Chapter-166

AMALTHEA'S POV

"Scarlett is going to pull your hair for making me cry and ruining my make-up," I said to him, and he chuckled, tears welling in his eyes too.

"I sure will," Scarlett shouted, and we all chuckled at her response.

"So?" Augustus asked, and I raised my brows at her.

"So?" I asked.

"Shall we ditch the party now?" Augustus whispered in my ears, and I chuckled at him.

"The party has only started, and if you have forgotten, you are the host here," I said, and he pouted before holding my hand.

"Hey, where are you taking me?" I asked, shocked, and he looked at me before smiling.

"To the place that is solely yours," Augustus said as he pulled me upstairs towards the throne seat, making me raise my brows.

"Augustus, we haven't gotten married yet. You are not going to do what I think you are doing, right?" I asked, and he looked at me with a cheeky smile before nodding his head.

Picking me up bridal style, he placed me on the throne seat of the King before bending near my knees.

"You might be the queen to the world, but for me, you are both, my king and queen," Augustus said, his words reverberating in the silent hall, and everyone immediately hooted loudly.

"Jake," Augustus nodded at Jake, who immediately brought out the queen's crown, making me look at him, bewildered.

"You had planned all this?" I asked, shocked.

"Of course, my love. This is the best birthday gift you can give me," He said as he looked at me expectantly, and I sighed before looking at him.

"Do it," I said, and as if it was all the permission he needed, he stood straight before looking at everyone.

"Everyone, Queen Amalthea Jade Dominic!" Augustus said in a loud and clear voice, making everyone holler as he placed the queen's crown on my head, making me look at everyone with a smile.

"Are you happy?" I asked, and he nodded.

"More than you can imagine," he said before kissing my lips again, making me smile and give in to his kiss this time.

After two hours of Augustus's constant complaining about how he can deal with the alphas and those Lycans ministers later and he wants to spend the rest of his night with me, I finally gave in to his wish as we both excused ourselves before running to the backyard.

"Augustus," I said as I looked towards the forest.

"Hmm, my love?" He asked, and I grinned at him.

"Since we have ditched the guest, why not run away?" I asked, and he raised his brows at me.

"Are you serious?" He asked, and I nodded my head.

"Yup,"

"Well, then, what are we waiting for?" He asked, taking off his coat, shirt, and pants before changing into his wolf, making me hide behind the bushes as I turned into my wolf.

"Let's see who can run faster," I said through the mind link, and Kyle released a happy howl, making me do the same.

"Crystal, we shall win this," I said as we started running towards the forest, a happy grin on both of our faces.

Pouncing on Kyle as he was running faster than us, I chuckled loudly as we jumped over him before running ahead of us.

"This is cheating!" Augustus shouted through the mind link, and I laughed at his voice.

"I never said we couldn't cheat," I said before increasing our pace, and it wasn't long before we reached the lake.

Looking at our reflection as we stood on the edge, I smiled when I noticed how happy we looked.

Seeing Kyle running towards us at full speed as he looked like he was about to pounce on us, Crystal made a swift slide at the right time, making Kyle lose balance as he fell directly into the lake.

"Ayyee, that looks like a bad fall," I said through the mind link before tilting my head as Kyle growled at us before coming out of the water, making me widen my eyes when I realised he was coming for us to run his wet fur on us.

"Hey! Stay away from us," I shouted through the mind link.

However, it was all useless as Kyle jumped on us, making Crystal growl as he rubbed his wet fur on us, snuggling his snout closer to ours, and knowing all too well that it was futile to struggle, we finally gave up as both of us laid side by side, looking into each other's eyes.

"I love you, Amalthea Jade," Augustus said through the mind link.

"I love you too, Augustus Dominic," I said as our wolves licked each other, showing their affection for each other.

We were finally together and happy. This was probably the end of our miseries and the beginning of our new life filled with happiness and I was glad that I was starting this new life with a man who has started to understand me better than I understand myself.

If this was what happiness felt like, maybe this is all what I was missing and needed in my life.

I know that there will be times when we are going to face problems and disagree with each other on certain matters. There might be sometimes when we'll judge each other because of our positions and dominating powers, but I know that nothing in this world will be strong enough to create a distance between us.

Looking into Augustus's eyes, feeling like drowning in them, I saw a smiling girl looking back at me and I couldn't help but kiss his forehead, feeling my heart swell with love.

This was the story of my life and revenge. This was the story of the Luna's Vengeance.

The end.
