

Loving 1481

Chapter 1481. If There's A Will, There's A Way 4

He then quickly got up and grabbed the documents in front of him before leaving the meeting room in a hurry.

Everyone was surprised by his sudden reaction. When the door slammed shut, everyone came to a realization about what just happened!

"I also think what Mr. Yang said earlier made a lot of sense. My wife is down with a fever and cold today, so I've to go back and take care of her. I'm really worried! I think it's not too late to wait for President Qi to wake up first before making the decision. Now, everyone should just allocate the tasks rationally. I have to go now!"

Mr. Fang also got up anxiously when he saw Mr. Yang disappear out of the doorway. He started packing up his things on the table while talking and left swiftly!

When Mr. Wang, who had not made any move, saw that they were all leaving one after the other, he also quickly got up and said, "My mother-in-law is coming to City Z today. I have to pick her up at the station, so I'll get going!"

Obviously, as soon as he saw the two cunning foxes in a panic just now, he could tell that something was wrong, so it was better to just take some time to consider first! There might still be a chance to turn things around, thus protecting himself was definitely his utmost priority!

Mr. Wang thought to himself as he quickly got up and left.

The entire conference room was in a state of shock. The situation seemed a little odd!

The rest of the people started exchanging looks as nobody knew what was going on. They looked around and ended up looking at Qi Feng, only to see that he was staring blankly at the empty chairs. His eyes were cold as ice, and everyone could not help but shiver when they saw that!

“Don’t leave! Come back right now! How dare you show such an attitude!?” Gu Lingsha quickly stood up and yelled at Mr. Fang and Mr. Wang who were about to leave.

The two, who had just walked towards the door, stopped in their tracks and exchanged glances before turning around to look at Qi Feng and Gu Lingsha.

“Director Qi, Manager Gu, this shareholders’ meeting is indeed a bit chaotic. President Qi must’ve had his own reasons for postponing the shareholders’ meeting for now. Anyway, as long as everyone works hard together, the company will overcome this challenge. We should wait for President Qi before deciding on the new president,” Manager Fang practically had to force himself to say.

However, he had no choice but to say that. He could not take his son’s future lightly. Anyway, Qi Feng only intended to give them trivial benefits. Since they had been doing well, he should not risk his son’s future over insignificant benefits like that!

He was going to lose something either way, so he could not do this! However, he really did not know how Qi Lei could have known about his secrets when he obviously...

After everything that happened, Mr. Fang and the others seemed to realize that the Second Master of the Qi family was not as incompetent and worthless as people said he was. On the contrary, it seemed that he was just hiding his light under a bushel!

Otherwise, how would he be able to support the entire Tai Yu Corporation? His performance in a few of their projects was outstanding, and so was his current performance!

Could it be that still waters ran deep and Second Master was not who people thought he was?

Why did President Qi think about attending the opening ceremony of the Second Master’s company in person? Why did he even postpone the shareholders’ meeting?

There were too many factors that made them feel troubled about the situation. At the moment, it would be best if the meeting could be delayed and just wait and see.

Qi Lei's move had certainly caught them off guard, surprising Yang Sheng too!

He stared blankly at the phone and looked at Qi Lei who was staring outside the window with a cold expression. He gulped and finally said, "Master Qi, you...when did you find these?"

Yang Sheng's eyes gleamed with excitement. "Haven't you always disregarded their affairs? I thought that there's surely no other way this time! I've already prepared for the worst!"

Qi Lei slowly leaned back in the chair and put out the cigarette between his fingers in the ashtray when Yang Sheng said that.

"If there's a will, there's a way. In this world, there may be no actual ending. It depends on how you make your decision or your effort. As long as you don't fall, then everything else won't crumble either," Qi Lei said calmly.

He started coughing after saying that. His face turned pale and his complexion was a little odd. Yang Sheng quickly poured him a glass of water and handed it to him. "Master Qi, have some water. Your complexion looks bad. Do you want to...? God! You're burning! You have a fever, Master Qi!"

Yang Sheng did not have time to finish his sentence. He was shocked when he accidentally touched Qi Lei's burning hands.

"Fever?" Qi Lei coughed a few more times. He quickly raised his hand to feel his forehead. After testing the temperature for a while, he said gloomily, "No wonder I've been feeling a little dizzy."

"Master Qi, let's go to the hospital first. We shouldn't wait! Wait, it's better to take some medicine first before going to the hospital. Your health is no joke!"

Yang Sheng hurriedly walked to the side of the sofa and found the fever medicine from the drawer. He hurried back and quickly handed Qi Lei a few tablets. "Master Qi, take some medicine first."

Qi Lei rubbed his temples uncomfortably as he reached out and took the pills obediently.

"It's okay. Inform them that the meeting will be postponed to the afternoon tentatively. I'm heading out," he muttered as he was still dizzy.

Mu Yuchen just called and asked to see him. It happened that he also had something to tell him. The situation was not looking good anyway, so it was better for him to go meet him first.

"But, Master Qi...your body..." Yang Sheng hesitated.

"I'll take a nap for half an hour. Wake me up later." Qi Lei got up lethargically and walked towards the lounge.

He did not want to care about anything else anymore. Whatever should be done had been done. He just needed to wait for the results now.

He did not believe that Qi Feng would succeed in securing the position this time. Growing up, he had kept himself away too many times. This time, Qi Lei did not want to back down anymore. Even if he had no intention to take over the Qi Kai Group, he did not want Qi Feng to get it either!

Chapter 1482. If There's A Will, There's A Way 5

At this moment, inside Qi Kai Corporation's high-level meeting room.

A stifled air instantly engulfed the large office. The office was very quiet as no one made a sound. They just looked silently at Qi Feng who kept quiet.

VP Fang and VP Wang both felt uneasy. They exchanged a look and were about to say something when the pen in Qi Feng's hand clicked, interrupting their thoughts. When the two of them looked up at him, they noticed that his expression was as always, but his eyes seemed to be filled with a dark storm.

He slowly leaned back against his chair and looked up silently at the two people standing across him. He kept quiet while taking the cigarette box from the table and sliding a stick out. He lit it up idly and nonchalantly took a drag while his dark eyes flashed with a sharp light.

When Gu Lingsha saw him like this, she could not help but worry as she called out softly to him, "Ah Feng, you..."

Qi Feng ignored her. He did not look at her as he breathed in quite a few times before turning to the two people and saying calmly, "Qi Lei called? What did he say?"

When he asked that, the two people were stunned. Their expressions changed, but they still did not utter a word.

Qi Feng smiled calmly though it looked slightly cruel. He spoke as he looked towards Morrison behind him, "Forget it. If you two leave this meeting room today, forget about coming back to work anymore. I was going to show you some due respect, and if you won't appreciate it, don't blame me for it."

Morrison quickly handed him several documents.

Qi Feng's words surprised the duo as they quickly spoke up, "What do you mean? Forget about coming back to work?"

The smile on Qi Feng's lips curved even more as he casually flipped through the documents in his hand and then unhurriedly handed it to the duo.

The two of them felt panicked and quickly took it over to flip through it. When they had a good look at the contents of the document, their expression changed before they looked at Qi Feng in disbelief.

