

Madam's 3621

Chapter 3621 Sister Nian still wants to send you a text message

Successful sending will be displayed in the next second.

A dark light flashed across her eyes, and without giving the other party a chance to call her back, she put that number back into the blacklist again.

After finishing all this, Qiao Nian put the phone back, took out a candy from his pocket, leaned on the back of the chair, tore off the candy wrapper, threw the fruit candy into his mouth, and closed his eyes to rest...

M continent.

Nie Qingru walked back to her residence in the dark.

People in the entire castle could sense her furious mood, no one dared to provoke her at this time, and the servants would walk lightly when they brought her tea, for fear of making a sound.

Nie Qingru took a sip of black tea but couldn't calm down. She squeezed her fingers tightly around the teacup and threw the cup on the ground with a grim expression.

"Snapped-"

Porcelain shattered with a crisp sound.

The servants in the castle became more and more breathless, secretly complaining.

What's wrong with the empress, why did she lose her temper so much?

You must know that this master is notoriously cold, even if he is not a good person, but because he is so arrogant, he seldom shows his emotions in front of others.

She has an inhuman indifference, but she rarely shows such a violent side in front of her servants.

The shadow came in from the outside at this time, walked up to Nie Qingru, and saw the broken teacup on the ground, which was her favorite set of tea sets.

He silently called someone to come over to clean up, and then said to the woman sitting on the sofa: "Queen, there is news from the high seas that our army has been wiped out."

Nie Qingru's eyes flashed coldly, but she was not surprised at all, and sneered three times: "She is really capable, and there are even people in Gonghai who want to protect her!"

Shadow knew that he shouldn't speak up at this time, but out of a sense of responsibility, he still bit the bullet and said: "It was Ye Wangchuan's handwriting."

Nie Qingru stared at him sharply, frowning, her face sinking like water, as if she was extremely dissatisfied with the news.

Shadow bowed his head: "Ye Wangchuan should have arranged to set off from the port early in the morning, and he also expected that we would not be able to stop the ship and attack on the high seas. So he had already ambushed his men and waited for our people to pass, and buried them all in the sea. Now the pirates in the high seas are all in danger, and no one dares to provoke the relevant ships..."

This means they will lose control of the high seas.

Nie Qingru obviously understood the meaning behind it, the veins on the back of her hand were bulging, and she tried her best to endure it, her already embarrassed face became even more serious. If it wasn't for some sense of reason that involved her, she might not even be able to maintain an elegant silence, and she would just go into a rage rise up.

"Good job, she is really good! She is indeed my good granddaughter. Know how to make me mad earlier."

She said that, but she hated Qiao Nian in her heart.

Shadow doesn't know how to persuade her.

Nie Qingru didn't need to be persuaded. After a short scalp tingling with anger, she picked up the mobile phone on the table, and hadn't had time to contact the people in the Privy Council.

She saw a new text message alert.

Nie Qing saw the name of the person who sent him a text message with a cold face, sneered, raised his jaw slightly, and softened his tone: "She still knows to send a message."

The person who sent her the message was Qiao Nian.

While opening the text message, Nie Qingru was still thinking about what Qiao Nian could send her.

However, when she saw the text message from Qiao Nian, Nie Qingru's scornful smile faded away and turned into a clouded expression.

【Q: I have arrived in Independent Continent. 】

Be concise and to the point.

Understatement.

Chapter 3622 Sister Nian: I won't go in yet

This text message didn't have a single extra word, it seemed to be stating the facts, but combined with the current situation, it seemed extraordinarily aggressive and provocative.

She seemed to see the girl sneering mockingly, looked at herself, raised her eyebrows, and said, "Are you disappointed? I'm in Independent Island."

"Heh." Nie Qingru let out a breath of cold air after a short breath stagnation, eyes were covered with frost, and squeezed out two words: "Looking for death!"

Qiao Nian received a call from Ji Nan on the way to the hospital.

When she arrived at the hospital, Ji Nan came out to pick her up and took her to the ward. Qiao Nian also asked about Ji Lingfeng's physical condition in the past two days.

Ji Lingfeng's physical condition is not good.

He has been vomiting blood for the past two days. If Zhong Liuliu didn't sit here and guard him, Ji Lingfeng might not be able to survive these few days.

Ji Nan was clearly aware of this, and said to Qiao Nian before going up the stairs: "It's up to Mr. Zhong to stay in the hospital these few days, otherwise my dad won't be able to support you back."

