

Love So Sweet 319

319 Their Names on the Sand

When they came down, the driver from earlier was already waiting for them.

Bai Qi took Zhang Li Xue to visit a few attractions in the city. The two of them took a lot of photos together and Zhang Li Xue posted them on her social media.

The smile on her face was very apparent. The doting look on Bai Qi's face was too obvious. The couple looked very loving in their pictures.

Fang Su Jin stared at this picture and sent a comment. "Li Xue, are you on a honeymoon?"

A silly laugh escaped her. Fang Su Jin could already imagine Zhang Li Xue's shy face when she read the comment.

She was about to put down her phone when she noticed that someone had replied to her comment.

"Sister Fang, don't joke around."

The corner of her lips twitched when she saw Zhang Yi Hai's name.

As expected... this person would show up and fight with her.

Fang Su Jin stared at Zhang Yi Hai's name for a while. The last time she saw Zhang Yi Hai, the man had sent her home after accompanying her to eat some fast food.

They haven't seen each other ever since, but Fang Su Jin could sense that her fear of him had lessened greatly.

She no longer found Zhang Yi Han that scary. In fact, this young man seemed more reliable than she was.

Fang Su Jin heaved a sigh. She looked at Zhang Yi Hai's comment again, wondering if she should reply to him.

Just then, the phone in her hand chimed again. Fang Su Jin was surprised to see that there were three more replies under her comment.

She clicked the notification and laughed.

The three notifications came from the triplets. Each one of them copied Zhang Yi Hai's comment, telling her not to joke about such a matter.

Fang Su Jin was a little jealous of her friend. It could be seen that everyone was very protective of Zhang Li Xue.

Fang Su Jin chuckled. After a while, she exited the application and decided to watch some drama instead.

Meanwhile, Zhang Li Xue continued to have her date with Bai Qi. They walked around while chatting about this and that. When she was tired, Bai Qi dragged her to a cafe and ordered some milk tea and some snacks for her to refresh herself.

“Are you hungry?” Bai Qi asked as they sit around the park.

Zhang Li Xue patted her stomach. “I drank a bit too much milk tea and ate a bit of snack. My stomach was a little full.”

“Then, we can eat a little later. I’ll take you to a good place to eat.”

Zhang Li Xue looked at her boyfriend inquiringly and asked, “Where are we going?”

“I know a good place,” Bai Qi smiled. He called a cab and gave the driver a destination.

When Zhang Li Xue heard the destination, she could not help but think that the place sounded a little familiar.

It took her a while to remember that it was the place that her auntie had gone to for dinner yesterday. When her aunt had sent her those photos, Zhang Li Xue had casually mentioned that she too wanted to eat some seafood.

She did not expect that Bai Qi would remember her words and had taken them seriously.

Her eyes lit up as she looked at Bai Qi again. “We’re going to eat seafood?”

Bai Qi only flashed her a smile.

The restaurant was quite farther from the city as it was located near the beach. Because she had woken up early and had walked around, Zhang Li Xue was too tired and had fallen asleep on Bai Qi’s shoulder.

Zhang Li Xue woke up again when they arrived at the destination.

Seeing the smile on Bai Qi’s face made her shy.

Zhang Li Xue seemed to notice that it was too easy for her to fall asleep whenever she was with Bai Qi. Usually, she was not like this.

But, it could probably be because she trusted Bai Qi very much. Each time she smell his scent, she could feel as if she was in a safer place.

Bai Qi paid for their fare before turning to his girlfriend. “It’s still too early for dinner. Should we walk along the beach first if you’re not hungry?”

Zhang Li Xue looked at the beach in front of her and nodded.

Holding hands, the couple started to walk along the beach.

The last time she played by the beach was a few months ago. Her brother and the triplets were on holiday and decided to visit the beach and relax.

Coincidentally, they met Bai Qi who was with their Uncle Qi Zheng for a seminar.

Zhang Li Xue recalled that she was quarreling with Bai Qi before that and he finally apologized.

The memory brought a smile to her face.

After walking for a while, Zhang Li Xue ran over from Bai Qi's side and picked up a stick on the sand.

When Bai Qi reached her side, he saw that his girlfriend had written their names on the sand in a large, heart shape.

"Is this a confession?"

Zhang Li Xue gave him a light punch on his arms and spoke, "What are you saying? Don't you always know that I love you?"

Bai Qi frowned. "Really? I might have forgotten about it." The glint of mischievousness was too apparent. "Why don't you try and remind me about it again? Tell me that you love me again."

Zhang Li Xue laughed. She tiptoed and cupped her hand around Bai Qi's ear.

No one knew what did she tell him, but afterward, Bai Qi's expression started to change.

Seeing his eyes darken with desire, Zhang Li Xue decided to run away from him. After a few steps, Bai Qi had already caught her in his arms. It was too difficult for her to escape. Zhang Li Xue could only shoot him a pitiful look on her face. "I know. I was wrong. Doctor Bai, let me go."

His lips turned into a sneer. He held her tightly and kissed her lips repeatedly as if to punish her.

Her phone rang just as she thought that she was going to suffocate.

Finally, Bai Qi let her go and let her rest on his chest.

The phone in her purse continued to ring.

Zhang Li Xue finally pulled out her phone and saw her aunt's name on the screen.
