

Chapter 83

After they entered Mr. Jones’s house, James and Helen were once again stunned.

The interior design of the house could only be described as luxurious and they couldn’t stop staring in awe.

James couldn’t help but gasp and say, “Mr. Jones, you truly are a successful businessman. The interior design and style is extraordinary!”

With a smile, Mr. Jones replied, “It’s just a place to stay so I only decorated it simply.”

Hearing this, Liam immediately said, “Mr. Jones has a dozen houses like this in Eastcliff so he doesn’t have time to pay attention to the decorations!”

James and Helen were dumbfounded. A few dozen villas? That would cost a few billion! This guy is a boss!

“Well then, let’s get to business!” Mr. Jones smiled and said, “Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, are you sure you want to invest in my real estate project?”

“Of course!” James hurriedly answered. “Mr. Jones, you have great foresight and being able to do business with you is an honor!”

“Since you’ve already made the decision, let’s get straight to it.” Mr. Jones chuckled. “Here, I’ve already prepared the contract. After you sign the contract and transfer the money to the account, our project can start!”

Hearing this, James hurriedly took the contract and read through it carefully.

After he made sure that there weren’t any problems with the contract, he forged Sasha’s signature and stamped Cunningham Pharmaceuticals’ official seal onto the document.

“Great!” Mr. Jones laughed happily. “President Cunningham, now that we’ve signed the contract, when will I receive the money?”

“I’ve already arranged for it to be transferred today!” James instantly replied. “The finance department is working on it and you’ll be able to receive it soon!”

James then went out to make a call and not long after, Mr. Jones received 300 million in his account! After all, James had long prepared to invest in this project, and he had even changed the company financial manager to Demi. That way, it would be easier to transfer funds and there was no need to notify Sasha.

All he had to do was forge Sasha’s signature and notify Demi.

When Mr. Jones saw the money in his account, he nodded satisfyingly and said, “Great! President Cunningham, it’ll be a pleasure working with you!”

James and Helen were both overjoyed. With a return rate of more than ten times, we will become famous once the project succeeds!

After chatting for a while, James and Helen left.

As soon as they arrived at the company entrance, they saw Matthew waiting anxiously at the doorway.

James instantly yelled angrily, “It’s that b*stard again! Why won’t he leave us alone?!”

Helen said, “Liam, ignore and drive past him. Once our project succeeds, we’ll have nothing to do with him!”

Liam sneered as he drove past Matthew and went straight into the underground parking lot.

Matthew hurriedly rushed over but he was too late.

James, Helen and Liam went upstairs happily. When they arrived at the office, they saw Sasha sitting there, waiting for them.

“You’re finally back!” Sasha anxiously greeted them and asked, “Where have you been? Why didn’t you answer my calls?”

Helen immediately scolded angrily, “Sasha, watch your tone when you speak to your father! Where did we go? Where else could we go? We went out to find business for the company and for the benefit of our family! But look at the way you’re treating us! We’ve ran around the whole day and you don’t even seem to care. Instead, you rushed over and interrogated us!”

Sasha felt helpless. “I’m not interrogating you. I just wanted to tell you that Mr. Jones is a con man!”

“Enough!” James banged his fist on the table and yelled, “If you speak ill of Mr. Jones again, I’ll cut ties with you!”

