

Love Rats 1011

Chapter 1011 The Main Suspect!

Upon hearing Selena's words, Hattie looked at the battlefield and suddenly seemed to understand something. Selena did it on purpose! She deliberately let Yasmin, who was sharp and aggressive, lead the middle team just so that she could charge out and let Yasmin have some fun. If the middle team was led by Kevin, who was cautious and calm, he would definitely coordinate with both sides and not let the other side take a single kill. And if it was Richard, although he was a bit impulsive, he was obedient and wouldn't choose to charge out.

But Selena chose Yasmin, a girl who seemed cold on the surface but was fierce like leopard in a fight. She not only fulfilled Yasmin's wishes but also allowed their opponents to have some room to play without feeling oppressed or suffocated.

Hattie looked up and asked, "Selena, why are you so good to them?"

Selena smiled faintly. "Because... they deserve it."

...

In the live broadcast room, a group of students saw this development and felt their hearts ablaze with enthusiasm.

"Why didn't I work harder? How come I wasn't chosen?! Such an exciting battle, and I'm not able to experience it firsthand!!"

"Ah! Yasmin and the others must have died in droves. In my opinion, she should have listened to Miss Turner and let Kevin and Richard fight! All she had to do was to stop them from crossing the line. Now, the enemies and our team are mixed together, and Kevin and the others can't even fight..."

...

The battle ended without any surprises. Their glorious team, except for those sniped out by Richard, all self-destructed. Although they took some kills from the other side, it was far from their expectations.

Thomas listened to the heated argument going on in his earpiece and took it off. Jessica and the others also heard the commotion and were so angry that their eyes turned red. "That little brat Richard, next time we fight, I'll be the first to take him out!"

They were struggling in remote attacks this time and suffered a lot. If Felix were still there, they wouldn't have been in such a difficult situation.

Thinking of Felix, who was eliminated first, Jessica immediately glared at Diana. "It's all your fault! If it weren't for you holding back our team, how could so many people have been eliminated?!"

Diana's face darkened, and she looked at Jessica meaningfully. "Jessica, I only made a suggestion. Instead of blaming me, why don't you investigate this team? I've always had a question... why did Selena get our map?"

This was also a message she received, specifically pointed out to her.

Diana understood what the other party meant. This meant that there were loopholes in her previous actions that could be exploited.

If used properly, it might really be possible to shift the blame for those real gun incidents onto Selena. Diana's words suddenly changed the atmosphere on the scene.

"Yes! If the other party didn't get the map, it would be impossible for them to successfully ambush us, and we wouldn't have lost so many people all at once and fallen into a disadvantageous position. But who leaked the map to them?" The people on the scene looked at each other in confusion.

Jessica felt extremely uncomfortable under Diana's gaze and exploded in anger. "Why don't you just say it directly? It was me who leaked the map to the other party, and I'm their spy in our team! I hate women like you who are hypocritical and insincere!"

Diana's face turned cold as she was publicly accused by Jessica. "Jessica, I'm giving face to Union University, but that doesn't mean I will stand here and let you repeatedly insult me. Please be mindful of your words and actions!"

Jessica sneered, "You dare to load real bullets into our guns and use us to kill the other team's mechanic... and you expect me to be polite to you? Not punishing you is already giving face to the academy!"

What?! Jessica's words instantly caused a huge uproar on the scene. The students widened their eyes, thinking back to Thomas's previous refusal to let Diana touch their guns. Suddenly, they looked at Diana with disgust and caution.

Diana seemed to be pushed to the limit by anger. "Jessica, you are framing me! Am I really that stupid to load real bullets into the guns I am responsible for and kill people? Your false accusations have a limit!"

Jessica glared at her fiercely. "You shameless woman, don't even think about denying it! We've already confiscated all your real bullets and will hand them over to the principal when we get out. You're finished!"

Diana's face showed a cold smile, and she was full of humiliation. "Then I'll wait for Jessica's evidence. But once it's proven that someone deliberately framed me, I will never give up!"

Seeing Diana's righteous appearance, the crowd was somewhat shaken. Thinking back to Diana's previous suspicions about the leaked map and the possibility of a mole in their team, someone spoke up, "There must be some misunderstanding here. Maybe there really is a mole in our team, and these things are all done by that mole to sow discord among us!"

This statement received support from the majority of viewers in the live broadcast. Even if we don't mention the fact that Felix leaked the map, Selena herself said that there was a mole in Thomas's team. And Diana's performance in front of the camera has always been exemplary, with the aura of "H Country's top mechanic". Based on just a few words from Jessica and Selena, it would be difficult to shake Diana's status.

Jessica had probably never seen such a shameless person before. She widened her eyes and her face was full of anger. And the way Diana looked at her made her extremely uncomfortable, as if she was being stared at by a cold-blooded snake... Jessica shuddered.

She had a feeling that this woman had ulterior motives...

"Enough!" Thomas put down his hand and pulled Jessica behind him. He looked at Diana with a cold gaze and said, "Miss Barrett, there is no mole in our team as you claimed. As for the leaked map, we will watch the live broadcast after we leave. Please do not sow discord and shake our military morale at this time!"

Diana's face suddenly changed, and she shouted angrily, "You—"

Thomas interrupted her again, "The bullets in Jessica's gun were switched with real bullets, that's a fact! And the only person who had the opportunity to touch everyone's weapons from the beginning to the end was you!"

"Furthermore, you have repeatedly interfered with the command, as a mechanic in the team, you even used your power to threaten us with firepower, insisting on sending someone to kill the enemy's gunsmith. That's also a fact!"

"You are currently the biggest suspect!"

"Do you have any points to refute what I just said?!"

Chapter 1012 Counterattack

After Thomas finished speaking, the scene fell silent once again.

Diana sneered, "I do have a competitive relationship with the mechanic on the other side and it's true that I wanted to eliminate her, but I didn't harm her! Besides suggesting that you launch a surprise attack, what else have I done?"

Diana thought that after she finished speaking, she would win more support, but she found that the students who had just been skeptical of her were now looking at her with more caution and vigilance.

Thomas's eyes were full of sarcasm. "Miss Barrett, please clarify your position before the facts are truly determined. Don't cause trouble for the team anymore. We need both strength and trust to turn things around."

After speaking, Thomas snapped his fingers. "Regroup and move on to the next plan!"

The remaining people immediately moved forward in unison, but this time everyone stayed far away from Diana.

If only Jessica accused her, it might have been someone using her. But if even Thomas said so, it meant that Diana really did those things.

Diana clenched her teeth unwillingly.

Thomas stood in front of the team and looked at the people on the scene. His first words were, "The enemy team has two commanders."

The remaining hundred or so people in the team were in an uproar.

Someone said subconsciously, “That’s not right! Only you and Kevin came in as commanders. How could another commander emerge in their team?”

In Union University, everyone knew how valuable commanders were, especially those that could make Thomas suffer losses, like Kevin. How could there be another commander?

Jessica interjected, “It’s true. Kevin has already been demoted, and the current overall commander of their team is the mechanic sent by the research institute!”

