to raise 3.8 billion in cash in just a few hours before midnight. Do you think it’s possible?”

Chapter 118 Golden Sun Bank

“I reckon even a god of wealth like Mr. Francis wouldn’t have had the ability!”

“So, Mr. Francis, you boldly went ahead, which was not considered a violation at all.” Roberto hesitated for a long time and weighed this matter in his mind many times.

Reginald saw the other person remain silent and added, “After you finish the task tonight, I will treat you to a newly opened leisure club in the northern suburbs. It is said that there are several beautiful Bruecia ladies there...

Roberto laughed and said, “Alright! Since that’s the case, I will immediately initiate the termination of the repayment process as you suggested.”

Meanwhile, Freddie, sitting in Robin’s office, received a phone call from the Finance Department of Glory Edifice. “Mr. Strickland, Golden Sun Bank initiated the early closure repayment procedure and issued the final notice letter.”

“Golden Sun Bank’s legal personnel said that if the outstanding loan principal and interest owed to Golden Sun Bank cannot be repaid within half an hour, they will no longer accept repayment today.”

“That means, if Glory Edifice fails to repay the 3.8 billion loan within half an hour, half an hour later Glory Edifice will belong to the bank.”

After Freddie finished the call, he was extremely anxious.

“Mr. Bruce, there has been a change in the situation! We have just received a notice from Golden Sun Bank, stating that we must repay the full amount within half an hour, otherwise, they will initiate the seizure of Glory Edifice directly.”

Chapter 118 Golden Sun Bank Robin looked at Freddie’s anxious look and chuckled lightly, “It seems like someone is sabotaging it!”

Freddie shook his head and said, “Mr. Bruce, didn’t you just communicate with Ms. Huber earlier? Didn’t the Huber Group step forward to guarantee the loan for Glory Edifice?”

“But why did Golden Sun Bank terminate the final repayment deadline ahead of time now?”

Robin looked at Freddie, who was currently in a state of panic, and said indifferently, “There’s nothing serious. I’ll go ask Karina what’s going on.”

Chapter 119A Different Approach

Chapter 119

Chapter 119 A Different Approach Robin dialed Karina's phone, but it showed that the call could not be connected. He suddenly realized that it was the time for the meeting.

Perhaps Karina discussed the matter of Glory Edifice with the shareholders and, worried about being disturbed, turned off her phone.

Golden Sun Bank has now sent a final notice to Freddie's Finance Department, stating that the bank's repayment channel will be closed in half an hour.

Time is so short that if we delay any longer, it will be too late.

Since I couldn't reach Karina's phone.

Then just go directly to Golden Sun Bank and see what exactly happened.

"Let's go, we are going to Golden Sun Bank now," Robin stood up and beckoned Freddie to walk outside. Freddie hesitated for a moment, then walked out of the office.

"Mr. Bruce, do you know Roberto, the president of Golden Sun Bank?"

Robin shook his head and said, "I don't know. Why don't you just go and explain the situation to him directly? He wouldn't make such a big fuss over a small amount of money, would he?"

"Moreover, Karina, had already greeted him, and the Huber Group

apter 119 A Different Approach

Chapter

would take over Glory Edifice."

“The president of Golden Sun Bank, Roberto, was never short-sighted enough to not give face to the Huber family.”.

“The Huber family didn’t lack these 3.8 billion, with the Huber family guaranteeing, was he still worried that you wouldn’t repay the money?”

Freddie checked the time and realized that there was only a little over an hour left until the bank closed at half past five.

It seems that there is no other choice but to do so.

After leaving the Eastern District Development Corporation building, | immediately drove to Golden Sun Bank.

Freddie quickly accompanied Robin to Roberto’s office.

At this moment, Roberto was packing his bags, getting ready to leave the bank and go to the club in the northern suburbs. In the evening, he wanted to enjoy the exotic beauty with Reginald.

Just as | was about to leave, | saw Freddie walking in with a young man, which surprised me. “Freddie, are you coming to pay back the money now?”

“Okay, if you can transfer the repayment now, we will immediately cancel the procedure of sealing off Glory Edifice.”

Freddie took a step forward and said, “Mr. Francis, the final repayment deadline should be tonight at midnight. What does it mean that you are closing the repayment channel now?”

Roberto glanced at the time and said, “Freddie, it’s already past four in the afternoon. Do you think it’s possible to transfer the 3.8 billion funds to our account now?”

Chapter 119 A Different Approach

“That was just a joke from you! This kind of operation is simply impossible!”

“In this situation, | informed you to close the repayment channel. Is there any problem?”

“If you guarantee that you can transfer 3.8 billion to our bank account before half-past five, I can wait for you now.” “Think for yourself, do you have the ability for it?”

Freddie was asked by Roberto these two questions and for a moment, he couldn't find the words to respond.

He certainly understood that it was a fantasy to complete a full transfer of such a large sum of money within an hour. Don't say it's just a short amount of time, even if you give a week, it may not be enough to complete all the settlements.

Roberto glanced at Freddie and Robin, snorted, “Freddie, just admit defeat already. Glory Edifice has been a dead end for a long time. With your limited abilities, you can't possibly afford to play it.”

“So many talented people in Hallcester couldn't handle the South City plot, do you, Freddie, have three heads and six arms?” “Have a little self-awareness, no matter how grand your dreams were, they were useless!”

“Wake up, you were just a small real estate developer, you couldn't change the fate of the South City plot!”

“Over the past three years, you have invested all your assets in Glory Edifice, so what can you expect?”

“In the end, nothing had changed at all!”

Chapter 119A Different Approach

“Hasn't the miracle you were expecting appeared yet?”

“Do you think the Huber Group taking over Glory Edifice will revitalize the real estate in the southern part of the city? It's simply impossible!”

“I know, you would definitely tell me now that the Huber family guaranteed this funding.”

“Yes, Karina did call me. So what?”

“She never signed a guarantee contract for me. What can a verbal promise guarantee?”

“If any unexpected situation arises, she will not admit to having said these words to me. Who should I turn to?”

“There is one more thing you may not know, the shareholders of the Huber Group are currently engaged in heated arguments because of this matter of yours.”

As for the final outcome of their argument, no one could say for sure.

“However, just a few minutes ago, a heavyweight figure from the Huber Group called me and told me not to wait any longer.” “I know, the Huber Group would never transfer 3.8 billion to you, Freddie, for this unfinished building in your hands.”

Freddie was thunderstruck when he heard this, “The Huber Group doesn’t want to take over Glory Edifice?”

Roberto shook his head, “Hehe, Freddie, be more realistic.”

“We have known each other for quite some time now. You are a sensible person, so just admit defeat when it’s necessary.” “I knew that you were feeling uncomfortable with the current situation.”

“But that’s how business is, it’s a winner-takes—all situation, and you have no choice!”

“At the beginning, it was you who insisted on placing this bet on the southern land, no one forced you.”

“We, Golden Sun Bank, lent you the money when you needed it the most. We have provided you with 3 billion for such a long time, and we have done our utmost to fulfill our obligations.”

“Don’t say that I am heartless and ungrateful, we, as bankers, can only do this much.”

Freddie sighed bitterly.

“Mr. Francis, you were so unfair! The loan agreement I signed with your bank was for a period of ten years.” “It’s only been three years, and yet you suddenly terminate my loan contract. Is this a joke?”

“You borrowed 3 billion from me and invested it all in Glory Edifice.”

“The construction project of the building was about to be completed, and you suddenly terminated the contract during this period. Are you trying to deceive me?!”

“You see, my building has been built to its current state, but it cannot be sold. I don’t have the money to continue building, and all the money is completely tied up.

“But you forced me to repay the money in such a situation, isn’t that too unethical?!”

Chapter 119 A Different Approach

Roberto looked at Freddie, who was angry at the moment, and burst into laughter.

“Freddie, you were doing business, and so was the bank!”

“Our bank also needs to make money. Lending money to you is not giving it away to fulfill your personal distant dreams.”

“Although we initially signed a loan agreement for a period of ten years, the South City plot has become completely worthless. Do you think you can earn back 3 billion within ten years?”

“Even if you eventually managed to construct the Glory Edifice, a skyscraper towering at a height of 380 meters, so what?” “In the end, it was worthless junk!”

“If by then, our bank demands repayment of the 3 billion loan from you, what will you use to pay us back?”

“I’m afraid by that time, Freddie had already been killed by loan sharks.”

“As far as I know, you borrowed 20 billion high-interest loans from Demon’s Lair.”

“Who is Barry? Who is Mr. Lambert? We both know, you took their money, can they let you go?”

“They would not let you go!”

“So, let’s hand over these issues to the court now, so that we don’t end up being robbed by Mr. Lambert and his team before we even have a chance to nibble on the remaining bones of Glory Edifice.”

“Freddie, you should wake up!”

Chapter 119 A Different Approach

“The Huber Group would not accept your Glory Edifice and the entire Southern Business District unless the upper management of the Huber Group went crazy!”

Robin took a step forward and said in a deep voice, “The Huber Group is not crazy! I am Robin, the president of the Eastern District Development Corporation. The matter of Glory Edifice’s transfer was discussed between Freddie and me.” “Mr. Francis, an hour ago, Karina called you and the Huber Group was willing to guarantee a loan of 3.8 billion for Freddie.”

“Although it was a verbal agreement, with the reputation of the Huber Group, Karina would not deny this amount of money no matter what happened.”

“After the Huber Group completed a series of internal preparations, the funds can be transferred to your bank account.” “Golden Sun Bank waited for at most a dozen hours.” “Today, it was too late to proceed with the transfer operation.”

“Mr. Francis, it would be best if you handled this matter properly, otherwise, it wouldn’t be fun for everyone if we ended up having an unpleasant time over this small amount of money.”

Roberto looked up at Robin and said, “Are you Robin, the newly appointed president of Eastern District Development Corporation?”

Robin nodded, “Yes, Mr. Francis.”

“Hehe, the board meeting of the Huber Group is currently discussing your actions today,” Roberto glanced at Robin and smirked. contemptuously.

Then, he assumed a posture and tone of educating the young, saying,

Chapter 119A Different Approach

“Robin, it’s not that I’m criticizing you, but being so young, you act too recklessly and let your emotions guide you too much!” “With your current perspective and abilities, you still cannot truly understand the game of market capital.”

“The issue with the southern plot, I advise you to quickly give up, don’t wait until it becomes impossible to resolve, and end up in a state of complete devastation!”

“Youth have great ideals and are passionate about their work, which is a good thing!”

“But, be rational! Acting on emotions will make you fall hard!”

“I cannot promise you Freddie’s matter because the Huber Group’s more influential individuals just contacted me.” “Unless you were able to transfer the repayment immediately, we have nothing to discuss.”

After saying that, Roberto shook his head disdainfully and walked out with his bag.

Robin coldly said, “Wait a minute! Are you saying that even with the Huber Group guaranteeing it, it is still impossible to give Glory Edifice and Freddie one night?”

Roberto looked up and met Robin’s cold gaze. He smirked and said, “That’s right, a bank is a bank. When it’s time to repay, there’s no room for negotiation!”

“Alright, since that’s the case, let’s try a different approach!” Robin pointed at the wall clock.

“Isn’t it still not time for the final repayment?”

“According to the agreement, the final repayment should have been made by midnight tonight.”

“That means, as long as the repayment is received before midnight tonight, it will not be considered a breach of contract!”

“You haven’t finished work yet, but you want to leave your position. Aren’t you afraid that I will send a complaint letter to the CEO mailbox of your head office?”

Chapter 120

Chapter 120 Ignorance

Roberto looked up at Robin and chuckled contemptuously, “Young people are so audacious! Hehe...” “38 billion debts! The transfer operation hasn’t even started yet, how are you going to repay the bank?” “Now, it is almost five o’clock.”

“After half past five, the high-value transfer systems of any bank would be closed.”

“Even if you could get the money, how would you transfer it to us?”

Freddie was very angry, “Mr. Francis, can’t we compromise at all?”

Speaking of this, Roberto sneered at Freddie, “You may think that I deliberately used these regulations to make things difficult for you, so what?”

“That’s the rule! Understand? If you can’t transfer the money, it’s your problem!”

“Of course, there is another possibility, to solve the repayment problem,” Roberto sneered as he glanced at Robin and Freddie. “Heh, I’m just saying it’s a possibility!”

“Unless you could raise 3.8 billion in cash and deliver it directly to the counter of Golden Sun/Bank before midnight!” “Hehe, do you have the ability for this?”

“If you dare to claim such ability, then I can make all the bank

Chapter 120 Ignorance

employees work overtime tonight, waiting for you!”

Freddie angrily pointed at Roberto and said, "Mr. Francis, are you deliberately trying to make things difficult for us? 3.8 billion in cash, that's a huge amount of money!"

"Hehe, since you don't have such ability, don't take on such a big task! Immature!" Roberto sneered, glanced at Freddie and Robin, and turned around with his bag, walking towards the door.

"It's just 3.8 billion in cash, why can't it be delivered!" Robin said indifferently. Freddie and Roberto were both startled. "Hahaha... Youth is just recklessness!" Roberto shook his head contemptuously.

"Robin, if you really have the ability to deliver 3.8 billion in cash, |, as the President of Golden Sun Bank, guarantee that all employees of Golden Sun Bank will not leave work before midnight tonight to help you verify the funds!"

"Otherwise, you would kneel in front of all the staff members of our bank and bow to each of them as a sincere apology! Do you dare?"

Robin's lips curled up with a hint of playfulness as he pressed the record button on his phone. "Roberto, what if | brought 3.8 billion in cash before midnight tonight?"

Without hesitation, Roberto responded, "I will kowtow to you ten times in front of all the bank staff!"

"Good! Deal done!" Robin smirked indifferently, raising his phone. "By the way, just to let you know, our verbal agreement has been recorded."

Chapter 120 Ignorance

Roberto was stunned for a while, and suddenly, he regretted being too impulsive and speaking too arrogantly.

He then burst into laughter.

How is it possible to send 3.8 billion cash in such a short time!

"Hahaha... This is the funniest joke | have ever heard in my entire life!"

"Robin, you're really young, | suspect you're not even of legal age yet? | can't believe you can say something like that." "38 billion in cash, no one in Hallchester dares to say that it can be raised within a few hours."

Robin gave a cold smile and said, "How ridiculous! Just because you haven't heard of it, doesn't mean I can't do it." "Young man, boasting is of no use if you can't solve problems with just words," Roberto sneered and shook his head.

"I really don't know how someone like you managed to infiltrate the Huber Group and assume the position of President of the Eastern District Development Corporation."

"Now, I finally understand why Reginald had such a strong aversion towards you. It turns out you were just a big talker and a fraud."

"Now it seems that handing over the Huber Group to this Ms. Huber was a mistake on Mr. Harold's part!"

"Karina actually hired someone like you, who has no brains, to take on such an important position in the Huber Group." "It seems that the Huber Group was really starting to go downhill."

"When Mr. Harold was in charge of the Huber Group, such a disorganized incident never occurred!"

Chapter 120 Ignorance

"It's a pity that Camdyn was plagued by a serious illness and had long since retreated from the spotlight. The Huber family has had no one who could replace Mr. Harold's position."

Freddie took a step forward and said, "Roberto, Ms. Huber has already informed you about this payment, but you have gone against her wishes. Aren't you afraid that Mr. Harold will hold you accountable for this?"

Roberto said coldly, "Freddie, do you think you had a chance to tell Mr. Harold about these things?"

"Alright, you can inform your employees to work overtime tonight," Robin glanced at the time and stood up, saying, "Freddie, let's go to the business lobby now."

Freddie didn't know what Robin wanted to do.

Does he really want to bring in 3.8 billion in cash?

Yes, it is possible.

Even the Huber family wouldn't dare to say such a thing..

At this time, the vice president of Golden Sun Bank, Emmett Jackson, walked into the executive office. He walked excitedly to Roberto's side and whispered, "Mr. Francis, why didn't you answer your phone?"

"Reginald invited us to go to a newly opened private recreational club in the northern suburbs tonight. When are we leaving? They have already reminded us several times."

Roberto looked at Robin and sighed, saying, "Encountering an Chapter 120 ignorance ignorant kid who actually claimed that he could gather 3.8 billion in cash before midnight tonight to repay Freddie's loan."

"And, he even made a bet with me that if he couldn't do it, he would kneel in the business lobby of our bank and apologize to every employee of our bank by kowtowing."

Deputy Vice President Emmett glanced sideways at Robin and sneered, "Kid, where did you come from? How dare you say such things!"

"I fucking encountered a lunatic today. Come on, if you like kneeling and kowtowing, kneel down for me now, hahaha... Robin raised an eyebrow, grabbed Emmett's collar, and tapped his cheek. "Do you want to die?"

With that, he dropped Emmett directly onto the ground.

The powerful pressure made Emmett kneel on the ground, unable to stand up no matter what.

He looked at the tall and handsome young man in front of him in horror, being instantly overwhelmed by the terrifying aura emitted by Robin.

Emmett knelt on the ground, curled up, struggling in vain. His throat felt as if it were tightly gripped by a hand, unable to produce any sound.

Roberto was also stunned.

"Robin, I'm telling you, I don't care what your relationship with Karina is, but this is not the place for you to act wild."

“I know, forcing you to repay the money, you feel resentful. However, there is no other choice!”

Chapter 120 Ignorance

“This world has no logic to speak of, whoever has money has the right!”

“You guys go ahead, without money, there’s no point in talking! I don’t have the time to waste on playing verbal games with you!”

“Whoever has money has the right, right? Fine! Just wait, and fucking give me the money later! I will make you personally demonstrate this statement in front of everyone, kneeling down and giving it to me!” Robin said coldly.

“If you are unwilling, then communicate directly with the president of your head office!”

The president’s mailbox at the head office of Golden Sun Bank was indeed open 24 hours a day and provided instant replies. Roberto furrowed his brow and hesitated as he looked at Robin’s serious expression.

If Robin really complained to the head office’s mailbox about this matter, his own black hat would be finished.

“Mr. Francis, Mr. Jackson, what’s going on here? What game are you. playing again?” Elisa Stewart, the Credit Department Manager of Golden Sun Bank, walked in from outside and saw Emmett kneeling on the ground, smiling.

Elisa was a woman in her thirties. When I entered, I saw Emmett kneeling on the ground, thinking that he and Roberto were joking.

Passing by him, she patted his head and said, “Emmett, be good and get up. Sister won’t give you lucky money today, hahaha...”

After saying that, he walked up to Roberto.

“Mr. Francis, today I need to go home early. My husband said that one of his old classmates from abroad has arrived in Hallchester, and he asked me to come back early to invite him for a meal at home.”

Roberto shook his head and said, “Ms. Stewart, I’m afraid you can’t go back today.”

“Mr. Bruce said that he would repay Freddie’s 3.8 billion loan and prepare to deliver the 3.8 billion cash to our bank before midnight tonight.”

“Please inform the Credit Department and the tellers that we will be working overtime tonight! It may be necessary to extend until midnight or even later.”

“If Mr. Bruce really brought 3.8 billion in cash, it would require all the bank employees to count together in order to finish the task.”

“Overtime? Are you kidding me!” Elisa glanced at Robin, disdainfully saying. “You must be crazy, thinking that everyone is crazy, right? I bet you don’t even believe this nonsense yourself!”

“Young man, have you never seen money before?” “Hehe, 3.8 billion in cash, the daily total business volume of Hallchester’s largest bank. I wonder if there is still that much.”

“You actually said that 38 billion dollars in cash would be delivered to our bank counter within a few hours. What kind of international joke is this?”

“Mr. Francis, I left. I didn’t have the leisure to accompany you in your fantasies, you lunatic!”

Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say

Robin watched Elisa’s figure and said indifferently, “I heard that the head office of Golden Sun Bank has a 24-hour complaint mailbox for the president, which is always ready to accept any complaints from customers of the bank regarding the misconduct of its employees, and will handle them promptly.”

“What I mean is, today I already personally presented the request for VIP services to the office of your bank’s president.”

“One of you left work early and refused to accept my repayment. The disciplinary investigation team from your head office will find you overnight for a face-to-face interview and impose heavy fines and dismissals as punishment!"

"You!" Elisa angrily pointed at Robin and said, "How dare you complain about me? What qualifications do you have to demand VIP- level service from us? You must be delusional, haha..."

"Do you think a cash repayment of 3.8 billion is enough qualification?" Robin sneered coldly.

"If you don't fulfill your duties, what can | do if | complain about you? Don't believe me? Just refuse the VIP—level service and see what happens," Robin said coldly.

Elisa looked angrily at Roberto and said, "Mr. Francis, what do you mean? Are we really going to have to work overtime for this trivial matter?"

Roberto furrowed his brows slightly and said, "Robin, are you serious?" Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say "Considering your slight connection with the Huber family, I'll give you a reminder."

"Elisa's husband, however, is Garry Craig, the assistant to Scott Rhodes, the deputy mayor in charge of economy and finance at the Haileester government."

"If you talked nonsense and played tricks on our executives, you would be held criminally responsible!"

Robin raised an eyebrow and said, "You can consider it a joke and ignore it. Then, go ahead and give it a try!" Roberto hesitated.

Freddie's loan repayment.

Due to the transfer of Glory Edifice and the corresponding debt, it was not possible to make the repayment within the final repayment deadline.

The Huber Group stepped forward to guarantee, but he ignored and refused it. Due to a technical issue, the large repayment transfer of 3.8 billion cannot be processed before the end of today. Robin and Freddie requested a one-day extension as a result, but he denied them.

In this situation, Robin proposed to bring in 3.8 billion in cash for repayment. It wouldn't make sense if he refused to provide special VIP repayment services again.

If Robin were to complain to the office of the bank president or even the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency about this issue, he would definitely not be able to keep his job.

Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say

In a worst-case scenario, he could eventually be sued for charges of industry fraud.

Golden Sun Bank would also suffer a huge blow as a result.

If there were competitors in the industry who continued to fan the flames behind our backs.

Golden Sun Bank will be ordered to close and rectify by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

In that case, the major shareholders of Golden Sun Bank would have skinned and tortured him, Roberto. So, Roberto hesitated for a long time and had no choice but to agree to Robin's request for cash repayment. Today, it was necessary to activate the special channel for VIP services.

It was impossible not to work overtime.

He was the president of Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank.

At this moment, one must not make any silly mistakes.

In addition to supporting my family, I also have many goddaughters to take care of.

Without status and money, it would be over.

After considering for a while, Roberto said coldly, "Robin, I'm telling you, if you intentionally cause trouble with this, I will report you!"

“Ms. Stewart, please don’t go back for now. Please inform your husband and his friend that they must work overtime tonight! Let’s go to the business lobby together and immediately notify all the staff not Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say to leave tonight!”

Elisa snorted coldly and reluctantly said, “Mr. Francis, you may not give my husband face, but do you know what my husband, this classmate of yours, does? Revealing his background would scare some inexperienced people to death.” Roberto’s heart trembled for a moment. A person who can be admired by a woman like Elisa, who has high standards, must have a complex identity and background.

Roberto approached Elisa and asked in a low voice, “Ms. Stewart, may I ask what Mr. Craig, this foreign old classmate, does for a living?”

Elisa did not want to conceal the identity of her husband, a former foreign classmate. She glanced disdainfully at Robin and said, “Do you know the Andy family from Potrya?”

Roberto widened his eyes in horror and said, “The Andy family was one of the world’s top five financial conglomerates and a prominent aristocratic family in Potrya. This family is rarely known and is referred to as a secretive family, yet their capital is as wealthy as a country!”

“Not bad!” Elisa proudly lifted her head, as if she were a distinguished servant of the Andy family.

“My husband’s classmate, Potrya, is the Vice President of the Office of Estya Affairs for the Andy family,” Leandro said. “He had another important and secretive identity.”

“Do you know about the Hondry Sect? It is one of the major sects among the world’s several sects.”

“Leandro was a disciple of the Hondry Sect.”

Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say

“And, his position in the Hondry Sect was not low either.”

“As far as I know, at least in the eight divisions of the Hondry Sect, there were positions at the managerial level.”

“Mr. Francis, just because of a childish remark made by Robin, you made me work overtime here.”

“If my husband were to blame, do you think you could handle the punishment from him?”

“More importantly, once Leandro finds out that he was mistreated because of this matter, even the president of the bank and several major shareholders would have to go and apologize in person!”

“Mr. Francis, do you think I needed to stay?”

Roberto hesitated slightly.

He was well aware that a large part of Elisa’s words contained a lot of boasting. However, Mr. Leandro was certainly not one to be taken lightly.

However, Elisa was the head of the Credit Department.

She was not present, so if Robin really brought 3.8 billion in cash, the procedures of the Credit Department could not be processed.

Robin gave a cold smile and said, “A mere deputy mayor’s assistant, a trivial position, can you bear the responsibility for financial misconduct?”

Elisa trembled for a moment, knowing the weight of Robin’s words.

If she violated the professional ethics of the financial industry and caused extremely negative consequences as a result, her husband would also be implicated and unable to escape blame.

Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say

Even though her husband’s classmate was an employee of Andy Consortium and a disciple of Hondry Sect, it was of no avail. Those things were still too far away from oneself, only able to serve as a facade, showing off some vanity.

Roberto, with a furrowed brow, had to consider the current situation as the president of Golden Sun Bank.

He could only be accountable to the big shots at the head office of Golden Sun Bank.

They were the most important people to themselves.

If you don't handle these things well, you are nothing.

So, Roberto gave Elisa a signal: "Ms. Stewart, please wait a moment before leaving. Let's finish our work before we speak." Elisa snorted coldly and turned around, sitting on the sofa.

Roberto asked coldly, "Robin, can you give me a definite answer on how long it will take to send the money over?"

Robin said indifferently, "Before 24 o'clock!"

"You!" Elisa gritted her teeth and glared at Robin.

"You wait! If you can't bring 3.8 billion in cash tonight, no matter who you are, I will make you pay! My husband won't let you off the hook!"

Robin smirked and said, "Alright, I'll wait."

Elisa stamped her foot and said, "Let's wait and see!"

With that, he angrily stood up and left the bank manager's office,

Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say

heading towards the business lobby.

Roberto shook his head and sneered, "Robin, do you know how big of a deal this is? Ms. Stewart's spouse is the deputy mayor's assistant in charge of economic and financial affairs at the municipal government. It is said that they will become the deputy mayor in the next term!"

"Just now you also heard that his classmate Leandro, is one of the five most powerful tycoons in the world, the Andy family, and serves as the Vice President at the Office of Estya Affairs."

"And, this person has a background in the Hondry Sect."

“Even if you really brought 3.8 billion in cash today, you would still offend many powerful people.” “Robin, you were still too young! You were just asking for trouble!”

“Youth who do not listen to advice are truly beyond help!”

Freddie hurriedly took two steps and approached Robin, whispering, “Mr. Bruce, today’s situation may have really escalated. If... | mean, if it really doesn’t work out, |, Freddie, will accept my fate!”

“Mr. Bruce, | have received your affection, but | don’t want to see you fall into the abyss with me!” Robin smiled indifferently, “Freddie, this is not something a gambler should say.”

“Let’s go to the business lobby and verify the truth that Mr. Francis mentioned, which states that whoever has money has the right!”

Then, he turned around and tapped Emmett’s head, who was still kneeling on the ground: “I could stack up my money and bring down Golden Sun Bank!*/

Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say

After saying that, he walked out of the bank manager’s office.

Freddie suddenly felt a bit nervous as he looked at Robin’s arrogant appearance.

Could tonight really have witnessed a spectacular gambling scene?

With this in mind, | quickly followed Robin out of the bank manager’s office.

Emmett was tapped on the head by Robin, and he coughed violently for a while.

Robin didn’t get up from the ground until he walked out of the bank manager’s office.

At that moment, fear filled his eyes. “Mr. Francis, this kid... seems a bit sinister! Should we...?” Roberto only noticed Emmett at that moment.

Looking at the terror in his eyes, he said coldly, “Mr. Jackson, you were kneeling on the ground without saying a word just now, what were you trying to perform?”

Emmett shook his head bitterly, "Mr. Francis, let me tell you, just now | couldn't move at all. It felt like something had grabbed hold of me, and my throat seemed to be choked by a big hand, making it impossible for me to speak..."

Roberto sneered, "You fucking just want to evade the question we just had, pretending!"

Emmett exclaimed in horror, "Mr. Francis, what | said is true, Robin... he is not what you imagine..."

Roberto sneered, "I don't believe he's capable of much! | will

Chapter 121 Not Something a Gambler Would Say

immediately report this matter to headquarters. Today, | want to see how Robin manages to bring in 3.8 billion in cash!"

"If he couldn't come up with 3.8 billion in cash, | would make this little bastard kneel in front of everyone and apologize one by one!"

Robin, Freddie, Roberto, and others arrived at the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

At this moment, it was exactly 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and there was still half an hour left until the end of work.

The counter staff of the business lobby were busy sorting out the day's accounts, intending to finish all the work for today.

The armored car of the vault had already stopped in front of the bank's lobby.

Armed security guards and bank employees were swiftly transferring the cash stored in the bank today into the armored vehicle. Inside the business lobby, there were nearly 20 customers waiting to handle deposit and withdrawal transactions.

Roberto opened the anti—pry door of the business lobby's office area and called out to the business lobby director, Amber Shelton, "Amber, notify all the employees of the Business Department that we will be working overtime tonight!"

"What? Overtime?" All employees of Golden Sun Bank were extremely surprised upon hearing Roberto's words.

Since they started working at this bank, they had never encountered such a thing before and had no idea what had happened. Amber, the director of the Business Department at the bank, was a woman in her late twenties or early thirties.

Chapter 122 Robin Tops the Trending List

Upon hearing Roberto's request to work overtime, he frowned and said, "Mr. Francis, it's not a holiday season and nothing significant has happened. Why do we need to work overtime?"

"I don't care, | couldn't be here today. | have a blind date tonight."

"My mother's colleague introduced me to a blind date."

"It is said that the man's conditions are very good, really! If | have to work overtime here, it will delay my blind date."

"No! Unless it's something extremely important, you are not allowed to take a leave!" Roberto said with a gloomy face. "Call your mother and reschedule the blind date for another day."

Amber frowned and said, "Mr. Francis, | have tried so many times to find a suitable partner, but without success! Today, | finally met someone who meets my expectations. They say he is a returnee with a Ph.D. from a prestigious foreign university."

"| have seen his photos, and they are the type that | like. | had to take a leave, it's really annoying. | don't want to work overtime!" "Fine!" Roberto said coldly. "Amber, if you refuse to work overtime, then just quit!"

“You...” Amber, the director of the Business Department, stomped her foot in anger, but she didn’t dare to say the harsh words that were on the tip of her tongue.

If I lost this high-paying job and had to go searching again, it would definitely not be an easy task.

She sighed in annoyance, “So frustrating! What on earth requires overtime, Mr. Francis?”

Roberto pointed at Robin standing in the business lobby and said, “Do you see? Today was the deadline for Freddie’s repayment! We worked overtime for their 3.8 billion repayment!”

Chapter 122 Robin Tops the Trending List

Amber glanced at the time and thought, “It’s already past five o’clock now, and they haven’t earned a single penny. How are they going to repay?”

“And, didn’t our bank’s Legal Department initiate the procedure to seize Glory Edifice this afternoon? Why are they still granting loans now?!”

“The transfer system is about to close. How is he going to repay the 3.8 billion funds?”

“Pay in cash!” Roberto said indifferently.

Amber thought she had misheard, “What? Cash?”

“Yes, cash. 3.8 billion in cash!” Roberto replied without expression.

Amber was stunned for a moment. “Mr. Francis, are you suggesting that all of us stay behind to count 3.8 billion dollars in cash?” “Oh my goodness, even if we worked overtime all night, we might not be able to count everything!”

“Damn it! Mr. Francis, can’t you negotiate with them and have them make the transfer repayment tomorrow?” Roberto was also regretful at this moment.

How the hell did he believe Reginald’s words?

Nowadays, I have made myself so miserable.

This situation of being stuck in a dilemma is really unpleasant!

Chapter 122 Robin Tops the Trending List

He shook his head helplessly. "They said it must be done tonight! If we refuse to handle this special business, they will directly complain to the head office mailbox. Do you think we can bear the accountability from the head office?"

Amber glared fiercely at Robin and Freddie in the middle of the hall, "Mr. Francis, do you believe in their nonsense and crazy talk?"

"38 billion in cash, they thought it was only 38 dollars! How many cars, how many people, and how much effort would it take to gather and deliver it to our bank?"

"Moreover, large amounts of cash inflow and outflow were all handled by the head office."

"Our Business Department has never counted 3.8 billion cash at once."

"Do you believe their nonsense? Are we supposed to go crazy with them, along with so many other people?" "What will we do if they can't bring 3.8 billion in cash before midnight tonight? We will all be waiting all night." A trace of coldness flashed in Roberto's eyes, "Then hand them over to the police for handling!"

"But, no matter what, we had to wait!"

"Robin said that if the 3.8 billion cash cannot be delivered to our bank by 24:00 today, he will kneel in front of every staff member of our bank and apologize individually!"

"Cut! We don't want to work overtime either!" complained all the employees behind the business lobby counter.

"Really, this kind of nonsense, does the bank manager believe it too?"

Chapter 122 Robin Tops the Trending List

"Looking at him, it was difficult for him to even come up with thirty- eight thousand, let alone bragging without any preparation!"

The discussion among a group of bank tellers could be heard by the customers waiting outside the business lobby, giving them a clue.

A 40-year-old woman glanced at Robin and sneered, "Young man, are you not feeling well? With your appearance, you expect to get 3.8 billion in cash? It's truly laughable!"

"I even said that I had one trillion ready to deposit in the bank tomorrow."

Robin ignored her.

The woman's words brought a burst of laughter from several other customers.

"The forest has grown big, and there are all kinds of birds."

"Didn't many people in this world go crazy thinking about money?"

"They thought they were the richest person in the world, able to casually take billions or trillions!" "Has the president of this bank lost his mind? How could he believe such nonsense?"

A female employee behind the business lobby counter glanced at Robin mockingly.

Then, facing the middle-aged female customer in front of the window, she smiled and said, "Auntie, please stop discussing and quickly handle your business. In a while, I still need to count 3.8 billion in cash, hehehe..."

Chapter 122 Robin Tops the Trending List

There were over ten customers in the business lobby of the bank, along with all the staff at the Business Department counter. They jeered loudly.

Everyone looked at Robin and Freddie as if they had just escaped from a mental hospital.

Their eyes were filled with mockery and disdain.

Some customers who had finished their business did not mean to leave immediately.

They waited in front of the door of the business lobby of the bank, eager to see how Robin would ultimately end up.

The bank employees who had finished their work at the business lobby counter sat inside, boredly watching the scene.

Some employees took out their phones and started chatting about the current situation on their social media.

Even some people secretly recorded videos of Robin and Freddie and posted them in their circle of friends.

Everyone, take a look, it's these two individuals. They said they would repay the bank loan with 3.8 billion in cash.

I died laughing. There are more and more fresh things in this world, hahaha...

"38 billion in cash, this guy actually wants to transport 38 billion in cash? This spectacular moment must not be missed!"

Chapter 122 Robin Tops the Trending List

I stayed at the bank today, watching how this lunatic managed to gather 3.8 billion in cash and transport it to the bank. Hahaha...

Soon, the chat that was originally confined to the circle of friends. quickly spread like wildfire across all the online platforms in Hallchester.

On all online platforms, a miraculous story was being widely circulated.

There was a young man who had to gather 3.8 billion in cash and return it to Golden Sun Bank within a few hours! Within just 20 minutes, this news directly topped the trending list!

Almost all the people of Hallchester saw this news.

Karina, who was attending the board meeting at the Huber Group conference hall, also learned about this news.

She didn't know what happened on Robin's side.

Karsyn quickly relayed Robin's message to her, "Ms. Huber, there might have been some trouble on Mr. Bruce's end."

Karina carefully watched the video that was trending first, and the person sitting in the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank was none other than Robin.

Taking another look at the comments from netizens below, she instantly remembered. It should be the repayment issue of Glory Edifice.

She immediately walked outside the conference hall and dialed Robin's phone number. Chapter 122 Robin Tops the Trending List

"Robin, I'm sorry, I was in a meeting just now and my phone was turned off. I saw your call over an hour ago. What happened on your end?"

Robin simply told her what had happened before and after.

Karina was very angry.

She called Harold out of the conference room and briefly recounted the situation with Robin and Golden Sun Bank. Harold pondered for a moment, "What do you want to do?"

Karina coldly exclaimed, "Grandfather, I will make Golden Sun Bank pay!"

Harold remained silent for a while and nodded.

"Karina, the Huber Group has been entrusted to you. Once you have made up your mind, go ahead and do it boldly!" "You remembered, no matter when or in what situation, the Huber family always acted with love and righteousness!"

"Mr. Bruce was the benefactor of the Huber family! If anyone were to trouble Mr. Bruce, the Huber family would never stand idly by!"

“No matter who the other party is, for Mr. Bruce, the Huber family never regrets, even if they have to give up everything!” “I understood, Grandpa!” Karina's eyes shimmered with a determined look.

“Karsyn immediately sent the decision of the Huber Group's board of directors to the head of all institutions under the Huber Group.”

