

Madam's 3721

Chapter 3721 I'm not just playing

No matter how slow Qin Si reacted, he still realized that he was being rejected!

Although he didn't understand why he needed to be rejected for the first time, he immediately dropped his phone and chased after him.

"And you?"

"You just asked me, you haven't said yourself yet."

"..."

Guan Yan had already reached the door and wanted to stop him outside, but Qin Si was very clever and put one foot in the crack of the door first, trying to squeeze in.

"And you?"

"I..." She couldn't tell how her ten or eight exes were worthy of her image as a scumbag.

Guan Yan met those burning open and frank eyes, and the lie that was about to blurt out somehow got stuck in his throat, and became against his will: "It has nothing to do with you."

Qin Si didn't give up and blocked her door. With a serious face, he held her door with one hand and refused to close it. He looked at her and whispered: "The past is not important, and I don't care. What I want is The road we have traveled in the future, the things we have experienced...these are the most important things in life."

Guan Yan's heart was hit for a moment, and he looked at him dazedly.

Qin Si didn't take a step back and didn't avoid her, and looked at her seriously, with the sincerity visible in his eyes, like a stormy sea and hidden in the blue sea.

Guan Yan exhaled foul breath, and was the first to lose: "We'll talk about it when the time comes."

In the past, she always said absolutely, that is to play.

Play is not responsible.

This time she didn't use "we're just playing" to define this relationship, which was a surprise to Qin Si.

He didn't press too hard, he took a small step back so that Guan Yan could close the door.

But before closing the door of Guan Yan, he whispered, "I only met Sister Qiao in twenty-five years. The old tree is blooming, so I love you so much."

"Although I didn't know what liking was before, I couldn't fool myself with my heartbeat from the moment I saw you. Guan Yan, think about it carefully, I'm not just playing around."

Qiao Nian didn't finish the first experiment until nearly six in the afternoon, and got the data of the reactor.

She wrote down the data with a brush, and was about to do it again, to calibrate to see if the data was consistent.

Who knew that Xu Yi, who had been staying up all night with her, took off her white coat and put it on her arms, walked over, and said apologetically, "My mother has caught a cold recently and is not in good health. I have to go back to take care of her early. I'm sorry, I have Can't work overtime."

Qiao Nian paused, thought about asking him: "Do you need me to take my aunt to the hospital? I have a friend who is in the hospital and can help my aunt to see a doctor."

Xu Yi smiled, her bland eyebrows and eyes were like melting icebergs, and there was some surprise in it: "That friend of yours is Master Zhong."

"En." Qiao Nian responded.

Xu Yi hooked his head and smiled, walked to the hanger to hang up his white coat, and said: "My mother just has a small cold, just take care of it."

"Really don't need it?" Qiao Nian looked at him.

Xu Yi turned her head and said helplessly: "If I ask the president of the Pharmacy Association to show my mother a small cold, if it spreads, I will be drowned in saliva."

Zhong has a first-class reputation, and no matter how many people spend a lot of money, they can't come to see him.

Xu Yi's words are not exaggerated.

"You are my friend, my aunt is my elder, Mr. Zhong is my friend and also my teacher, we all know each other, so don't pay attention to those."

Qiao Nian stood there lazily and slack, her cold white skin matched with the white coat, and her facial features were as delicate as a painting, which was very eye-catching.

"If you mind, I can also show it to my aunt."

Chapter 3722 Master Wang finally arrived

Xu Yi saw that she really wanted to help, rubbed her eyebrows, stood in front of the girl and said seriously: "My mother just has a small cold, so I really don't need to be so troublesome."

He paused, and then explained: "I'm not being polite to you."

Qiao Nian met his eyes, saw the seriousness in his eyes, and said nothing more, "Then you don't come to the laboratory for a few days, I'll help the dean and the others take a leave of absence, you Stay at home with auntie."

Xu Yi looked at her thin shoulders and neck, knowing that she had always wanted to break through that complicated and difficult experiment, so she opened her mouth, just about to say that she could persevere a little longer.

Qiao Nianruo just turned around feeling something, saw that he was still here, gave him a surprised look, and then remembered: "Wait for me."

She went to the locker and took out the shoulder bag she carried with her, and handed over a transparent glass bottle inside, which contained seven or eight unbranded white pills.