After speaking, she gave Diana a cold and contemptuous look.

The mechanic in their team could command the whole situation, but this one in their team was useless except for dragging them down.

When Diana heard this news, she widened her eyes in shock. She was amazed that Selena could become the overall commander of the team and jealous that Selena had won the team she was in. She was even more panicked that Selena might have outstanding performance in this real-life battle. If Selena really won the game and trampled on her, Diana couldn’t bear to think about the consequences. She became furious at the thought of Selena winning.

A sinister expression appeared on Diana’s face.

At the moment, nobody cared about her thoughts. Thomas’s words were like a mountain that suppressed the breathing of all the students present.

With so many people falling behind, no snipers, and firepower unable to keep up, and now a commander has emerged on the opposing team... how can they continue fighting?

Before negative emotions could solidify, Thomas spoke again, “And that new commander, who can make Kevin willingly step down and make my calculations fail, being counter-calculated in one move, the level of her terror can be imagined...”

At the moment when their “glorious team” was ambushed on three sides, Thomas knew that he couldn’t defeat the new commander on the other side.

Even Yasmin’s eventual charge with her team might have been the result of the other side showing mercy to them.

Such a powerful opponent made Thomas feel an unprecedented sense of oppression.

This kind of oppression, even when facing the old teachers who had been on the battlefield for many years in the school, he had never felt before, which was why Thomas had been silent for so long just now.

He took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down.

It was useless to think about it now.

Even if it happened again, he would still make the same choice.

It wasn’t his mistake.

It was just that the other side was better at controlling the situation!

Under these circumstances, stretching the battle line and spending time to narrow the gap between the two sides was no longer effective.

Taking advantage of the moment when morale was at its lowest, a head-on confrontation would be more advantageous!

Thomas looked straight at everyone present, his eyes showing the determination of someone who was willing to risk everything, "So, brothers, the time for revenge has come!"

...

The live broadcast room was instantly in an uproar.

"At this moment, he wants to retaliate? They don't have any advantage in a head-on confrontation, what's wrong with Thomas?"

"At this moment, retaliation is the most correct approach. If they continue to drag on, there will be no benefit for Thomas's team!"

"That's right. Since Felix was eliminated, they have been suffering one blow after another. If they were wiped out again, with morale exhausted, they may not even have the chance to retaliate!"

"The two sides are now more than forty people apart. They just lost ten comrades, and Thomas is good at mobilizing morale, while Miss Turner is elegant and noble, without a hint of aggression, making it difficult to boost morale... In a head-on confrontation, Thomas's team still has a chance of winning!"

"It has to be said that Miss Turner is really impressive. She managed to push Thomas' team to this point. It feels like everything was within her expectations and control from start to finish. By the way, what does Miss Turner do exactly? Besides knowing that her surname is Bo and her name is Selena, does anyone know anything else about her? I don't know. She's a mechanical engineer at the research institute, but we've never heard of her. She's probably just a figurehead. Her level of command should have been taught to her by the Turner family privately. The Turner family, Selena... I'll try to find out if I can uncover anything about her... "

...

In the conference room of the research institute, seeing the events in the live stream progressing, Lorenzo praised, "These young people are all very impressive."

Kevin's caution and Thomas' decisiveness are good qualities for commanding.

But the most unexpected one is Selena.

Perhaps those in the live stream were all focused on Thomas' performance, so they didn't notice it. But for those who have been in this position for years, they can clearly feel Selena's commanding presence, her ability to strategize, and how she can turn anything to her advantage.

Even in a casual conversation, she can turn anything into a weapon.

Despite being a delicate and elegant young lady, just standing there, she exudes an unbreakable mountain-like calmness, possessing the power to soothe people's hearts.

This powerful and calm demeanor is what makes a commander truly admirable.

It's hard to imagine that it could be found in a young girl who hasn't even turned twenty yet.

At this moment, who knows how many people in the conference room secretly changed their minds. There was a quiet feeling in the air. In this silence, Osvaldo looked at his girl with gentle and cold eyes and suddenly smiled.

...

On the deserted island, Selena stood quietly on the mountaintop, looking at the students who had come back to report, her face showing no particular expression.

Chapter 1013 Want to Win?

Although Selena didn't have a cold face, everyone was quiet, as if they had done something wrong, bowing their heads and not daring to take a breath.

Even Richard, who was usually the most lively, was standing quietly in line now, afraid to speak.

The atmosphere on the scene was quite quiet.

Selena swept her gaze over the group of people and smiled, "Where did the missing people go?"

Although her tone was not severe, everyone's heart tightened.

Richard swallowed his saliva and was about to stand up and take the blame, but a slender figure stepped forward before him and said coldly, "It's my fault!"

Kevin looked at Yasmin who had jumped out and was so angry that he glared at her.

Whenever Yasmin made a mistake in the past, she would take the opportunity to slip away and escape punishment, but this time, Kevin didn't even have a chance to hold her back and she ran out by herself.

The differential treatment made Kevin feel depressed.

This new young lady in charge was not easy to deal with, and he didn't know how she would punish those who made mistakes.

Selena's gaze fell on Yasmin, and her voice was devoid of any emotion, "What did you do wrong?"

Yasmin was very straightforward, "I shouldn't have rushed out on my own and caused trouble for them!"

Before they set off, Selena said that they couldn't afford to have any casualties.

Now they had lost eighteen people.

If this were a real battlefield, Yasmin would have caused a major disaster.

Before Selena could speak, Richard quickly stepped forward, "Reporting to the overall commander, I am also at fault! My marksmanship is not accurate enough, and I was unable to kill the enemy's suicide squad in time!"

Selena looked at the two little rabbits who obediently admitted their mistakes, then turned her gaze to Kevin and smiled, "Why didn't you stand up?"

Kevin smiled, "Overall Commander, I think our biggest mistake this time was on you, as we lost eighteen people!"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone on the scene gasped in shock and turned their heads to look at Kevin.

What courage he had!

After the four words flashed through their minds, everyone was stunned again.

But then again... why were they so afraid of this new commander?

Everyone's gaze returned to Selena's beautiful and pure face, and they had to admit one fact: they were quite... afraid of her.

"Oh?" Hattie asked with interest, "Tell us more."

Kevin stared into her dark eyes and said, "If I'm the one leading the team in the middle, there will be no casualties today!"

"Yasmin is in the team as a single soldier specialized in protecting the commander. Her every action prioritizes protecting the overall commander. From this perspective, she has done nothing wrong!"

Selena smiled at the young man in front of her like a smiling tiger, making Kevin shiver with fear.

Selena held the bow in her hand and her cold gaze fell on the three young men in front of her. She smiled and said, "I'm responsible for this mistake, so I will indulge your youthful spirit this time. But remember, this is the only time. On a real battlefield, even if your comrades die in front of you, you must remain calm!"

"Because once you act impulsively, you not only risk your own life, but also the lives of your fellow soldiers!"