"You...Qi Feng...When did you procure our shares? This is impossible! Impossible!"

"That's your signatures right there. Do you think it could be fake? I've never forced the two of you, and you're both ready to jump ship anytime. I should be slightly vigilant, shouldn't I?" Qi Feng answered quite frankly while his raspy voice contained endless coldness.

"Qi Feng, how dare you play these dirty tricks on us?! You're a despicable person! Forget about your vain attempts to take over the position as Qi Kai's CEO! Who knows? You might be the shameless one behind what happened to CEO Qi!"

“It must be him! How dare you treat us like this?! Without our support, would you be where you are today? To abandon people once you’ve achieved your goals shows that you truly are an illegitimate son. Even your tricks are so lowly!”

Their curses only made Qi Feng frown a little as he nonchalantly shouted, “Get someone to drag them out!”

“Qi Feng! How dare you?! If you dare do this to us, then you’ll definitely be doing this to many more in due time. CEO Qi’s incident is still filled with doubt. Everyone’s worked hard with CEO Qi over the years. Don’t you get away with this! Second Master is more suited to be Qi Kai’s CEO!”

“Take them out!” Qi Feng’s voice was extremely cold.

Soon, quite a few black-clothed bodyguards rushed in from outside and pulled VP Fang and VP Wang up, ready to drag them out.

“Qi Kai is the blood and sweat of everyone. Are you willing to watch Qi Kai fall into this despicable person’s hands?”

“Don’t let Qi Feng take over!”

The two of them struggled and shouted.

After this short interruption, the few people, who were initially unhappy with Qi Feng, now exchanged a look as if they had made up their minds about something, and slowly stood up.

“Let’s discuss this when CEO Qi regains consciousness. We’ll go with CEO Qi’s wishes!”

“I think that makes sense too. Electing a new CEO is no small matter. In fact, VP Qi didn’t attend today either, so we can’t just decide on this. It’s better that we get CEO Qi or VP Qi to oversee this personally!”

“Yes, I agree with that!”

In an instant, the entire meeting room was chaos, and close to half the people had slowly declared their stances. The meeting did not seem like it could go on any longer.

Qi Feng's expression finally darkened, and Gu Lingsha's brows furrowed too. She got up to dissuade them as she turned to look at Qi Feng. Meanwhile, Qi Feng only hinted a glance at Morrison, and the latter knowingly moved towards the door. More than ten black-clothed bodyguards were already blocking the entrance.

"Dear all, First Master is one who follows things through. We've spent quite some effort preparing for today's meeting, and with the current situation, we don't know when CEO Qi will be regaining consciousness. First Master is just considering this for the whole of Qi Kai. It's good to make a decision now too. In order for Qi Kai to develop methodically, we must come to a decision for today's meeting. We ask for everyone to understand First Master's painstaking efforts," Morrison spoke without a change in expression while his voice sounded sharp.

At this moment, everyone began to remember the way Qi Kai had whitewashed its business from what it was back then. Qi Qiming often cornered people into doing things his way, and now from the way Qi Feng looked, he clearly had the intention of using force.

"I personally suggest letting First Master temporarily assume the position of Qi Kai's CEO. When CEO Qi wakes up, we'll decide again on what to do then."

"I agree to let Director Qi take on the position of CEO temporarily. Right now, Qi Kai's in a shaky state, so we urgently need someone to hold down the fort. I think we've all been a witness to Director Qi's capabilities, thus I agree for Director Qi to step up and be the new CEO!"

"I am of that opinion as well!"

At this moment, the people on Qi Feng's side began to declare their stances. Suddenly, the meeting room's atmosphere became tense, and some who were still hesitant earlier seemed to be more inclined towards Qi Feng now because they knew that even if they did not agree with Qi Feng, they could only support him in the current state.

Qi Qiming was still unconscious whereas VP Qi Lei did not show up at all. In fact, he had not shown up at the company at all in recent times. Besides, he had Tai Yu Corporation. Back then, CEO Qi Qiming was very supportive of it too, so they all figured that he probably had his own plans for the brothers to each take on a company. That way, it would be to everyone's satisfaction.

However, what VP Fang said earlier made them all have some doubts. Could Qi Feng have been behind CEO Qi's incident?

Chapter 1483. Plot Twist! 1

The door was still tightly blocked, and it seemed impossible for them to get out...

Everyone's expression changed, and for a few short minutes, some of the people were secretly staring at Qi Feng and cursing him. However, they did not dare to say much and the atmosphere froze.

"Everybody, please sit down first, and we'll discuss this matter calmly. Today's meeting was to discuss this matter, after all. Abandoning things halfway isn't your style, is it?" Morrison said when everybody had calmed down a little.

Everyone took a breath and looked at each other. Although they already had a lot of dissatisfaction with Qi Feng, they endured the discontentment and sat down again.

"Since everyone is interested in staying back and continuing this meeting, it's best to remain calm and not do anything stupid. If not, Director Yang was the best lesson for everybody else in the room. What the Qi Kai Group doesn't lack the most are talented people, so if there's anyone in this room that doesn't want to stay anymore, there are plenty waiting to get their hands on the seats that you're sitting on now. It's not easy for you to have gotten to where you are today, so think wisely." Morrison seemed to be satisfied with everyone's reaction, and as he issued his warning, he glanced at Qi Feng, whose expression was still gloomy.

Gu Lingsha was also a little worried because she obviously noticed that Qi Feng's expression was totally off. He must not have expected the current situation to happen.

It was destined to not go well. As a result, everyone's dissatisfaction with Qi Feng would only increase, so it was impossible to determine whether he could get to the top of the food chain in the Qi Kai Group. It was already no longer the era in which the Qi family could play gangster. As soon as the Qi Kai Group redeemed their name after the whitewashing process, many things could become transparent, so if all these people did not support Qi Feng sincerely, they would not be able to do anything to salvage the situation.

As she thought about this, Gu Lingsha felt even more worried! Qi Feng was her beloved husband, and she naturally hoped that he could successfully secure the position as the President of the Qi Kai Group. Did Qi Lei not always show his indifference about the company? Why was he doing otherwise now?

Thinking of the call which she did not make clear just now, Gu Lingsha felt strained deep down. At first, she wanted to say something to comfort him, but luckily she did not. Who would have known that he would still lay his hand on Qi Feng?

Gu Lingsha was feeling a little distressed at this moment. The feeling she had in her heart was beyond words.

After a long silence, Qi Feng's hoarse and dry voice shattered the air, "Since there's no objection or comment, let's continue with the previous discussion."

"I'm afraid that no discussion is needed for the issue. President Qi has already favored the first master as the Qi Kai Group's heir before this, hence I'm personally in favor of the First Master taking over the company in advance. Those false accusations that were being thrown at First Master may come from people who want to disrupt the situation. We'll play into the hands of the other party if we hold a grudge against him because of the slander. Therefore, we should act decisively in this matter and proceed according to President Qi's original intention."

"I think so too. I'm afraid that no one suits the position more now."

"I propose letting Director Qi act on behalf of the president temporarily first. However, we'll wait for President Qi's final decision on that. Plus, Deputy Director Qi should pull some weight too since that's much more appropriate!"

...

Suddenly, everyone began discussing the matter again.