Qiao Nian handed over the glass bottle: "This is for you, you can pass it to Auntie for me."

Xu Yi reached out to take it: "This is..."

"Health care products." The girl said casually: "You can just let auntie eat one a month. There are not many things. I will try to get her more next time."

Xu Yi thought of something and moved his lips.

Qiao Nian rushed ahead of him: "You have helped me so much, if you even care about this little gift, I will ask others to help."

Xu Yi tightly clenched the glass bottle in her hand, unable to hold back her emotions, and watched her put the shoulder bag back casually.

In fact, I really want to say that you helped me a lot back then, it was you who pulled me out of the dark abyss.

However, he is not good at expressing himself, and he cannot speak out.

In the end, Xu Yi just put away the glass bottle that Qiao read to him, and said to her with pure and stubborn eyes: "Three days. I will take care of my mother at home for three days, and I will come to the laboratory on time after three days."

"good."

Qiao Nian was already sitting in front of the computer again, recording the data in the notebook on the computer. Hearing this, he raised his jaw slightly, but did not take his eyes off the computer.

Xu Yi watched her concentrating on her work, stopped disturbing her, took her own things, and went out lightly.

He opened the door of the laboratory, and when he went out, he saw a man leaning on the edge of the corridor looking down at his mobile phone.

The man was wearing a black windbreaker with a thin turtleneck sweater of the same color underneath. His hair was messy on his forehead and his lips were bright red.

At first glance, it looks like he has rushed back from other places and hasn't had time to rest.

The other party seemed to be aware of his gaze, and raised his head just in time to meet his gaze. Compared with Qiao Nian's, the degree of misfortune on that face was not much worse.

Ye Fanchuan.

The name of this person came to Xu Yi's mind, he bowed his head in greeting with a blank expression, and left without looking back while twisting his things.

Ye Wangchuan looked at the back of him leaving, he didn't know what he thought of, deep thoughts flashed in his eyes, he seemed a little irritable, but he didn't seem to have any other emotions, he just put his hand in his pocket, and looked at the closed laboratory again. Open the door, quietly continue to lean against the wall and wait for the people inside to finish their work and come out.

Qiao Nian didn't know that the person who sent her a message in the morning to ask if she was still angry was already standing in the corridor outside the laboratory waiting for her in the afternoon.

She recorded the results of the experiment at her own pace, completed the experiment by herself, and recorded the results again.

Chapter 3723 You are angry, I am quite happy

When everything was over, she squinted and saw that the time displayed in the lower right corner of the computer was already half past nine in the evening.

this late...

Qiao Nian rubbed the back of his swollen neck, got up, packed up the computer, and prepared to go back.

She took off her coat, and when she picked up her coat, she didn't forget to turn on her phone to see if there was any news.

As a result, apart from the messages sent by Gu San and Qin Si asking her if she would go back for dinner, there were no other messages on the phone.

Qiao Nian touched the avatar on the top with her fingertips, clicked in, and their dialogue box was still stuck at 9 o'clock in the morning Ye Wangchuan asked her if she was still angry.

She frowned rarely, thought for a while, then temporarily threw the phone back into her pocket, took her own things and opened the door to go out.

The temperature at night is very low.

Many people from the First Research Institute have already gone back.

But the incandescent lamps in the corridor were still on, illuminating the brightly lit outside of the laboratory as if it were daytime.

She has excellent eyesight, and she can almost see the man leaning against the wall at a glance, and she just happens to meet his eyes.

The moment Ye Wangchuan caught her sight, he straightened his legs and walked over, took the bag from her hand naturally, held it in his hand and said: "Waiting for you for too long, the phone ran out of battery, so I didn't send you a message. "

Qiao Nian could tell that the clothes he was wearing should be the coats he hadn't changed since he came from Beijing. They were very thin and outlined the silhouette of his shoulders.

She stood there without moving for a while, but frowned.

Ye Wangchuan smiled, holding her bag in one hand, and naturally stretched out the other hand to hold her hand, interspersed with five fingers, and clasped tightly with hers.

"Sorry, I'm late."

Ye Wangchuan seemed to see her thoughts, feeling a little helpless and impulsive: "I wanted to give you a surprise, but it seems that there is no joy, only surprise."

"How long have you been waiting outside?" Qiao Nian finally spoke, turning her head to look at him.