Qiao Nian walked in front, wearing her usual sweater, a blue sweater with a bold print on the front, and a black peaked cap with the brim pulled down.

She looked the same as usual, so that Ji Nan didn't notice that she had a side arm. He only heard the girl's footsteps not stopping, and replied lazily: "Ah. Got it."

Ji Nan originally wanted to ask her how to thank Mr. Zhong, but Qiao Nian didn't mention it, and it's not good for him to continue the topic at this moment.

The two walked up to the second floor in silence, walked out of the corridor, and when they were about to approach the ward, the girl stopped suddenly and didn't intend to move forward.

Ji Nan followed her one step away, seeing Qiao Nian stop, he was taken aback for a moment: "Why don't you keep going, we'll be there soon."

Qiao Nian didn't leave. He raised his peaked cap with his left hand and revealed his beautiful eyes. He looked at him and said, "You go first, I won't go in. I'll go to Master Zhong to ask about the situation."

Ji Nan didn't seem to expect that Qiao Nian didn't plan to visit the ward. After a short period of astonishment, he felt that it wasn't surprising that Qiao Nian didn't go to the ward. After all, they both had awkward personalities.

So he nodded, without insisting on competing: "Mr. Zhong is in the next room, and he requisitioned the next room as a temporary office."

"Hmm." Qiao Nian replied, she figured it out, raised her left hand to wave to him, and walked towards the next door without looking back.

The back is full of free and easy.

Ji Nan stood there watching her walk into the office, turned around, and was about to walk to Ji Lingfeng's ward.

Suddenly he stopped abruptly.

Huo Ran turned his head, looked in the direction the girl left, and as if realizing something, his brows furrowed fiercely, and his expression became uncertain.

Why did he feel that Qiao Nian didn't seem to have moved his right hand today, and he just waved with his left hand which he doesn't usually use...

He thought of something for a while, and even wanted to catch up and ask.

But Qingjun had some hesitation on his face, he was afraid that he thought too much and made things out of nothing.

After a short period of entanglement, Ji Nan decided to wait for Qiao Nian to come over before asking about her hand, and then simply go back to the ward to see Ji Lingfeng before waiting for Qiao Nian to come over.

In the room next door Zhong Yiliu occupied.

Qiao Nian had just entered, but she didn't know that Ji Nan had already noticed that her right arm was injured, entered the room, and found a seat by herself as if no one was there.

There was a voice at the door.

Like Zhong Liuli and a doctor.

The two are discussing Ji Lingfeng's condition.

Chapter 3623 She really brought back the antidote!

A younger voice is saying: "The patient vomited blood again at 6:10 p.m., and the results of this blood test are not optimistic. The number of bacteria in his body is still increasing. If it continues, the internal organs will be corroded by the virus, etc. It will be too late to detoxify. The antidote can detoxify but cannot repair his broken internal organs, he is still dead."

"I know it even if you don't tell me!"

This voice is first-class Zhong, very angry, Qiao Nianguang can hear from his tone that he is irritable and helpless about the current situation.

The sound is getting closer.

The young doctor said again: "Old Zhong, don't you have an antidote? We really can't wait any longer. If there is no antidote, we can only issue a critical illness notice to the patient's family. The patient's status is special, and we have to prepare it for the family in advance. Mentally prepare."

In fact, since this period of time, various forces in Independent Continent have tried to find out about Ji Lingfeng from the hospital.

Xie Yun and the elders of Ji's family had already negotiated with the hospital, and they were not allowed to disclose the patient's health condition, but they couldn't bear the countless harassments.

As one of Ji Lingfeng's attending doctors, his door has been filled with anonymous letters these days, which contain various transaction methods and overseas accounts. Those people spend money to buy Ji Lingfeng's specific inspection report.

Of course he didn't dare to divulge the secret.

But he is an ordinary person after all, and he was afraid that those people would not be able to buy information from him, so he tried other ideas to force him to compromise.

His son is only five years old and is still in kindergarten.

During this period of time, he didn't dare to let his children go to school, for fear of accidents.

But if it goes on for a long time, this is not a solution.

He also thought that despite the outcome, whether he could be saved or not, he should settle the matter quickly and give him peace.

He said: "...if there is no antidote, the patient will only be in these two days."

Zhong Liuliu walked outside the room and fell silent for a while, knowing very well in his heart that what the young man said was right, but he didn't want to face failure.