“Then, what should he do if President Qi can’t wake up for a long time? Deputy Director Qi still has to take care of Tai Yu Corporation, so I think it’s best if Director Qi can take over directly.”

“Yes, I think so too. It’s an ironclad fact, and there’s no need to think about it too much.”

“But President Qi postponed the shareholders’ meeting before this, which shows that he may have other plans in mind! We should take a far-sighted view!”

“Manager Xing, you seem to be dissatisfied with Director Qi.”

“I’m only looking at the issue objectively. President Qi has never declared that Director Qi is the true heir to the Qi Kai Group. Who in this room can guarantee that Deputy Director Qi isn’t a more suitable candidate? Isn’t he a person who is capable of being up there and leading us as well?”

Manager Xing, who had been called out, was a former subordinate of Wang Qin. Wang Qin had promoted him a lot in his career. He had always been thinking for the company and was closer to the people who sided with Wang Qin.

Everyone became quiet again once Manager Xing put forward his opinion. Without the support of Director Yang and Director Fang, although Qi Feng was able to maintain his stance and suppress the situation temporarily, it was obviously a little strenuous.

Morrison’s eyes became disconsolate as he wished to tear Manager Xing and those who opposed them into pieces!

“This is a well-known thing. Do we need to bring it up blatantly?”

“Yeah, President Qi has already let Director Qi follow him around the office for him to understand the company’s operations better. Furthermore, since Director Qi has been with us for so long, he has much more knowledge about the company than Second Master. We can’t rest assured with the idea of handing the company into the hands of an inexperienced kid!”

“So, you guys want to take the position by force now! If President Qi were to know about what’s happened today, he definitely won’t agree to it!”

Qi Feng, whose expression became increasingly gloomy, could not restrain the emotional uproar in his heart. He coldly extinguished the cigarette in his hand in the ashtray on the side while his sheer cold voice slashed through the air of the conference room, “It’s too noisy. If you don’t want to work here anymore, just get out! Security!”

“Qi Feng, you’re not in the position to do so! I’m a member of the Qi Kai Group’s senior management. Even if you want to expel me, you need to seek the consent of the Human Resources Department and the other shareholders. You don’t have the final say!” Manager Xin shouted angrily.

“I want him out of my sight!” Qi Feng had never had patience, so the wrath in his chest burned more intensely when he heard what Manager Xin said.

As soon as the order was given, Morrison quickly shot a glance at the bodyguards by the door. The two immediately stepped forward, clutched Manager Xin, and were about to drag him to the door. However, there was a ruckus outside the door at that moment.

“Wait! Stop it!” a bold shout pierced through the doors. Everyone raised their eyes and looked forward subconsciously. Only then did they realize that the person who had walked in was President Qi’s right-hand man, Wang Chun!

He was someone that President Qi trusted a lot. President Qi would let him handle many things without thinking twice a lot of the time, and he was a very prestigious man in the Qi Kai Group!

“Secretary Wang!” Many people seemed to breathe a sigh of relief as soon as they saw Wang Chun while Qi Feng, Morrison, Gu Lingsha, and the others felt a little uneasy deep down. They exchanged glances and stared at Wang Chun closely again. With that, they naturally noticed the two middle-aged men in suits, who came in behind Wang Chun, were familiar faces!

Chapter 1484. Plot Twist! 2

Qi Qiming’s personal legal team had always worked for him exclusively. Moreover, Wang Chun came over this time with quite a few bodyguards along with Mr. Fang and Mr. Wang, who had just been kicked out of the room! At this moment, everyone could vaguely tell that the shareholders’ meeting today would be interesting and that there must be something going on.

Everyone stopped talking and looked at Wang Chun and Qi Feng with suspicion. They would probably be surprised by today's turn of events.

"Assistant Wang, long time no see!" Gu Lingsha was the first to greet him.

They had not seen Wang Chun since Qi Qiming got injured. Although Qi Feng had sent some guys to search for him, they could not find him. Why did he suddenly appear now? Moreover, with such a big team, no less?

Gu Lingsha thought to herself and the anxiety in her heart gradually grew as she stared at Wang Chun with her beautiful eyes.

Wang Chun walked towards Qi Lei and sat in his seat while Qi Feng kept staring.

"Assistant Wang, how come you have the time to come instead of taking care of my father at the hospital?" Qi Feng seemed to know something in his heart. It was likely that Wang Chun was here to stop this meeting.

Morrison noticed that something was wrong, and he secretly wished that Glenn had murdered Wang Chun! What a pain in the neck!

Wang Chun had given him a hard time when working at the Qi Kai Group, so he knew that the man was deliberately against him.

However, it was actually Morrison that took it the wrong way. Wang Chun had always been a careful person whereas Morrison would often abuse his power as Qi Feng's right-hand man and was bossy and arrogant when working at the company. Because Wang Chun could not stand it, he would sometimes teach him some lessons. As a result, Morrison was fed up with him.

"It's not about having the time to come here, but it would be unprofessional of me to be absent from something as significant as the shareholders' meeting today, especially as President Qi's personal assistant. Besides, for a high-level meeting like this, how is it still going on as usual when so many shareholders are absent?" Wang Chun said while he opened the briefcase in his hand and motioned to the two lawyers behind him and Mr. Fang. They proceeded to sit down silently.

Wang Chun took out several documents from his briefcase and lowered his gaze while randomly flipping through the documents. He looked around and continued, "Okay, now that most of the shareholders are here and the attendance is over 90%, this meeting is deemed effective. I didn't want to come here initially, but since everyone has decided to proceed with the shareholders' meeting anyway, I have no choice but to come over and officially announce the final decision made by President Qi."

Wang Chun stretched out his hand and introduced the two lawyers around him, "I'm sure everyone is familiar with these two. They're Master Qi's personal lawyers, Lawyer Wang and Lawyer Zhang. I invited them to be here with me today as witnesses and to help answer any queries."

"I came here today for the sole purpose of declaring President Qi's will, so that everyone would know what to do next" Wang Chun said calmly but everyone was shocked to hear that!

President Qi's will!

President Qi wrote a will?

This news came as a surprise to everyone, like dropping a boulder into a calm lake and causing rippling waves in the water!

Qi Feng also frowned as he looked at Wang Chun before him and clenched his fists tightly!

When did the old man write his will? Was it from before?

Qi Feng was secretly hopeful that the will would be the previous will since Qi Qiming just had an accident. In other words, the will should be about him taking over the Qi Kai Group!

Qi Qiming had told him before that he should familiarize himself with the company's business as soon as possible so that he could eventually hand over Qi Kai Group to him!

If that was the case, then he could save a whole lot of trouble. He had invested quite a lot of effort into the company. If he knew that Qi Qiming had written a will, he would not have to work so hard.

Qi Feng felt a little relieved as he thought about it but at the same time, he also felt very conflicted. If he had the choice, he probably would not let Morrison do what he did. Glenn was too ruthless and they even hid it from him.

No matter what, Qi Qiming was his father, and seeing him like that was certainly unbearable, but...

It was rare for him to actually feel a little guilty...