A pair of clear eyes imprinted his eyebrows and eyes, very beautiful.

Ye Wangchuan saw himself in her eyes, his heart was relieved, and he smiled with his lips curled up. He never thought of being an unknown hero: "Six hours."

Qiao Nian's pupils shrank.

"I came here as soon as I landed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. I thought you would finish at 6 o'clock, so I waited outside... who knew that you didn't come out until now."

Qiao Nian moved her fingers, and she still didn't seem to have much emotion on her face. In fact, the blood flow speeded up significantly: "You can come in and find me."

Ye Wangchuan suddenly lowered his head, breathing close to his breath, his extremely long eyelashes seemed to be sweeping across her face, flickering: "Aren't you still angry with me? I'm here to apologize to you, of course the apology must be sincere."

Qiao Nian could see his flawless skin and that striking face up close, and opened his mouth to refute.

However, at this moment, he suddenly lowered his head and kissed her.

A kiss and breathing entanglement, as if thinking about it for a long time.

It wasn't until Qiao Nian's breathing was disturbed that he left slowly, leaving a little distance: "I miss you."

Just one sentence, across an ocean and a flight distance of more than ten hours.

Qiao Nian's heart skipped a beat, and when his forehead was pressed against his forehead, his breath became warm, and the faint scent of mint lingered on his body.

She heard a chuckle, very light and bewitching.

"Nian Nian, although you are angry, I want to say that I am quite happy. Because you... are actually angry."

"I'm angry, why should I be happy."

Qiao Nian couldn't hold back.

Chapter 3724 The master coaxes his wife

Ye Wangchuan looked at her bewitchingly with narrow eyes, and his forehead and hair pressed together: "What do you think?"

Qiao Nian met his gaze, and as if his heart was burned, he pushed him away without a trace: "Stand up and talk."

"Huh."

Ye Wangchuan let out a low laugh, but stood up in an obedient and casual manner, with a lazy look: "Nian Nian, I'm back."

Bang bang bang.

Qiao Nian's heart was brushed by an invisible feather again, it was very soft and soothing, and it was impossible to ignore its presence.

She heard her heart beating vigorously again and again, and the slight discomfort before disappeared.

Qiao Nian was still being held by someone with his left hand. With his fingers clenched tightly, he could feel the warmth from the skin, all the way to his heart.

"Why did you come back suddenly?"

"Not suddenly."

Ye Wangchuan paused, and looked at her with those seductive deep eyes: "My girlfriend is angry, so I came back early."

He also purposely squeezed the hand he was holding, gently squeezed the girl's slender fingers, raised his eyes lazily, and said in an intoxicating voice, "Is Nian Nian still angry?"

Qiao Nian felt unspeakably agitated when he pinched the bone of his little finger: "I'm not angry. I'm just a little annoyed."

She wasn't going to get angry because of Hua Ci, or suspect that he had an affair with Hua Ci.

She just felt that Hua Ci's previous actions were a bit annoying.

Ye Wangchuan observed her expression, saw that what Qiao Nian said was true and did not misunderstand him, so he loosened his eyebrows and said with a smile: "I was wrong."

Qiao Nianping glanced at him, what is he doing.

He met that look again and smiled, very arrogant and tired: "I admit my mistake."

Qiao Nian pursed her lower lip, and put an arm on her shoulder to embrace her. The man apologized to her kindly, as if he was coaxing: "Because I admit my mistake with a good attitude, this is the first time Offender. Master Qiao has a lot, forgive me once? Don't be angry anymore...huh?"

The last slightly rising coda is like a small hook with a dull tone, like the wind blowing across the lake and blowing some ripples.

Qiao Nian raised her hand to cover her eyes, completely convinced: "I'm not angry."

After she finished speaking, she felt that it was not in line with her work style to talk with him in the laboratory corridor for so long because of Hua Ci.

She removed the hand that was in front of her eyes, adjusted her emotions and said seriously: "At least I didn't misunderstand your relationship, and I didn't think you came here on purpose. Since this is the case..."

Since this is the case, she actually has no reason to be angry.

Ye Fanchuan didn't have much to do with this incident from the beginning to the end, but all her subsequent reactions contained the intention of venting anger.

It's not in her character.

Qiao Nian frowned, a little bored.