Everyone present stared at the girl who was about the same age as them, feeling an inexplicable sense of being cared for and taught by a "senior". They quickly dismissed this ridiculous idea when they looked at Selena's face that seemed to be only seventeen or eighteen years old.

Richard knew the topic was over and smiled playfully as he leaned in and said, "Mrs. Anderson, how should we proceed?"

Selena looked down at the battlefield below and saw something interesting through the mountains and forests. She smiled and said, "Get ready for a decisive battle!"

Everyone present was dumbfounded. It's not that they couldn't fight a decisive battle, but the timing was too sudden and unexpected.

Richard frowned and said, "Isn't it too early? Mrs. Anderson, didn't you say we would soon face a group of 'lone wolves'? They still have over a hundred people, and we still have an absolute advantage if we fight!"

In the impression of the military school students, lone wolves refer to people who have been forced into a corner. But now, Thomas and his team still have over a hundred people, and it doesn't seem like they've reached the end of the road yet.

Selena looked at the group of young people and smiled, "This timing is just right. If you face them and don't have the determination to win even if it costs your life, you will be the ones who lose!"

A group of people froze again, looking at Selena with a hint of suspicion in their eyes.

Even if Thomas and his team were powerful, in a situation where there were more than forty people on the opposing side, they couldn't possibly win no matter how they looked at it.

Only Kevin seemed to understand, with a pensive expression in his eyes.

However, Selena didn't explain and instead looked at the setting sun, which was as red as blood.

At the foot of the mountain, a group of more than a hundred people appeared, running wildly like a raging dragon with their teeth bared and claws out.

Selena's face showed a faint smile. "Here they come!" she said.

The group of people looked at Selena's people with suspicion on their faces, but their gaze unconsciously shifted downward.

Then they were horrified. The terrifying momentum emanated from the students who were charging towards them, each shouting and screaming, with red eyes and fierce expressions like lone wolves.

"Kill—" This deafening word echoed throughout the mountains and everyone shuddered, feeling a surge of blood rushing from their feet to their heads.

The only one who wasn't frightened was Selena. Her clear eyes began to darken.

She transferred the bow in her right hand to her left hand and slowly raised her delicate right hand.

At that moment, whether it was Kevin standing beside Selena or all the student conductors in the broadcast room, they all turned pale.

This gesture was—

When that delicate hand was raised above her head, Selena's entire aura changed.

Her gentle breath was completely restrained. She became powerful, cold, and majestic, like an insurmountable mountain and sea.

Selena looked down at the enemies rushing towards her like a tide, wanting to tear her apart with their fierce momentum. A cold smile appeared at the corner of her mouth as she swung down her hand heavily.

“Kill—” With this earth-shattering word, the students standing next to her felt a terrifying numbness in their nerve endings. Their bodies reacted before their minds, fiercely rushing out with their guns in hand.

“Kill!!!”

Under the blood-red sun, Thomas stood at the back of the group, raised his head, and stared at the figure on the mountaintop behind the enemy.

It was a girl, unbelievably young and beautiful. But he didn’t overlook her gesture just now.

Raising her hand to command meant—

You die or I die, no surrender!

Chapter 1014 Victory

Thomas’s eyes were filled with a surging battle spirit, and his fierce roar echoed through the mountains via the radio.

“Brothers, don’t worry about how many enemies there are, or how many bullets they have. Don’t fear their terrifying commanders! As long as we charge through and take down their commanders and mechanics, we win! Think about our comrades who were eliminated by the enemy. Don’t you want to give them revenge by slapping the enemy hard in the face? We’ve been suppressed for so long. Don’t you want to show them that we’re stronger, and that we’re the winners? You are the best students of Union University and the strongest! As long as each of us kills at least two, the advantage will be on our side. Don’t spare any effort to take them down! In the end, victory will surely be ours! Everyone, listen to my commands, give it your all, charge through and grab their commanders—”

The students in Kevin’s team became even more bloodthirsty, their eyes turning red, biting down hard on their opponents, embracing the fierce momentum of even if they get eliminated, they must take down at least two opponents. They managed to pull back a number of team members.

At this point, the number of people fighting had greatly decreased.

In the live streaming room, a group of students watched with excitement, their scalp tingling.

“I’ve never seen such a realistic battle before, it’s giving me goosebumps!”

“The morale of Thomas’s team is terrifying. If Kevin’s team doesn’t take action soon, they will lose!”

“The battlefield is truly ever-changing. Kevin’s team just had such a big advantage, and now they are being overtaken!”

Hattie stood at a high point, watching the chaotic battlefield, and pulled Selena’s sleeve. “Selena, Yasmin and her team have eliminated a lot of people.”

Selena rubbed her head. “They need to learn a lesson, otherwise they will suffer a great loss in a real battle in the future.”

The biggest flaw of these young talents was that they had never experienced failure and were too arrogant. If they were not corrected now, this fatal weakness would cost them their lives in the future.

Hattie understood what Selena meant and didn't say anything more.

Selena remained silent, while the students in the live streaming room grew increasingly frustrated and anxious, banging on tables and emitting shrill cries.

"Miss Turner, you need to come up with a solution quickly, or our team will lose!"

"I'm so confused! What's going on? Her gesture just now scared me, but why is she not doing anything now?!"

"I'm angry meow! If this continues, more and more people in our team will be eliminated, and we will lose, lose, lose!"

"I feel sorry for Kevin and the others. We were clearly in a winning position, but with such an unreliable commander, our victory is slipping away..."

At this moment, gunshots were heard all over the battlefield. Thomas's team was killing more and more fiercely, while Yasmin's team suffered heavy losses. Some students who couldn't hold on subconsciously looked towards Selena's location, but in that distracted moment, they were eliminated by the enemy.

"What the hell! What did they eat to suddenly become so powerful?!"

"What's wrong with you guys? Biting people?!"

"As long as we win, anything goes! Who cares how we do it!"

But now they couldn't retreat. Besides fighting hard, there was no other way out. The group could only keep retreating.

Thomas dared not be distracted and kept a close eye on the battlefield. Jessica stood next to him, holding a gun to protect him. Looking at the situation, she smiled and said, "Are we about to win?!"

But Thomas was not so optimistic. He watched Selena closely and gave the order, "All the snipers who have not been eliminated must withdraw and aim at the enemy commander. Ready to fire!"

The snipers in the team immediately withdrew and found hiding spots, pointing their guns at Selena, who remained motionless.

Jessica looked at Selena, who had not moved, feeling uneasy. "It's weird. Their commander hasn't taken any action even though so many of their team members have been eliminated."

Thomas looked in Selena's direction, recalling her previous actions, his eyes shining with deep thought. Although he could not guess Selena's intentions for now, he couldn't let this great opportunity slip away. Thomas put aside any unnecessary thoughts and focused on the present.

"Now we have completely turned the tide! The enemy is powerless against us, and victory is within reach!"

"Brothers, charge forward, break through their defenses, capture their commander and mechanic, let the enemy see our strength and courage, and tell them that we are the true warriors and heroes!"

"Now, kill—"

At once, gunshots rang out in the team, and the attack became even more fierce. The sound of fists hitting bones echoed everywhere.