"The document in my hand is a copy of the will. The original has been notarized and is temporarily stored at the notary. According to the will made by Master Qi, should anything happen to him, the Qi Kai Group...the Qi Kai Group will be handed over to...Second Master, Qi Lei. This means that Qi Lei, the Second Master, also known as Vice President Qi, will be Qi Kai Group's new president. All of you must work together to help Second Master manage the Qi Kai Group successfully." Wang Chun distributed the documents in his hand as he made that announcement.

However, the moment he dropped that bombshell, the entire conference room was in shock!

In President Qi's will, it was Second Master, Qi Lei, that would take over the Qi Kai Group? How could that be possible?

"How is this possible? It's impossible! You're lying! Father obviously prefers Ah Feng to take over the Qi Kai Group! It can't be Qi Lei!" Gu Lingsha's eyes widened as she could not believe it at all!

"No way! This is complete nonsense!" Morrison also insisted coldly as he snatched one of the documents and quickly read through it.

As he read on, his expression started changing drastically!

When he got to the end of the document and saw the official seal, his body almost went limp!

He read it right. It was indeed Qi Lei's name with Qi Qiming's signature and fingerprint...

It was Qi Qiming's will that he had personally written!

How could this be?

Didn't President Qi always want Qi Feng to be his heir?

President Qi had always been dissatisfied with the Second Master, hence he was cold towards him and gave all his love to Qi Feng. This was a fact known by many insiders, but now, nobody understood what it meant.

Several executives saw the document and were taken aback as well. Some of them did not know how to react.

Qi Feng's features turned stiff and his eyes darkened. He quickly reached out to grab the document from Morrison's hand and started reading it...

Chapter 1485. Plot Twist! 3

His silent eyes instantly went cold and darkened while his hands that held the documents began to tremble. Even Gu Lingsha, who sat beside him, could feel the chill that came from him. She pulled at his sleeves worriedly and leaned over to look.

"The document's contents are true indeed. CEO Qi asked me to handle this before the incident happened. The lawyers have also verified repeatedly that this was CEO Qi's intention, and there are no other problems, so it came into effect after notarization. If anyone's got any questions, you may ask Lawyer Wang and Lawyer Zhang. They'll be very happy to clear everyone's doubts," Wang Chun's sharp gaze caught the reactions of everyone present as he said this calmly while his gaze fell onto Qi Feng across him.

Qi Feng's expression sank and was uncertain. When he eased back, his handsome face was filled with a sneer. He held onto the document in hand tightly, then in the next second, tore it into pieces as his dark eyes contained hostility.

"I should've known! The foolish thing was that I believed him!" Qi Feng's raspy voice had a piercing coldness.

The broken pieces of paper fell from his hand, and one could see an instance of dullness in those dark eyes of his. The paper swayed gently in the wind and swirled into a floor of bleakness.

"Ah Feng, are you alright?"

Gu Lingsha had seen those words on the document too. Of course, she was unhappy with Qi Qiming. He had promised her before, so how did it turn out like this?

Qi Feng reached out to pull away Gu Lingsha's hand on his arm as he looked coldly towards Wang Chun. His tone remained calm as he asked, "Are you saying that he wrote this will before the incident? That he's always wanted Qi Lei to take over while I was just paving the way for my own brother?"

"Master, CEO Qi made the final decision about this actually...CEO Qi had his own thoughts on many things. I think that he was just helplessly disappointed when he made this decision. I think you know what I mean," Wang Chun met Qi Feng's gaze and said calmly.

"Know what you mean? What do you mean? Would I have known that I was paving the way for Qi Lei? I'm afraid he's never quite trusted me while I trusted him too much. If he really wanted me to take over, he wouldn't have dragged it on for so long."

Qi Feng had his own thoughts about this. If Qi Qiming had really wanted to leave Qi Kai to him, he would not have waited until now. Ever since Wang Qin passed away, he had become demotivated, and it was then that he should have let go.

Qi Qiming and Wang Qin had fought each other for half of their lives. Qi Qiming always thought that he only felt dissatisfaction and resentment for Wang Qin. On the contrary, Qi Feng could feel that Qi Qiming actually did have feelings for Wang Qin.

It did not matter how many women Qi Qiming had outside. He never let those women step over Wang Qin. He would never remember another woman's birthday, including the legendary woman that claimed to be Qi Qiming's true love, Qi Feng's mother, or Mu Zi, or even Lu Xinlan, yet he remembered Wang Qin's birthday.

On Wang Qin's birthday, he would reach home early. Even if it was just to fight, at least, he gave Wang Qin due respect. He would always nitpick on Wang Qin. Sometimes, he would even mock Wang Qin for wearing colors that were too bright, or if her makeup was too much, or for wanting to seduce other men...

However, Qi Feng seemed to have caught wind of what Qi Qiming was jealous of between the lines. Qi Feng's mother had always worshipped Qi Qiming. She even knew Qi Qiming's secret, which was that when he was with women, he would always want the woman to be the one who served, yet he forced himself onto Wang Qin over and over again...

Perhaps Qi Feng knew nothing about love, but these things made him realize that she had an extraordinary place in Qi Qiming's heart.

After Wang Qin passed away, Qi Feng thought that he had it all planned out for himself. Qi Qiming might be demotivated from the guilt, or work himself too hard from the anger while Qi Feng had cleared such a huge barrier to pave way for himself in Qi Kai. However, he did not expect so many things to happen one after another, and for Qi Qiming to still hold on tightly to the entire Qi Kai Group. He even gave Qi Feng the tiny position as director while the useless Qi Lei could be his Vice President!

What was even more annoying was that when Qi Lei left Qi Kai to start his own thing, this old man had unexpectedly agreed strongly to it. Not only did he not nitpick on Qi Lei's responsibility to the company, but he had even provided much support!

Previously, he had said to let him take over Qi Kai and that he did not care about Qi Lei. He had also claimed that he was unhappy with Qi Lei and resented Wang Qin. All of that was bullsh*t!

'Qi Qiming, as a father, you broke your promise to me. You said you'd let me take over Qi Kai in a grand manner and let him take charge of the company, but this was all empty talk!' Qi Feng was too foolish to have believed such nonsense. After all, ever since he was young, what had he truly gotten?

He had done his best to get himself to excel and had continued to shape himself according to what Qi Qiming liked. Nevertheless, in the end, this had all become just a ridiculous joke...

He thought that he could fight for it too, but every step he took turned out to be extraordinarily difficult. He did not understand why God would be so unfair to him! Why did Qi Lei get everything without doing anything while he, Qi Feng, was empty-handed despite so much blood, sweat, and tears in scheming?

“First Master, that’s CEO Qi’s decision. He hopes you can assist Second Master well and that you two brothers can work together to run Qi Kai well...”

Wang Chun did not know how he could respond to Qi Feng’s words. If it were Wang Chun himself, he probably would not be able to accept this, but when he thought about Qi Qiming who still lay in the hospital, Wang Chun’s heart sank slightly.

“His decision?” Qi Feng scoffed as a mocking sneer flashed on his lips. He closed his eyes and took a deep breath. He did not say anything more but suddenly stood up and slowly walked towards the entrance.

“Ah Feng! Where are you going?!” Gu Lingsha, who had been watching Qi Feng worriedly, was concerned to see him like this, so she quickly stood up and called out to his back.