Ye Wangchuan originally pursed his lips and wanted to say, 'Then why didn't you reply to my message later', but touched the girl's tired side face. He put the words behind his head, and his voice changed to: "What's for dinner?"

Qiao Nian turned his head: "Huh?"

Ye Wangchuan stepped forward and held her hand, walking side by side very naturally: "Let's go, take you to eat hot pot."

**

The next day.

Qiao Nian got up in the morning and received an apology text from Hua Ci.

The text message was very long, and it was probably an apology for what I said before and my attitude, and I hope she doesn't care about it.

In addition, she said that she would leave Independent Island today, and before leaving, she wanted to ask Qiao Nian if she had time to come out for a meal. She wanted to apologize in person, and hoped that Qiao Nian would appreciate it.

Chapter 3725 Do you want to learn to invest with Jinan?

Qiao Nian looked at the strange number, lowered her eyes, and finally did not blacklist Huaci's number, and of course she did not return to Huaci.

Zhong Liulu knew her better.

She seldom argues with girls, but what Hua Ci said the day before yesterday was too much, especially the words that Hua Ci belittled domestic girls. Peace, it's best to be a stranger like this.

Qiao Nian put the phone in his pocket, and went downstairs with one hand.

Downstairs, Qin Si was talking to Ye Wangchuan.

Qiao Nian came down the stairs, and probably heard them chatting about Beijing.

She didn't pay attention, and walked lazily to the refrigerator and opened the door, preparing to take a bottle of mineral water out of it.

Ye Fanchuan is not at home these days, she basically wakes up with a bottle of ice water to refresh herself, and she does so subconsciously.

However, when she took the water and returned to the living room, she stretched out a hand and snatched the mineral water in her hand, and naturally stuffed a carton of warm milk for her.

"You just got up and drink something hot, so as not to upset your stomach."

Ye Wangchuan's voice was low and slow.

While talking to her, he looked up at Qin Si again like a normal person, and said lazily and casually: "There is an old man over there, so I don't need to worry about it. But I ran into your mother before I came back, and she stopped me to chat. After a few words, I asked when you will go back."

"Why did you meet her again?" Qin Si looked at him with the eyes of Fei Chief, and then curled his lips and said unhappily: "What am I doing when I go back? Why don't I play games all day long? It's the same everywhere. I just do it." I don't understand why they insist on me going back?"

"You really don't know?" Ye Fanchuan glanced at him indifferently, while taking the milk box from Qiao Nian, took off the straw and inserted it for the girl before giving it to her.

Qin Si looked at their reconciliation as before, like a dog who was bumped by the side of the road in the early morning and then envious of them when he was heartbroken.

"It is impossible for me to accept their arrangement."

Ye Wangchuan said noncommittally, as if he was not interested: "It's up to you."

Qiao Nian bit the straw in her mouth, walked to the sofa impatiently and sat down, and glanced at the depressed person vaguely.

"What major did you study in university?" I asked casually, as if I just suddenly remembered to ask.

Qin Si froze for a moment: "Finance."

"Yes." Qiao Nian nodded.

He scratched his head: "Sister Qiao, why are you asking me this?"

Qiao Nian let go of the straw he was biting into his mouth, lowered his hands, looked at him with dark eyes, and asked unhurriedly, "Are you interested in learning from Ji Nan?"

Ji Nan is known as Buffett in the stock market. He is very famous in Independent Island and even other places. He can be regarded as a top financial leader.

Speaking out is definitely a bullish figure in the financial circle.

It's just that what the Ji family wants is not his financial achievements, but his achievements in black powder.

In general, Ji Nan is still very good at the stock market, which can be seen from the fact that Qiao Nian met him and became friends.

"If you want to learn from him, I'll go and tell him and let him take you with me." Qiao Nian said it very easily, like chatting among friends: "If you don't want to learn, forget it."

Qin Si hasn't spoken yet.

She tilted her head and seemed to remember something: "By the way, Guan Yan is very rich."

Qin Si: "..."

"Except for me, most of Hongmeng's business is managed by her. She also invested in many companies and projects, which is why she travels around the world."

Chapter 3726 The slap in the face came too fast like a tornado

Qiao Nian leaned her elbow on the armrest, chatting casually with Qin Si: "Every time she goes out, she doesn't go out to play, but to make money."

"She likes to make money?"