He hasn't died in the hands of anyone yet.

Even if Ji Lingfeng has nothing to do with him this time, even if the gods come to save him, he still suffers from the shock and feels uncomfortable.

"hold on."

"Old Zhong."

"I said wait." Zhong Liuliu insisted.

The young man didn't want to talk anymore, so he compromised helplessly: "That's fine."

Zhong Zhongliu turned around and was about to go in. When he raised his eyes, he saw the extra people in the room. He was extremely surprised: "Qiao Nian, you..."

Qiao Nian stood up politely, and nodded to him: "I'm back."

Zhong Zhongliu's eyes lit up, and he walked towards her quickly, regardless of the presence of outsiders: "Since you are back, the antidote..."

He hasn't finished yet.

Qiao Nian took out a porcelain bottle from her body and put it on the table, raised her eyes and said to him, "I brought it back."

Zhong Liuliu looked at the porcelain vase quietly placed on the table, opened and closed his mouth several times, and when he looked at the girl again, he didn't know how to describe that expression.

"you..."

He didn't know how Qiao Nian got the antidote from Nie Qingru, and he could guess the danger just thinking about it.

But she really took the things back!

After being astonished, Zhong Liuliu was happy, with an undisguised joy on his face, picked up the porcelain bottle on the table, couldn't control his excitement and said to the doctor at the door: "Oh, hurry up, get ready, let's make a medical treatment for the patient first." Drug experiment, to test the effect of the antidote. If it is feasible, follow the plan we formulated before, and detoxify the patient as soon as possible."

Chapter 3624 Zhong Lao's eyes are so vicious

The young doctor outside the door did not expect them to say the antidote, and the antidote was delivered.

He didn't dare to delay, and hurriedly said: "I'll notify the rest of the group."

Ji Lingfeng has a dedicated expert medical team, Zhong Liulu is in charge, and there are seven or eight different experts from various departments.

Zhong Liulu needs to gather doctors from all departments together to do the medicine experiment for Ji Lingfeng, so as to prevent accidents in the middle and perform the operation immediately.

Zhong Zhongliu waited for him to run away before he could not hide his joy and looked at the girl: "How did you find this antidote? By selling medicine?"

Qiao Nian didn't hide from him either.

He briefly explained how he used genetic medicine as bait, and how he sneaked into Nie Qingru's vault to find the medicine.

She concealed the dangerous part of it, and only casually said that she would come back after getting the medicine.

Zhong Zhongliu could hear the danger from her calm narration, so he didn't say much, and reached out to pat her: "Just come back."

As a result, just as his hand touched the girl's arm, the girl sideways dodged without a trace, and immediately stood up to avoid him and said, "Go and check him first."

Zhong Liulu watched her dodge so quickly. The old monster who had lived for decades wrinkled his nose immediately, and immediately chased after her to stop her: "What's wrong with your hand? Are you injured?"

Qiao Nian didn't expect to be seen through by him at a glance, and tried to confuse him: "Um, a small injury, it's not important. Let's go and check if the antidote is real."

Zhong Liuliu stubbornly refused to move away, with a serious face, he didn't believe a word: "Small wound, what did you hide just now? With your character, you can't go down the front line with a serious wound, and you don't even frown for a small wound. How could you dodge right away? Open the topic."

He didn't talk nonsense, and stretched out his hand with rare anger on his face: "Let me see where you are hurt, whether it is serious or not."

Qiao Nian was stuck in place at first, but Zhong Liuliu was in a stalemate with her and refused to move away. The two stared at each other for a few seconds, but Qiao Nian was still defeated.

"Hiss, I'm talking about a minor injury..." She still insisted in her tone, but she had no choice but to sit back on her seat, pulling up her sleeve to reveal her bandaged right arm.

Qiao Nian's movements were not fast. When her sleeves rubbed against the wound, her shoulders tensed up, and she tried her best to endure it. There was no abnormality on the surface.

She showed Zhong Liuliu her completely bandaged right arm, and said carelessly, "I'd say it's a minor injury."

didn't wait for Zhong Liuliu to come forward to check.

Qiao Nian pulled down his sleeves: "I've already dealt with it, it will be fine in a few days."

Zhong Liuliu looked at her and gave himself a look, and he didn't even let himself check it out to know that she was telling lies.

If it's just a minor injury, what can't he check it out?

