

Love Rats 361

Chapter 361 Taking out anger for Selena

Osvaldo's movements gave a beat, and his gaze was sharp.

Georgia met his gaze and a dense chill burst out on her spine.

Unlike looking at Selena with the kind of tenderness, he looked at her as if he were a dragon whose scales had been touched.

That exquisite face was at the moment permeated by a certain haunting emotion.

Georgia almost froze under that cold sight that enveloped her.

But after only a few seconds, Osvaldo lowered his black butterfly-like eyelashes, covering the gloom under his eyes, only the strength of his arms around Selena tightened.

The others looked at Georgia with suspicion and disgust.

Even though she didn't like Selena, how could she pick on someone's boyfriend for the first time and curse the young couple like that?

And the cynicism in Georgia's eyes was that obvious.

They wondered if she had an ulterior motive for smearing Selena with such hysterical disgust.

Selena swept her eyes at Georgia, and squeezed the fingers of Osvaldo.

Osvaldo's lips curved up tenderly and he placed one thing in Selena's hand.

Selena looked at the object in her hand and smiled, "Are you all wondering why I was the first one to come to Georgia, after the scandal about me at Creephia University emerged?"

The group turned to look at Selena in confusion.

Yes.

It was only now that they remembered that even if Selena and Georgia had known each other before and had a grudge, why had she come to Olnrith University at this time to look for Georgia?

And to slap Georgia hard twice when they meet?

Billy sank his face and asked the question in his heart instead of the crowd, "Lady Selena, do you mean that that incident, most likely, was done by her?"

Hearing Selena's words, Georgia, who had fallen into fear, raised her head and stared deadly at Selena, a touch of panic and sharpness spilling out of her eyes, "Selena, don't frame me, it's you who did the scandalous things and was exposed, what does it have to do with me?"

A trace of dark coldness slid across Selena's eyes, she raised the corners of her lips, "In fact, this is not the first time that Georgia has met my boyfriend, last night, she was invited to my home as my best friend."

Georgia's face, instantly, twitched hard.

There was an uproar as condemning eyes were turned towards Georgia.

Georgia had met Selena's boyfriend last night?

Then that she just loudly and angrily cursed, saying that Selena was kept by an old man's words, was a lie?

Even Judy, who had covered her mouth until now, turned her incredulous eyes towards Georgia.

Those who can go to a prestigious university like Olnrith University have at least a decent moral and trivial outlook.

It was precisely because they believed their schoolmate that they were angry with what Selena had done and helped Georgia to accuse Selena.

But what if from the beginning, Georgia was lying and deliberately slandering and discrediting Selena?

The students of Olnrith University all carried angry faces.

Especially the few girls who had just accused Selena, questioned, "Georgia, is what Selena said true? You met Selena's boyfriend last night, you knew that the incident was fake, yet you are still deliberately smearing and leading us to help you scold Selena."

Georgia blushed and her first reaction was to deny it.

If only Selena was here, it didn't matter how she denied it, but Selena's boyfriend was here, and if he saw her telling lies, without even the most basic bottom line, what would he think of her?

But immediately afterwards, a self-deprecating smile appeared on Georgia's face.

The way that man looked at her was similar to looking at a stone on the side of the road, he didn't even bother, he didn't care if she was good or bad.

Thinking of this, Georgia staggered to her feet, a near-mad smile on her face, "Selena, Judy is able to prove that I have broken off friendship with you for three years. How can a shameless, trifling slut like you be worthy of being my friend? And how could I possibly go to you in private?"

She snorted, "You think too highly of yourself."

When the words of Georgia fell, Osvaldo took hold of Selena's wrist and raised her hand high in the air, slapping Georgia across the face.

He moved so fast that Georgia was still indulging in the pleasure of sarcastically trampling on Selena before she recovered and she flew out.

She spun around, before finally falling into the flower bed with a loud thud.

After the nerve-paralysing sensation, bone-chilling pain burrowed into her bones. Georgia's body convulsed, her long hair draped down, covering her face and expression, and only her shivering body proving that she was still alive.

A dead silence fell abruptly over the scene.

Judy, who was just about to speak in solidarity with her, winced and covered her mouth with a shudder. Everyone was taken aback, looking at the man standing behind Selena and taking a few steps back in horror.

No one expected that a man who looked so gentle and stunning would get angry and hit someone.

Even Selena's eyes were wide open, she was stunned.

She looked at the way Georgia was spasming in pain, and then looked at her hand that did not feel the slightest pain, her expression was somewhat intriguing.

Osvaldo was expressionless as he looked down at Georgia lying on the ground, his eyes were sharp.

But then he reacted to the fact that such a ferocious move might have scared Selena, so almost in a moment, he collected the hostility in his eyes.

He made a rare outburst to explain, "She called you names and slandered you."

As a boyfriend, watching his girlfriend being denigrated, abused and belittled in this way, how could he still maintain his gentlemanly demeanour and not take action?

So it was definitely Georgia who was too indebted to the beating, and not Osvaldo who was not gentleman enough.

Selena found comfort in the cause of her inner shock and blinked.

She gave a bright smile, "It's okay, I told Leia before, it's best to beat her until she can never speak again, I never thought this wish would come true."

This slap had dispelled all the hostility and anger she had been holding all morning.

Without giving the students of Olnrith University a chance to accuse Osvaldo, Selena handed the object in her hand to Eduard, elegant and domineering, "If, after reading this, you still decide to continue to defend Georgia, then I will have to fight Olnrith University to the end."

Chapter 362 His eyes are sharp

Eduard took what Selena was holding.

Selena finally glanced at Georgia, smiled lightly, and after greeting Zachary, she took the hand of Osvaldo and, under the escort of a group of black-clad bodyguards, turned around and left.

Everyone was shocked by her aura and style.

Waiting for Selena to get into the car, Leia raised her hand, pointing out those few girls who had just scolded Selena, and spoke with a smile, "You guys remember to go and apologize to Lady Selena, or else-"

With that, she broke a piece of iron bar in her hand with a "click".

The many medical students at the scene, as if they had heard the crunching sound of a human cervical vertebra breaking, were stunned as they looked at the young girl, who was only 17 or 18 years old, with horror on their faces.

Judy was shaken to the core.

A man's head is not as strong as an iron bar.

The girls, pale and flustered, nodded.

Leia clapped her hands with a smile, carried her skirt, and bounced off to chase after Selena.

Only after she had gone did the crowd wipe the cold sweat from their foreheads, their eyes falling in unison on the small monitor in Eduard's hand.

Eduard took out his phone, plugged it in. After watching, he sneered, threw it to the others and turned to walk away.

Students from Creephia University gave Georgia a cold look and left as well.

Those who remained in place looked at Georgia in shock, their eyes filled with disgust and contempt.

"Georgia, didn't you say that you hadn't seen Selena? Then how do you explain that you sat on the dining room of Selena's home last night and ate with her?"

"What's even more disgusting is that Selena kindly invited you to be a guest, and when you saw her boyfriend, you even stirred such a vicious provocation. How can our school have someone like you who is full of lies and has no moral or trivial values?"

