

Chapter 658 Being Molested In Front of Adrien

When Celia woke up, she was shocked to find herself tied in a room.

There was a camera in the room, and it was facing her.

Celia was terrified. Her eyes widened in shock when she saw Adrien standing next to the camera, with two tall men beside him.

Celia took deep breaths and tried to calm down. The foggy feeling in her brain was beginning to disappear.

Realizing she was in danger, she struggled and demanded, "Adrien, what on earth do you want? Why did you kidnap me?"

Adrien looked at her coldly.

Now that they were at this junction, Adrien didn't intend to hide his motives any longer. He went straight to the point and said menacingly, "Cece, don't blame me. You were the one who forced me to do this. If you were willing to save me before, I wouldn't have to treat you like this now, considering the relationship we had for so many years. It's you who drove me to a dead end. I am desperate for money, and someone gave me lots of money to kidnap you. Don't blame me. I had no choice but to obey."

Celia panicked when she heard his reply.

She thought that Adrien had contacted her to tell her everything about Jennifer. She never expected that it was a trap laid down especially for her.

Celia felt betrayed and scolded, "Adrien, I'm your daughter. We've lived together for more than ten years. Do you really have no feelings towards me? How could you hurt me again and again? Aren't you afraid of retribution?"

Adrien was momentarily stunned. He gazed at Celia tenderly and remembered the time when she was still a child. However, Mabel's words soon interrupted his thoughts.

Mabel once told him, "It's all Celia's fault that the Kane Group dropped to this state. She is not related to you by blood, so why would you show mercy to her? Who has showed mercy to us? Now that she is our enemy, if you pity her, you will be betraying us. If one person must suffer, why can't it be her? You raised her for more than ten years. She owes you! She should return the favor to our family!"

Recalling Mabel's words, he hardened his heart and made up his mind. He glared at Celia and hissed, "Didn't we cut off our ties already? How dare you still bring up the past? You never treated me as your father before!"

Adrien sighed and turned on the camera. "Cece, you can hate me. But I will not soften my heart anymore. I'm doing this for the Kane family, my wife and my kid."

With that, he gave the two tall men beside him the green light to act.

The two men immediately approached Celia and groped her.

Celia used all her strength to fight against them. She kept trying to kick them away, but her struggles were in vain, as the men were just too strong.

One of the men smirked and said lustfully, "This little girl has a good figure. Her breasts are big and soft. I'm going to sleep with her today."

Celia was embarrassed and furious that the man commented about her body in front of Adrien. She couldn't help cursing, "Fuck off! Don't touch me with your dirty hands. You will go to hell for rape. You bastards! Let go of me!"

However, no matter how hard Celia struggled, she couldn't free herself from the men.

One of the man's hands had already unbuttoned the first two buttons of her blouse, caressing his fingers on her shoulders. He smiled and said lewdly, "Such a feisty beauty! I like your swearing. Are you trying to curse me or turn me on?"

Celia was so angry she would stab the man in his heart if she had a knife with her now!

After enough foreplay, the man stood up and wanted to drag Celia to bed.

She took the opportunity to head butt his stomach. However, not only was the man unharmed, but she even felt her vision blurring.

"Bitch, behave yourself!" the man scolded as he slapped Celia on the cheek. The impact was so hard that it left an imprint, and she felt her consciousness slipping.

When she had no strength to resist, and the man had pressed himself against her, someone suddenly kicked the door open and rushed in.

Chapter 659 The Tense Scene

Celia only saw the slim figure of a man in a suit and leather shoes. He looked vaguely familiar.

When he moved closer, she recognized him. He was Alec! But before she could say or do anything, the effect of the medicine kicked in again. As a result, she fell into unconsciousness.

"Celia!" Alec shouted her name at the top of his lungs.

He rushed forward with strides, hitting and kicking the three people one after another.

Alec happened to be working in the hotel when he saw Adrien. He had a gut feeling that something was wrong, so he followed him. In doing so, he found the room where Celia was trapped.

After beating them up, he hurried to check up on Celia. Was she fine?

Within a minute, Alec felt her pulse and confirmed she was stable. Then he lifted her up carefully and went away.

Her unconscious face was reminiscent of that of the woman in his memory. His eyes were fixed on her and he kept on saying, "Jennifer, don't sleep! I'll take you to the hospital right away."

The expression on his handsome face showed how anxious he was. He didn't want anything bad to happen to Celia.

While walking, Alec asked the virtual assistant software on his phone to call his assistant. He wanted to take Celia to the hospital as quickly as possible. But, the moment he arrived at the hotel's gate, he ran into a group of reporters trying to ambush him.

"Mr. Wagner, the woman you are holding in your arms seems to be the wife of Mr. Tyson Shaw. What is your relationship with her?"

"There is a rumor that you have an affair with her. Is there something you would like to say about that?"

"I heard that you came to Hosworth in search of talents. Could it be that you've found what you want in her?"

The reporters asked Alec different questions and they were bent on getting answers. They refused to make way for him to pass. As a matter of fact, they wanted to force him back to the hotel.

This took place while Cerissa watched happily. She was standing just a stone's throw away.

Not long ago, she received a call from Adrien. He told her that their plan had failed. Cerissa was a little disappointed, not knowing what to say to Mack. But everything changed when she saw Alec coming out with Celia in his arms, looking very intimate.

Why shouldn't she take advantage of such awesome news? This would definitely make headlines. Without further ado, she informed some reporters.

Cerissa made up some lies about Alec and told them to the reporters, before revealing where to find him.

Just when she thought her plan had failed, things turned out better than she expected. It seemed as if luck was on her side.

Alec became impatient. He ordered his assistant to make a way for him through the inquisitive mob.

"Get out of the way!"

The assistant swung into action. He tried to drive the reporters away.

But they didn't budge, not wanting to miss out on such useful information. They did everything they could to make sure their cameras continued taking photos.

This didn't go on for a long time though. Some bodyguards had to intervene. They came and pushed the reporters away violently. After that, Alec took Celia to the hospital.

On the way, he prayed in his heart that she would be alright, not letting go of her hand for a second.

Meanwhile, the reporters didn't relent. They followed them all the way.

Their cameras kept filming even in the hospital.

Although Alec was fed up with their antics, he didn't bother himself with them anymore. The most important thing to him was Celia's safety. So he sent her to the emergency room.

The clips from the reporters were broadcasted with immediate effect, and Tyson saw them on the news. Without wasting time, he ended the meeting and went to the hospital.

His heart was filled with regret.

Recently, he paid all his attention on the project of Star Bay and didn't take good care of Celia. He should have noticed that there was something wrong with her, but he didn't.

When he eventually found out this afternoon that she didn't come to work, all he did was call someone to track her as fast as possible.

Unfortunately, she was in the hospital a few hours later.

By the time Tyson got to the hospital to see how Celia was doing, he saw Alec covering her with a quilt.

"What's wrong with my wife?" He rushed to her side without hesitation.

When Alec heard his question, he didn't say a word to him at first, but his face darkened. "Is this how you take care of your wife?" he finally asked.

Tyson didn't like the look on his face and his attitude in general. It was as if he was blaming him for what happened.

He avoided making eye contact with Alec and replied coldly, "I don't need you to teach me how to take care of her. You can go out now."

However, Alec didn't go anywhere. He didn't even turn to look at Tyson. His attention was on Celia. "I'll leave after she wakes up."

The situation became awkward and tense at the same time. Still, the reporters photographed and filmed it without delay.

As if Tyson wasn't angry enough, the reporters provoked him further with their overzealous actions. Therefore, he quickly asked someone to drive them away.