“Firstly, all institutions and partners under the Huber Group immediately terminated their financial transactions with all domestic and international branches of Golden Sun Bank!”

“Secondly, immediately count the cash in the possession of all departments and institutions of the Huber Group, and gather with this cash in the business lobby of the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank in ten minutes!”

“Yes, Ms. Huber!” Karsyn immediately summoned the secretariat and Finance Department of the Huber Group headquarters to convey Chapter 123 Terminate All Business With Golden Sun Bank Karina's instructions.

One minute later, all institutions under the Huber Group in Hashville State immediately went to various branches of Golden Sun Bank to handle the cancellation of public accounts and the transfer of funds.

It is nearly twenty minutes until the end of work at half past five. The branches of Golden Sun Bank were in chaos for a while. Although the withdrawal of funds from the Huber Group did not significantly harm Golden Sun Bank.

However, within their bank, the sudden termination of business cooperation by top three clients like the Huber Group still shocked the upper management of Golden Sun Bank.

The headquarters of Golden Sun Bank immediately contacted the Chief Financial Officer of the Huber Group.

The response received informed them that the Huber Group had undergone normal business adjustments and there were no other reasons.

Several senior executives at the headquarters of Golden Sun Bank were puzzled by the response from the Finance Department of the Huber Group.

They tried to contact the president of the Huber Group, Karina, but couldn't reach her. Approaching the end of the workday, the headquarters of Golden Sun Bank immediately called for an emergency meeting.

They were led by a deputy general manager from the head office to form a public relations team and went to Hallcester to coordinate the business of the Huber Group.

Chapter 123 Teminate Alt Business With Golden Sun Bank

The meeting at the headquarters of Golden Sun Bank had not yet ended when a series of shocking news came one after another to them...

At the same time, on the second floor Peace Chamber of Purpeak Club, Cecilia was closing her eyes and meditating.

Livia hurriedly came from outside and said, "Miss, Mr. Bruce may have encountered trouble."

Cecilia suddenly opened her eyes and exclaimed, "What's going on?"

Livia presented the viral video from the internet to Cecilia.

Cecilia slowly stood up, and on her enchanting face, an instant coldness froze.

"How outrageous! A small Golden Sun Bank dares to give Mr. Bruce a hard time!"

"Livia, immediately notify all institutions under Purpeak International Group to terminate all cooperation with Golden Sun Bank." "And transferred all the funds of Purpeak International Group stored in Golden Sun Bank to accounts in other banks."

"Count all the cash in Purpeak International Group's hands and deliver it to the doorstep of Golden Sun Bank within ten minutes."

Just when the Huber Group and Purpeak International Group were terminating their business with Golden Sun Bank by using aggressive means. Conway, who was soaking in the hot springs at Mount Aroma, also received the same message. Did Mr. Bruce have an accident?

Chapter 123 Terminate All Business With Golden Sun Bank

In Hallchester, there were actually some fools who didn't have the sense to offend this gentleman! | had to perform well once.

"Barry!" Conway picked up the walkie-talkie. "Come over immediately!"

"Tell our Finance Department to terminate the cooperation with Golden Sun Bank, and tonight Roberto, that jerk, must transfer my business out!"

"If you don't take care of my matters, tonight you can take all the brothers to his house to sleep!"

"Furthermore, put all the information about Roberto's kept goddaughters over the years online, as well as disclose all the transactions between them!"

"Daring to offend Mr. Bruce, Roberto is a damn nuisance!"

"If we don't show him some colors, he won't know that this world has fairness and justice!"

Barry, who arrived promptly, blinked his eyes and thought to himself, "Can Mr. Lambert really speak of fairness and justice?" Conway tapped Barry's head and said, "Damn it! What kind of look is that?"

"I'm telling you, Mr. Lambert, | used to make a living from this job. If | did something wrong, | would admit it, unlike that damn Roberto. He may seem like a decent person, but he does despicable things behind people's backs!"

"He criticized Mr. Bruce, right? Okay, let him see if he can handle it!" Chapter 123 Terminate All Business With Golden Sun Bank Barry looked up at Conway with awe in his eyes and said, "Mr. Lambert, it has been so fulfilling to work with you all these years!"

Conway snorted coldly, "And also, retrieve all the cash from Demon's Lair's establishments, including the boxing arena, online lending, and those nightclubs. In ten minutes, have them all delivered to Golden Sun Bank. If they're even a minute late, I'll chop them up!"

“Yes, Mr. Lambert, | will go and do it immediately!” Barry’s eyes darted around.

“Mr. Bruce needs cash now, so | had those nightclubs and underground casinos that we oversee at Demon’s Lair gather cash as well, and send it to Mr. Bruce. Mr. Lambert, take a look...”

Conway burst into laughter and said, “Great! You go handle this. Whoever the hell doesn’t listen, we’ll shut them down tonight!” Mayor’s office of the Hallcester government.

Ethen was reviewing the documents that Hallcester had submitted. from various institutions today.

The municipal government secretary, Ricardo Barnett, walked into the office.

“Ethen, something is currently happening in Hallcester, and | am concerned that the situation will continue to escalate. Therefore, Iam reporting to you immediately.”

Ethen put down the documents and looked up.

He looked at Ricardo and noticed that Ricardo seemed a bit nervous.

“Ricardo, what’s the matter? Is it serious?”

Ricardo paused for a moment and said, “Ethen, just now the Chapter 123 Terminats All Business With Golden Bun Bank

Complaints Department called me and told me that Golden Sun Bank seemed to have encountered some trouble.” “Golden Sun Bank?” Ethen wondered, “What do they want?”

Ricardo opened his phone and presented the news about Golden Sun Bank’s preparation to receive a repayment of 3.8 billion to Ethen.

“Ethen, this is a matter concerning Freddie’s loan,”

Ethen nodded, “Freddie’s Glory Edifice, there has been constant news about it recently.”

He knew that if Freddie could hold on for a few more days, Glory Edifice would quickly rise from its slump.

He was not able to inform him about this news.

Although cruel, this was the discipline of the municipal government.

Ethen put down his phone and said, "Just give me a brief update, what's the current situation with Freddie?"

Ricardo stated, "Central Hallcester Bank and Golden Sun Bank terminated Freddie's loan contract several months ago." "Today was Freddie's final repayment deadline."

Ethen frowned slightly, "It is not uncommon for banks and other financial institutions to terminate loan contracts in advance, it is not against the rules, just a bit unscrupulous."

"They took into consideration the financial risk of the bank, which is normal. Are you saying that Freddie caused trouble at Golden Sun Bank because of this?"

Ricardo nodded, "Ethen, you can also say it like this."

Chapter 123 Terminate All Business With Golden Sun Bank "However, there was a small incident in between."

"Freddie transferred the construction rights of Glory Edifice to the Huber Group's Eastern District Development Corporation this afternoon. The agreement was signed by the group's president, Robin."

"Robin?" Ethen's eyes lit up.

A few days ago, when Robin was at the Finley's house, he deliberately leaked a little bit of information about the city government's plan to redevelop the southern area.

He did this to repay the favor to Robin for treating his father, Donovan. At that moment, Ethen's lips curled up with a hint of a smile upon hearing the news that Robin had signed with Glory Edifice.

Robin had a debt of gratitude towards the Finley family, and he could repay them a little favor, which would also bring some comfort to Ethen's heart.

Thinking of this, Ethen smiled to himself and said, “Tell me, what is the situation now?” Ricardo was slightly puzzled. He didn’t understand why Ethen was so happy upon hearing this news.

“Ethen, after Robin took over Glory Edifice, the Huber family’s young miss Karina, reached out to Golden Sun Bank and Central Hallcester Bank, guaranteeing the original loan of Freddie.”

“After the Huber Group’s board of directors officially approved taking over Glory Edifice, the Huber family will repay this loan.” “Both Central Hallcester Bank and Golden Sun Bank agreed to the Huber Group’s request.”

WON SYVE.

Chapter 123 Terminate All Business With Golden Sun Bank

“However, after responding to Karina’s proposal, Golden Sun Bank suddenly changed the previous negotiation outcome.” “They insisted on demanding that Freddie repay the 3.8 billion loan, including interest, before today at 24:00.”

“It was already past five o’clock now, close to the bank’s closing time, making it impossible to carry out large-scale public account transfers.”

“Taking this reason into consideration, the president of Golden Sun Bank, Roberto, initiated the procedure to seize Glory Edifice and closed the repayment channel ahead of time.”

“In this way, the ownership of Glory Edifice will no longer be Freddie’s after tonight at midnight.” “Therefore, the Glory Edifice transfer contract signed by Freddie and the Huber Group was nothing more than a piece of paper.”

“However, Robin and Freddie absurdly proposed to repay with 3.8 billion in cash.”

“The employees of Golden Sun Bank expressed dissatisfaction due to overtime as they demanded the bank to activate the special service of VIP repayment.”

Such news was filmed by some customers and internal staff of the bank and uploaded online... “In less than 20 minutes, this news topped the trending list.”

Ethen frowned and said, “The president of Golden Sun Bank is that guy named Roberto Francis, right? This private joint-stock bank is said to have developed quite well. Many well-known large enterprises in Hashville State have basically had business dealings with them in the past two years.'

Chapter 123 Terenata All Business With Sedan Bon Bank

"This year, Golden Sun Bank has also expanded its overseas business. It is said that they have taken on two major overseas orders."

"These two orders' turnover accounted for more than half of Golden Sun Bank's nationwide in Londraland." "Golden Sun Bank is considered one of the top performers among privately-owned joint-stock banks in Londraland." "Just that Mr. Francis' behavior this time was a bit strange, he didn't give the Huber family any face at all on this matter."

"What happened here?"

Chapter 124

Chapter 124 Wrong Judgment

Ethen was very puzzled by the actions of Roberto, the president of Golden Sun Bank. The Huber family's power in Hallchester was unmatched.

Golden Sun Bank was a private financial institution in Hallchester.

Normally, at this crucial moment, one should have sold a favor to the Huber family. However, Roberto did not inform Karina in advance.

Intentionally, Robin, the president of Eastern District Development Corporation, made things difficult regarding the loan issue at Glory Edifice.

This approach was a bit too low-end.

Ricardo noticed Ethen's confusion and said, "It is said that the Huber family had a heavyweight figure deliver a message to Roberto, asking him not to leave any room for Freddie."

"At the same time, there was a serious disagreement within the Huber family regarding taking over the Glory Edifice commercial site."

“I think it is highly likely that Roberto made a judgment error, leading to this incomprehensible action.”

“Roberto closed the repayment channel ahead of time and initiated the procedure to seize Glory Edifice, which may have angered Robin, the President of Eastern District Development Corporation.”

Chapter 124 Wrong Judgment

“Surprisingly, Robin unprecedently proposed to raise 3.8 billion in cash before midnight as repayment for the Glory Edifice loan.”

“Such a large sum of cash repayment was unprecedented in the financial history of Hallchester.”

“Roberto was in a difficult situation now.”

“He couldn’t take back the words he had already said before, so he had no choice but to agree to Robin repaying in cash.” “However, it is too difficult to raise 3.8 billion in cash within a few hours!”

“Even if the Huber Group pooled all the cash from their institutions together, it would not be possible to raise 3.8 billion in such a short period of time.”

“Therefore, the entire internet was watching to see who would win or lose this game.”

“If Robin really gathered 3.8 billion in cash before 24:00, the social image of Golden Sun Bank would be greatly compromised.” “Having lost its good service image, Golden Sun Bank may have collapsed from then on!”

“Even Hallchester and even Hashville State would lose a significant portion of their market.”

“However, if Robin fails to fulfill his promise, the Huber Group he represents will also become a laughingstock in the eyes of the world.”

“The stock of the Huber Group experienced a significant decline.”

“In conclusion, this fearless confrontation was a great loss for Hallchester.”

Chapter 124 Wrong Judgment

Ethen nodded, "Not bad, this Roberto is really confused, | guess his career is also coming to an end."

"Regardless of whether he wins or loses in today's matter, the top management of Golden Sun Bank headquarters will no longer employ him."

"From this point of view, Roberto's perspective was too narrow."

"From the current perspective, the southern plot of land is indeed a barren land, so it is normal for the Huber family executives to have different opinions on this."

"Ricardo, do you know what Mr. Harold's opinion was regarding Robin taking over Glory Edifice?"

Ricardo answered, "Ethen, from what | understood, Mr. Harold and his eldest son Camdyn, as well as his granddaughter Karina, all supported Robin taking over Glory Edifice."

"However, they were not considering the value of Glory Edifice, but only because this Robin was the savior of the Huber family."

"Everyone in Hallcester knew that the Huber family was very loyal, but the same couldn't be said for the dozen or so major shareholders of the Huber Group."

"Some shareholders believed that Robin's actions would completely ruin the legacy that the Huber family had painstakingly built over the years."

"From what | gathered, at this critical moment, a vice president named Reginald from the Huber Group privately called Roberto, the president of Golden Sun Bank.)

"What they specifically discussed is still unclear at the moment." Chapter 124 Wrong Judgment

"Roberto's decision to initiate the closure of Glory Edifice ahead of schedule is likely to be related to this phone call from Reginald."

"Robin and Freddie rushed to Golden Sun Bank after learning about it, and negotiated with them."

“Roberto knew that it was impossible for Freddie and him to repay the 3.8 billion through the system in such a short period of time.”

“Based on Roberto’s refusal to negotiate repayment matters, Robin only mentioned settling the repayment with 3.8 billion in cash.”

After learning the cause and effect of this matter, Ethen shook his head and said, “Roberto has such a narrow perspective!” “38 billion in cash?”

He furrowed his brow and began to ponder deeply.

38 billion in cash is not a small amount, and it was really not easy for Robin to raise it before 24 o’clock.

Even if Robin had the energy and connections to gather 3.8 billion in cash.

But during this period, the cash in the hands of various units had already been deposited into the treasury.

Ethen looked up at Ricardo and said, “Alright, | understand this matter now. You can go out first.”

Ricardo wanted to say something, but Ethen gestured for him to leave.

After Ricardo left the office, Ethen picked up the phone and dialed his younger brother Devin’s mobile: “Devin, where are you now and what are you doing?”

At this moment. Devin was at home, enjoying tea with his grandfather, Donovan

“| was chatting with my dad.”

“| was about to discuss with you about organizing a celebration for Dad’s recovery.”

“This afternoon, | gathered a few people to form a preparation team for a celebration banquet.” “They were currently arranging the relevant matters and the list of acknowledgments.”

“| will show you the preparation status prepared by the organizing committee at that time, and then you can review it to see if there are any omissions.”

On the other end of the phone. Ethen fell silent for a moment and said, “Devin, let’s talk about Dad’s celebration when I get back.”

“I called you to tell you that Robin was in trouble.”

“You opened your phone and checked the trending lists on various platforms.”

Devin frowned, “Oh, Robin ran into trouble. Where is he now?”

“It was in Hallcester.”

“Brother, Robin will encounter trouble in Hallcester? You must be joking,” Devin asked with a smile.

Ethen said in a low voice, “I’m not joking with you. How much cash can you gather in your hands right now? The more, the better.”

“Cash? I never carry cash, what do you mean?”

Chapter 124 Wrong Judgment

“You are now using all your connections to raise cash. Gather as much as you can before midnight!” “Okay, big brother, I will go and do it right away.”

Devin hung up the phone directly and stood up, walking towards the exit.

Donovan saw Devin in a hurry and asked, “What’s wrong? Did something happen?”

Devin had finished reading the trending topics and understood the background and consequences of Robin’s actions at Golden Sun Bank.

“Dad, Golden Sun Bank is being unfair to Robin and we need to intervene in this matter.”

“It was not Roberto’s turn to bully people in Hallcester!”

Donovan nodded, “How much cash do you need? If it’s not enough, let me know immediately.”

Devin was well aware that 3.8 billion in cash was just a phone call away for the old man.

However, he didn't want to easily use his grandfather's connections for such a small matter.

"Not much, I went out to make a few calls and asked them to gather some. Don't worry, this is not a big deal."

Devin left the hall and came face to face with Randall who was walking towards him.

"General Allen, the old man is waiting for you at home. I have some urgent matters to attend to, so I won't accompany you." Chapter 124 Wrong Judgment

Randall watched Devin's back and shook his head, "Is this kid busy every day?"

Entering the hall, Randall asked, "Sir, what was Devin busy with?"

"Do you remember the young man who helped me treat my illness?"

Randall's eyes lit up. "Of course I remember, I came over today specifically for this matter. What happened to him?" Donovan laughed, "Young people are full of energy and refuse to be dominated by anyone."

"That Robin had a slight conflict with Golden Sun Bank due to taking over the Glory Edifice in the southern part of the city."

"The bank forced us to repay the 3.8 billion loan before midnight tonight, as they had already initiated the closure of the repayment channel before the end of working hours."

"Robin was about to repay 3.8 billion in cash. This matter went viral."

Randall opened his phone and briefly looked over the events that had transpired.

Staring at Robin in the video for quite a while, the emotions suddenly became somewhat excited. "This kid's arrogance is so much like someone, really too much!"

Donovan looked at Randall's excited expression and asked, "What's wrong? What did you see?" Randall trembled as he lifted his head and said, "Sir, do you still remember that person from back then..."

“What?” Donovan suddenly stood up, remained silent for a while, grabbed the phone from Randall's hand, and zoomed in on Robin's figure in the video.

Chapter 124 Wrong Judgment

“Randall, do you suspect Robin is involved with that person?”

Randall nodded, “Old man, the last time | met him here for the first time, | had a very familiar feeling.”

“This feeling emanated from deep within the bones.”

“He was unruly, he looked down on everything, he was arrogant and full of himself. | saw all these inherent qualities in this kid.” Donovan was instantly stunned.

In front of his eyes, all he saw was Lord Wyvern, the legendary figure who had once been revered by the entire army, forty years ago.

Chapter 125

Chapter 125 Ruth Andy

At this moment, it was already half past five in the afternoon.

At this time, all the banks had closed.

Only the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank remained, still preparing for action.

All the bank employees were at their respective positions.

Waiting for Robin, 38 billion cash was being transported to the bank hall for counting. However, these bank employees who were forced to work overtime began to complain.

“It's already after work hours now, can Robin really bring in 3.8 billion in cash?”

“I don’t know if it’s true or not, but it seemed like he was sitting there without any movement.” “You believed too!!!

“38 billion in cash! Such a large sum, even the wealthiest person in Hashville State, Devin, would not be able to raise it in such a short period of time.”

“Did you see? It seems like he was younger than us.”

“With his way, do you really think it could bring in 3.8 billion in cash?” “But why did the bank manager make us work overtime? Can’t we 0.00%

11:45

Chapter 125 Ruth Andy

refuse his unrealistic demands?”

“No, we cannot do it. Our bank must provide VIP special services for such large customer transactions, and even the bank president has no choice”

“If we don’t agree with him, many people will be in trouble if he complains about us.” “These people only know how to complain. What if he can’t bring so much cash tonight?”

“I heard that he promised in front of Mr. Francis that if he couldn’t bring in 3.8 billion in cash, he would kowtow and apologize to every person in our bank!”

“What’s the use of kowtowing to apologize?”

“I had a lot of important things to do tonight. I had made plans with some old classmates whom I hadn’t seen in years to go to a bar together. But I couldn’t go because of this.”

“Just waiting here bored, can’t do anything, it’s really annoying!”

The young bank employees were eating a delicate dinner specially prepared for them by the bank, while complaining. Everyone was full of resentment towards Robin, who was sitting in the hall.

Robin had already received calls from Karina, Cecilia, and Conway at this time.

Devin also sent a message and informed that he had arranged for dinner to be delivered and not to worry about the money. Chapter 125 Ruth Andy

Originally, Robin thought of making a phone call himself to have Enzo's several wives transport 3.8 billion cash by air to some industries nearby.

Now it seems that the amount of cash they reported is more than enough.

There was no need to use one's own strength to solve this huge sum of money.

Just as he had finished chatting with Devin, a profile picture of a young Meotrian woman popped up on his Line. "Robin, I have already arrived in Londraland now. I just found out your information, you were in Hallcester in Londraland."

I came to Londraland this time for some business and also to inspect the situation of Golden Sun Bank, with which our Office of Estya Affairs recently signed a new contract.

I was near Hallcester, give me a location and I will arrive at your position in thirty minutes.

Robin suddenly became clever.

Ruth Andy is the granddaughter of Finn Andy, the current head of the Andy family.

Three years ago, Finn and his granddaughter Ruth were rescued from the Bronia mercenaries during a secret security mission. From then on, Robin became the most honored guest of the Andy family.

Even President Potrya's status in front of the Andy family cannot compare to Robin's.

Chapter 12% Ruth Andy

How did Ruth come to Londraland?

Where did she find out about my information?

It was definitely Enzo, his fairy mistress, who betrayed my information to Ruth!

This dead woman must have wanted to use the Andy family's sales network to help her sell the newly developed cosmetics, which is why she told Ruth my address.

This witch, | will come find you to settle the score after | go back!

Robin knew that even if he didn't tell Ruth his whereabouts.

Ruth, with their extensive information network of the Andy family, was also able to find him in ten seconds.

| had to send my location to Ruth.

After sending the message, he suddenly noticed that Ruth's message mentioned checking out Golden Sun Bank. This is fucking too coincidental.

It seems that the fate of Golden Sun Bank has also come to an end!

At this moment, Elisa, the head of the Credit Department at the bank, received a phone call from her husband Garry. "Elisa, haven't you finished work yet? You were supposed to come back early, but you didn't come home early either."

"Okay, you wait for me at the bank, | will go to the airport immediately to pick up Leandro, and while I'm at it, | will pick you up from in front of your bank and we can have a meal outside together."

Chapter 125 Ruth Andy "Oh, | forgot to ask you, what happened at your bank that requires you to work overtime?" "It seems like you have never worked overtime since you joined the banking system."

Elisa glanced irritably at Robin sitting in the lobby and said, "Just talking about this makes me annoyed! Today, at our bank, we encountered an inexperienced kid who actually said he wanted to repay the loan with 3.8 billion in cash."

"What? 3.8 billion in cash! Are you crazy? What on earth requires such a huge amount of cash?" Garry exclaimed in astonishment.

"The key is whether he had the ability to gather 3.8 billion in cash during this time period."

Elisa sneered, “It’s about the loan repayment of the Glory Edifice plot in the southern part of the city.”

“Glory Edifice?” Garry laughed.

“Did this person run away from a mental hospital?”

“Who would be willing to take over the Glory Edifice plot in the south of the city in the current market situation?” “Glory Edifice was completely worthless, and yet this person was willing to lend Freddie 3.8 billion?!”

“And it was for the Glory Edifice!”

“Damn it, the person you’re talking about had a messed up mind!”

“Ah, Elisa, how long do you have to work overtime?” Garry asked on the phone.

Chapter 125 Ruth Andy

Elisa sighed, “Until now, not a single penny has come in, but we must wait.”

“This person named Robin said that if we don’t promise to open a VIP repayment channel, he will complain about us!”

“Even to the point of lodging a complaint against us with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, it is not easy for us to hold this job, we must provide services for him!”

Garry sounded a bit angry, “So, what you’re saying is that if he doesn’t have enough money, you can’t leave?” “Yes, husband! Today, it seems that even if his money doesn’t come, we still have to wait until midnight.”

“If he could really get this money, we would probably have to work overnight, and we might not even be able to count the 3.8 billion cash.”

“But don’t worry, don’t rush. Later, you can talk to Leandro.”

“You go with him for dinner first, and we will invite him to have tea at a leisure club later in the night. You go pick him up first and then we’ll talk.”

“Robin, it was impossible for you to get the money before 12 o’clock,” Elisa said as she hung up the phone and approached Robin.

“Robin, you heard it too, my husband has already gone to the airport to pick up his old classmate Leandro.”

“Do you know that Leandro is the vice president of the Andy family, one of the world’s top five tycoons, in Estya? If you anger him...

Robin interrupted her, “Go away, I don’t care which family he belongs to. If you want to lick him, go ahead and lick him. There’s nothing to show off in front of me!”

Chapter 125 Ruth Andy

Elisa glared angrily at Robin, “What’s wrong with you? I was telling you to have a sense of propriety and respect in your actions, but you didn’t appreciate it. I’m asking you, can you actually repay the money?”

Robin glanced at Elisa and said, “You don’t need to ask me this question. Go argue with your bank manager. I don’t know you well and I don’t want to chat with you!”

Elisa was furious.

On weekdays, she was the director of the Credit Department at Golden Sun Bank, and her husband was the assistant to the deputy mayor of the municipal government. Who would dare to have such an attitude towards her!

She pointed at Robin and angrily exclaimed, “You! Are you afraid to talk to me directly because I am so beautiful?”

“Sick! Auntie, don’t you see how old you are?! Remember, as a middle-aged woman like you, the word ‘beautiful’ has long been out of reach!” Robin said indifferently, without even lifting an eyelid.

This caused some young female employees in the business lobby to secretly laugh.

“Ah! You... you called me Auntie?! I... I...” Elisa trembled with anger, pointing at Robin, unable to speak. Freddie burst into laughter.

Elisa angrily turned towards Roberto's office in the Business Department.

"Mr. Francis, it infuriated me! I mean, just ignore him completely! That little kid Robin, who hasn't even grown his hair properly, do you believe what he says?"

Chapter 125 Huth Andy

"I just wanted to ask you, what if today he couldn't transfer the 3.8 billion to our bank as promised..."

"Alright, let's not say these words anymore," Roberto sighed helplessly.

While he was speaking, his phone rang.

After checking the incoming call number, he quickly gestured to the others not to make any noise.

"It was a call from Mr. Kennedy, the head office."

Roberto quickly stood up and respectfully said, "Mr. Kennedy, hello. Is there any instruction for calling so late?"

On the other end of the phone, Wayne Kennedy said in a low voice, "Roberto, I just saw the top trending news, and it turns out it's about what happened at our Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank. What on earth did you do?"

Roberto trembled for a moment and said, "Mr. Kennedy, we were just handling the loan repayment business as usual. I don't know how it ended up trending."

"You're talking nonsense!" Wayne scolded.

"As far as I know, regarding the loan repayment issue of Glory Edifice, this afternoon at around three o'clock, the President of the Huber family's board of directors, Karina, called and negotiated with you, and promised to provide guarantees."

"Why did you close the repayment channel ahead of time?"

"And, disregarding Ms. Huber's guarantee, initiated the procedure to seal Glory Edifice alone?" Chapter 125 Ruth Andy

“What are you doing?!”

“Are you handling banking affairs based on personal preferences? Or did you accept bribes from someone to make such irrational actions?!”

Roberto’s forehead was covered in sweat. He knew that he had indeed been too thoughtless in doing this.

But at this point, he couldn’t say that the absurd decision he made was solely because he didn’t know much about the Huber family’s situation and blindly followed Reginald’s words.

The current situation has put him in a difficult position, and he has been unable to flinch.

I had to explain, “Mr. Kennedy, Karina did indeed call me and mention the loan guarantee matter for Glory Edifice, but it was all vague and ambiguous words.”

“After all, the southern plot of land was a garbage dump.”

“I was worried that if she said she had forgotten about this matter the next day, just casually, then we would be in trouble.”

Chapter 126

Chapter 126 | Don’t Care Who Your Husband Is

Roberto wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and tried to calm his nervousness. He continued, “Mr. Kennedy, there will be no further progress on the Hallchester South plot in the next decade.”

“And recently, there has been a serious trend of selling off land in the southern part of the city.”

“Many of the capital investors who previously held the southern plots have already started selling them at a price of ten percent or less.”

“Glory Edifice business district, although Freddie has invested nearly 20 billion in the past three years, according to the current market situation in Hallchester, it is now difficult for anyone to take over even 200 million.”

“The Huber Group had serious disagreements internally regarding taking over Glory Edifice. This is also a major reason why I couldn't believe Karina's assurance.”

“If we cannot take over the re-auction of Glory Edifice in a timely manner, it is estimated that we will have difficulty recovering even one-third of the loan we had at that time...”

“Roberto, do you know what happened?” Mr. Kennedy interrupted his explanation on the other end of the phone, angrily.

“20 minutes ago, the Huber Group terminated all business cooperation with our Golden Sun Bank's regional branch banks and requested the closure of their accounts held by the Huber family and all subsidiary branches at Golden Sun Bank.”

“Our Golden Sun Bank, within just half an hour, only the Huber

Chapter 1261 Dont Care Who Your Husband is

Group alone, lost nearly 10% of our business revenue!”

“Roberto, are you capable of taking on this responsibility?”

“You calculate the account for me, what does such a loss amount to compared to the 3.8 billion loan!” “Now, your behavior has already put Golden Sun Bank in the eye of the storm!”

“Everyone was paying attention to us. Can you make up for such a negative impact?”

“If you cannot handle this matter properly tonight, let me tell you, Roberto, not only will you have to bear the cost of being dismissed, but you will also face the possibility of being sued!”

“Now, our Golden Sun Bank's stocks have started showing signs of decline in the securities market!” “If we continue like this and fail to create some good news, Golden Sun Bank will be ruined under your control! You bastard!”

“Mr. Gonzalez will arrive at Hallcester soon. At that time, you must cooperate with him to handle the coordination work with the Huber Group. You must also handle the Robin incident well tonight!”

On the way to the city from Hallcester Airport.

Three Mercedes cars quickly drove towards the Hallcester center.

They were Elisa's husband, Garry, the assistant to the deputy mayor, who came to pick up Leandro's vehicle. Leandro was Garry's classmate during their time at Southeast Estya

Chapter 126 | Don't Care Who Your Husband Is

Middle School.

They haven't seen each other for 20 years.

However, we have always kept in touch on regular days.

Earlier this year, after assuming the position of Vice President of the Office of Estya Affairs in the Andy family, Leandro had more frequent contact with Garry.

We made many appointments, but we were unable to meet successfully. Today, the two finally met in Hallcester.- Leandro was very excited.

"Garry, it is said that you were very likely to be promoted as the Deputy Mayor of Hallcester recently. Your career path seems to be going smoothly, huh?"

Garry shook his head and said, "Old friend, you have really made it big. The way you have prospered in the Andy family is truly remarkable. They are one of the world's top five business conglomerates."

"You are now serving as the Vice President of the Andy family in the Office of Estya Affairs, and I am so envious."

"I was thinking that if I ever failed in my career in the future, I would just follow you! Hahaha..."

"No problem!" Leandro laughed.

"Well, Garry, everyone has their own ideals and aspirations. What I have done, to be honest, may not be impressive to you.

"Ah, I often heard you say in your letters that you have a beautiful wife who is also a great cook. It's been a long time since I had a taste of Londraland cuisine. Today, I must try the delicious home-cooked Londraland dishes made by your lovely wife.”

Garry shrugged helplessly and said, “Old friend, it’s a pity. There was a special situation at my wife’s bank, Golden Sun Bank, tonight, and she had to work overtime.”

“I heard that you wanted to taste her cooking. She was supposed to come back early and personally cook two of her signature dishes for you to try. Unfortunately, it’s not possible today.”

“In this way, I invited you to the best roast duck restaurant in Hallcester, to taste the flavor of our Londraland roast duck.”

“After midnight, when my wife finishes dealing with her banking matters, would you please come to a tea house in the northern suburbs of our city and taste our fragrant tea from Londraland?”

Leandro’s expression, which was originally full of excitement, dimmed upon hearing the words.

“Garry, you were very dishonest! I came to Hallcester this time just to taste your Londraland’s home-cooked dishes.” “It is such a pity that you said it like this.”

Garry smiled helplessly and said, “Leandro, it wasn’t intentional on our part.”

“There was indeed a special situation today, as Golden Sun Bank had a very tricky customer.”

“It is said that he was only around 20 years old and threatened to bring in 3.8 billion in cash, making all the bank staff work overtime to count the money.”

Chapter 1261 Dont Care Who Your Husband is

“But until now, this guy hasn’t taken out a single penny, I suspect that he is just playing a prank!” Leandro frowned, “There are such rude and insolent people within. Londraland?”

“I went to take a look! I hate people who don’t understand the rules the most!”

“It’s time to get off work now, how can we continue working!”

Garry chuckled and said, "Never mind, Leandro, let's go eat first..."

"No, we should go and take a look," insisted Leandro.

"Well... alright then," Garry couldn't resist Leandro's insistence and reluctantly instructed the driver to take them directly to the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank.

At this moment, the Deputy President of the head office of Golden Sun Bank, Daniel, had also arrived at the business lobby of the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank..

The purpose of Daniel Gonzalez's trip, besides dealing with Robin's case, was...

The most important thing was to coordinate and negotiate with the Huber Group, in order to retain as much of the Huber Group's financial business at Golden Sun Bank as possible.

After Daniel arrived at the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank, Roberto and Elisa came out to greet him.

After a brief understanding of the situation, Daniel walked up to Robin and said, "Mr. Bruce, hello. Today's matter was mishandled by our bank, and I apologize to you."

Chapter 126 (Dont Care Who Your Husband s

"My point is, can we solve this matter in a different way..."

Robin shook his head and said, "Mr. Gonzalez, today things have reached this point."

"My money is also on the way, and now you're telling me to renegotiate. Do you think it's appropriate?" "At this point, it would be best if we finished dealing with this matter."

Daniel smiled awkwardly and said, "Since Mr. Bruce has agreed to raise 3.8 billion in cash to repay the loan, of course I welcome it."

"But please also consider the practical situation. Being angry with us won't actually solve the problem. Everyone knows that it is difficult to gather 3.8 billion in cash, which is the first issue."

“Secondly, even if you brought 3.8 billion in cash tonight, the bank staff would still be unable to count it all.”

Robin smiled and said, “Mr. Gonzalez, it was your bank employees who caused this situation. You don’t need to tell me these words.”

Daniel was extremely angry when he saw that Robin completely disregarded his opinion. However, on the surface, he still pretended to be very humble. He needed to open up the situation from this matter and further negotiate with the Huber Group regarding continuing cooperation matters.

“Mr. Bruce, could you please try to contact Ms. Huber, the President of the Huber Group?”

“Previously, we made multiple attempts to contact her, but we were unable to receive a response from Ms. Huber...” Chapter 1261 Don’t Care Who Your Husband is Robin raised an eyebrow and said, “Mr. Gonzalez, don’t come to me about this matter.

“What do you want to do, you can directly consult the higher-ups of the Huber Group. I am currently only dealing with immediate matters, and I don’t ask about anything else.”

Elisa exclaimed angrily, “Mr. Gonzalez, don’t be polite to this kind of person!”

“This kind of person didn’t understand social etiquette at all, and was unwilling to leave any room for others in anything they did. Sooner or later, they would fall flat on their face!”

Daniel looked at Robin and thought to himself, “Haha, still too young and immature. He is too straightforward in his actions and doesn’t understand the concept of being tactful.”

Elisa continued to shout, “Robin, I told you, do you think you can solve the problem like this?”

“Mr. Gonzalez has already spoken to someone of your status with such humility, and what do you have? You even have the audacity to act indifferent.

Who do you think you are? Just wait a few more hours, you'll see what's coming to you, hm!"

"Can you give a firm answer, are you willing to renegotiate the repayment method?"

Robin smiled indifferently, "You say to close the transfer and repayment channels, and they will be closed? You say there will be no negotiation, and there will be no negotiation."

"Now they are telling me not to repay in cash and want to negotiate with me." "Hehe, what do you think you are? Whatever you ask me to do, | will Chapter 126 | Don't Care Who Your Husband do it."

"Roberto had already told me that | should repay in cash! So, | am repaying now, and you must accept it without any negotiation."

"You!" Elisa angrily pointed at Robin, unable to speak. At that time, three Mercedes cars were parked in front of the lobby of Golden Sun Bank. Garry accompanied Leandro and his four bodyguards as they entered the lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

Garry saw Elisa's face turn pale with anger, he furrowed his brows slightly and whispered to Leandro, "Wait a moment, let me go and take a look first."

After saying that, he walked quickly to Elisa's side and asked, "Elisa, what happened?"

Elisa saw Garry approaching and instantly straightened her back, held her head higher, and pointed at Robin, saying, "Robin, let me tell you, this is my husband! He is the assistant to the deputy mayor of Hallchester, and | can openly tell you that my husband is in charge of finance and economy."

"Just now, Mr. Gonzalez also said that you should go back immediately!"

"This loan could be renegotiated for repayment..."

"What does it matter to me what your husband manages? It has nothing to do with me!"

Elisa shouted angrily, "How dare you disrespect my husband! My husband is a vice mayor—level official..." Chapter 126 1 Don't Care Who Your Husband Is Robin sneered and laughed, "I don't care who your husband is, what does he think he is? Interfering with me, get lost!"

Chapter 127

Chapter 127 | Want to Divorce You!

As Robin's words fell, the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank instantly fell into a silence so quiet that one could hear a pin drop. After a brief shock, everyone turned to look at Robin.

This

guy is still too young. Who is Elisa's husband Garry?

He was the assistant to Vice Mayor Hallcester.

Six months later, the most focused candidate for the deputy mayor.

Garry's father was the deputy mayor of Hallcester back then.

In the Hallcester government and various industries, he had a wide network.