"No wonder Selena suspected her, if it were me, I would definitely think she did it too. It's sick."

"I'm so angry. Everyone leave it alone, she deserves it even if she is beaten to death by Selena in the future."

Georgia, who had fallen to the ground, trembled physically and

The group left in a fury.

Only Georgia, who was lying on the ground, and Judy, who was sitting on one side, were left in the same place.

Judy looked at the video, her eyes were full of disbelief. She stared at Georgia, coldly questioned, "You lied to us, you don't like Selena at all, much less care for her, you want to destroy Selena."

...

After returning to the castle, Selena took a laptop and was just about to go upstairs, but Osvaldo took her hand.

Selena looked up and met his dark, sullen eyes.

Selena was stunned for a moment, then frowned slightly and explained in a soft voice, "None of these things are true, give me some time and it will be resolved soon.”

For the rich family, honour is greater than everything else.

Although they were secretly married, some of those friends of Osvaldo already knew about their marriage.

She had caused such a big scandal, causing the Anderson family in the capital to feel humiliated, and at this time, there was no telling how many people were watching the joke of Osvaldo.

If it was anyone else, she would have been killed.

The fact that Osvaldo did not lose his temper with her, but personally went to pick her up and help her solve the trouble, Selena felt his trust, so she decided, personally, to take action and solve the scandal as fast as possible.

Osvaldo’s eyes darkened, and there seemed to be some emotion in his eyes that flashed extremely as he looked at her and said softly, “I’ll fix it.”

Selena was flabbergasted, “What?”

Osvaldo gave a smile, his voice was gentle, “I will solve it.”

Selena looked at his unadulterated black eyes.

She had long been used to solving her own problems and had never entertained the thought of relying on others.

Especially this is not her home.

Nor was Osvaldo someone on whom she could rely without mental burden.

She did not want to owe him too much.

A trace of loss swept across his eyes, mixed with a touch of depression that had existed before, and most of all turned into a heart-wrenching emotion.

He lowered his eyelashes and his delicate brow, with more than a hint of heartache.

Long and slender fingers brushed the corner of Selena’s lips, the man’s gentle whisper seemed to come from the end of the abyss, “Selena, you’re just a girl, you shouldn’t face these.”

She should be dainty, pretty, carefree princess who cries and fusses, instead of being slandered to the point where everyone mentions her with disgust and humiliation.

How could he spare those who hurt and desecrate her?

How could he let her go, on her own, to face the overwhelming malice?

He lowered his eyes, hiding the anger and violence.

Selena’s heart trembled slightly, her delicate red lips moved, “But, I...”

Noticing Selena’s faltering, Osvaldo restrained the hostile look in his eyes and revealed a smile on his face.

It is impossible to say whether it is tenderness or paranoia.

He leaned closer and helped smooth out the hesitation and unease in her eyes, his voice dripping with reassurance, “I’ll handle it, just give it a try, okay?”

Selena met his compelling eyes, always feeling that she was about to step into some trap, but not feeling the danger.

There was just a certain indescribable apprehension that made her inexplicably nervous and restless.

Osvaldo saw her eyes widen like a small animal sensing danger. Frowning, he inquired, “Is your family pressuring you?”

The expression of Osvaldo was bitterly cold, but his gaze was tinged with laughter, and he said unhurriedly, “My father said that if this matter was not settled within three days, he would expel me from the family.”

Leia, who had just stepped out close enough to report the news, stumbled on her feet and her eyes went wide.

A few seconds later, she covered her face and walked away.

It's over.

First he was contradicted by his daughter-in-law, then his son tarnished his reputation and prestige. Will her young master really not be beaten to death by that big shot?

Selena was relieved that it really had something to do with the family's internal conflicts.

It was indeed more appropriate than her for Osvaldo to step in.

Selena smiled, and after a hint of deliberation, he finally let go, "Okay."

Osvaldo smiled.

Selena looked at Osvaldo, a trace of coldness swept through his eyes, and said in a low voice, "If you catch those people, let me see them."

The matter of Selena's statement being tainted had upset her for a long time, so naturally she would not easily let go of anyone who was involved in it.

Osvaldo stroked her hair, and the corners of his mouth lifted as he gently responded.

...

Chapter 363 The Wave of Public Opinion

Olympus Group.

Luke saw Selena's new scandals on the internet early in the morning.

People from the public relations department came ask several times if they should step in to solve the problem, after all, Luke had said before that Selena was now Olympus Group's boss, and the whole Olympus Group must defend her unconditionally.

But it was all stopped by Luke.

Selena was slandered, and what Osvaldo had to do was certainly not to squash it.

Don't overestimate his humanity.

Inside the spacious office, Luke leaned against the table, his eyelids twitching and his expression turning particularly off after receiving Leia's call.

That said, how on earth did this nature of Osvaldo come about?

His family is noble, he is outstanding, he grew up with no lack of love, how did he grow up to be so unfeeling?

Other boys, even those of a quiet and refined nature, at least have a rebellious period and are committed to antagonizing their fathers or something, but not Osvaldo.

He has always been the same since he was a child.

The only exception is probably Selena.

Other people have a reason to be perverted, but he has no reason.

It can only be put down to genes being too sick.

Luke sighed slightly. He admonished, "Just keep an eye on Lady Selena lately, don't let anything happen to her."

As long as Selena was safe and sound, nothing else mattered to Osvaldo.

Leia said loudly, "Yes, Mr. Jordon."

Having said that, Leia hung up the phone.

As Luke was just about to put his phone aside, there was a swarm of messages reaching his phone.

Luke raised his eyes with a hint of puzzlement, and when he tapped into the Olympus Group's staff group, he saw a group of girls sending messages frantically.

–Mr. Jordon is so handsome.

–Mr. Jordon is amazing.

–Mr. Jordon’s style is scary but, he is really handsome.

-Mr. Jordon, you have personally taken action, does it mean that we finally don’t have to be silent anymore and can start fighting back?

Luke was confused.

He looked carefully at the content, and finally found a screenshot of an unique style of tweet in the chat log.

–If you can’t keep your mouth shut, sew it up, and if you can’t keep your hands under control, chop it.

The flat words on the screen inexplicably had a striking intensity.

And when he looked at the account, it’s the familiar account that pretty much everyone who knows.

Luke looked at the message that had appeared out of nowhere on his account.

This sly style, which reeks of blood and evil even through the screen, is obvious at a glance from whose hand it comes.

Perhaps he has really ordered someone to check the addresses of those who have slandered and humiliated Selena, and is ready to chop off his hands and sew up his mouth.

Luke rubbed his brow with a headache.

Why would Osvaldo use his number when he vent anger for his wife?

Luke’s gaze turned abruptly deep.

Surprisingly, it wasn’t Selena who called him, but Osvaldo struck.

This denial meant that this matter had been handed over by Selena to Osvaldo?

Luke drew a deep breath of cold air.

Did Selena know that she was letting a horrible creature, whose scales had been touched, out of its cage?

How many people will die?

But after Selena had been so humiliated and falsely accused, it would be impossible to expect that man to take it lightly.

