

Chapter 494 Driving Them Away

Too many things happened today, especially the mention of Celia's one-night stand before the wedding. Cerissa's casual tone when she told Tyson about the matter made Celia feel as if she had been stripped naked, ridiculed, and violated.

The immense pain she felt was so strong that it would be buried deep in her heart and haunt her for the rest of her life.

Her heart ached so bad that she just wanted to end her life. That way, Celia could escape from the problem conveniently.

Meanwhile, Adrien was persistent in his attempts to ask Tyson for help.

"Mr. Shaw, it doesn't matter if you marry Cerissa or not. I am your father-in-law as Cece is also my daughter. Now that I have lost the Kane Group, I'm in deep trouble. As my son-in-law, you will definitely help me, right? After all, you wouldn't want Cece to be looked down upon by the other rich ladies, right?" pleaded Adrien.

Adrien knew that Tyson had a soft spot for Celia, and thought that he could get Tyson's pity by using her as an excuse.

However, he didn't know that Tyson deeply despised threats like this.

Tyson's face stiffened and he glared sharply at Adrien.

"You don't deserve to be Cece's father, and I won't help you. Just give up," he said coldly.

Adrien didn't expect Tyson would be so firm in his stance. "Our family's lives are now in the dumps. If this carries on, we may have to sleep on the streets. Can't you spare a little compassion toward us? You are my son-in-law!" his face flushed and he said hurriedly.

"So what? You didn't care about your daughter and even sold her for benefits. Why should I help you? From now on, even if the three of you die on the streets, it has nothing to do with me and Cece."

Alita was listening to the clash quietly. She was quite satisfied with Tyson's way of handling this matter. However, thinking that Adrien was still adamant about persuading Tyson, she swung the door open and demanded fiercely, "Do you have anything else to say? Don't make a fool of yourselves. You people are not invited here. Get out now!"

Adrien couldn't believe his ears. "What the hell! The two of you were only been married for a very short time. How could you believe and help her so much? Have you ever thought that she is deceiving you? Which man will allow his wife to have a one-night stand with another man on the night before their wedding? Are you sure you don't mind it at all?" Adrien asked accusingly.

"That's because Cece deserves to be understood. You are just a bunch of greedy people who will never get Tyson's trust. Be thankful that he did not ask someone to beat you up and throw you out of the house," sneered Alita.

Tyson was afraid that if Adrien stayed any longer, he would hurt Celia. He turned to Alita and said politely, "Miss Dawson, Cece is not feeling well. I'll take her upstairs for a rest. Please help me drive them away."

"Don't worry and leave it to me. I promise I won't let them disturb Cece," Alita patted his chest and said firmly.

As soon as she finished speaking, she picked up the broom to drive them away.

She landed several blows on Mabel and Cerissa, making them scream in pain.

Tyson made no attempts to stop her. Instead, he said coldly, "Adrien, you'd better not bring your family here and humiliate yourselves again. If there is a next time, I will make sure you disappear from Hosworth forever."

He carried Celia and went upstairs without looking back.

As soon as the two of them left, Alita continued to chase the Kane family away with her broom.

The three of them cursed aloud from the humiliation while being driven away.