Now in his early thirties, he became the assistant to the deputy mayor.

Many people had high hopes for him, believing that he could become a mayor or even a deputy provincial-level official in the future.

This guy Robin, so disrespectful to Garry, actually said he's nothing.

It seems that this young man didn't have a long way in Hallcester!

Leandro, who was standing far away in the back, frowned slightly upon seeing this scene.

My old classmate was humiliated and angrily confronted by someone, which made him very uncomfortable. He looked at Robin with great displeasure, a bundle of anger ready to burst out in his heart!

np.

Chapter 1271 Want to Divorce You!

Youthful recklessness can be understood.

However, in such a situation, if one does not know how to restrain oneself, is too arrogant, and does not give others any face, it is a bit unacceptable.

So, Leandro took a step forward and pointed at Robin, saying, "You, young man, how can you speak like that? You have no manners at all!"

"Now the bank is approaching you with a negotiating attitude, but you are showing this unreasonable attitude, which is simply beyond comprehension!"

"My old classmate was an official in the city government, and he spoke to you in a very gentlemanly manner, but you showed no... At this point, suddenly he noticed Robin's smirk, and he shivered abruptly. This smile?

How could this young man's smile be so familiar, horrifying, and terrifying?!

Leandro quickly recalled in his mind who this young man in front of him was.

Why did I tremble so much when I saw his smile?

Leandro, confident in his ability to do business around the world, had traveled to many places and met many people. However, he had never felt as terrified as he did today.

He widened his eyes in astonishment, carefully sizing up Robin, and suddenly took a step back, unable to speak for a while. Garry did not notice Leandro's expression at the moment.

Chapter 1271 Want to Divorce You!

271 Want to Seeing his old classmate stepping forward to speak for him, he said to Robin in a cold voice, "Kid, as a public servant of the municipal government, I don't want to say too much inappropriate things to you."

“But I can tell you, my old classmate Leandro, his identity is not what you can imagine in front of him!” “If you want to deal with problems in this unscrupulous way, then you should be more cautious.” “Hehe... Are you trying to threaten me?” Robin sneered.

“Leandro, the Vice President of the Andy family, had a background in the Hondry Sect.”

“Your old classmate, this assistant to the deputy mayor of the city government, is implying that with a background like Hondry Sect, you can use various means to discipline me?”

Leandro shivered for a moment, instantly his heart raced and his breathing became tense.

He looked at Robin’s interested eyes and smile at that moment, and almost died of fright.

Garry, Elisa, and everyone around them suddenly realized that Leandro was looking at Robin as if he had seen a ghost, unable to utter a word.

The grandeur of the aristocratic family that existed before is completely gone!

At this moment, Leandro finally gathered up the courage and respectfully said, “Mr. Bruce, may I have a word with you?” Robin nodded with a smile and said, “Want to talk to me? Alright! Let’s go to the VIP room over there.”

Chapter 1271 Want to Divorce You

Leandro bowed and nodded, “Yes, Mr. Bruce, this way please.”

After speaking. I walked alongside Robin towards the business lobby’s. VIP negotiation room.

That appearance, it was as if a servant was following their master.

Everyone in the business lobby looked at this strange scene, not knowing what had happened.

Why was Leandro, the Vice President of the Office of Estya Affairs in the Andy family, considered as expensive? Originally, in front of Robin, he still had a superior attitude.

Why did suddenly become so obedient and submissive?

Seeing Robin was like seeing a fierce and evil deity.

Leandro entered the VIP negotiation room and immediately closed the door.

With a thud, he knelt in front of Robin and said, "Mr. Bruce, I am doomed! I did not recognize you as Lord Dragon. Please let Lord Dragon punish me."

Robin smiled indifferently, "It's okay, it's not too late to know now. If you had said one more word just now, you would have walked out of this bank hall as a pile of corpses."

Leandro looked at Robin in horror, kneeling on the ground and dare not to lift his head, "Lord Dragon, it was my blindness!"

At this moment, in front of Leandro's eyes, all he could see was the bloody battle that had taken place several years ago at the headquarters of the Hondry Sect.

Three years ago, the upper echelons of Hondry Sect were incited by someone and openly provoked Lord Dragon, carrying out an assassination against him. In a fit of anger, Lord Dragon stormed into the headquarters of the Hondry Sect alone. One night, a person wielded a blunt Dragon Dagger and terrifyingly slaughtered nearly 500 disciples of the Hondry Sect.

Until the end, the leader of Hondry Sect, Matthew, was completely defeated, kneeling on the ground, begging Lord Dragon to spare Hondry Sect.

From then on, the Hondry Sect regarded Lord Dragon as their eternal master. All disciples under the Hondry Sect, when they saw Lord Dragon, had to kneel down and perform the gesture of a servant!

Those who dare to disrespect Lord Dragon, the disciples of the Hondry Sect will pursue and kill them relentlessly, never giving up until they are dead!

For many years, Leandro would go crazy with fear whenever he thought about the mountains of corpses and rivers of blood at the headquarters of the Hondry Sect that year.

That was the Annihilator!

It was so scary!

At this moment, Lord Dragon was unexpectedly seen again here, and moreover, | even spoke disrespectfully. He trembled all over in fear and said, "Lord Dragon, is there anything that | need to take care of?" Londraland immediately!"

"Yes, Lord Dragon! | will never appear here again. From now on, | have no connection with Garry. May | ask if there are any further orders, Lord Dragon?"

"No more, get lost!"

Leandro bumped his head and then trembled as he stood up. He walked out of the VIP room in a disheveled manner and headed towards the business lobby.

Garry saw Leandro looking lost and approached him, asking, "Leandro, what's going on? Where are you headed?" "Garry, remember this, from now on, we are completely estranged, and there will be no connection between us!"

After saying that, he and the four bodyguards got into the car and sped away, leaving behind a crowd of puzzled looks in the bank's business lobby.

Garry didn't know what had happened.

After seeing Robin, Leandro unexpectedly ended their friendship that had lasted for 15 years. After coming out of the VIP room, he said a sentence that had nothing to do with him and then left. What happened?

At that moment, he looked at Robin walking out of the VIP room, his eyes filled with confusion. What did this jerk/say to Leandro?

Elisa was also confused by the scene in front of her. When she saw Robin coming out, she shouted angrily, "You bastard! What did you do to my husband's classmate? Are you scheming behind his back, talking bad about my husband?"

"I told you, Robin, I would definitely investigate this matter thoroughly!"

"Don't think that having the Huber Group backing you up means you can act recklessly!"

"My husband's classmate, however,

Robin ignored Elisa and walked straight to the middle of the business lobby.

Garry wanted to approach and question, but then his phone rang.

The phone call was from Deputy Mayor Scott: "Mr. Rhodes, hello. Please tell me what you need when you call me now."

On the other end of the phone, Scott said coldly, "Garry, as a public official of the city government, you have involved yourself in matters you shouldn't have."

"Now, the Complaints Department of the municipal government has brought a recent report accusing you of embezzlement and bribery, as well as colluding with your wife to misappropriate public assets. The relevant department has initiated an investigation, and you are required to return and cooperate with the municipal government's scrutiny of you."

"Furthermore, I must inform you that the next term's candidacy for the position of Deputy Mayor has been eliminated." "Garry, you really disappointed me. Take care of yourself!"

Chapter 1271 Want to Diwere You!

Scott hung up the phone, and Garry was struck by lightning.

What happened today?

Not only did his old classmate Leandro cut off all ties with him, but also...

My originally smooth career path also came to an end.

At that moment, he looked at Robin and then glanced at Elisa, who was angry and resembled a combative rooster. He immediately understood.

All the reasons today were caused by this woman.

He didn't know what kind of background Robin had.

But he believed that all these things today were all because of him.

How strong his background was, he couldn't even imagine.

Leandro trembled all over when he saw him.

Robin's background, identity, and status were undoubtedly impressive!

With this in mind, he quickly walked up to Robin and respectfully said, "Mr. Bruce, I'm sorry, I..."

Robin ignored him and started chatting with Freddie about unrelated topics, as if everything happening around him had nothing to do with him. Garry had a setback.

However, he knew that someone like Robin, with a powerful background, would never pay attention to someone like him, a small fry.

Dupler 127 | Want to Divorce Your

Thinking of this, he became annoyed!

If it weren't for my wife Elisa being so domineering.

He paraded around all day long, proudly displaying his badge as the deputy mayor's assistant.

It didn't escalate to the extent it has reached today.

It has come to this point, with no room for any turning back.

He angrily turned towards Elisa and slapped her in the face, saying, "You despicable woman, I want a divorce from you!" "Why did you hit me? Honey, are you okay? I can't divorce you. Snap out of it, what's wrong with you?" Elisa looked at Garry in horror, his angry expression leaving her clueless about what had happened. Leandro left angrily, wanting to cut off all ties with Garry

At this moment, Garry was getting divorced from her again, and they both seemed possessed!

What exactly happened?

Elisa became more and more scared as she thought about it, and suddenly she remembered someone, looking at Robin in terror.

Is it him? The business lobby of Golden Sun Bank was filled with silence. At this moment, everyone looked at Robin's back and suddenly felt a chill down their spines!

Chapter 128 Their Source of Confidence

Chapter 128

Chapter 128 Their Source of Confidence

The business lobby of Golden Sun Bank was silent.

All the bank employees who participated in overtime work didn't know what had happened.

The strange scene between Leandro and Garry left everyone puzzled.

Were they possessed?

What did Leandro and Robin say in the VIP room?

Why did Leandro leave immediately after coming out?

All of this left them completely baffled.

At this moment, it was almost 6 o'clock in the evening, and there was a sea of people in front of the Golden Sun Bank. Except for the staff on duty at Golden Sun Bank.

Some customers who liked to watch the excitement.

I learned online that Golden Sun Bank was about to stage a thrilling scene of repaying 3.8 billion in cash. They all gathered in front of the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

At one point, the bank entrance, which should have been quiet and empty after work, was crowded with a large number of onlookers.

Suddenly, a burst of screams and the roar of cars came, and the crowd in front of the Golden Sun Bank's gate became restless. Chapter 128 The Source of Confidence

Everyone immediately made way for a passage.

Four top-of-the-line Mercedes and one Rolls-Royce sped to the entrance of the bank's lobby.

The Huber family's young lady Karina, Karsyn, and over a dozen suited bodyguards emerged from Rolls-Royce.

They carried the password money box, walking neatly behind Karina, and quickly headed towards the lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

Karina walked into the business lobby and said from a distance, "Robin, sorry for keeping you waiting. I have already gathered one billion in cash and there are several billion more on the way, heading towards Golden Sun Bank."

"Don't worry, the 3.8 billion cash will definitely be delivered here. before midnight tonight."

Karina's words sent a chill down the spine of everyone in the bank.

The Huber family deserves to be the top prominent family in Hallcester!

38 billion in cash, surprisingly, could be raised rapidly within a few hours.

The initial ten billion dollars in cash has been delivered to the front of the bank.

Seeing the luxurious scene in front of the Golden Sun Bank, Roberto felt like dying at that moment. He regretted how he could have believed Reginald's words and ignored Ms. Huber's words.

It has come to the current situation.

Chapter 128 Their Source of Confidence

He knew that he could no longer salvage the situation, and today he had caused a great disaster. Daniel was shocked to see that the visitor was Karina, the young miss of the Huber family.

He couldn't believe that the Huber family had managed to raise ten billion dollars in such a short period of time. According to Karina, the remaining cash is all on the way and will be delivered here before 24 o'clock.

Daniel calmed his nerves slightly and quickly approached, saying, "Ms. Huber, hello, I am Vice President White from the headquarters of Golden Sun Bank..."

Without finishing her words, Karina completely ignored her and walked straight past him.

She quickly ran up to Robin and apologized, "Robin, I'm sorry. I was in a meeting when you called, I had no idea this would happen."

"Don't worry, whoever made you feel wronged, the Huber family will make them pay back tenfold or even a hundred fold!" Karina's words sent a shiver through everyone in the bank.

The Huber family was really angry!

Whoever made you feel wronged, the Huber family will make them pay back tenfold or a hundred fold! This is the confidence of the Huber family!

Don't mention a small Golden Sun Bank.

Even the strength in the hands of the head office of Golden Sun Bank cannot rival the Huber Group!

Chapter 128 Their Source of Confidence

It seems that Golden Sun Bank has really hit a snag.

Daniel saw Karina and she ignored him, leaving him awkwardly holding his hand in the air for a while.

He chuckled self—deprecatingly, still wearing a forced smile, and quickly walked up to Karina. “Ms. Huber, hello, I am from Golden Sun Bank...

“Did I let you speak?” Karina angrily rebuked, “I am talking to Mr. Bruce, and you have been blabbering here. Don’t you find it annoying?”

As soon as the words fell, two bodyguards from the Huber family blocked Daniel from behind. Daniel was embarrassed by Karina’s scolding. I used to be the vice president of the head office of Golden Sun Bank.

Sitting in that position, I have also witnessed the powerful aura of many important figures in the past, and I have never felt nervous.

Today, however, in front of the Miss Huber, the young lady of the Huber family, I was nervous and didn’t know how to speak. Faced with Karina’s dominance and aloofness, he couldn’t say a word.

Robin looked at Karina’s domineering appearance and knew that she was really angry.

The corners of the mouth lifted slightly, “Alright, it’s fine. Sit down. and take a rest.”

The anger on Karina’s face slowly dissipated.

Chapter 128 The Source of Confidence

Garry, who was feeling down at the moment, saw Karina, the young lady of the Huber family, arriving at the scene.

He instantly understood that behind Robin, there was a powerful background, which should also have been part of the Huber family’s influence.

If he could win the forgiveness of the Huber family, Garry might be able to turn his losing game around.

With this in mind, he quickly walked up to Karina and said, “Ms. Huber, hello, I am Garry, the assistant deputy mayor of the city government...”

“Don’t any of you have any manners? Can’t you see that I’m speaking? Go away. I don’t care who you are!” Karina was annoyed by Garry’s self-introduction and gave him a cold stare.

Garry immediately dared not speak anymore.

Elisa, displeased with the situation, said, "Karina, as a member of a private enterprise family, what qualifications do you have to be arrogant in front of my husband, a government official?"

Aslap "pa*.

Elisa hadn't finished speaking when Garry slapped her in the face. "Did I ask you to speak? You worthless woman, you've ruined everything for me. Get out!"

Elisa covered her cheeks in horror as she looked at her husband.

At this moment, she realized more and more that the man in front of her, her husband, was no longer the Garry she knew. Chapter 128 Their Source of Confidence

What happened today?

It seemed like everyone was acting strangely.

Robin laughed and said. "Karina, sit down. I was fine. I didn't plan on having you raise cash."

Freddie hurriedly got up and walked over, saying, "Ms. Huber, hello, I am Freddie. All these things today were caused by me, I, I am very sorry!"

Karina nodded and said, "Mr. Strickland, this matter has nothing to do with you. It was Robin's decision, and the Huber family will accept it. Don't worry, Glory Edifice, the Huber Group, will definitely take over." "We will discuss this matter in detail later, first let's handle the repayment of the loan." "President Roberto, please have your staff count it quickly."

Roberto immediately began to delegate tasks. Inside the business lobby of the bank, the tellers stopped making sarcastic remarks and jokes.

They quickly counted the cash that Karina had brought.

Daniel looked through the gap between the two bodyguards and sighed as he gazed at Karina. "Ms. Huber, can you give me a chance to speak?" Karina waved her hand, and two bodyguards cleared a path. Daniel stepped forward, forced a laugh, and said, "Ms. Huber, I think today's events were a misunderstanding."

Karina snorted, "Alright! Whether there is a misunderstanding or not, we all know it in our hearts. Just say it straight if you have something to say! I don't have the time to beat around the bush with you."

Daniel sighed and said. "Ms. Huber, I came all the way from the provincial capital this time to discuss whether the Huber Group's business can continue to operate at our Golden Sun Bank..."

"Impossible!" Before Daniel could finish speaking, Karina said coldly, "The Huber Group will never have any dealings with Golden Sun Bank again, no matter who comes, even if it's the CEO and all the shareholders of your head office, The Huber Group will not agree!"

Daniel bumped into a wall and his smile gradually faded away.

He slowly straightened his back and said, "The Huber family, known as the largest family in Hallchester, has such a small temperament!"

Karina slowly lifted her head, her eyes gleaming with a cold glare: "Daniel, this is Hallchester, please be careful with your words, the Huber family is not as gentle and refined as you imagine!"

Daniel shivered suddenly upon hearing Karina's words.

At this moment, he finally understood the meaning of Karina's words.

There were rumors in the rivers and lakes about how Harold made his fortune back in the day. He was a legendary hero in his time.

I was so angry that I actually said such self-destructive words.

He believed that if he had really said all the words he had just thought. in his heart, he would probably have a hard time leaving this place tonight.

Just in the lobby of Golden Sun Bank, all the tellers were busy counting the 1 billion cash that Karina had brought. Chapter 128 Their Source of Confidence

Outside the bank hall, there was once again a burst of screams and the roaring sound of car engines.

Seven or eight Hummer SUVS gathered in front of the Golden Sun Bank.

Dozens of men wearing black suits carried briefcases, and under the leadership of Conway and Barry, they quickly walked towards the lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

Chapter 129

Chapter 129 Robin the Troublemaker

There was a sudden cry in front of the business lobby of the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank.

“Wasn’t it Mr. Lambert who came?”

“And, wasn’t that person Barry?”

“How did they bring so many people, carrying password boxes, and it seems like there were over a billion of them!” “Was Mr. Lambert also here to deliver money for the young man named Robin?”

“Who is this Robin? How could he have alarmed such important figures?”

“Mr. Lambert? Mr. Lambert is also giving him money. Is this young man a son of some prominent family?”

“Wow! Hallcester actually had such a prominent figure in the past?”

+e

The bank employees in the lobby of Golden Sun Bank were also extremely shocked when they saw Conway and the others from Demon’s Lair.

Who was Mr. Lambert?

Everyone in Hallcester knew Mr. Lambert, who was known as the Underground Demon King. He was truly a complete devil. Whoever offends him will have no place to be buried!

511:49

He was a truly ruthless and cruel demon king!

Compared to the Huber family, he was always unapologetically ruthless about himself

Conway, accompanied by dozens of black-clad bodyguards, walked straight up to Robin, carrying a briefcase.

“Mr. Bruce, I just saw your situation online, and I can’t believe that there are idiots in Hallester who dare to trip you up.”

“Mr. Bruce, what do you think we should do about this matter today? After we pay back the money, we can even smash this bank.”

“If you’re still not satisfied, I’ll give that bastard named Roberto a good beating!”

Conway’s voice faded away, and Roberto trembled in fear.

At that moment, he wished he could crash and die.

He knew that if he was targeted by someone like Mr. Lambert, Roberto would have no chance of getting by in Hallcester.

At that moment, Roberto’s legs trembled, wanting to escape from the business lobby and hide behind the counter. However, Barry grabbed him and brought him in front of Conway.

Conway patted Roberto’s chubby cheek and sneered, “Roberto, do you know who Mr. Bruce is? How dare you treat him like this!”

“Don’t worry, Mr. Bruce is a very particular person. I would never do anything that could give him a handle and affect his reputation.”

“However, what you have done, you should be clear about it yourself.”

“In five more minutes, your glorious image would have left an indelible mark in the hearts of the entire Hallcester community” Roberto trembled all over, he didn’t know what Conway meant. | have done quite a few bad things myself, which one is Conway referring to exactly?

Conway continued to slap Roberto’s face, “I will settle the score for you today. How could a small bank manager like you have done so many bad things!”

“Since you took the position of the president at Golden Sun Bank, you have started raising goddaughters, and astonishingly, the number of your goddaughters has reached more than ten, to be precise, a total of thirteen.”

“Specifically how many, my subordinates are currently investigating.”

“Your goddaughters have individually recounted your scandalous history with them.”

“Oh, by the way, this event was live-streamed and will soon be publicly available on the internet.” “Mr. Francis, congratulations! You were about to become a star!”

Roberto only realized at that moment that Conway was referring to this matter.

This fucking shit is really over!

Conway saw Roberto looking mournful and gave him a hard slap: “Quickly make it clear/where the 1.5 billion | asked for went!” Roberto was currently immersed in shock and regret.

For a moment, | forgot that | should quickly have someone count the cash Conway had delivered.

Conway stepped on Roberto’s butt and said, “What the hell are you standing here for? Do you think we have to wait all night? Hurry up and start counting!”

Roberto quickly got up from the ground and hurriedly led dozens of men in suits carrying briefcases towards the counter. Immediately after, seven or eight luxury cars drove up outside the bank hall.

This time, the team was led by Cecilia and Livia, both of whom were women with model-like figures.

Twenty bodyguards, all of them standing at a height of at least 1.80 meters, walked into the bank lobby with Cecilia, the maid, carrying a briefcase.

Cecilia walked straight up to Robin and said, "Mr. Bruce, as soon as I found out about this matter, I immediately organized our Purpeak International Group to raise cash. I have brought 2 billion with me."

"There are still 2 billion on their way to this place, and by 24 o'clock, a total of 3.8 billion will be received." Daniel looked at the group of glamorous women from a distance, and he didn't know what to say.

"What a jerk Roberto is! What kind of big shot did he bring in today that made Golden Sun Bank so miserable!" He believed that with this momentum, he could completely destroy Golden Sun Bank!

While billions of cash repayments were taking place inside the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

1149

In the Spring Hotel, located in the Hallcester center.

After completing the transfer procedures for the South City plot, Crystal, Miranda, and Jacob gathered together and were enjoying a delicious dinner.

Crystal heard many people in the hotel discussing something about Golden Sun Bank.

She curiously opened her phone.

The information that topped the trending search immediately caught her attention.

This piece of information is about the cash repayment of Golden Sun Bank, and surprisingly, it is related to Robin. At this moment, Miranda also saw the news.

After understanding the cause and effect of this news, she sneered, "Robin is really a troublemaker. He can't seem to find his own sense of existence without stirring up some trouble."

"These kinds of people, in order to seek attention, always enjoy doing some unbelievable things."

"Clearly, the Glory Edifice had long lost its value, yet he allowed the Huber Group to bear such a worthless burden." "I don't know either, what exactly did Ms. Huber see in him that made her keep him by her side."

"I believe that one day, the Huber Group will be completely battered by Robin."

Jacob laughed, "Incompetent people always have such a bad temper!"

1:29 Roben the Trublemaker

"Golden Sun Bank refused Robin's transfer repayment and prepared to seize Glory Edifice. Surprisingly. Robin was unwilling and intended to repay with a staggering 3.8 billion in cash. This guy just doesn't use his brain!"

Jacob drank red wine while sneering and laughing.

Crystal glanced at the two of them and said, "Miranda, you should actually thank Robin. At least he resolved your urgent situation."

"For you all. I also invested several billion."

Miranda shook her head and said, "Crystal, even though I sold the land in my hands to Robin and resolved my crisis, I am not grateful to him for it."

"This man went to great lengths just to please me, and yet he did this terrible thing. I truly despise him!"

"Even if he spent 500 million to buy my land in the southern part of the city. I still considered him to be someone with a low-level mindset!"

“What great things can this kind of man do? See, it’s just a trivial matter. Why does he have such a bad temper?”

“In this way, if we offend all the banks, can we still get by in Hallchester in the future?”

“So shallow, so ignorant!”

Crystal didn’t want to listen to Miranda’s imagination anymore and carefully looked at the line of words below the live video. This line of text states that Karina, Cecilia, and Conway all gathered at Golden Sun Bank.

Chapter 129 Robin the Troublemaker

These people also arrived at Golden Sun Bank, what exactly did they want to do?

Just at that moment, all the news about Golden Sun Bank and Robin suddenly disappeared from the internet.

Crystal hesitated for a moment, knowing that a big shot had intervened and deleted it.

So he got up and said, “Miranda, Jacob, you guys go ahead and eat. I’ll take a step ahead and go see how Robin is doing at Golden Sun Bank...”

Chapter 130

Chapter 130 Are You Crazy?

Mayor’s office of the Hallchester government.

The municipal government secretary, Ricardo, promptly reported the current situation of Golden Sun Bank to Ethen. “Ethen, I have already contacted Mr. Rhodes as per your instructions.”

“Mr. Rhodes was infuriated when he learned that his assistant, Garry, had become involved in the business dispute at Golden Sun Bank, assuming the role of a public official.”

“Directly reporting the Complaints Department, some materials regarding Garry’s illegal and disorderly conduct were submitted to the municipal government’s disciplinary inspection department.”

“Currently, the relevant departments have initiated an investigation into Garry.” Ethen nodded, “I didn’t expect Mr. Rhodes to have such a high level of awareness! How is the situation with the police now?”

Ricardo took out the records and looked at Ethen, saying, “Ethen, after receiving your instructions, I immediately notified and conveyed the instructions to Mr. Jamie Abbott, the head of the legal and political department.”

“Ten minutes ago, Deputy Mayor Mr. Abbott issued an order, instructing Police Commissioner Kurt Hanson to personally lead a team and mobilize over half of the police force in Hallchester to maintain order in the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.”

“Great! Now I can relax,” Ethen nodded. “With so much cash and so many people watching. it’s easy for something to go wrong.”

Chapter 130 Are You Crazy?

“I felt relieved when Jamie personally directed the police to maintain law and order.” “Um, how is the situation over at Robin’s? How far has it progressed?”

Ricardo saw that Ethen was very satisfied with his work and continued, “Ethen, according to the information I currently have, the Huber family, Purpeak International Group, and Conway, each raised around one billion and sent it to the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.”

“A total of 5 billion in cash is already enough for Robin to help Freddie repay the bank loan.” “Furthermore, they each had a sum of cash with them, on their way to Hallchester.” Ethen nodded and said, “Now Robin has already gathered 3.8 billion, I really didn’t expect that.”

Ricardo paused for a moment and agreed, “Robin actually fulfilled his promise, it is indeed a miracle. And, it took less than half an hour!”

“In the history of Hallchester, no one had been able to do it. It seems that Roberto and his team underestimated the power of the Huber family!”

Ethen thought to himself, "This is not the power of the Huber family, it is clearly Robin's strong network."

"Alright, let's not overanalyze this matter."

"Ricardo, it was easy for something to go wrong with so much cash appearing all at once."

"You were closely monitoring the situation at Golden Sun Bank and Mr. Abbott's side."

"And convey my opinion, we must ensure the maintenance of public security and guarantee the safety of these funds!"

"At the same time, the relevant parties were instructed to immediately delete all video news related to Golden Sun Bank. This matter cannot continue to escalate!"

"Immediately evacuate the crowd gathered in front of the Golden Sun Bank to prevent a stampede and to deter any malicious individuals from taking advantage and causing intentional damage."

"Report to me at any time regarding the security situation in front of Golden Sun Bank."

"Furthermore, the matter between Golden Sun Bank and Robin is considered a normal business operation." "Despite their enormous transaction amounts, they caused a certain impact."

"However, there was no violation or infringement of any legal provisions."

"Hallcester's police force, in this mission, merely participated in maintaining social order and security."

"I explicitly told Mr. Rhodes, Mr. Abbott, and Mr. Hanson not to interfere in their regular business dealings."

"Our police force was only carrying out tasks to maintain public order outside the bank and were not allowed to enter the bank premises in order to avoid unnecessary misunderstandings."

"Okay, I will definitely convey your message clearly to them," Ricardo nodded solemnly, understanding Ethen's intention.

Never get involved in civil disputes, so as to avoid causing misunderstandings among the citizens, which could potentially escalate into a vicious incident.

After the order was issued by the municipal government.

80% of Hallcester's police force arrived at the perimeter of the Business Department of Golden Sun Bank.

Jamie personally arrived at the scene, while Kurt took the lead and directed the evacuation of the onlookers in front of the bank. At the same time, the police cyber surveillance center initiated special measures.

Directly order Hallcester to immediately delete any information related to Golden Sun Bank's cash repayment tonight on all online platforms, in order to prevent the situation from escalating further.

The onlookers who arrived one after another wanted to witness the thrilling scene of cash repayment with their own eyes. However, the police set up a cordon and no one was allowed to approach the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank. However, they were already amazed by the scene of luxury cars gathering from a distance.

After Crystal came out of the Spring Hotel, Miranda and Jacob also left the hotel together.

"Crystal, wait a moment, we also want to go and see Robin's performance tonight!" Miranda caught up with Crystal, her eyes filled with schadenfreude.

"This matter has caused a huge uproar, and it is unlikely to end easily. Even if the Huber family wants to intervene on his behalf, they cannot come up with so much cash all at once!"

Crystal wanted to tell her that Karina, Cecilia, and Conway had already arrived at the bank.

Even if Robin couldn't come up with 3.8 billion in cash for a while, as long as these big shots from Halleester were present to support him, there wouldn't be any issues.

No matter how powerful Golden Sun Bank was, they still had to consider all aspects of the relationship. Unless they didn't want to continue working in Hallchester.

However, upon hearing Miranda's contemptuous words towards Robin, Crystal also didn't want to explain anymore.

Miranda sneered, "It was really close. Fortunately, Robin had already bought the Southern District project from us before this incident came out. Otherwise, we would have been stuck with these southern plots."

"Robin deserved it! If it was because of this that he was abandoned by the Huber family, he even used the little money he had to buy our land in the southern part of the city."

"Hehe, he relied on these plots to fulfill his millionaire dream."

Speaking of this, Miranda stopped Crystal in her tracks and said, "Crystal, let me tell you, Robin said that the money you took out was borrowed from him. You must not just take the money and forget about the land, do you hear me?"

Crystal pursed her lips and didn't want to answer.

At that moment, she only felt that Miranda was really pitiful.

Chapter 130 Are You Crazy?

Perhaps, one day, when she saw Robin's true identity, she would understand how foolish she had been. Even women like Karina and Cecilia looked up to Robin with respect, what are you, Miranda!

What qualifications do you have to despise Robin?

Ah! The tragedy of a clown lies in not knowing that they are a clown!

Jacob leaned in and teased, "Miranda, if you had accepted his proposal back then, you would have been on Hallchester's trending news now, becoming a big star. Hahaha..."

Miranda angrily kicked Jacob, "Go away! I would never be interested in a shallow man like him!"

“This kind of man only knows how to seek popularity, thinking highly of himself! He lacks any sense of masculinity, ignorant and arrogant. He will definitely fall flat on his face sooner or later!”

Crystal sighed and said. “Miranda, can’t you change your attitude and get to know Robin again?” “You covered your eyes due to certain prejudices and failed to see...” “Alright, don’t praise this disgusting man in front of me anymore!” Miranda didn’t want to hear any more.

“Crystal, you always make excuses for him. I don’t know what’s gotten into you, how could you be deceived by a crude man like Robin!”

Crystal shook her head helplessly, “Alright, alright, I will never talk about Robin with you again, okay? Remember, when you regret it later, don’t blame me. I have already told you everything I should say.”

Miranda sneered, “Me? I will never regret divorcing Robin! My dream

Chapter 130 Are You Crazy

is to become Cecilia...”

“Alright, alright, Miranda, you are a queen-level woman, and Cecilia is your idol, okay?” Crystal chuckled and shook her head.

In my heart, Miranda, you could never have imagined that the idol-like figure Cecilia, whom you admired, was nothing more than a servant in front of Robin.

The three of them chatted along the way and soon arrived at the outskirts of the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank. After they arrived at the scene, they discovered that the Hallcester police had already set up a cordon around the bank.

No onlookers were allowed to enter the restricted area.

Crystal tried to explain that she was Robin’s friend and wanted to enter the bank, but she was not allowed. They could only watch from a distance on the outskirts.

The entrance of the bank hall was filled with luxury cars.

Only through some cracks could one barely see the movement inside. the bank hall.

However, the specific characters inside cannot be seen clearly.

The business lobby of the bank was brightly lit, seeming quiet yet bustling.

Crystal sent a Line message to Robin.

Robin, what was your situation now? Do you still need cash

| might have only a few hundred thousand in cash.

If | had known that you needed money. | wouldn't have gone to buy the land in the south of the city in the afternoon. | would have converted it into cash for you to use.

Robin looked at the Line message sent by Crystal and felt warm in his heart.

Despite what Crystal said, it had no effect on the repayment of 3.8 billion in cash.

However, having this kind of heart is already enough.

This woman, on the surface, appears carefree and cheerful, but she is very loyal and values friendship. So. | replied to her message.

"You don't need those tens of thousands of dollars. However, it's commendable that you can think of these things, at least you have a little conscience."

Now that the money has been raised, there is no need to worry. Please handle the transfer procedures for the land in the southern part of the city.

Crystal replied immediately.

Are you still thinking about the land in the southern part of the city? Damn it, are you crazy?

Jacob and Miranda didn't care about your feelings at all!

“Robin, I don’t know what you were thinking when you bought the land in the southern part of the city from them!” Chapter 130 Are You Crazy?

Robin sent a smiley face: “What do you think I did it for, if not for making money?”

Crystal sent a disdainful-look emoji: “Are you doing this for your fiancée, Ms. Brown, who had a previous engagement?” Robin was speechless. “Think whatever you want, I don’t have time to chat with you now,” he said.

Crystal angrily sent an angry emoji.

Robin sent a big pig head.

Looking at this picture, Crystal burst into laughter.

The two police officers in front of them were startled and immediately looked at her with vigilance.

Crystal immediately stopped laughing.

In my mind, I muttered. “Damn, so sensitive! I just laughed a little, and you all got scared like this?”

“Uncle Policeman, why are you not maintaining order at the scene and instead ogling at beautiful women? If you keep looking, I will report you to your superiors!”

Two young police officers glanced at Crystal and then turned away.

At that moment, Miranda pulled Crystal aside and said, “Crystal, this scene today is big enough. Robin has really made a mess of things. With his reckless pace, he’s bound to get into trouble sooner or later.”

Crystal frowned and said, “Didn’t you see that all these police officers came to maintain order at the scene because of Robin’s powers?”

“Maintain order for him? Him, Robin, does he have such a big face? Most likely they came to arrest him!” Miranda sneered. “He openly opposed Golden Sun Bank, wasn’t that like hitting a stone with an egg?”

“In this world, whoever has money has the right! Robin thought that he had something in his hands, so he could compete with the bank in terms of wealth. He must have lost his mind!”

“Um, I just remembered, this guy was trying to make a big fuss to get my attention.” “He knew that if he operated like this and couldn’t repay the money, he would definitely become a hot topic on the internet...” Chapter 131 Na Comes

Miranda said, and a woman beside her snorted, “Ms. Huber and Ms. Decker, as well as Mr. Lambert, have already brought a lot of money. It’s more than enough to repay the bank a long time ago.”

“You are really shameless. Why would someone want to catch your attention? You must have narcissism. You should go get yourself checked!”

Miranda exclaimed angrily. “Who do you think is narcissistic? Robin was my fiancé, and it was because I didn’t like him that I called off the engagement!”

Crystal hurriedly stepped forward and stopped her, “Alright, Miranda, let’s just say a few less words. Is it worth arguing over this matter?”

Miranda snorted coldly and stopped arguing with the woman..

Crystal whispered, “Miranda, what that woman said earlier is true. Ms. Huber, Ms. Decker, and Mr. Lambert really did send money for Robin...”

Miranda laughed mockingly and said. “You believe this news too? Judging by the situation, most of Hallchester’s police force has been deployed here. Robin might get into big trouble today!”

Crystal said earnestly, “I didn’t lie to you. Just now, Robin and I chatted on Line, and we have already raised 3.8 billion.”

Miranda shook her head and sneered, “Karina from the Huber family. Cecilia from Purpeak International Group, and even Mr. Lambert from Demon’s Lair, all sent money to Robin?”

“Blow it! The Huber family helped him, Robin, bring some money over in the past, maybe.”

“How could such a proud woman like Ms. Decker make a special trip for him!”

Chapter 131 Nia Comel

“Who do you think Robin is? Crystal, are you telling me a legend?”

Crystal laughed and said. “Alright, you can treat it as a legend.”

While speaking.

Two military—plated off-road vehicles and a bulletproof van drove towards the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank. Several police officers immediately stopped him.

Jamie and Police Chief Kurt saw two vehicles with military license plates and got into a dispute with the police personnel. They quickly ran over. The person who came was Nia, driving the training vehicle of Warwolf Special Forces.

Nia handed her identification to Jamie and Kurt: “Mr. Abbott, Mr. Hanson, this is my identification.

After Jamie and Kurt saw Nia’s identification, they immediately nodded and smiled, saying, “So you’re Ethen’s daughter, huh?”

“Robin was a friend of my uncle’s. Due to an urgent matter. I helped. my uncle send some money to him. There was 4 billion cash here.”

“So, I applied for the use of the Warwolf Special Forces special vehicle. and escorted this batch of cash to Golden Sun Bank. I also kindly request Mr. Abbott’s cooperation, as we must deliver the money inside.”

Jamie and Kurt immediately made way for the police personnel.

Nia drove to the entrance of the Golden Sun Bank lobby.

More than ten plainclothes soldiers got out of the three cars, walking in neat steps and quickly entered the bank hall, carrying over a dozen password boxes.

After entering the hall.

Nia found Robin in the crowd and walked up to him.

Several password boxes were neatly placed in the middle of the bank hall.

