

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1378

"I know." Jiang Xianrou lowered her eyes and answered her mother lightly.

She clearly did not take the call from Madam Zhu to heart. She flicked her nails and said slowly, "How can I implicate myself for Zhu Yuanhao?"

Zhu Yuanhao was nothing.

He was just one of the bootlickers surrounding her!

Madam Zhu was the same. In her eyes, she was a useless teammate who couldn't accomplish anything. If the mother and son had the ability to kill that scourge, Qiao Nian, she might have stepped in to help them.

However, both mother and son were useless trash!

Just based on this alone, Jiang Xianrou had never thought of helping Madam Zhu. She had agreed readily on the phone because she was giving Madam Zhu face and couldn't be bothered to say so much to her. She might as well agree quickly and make the other party think that she was kind.

As for whether she would approach Qiao Nian...

The corners of Jiang Xianrou's lips curled up in disdain. She sneered. "I was just lying to her. Anyway, she won't know if I go to Qiao Nian to plead for mercy. At most, I'll tell her that it's not that I didn't go when she calls me next time. It's just that Qiao Nian isn't willing to let their family off."

Tang Wanru didn't feel that anything was wrong with what she said. She even seemed to agree with her way of handling things as she praised gently, "That's right. Don't worry about this matter. We'll just watch the show. Just tell her that Qiao Nian isn't willing to let go if she calls you. There's nothing you can do about it.

"... Heh, to put it harshly, she just can't think it through!"

Tang Wanru adjusted her shawl, looking very elegant and gentle. She said in a low voice, "Since Qiao Nian got someone to break Zhu Yuanhao's arm in the detention center, will she let Zhu Yuanhao and Zhu Pengda off just because you plead on their behalf?"

"That scourge will only laugh at you!"

"That's right." Jiang Xianrou's eyes flickered. She still felt a little guilty.

After all, Zhu Yuanhao had only ended up like this because he wanted to stand up for her.

Now that she was comforted by her mother, the little bit of guilt in her heart disappeared completely. Her expression became even more calm and even a little impatient. "It's not that I don't want to help in this matter. She asked me to look for Qiao Nian. Is it useful for me to do this? Instead of thinking of a solution from me, she might as well think about who else the Zhu family knows and quickly look for those people to help. Of course, Zhu Yuanhao is my friend. I won't ignore her completely if his mother comes looking for me."

Jiang Xianrou opened the door and went in. Then, she turned her head and said casually, "Mom, what do you think about me sending a message to Zhang Yang later?"

Tang Wanru immediately understood and closed the car for her. She smiled and said, "Yes, you can decide for yourself. This is already the best you can do for the Zhu family. As for whether they can survive this calamity, it will depend on their own capability! If they can't, they can only say that their lives are not good and it has nothing to do with you."

Jiang Xianrou thought so, too. She stopped talking and took out her phone. She lowered her eyes and checked Zhang Yang's WeChat before sending a message tentatively.

It was not that she had not thought of contacting Qin Si or Bo Jingxing, but both of them were extremely cold to her.