Unless her arm was seriously injured, Qiao Nian didn't want him to know, so she pulled down her sleeve so quickly to prevent him from seeing it.

"You just don't take yourself too seriously!" Zhong Liulu was very angry, and it was hard to say anything about her.

Qiao Nian still had a face of indifference, her eyelashes drooping slightly, as if she was not injured, Zhong Liulu was too serious, but she still calmed down the angry person patiently: "I know I was wrong. I was not careful this time...I promised Others, I will pay attention next time."

Zhong Liulu was choked by her instead, and he looked her up and down with surprised eyes, his expression looked like a ghost: "Who can make you reflect on yourself? That person can."

Chapter 3625 Sister Nian stands up as a guarantor

"..." Qiao Nian avoided his eyes this time, and instead of satisfying his curiosity, he coughed: "Let's go over."

Zhong Liulu was just worried about her, and didn't want to embarrass her. Seeing that Qiao Nian didn't want to mention the details of the injury, he didn't ask again, and he didn't return before going out: "If your arm feels uncomfortable, remember to come to me, I will check and prescribe medicine for you again. ."

Qiao Nian's heart warmed, and she followed behind with an 'um'.

"Hmph!" Zhongliu Liu was still out of breath, and he hummed again, "The medicine outside is better than my medicine, that is, if you don't think of yourself as a girl, you have rough skin and thick flesh, and you will leave scars on your arms when you turn around." , I see who you can cry to."

He walked fast along the way, without a break in his mouth: "But you also found a boyfriend, and if you cry, he will cry, and I don't care about you."

Qiao Nian followed him half a step away with a face full of tears and laughter, listening to his rambling along the way, and followed with his ears.

Ji Lingfeng's attending doctors were all gathered outside the ward, and seven or eight people were discussing whether the antidote and Ji Lingfeng's physical condition were suitable.

When they saw Zhong Liulu bringing a young girl over, they greeted each other: "Old Zhong."

"Master Zhong."

"President Zhong."

Some people called Zhong Lao, some called Zhong Master, and some called Zhong Lao as the president of the Pharmacy Association.

Zhong Liulu didn't care about the reputation of the outside world, raised his hand to stop them from greeting, and said to the expert group present in a concise manner: "You must already know the reason why I called you here."

He didn't circle around and looked at everyone: "Yes, we have found the antidote, and the next step is to conduct blood detoxification experiments on patients. You are all experts in various departments. I called you here just in case. If there is any Just in case, if you are here, I can immediately organize rescue measures."

The pulmonary expert hesitated at this moment and said: "But Mr. Zhong, the patient's physical condition does not allow us to use drastic medical methods..."

With a sullen face, Zhong Liulu criticized him very bluntly: "Pedantic!"

Then he said angrily: "I see why you are so stubborn at such a young age? You have been in a conventional medical institution for a long time, and you have forgotten your original intention."

Pulmonology expert's face turned blue and red after being scolded, extremely embarrassed: "Sorry, Mr. Zhong."

"I know what you're worried about." Zhong Liulu waved his hand, gesturing him not to speak: "But every operation has risks. As doctors, we dare not take risks for patients. What kind of doctors are we? As a doctor, I will always stick to my heart, That is, the patient's life is the most important thing. Life is more important than everything else! His current physical condition cannot accept too drastic medical treatment, so let me ask you, how long can he continue with conservative treatment? One day or one month?"

The pulmonary specialist stopped talking completely.

Ji Lingfeng's various data are there, one month is impossible, one day or two is okay...

Just like what Zhongliu Liu said, if the detoxification experiment is not carried out, Ji Lingfeng will only slowly die under conservative treatment.

"But the patient has a special status..." Some experts were still worried and expressed their concerns.

Qiao Nian stood up at this time, and said concisely: "I will communicate with their family members, you just take care of it, no matter the result, I guarantee that Ji's family will not trouble you afterwards."

Chapter 3626 Aunt Xie, we have no other choice!

Several experts were called by Zhong Liulu later, and one or two experts were here from the beginning and knew Qiao Nian.

The one or two people saw Qiao Nian stand up and reassure them, they pulled the hands of their companions, and signaled them to stop talking and trust Zhong Lao and the others.

Even though the other experts were apprehensive, in the face of the persistent Zhong Liulu and Qiao Nian, they still chose to perform their duties to give Ji Lingfeng a final inspection.

When they get the latest indicators, they will immediately conduct an antidote skin test on Ji Lingfeng.

