Chapter 111 Dahua'S Statemen

After Davina hung up the phone, it was as if she had lost her soul.

Public Relations did not dare to do anything. They did not know who to beg. This matter really forced her to a dead end.

"Sis, pull yourself together!" Daniel saw that she did not react at all and was also very anxious.

"Although the Internet is out of control now, those are the words of the reporters and netizens. The Dahua has not responded to them until now."

"Don't worry. As long as we ask someone to find out Allen's whereabouts and explain to him properly, he..."

"Allen Jones?" Davina woke up from her thoughts, but in the next second, she shook her head with a cold smile, "How hard is it to meet Allen? That was impossible. Now that things have come to this, there is no other way."

"Just like you said, Allen is so hard to come into contact with. Why would he care about this kind of news? Maybe he doesn't care about it at all."

According to his analysis, the Dahua still hadn't responded to this matter. It was possible that they really didn't care about this matter. They were just scared by Arya's bluff.

"I..." Daniel looked at Davina and suddenly did not know what to say.

If he was still with Arya, all of this would not have happened.

Davina took out her phone and dialed Arya's number. It was as if she had grasped the last straw of hope. The moment the phone was connected, she cried and begged Arya to forgive her.

"I was wrong. I really know I was wrong. Arya, help me."

"How can I help you?" Arya replied coldly.

"Help me clarify with the public. Just say it. All of this is just a misunderstanding. I'll agree to any conditions you have. Didn't you like Daniel? I will immediately ask Caroline to leave the Brilliant Entertainment and let Daniel be with you again. Also, I will give you all the resources in the company, okay?"

She was no longer the arrogant golden manager. She had become pitiful and miserable.

"If you still feel that it's not enough, you can ask for anything!"

"This is not a deal. Even if it is, you don't have any bargaining chips to negotiate with me. If everything is as you planned and I am the one being attacked by the media, what will you do?"

"You can consider me being lenient by chasing me out of the company, right?"

"Davina, you will end up like this today because you are the one who brought this upon yourself. No one can help you. You begged me because you are not willing to accept it. You want to use me and rise again, but you still hate me in your heart."

"What you did to me in the past has been canceled out from this. In the future, we will go our separate ways."

"Others don't know about our marriage. It's normal for them to have a problem with it." Arya did not care if anyone around her noticed them. She reached out and held Allen's hand. "I don't want to be your burden. Allen, I know you want to help me, but sometimes I want to be your shield."

These words made Allen's eyes darken.

"I know what I'm saying is ridiculous. You are the king of the entertainment circle, and you don't need me. However, one day, I will stand by your side."

This was the first time a woman had said something like this to him.

These words shocked Allen.

He took a deep breath and calmed down the emotions in his heart, "If we weren't here, I would definitely not..."

"Let's go home." Arya flirted with him.

"Okay, let's go home."

He pulled Arya and tightened his fingers.

The public press release of the Dahua Entertainment had caused quite a commotion in the industry. Daniel did not sleep the whole night and was busy dealing with the dissatisfaction of the company's upper echelons. While Arya was getting the attention of the outside world, the Brilliant Entertainment was pushed to the peak of the limelight. Even if they had announced to the outside world that Davina's position would be removed, it did not have much effect.

There were even shareholders who suggested withdrawing their shares. They did not see any hope in Daniel.

"Director Daniel, there is a training ceremony for the newcomers in the afternoon. You..."

"What newcomers? Do I look like I'm in the mood to sign for the newcomers now?" Daniel stood up abruptly and threw the documents on his desk. In the next second, he turned around and looked at his secretary, who was quite frightened.

Naomi originally prepared a bunch of words to say to Arya but seeing Arya's calm temperament, she hesitated, "Sister Arya, I am newcomer that the company is preparing to nurture. My name is Naomi."

Arya recalled the last time she passed by her, "I remember you."

The chess piece in Daniel's hand.

"I have something to tell you..." She looked at Luna and walked two steps forward. She lowered her voice.

"Caroline and Director Daniel quarreled and said a lot about you. I can help you look after them as long as you can introduce me to Director Jacob."

"You want to shoot his play?" Arya smiled and looked at Naomi's scheming that did not belong to her age. "I don't care about their movements. If you want to shoot a movie, you have to fight for it yourself. I can't help you."

"Even if Daniel trains new people to replace me, I don't care."

Naomi lowered her head, "I am sorry..."

Arya walked around from the side. Naomi could think of using such a method to gain opportunities. It could be seen that she was not innocent and would have the chance to meet again in the future.

Daniel watched Arya walk into the office. She dressed more elegantly than before but her eyes were no longer as gentle as before. A wave of anger rose from his heart.