Everyone in Golden Sun Bank was stunned by the powerful aura of Nia and the dozen undercover soldiers. For a moment, they were somewhat dazed, what had happened today?

“Robin, here is 4 billion in cash, all collected. Let the bank personnel know and ask them to count it.”

Robin shrugged his shoulders and said. “Nia, we have already raised 3.8 billion in cash, making your trip here for nothing.” Nia was slightly taken aback, ‘Is it all gathered?’

Only then did | see that Karina was also in the bank hall. “Karina. | should have known it was you who helped.”

Karina smiled faintly and said, “I alone don’t have such great energy, it was with their help, Ms. Decker and Mr. Lambert, that we barely managed to gather enough.”

“You see, if you brought 4 billion, | wouldn’t be so nervous.”

“If | encounter this situation again next time, would you also give it to me like this?” In the midst of speaking, the eyes glanced at Robin and smiled. charmingly. 37.941

Nia was slightly taken aback, a blush creeping across her cheeks. She gently tapped Karina and whispered, "Karina, you've become naughty. too."

After saying that, they laughed together with Karina.

All the staff of Golden Sun Bank.

Originally, it was believed that Robin's bold statement about repaying with 3.8 billion in cash was completely nonsense. It was just youthful exuberance, and the crazy words spoken.

Raising 3.8 billion in cash within a few hours seemed like an impossible task for someone without any foundation. They never imagined that this young man had accomplished such an astonishing feat in just 30 minutes!

Not only did Hallcester and the other two big shots gather in the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank, but they also managed to pool together 3.8 billion in cash.

Moreover, Ethen's daughter Nia and the deputy captain of the Londraland Special Forces Brigade even personally attended the event, each contributing a staggering 4 billion.

At this moment, there were over 8 billion dollars in cash stored in dozens of safe deposit boxes in the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

Everyone was shocked by such a powerful momentum.

As the manager of the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank, Roberto was even more astonished.

At this moment, he didn't know what he should do.

11:21

Chapter 131 Nia Domes

What he never expected was that his extremely hasty decision plunged his life into irreparable ruin.

What kind of important person did I offend to end up in such a suffocating and embarrassing situation?

Daniel and his public relations team from the head office seemed like outsiders at this moment, standing aside. They looked at the scene and couldn't say a word.

Originally, they came with a mission entrusted by the head of the headquarters to negotiate matters with the Huber family. See if the Huber Group can continue to entrust all financial operations to Golden Sun Bank.

However, the current situation left them at a loss.

The public relations team of the head office of Golden Sun Bank was the elite of the public relations and marketing field in Londraland.

Before they came to Hallcester, they had already developed no less than 10 public relations plans for the Huber Group's issues. PR Department Director Beatrice made a promise in front of the bank's President Wayne.

It was certain that the Huber Group could restore its partnership with Golden Sun Bank.

However, after arriving at the branch, I realized that it was not the case.

at all.

The other party's aura was so powerful that they couldn't even speak.

In the end, the two sides are simply not on the same level of existence.

1121

How can we negotiate with them?

Golden Sun Bank, previously arrogantly refined to negotiate with the Huber family regarding the repayment of a 3.8 billion loan. The repayment channel was unreasonably closed.

However, within half an hour, they managed to gather 8 billion dollars in cash for repayment.

There was still 4 billion cash on the way.

Do we still need to argue with you when there are nearly billions of cash in front of your bank?

They conducted themselves with courtesy and propriety, leaving you speechless.

The reason behind it was that the bank misunderstood its own position.

After much consideration, Daniel finally gave up on the idea of facing this situation alone.

Because he knew that, with his own strength, it was impossible to change the current situation.

He had to report such information to the head of the head office, Wayne.

At this moment, the president of the head office of Golden Sun Bank, Wayne, was urgently holding a meeting. Upon learning that not only did the Huber Group terminate its partnership with Golden Sun Bank.

Hallcester's Purpeak International Group, Demon's Lair also made such a decision and informed Golden Sun Bank. 72.914

1121

Immediately after that, more than 90% of the businesses and organizations associated with the aforementioned three also responded accordingly.

What further infuriated the major shareholders of the head office of Golden Sun Bank was that Devin, the wealthiest businessman in Hashville State, also made such a demand.

And the procedures for terminating the relationship were being carried out. In less than an hour, several major clients of Golden Sun Bank in the country lost more than half of their assets.

The shareholders' meeting of Golden Sun Bank decided that after the conclusion of this event, Roberto and others' arrogant behavior must be severely punished.

Because of their selfishness and arrogant behavior, they caused Golden Sun Bank to suffer heavy consequences.

Due to this incident, many households terminated their financial transactions with Golden Sun Bank, resulting in a direct loss of over 30% in the bank's operating profit.

Just at that moment, Daniel sent a message, informing Hallcester about the situation, which greatly shocked several shareholders of the head office of Golden Sun Bank.

They didn't expect that Robin actually completed a task that was almost impossible to accomplish.

Roberto's hasty behavior offended someone like Robin, which was really not appropriate!

Several major shareholders immediately instructed Wayne to personally go to Hallcester to supervise this matter.

They demanded that Wayne handle this matter well.

As long as Robin's forgiveness could be obtained, Golden Sun Bank would spare no expense.

After a brief preparation, Wayne immediately boarded the helicopter provided by the headquarters and flew to Hallcester.

The purpose of this arrival in Hallcester was only one, to ask for Robin's forgiveness.

Chapter 132

Chapter 132 Londraland's No. 1 Public Relations Team Thirty minutes later, the helicopter Wayne was riding in landed at Hallcester Airport. Just as he walked out of the airport hall, a white Mercedes MPV parked in front of him.

In the Mercedes MPV, a young and tall woman stepped out, giving a faint smile. "Hello, Mr. Kennedy. I am Natasha Goodman, the gold medal manager of Team Hawk, the crisis public relations group of Londraland's capital."

"Draccastle Crisis PR Group is the No. 1 professional crisis public. relations group within Londraland." "As its subsidiary, Team Hawk, also known as Londraland's top crisis. public relations team." "And I, am the gold medal manager of the world's number one crisis. public relations team."

"Therefore, | can assure you that my comrades from Team Hawk and | were able to handle the service crisis at Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank perfectly."

Wayne looked at the several determined women in front of him and furrowed his brows slightly.

Did the major shareholders of the head office of Golden Sun Bank actually hire another public relations team? Is it their lack of trust in me or are they just too nervous?

Chapter 132 Londraland's No 1 Public Relations Team

At this moment, the PR assistant beside me stepped forward and said, "Mr. Kennedy, the headquarters' shareholders' meeting has just sent a message. In order to ensure that this crisis can be handled well, they have specially hired the top-ranked crisis PR team in the country, Team Hawk, to come to Hallcester and assist us in handling Hallcester's affairs."

Wayne glanced at the several women across from him, a hint of displeasure flashed in his eyes. Natasha saw Wayne hesitate slightly and was quite displeased, "Mr. Kennedy, are you doubting the abilities of our Team Hawk?"

"The reason why our Team Hawk can be called the number one crisis public relations team in Londraland is not just an empty name."

"Team Hawk, is the elite PR team that |, Natasha, built from scratch."

"Over the past three years, as the industry's top gold medal public relations manager. | led my team, Hawk, and handled over 500 marketing crisis cases, without a single failure!"

"| used to handle crisis public relations assignments almost every three days. | have witnessed numerous cases of crises, big and small."

"Like this case of Golden Sun Bank, among the crisis public relations | have experienced, it can only be considered as one of the simpler ones."

“After taking over the case of the marketing crisis in your bank, I thoroughly understood and analyzed the entire process of this case, as well as the interests of all parties involved.”

“It was very simple, there wasn’t much difficulty.” “In my past cases, there have been many situations like yours.”

“I can assure you that once we entered the public relations negotiation process, we were able to resolve the issue within half an hour.”

Wayne looked up and glanced at Natasha in front of him.

This woman appeared to be around twenty-five or twenty-six years old.

From head to toe, there was an overwhelming sense of pride emanating from him.

With an arrogant expression and a disdainful attitude, it seemed like there was no problem in this world that she couldn’t solve. Wayne, who was well-versed in the ways of the world, did not believe Natasha’s grandiose words.

There are generally two situations for a person who can speak so much

Firstly, the things in front of her were indeed a piece of cake, not worth mentioning.

Another one is too arrogant, too shallow, and has never truly experienced big scenes. It’s just a subconscious way of boosting their own confidence.

According to relevant data statistics, the more a person boasts about being good at a certain aspect, the more it becomes their biggest weakness in that aspect.

However, his own PR assistant quietly informed him that Natasha’s identity had been verified. The Team Hawk she led was indeed the top public relations team in Londraland.

According to the relevant data, over the past three years, Natasha’s Team Hawk has handled 568 crisis public relations cases, and has pter 152 Londraland's No 1 Public Relations Team achieved a perfect record with no failures.

After a moment of contemplation, Wayne nodded and said, "Alright, please give me a brief introduction on how to proceed at the Business Department of the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank. My two public relations assistants will fully cooperate with you."

Natasha glanced at the two public relations assistants behind Wayne and disdainfully said, "Mr. Kennedy, I will provide a detailed introduction to my public relations strategy and operational procedures when we get to the car."

"However, I introduced these to you just to let you understand the entire operation process of our Team Hawk, and there is no need for you to cooperate."

"Remember, during the entire crisis management process, none of you can disturb our team. "If that were the case, it would disrupt the entire public relations operation of our Team Hawk."

Once the process of public relations mediation became disorganized, it directly rendered the crisis public relations operation ineffective.

Wayne was displeased with Natasha's statement and said coldly, "Are you suggesting that none of our bank's personnel will be involved in the crisis management process?"

"If there was any deviation in the information or the core of public relations, it would be very difficult to carry out a second crisis public relations handling!"

"In handling this crisis public relations, what I mean is that our bank should be involved. With your Team Hawk taking the lead, we will be the support..."

Indraland's No 1 Public Relations Team Natasha sneered, "Mr. Kennedy, are you implying that you didn't have much faith in our team*?" "No problem with this!"

"Once you have witnessed the entire process of our team handling the problem on-site, you will truly understand why Team Hawk of Draccastle Crisis PR Group is referred to as the top crisis public relations team in Londraland."

“And why was I, Natasha, referred to as the best crisis public relations manager!”

“In short, after I took over this crisis case, everything had to be arranged according to my instructions!”

“I have never had the habit of involving someone who is not very professional in my crisis public relations work.” “Unless your bank terminated the agency business with our team now.”

Wayne hesitated for a moment and had no choice but to give up.

After all, this crisis public relations agent was invited to the general meeting of shareholders by the head office, and I did not have the authority to terminate the agency relationship with them.

“Alright. Ms. Goodman, let's talk after we get in the car.”

“Can you give me a specific introduction to the crisis public relations. plan you developed?” Natasha nodded, “Alright, Mr. Kennedy, let's talk in the car.”

But doubts arose in my mind, can this so-called Team Hawk really handle this crisis? Chapter 132 Londalandi No. 1 Public Relation

In his thirty years of experience in the banking industry, he had never seen anyone who could confidently claim that there was no crisis they couldn't handle.

Natasha got in the business car and took out her tablet. She placed her crisis management plan, various highly professional analysis charts, and relationship diagrams of individuals in front of Wayne.

“Mr. Kennedy, I am now going to introduce to you the entire public. relations process of our team. Team Hawk, regarding the crisis management of the Hallchester Branch of Golden Sun Bank.”

“We have identified the crux and core of the crisis that arose from several major clients abruptly terminating their business cooperation with Golden Sun Bank.”

“Robin was the initiator of the event, and his behind-the-scenes force was the Huber Group.”

“I saw in your bank’s PR Department that the focus of public relations. was mistakenly placed on Robin in the crisis management plan that was previously formulated.”

“The Huber Group was the first to announce the complete termination of its partnership with Golden Sun Bank.” “Afterwards, several other clients also terminated their business cooperation with your bank.”

“Therefore, Karina from the Huber Group was the key figure in this crisis public relations.”

“She was also the key figure in creating this crisis!”

Wayne was slightly taken aback and wanted to remind her that Robin was the key to the problem.

Chapter 132 Londraland’s No 1 Public Relations Team

Natasha did not give Wayne a chance to speak and continued to talk incessantly.

“After extensive data analysis, we identified Karina as the key figure to target in the Huber Group’s breakthrough.” “We have prepared several public relations plans for Karina.”

“I believe that as long as Karina can establish effective communication with us, this crisis will be resolved smoothly.” Wayne understood that Natasha had set her sights on the Huber family and Karina as the main targets to conquer. Still, I interrupted her and said, “Ms. Goodman, I would like to share my opinion.”

“The crisis public relations strategy formulated by our bank’s PR Department earlier should have been correct.” “The key figure responsible for creating this crisis should have been Robin.”

“I still believe that, in order to achieve effective communication and handle this crisis well, the key focus should be on Robin, rather than the Huber family.”

A hint of displeasure appeared on Natasha’s face as she said, “Mr. Kennedy, please do not interrupt my introduction. Team Hawk has its own principles and methods of analysis.”

“You have to believe that within Londraland, Team Hawk was the most professional elite team in the industry.”

“In all the crisis cases that our team handled, there has never been a failure.”

“So, please Mr. Kennedy, patiently listen to my statement.

“You are an expert in finance, but when it comes to crisis public relations, you are not as good as me. I am the expert.” Wayne frowned slightly and reluctantly said, “Alright then, go ahead and continue with your introduction.”

Asmug expression crossed Natasha’s face.

“Okay, let’s continue analyzing the core points of the crisis public relations, the Huber family and Karina’s situation.” “Why were the Huber family and Karina the focal point?”

“Firstly, although Robin was the key figure behind the incident, his role was merely that of the President of the Eastern District Development Corporation, a subsidiary of the Huber Group.”

“And, moreover, having just taken office, with limited experience in the industry and within the Huber family, what’s even more crucial is that he had almost no connections in Hallchester.”

“We have investigated his social connections, and the friends he made in his social circle were all insignificant individuals from mediocre families.”

“But the Huber Group is different, it was the No. 1 noble family in Hallchester and had deep roots in the town.” “Even the rising star Purpeak International Group and the gray area Demon’s Lair cannot be compared to it.”

“Therefore, the Huber family was the key to this crisis public relations, and there was another reason, the Huber family was Robin’s background.” “On the surface, the decision made by Robin was his personal action.”

“Actually, you may have all overlooked the fact that without the Huber family’s consent, could Robin have made the decision to purchase. Glory Edifice?”

Wayne and his two public relations assistants were completely confused.

Chapter 133

Chapter 133 Tell her who | was!

Wayne and Team Hawk arrived at the Business Department of Golden Sun Bank.

Despite being mentally prepared.

However, upon arriving at the scene and seeing the surroundings of the bank with my own eyes, | was still startled. At this moment. Golden Sun Bank was surrounded by a sea of people, filled with onlookers.

In the crowd, there were nearly a hundred police officers maintaining order.

And a cordon was set up around the bank.

Wayne slightly calmed down his shaken emotions and said, “Ms. Goodman, did you see? This was not the small crisis you imagined.”

“Due to the inappropriate behavior of our bank staff, it has caused a significant impact among the people of Hallchester.”

“This crisis is related to the reputation of our Golden Sun Bank within the territory of Londraland. Please handle this matter carefully, along with your team.”

“If these four institutions cannot continue to cooperate with our Golden Sun Bank, our business within Londraland will suffer significant losses.”

“Although they only accounted for about 30% of the total, their influence was significant and would soon cause a chain reaction domestically “Even the stocks of Golden Sun Bank could potentially experience a significant decline ”

Natasha glanced at the scene outside the car window and sneered, “Mr. Kennedy, just because there are many onlookers doesn’t mean this crisis is difficult to handle.”

“This situation was nothing more than someone posting the information on the trending list.”

“You have also seen that the municipal government has deployed. police forces to maintain order, and this chaotic situation will soon be resolved.”

“We went in to take a look and understood immediately, there was nothing serious.”

“Don’t worry, once our Team Hawk took over this crisis, it ceased to be a crisis anymore.”

Wayne could only nod, “That would be best.”

After getting off the car and identifying themselves to the police, they entered the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

Daniel and the others saw Wayne and his team arrive at the scene and immediately greeted them, saying, “Mr. Kennedy, you have arrived. The situation here is relatively complex.”

Wayne nodded and said, “You briefly introduce the situation here first.” Daniel whispered, “Mr. Kennedy, did you see that young man?”

“He is Robin. we really didn’t ovnant thand 1. — 1.

in Halleester.”

“You see, the password box placed at the scene of the hall contained 8 billion cash, they said there was another 4 billion on the way.”

Wayne looked at Robin, who was not far away, and then glanced at the situation in the bank hall. He had a premonition that dealing with this crisis today would be difficult.

How great an influence is needed to be able to gather billions of cash in just half an hour?

He carefully observed Robin as he made his way through the crowd.

With decades of experience, he could see something different from this young man.

The calmness and composure he had never seen before.

Sitting in the position of the president at the head office of Golden Sun Bank for so many years, Wayne has witnessed the powerful aura of many superiors.

However, he had never seen a young person like Robin before, who instantly inspired him with a sense of awe.

He was certain that their analysis before was correct, and this must have been the key figure in this crisis.

person

Thinking of this, he promptly reminded Natasha, “Ms. Goodman, do you need to readjust your public relations plan?”

Natasha’s face instantly turned cold: “Mr. Kennedy, if you still have doubts about me, you can contact your shareholders’ meeting and | will immediately terminate this crisis PR agency.”

Chapter 139 Telli Wayne hesitated for a moment and then said, “Ms. Goodman, you misunderstood. | was just cautioning you.”

“What | mean is, if there is any deviation in the direction of crisis public relations, please have Ms. Goodman adjust it immediately. The outcome of this crisis management is crucial for us!”

Natasha said indifferently, “Don’t worry. Mr. Kennedy. If we can’t get it done within half an hour, we can take off the golden emblem of Team Hawk.”

Wayne sighed and said, “Alright, then I’ll leave it to you.” At that moment, Roberto, who was helping to count the cash, saw the bank manager Wayne arrive at the scene.

Trembling and staggering, he made his way through the crowd and ran up to Wayne. He bowed and said, “Mr. Kennedy, please punish me. | truly had no idea it would escalate to this extent today...”

“Alright, now it’s no use talking about anything!” Wayne said in a deep voice.

“Roberto, Hallcester market was built by me single-handedly back in the day, and now, it has been destroyed under your control!”

“After this matter is over, let's sit down and settle the accounts properly!”

Having said that, he was about to explain further to Natasha.

Natasha's elite team of four has already set their sights on Karina.

They walked through the crowd and approached Karina. With a professional smile, they said, “Hello, Ms. Huber.” “Let me introduce myself I am Natasha from Draccastle Crisis PR Group Team Hawk. You should be familiar with me.”

“At least, there should have been articles about me in the relevant magazines.”

“Modestly speaking, I was referred to as a gold medal public relations manager in the industry. One could say I was a celebrity figure.”

A crowd of people looked at Natasha, who was bragging to herself, all confused. Karsyn took a step forward and said, “Ms. Goodman? Team Hawk? What do you do? Are you looking for Ms. Huber?”

Natasha was very annoyed by Karsyn's unwarranted interruption. “Who are you? Can't you see that I am in the middle of a conversation. with President Karina? Don't you know that interrupting someone is extremely rude?”

Karsyn furrowed her brows slightly and said. “I don't need you to teach me this. I am Ms. Huber's executive assistant, so you can directly tell me if there's anything.”

Natasha exclaimed angrily, “Step aside! As an assistant, you are not qualified to communicate with me!” “Karsyn, let her speak.” Karina looked at Natasha indifferently. “What do you want from me?”

“Hello, Ms. Huber.” Natasha greeted with her professional smile once again.

“I came here this time to discuss the business cooperation issues of Golden Sun Bank with you.”

“Oh, I understand, Ms. Goodman. You don't have to say anymore. I have already made a decision on this matter, and no one can change the decision made by the Huber Group ”

Natasha was instantly stunned.

She never expected that Karina, upon hearing her name, would not be excited at all

Even, he showed an indifferent attitude.

“Ms. Huber, I came all the way here with great sincerity to communicate with you. However, you directly rejected me. Don’t you think your actions were very impolite?”

Karina coldly raised her eyelids and said, “I have made it very clear. Any decision made by the Huber Group will never be changed. Go back. I won’t accept any mediation!”

Robin looked at the four PR managers, Natasha, with their impressive and confident demeanor, and chuckled with interest. Did Natasha discover that Robin was laughing at this moment?

This kind of behavior was unbearable for her, “Are you mocking me?”

Robin was taken aback. This self-righteous woman, damn it, was picking a fight with me again?

He pursed his lips and said, “What’s wrong with mocking you? Do you have any objections?”

“What right do you have to mock me?” “Aman of your low level like you may not even know my identity. right?”

“Let me tell you, we were Team Hawk from Draccastle Crisis PR Group, the top-ranked public relations team in the industry. I was the gold medal manager of this team, Natasha!” Not far away, Barry burst into laughter and exclaimed, “Oh my god! Where did this crazy goddess come from? Hahaha. Natasha glared at him and said, “You uncouth person, what are you laughing at?!”

“I was discussing business cooperation issues regarding Golden Sun Bank with Ms. Huber. It is very uncivilized of you to behave like this. do you understand?”

Barry rolled his eyes and said, "You're fucking crazy! Ms. Huber doesn't even pay attention to you. Can't you understand what people are saying? Where the hell did you gather this group of lunatics?"

"The idiots at the head office of Golden Sun Bank actually hired such a crazy woman to come over. It's hilarious, hahaha..." Natasha exclaimed angrily, "I won't bother with someone like you who lacks manners!"

Barry immediately became furious, "Who the hell do you think you're calling uncivilized? Believe it or not, I'll smash your mouth right now!"

Seeing Barry approaching and about to take action. Robin glanced at him and said. "Go away!" Barry quickly stepped back and said. "Yes, Mr. Bruce."

Natasha paused for a moment, gazing at Robin for quite a while. She let out a cold snort and a strong disdain flashed in her eyes.

In her opinion, a person with such qualities was simply not worthy of her coming forward to negotiate with.

She turned to Karina again and said, "Ms. Huber, | hope we can discuss this calmly and peacefully.

Karina coldly said. "There is nothing to discuss about the issue of cooperation with Golden Sun Bank, just leave" Natasha still couldn't understand why Karina didn't give her Team Hawk any chance!

This is outrageous!

"Ms. Huber, the Huber Group was the largest commercial conglomerate in Hallchester. As the CEO of the group, is this the level of competence you possess?"

Karina didn't want to pay any more attention to her. "Ms. Goodman, if you continue to pester me like this, | can't guarantee that what just happened won't happen again."

Nia took a step forward and said, "Ms. Goodman, I'm sorry, but Karina wouldn't agree to your request! Please go back, | apologize for making you come all this way for nothing."

Natasha angrily exclaimed, "Who are you, and what right do you have to make me go back? I came to negotiate the partnership business with Ms. Huber at Golden Sun Bank. What kind of attitude is this?!"

Nia frowned slightly. "Alright, that's enough. No one here was willing to accept your negotiation." "Go away! Who do you think you are to make me go back?!" Natasha finally exploded, pointing at Nia and shouting angrily.

Nia's face immediately turned cold: "Who I am is not important, what's important is that if you dare to speak disrespectfully again, I can make you look bad on the spot!"

"Joke! What kind of scene have I, as a member of Team Hawk, not Chapter 133 Tell her who I was! seen before? You ask me to step aside, who do you think you are?"

Before the words had even finished, Nia kicked Natasha to the ground. and pointed at a special forces member, saying, "Tell her who I am!"

Chapter 134

Chapter 134 The Goodman Family

A special forces soldier took a step forward, intending to reveal Nia's identity, but Karina immediately stepped forward to stop him.

Karina understood that Nia had acted in such a manner out of temporary displeasure.

It would be highly inappropriate to directly reveal her identity in this situation.

It would be better not to get involved in military affairs.

"This is the Huber Group's matter, let me handle it," Karina stepped forward to block Nia. Nia knew that Karina was worried that she would violate the rules.

At that moment, Nia's phone rang.

The call was from Rafael, the captain of Warwolf Special Forces.

“Nia, arrived at the corpse disposal site in Gloom Valley fifteen minutes later!”

“Karina, Robin, handle the four billion cash for me. We have a mission now and must leave immediately!” After receiving the order, Nia greeted Robin and Karina and immediately led twenty special forces members out of the bank.

“Stop right there! You hit me and now you want to leave, it's not that. easy!” Natasha got up from the ground and stood in front of Nia, angrily reprimanding her.

Nia furrowed her brows slightly and said, “I don't have time to argue with you right now. If you're unhappy, go find me at the Finley family!”

“Alright, will you ever stop, woman?!” Robin stood in front of Natasha. as Nia quickly walked out of the bank hall.

Natasha angrily shouted. “Robin, huh? I didn't want to pay any attention to you in the first place. It was you who jumped out and caused trouble for yourself. Do you even know who I am?”

Robin shrugged, “Who could you be, but just a shrew?” There was a burst of laughter coming from the bank hall.

Just now, he still had the appearance of an extremely professional career manager. But now, his entire persona has completely collapsed.

“You! Did you call me a shrew? I, I am the best public relations manager of Londraland, and my uncle is Kelvin Goodman, ranked second on the Hashville State wealth list. I will make you pay...” Natasha angrily pointed at Robin and shouted.

Wayne, who was not far away, only found out about Natasha's words.

This arrogant public relations manager turned out to be the niece of Kelvin, the largest shareholder of Golden Sun Bank!

The Goodman family's wealth and background were almost on par with the Finley family, the wealthiest family in Hashville State. No wonder she was so domineering!

The current situation did not ease due to Natasha's public relations. efforts, but instead escalated further.

He immediately walked over here with Daniel and Roberto.

“Once self-proclaimed as the top crisis management team in Londraland, now no longer doing public relations but resorting to intimidation?” Robin looked at Natasha’s aggressive roar and responded with a faint smile.

“What do you have besides showing off these material possessions?”

At this moment. Natasha had completely lost her previous professional manager demeanor and angrily pointed at Robin, scolding, “Who do you think you are? What qualifications do you have to lecture me? You’re just a dog of the Huber Group!”

“Smack!” Livia slapped Natasha across the face. “Daring to disrespect Mr. Bruce. I’ll kill you!”

Cecilia’s twenty female bodyguards, unlike before, exuded a murderous aura from each of them, abandoning their previous glamorous demeanor.

Natasha was taken aback, she did not expect Robin and the others to hear the name of her uncle Kelvin and show no fear at all! “Mr. Bruce, Ms. Decker, calm down, both of you.” Wayne arrived in time and intervened.

“Mr. Bruce, I am Wayne, the president of the head office of Golden Sun Bank. Today’s incident was caused by our Golden Sun Bank. On behalf of Golden Sun Bank, I apologize to you.”

“We, Golden Sun Bank, are willing to compensate and negotiate for our work mistakes.” “You can raise any opinions or questions you have right now, and I guarantee that they will be resolved on the spot!”

“Mr. Kennedy, what do you mean by this?” Natasha didn’t wait for Robin to answer and said coldly, “They hit me, is that all? No, I’m going to contact my uncle right now! Today, | will make the Huber Group pay for it!"

"Ms. Goodman, it would be better for us not to escalate the situation any further." Wayne stepped forward and advised.

"Don't escalate the situation any further?" Natasha exclaimed, her eyes blazing crimson. "No way! Today. | want them to pay back double!"

"The Huber Group thought they were so powerful in Hallchester that they could ignore me and hit me, right? Well, today | will show your what it means to be outshined and outperformed!"

"The Huber Group and Purpeak International Group, in front of the Goodman family in the past, were nothing!"

"Unless Karina and Robin are kneeling in front of me right now, begging for my forgiveness. | might consider whether to let them go!"

Wayne frowned, if this continued, Golden Sun Bank would definitely not be able to survive. He didn't understand why Kelvin would let this brainless woman come to Hallchester to handle the Huber Group issue.

Karina wanted to speak, but Robin stopped her and said indifferently. "Alright. | intended to let this matter end here, but it seems that Golden Sun Bank's arrogance has a history."

"Then let's start from the very beginning, make a phone call and ask your uncle Kelvin to come!" "I would like to see how he makes me kneel in front of you!"

Natasha snorted and picked up the phone, dialing Kelvin's mobile directly. "Uncle, | had intended to negotiate with the Huber family in good faith, but they hit me. | want the Huber family to die!"

Kelvin and three other major shareholders of Golden Sun Bank were scheduled to host the Andy family delegation at the Hashville Hotel, the headquarters of the bank.

In the evening. Ruth's assistant called suddenly and informed them that their interview would be changed to Halleester.

So. Kelvin and the other three major shareholders of Golden Sun Bank immediately rushed from the provincial capital to Hallcester.

When Natasha called, Kelvin and the others had just arrived in the Hallcester area. "Natasha, Uncle is coming soon!" Kelvin said in a deep voice.

The Goodman family was a prominent clan in Hashville State.

On par with the Finley family, each of them had a rich background.

Golden Sun Bank is a financial conglomerate created through a joint venture between the Goodman family and the Hashville State several prominent families.

After many efforts, we finally managed to get in touch with the Andy family earlier this year. Moreover, we successfully obtained an investment opportunity from the Andy family.

Today was the last day for the Goodman family and the Andy family to sign the cooperation agreement. Originally, the Andy family had planned to sign the contract in Potrya.

However, Ruth insisted on coming to Londraland to investigate before signing the contract.

Finn had no choice but to agree to his granddaughter's request.

11230

Chapter 1:34. The Gondr

If the Goodman family successfully signed a contract with the Andy family tonight. they would quickly rise to the top five of the Londraland rich list.

Compared to the Goodman family, the Huber Group paled in comparison.

Five minutes later. Kelvin and the others arrived at the Business Department of the Hallcester Branch of Golden Sun Bank. Wayne immediately stepped forward and pulled Kelvin and the others aside.

“Mr. Goodman, things were not as you imagined. Please handle this matter with caution.”

Kelvin looked up and saw Robin, Karina, and others.

“What happened to Natasha that she got beaten?” Kelvin asked coldly.

Wayne shook his head helplessly and said. “Well... Mr. Goodman, it’s difficult to explain in a few words. It’s inevitable for young people to have a few disputes and even come to blows.”

Natasha glared fiercely at Robin, Livia, and the others. “Uncle, I tried to discuss business cooperation with the Huber family politely, but they were rude and even hit me! I want the Huber family to be completely destroyed!”

“Ms. Goodman, please calmly and objectively state the facts, do not mislead Mr. Goodman!” Wayne said nervously. “Mr. Goodman, please think twice...”

Kelvin glanced at the time and realized that there was less than thirty minutes left until his meeting with Ruth.

He looked up at Robin and Karina, and said coldly, “Today's matter, 11:23 Drapfre 134 The Goodman Family you better give me a reasonable explanation, otherwise, the Goodman family would rather give up any opportunity for negotiation and cooperation!”

Karina said coldly. “Mr. Goodman, I am Karina, the President of the Huber Group. Your bank handled the Glory Edifice loan matter in an extremely unfriendly manner.”

“They treated Mr. Bruce and Mr. Freddie from the Huber Group with a rude and unjustified attitude.”

“Mr. Bruce repaid in this manner, also out of helplessness.”

“The Huber Group has the right to choose not to continue cooperation with such an unfriendly cooperative bank.”

“The Huber Group has always had a principle of never changing decisions made. Therefore, I refuse to compromise!” “Your niece failed to persuade and started swearing, so my friend got angry and hit her. That's how the situation unfolded." "For this matter, I can apologize to your niece on behalf of my friend and make appropriate compensation."

"However, the Huber Group will no longer continue to collaborate with Golden Sun Bank."

Kelvin hesitated for a moment, before Natasha angrily exclaimed, "Absolutely not! Uncle. I don't need their compensation unless Karina kneels in front of me and slaps herself a hundred times! Otherwise, we will destroy the Huber Group!"

Kelvin's elder brother passed away early, and he always treated his brother's daughter as his own. He saw that Natasha couldn't calm down the anger in her heart and said in a deep voice, "Ms. Huber, I don't want to escalate this matter. either How about this, there's no need for a slap, just kneel down and apologize to my niece, and we'll consider this matter settled!"

11:23

"Otherwise, I cannot guarantee whether the Huber family can withstand the anger of the Goodman family in terms of their size! As for whether the Huber Group cooperates with you or not, it is not a big deal!"

Everyone in the business lobby gasped in shock.

The actual head of the Goodman family, Kelvin, had the confidence to say this!

Did Karina from the Huber family, the No. 1 family of Hallchester, really kneel down tonight?

"Damn it! Old man, do you have no sense of reason?" Robin sneered without waiting for Karina to speak. "Do you think you're someone just because you have a little money? Bullshit!"

Kelvin immediately became angry and said, "Kid, in this world, whoever has the power is right!"

"Since you want to verify it, I'll let you see the cruel reality!"

After saying that, Kelvin instructed his assistant beside him, "Inform the Goodman family headquarters and use all our resources to deliver a devastating blow to the Huber Group!"

Karina clenched her fist, but there was no trace of panic in her eyes. "Miss!" Karsyn exclaimed nervously, "I called Mr. Harold..."

Karina coldly stared at Kelvin and said to Karsyn, "No need! The B6.55% decisions made by the Huber Group are never regretted!"

In no time. Karsyn and Karina's phones were filled with negative news about the Huber Group.

Chapter 135

Chapter 135 Tragic Solitude

Karsyn held her breath as she watched the continuous stream of unfavorable reports about the Huber Group on her phone news.

She looked nervously at Karina.

Several times, there was an impulse to call Harold privately and tell him about what was happening at the moment. Just when she saw Karina still standing there coldly, she had no choice but to give up.

She understood that the current situation, even if she told Harold, would be of no use.

At this moment, the lobby of Golden Sun Bank was so quiet that it felt suffocating.

Everyone knew.

In a situation where the capital power was absolutely disparate.

The Huber Group is being destroyed in the full-scale attack by the Goodman family.

Cecilia, from Purpeak International Group, furrowed her brows slightly and looked up at Karina, then glanced at Robin. She believed that Robin would definitely not stand by and do nothing.

However, she didn't know what actions this powerful man would take.

Cecilia was well aware that, with the strength of Purpeak International Group, she was powerless to face the Goodman family's sanctions

Chapter 135 Prage Solitude against the Huber Group.

Conway hesitated for a moment and said coldly, "Kelvin, do you think that just because you have money and power, you can act recklessly in Hashville State?"

"I advise you, it would be best to stop now! Otherwise, you will pay a heavy price!"

Kelvin snorted coldly, "Conway. I know how you made your fortune, and I know that in Hallcester, you were known as the Underground Demon King. Everyone had to show you respect!"

"But, your little thing, in front of the Goodman family, is worthless!"

"You had better shut your filthy mouth! Otherwise, the Goodman family wouldn't mind destroying one more Demon's Lair!" Conway certainly understood that Kelvin's words were not exaggerated.

With the strength of the Goodman family, Demon's Lair was simply no match for them!

The Goodman family was not only one of the wealthiest dynasties in Hashville State.

Its underworld background is much stronger than Conway's Demon's Lair.

It is absolutely absurd for Conway to think of using underworld methods to deal with the Goodman family.

With just one command from Kelvin, Demon's Lair immediately became the target of the entire martial arts world. Conway glanced at Robin, his mouth twitched, and he gritted his teeth. saying. "Kelvin, don't be too arrogant! Even if your Goodman family is powerful, my Demon's Lair brothers, hundreds of them, dare to fight against you!"

"Barry, gather all the brothers and destroy all the properties of the Goodman family within Hashville State!"

"Even if it meant exhausting all the resources of Demon's Lair, we would still fight to the death against the Goodman family!" Barry hesitated for a moment and replied, "Yes, Mr. Lambert, | will carry out your instructions immediately!"

Kelvin burst into laughter and said, "A flea shaking a tree! Conway, how ridiculous!"

"With your little ability, you dare to challenge the Goodman family in the past? You're asking for death, then I'll grant your wish!" After Kelvin finished speaking, his assistant had already started. mobilizing troops.

In no time. Conway and Barry's phones all started ringing.

The call came from the entertainment industry under Demon's Lair, and at the same time, everything started to become chaotic. Conway was startled and broke out in a cold sweat.

Before, he only knew that the Goodman family was very powerful in the underworld.

Surprisingly, the Goodman family's influence was also present in most of the industries in Demon's Lair.

Karina saw the situation and said, "Mr. Lambert, you didn't have to get involved in this mess. The Huber family's issues didn't need to burden you

Conway said. "I have no connection with the Huber family, so how could I possibly fight to the death for you, the Huber family, against the Goodman family?"

I just wanted to show off in front of Mr. Robin! hope Robin can intervene before the destruction of Demon's Lair. Otherwise, half a lifetime's effort would have been wasted!

Barry looked at the messages coming from various places, his eyes turning red: "Mr. Lambert, please come up with a solution quickly. otherwise, our Demon's Lair will be finished!"

Conway stepped on Barry, instantly unleashing the ferocity of twenty years ago.