"No." Qiao Nian thought about it, and found an accurate description: "She enjoys the process of making money... If you only look at money, she will never worry about spending it in her life."

Qin Si was born with a golden spoon in his mouth. He had never been short of money, and he didn't think money was very important. But at the moment Qiao Nian stared at him, he suddenly had the illusion of being poor and naked.

He is very clear about how much money Qiao Nian has. It can be said that apart from Mr. Wang, it is not for nothing that this big boss has mountains of gold and silver behind him.

Even Qiao Nian said that Guan Yan is rich—how much money does Guan Yan have?

Qin Si's temples throbbed fiercely, and he said cruelly, "I'll learn."

Ye Wangchuan went to bring breakfast for the girl and came over again. Hearing this, he raised his eyelids and smiled deeply: "Didn't you say that you only want to eat, drink and have fun in this life, and don't plan to work hard, or I'm sorry for your birth?"

"Hey, the slap in the face is too fast like a tornado." Qin Si had a thick skin and admitted it very straightforwardly: "Before I said this, I didn't know that reincarnation only cares about eating and not falling in love. Master Wang, if you don't Tiantian and sister Qiao abused the dog in front of me, and I wouldn't think about standing up."

He changed his attitude in a blink of an eye, looked at Qiao seriously and said, "Sister Qiao, I'm sorry."

"Yes." Qiao Nian responded.

"Thank you." Qin Si looked at her again and said.

He's not stupid, I can see that Qiao Nian suddenly mentioned Ji Nan to him, it's helping him, and helping him get closer to Guan Yan.

In fact, he is not a second-generation ancestor who only knows how to eat, drink and have fun. He also has invested a lot in companies and emerging projects in Beijing.

It's just that he believed in the life principle of carpe diem in time, and he didn't want to spend too much time on making money and starting a career.

Just like he said.

He is so good at reincarnation, isn't it because God persuaded him to lie down and live a life, since he can have everything when he is lying down, why should he work hard?

But now he has someone he wants to have, and he has to change himself to get close to that person.

"I've kept this favor in mind." Qin Si hammered his chest with his hands, his eyes shone with fiery light, very passionate and serious.

Qiao Nian was already sending a message to tell Ji Nan about this matter, he glanced at his face out of the corner of his eye, raised his hand and took a photo of him, then pulled down the address book and sent it to Guan Yan.

Guan Yan first responded with a series of questions: [? ? ? ]

After a while, he called Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian saw the pulsating incoming call on the screen, got up and went outside to answer the call.

M continent.

The old man who led the disturbance from the Leonard family came to the hospital and entered Zhai Xicheng's ward for half an hour to talk in secret.

Half an hour later, the old man left the ward with a livid face and swung his sleeves. Before he left, he still warned him: "This is the last time. If you try to trick my family in the future, I will never let you go!"

Zhai Xicheng has been living in the hospital under Nie Qingru's arrangement in order to avoid the Leonard family's entanglement these two days.

He looked haggard and haggard lying on the hospital bed, but he had a frightening viper-like feeling: "Old Jin walks slowly."

Zhai Xicheng watched his leaving back, put away the smile in his eyes, returned to his cold and gloomy essence, and rang the bedside bell to let the nurse come in to change the dressing.

The young female nurse who was in charge of taking care of him kept peeking at his face while changing his dressing, her earlobes were thin and red.

Chapter 3727 You talk to me like this, does your aunt know?

"Sir, it will hurt a little, please bear with it."

The nurse's voice is gentle.

Zhai Xicheng didn't show any emotion on his face, as if he wasn't the one with the injury, and he didn't even give the female nurse a look.

The nurse quickly changed the medicine for him and re-banded the wound. Seeing that he ignored him the whole time, his face was a little pale, but he was very discerning and didn't speak anymore. He put away the medicine in the tray lightly, and took it quietly. Things went out.

He was the only one left in the ward in a blink of an eye.

Zhai Xicheng leaned against the head of the bed, took out his phone from under the pillow, turned it on, and opened a search engine to check the news.

After the disappearance of the account book happened, he quickly arranged for someone to withdraw the report letter, and found a relationship to settle the people in the procuratorate.

On the other side, he seized the family secret of the old man who had the most say in the Leonard family, and negotiated with the other party on the condition.

Although the other party was so angry that he wanted to kill him, it was obviously the result he wanted.