Because it is a skin test, they will not inject too much antidote at first, just to see if Ji Lingfeng's body can accept the antidote ingredients and whether there will be drug resistance.

It is said that this process is unlikely to cause major problems.

However, Qiao Nian found Ji Nan and Xie Yun, and told them about the antidote. Inside, Zhong Liulu led a team of experts to give Ji Lingfeng a skin test, and something went wrong.

First, a little nurse ran out to inform them: "The patient's family members are ready, the patient has completed the skin test."

Ten minutes later, an expert in a white coat hurried over, looked at Ji Nan and Xie Yun, and said in a serious tone: "The patient has a slight drug expulsion, if it continues, it may be dangerous, please continue to inject the antidote ?"

Xie Yun heard the words 'repellent' and 'dangerous', subconsciously grabbed Ji Nan's arm, gritted her teeth, and didn't answer right away.

A pair of eyes turned towards Qiao Nian, as if he wanted her to give an answer.

"Nian Nian, we..."

Qiao Nian also didn't expect Ji Lingfeng to have drug-expelling properties, so he raised his hand and rubbed the center of his brows, gave Xie Yun a comforting look, and then said hoarsely: "Aunt Xie, you have been here for so long, you should understand his body. If the detoxification is not continued, the toxicity in the blood alone can kill him. We have no other choice!"

Xie Yun met those cold and rational eyes, and her heart fell to the ground. She suddenly stopped panicking, turned her head and pursed her lips, and said to the expert: "We insist on the injection."

The expert nodded and confirmed again: "You must insist on the injection, right? Okay, then I will go in and convey your opinion to Mr. Zhong."

He hurried out and hurried in.

The whole process didn't take more than a minute.

The lights in the operating room were on for three hours, during which medical staff came out from time to time to report the latest situation of the patients.

The first time or two are all bad news.

Zhong Liuliu divided the antidote into three batches and injected it into Ji Lingfeng's veins. The amount each time was not large, just to take care of Ji Lingfeng's fragile body.

Rao, Ji Lingfeng's health is still worse than everyone imagined.

The nurse came out for the first time and said that Ji Lingfeng had a small red bump under his skin, which was suspected of being allergic.

The nurse came out for the second time and said that Ji Lingfeng had convulsions and shortness of breath after the second injection, and suspected an asthma attack.

The nurse came out for the third time and said that Ji Lingfeng's lungs also began to swell.

Xie Yun wouldn't have been able to hold on if it wasn't for the support of Ji Nan and Qiao Nian. Every time the operating room door opened, she would be afraid to hear the frightening announcement when the medical staff came out—sorry, the patient is gone.

Fortunately, after the initial thrills.

The news that the nurse brought to the back was more optimistic.

"The patient has completed three antidote injections, the toxin index in the body is decreasing, and the pulmonary edema is also under control. Now the doctors are waiting for the data after an hour. If the toxin index continues to decline, the patient can be released."

Chapter 3627 Mom, let her go back to sleep first

Xie Yun finally breathed a sigh of relief after hearing this for three hours, her legs and feet were weak, and if it wasn't for Ji Nan's sharp eyesight and quick hands to support her, she almost had to support the wall to stop.

But Xie Yun showed a smile on her face: "That's great, that's great."

She was physically and mentally exhausted, but at this moment the sun shone into the haze of the past half a month, pulling her out of the endless abyss.

The toxin on Ji Lingfeng's body is detoxified, even if there will be minor side effects afterwards, at least his life will be saved.

Xie Yun couldn't describe her feelings at this moment. All the worries and waiting were rewarded with the best, and she became happy from the bottom of her heart.

"Your dad is fine."

She whispered to Ji Nan.

Immediately, he came back to his senses, walked up to Qiao Nian, and bowed solemnly to the girl without saying a word, bent at 90°, very cautiously.

Qiao Nian was leaning against the wall with his legs bent and waiting for the result. While playing games with his mobile phone in one hand, he suddenly saw that the light in front of him was blocked, and he raised his eyes to see Xie Yun bowing to him.

She froze for a moment, immediately put away her phone, and went to help the person with her left hand: "Aunt Xie..."

Xie Yun was extremely persistent and must bow deeply: "It's all up to you this time. Don't treat me as an elder. This is my gratitude to you as a wife."

Qiao Nian couldn't move her right arm, and she couldn't hold back Xie Yun with just one hand. Out of the corner of her eye, she caught a glimpse of someone who was still watching the fun, and said speechlessly, "Come over and help."