"Shut up! Damn it. I've been through countless bloodshed for decades, seen it all, so don't you dare scream! Today, even if the entire Demon's Lair is destroyed, I will still take a bite out of the Goodman family!"

Conway's roar made the entire business lobby tremble with fear. Everyone in Hallchester knew that Mr. Lambert's reputation was hard- earned.

Even when facing such a formidable opponent like the Goodman family, this fierce tiger became angry and remained extremely ferocious!

At that moment, Karina's phone also started ringing like crazy.

She knew that this should be a distress signal sent to her by the heads. of various institutions of the Huber Group.

It seems that the Huber Group has also reached a life—or—death situation.

Faced with such a tragic situation, Karina remained even calmer

Her eyes were determined, her face was icy cold, and there was not trace of fear.

Because her grandfather told her, the Huber family always prioritizes loyalty and affection, regardless of the circumstances. This time, Robin had a conflict with Golden Sun Bank.

The Huber Group broke ties with Golden Sun Bank in anger, resulting in the difficult situation we face today.

She never regretted.

Natasha watched as the Huber Group and Demon's Lair were quickly and thoroughly dismantled by the Goodman family in just a few minutes.

She burst into laughter and said, "Karina, they say you are the esteemed Miss of the Huber Group, the No. 1 family of Hallcester, known as the goddess of Hallcester."

"Today, the Huber family faced a great disaster as a result. I really want to see, you, Hallcester goddess, without the Huber family's strength to rely on, what else can you be proud and haughty about. hahaha..."

"If you kneel down in front of me right now and slap yourself 100 times, I can tell my uncle to spare the Huber family."

"Karina, do you know? If the Huber family were to collapse, you would be worth nothing!"

"Your beautiful face, which used to bring you admiration, wealth, and praise, will now bring you nothing but disaster. Hahaha..." Natasha burst into laughter.

Karina looked at her coldly and said indifferently, "You are really pitiful!"

Natasha sneered, "Karina, being stubborn is meaningless! In the face of strength. I advise you to bow down!"

"Do you think that with just your pitiful arrogance and aloofness, you could really contend with the Goodman family, the prominent clan of Hashville State?"

"How ridiculous!"

“I just don’t understand, what gives you, the Huber Group, the confidence to completely terminate the cooperation with Golden Sun Bank?”

“Have you forgotten that you, the Huber family, were nothing but ants in front of the major shareholders of Golden Sun Bank?” “Now, you should have tasted what it feels like to have money and be right!”

“The Goodman family’s wealth could be piled up into a mountain of gold, instantly crushing the Huber Group into ashes!” Natasha’s words instantly lifted the spirits of the Golden Sun Bank employees who were counting cash.

As employees of Golden Sun Bank, they suddenly felt their own worth multiply.

In that moment, every employee of Golden Sun Bank felt superior to the goddess Karina of Hallcester.

At that moment, their gazes towards Robin, Karina, and others were filled with disdain and contempt.

In a short while, some employees at the bank counter began to whisper among themselves.

“I thought Ms. Huber had so much power, she was nothing in front of our boss.”

“They thought that by producing billions of cash in a short period of time, they could intimidate our Golden Sun Bank. How ridiculous!”

“The Huber Group, with such limited power, has no qualifications to unilaterally terminate our cooperation with Golden Sun Bank. They are overestimating their abilities!”

Wayne, who had been silent all along, furrowed his brow.

Although the Goodman family had the ability to defeat the Huber family in anger.

However, the Goodman family would also suffer greatly as a result.

This kind of behavior is nothing more than a low-level act of defiance.

It was meaningless for a true businessman.

So, he hesitated for a while and finally approached Kelvin, whispering, "Mr. Goodman, let's stop here. I think it's enough to teach them a lesson and let the Huber family know your power. There's no need to completely destroy the Huber family."

"Although the Huber Group was insignificant in front of the Goodman family, it was still a prominent clan in Halleester."

"Once the Huber Group was forced to make the final counterattack, it would ultimately cause great harm to the Goodman family" "At the same time, it would trigger a chain of negative effects. throughout Hashville State."

"The reputation of Golden Sun Bank would be greatly compromised as a result, and there is even a possibility of losing all domestic business "

Kelvin sneered. "Given the current situation, even if we were to abandon all domestic operations, what difference would it make!" Kelvin deliberately spoke in a loud voice, loud enough for the entire business lobby to hear.

"Since we are on the topic, let's take this opportunity to announce some good news to our employees."

"We. Golden Sun Bank, were about to establish a strategic partnership with the Andy family tonight."

"The establishment of a partnership with Andy Consortium this time will enable our Golden Sun Bank to expand its business globally!"

"In the past. Golden Sun Bank didn't care about the small market of Londraland. let alone the domestic business!" As soon as Kelvin finished speaking, all the employees of Golden Sun Bank in the business lobby cheered.

"Surprisingly. Golden Sun Bank is about to become strategic partners with Potrya, which is known as one of the world's top five financial conglomerates, the Andy family."

"So, Golden Sun Bank would become an international corporation."

“Once we officially collaborate with the Andy family, our profits will skyrocket within half a year!”

“The Goodman family would also become the No. 1 family of Londraland as a result.”

“With the support of the Andy family, a prominent household, Golden Sun Bank naturally looked down upon domestic business!”

“How can the Huber family, Purpeak International Group, Demon’s Lair, and even the Finley family completely terminate their relationship with us?”

By then, those people could only look up at Golden Sun Bank from afar as it showcased its prowess on the world stage. Listening to the excited discussions among the employees of Golden Sun Bank in the lobby, Karsyn felt a sense of panic.

She looked at the plummeting market share of the Huber Group on her phone and whispered, “Ms. Huber, should we contact Ms. Finley and ask her uncle, Mr. Finley, to intervene?”

Karina shook her head and said. “The Huber family didn’t want to involve anyone with what they did.” At this moment, a touch of tragic desolation flashed in Karina’s eyes. She knew that the Huber family had a difficult time today.

Just feeling a bit regretful, the Huber family couldn’t provide Robin with a satisfactory return when facing the powerful Goodman family.

Karina looked at Robin helplessly and forced a bitter smile. 11:24

She was telling Robin that she couldn’t do it anymore, the Huber family had tried their best.

Chapter 136

Chapter 136 The Andy Family's Most Honorable Friend

Robin smiled indifferently, it was indeed rare for the Huber family to have such affection.

“Old man, your dream was indeed beautiful, but it’s a pity, hehe!”

Kelvin looked disdainfully at Robin, shaking his head with a smile. “Kid, even when facing death, you still talk tough!”

“The world has always revered strength.. With the successful collaboration between Golden Sun Bank and the Andy family, who in Londraland could possibly rival them? Hahaha...”

Robin smiled indifferently, “The Andy family would not cooperate with unethical companies like yours!”

“Hahaha!” Kelvin laughed, “Kid, talking tough won’t do you any good, the fact is right here, the Andy family’s Ruth delegation has already arrived in Hallchester.”

“After finishing the matters here, we will hold the signing ceremony at Hallchester Hotel.”

Natasha’s eyes lit up when she heard it. “Uncle, | also want to go and have a look. Introduce me to Ms. Andy when the time comes.”

“If she knew that | was the gold medal public relations manager of Londraland, she would definitely strongly invite me to be their public relations consultant for the Andy family.”

“So, the Andy family was not far from bankruptcy,” Robin said casually.

11:24

There was a burst of laughter coming from the business lobby.

“You!... Ha, besides saying some irrelevant cold words, what else can you do!” Natasha angrily glared at Robin.

Robin shrugged and said, “Don’t worry, the Andy family would never sign a contract with you, and Ruth would never hire a lunatic as her public relations consultant.”

Natasha shouted angrily, “Who do you call crazy? Uncle!”

Kelvin sneered. "Kid, you're talking nonsense, not afraid of tripping over your own tongue! I don't have time to deal with you today! I'll take care of you once I finish signing the contract with Ruth!"

Robin's lips curled up with a hint of contempt as he said, "I said the Andy family would not cooperate with you, and they definitely won't. I can predict the future."

"If you don't believe me. I'll prove it to you. In one second, you will be kneeling in front of me!"

Kelvin coldly said. "Kid, you are too arrogant, seeking death!"

With a thud, before Kelvin could finish his sentence, he actually knelt down in the business lobby of the bank.

The bank hall fell into a suffocating silence.

No one know what had happened.

"Uncle, what, what happened to you?" Natasha was shocked by the scene in front of her.

Uncle Kelvin, always held himself high and imposing, never once lowered his head in front of anyone.

11.665

11.25

However, now, unexpectedly, he knelt down in front of everyone!

And. I would even kneel before this insignificant boy named Robin!

"Why don't you quickly help Uncle up?" Natasha scolded, pointing at the two bodyguards behind Kelvin.

Two burly bodyguards immediately woke up and quickly stepped forward to lend a hand to Kelvin.

In the cold bank hall. Robin's half—smiling voice came again, "They will also kneel, how can they go and help your uncle!" As the words fell, two tall and strong bodyguards knelt forcefully on the bank floor.

The heavy body smashed the marble floor into pieces.

Kelvin was horrified and trembling as he pointed angrily at Robin, saying.
"You, you, you bastard, what have you done to me?"

Robin shrugged and said, "Mr. Goodman, it doesn't matter what I did, what matters is that you verified my calculations and were proven Wrong!"

"What you did today will make the Goodman family pay a price that can never be recovered!" "Just you wait, you little punk!" Kelvin angrily pointed at Wayne beside him. "What are you all standing around for? Help me up!" Wayne, Daniel, and others hurriedly rushed forward to support Kelvin.

However, they couldn't lift Kelvin off the ground no matter how hard they tried.

Kelvin was sweating profusely out of anxiety.

The Andy Family's Mod itatumika frand

He didn't know why he couldn't control his own body.

This kneeling posture made him lose face.

Is Robin playing tricks?

The key is. Robin didn't do anything!

However, his intuition told him that this matter must be related to Robin!

At this moment, he wished he could kill Robin!

Could it be true, could it be true that the Andy family's contract will also be as Robin said?

At the thought of this, a wave of panic swept over my heart.

Just then, his assistant, with an anxious expression, handed Kelvin the phone in speaker mode and said, "Mr. Goodman, it's a call from Miss Ruth."

Kelvin tried his best to stand up, but he still couldn't get up.

| had to kneel down and said, "Ms. Andy, hello. | have already arrived at Hallcester, but | was delayed by something. Please wait for a moment, | will come over immediately..."

On the other end of the phone, Ruth, speaking fluent Londralish, said, "Kelvin, | am calling to inform you that the Andy family has decided to no longer cooperate with Golden Sun Bank."

"From this moment on, all domestic and international operations that Golden Sun Bank was collaborating with the Andy family have been terminated."

"At the same time, the Andy family will impose corresponding

Chapter 1 in The Andy Family

sanctions on some of your misconduct during the cooperation with Golden Sun Bank!" "Why?" Kelvin exclaimed in fear. "Are you really Ms. Andy?"

"Yes, Mr. Goodman! The refusal signing fax letter from Potrya headquarters of the Andy family will be sent to your Golden Sun Bank. secretariat in five minutes. At that time, you will know all the reasons."

Kelvin broke out in a cold sweat and tremblingly asked, "Ms. Andy, | would like to request you to answer me one question. Why did you suddenly terminate this collaboration?"

Ruth laughed and said, "It's simple, you offended me and the most esteemed friends of the Andy family."

"Therefore, Golden Sun Bank had to pay a heavy price!"

"If it weren't for my friend's request, the Andy family would have already taken action to destroy your Golden Sun Bank." Kelvin was confused, "Ms. Andy, did | offend your friend? Who is he? Can you tell me..."

Ruth snorted, "Hmph, you don't have the qualifications to know! Anyway, without him, the current Andy family and | would have long ceased to exist."

"You offended my esteemed friend, you became an enemy of the Andy family!"

Kelvin's face turned pale instantly, and he felt dizzy.

What on earth is going on here?

Have I ever offended the most esteemed friend of the Andy family?

Kelvin desperately tried to recall who he had offended,

But recently. I haven't done anything myself.

Have you never had any disputes with any prestigious big shots?

Who exactly was this person?

How could I have been regarded as the most esteemed friend by the Andy family?

Turning the hand over is like clouds, covering the hand is like rain.

In just five short minutes, the entire situation suddenly underwent a stunning reversal!

In the lobby of Golden Sun Bank, everyone was stunned by this bizarre scene.

Just now, Kelvin was still arrogant and domineering, with his hand covering the sky.

It seemed that with the strength of the Goodman family, they could easily crush everything in the world. Now, he knelt in the center of the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank. his face pale and his whole body trembling miserably. In an instant, Kelvin's hair turned white.

Did the Goodman family suffer a stronger blow from a more formidable boss?

Everyone was shocked!

The person who could defeat the Goodman family, their power can be imagined!

They heard an extremely important message from Kelvin's words.

The Andy family refused the contract from Golden Sun Bank.

Because Kelvin offended a very prestigious friend of the Andy family!

This esteemed friend, the Andy family once had a life-saving grace!

The Andy family got angry and punished Golden Sun Bank as a result.

And never again worked with Golden Sun Bank!

Wayne heard the news and felt a chill down his spine.

This news was fatal for Golden Sun Bank.

Suddenly, Kelvin's assistant's panicked shout broke the terrifying silence of the business lobby. "Mr. Goodman, something bad happened!"

"The stock of Golden Sun Bank plummeted rapidly, resulting in a direct loss of three trillion dollars!"

"If we couldn't control it in time, we... we would go bankrupt..."

Kelvin broke out in a cold sweat!

He didn't know what was going on.

What exactly happened in that brief moment?

Who on earth is the person Ruth was talking about?!

Why did he want to punish the Goodman family?

Is it the Finley family?

It was impossible!

Absolutely impossible!

The Finley family definitely did not have the ability to instantly turn the Andy family against the Goodman family. Was it the Huber family? Was it Purpeak International Group? Or was it Demon's Lair?

It was impossible!

What kind of person did Kelvin offend that he couldn't afford to provoke!

The employees of Golden Sun Bank, who were still celebrating and cheering.

At this moment, it felt like falling into a glacier.

They knew that tomorrow would be the day they would lose their jobs!

In the business lobby of the huge bank, there was a deathly silence. "Miss, the crisis of the Huber Group has been resolved!"

Karsyn looked at the message coming from her phone and, for a moment, forgot herself. She excitedly grabbed Karina's arm and shook it vigorously, saying, "Miss, look quickly, the crisis of the Huber Group has been resolved!"

Karina looked at the phone screen and saw positive news about the Huber Group.

She was shocked!

Who exactly was helping the Huber Group behind the scenes?

11:25 D

The Archy Eataly + Mogt Hover i

The Huber Group did not suffer a major setback due to the intervention of the Goodman family.

On the contrary, fortune came from misfortune! The Huber Group's scale and size unexpectedly rose to a new level in such a short period of time.

Immediately after. Barry exclaimed excitedly, "Mr. Lambert, the danger in our Demon's Lair has been eliminated!" Conway raised his hand, indicating that he didn't need to continue speaking.

He looked at Robin's back and let out a long sigh of relief.

It must have been this gentleman who made the move behind the scenes!

At that moment, he broke out in a cold sweat.

I am fortunate that I did not drop the ball at a critical moment just now.

If Conway had retreated in fear back then. Demon's Lair would have been fucked tonight! Cecilia and Livia looked at Robin's sharply defined face, their eyes shining with pride. This is the inviolable power of Lord Dragon!

Kelvin never dreamed that they would ultimately pay a heavy price for their shallowness and rudeness towards the Goodman family.

After this blow, the Goodman family will be permanently erased from the elite of Hashville State. At that moment, Robin's phone rang. "Robin, I'm waiting for you at Chapter 196 The Andy Family & Most Honble Firma Hallcester Hotel 3001. Miss you, Ruth."

Chapter 137

Chapter 137 Turns Out He's the Real Big Shot

Receiving Ruth's message, Robin checked the time and realized it was already 10 o'clock in the evening.

He stretched his body lazily, and the events of tonight should also come to an end.

"Roberto, hurry up and finish the loan settlement procedures. I need to go back. Let's put an end to this matter." Roberto was still in a daze at the moment, and he had no idea what had happened throughout the entire night. However, one thing he knew was that the Goodman family was finished.

Upon hearing Robin's instructions, he immediately scolded Elisa, "Settle Mr. Bruce's loan procedures immediately!" "But there are still two large boxes of cash that haven't been counted yet..." Elisa said, trembling.

"Not finished cleaning? They're all a bunch of idiots! Mr. Bruce is repaying, every box of money has the same data, there's nothing to count, proceed with the settlement immediately!" Roberto scolded.

Elisa hesitated for a moment and quickly asked two employees from the Credit Department to bring the seal to complete the loan settlement procedures for Freddie.

Robin patted Roberto's shoulder and said, "I remember you said before, that if I could repay the 3.8 billion loan before midnight, you would kneel down and apologize to me, Mr. Francis. Did you forget?"

Roberto fell to the ground with a thud.

Robin chuckled and turned to walk outside the hall.

Freddie immediately followed him out of the business lobby.

"Mr. Bruce, thank you so much!"

"Today, you saved Freddie's family!"

"From then on, I would definitely follow you closely, willingly obeying your every command!"

Without turning his head, Robin waved his hand and said, "Alright, I accept it! Starting tomorrow, the Glory Edifice and the surrounding commercial area will resume construction!"

"Yes, Mr. Bruce, I will definitely build Glory Edifice into the best building in the entire Hashville State! And I will transform the southern commercial district into the most distinctive commercial and leisure center."

"Alright, then let's give it our best." A cool breeze blew, and Robin took a deep breath before walking into the crowd.

Karina, Karsyn, Cecilia, and Livia, along with Conway, Barry, and others, quickly dealt with the excess cash from the business lobby and followed Robin as he walked away.

At this moment, the same news began to spread like wildfire across major online media platforms in Hallchester.

Negative news about Roberto, the president of Golden Sun Bank, emerged, including his affair with a mistress, embezzlement, and bribery, as well as other executives of Golden Sun Bank.

In an instant, customers of Golden Sun Bank across the country.

demanded an explanation for the current event.

And, it is required to terminate all business with Golden Sun Bank.

Kelvin sat on the ground, looking at the negative news about Golden Sun Bank

He knew that the Goodman family's last remaining hope for a comeback had been completely ruined by Roberto and his gang of bastards.

In an instant, the raging blood surged to the top of the head.

Kelvin suddenly realized that he could control his own body.

He quickly got up from the ground and kicked Roberto in the face.

“You bastard! You have completely ruined the last bit of hope for the Goodman family!”

“You wait to die! I won't let you go!”

After a furious roar, Kelvin gradually calmed down.

Looking up at the expressionless Wayne, “Mr. Kennedy, please take immediate remedial measures...”

Wayne looked at the unstoppable defeat in front of him and shook his head. “Mr. Goodman, I'm sorry, but I am powerless in this situation. You should let your niece Natasha handle it.”

With that, Wayne left angrily.

At that moment, Kelvin and the four shareholders stood in the bank hall at a loss. This unbearable ending was something he never expected.

Chapter 137 Tums Out He's the Real Big Shot

The Goodman family, with a market value of over hundreds of billions, surprisingly proved to be so vulnerable, as they were completely wiped out within a few minutes.

It seemed like everything happening before my eyes was an illusion.

A few minutes ago, he was still the billionaire tycoon of Hashville State.

But now, | am a lonely and penniless person!

Kelvin couldn't figure out what kind of terrifying person he had offended.

This person was so ruthless that they didn't give the Goodman family any chance to catch their breath! Looking at the crowded people outside the hall and the chilly dark night, he sighed deeply.

Suddenly, he saw Karina, Cecilia, and Conway closely following behind a young man outside the business lobby! As Kelvin watched the tall figure of the young man gradually recede into the distance, in that instant, he understood! Wow!

He turned out to be the real boss!

How could | be so blind and not see his identity!

He was Ruth's most important friend..

How stupid | was, how could | offend him!

If | had known that he was the most respected friend of the Andy Chapter 137 Tuma Out He's the Real Big Shot family. | would never have shown the slightest disrespect towards him.

Let me kneel before him, it is all my glory as Kelvin!

Hurry! Perhaps there is still time.

If | knelt in front of him and sincerely repented.

Perhaps he could spare the Goodman family, considering my sincerity and willingness to correct my mistakes. As long as he could raise his hand, the Goodman family could make a comeback.

With this in mind, Kelvin quickly ran towards the business lobby.

Natasha stood in front of him and asked, "Uncle, why are you in such a hurry to do something?"

"I just thought about it, there might have been some misunderstandings between Ruth and us."

"Uncle. I took my Team Hawk with me to find Ruth. I personally handled the crisis public relations and I was determined to turn the situation around!"

"Smack!" Kelvin slapped Natasha across the face. "You're just crazy!"

"Where was there a Team Hawk? Where was there a No. 1 manager?"

"Those were all things I had the media boast about for you, did you actually believe them?" "The Goodman family was completely ruined by you, get out!"

Kelvin tripped Natasha to the ground with one foot.

Then, quickly chased after the past.

Natasha couldn't understand no matter what.

It was through years of struggle that Team Hawk became the number one public relations team, as major news media competed to report on them.

Moreover, I personally handled over five hundred crisis cases. How did he become the one who created it all? I did not agree! 1. Natasha, am the gold medal manager in crisis public relations worldwide!

Kelvin's assistant sighed and said, "Miss Natasha, those over five hundred crisis cases were all set up by the Goodman family. Mr. Goodman did that purely to indulge your whims. You actually took them seriously?"

"You completely messed up this matter today, so deal with it yourself!"

Natasha pushed her assistant aside and shouted, "No, I was the best public relations manager in the world, and no one can erase my former glory!"

As Wayne passed by Natasha, he sneered, “You’re just a lunatic! Women like you are born troublemakers, go handle your own crisis management!”

Karina quickly caught up to Robin and said, “Wait a minute! I want to ask you something, did you do this?”

Robin shrugged and said, “Maybe.”

Karina looked at Robin’s half-smiling expression, unable to figure out whether he was telling the truth or not.

“Tomorrow morning, are you available to attend the board meeting at the Huber Group headquarters with Mr. Strickland?”

Robin nodded and said. “Alright! I have some things to do now, so I’ll leave.”

Karina wanted to say a few more words to Robin.

Robin had already walked briskly through the crowd and headed towards the outskirts. Karina stopped in her tracks and watched Robin’s figure from afar, feeling empty inside. How could Robin possibly have had such a deep connection with the Andy family?

Is it impossible?

Karsyn whispered, “Miss, are you really upset because of Mr. Bruce?”

Karina shook her head and said. “It’s not very realistic. However, besides him, who else has such great ability to help the Huber family?”

“Is he Nia’s uncle?” Karsyn pondered.

“Maybe...” Karina shook her head and glanced at Robin’s figure in the distance, a beautiful smile appearing on her face. “Karsyn, did you find the master chef I asked you to hire?”

“Ah?” Karsyn nervously said, “I... I haven’t been able to get in touch yet.”

“You! You ruined everything for me!” Karina exclaimed anxiously. “Sigh, I’ll just go online and download a software to learn by myself!”

Tumis Out Hen the Real Big Schot

In the crowded crowd. Miranda, Crystal, and Jacob.

I saw Karina, Cecilia, and Conway walking out from a distance.

Several teams of horsemen followed behind, with each person carrying a briefcase.

Miranda's eyes lit up and she exclaimed, "They truly live up to the reputation of the big shots from Hallchester. Just by looking at their presence, I can feel their power!"

"I really envied them for being able to achieve such accomplishments today. I must become someone like them!" Miranda muttered to herself, tightly clenched her fist, and silently cheered herself on.

Crystal, however, was in the crowd, diligently searching for Robin's figure.

But I looked for a long time and still didn't see him.

"I wonder why Robin hasn't come out yet," Crystal muttered to herself.

She squeezed forward and watched as Karina, Cecilia, and Conway each got into their own cars.

A luxuriously convoy gradually departed from the entrance of the business lobby of Golden Sun Bank.

Still not seeing Robin's figure, I couldn't help but feel a little anxious.

It seems like the matter has already ended, why didn't Robin come out?

Miranda noticed that Crystal was restless. She observed her searching gaze and knew that she was looking for Robin.

She sneered "Crystal, from the way you look so anxious, are you looking for that guy Robin?"

"He caused such a big trouble today, do you think he can still come out?"

“The Goodman family was a prominent clan in Hashville State, with a heritage comparable to that of the Finley family.”

“He Robin was clueless and actually dared to challenge the Goodman family’s Golden Sun Bank. Wasn’t that asking for trouble?!”

“Even if the Huber family had invited the big shots, Ms. Decker from Purpeak International Group and Mr. Lambert from Demon’s Lair, Robin couldn’t have escaped so smoothly.”

“The Goodman family would definitely punish him severely.”

“Let’s go, he wouldn’t come out!”

Chapter 138

Chapter 138 Robin, We Finally Meet!

Crystal looked at Miranda’s gloating expression and felt very displeased.

“Miranda, I don’t know why you always disliked Robin so much.”

“In my impression, he seemed to have never harmed you or the Brown family’s interests.”

“Even if you looked down on Robin, despised his humble status, and refused to marry him, he had no resentment.” “Even, he had helped you.”

“You shouldn’t have harbored so much hatred towards him, or even wished for his situation to worsen, especially when you had no gratitude at all.”

“I really don’t know how you could have such an attitude.”

“At least in the vast sea of people, the Bruce family and your Brown family once had a good connection, which was a kind of fate.”

“Even if you couldn’t become a family with him, couldn’t be together, you should still bless him, shouldn’t curse him!”

Miranda shook her head and sneered, "Why should I bless a man like this, who always seeks attention and causes trouble everywhere, shallow and vulgar?"

"He helped me, also to prove himself in front of me, wanting to salvage our engagement."

Chapter 138 Robin, We Finally Man

"Haha, he forgot. We were never on the same level to begin with, and I looked down on him!" "Every time I saw him causing such a big scene, I felt ashamed for him!

"A man with little ability, always liked to do some shocking things, it's really disgusting!"

While Crystal and Miranda were talking, two Bentleys passed by them.

Crystal's eyes suddenly lit up as she saw the person sitting in the Bentley, who seemed to be Robin. "Miranda, look, look, isn't that Robin in the car?"

Miranda glanced at the figures of several foreigners in the car and smiled. "Crystal, are you crazy? I don't know why you are so infatuated with Robin."

"How on earth did this jerk manage to deceive you so completely?" "Crystal, wake up!"

"Take a closer look, those two Bentleys that just passed by were luxury cars exclusively for foreign guests! They are special vehicles used by the Hallchester government's Foreign Affairs Office for diplomatic receptions!"

"How could someone like him, Robin, with such a low social status, have the ability and qualifications to sit in such a noble car?" "Crystal, you should wake up and snap out of it. If you continue like this, I'm afraid something bad might happen to you!"

Crystal ignored Miranda's mockery and dialed Robin's Line phone number on her mobile.

Chapter 138 Rober, We Finally Meet!

Soon, Robin's voice came from the other end of the phone, "Why are you calling so late?"

Crystal was annoyed and said. "Robin, I wanted to see how you are doing now! Damn it, a beautiful girl called so late to show concern for you, and you're not even moved?"

Robin could imagine the angry expression on Crystal's face at that moment.

He laughed and said. "Where are you now, caring about me?"

"I wanted to ask you, where were you?" Crystal exclaimed angrily.

"I was yawning as I was on my way to Hallcester Hotel," Robin said. "Weren't you in the bank?" Crystal's heart dropped as she spoke. "No, I had already left the bank a long time ago."

"Robin, were you sitting in a Bentley?"

"How did you know I was driving a Bentley? Were you following me?" "Stop following me!" Crystal snorted coldly.

"What's the matter, tell me." Robin pouted, able to sense Crystal's nervousness on the other end of the phone. Crystal remained silent for a while, suddenly unsure of what to say. My throat was choked, and tears welled up in my eyes.

"Can't I call if there's nothing wrong?" Crystal wiped away a tear from the corner of her eye and gritted her teeth. "You bastard, Robin!"

After scolding, he hung up the phone directly.

At this moment, Robin must have had a confused expression on his face, while Crystal burst into laughter. Robin looked at the screen of his phone, which displayed the words. "call ended." and pouted.

Is this woman out of her mind? Did she call just to insult me?

"You jerk!" Robin muttered.

The two bodyguards of the Andy family were startled.

Trembling, they moved to one side of the seat, fearing that this gentleman would kick them out of the car.

Miranda looked at Crystal's tearful smile and shook her head, saying. "Crystal, I heard your conversation with Robin, neither you nor this man can be saved!"

"He said, coming out of the bank, riding in a Bentley to Hallcester Hotel, do you believe it?" "Hallcester Hotel was the largest and most luxurious five-star hotel in our town. Hallcester."

"Hallcester Hotel was generally used to accommodate foreign guests or for hosting large-scale conferences organized by the municipal government."

"What did he go there for? Could it be that the Goodman family invited him to have dinner at Hallcester Hotel?" "Do you believe in such nonsense?"

Crystal ignored Miranda and said, "Once his matters were taken care of, he was safe."

"Let's go, we should also go back, the police were evacuating the crowd."

Miranda shook her head as she watched Crystal's figure disappear: "It's over, Crystal must have been deceived miserably by that jerk Robin!"

Jacob sneered. "Let's go, everyone has their own fortunes and misfortunes, and we can't be bothered. If Crystal wants to be deceived. by Robin, there's nothing we can do."

Miranda sighed. "I had told her a long time ago to stay away from men like Robin, but she wouldn't listen. Sigh! She got dragged down by Robin after all!"

At that moment, Miranda's phone rang. I hadn't heard before, her aunt, uncle, and auntie had already made many phone calls. "Miranda, I asked you something?"

Miranda's aunt, Margaret Brown, coldly asked on the phone. "I just heard that you sold the land in the southern part of the city. Why didn't you tell us about this?"

"At that time, we followed you to buy the land in the south of the city because we heard you say it would appreciate. Now, all these plots have become wasteland. You can't just ignore us!"

Miranda's face instantly turned cold. "Aunt, when I bought the land in the south of the city, I didn't force you to buy it. It was you who insisted that I help you buy it together."

"You heard from others that there was a Glory Edifice in the southern part of the city, and many capital institutions had invested in it. The city government was soon going to develop it, but you insisted on going there to make a quick profit."

Chapter 135 Robin We Finally Mesti "Now, how come you're saying it was me who told you to buy it again? Don't slander me!" "My parents knew about this matter, and there is no way you can blame it on me!"

There was a moment of silence on the other end of the phone. "Miranda, listen. Auntie said we didn't mean it the way you thought."

"It is already like this now, no matter who made us buy it back then. After all, we are a family. You can't just watch these properties become worthless in our hands."

"Today you sold all the land in city south that you had in your hands. Although it was at half price, at least you didn't incur any losses."

"Can you help Auntie sell the land in my hands as well?" "I seem to have heard that Robin helped with the selling?"

"Auntie called to ask if you could inquire with Robin whether the Huber Group could also acquire the southern plot we have in our hands."

"They, the Huber Group, didn't lack this amount of money, buying our land wouldn't hurt their vitality."

"Also, take a look at the land I currently have in my hands, can I sell it to them at the original price? The Huber Group is very wealthy!"

"You must be dreaming! Do you think the Huber family are fools? How could the Huber Group possibly spend so much money to buy the land in your hands in the southern part of the city!"

"Miranda, after all, we are family. Could you please ask Aunt tomorrow and try to sell the land in our hands, even if it's at half price? Is that okay?"

“We currently have a total of nearly 2 billion worth of land in our hands.”

“It we could recover the cost of 1 billion, we would be extremely grateful”
“Miranda, could you ask for us tomorrow? Aunt won’t mistreat you!” “If possible, during the Brown Group shareholders’ meeting, we would nominate you as the Chairman of the Brown Group!”

“My aunt will definitely vote for you. Don’t worry, as long as you help me sell the land in the south of the city, our relatives will all stand by your side.”

“You would have been able to secure the position of Chairman of the Brown Group by then.”

“Can’t we just do it like this?”

Miranda pondered for a moment and said, “Alright, | will ask tomorrow.”

“However, | cannot guarantee that it could be sold for sure.”

“Ten billion is, after all, not a small amount. Even if the Huber Group is wealthy, they wouldn’t just buy some wasteland casually.” “It was also a coincidence for me this time, Robin wanted to please me so | bought it.”

c

“After asking tomorrow, | will get back to you.”

Hallcester Hotel.

Chapter 1: Robin We Finally Meet

Two waiters led Robin to the door of the 3001 Presidential Suite.

Pressing the doorbell, a burst of cheerful footsteps came from inside. “Robin, we finally meet!”

The door opened, and a young woman with blonde hair and big eyes excitedly threw herself into Robin’s arms. Robin patted her back and slowly pushed her away, saying. “Alright, you’re choking me.”

Ruth tightly held onto Robin’s neck and still didn’t let go.

Those big blue eyes, filled with deep affection, looked at Robin and whispered, "Robin, why are you always so indifferent to me? I really like you!"

"Alright, Ruth. if you keep behaving like this, I will leave."

Ruth angrily glared at Robin and reluctantly released her arm.

"Robin, why couldn't you just accept me?"

Robin shrugged, "I didn't like being restrained, it's as simple as that."

"Alright!" Ruth sighed and handed Robin a glass of red wine.

"You always had a lot of reasons."

"I know Enzo once said that you had something very important to do and you couldn't.. Robin raised an eyebrow and clinked glasses with Ruth, "We didn't talk about these things." "This time you helped me out, it seems like I owe a favor to the Andy family."

Chapter 138 1

Ruth laughed and said. "Lord Dragon, never say that you owe anything to the Andy family The Andy family has always said that as long as you, Robin, are willing, their doors will always be open for you!"

Ruth finished the red wine in her cup and tightly embraced her life- Saving benefactor whom she had been separated from for many years.

Chapter 139

Chapter 139 The Blood Curse of the Andy Family Robin felt the trembling Ruth in his arms and remained silent for a while.

Slowly pushing her away. I looked into her eyes and gave a faint smile. "Three years ago, Finn promised me that he wouldn't contact me first. So, what brings you to Londraland this time?"

Ruth took a deep breath and apologized, "Robin, I know that you can see through any thoughts of the Andy family." "Grandpa asked me to find you this time, and it was after much hesitation that he made this decision."

“We first found Enzo, and he said that he no longer concerns himself with your matter. He asked us to directly negotiate with you.”

In order to find out your specific whereabouts, the Andy family specifically opened up worldwide sales channels for the cosmetics newly developed for Enzo’s three wives, Maria.

“Enzo repeatedly urged and warned me not to mention this matter.”

Robin’s mouth twitched, “You still told me.”

Ruth smiled apologetically and said, “I know, nothing can escape your notice. I might as well just tell you directly.” “Aren’t you afraid that Enzo would say you betrayed him?”

Ruth laughed and said, “I know Enzo can tell me your whereabouts, so he must have already given his consent to this. Otherwise, he wouldn’t even tell me, even if it meant helping all his wives.”

“Old Dongxi did this actually because he was afraid that his three wives would continue to pester him, so he quickly sent her away,” Robin shook his head. “Having said that, what’s the matter?”

Ruth hesitated for a moment and said. “Do you know why the Andy family suffered a near—devastating blow three years ago?”

Robin shook his head, “Three years ago, I intervened to save you, the Andy family, but only following Enzo’s orders. I never asked for the reasons behind these actions, I simply did what I was supposed to do.”

Ruth nodded. “I knew this was your principle of doing things.”

“The disaster that happened three years ago, and the huge difficulties that the Andy family is facing now, are all because of this matter.”

“That was also the reason why I came to Londraland to find you this time.”

Robin closed his eyes and leaned back on the sofa, not saying a word, quietly listening to Ruth’s account.

“Several decades ago, when the Andy family was starting out, they once offended a prominent figure named Kissane.” “He was also doing business in Potrya and was a good friend of my grandfather.”

“Due to the immense profits in business, eventually, they had to collide in the Meotrian market.”

“Later, the Kissane family, which had never competed in the Meotrian market, was under the control of my grandfather, the Andy family.”

“Therefore, Kissane faced severe punishment within their family and also lost their power and status within the family.” Chapter 139 The Blood Curse of the Andy Farni

“Finally, he was melancholic all day long, anxious to the point of death.”

“Before his death, he believed the slander of others, claiming that my grandfather had sabotaged his failure in the Meotrian market years ago.”

“So, he gave everything he had and hired a wizard to cast a vicious blood curse on the Andy family before his death.”

“The Andy family would be attacked by the world’s most ruthless mercenaries, and all the members of the family would be killed overnight.”

Ruth said this, her eyes filled with terror.

“Robin, the first blood curse has already been fulfilled, and that disaster really happened. If it weren’t for your intervention, the Andy family would have probably been completely ruined and fallen apart today.”

“The second blood curse was my father’s death in a plane crash. A year ago, such a tragedy really happened.”

“And the third blood curse of this person is that every descendant of the Andy family would die by spitting blood on their twentieth birthday!”

