

Love So Sweet 545

545 An Interesting Package

After leaving the apartment, Zhang Yi Hai sent his girlfriend back to her house.

Fortunately, it was weekdays and Father Fang was not around to invite Zhang Yi Hai in for a cup of tea. However, they still did not dare to be intimate in front of her house. It was daylight and Fang Su Jin was worried that her mother would see them.

Zhang Yi Hai did not stay too long with his girlfriend.

After watching her enter the house, he then drove to the hotel to meet up with his father. On his way to the hotel, Zhang Yi Hai could not help but wonder just why would his father wanted him to head to the hotel.

Usually, whenever his father had something to say, he would say it when they were at home.

After twenty minutes of driving, Zhang Yi Hai finally arrived at the hotel. He parked his vehicle at the usual spot and took the elevator to head upstairs.

As he often showed up at the hotel, the staff knew him and did not stop him on his track.

The elevator stopped with a ding.

His father's secretary saw him walk out of the elevator and greeted him at the desk. Zhang Yi Hai exchanged a few polite words with the secretary. However, he was still unable to find out the reason his father was looking for him.

After a brief hesitation, Zhang Yi Hai knocked on the door and entered the room with his father's permission.

As he walked in, Zhang Yi Hai saw that his father was sitting behind his desk while signing a few documents that the managers had sent it to him a while ago.

He watched his father for a while before he spoke, "Dad."

Zhang Yu Han raised his head and nodded when he saw his son. "You're here."

He walked closer to the door and examined his father's expression, hoping to get a clue of what he was going to say.

"Have a seat," Zhang Yu Han motioned for his son to sit down.

Zhang Yi Hai sat down at the empty seat with a puzzled look on his face. In the end, he could no longer hold his curiosity and asked, "Dad, why did you call me here?"

He started to wonder if perhaps there was an issue with the company and if his father would want to discuss it with him.

However, he had long mentioned to his parents that he did not intend to succeed in the hotel chain and instead, would let his sister do it.

If there was any problem with the hotel, shouldn't his father call his sister?

Otherwise, could it be that his father wanted to discuss something that his mother and sister could not hear?

"I received an interesting package earlier today," Zhang Yu Han spoke. He rummaged through the documents on his desk and finally pulled out something.

Zhang Yi Hi looked at the items that his father had just pulled out and noted the express delivery sign on the envelope.

"Dad, what is it?" Zhang Yi Hai watched his father and watched as he pushed the envelope across the table. He hesitated for a brief second before he finally took the envelope.

"Go on and take a look," Zhang Yu Han spoke

Zhang Yi Hai first examined the envelope and saw his father's name as the recipient. However, the sender's side was left empty.

Who would send this package to his father?

However, he soon got his answer when he pulled the contents out.

His brow furrowed and the corner of his lips tensed.

Zhang Yi Hai looked at the photos of him and Fang Su Jin together at the airport. In these photos, he had his arms around Fang Su Jin's waist and the two of them had their lips locked. There were a few others of him and Fang Su Jin holding hands.

A face appeared in his mind. The only person who could send his father such photos would be Classmate Ji. When he was at the airport with Fang Su Jin, the two of them happened to run into his classmate. Other than that person, Zhang Yi Hai could not think of anyone else.

Moreover... Tang Yin mentioned that some photos of him and Fang Su Jin had spread among their classmates. It was just that, none of them dared to publish that photo in their group chat.

Zhang Yi Hai had a clear conscience and knew that he had not made any mistake. However, he did not know how he should be facing his father at this time.

His gaze was lowered as he continued to look at the photo for a long time. He really could not understand what did Classmate Ji tried to achieve by doing this.

For a long time, none of them speak a word.

Meanwhile, Zhang Yu Han examined his son's expression for a long time. Seeing that he continued to stay still for a long time, Zhang Yu Han could see that his son had no intention to defend himself. Last time, his son had quickly defended himself after he showed up.

His eyes narrowed.

It seemed that his son was really in a relationship with Fang Su Jin.

Zhang Yu Han could not help but recall the incident from a few months ago. That time, he received a call from the hotel manager in Capital City and was told that his son had brought a drunk woman to the hotel.

He and his wife went over to the hotel quickly and found that the drunk woman was no one else but their daughter's best friend, Fang Su Jin.

He questioned his son and heard his explanation.

A few months ago, his son said that he was not in a relationship with Fang Su Jin. The girl happened to be drunk and he was sending her back to the hotel.

But this time, it looked like Zhang Yi Hai could no longer refute this relationship. Unless he was planning to tell him that he was only fooling around.

As the thought came to his mind, Zhang Yu Han's expression turned darker.

He and his wife both had educated their children themselves. He had always taught her son good values. He hoped that his son would not disappoint him.

"Yi Hai..." Zhang Yu Han called his name after a long silence. "Why don't you tell me what is going on?"