Ji Nan moved over slowly to help Xie Yun: "Mom, don't act like this, you're scaring her."

Xie Yun is not a hypocritical person. As soon as Ji Nan pulled her back, she stood up, changed her serious expression just now, and said with a smile, "I am thanking Nian Nian, who is not like you. You are so kind. I don't even know how to say thank you."

Ji Nan was embarrassed by what was said, covered his lips with his hand and coughed: "Where is my relationship with her for such falsehood?"

Xie Yun gave him a hard look, as if saying to him: Still talking!

Immediately, he turned his head to look at Qiao Nian, curled his lips into a smile, and said sincerely, "Nian Nian, I know you don't like these vain thanks. I also know that the risk you took for Ling Feng this time is absolutely worthless. It's not that I can make it clear with a thank you. I just... couldn't control my emotions for a while, don't worry about that just now, I have no other intentions. I just thank you for him. Thank you for not giving up on him..."

Qiao Nian is really not used to dealing with this kind of scene. Facing the red-eyed Xie Yun, she patted Xie Yun on the arm and said, "I just did what a junior should do."

Xie Yun shook her head with red eyes.

This is what she should do? So many people in Ji's family didn't take the risk to find an antidote, only she had an awkward relationship with Ling Feng, but she still relied on her at the critical moment.

Qiao Nian seemed to know what Xie Yun wanted to say, and before Xie Yun opened her mouth, she said, "I don't like to owe favors. Aunt Xie, just treat me as a favor for him to go to M state to meet Nie Qingru for me."

didn't wait for Xie Yun to speak.

Qiao Nian stared blankly, without any extra emotion on his face, and said calmly, "Didn't he almost lose his life that time?"

"I will pay him back!"

"..." When Qiao Nian got to this point, even if Xie Yun had something to say, she didn't know where to start.

It was Ji Nan who saw her right hand that had never been raised again, grabbed Xie Yun and said, "Mom, she hasn't rested for a long time. Now that Dad is out of danger, we will stay here and let Nian Nian go first." Go back and rest, and get a good night's sleep."

Chapter 3628 The eyes of two men met

Xie Yun realized later that she saw the red bloodshot eyes smeared in the corners of the girl's eyes, as well as the tired look under the eyelids, she felt guilty, and hurriedly said: "Yes, Ji Nan is right, you go back and rest first. I'll stay here, what's the matter?" I will get in touch with you."

"Okay." Qiao Nian didn't insist, mainly because she was really tired.

Strictly counting, she didn't close her eyes for almost 24 hours, and she had to wait until Ji Lingfeng injected the antidote all by endurance.

Xie Yun pushed Ji Nan again: "Go and send Niannian off."

Jinan took the car keys and walked forward: "Let's go, I'll take you back. My mother is watching here, so it's okay if I go out for a while."

Qiao Nian lowered her voice and said to Xie Yun: "Aunt Xie, please tell Mr. Zhong for me later, just say that I will come back tomorrow."

"Okay, don't worry." Xie Yun agreed wholeheartedly.

Ji Nan Road was still asking her about M State, Qiao Nian only picked up a few light things to talk about.

The two walked to the door of the hospital, and Ji Nangang said, "Wait for me here, and I will drive."

I saw a black Phaeton waiting outside for an unknown amount of time. When they came out, it slowly drove in front of them to block the way.

The window of the driver's seat of the Phaeton was rolled down, revealing the man's dignified side face. Ye Wangchuan slightly tilted his head to look at the two of them, and his eyes fell on the girl: "Get in the car."

Qiao Nian was stunned for a moment: "Why are you here?"

Then pulled down the peaked cap, turned back to Ji Nan and said naturally: "You don't need to see me off, you go back first."

As she spoke, she went down the steps and pulled the passenger door to get in the car. By the way, she fastened her seat belt, rolled down the window, and waved to Jinan: "Go back first."

Ji Nan was still hanging the car keys on his finger. Seeing that Qiao Nian was familiar with the car on the road and asked him to go back again, he breathed a sigh of relief and looked at the people inside with complicated eyes: "Send me a message when you get home."

He didn't have a sister before.

Ji Ziyin has always been at odds with him.

He also couldn't understand the other party's pretentiousness, so he had no relationship in private.

