

Chapter 249 The Stepmother Made Trouble

When Cerissa saw Celia, she let go of Mabel's hand, hurriedly walked towards Celia, and stared at Celia in surprise for a long time. Then she said with a feigned gentleness, "Cece, what are you doing here? You can't afford the clothes here. They are too expensive for you. This is not the place you should go to."

She paused for a moment and looked at Celia with a smile. Then she explained, "I don't mean to look down on you. Instead, I care for you. I know that you don't have much money. It won't be good for you if they stop you from leaving because you can't pay your bill. It's so embarrassing, right?"

"Whether I have money or not is none of your business," Celia said indifferently.

At this time, Tyson gently pulled Celia behind him and stepped forward to stand between the two women.

When Cerissa raised her head, she was startled to see Tyson wearing a mask.

She smiled awkwardly, rolled her eyes, and said, "Tyson, right? I'm Cece's cousin. We met in Davina last time. Do you remember?"

"Yes." Tyson's reply was a single word, and his voice was very cold. Then he didn't say anything more.

Celia didn't tell him the truth that she replaced Cerissa to marry him, so he pretended not to know that Cerissa was her half-sister.

But the truth was, he had been wanting to teach Cerissa a lesson.

Cerissa felt that Tyson's eyes were so horrible that she didn't dare to look at him again. She quickly turned her head back to Celia and said kindly, "Cece, it's good that you have free time to go shopping today. Mom is also here. Let's introduce Tyson to her."

The Cerissa in front of them now was very different from the arrogant and domineering Cerissa Tyson met in Davina last time. If he hadn't seen her arrogance, he wouldn't know that she was only putting on an act at the moment.

This time, Mabel walked over to them and stood beside her. She held Mabel's arm and introduced Tyson and Mabel to each other. "Tyson, this is my mother.

Mom, this is Tyson, Cece's husband."

The moment Mabel saw Tyson, her hair stood on end with fright. Cold sweat broke out on her back, and she subconsciously wanted to leave.

After all, she and Tyson had met at the wedding before. What if he recognized her?

However, Cerissa stopped her by winking at her. Then Cerissa turned to Tyson and smiled. "I'm sorry, Tyson. My mother just had plastic surgery, and the doctor said she couldn't be exposed to sunlight."

It was only then that Mabel remembered that she was wearing sunglasses and a mask. Even Adrien might not recognize her, not to mention Tyson, who had only seen her once in the crowd.

And she also knew that Celia wouldn't dare to tell Tyson the truth before Celia got the ring from Adrien. So Mabel mustered up the courage to look at Tyson and vent her resentment toward Celia. She deliberately loudened her voice and said disdainfully, "You don't need to introduce us. I know him. He is the loser who was kicked out of the Shaw family."

Her voice attracted a lot of attention, so she said at the top of her lungs as if flaunting something, "Is there anyone in Hosworth who hasn't heard of his name? He is an illegitimate child with a disfigured face, a good-for-nothing and sickly man. He brings nothing to the Shaw family but shame."

Cerissa deliberately put on a surprised look and pretended to defend Tyson. "Mom! How can you say that? Aren't you going too far? Although everyone knows that Tyson's face has been ruined, you can't embarrass him at will in public."

Mabel turned to Cerissa and sneered, "Oh, my dear daughter. You are so kind-hearted that you still defend them. Look at them. One is a disfigured loser, and the other is a useless jinx. Fortunately, they ended up together. Otherwise, they will only hurt others."

At this moment, Celia couldn't hold back her temper anymore. She snapped, "You are going too far! You can insult me all you want. I don't care. But I can't allow you to insult my husband."

But Mabel didn't take Celia's anger seriously. Instead, she became more unscrupulous. "Are you kidding me? What insult are you talking about? I am just telling the truth, right?"

Tyson frowned. He didn't want to fight with such a shrew, and he didn't want Mabel to ruin Celia's good mood. So while the two were bickering, he took out his cell phone and sent a message to Briar.

"Send someone to Caroline Store in Global Mall now. There are two women I need you to deal with here."

Only a few people knew that Global Mall was actually his property.

Now that Mabel and Cerissa were in his territory, he would teach these two a good lesson for Celia's sake.
