

Chapter 669 The Relationship Between Celia and Nolan

Under Hobson's ultimatum, Mack had no choice but to pack up and leave the company.

As soon as Mack left the company's doors, he dialed Nolan's number angrily, but none of the calls connected!

He became increasingly resentful and began cursing in a fit of rage, "Nolan, you villain. I shouldn't have trusted you. How could you set me up and deceive me? You'd better not cross my path, or I will make you pay!"

Mack scolded for a long time and finally calmed down. He turned to his assistant and ordered, "Send someone to keep an eye on Nolan. Keep me informed about his actions."

His assistant immediately bowed and replied, "Yes, Mr. Shaw."

He handed over all the projects Mack was working on to Tyson and said dotingly, "Get yourself familiar with these projects first. You don't have to learn everything in a hurry. I'll let my men follow up on them first. I hope you will work hard and not be a disappointment like your brother. Don't let me down."

Tyson nodded enthusiastically and assured him, "Grandpa, don't worry. I won't let you down."

Tyson showed a great deal of respect and humbleness towards Hobson. Satisfied with Tyson's behavior, Hobson gave him some words of encouragement before leaving with his assistant.

As soon as Hobson left, Tyson checked his phone and found many missed calls from Celia. She had even sent him multiple texts asking if he had been bullied.

He knew Celia must be worried sick about him because he didn't answer the phone. He called her back immediately. "Honey, don't worry. No one bullied me. In fact, my grandpa thinks highly of me and gave me all of Mack's projects. By the way, I'm sorry, but you have to go home by yourself today. I have something to deal with."

Celia heaved a sigh of relief and assured him, "Sure, I can go back home by myself. But you must be careful. Get some strong bodyguards to protect you. Mack is not an easy person to deal with. I'm afraid he will use some dirty tricks to get back at you. Promise me you will be careful."

"Honey, don't worry. I know what to do," he replied affectionately and hung up the phone.

After work, Celia planned to head to the market to buy some ingredients. She wanted to prepare a big meal for Tyson to celebrate his success.

When she walked out of the Semshy Group, she saw a car waiting at the door. She realized they might still be the bodyguards Nolan assigned to protect her. They informed her they were to escort her home as Nolan feared that something unexpected would happen to her.

Of course, Celia didn't refuse their protection. After all, Mack didn't just hate Tyson. He would hate her as well.

She asked the driver to take a detour to the seafood market first.

When they arrived, she went in to buy some seafood. After living with her for a long time, Tyson had gradually taken a liking to seafood somehow.

However, when Celia smelled the odor of the seafood, she couldn't help but feel nauseous.

Celia thought she would recover soon. However, her nausea lasted longer than she expected.

A thought flashed through her mind. .

Was she pregnant?

Celia checked her period calendar app and found that her period was three days late.

Could she really be pregnant?

Celia felt extremely conflicted and was in no mood to shop for groceries anymore. She chose some seafood and checked out her purchases before returning to the car and urging the driver to drive home.

As her car drove off, another car parking nearby started after them.

The driver from the other car phoned Mack. "Mr. Shaw, I am following Celia from her office and found that Nolan not only arranged a car for her but also sent several bodyguards to protect her. Judging from their interaction, it doesn't seem like it's the first time those bodyguards were assigned to protect her. I'm guessing that Celia and Nolan's relationship is rather special."

As soon as Mack received the news from his assistant, he immediately understood why Nolan had set him up.

Obviously, it was for Celia's sake!

He chuckled to himself and thought that he had really underestimated Celia. She looked innocent and lovely when in fact, she was having relationships with several men.

Mack recalled when Celia pretended to be proper and didn't let him touch her. She must be playing hard to get with him. He was sure that she must have slept with other men many times before.

She could even seduce Nolan. No wonder she was Tyson's woman. She was as disgusting as his mother!

Mack snorted and told his assistant, "Keep an eye on Nolan and Celia. It would be good if you can catch them having an affair. That will definitely be of great use."

Didn't Tyson love his wife very much?

Mack would show everyone that Tyson's wife was a loose woman who slept with another man. He wanted the world to know that Tyson was cuckolded and laugh at his misery.

Now, he was not only targeting Tyson but also Celia.

He would take back everything he had lost from this couple!

Meanwhile, Celia kept the seafood in the fridge immediately after she reached home. She took out the pregnancy test kit she bought from the convenience store and was about to head to the bathroom for a test.

Before she could reach the bathroom, someone held her firmly from behind, and she shrieked in surprise.

A magnetic voice called out, "Honey, what's wrong? Did I scare you?"

Celia hurriedly hid the pregnancy test kit in her pocket and turned around, wrapping her arms around Tyson's neck. She calmed herself down and asked quizzically, "Didn't you say you had something to deal with in the company? Why are you home earlier than me?"

Tyson kissed her lips and said affectionately, "I dealt with it as soon as possible. I was afraid that you would miss me when you were alone at home."

After a short hug, he let go of her and rolled up his sleeves to prepare the seafood.

Celia wanted to help, but as soon as she smelled the stench of seafood, she felt nauseous again.

Tyson put down the seafood in his hand quickly and ran to her side. "Honey, what's wrong?" he asked anxiously while patting her back.

Celia shook her head and assured him, "I'm fine. Maybe I'm just too tired recently. I keep feeling like vomiting."

Tyson helped her to the sofa. Celia looked at him hesitantly and asked jokingly, "Honey, if I'm pregnant, do you want it to be a boy or a girl?"

Tyson frowned and dismissed her thoughts. "Don't think about having a baby for the time being. I want to spend more time with you alone. Isn't that better?"

Celia could tell that Tyson really didn't like children.

However, she had always thought about starting a big family with Tyson.

She was unsure if Tyson would ever want to have a child in the future. She was afraid that she couldn't convince him to have a child, and they would end up fighting because of it.

Tyson noticed that Celia looked unwell. He prepared a glass of hot milk for her and said, "Have a good rest here.
I'll cook for you."

Celia didn't refuse. She was in a bad mood and didn't bother to respond.

More than an hour later, Tyson was finally done cooking.
He dished out the seafood and placed the dishes on the table.

He had cooked seafood many times before and was already adept at preparing and cooking it. But for some reason, his dishes didn't look good today.

Tyson wanted to throw them away, but Celia stopped him.
She thought it would be wasteful and suggested, "They don't look good, but they may be delicious."

She tasted one of the dishes and thought it would taste like his usual cooking. However, the dish tasted horrible. She had initially intended to finish the food because it was expensive, but Tyson understood how bad it tasted from her expression and didn't allow her to continue. Instead, he sighed and ordered takeout, which better suited her taste.

The two of them ate in silence.

After dinner, Tyson received a phone call. He told Celia it was an important call from work and immediately went to the study to answer it.

It was a call from Emmitt. "Boss, I have purchased all of Shaw Group's shares that are available on the market. I tried my best to buy all of them, but some were acquired before I could buy them. You may have to be careful. It could be Mack's doing."

"Got it," Tyson replied, somewhat absentmindedly.

He looked through the crack of the study and saw Celia walking into the bathroom.

Celia was finally alone. She used the pregnancy test kit and prayed hard for a negative result. After a while, she was shocked by the result.