Luke laughed coldly and sent a message out.

–All know what to do?

-Yes.

–Received.

–Promise to get the job done.

–Don’t worry, Mr. Jordon, we won’t stop until he apologizes to Lady Selena on his knees and cries for mercy.

The young girls of Olympus Group are acting in a very weird way.

Seeing that everyone had started to act, Luke took the phone and was about to call Selena, but someone else called in first.

Luke’s gaze flickered slightly when he saw the flashing number.

After a couple of seconds of hesitation, he picked up tersely and smiled, “Ma’am.”

The gentle and wonderful voice of Lauren came out of the phone, “Luke, do you have time this afternoon?”

Luke smiled cynically, picking up his jacket as he headed out the door, “Of course.”

...

And at this moment on Weibo, a group of netizens who were slandering at Selena froze when they saw the post that popped up out of nowhere.

Many of those who were just about to speak and scold Selena inexplicably felt a chill run through their bones.

After a moment of shock, these men were deeply concerned that their authority had been provoked and began to bite back frantically.

–Hah. Our own staff did something scandalous and disgraceful, and instead of firing Selena, Luke came to blame us..

–sit and wait for evidence that you sewed up your mouth and chopped your hands. If you don't come and sew up our mouths and chop our hands, you're not manly, Luke.

–If they are not related, why Luke defend Selena? Who in Creephia hadn't heard of Selena's infamous reputation?

–I thought Selena was pitiful and Leah was hateful, but now I know I was naive, and some people's schemes are really disgusting.

In a flash, it seemed like the entire internet flocked to Luke's Weibo account with extremely vicious insults and abuse, overwhelmed with voices that wanted to ruin Selena.

...

In a villa complex, Leah took her phone and saw on Weibo the public opinion that had blackened Selena, the corners of her lips curled into a smug yet malicious smile.

She had finally given Selena a taste of what it was like to be abused and trampled on again, unable to lift her head.

And when that man sees these things, will he still like Selena?

Wouldn't he feel revolted and disgusted when he saw Selena?

With this wave of scandals, even if that man would still want her, the people in his family would definitely look down on her and would never agree to her entering the family.

As soon as Leah thought that Selena had returned to the wretch whose reputation had been ruined and who was disliked by everyone, she felt immense joy.

As she was deploying what to do next to ruin Selena more completely, the maid walked in from outside, "Miss, Mr. Walson is here."

Leah's gaze flickered and she raised her head.

Originally, she was ready to give up on Dominic, except that the Riddle family and the Walson family...

Chapter 364 Helping Selena to clarify?

Being collaborative in preparation for the filming of 'Love in City', her attitude towards Dominic can naturally no longer be as perfunctory as it was in the past.

Add to that the fact that she has been removed from gentry and she has nothing but shares in Riddle's. To re-enter the ranks of the gentry, Dominic is now undoubtedly her best bet.

For a while now, their relationship has drifted back to the old sweet days.

It was just that Dominic had come to her at this time, did it have anything to do with Selena?

Leah is not stupid, on the contrary, she is a very clever and cunning woman.

But at the moment, she was confused as to the intention of Dominic coming to her at this time.

"Tell Mr. Walson to wait for a while, I'll be down soon."

"Okay."

After the maid went away, Leah changed into a long white dress, put on light make-up and then headed out of the room in her wheelchair.

Dominic was sitting on the sofa when he heard the sound of wheels and looked up to see Leah sliding down the stairs in her wheelchair.

With a frown, he got up and walked over, helping Leah push the wheelchair to the sofa.

Leah observed his face and her heart sank slightly, but on her lips she asked in a kind and understanding manner, "Dominic, you've come to see me, is there something wrong?"

Dominic looked at her pale face. The Riddle family had recently had a lot of incidents, and Leah had been seriously injured, she was haggard and silent.

It was heartbreaking for Dominic to see it in his eyes.

He touched her face and asked gently, "Leah, did the doctor say when your hands and feet will heal?"

Leah smiled, the right amount of weariness in her eyes, "Don't worry, Dominic, the doctor said my hand and foot will heal in less than a month, it won't affect my participation in the perfume competition."

She has confidence when it comes to perfumery competitions.

Riddle's reputation is currently in tatters and funds are in short supply, so the Walson's has injected a large portion of the funds to fill that hole. If in the end Leah fails to win the trophy, or if 'Love in City' does not become a big hit, then not only will Riddle's reputation not be preserved, but the Walson's will be dragged down.

Leah looked so confident, which made Dominic's heart feel relieved.

But this is not the main reason why he came to see Leah today.

Dominic looked at Leah's bright, watery eyes, paused for a moment and asked in a voice, "Leah, did you see the scandals about Selena?"

Sure enough, he was here for Selena.

While Leah laughed coldly in her heart, her brow furrowed and her smile faded.

She lowered her head, her face pale, and said coldly, "I don't know, I haven't read the news online for a long time, and I haven't paid any attention to Selena. Has something happened to her?"

The next words that came out of Dominic's mouth were inexplicably a bit unspoken when he thought of Leah's comments over the past two months.

But remembering the situation Selena is in today...

"Selena has been exposed to photos of her fooling around with men, and now the whole internet is slandering her, she's getting ruined."

Leah bit her lip for a moment before she spoke out, "So that's it, then Dominic, what did you come to see me for today?"

Dominic looked at her with obscure eyes, "Leah, it's your and my fault that Selena would experience such a thing, I hope we can step in to help her clarify the truth."

Leah jerked her head up and stared deadly at Dominic, "What did you say?"

Let her go and help Selena clarify?

Is she out of her mind?

It is impossible!

Dominic sank his face by her overreaction, his expression was more than complicated, "Leah, you know what happened in that case. If Selena hadn't been sick on her nineteenth birthday, and I hadn't left her alone in the hotel all day, she wouldn't have met these..."

Not to mention the subsequent repudiation of the marriage.

He and Selena would not have come to this point where they are strangers.

This is what Dominic regrets most in his heart.

So when he saw those news, he did not despise and denigrate Selena as he did in the past, but felt guilty and depressed, and always wanted to do something for Selena.

Leah was angry and snorted.

She guessed that Dominic's coming here today might have something to do with Selena, but how could she have imagined that Dominic would come to ask her to step in and go and help clarify things for Selena?

"I'm going to help Selena clarify and then have everyone scold me?" Leah sneered, her eyes stained with tears, "Dominic, you only see that Selena is about to be ruined, then don't you see my situation?

Because of my father, I have been living with the charge of being an illegitimate daughter since I was born, and because of you, I have even become the mistress that everyone is shouting and scolding."

"I'm already infamous and have nothing, and you still want me to step in to help Selena clarify. How can you be so cruel?"

Dominic looked at her teary face, seemingly struck by a great blow, his heart rose with pity and guilt, reaching out to hug her, "Leah, I didn't mean that, it's just that it was our fault in the first place, Selena she is innocent. I will take all the blame and consequences, and won't let you suffer any harm."