“Three months ago, my cousin and a cousin-in-law of mine both experienced the blood curse on their birthdays and died by spitting blood.”

“Today, eight months remain until my twentieth birthday, and my grandfather is afraid that I too will die because of it.”

“He found the Dark Lord of the Dark World and asked them to decipher this curse.”

The Blood Curse of the Andy Family

“However, the Dark Lord said that such a blood curse could not be broken.”

“Only by finding someone who had practiced the Pure Yang technique could the blood curse of the Andy family be broken.” “Helpless, my grandfather finally found Enzo and asked him to help find such a person.”

“Enzo said... you... you are the person we have been looking for.”

“Mr. Bruce, the Andy family was willing to give everything, please...”

Robin raised his hand and said, “Ruth, I cannot promise you this matter for now. Please go back first.”

Ruth shrugged her shoulders and shook her head helplessly. “Alright. My grandfather said that you have already saved the Andy family. We will never force you on this matter, sir.”

“Robin, I have a request. Could you come and see me for the last time on my birthday, eight months from now?” Robin's mouth twitched slightly as he stood up and said, “I still can't be sure, Ruth. Take care, I'm going back.”

Ruth smiled helplessly and hugged Robin, “It's really nice to see you. I will miss you.”

Robin let go of Ruth's arm, gave a faint smile, and turned around to walk out of the living room door.

When he reached the door, Robin stopped.

Looking back at Ruth, who was holding back tears, I smiled and said, “Perhaps things aren't as bad as you imagine.” The Blond Curse of the Andy Family

“Before your birthday, I would go and visit that old man Finn, and tell him to live well! I'm leaving!”

Ruth watched Robin's figure and burst into tears, smiling happily.

“Darling, thank you. | will definitely be waiting for you dressed up at the headquarters of the Andy family!”

I left Hallcester Hotel.

Robin did not ask Ruth’s bodyguard to drive him back, he walked to Grace Apartments himself.

Walking on the quiet street, with the cold night breeze blowing. everything felt so fresh and pleasant.

Enjoying the tranquility of solitude, | looked up and saw a luxurious Mercedes parked in front of me on the quiet street. Three men got out of the car, Kelvin and two burly bodyguards.

Kelvin walked briskly to Robin and knelt down with a thud.

“Mr. Bruce, | apologize for offending you. | deserve to die a thousand deaths!”

“All the things today were my own fault.”

“Please, Mr. Bruce, in consideration of my ignorance, | kindly request you to spare the Goodman family and give us a way out.” Robin raised an eyebrow and said, “I didn’t do anything to you, the Goodman family. Begging me won’t help.”

Kelvin took a step forward and said, “Mr. Bruce, | know that the Andy family gave up the collaboration with Golden Sun Bank because of you ”

“| had dealt with Roberto and his gang, they are a bunch of bastards...”

Robin said coldly. “Alright, you don’t need to say these words to me anymore. The past is already gone, and bringing it up again is meaningless.”

Kelvin knelt on the ground, “Mr. Bruce, just because of this trivial matter, do you really have to bring the Goodman family to their demise?”

Robin shrugged and said, “Do you think an elephant needs to consider why it stepped on an ant?”

“If | step on you and kill you, then I’ll just step on you. There’s nothing to consider!”

“Didn't you used to say, time and time again, that strength is everything in this world? That whoever has strength is the one who is right?”

“Since you provoked someone stronger than you, you must bear the consequences.”

Kelvin shook his head bitterly and said, “Mr. Bruce, please forgive me this once. As long as you spare the Goodman family, rest assured, everything belonging to the Goodman family will be yours.”

Robin gave a faint smile and said, “Do you think | need it? You have always believed that this world is unreasonable, so | will be unreasonable too.”

“So, you don't need to come begging to me, | have never had the habit of forgiving others.”

“The world only gives everyone one fair chance to reason, which expires without waiting, you fool!”

With that, he bypassed Kelvin and went on his way.

Kelvin suddenly climbed up from the ground, his eyes shooting out a cold and fierce light. “Stop right there! The Goodman family was built on a knife back in the day.”

“Robin, since you won't give me a way out, I'll make you dic!”

Kelvin roared and two bodyguards swung their knives towards Robin.

Robin didn't turn around, sighed, and waved his hand to release three special tools.

Kelvin and two burly bodyguards immediately fell to the ground, convulsing uncontrollably, with their pupils dilated infinitely, and a blank expression on their faces.

Returning to Grace Apartments, it was already 11 o'clock at night.

Robin had just stepped into the elevator when an annoying voice came from behind.

“At this point in time, you knew that I went out to buy things, Robin. What were you really up to?” “I warned you not to follow me and spy on me! Did you hear me?”

“If you continue like this, I will really have to call the police!”

Robin looked down at his phone, completely ignoring Blanca walking up from behind, and pressed the floor button of the elevator.

“Robin, did you hear what I said?”

Blanca, infuriated, saw that Robin didn’t even look at her and shouted loudly.

“Do you think pretending to be deaf and dumb can hide the fact that you secretly followed me?”

“Do you know, I used to despise men like you, who are filthy and sleazy!”

Robin looked up coldly at Blanca and said, “If you keep nagging in my ear, believe me, I’ll slap you to death!” “You!” Blanca saw the fierce light in Robin’s eyes and immediately shut her mouth.

Looking at Robin’s indifferent look, if she continued to shout, he would really kill her.

During this period of time, there were only the two of them in the elevator.

The elevator arrived at the 20th floor.

Robin walked out of the elevator and returned to his room..

Blanca waited for a while before she hurriedly got home from the elevator in panic.

Entered the room and immediately closed the door.

Immediately after, I opened the Mtime app and looked towards Robin’s room door.

After watching for a long time, she breathed a sigh of relief when she saw that Robin’s door still hadn’t opened. “This bastard must have been a pervert!”

Madeline saw Blanca in a flustered state and asked in confusion, “Blanca, what are you looking at?” “Madeline. I went out to buy a bottle of milk tea and ran into Robin. What does that indicate?”

“He was constantly observing my every move, able to track me!”

“Now, I would see if he waited for me to enter the room, opened the door, and peered and eavesdropped in front of my door!”

Chapter 140

Chapter 140 You Think Too Much

Blanca said, once again leaning over the peephole to look into Robin's room.

Madeline looked at Blanca's puzzled expression and said, “Blanca, have you been overthinking?” “Robin wouldn't be that kind of person.”

“Moreover, was it necessary for him to stand guard at our doorstep and spy on you for your sake?”

Blanca exclaimed angrily, “Enough! Every time I mention Robin, you always contradict me. I know, you have long been poisoned by that bastard.”

“I have seen many men like him! He would do anything just to catch my attention and make me look at him for a moment longer.” “He actually followed me, it disgusted me so much!” Madeline shook her head helplessly, “Blanca, you're really overthinking.”

“I felt that we should get along well with Robin. Perhaps, we could become good friends. We work in the same company and live so close to each other, so we can take care of each other...”

Blanca didn't wait for Madeline to finish and said displeasedly, “Go away! I've seen plenty of men like him, without a prestigious background, without strong connections. What great achievements can he have being with him?”

Chapter 140 You Think Too Much

Madeline paused for a moment and said, “Blanca, I heard that Robin might have been an executive in the Huber Group.” “What I mean is, if you keep doing this over and over again, maybe it’s not good for you?”

Blanca was stunned for a while, and then burst into laughter.

“Madeline, do you believe in this legend too? Hahaha...”

“This must be the public opinion deliberately created by that guy Robin!”

“He wanted me to know how high his position was in the Huber Group, and then make me admire him. Such tricks are too low— level! Haha!”

Madeline gave a bitter smile and said, “Blanca, your prejudice runs deep.”

Blanca sneered, “If he was an executive at the Huber Group, would he walk or ride a shared bike to work every day? It’s ridiculous!”

“Judging from his demeanor and attire, did he look like an executive?”

“Madeline, there’s something I didn’t tell you.” “Maurice is currently investigating Robin’s matter on behalf of Mr. Aguilar.*.

“It is said that he bribed Ms. Croft in an attempt to curry favor with Ms. Huber and some higher-level figures in the Huber Group. It seems that he had manipulated things above him a lot.”

“Maurice said that he had caught some leverage on Robin and now he had reported it all to Mr. Aguilar.” Hater 143 You Think Tan Li,

“Do you know? Robin deceived some upper-class aristocratic women in order to achieve his own goals.” “I suspect that the Thompson family’s daughter was deceived and that’s why she got involved with him.” “This man was just a fraud!”

“In order to gain the trust of the upper management at the Huber Group, he definitely employed some means to deceive Ms. Croft.”

“Madeline. I advise you to stay away from him! He wasn’t as good of a big brother as you imagined.”

“In the past, he saved you just to get close to me.”

“Because he saw that | would definitely become an upper-class white- collar elite.”

“He wanted me so desperately, just so he could eventually become an upper-class person like me.”

“Oh, is that so? You think so much,” Madeline was stunned, such an eccentric imagination, just like a novelist.

Blanca continued speaking, her eyes shining, “Every time | encountered him, he never dared to look me in the eye, always pretending to be busy with his phone. Hehe, | knew he was intentionally acting this way to make me pay attention to him.”

Blanca sneered, her face filled with contempt.

“He was actually mistaken. | understood what kind of thoughts this man had as soon as | saw him. | was destined to become a woman he would look up to. How could | be interested in a man like him who had no abilities?”

“Or rather, he was scared when he saw me, unable to lift his head. because my aura was too powerful, making him feel suppressed.”

Madeline listened to Blanca talking to herself, completely speechless.

“Alright, Blanca, since you believe it to be so, let it be.”

Madeline didn’t want to discuss this fantasy topic anymore and turned around to leave. However, Blanca still held onto her.

“Madeline, I’m telling you, there will be some news about your last job entry soon.”

“| heard Maurice say that the Customer Service Department of the Huber Group had already reported the outcome of this matter to the Huber Group’s board of directors. There will be a statement in the next couple of days.”

Madeline became nervous and said, “Blanca, do you really want me to be fired by the Huber Group?” hidden agenda, “Neither | nor anyone from the Huber Group had any hidden as let alone the kind of unspoken rules you imagine.”

“Blanca, we were classmates, and you were better than me. I have always admired you and considered you my good friend. I beg you, can you please stop complaining about this matter anymore?”

“If, indeed, you were to touch someone important in the upper echelons of the Huber Group, not only would I lose this high—paying job, but you might also find yourself in a lot of trouble.”

Blanca shook her head and said, “Madeline, you’re overthinking. I didn’t want you to lose your job.” Chapter 1:12 You Truk Too Aluch. “I knew your family was very poor, and your mother was currently hospitalized, in great need of this high salary.”

“But, within our company, the Huber Group, such a large corporation, such an ugly incident occurred. As a white-collar elite of the Huber Group, how could I just stand by and do nothing?”

Madeline pouted and said, “Blanca, how can you insist that my job was obtained through some kind of shady deal?”

Blanca shook her head disdainfully, “Madeline, do you think you are better than me? Why is your job better than mine, your position higher than mine, and your salary more generous than mine?”

“Hehe, Maurice told me that this matter was likely Robin’s attempt to please Ms. Croft for some purpose of his own, and he manipulated Ms. Croft in it.”

“That day, didn’t you also see Ms. Croft? She even went to the HR Department specifically for your matter.”

“I didn’t know what kind of inappropriate relationship Robin had with Karsyn. I am prepared to continue filing a complaint about this matter!”

“I had to expose Robin’s ugly face.”

“If there was someone like him in the Huber Group, it would be a disgrace to our Huber Group!” “He had a close relationship with Ms. Croft, and I suspect she was also deceived by him.” “Unfortunately, Ms. Croft, such a clever person, took the wrong path and ruined her own future!” “I decided to write a letter directly to President Karina to explain this matter!”

Madeline looked at Blanca's excited expression and sighed, "Blanca, if you keep pursuing this, I might actually lose my job. Can you please let go and stop complaining? I really need the money right now."

"The high salary from the Huber Group could alleviate the expenses needed for my mother's treatment. Please, I beg you, don't do this. anymore, okay?"

"Whether or not it was Robin who was behind it, at least he didn't deceive me."

"I was very proficient in my current job, and I performed very well in this position. There was no incompetence or inability to perform."

"Blanca, let go, it's good for everyone." Blanca shook her head, "Madeline, it's not about you, I just can't stand Robin using unfair means behind the scenes to help you!" "Do you know what his purpose was in doing this?"

"He did this to get closer to me. He wanted to make sure that the conditions for your employment were better than mine, to provoke me. How despicable!"

Madeline felt that she couldn't continue the conversation with Blanca. Shaking his head, he said, "Alright, Blanca, suit yourself. I'm going to bed, there's a lot of work to do tomorrow." here's a

Blanca stood in front of Madeline and said seriously, "Madeline, what I mean is that you should resign early on your own, so that it won't be awkward later."

Madeline didn't want to pay any more attention to Blanca. She realized that this woman should go to the hospital for a check-up. Over the years, being with her, I knew that she had a particularly strong competitive spirit.

It may be that upon joining the Huber Group, her job was much better. than hers, enjoying the treatment of an assistant director, which made. her feel unbalanced.

Madeline sighed.

Blanca watched Madeline's figure disappear and felt very uncomfortable in her heart.

Why did she get a better position at the Huber Group than me?

How could she compare to me, Blanca?

I, Blanca, was both talented and beautiful. The Huber Group needed someone like me, a smart social elite!

Robin returned to the room, just finished washing up, when Crystal called.

“Robin, did Miranda look for you?”

Robin paused for a moment, “Why is she looking for me? We have never had any individual contact before.”

Crystal laughed, “Oh, that’s good. Miranda called me half an hour ago.”

“She said that she had bought the land in the south of the city together with Jacob. Her aunt, uncle, and aunts heard that the potential of the land in the south of the city was very promising, so they also bought a portion of it.”

The total market value of the land in the hands of Miranda’s aunt and uncles in the southern part of the city was nearly 2 billion. Robin heard this and asked, “What does all this mean that you’re telling me?”

“Miranda wanted me to tell you before that she has a plot of land in city south, and she was wondering if you could also sell it to the Huber Group.”

“I refused at that time.”

“I am calling now to advise you, please do not take on this matter again.”

“The southern plot of land was just a dump, and you have already helped her a lot.”

Robin chuckled, “No worries. I’ve taken all the land they have. The land prices in the south of the city will rise soon.” Crystal on the other end of the phone exclaimed angrily. “Robin, you are so mean!”

“No matter how rich you were, never buy it again, even if it’s for Karina. Aren’t you cheating her?”

“The Huber family treated you well, but they didn’t go as far as treating Miranda like a bottomless pit of money.” Robin laughed and said, “Crystal, you are Miranda’s friend, how come you are speaking up for me?”

Crystal exclaimed angrily, “Robin, you heartless creature! Do you know what Miranda said about you when you were at Golden Sun Bank?”

sapter 140) You Think Too Much “She was always gloating. enjoying your misfortune.”

“At that time, | wanted her to help you gather some money to repay the bank, but she absolutely refused. She was delighted to see you in more trouble...”

“Alright, stop mentioning her. It’s so boring to call in the middle of the night and talk about these things!”

Crystal was annoyed and said, “I can’t stand her using you and insulting you everywhere! I’m even afraid that you, this stupid donkey, will be sold by someone and still give them money.” “Go away! You stupid donkey!” Robin didn’t wait for Crystal to finish speaking and hung up the phone immediately.

“What? You actually called me a stupid donkey!” Crystal seethed on the other end of the phone, “Robin, you motherfer, you’re just a big jerk!”

Chapter 141 Purchase All the Land in City South

The next morning. Robin arrived at the office of Eastern District Development Corporation and saw that Freddie had already been waiting in front of his door.

“Good morning, Mr. Bruce!” Freddie bowed with utmost respect.

Robin looked up at Freddie and said, “It seems like you came early?”

Freddie still bowed respectfully, his eyes filled with devotion, and said. “Yes, Mr. Bruce, | had already arrived here an hour ago.” “Mr. Bruce, | am really grateful for what you did for Glory Edifice...”

Robin raised his hand and said, "Alright, this matter has already passed. it's no longer interesting to talk about it."

"In the future, you will be responsible for the southern plot of land, and the specific arrangements will be discussed after the Huber Group handles all parties' opinions."

"Yes, Mr. Bruce." Freddie followed Robin into the office.

"Mr. Bruce, yesterday's incident at Golden Sun Bank, although the information was suppressed on various online platforms." "However, the news of the Huber Group taking over Glory Edifice was still widely circulated."

"Everyone said that the Huber Group made a very wrong decision."

"Mr. Bruce, it was all because of me that the Huber Group faced ridicule and even blame from all sides. Moreover, | am aware that there was significant internal division within the Huber Group, causing the Huber family to bear immense pressure"

Robin raised an eyebrow and looked at Freddie with a remorseful expression, indifferently saying, "They say you're a gambler, but ever since I've known you, | haven't seen a trace of it."

"What's the point of talking about these things since it has already been done?" "They said whatever they wanted to say, a bunch of mediocre people's boring idle talk, what's there to care about.

Freddie nodded. "What the gentleman said is true, | have been through a lot of hardships in these past few years and | am afraid."

"However, there is one thing | must tell you, as far as | know, the Huber Group may have faced significant pressure today."

Robin looked at Freddie and said, "So you mean that any capital. merchant who holds the South City plot will gather at the Huber Group once they find out that the Huber Group has bought Glory Edifice, and request the Huber Group to buy their land?"

Freddie nodded. "Mr. Bruce, it's like this..." "As long as they are willing to sell, the Huber Group should take all of them." Robin said casually.

Freddie stared in astonishment at Robin's back and said, "Mr. Bruce, will the Huber Group take over the entire South City plot? Will it bankrupt the Huber Group?"

"This is not a problem you should be concerned about," Robin played with his phone in his hand. "You just need to focus on doing what you are supposed to do."

Chapter 141 Purchase All the Land in Dity South on Freddie wanted to continue speaking, but as the words reached his lips, he swallowed them back. "Let's go, come with me now to attend their board meeting at the Huber Group headquarters." Robin looked at the respectful Freddie in front of him and shook his head.

I didn't want to get involved in these worldly trivial matters, but unexpectedly I unintentionally stepped into the midst of controversy. Robin and Freddie drove to the headquarters of the Huber Group.

At this moment, it was only a little past seven o'clock, and the area in front of the Huber Edifice was already filled with various luxury cars.

A group of people were waiting in front of the lobby doors of the Huber Edifice.

Freddie pointed at them and said. "Mr. Bruce, these people have come to request the Huber Group to acquire the land they have in the southern part of the city."

Robin glanced at their anxious expressions and chuckled, "It seems like the Huber Group is about to make a fortune." Thinking about last night.

Faced with the strong blow from the Goodman family, Karina was deeply moved by the scene of Robin standing up for him, even if it meant destroying the entire Huber Group.

"Since the Huber Group is so kind-hearted, let's give them another step up." Freddie listened to Robin muttering to himself, not understanding what he meant.

Chapter 14) Purchase All the Land in City South

No matter from what perspective, the land in the southern part of the city cannot regain its value without a waiting period of ten or twenty years. In other words, the land in the southern part of the city was all garbage. within the past ten years.

Even if the Huber Group acquired all the land in the southern city at cost price, it would be equivalent to throwing all that money down the drain.

Moreover, the land in their hands combined amounts to nearly seventy to eighty billion.

The Huber Group could only borrow such a large amount of funds from various capital institutions if they mortgaged all of their assets.

That was simply self—destructing one's future!

How is it possible?

Even if Robin suggested they buy it, the Huber Group board of directors would not agree.

Entering the business lobby of the Huber Edifice, I encountered Karina who had just broken free from the crowd. Freddie respectfully greeted, “Ms. Huber, hello.”

Karina nodded and turned to Robin, “Today, the people in front of the Huber Group’s gate were mostly those who held the land in city south.”

Robin shrugged and said, “If they send money, then you should take it all. What you did today was to find ways to raise money, at any cost.”

Karina suddenly stopped in her tracks and looked at Robin, “Are you kidding?” Robin smiled and said, “Do I look like I’m joking? If you believe me. then you’ll take it all!”

Karina hesitated for a moment, “Alright, I will bring it up at the board meeting and immediately have the finance department prepare the funds!”

Karina had some doubts in her mind regarding the acquisition of the southern plot.

However, since Robin said that he wants to bring all the southern plots. under the Huber Group, then let's listen to him. Last night, the scene of Golden Sun Bank instantly being reduced to ashes shocked her greatly.

Although the force behind defeating the Goodman family was one of Potrya's five major conglomerates, the Andy family. However, she speculated that the driving force behind the Andy family was likely Robin.

Now, Robin's certainty in letting her accept the southern land must have had his reasons.

Just as | arrived at the elevator door, Miranda walked over from the side and said. "Ms. Huber, hello."

Karina glanced at Miranda, nodded expressionlessly, and walked straight into the elevator.

Miranda took a step forward and said, "Robin, wait a moment, | have something to tell you."

the Land in City South

Karina furrowed her brows slightly and said, "Shall | go up first?"

Robin didn't want to pay attention to Miranda and stepped into the elevator.

Miranda exclaimed, "Robin, | have something important to tell you!"

Robin glanced at Karina and said, "You go first. I'll come after."

Karina gave Miranda a cold glance and pressed the elevator button.

At this moment, Crystal walked quickly from behind and said, "Miranda, are you really going to let Robin sell all the land from your aunt and uncle's hands to Karina?"

Miranda interrupted Crystal and said, "Crystal, don't worry about this. matter. | will explain it to you later. | had no choice but to do it this way. "Robin. | came to see you today regarding the land in the south of the city..."

Robin didn't wait for her to finish speaking: "I can take the land in the south of the city from your family at cost price. If you don't mind, please bring the documents before noon today."

"Crystal, could you do me a favor again today..."

"No. I don't have any money!" Crystal exclaimed angrily upon hearing that Robin wanted to buy the South City plot from Miranda's aunt and uncle.

Robin shrugged and said, "Well, if you don't want to help, then forget it. I'll find someone else."

Miranda heard Robin agree to take on the South City plot, and she exclaimed excitedly, "Robin, is what you said true?"

Robin raised an eyebrow and said, "Whether you want to sell or not, it's up to you!" Miranda's lips curled up with a smug smile. He calmed down his excited emotions a little and said, "Robin, were you doing this for me?"

Robin's mouth twitched, "You're overthinking. I bought the land to make money. If you want to sell the land, bring the paperwork quickly. If not, forget about it."

"Okay, my documents are in the car, I'll go get them right away," Miranda said as she turned and walked towards the lobby. In my heart, I despised it. It was clearly just to please me, yet they pretended to be high and mighty. It's truly laughable! Robin, I knew what you were thinking.

If you didn't like me and didn't want to behave well in front of me, how could you accept such garbage like southern land? Although the Huber Group did not lack a billion dollars.

However, Robin, it wasn't an easy task for you to ask Karina to buy these trash, haha!

Crystal looked at Miranda with a mixture of excitement and disdain, angrily pointing at Robin and saying, "You are such a big troublemaker!"

"Karina was kind to you, but you helped Miranda and made her..." Robin chuckled, "Borrow some cash from you, I'll buy it myself. If you don't want to help, forget it!" Purchase At the Land in Cly South

“Robin, you’re such a jerk!” Crystal became even more furious. “You... you want to buy it yourself? And you want me to pay for it? Damn it! You’re so cheap!”

“Alright, wait a moment. You and I will go to the house later to sell the Cox Group’s shares and help you buy the trash in your fiancée’s hands. I’ll make it happen for you!”

Robin nodded and said. “Ah, how could I forget? The Cox Group’s equity in your hands is indeed meaningless. In a few days, the Cox Group is likely to be finished. It’s better to convert it into cash.”

“Wait a moment, I will go back with you.”

“Let Barry help you convert it into cash. Then, please assist with the transfer procedures for Miranda.”

Crystal was going crazy. Robin could actually say such nonsense?

“I refused to help you deal with the land issue city south for your fiancée! Robin. I hate you, you, you are a jerk!”

Robin watched as Crystal huffed away, muttering to herself, “You jerk! This woman always insults me. You’re the real jerk!” Freddie looked at Robin’s current appearance, stunned and unable to recover for a while.

“What are you still standing there for? Come on, follow me upstairs and attend the board meeting of the Huber Group.” “Okay, okay, Mr. Bruce,” Freddie quickly followed Robin into the elevator.

After entering the office, Karina told Harold one by one about Robin asking her to purchase the land in the south of the city.

Harold pondered for a while and said. “Karina, listen to Mr. Bruce!”

“Grandfather, aren’t you worried that this high-stakes gamble will ruin the Huber family?” Karina asked tentatively.

Harold laughed. “Karina, where was the courage you showed at Golden Sun Bank last night? Don’t worry, Mr. Bruce won’t deceive you, he is giving the Huber Group a chance to soar!”

“Karina, remember, no matter how big the obstacles are at today’s shareholders’ meeting, we must buy all the land in the southern part of all the land in the southern part of the city!”

Chapter 142

Chapter 142 This House Is My Mother’s Inheritance

Robin and Freddie arrived at Karina’s office.

At this moment, Karina was signing the financial fund movement report.

“Please have a seat,” Karina greeted them and asked the secretary to prepare a cup of green tea.

“Robin, please have the Finance Department roughly estimate that acquiring the southern land parcel would cost nearly one trillion dollars.”

“With such a large sum of money, | was prepared to sign and process the bill settlement through various branches of the Huber Group.”

“I have discussed with my grandfather, and the Huber family will make every effort to raise this huge sum of money.” “At present, apart from the five billion funds available to various branches of the Huber family.”

“We were prepared to mortgage all of the fixed assets of the Huber Group, as well as the equity of my grandfather, father, and myself, to borrow five billion from five banks.”

“At ten o’clock in the morning, the Huber Group could be notified to sign contracts with several branch offices.”

“The procedures for signing and transferring the contract were very simple, totaling thirty companies, and could be completed quickly.”

“We would have completed all the signing and remittance procedures before the end of work tonight.”

Freddie was greatly shocked when he heard Karina’s statement.

The Huber Group’s gamble was truly spectacular!

The Huber Group, a large capital, intervened in the southern plot, and it is likely to introduce a portion of the capital for further investment.

However, for the vast Southern District, it still appears somewhat inadequate.

This practice completely relied on the efforts of the Huber Group to drive the development of the Southern District.

It only had minimal effect recently.

Ten or twenty years later, perhaps there could still be some returns on investment.

Any wise investor would not make such a choice.

Before. I personally requested the Huber Group to buy Glory Edifice, with a significant selfish motive.

He believed that the Huber Group's purchase of it for ten billion would not hurt them, considering it as a long-term investment. Now, the Huber Group is going to invest billions of capital to enter the entire southern area. That is a life-or—death gamble. It is possible that the Huber Group would quickly collapse as a result.

I tried to dissuade Karina and Robin.

However, when these words came out of his mouth, they always felt strange.

Chapter 142

Let's see and then we'll talk.

There is no doubt that the Huber family's upper—class perspective and connections were much stronger than Freddie's. The Huber Group believed Robin's proposal was not a rash decision.

"That's good! Karina, I went out to take care of some personal matters, I'll be back later."

"Freddie, you just wait here and assist Ms. Huber in dealing with the matters regarding the South City plot."

Robin drank a cup of tea, greeted them, and then left Karina's office.

We arrived at the ground floor lobby of the Huber Edifice.

At that moment. Crystal was sitting in the hall, angrily cursing at Robin. "This idiot is so stupid!"

"Are you, aS a woman, often badmouthing me behind my back?" Robin tapped Crystal's head.

Crystal still persisted. "Robin, you are just despicable. Miranda, she was trying to harm you..."

"Alright, take me to your house to retrieve the documentation for the Cox Group's shares and convert them into cash. | have already contacted Barry, and he will assist you with the process."

"Then, he accompanied you to purchase the southern plot of land from Miranda's relatives and transferred it all under your name."

"What?" Crystal shook her head helplessly. "Robin, damn it, your mother's scheming against me even when you're trying to please your fiancée!"

"You actually bought all the land in city south that she had a bunch of garbage in her hands and put it under my name. You're such a jerk!"

"Alright, since you obtained the ownership of the Cox Group anyway, I'll give it back to you! Come, let's go home, I'll return everything to you!"

Crystal got in the car and angrily ignored Robin.

Robin looked at Crystal, who was angry and no longer paying attention to him. He picked up the phone alone and dialed Conway's mobile number.

"Send someone over to take over all the business of the Goodman family's entertainment venues!" There was a long silence on the other end of the phone, indicating that Conway was clearly taken aback! Later, he exclaimed excitedly. "Mr. Bruce, can | really eat so much?"

"And, the Goodman family's fortune was much stronger than mine. even when it fell, it was still more powerful than my Demon's Lair. Can L... can | take over?"

"If you can take it, just send someone to pick it up. All the procedures have been taken care of."

"Is it done?" Upon hearing this, Conway instantly had an epiphany.

Yesterday, due to his outstanding performance at Golden Sun Bank, Robin is going to give his Demon's Lair a generous reward. All of the Goodman family's night business had been taken care of by the Death Mongers.

"Thank you, thank you, Mr. Bruce," at this moment, Conway was 1129

Chapter 142 This House in My Mother's inheritance grateful that he had made the wisest decision last night.

"There is one more thing, you asked Barry to come to the Thompson family and wait for me immediately."

"Yes, Mr. Bruce! I will immediately have Barry come over.

Did the wealthy Goodman family from Hashville State really disappear overnight?

Crystal looked at Robin in astonishment.

Conway's respectful voice on the phone was crystal clear to her.

Robin asked Conway to take over the night shift for the Goodman family.

Needless to say, the downfall of the Goodman family must be related to Robin!

She examined the man beside her once again, and every time she discovered something, it shocked her immensely! What kind of power does it take to casually wipe out a trillion-dollar family like the Goodman family?

After Robin hung up the phone, he sent a message directly to Cecilia.

The Goodman family officially handed over all their legitimate business to Purpeak International Group.

Crystal also saw this information.

Crystal hesitated for a while and asked, "Robin, tell me the truth, did you buy the land from Miranda to please her?" "Are you still obsessed with Miranda?"

Robin snorted lightly. "What on earth is this woman thinking? Buying land in the south of the city is obviously for making money! Do I need to please her? Is she even worthy?"

"The southern plot of land is just garbage. Who would believe these words?" Crystal sneered, muttering under her breath. "Robin, you're just being stupid!*. "

"I don't believe it!" Robin exclaimed, glancing at Crystal muttering to herself, and furrowing his brow. This woman must be secretly cursing at me!

"Crystal, were you scolding me? I said my cars have been feeling hot lately!"

Crystal glared at Robin and said, "So what if I curse at you! You're just being a jerk!"

"Do you know how Miranda used to talk about you about you behind your back? She always looked down on you for always trying to show off and please her in front of her!" Robin shrugged helplessly and said, "Well, if it makes you happy, think whatever you want." "Hahaha..." Crystal glared at Robin fiercely and burst into loud laughter.

"I went, you scared me!" Robin pouted and said, "Are you a periodic lunatic, woman?" Crystal's laughter trembled with a charming and enchanting beauty.

A ray of sunlight streamed in through the car window, illuminating Crystal's enchanting face. Robin only just noticed that this woman seemed carefree and easygoing on a daily basis.

In fact, there was a faint sadness hidden between her brows.

"What are you looking at me for?" Crystal glared at him, a blush creeping up her cheeks. "Don't worry, I will help you please your fiancée!"

Robin shook his head, leaned back in the seat, and closed his eyes in silence.

We remained silent throughout the journey and arrived at the Thompsons villa twenty minutes later. Conrad and his wife Adrienne were getting ready to leave for the office.

"Hello, Mr. Bruce. Do you have something to discuss with me today?" Conrad's eyes lit up, thinking that Robin had come to talk to him about the contract for the Huber Group's Eastern Business District project.

"It's nothing. I just happened to be passing by with Crystal," Robin said indifferently.

Crystal pulled Robin directly towards the second floor.

Adrienne glanced at them and said, "What's this all about?"

Robin ignored her and followed Crystal upstairs.

Without delay, he came down from upstairs with the equity certificate of the Cox Group in hand.

Adrienne caught a glimpse of the stock certificate in Crystal's hand and said coldly, "Out gallivanting all day and now bringing wild men home, just like her damn mother, a slut!"

11:30 Chapter 142 This House Is My Mother's Inheritance

Crystal suddenly stopped in her tracks, her face turning icy cold as she pointed at Adrienne and said, "If you dare to humiliate my mother again. I will not hesitate to smash your mouth!"

Adrienne sneered and muttered, "Brought a wild man home today, feeling proud, huh! I told you, your mother is a cunning fox spirit, so what?"

"That woman, Hattie Lynch, no matter how arrogant she was, was kicked out of the Lynch family's house and was worth nothing, haha!"

Conrad angrily exclaimed, "Adrienne, can't you keep quiet for a moment?"

“Why should I say less? It was because of that cunning Hattic, that fox spirit, that you, you bastard, were bewitched and abandoned me.”

“She was just an unscrupulous woman. She seduced you with her charm back then, and that’s how she took you away from me.”

“Look at her daughter, it’s the same! She was always hanging out with questionable people, just like her! A fairy is a fairy, even her daughter couldn’t change her lowly nature.”

Crystal turned around and slapped Adrienne in the face, saying, “You insulted my mother, I will smash your mouth!” Adrienne was taken aback and angrily raised her hand to hit Crystal. Robin grabbed her wrist and said, “Shaming an old friend is despicable!”

“You, you are not a good person either! You, a poor scoundrel who was divorced by the Brown family, what qualifications do you have to lecture me!”

Adrienne angrily pointed at Crystal and said, “This kind of despicable woman has no sense of shame, just like her dead mother. She wouldn’t even know if she was deceived to death by a man

“Do you think I didn’t know why you were with her? It was just to deceive her and get your hands on the Thompson family’s shares, right?”

“Smack!” Robin slapped Adrienne across the face. “You want to die, it’s that simple!”

“You, how dare you hit me?” Adrienne screamed madly, swinging her hands and reaching out for Robin.

Robin grabbed Adrienne’s hair and said, “What can you do even if I hit you?”

Adrienne was directly thrown out of the hall.

Conrad’s face immediately changed color: “R—Robin, what are you doing?”

Robin sneered. “I didn’t do anything, and since you can’t take care of your woman, of course I will discipline her for you!” “You, you dare!” Conrad exclaimed angrily, motioning for the bodyguards in the house to step forward and take action. “So what if you’re being reckless!” Robin coldly looked at Conrad and kicked the bodyguard rushing towards him out of the door. Crystal pulled Robin and said, “Let’s go, it’s disgusting to argue with those two trashy men and women!”

Conrad shouted, pointing at Crystal’s back, “Get out and never come back!”

Crystal stopped in her tracks and said, “This house is my mother’s

Comad angrily pointed at Crystal and shouted, “This is the Thompson family, your mother died a long time ago!”

Crystal gave a cold smile and said, “Conrad, you are not a human. being yourself, so don’t call yourself an elder in front of me!” “Since you have spoken such heartless and ungrateful words, | am determined to retrieve all of my mother’s belongings!” “One day, | will kick Adrienne and you, the fraud, out of my mother’s place!”

“Robin, let’s go!” Crystal, with tears in her eyes, pulled Robin out of the Thompsons villa.

Sitting in the car, Crystal leaned on the steering wheel and started crying.

Robin paused for a moment and said. “It’s the first time I’ve seen you cry. What’s wrong? Do you need my help?”

“Go away! Not a single one of you men is a good person! Leave me alone, | want to cry for a while!” Crystal burst into tears. “Okay, you can cry.” Robin furrowed his brow.

Crystal cried for a while and suddenly looked up.

Seeing Robin leaning back in the seat with his eyes closed, he exclaimed in annoyance, "You, you actually fell asleep?" "You said you wanted to cry for a while, so you expect me to stay

Crystal punched Robin in the chest and said. "You bastard!"

"Don't you dare curse at me again, do you hear me?" Robin furrowed his brow

Crystal glared at Robin fiercely and said, "You are such a jerk!"

Robin was stunned for a while, "You, woman... You jerk! Your dad is a jerk! Your stepmom is also a jerk!"

"Oh my god! You, man... You curse so well, hahaha..." Crystal looked at Robin acting silly and was stunned for a while, then suddenly burst into laughter.

Robin's mouth twitched as he looked at Crystal's joyful smile and muttered, "How cunning!" Crystal stopped laughing and gave Robin a disdainful look.

"Isn't this right? Crying won't solve the problem," Robin glanced at Crystal. "There's only one way to deal with bad people, and that's to beat them up!"

Crystal wiped away her tears and started the car. "My mother was the heiress of the Lynch family, a prominent noble family in the capital city of Draccastle. It was during my college years that she met Conrad. He's my jerk of a father!"

"They used to be a couple, him and Adrienne."

"He saw my mother as beautiful and wealthy. He immediately left Adrienne and crazily pursued my mother." "The Lynch family strongly disagreed with my mother marrying

“My mother, kind and innocent, broke ties with the Lynch family and ran away from them to marry Conrad, resolutely and decisively ”

“My grandmother felt sorry for my mother and secretly sent her 5 million.” “My mother had a talent for doing business, and through her relentless efforts, she created the Thompson Group we have today.”