However, Qi Feng only left her and the crowd with an indifferent view of his back...

Chapter 1486. Plot Twist! 4

In the office of the chairman of Glory World Corporation. After learning that Mu Yuchen was in the office, Qi Lei pushed the door open and walked in. He then lifted his eyes and looked inside. His eyes caught Mu Yuchen’s precious and impassive silhouette.

Mu Yuchen was wearing a dark, slim suit while standing in front of the French windows with his back facing the door. He was seen making a call. It was probably Xi Xiaye on the other end.

“Okay, let’s get off work earlier in the evening. I’ll pick you up. Will you treat me to dinner?”

“Don’t worry about all that. Let’s cook at home. Your digestive system hasn’t been very healthy recently, mostly because we’ve been eating out these days. Alright, I’ve got to go. Someone’s here. Remember to get off work earlier this evening. I’ll wait for you downstairs.”

Mu Yuchen could also sense Qi Lei sitting down on the sofa behind him, so he left a few brief messages, then put the phone away and turned around slowly. Sure enough, he saw Qi Lei who had already sat down on the sofa leisurely, boiled water, and was planning to make tea.

Qi Lei was already very close to Mu Yuchen now, so just like Su Chen or Zhou Zimo, he would not restrain himself and do everything unceremoniously when he went over. It was just like his own office since everything was more casual now.

Mu Yuchen squinted at him, then walked over unhurriedly and sat down opposite Qi Lei.

Qi Lei could not help but cough a few times. His face was also abnormally pale with a faint hint of red. He then shifted the tea leaves directly to Mu Yuchen, signaling him to do it.

After Mu Yuchen picked it up, he took out the tea leaves skillfully and started brewing it leisurely. "You don't look too good. What happened?" he gave him a sideways glance and asked.

Qi Lei raised his arms and rubbed his glabella, then coughed slightly. His voice was somewhat hoarse. "No big deal. It's just a simple cold and fever. Yang Sheng just got me some medicine. I feel better after taking them. And you...you seemed quite relaxed."

Right away, Mu Yuchen chuckled and replaced the tea leaves in the cup directly with chrysanthemum tea. "I thought that you should be sitting in your office anxiously waiting for the outcome of the meeting at this moment instead of having such a relaxed time to come over and have tea with me."

Qi Lei gave him a sidelong gaze and said unconcernedly, "I didn't have high hopes for that matter. I just feel great whenever things aren't going well for Qi Feng. What should I feel nervous about? I never thought about obtaining the Qi Kai Group. What's yours will eventually be yours. If it's not, it's pointless forcing it," Qi Lei coughed again and frowned as he said.

Mu Yuchen raised his eyebrows and glanced at Qi Lei in amazement. He then moved the freshly brewed chrysanthemum tea towards Qi Lei and smiled. "That's quite an insight you have there. That does demonstrate the level of your perception and sensibility. I thought that you were still the same as before, still a person with a low IQ and EQ just like Xiaye."

Feeling a little offended by Mu Yuchen's judgemental gaze, Second Master frowned and shot him a glare. He thought about it for some time and said, "Bullsh*t! No matter how bad I am, I won't be worse than your wife. I'm one of the highest-achieving students who graduated from the Department of Architecture. There's no way that my IQ is low."

Having heard that, Mu Yuchen laughed and coughed a little. He picked up his tea for a sip and continued laughing. "Wow, that's impressive, but from what I can see, you're still a fledgling who has just gotten its wings. You need to settle for a while before you can spread them and fly off."

"You're just boasting. There's something that even you, Mu Yuchen, are inferior to me in." Qi Lei gave Mu Yuchen a sideways glance before he picked up his teacup and took a sip carefully.

The unsweetened organic chrysanthemum tea had a slightly bitter taste, but Qi Lei felt comfortable drinking it, so he lowered his head and took another two gulps. With that, his dry throat felt more soothed.

"Oh? Try me. In which aspect am I not as good as you are?" Mu Yuchen gazed at him with an intrigued look.

"Your pick-up and flirting skills aren't as good as mine! Yours is just not as pure and simple as mine."

"I'm truly not as simple as you are and I'm not as simple to read as you are. However, I'm now the father of two children whereas you're still all alone by yourself, and you have the guts to say so, huh?" As Mu Yuchen spoke, his tone became low and calmed. It was just like talking to his own brother. He lowered his eyes and took a sip of tea.

Then, he placed one hand on his knee and looked at Qi Lei diagonally with a faint sigh. "I remember that you're only 30 years old this year, so I should be a tidbit elder than you, and I've been out exposed to the world a lot longer than you. Frankly speaking, when I first met you, I thought you were just a spoiled brat who protected himself by surrounding himself with debauchery.

"People become mature by experiencing things that the world throws at us. I think Xiaye and you both share the same experience. The environment changes people most of the time, and they have to adapt to the circumstances. Thus, we have to learn the skills and also polish up our minds to live and coexist in this environment. With the attitude that you used to have, you'd have died very quickly in this society." He rarely said such things to Qi Lei.

Upon hearing the advice, Qi Lei paused. His tranquil eyes could not help but become a little dazed. After some time, he took a breath and said helplessly, "It only dawned on me a little too late..."

He paused as he spoke, lowered his head as if he was thinking about something. After a while, he took another sip of tea and continued, "If I met you earlier, it wouldn't have been so hard and I wouldn't have been so lost. All I really want is to be a simple, ordinary person."

"That's not difficult. Once you have the ability to grasp onto the positive things that occur around you, it's not difficult to achieve what you want."

"I hope so." Qi Lei sighed faintly. He did not plan to continue with these topics anymore, and his attractive face stiffened slightly. "Tai Yu Corporation's business has already gotten onto the right track, so you can actually withdraw now. I've gotten Yang Sheng to draft the contract. It'll be delivered here later, so you just need to come over to sign it then."

Mu Yuchen nodded. "How's Qi Qiming?" He did not interfere much with this matter since he had always known his position very well.

"Everything's still the same. He's still in a coma. Nobody has any idea of whether he can wake up or not. I hired people from a private detective agency to investigate the car accident and knew that Glenn had been hiding in City Z all this time, and hasn't been in contact with Gu Lingsha. However, before the accident, Glenn sent her two cheques in the name of Doris, so I presume that he planned to die. He should have had feelings for Doris."

It must not have been easy to do so. As a man, Qi Lei could naturally discern those emotions within Glenn.

"Moreover, before Glenn acted, Morrison received a call from an unknown number that matches the timeline before the incident, so I think the whole thing isn't that simple."

Chapter 1487. Progress 1

As Qi Lei went on, desolation filled him and reminded him of something. He could not conceal the sadness in his dark eyes. "I've tried asking them to find the evidence, and if this was really..." He suddenly paused and did not continue but Mu Yuchen knew what he was going to say.

After thinking for a while, Mu Yuchen did not interrupt him either. Maybe Wang Qin's incident was...

He did not know if Qi Lei could take it if it really happened.

Mu Yuchen lowered his gaze and took a sip of tea. At this moment, Qi Lei's cell phone suddenly vibrated and Qi Lei picked it up without hesitation.

"It's me."