Zhai Xicheng wasn't worried about how the other party would stop the Leonard family from biting him, he wanted to know what Qiao Nian was doing now.

He thought of this, exited from the search engine, and casually clicked on the photo album with his fingertips.

There are only three photos in his album.

One of the photos has a bright X drawn on it.

The person above is Ji Qing.

Zhai Xicheng clicked on one of the remaining two photos, and looked down at the girl's unruly face.

Looks very beautiful.

"It's a pity that it's Ji's family." Zhai Xicheng's voice was extremely low, and the corners of his mouth were raised in joy. He rubbed his fingertips against the girl's face in the photo, then raised his hand in a pistol pose and half-squinted his eyes to aim at the girl's forehead in the photo. , made a shooting motion: "Bang!"

As if he had really shot Qiao Nian, he blew on the 'gun's muzzle', with a crazy light in his eyes.

Just at this moment, there was a knock on the door.

"Young Master Zhai."

Zhai Xicheng looked back and saw the shadow standing at the door at some point, probably seeing his actions just now, raised his hand and knocked on the door, but didn't go straight in.

"Come in." Zhai Xicheng withdrew from the photo album and put away his phone. There were not many emotional fluctuations on his face, and he was completely different from the cheerfulness in front of Nie Qingru.

Shadow walked in and told him the discharge time.

Zhai Xicheng responded lightly: "Understood."

Shadow just came to inform him out of an order that he should leave when things were done, but before he left, he stopped and glanced sideways at the person lying on the hospital bed.

"I don't know what you want to do, but you better remember not to betray her trust in you."

Zhai Xicheng heard him warn him, but didn't raise his head, and said unhurriedly: "You talk to me like that, does your aunt know?"

Shadow's complexion immediately changed, and he pursed his lips into a line.

Zhai Xicheng raised his eyes and glanced at his stiff back, and sneered, as if reading a joke: "Don't worry, I will not disappoint my aunt's trust!"

Shadow heard him bite the word 'trust' heavily, and felt unhappy, but he also knew how much Nie Qingru defended Zhai Xicheng, so he didn't want to confront him head-on, so he simply lifted his leg and left.

Zhai Xicheng looked at his leaving back, gave another cold 'chi', picked up his phone, entered a number he knew by heart, and sent a text message.

So many days.

He should also greet Qiao Nian, lest people forget him.

Chapter 3728 No matter how important you are, you are not as important as my family

Ten minutes later, Independent Continent.

Qiao Nian received a spam message from an unfamiliar number.

She lowered her eyelashes and glanced at the screen, swipe the text message with her white fingertips and directly drag and delete a line, even giving the other party stingy eyes.

the next day.

Hua Ci greeted the medical team, stayed alone, sent off his companions in the hotel and called Ye Lan.

This time she opened the video.

The suite she lives in has a projector.

Her mobile phone is connected to bluetooth, Ye Lan's face is projected on the screen, and the background should be in the company.

"Hua Ci, what's wrong?"

Ye Lan hadn't put down the file yet, so she took time out to look at her, as if wondering: "Didn't you come back today? Why are you still in the hotel?"

"Aunt Ye." Hua Ci was a little embarrassed: "I sent a message to Qiao Nian to ask her out for dinner to apologize, but she hasn't replied to me yet. So I..."

So instead of leaving with her colleagues, she changed the ticket for two days and planned to stay here for another two days.

Ye Lan heard her subtext, and put down the folder: "Do you want to invite Niannian to dinner? Why?"

"...after that I ran into her again and got into a bit of a confrontation with her. She said something to me, and I went back and thought about it and thought I said something wrong."

Hua Ci hesitated and didn't want to explain clearly to Ye Lan, so he took a deep breath and looked up at her expectantly: "Aunt Ye, can you ask her out for me?"

Ye Lan hasn't answered yet.

She quickly emphasized: "I really want to apologize to her."

Ye Lan was silent for two seconds, staring at her with a pair of sharp and capable eyes: "I promised Mommy to take care of you."

Hua Ci breathed a sigh of relief: "I know Aunt Ye, you have taken care of me all these years. Without you, I would not have achieved what I am now. I am very grateful to you."

"That was not what I meant."

Hua Ci looked at her suspiciously: "Aunt Ye, you mean?"