Leah laughed coldly and said through clenched teeth, "Why must it be our fault, instead of the fact that Selena is a slut and has been hooking up with those people behind your back for a long time?"

Dominic sank his face, "Selena is not such a person."

During this period of time, Dominic often thought of the Selena of the past.

The more he avoided it, the clearer those images appeared.

He remembered the well-behaved and lovely Selena who loved to follow him around and call him with a sweet smile before Leah had appeared.

He didn't know when her smile became less and less, and she became more and more silent.

Selena only had light in her eyes when she saw him.

In order to get a bit of his liking, she listened to Angie's lies, always wore heavy make-up, did all the silly things and turned herself into a joke.

No matter how much he humiliated and disgusted her, she always insisted on liking him and refused to leave him.

But now, that sweet, well-behaved, silent girl is completely gone.

She became a stranger.

These days, Dominic has been regretting, later on, why he did not treat Selena better before.

Since her mother's death, she needed his attention.

Dominic looked at the frozen Leah and repeated firmly again, "Selena is not a slut, it's our fault for hurting her."

Leah's pale lips trembled for a moment as tears abruptly welled up.

She felt sad.

Not pretend to be sad.

But she was truly sad.

Chapter 365 Start the counterattack

She had always thought that she had already snatched Dominic from Selena's hands a long time ago.

All these years, Dominic was her best weapon to hurt Selena.

But it was not until this moment that she was shocked to realise that this was not the case.

Even though she used all the means she could to make Dominic alienate Selena, dislike Selena, and loathe Selena, she had no way to make Selena disappear from Dominic's heart.

Dominic looked at Leah's teary eyes, but did not feel the slightest bit soft.

He even accused her in a rare cold word, "Leah, Selena is your sister, she grew up with you. Others don't know what kind of person she is while maliciously smearing her, but you shouldn't say that, especially when you know that it was us who wronged her in that incident."

Leah's heart trembled with anger.

If Riddle's hadn't run out of money, if she hadn't already lost her status as the daughter of a powerful family, she would have lost control and told Dominic to get out.

But she can't.

Dominic is now Riddle's lifeline, so even though she is angry and resentful, she can only endure it.

Leah lowered her head, her eyes were bleak and aggrieved, "I didn't mean that, it's just that... You know that I like you, and you know how badly my mum and dad and I were retaliated by Selena, and you still let me go to help her clarify. Dominic, have you considered my feelings? "

Dominic's face eased as he squatted down in front of Leah and tenderly touched her face, "Leah, I know that you, as a daughter, can't bear to blame your father and mother, but the reason why they were retaliated by Selena was because they were at fault."

Leah's body trembled again in anger, and her voice took on more than a hint of sharpness, "Dominic, how can you say that..."

Dominic's brow furrowed, "Then tell me, what is that game business case of Riddle's all about?"

Leah looked embarrassed, but she could not say anything.

"Even though Selena is not your mother's daughter, Mrs. Riddle shouldn't treat her so cruelly," Dominic was unhappy with Molly, "Mrs. Riddle was so cruel to Selena, she was already merciful that she didn't send Mrs. Riddle to jail."

Leah sneered.

Is it true that for men, what he can't have is the best?

When Selena was chasing after him, why wasn't he protective of Selena?

Leah lowered her eyes and said indifferently, "Dominic, I don't want to talk about this today, can you let me think about it?"

Dominic's brow was furrowed tightly.

He remembered that before he went out, he saw all those vicious curses all over the internet, Leah had to think about it, but Selena couldn't wait.

In case Selena can't handle it and does something stupid.

Dominic looked at Leah's pale face, "Leah, I hope you can understand, this matter was originally our fault, so we should step in to help Selena clarify. You can't, just because of your father and mother, fail to distinguish right from wrong. Think about it, I'll call you tonight."

Dominic finished speaking and turned to walk out.

Leah sat in her wheelchair for a moment before raising her hand and pushing the teacup on the table down heavily onto the floor.

There was a scowl on her pale face and a look of mad resentment in her eyes.

She wanted to destroy Selena and make her life worse than death, so how could she possibly go to help clarify it?

No way.

Leah opened her phone and saw the words of "Luke" blatantly defending Selena, and she smashed everything in anger.

What exactly is Selena's charm that can make so many men defend her?
She made a phone call, her eyes fierce, "Keep slandering Selena, as hard as it can be."

...

In an open-air cafe, Isabel had seen the scandalous news about Selena on the internet and only felt a great deal of pleasure.

Selena ruined her with the scandal, causing her to lose Phoenix Entertainment, until now she is afraid to go out, unable to hold up her head. Now it is Selena's turn to be unlucky.

A touch of sinister passed through her eyes as she looked across at Christ, hesitated and asked tentatively, "Brother, have you seen the rumours about Selena?"

If the woman Christ likes is really Selena, he should not be indifferent when he sees that Selena has fallen to this state.

Did she think wrong?

Christ held up a glass of red wine and smiled coldly, "This kind of tactics is useless to that woman."

This kind of despicable and vicious calculation can destroy ordinary girls, but against Selena, it will fail.

Isabel's heart was filled with jealousy as she bit her lip and asked in a soft voice, "Brother, how can you be sure that this is someone dealing with her and not her being this kind of person?"

Christ glanced at her and said carelessly, "You don't understand."

Selena has Osvaldo, how can she still have her eyes on other men?

Isabel was annoyed when she heard the fondness and appreciation for Selena in his tone.

But she had offended all of Christ's subordinates because of what happened last time, and everyone had recently been extraordinarily unhappy with her.

She has been careful.

Although nothing was asked, Christ's attitude made Isabel sure of one thing.

The woman that Christ had his eye on must not be Selena.

As such, if she was looking for an opportunity to get Selena killed, he certainly wouldn't have a problem with it.

Resentment swept through Isabel's eyes.

...

And at the moment, the internet is in an uproar.

The sudden and blatantly defensive remark by "Luke" made those netizens who thought they were righteous feel offended, and even some of those who had watched the show before joined in the ranks of scolding Selena.

Together with the netizens secretly bought by Leah, the entire Weibo feed is piled with Selena's scandals.

Even her previous results from her exams at Creephia University were outright said to be false.

The Riddle family began to whitewash themselves on a large scale in the mouths of a group of netizens. Some even blatantly describe them as "victims" and Selena as a vicious woman with a deep and wicked heart.

The smearers did their best to curse, humiliate, mock and slander Selena, as if Selena had some kind of grudge against them, and even if she took a walk, they could say she was seducing a man.

And some people who originally wanted to speak up for Selena, seeing such a horrible scene, did not dare to dabble in it, lest they would be targeted by this group of crazy-like smearers.

At the same time, there were people who were watching who were curious in their minds, since Luke had struck out, why didn't he do a PR clarification instead of sending out such a tweet that provoked more people to blacken Selena?

And just when the cursing was at its most intense, on Weibo the words changed.

Chapter 366 What a great deal of money

It started with a blatant tweet from the domestic perfume organisation on its official website, sending the wave of public opinion against Selena straight into overdrive.