Mu Yuchen leaned back in the chair and continued drinking his tea. Sitting opposite him, Qi Lei answered the phone and his brows furrowed before he did a little stretch. Before he hung up, he seemed shocked and confused.

"Okay, I understand," he said before he hung up with a surprised look on his face.

"Good news from Qi Kai?" Mu Yuchen asked calmly.

Qi Lei inhaled quietly and shrugged. He coughed a few times before replying, "Our wish came true, but Wang Chun presented the will Qi Qiming made. It says that the heir to the Qi Kai Group is me. How ridiculous!" Qi Lei sneered mockingly.

Mu Yuchen was a little surprised to hear that. He raised his eyebrows and stopped in his tracks. "You'll be taking over the Qi Kai Group?"

Qi Lei nodded. "Did he think that I'd forgive him if he did this?"

Although he was shocked by the news, he did not necessarily feel grateful for Qi Qiming or that he could forgive him.

However, he was still stunned by Qi Qiming's decision.

Before the accident, Qi Qiming had been trying really hard to make things up to him. Had he actually been genuine? Or was it about something else? Could it be another conspiracy? Or was it because of Qi Feng?

Or did he find out about Qi Feng's crimes and made plans so that the Qi Kai Group would not fall into Qi Feng's hands? Or was it a strategy?

It was so unexpected it made Qi Lei keep his guard up, and he inevitably had a lot of thoughts running in his head. His eyes were clouded with confusion.

"Let's not talk about forgiveness now. Now that Qi Qiming had already done this, the key is to see what Qi Feng will do."

Mu Yuchen thought for a moment and said, "You should know Qi Feng better than me. I hope he won't be pushed too far."

Qi Lei's eyes darkened when he heard that...

At this very moment, in Qi Feng's office...

Swoosh!

Bang!

The sound of ceramic shattering echoed in the dark gloomy space. When Gu Lingsha rushed in, the office looked like it had been swept away by a storm. Everything that had been neatly displayed on the desk was scattered all over the floor like remnants...

Qi Feng was sitting in his office chair with his back facing the door as he looked out the window with a lit cigarette between his fingers. The sound earlier was from the cell phone he had just flung.

“Ah Feng, don’t do this. Calm down...” Gu Lingsha was shocked when she saw the mess in the room.

She had never seen him so angry before. In the past, no matter how angry he got, he would just bottle it all in. The situation had obviously crossed his line and he probably had no other way to control his anger.

“What’re you doing here?” His voice was cold as ice.

“I dropped by because I’m worried about you. Father is—” Gu Lingsha mumbled, but when Qi Qiming was mentioned, Qi Feng could not hold it in anymore and immediately cut her off.

“Enough! Don’t mention him in front of me. Get out! I just want to be alone.” His tone was cold and somber.

“Ah Feng, I’m just worried about you. Even though things didn’t turn out well, I think maybe Father is just...” Gu Lingsha was also furious about Qi Qiming’s decision since it had ruined her efforts with Qi Feng. While she did not know what to do next, she was terrified to see Qi Feng like this.

“I know him better than anyone, and he blindsided me!” Qi Feng gritted his teeth as he said in a hoarse voice. It was obvious that he was furious, but no one could figure out what he was thinking about through his dark eyes.

He certainly had not forgotten that in the past, Wang Chun had reminded him that Qi Qiming knew exactly what he would do. Could his secrets have been exposed?

He believed that he had concealed those secrets well, so how could that be?

“Ah Feng...”

“Get out! I’m telling you to get out now! Ask Morrison to come to see me!”

His voice made Gu Lingsha tremble. She wanted to say more, but Qi Feng turned around and glared at her. She did not dare to say more, so she turned around and quietly left the office.

Morrison quickly entered the room and immediately shut the door.

“Master...” He was uneasy when he saw the office that looked like a storm had swept through it.

“What’s the situation with the guy?” Qi Feng asked coldly.

Morrison broke out in a cold sweat and said, “Master, he’s been controlled by Mu Yuchen’s people and the police. I’m trying to find someone to kill him because as long as he can’t speak, there’ll be no proof that can lead them to us. We made the arrangement without your presence, and I did it through...so don’t worry. There shouldn’t be any problem. As for Second Master and President Qi, there won’t be any problem either since it was Doris and Glenn who did it. Now that they’re both dead, no one will be able to find any clues. Even if they manage to get any information, we need to stay calm and not worry.”

Morrison took a deep breath to suppress the anxiety in his heart when, in fact, he was just unsure.

As expected, Qi Feng sneered when he heard that. He raised his gaze and stared at Morrison coldly. “Mu Yuchen! It’s Mu Yuchen again! Every time! It’s always him ruining my plans! It’s easy for you to say it, but why is Mu Yuchen holding onto Wang Qin’s matter? He obviously has doubts in his heart, and given his intelligence, he can obviously link it back to us, can’t he?”

Chapter 1488. Progress 2

Qi Feng felt as if he was on a lone boat at the mouth of a storm. Any moment he became distracted, he could be swallowed by the storm! This was the first time he felt the torment of such anxiety and apprehension!

“First Master’s right, but right now, that person has yet to regain consciousness. Perhaps, it’s nothing to be worried about. I was planning on arranging for a sniper to shoot him dead, but the police are watching him very closely, so it’s hard for them to make a move. That’s why...”

Upset, Qi Feng, who had never quite been harsh, could not help but say this now, "I don't want to hear any excuses, just results! I only want results! You should be very clear about what awaits us if this gets exposed! Look at how things are right now! We can't make any more mistakes on our end! Right now, when it comes to the old man's matter, do you think Qi Lei will let go so easily? Don't be naive. God knows that he's probably looked for a private investigator and is secretly looking into this. You made this decision and now we've fallen into this state. Morrison, when have you been so impatient for results?"

When Morrison heard that, his heart could not help but sink, and he felt a little sad!

Had he not done this for Qi Feng?

Even though he admitted that he wanted to also get what was his at the first opportunity, he was not doing it all for himself!

"First Master, I was indeed too impetuous about the thing with CEO Qi, but at this point, I'm afraid we can only do this. Don't tell me that we're going to wait until CEO Qi personally offers Second Master the position before we make a move. No one could have expected things to turn out this way on the shareholders' end," explained Morrison.

Qi Feng combed through his hair with his fingers and breathed in to calm himself down. "I don't want to leave things up to chance. If things get exposed, then what awaits us is just a dead end. I, Qi Feng, am someone who cherishes my life, so these hidden threats have to be resolved right away. The company's matter has been settled conclusively. We'll just have to stabilize the situation for now. Figuring out how we're going to protect ourselves is the most important."

Qi Feng also knew how helpless he sounded at this moment while saying these things, but he was feeling more and more uneasy. He felt that this time around, things might not go as smoothly as they did the last time. Perhaps, this time what awaited him would be...

Out in the open, the police watching closely, and in secret, Mu Yuchen was interfering. Qi Feng had never felt this powerless. Trapped in between all this, he felt as if he was surrounded by enemies and isolated without any help...

Morrison could detect the uneasiness in Qi Feng's heart, and he knew that he was feeling the same way as him. They were equally nervous.

“Don’t worry, First Master. I’ll go get it done right away. I guarantee that I won’t leave any traces behind!” Morrison said while his eyes were filled with an unhesitating firmness.