...

In the live broadcast room, people watching Kevin's team were almost defeated and were shouting in anger.

Seeing that the team was about to be finished, even Kevin, who was usually calm, began to feel uneasy. Selena, who had been silent all along, finally took a few steps forward.

Thomas saw her coming out and immediately ordered, "Shoot now!"

His intuition told him that they could not let Miss Turner speak, otherwise, the victory that was about to be won would be in vain.

The sniper hidden in the dark immediately pulled the trigger.

Bullets were fired continuously.

Yasmin and others were shocked and about to defend, but they were frightened by Selena's momentum and rushed past without caution.

At this moment, Selena had no one by her side except Hattie.

So many bullets were fired at her-

At once, many people in the team were distracted, and then they were once again wiped out by the opponent.

If Richard had not been quick to snipe Yasmin's opponent, she would have been out of the game as well.

Kevin looked at the scene, his eyelids twitching, and two words came to his mind.

-We're done!

Everyone in the live broadcast room and on-site thought that Selena was suddenly hit by such a big wave of bullet attacks and would definitely be out of the game.

If it was just a command to exit, at least Kevin could make up for it, but Selena was the team's mechanic.

If she was out of the game, it meant that the whole game was over.

In the live broadcast room, there were only screams of anger.

At this moment, even Thomas's breathing was irregular.

Is it over?!

As a group of people stared at her, Selena slowly hooked up a slightly creepy arc at the corner of her lips, and her clear voice echoed throughout the venue –

Chapter 1015 Who Won?

"Do you want to win?"

At this moment, whether it was the people on the scene or those in the live broadcast room who were shouting loudly, they were all stunned.

In their minds, the same thought flashed through:

How come Miss Turner hasn't been eliminated yet?!

There was also no signal indicating that the game had ended.

This meant that Miss Turner had indeed not been eliminated.

The people in the live broadcast room quickly began to rewind the footage, and were shocked to discover that all the bullets that had been shot at her had "just missed," while Selena was standing there, completely untouched by any of the attacks.

"Not a single bullet hit her! What incredible luck!"

"Do you think it was an accident? I don't think so..."

"It must have been an accident. If she could anticipate all the angles in advance and dodge them so precisely, how terrifying must her perception be..."

...

The people in the live broadcast room could discuss it, but at this moment, no one in the circle was paying attention to this.

As soon as Selena spoke, the bodies of everyone on Kevin's team shook, and they let out a heart-wrenching roar:

"Yes!!!"

If they really lost in a game that they had been winning, they would have no place to go at Union University!

It would be too embarrassing!

The feeling of watching victory slip away from their fingertips was far more painful than having no hope at all.

Selena said coldly, "Then go back and kill them!"

"Look down at how many of your comrades' 'corpses' are lying under your feet!"

"If you don't want to see your enemies stepping on your 'corpses', rushing over to capture your commander, and arrogantly declaring your defeat, making fun of you, then go back and fight with all your might!"

"After the game is over, everyone who survives will be rewarded!"

"Those who were killed because of their pride and carelessness, I will soon let them know why flowers are so red!"

Selena's eyes became cold and dark, and a ferocious smile appeared on her beautiful face. "If any of you dare to lose for me -"

Everyone on Kevin's team, including the "corpses" lying on the ground, were frightened by her words.

In the next second, everyone started an unprecedented intense counterattack with loud screams.

"If I don't show my power, do you think I'm a sick cat?"

"Brothers! We absolutely cannot lose! Stand up and kill them!!"

"Kill!"

A terrible morale and killing intent soared into the sky.

Thomas was a bit confused about the situation. Although Selena didn't say anything inspiring, the opposing team suddenly swept away their previous despair and became abnormally high-spirited.

But this confusion didn't hinder his thinking. Thomas immediately stood up and shouted, "Attention everyone! Success or failure depends on this moment! As long as there are bullets in our guns, charge out and hit them hard!"

"Even if you don't have any bullets, charge out for victory. Even if we die, we'll die in this place!"

"Kill!"

The gunfire scattered, and the firepower exploded. Everyone's heads were buzzing from the shock.

This was the craziest real battle in Union University's history...

In the live broadcast room, everyone was stunned by the scene.

[???

"Oh my god, what did Miss Turner do to Kevin's team? Her one threat overshadowed so many of Thomas's words?!"

"Hiss, it's terrible. I can't even tell who's going to win now!"

"Who won? Who won? Who won?!"

...

At the beginning of the battle, the number of survivors on both sides rapidly decreased. Everyone fought with all their might!

Perhaps because they had never fought so happily before, they used bullets, fists, legs, knees... some even used their teeth.

In the end, many people couldn't even distinguish between friend and foe.

In the final moments, when the last bit of sunlight disappeared behind the horizon, the gunfire on the mountaintop finally ceased completely.

In the short few seconds after the last gunshot, no one knew which team's members had fallen.

A group of exhausted young people lay on the ground, their ears still ringing with the thunderous sound of gunfire, and the excitement and blood in their hearts couldn't dissipate for a long time.

They looked up at the gradually darkening sky, their eyelids the only thing they had the energy to move.

I don't know who started laughing first, but gradually the laughter spread to everyone. In the end, the entire arena was filled with the laughter of the "corpses". "Hahaha... It feels great! So much fun!" "I've never had such a fun fight before!" "Who won?" "I don't know." "By the way, who remembers how I died?" "As if anyone could remember..." "Hahaha, I'm still alive..."

Under the dim light of the sky, a faint sound of footsteps suddenly echoed in everyone's ears. A group of people looked up and saw that the two teams were formally meeting.

At this moment, all the "corpses" were startled and opened their eyes wide. "Are these the only two left standing?"

"Oh my god, is the fate of the decisive game really in the hands of these two commanders?"

"No, no! If it really comes down to having the commanders fight, we will feel ashamed. Does anyone on the other side have the energy to come and fight me?"

Thomas looked at the girl across from him. She was too young and beautiful to be involved in the battlefield. But perhaps only he and Kevin knew how terrifying she really was.

There was no winner or loser in this game. The current situation was brought about by this girl's efforts. Thomas spoke first, "Thank you, Lady Selena."

Selena smiled slightly, "No need, you guys have to escort the mechanic to the finish line next, be careful on the way."

Thomas's eyes flashed with a hint of darkness. He nodded at Selena and then led the only two remaining standing members of his team, Jessica and the main team, to leave.

The people lying on the ground stared at them curiously. "Are they just leaving like that?"

"If they didn't say it, I would have forgotten that we still have to escort the mechanic to the finish line..."

"Forget it, we've been eliminated already. Thomas and his team can handle the escort task and then we can go back..."

Selena turned to look at the few people behind her, Kevin, Yasmin, and Richard. Richard said, "Mrs. Anderson, let us escort you to the finish line." Selena smiled, "Was it a fun fight?" Richard replied, "Of course!"

Selena smiled and took Hattie's hand, walking towards the roadside. The group of people behind them waved goodbye from the pile of "corpses".

