

Chapter 488 Asking Tyson For Help

Celia was the first one to react. She walked towards Tyson.

He immediately gave her a hug, as if she was the only person he noticed here. He gently asked her, "Honey, what's going on? Why is it so lively in here?"

Just as Celia was deliberating on how to answer, Alita came over and said to Tyson, "Mr. Shaw, you came back just in time. There are three idiots bullying your wife here. Please take care of them."

Hearing this, Tyson turned to look at the people from the Kane family, his gaze ice cold.

Mabel was frightened by his stare. A shiver ran down her spine, making her shift uncomfortably. She quickly lowered her head.

Cerissa, on the other hand, boldly returned Tyson's stare.

Although she was also scared, she tried not to let it show. She wanted to confirm something.

She felt a vague familiarity from Tyson's aura. She had gone to beg Nolan to return the Kane Group to her father before. He wore sunglasses and mask, however, so she didn't see his face, but the ungenial, oppressive feeling he gave off left a deep impression on her.

Unexpectedly, she experienced the same powerful aura from Celia's husband, who was supposed to be a loser.

A woman's instinct could never get wrong, though. She suspected that there might be a connection between Tyson and Nolan.

Tyson quickly corrected his expression. He looked at Adrien and said indifferently, "Aren't you Cece's father?"

At being addressed, Adrien nodded hurriedly. He let go of Mabel and stepped forward. "Yes, I'm Cece's father. I'm surprised that Mr. Shaw still remembers me."

Adrien could tell, as well, that Tyson wasn't "good for nothing" like the rumors said. He might even be hard to deal with.

Stuttering, he said, "Mr. Shaw, I ... I didn't come here intending to offend you. I have something to discuss... with you. For Cece's sake, can we have a talk, if it's convenient?"

Tyson already knew what kind of person Adrien was and what he had done to Celia, so he refused immediately.

"That won't be necessary. I can't spend my time talking with just anyone. My time is precious. I have to spend it with my wife."

After saying that, he lowered his head to look at Celia. Obviously, he wanted to listen to her opinion.

Adrien was a smart man. He knew what he was thinking at a glance, so he gazed at Celia with pleading eyes.

Of course, Celia didn't want him to speak to Tyson. On second thought, though, she was afraid that if he didn't, he would reveal the fact of her being the substitute bride. So, she said, "If you want to talk, then talk, but do it here instead of upstairs. I loathe people ruining our carpet."

Although she didn't intend to hide it from Tyson forever, she just needed a suitable opportunity to tell him the truth.

Clearly, now was not the right time.

Mabel was irritated by Celia's response and wanted to shoot back.

Noticing that his wife was about to act stupidly again, however, Adrien quickly stopped her. He wouldn't let her destroy the chance he worked so hard to get.

After giving Mabel a look to make her calm down, he addressed Tyson directly.

"Mr. Shaw, I believe you've heard from Cece that Kane Group has been taken over, right?" Adrien made a pitiable expression as he said, "Our family is living a miserable life now. We can barely afford to eat. So, I hope the Shaw family can assist me in getting Kane Group back. I will never forget your kindness. I will work for you like a servant without a single complaint in our next life."

Tyson listened to him without making a single reaction. He, instead, deliberately threw a glance at Cerissa and said, "Why have you brought Cece's cousin with you?"