Upon hearing this tone, Qi Feng looked up slightly at the tense Morrison, and he frowned while he said with a low, raspy voice, “You’re planning on...”

“I’m going to book a flight ticket and rush over to end him myself!” Morrison said with a cold voice.

Morrison had been in the military base before, so he was not unfamiliar with these skills. In fact, he was a careful person, hence in this situation, the fewer people knew the better. Thus, he thought for a long time and decided to take this risk out of desperation. Otherwise, things would not end well if they were exposed...

When he heard Morrison, Qi Feng took a deep breath and said, “I trust you to get things done, but you must ensure your own safety. Don’t fail at the task and lose your life. I can provide assistance anytime on my end. Once you get any news from the other side, make contact through the private channels. Right now, we’re being watched closely by everyone. If you want to protect yourself, it won’t be easy to send messages either.”

Morrison nodded again. “Don’t worry, First Master, I know what to do. If the whole thing gets exposed, then, First Master, it’s best that you make other plans as well. They shouldn’t be able to detect those assets you have in the banks abroad. You should shift them as soon as possible and pave a way out for yourself just to be safe.”

“That’s for sure. Your new identity has been arranged. Once things are settled on the other end, use your new identity right away and find somewhere no one knows you to hide for a while. Don’t worry about things on my end.”

Qi Feng did not need Morrison’s reminder. He had always been someone who was used to making plans in advance. Back when Doris was shot dead, he had already been making preparations.

“What about Missus?” Morrison asked.

Qi Feng's eyes then darkened slightly. He took in a deep breath before he continued, "Let's not involve her in these things, if anything happens to me, at least, she'll still be alive and there'll be one kin to raise Weiwei. If we drag her into this, what will become of Weiwei?"

It was only when Qi Weier was mentioned that Qi Feng's cold heart warmed slightly.

Morrison knew very well that the vicious-hearted Qi Feng actually had his weaknesses too. His weakness was that when it came to his daughter, Qi Weier, he would become extremely gentle and kind. It was only in those moments that Morrison could feel that Qi Feng was still alive.

"Yes, First Master. If Miss Weiwei knows how much you love her, she'll be very happy," said Morrison softly.

However, when Qi Feng heard that, he just smiled bitterly. "Only we don't know how much more times like these we have left. I'll do my best to arrange for things in the next two days. Let the two of them leave City Z. It's too chaotic here. If we can get through all of this, then we'll fetch them back. Otherwise, just let them leave this place, find a new one, and start over."

When Qi Feng spoke like that, it was clear that he was planning for the worst.

For some reason, Morrison felt his heart being stifled. He had been planning for the worst too.

Right now, they could only give it their one last fight. They had planned and schemed for so much, yet they found themselves in this dire state...

"That's good too. Leave this place. It'll be more peaceful elsewhere."

Morrison said, "Alright, First Master, I'll go prepare now and rush over right away. I'll complete my mission smoothly."

Then, he took one last dazed look at Qi Feng before abruptly turning around.

“Morrison, wait!”

Morrison had just reached the entrance when Qi Feng suddenly could not help but call out to him.

He stopped walking and turned around to look at Qi Feng. “Anything else, First Master?”

As Qi Feng slowly stood up, his dark eyes met Morrison’s equally dark eyes quietly. “Take care of yourself.”

Chapter 1489. Of Course I Hate You! 1

Startled for a moment, Morrison nodded slightly. He then turned and left without saying anything. Watching Morrison’s figure disappear out of the doorway, Qi Feng felt a moment of weakness, so he sat down on the chair behind him in a trance again. Things were already completely out of his control. Judging from the current situation, he was in a very passive position. Furthermore, he could not be sure whether after Morrison left, would things...

As he thought about this, Qi Feng felt a sharp pain coming from the bottom of his head. That turmoil made his head feel like it was about to explode. He could not help but take a few breaths before standing up and leaning over on the desk with his arms spread apart. Breathlessly, he searched for balance and support.

He lowered his head and stared at the documents that he had flung all over the floor for a long time. Then, he bent down and picked them up.

Meanwhile, Gu Lingsha had been waiting outside the door. When she saw Morrison walk out of the room without saying a word, the anxiety in her heart grew stronger. She took a glimpse at Qi Feng’s closed office door, took a deep breath, then chased after Morrison immediately.

“Morrison, wait up!” It was not difficult to pick up the tension in her lowered voice.

When Morrison heard her, he stopped his pace and turned his head to gaze at Gu Lingsha who was catching up to him. With that, he got a sight of the nervousness in her eyes. "Missus, is there anything else?" he asked.

"What's going on in there? Why did it become like this? Did both of you hide something from me? Was what Wang Chun said back then about how we should know about the matter very well deep down referring to the incident with Qi Lei? It was about the abduction of Qi Lei, wasn't it? I thought I made it clear that the incident was my mother's...no, Glenn's doing? Why is Ah Feng involved?" Gu Lingsha obviously did not forget the innuendo that Qi Lei had made during her phone conversation with him. This made her feel more uneasy. If he really thought that it was Qi Feng who had made the call, then...

She could not bear to think any further.

Morrison took a faint inhalation while there was an indescribable dimness in his eyes. He had never felt so helpless before. "Missus, when it comes to certain matters, the less you know, the better. First Master chose not to tell you for you and Miss Weiwei's sake. In fact, First Master already started feeling a little powerless after returning from Australia. It's all because I persuaded him to leave Australia. Otherwise, given his capability, it shouldn't be difficult for him to create an empire in Australia," he said with a hint of chagrin self-blame in his tone, "I regret what I did back then. Maybe..."

"What happened? Isn't this just a missed opportunity for the position of President of Qi Kai Group? It's not so bad. We don't have to be so pessimistic. Maybe Father will change his mind later on," Gu Lingsha said.

Morrison gave a vague smile and sighed. "It'd be great if it's that simple. Oh yeah, Missus, there are things that I've always wanted to tell you, but I almost forgot because I was too busy before this."

At this point, he suddenly recalled Glenn from before. Perhaps, he might end up just like Glenn this time, but would he be luckier than the latter?

He had not conveyed what Glenn had told him before this clearly to Gu Lingsha because he was worried. However, at this moment, he was about to leave this place, and he did not know if he would have a chance to come back ever again, so he should just say it there and then. "Mr. Glenn told me before that you should just send him and Miss Doris back to England if it's convenient for you. After all, that's the place they like the most. He also said that Miss Doris loves you very much and that they hope that you and First Master can stay together forever."

Morrison suddenly paused as he spoke as if he was thinking about something. He then continued after a while, "If everyone is lucky enough to get through this, why don't we go back to Australia? First Master may want to arrange for you and Miss Weiwei to go back there, so when the time comes, please don't reject him. You'll understand all his intentions in the end."

Gu Lingsha did not understand a word that Morrison said. She just felt that these sounded like his last words before the apocalypse. Had they really done something?

"Morrison, tell me honestly, did something happen? Is it true that Father's incident was also Ah Feng's doings?" Gu Lingsha had heard of some gossip about the incident before this, and she was naturally furious about it.