Chapter 1016 Recruiting

"Commander, have a safe journey!"

"We're waiting for you at the exit for your reward!"

Selena stopped in her tracks, turned her head, and smiled, “And punishment.”

The military academy students who were eliminated due to distraction and underestimation let out a collective sigh.

The students in Thomas’ team followed suit and shouted out loud, fearing that they would be left behind.

“Beautiful commander, remember to come to our Union University when you leave!”

“There are so many handsome guys at Union University, us single dogs are all welcoming you with both hands and feet!”

Selena smiled slightly, withdrew her gaze, snapped her fingers in response, and then walked into the gradually darkening forest with Kevin and the other two.

...

The sky outside the window had already darkened.

There was a difficult-to-describe silence in the spacious conference room.

Everyone knew that Diana’s plan to gild the Lily had completely failed under the circumstances where the practical exercise had already ended.

On the contrary, Selena’s performance was so outstanding.

Under the watchful eyes of the big shots in District 6 and so many students from Union University who openly expressed their admiration, the Research Institute could no longer suppress her sharpness as they had done before.

The Shaw family had spent so many resources, but in the end, they had made a wedding dress for Selena in vain.

It was easy to imagine how ugly the faces of everyone in the Shaw Group were.

Freddie closed his eyes, took a deep breath, and suppressed the ruthlessness and ferocity in his eyes.

In contrast to them, everyone in the Turner family was overjoyed, and their eyes were even more respectful towards Selena than before.

The contrast in the expressions of the two parties was like night and day.

An unexpected round of applause broke the icy atmosphere.

The group looked up, and Sidney was applauding on the big screen with a smile, “You did a fantastic job! It’s been years since I’ve seen such enthusiasm in a practical exercise!”

After him, Lorenzo also began to applaud, “The purpose of Union University’s practical exercise is to allow every participating student to play to their strengths, gain experience, and make up for their shortcomings... from this perspective, this year’s practical exercise was very successful!”

The two big shots praised, and even if the others were resentful in their hearts, they had to show a happy and approving expression and clap along.

Selena's performance was indeed excellent, and they couldn't lie with their eyes open.

After applauding, Sidney suddenly said, "I think this little girl is a good material for a commander. District 6 is short of people. When she comes out, let her report to us in District 6."

Patrick's eyelids twitched, and before he could refuse, Lorenzo spoke first, "District 6 is full of old roughnecks. They can't take care of girl. When the little girl comes out, let her report to us in District 1. We also have a few girls there who can take care of her... When that little girl comes out, let her report to us in District 1."

Sidney immediately said, "No way! You have so many commanders in the first district, you don't need this little girl..."

The two bosses started to openly fight over Selena, which scared the high-level executives at the research institute. They knew better than anyone that Selena's commanding abilities were secondary, but what was most important was that she was a powerful mechanic. If she went to the first or sixth district, it would pose a threat to the other districts!

At this thought, the group of people could no longer hide the truth and secretly revealed Selena's true value to their backers. So, within ten minutes, while the research institute was still quiet, the bosses from other districts were already slamming their desks over the screen.

Patrick's face turned black as he couldn't agree to send Selena to suffer. As for the Shaw family member sitting next to him, their face was also dark with anger.

Before the competition, everyone thought Diana would be the one to get the spot in the sixth district. However, the final result was that Selena was fought over by the other districts, and Diana was left ignored. The comparison was too harsh, and the Shaw siblings couldn't hide their ugly expressions.

The only person in the meeting room who was not affected was probably Osvaldo. His gentle and longing gaze was fixated on Selena, calculating the time of her arrival. Without any opposition, he didn't have to worry about the competition, and if Selena simply rushed over, she would be here soon.

Osvaldo's gaze remained fixed on Selena, so when he sensed the danger before anyone else, his entire being became terrifying. With a "crack," he crushed the teacup in his hand...

Meanwhile, Selena led Hattie with Kevin leading the way, and Richard and Yasmin guarding the two girls in the middle. The group of five advanced through the dark and quiet forest.

Kevin observed the surroundings while saying, "It's too late today, let's find a place to set up camp and continue our journey tomorrow."

No one objected. After the exhilarating battle earlier, except for Selena and Hattie, the remaining three people were nearing their physical limits. Kevin found a small stream, caught a few fish, and prepared them for dinner. Richard patrolled the area nearby to prevent any other dangers.

Hattie helped Yasmin set up the tent.

Selena walked around with the bow in her hand and finally stopped by the stream.

It was quiet around her, except for the sound of rushing water and the wind blowing through the trees.

Selena looked across the stream to an open area, where any danger could be easily spotted.

She didn't see anything wrong.

Selena rubbed her eyes and tightened her grip on the bow, scanning the area with a cold gaze.

Generally, Union University wouldn't send students to a place with too much danger for training.

As Selena was about to search the grass again, a hand pulled her sleeve from behind. "Selena, it's time for dinner."

She turned around to see Hattie holding a golden and crispy fish in front of her.

Selena took the fish from the tired-looking girl and led her to sit by the campfire, holding her hand.

Yasmin handed a freshly roasted fish to Hattie and said, "You guys should rest after eating. Tonight, the three of us will take turns on watch duty."

Hattie thanked them and took the fish.

As they talked about tomorrow's plan, they didn't notice several huge and ferocious figures silently walking out of the dark forest.

Their hungry and fierce eyes reflected the dim firelight, as well as the small and vulnerable figures in the light.

With patience, they surrounded their "prey" inch by inch, snarling and emanating a terrifying aura.

...

With a crisp sound of a shattered water cup, a sudden cold and murderous aura swept over them.

Chapter 1017 Hidden Platinum

The noisy crowd was suddenly silenced as they focused on the screen in front of them. Their faces turned pale when they saw what was happening.

"Selena, run!" Patrick couldn't control his emotions and stood up, urging Selena to escape.

After the live broadcast ended, most people left the room, but some stayed behind out of boredom. When they saw the unexpected guest in the forest, they turned pale with fright.

"Kevin, Yasmin, run!"

"Richard, turn back!"

"Quick, inform the teacher and principal to send a flying vehicle!"

Selena tore off a piece of fish and fed it to Hattie, while pondering if she had missed something. She had a sense of unease.

When she sensed some vague malice directed at them, Selena's eyes turned cold. She immediately grabbed Hattie's wrist and said in a low voice, "35 degrees to the left!"

As an outstanding sniper, Richard always held a gun even when eating. When Selena gave her command, he reacted instinctively, raising his gun and shooting in one fluid motion. The series of actions took less than a second.

The gunshot hit one of the creature's shining green eyes, causing it to howl in anger. When Richard fired the shot, Selena pulled Hattie and barely avoided the creature charging at them.

Yasmin and Kevin reacted quickly, rolling on the ground to avoid the lethal danger.

The five of them looked up and saw the menacing green eyes of a pack of wolves staring at them from a dangerously close distance.

They were surrounded!

Richard and the others broke out in cold sweat. If they had reacted slower, they would have already become the wolves' dinner.