"What do you want to do after not coming to the company for a few days?"

"Everyone in the company is busy preparing for Caroline to win the award. Am I here to watch the show?" Arya replied coldly, "I am not as bored as you think."

Allen had already helped her talk about a commercial endorsement for French perfume. She would be going overseas soon. Before that, she wanted to buy more time for herself.

"Luna helped me talk about an endorsement. I'm going to prepare to shoot." She just wanted to inform Daniel that she did not want him to be a hindrance to her later work.

“Luna helped you talk about it? Does she even have this kind of ability?” Daniel snorted. He did not really believe Arya’s words. But other than Luna, who else would help her?

Chapter 115 Let Him Have A Taste Of Suffering

The Golden Spear Award ceremony was about to begin, and the entertainment websites all had news about celebrities.

Davina's matter had already become a thing of the past. In this circle, there were many fights between the public and the dark. For the sake of their own star path, some people were able to use all kinds of methods.

Arya was only the guest of honor this time, so she was not affected at all.

Caroline, on the other hand, racked her brains to become the most dazzling female star that night.

When Arya helped Arya prepare her luggage, she said, "Daniel talked about a new show for that newcomer. I heard that Caroline was very angry and went to the office to cause a ruckus."

"Is that so?" Arya flipped through the products and magazine and replied indifferently.

She had to focus on her work. Other matters had nothing to do with her.

"I heard Daniel was very angry and directly left Caroline's birthday banquet hotel." Luna shook her head. "I think they won't last for long."

In the past Arya understood Daniel and always compromised, but Caroline would not do that. In her eyes, there was only one thing that was to become famous. Just when she was about to get movie queen, Daniel actually wanted to take out resources to groom a new person. How could she not be angry?

Chapter 116 Caroline's Greed

Caroline sat in front of the mirror and slowly put on her makeup. Now that things had come to this, she had already begun to enjoy the pleasure of stepping on two boats. Thinking about how Daniel had said good things to her just now, she revealed a complacent smile. She had won a man and also won movie queen's grand prize. In the future, Arya would no longer be her match.

It was just that she could not completely give up on Daniel. It would not be good for her to turn hostile.

What if she let go and Daniel returned to Arya's side?

She had tried so hard to seduce Daniel for so long and could not let them reunite. Suddenly, she thought of Arya's beautiful and moving appearance that night on the red carpet. A hint of viciousness flashed across her eyes.

She thought for a moment and dialed Arya's number, "I called to inform you. Daniel said that he did not want to see you at the award ceremony."

"Then let him tell the organizers that our, Arya, will never act big." Luna said on the other end of the phone.

"Fighting against the Brokerage Agency, Arya really does not want to continue the show, right?"

"Caroline, aren't you tired of sending messages from both sides? Since you have the chance to win the award, you should enjoy it. Don't think about scheming against others all day long. If you go too far, God will not let you go."

Chapter 117 The Feeling Of Being Betrayed

Daniel dialed Caroline's number but could not get it through. He was worried that Caroline would be in trouble so he drove over.

However, as soon as he entered, he saw Caroline. Caroline was hugged by a man. The two of them were very close to each other. Most importantly, Caroline welcomed each other with a smile on her face.

Daniel stood not far away with his knuckles tightly clenched. His face went from green to white. He stood behind them and followed them slowly until he saw the two of them enter into a private room.

When he heard the sound of door closing and the laughter coming from inside not long after, his heart completely fell into an ice cave.

This was the woman he had chosen for love. She was actually so lowly to this extent.

His face was vivid as he knocked on the door.

Caroline smiled as she opened the door. When she saw him, she was instantly stunned.

"Daniel, why are you..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Daniel slapped her.

"Bitch."

He was extremely angry.

Caroline could not stop him and could only watch him leave. Her panic and fear lingered in her heart. She was finished.

If Daniel found out that she cheated under such circumstances, what would happen in the future?

The man in the room heard the voices and said with a smile, "What are you afraid of? As long as we protect you, why would you be afraid of a small Brilliant Entertainment?"

Luna was furious when she saw it, "What kind of reports are they writing? The dress is clearly hanging in your side! I think Caroline must be behind this. Arya, do you want me to think of a way?"

Caroline herself was bad, but she insisted on pulling Arya in. This made Luna very unhappy.

"I see that Caroline has already gotten better conditions through the unspoken rules. The next step, she will break off relations with Brilliant Entertainment. You must keep an eye on the situation at the hospital and preserve the evidence we have."

"Okay, I understand." Luna took note of it seriously.

"I don't care which company she signed, but what she owes me, I want it back."

As the female star of Brilliant Entertainment Company, Caroline suddenly released this kind of news. This made Daniel fall into an extremely awkward situation. The company's upper echelons started to doubt his ability.