Although Qi Feng was an unpredictable man, she had always believed that he would never lay his fingers on her father. Moreover, based on his feelings for Weiwei, she also believed that he still valued family above everything else, at least she was willing to believe him.

"First Master has nothing to do with President Qi's accident, I can assure you of this. Alright, Missus, please take care of First Master, as for other matters, it's better to ask less and don't interfere with them, otherwise, it's really won't do you any good." Morrison left behind a few words of exhortation, he then strode forward with a heavy pace.

"Morrison, wait!" Gu Lingsha still wanted to say something, however, Morrison had already disappeared in the corner ahead...

Gu Lingsha creased her brows. After giving it some thought, she could not help but walk towards Qi Feng's office. She pushed the door open carefully and saw that Qi Feng was squatting down, picking up the documents that had fallen from the desk. The atmosphere in the office was more depressed than before, and she could feel the gloomy atmosphere as soon as she walked in, making her a little breathless.

"Didn't I tell you to get out? Why are you here again?" Qi Feng's cold voice slashed through the silent air.

"Ah Feng, did something happen? I just heard what Morrison said. Something felt wrong. You need to tell me what's the matter. Does it have something to do with Qi Lei? I can go to Father. He can definitely help you, and I can beg those friends that Mother made before this. They'll definitely be able to help," Gu Lingsha persuaded worriedly.

"Who asked you to beg them? They are people who cannot be relied on. Since when have I not solved things on my own along the way?" Qi Feng's somber voice pierced through the air as soon as she finished speaking.

He had believed Qi Qiming, but this was how he ended up! He no longer wanted to look into the rights and wrongs. If he lost, he lost. It was simply unfortunate that the outcome came so suddenly that he was caught off guard.

"So, this is it? You're just going to give up?" Gu Lingsha could not help but raise her voice as tears could be seen welling up in her pretty eyes.

Chapter 1490. Of Course I Hate You! 2

"Don't worry about it. I know what I'm doing. I asked them to make the arrangements for Australia. Recently, City Z has been chaotic, so it's best if you go there with Weiwei for now. I'll be busy and I can't take care of everything, thus it would help me worry less if you both stayed there for a while," Qi Feng said calmly. "I won't go! I want to stay here with you! Ah Feng, don't push me away. I understand what Morrison was talking about. You must've been in trouble. I've never seen you like this before, so no matter what happens, I'm not going to leave. I won't go anywhere. I'll stay right here, Ah Feng!" Gu Lingsha choked up when she said that. She reached out to grip his sleeve. "We're husband and wife, and I don't care anymore. I just hope we can go back to the start and go through all the hardships together."

Gu Lingsha actually felt guilty. She felt sorry that since she came back, they had been fighting and hurting each other because of the misunderstandings between them. Regardless of what happened, she felt that perhaps they were meant to endure it together.

"What can you do? If you stay here, you'll only get in my way. It's best if you can leave and take Wei Wei with you," Qi Feng said solemnly.

Suddenly, the phone on his table vibrated. He took a breath before turning around to pick it up.

"Hello, is this Mr. Qi Feng?"

As soon as the call was connected, he could hear a female voice on the other end.

“Yes, it’s me,” Qi Feng responded and his eyes flashed with doubt.

“Hello, Mr. Qi. I am Qi Weier’s form teacher. Qi Weier accidentally fell down the stairs and bumped her head. She’s now at the infirmary. Please come over immediately...”

Qi Feng’s face suddenly became gloomy like the sky before the storm.

“How is she now? The school must be accountable for this matter!” He hung up the phone after he said that and immediately marched towards the door with his car key.

“Ah Feng...” Gu Lingsha followed.

“Wei Wei had an accident at school, so let’s head over there first. We’ll talk later,” Qi Feng said as he increased his pace.

He was walking normally now, but he still needed to be careful. Due to his anxiety, he walked a little faster and his legs started aching, but he could not care less about his pain now.

When Gu Lingsha heard about their daughter, her eyes widened in shock. “What are you talking about? Wei Wei...what happened to her?”

Qi Feng turned his back and walked away coldly.

Mu Yuchen got off work early and left the company at half-past two to drive to Fuhua Real Estate. The road was smooth as it was non-peak hours, so he arrived at the entrance of the building in less than half an hour.

He parked the car at the plaza in front of the entrance and walked in straight.

“Hello, Chairman Mu!”

“Chairman Mu!”

Many people greeted Mu Yuchen along the way as most of the staff knew him. He would often come to pick President Xi up from work, especially during this period of time. Whenever they saw the power couple, they would look up to them excitedly.

The perfect pair was a match made in heaven, and they were most definitely pleasing to the eye.

Mu Yuchen took the private elevator to the top floor where Xi Xiaye’s office was. When he was walking to the office, he ran into Xiao Mei who just came out of the office.

She smiled when she saw Mu Yuchen. “Chairman Mu, you’re here early today?”

Mu Yuchen nodded his head and asked, “Is she in?”

“Yes, she just came back from the construction site and reviewed two important documents. She’s a little tired and is taking a break now,” Xiao Mei replied.

Then, Mu Yuchen pushed the door open and walked in.

Xi Xiaye was standing by the windows and watering the plants. She was wearing a white toga spring dress that made her look soft and delicate.

She had never liked white clothing very much because she always thought that it did not look good on her. Mu Yuchen also felt the same about the color white because it did not suit someone like him.

However, he thought she looked pretty elegant now.

“What’s wrong? Do I not look good?” Xi Xiaye noticed that the man had stopped behind her. He was quiet, so she turned around and looked at him before stretching out arms and did a twirl. “It’s from Su Nan’s new spring clothing line, and this is the only piece in the world. She wanted me to try this white. What do you think? Although I do feel it makes my waist a little chubby, I don’t look that fat, do I?” she said while staring at him as she did not want to miss the expression on his face.

The man glanced at her indifferently and raised his eyebrows before walking towards her desk while tidying up her documents. He casually replied, “Not that fat, but still fat!”

Xiaye immediately frowned when he said that. She glanced at her own body in disbelief and said with displeasure, “How is that possible?! Xiao Mei said I look good!”

“Subordinates will never say anything negative about their boss, don’t you know that?”

Xi Xiaye’s brows furrowed when she heard this.

“Moreover, men and women have different tastes when it comes to women, so you should just please me.”

“No way!”

“Come on. Time to pack up and get off work. Look at those dark circles under your eyes.”

“There’ve been a lot of things going on recently and there are matters to be dealt with at the construction site. I can’t feel my feet anymore. Will you give me a leg massage tonight?”

“Dream on.”

“If you don’t want to, I’ll just go to the hot spring and find a skilled masseuse.”

“So, you’re all grown up and threatening me now, hmm?” he chided while carrying her briefcase and handing her the coat in his hand.

“That’s right! I also know the remedy.”

“Impressive!”

She had also made plans to leave work early anyway and buy some good ingredients to make a sumptuous dinner herself, but just as the couple walked out of the company and got into the car, the teacher from Mu Zirui’s school called.

“Hello? Is this Mrs. Mu? Yes, I’m the class teacher of Mu Zirui. There’s been an accident. He fell down the stairs and was seriously injured. He’s being treated at the infirmary now. Could you please come over? I’m really sorry!”

Xi Xiaye turned ashen when she heard the news.