Ye Lan didn't want to make things too harsh: "I promised your mother to take care of you, but only to take care of you. I'm a good friend with your mother, but I don't have much friendship with you. In other words, even if your mother is still alive, She will not be more important than my family. I told you before that Nian Nian is my family and she will marry Wang Chuan in the future. You still go to provoke her... I can't understand your approach."

"Aunt Ye." Hua Ci was somewhat embarrassed.

Ye Lan stopped talking: "You don't need to explain so much to me, I know her character well. She is not the kind of character who will easily argue with you. Since you said that she had a conflict with you, explain what you said at the time It's definitely not an ordinary excessive, she will only talk to you if you step on her bottom line."

Hua Ci didn't expect that Ye Lanlian would have a conflict with them, and instead of asking anything, he would scold her face and face, and he was extremely disappointed in her inside and out.

She was not only embarrassed, but also a little flustered: "Aunt Ye..."

Ye Lan saw that her fair face was turning red and then pale, and she didn't make things too difficult for her in the face of her deceased friend, so she shut up and said, "Wu Chuan has gone back."

"You said..." Huaci's eyes lit up, and he curled up his fingers subconsciously.

Ye Lan saw her excitement, and said coldly: "He is in Independent Island, I can't call Niannian, or he will be angry if he finds out. You are an adult, you can solve things by yourself, and if you can't solve it, you can solve it yourself." Take responsibility. I still have a meeting here, so I won't tell you."

Chapter 3729 Delusion, are you not answering the phone?

Hua Ci opened his mouth.

Ye Lan: "Hang up first."

In the hotel suite, only the sound of 'beep' was heard, the figure on the screen projector disappeared into the light, and Ye Lan had already hung up.

Hua Ci bit her lip, a burst of embarrassment welled up in her heart, she bent down to pick up her phone and found out the phone number in the address book, and called after a moment of hesitation.

"beep..."

A call is made immediately.

Huaci's heartbeat accelerated, and there was a thud thump.

The blood flow in her whole body accelerated, focusing on the heart, every second was infinitely magnified, and time seemed to be frozen in this second.

"Beep..."

The phone rang a dozen times and no one answered.

Huaci went from being excited at the beginning to being a little nervous and flustered later. Didn't he have his mobile phone with him?

Another two seconds passed.

There is no answer over there and the phone hangs up automatically.

Hua Ci heard a mechanical female voice from the mobile phone: "Sorry, the number you dialed was not answered, please try again later."

Huaci put the phone away, hesitated for a while and dialed the number again.

Independence Island villa area.

Inside a European-style white villa.

Mo Dong is reporting to Ye Wangchuan the developments of the major forces in Independence Continent, including the movements of the major docks in the past few days when he is absent.

"...The docks of Ji's family are much quieter. Those people are very afraid of Ms. Qiao. Miss Qiao spent a day in Independent Island, and they didn't mess around. They obeyed Ji Shao's arrangement honestly, so Ji's family has been doing well recently. peaceful."

"...The chamber of commerce alliance is in chaos when you are not here. Simon's sudden resignation has caused chaos within them. Several projects have been eaten away by other forces, and their strength is not as good as before. They are also divided into two factions, and one faction still obeys Simon. The deployment before resignation is to keep a low profile. The other faction is very close to the Xie family, and seems to want to show affection to Ms. Qiao by building a relationship with the Xie family. The Xie family will also pretend to be stupid. Take the in-law relationship of the Ji family as an example, using the relationship between Xie Yun and Ms. Qiao to wantonly cheat benefits from the Chamber of Commerce Alliance."

Simon's sudden resignation this time led to the Chamber of Commerce Alliance without a leader.

Some people knew the inside story, and learned that the chairman was because Qiao Nian had visited their headquarters, and was so scared that he left the meeting that day.

They were afraid that Qiao Nian would retaliate against the Chamber of Commerce Alliance, so they went to the doctor in a hurry, and found Mrs. Xie after a detour.

Old lady Xie is used to using false appearances to deceive people, and this time she also took advantage of the benefits from the Chamber of Commerce Alliance.

But Xie Yun had already broken up with her family, and Ji Nan didn't buy into grandma's account... In fact, the old lady Xie took a lot of benefits from the Chamber of Commerce Alliance, but she couldn't contact Qiao Nian at all.