Ji Nan didn't know what it was like to have a younger sister. Anyway, at this moment, he didn't have the comforting feeling of his old father, only the * feeling that someone drove into his house and took away their precious treasure in person.

But he knew that Qiao Nian had a much better relationship with Ye Wangchuan than he did with him. Even though he felt uncomfortable, he lowered his voice and blessed the man in the driver's seat before the car drove away: "Take care of her."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows and met Ji Nan's eyes.

Ji Nan didn't back down at all, as if he knew something, he glanced at Qiao Nian's right hand without a trace like a man, which was full of meaning.

Ye Wangchuan knew that he probably found out that Qiao Nian was injured, so he didn't say anything, nodded his head, and spoke arrogantly and lazily: "You don't need to say. I know too."

"It's good that you know." Ji Nan let go of his hand, indicating that they can leave, he really didn't want to see his cabbage being beaten by others.

Qiao Nian didn't notice the eye contact between the two, rolled up the car window, leaned on the back of the seat, and said, "I'll take a nap."

Ye Wangchuan raised his hand and put the coat he brought on her body, turned up the air conditioner in the car, and said, "Sleep, I'll drive slowly."

Qiao Nian nodded slightly, his eyelids were half drooping, and he had fallen into a light sleep with his coat on.

After 72 hours.

Good news from the hospital.

Ji Lingfeng was out of danger and transferred to the special needs ward for observation, which also meant that the toxins in Ji Lingfeng's body were released.

Chapter 3629 Wocao, what happened these days

All that's left is to heal his body, which has been dragged down by toxins over the years.

Qiao Nian was relieved after receiving the news. She knew that with Zhong Liulu around, Ji Lingfeng could be adjusted to a seventy-eight percent degree.

The matter of the antidote is now resolved.

But there are many things waiting in line for her to deal with.

During the three days she was resting at home, many people came to her door, but Ye Wangchuan forcefully drove them back and asked them to wait two days before coming back.

Many people in Independence Island have figured out his identity, and know that Ye Wangchuan is not easy to provoke. Basically, he politely asks people to leave, and everyone dares not to show face.

Qiao Nian was also forcibly detained by him in the villa to recuperate from her injuries. Apart from changing her dressing, she was not allowed to move her right hand for three days.

Plus Gu San is back.

With Gu San here, the food in the villa has improved a lot.

Qiao Nian was treated as a patient, and Gu San made soup for her every day in different ways, and insisted on the principle of traditional Chinese medicine to nourish the body.

Qiao Nian either drinks pork bone soup or trotter soup every day. In short, he doesn't bring heavy samples every day, and it's all complete and tonic soup.

After drinking it for three days, her hands were not healed, and she almost drank out her nosebleed.

Too much nourishment every day, the blood in the body is flustered, how aggrieved and aggrieved, but this time, both Gu San and Qin Si have the same attitude, thinking that she should take good care of her body.

Afternoon.

Qiao Nian woke up naturally from sleep, put on a long T-shirt and came down the stairs, and saw a few familiar people downstairs.

Mo Dong actually came too.

Looked up at her, and greeted her warmly: "Miss Qiao, you are down."

Gu San saw her coming down and ran to the kitchen immediately, Qiao Nian knew what he was going to do when he saw his back, his heart tightened, and his head grew bigger.

She walked down slowly, and before Gu San's hot soup came out, she said to the people in the living room, "I want to go out."

Qin Si, Bao Jingxing and Mo Dong glanced at the man sitting on the sofa hurting, as if waiting for him to speak.

Ye Wangchuan had a dark blue laptop on his lap. Hearing this, he raised his deep eyes, and his eyes fell on the girl. He asked calmly, "Where are you going?"

Qiao Nian still remembered that he had promised him to put his own safety first, so it was rare for him to be patient: "The matter at Mingshui Mansion has been dragging on for almost a week, and it's almost time for me to settle it."

In the past few days, the second elder of the Ji family has frequently come to his door, and he wanted to discuss with Qiao Nian how to deal with this matter in the end.

But they were all stopped outside by Ye Wangchuan, a giant Buddha, and they didn't see Qiao Nian himself at all.

He couldn't see anyone, so he had no choice but to go around and get Qiao Nian's phone number, and called Qiao Nian in the morning.

The two made an appointment to meet and talk in the afternoon.

Qiao Nian also went out for this matter.

She was hesitant to explain to him that the matter of Mingshui Mansion could not be dragged on any longer, but he didn't mean to make things difficult.