Perfume Organization V: I am sorry to take up public resources at this time, our company has now decided to announce a message. In view of Selena's previous bad record, and this time such a scandal, the organizer @Time Group, perfume organization senior management, after discussion, decided to disqualify Selena to participate in the perfume competition, and again banned from the competition for five years. We hope you perfumers take this as a warning to behave themselves.

With this tweet, it was tantamount to completely stamping out Selena.

A: Selena entered a perfume competition? Laugh my ass off. How can a woman who is that kind of slutty and unpleasant still do that kind of elegant thing? To better seduce men?

B: A bad record? Am I the only one who is curious as to what exactly Selena has done that is so disgraceful that an organization as lofty as the Perfume Organization can't even tolerate her? Are you all still awake, Olympus Group? Look at what you are defending.

C: Selena has no business competing in such a high-brow contest. Perfume Organization is really righteous, if someone with bad record participate in the perfume competition, wouldn't it be a joke? For a while, the screen was full of praise for the impartiality and righteousness of Time Group and the Perfume Organization, cursing Selena for being a slut and Luke for being overwhelmed by beauty.

...

Inside the villa, Leah finally saw the image she wanted to see the most, so excited that she squeezed her phone tightly and laughed viciously.

Selena wasn't even qualified for the competition, how could Selena fight her?

The winner of this year's International Scents Competition will definitely be hers.

Selena will never in her life be able to turn the tables on this matter.

...

And at this moment, inside Olympus Group's conference room.

Luke received a phone call from the head of the perfume organization, "Mr. Jordon, I'm sure you don't know that the Selena you recommended has a history of cheating by seducing the judges in the perfume organization, and this time there was such a bad scandal that it brought a lot of shame to the perfume organization. The organizer is unhappy about this, so we decided to cancel her qualification to attend the competition. Next time before recommending a place, please examine the her character."

When the others heard these words, they carefully watched Luke's face.

There is a vague glint in the eyes of those in the perfume department.

Mandy squeezed her fingers tighter.

Selena has stirred up such a big mess for the Olympus Group and brought the Olympus Group into disrepute. As long as Luke gives up on her, the Olympus Group will be able to take off again.

She will certainly still be the most famous representative when the time comes.

Luke looked at the newly released tweet and the corners of her lips curled, "The organizer is displeased? So is the perfume organisation?"

The other side sounded unhappy, "Yes. With such a large area of negative press, if we agree to Selena's participation in the competition, the perfume organisation will be blamed."

Luke said, "Oh, that's easy, just swap you guys."

What is the use of keeping someone so unaware of right and wrong, and so ill-informed?

The other party was exasperated, "Mr. Jordon, what are you kidding? You don't want that recommended spot this year, do you?" The threatening taste was full of mockery, "Even if you and that Selena have good "personal relationship", you can't be so biased as to disregard the feelings of other perfumers."

The eerie voice was close to saying explicitly that he was Selena's man.

Luke uttered, "You will come and beg Lady Selena on your knees to take the spot."

After saying that, not bothering to talk to him, Luke cut off the phone.

The others in the meeting room instantly dared not speak.

The faces of a group of people in the perfumery department dimmed.

Switching organisers and members within the perfume organisation. What a big deal.

It really is true to the saying that Selena is not an employee of Olympus Group, but their God.

Luke flipped through Weibo, seeing that all the trolling was almost done, the corners of his lips curled into an icy smile, "Tell them it's time."

The group of girls in the PR department, who had been waiting for a long time, said with one voice, "Roger, Mr. Jordon."

...

Just when the opinion on Weibo, which was developing at its most intense, took a sudden turn.

First, those who were cursing Selena found themselves permanently blocked, and all their comments and messages could no longer be posted.

Immediately afterwards, all those scandals about Selena on Weibo started to disappear.

After just a few minutes, it was as if the entire internet had undergone a ransacking, all photos, rumors, anything that even slightly involved bad words about Selena disappeared as if swallowed by a bug.

The sudden and bizarre situation confused everyone.

The smearers, in particular, have all run to the Weibo administrators to report the incident, only to find that they can't even send out the most basic of conversations.

A group of people immediately shifted their position and went to Facebook, YouTube, Tiktok, etc. to prepare to spread the "crime" of Selena and Olympus Group, only to find that not only Weibo, but anything involving Selena's name would be immediately blocked by the system, and it was useless to use letters instead.

The whole internet was as if it had been subjected to a major purge, all the scandals about Selena disappeared cleanly, no nooks and crannies were spared.

Everyone was stunned by this.

But what shocked them even more was that Olympus Group's website, which had not been doing much, had posted a top notice.

—Those who defame and smear Lady Selena will be punished.

It attached a long list of accounts, marketing numbers, entertainment magazines, all those who forwarded those photos, and deliberately lead the opinions, distorting the headline to use Selena to get attention.

And at the end of the sentence is an arrogant statement: "The lawyer's letter has been delivered, please open the door and sign for it.

The crowd was taken aback when they saw the list.

Olympus Group's Counsel is internationally known to be difficult to deal with, there is never a lawsuit they cannot win, and those who are on the list are basically doomed.

How could Luke really pursue this openly for the sake of Selena?

And it's not just one headshot to make an example, it means a clear reckoning on a large scale.

A group of smearers who spend all day on the Internet were indignant, they just said a few words, they didn't scold or hit Selena, why did the Olympus Group go so far?

Those who were lucky enough not to be on that list and who had scolded Selena were all anxious. With such a big deal from Olympus Group, who could guarantee that they would not be the next to be approached?

And the smearers are all anxious at the moment.

Chapter 367 Selena's charity

The number on that list only purposely lead the opinion, using Selena's scandal to gain attention, and not abusive smear acts.

What would happen to the group of them who had blackened Selena to the point of no return when they were taken to court like this?

They remembered the words posted on Luke's private account, and in case he wasn't joking, their hands and mouths...

A collective shudder went through the group of smearers sitting in front of their computers.

For a while, they were quiet like never before.

And it was in the midst of this silence that a notice was posted on the official website of Creephia University.

Creephia University V: Selena's case is a deliberate attempt to smear her, and we would like to vouch for her with the reputation of a century-old university. She is a good student with excellent character and learning and kind disposition. I hope you will be strict with yourself and lenient to others before the truth is revealed.

The announcement shocked not only Weibo, but various circles.

Creephia University is a hundred year old famous school in Creephia, it is an existence high above the altar of God, representing absolute authority. They even brought out their hundred year old reputation, who would dare to openly doubt Selena?

Creephia University blatantly defended Selena, which in turn set off that announcement from the perfume organization, which seemed a bit ridiculous.

After all, Creephia University bet with its centuries-old reputation, so it's clear who wins and who loses. Immediately afterwards, as if they had discussed the matter, the major movie queens and movie stars of Olympus Group forwarded this announcement of Creephia University collectively in less than a minute.

Tina Burns: Idiots, you had a good time just now, didn't you? Just a few bad photos that were deliberately put up, and you're all enslaved to the masses, ridiculous. A bunch of brainless people who deserve to be forever hiding behind their computers, being a smearer who can't be seen on stage.