However, while my mother was working hard for the Thompson Group, Conrad was secretly getting involved with Adrienne and having clandestine interactions.

“My mother was very angry when she found out. By that time, both my brother and I had already been born.”

“My mother couldn't bear to separate my brother and me, so she swallowed her pride and didn't choose to divorce Conrad.” “Conrad pretended to my mother that he had cut off contact with Adrienne, but behind her back, he intensified their relationship!” “My mother, upon learning the news, was melancholic all day long and eventually died in sorrow and anger.”

“I hated that couple so much! They almost took away all of my mother's property.”

“Although I held the Thompson Group shares that my mother had left me at the time, I was the largest shareholder of the Thompson Group.”

“But I hardly gained any benefits in the Thompson Group.”

“One day, I will kick them both out, those two bastards!”

11:30 -

Robin shook his head and said, “He was indeed a jerk!”

“Since that's the case, just take back all of your mother's belongings.”

Crystal sighed and said. “Of course, I wanted to retrieve all of my mother's belongings and make these two jerks leave!” “He stole my mother's money and even insulted her. Such a person deserves to go to hell!”

Robin shook his head, “What are we waiting for? Just bring it back directly, let them eat shit!”

“Take you? How can I take you when I don’t have any money?” Crystal said helplessly.

“The Thompson Group’s shareholders’ meeting is now basically dominated by Adrienne and their family relatives, and they are not likely to easily sell those shares!”

“In such a situation, even if I had prepared enough money, it would have been difficult for me to retrieve the inheritance left by my mother.”

“Moreover, I didn’t have that much money in my hands either.” “How much money do you need?” Robin asked.

Crystal smiled bitterly and said. “Back then, my mother started with 5 million and within a short period of time, she accumulated a business empire worth billions. At that time, she was almost on par with the Huber family.”

“Based on the current size of the Thompson Group, it would probably take nearly 5 billion to fully acquire the Thompson Group back.”

Robin casually said, “It’s not difficult either. Once you cash in your shares of the Cox Group, you can buy the Brown family’s land in the south of the city and quickly earn enough money.”

Crystal glanced at Robin and said, “Don’t comfort me. The south city plot is just a dump now.”

“I know you still can’t forget Miranda, and you buying the Brown family’s land in the south of the city was to help her. I will support you.”

“Moreover, Miranda has been in a difficult recently, and she really needs someone, situation within her family lend her a hand.”

“Anyway, I didn’t need this money, and the Cox Group shares were useless in my hands, so consider it as giving both of you a chance.”

Robin did not continue to explain. Barry had already been waiting at the intersection ahead.

Robin handed over the Cox Group's equity to Barry: "Cash out these things before noon today, and then transfer all the Brown family's several plots of land in the south of the city to Ms. Thompson's name."

At ten o'clock in the morning, the Huber Group's signing hall was packed with people.

Hallchester was filled with major media outlets and many investors who came to watch the excitement.

They wanted to witness the grand move of the Huber Group, a major capital, entering the southern area of the city! The thirty capital merchants holding the land in the south of the city seemed to be extremely excited as if they had seen a living Buddha.

The enormous stone that was weighing on them could finally be lifted today.

Faced with the Huber Group's massive acquisition of the South City. plot, they were overjoyed.

Many people on the scene were also puzzled, could it be that the municipal government was going to reinvest in developing the southern part of the city?

Why did the Huber Group suddenly raise hundreds of billions of funds for acquisition?

Although the Huber Group acquired these real estate developers at the cost price they originally purchased, they had no complaints.

At least they did not suffer too much loss.

Now, holding the cheque given to them by the Huber Group, they are overjoyed!

This was purely an unexpected surprise.

Many people had already made plans to celebrate this matter tonight and they would not return until they got drunk! President's—office of World Real Estate.

Nathen found the news report about the Huber Group's acquisition of the South City plot rather suspicious.

“Melvin, have you heard the news about the city government planning to reinvest in developing the small plot of land in the southern part of the city recently?”

Chapter 141 Crystal Cres Melvin shook his head and said, “Mr. Reynell, I didn’t hear it.”

“Last year, the municipal government had already made it clear that the investment focus would be placed on City East, which is well-known to the people of Hallchester.”

“Although three years ago, there were rumors circulating that the southern city plot might be considered as a key investment project by the municipal government, it never got initiated.”

“For the past three years, no one has mentioned it again, and recently. there has been no such news.”

“All the capital owners holding the land in the southern part of the city have been desperately seeking to sell their projects recently.”

“I suspected that someone was secretly creating a buzz to speculate on and then sell the land in the southern part of the city.”

“You know, those capital merchants who held the land in the southern part of the city have been extremely worried in recent years.”

“The plots that landed in their hands were completely equivalent to garbage, and many people had initially purchased them through loans.”

“Nowadays, various banks have terminated loan contracts in advance. forcing many real estate developers holding land in the southern part of the city to sell at low prices in order to repay their debts.” Nathen nodded, “Not bad... It’s just strange what the Huber Group did today.

Melvin continued, “According to rumors, yesterday Karina followed Robin’s advice and acquired Glory Edifice from Freddie, which caused quite a stir.”

“Just the reports about these information on the internet platform were nte 143 Crystal Chien all deleted and cannot be searched.”

Nathen furrowed his brow, stood up, and walked over to the floor-to-ceiling window, gazing at the dilapidated city block in the distance.

"Hehe, Robin is indeed a character. He actually managed to make Karina lose her mind and buy all the half-developed plots in the southern part of the city."

"Robin was divorced by the Brown family. After joining the Huber Group, Karina's style suddenly changed from cautious to bold and decisive?"

"Did Karina, who is brainless, listen to Robin's advice and purchase the land in the south of the city? Is Harold also foolish?" "The Huber family's gamble would have been a disaster if it had failed!"

"This might have been a great opportunity for the Reynell family in Hallchester!"

Thinking of this, Nathen smiled.

"The Reynell family sold the 3 billion square meters of land in the southern part of the city to the Huber Group, taking advantage of this opportunity."

"The Huber Group wanted to do good deeds, so let them go all the way!"

"Melvin, you went to the Huber Group now."

"Remember, the South City plot of land cannot be sold for less than 1.5 billion at least. We must recover our costs." Melvin immediately arrived at the signing hall of the Huber Group with the paperwork for the South City plot.

Just when he reported these materials to the Huber Group, Karina refused to sign the contract, even if it was 1.5 billion. Melvin had no choice but to report this information to Nathen.

For this reason, Nathen was certain that there was no government investment policy inclination towards the southern plot of land in the near future.

If there was such a tendency, even if Karina had dissatisfaction towards the Reynell family.

Wouldn't the Huber Group want to take advantage of this kind of cheapness?

A land parcel of 1.5 billion, when acquired, would at least multiply several times.

So, he told Melvin over the phone to take some indirect strategies.

Through other people's channels, the land in hand was sold to the Huber Group.

No matter what, the land in the southern part of the city must be sold.

Even if the price is lowered further, it is still possible.

Melvin wandered around the signing hall of the Huber Group for quite a while when he saw Robin walking in from a distance. He got scared and turned his head to run.

Robin called out to him, "Melvin, why do you always try to run away when you see me? What mischief have you done again?" Chapter

Melvin hurriedly ran up to Robin and trembled as he said, "Mr. Bruce, he's not here! I just didn't see you earlier."

"What do you have in your hand?" Robin glanced at the paperwork for the southern plot that Melvin was holding.

Melvin hurriedly replied, "This, this is the southern plot of land. Mr. Reynell wanted me to come and sell it to the Huber Group. However, Ms. Huber did not accept."

Robin casually said, "I understand. The Huber family doesn't want it, sell it to me personally."

Chapter 144

Chapter 144 You Becomes a Legend

Melvin was stunned. Robin personally wants to buy the Reynell family's piece of land in the southern part of the city? Robin picked up the information about the southern plot from Melvin's hand and said, "I'll give you five billion."

Melvin was almost scared to the point of sitting on the ground: "Mr. Bruce, five billion, I won't be able to explain it when I go back."

"Fine, if you don't sell, then get lost! Don't wander around the signing hall of the Huber Group, with me here, no one will buy your piece of land."

Melvin hesitated for a moment, "Mr. Bruce, I will make a phone call to Mr. Reynell to see what his opinion is."

"Mr. Reynell, the Huber family refused to take over our land in the southern part of the city."

"However, there was one person willing to make a private purchase, and that was Robin."

"Robin? Alright, as long as he has money, sell it to him," Nathan exclaimed in surprise on the other end of the phone. "But Robin only invested five billion."

"Impossible!" Nathan on the other end of the phone immediately refused, "I bought the land for 3 billion, and he only offered 500 million."

Robin could hear Nathan's words and said directly, "Tell Nathan that five billion won't be sold. No one in the Huber Group's hall dares to take over, no matter what channel you use, the Huber family won't take over!"

"Also, you told Nathan that the land prices in the southern part of the city would skyrocket tomorrow. If he holds onto it, it might even multiply several times."

On the other end of the phone, Nathan burst into laughter after hearing Robin's words. "Melvin, sell it to him for 500 million! 1.5 billion is nothing for the Reynell family!"

“The Reynell family disdained to earn this money, give it to him!”

Melvin hesitated for a moment and said, “Alright, then | will transfer it to him for five billion.”

After hanging up the phone, Melvin’s head spun for a moment.

He never expected that Nathen would actually agree to sell the land in his hands for five billion to Robin. Robin glanced at Crystal beside him and said, “Call Barry, you also bought this piece of land.”

“Ah?” Crystal took a moment to come back to her senses.

“Besides the Brown family’s properties, do you also want me to buy the Reynell family’s?”

“Robin, were you always targeting me alone?”

Robin raised an eyebrow and said, “After the Cox Group’s equity realization, it should be enough. If we’re going to buy, let’s buy it together. You can earn a little more by doing so.”

“Make a profit? The land in the south of the city is just rubbish!”

Chapter 144 You Becomes a Legend

Crystal glared at Robin and pointed at the crowd in the signing hall.

“You see, after they disposed of the southern plot of land, they became so excited!”

“Not only did you make Karina take a bunch of garbage, but you didn’t spare me either! Tonight, you, Robin, have already become a legend.”

“It doesn’t matter if | become a legend, what matters is that after you buy these plots of land, you can fulfill your wish and reclaim what belongs to you,” Robin said indifferently, looking around the hall at the happy expressions of everyone who had sold their plots of land, speaking earnestly.

“Alright, I’ll go crazy with you! We can even go to those abandoned lands in the south of the city and do some farming, damn it!” Crystal picked up the phone and contacted Barry.

The Brown's villa.

Miranda handed over the transfer agreement and promissory note purchased by Barry to her aunt Margaret and her uncles and aunts.

"I sold all of your plots in the southern part of the city to you at cost price."

Margaret and Miranda's aunts and uncles, looked at the transfer agreement and promissory note in their hands, and immediately became excited.

"Miranda, you're amazing! You actually sold all those worthless plots of land owned by the Brown family." "Don't worry, Auntie will definitely support you to become the Chairman of the Brown Group." Chapter 144 You Becomes & Legend

"Miranda, your grandfather will return from abroad to Hallcester tomorrow. At that time, let's gather in front of him and speak highly of you."

"The Brown Group entrusted you, we are at case! Hahaha..." Miranda looked at their excited faces and smiled proudly.

"You were happy, and that's all that matters. There's no need to worry now, as the land in the south of the city has turned into a mess in your hands."

Margaret couldn't stop laughing: "Miranda, did you find Karina and convince her to take it?"

"No, Robin bought it directly," Miranda said proudly.

Everyone in the Brown family hall stood frozen.

"Did Robin buy it directly? Robin actually has so much money in hand to buy the land from you?"

Miranda sneered, "How could he have so much money? He must have borrowed it from Karina, just to show off in front of me." "I knew what he was thinking! The reason he did this was to let me know that it was him who helped me."

"It's just about wanting to please me and make the Brown family accept him."

Julia sneered, "How is that possible! The Brown family would never accept someone like Robin, a poor loser!" Margaret chimed in, "Miranda, you mustn't let his actions deceive you."

Chapter 144 You Become a legend

"That was all bought with Karina's family's money. Robin is just a scammer!"

A hint of disdain flashed in Miranda's eyes. "Don't worry, Auntie. How could I ever be interested in someone like Robin, a crude and boorish brute? I saw through his little tricks a long time ago!"

Margaret and others praised, "Well, our Miranda is indeed intelligent. In the future, she will definitely become someone like Cecilia and Karina!"

Julia heard her relatives praising her daughter and couldn't stop smiling. "Margaret, today Miranda helped you accomplish such a big thing, you should show some appreciation."

Margaret exclaimed, "Of course! Today, Miranda helped us sell the land in the southern part of the city. Each of us will contribute a portion and celebrate at the finest hotel in Hallchester."

"I know, last year a new hotel opened called Flatlow Lake Restaurant."

"It is said that the dishes there were all flown in, very fresh. Let's go there tonight!" Julia laughed and said, "Alright, I'll go with your plan! Let's go to Flatlow Lake Restaurant and celebrate." Six o'clock in the evening.

Miranda and the Brown family drove to Flatlow Lake Restaurant.

This was Yechar, a big boss, who opened a hotel in Hallchester last year.

Whether it was the hotel's environment, service, or cuisine, everything.

Chapter 143 Year Brcomes a Legend was prepared in the style of the Northland.

When they entered Flatlow Lake Restaurant, it was already filled with guests. Most of the people who gathered here tonight were the capital merchants who sold land to the Huber Group in the southern part of the city.

Miranda hesitated for a moment when she saw that there were too many people in this hotel. "There are too many people here, let's find another one."

Just then, they heard a few people discussing about Robin, and Julia and Alex immediately became interested. "Miranda, we gathered here, it was so lively."

"Alright." Miranda also wanted to hear how these people were discussing the topic of the Huber family's extravagant purchase of the southern city plot.

The Brown family sat down in the middle of the hall.

These people, apart from expressing their excitement after selling the land, did not hesitate to take pleasure in the Huber Group's foolish actions in their words.

"Today, the Huber Group became the biggest fool by buying the land from us. It's really fortunate! Hahaha..."

"Karina and the Huber family actually found a dog-headed strategist named Robin, who came up with such a terrible idea for them."

"Yesterday, I thought Freddie was pushed to the brink by the bank."
"Unexpectedly, Freddie successfully sold Glory Edifice to the Huber Group, but unfortunately, Freddie sold it for 20 billion, while we only received the cost price."

11.22

"You should be content, Freddie. It's lucky for him to encounter the biggest unfortunate soul in the world, Robin. Unexpectedly, we also got involved, hahaha..."

A group of people burst into laughter. "Perhaps tomorrow, a shareholder of the Huber Group will propose to sever ties with the Huber family." "Swallowing up the entire southern land plot is completely a super brainless act!"

“The Huber family had no reason, nor any indication. Suddenly, they announced their intention to purchase the land in the south of the city, which was indeed very strange.”

“I suspect that Robin is a spy sent by the rival group, the Huber Group. He is trying to completely destroy the Huber Group!” “But, this Ms. Huber really listened to Robin’s advice!”

“Ah, did the Huber Group do something like this? Did they hear any news?”

“Did you hear that the municipal government was going to invest in the southern part of the city?”

“No, my friend works in the office of the municipal government. I inquired several times, and they all said there is no information about reinvesting and developing the southern city plot.”

“I had contacts within the government of Hashville State, and when I asked them about this information, they all denied it vehemently.”

Chapter 144 You Becomes a Legend

“The investment in the southern plot requires a large amount of funds. The municipal government has already put in a lot of effort in both the eastern and western parts of the city. How is it possible to invest in development in the southern plot? Isn’t this a joke?”

“It seems that the Huber Group took on a big mess! With a billion- dollar investment, it could easily bring the Huber Group back to the pre—liberation era overnight.”

Listening to a group of people gloating and discussing, the Brown family burst into laughter.

“Robin really brought a huge disaster to the Huber Group this time, it’s absolutely hilarious.”

“Fortunately, the Brown family did not allow this lunatic to marry our Miranda back then. Our decision at that time was very wise.” “Miranda, your choice was right!”

Miranda proudly laughed, “Robin is just a commoner, how could he understand the ways of high society games, hehe!”

“He wanted to manipulate large amounts of capital in a sensational way, it was truly laughable!”

“I couldn’t understand how Karina, such a clever woman, fell for Robin’s trick.”

Margaret laughed and said, “Robin is just a fraud!”

“Recently, | heard that he was getting close to Crystal, the daughter of the Thompson family, and it seems like she was also completely enchanted by him, as if he had deceived her.”

Miranda shook her head disdainfully, “He approached Crystal just to pass on some messages to me, all for his own agenda!” Chapter 144 You Becomes a Legend

“Recently, Crystal has been talking about Robin all the time, it’s Robin who asked her to tell me.”

“A few days ago, you told me that Mauveglow Villa 1 belonged to Robin. It’s so funny when | think about it!”

“Robin, this jerk, can come up with anything. He could even make up such nonsense just to win my favor.”

“This kind of man is beyond redemption!”

“I don’t know what kind of aphrodisiac Karina was drugged with, but she believed him when he said he wanted to buy the South City plot. The Huber family will definitely be killed by him!”

“If this man wasn’t still so infatuated with me, how could the plots of land in your hands be sold?” “Using Robin, | felt extremely satisfied!”

As they were talking, Miranda looked up and saw Crystal and Robin walking down from the second floor.

Chapter 145

Chapter 145 The Largest Shareholder of the Huber Group Miranda's proud smile froze instantly on her exquisite and beautiful face. "Crystal... you... how come you are also here?"

Crystal gave a cold smile and said, "Is it satisfying to take advantage of someone's kindness towards you, not showing gratitude, and mocking them behind their back?"

Miranda was taken aback for a moment. "Crystal, you misunderstood. I just disliked men who tried to please me by seeking attention."

In the midst of speaking, the eyes glanced disdainfully at Robin. Crystal shook her head, "Miranda, Robin helped you a lot, and you actually said such things? Isn't that a bit too ungrateful?"

Miranda sighed, "Crystal, compared to you, my biggest advantage is rationality! I will never be deceived by the deliberate illusions created by some people."

"Robin helped me, but his motives were impure. His goal was to get my attention and hope that I would accept him back, so that he could become a son-in-law of the Brown family."

"Hehe, Robin, today I still say it like this, the Brown family and I will never accept you!" Crystal looked at Robin and shook her head helplessly.

Julia also nodded and said, "Crystal, you were a good friend of our Miranda, I heard that you often used to follow him around recently."

11:32

Chapter 145 The Largest Shareholder of the Huber Group

"Auntie wants to advise you, stay away from this kind of man, he would kill you!"

"You saw it too, now the Huber family has become a joke throughout Hallchester, all because of him!" "This man was a disaster, a fraud!"

Crystal ignored Julia and shook her head helplessly, saying, "Miranda, you guys are too much!"

Miranda looked at Robin, who had no expression on his face, and smiled, "What's the big deal? It's not like I forced him to buy it, he decided on his own."

"Investment is like this, both losses and gains are the results of one's own judgment."

"Crystal, I advise you to stay away from him, he would really harm you!"

"Just like Karina, such a clever woman, she has become the laughingstock of the entire Hallcester ever since she started associating with him."

"Let's go, Robin!" Crystal didn't want to continue talking to him, so she pulled Robin out of Flatlow Lake Restaurant.

When she arrived in front of the car, she exclaimed angrily, "Robin, you saw it! You helped Miranda and her family, and yet they still mock you. I don't understand why you did it in the first place."

Robin smiled indifferently, "Stop being angry. I am not helping them, I am helping you fulfill your wish as soon as possible and bring your mother's things back."

"Are you helping me?" Crystal was instantly confused. "You clearly helped Miranda solve the problem, and yet you say you're helping me."

"You thought I was really an idiot! Damn it, Robin, for you, I spent all my money on those worthless plots of land from the Miranda family. And you dare to say it was helping me?"

At that moment, Robin's phone rang.

"Hello, Mr. Bruce, I am the secretary of the Huber Group Shareholders' Meeting Secretariat. I am writing to inform you that you are invited to attend the special shareholders' meeting of the Huber Group tonight at 23:00. The meeting will take place in the Conference Room for Executives at the Huber Edifice. Please make sure to arrange your schedule accordingly and be punctual."

The phone call from Secretariat had just ended when Karina's call came in. "Robin, if someone informs you to attend the Huber Group shareholders' meeting, don't pay attention to it, and definitely don't go to the meeting venue."

Robin paused for a moment and said, "This matter started because of me, so I will go back to the past." Without waiting for Karina to continue speaking, Robin hung up directly. He glanced at Crystal, who was still angry, and chuckled, "Take me to the Huber Group!"

"No!" Crystal glared at Robin. "Damn it, just the thought of Miranda's family treating you like that makes me feel uncomfortable! Robin, you're such a jerk!"

"Damn it! Can you give me a compliment, woman?" Robin made a gesture as if he was about to get out of the car, "If you won't give me a ride, I'll take a taxi myself."

11:32

"No, you can't go!" Crystal glared at Robin for a while, "L... I'll take you there!"

I cursed myself in my heart, damn it, I'm even more despicable!

"Buzz!" The Porsche shot forward like an arrow.

At 10:20 PM, the Huber Group gathered in the Conference Room for Executives.

Except for Harold and Camdyn, who haven't arrived yet, the shareholders of the Huber Group have already arrived here early. They have been arguing all night about Karina's extravagant purchase of the South City plot with a capital of billions today.

In their view, Karina's sudden investment city south this time was completely a crazy move.

This act was extremely reckless!

This was to put the Huber Group in an irreparable situation.

Karina sat alone in the front, looking indifferent as she listened to the shareholders complaining and criticizing, without offering any explanations.

Shawn remained silent for a long time.

It was already 10:40 in the evening.

The shareholders' meeting is about to start in twenty minutes.

At that time, Harold and Camdyn had not arrived yet.

He tapped his cane on the ground a few times, and the conference hall instantly fell silent.

Shawn cleared his throat and pointed at Karina, angrily saying, "Karina, the Huber Group that your grandfather and the rest of us built was achieved with our lives on the line!"

"We put you in the position of Chairman of the Huber Group, not for you to mess around!"

"What have you done today, disregarding the legacy built by our older generation?"

"If you couldn't sit in this seat, then switch with someone else!"

Ernest also agreed, "Karina, you can't blame Shawn for being harsh with his words. What you did today was way out of line!"

"We all watched you grow up, we are your elders. Why didn't you consult us before making such a big investment in the South City plot?"

"After all, it was your grandfather who led us to conquer this land together. We put in effort, shed sweat, and we also have indelible contributions! The Huber Group is ours too!"

"What were you thinking, mortgaging the entire Huber Group with a capital investment of billions just for the South City plot?!" "Tonight, you had to give us an explanation!"

“What's there to explain? It's just one hundred billion, isn't it? Why are you all so nervous about it?” Robin walked into the conference hall, sat beside Karina, and gave a faint smile.

“Are you Robin? Get out of here! What qualifies you to sit here?” Shawn slammed his hand on the table, pointing at Robin and scolding angrily.

Chapter 145 The Largest Shareholder of the Huber Drives The conference hall immediately fell silent. Everyone looked at Robin together, their eyes filled with anger.

Robin tapped his fingers rhythmically on the table and chuckled, “I was the largest shareholder of the Huber Group, so of course I had the right to sit here.”

Karina wanted to advise him not to be bothered by these old guys.

Just then, Robin pointed at Shawn and Ernest, shaking his head and said. “You old bastards think you can act all high and mighty just because Mr. Harold and Mr. Camdyn haven't arrived yet?”

“In fact, you all knew in your hearts that the purchase of the South City plot today was approved by Mr. Harold. You dare not question him, but instead, you put all the blame on Karina. Do you still have any shame?”

“What a waste for Mr. Harold to have led you all to prosperity and wealth for so many years!” Shawn trembled with anger, pointing at Robin and said, “Everyone knows that the land in the south of the city was nothing but a wasteland. The city government would never make any significant investments in the near future.”

“Without the guidance and investment from the municipal government, no capital would be involved in the southern area. Even if the Huber Group invested billions of dollars to enter the southern district market, it would not be able to drive the overall economic development of the southern region.”

“A rough estimate suggests that without trillions of capital investment, it would be impossible to truly uplift the southern city block. Do you think it is possible solely with the Huber Group?”

Chapter 145 The Largest Shareholder of the Huber Braun

“What I just said about trillions is just a foundation, what difference does it make if we invest a hundred billion?” “Wasn’t this a joke at the expense of all shareholders of the Huber Group?”

“We want an explanation, is there no reason?!”

Shawn, pointing at Robin, questioned, “Karina, was it him who suggested the South City plot to you?”

“Yes, Mr. Sherman,” Karina nodded. “Mr. Bruce proposed it, and after discussing with my grandfather and father, I made the decision. My decision is in accordance with the procedure, and it has been signed by the three largest shareholders of the Huber Group.”

Karina handed over the signed text of the letter of intent for the investment city south to Shawn and others, asking them to confirm it.

Shawn looked at Robin's signature above and felt very annoyed. “I just want to ask, where exactly does this Robin come from, and how did he come to hold 20% of the Huber Group?”

Karina said indifferently, “Mr. Sherman, I don't need to explain this to you. My grandfather directly divided his shares and gave them to Mr. Bruce.”

Ernest snorted, “Hmph! Robin? Robin was nothing but a joke in Hallcester! I don't know how on earth I was deceived by him like this!”

“Hallcester was all abuzz with rumors that Robin was a low-life thug who had been divorced by the Brown family! I just can't understand how he managed to rise to the top ranks of the Huber Group and deceive the Huber family into giving him a 20% stake.”

walked in from outside the conference hall. “Shawn, do you think I have become senile?”

“Brother. [...] I didn't mean it...”

“Old man...”

Shawn and Ernest quickly got up and ran to Harold's front, "Big brother, I, I listened to you."

Harold sat next to Robin and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Bruce, for making a fool of myself."

Robin smiled indifferently, "Normal, ordinary people are naturally prone to excitement."

Shawn and Ernest, among others, understood that Robin was talking about them and felt annoyed.

With only Mr. Harold present, no one dared to be unruly anymore.

Harold looked around the conference room at the shareholders and several executives from the Huber Group.

Seeing Reginald sitting in the audience seat, he pointed at him and said, "Tell us, why did you instigate the shareholders of the Huber Group to strongly oppose investing in the South City plot behind our backs?"

Reginald was instantly at a loss.

He was not sure how Mr. Harold would know that it was him who had instigated and directed all the shareholders' anger towards Robin behind his back.

Chapter 146

Chapter 146 Ulterior Motive The executive conference hall of the Huber Group suddenly fell silent as everyone turned their gaze towards Reginald. Reginald hesitated for a while before calming down his nervousness.

"Ms. Huber, esteemed shareholders of the Huber Group, to be precise, I was not inciting, I was merely stating the facts to all of you."

"Before, I attempted to discuss the matter of Karina purchasing the land in the southern part of the city, and I had already analyzed the potential consequences with Ms. Huber. However, she completely disregarded my advice."

Karina looked coldly at Reginald, knowing that he had been very active in this matter, clearly targeting Robin. Last night, he instigated Golden Sun Bank's president Roberto to create that trouble, but he didn't have time to argue with him.

Today, once again, | found myself in front of the shareholders of the Huber Group, stirring up trouble because of the issue with the South City plot.

Without getting rid of this person, the Huber Group cannot be at ease.

Karina coldly exclaimed, "Reginald, as a vice president of the Huber Group, you have crossed the line in yesterday's incident at Golden Sun Bank! Today, you show no signs of self-reflection and have the audacity to spout nonsense in front of the Huber Group shareholders. What exactly are you trying to accomplish?"

Reginald hurriedly said, "Karina, Mr. Harold, shareholders, the reason | did that yesterday was to prevent you from buying Glory Edifice. | was worried that you would be deceived."

"Mr. Sherman just said that if there were no government policies favoring development, the southern plot of land would never have been developed."

"That place was a wasteland, with very few residents in the surrounding area. If one wanted to forcefully develop it, the initial funding would need to be at least trillions."

"Although the land prices in the southern part of the city are currently very low, the Huber Group's investment of 100 billion dollars into a massive project that requires trillions of dollars to activate is like a drop in the bucket."

"As a senior executive of the Huber Group, | had the obligation and responsibility to present my insights and analysis to the core management team of the Huber Group."

"| believe that Ms. Huber's action was a hasty decision made without rational consideration." "Of course, there was a reason behind all this!"

"Since its establishment, the Huber Group, despite the relentless efforts of Mr. Harold and the shareholders, has experienced many ups and downs along the way."

“According to my research, the Huber Group has always been cautious. and has never made any investment mistakes.”

“This time, in order to acquire the land in the southern part of the city, billions of funds were mobilized, even to the extent of harming the vitality of the Huber Group.”

liar that such a big move was completed without any public debate at the shareholders’ meeting, directly finalizing the entire process of purchasing the South City plot.”

“I responsibly say that Ms. Huber must have been instigated by someone to make an extremely hasty decision!” Shawn impatiently interjected, “Reginald, just say it straight, who encouraged Karina to make such a hasty decision?” Shawn’s words clearly indicated that Robin was the one who instigated Karina, according to Reginald.

Before, he had heard Reginald talk about some random things about Robin.

He doubted that someone like Robin, coming to the Huber Group, must have had some kind of purpose.

After being persuaded by Reginald, many shareholders were more inclined to believe that Robin was a fraud.

Otherwise, how could someone like Robin, who has no background or foundation, enter the core layer of shareholders in the Huber Group?

Why does Robin have the current position in the Huber Group when he has never made any achievements and has not invested any capital?

After taking office as the President of Eastern District Development Corporation, the first decision made was to purchase the Glory Edifice, a dilapidated and unfinished building.

It made people doubt Robin’s motives!

Karina was also impatient and said, “Reginald, don’t hide anything, just say it directly!”

Reginald hesitated and said, "Ms. Huber, shareholders, what I mean is that you trusted Robin too much."

"Regardless of the significant impact caused by purchasing Glory Edifice."

"This morning, you suddenly urged me to purchase all the land plots in the south of the city."

"Ms. Huber, does this make sense according to normal investment knowledge?"

"Please calm down. I don't know what Robin exactly told you to make you come up with such an absurd decision." Karina coldly retorted, "Reginald, this is not something a mere vice president like you should be asking!"

Reginald nodded, "Ms. Huber, I indeed did not have the authority to inquire about your decisions, but I would like to present some information to the shareholders here."

"You can see whether Robin entered the Huber Group with some undisclosed purpose!"

"If that's the case, then it means everything he did was damaging the interests of the Huber Group!" Reginald's words immediately astonished all the shareholders in the conference hall..

Everyone suddenly had doubts in their hearts, is Robin really a scammer?

Did he really approach Karina with the intention of damaging the Huber Group?

Shawn exclaimed anxiously, "Reginald, why are you still hesitating?

Chapter 146 Uterine

Just bring out the evidence and let everyone see it on the table!"

"We are all veterans who founded the Huber Group together with Mr. Harold. Anyone who wants to destroy the Huber Group is our enemy! I am the first one who is unwilling!"

Reginald glanced at Robin and shook his head, saying, “I didn’t want to present these things, but this matter was a matter of life and death for the Huber Group!”

“Therefore, I had to expose some of Robin’s private things to everyone to see!”

“Everyone, please look!”

Without waiting for Karina to stop him, Reginald had already turned on the display screen in the conference hall. The above presents photos of Robin with several women, including Nia, Elisa, and Cecilia.

The shareholders were greatly shocked when they saw this scene.

Robin had close relationships with Cecilia from Purpeak International Group, as well as several other women.

Watching Cecilia holding Robin intimately in the video, Shawn. pounded the table and angrily said, “Robin, don’t you want to give us an explanation?”

“Rumors had it that you and Karina were in a romantic relationship. What did you mean by doing that?” The shareholders were also angrily looking at Robin.

Robin knew that these photos were all taken by Maurice, and he shook his head with a smile, saying, “What are you trying to say?”

Reginald sneered, “Robin, you are so shameless. I have reason to suspect your motives for getting close to Karina!” “I believe you did this for the money and status in their hands!” Robin smiled indifferently. “That’s just what you think. Your perspective is too narrow, you can only see these things.”

Karina expressed her displeasure, “Reginald, I told you, this matter ends here. Yet, you brought all of this to the shareholders’ meeting? What are you trying to do?!”

“I know your purpose! During the first executive meeting of the Eastern District Development Corporation, Robin made you look bad, Eastern District Development and you have been holding a grudge ever since!”

“You were trying to incite the shareholders of the Huber Group against Robin, you are really despicable!” Reginald innocently shook his head, “Karina, you have misunderstood me. It’s not what you think.”

“The purpose of my actions was solely for you and the Huber Group! Robin’s approach to the Huber Group was nothing but a scam from start to finish!”

“Everyone knows that Robin was the abandoned child divorced by the Brown family!”

“Later, I was unsure how he managed to enter the Huber Group and then came to your side, gaining your trust!”

“All of his actions, had to make people doubt!”

“Especially with the acquisition of the city’s southern plot and Glory Edifice, who can say he wasn’t setting a trap for the Huber Group?!”

“You can see how he is being rumored on the internet now.”

“Everyone suspected that he vigorously purchased the Glory Edifice in order to gain personal benefits from it!”

“Freddie only needed 10 billion, but he promised 20 billion!”

“Did anyone make such an investment?”

“A bottom-tier individual with no background and no connections, how could he possibly enter the core management of the Huber Group? Don’t you all doubt his ulterior motives?”

“In addition, he had a close relationship with Cecilia from Purpcak International Group, which inevitably raised suspicions about Robin’s true intentions.”

“All the people in Hallcester knew that Cecilia, that woman, never went on a date with any man alone.” “What does it mean that Robin became very familiar with Hallcester shortly after arriving and had a close relationship with her?” ng and had a close relationship with

“If Robin was a fraud, his involvement in the core management of the Huber Group would have been a huge disaster for the Huber Group!”

The shareholders began to whisper among themselves.

Everyone agreed with Reginald's statement, they believed that Robin was just a fraud!

Robin laughed and said, "Reginald, you shouldn't be in business management, you should become a novelist."

"Your imagination is so rich that what you're telling can basically be written into a script, or even made into a TV drama!" "I didn't accompany you guys to compare aimlessly, boring!"

He finished speaking and got up, walking out of the conference hall.

Karina followed and walked out, "Robin, I'm sorry..."

Robin took out his phone and dialed Wayne's number. Then, he handed it to Karina and said, "Tell him, how much money is needed to buy the shares from these shareholders and ask him to give it to you right away!"

Karina looked at the phone Robin handed her and froze, "Mr. Kennedy?"

"Yes, he has taken over the Goodman family's financial conglomerate now, with billions of cash at his disposal, he can send it anytime!"

"How much do you need, just tell him directly."

Seeing Karina still puzzled, Robin smiled faintly and said, "Can't you see? Their purpose today was to hold someone accountable."

"They knew that you had already purchased the land in the south of the city, so there was no point in discussing it further." "They wanted to sell their stake in the Huber Group to you for cash!"

Karina understood, "I knew it."

"Just... would Mr. Kennedy agree to help us, the Huber Group?"

Robin laughed and said, "Whatever you need, just ask. If it's not enough, Mr. Kennedy can arrange another trillion overnight through his connections in the industry."

“We don’t need that much. Just two or three hundred billion will suffice,” Karina pondered for a moment and said.

“Then I will ask Mr. Kennedy to deliver three billion.”

Chapter 147

Chapter 147 Humiliation Karina learned that there was a trillion—dollar fund as a backing, and her anxious heart finally settled.

She was well aware that the main purpose of all the shareholders of the Huber Group coming over tonight to demand an explanation was to immediately break away from the Huber Group.

These shareholders were worried that the Huber Group would harm their interests after purchasing the South City plot.

With Wayne’s funds received.

Once the Huber Group’s equity in the hands of these shareholders was cashed out on the spot, no one said anything anymore. “Robin, thank you.” Karina looked at Robin, her eyes slightly moist.

Robin smiled indifferently and said, “Tomorrow will be better.”

Karina thought that Robin was comforting her, choking back tears as she said, “If it weren’t for this money, even with my grandfather’s old face, it would probably be difficult to pass smoothly today.”

She didn’t know that tomorrow morning at ten o’clock, the city government would announce an explosive news.

The Hallcester government focused on investing in the southern area of the city in the next twenty years.

As soon as this news was released, trillions of capital would pour into the southern city block within a very short period of time. Chapter 147 Hum

Back then, the Huber family’s investment of one trillion would grow at several times the speed every day!

If these shareholders really signed the agreement to withdraw their shares from the Huber Group tonight, they would probably regret it to the point of spitting blood.

At that moment, Nia called and said, "Karina, where are you now? Can I come over and pick up the money?" Last night, Nia left in a hurry because she had to go on a mission.

Devin's four billion cash was temporarily stored in a small vault at the Huber Edifice.

"Nia, I am currently at the Huber Edifice, come over, I am waiting for you in the Conference Room for Executives." Karina and Robin returned to the conference hall.