Yasmin held her knife tightly, her eyes fierce. "We are surrounded!"

"Kevin, go protect Lady Selena and Miss Hattie!" Kevin wiped his face and quickly regained his composure.

Yasmin slowly approached Selena and Hattie, while the pack of wolves continued to watch them hungrily.

Richard was facing a wolf, baring its teeth and staring fiercely at him, ready to attack.

Although Richard's fake bullets didn't pierce the wolf's eyes, it still got injured.

Richard clenched his gun, sweat dripping down his forehead, but his eyes were focused and terrifying.

If he had real bullets in his gun, he could easily kill the wolf, but with fake bullets, he couldn't harm these thick-skinned animals.

After a standoff of less than ten seconds, the wolf in front of Richard attacked first, leaping forward with its limbs and opening its mouth wide.

Its massive body rushed towards Richard.

Richard repeatedly pulled the trigger, but the fake bullets only slowed the wolf's movements, and had no effect.

With a fierce look in his eyes, Richard charged towards the wolf, holding his gun and willing to die trying.

At the same time, Kevin and Yasmin were also under attack by a pack of wolves.

Selena's cold gaze was fixed on a spot behind the wolf pack, and she touched Hattie's hair.

Hattie understood her meaning and snorted coldly, taking a whip from her waist and leaping out with her petite body.

With her iron whip, sharp as a snake, she accurately hit the eye of the wolf fighting Richard. The deep red blood spurted out, and the forest echoed with a wailing of wolves.

Hattie's whip never stopped, and she attacked the wolves attacking Yasmin and Kevin again, freeing the three of them from danger in an instant.

Three wolves surrounded them, but were nailed to the ground by sudden arrows, spurting blood. The serene forest was filled with the sounds of fierce and angry wolf howls.

Yasmin and the others, who had just escaped danger, stared in amazement at the delicate and beautiful sisters.

Hattie's small body was agile in the midst of the wolf pack, and her whip, which was either exquisite or ferocious, was cracking through the air.

Every time she hit, she left large patches of blood on the wolves' vital points.

Selena stood behind her, her expression cold, and her slender hands pulled out the bow she had been holding all along.

Whenever a wolf got close to Hattie, Selena's arrow would hit its vital point with deadly accuracy. Richard muttered to himself, "Fuck..."

In the live broadcast room, almost everyone watching the live stream at the moment had a stunned expression on their faces.

"What the f*ck..."

"I thought she was just a vase with a tag-along, but she's actually a hidden expert with expert?!"

"Why do I feel like these sisters are treating this group of crises... like a training ground?!"

"Isn't it just a training ground? Miss Turner hasn't even made a move, she just let her sister kill her way out... the problem is, she's doing it so effortlessly..."

"How old is Miss Turner's sister this year?!"

"I suddenly feel like I'm useless..."

...

The students at Union University were shocked, while the atmosphere in the research institute was different for each person. Osvaldo's slender fingers covered his eyes, hiding the trembling emotions beneath.

Although he knew Selena wasn't as delicate as she appeared and had Fraser secretly following her, he was still scared. This little devil...

Patrick sat heavily back in his chair, rubbed his forehead, and then let out a deep breath.

Compared to their relaxation, many high-level officials from the research institute and the Shaw family were frowning.

If Selena could just die in the midst of the wolves, how convenient that would be. But looking at Selena's cold eyes on the screen, everyone knew that the likelihood of that hope coming true was very slim.

An ordinary person surrounded by beasts would have been scared to tears by now. But this woman was too calm! She even had the mood to train her sister in this kind of environment... simply unbelievable...

Vivian looked at the bloody Hattie in the midst of the wolves and sneered, "Does Mr. Riddle know how Miss Turner is treating her own sister?"

Patrick gave her a cold glance. "Miss Shaw can call and ask."

Vivian's face turned cold. Hattie had a grudge with the Riddle family, which wasn't a secret. She had gone to complain to Leon, but it was no use. But that didn't mean it was useless to complain to Daphne. How could any elder of such a noble family as the Riddle family be willing to let their own young miss train into a cold-hearted little killing machine?

Vivian hugged her arms and sneered, waiting to see how things would turn out.

...

In the forest, Hattie had walked through the pack of wolves and came back again, her clothes and face covered in blood...

Chapter 1018 I'm Not Afraid

Hattie stepped back in front of Selena, holding the blood-stained whip with exquisite features and a chilling aura in her eyes. Selena pulled back her longbow, her sharp gaze aimed at the spot she had been staring at.

After a moment of shock, Richard and the others quickly regained their composure, standing in a circle with icy expressions as they faced off against the wolf pack. The wolves had been ravaged by Hattie and were now ferociously circling them, baring their teeth as they searched for a chance to attack again. The thick scent of blood permeated the cold night wind.

As the tension rose, the wolf pack suddenly became restless, their savage eyes fixed on Selena and her companions, becoming even more violent. Selena's sharp gaze also grew colder.

As they watched with bated breath, a fierce shadow emerged from the darkness and walked towards Selena's arrow. It was a giant white wolf with hair like needles and oily green eyes, cruel and calm like a king of beasts. Kevin's pupils suddenly shrank. "It's the alpha wolf!"

Richard and Yasmin also felt their breath become heavy. Everyone knew that the alpha wolf's den was not far from the wolf pack's gathering place. If it called for more companions, they might not make it out alive.

The wolf king walked elegantly around them, clearly searching for their weakness. However, no matter where it went, Selena's bow and arrow followed closely, with the cold iron arrowhead always aimed at its vitals.

The wolf king bowed and bared its terrifying fangs, ready to attack. Selena's black eyes seemed to flash for a moment. She stared motionlessly at the pair of eyes that emitted a cold and ruthless aura, and her eyes rolled over with cold and murderous intent.

In that moment, the four people closest to her, including Hattie, all lowered their heads in fear, with their hair standing on end. The wolf king let out a low growl, as if it had encountered a natural enemy, and its huge body trembled slightly.

Animals act on instinct, so they can feel more clearly than humans who the most dangerous person is. Selena's eyes grew darker, and the terrifying scent of blood around her became so thick that it seemed to materialize.

The wolf king suddenly raised his head, and his fur bristled as he howled towards the moon above.

"Ah—"

The next moment, the wolves surrounding Selena and the others began to scratch the ground with their limbs and let out varying lengths of low growls.

As they growled, they bowed their bodies and began to back away.

After retreating a distance, the wolf pack turned around and quickly left.

The wolf king looked at Selena one last time before disappearing into the dark forest with the pack.

The surroundings once again fell into silence.

The wind blew, and the campfire burst into sparks.

If it weren't for the bloodstains on the ground, one could almost believe that the crisis just now was just an illusion.

Selena slowly put down her bow, her dark eyes still looking towards the darkness in the distance. She raised her hand and pressed Hattie's cold shoulder.

Hattie's stiff body only regained consciousness at this moment.

The young girl looked up at Selena's pale face, unable to detect any fear in her expression. She suddenly threw herself at Selena, hugging her waist tightly.