This actress is known for her hot temper, but this is the first time she has openly curse someone so much on the internet, leaving fans stunned.

Fans shouted at the bottom, "Tina, why are you so angry today?"

Tina replied to the fan, "I'm just lucky enough to be going to Lady Selena's drama to run for a role, so when I saw these idiots mindlessly cursing our boss, I naturally had to defend her.

Fans: Damn, Tina, you're a movie queen, how come you're reduced to running for a role?

Tina: Who specified that a movie queen can't run for a role. I've worked starting from playing an insignificant role, there's no shame in that, and it's a chance I've had to fight for. Jensen wants a role too, but Lady Selena did not want him, so don't worry, I'm definitely the most amazing insignificant role ever.

With this tone of voice, Tina is clearly not aggrieved and resentful of being forced by the company to speak for a newcomer, but on the contrary, she is quite happy.

Fans were instantly reassured.

The fans of the entertainment industry, especially the queen and movie stars, in order not to invite curse to their idols, have self-improvement provisions.

Especially since Selena is working for Olympus Group and Olympus Group's defending attitude is so obvious, so this group of fans did not participate in the previous smearing.

At this moment, hearing Tina say that her boss was being bullied, could this be tolerated?

The fight was about to start.

After Tina, Matthew's fans got involved, after all, Selena's kindness to Matthew was evident to all.

Matthew is still the lead actor in Selena's drama. He is out of town filming and does not know about it, if he did, according to his nature, he would never sit back and do nothing.

Tina's fans made the lead and were not banned, and Matthew's fans followed suit in order to help their idol repay the favour.

The two groups of fans teamed up and started looking for Selena's previous news, ready to help her clear her name.

And they did find something.

For example, it is surprising that Selena has quietly set up a charity foundation and an orphanage.

She spent 100 million on a plot of land on the outskirts of the city and invested another 100 million in materials and workers, and groundbreaking for the orphanage has already begun.

And there's a copywriter's promise that in the future, all the money made from Breaking Ground will go to a charitable foundation.

Two hundred million is a real record, and although Breaking Ground has not yet been released, the ratings of the TV series are visible, and no matter how much these things are, they cannot be faked.

Fans of both groups looked at this item and were silent.

A few seconds later, they acted individually and made a copywriting video, and added a video of Selena's previous exam at Creephia University and put it on the internet.

Then they rolled up their sleeves and began to angrily fight back all those who had just scolded Selena.

And that video, like a gust of wind, took over the headlines of the major networks.

Some people who were previously unconcerned were somehow touched.

A: two hundred million. Selena only has a total of two hundred million on hand, right? It was the liquidated damages that Mr. Jordon helped her get from the Riddle family. The company of her mother is still held by Leah.

B: Seeing Selena build an orphanage makes me a bit sad, probably because she grew up living less than an orphan, that's why she wants to build an orphanage, right?

C: The video is much more informative than the photos, so I'm asking if those who have blackened Selena based on just a few photos feel humiliated.

The smearers were blocked and could not do anything even if they wanted to argue, and they were afraid of being chased by Luke, so most of them went quiet.

But there are many others who are not convinced and have opened another account to fight back. They got smart, and curse without Selena's name.

D: Isn't it the usual routine to use charity to clear name? Her mother left her so much money, yet she only took 200 million out, Just to coax you fools.

The segment was just sent out and was immediately cursed by many fans.

E: You fucking idiot.

F: Selena take 200 million, you can not even spare 20 cents, watch your mouth!

G: Why don't you show us what you can do? I'm telling you, just because Selena took 200 million for charity, I dislike whoever scolds her. Only you brainless big idiots would believe that a good-looking girl who quietly does charity is that kind of person.

H: Reported, girls, don't fight this guy, it is a waste of time. Everyone, go report him, so that their accounts will be banned!

Chapter 368 Protective

There was a lab session in the morning and Zachary walked into the lab.

He went there late today, those postgraduates from before had already arrived. Zachary had just walked in when there were a few strange eyes looking towards behind him.

Zachary knew what they were looking at and frowned, but didn't say anything.

The others didn't mean to ask, but casually looked away and withdrew their eyes.

After such a big scandal and a messy experiment, it is normal for Selena to give up.

Summer spoke up, "The teacher is coming soon, so get ready for class."

A group of people began to put on white coats and prepare surgical instruments.

A few minutes later, Mr. Newman pushed open the door and walked in, his eyes looking around the room and frowning, "Why is one missing?"

Summer said with a smile, "Professor, everyone is here, no less."

Mr. Newman looked again and finally landed his eyes on Zachary, "Why isn't that girl you came with yesterday here today?"

The crowd was stunned by the question.

In a place like the lab, it's all about strength and initiative, and there are plenty of people who can't adapt after one session and give up.

These professors are so intent on their research that they don't even ask if the new students come or not.

Now Mr. Newman had taken the initiative to ask a sophomore.

Summer pursed her lips.

Zachary's eyes lit up, "Professor, are you asking about Selena?"

It was rare for the professor to take the initiative to ask about Selena, so Zachary was worried that the professor might think that Selena had taken a leave of absence just after the class had started and had a bad impression of her, so he said, "Selena has encountered some difficulties, and the headmaster has given her a three-day leave to come back to class after three days."

Mr. Newman nodded, "I see, remind her that she hasn't turned in her lab data from yesterday, so don't forget to hand in."

Zachary was sincerely happy for Selena, "Yes, Professor."

Mr. Newman looked at the graduate students again, "Selena is news to the lab, there are many things she doesn't understand, you guys help her."

The postgraduates were shocked, Selena's surgery yesterday was clearly a mess, why did Mr. Newman still think so highly of her?

The group, very curious but not daring to ask more, responded, "Got it, Professor."

...

Douglas Lane slammed his phone on the table and said angrily, "Luke is really becoming more and more overweening, how dare he threaten us?"

A middle-aged man of medium build with gold-rimmed glasses and a svelte look on the side inquired, "What did he threaten the perfume organisation with?"

Douglas looked at the man, distinctly unhappy, "Mr. Burton, Luke said that if we don't let that Selena participate in the competition, he will replace the organizer and our group of people within the perfume organization who oppose Selena's participation in the competition."

A trace of what surprise flashed in Bob Burton's eyes, "Why does Mr. Jordon defend Selena so much?"

This is something that Douglas couldn't figure out either. According to reason, Selena's reputation was that bad, and if she was placed in any company, she should have been dropped a long time ago.

Luke, however, continued to defend her.

Bob said indifferently, "Olympus Group is a multinational company, although we are not afraid, but we should try not to offend it, so it is better to let Time Group take care of this matter."

Time Group is the organiser of the fragrance competition and is a multinational company.

Douglas immediately called the head of Time Group and told them what had happened. He was angered by Luke's attitude and told Time Group about Selena's seduction of the judges to cheat.

Time Group and Olympus Group are in competition, and when they heard that Olympus Group was defending someone with such a bad record, the leader sneered, "Got it, we'll take care of this matter."

Douglas hung up the phone, then remembered that the other party involved in that scandal in the first place was present, a touch of embarrassment passed over his face, "Sorry, Mr. Burton, I..."