The whole morning Daniel had been apologizing.

He held a fire in his heart. Caroline was really ruthless. She could not wait to leave. She did not think that he would let her go so easily.

With his child, betraying him, climbing onto the judges' beds and even other people's beds...

He wanted her to pay the price!

To Daniel's surprise, even under such circumstances, Caroline still dared to look for him. Her eyes were red as she walked into his office and shouted. "Daniel..."

Her face revealed fatigue. "I was wrong. I shouldn't have done such a thing. But I have my reasons. Can you listen to me? I love you so much, how could I betray you for no reason?"

"I don't want to hear your voice, I don't want to see your face, get out!"

Daniel glared at her in disgust. He felt disgusted by the sight of her face.

"Don't do this to me, Daniel. I love you."

Caroline grabbed his sleeve and hugged him from the side as she used to. Daniel shook off her hand and stood up. "Aren't you going to sign the KB? Do you still need to seduce me?"

Chapter 119 Shooting Advertisemen

Arya picked up the advertisement and filmed it after "Behind the Scenes." The advertising company accidentally saw Arya's performance and appreciated her temperament very much, so it specially increased the number of endorsements.

Other than Arya, there were also three other actresses. They were all top stars in the international film industry and their strength could not be underestimated.

Seeing Arya enter the venue, they sized her up from head to toe. After discussing a few sentences in English, they went to put on their makeup. From their eyes, Arya clearly saw hostility. She just smiled indifferently and did not take it to heart at all.

To them, Arya's arrival was an accident. Of course, they would feel uncomfortable. Changes had always been the dark rule in this circle. When you become special, you must bear the corresponding pressure. Arya had long gotten used to this point.

"You are very beautiful. You are the kind of beauty that people in China have." The makeup artist praised Arya. An actress walked by and looked at Arya in disdain before walking into the changing room.

Arya looked up and calmly shifted her gaze back to the mirror.

Her calm demeanor left a deep impression on the makeup artist. She sincerely praised, "You don't seem to be worried about the shooting at the back?"

Was it because she was confident in her own strength or because she had a strong background?

Arya's smile was the same as always and no one could understand what she was thinking. With someone like her as a comparison, it was very stressful for others.

Arya only smiled back and did not show any signs of their aggressive aura. This was an actor's attitude towards work.

The shooting this time was very important to her. A company of the scale of Aorai had very high requirements for artists. If Arya showed her face in the international advertising industry, it would be very good opportunity for her. This also concerned whether she could get the contract of Aorai.

Just like what Allen said, she had to rely on herself to fight for it.

Fortunately, she was not the only one who insisted. Thinking that Allen was by her side, she was full of strength.

Allen only hid the other part people who attacked her on the website said that Arya had gotten to where she was today by relying on her body. They also said that she was the first person to have an affair in the love triangle. They even fabricated fake photos and content. It meant that Arya already sent the Public Relations Department to settle it. However, he could not suppress the anger

Chapter 120 Deal With Devil

"Shut up!" Daniel slammed the table and stared at her.

"Okay, I won't say anymore." Caroline shrugged and walked to the side. She clearly felt that Daniel's attitude towards her had changed.

Daniel was also an ordinary man. No matter how much he liked Caroline, he would not tolerate her betrayal. When he saw the news on the internet and thought that Arya might have played with his feelings, his heart gradually turned cold.

Caroline knew Daniel well. Seeing that he did not have anything to refute, she hooked her lips and smiled.

"Didn't you also suspect her in your heart? Don't interfere with this matter. I want to teach Arya a good lesson."

As long as Brilliant Entertainment did not help Arya with public relations, her reputation was over.

Caroline thought complacently, but she did not expect that she would lose everything.

Caroline arranged her assistant to fabricate fake news and framed Arya. She said that when Arya debuted that year, she owed a lot of money and needed to use her body to pay back. This was also the important reason why she did not get married despite being with Daniel a few years. She implied that Arya was a female celebrity with messy private life. Those appearances of hers were all fabricated by her.

The news spread like wildfire. Arya saw it and pretended not to see it. She only wanted to enjoy the rare holiday and other things were not within her consideration. But after seeing the news online, Allen could not help it.

“Let’s go back earlier.”

He wanted to get rid of this matter as soon as possible. He did not want the news to have a bad influence on Arya.

“No need, Allen.” Arya smiled and turned around. She leaned on his shoulder. “I know you are worried about me, but I am not affected by them at all. As long as the people who support me understand that those are lies, it is enough.”

“Furthermore, you deliberately put down your work to accompany me out. How can I let you down? If I go back like this, I feel that it is too much of a pity.”