Selena looked down at her and her voice was slightly hoarse, "Did I scare you?"

Hattie shook her head and said loudly, "Selena, I'm not afraid!"

Selena was stunned for a while, and her cold expression finally began to melt, with a gentle smile on her face. "It's okay."

The three Union University students finally recovered from the terrifying atmosphere and looked at Selena with eyes that inevitably contained something else.

Richard wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. "I almost knelt down in fear!"

Yasmin was blunt. "I owe you my life!"

The two soldiers thought Selena was impressive, but didn't think much beyond that.

Kevin, however, thought about something deeper, but he didn't show it.

He just looked at Selena with a complicated expression and said solemnly, "Miss Turner, we will remember your lifesaving grace!"

Selena looked at the three teenagers with a smile. "Instead of that, shouldn't you be more concerned about the safety of your classmates?"

As soon as these words were spoken, Richard and the others' expressions instantly became serious.

...

In the live broadcast room at this moment, when the students saw that their classmates were safe, they all breathed a sigh of relief, followed by a confused look.

[What just happened?]

[Can someone tell me... why did the Wolf King suddenly retreat with his pack???]

[I saw Miss Turner staring down the Wolf King... could it be that she scared him away?!]

[What nonsense is this? Miss Turner may be amazing, but she's still a person, and a delicate young girl at that. How could she scare away the Wolf King?!]

[This isn't the time to worry about that! Miss Turner is right, we should be worried about Thomas and the others. If the wolf pack attacks Kevin and them, they will definitely attack them, and they may not be so lucky...]

...

After Selena's words fell on the island, the scene fell into silence.

Kevin and his friends knew better than anyone that they had escaped everything because of Selena.

But Thomas and his team did not have Selena.

Once they ran into the wolf pack...

The three young men trembled in their hearts.

But their task was to protect Selena. If they went to rescue Thomas and his team, leaving Selena and Hattie alone here... that wouldn't work!

For a while, the three cadets were in a dilemma.

Kevin lowered his head in thought for a moment, and when he looked up again, he made a decision. "Miss Turner, I will go find Thomas and his team. Yasmin and Richard will stay here to protect you and Miss Hattie!"

After speaking, Kevin turned to Richard and Yasmin by his side. "Protect Miss Turner and Miss Hattie, and make sure everyone comes back alive!"

Richard clenched his gun and was about to say something, but heard Kevin say sternly, "This is an order!"

Yasmin frowned and said coldly, "They have real bullets!"

No matter how you think about it, they are safer than them!

Upon hearing this, Kevin did not show any relaxation on his face, but said, "It is precisely because they have real bullets that I must go as soon as possible."

Yasmin looked at him with a stern expression.

Kevin looked down at the blood on the ground and said, "Do you know why Miss Turner and Miss Hattie only wounded those wolves and didn't kill any of them?"

Yasmin was moved in her heart.

Kevin's gaze fell in the direction where the wolf pack had left. "Wolves are the creatures with the strongest sense of race and revenge in this world. If we kill one of them, we will face revenge from their entire pack in the future!"

Chapter 1019 Even if he has shortcomings, so what?

"If someone in Thomas's team really kills a wolf, there are only two possible outcomes for us."

"Either we kill the entire pack of wolves, or we all die here."

However, it is impossible to kill the entire pack of wolves in the forest unless the school sends a large force.

Yasmin grabbed his hand and said coldly, "Thomas knows this too. They will use firepower to scare them away, just like us!"

Yasmin didn't want to leave Thomas behind.

But in this situation, it was obviously more dangerous to let Kevin walk alone in the forest.

The voices of the three teenagers arguing could be heard through the ears. Selena sat by the stream, soaking her handkerchief, gently wiping the blood stains off Hattie's face, looking at the child's cold and innocent eyes, secretly sighed.

But her face didn't show any difference, she gently asked, "Hattie, do you still have the strength?"

Hattie nodded, "Selena, I can do it!"

Selena gently touched her face, stood up, and said softly, "Let's go."

After speaking, she took the lead and held Hattie, walking towards a certain direction.

The three teenagers turned their heads instinctively when they heard her words.

Richard asked, "Where are you going, sister-in-law?"

Selena's pleasant voice penetrated the darkness and clearly entered the ears of the three teenagers.

"I said, I won't let the students of Union University encounter danger... Let's go find them together."

Richard and the others were all stunned in place.

After realizing the meaning of Selena's words, they hurriedly caught up.

...

In the live broadcast room, a group of people breathed a sigh of relief when they saw this scene.

Anyway, one more person meant one more help. Kevin and his team could scare away the wolf pack just now, and now they shouldn't have to worry too much.

There is nothing more important than the lives of classmates.

[I have decided that Miss Turner will be my idol from now on!]

[Just for her loyalty, she deserves our respect!]

[I just hope that Thomas and the others have good luck and don't encounter a wolf pack. Or even if they do, no one really kills a wolf. As long as Kevin and his team come, both sides will be safe!]

The students of Union University, separated by the screen, did not know why the wolf pack suddenly retreated, but they were grateful to see Selena giving up her safety to save others.

...

In the research institute, Patrick's heart that had just been put down was raised again.

His slender fingers pressed against his forehead, his lips turned white, as if he wanted to say something but couldn't.

In any other Turner family member, they would have come forward to help, but Patrick didn't want it to be Selena. She was just a girl after all. However, it seemed like Selena never realized that, ever since she returned to the Turner family, she had taken on all of their struggles and battles singlehandedly, including the consecutive assassination attempts and poisonings, and she hadn't become weaker at all.

In that moment, Patrick suddenly empathized with Osvaldo's helplessness. He looked up at the man sitting closest to Selena. Osvaldo also looked at Selena with a gentle and focused gaze, as if she was his entire world. Everyone could tell at first glance that the man was looking at his beloved girl.

Patrick's heart trembled slightly. He used to think that, given this man's personality, he was not a good match for Selena at all. But in that moment, he suddenly realized that even if Osvaldo was a paranoid and ruthless man, if he could love Selena to the bone, put her above everyone else, and give her everything he had, then what did it matter if his personality was flawed?

Patrick slowly lowered his eyelids, concealing the slight glimmer in his eyes. No one else in the room could sense the inner turmoil of the young master of the Turner family.

The people from the research institute watched as Selena just escaped danger but willingly threw herself back into it for the sake of a few cadets. Some thought she was foolish, some sneered, and some even gloated. After all, there were too many people in this meeting room who hoped that the Miss of the Turner family would never return.

The expressions of the Shaw family members were hard to read – whether it was good or bad. Selena going to save someone meant that she might still encounter danger. If Selena died, she would no longer pose a threat to them. However, Diana was on Thomas' team. If Diana died, the secret of the "Sacred Pearl" would never be uncovered, and the large investment made by the Shaw family would be in vain.

As the interest groups were pondering, suddenly there came a heavy-footed sound from outside the door. Except for Osvaldo, everyone on the scene instinctively looked over.

When they saw the man walking in with a cold aura, Henry's face changed slightly. In the end, he couldn't hide it...