Bob waved his hand, "It is okay."

Douglas breathed a sigh of relief and had a mocking look on his face, "Selena, despite being banned for three years, still dared to come to the perfume competition, she's really courageous."

Bob was surprised to hear that, "There is a law that prohibits people with a bad past from participating in perfume competitions, she can't make any waves, don't take it to heart."

Douglas sneered, "That's for sure."

...

The leader of Time Group thought that it was rare for them to pinpoint Luke's shortcomings, and after putting down the phone, he didn't even bother to investigate in detail, but opened the official website and questioned in a grand manner.

Time Media: The law stipulates that people who have a bad track record are prohibited from participating in all kinds of official competitions supported by the state, we are acting in accordance with the rules and regulations, but Olympus Group is openly threatening the perfume organization to replace Time Media in order to allow such a bad track record. Mr. Jordon, you have no bottom line and self-awareness now?

As soon as the tweet came out, it stirred up an uproar.

For just a moment, the others noticed the pattern too.

As long as they don't curse Selena, they won't be blocked, so a group of people all flocked to Time Media to express their opinions.

A: Olympus Group went too far. Time Media and Perfume Organization, as the organizers and judges of the perfume competition, are only following the rules and there is nothing wrong with them.

B: Olympus Group indeed makes people uncomfortable. Time Group acted according to the rules system, I am okay that Luke helped Selena to clean up to save reputation, but openly threatening Time Group goes too far.

C: Olympus Group is arrogant. Time Media is a multinational company, can Luke do something about it. Arrogance is a disease that needs to be cured.

D: The truth of the matter has not yet been clarified, but the perfume organization has openly removed Selena from the list. Is it fair for Selena? Only people from Olympus Group can be bullied by Perfume Organization and Time Media, but Olympus Group's rebuttal is not allowed.

E: That's right. Selena's scandal has clearly not yet been concluded, so why should they remove Selena from the list? The Perfume Organization and Time Media are blind, can't they see that Creephia University bets on Selena being wrongly accused with its 100 year reputation, and that charity video? How brainless does it have to be to dare issue such two statements at this juncture?

Just as the internet was buzzing over this matter, an account blatantly replied to Time Media.

—Olympus Group is not threatening you, but informing you that the organizer of this competition has changed hands and Time Media has been replaced, thank you.

And people who were arguing froze collectively when they saw the account that had appeared.

After a few seconds of dead silence, all those who read this reply were shocked.

Chapter 369 The women he protects

[Someone, tell me, am I blind?]

[I don't think you're blind, I saw it too.]

[The Riddle family from the capital.]

[Why would the Riddle family from the capital come forward to defend Selena? I think I have accidentally found out some secret.]

[I remembered a rumor, someone from the older generation in Creephia said that Selena's mother came from the capital and was a lady of some powerful noble family in the capital, could she be the Riddle's lady? Then Selena is...]

[Can there be any falsity since the Riddle family from the capital has blatantly defend Selena?]

[Sorry for the Perfume Organization and Time Media, as well as the people behind this thought Selena could be bullied at will, but it turned out to be a woman protected by a big shot.]

The leader of Time Media, seeing the message appear in the background from the Riddle family in reply to him, his mind went blank and he was somewhat stunned.

What's going on with this?

While he was flabbergasted, the door to his office was slammed open and the boss of Time Group barged in, smashing a document in his face, "What the hell are you doing?"

The person in charge's face stiffened, "Mr. Patel, people over at the perfume organization said that Selena was just an insignificant person, I didn't expect that..."

Mr. Patel pointed at his nose and raged, "Didn't you check? Are you blind, didn't you see how Creephia University was defending that student? Can't you see that she can just throw out 200 million for charity? Now, Time Group has not only lost the right to be the organizer, but offended Riddle's. Get out. You get the hell out of my company right now."

The man in charge was pale in the face, his heart hating Douglas who had urged him to use Selena to attack Olympus Group.

Compared to the Riddle family in the capital, Time Media is an ant to an elephant.

If he had known that Selena had connections with the Riddle family in the capital, he would not have dared to offend Selena if he had been given a hundred guts.

...

And at the moment, inside the perfume organisation.

Douglas was frozen by the questioning of the senior staff of the perfume organisation.

“President, I don’t understand what you are saying.”

The president of the Perfume Organization coldly asked, “Let me ask you, before you sent that disqualification of Selena in the name of the Perfume Organization, did you investigate the truth of this scandal?”

Douglas’ face was unpleasant, “The whole internet is scolding her, and those photos are all true, plus, Selena she has a previous record, when she participated in the audition three years ago, she seduced Mr. Burton and tried to get him to help her cheat. Does such a person still need to be investigated?”

Douglas said, glancing at Bob beside him.

Bob looked across at the group of people with a firm face and nodded, “President, although it’s a bit unwarranted to say this, Selena does have some problems with her character.”

The president glanced at Bob, his eyes paused slightly and fell back to Douglas’ face, “So you had no idea whether the scandal was true or not, you just relied on those things in the past, speculated that Selena had bad style, and then just issued that announcement?”

Douglas’ face changed, indignant, said with a frown, “President, treating Selena, there is no need to waste time checking.”

What does it matter if such a person, with no power and no reputation, enters a perfume competition?

The president’s face was even colder, “So you don’t know that Creephia University humiliated the Perfume Organization hard with a hundred years of reputation, vouching that her character was not in question, much less the fact that just that Selena, the one with corrupt character as you call her, secretly spent 200 million to build an orphanage, turning our Perfume Organization into a joke?”

Douglas’ face changed.

Bob’s gaze deepened slightly.

Douglas was about to argue, the president added, “You know even less, the Riddle family from the capital has openly changed the organizer, and demanded that our perfume organization give an account on this matter within today, otherwise we would have no need to exist.”

Douglas and Bob’s faces changed dramatically at the same time.

Douglas face stiffened, he stuttered, “President, the Riddle family from the capital is...”

“Hoodim Group, the Riddle family from the capital, a quarter of power in the capital, is that clear enough?” The president’s face was cold, “I originally thought that you had investigated the truth and determined that Selena’s character was flawed before you made such a justified announcement, but I never thought that everything was actually “you thought”.”

The president was exasperated, “Now the Riddle family wants an explanation from me, what do you think I should do?”

Douglas panicked, his forehead was covered in cold sweat, “President, I didn’t know that Selena was related to the Riddle family from the capital, that’s why I sent the...”

The president sneered, “You mean that if Selena had no connection to the Riddle family from the capital, you would never feel at fault?”

Douglas’ face stiffened, “President, I’m sorry, I’ll delete that tweet immediately and send an apology.”

“No need,” the president had ice in his eyes, “I am now officially informing you that you have been removed from the Perfume Association. This matter was caused by you, before you get out of here, you'd better take care of it. I don't care if you apologize or go beg Selena, if the Perfume Organization has anything to lose because of this damage, you'll be waiting for a letter from our lawyers."

Having said that, the president left with a group of angry looking people.