The members of the Chamber of Commerce Alliance were already dissatisfied with her way of taking benefits and not doing anything, and began to faintly seek signs of trouble with her.

"...If the two sides start to quarrel, Mrs. Xie's latest wave might end up in trouble, and the loss outweighs the gain."

While talking, Mo Dong noticed that his master's cell phone was vibrating all the time, so he kept looking at the coffee table.

Seeing that Ye Wangchuan had no intention of answering the phone, Mo Dong stopped and couldn't help reminding: "Master Wang, aren't you going to answer the phone?"

Ye Wangchuan leaned slightly under his gaze, picked up the phone on the table, hung up the phone smoothly, and pulled the number into the blacklist.

Then he put the phone on the sofa again, got up and asked Mo Dong: "What time is it?"

Mo Dong looked at the time on the wall: "11:30."

Chapter 3730 Sister Nian knows about this

Ye Wangchuan picked up the jacket on the armrest: "Let's go, go to the First Research Institute to deliver meals."

Mo Dong: "..."

Qiao Nian has been so busy recently that she often forgets to eat lunch.

Ever since Ye Fanchuan came back from Beijing and discovered that she sometimes forgot the meal time, he always showed up at the research institute on time when it was time to eat.

Every time, we also bring home-made dishes from the sea.

He not only brought Qiao Nian, but also brought food for Feng Yu and Shi Fu respectively, and sometimes even prepared Zhou Zhou's portion.

In this way, no one will gossip when he enters and exits the gate of the First Research Institute every day.

After all, up to the dean, vice dean, down to group leader Zhou... everyone took advantage of others, what happened when they came to deliver meals to their girlfriends.

Ye Fanchuan relies on this to come and go freely in the research institute every day.

"Sorry, the number you dialed is currently active."

"Sorry, the number you dialed is currently active."

...

The first time Huaci heard this mechanical female voice, he really thought that Ye Wangchuan was calling someone.

But she tried seven or eight times in a row, and when the mechanical female voice was always on the other end of the phone, Hua Ci finally understood the fact that she was being blackmailed.

—Ye Fanchuan dragged her into the dark!

Hua Ci felt unbelievable at first, so he called Ye Lan again unwillingly, and told Ye Lan about this implicitly.

Ye Lan was silent for a moment and did not comfort her, nor did she say that she would tell Ye Wangchuan to add her back for her, but told her that since she was delayed, forget it.

Hua Ci realized what she had missed.

She seems to be rejected by the entire Ye family!

She has been abroad these years, and the care and preferential treatment Ye Lan gave her has always given her the illusion that she is half of Ye's family.

Because of such a small matter, she was exiled from the circle, and Huaci couldn't accept the sense of gap in the middle.

She always believed that the problem was Qiao Nian.

Although she also felt that it was unlikely that Qiao Nian was doing something behind the scenes, she still refunded her ticket and went to the hospital to stay with Zhong Liuliu several times.

She is not familiar with Zhong Liuliu, or even known.

She knew Zhong Liuliu, but Zhongliu only met her once at the dinner that night.

Hua Ci just had no choice. Apart from Zhong Liuliu, she couldn't think of anyone who could get in touch with Qiao Nian.

Besides meeting her once at first, and then refusing to help after hearing her intentions, Zhong Zhongliu never saw her again.

But Hua Ci persevered in guarding outside the hospital, even if the bodyguards outside did not let her in, she would not leave, stubbornly insisting on looking for Zhong Liuliu.

Qiao Nian only learned about Hua Ci's squatting outside the hospital from Zhongliu a week later. After she figured out what she wanted to do, she came out of the room very agitatedly and knocked on the door of the opposite room.

"Knock knock."

"Come in."

The man's voice was steamy, slightly hoarse and deep.

Qiao Nian opened the door and went in, and saw Ye Fanchuan just came out of the bathroom. He seemed to have just taken a shower. His short jet-black hair was still dripping, his forehead was disheveled, and his eyes were very deep and beautiful. Behind a layer of mist, there seemed to be a gray The aurora under the original night is shining brightly.

Ye Wangchuan wears a gray-silver bathrobe loosely tied on his body. The silk has a strong drape.

He wiped his hair with a towel in his hand, looked at the girl who came in from outside, and casually pointed to the single sofa: "Sit."