All shareholders looked at them with strange expressions in their eyes.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I am well aware of the purpose behind your visit tonight as shareholders. You are concerned about your interests. being compromised within the Huber Group."

"But I did not back down because of it."

"Today, the Huber family invested billions to enter the southern city plot, which was by no means a momentary impulse." "Tonight, I wouldn't give you any further explanation about a so-called detailed investment plan."

"Since I sat in this position, I had the authority to decide the direction. of the Huber Group."

"And besides, the investment in the southern plot of land has already become a fact, even if you are unwilling, you cannot change it anymore."

Shawn angrily slammed his cane on the ground a few times, "It's simply child's play! We have put in half of our life's efforts, and yet you have ruined it! If it weren't for the sake of my elder brother's reputation, 1..."

Karina calmly said, "Mr. Sherman, you don't need to worry about anyone's face. Don't say so many hypocritical words." Shawn angrily pointed at Karina, "You, how dare you speak like this?! Your grandfather and I..."

Karina didn't wait for him to finish speaking and said indifferently, "If you really cared about the loyalty of starting a business with grandpa, you wouldn't have forced me and the Huber family into this situation. today!"

Shawn's face turned red, and he trembled with anger, but he couldn't say a word.

Karina glanced around the conference hall and continued, "Ladies and gentlemen, if you have lost confidence in the Huber Group's significant investment this time, you can withdraw your shares!"

"Yesterday, my grandfather already mentioned in the meeting that if anyone wants to withdraw shares from the Huber Group, the Huber family will not have any objections.",

"All of you present here have once followed the Huber family from weakness to strength, and have contributed to the glorious present of the Huber Group."

"When did you lose faith in the Huber family, you can request to withdraw at any time, and the Huber Group will immediately redeem your equity at the highest market value price!"

"The current situation is meaningless no matter what is said.

"I have 20 share transfer agreements here, and any shareholder can sign and withdraw their shares on the spot. The Huber Group will not create any difficulties, and furthermore, cash will be provided immediately!"

"Ah? Cash on the spot?" Everyone was shocked by Karina's words. If all the shareholders on site were to cash in their equity in the Huber Group, it would require at least over 20 billion. Did Karina want to convert it into cash?

Today, the Huber Group invested billions to purchase the land in the southern part of the city. Will the Huber Group have more money in the future?

Could it be that Karina deliberately displayed this posture to intimidate them?

Harold was also startled.

The Huber Group had no money left!

He came over with Camdyn tonight, just to support Karina.

Worried that Shawn and Ernest, these old guys, would use this matter to pressure Karina.

But isn't Karina causing trouble for herself by saying these things now?

I wanted to stop Karina, but it has come to this point, there is no way anymore.

At this moment, in the conference hall of the Huber Group shareholders' meeting, the silence was so profound that one could hear each other's heartbeat.

Shawn, Ernest, and other senior shareholders never expected that Karina would dare to say such words.

All shareholders knew that today the Huber Group used its only 50 billion dollars of liquid funds.

The Huber family borrowed 50 billion dollars from six or seven banks, using all of their fixed assets and equity as collateral. Just enough funds were gathered to purchase the land in the southern part of the city.

At this moment, the Huber family should have run out of money.

According to Karina's current statement, all shareholders who withdraw their shares will be cashed out on the spot. Suddenly, everyone's heart started pounding.

Did the Huber family really have the confidence to say that they would cash in their equity on the spot?

You should know that the combined equity in the hands of the twenty shareholders amounted to nearly 30 billion. This was not a small amount.

However, if Karina didn't have so much cash, how could they dare to propose the idea of selling their shares and cashing out at this critical moment?

In the Conference Room for Executives of the Huber Group.

Twenty shareholders were calculating the pros and cons of this matter in their minds.

Over the years, following Harold, Camdyn, and Karina, they earned a lot of money and gained a certain status in Hallcester. More than 90% of the shareholders here were penniless followers of Harold back then, and they have become billionaires today.

The Huber family made a significant decision this time, which suddenly made them feel that the wealth in their hands could possibly vanish overnight.

Coupled with rumors circulating online and in the community, it made them even more uneasy. In the face of interests, they had long forgotten the kindness that the Huber family had once shown. In the conference hall, everyone remained silent for a while.

Shawn sneered, "Karina, what do you mean by this? Are you suggesting that we raise these questions now and you don't need to explain, just asking us to withdraw our shares?"

Everyone understood that Shawn said so, he wanted to push the responsibility for leaving the Huber Group shareholders' meeting onto Karina.

Ernest immediately understood and agreed, "Karina, it hasn't been easy for us to come this far with Mr. Harold in creating the Huber Group. And now you're suggesting that we withdraw from the Huber Group shareholders' meeting."

Karina understood that Shawn and Ernest, these two old foxes, spoke these words because they did not want to be labeled as ungrateful.

So, in a cold voice, he said, "Since Mr. Sherman and Mr. Roberson have already made it clear that they are unwilling to withdraw their shares and exit the Huber Group, forget it then, Karsyn, take back their withdrawal agreement."

"You!" Shawn and Ernest stood up together. "I didn't say that! I just need you to give us a reasonable explanation!" Robin chuckled, "Wanting to be a role model and wanting to be praised, isn't it tiring?"

"Why not just sign the withdrawal of shares directly?"

"You! Ignorant brat! How dare you insult me? I..." Shawn slammed the table and roared angrily. "You old bastard, what's wrong with scolding you!" Robin said indifferently, slapping his hand on the table.

“Bang!” The enormous conference table instantly shattered into pieces, and Shawn, unable to support it, fell to the ground. The scalding hot water cup on the table spilled all over his head and face.

“Hiss!”

The entire conference hall fell silent again, suffocatingly.

Disheveled Shawn wiped the tea leaves off his face and was about to roar in anger.

However, when he saw Robin's half-smiling face, the words stuck in his throat and he swallowed hard.

Suddenly, I remembered that it was rumored that Conway had beaten up Barry so badly that his teeth were scattered all over the ground.

This kid must have been a tough character. Chapter 147 Humiliation

The wood used for the Huber Group conference table was made from a type of wood called blackwood, which is as hard as iron blocks.

Robin slammed his palm on the table, causing the conference table to shatter into pieces. If he dares to provoke him again, it is hard to say whether Robin's palm will slap him on the head.

Shawn no longer concealed it and directly tore off that fig leaf, coldly saying. “I have at least 8 billion shares in my hands! Karina, you promised immediate cash redemption upon withdrawal of shares, and tonight is the deadline!”

Karina coldly pointed at the agreement. “Shareholders, those of you who want to withdraw your shares, can sign now.”

Shawn picked up the pen and suddenly caught sight of Harold sitting behind him. He awkwardly said, “Brother, that's not what I meant. It's just that over the years, my family business has also grown bigger, and there are many aspects that require money. If...”

Harold nodded with a smile, “It's alright, Shawn. You have been following me for decades. Back when we were conquering the world barefoot, we were full of passion and only cared about loyalty, not money.”

“After all these years, it seems that it wasn’t entirely correct. Money still matters.”

“It’s okay, you can withdraw your shares.”

Shawn let out a long sigh and said, “Big brother, I’m sorry, there’s nothing I can do, I really can’t.” Ernest also stood up and said, “Mr. Harold, it’s not that I am heartless or unkind, I am also...”

Harold nodded and said. “I understand! The investment in the southern part of the city was also my final decision. I cannot guarantee that it will definitely make money.

“Alright, let’s not say anything more. Let’s work together and part ways amicably.” Shawn and Ernest, as shareholders, were not bothered much and directly signed their names on the withdrawal agreement.

Several shareholders saw that the two elders had already signed to withdraw their shares, and they also followed suit and signed.

There were still ten shareholders watching the scene in front of them, hesitating to make a move. Shawn glanced at them and said, “What are you hesitating for? Ms. Huber said...”

A shareholder named Harry Lyons shook his head and said, “Mr. Sherman, we have followed the Huber Group together until today, from nothing to the present prominence, all thanks to the Huber family.”

“Now, when the Huber Group is in need of money, we are worried about withdrawing so much cash due to the fear of investment failure.”

“This is so unfaithful!”

“Hehe, Mr. Sherman, you were the earliest veteran to start a business. with Mr. Harold. You, of all people, should not have done this. It’s really outrageous!”

“In conclusion, I did not withdraw my shares!”

Chapter 148

Chapter 148 | Can Kill You Right Now! "Hmph!" Shawn snorted coldly, no longer speaking to Harry, and handed the signed share transfer agreement directly to Karsyn.

Justin, who had been hiding in the crowd, didn't dare to speak much. He quietly handed over the withdrawal agreement that he had signed.

Karina said coldly, "Uncle Er, have you made up your mind? After withdrawing your shares, the Huber Group will have nothing to do with you, whether it is prosperous or in decline. In the future, don't regret it."

The conference hall suddenly fell silent, and everyone's gaze focused on Justin and Alondra.. Everyone couldn't help but sigh, this world is really too realistic! In the face of interests, even relatives find it difficult to truly be affectionate and righteous.

Suddenly becoming the center of attention in the conference room, Justin immediately panicked. "Karina, how am I supposed to talk to you when you make such absurd decisions today!"

"You saw it too, all these people who followed your grandfather to create the Huber Group, they were all disheartened!" "You believed Robin's slander, and were willing to destroy the entire Huber Group..."

"Okay, I got it." Karina ignored Justin and took the agreement, glancing at the shareholders who had already signed the agreement.

"You guys wait, the cash that should be delivered to you will be fulfilled in another half an hour."

Justin still wanted to speak, but Karina had already turned around and handed these agreements to Karsyn, "Immediately have the finance calculate a clear amount for redemption."

Watching Karina's figure, Justin suddenly realized that he seemed to have lost something.

He looked up tremblingly at Harold and Camdyn, took a step forward and said, "Dad, big brother, I, I had no choice but to do this, you know Alondra, I don't usually..."

"Alright, let's not say these words anymore," Harold nodded indifferently.

“I have said that I will not prevent any shareholder of the Huber Group from withdrawing their shares, and you are no exception!” All the shareholders in the conference hall fell silent immediately.

Harry let out a long sigh.

I glanced at the nine shareholders who had not signed the withdrawal agreement.

“Ladies and gentlemen, in the beginning, we had nothing. It was only after following the Huber family for three generations that we achieved the prosperity and wealth we have today.”

“If we withdraw our shares at this moment, it would be like delivering a fatal blow to the Huber family from behind.” “In short, what I mean is that everyone must not withdraw their stocks at this time.

“Being a person always requires paying attention to emotions and righteousness!”

The other nine people also nodded: “Mr. Lyons, just like you, we will never withdraw our shares at this time!”

“In short, if this time the investment in the land in the southern city. makes money, we will move up to the next level with the Huber family, even if we lose everything, it doesn’t matter.”

“Mr. Harold dares to lose such a large industry, what are we!”

“We had nothing to begin with, so we could always start over with Mr. Harold if necessary.”

“Alright, Mr. Harold, we nine will not withdraw our shares!”

Harold nodded with a smile, without saying a word.

Ten shareholders returned the agreement to Karina.

“Ms. Huber, rest assured, you were the president of the Huber Group, your decision, we supported you!”

“We believe that the Huber family must have made the decision after careful research for this large investment.”

“Over the years, how many significant decisions have you made and won? We believe that this time, you will definitely win again!”

“Ms. Huber, you dared to do it, it's okay, even if not, we will accompany you, the Huber family, to create another the Huber Group.”

Karina nodded, “Alright, Harry, the Huber family won't let you down.” “Ms. Huber, Ms. Finley have arrived,” at that moment, the secretary of the secretariat walked in.

Nia walked into the conference hall and saw a scene that surprised her. “Harold, Uncle Xiao, Karina, what happened to you guys?”

Karina smiled indifferently and said, “Some shareholders of the Huber Group lacking confidence in the investment of the southern city plot, decided to withdraw their shares.”

Nia looked at the desk with ten copies of the Huber Group shareholders' withdrawal agreement, her eyebrows slightly furrowed.

“Karina, I heard that you spent a huge amount of money to purchase land in the south of the city, putting the entire Huber family at stake. What exactly is going on?”

“It's okay, this matter cannot be explained clearly in just a few words.” Karina handed over the financial procedures to Nia. “I have already completed the procedures for the 4 billion cash. You can instruct your people...”

The conversation was not finished when Reginald pointed at Nia and said. “Shareholders, did you see? She is the woman in the photo who had an affair with Robin.”

“What does it mean?” Nia was taken aback, not understanding what was going on.

All the shareholders looked at Nia together.

Reginald sneered, “What do you mean?”

He opened the video again, and the photos of Nia and Robin instantly appeared on the huge screen in the conference hall.

“We were discussing the rotten ideas that Robin gave to Karina, which led the Huber Group to the current state of disintegration.”

“The shareholders of the Huber Group suspected that it was because Robin and you dubious women were conspiring to deceive Karina!”

Nia was instantly dumbfounded: “You dared to secretly take photos of me? And you dare to slander my reputation, do you want to die?”

Reginald trembled slightly when he saw the murderous look in Nia’s eyes.

However, thinking that she was just a woman, he continued, “You must explain today, what is your relationship with Robin, and what do you both want by getting close to Karina!”

“Outrageous!” Nia shouted angrily. Two Warwolf Special Forces members who had accompanied her immediately pinned Reginald to the ground. Nia stepped on his face and said, “Just because you dared to secretly follow and film me, I could have killed you right now!”

In an instant, a sharp broken blade appeared in the hand of a Warwolf Special Forces member, pressing against Reginald’s neck.

“You!” Reginald exclaimed, astonished, as he looked at Nia who had suddenly changed her style in front of him.

Who exactly was this woman?

“Nia, let him go.” Karina shook her head. “Reginald, do you know who she is?”

Nia gestured for two special forces soldiers to release Reginald.

“If it weren’t for Karina’s persuasion, you would have died long ago! You worthless scum!”

Reginald looked at Nia’s exquisite face and was instantly terrified by the fleeting murderous intent, causing him to wet the floor. Lying on the ground, I struggled several times but couldn’t stand up.

“Nia, the daughter of Hallcester, was the deputy captain of the Warwolf Special Forces in Londraland, holding the rank of senior colonel!”

“Did you dare to track and secretly film her whereabouts? You've really gone too far! Reginald, get out! The Huber Group won't keep you anymore!”

As soon as Karina finished speaking, Reginald and all the shareholders. in the conference hall gasped in shock. Did Robin, Karina, and Ethen's daughter have a close relationship?

Shawn suddenly realized that he seemed to have done something wrong!

Ethen's daughter, Colonel Finley, was the deputy squadron leader of the Warwolf Special Forces.

Londraland was a resounding heroine of her time!

To achieve glorious military achievements for the nation!

How could such godlike figures have such a good relationship with. Robin and Karina?.

Moreover, just now | heard her say that her uncle, Devin, the richest man in Hashville State with a fortune of 4 billion dollars in cash, had it stored in the vault of the Huber Group. What on earth is going on?

Shawn and the shareholders who had already signed the withdraw, agreement suddenly broke out in a cold sweat!

Right Now!

At this moment. Nia also understood what was happening with the Huber Group.

She looked at Karina and said, “Karina, my uncle's 4 billion cash is temporanly left for you to use. | will come to collect it when it is convenient for you.

“| will call my uncle right now. | know he still has some cash on hand.” Without waiting for Karina's answer, Nia picked up the phone directly and said, “Uncle Er, how much money do you have on hand? | am currently at the Huber Group, and many shareholders at the Huber Group are requesting to withdraw their stocks for cash. If you have any, please send some over for Karina to use.”

“Hiss!” Shawn and the shareholders gasped in shock!

If the wealthiest person in Hashville State, Devin, had intervened, the Huber family would certainly not have faced any major risks!

At this moment, Devin on the other end of the phone was puzzled. Many shareholders of the Huber Group were demanding withdrawal of their stocks.

How stupid would one have to be to withdraw stocks during this period of time?

The Huber Group will be able to take it to the next level tomorrow, and the stocks held by all shareholders of the Huber Group will double.

Withdrawing stocks at this time is equivalent to throwing away the money in hand directly. Nia briefly described the current situation of the Huber Group to Devin, and Devin laughed.

“I see. Nia, ask Mr. Harold if it is possible for me to buy some of the shareholders’ equity who want to withdraw their shares, with my nearly 7 billion dollars in cash, in addition to my 4 billion dollars in cash. | am willing to buy these original shares of the Huber Group immediately!”

Nia relayed Devin’s words to Harold. Harold laughed and said, “Nia, he was willing to favor the Huber Group, of course | was willing too!” Devin on the other end of the phone laughed.

In his heart, my brother was afraid that | would purchase land in the south of the city and abuse my power, which would affect him.

Now | bought the Huber family’s common stock, so no one should be gossiping anymore, hahaha...

“Nia, tell Mr. Harold that | have nearly 10 billion in hand, all of which will be used to purchase as much as possible of the additional shares of the Huber Group that became available tonight!”

Karina hesitated for a moment and said. "Nia, you tell Devin that he shouldn't be afraid of the Huber Group because of this investment failure..."

"Alright, Uncle said it, and he was willing to do it. He's not helping you, he wants to make a fortune with you," Nia said with a smile. "I'll go get the money for you!"

Karina wanted to continue explaining, but Robin said, "Since Nia mentioned that her uncle wants to invest in the Huber Group, why don't you just directly sign a share transfer agreement with him?"

"Alright!" Karina had no choice but to agree. 14R 1 Can Kill You Fight Mawi

Soon, under Karsyn's arrangement. Nia helped Devin sign the original stock transfer agreement to purchase the Huber Group worth billions of dollars.

Shawn watched this scene and became even more aware that he had made a mistake!

The richest person in Hashville State, Devin, and Ethen's daughter both supported the Huber Group. Is there any information that we didn't know among these?

In theory, no one could have known about the information invested by the municipal government.

However, the Huber family spared no expense and purchased the land in the southern part of the city, which made people wonder.

Suddenly, Shawn understood.

Mr. Harold, Camdyn, Karina, as well as Devin and Nia, were willing to invest such a large amount of money in the southern land because they did not hesitate at all.

It must be because they had already received the most authoritative insider information. The southern plot of land will re-enter the list of key investments by the municipal government in the near future.

If that's the case, I would have suffered a big loss!

Chapter 149

Chapter 149 | Was Wrong

Shawn pondered for a while.

Looking up at Harold, who had always had no expression, my heart was even more uneasy.

In this situation, Mr. Huber had not spoken yet..

It seems that the Huber Group's acquisition of the southern city is far from being as simple as imagined. If the Huber Group had won this time, the Huber family would have become a true billionaire dynasty. Based on Harold's personality, he would not give any chance to those who betrayed him.

Moreover, their withdrawal of shares at this time is nothing short of throwing the Huber family into a well and stabbing them in the back.

Harold would definitely have killed them at the first opportunity. Otherwise, how could Hallcester, the top aristocratic family, establish its dominance in the ruthless underworld?

Having worked alongside Harold for so many years, Shawn was well aware that, apart from their rivals, it was the brothers who had betrayed the Huber family that had fallen at the feet of the Huber Group.

This was the might of a hero!

There was never really any good gathering or parting. Chapter 1491 Was Wrong

Shawn suddenly realized that he had made a huge mistake.

These years of comfort have been too long, and for a moment, I forgot about Harold, the terrifying tiger, who still hides his sharp fangs!

At this thought, Shawn shivered down his spine!

He hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Big brother... Mr. Huber, I, I want..."

On Harold's expressionless face, a bright smile suddenly appeared.

"Shawn, it's okay, you withdraw your shares, | won't have any objections!"

"To be honest, you have been with me for so many years, and now that you want to leave, | really feel a little reluctant."

"Very well then! Everyone has their own aspirations. You chose to leave the Huber Group and pursue a greater career, and that is only natural!"

"You can rest assured and go ahead, in a while, once you have the money, you can leave without any interference from anyone in the Huber family, as long as | am here!"

Shawn suddenly shivered, "Brother, that's not what | meant. | meant to say that | think | shouldn't withdraw..."

Harold glanced at him indifferently, "Shawn, don't burden yourself mentally! Alright, go take care of your own matters! | want some quiet time."

Ernest also came to his senses at that moment and hurriedly caught up with him, saying, "Mr. Harold, | was wrong..." "You are right! Ernest, gathering and dispersing, birth and death, these are all natural laws!"

"Doing business and being a person, it is the same!"

"Of course, it's all about the benefits! If we don't consider any benefits. and only talk about emotions, then what the hell are we doing for a career?!"

Harold waved his hand and two bodyguards stood in front of him. "Mr. Sherman. Mr. Roberson, please return to your respective seats. Mr. Huber is tired and needs some quiet!"

Shawn understood that Harold had completely cut them off from the Huber family.

He hesitated for a while and quickly stood in front of Karina. "Karina, | want to retract the withdrawal agreement..." "Mr. Sherman. was a joke?!"

did you think the agreement signed by the Huber family

“You have been following Grandpa for decades, don’t you know the Huber family’s principles?” Karina glanced coldly at Shawn and Ernest. “Just wait, the money will be delivered in half an hour!”

Shawn didn’t expect Karina to give her no face at all, which made him very angry. “Karina, I am at least your elder, and you don’t even understand basic manners?!”

Robin chuckled with interest, “A dog will always be a dog, no matter what, it can never become a human!” “You!” Shawn angrily pointed at Robin, wanting to scold loudly.

However, when he saw the cold gaze in Robin’s eyes, he forcibly swallowed his words.

The other shareholders, seeing Shawn and Ernest’s panicked and annoyed expressions, suddenly realized. Tonight, they may have made a decision that they will regret for the rest of their lives!

Twenty minutes later.

Nia led a group of people and placed Devin’s seven billion dollars in cash in the lobby of the Huber Group.

Karsyn immediately arranged for the financial personnel to count on- site and cash out the withdrawal of shares for Shawn, Ernest, and others. At 24:00.

Wayne urgently transferred 28 billion dollars in cash from several branches of Golden Sun Bank in Hallchester and delivered it all to the Huber Group hall.

Shawn, Ernest, and the shareholders who had already signed the withdrawal agreement were shocked to see such a stunning scene!

The Huber family managed to mobilize such a large amount of funds in such a short period of time!

In this situation, they immediately understood that the Huber family’s network and background, contrary to their imagination, were not already in decline.

Although in the past two years, the Huber Group has not made significant achievements under Karina’s leadership.

Furthermore, after Nathen took over the Reynell family's World Real Estate, he also exerted various pressures on the Huber Group.

The business performance of the Huber Group was not very good. However, the foundation that Harold and Camdyn laid down all those years ago remains strong.

Even if the rumors circulating in the market were true, the Huber Group's investment of billions in the southern city plot was a bold gamble made in a state of deficit, and it would not be possible to mobilize large amounts of funds again.

However, what is the situation with this cash in front of me? With such a capital operation ability, it indicates that the Huber Group remained strong! Shawn sighed. "Ernest, perhaps we were really wrong today."

Ernest was extremely anxious. "Mr. Sherman, since that's the case, let's hurry and ask Mr. Harold to retract the agreement we just signed."

Shawn watched Harold from a distance, at that moment, Mr. Harold was chatting happily with Robin. Ten bodyguards stood around, isolating them from the surroundings.

This posture clearly indicated that they did not want them to approach.

He knew that Harold had completely abandoned them.

At the most crucial moment in the Huber Group, Shawn chose to betray the Huber Group..

Harold, the fierce tiger, could not be accepted anymore.

Back then, he was penniless and being chased by loan sharks, but Harold saved him.

From then on. Shawn followed him and fought alongside him, which led to his achievements today. Shawn smiled bitterly, looking at the cash placed in front of him, pondering to himself.

Well, whatever!

Since that's the case, let's grit our teeth and move forward!

Perhaps this time, the Huber family was just bluffing again!

Over the years, I have also used this trick while following Harold to create the Huber Group.

The feat was accomplished merely to intimidate those who betrayed him.

The more they made such a big fuss, the more it indicated that they might really be empty.

“Ernest, don’t be afraid! We earned this money with our own lives at stake, it rightfully belongs to us! Don’t say anything, let’s take it and go!”

“Perhaps in a few days, we could witness the Huber Group collapse with a bang.”

“This time, even if Devin contributed 10 billion funds to help the Huber Group alleviate the current situation, it still couldn’t fundamentally solve the problem.”

“Like I said before, it is impossible to crack this bureau in the south of the city without trillions.” Ernest let out a long sigh and said, “Mr. Sherman, I listened to you.” Chapter 149 I Was Wrong

The shareholders individually counted the cash they received from withdrawing their shares until four or five in the morning, and the Huber Group shareholders’ meeting finally concluded.

Major changes at the Huber Group’s shareholders’ meeting are still being discussed in the major media and online platforms in Hallchester.

One of the most discussed topics was the collective withdrawal of the major shareholders of the Huber Group.

In order to stabilize the situation, the Huber family did not hesitate to dismantle and borrow a large amount of cash to redeem their equity.

Many netizens were greatly shocked by the Huber Group’s move.

The rumor that the Huber Group suffered severe losses due to the investment in the southern city plot was quickly debunked. There was also a group of people who believed that the Huber family's. actions were purely to create a hoax.

To prove to everyone that the Huber Group's strength still existed.

Most people believed that the Huber Group's move to enter the South City market with a capital of billions was a suicide.

No one would believe that the municipal government would refocus its investment on the southern part of the city.

More authoritative figures have come forward to prove that the municipal government had no information whatsoever regarding the investment in the southern part of the city.

Even, they presented a lot of evidence to prove their claims. For a moment, the news of the impending downfall of the Huber Group spread throughout the streets and alleys of Hallchester.

Various partners of the Huber Group in different fields contacted the Huber Group overnight to inquire about what exactly had happened

They needed the Huber Group to provide them with a reasonable explanation.

Otherwise, they would consider suspending further cooperation with the Huber Group.

The next morning.

Shawn slept until after nine o'clock and was awakened by the continuous ringing of his phone.

"Ernest, I wanted to sleep a little longer. Why did you call me so early?"

"Mr. Sherman, we were wrong! We were really wrong!" Ernest's voice on the other end of the phone almost shouted. "What's wrong? Ernest, why were you crying on the phone all morning? What did we do wrong?" Shawn impatiently asked.

Ernest let out a heavy sigh as he said, "The municipal government will hold a press conference at 10 o'clock this morning regarding the key investment area."

“Announce all you want, what does it have to do with us?” Shawn turned over and suddenly felt a shock in his heart. “Ernest, what did you say?” | immediately lost all sleepiness. “Has the press conference already started?” “No, there are still over ten minutes left. It starts at ten o’clock.”

Ernest sighed. “Mr Sherman, this morning there was news that the city government announced that the key investment area will be located in the south of the city!”

Shawn remained silent for a while and anxiously asked, “South City? Ernest, did Harold intentionally create fake news?” “Do you believe in this thing too? We have done it before, just fooling those trendy capitalists.”

“Mr. Sherman, not to be the one to say it, but almost all of Hallcester’s online media was reporting.”

“Prior to this, the municipal government secretary had previously issued a media briefing, mentioning the decisions made by the city. government regarding the adjustment of key investment directions.”

“The Hallcester government, in order to promote rapid development, considered leveraging the geographical advantage of Dimburgh to boost the Hallcester economy.”

“So, they believed that developing the southern area of the city would be the best choice for Hallcester! Mr. Sherman, think about it, would the media briefing of the city government secretariat be nonsense?”

Upon hearing Ernest's words, Shawn felt a wave of panic in his heart. If that is true, the strength of the Huber Group will quickly multiply! He immediately turned on the television.

At this moment, the press conference of the municipal government is filled with journalists from major media outlets.

Chapter 150

Chapter 150 That's the Brown family's Money! It was ten o'clock in the morning. Municipal Government Press Conference Hall.

Mayor Ethen announced that the future 20-year investment focus of Hallcester, apart from the Eastern Business District, will gradually shift towards the development of the southern area.

Its purpose was to connect with the neighboring Faircliff Economic Zone and, under its influence, quickly elevate the economy of Hallcester to a higher level.

Once the municipal government released this information, it immediately caused a huge uproar in all sectors of Hallcester.

The news of the Huber family's billion-dollar investment in the southern city block caused a stir for a day and night, but gradually cooled down.

However, after the announcement by the city government, the Huber family's topic once again topped the trending list. The merchant who had previously threatened to terminate the partnership with the Huber family.

We urgently contacted the headquarters of the Huber Group through various channels in the past, pleading for an increase in cooperation. shares.

The investor who had once withdrawn from the South City plot was greatly regretful.

We started to explore various channels to invest in the Southern Business District.

In this gambling game, the Huber family emerged as the biggest winner.

Its market value was skyrocketing in units of minutes and seconds.

Everyone understood an indisputable fact.

From then on, the Huber family's market value and strength surpassed all others in Hallcester.

If there had been no investment opportunities like the skyrocketing wealth of the southern land parcel. They would never be able to catch up with the pace of the Huber Group.

The Huber Group once again became the true No. 1 family of Hallcester.

This seemingly certain losing bet, the Huber Group not only did not collapse, but instead, its market value skyrocketed several times within a short day.

Almost all the capital began to flow towards the south of the city.

The Huber Group instantly became a capital magnet.

The headquarters of the Huber Group was surrounded by capital investors who came begging to give money. The top ten shareholders of the Huber Group, who had originally withdrawn their stocks overnight, regretted it deeply. They were considering how to request the Huber family to accept them as shareholders of the Huber Group's original shares again.

So, some shareholders gathered at the headquarters of the Huber Group.

Central Hallcester Bank also took a cold breath.

If they had also acted as aggressively as Golden Sun Bank did at that time, they would have threatened Freddie with an extremely tough stance.

So, today they were very likely to lose everything in this gambling game, just like Golden Sun Bank did. Fortunately, at the crucial moment, they chose to believe in the Huber Group.

I accidentally boarded the giant aircraft carrier, the Huber family, which was about to set sail. Nowadays, it is not so easy for all the capital to enter the southern area.

It was necessary to pass through the threshold of the Huber family, at a cost several times or even dozens of times higher, in order to have a chance to share a small piece of the city's southern plot.

Nevertheless, various capitalists waited in front of the Huber Group's door.

Their only request was that the Huber family would accept their money!

They were able to finance the southern land plot again, this time as investors.

Becoming the first group of investors in the South City plot, we shared the imminent explosive profits with the Huber family. Shawn regretted deeply after seeing such news.

The Huber family won the southern land plot, but they became outsiders.

More importantly, Harold gained a new piece of land in the southern part of the city.

Even if one does not beg for Harold's forgiveness and mercy.

Shawn knew very well that with Harold's nature, he would never let anyone who betrayed him go.

After much thought, Shawn immediately called Ernest, "Ernest, this time we are really done. Let's go and beg Mr. Huber right away, hoping that he will give us a chance, considering our dedication to building the Huber Group with him."

After discussing with Ernest, Shawn quickly rushed to the Huber's villa. Hallchester Airport.

All the core members of the Brown Group, upon receiving Miranda's grandfather Bradshaw, also learned about the announcement of the city government regarding the southern plot of land.

Miranda's uncles, aunts, and aunts—in-law were also bothered by asking about Bradshaw's

For this matter, they argued all the way from the airport to the Brown's villa. Margaret was the first to speak up, "Miranda, look at the mess you've made!" Chapter 150 Thats the Brown family a Money

"I suspected that you had known long ago that the municipal government would reinvest in the southern part of the city, which is why you deceived us and sold all of our projects to Robin and hist team."

“You told us, how much benefit did you actually gain from this?”

Miranda was extremely surprised. “Aunt, what are you talking about? If I had known that the city government would release this information, would I have sold the land in city south to Robin at cost price?”

Margaret snorted coldly, “I don’t care! Anyway, these matters were under your responsibility, and now you must retrieve the South City plot from Robin at the original price!”

“The land in the southern part of the city that we originally bought for less than 500 million has now appreciated to nearly 2 billion!”

“Looking at the current trend still rising, Miranda, in less than 24. hours, you made us lose billions! You really screwed us over!”

“Miranda, if you don’t reclaim these plots of land, you can forget about becoming the Chairman of the Brown Group! Dream on! We, as some of your relatives, are the first ones who refuse.”

Miranda’s uncles and aunts all joined in to demand the southern plot of land from Miranda. Bradshaw didn’t know what was going on: “What are you all making a fuss about? Did you think I died and came back late?” Margaret and the others finally calmed down, “Dad...”

Margaret burst into tears and said, “Look at what your precious granddaughter has done! She has been living off us and has deceitfully sold the South City plot in our hands to the Huber Group. This time, the Brown family has suffered a huge loss!”

“If it weren’t for her, the plots of land in city south in each of our hands. would have become hotcakes now, multiplying several times.”

Bradshaw furrowed his brow and asked, “Miranda, is what they said true? What do you mean by doing this?” Miranda exclaimed angrily, “Grandpa, they were talking nonsense!” “Before this, the land in the south of the city was worthless. Grandpa, you must have seen the news too.”

“At that time, the bank prematurely terminated the contract for the Brown family’s loan to purchase the land in the south of the city, pressuring us to repay a loan of 500 million.”

“The Brown Group didn’t have as much capital at that time, so I thought about monetizing the urban land I had in the southern part of the city. As a result, I approached the Huber Group.”

“Crystal told me that Robin had some cash in his hand and he bought it without saying anything.” “Robin?” Bradshaw asked, “Who is Robin?”

Margaret eagerly interjected. “It’s that poor loser who got dumped by your precious granddaughter! Now he’s a big shot by Karina’s side!”

A hint of surprise flashed in Bradshaw’s eyes: “Robin went to the Huber Group? Miranda, do you still have any contact with him?”

Miranda sighed and said, “Grandfather, although I broke off the engagement with Robin, I know that he has never been able to forget me.

“During this period, he was seeking various opportunities to approach me, please me, and hoping that the Brown family would accept him, but I rejected all of them!”

“I sold the southern plot in my hand to him, and it was only out of necessity that I used him once. I knew Robin always made Karina pay for it”

“Aunties came to me when they learned about this situation, asking me to sell the plots they had to the Huber Group.”

“They believed that the Huber Group didn’t care about this amount of money”

Bradshaw’s frown deepened, “Did the Huber family trust Robin so much?”

Alex said, “Dad, Robin is just a scammer! Karina also doesn’t know what’s wrong with her, she’s been completely fooled by Robin! Everyone in Halleester knows about this.”

Bradshaw nodded, “Miranda, you may continue.”

Miranda shook her head and said, “I only agreed to Auntie and the others because I saw that the Huber family trusted Robin.”

“At that time, the Huber Group suddenly invested billions of dollars into the southern area, without knowing where they had obtained the information.”

Upon hearing this news, all the original owners of the southern plot rushed to the Huber Group,

“In this situation, I helped my aunt and uncles sell the city south land they had in their hands to the Huber Group through Robin.” “How would I know that the municipal government would suddenly announce a key investment in the southern part of the city?” “Not only me, but also them, as well as all the investors who originally held the southern land, suffered huge losses.”

Timon family ‘n Money!

“Grandfather. Aunt and the others have actually come to demand payment from me now, believing that I deceived them. Don’t you think they are being sincere?”

Bradshaw said coldly. “Margaret, you are the elder, how can you bully Miranda like this!”

“She was also unaware that the land in the southern part of the city would turn from waste to treasure overnight. It was your own decision in the beginning, so how can you blame Miranda?”

Margaret saw the old man’s remarks and had no choice but to keep quiet.

After hesitating for a while, he said, “Dad, are we just going to let go of the loss of billions like that?”

“You have been busy for decades, but you haven’t earned as much in a day as we have with the southern land in our hands!” “Are we just going to stand by and watch as the money we had in our hands is taken away by the Huber family?”

“That was the money of the Brown family!”

Bradshaw suddenly clutched his chest, in excruciating pain.

Let’s calculate, the sold land in city south is worth at least forty to fifty billion in today’s market value.

And, this momentum continued to grow.

If Miranda could use Robin again, she would be able to reclaim the southern plot of land at the original selling price, bringing the Brown family one step closer to becoming a billion-dollar family!

This was his dream for decades!

Chapter 150 That's the Brown family's Money)

He took a deep breath and calmed down his excited emotions. "Miranda, your aunt and uncle's argument does have some merit."

"Just now you said that Robin is still infatuated with you and wants to please you. This is a good thing, it shows that he still has feelings for you and also proves that our Miranda is very charming!"

Miranda blushed and said, "Grandfather, what did you say?" Bradshaw smiled and said, "Since Robin still likes you so much, it's only natural for him to help you with some things."

"Grandfather, what do you mean? Do you still want me to fulfill the engagement with Robin? I don't want to!" Miranda exclaimed angrily.

"I would never be interested in a man like Robin! No background, no manners!" v

"Grandfather, as you know, my dream was to become a woman like Cecilia! Robin and I were not on the same level, how could I possibly be dragged down by such a man!"

Bradshaw burst into laughter and said, "Miranda, I didn't mean it that way. I meant that you can try asking Robin about this matter. Since he likes you so much, he will definitely help you solve the issue with the South City plot."

"This has nothing to do with the engagement."
