

Love Will 448

Chapter 448

After more than a month, Brandon finally heard the news about Savanna.

Brandon thought, I let her slip away again.

What's going on?

Brandon was a bit hazy about that. He thought, is Savanna's hiding skills becoming more sophisticated?

Or is it that there is no fate between them?

Brandon suddenly remembered that time in Ireland, when Savanna hid abroad. At that time, he had run into her.

However, this time, even though they were in the same city, he could not find her.

After sending his assistant away, Brandon took out his phone and looked through the photos of Savanna.

Savanna looked gorgeous. Her eyes were clear. When she smiled, her eyes curved. She was a mother, but her eyes were as pure as a child's.

Brandon thought, was I blind before? Why didn't I find her beautiful before?

If I had recognized my feelings for her in the beginning, things would not have developed to this point.

Brandon was both regretful and upset. Unfortunately... It was too late. Savanna's heart has been broken, and she won't turn back.

Days passed.

It had been 40 days since the day Savanna disappeared.

"How about Tye?"

Since he could not find Savanna, Brandon planned to focus on Tye. He believed that Tye was the key person.

One month after Savannah gave birth, she braved the cold to come to school to see Tye. It meant that she cared about him very much.

Sure enough, after squatting and guarding for ten days, things changed.

Janet used to be busy until very late. That day, she ended her work early and went out with Tye.

Brandon was afraid that his subordinates would lose track of them, so he asked Jim to borrow a Charade car and drove on his own, following them from afar.