"Go up and put on another dress, and I'll let you out."

Qiao Nian didn't know why she was afraid of him.

But this time her arm was injured, which made her feel unreasonable, so she didn't say anything, and nodded slightly: "Okay."

After speaking, he turned and went upstairs to get dressed.

Mo Dong stared at this scene dumbfounded. For a moment, he suspected that he hadn't woken up. He rubbed his face with his hands and asked Qin Si: "What happened these few days."

Why does he feel that his master has stood up~!

Miss Qiao is a little obedient...as if possessed by someone.

Qin Si returned his "I know what a fart" look in his eyes, and Mo Dong silently turned his head to look at the expensive man on the sofa, coughing dryly.

Chapter 3630 What are you going to do about the Mingshui mansion?

Haven't had time to speak yet.

A faint but strong voice greeted him: "Sputum?"

"Wo Cao, hahahaha!" Qin Si laughed out loud without saving face.

Mo Dong blushed to make himself feel bored, and he didn't dare to gossip with the client anymore, so he simply moved his eyes away and pretended that he didn't exist, and stopped talking.

After a while, Qiao Nian got dressed and came down.

Ye Wangchuan saw that she only added a thick woolen knitted cardigan on the outside, which was one of the new styles of the B family that he sent someone to hang in her wardrobe last time.

The color belongs to the smog blue that young people like, and the layered style gradually changes, continuing the B family's consistent large-scale tailoring style.

Young and energetic without losing the neat coolness brought by the silhouette.

Qiao Nian rarely tried colors other than black, white and gray. Qin Si and the others were stunned when they saw her wearing different colors.

Only Ye Wangchuan raised his eyes, his eyelids twitched slightly, got up and picked up the car keys on the table, and said to the girl, "I'll take you there."

Joe muttered aloud, but followed without saying anything.

Waiting for the backs of the two to disappear at the entrance, they heard the sound of a car starting outside.

Qin Sicaï held his forehead and said with a smile: "Master Wang is also wearing dark blue today, right? So the two of them look like a couple when they walk together."

Bo Jingxing pushed down his gold-rimmed glasses, and gave him a sideways glance: "Boring."

Immediately before he spoke, he said, "They are lovers."

Qin Si has never seen such an innocent person like him: "Yeah, everyone is a couple, but you are single."

"It's better than you, having a girlfriend and hanging out with a single dog like me." Bo Jingxing got up and went back to the room with one blow, and said, "I still have a video conference, you guys take it easy."

Qin Si was driven mad by his anger, and grabbed the pillow and threw it on him: "Get out of here, hurry up and crawl!"

Bo Jingxing seemed to have eyes behind his back, he turned around and quickly grabbed the pillow and threw it on the sofa next to him, chuckled and walked away.

Only Qin Si and Mo Dong are left in the living room. After you finish watching, I will see you.

and Gu San came out just now, brought a bowl of steaming bone soup, and asked them: "Where is Miss Qiao? Why is she missing?"

Qin Si put his hand behind his head, looked cynically at Mo Dong and said, "Well, you don't worship sister Qiao. Why don't you help your idol drink this bowl of bone soup?"

Mo Dong: "... " Listen to me, thank you.

The second elder of the Ji family originally asked Qiao Nian to meet at the old house.

Qiao Nian refused.

Finally, the two made an appointment to meet at the coffee shop below the Intercontinental Hotel.

When Qiao read it, the other party had already arrived first, and he sat in his seat and waited for an unknown how long.

Seeing her and Ye Wangchuan approaching, she immediately stood up and didn't say to meet her, at least her attitude was more respectful than before.

"Miss Qiao."

He looked to the side again, nodded slightly: "Young Master Ye."

Ye Wangchuan sensibly called the waiter and walked to the next table: "You guys talk, I'll sit next door for a while."

Then tell the waiter: "I want American without sugar, give her a glass of water."

"..." Qiao Nian's eyelids twitched slightly, and he endured it.

The waiter quickly brought up two glasses of water.

Qiao Nian only got a cup of plain water here, and watched the waiter bring the coffee to the next table with a red face and hot ears.

She couldn't look back for a long time.

Until the second elder of the Ji family spoke first: "Miss Qiao, what do you plan to do with the Mingshui mansion?"

Qiao Nian was not polite to him, she looked away and said, "Did you find out?"

They didn't talk about the details on the phone before, they just made an appointment to meet.