Douglas was so frightened that he could hardly stand up, he looked to Bob beside him and panicked, "Mr. Burton, what should we do now? I've offended the Riddle family from the capital."

Bob's face was white, he looked at Douglas, "The fact that the Riddle family from the capital stepped up for Selena does not mean that they must have a relationship. As long as it is proven in the end that it is indeed Selena who has lost her virtue in the first place, then you are just playing by the rules, even the Riddle family from the capital can do nothing to you."

Having said that, he turned and walked away.

...

Inside the castle, Osvaldo covered this matter, and Selena had no need to do anything.

He seemed to be afraid that she would be bored and had gotten two cats to keep her company.

Selena looked at the two newborn cats on the ground, both with white fur and black paws, some amethyst eyes and sweet purrs, which was adorable.

As Selena was teasing the cats, her mobile phone rang.

Leia saw that it was the school's number and handed the phone to her.

Selena picked up, "Zachary."

Hearing her voice, Zachary knew she was in a good mood and said with a smile, "Selena, Mr. Newman asked me to inform you to come to class in three days, and the data from yesterday's experiment should be handed over."

Selena dropped the teasing stick in her hand and yawned lazily.

Chapter 370

"Okay." Selena said to the phone.

Zachary explained some school matters to her before hanging up the phone.

After Selena put down her phone, she saw Leia standing to the side, looking at her with a somewhat serious expression as she knitted her eyebrows together.

Selena gave a smile and inquired, "What's wrong?"

Leia said, "Madam, Mr. Jordon wants to see you."

Selena raised her eyebrows.

If it was just Luke who had something for her, Leia certainly didn't have this look on her face.

Leia puffed out her cheeks, "He told me to send you to his house and instructed me not to tell young master."

That's why she is torn.

Osvaldo was her master, and she dared not hide anything from him.

Especially since Selena is in the middle of a public storm, no one can afford the consequences if something happens to her.

But it was Luke who said this, and in a serious tone, and Leia was worried whether there was really something that he could not let Osvaldo know about.

That's why she is torn.

Selena rubbed Leia's hair and said with a smile, "Go get the car."

Leia's eyes widened, "But young master said..."

"Mr. Jordon won't harm us," Selena smiled with all the calmness and intelligence in her eyes, "there should be something special.”

Leia was relieved when Selena said it was fine, and went to get the car.

Ten minutes later, Leia drove out with Selena.

...

Leah, who was constantly watching the trend of public opinion, saw that the Riddle family from the capital had come out to defend Selena, and a huge fear swept across her face.

She had once studied the situation in the capital, to a certain extent, because she wanted to enter the noble circle of the capital through Isabel.

So naturally she knew what the Riddle family from the capital stood for.

It is rumored that Selena’s mother, who came from the capital, was a young lady of a powerful family.

Could it be that Selena’s mother was from the Riddle family from the capital?

Leah was frightened and panicked, and her body trembled gently.

With the Riddle family from the capital backing Selena, it would be as easy for Selena to trample her to death.

After the bone-chilling fear, the jealousy in Leah’s heart grew stronger and stronger.

A pair of bright, watery eyes reveal an endlessly sinister look.

Why is Selena better than her in everything?

Selena looks better than her, has a more honorable status than her, is more intelligent than her, and has more talent than her.

Selena is a noble lady, while she is the illegitimate daughter that everyone shouts at.

When something happened to Selena, so many people defended her, and when something happened to her, everyone wanted her to death.

It seemed doomed from the start that no matter how hard she tried, no matter how much she exhausted herself, she would never be able to surpass Selena.

Jealousy was like a poisonous snake, devouring the woman’s heart, and Leah’s sharp nails pinched the palms of her hands.

Even if she couldn’t win anyway, then she would have to ruthlessly drag Selena down, stomp her into the mud and destroy her completely.

A twisted and frantic expression appeared on Leah’s face as she took out her phone, dialed a phone number and said in a cold voice, “Keep slandering Selena.”

A man’s voice came from the other side, “Leah, haven’t you seen what’s happening on the internet right now? Now as long as it’s slandering that sister of yours, you can’t even post words.”

What’s the point of posting more scandals if you can’t send it out?

The corner of Leah’s lips hooked up to a cold smile, “Can’t you broadcast live? As Selena’s “man”, you broadcast live, introduce your “romance”, you can definitely earn a lot of money.”

The man sneered, “You are really ruthless, but we are not idiots. So many people on the internet defend Selena, especially even a certain powerful family in the capital has come out. We want money, but more importantly, our lives.”

Leah said coldly, “That so-called powerful family in the capital, you don’t even need to worry about it anymore. Think about it, if Selena really had such a big background, would she still be bullied for so many years?”

It is indeed suspicious that the Riddle family from the capital, which has been indifferent to Selena, pops up and openly defends her.

Leah could not figure it out, so she used this reason to put off the man.

The man sneered, "So what do you mean?"

"I can raise the money," Leah hooked her scarlet lips, her eyes full of malice, "to guarantee your satisfaction, if you can produce solid evidence and confirm your relationship with Selena, you might even be able to become a son-in-law of a powerful family."

The man grunted coldly, clearly somewhat intent.

Leah continued to advise him, "Even if that powerful family really has a relationship with Selena, they will naturally find a way to block your mouth in order to maintain the family's reputation, by then it will be another sum of money. With a few words, you will be able to have enough money for the rest of your life."

"Well..."

Leah's face was all sinister, but her tone was gentle, "Even if the matter is exposed, you are only guilty of disinformation, at most you will be imprisoned for a few years. Such a small risk for a lifetime of glory and fortune, what is there to hesitate about? If you don't want to, someone else will..."

"Wait -" the man cut off Leah's words, "Pay me the money."

Leah smiled, with a grim look in her eyes.

So what if Selena is defended, as long as those things are not washed away, Selena will always be a shameless slut.

...

Leia drove Selena to an estate on the outskirts of the city.

She bounced out of the driver's seat, opened the back door and Selena stepped out.

Her long hair draped over her shoulders and she squinted slightly at the unfamiliar manor.

Leia had run up to ring the doorbell.

Not long after, the door was opened from the inside.

Leia escorted Selena into the room.

In the flower room on the rooftop, Luke saw Selena walk in through the surveillance and worry swept across his face.

He placed his hands into his trouser pockets and glanced behind him at the flower room, his tone sullen, "Madam, he grew up with this one treasure."

There is so little Osvaldo likes.

From the time he was a child, there seemed to be only Selena.

He was so precious to her.

Even fearing to frighten and scare her away, he went out of his way to hide his true nature and disguise himself as a gentle and nice person.

A fondness so deep that nothing can compensate for it.

The flower room was quiet and no sound came out.

Luke frowned and waited for a moment, then withdrew his eyes, put his hands into his trouser pockets and lifted his steps into the lift.

...

As Selena had taken a few steps, she saw an unexpected person.

Vivian was sitting in the garden, elegantly making tea. When she heard footsteps, she raised her eyes, glanced at Selena, and then withdrew her gaze.

It was as if they didn't know each other.

When Selena saw Vivian, her gaze went dim.