

Chapter 781 Accepting Hendrix's Deal

Even though Celia didn't comprehend the reason for Hendrix's actions, she still accepted the document and proceeded to examine it.

After she read the contents, Celia was taken aback and left speechless.

The document contained detailed evidence of the car accident that killed Tyson's mother. It not only documented the case, but also identified the individual responsible for it.

Celia found it difficult to calm down. She took a deep breath and gazed at Hendrix. "Why are you willing to give me something so significant? Aren't you concerned that I might publicize it? The information within this document is quite substantial. If it were made public, it could have significant repercussions for the Shaw Group. Aren't you concerned about that?"

Hendrix clarified the intention behind the meeting. "Those things hold no value to me. My only goal is to mend my relationship with Tyson. I don't want him to view me as a stranger on the day of my passing."

Hendrix gazed at Celia with imploring eyes. "Perhaps you could put in a good word for me."

Celia was incredulous. "Why do you think Tyson would listen to me about this?"

Hendrix explained, "To be honest, I've conducted some research on you. I am aware of how crucial you are to him.

He cares deeply for you. If I can win you over, it won't be long before I can win him over as well."

Celia acknowledged that Hendrix was nothing if not intelligent!

Celia clenched the evidence tightly in her hand. She understood Tyson's utmost desire was to find out his mother's killer and seek retribution for her death.

She now had the evidence before her and she couldn't help but be swayed.

After contemplating Hendrix's proposal for a moment, Celia ultimately said, "Alright, I agree. I am willing to put in a good word for you in front of Tyson, but I can't guarantee he would be willing to welcome you back into his life. Also,
I must inform you I would never coerce my husband into doing something he doesn't wish to do."

Hendrix nodded. "I comprehend your predicament. I won't make any further demands of you."

Both parties happily struck the deal.

Celia exited the hotel holding the document. As she walked out, however, she caught sight of a figure out of the corner of her eye!

She saw Moses!

Upon arriving in Captern, Celia conducted research on the Shaw family. She was aware Moses was supposedly Tyson's uncle. She also knew Moses had signed a contract with Tyson for a project.

It was probable, then, that he'd plotted against Tyson.

After quickly looking at the papers she held, Celia made the choice to clandestinely tail Moses and observe his actions.

In the event she was able to uncover some secret information, it could potentially enable her to assist Tyson.

She observed Moses press the hotel's elevator button for the highest floor.

If her memory served her correctly, the uppermost floor of the hotel was suites reserved for wealthy individuals.

As she didn't want to tail him too closely, she had to take a separate elevator.

The hotel was so large that by the time she arrived at the highest floor, Moses had just exited the elevator. He was still walking to his room.

She concealed herself in a corner and observed as Moses headed towards Room 666.

Celia noticed instead of using a room key card, he rang the doorbell. Soon after, a stunning woman draped in a bath towel emerged from the room.

The moment Moses saw the woman, he hastened towards her. They immediately engaged in a passionate kiss before the door shut behind them.

Celia, still hiding nearby, was taken aback by the sight and felt her heart racing.

If she was correct, it appeared the woman was Hendrix's wife and Tyson's stepmother, Isla.

It seemed Isla was being unfaithful to Hendrix by having an affair with his brother, Moses!

Celia's fists tightened with anger. She wasn't just furious for Hendrix's sake, but also for Tyson's.

Considering Moses didn't have any children of his own, it was possible he framed Tyson not just for himself, but perhaps more so for Isla and her son Alex!

If she could obtain proof of Isla's infidelity to Hendrix, she might be able to seek justice for both Tyson and his father.

Gazing at the shut door, Celia started contemplating how to acquire the evidence she needed.

In the room.

Isla and Moses were already in bed.

They didn't get much alone time together, so every private meeting was passionate.

Despite his advanced age, Moses maintained exceptional health by exercising year-round. He held Isla against his chest and caressed her body with his hands. "Last time, you kept nagging me, so I didn't have much fun. I've now dealt with Tyson for you. You must satisfy me today!"

Isla smiled flirtatiously. "You have done a good job. You can do whatever you want to do with me today."

Moses couldn't stand her allure. He undressed her and slid into her.

Isla had a lot of experience in sex, so she knew how to satisfy a man. She purposefully moaned loudly and coquettishly, which heightened Moses's excitement. He thrust into her deeply. "Isla, am I much better than my brother?"

Isla pouted. "How can he be compared with you? He doesn't even touch me at all. Who knows, maybe something is wrong with his genitals?"

Then Isla wrapped her arms around Moses' neck and added, "Well, let's not talk about him."

Someone knocked at the door just as the two of them were having sex and enjoying the incredible pleasure.

Isla experienced an orgasm as a result of the abrupt stimulation.

Moses thrust faster into her and ejaculated deep within her body shortly after.

Then he smiled as he kissed Isla's cheek and whispered, "Don't worry. The medicine I ordered has arrived."

Moses wrapped himself in a bath towel and went to open the door.

Celia, dressed as a waitress, stood at the door. She wore a cap to hide her hair and lowered her head.

When Moses opened the door, she handed him a bag. "Mr. Shaw, here's your medicine."

But Moses grabbed Celia's hand and asked, "Wait a minute. How come I have never seen you before?"

Celia quickly explained, "Hyman has diarrhea. He was concerned that you would be kept waiting for too long, so he requested me to deliver the medicine."

Hyman was the exclusive waiter serving the guests in this room.

Hearing this, Moses was no longer suspicious. He let go of Celia's hand and said, "You can go now."

Celia let out a sigh of relief. When she was about to leave, the camera hidden on her sleeve unexpectedly reflected light, which Isla noticed.

Isla yelled right away, "Don't let her leave. She has a camera with her!"

Celia became nervous. She knew she was exposed and fled.

Moses also came to his senses at this point. He rushed up to Celia and grabbed her arm. Celia, fortunately, reacted swiftly. She took out her pepper spray and sprayed it into his eyes.

Moses screamed and involuntarily let go of her.

Celia seized the opportunity and dashed to the elevator.

Isla shouted nervously, "Hurry up! She has a video. Everything we've done will be in vain if it gets exposed!"

Moses tried to open his eyes, but he didn't run after Celia. Instead, he pulled out his phone and dialed the hotel manager's number. "Don't bother asking why. Block the hotel's gates right away. Someone sneaked in and pretended to be a waitress. Find her and bring her to me!"

This hotel, luckily, belonged to Shaw Group, and he was in charge of it at all times. Otherwise, he wouldn't know what to do.

Celia, on the other hand, took the elevator to the first floor, only to discover that it was surrounded by security guards. She couldn't leave the hotel at all.

She had no option but to return to the elevator. She pressed a random floor button and walked out of the elevator after reaching the floor.

She didn't expect she would be found by someone sent to look for her as soon as she walked out of the elevator. She could only rush downstairs, hoping to find a hiding spot on the next floor.

As she walked by a random room, someone suddenly grabbed her and pulled her inside.

Celia was terrified. She thought she was caught, but then she heard a familiar voice. "Don't be scared. It's me."