Christ walked in irritably, and his eyes swept over Osvaldo, revealing a sinister look.

However, when his gaze fell on Selena, who was walking in the forest on the big screen, his brows furrowed. "What is she doing?"

Even if it's a competition, there's no need to rush into the forest at night.

With only a few people, running around in the forest at night, who knows what dangers they might encounter?

The people next to him looked at each other, not knowing what to say.

Christ's cold gaze swept over them, "Why are you all mute? Can't you speak?!"

The person caught by Christ's gaze trembled, "Miss Turner and her team were attacked by a pack of wolves just now, and now... we're going to rescue them!"

Christ was stunned at first, then seemed to think of something, and laughed forcefully, "Good! You're all doing well!"

Patrick sensed that there was more to his words, and his expression grew cold, "What do you mean, Mr. Poole?!"

In theory, Union University would not send its students to such dangerous places.

However, a large pack of wolves appeared in the forest where the students were participating in the competition, and there may be other even more dangerous things. This does not seem like an accident, but rather... it seems deliberate!

Christ's eyes stared coldly at Henry. Henry met his sinister gaze and frowned, "Mr. Poole, your grandfather is not feeling well, you should go back and take care of him more."

Instead of coming all the way here to see a woman!

Christ's lips curled up with a slightly bloody smile, "My grandfather is old and I should go back and stay with him!"

Henry avoided his murderous gaze. The others on the scene had heard something from the conversation of a few people.

Patrick's face was extremely cold.

Freddie sneered.

Christ didn't speak, he just pulled out a chair and sat down next to Osvaldo.

Osvaldo seemed to be unaware of the tense atmosphere on the scene, and seemed to have not noticed Christ's arrival...

Chapter 1020 Entangled and Trapped

Christ's gaze was fixed on Selena without moving. He glanced at Osvaldo, his eyes slightly darkened. If Selena was really in danger, this man would not sit here calmly.

Osvaldo didn't move, which meant that Selena was capable of dealing with these crises.

Thinking of the things Dexter had done behind his back, Christ's expression became cold and dangerous.

...

In the dark forest, Selena skillfully used the bow in her hand to shoot a snake that was resting by the road. Her voice was cold, "Is there any way to contact them?"

Kevin shook his head, "The school has strict regulations. During the competition, no communication tools are allowed."

Selena quickened her pace, "What about the competition venue? Will Union University conduct an advance survey?"

Kevin's heart sank. He said coldly, "Yes! Usually, the school will send a large group to inspect the place where the military academy students are competing, remove some of the more dangerous threats, and finally insert the chess piece at the end."

"The teacher in charge of selecting the venue this year is from the Command Department. After leaving, Union University will definitely conduct a detailed investigation!"

Selena did not continue this topic, only saying, "Save energy, we must find them as soon as possible!"

The possibility of the Research Institute's four-person team dragging behind was very small, plus the entire team was not harmonious. Once they encountered a wolf pack, the situation of the four Union University students would be very dangerous!

...

Selena's guess was not wrong.

Because of Selena's outstanding performance today, the four people in the Research Institute had a grudge against Thomas and his team after the big melee ended.

Diana was anxious about how to explain to Freddie after going out, and her face was cold and distracted all the way.

When they rested at night, the four people from the Research Institute sat by the bonfire. Diana's cold face and fierce look made people shudder.

The other three were complaining in a low voice while roasting the fire.

"It's so cold!"

"It's pitch black, so scary. Do you think there will be wild beasts in the forest?"

"We came in once and didn't get anything. If we knew the end, we wouldn't have come."

Now, after suffering so much, they didn't get anything, and they didn't know how to explain to the Shaw family after going out.

After all, this was a live broadcast, and the three of them didn't dare to speak too obviously. After Miriam finished speaking, he turned to look at the military academy students patrolling around them.

"Hey, we're hungry. Haven't we found anything to eat yet?" Miriam said, subconsciously angry, but then remembered this was a live broadcast and tried to suppress his anger as much as possible, saying, "There are four of you, two of you can patrol while the other two can search for food. Isn't that perfect?"

Thomas gave them a cold look and replied, "We have to make sure the area is safe before we can look for food. Please wait a bit longer."

Miriam couldn't hold back his anger anymore and thought that since they were destined to get nothing, why should they endure this and let these military academy students get away with it? Thinking this way, he shouted loudly, "I think you're deliberately targeting us!"

"You kept it from us and cooperated with Selena to end the game early, deliberately making us look bad!"

"Now you're intentionally starving us. You are students of Union University. Are you not afraid that we'll report you to the Union University president for violating discipline after we leave here?"

Jessica had just finished checking an area and walked out of the dark forest when she heard this accusation. She immediately burst into anger, "Are you handicapped or just lacking in hands or feet? Can't you see we're busy? Can't you find food for yourselves?!"

Diana was startled by the argument but only glanced at them indifferently and ignored them.

Miriam saw her reaction and became even more arrogant, "We are senior mechanical engineers from the research institute. Our hands are national treasures. If we hurt our hands while searching for food, can you afford to compensate us?"

"Or maybe you are deliberately trying to harm us and disable our hands?"

Jessica was furious and about to rush over and hit someone. Thomas coldly held her back and said, "Jessica, calm down!"

Miriam saw the situation and became even more sharp-tongued, “You say you’re not trying to harm us, but you’ve attacked Diana three or four times and not only slandered her but also injured her. What kind of conscience do you have?”

“Could it be that you are actually colluding with Selena? You deliberately helped Selena disable Diana’s hand in the game just to get Selena promoted to the position of head of the science research department and thus qualify for entry into the sixth district?!”

This sudden black-and-white reversal caused a stir, not only among the four military academy students on the scene, but also among everyone in the live broadcast room.

[Damn it! Those idiots from the research institute! They’re in a hurry and still want to smear Thomas and our Union University!]

[What the hell, what kind of ghosts did the research institute send in this time?!]

[They dared to use the dirty tricks of their research institute on our Union University... It just makes me laugh!]

[Is this the goddess you worship and defend?! Diana is just a load of crap!]

...

In the research institute conference room, as the situation became urgent, no one expected that Diana’s small group would suddenly pull off such a stunt.

At this moment, everyone in the research institute had faces as black as the bottom of a pot.

This kind of conspiracy might have worked in the past, but at this critical moment, wasn’t it just seeking death?!

Freddie looked at the faces of the six district bosses collectively turning sour and his temple veins popping out.

Henry’s phone buzzed urgently.

If it were under normal circumstances, he would have hung up without hesitation, but with the six district bosses watching, Henry had to answer the phone with a heavy heart.

“Henry, what kind of crap did you send in? Four of my Union University students can’t even compare to their two hands?!”

“What a noble research institute! I can’t wait to see how precious those little bitches’ hands are when they come out!”

Henry’s ears were almost deafened, “Principal Marshall, this is all a misunderstanding—”

“Don’t argue with me!” Principal Marshall roared in anger, “I’m telling you, Henry, this isn’t over!”
